Employee Resource Groups

Asian Pacific Alliance

Asian Pacific Alliance (APA) provides an inclusive space to advocate for the diverse needs of our Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander employees. APA collectively celebrates the vibrant diversity of our AANHPI culture and we believe that every voice, every story and every background matter. We are steadfast in breaking down barriers, strengthening our community, and uplifting one another.

Leadership: Andrew Tolentino, Bonnie Siu, Vince Limtiaco, Lan Huynh Lee

Black Excellence

Black Excellence, the professional network of Black employees of the San Francisco Giants, is dedicated to building equity and inclusiveness to boost the trajectory of diversity within the Giants organization. Leveraging our collective expertise, we work to build a stronger work culture and more successful team for the future.

Leadership: Herb Canada, Jayveon Harris, Chudi Enweze, William Carter, Roscoe Mapps

Corazón Gigante

Corazón Gigante is the Latin/Hispanic employee community of the San Francisco Giants. We are committed to enriching the internal Giants Familia by way of education, community involvement and collaboration, by fostering an inclusive environment, and by celebrating our rich cultura with our entire organization.

Leadership: Antonia Lopez, Vivian Padilla, Rachel Badillo, Jose Martín

Families with Special Needs

The Families with Special Needs ERG strives to create a community among current and prospective parents (or families, friends and acquaintances) of people with special needs. We come together for community, to learn from one another, share resources, create connections and host inclusive programming tailored to the needs of our members and partners.

Leadership: Rebecca Miles, Joey Nevin

Giants Proud

Giants Proud provides an inclusive space to uplift and provide advocacy for LGBTQ+ employees of the San Francisco Giants, and together empower and promote social progress for the surrounding San Francisco Bay Area community.

Leadership: Iowayna Peña, Bertha Fajardo, Karl Conyers, Roscoe Mapps

Giants Veterans

Giants Veterans cultivates a community centered around those who have served in the U.S. military. We celebrate and educate Giants employees who have family and friends who have served or have a general appreciation of the U.S. military.

Leadership: Dan Quill, Russ Stanley

Momentum

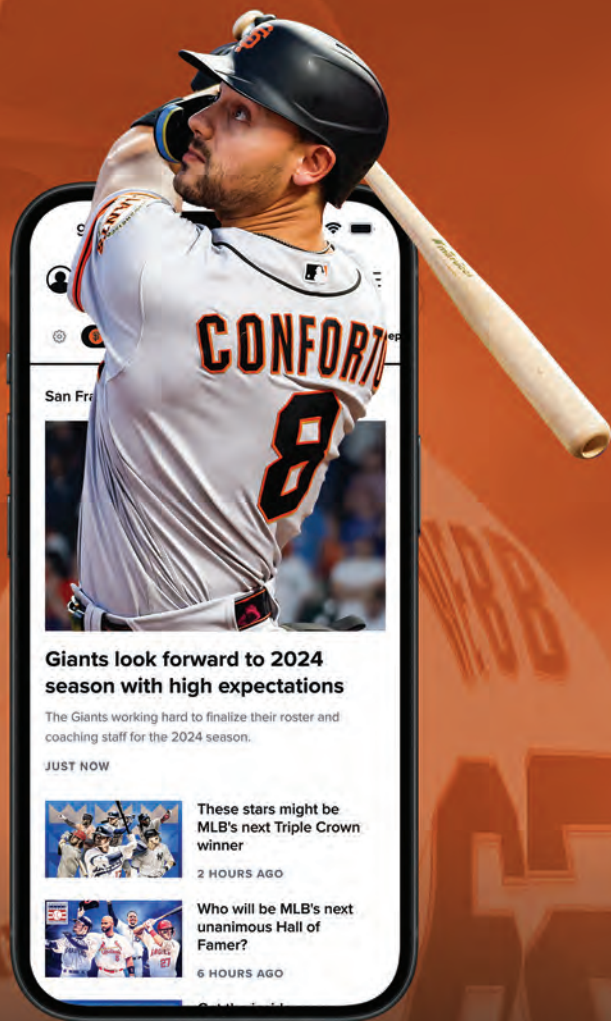

Momentum, the women's network of the San Francisco Giants, is an Employee Resource Group dedicated to moving women forward. As the first and largest ERG, Momentum empowers women to develop their leadership skills, pursue guidance and connect on a personal and professional level at the Giants.

Leadership: Chrissy Camilleri, Lyz (Socha) Lowry, Erica Cash, Sophie Lair, Rachel Heit

GIANT FACTS

.527

The Giants winning percentage since Farhan Zaidi took over following the 2018 season.

That winning percentage is fifth-best among all NL teams in that time behind the Dodgers (.658), Braves (.601), Brewers (.552) and Cardinals (.531).

MISSION ROCK

SAN FRANCISCO'S NEWEST WATERFRONT NEIGHBORHOOD

Mission Rock represents over 15 years of planning and community input to turn 28 acres of asphalt and a historic pier into an exciting new neighborhood and community gathering point for San Francisco residents and visitors. The project is a public-private partnership among the San Francisco Giants, Tishman Speyer and the Port of San Francisco to build a waterfront mixed-use neighborhood just south of Oracle Park. At full completion, Mission Rock will deliver at least 1,000 housing units available at a range of incomes, including specific units for low- to moderate-income households, approximately 1.4 million square feet of high quality offices and life science research space, 200,000 square feet of retail and restaurant space and eight acres of park and open space.

Phase One of the multiphase project is nearly complete, and will open to the public this year. This phase consists of four buildings – two residential (537 units), two commercial (550,000 square feet) – one of which will serve as the new global and North American headquarters for Visa, a five-acre China Basin Park, and 52,000 square feet of retail and restaurant space.

Mission Rock is realizing a shared dream of what a neighborhood can mean in San Francisco: An inclusive community that combines an imaginative, eclectic array of shops, cafes and public events; a launchpad for local producers, makers and creators; and innovative workplaces, affordable and market-rate homes, and social amenities. It's all right here.

MAKE MISSION ROCK YOUR NEW HOME

THE CANYON

The Canyon, the project's first residential building, began welcoming residents in June 2023. The building has 23 stories, including 283 market-rate and affordable rental homes, modern amenities, communal areas for residents, and neighborhood-serving ground floor retail such as Quik Dog. www.thecanyonsf.com

"BUILDING F"

The project's second residential building, "Building F", consists of 23 floors, 254 apartments that include Below Market Rate units for individuals and families, and ground floor retail including Arsicault Bakery. The completion of the building and start of leasing is expected in summer 2024.

MAKE MISSION ROCK YOUR NEW WORKPLACE

VISA'S GLOBAL & NORTH AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS

The Visa building at Mission Rock is a 13-story commercial building that will have 360-degree retail at the ground floor including a full-service restaurant and Proper Food. Visa employees are projected to move into their new headquarters this spring.

LIFE SCIENCE/OFFICE BUILDING

This 295,000-square-foot building ("Building B") provides seven expansive, flexible floors for office or life science users, and ground floor retail such as Ike's Love & Sandwiches and LuxFit fitness studio. The building is conceived as a series of layers that shift horizontally to create a dynamic sense of topography, while also producing a series of inviting outdoor terraces. Building B is currently leasing. missionrock.com/workplace/#parcel-b

OTHER WORKSPACES

In addition to the apartments, amenities and retail offerings in The Canyon, the building also features two floors of office space. One floor has been leased to the global consulting firm, Cargemini. The remaining 30,000 square feet is available for lease. For those looking for flexible options, the Parcel F residential building will also feature Studio by Tishman Speyer, which provides coworking, event space and move-in ready office suites. Studio serves enterprise, medium, and small business owners, and individual entrepreneurs with a full spectrum of workspace solutions, including on-demand, short-term and conventional leasing options.

MAKE MISSION ROCK YOUR PLACE TO GATHER

CHINA BASIN PARK

China Basin Park is a five-acre waterfront park that connects the beauty of the Bay to the heart of the city, providing free and accessible programming, and active fun and enjoyment. The park will open in spring 2024 and will serve as a place to congregate, bringing San Franciscans together in the City's newest public space. Firmly rooted in the character of Mission Bay neighborhoods, the park extends the Bay Trail around a generous central lawn that frames panoramic views of the Bay Bridge. Along Third Street, an entry plaza welcomes visitors and provides outdoor dining opportunities that continue along the southern edge of the park. China Basin Park features a series of public amenities, including a central gathering plaza, public restrooms, an intimate tree grove, and an elevated Bay-side beach. The beloved statue of Willie McCovey, which previously graced the waterfront site prior to redevelopment, will return to China Basin Park. Pedestrian-only 'paseos' will connect the park into the adjacent neighborhood between buildings, softened by native street plantings and flexible seating areas.

STREET ROOMS AND PUBLIC ART

Three street rooms – interactive public art installations designed by local artists – will line Dr. Maya Angelou Lane in Phase One to enhance the pedestrian experience. An urban gazebo called "Garden Party", a 3D mosaic of stone and a sculptural multi-use table will be installed along this street named for the celebrated author, poet, actress, dancer and civil rights activist who moved to California as a teenager. A bronze sculpture of Toni Stone will be placed on Toni Stone Crossing, which is named in honor of the first woman to break professional baseball's gender barrier with the San Francisco Sea Lions.

MAKE MISSION ROCK YOUR PLACE TO DINE, SHOP AND WORK OUT

PHASE ONE RETAILERS

Ground floor storefronts at Mission Rock will serve the surrounding neighborhood and become a destination for San Francisco residents and visitors. The inaugural, locally-established group of retailers, which will begin to open in summer 2024, include: Arsicault Bakery, Ike's Love & Sandwiches, LuxFit, Proper Food, Quik Dog and a full-service restaurant by the acclaimed restaurant group, Back Home Hospitality.

Larry Baer ►► President & Chief Executive Officer

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Larry Baer has gained a national reputation as one of professional sports' leading visionaries. Baer joined the team in 1992 as the Executive Vice President after he and Peter Magowan led the effort to assemble a new ownership group that kept the Giants in San Francisco. A limited partner and board member of the ownership group, Baer was named CEO on January 1, 2012. In his first year as president and CEO, the Giants won their second World Series Championship in three years. In 2014, the Giants won their third World Series title in five years. In 2021, the Giants won an all-time franchise record 107 games and the National League West title.

Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day operations of the organization. Under his direction the Giants developed and constructed Oracle Park -- the first privately financed Major League ballpark. Since opening in 2000, Oracle Park has been widely praised as one of the "best ballparks ever built." In 2008, Oracle Park was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year, and in 2011 the Giants received Sports Business Journal's Professional Sports Organization of the Year award. The Giants enjoyed a National League home record sellout streak of 530 games spanning six seasons from 2011 - 2016.

Baer also serves as a key strategist and negotiator of the club's major transactions. This includes the Barry Bonds signing in November 1992, the naming rights agreement with AT&T (then Pacific Bell) in 1996, the naming rights agreement with Oracle in 2019 and other strategic partnerships. He led the effort to host the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco and was the driving force behind the Giants partnership with Comcast to create the NBC Sports Bay Area regional sports network.

Baer serves as Chairman and CEO of Giants Development Services overseeing Mission Rock - the new, mixed-use urban neighborhood located on a 28-acre site across McCovey Cove from Oracle Park. At full completion, Mission Rock will include parks and open space, residential units, office space (including the global headquarters of Visa, Inc.), retail, restaurants and a parking structure.

In 2021, Baer helped launch and was named Co-Chair of "Advance SF"—a coalition of San Francisco CEO's and business leaders committed to building a vibrant city that works for all. In January 2022, Baer joined the Advisory Board of the American Journalism Project, based in New York City.

Baer has served on numerous Major League Baseball boards including chairing the Strategic Planning Committee, the Business and Media Board, and the International Committee. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Council and NBC Sports Bay Area. Baer also serves on the Bay Area Host Committee, which was instrumental in bringing the 2026 FIFA World Cup to the Bay Area. He is a past governing board member of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, appointed by President Barack Obama in 2016.

A graduate of UC Berkeley and Harvard Business School, Baer previously worked in the media industry for Westinghouse Broadcasting and CBS, Inc. At CBS, Baer was Special Assistant to Chairman Laurence Tisch. Baer has been the recipient of prestigious awards throughout his career with the Giants. In 2010, Baer was named "Person of the Year" by San Francisco Boys and Girls Clubs, and in 2012 he was honored as the Harvard Business School's "Alumnus of the Year." In 2014, Baer was honored by the University of California, Berkeley with its "Excellence in Achievement" award and received the Civic Leadership Award from the American Jewish Committee. Baer and his wife, Pam, co-chaired the Campaign to Rebuild San Francisco General Hospital, which was completed in 2016.

Larry and Pam reside in San Francisco and have four children.

Farhan Zaidi >>> President of Baseball Operations

Farhan Zaidi enters his sixth season as the President of Baseball Operations for the Giants, joining the organization on November 6, 2018. In his five seasons at the helm, the Giants have posted a collective winning percentage of .527 (373-335), which ranks as the fifth-highest mark among all National League teams behind the Dodgers (.658), Braves (.601), Brewers (.552) and Cardinals (.531).

During the 2023 season, Giants' rookies played a key role with 12 players making their debuts, including top prospects C Patrick Bailey, LHP Kyle Harrison and IF Marco Luciano. Eight of the 12 Rookies were acquired or drafted under Zaidi's leadership. Bailey was one of the best defensive catchers in the league and was named a Gold Glove finalist.

In 2022, the Giants finished at 81-81 and were in playoff contention until the final week-end of the season. OF Joc Pederson and LHP Carlos Rodón, two of Zaidi's major acquisitions in the offseason, had All-Star campaigns and IF Thairo Estrada, acquired from the Yankees, had a breakout season.

In 2021, the team clinched the NL West and the top record in Major League Baseball, finishing the year with a 107-55 record, the best regular season in franchise history - spanning 139 regular seasons of play - surpassing the 1904 New York Giants (106-47-5). Following the season, Zaidi was named MLB's 2021 Executive of the Year along with being named the MLB Executive of the Year by Baseball America. The organization also enjoyed success at the minor league level, with the Low-A San Jose Giants and the High-A Eugene Emeralds each winning their league championships.

Prior to joining the Giants, Zaidi spent four years as the Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager, joining the club in November 2014. Working alongside President of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman, Zaidi helped pilot the Dodgers to four consecutive division titles while advancing to the National League Championship Series from 2016-18, and the World Series from 2017-18. The Dodgers posted one of the best seasons in club history in 2017, when the team established a Los Angeles record with a MLB-best 104 wins and won the National League pennant, earning recognition from Baseball America as its Organization of the Year. Los Angeles posted the second-best winning percentage in all of baseball (.584, 379-270) during Zaidi's four-year stint.

Zaidi began his career with the Oakland A's, where he spent 10 seasons from 2005-2014. He began as a baseball operations analyst before being promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in 2009 and Assistant General Manager/Director of Baseball Operations in 2014. During Zaidi's tenure with the A's, the team reached the postseason four times, including three straight seasons from 2012-14.

Before entering baseball, Zaidi served as business development associate for Small World Media, the fantasy sports division of The Sporting News, and worked as a management consultant for the Boston Consulting Group. Zaidi earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1998. While at MIT, he was named a Burchard Scholar and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He completed his Ph.D in Economics from the University of California, Berkeley in 2011.

Pete Putila ►► General Manager

Pete Putila (pronounced puh-TELL-uh) enters his second season as the General Manager for the Giants, joining the organization on October 10, 2022. Putila is the 10th person to hold the title of General Manager for the Giants since the team moved to San Francisco in 1958, joining Chub Feeney (1947-1969), Horace Stoneham (1970-1975), Spec Richardson (1976-1981), Tom Haller (1981-1985), Al Rosen (1986-1992), Bob Quinn (1993-1996), Brian Sabean (1996-2015), Bobby Evans (2015-2018) and Scott Harris (2019-2022).

Putila joined the Giants in 2022, after having spent the prior 12 seasons with the Houston Astros, most recently as Assistant General Manager, where he was involved with all aspects of baseball operations including a focus on amateur scouting, international scouting, player development and sports medicine & performance. The Astros combined regular season record during his three years as an Assistant GM was 230-154 (.599), the second-best winning percentage of any team in the Majors since 2020. The Astros won two World Series Championships and four American League Pennants during Putila's time with the Astros.

He originally joined the Astros organization in 2011 as a baseball operations intern supporting baseball operations, player development, amateur scouting, and pro scouting. He was hired full-time to the position of baseball operations assistant in September of 2011 where his duties were expanded to include Major League advance scouting support. In 2013, he was promoted to baseball operations coordinator where he began working in conjunction with the decision sciences department to integrate research insights, decision-aids, and technology into player development processes across the Major and minor league levels. He also traveled with the Major League team in 2014 and 2015, conducting advance scouting and replay review. In 2015, he was promoted to assistant director of minor league operations where he assisted in all aspects of Major and minor league player development and minor league operations. A year later in 2016 he was promoted to director of player development where he oversaw Major and minor league player development while assisting with the integration of scouting research and technology.

Putila is a graduate of West Virginia University where he received his bachelor's degree in sport management and served as the baseball team's student manager.

A native of Carmichaels, PA., Putila and his wife, Amethyst, currently reside in Potrero Hill with their German Shorthaired Pointer, Donut.

CAREER NOTES |

BAAY ARREEA!

Born in Palo Alto, Melvin attended Menlo-Atherton High School before continuing his education at Cal for his freshman season where he helped lead the Golden Bears to a third-place finish in the 1980 College World Series.

Melvin's cousin, Tom Melvin, who also went to high school locally in the Bay Area (Cubberley High in Palo Alto), has been the tight ends coach on Andy Reid's Kansas City Chiefs staff for the past 11 seasons. Overall, the 2023 season was Tom's 25th season as an NFL coach.

Melvin returned to the Bay Area during his Major League career to spend three seasons with the Giants from 1986-1988. He played more games in a Giants uniform than any other team, appearing in 265 of his 692 career games with San Francisco.

His 853 wins are the most by a manager in Oakland A's history.

POST UP

In 20 seasons as manager at the big league level, Melvin has guided his teams to eight Postseason appearances that include four division titles and two trips to the League Championship Series (2007 with Arizona and 2022 with San Diego).

Owns a lifetime managerial winning percentage of .516, compiling a 1,517-1,425 record during the regular season. His 1,517 regular season wins rank 25th all-time and are second-most among active managers behind, Bruce Bochy (2,093).

Bob Melvin was named the 39th manager in Giants history on October 23, 2023.

"I'm thrilled to welcome Bob back home to the Bay Area and to the Giants organization," said Chairman Greg Johnson. "Having been a member of this organization before as a player and growing up in this area, Bob has seen first-hand the importance of Giants baseball to this community and region, and we couldn't be more excited to have him leading the club."

"Bob Melvin is one of the most well-respected managers and people in baseball today," said Giants President of Baseball Operations Farhan Zaidi. "He brings a wealth of baseball acumen from all of his experience in the game, first as player and then over the last 20+ years as a manager or coach. Having worked with Bob in the past I have seen firsthand the positive impacts that he has on a team and an organization. I'm thrilled to be working with him once again and can't wait to get started."

"I could not be more excited to come back to the Bay Area and manage this great organization," said manager Bob Melvin. "I'd like to thank Greg Johnson, Farhan Zaidi and Larry Baer for giving me the opportunity to add another chapter to my Giants career. This is a tremendous opportunity and a great responsibility to lead this organization and I'm eager to get started."

Melvin, 62, just completed his 20th season as a manager in 2023. In those 20 seasons, Melvin has guided his teams to eight Postseason appearances that include four division titles and two trips to the League Championship Series (2007 with Arizona and 2022 with San Diego). He was also a bench coach on the 2001 Arizona Diamondbacks club that won the World Series.

In his 20 years as a Major League manager, he's garnered three Manager of the Year awards (2007 with Arizona and 2012 & 2018 with Oakland).

He owns a lifetime managerial winning percentage of .516, compiling a 1,517-1,425 record during the regular season over his 20 years of managing. His 1,517 regular season wins rank 25th all-time and are second-most among active managers behind, Bruce Bochy (2,093).

