LUKE NUKE: Brewers no. 11-rated prospect Luke Adams hit his 10th home run of the season and eighth in the month of June with a grand slam in the bottom of the third inning. Adams becomes the third Nashville player to record multiple grand slams this season, joining Eddys Leonard and Akil Baddoo. Adams collected his first Triple-A hit with a grand slam on April 3 vs. Charlotte with Friday night being his fifth career slam. His eight home runs this month are the most for a Nashville player since Brewer Hicklen also hit eight in May of 2024. Adams is hitting .277 (18-for-65) with 12 XBH and 19 RBI in 19 games played in June. Friday night was his second 5-RBI night in his last five games played after setting his career-high last Sunday in Memphis with his three home run performance.

LU THREES LARA: Brewers no. 5-rated prospect Luis Lara finished Friday night 3-for-5 with a RBI and two runs scored. It marked his 12th 3+ hit game this season as the 21-year-old is hitting .328 (86-for-262) with 18 XBH and 34 RBI. Lara is hitting .563 (9-for-16) for the series against the Stripers. Five of his 12 total 3+ hit games this season have come against Gwinnett as he is hitting .464 (26-for-56) in 15 games versus the Stripers this year.

STARTING NINE: All nine Nashville starters recorded a hit for just the second time this season. It also happened on April 10 in Gwinnett when the Sounds also recorded 12 hits in a loss to the Stripers. Luis Lara and Luke Adams provided multi-hit games on Friday night. Lara earned his 22nd multi-hit game of the season while Adams chipped in with his seventh. Six of the nine Nashville starters from Friday night were also in the lineup during the April 10th game.

HOMER HAPPY: With another two home runs on Friday night, the Sounds are up to 32 home runs already in the month of June with four games remaining. The Sounds hadn't hit more than 23 in each of the first two full months of the season. Dating back to 2005, this is the 26th time the Sounds have recorded 32+ home runs in a single month. The team clubbed 47 in August of 2019 to set the mark for the most home runs hit during in any month over the span.

FUN TIL IT WASN'T: Nashville jumped out to a 10-2 lead after plating eight runs in the bottom of the third on Friday night. The eight-run frame is tied for the most runs the Sounds have pushed across in any single inning this year. They also scored eight in the first inning against Iowa on May 16. Each of the first eight Nashville batters reached base during the big inning. Six of the 12 total hits for the game came during the bottom of the third before being held to just four hits over the final six innings.

Gwinnett scored 11 unanswered runs as Nashville doubled their previous largest blown lead of the season. Nashville hadn't blown more than a four-run lead in any game since surrendering six unanswered runs on Opening Night in Norfolk on March 27 when the Tides scored six in the bottom of the seventh before the game was called due to rain.

Friday night was the first loss of the season when the Sounds entered the ninth inning with a lead, beginning the game with a perfect 35-0 on the season. The eight-run blown lead in a loss in the biggest since May 11, 2014, at Iowa when the Sounds were up 8-0 entering the bottom of the second inning. The Sounds went on to lose that game 12-11 after allowing eight unanswered beginning in the sixth inning.

BROCKET MAN: Brewers no. 19-rated prospect Brock Wilken recorded his sixth home run of the season and third in his last six games with a solo blast in the bottom of the third inning. After hitting just two home runs in his first 51 games this season through the end of May, Wilken has produced four in 15 games in the month of June alone. His 19 XBH this season ranks fourth on the club behind Eddys Leonard (25), Jefferson Quero (22), and Jett Williams (21). 48% of his hits on the season have been for extra bases.
