TODAY'S GAME: The Flying Squirrels play the third of a six-game road series against the Harrisburg Senators, Double-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals. The two teams played in Harrisburg's first home series at FNB Field from April 9-13, with Richmond taking two-of-six in the series. The Flying Squirrels have been outscored 28-0 in the series. They are trying to avoid being shut out in three straight games for the third time in franchise history. They were also shut out three times in four games during that stretch. The last time the Flying Squirrels were shut out in three straight games was August 25-27, 2018, with the first two at Altoona, including the second game of a doubleheader to start the streak, and the opener of a series against Reading.

Their 8-21 start is the worst in franchise history. The 2015 Flying Squirrels started 3-2 before losing a franchise-record 15 consecutive games, falling to 3-17.
