SOUTH BEND CUBS (0-0) vs. QUAD CITIES RIVER BANDITS (0-0)

Friday, April 5, 2024 - 6:30pm - Modern Woodmen Park - Davenport, Iowa - Game 1 of 132

LHP Drew Gray (0-0, 0.00) vs. RHP Ben Kudrna (0-0, 0.00)

THE BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN: Tonight begins the 101st year of professional baseball in Davenport and Quad Cities' 28th with the "River Bandits" moniker.

IT'S A TRADITION: Tonight's game against the Cubs makes the River Bandits fourth-straight Opening Night matchup against South Bend and their second-straight at Modern Woodmen Park ... the Bandits are 1-2 in the previous three meetings, with their last win coming in 2022 (4-3, 10 innings).

OPENING NIGHT TREND: 5-5 over their last 10 Opening Day/Night matchups, the River Bandits have been alternating wins and losses in their season openers since 2012 ... Quad Cities has not lost consecutive Opening Night games since 2011-2012 however, Opening Night 2011 wasn't played until the Bandits had already played two games, since that year's festivities were postponed due to rain and made up as part of a doubleheader two days later.

THEY HAD THEIR NUMBER: Quad Cities is 29-24 against South Bend since the River Bandits became a Royals affiliate in 2021 however, the Cubs dominated the season series in 2023, beating the Bandits in 10 out of 12 games, including a 26-7 drumming on September 6--the most runs Quad Cities has allowed in a game since at least 2005.

HOW IT'S MADE: 18 members of the River Bandits roster return to Davenport after having spent some time with Quad Cities previously in their career ... 18 are former Royals draft picks, 5 were signed as undrafted free agents, 3 were signed as international free agents, and 3 were acquired by Kansas City via trade.

WE KNOW RONEL: Four days ago, on April Fools Day, former River Bandit Ronel Blanco tossed the first no-hitter of the 2024 Major League season, blanking the Blue Jays in a 10-0 Astros win ... the right-hander appeared in 22 games (11 starts) for the Bandits in 2017, posting a 3.30 ERA, to help lead Quad Cities to its 11th league title and its last as an Astros affiliate.

A BANDIT IN THE HALL: During the offseason, former River Bandit Joe Mauer became just the third catcher in baseball history to become a first-ballot Hall of Famer and was inducted alongside Adrian Beltre and Todd Helton as part of the Class of 2024 ... prior to a 15-year Major League career with Minnesota (which included 6 All-Star selections, 5 gold gloves, 5 Silver Slugger Awards, and 3 batting titles) the 2009 American League MVP spent four seasons in the minor leagues after being selected by the Twins first overall in the 2001 Draft ... with the River Bandits in 2002--his age 19 season--Mauer batted .302 with 23 doubles, 62 RBIs, and a team-high 61 walks, while also throwing out 42% of baserunners who attempted to steal with him behind the plate.

MANAGER BROOKS CONRAD

Brooks Conrad manages the River Bandits for the third-consecutive season, his eighth (seventh managerial) in the Royals organization, after managing the Columbia Firefiles in their first year as a Royals affiliate in 2021. The 44-year-old led the Lexington Legends to a South Atlantic League Title and was honored with the Dick Howser Award, which is given annually to one Royals player development employee for outstanding contributions to the organization. Conrad was slated to lead Lexington again in 2020 before the MiLB season was canceled. He joined the Royals organization as First Base Coach at Burlington in 2017, before serving as Manager there in 2018.

Brooks Conrad leads the River Bandits for the third consecutive season after managing the Columbia Fireflies in their first season as a Royals affiliate in 2021. He managed the Royals' Lexington affiliate to a South Atlantic League title in 2019. Following the 2019 season, he was honored with the Dick Howser Award, which is given annually to one player development employee for outstanding contributions to the organization. Conrad was slated to lead Lexington again in 2020 before the season was canceled. He joined the Royals organization as first base coach at Burlington in 2017, before serving as manager there in 2018. His coaching career follows a playing career in which he spent parts of six seasons in the Majors with Oakland (2008), Atlanta (2009-11), Milwaukee (2012), Tampa Bay (2012), and San Diego (2014). He was selected in the 8th round of the 2001 Draft by Houston, where he played seven seasons in the minors before making his Major League debut with Oakland. The infielder also played a season (2013) in Japan for the Hanshin Tigers and played for the Mets Triple-A affiliate in 2015. Conrad and his wife, Jessie, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with four children: Jax, Reese, Tate and Britt.