Born in Palo Alto, Melvin attended Menlo-Atherton High School before continuing his education at Cal Berkeley for his freshman season where he helped lead the Golden Bears to a third-place finish in the 1980 College World Series. Melvin later returned to the Bay Area during his Major League career to spend three seasons with the Giants from 1986-1988. He played more games in a Giants uniform than any other team, appearing in 265 of his 692 career games with San Francisco. Melvin also played for Detroit (41 games), Baltimore (257), Kansas City (32), Boston (77), New York-AL (9) and Chicago-AL (11).

He's spent the past two seasons as the manager of the San Diego Padres where he went 171-153 (.528). In 2022, Melvin's first year in San Diego, he piloted the Padres to an 89-73 regular season record and a Wild Card berth that saw the Padres advance to the NLCS for the third time in team history (and first time since 1998) before losing to the Philadelphia Phillies. In 2023, Melvin's Padres went 82-80 but finished the season strong, having the league's best record from September 1 through the end of the regular season (20-7).

Prior to his two-year stint in San Diego, he managed the crosstown A's from 2011-2021, leading them to six Postseason appearances in 11 years at the helm. Melvin's six Postseason appearances with the A's (2012-14, 18-20) were the most by a manager in Oakland history and trailed only Connie Mack, who had eight World Series appearances in Athletics history. His 853 wins are the most by a manager in Oakland A's history.

His managerial career began in 2003 with the Seattle Mariners where he managed the 2003 and 2004 seasons. He was then hired by the Diamondbacks for the 2005 season and managed the D-Backs from 2005-09, leading them to a 337-340 mark that included a 90-win season in 2007 and a NL West division title.

A former first-round pick of the Tigers (2nd overall) in the 1981 January draft, Melvin played 692 career games in the Major Leagues for the Tigers (1985), Giants (1986-88), Orioles (1989-1991), Royals (1992), Red Sox (1993), Yankees (1994) and White Sox (1994). The former backstop had a career average of .233 with 85 doubles, 35 homers and 212 RBI.

Garvin Alston embarks on his fifth season in the Giants organization and his first as the bullpen coach on Bob Melvin's Major League staff. Alston spent the prior three seasons with the Sacramento River Cats as their pitching coach and served as the San Jose Giants pitching coach in 2020, in what was his first year in the Giants' organization. The 2024 season marks his 19th season coaching at the professional level.

Prior to joining the Giants organization, Alston worked at USA Baseball Prospect Development Pipeline in 2019. He served as Minnesota's Major League pitching coach in 2018, becoming just the fifth-ever Black pitching coach in Major League Baseball. Prior to his Minnesota stint, he split 2017 between the Padres (pitching rehab coordinator) and A's (Major League bullpen coach) organizations. Alston spent most of his coaching career with the A's, serving as a minor league pitching coach from 2005-2008. From 2009-14 he was the A's minor league rehab pitching coordinator and their minor league pitching coordinator in 2015. In 2016 he was Arizona's Major League bullpen coach.

Alston appeared in six Major League games, all with Colorado in 1996 where he went 1-1 with a 9.00 ERA. He played in the minors from 1992-2003 and went 28-38 with a 4.78 ERA in 239 games (49 starts).

Alston and his wife, Natasha, have two children, Garvin Jr. and Jayla. Garvin Jr. is a left-handed pitcher in the Nationals organization. Jayla graduates in May from Rochester Institute of Technology with a BFA in Film.

Pat Burrell begins his first season as the Giants' Hitting Coach on Bob Melvin's coaching staff.

The prior four years, Burrell worked as the Roving Hitting Coach in the Giants' minor league player development system after working for NBC Sports Bay Area on Giants pre and post-game in 2019. Burrell served as a Special Assignment Scout for the Giants from 2012-2015, including helping the Giants prepare for opponents during the 2012 and 2014 postseasons.

As a player, he played 12 years in the Majors with the Phillies (2000-2008), Rays (2009-2010) and Giants (2010-2011) and was a career .253 hitter with 292 home runs and 976 RBI while winning two World Series (one with Philadelphia and one with San Francisco).

He spent the first nine seasons of his career with the Phillies before joining the Rays in 2009. He was acquired by the Giants from Tampa Bay in 2010 and hit 18 homers in 96 games for the Giants during the regular season before helping the club to its first World Championship in San Francisco. He last played in the Majors for the Giants in 2011, appearing in 92 games.

Burrell attended the University of Miami, where he won the Golden Spikes Award in 1998. In his three years on the baseball team he hit 61 home runs and drove in 187 RBI in 162 games and appeared in the College World Series in each season.

He attended San Lorenzo High School in Felton, Calif. as a freshman but then transferred to Bellarmine College Preparatory in San Jose, where he played baseball and football.

Burrell was the first overall draft pick by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 1998 MLB Draft and made his Major League debut with the Phillies two years later in 2000.

Ryan Christenson enters his first season with the Giants after two years on San Diego's coaching staff. He was the Padres' bench coach in 2022 and was the team's associate manager last year under skipper Bob Melvin.

Prior to his brief stint in San Diego, Christenson spent 16 seasons with the Oakland Athletics. He was Melvin's bench coach for the A's from 2018-2021. Prior to his promotion to the Major League staff in Oakland, the Redlands, Calif. native spent five seasons managing in the Athletics farm system. After Single-A stints at Beloit in 2013 and Stockton in 2014, he guided Double-A Midland to back-to-back Texas League Championships in 2015 and 2016.

Christenson served as manager at Triple-A Nashville in 2017 and also manned the third base coaching box for team USA in the 2017 All-Star Futures Game. His teams had a 391-307 (.560) record in five seasons.

The former outfielder played parts of six seasons in the Majors with Oakland (1998-2001), Arizona (2001), Milwaukee (2002) and Texas (2003) and was a .222 hitter with 16 home runs and 102 RBI in 452 games.

His best season came in his rookie campaign in 1998 when he hit .257 with five home runs and 40 RBI, all career highs. Christenson batted .237 in 351 games in his four seasons with the A's and was a member of the 2000 American League West champions. His playing career concluded at Triple-A Albuquerque in the Marlins farm system in 2004.

He was originally selected by the A's in the 10th round of the 1995 First-Year Player Draft out of Pepperdine University after earning West Coast Conference Player of the Year honors in his final season with the Waves, leading the league with a .376 batting average.

He resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Micki, and children, Cassidy and Cameron.

Has famously penned the lineup for that day's game in calligraphy on a board in the Clubhouse since he has been a bench coach in the Majors. When he was young, his grandmother gave him a calligraphy pen, and he practiced as a child. According to Ryan, his normal handwriting is terrible, and he only uses calligraphy for writing out lineups.

J.P. Martinez enters his fourth season as the team's Assistant Pitching Coach.

Last year, Giants pitchers finished with the third-lowest ERA in the National League at 4.02. They also allowed the fewest walks of any team in MLB (403) for the second time in the last three seasons. No bullpen in the Majors threw more innings than the Giants' bullpen last year at 705.1 innings. The unit's 3.92 ERA was seventh-best in the N.L.

In 2022, Giants pitchers allowed 132 home runs, fewest in the Majors, while only walking 441, fifth-fewest in MLB. As a group, Giants starters were worth 17.2 fWAR, third-best in MLB behind only Houston (19.4) and Philadelphia (17.5). Lastly, the starter's 3.10 FIP was tops in MLB.

In his first season with the Giants in 2021, Martinez helped the Giants pitching staff finish the season with the second-best ERA (3.24) in the Majors behind the Dodgers (3.01). The pitching staff also issued the fewest amount of walks of any team in the Majors (416).

Prior to joining the Giants, Martinez spent six seasons with the Minnesota Twins organization. He most recently served as the team's Assistant Minor League Pitching Coordinator (2018-2020). During the 2020 season, he oversaw the Twins' pitching operations at the organization's Alternate Site. He began his professional coaching career as the Pitching Coach and Rehab coordinator for the GCL Twins in 2015 where he worked one-on-one with injured pitchers at the organization's rehab and training complex in Florida. From 2016-2017 he served as the Pitching Coach for Single-A Cedar Rapids.

He began his coaching career as an Assistant Baseball Coach for Isidore Newman High School from 2011-2012. He spent 2013-2014 as the Head Coach at Pope John Paul II High School in Slidell, Louisiana.

As a player, Martinez was the Twins' ninth-round selection in the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of New Orleans. He pitched four seasons in the Minnesota farm system from 2004-07 and spent his final minor league season with the Baltimore Orioles High-A affiliate in 2008. Over five minor league seasons, he compiled a career 17-14 record with a 3.36 ERA (340.2ip, 127er), 357 strikeouts and 40 saves in 203 appearances (two starts).

Martinez attended Louisiana State University and the University of New Orleans.

The Bay Area native begins his first season in the San Francisco Giants' organization after spending the prior two seasons as a senior advisor to the San Diego Padres' Major League staff.

Price's coaching career has spanned the past three decades, including manager of the Cincinnati Reds (2014-2018), and pitching coach for the Seattle Mariners (2000-2005), Arizona Diamondbacks (2006-2009), Reds (2010-2013) and Philadelphia Phillies (2020).

Price worked under Bob Melvin for six seasons in Seattle (2003-2004) and Arizona (2006-2009) and won Major League Coach of the Year honors from Baseball America in 2007 after the D-backs' pitching staff posted a 4.13 ERA (fourth-best in the National League) and reached the NL Championship Series.

He spent 11 years in Seattle's player development system as both the pitching coordinator (1998-1999) and pitching coach for Memphis (1997), Port City (1996), Everett (1995), Bellingham (1992 & 1994), Riverside (1993), Peninsula (1991), and the rookie-level Arizona League team (1989-1990).

Selected by Minnesota in the 21st round of the June 1980 draft and by Baltimore in the seventh round of the June 1983 draft, but did not sign. Signed with the California Angels after he was selected in the eighth round of the June 1984 draft.

Prior to the 1987 season, he had left elbow surgery and was released at the end of spring training. He was then signed by Seattle as a free agent and pitched for two more seasons.

