The 2025 season is nearly here and the Hudson Valley Renegades will be back on the field soon for their fifth season as the High-A affiliate of the New York Yankees. The 2024 season was a successful one both on and off the field for the team, with 19 Renegades alumni making their MLB debuts -- the most in a season in franchise history -- and former player Stephen Vogt being named the 2024 American League Manager of the Year with the Cleveland Guardians. The team captured the South Atlantic League North Division Championship and advanced to the SAL Championship Series for the second straight year, threw two no-hitters, and took part in an unprecedented international outreach program with the Bhutan Baseball & Softball Association.

The season will begin at Heritage Financial Park on Friday, April 4 with a three-game homestand against the Jersey Shore BlueClaws. The upcoming season is the fourth time that the Renegades will play a full 132-game schedule in the South Atlantic League.

Hudson Valley will once again play the majority of their schedule within the SAL North Division. The Renegades will face Aberdeen, Brooklyn, Greensboro, Jersey Shore and Wilmington within the division, comprising 102 of the 132 games on the schedule. In addition, the Renegades will host the Asheville Tourists for the second straight year, the Greenville Drive for the first time since 2022, and the Rome Emperors for the fourth straight season, and travel to Asheville for the first time and Winston-Salem for the first time since 2022.
