Hello and welcome to C's baseball.

On behalf of our entire organization, first off let me say thank you for allowing us into your wonderful community for the 2021 season. As much as we would love to be in front of our fans in Vancouver, BC, I feel we could not have picked a more wonderful community to call home for a short time.

I owe a huge thank you to Mike and Laura McMurray, KL Wombacher and the entire Hops organization. They are long time friends and were the first to extend the hand of friendship as we were facing border closures that put our entire 2021 season in danger. Another thank you to Scott Brucker from the City of Hillsboro for his assistance in making our relocation as easy as possible and to the entire staff at Ron Tonkin Field for all your hard work on our behalf, so thank you.

As we kick off our 2021 "Home" season, we are happy to have a place to play but I want to take a moment to thank all our faithful and diehard fans in Vancouver and throughout British Columbia and all of Canada. We miss you all and wish you could join us in Hillsboro, however, we will be back at the Nat as soon as possible.

We look forward to meeting you at Ron Tonkin Field this season and look forward to a great 2021 and Thank You once again for your hospitality.

Let's go C's!

DONNIE MURPHY, MANAGER

You played in Vancouver as a member of the visiting team when you were in the minors. Do you have any memories of Nat Bailey Stadium or the city itself?

I remember the stadium being packed every night. The atmosphere was really great, and the city in general is pretty awesome. That's what you heard from all the guys who had been there before. They'd talk about how cool the city was and, you know, how incredible the energy was everywhere. That's something that's going to be truly missed this season.

This season is your first as a manager. How would you describe your managerial style?

Most importantly, we are going to be a very aggressive team. That's the main thing I tried to impart to these guys in Spring Training, and especially on the bases. We're also going to really pound on the fundamentals. And so, as I said, just being aggressive, being competitive and pushing for perfect execution while having fun. Fundamentally, I think that's my style. When I was a player I considered myself a grinder, and that's going to carry over to how I manage as well.

Major league camp broke before the Minor League guys showed up. What was it like at Spring Training this year?

It was different. The new facility in Dunedin is incredible, but it felt a little bit like you were stuck with all the protocols and safety measures in place. The Blue Jays made it really easy for us to do our jobs, all things considered. There's plenty of space to have meetings, do work, the weight room is gigantic. We got a lot done in a short amount of time and I'm really proud of the guys for how they put in the work while dealing with all the restrictions. There was so much excitement; everybody is just excited to be back to baseball and I think it really makes you appreciate what we had before and what we missed last year. Add on top of that the fact that the big league club is doing well and on the upswing, so everyone in the Minors wants to work even harder so they can get up and contribute. It's a really cool vibe going on in the entire organization right now.

All of the Canadians players this year missed out on a full season of baseball last year. What's it been like having the guys come back after an entire year without competitive baseball?

The biggest thing I noticed right away is that guys took care of business while they were at home and really used the downtime to their advantage. They did all the things they needed to do to address the things they needed to get better at. That's the one thing I noticed right away. We weren't really sure what to expect, but it was like "Dang, you guys really got after it on your own last year." I think that's why we are where we are and guys are ready to get after it, because they worked on their craft for so long. Now they want to show all their hard work, and they just want to play. It's been really cool to see.

Murphy with the Rangers in 2014

Murphy with the Marlins in 2011

What can Canadians fans expect from the new classification as an Advanced-A team?

The fans and the city are going to love it. It's just better baseball, and the excitement of being two levels higher is really going to show on the field. In Short-Season, everyone was fresh out of the draft and hadn't been as developed as they are at this level. But even though it's a higher level of baseball there is still a lot of learning to do.

Right now we can't play at Nat Bailey Stadium and celebrate baseball's return with the city and the community. What would you say to the C's fans back home?

We are going to represent the city of Vancouver to the best of our ability and, best case scenario, try and get back there in September. We definitely miss the fans, miss the city, miss the ballpark, but no matter where we are playing we're going to go out there every day and get after it. Their support - especially from afar this season - means so much to our guys.