He and his wife, Judy, have one daughter, Amber.

Price pitched collegiately, where he was club MVP in 1983 and team captain as a senior in 1984. He's still the school's all-time leader in innings pitched (374.2, 1981-1984), and is enshrined in Cal's Hall of Fame and in the Marin County Athletic Hall of Fame. Is a 1980 graduate of Tamaulpais High School (CA) in Marin, where he was All-State as a senior.

Price is featured in the book Guiding Lights under the chapter "Life-changing teachers and mentors."

COACHING TIMELINE ◀

2015

Baltimore Orioles
Frederick Keys (A)
Coach

Justin Viele begins his fifth season in the Giants organization as a Hitting Coach.

Each of the last two seasons, IFs Thairo Estrada and Wilmer Flores have put up career years offensively working with Viele and the Giants hitting group.

2015-2016

Santa Clara University
Assistant Coach

Viele helped guide Giants hitters to 241 home runs in 2021, the most in franchise history for a single-season and the second-most in the Majors, behind only the Blue Jays (262). With the help of Viele, San Francisco had a franchise record 10 different players reach the 10 homer threshold in 2021.

2017

Los Angeles Dodgers
Ogden (R)
Hitting Coach

Prior to joining the Giants, Viele spent three seasons working in the Dodgers minor league system as the hitting coach at three different levels. In 2019, Viele was the Hitting Coach at Class-A Great Lakes in the Midwest League where the Loons led the 16-team Midwest League in home runs (113), RBI (638), walks (597), runs scored (712), on-base percentage (.339) and OPS (.729) while finishing second in doubles and slugging percentage. The Loons' 712 runs scored were 71 runs more than the club with the second-most runs in the circuit.

2018

Los Angeles Dodgers
Rancho Cucamonga (A)
Hitting Coach

In addition to his role in Great Lakes, Viele was also the Dodgers' Assistant Minor League Hitting Coordinator throughout the entire 2019 campaign. Following the end of that season, he was elevated to the club's overall minor league Hitting Coordinator before joining the Giants Major League staff.

2019

Los Angeles Dodgers
Great Lakes (A)
Hitting Coach
Assistant Minor
League Hitting Coordinator

In 2018, Viele was the Hitting Coach at Class-A Advanced Rancho Cucamonga where that club led the eight-team league in runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and OPS while finishing second in walks and hits. The Quakes hit a total of 202 homers in 2018, 52 more than the next-best club in the league that year. The club also scored 50 more runs than the next closest club after scoring 841 runs that season. The 202 homers and 841 runs were both the most by any minor league team at any level in 2018.

2020-present

San Francisco Giants
MLB
Hitting Coach

Following the 2018 season, Viele went to Arizona and served as the Hitting Coach for Glendale during the Arizona Fall League.

In his first year in the Dodgers system (2017), Viele coached at Advanced Rookie Ogden of the Pioneer league. That club led the eight-team league in average (.319), total bases, slugging percentage and OPS while finishing second in runs scored, hits, home runs, RBI, stolen bases and on-base percentage.

Viele's coaching career began in September of 2015 when he was hired by his alma mater, Santa Clara University, to be the team's Assistant Hitting Coach for the 2015-2016 season.

He also served as a Coach with Class-A Frederick of the Carolina League for six months (April-Sept.) in 2015.

As a player, Viele was drafted out of Santa Clara in 2013 by the Baltimore Orioles in the 37th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft. A starting shortstop all four years at Santa Clara, Viele finished his career with the Broncos having started 161 consecutive games dating back to his freshman year. Viele graduated in 2013 with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology.

In the minors, Viele played a total of three seasons in the Orioles organization from 2013-2014, reaching as high as Class A Delmarva of the South Atlantic League in 2014. In his minor league career, Viele hit .211 in 126 career games.

Third Base Coach

Former Giants third baseman, Matt Williams returns to the organization that drafted him third overall in 1986. The 2024 season will mark his 12th on a Major League coaching staff. The prior two years he worked as the Padres' third base coach under Manager Bob Melvin.

Williams spent 2020-2021 as manager of the Kia Tigers of the Korean Baseball Organization. He also served as third base coach for the A's under Melvin for two seasons from 2018-2019.

He managed the Washington Nationals from 2014-2015, earning 2014 National League Manager of the Year honors, and was also on the Diamondbacks Major League staff as first base coach in 2010 and third base coach from 2011-2013 and 2016.

Williams was selected by the Giants with the third overall pick in the 1986 June Draft out of the University of Nevada Las Vegas and enjoyed a 17-year MLB playing career with San Francisco (1987-96), Cleveland (1997) and Arizona (1998-2003).

A .268 career hitter with 378 home runs and 1,218 RBI in 1,866 games, the five-time All-Star (1990, '94-96, '99) also won four Gold Gloves (1991, '93-94, '97) and four Louisville Silver Slugger Awards (1990, '93-94, '97) at third base.

He made his Major League debut in 1987 at the age of 21 and led the NL with 122 RBI in his first full season in 1990. He finished second in NL Most Valuable Player voting in the strike-shortened 1994 season after batting .267 with a league-leading 43 home runs along with 96 RBI in 112 games.

He was traded to Cleveland following the 1996 season and was dealt to Arizona following the 1997 season. His best season with the Diamondbacks came in 1999 when he hit .303 with 35 home runs and a career-high 142 RBI in 154 games.

Williams resides in Windsor, CA and has four children: Alysha, Jacob, Rachael and Madison. His son Jacob was selected by Arizona in the 49th round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft.

Following his playing career, Williams was a member of the Diamondbacks broadcast team from 2005-2009, serving as a color analyst on select broadcasts on FOX Sports Arizona and Arizona Sports 620. He also had a 33-game stint as interim manager with Mobile of the Southern League in 2007 and guided Salt River to the Arizona Fall League Eastern Division title in 2012.

Williams returned to television in 2017 as a pregame and postgame analyst for NBC Sports Bay Area on Giants broadcasts.

Giants
Assistant Coach

Alyssa Nakken embarks on her fifth season as an Assistant Coach.

On July 20, 2020, Nakken became the first woman to coach on the field in a Major League baseball game, during exhibition play against the Oakland A's. Her jersey from the game was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In 2022, she became the first woman to coach on the field during a Major League regular season game when she took over first base coaching duties on April 12 vs. San Diego in the 3rd inning after Antoan Richardson was ejected from the game.

She began her career with the Giants in 2014 as a baseball operations intern for the 2014 World Series Champions. She assisted with the Mission Rock Development initiative in 2015 before transitioning to Giants Enterprises where she played an active role in the event logistics, planning, production, marketing, content creation & business development of the health & wellness initiatives of the San Francisco Giants. She also serves as chairwoman of the Giants first Employee Resource Group – the San Francisco Giants' Women's Network "Momentum," whose vision is to foster a company culture of genuine appreciation for and commitment to the empowerment of women. Prior to joining the Giants, Nakken served as the Chief Information Officer for the University of San Francisco baseball team.

Nakken played first base for the Sacramento State Hornets from 2009-2012. A three-time all-conference selection, four-time Academic All American, four-time Commissioner's Honor Roll member and the 2012 conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Nakken started 184 games for the Hornets. A career .304 hitter, she ranks among the program's top six players in six different Div. 1 era categories, including home runs (19). Her 1,265 putouts are the most in school history, and she also ranks third with 115 runs scored. She earned her Master's Degree in Sport Management from the University of San Francisco in 2015.

- ▶ Slashed .212/.257/.303 with 14 runs, 10 doubles, a triple, two home runs and 17 RBI over 72 games before being released on September 9 by Arizona.
- ▶ Was his first season since undergoing right shoulder surgery in 2022 that ended his season...only played in 17 games in 2022.
- ▶ Opened the year hitting .304 with one homer, seven RBI, five runs scored and three steals in his first 14 games.
- ▶ Slashed .136/.208/.159 with three RBI over his next 18 games through the end of May.
- ▶ Appeared in only nine games during June but went 7-for-27 with four extra-base hits.
- ▶ Was 9-for-59 over his final 22 games with the D-Backs before being released in September.
- ▶ Ended his D-Backs career having appeared in 854 games at shortstop, most by any shortstop in franchise history...Stephen Drew (753 games) is second.

AT UCONN

Hit .304 with 143 runs, 26 doubles, eight home runs and 98 RBI during his college career while also going 1-0 with four strikeouts over 6.0 shutout innings on the mound.

Selected in the second round (85th overall) by Atlanta in the 2011 First Year Player Draft.

2013 SEASON

Traded to Arizona from Atlanta on January 24 alongside IF/OF Martín Prado, RHP Randall Delgado, RHP Zeke Spruill and IF Brandon Drury in exchange for OF Justin Upton and IF Chris Johnson.

2018 SEASON

Won his first career Gold Glove, becoming the first shortstop in Arizona franchise history to receive the honor.

His .985 fielding percentage is the best for a shortstop in franchise history (min. 120 games played)

Led the Majors with +28 DRS, just ahead of Giants teammate Matt Chapman, who was second at +23.

Won his second straight Gold Glove at shortstop, joining Orlando Hudson (2006-2007) as the only other Arizona infielder to win Gold Gloves in consecutive seasons. Garnered other fielding awards including the Fielding Bible Award for shortstop and Baseball America's Best Defensive Shortstop.

Logged career-highs with 158 games played, a .254 batting average, .316 on-base percentage, .437 slugging percentage, .753 OPS, 141 hits, 19 home runs, 82 RBI and 52 walks. His 81 RBI were also a franchise record for shortstop.

Earned his first career NL Player of the Week award for August 12-18, batting .423 with 11 RBI and four home runs.

2021 SEASON

Finished third in MLB with 18 outs above average, trailing only Kansas City IF Nicky Lopez (25) and New York-NL IF Francisco Lindor (21).

2022 SEASON

Played just 17 games due to right shoulder surgery, which was performed on June 15 by Dr. Neal ElAttrache.

Nick and his wife, Amanda, have three children: two sons (Jackson and Cole) and one daughter (Bella).

