

Calfee Park and the Pulaski River Turtles are entering the 2023 season with momentum following a pair of top-two finishes in the Appalachian League East Division. In its inaugural season in 2021, the Pulaski River Turtles captured the East Division Championship and came within two outs of earning their first Appalachian League title since 2013. The team followed up its 2021 performance with a strong second-place showing in the division last season.

Calfee Park welcomed 40,197 fans to Motor Mile field in 2022. Since 2015, nearly 500,000 fans have attended Calfee Park games.

Calfee Park offers a multitude of advertising and sponsorship options, and we can tailor any package with customized elements aimed at maximizing your investment. For inquiries about partnership opportunities, please contact the Calfee Park Front Office staff at (540) 980-1070.