Nick's brother, Mike, played parts of seven seasons in the minors after being selected in the 20th round by Los Angeles-NL in 2013. Mike is currently the hitting and development coach for the Fort Myers Mighty Mussels, Single-A affiliate of the Twins. Nick and Michael shared the middle infield on March 7, 2020 during a Spring Training game.

7

Launched 7 Pillar Health & Performance with Michael. 7 Pillar Health & Performance uses the 7 pillars: spirit, mind, lifestyle, nutrition, relationships, fitness and recovery, to help people live healthier lives.

Nick and Amanda established the Ahmed Family Double Play Fund in July 2017. The program aims to end hunger for vulnerable children in Arizona and beyond, and delivers hope through projects and programs that empower and inspire children in need.

THE FAM

Nick's mother, Jan, and is a teacher while his father, Mark, is an investment analyst. According to Nick, both sets of great grandparents came to America from Italy through Ellis Island in New York.

While attending UConn, Ahmed played with current Blue Jays outfielder George Springer.

2022 SEASON

Spent the entire season with High-A Eugene and hit .225 with 14 doubles, 12 homers and 51 RBI over 83 games.

Earned a MiLB Gold Glove as he played 72 games at catcher and posted a .989 fielding percentage. He caught 29-of-97 basestealers (29.9%).

Named to the NWL Post-Season All-Star team and was named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star.

OFF THE FIELD |

Married NC State college sweetheart, Leigha Bruce. They have one daughter named Briella, who was born September 2022.

Leigha graduated from NC State as Sports Management major with a minor in Journalism. She worked as a sportswriter and broadcaster during and after college.

START 'EM YOUNG

When Bailey was 8 years old he began attending North Carolina Baseball Academy run by Scott Bankhead, a former big-league pitcher. By the age of 12 or 13 he was catching exclusively. The first big leaguer he ever caught was Yimi Garcia.

Patrick was home-schooled through middle school and then decided to attend high school at Wesleyan Christian Academy in High Point, NC where he joined the same baseball program that produced Wil Myers.

As a junior at Wesleyan Christian in 2016, he was selected for the U-18 US national baseball team. As a senior, he batted .510 with 5 HRs and 33 RBI.

After finding out he was being called up to SF, his first call was to his wife, Leigha. His second was to Craig Albernaz, former Giants Bullpen Coach and Catching Coordinator, who was a mentor to Bailey.

Bailey was a groomsman in Giants prospect Will Wilson's wedding while they were at NC State.

Faith is really important to Bailey and is something that has always been important in his life.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Spent the majority of the season at Triple-A...hit .248 with 33 runs, 12 doubles, six home runs, 28 RBI and a .750 OPS in 60 Triple-A games.
- ▶ Made his second career Opening Day roster, but was quickly placed on the Injured List on April 2 (retroactive to March 31) with a mid-back strain and missed seven games.
- ▶ Hit .231 with eight runs, five doubles, four RBI and a .581 OPS for SF before being placed on the IL for a second time on May 19 (retroactive to May 18) with a left groin strain...missed 20 games and was optioned to Triple-A upon his return to play.
- ▶ Started 26 of his 30 games played for SF, all at catcher...had a 3.72 catcher's ERA in the Majors.
- ▶ Caught RHP Alex Cobb's shutout on April 24.
- ▶ Batted .270 with an .818 OPS in 42 games at Triple-A Sacramento from July 1 through the end of his time there.

AT GEORGIA TECH

Selected by Tampa Bay in the 27th round of the 2015 draft but did not sign and went to Georgia Tech.

Played in 144 games, starting 143 of them at catcher or designated hitter. Hit .321 with 30 home runs, 35 doubles, 112 RBI and 115 runs scored over three years at Tech. Posted a .544 slugging pct. and .407 on-base pct. in his Tech career.

Named the 2018 Johnny Bench Award winner, first in school history. Also named 2018 First-Team All-America selection by Baseball America, NCBWA, Perfect Game/ Rawlings and Collegiate Baseball.

Tabbed the 2018 Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team all ACC selection. Led the conference in hitting with a .359 batting average. Led Georgia Tech and ranked second in the ACC in slugging pct. (.632), third in on-base pct. (.471), third in total bases (139), fourth in hits (79), and fifth with a team-high 16 home runs.

Drafted by SF with the second overall pick in the draft. Was the highest MLB Draft pick in Georgia Tech history and the highest selection by the Giants since taking Will Clark with the second overall pick in 1985.

2018 SEASON

Garnered Baseball America Short-Season All-Star honors as well as NWL Mid and Post-Season All-Star nods. Bart hit .298 with 13 homers in 45 games for Salem-Keizer.

On his first day in pro ball at Salem-Keizer (July 4) he hit two home runs. A few days later he began a streak of four games with a homer, including a grand slam. On July 27 he went deep twice.

2019 SEASON

Was a non-roster invite to Spring Training and was elected the 2019 Barney Nugent Award winner in a vote by his teammates, coaches and training staff. The award is given out annually to the most impressive player in their first Spring Training camp.

Missed time with High-A San Jose in 2019 after being hit by a pitch in his left hand and fracturing the second metacarpal.

Climbed from San Jose to Double-A despite missing 40 days with a broken left hand after getting hit by a pitch. Just two days after returning from his injury, Bart played in the MLB Futures Game in Cleveland and threw out Wander Franco trying to steal second.

Hit .316 with four doubles, one triple and four homers over 22 games for Double-A Richmond.

Raked in 10 games for Scottsdale of the Arizona Fall League in 2019, hitting .333 with one double, four homers, 10 RBI and a 1.290 OPS before being hit by a pitch and suffering a non-displaced fracture of his right thumb.

2020 SEASON

In the COVID-shortened season, Bart made his Major League debut. He struggled, striking out 41 times in 103 at-bats, and didn't hit a home run. He wasn't always in sync with his pitchers. He says the most important thing he learned in 2020 was the importance of improving relationships with pitchers.

12

Began the season at the Alternate Site before making his Major League debut on August 20 vs. the Angels. He became the 12th member of the 2018 MLB draft class to make his big league debut when he did so.

2021 SEASON

Spent a majority of the season at Triple-A Sacramento but did see action in two games for the Giants at the Major League level. Batted .314 with 13 doubles, 10 homers, 42 RBI and posted a .915 OPS from the beginning of the Triple-A season through August 6.

104

Played in 97 games with SF and seven in Triple-A in 2022. The 104 games were the most he's played in a single season in his pro career (previous high was 79 games in 2019 in the minors).

Made his first career Opening Day roster and hit his first career Major League home run on Opening Day vs. Miami off eventual Cy Young Award winner Sandy Alcantara.

Became the first Giants rookie to homer on Opening Days since J.R. Phillips in 1995. The last Giants player to hit his first career home run on Opening Day prior to Bart was Will Clark in 1986.

Attended Buford High School in Buford, GA. Became the starting catcher for the school's baseball team his freshman year. Is Buford's all-time leader in hits, RBI and runs scored.

Bart is engaged to Madeline Frye, who he met at Georgia Tech. They've been together four years. A finance major, she works for a prestigious private equity company in Atlanta.

His father, Thomas, played baseball at the University of Miami and Penn State University. Has two older brothers, Danny and Mikey.

Mikey was a 270-pound, defensive end at North Carolina and had stints on a few NFL practice squads, including the New England Patriots. He pursued a law degree and now works for the family business, which is operating two Zaxby's Chicken Fingers & Buffalo Wings franchises near their hometown in Buford, GA.

Comes from a family of athletes and outdoors enthusiasts, particularly fishing and hunting.

During the off-season, Bart enjoys competing in fishing tournaments. There's a boat ramp into Lake Lanier a quarter mile from Bart's house.

- ▶ Bounced back and forth between Triple-A Sacramento and the Majors being recalled five times.
- ▶ Appeared in 30 games as a reliever for SF, going 3-2 with a 3.33 ERA (27er, 73.0ip) and a .235 opponents average.
- ▶ Made three starts for the Giants and posted a 0-1 record with a 7.50 ERA (10er, 12.0ip) and a .340 opponents average.
- ▶ In his first career MLB start on August 27 vs. Atlanta, Beck retired the first 12 batters he faced through 4.0 perfect innings before allowing five consecutive batters to reach base to start the 5th inning.
- ▶ Recorded his first career save on May 26 at Milwaukee, pitching the final 3.1 innings in SF's 15-1 win.
- ▶ He was 3-3 with a 5.88 ERA (17er, 26.0ip), 26 strikeouts and a 1.42 WHIP in nine games (six starts) for the River Cats.

CAREER NOTES |

AT STANFORD

Was selected by Milwaukee in the 34th-round of the 2015 draft but elected to attend Stanford.

In 2016 Beck became the third Stanford freshman to start Opening Day since 1988. He led Stanford starters in ERA (2.48) and strikeouts (76) and was top 10 in the Pac-12 in both categories. Was named a first-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings and Baseball America.

Drafted again, this time by the Yankees in the 29th round of the 2017 MLB Draft as a sophomore despite not playing all season due to a stress fracture in his back. Elected to return to school for his junior year.

Was drafted by Atlanta in the fourth round of the 2018 First-Year Player Draft as a junior. Beck received All-Pac-12 honors that year, going 8-4 with a 2.98 ERA (30er, 90.2ip) over 15 starts.

2019 SEASON

Acquired by the Giants at the deadline from Atlanta as part of the package in return for Mark Melancon

Selected to participate in the AFL. In six starts with Scottsdale he went 1-2 with a 3.63 ERA (9er, 22.1ip) with 23 strikeouts.

2020 SEASON

Did not play due to the Covid-19 pandemic. He and his younger brother, Brendan, were catch partners during the shutdown.

2021 SEASON

Tristan was a non-roster invite to Giants Spring Training in 2021 but only saw action in one Spring Training game.

111.1

Worked a total of 111.1 innings between Double and Triple-A, by far the highest of any season in his pro career.

Struck out 116 batters in his 111.1 innings (9.38 K/9ip).

OFF THE FIELD |

Graduated from Corona High School where as a senior he was named the 2015 Corona High School Male Athlete of the Year and earned 2015 First-Team All-State and All-Section honors.

Always carries a book on him. Gets a lot of reading done during the flights and when he has downtime. Says the best book he read last year was Relentless by Tim Grover.

The Yankees have actually drafted both Beck brothers, taking Tristan in 2017 (he returned to school) and Brendan in the second round in 2021 (he signed).

Beck was a two-year starting quarterback during high school. Now enjoys throwing the football around pre-game to help loosen up his arm before getting into his baseball routine. Teammates Ryan Walker and Tyler Rogers are a few of the guys he throws it with.

Considers Smucker's Uncrustables an essential item and a perfect snack. Has between 5-9 every day (ether grape or strawberry).

Loves coffee. The first thing he does when he gets to the ballpark is grab a cold brew and pour it over ice. He has anywhere from 7-10 cups of coffee a day.

Tristan's mom Lucy (class of 1984) and older sister Megan (class of 2010) both attended Stanford. The Beck brothers helped their sister move in as a freshman. The tradition continued in 2016 with Tristan and in 2018 with younger brother, Brendan. The two were teammates for one season (2018) before Tristan got drafted.

His glove's name is "Cookie" after the Keebler Elf fudge stripe cookies. The color scheme of the glove reminds him of that cookie.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Won his fourth career Gold Glove, finishing with a .968 fielding percentage.
- ▶ Was worth +12 defensive runs saved according to Fangraphs, best among American League third basemen and third-best in the Majors among third basemen behind PIT's Ke'Bryan Hayes (21) and COL's Ryan McMahon (17).
- ▶ Hit 17 homers and has hit at least 14+ homers in each of his six full MLB seasons.
- ▶ Named AL Player of the Month for April, posting a .372/.459/.691 slash line with 17 runs, 15 doubles, five home runs and 20 RBI in 26 games.
- ▶ Played through a finger injury for most of the year before eventually landing on the IL on August 28 with a right middle finger strain...was activated from the IL on September 14.
- ▶ Slashed .247/.402/.506 with seven doubles, four homers and eight RBI in 24 July games.
- ▶ Hit only three homers over his final 36 games of the season while slashing .185/.259/.315 as he battled the finger injury.

AT CAL STATE FULLERTON

Named a Baseball America and Louisville Slugger Third-Team All-American during his junior season. Chapman batted a career-best .312 with six homers and 48 RBI that season. Also made only six errors in 157 chances at third base.

Selected in the first round (25th overall) by Oakland in the 2014 First-Year Player Draft. Cal State Fullerton teammate and fellow Giants infielder J.D. Davis was selected two rounds later by Houston.

2017 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on June 15 vs. New York-AL, logging his first hit one day later off RHP Jonathan Holder.

Led all rookies with 21 doubles and 37 extra-base hits following the All-Star Break, and ranked third among AL rookies with 37 runs, 14 home runs and 37 RBI.

Was the third baseman on Baseball America's All-Rookie team.

57.4

Had 68 hits, 39 of which went for extra bases (57.4%), the second-highest percentage of hits going for extra bases in A's history among players with 250+ plate appearances (Mark McGwire - 59.8% in 1995).

2018 SEASON

Earned an AL Gold Glove at third base after finishing second in MLB with +23 DRS, and also won the AL Platinum Glove and was named Wilson Defensive Player of the Year.

Tied for 7th in the AL with 42 doubles, T-8th with six triples, 9th with an .864 OPS, 10th with 100 runs, and 10th with 72 extra-base hits.

Finished seventh in AL MVP voting and was one of seven players to be named on all 30 ballots.

30

Became the first Athletic to score 100 runs since Nick Swisher had 106 in 2006.

Reached base safely in a career-high 30 consecutive games from July 11-August 17.

Led MLB with 22 extra-base hits in August, tying the most in Athletics history (Bob Johnson in 1938).

2019 SEASON

Set career highs with 102 runs, 36 home runs, 91 RBI, and 75 extra-base hits. Finished sixth in AL MVP voting.

Won his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove, his second straight Wilson Defensive Player of the Year, his 2nd straight AL Platinum Glove Award and his second straight Fielding Bible award.

Named an All-Star for the first time in his career. Walked and scored a run in the game that was played in Cleveland.

Led third basemen with a .981 fielding percentage, 466 total chances, 146 putouts, and 28 defensive runs saved. He also had the best UZR (14.8) in MLB.

Set Athletics franchise record for home runs by a third baseman (36), surpassing the mark of 32 by Eric Chavez in 2001.

2020 SEASON

Placed on the injured list Sept. 12 with a strained right hip and underwent surgery that day and missed the remainder of the season.

14.20

Despite playing in only 37 games, Chapman still managed to hit 10 homers, averaging one homer every 14.20 at-bats.

Started his first career game at shortstop on August 29 at Houston, his first start at a position other than third base.

2021 SEASON

Won his third Gold Glove in four years in what turned out to be his final season in Oakland.

100

Hit his 100th career home run on August 14 at Texas off RHP Jordan Lytes.

2022 SEASON

Traded from Oakland to Toronto on March 16 in exchange for RHP Gunnar Hoglund, LHP Zach Logue, IF Kevin Smith and LHP Kirby Snead.

Led MLB third basemen with a .988 fielding percentage, which was also the highest fielding percentage by a Blue Jays third baseman in franchise history.

Married his wife, Taylor, on December 11, 2021. The two make their offseason home in Phoenix.

Attended El Toro High School (California), the same high school as St. Louis third baseman Nolan Arenado. Chapman had his #6 retired by the school on January 29, 2022.

Wore "Hurtado" on the back of his Players Weekend jersey, honoring his college teammate and friend, Nick Hurtado, who died of bone cancer in 2013. "I know it was his dream, like a lot of my friends, to play in the major leagues, and he never got that opportunity," Chapman told reporters in 2019. "So I figured it would be the best way to represent him and be able to get his last name on a major league jersey and play a game in the big leagues, in a sense, so I thought it would be pretty cool."

Attended Cal State Fullerton for college. As a child, Chapman was a bat boy for the Titans from 2003-2005.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Selected as an All-Star for the first time in his career as a replacement for Atlanta's Bryce Elder...at 35 years, 277 days on the day of the All-Star game, Cobb was the fourth-oldest first-time All-Star in Giants history, and second-oldest in the SF-era... Cobb threw 1.0-scoreless inning with one strikeout at T-Mobile Park.
- ▶ Was one of the best pitchers at home in the Majors... went 5-2 with a 1.95 ERA, 60 strikeouts and a 1.04 WHIP in 74.0 innings at Oracle Park...his 1.95 ERA at Oracle was the best home ERA in MLB (min 70.0 ip).
- ▶ Held hitters to a .211 average, eight extra-base hits and a .567 OPS with runners in scoring position...the .567 opponent's OPS ranked fifth-best in MLB (min. 150 batters faced with RISP).
- ▶ The Giants were 18-10 in 28 games when Cobb started...from May 6-July 15, SF was 10-1 when he started.
- ▶ Most commonly used his sinker (39.7%) and split finger (38.7%)...the sinker was worth a +4 run value on Baseball Savant.
- ▶ Went 6-3 with a 2.88 ERA, 77 strikeouts and a 1.18 WHIP in 17 night games compared to 1-4 with a 5.63 ERA in 11 day games...his 2.88 ERA at night was sixth-best in MLB (min. 95.0ip).
- ▶ On August 29 vs. Cincinnati, Cobb came within one out of tossing a no-hitter, with a double by Spencer Steer ending the bid...he went on to finish off the complete game, the sixth of his career.
- ▶ The no-hit bid was Cobb's second complete game of the season...his first was on April 24 vs. St. Louis, where he struck out four and allowed six hits and a walk over 9.0 shutout innings...then 35-years-old, Cobb was the oldest Giant to have multiple complete games in a single season since Mark Gardner had four complete games in 1998 as a 36-year-old.
- ▶ Had two stints on the Injured List, missing a total of 24 games...the first trip was due to a left oblique strain from June 15 to June 30...he battled through a left hip injury throughout the season before it forced him to the IL on September 20, ending his season.
- ▶ Underwent surgery on his left hip on October 31 in Vail, CO with Dr. Marc Philippon to address his labrum and ongoing impingement issues...timetable to return to pitching is approximately six months.

2011-17 WITH TAMPA BAY

In 2013, Cobb finished with a 2.76 ERA (would have been fourth-best in AL) but fell short of qualifying by 19.2 innings.

In 2014, his 2.87 ERA was sixth-best in the American League and was the fourth-best in Rays history at the time.

82.1

Set a Rays franchise record of 82.1 consecutive homerless innings from July 18-September 28, 2014.

12

Set a club record by making 12 straight starts allowing two runs or fewer from July 9-September 11, 2014.

Made three Spring Training starts in 2015 before leaving a start with elbow tightness. Cobb ended up missing the entire 2015 season and part of 2016 after undergoing Tommy John surgery. The surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews.

In 2017, his final season in Tampa, he set career bests in wins (12), innings pitched (179.1) and starts (29).

2018 SEASON

Signed a four-year contract with Baltimore on March 21, 2018.

2019 SEASON

Slated to be Baltimore's Opening Day starter but missed the start after landing on the IL with a right groin strain. Made just three starts total in 2019, dealing with a lumbar strain and eventually undergoing lumbar surgery.

2020 SEASON

Went to Driveline following the 2020 season after hearing good things about from Alex Wood, who he trained with in Los Angeles during the shutdown.

2021 SEASON

Acquired by the Angels in February. A right wrist injury limited him to 18 starts in 2021 (3.76 ERA).

2022 SEASON

Finished his first season with SF posting a 3.73 ERA over 28 starts. He posted a career high in strikeouts (151) and his 3.73 ERA was his best over a full season since 2017. His 9.08 K/9 was the second best of his career and his 3.51 SO/BB ratio was the best of his career.

He saw an uptick in velocity on all his pitches, with both his sinker and splitter seeing 2.1 mph increases over previous career bests.

OFF THE FIELD |

Alex and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Chloe Elle and Everly Pauline. Chloe's middle name is pronounced like the letter L and is a tribute to Alex's mom, Lindsay.

The couple has a Schnauzer mixed breed named Oscar, who won a poll on MLB.com as MLB's Best Baseball Dog. Cobb found Oscar as a stray in Port Charlotte during Spring Training 2015 and eventually adopted him.

Alex's mom, Lindsay Miller-Cobb, was a nurse practitioner who passed away from a stroke at age 49 while Alex was in high school.

His older brother, R.J., is a U.S. Army commander (4th Brigade, 101st Airborne) and was awarded a Purple Heart for his time in Iraq.

Served as Dodgers bat boy during Spring Training as a child for three years while they were in Vero Beach.

Grew up a Red Sox fan and his family would make a nearly annual summer trip back to Boston, where Cobb was born, and take in a game at Fenway Park.

Alex's father, Rick, is an accountant.

In addition to playing baseball at Vero Beach High School, Cobb was also a star quarterback. He returned in 2013 to have his high school baseball number (12) retired during a halftime ceremony.

Was also the Homecoming King during high school. Cobb is the school's first alumni to play in the Major Leagues.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Played 125 games in his return to MLB after missing all of the 2022 season recovering from right shoulder surgery.
- ▶ Recorded 15 home runs, 58 RBI and 58 runs, all his best marks since 2019.
- ▶ His 58 RBI were third-most on the team behind IF J.D. Davis (69) and IF Wilmer Flores (60).
- ▶ Led team with 19 go-ahead RBI...his 11 game-winning RBI were tied with Joc Pederson for most on the team.
- ▶ SF went 30-7 in games when Conforto drove in a run.
- ▶ Missed 19 games from Aug. 24-Sept. 15 while on the 10-day IL with a left hamstring strain.
- ▶ Made his sixth Opening Day roster, first with the Giants (other five coming with the Mets).
- ▶ Had a 24-game streak without a home run from July 8-Aug. 11, tied for the second-longest streak of his career.

AT OREGON STATE

Named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year during his first season on campus. Hit a team-leading .349 and led the Pac-12 with 76 RBI as a freshman. He followed it up with Pac-12 Player of the Year selections his sophomore (2013) and junior (2014) seasons. Conforto batted .328 with 14 doubles, 11 home runs and 47 RBI his sophomore season. In his final collegiate season, he hit .345 with seven home runs and 56 RBI

Played for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team in 2012. Was on the team with Kris Bryant, Adam Frazier, Carlos Rodón and Trea Turner, among others.

His selection as the 10th pick in the first round made him the highest player drafted in Oregon State history at the time. He was Oregon State's first-ever three-time All American and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes and Dick Howser Awards as the nation's top player for his performance during his junior season.

8

Is wearing #8 with the Giants again in 2024, the same number he wore in college. Conforto wore #30 with the Mets.

2015 SEASON

Made his Major League debut for the Mets and was a vital cog in their run to the World Series.

Homered twice in Game 4 of the 2015 World Series, becoming the fifth rookie (at the time) to hit two homers in a World Series game and first since Andruw Jones in 1996. He was the third-youngest player (at the time) to have a multi-homer game in the World Series. He was the second Met to have a multi-homer game in the World Series (Gary Carter in Game 4 of the 1986 World Series was the other).

2019 SEASON

In 2019, he became the fifth player in Mets franchise history with at least 30 homers, 90 RBI and 80 walks joining Howard Johnson (1987), Darryl Strawberry (1987-88), Carlos Beltrán (2006) and David Wright (2007-08).

2020 SEASON

Ranked among NL leaders in several categories in 2020. His .322 average and .412 OBP both ranked sixth in the NL. He also tied for seventh in the league with 65 hits and ranked 11th in the NL with 40 runs scored.

2022 SEASON

Missed the entire season while undergoing right shoulder surgery in April. Conforto suffered the injury while training in January.

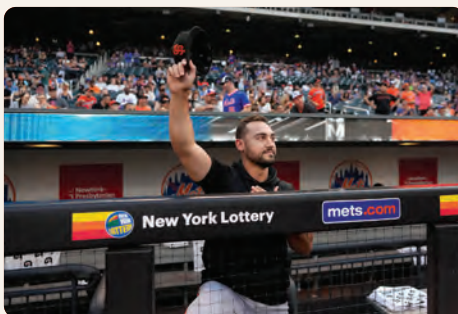

He bought the MLB package so he wouldn't have any blackouts. He says it was painful to watch but he wanted to check in on his friends and be aware of what was going on. Said he would have done anything to be in a huge slump (over not playing).

EAST TO WEST |

Conforto is one of three former New York Mets on the Giants 40-man roster along with IF J.D. Davis and IF Wilmer Flores. Conforto and Flores were teammates with the Mets from 2015 (when Conforto made his MLB debut mid-season) through the 2018 campaign. Flores was non-tendered by New York in November of 2018 and signed a one-year deal with Arizona in 2019 before coming to SF in 2020.

Davis and Conforto were teammates in the Orange and Blue from 2019-2021. Davis joined the Giants via a trade in 2022.

Married his long time girlfriend Cabernet Burns on December 12, 2021. Michael and Cabernet welcomed their first child, a baby boy named Camden Luca Conforto this past December.

Cabernet is the VP at Prom Series. The company is run by baseball wives with the mission to curate once in a lifetime experiences for foster teens to build confidence and self worth.

Has two dogs, Griffey and Kali. Each pup had a cardboard cutout in the stands at Citi Field in 2020.

THE KID

Grew up a Mariners fan and was very into Ken Griffey Jr. even though he left the Mariners when Michael was 2. He still tuned in all the time to watch him. In his video games he would create him and max out his power in hitting.

SWITCH

Swung both right and left handed as a kid but was more comfortable hitting lefty. His father encouraged him to work more on his left-handed swing. He throws right-handed, but writes left-handed.

Comes from an athletic family. His father, Mike, played football as a linebacker at Penn State University from 1976-1978.

His mother, Tracie, won two gold medals in synchronized swimming at the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles and a silver medal in 1988 in Seoul. She also won four golds in the Pan-America Games, six U.S. Championships in solo and four in duet, and one World Championship. Tracie was inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame.

His sister, Jacqueline, was a standout soccer player at Azusa Pacific University. She now works in the Seattle area.

Graduated from Redmond (WA) High School where he was named All-State and All-League after his senior campaign. Batted .400 as a senior with five doubles, one triple, seven home runs and 19 RBI in 29 games. Also lettered two years in football as a quarterback and a free safety.

25

On his baseball card in 2004 for the Little League World Series, Conforto listed his favorite player as Barry Bonds.

While rehabbing his shoulder in 2022 he got really into cooking and got into his smoker and grilling special meats.

NL RELIEVER OF THE MONTH

SEPT. 2021, SEPT. 2022, MAY 2023

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Named to the NL All-Star team, his first career selection...earned the win in the All-Star Game after working a scoreless 7th inning...posted a 2.63 ERA and converted 26-of-28 save opps in the first half.
- ▶ His 39 saves were tied for the most in the National League with PIT's David Bednar and ranked as the second-most in MLB behind CLE's Emmanuel Clase (44)...the 39 SVs were also the most by a Giant since Brian Wilson (48 in 2010).
- ▶ Struck out 87 batters over 67.2 innings of work (11.6 SO/9)...his 31% strikeout rate ranked in the top 8% of the league.
- ▶ His 26 saves before the All-Star break were tied for second-most in Giants history since saves became an official stat in 1969...only Rod Beck in 1997 had more (29) before the break.
- ▶ From May 2-June 14, Doval had his best stretch of the year, posting a 0.95 ERA (2er, 19.0ip), 0.79 WHIP, 28 strikeouts and converting 15-of-15 save opportunities over 19 games.
- ▶ Batters were 17-for-98 (.173) off his slider with 48 strikeouts.
- ▶ Named May's NL Reliever of the Month...posted a 1.32 ERA (2er, 13.2ip) with 23 Ks and a .143 average in 14 games.
- ▶ His 11 saves in May were tied for the third-most by a Giant in a single month and the most since Brian Wilson (11) in Sept/Oct 2010.
- ▶ Blew four-straight saves from August 13-23...it was the first time since saves became an official stat in 1969 that a Giant blew a save in four consecutive appearances.
- ▶ Went 1-3 with a 5.68 ERA (8er, 12.2ip) and a .288 opponents average over his final 15 games.

2021 SEASON

Began the year at the Alternate Training Site in Sacramento before making his MLB debut with the Giants on April 18 at Miami.

Posted a 5-1 record with a 3.00 ERA and a .192 opponents average over 29 games for SF.

In 13 games in September, he posted a 0.00 ERA with a 0.65 WHIP and was named the National League Reliever of the Month.

Finished the season with a streak of 16 straight games without giving up an earned run – a streak that began with his return to the majors on August 12 (16.1ip).

Converted the save in Game 3 of the NLDS at Los Angeles to become the youngest Giant (24 years, 99 days) to record a save in the postseason since saves became an official stat in 1969.

2022 SEASON

Appeared in 68 games for the Giants, tied with teammate Tyler Rogers for sixth-most in the National League. His 27 saves were sixth-most in the NL.

Went 6-6 with a 2.53 ERA in 68 relief appearances. He struck out 80 batters over 67.2 innings (10.64 SO/9ip).

His cutter had an average velocity of 99 mph, among the fastest 1% in MLB.

Threw a 104 mph cutter on September 23, the fastest pitch thrown by any Giants player in the Statcast era.

Was named NL Reliever of the Month for September after going 2-0 with nine saves in 13 games. His nine saves in September were the most in the NL and second-most in the Majors.

OFF THE FIELD |

Camilo and his wife, Gerolys, have one son named Liam Camilo.

It took three international signing periods for Doval to catch on with a professional team, as he signed with the Giants as an 18-year-old in October 2015.

Camilo began playing baseball at age four and pitching at eight years old. His youngest brother, Ángel, who is 21, plays baseball but no one else in his family ever did, including his father.

Camilo grew up in a house in a small farm community with his mother, two brothers and a sister. The farm produced mostly yucca and plantains. Both his mom, Rosa, and father, Sergio, are farmers. They live on separate farms about two hours from one another. Rosa is now an elementary school teacher.

24

Camilo has a combined 24 siblings and half siblings with the youngest of his father's children being a toddler while the oldest is over 40 years old. Camilo communicates frequently with his half siblings by texting in a group chat on Whatsapp. He is closest to his immediate family: two brothers, Juaquin Emilio Doval Girón and Isaías Doval Girón; and a sister, Cheri Leydi Doval Girón.

Camilo and his siblings had chores on the farm that included caring for horses, milking cows, planting and harvesting. Rosa, however, did most of the work.

When he's home in the offseason he likes to relax, hang with friends and he likes to fish.

Camilo has always loved horses – says he's been riding since he was 2 years old.

Grew up a fan of Carlos Martinez, Yordano Ventura and former Giants teammate Johnny Cueto, who became a mentor to Doval.

In 2023, Doval was one of a few Giants to represent their countries and play in the World Baseball Classic. Doval, a native of Yamasá, DR suited up for the Dominican Republic. In two games, the electric reliever worked 2.1 innings, allowed one hit and struck out three.

"It's a great experience. It's something that I have no word to describe what I feel to represent my country in the baseball classic," Doval told Evan Webeck of the San Jose Mercury News prior to the tournament. "Just the simple fact that I'm going to be part of it (excites me the most). I'm anxious for the games to get started."

2023 SEASON |

- ▶ Opened the year with Minnesota's Double-A Wichita...went 3-1 with a 3.17 ERA in 11 games (10 starts) with the Wind Surge and struck out 65 hitters in 54.0 innings.
- ▶ Promoted to St. Paul on June 12, his first career promotion to the Triple-A level.
- ▶ In 26 outings (22 starts) with the Saints, Enlow went 2-5 with a 7.94 ERA (40er, 45.1ip) with a .294 opposing average.
- ▶ Became a free agent at the end of the season and was signed by SF to a minor league contract on December 14.

CAREER NOTES |

AT ST. AMANT HIGH SCHOOL

Attended St. Amant High School in St. Amant, LA. Enlow broke his ankle in a car accident before his sophomore season but returned as a junior and went 6-4 with a 1.54 ERA and 93 strikeouts over 63.2 innings.

Pitched for the U.S. National Team in 2016 and helped them to a gold medal in the Pan-American Games with a 13.0-scoreless inning streak.

Enlow had committed to Louisiana State University to play baseball for the Tigers, but chose to forgo his commitment after getting drafted by the Twins in the third round in 2017.

2021 SEASON

Suffered a right elbow strain May 26 and was later diagnosed with a torn UCL. He underwent Tommy John surgery in June and missed the remainder of the season.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ The Giants Willie Mac Award winner led the team with 26 doubles and led all team position players with a 3.9 fWAR...finished second with 63 runs.
- ▶ Had a career-high, and team-leading, 23 stolen bases...his 23 stolen bases are the most by a Giant since Ángel Pagán (29) and Grégor Blanco (26) in 2012.
- ▶ Became the fifth middle infielder in Giants history to record at least 40 XBHs and 20 SBs in a single season, joining Jack Glasscock (SS, 1890), George Davis (SS, 1897, 1901), Larry Doyle (2B, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1915) and Frankie Frisch (2B, 1923, 1924) (Stats, LLC).
- ▶ Was worth +19 Outs Above Average (Statcast), second-best in MLB...was a league-best +20 OAA at second base.
- ▶ Missed 35 total games on the Injured List...first missed nine games from May 27-June 6 with a left wrist sprain...missed 26 games from July 3-Aug. 13 with a left hand fracture after getting hit-by-pitch vs. New York-NL on July 2.
- ▶ Became the fourth second baseman (min. 50% of games played at 2B) in franchise history to have multiple 14+ home run seasons, joining Ray Durham (2004, 2006), Jeff Kent (1997-2002) and Robby Thompson (1990-1993).

2019 SEASON

Appeared in 35 games for New York-AL and hit .250 with three homers and 12 RBI. Was just 2-for-20 over his final 15 contests.

2020 SEASON

Struggled with the Yankees, posting a .167 average with one extra base hit in 26 games.

2021 SEASON

Was DFA'd by the Yankees on April 6 and acquired by the Giants in a trade on April 11.

Split the year between Triple-A Sacramento and the Majors. Hit .333 with nine homers, 40 RBI and a .937 OPS over 50 games for the River Cats.

Was recalled six times throughout the season and posted a .273 average with seven homers, 22 RBI and a .479 slugging percentage in 52 games for the Giants.

2022 SEASON

Had a career year in his second season with SF, setting career-bests in every offensive category. Estrada ranked among the team leaders in stolen bases (21, 1st), hits (127, 1st), doubles (22, 3rd), RBI (62, 3rd), runs scored (71, 3rd) and games played (140, 3rd).

His 21 stolen bases were the most by a Giants infielder since Omar Vizquel stole 24 bases in 2006.

OFF THE FIELD |HI, MY NAME IS...

His first name, Thairo, pronounced THYE-row, is family derived. As Estrada tells it, his dad and uncle are named Jairo and so they just added a 'T' there to make it sound different, to make it sound more American. "I guess my mom knew I would come to the States and that would make it easier on people," Estrada said.

Thairo and his wife, Lorena, have one daughter, Arantza.

Grew up idolizing Yankees shortstop Derek Jeter. Estrada was originally signed by the Yankees as a shortstop and would hear Jeter speak while he was in their minor league system.

2018 OFFSEASON |

In January of 2018, Estrada was shot during a robbery attempt while at a café with his wife in his hometown of Bejuma. He missed Spring Training plus the first part of the 2018 season. Doctors were unable to remove the small-caliber bullet but he was cleared to play early in the season. The bullet was removed in July at a hospital in Tampa after a lower back injury in June ended his season.

"It was hard in Venezuela in 2017-18," Estrada told reporters in 2021. "There were rarely people who had any cash, for safety, everything was done through cards and through cell phones. So somebody came up to me and asked for money, and I said the only things I had were my cell phone and credit card. The guy didn't believe me and decided to take a shot at that point."

Returned home to Venezuela for the first time in four years during the 2022-23 offseason.

Was selected by Boston in the 30th round of the 2016 draft out of high school but elected to attend Louisville.

Started 66-of-69 games at shortstop as a junior, hitting .315 with eight homers and a team-best 65 RBI.

Helped lead the Cardinals to a College World Series berth in 2019. Louisville lost to eventual champs Vanderbilt in the semis.

2020 SEASON

When the Covid-19 pandemic shut down minor league baseball the Lexington Legends and Florence Freedom formed the Battle of the Bourbon Trail league. The league was comprised of four teams: the Legends, the Leyendas, the Freedom and the Y'alls. They played Wednesday through Sunday for a seven-week span.

Fitzgerald played on the Y'alls and told the Richmond Times he used that time to tinker where he added a leg kick at the plate to better his timing.

2021 SEASON

Spent the entire year with High-A Eugene, hitting .262 with a .495 slugging percentage. He logged 28 doubles and 19 home runs over 103 games.

2022 SEASON

Was named the Flying Squirrels Most Valuable Player. Became the first 20-20 player in team history, clubbing 21 home runs and stealing 20 bases.

Set single-game Flying Squirrels team records with 13 total bases and five runs scored while also tying the team record with five hits on May 29 against Hartford.

OFF THE FIELD |

Graduated from Rochester (IL) High School where he played four seasons of baseball. In 2016 he was the No. 2 player in the state of Illinois according to Perfect Game and also was the Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year after hitting .500 with 15 doubles, nine homers and 42 steals as a senior.

He grew up rooting for the Atlanta Braves and the Atlanta Falcons despite living in Illinois. One of his favorite players was Chipper Jones.

Fitzgerald also used 2020 as a time to finish his Finance degree at Louisville. He officially graduated in December of 2020.

THE FAM

His father Mike was a two-time first-round choice (1983 January and 1984 June secondary Drafts) and appeared in games for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1988, and his brother, Mike, played collegiate baseball at Indiana State and professionally with the San Diego Padres organization.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Set full-season career-highs in home runs (23), OBP (.355), SLG (.509) and OPS (.864).
- ▶ Led the Giants in home runs (23), SLG (.509), and OPS (.864) while finishing second in RBI (60).
- ▶ Made his ninth Opening Day roster and his fourth with the Giants.
- ▶ His .383 batting average in July was second-best in MLB behind CHC's Cody Bellinger's .400 average (min. 80 plate appearances)...his 1.118 OPS ranked sixth.
- ▶ Hit .344 out of the two-hole in the lineup, the highest average among MLB hitters with at least 120 plate appearances in that spot of the lineup.
- ▶ Recorded his 500th career RBI with a bases loaded walk on Sept. 8.
- ▶ Played 61 games at first base, 22 at third base, six at second base and 41 as designated hitter.
- ▶ His 20-game on-base streak from July 16-Aug. 9 was the longest by a Giant last season.
- ▶ Hit two home runs and plated five runs in the Giants' 11-10 win at CIN on July 18.

2013-2018 WITH NEW YORK-NL

Made his Major League debut on his birthday (August 6, 2013). Was also signed by the Mets on his birthday in 2007 as a 16-year-old.

Received the Thurman Munson Award on February 7, 2017, given annually to New York City athletes for their work both on and off the field.

Appeared in 110 games despite being limited by injuries in 2017. He had an infection in his knee that required hospitalization in April and a broken nose suffered from a foul tip that ended his season in early September.

2019 SEASON

Played in 89 games on a one-year deal with Arizona, hit .317 and posted a .361 OBP with a .487 SLG in 89 games.

2020 SEASON

Led SF in games played (55) and home runs (12) and racked up 32 RBI (including six game-winning RBI) and 30 runs scored.

2021 SEASON

Was one of the most valuable players on the Giants' 107-win team, hitting .262 with 16 doubles, 18 home runs and a .335 OBP over 139 games.

In his 139 games, he played all over the infield, making 34 appearances at first base, 30 at second base, 58 at third base, pinch-hit 39 times and DH'd four times. He started 96 games in total, more than any other infielder except Brandon Crawford.

2022 SEASON

Set career bests in games played (151), doubles (28), RBI (71), runs scored (72) and walks (59) in his third season in San Francisco.

FRIENDS

His favorite TV show is Friends and has used the show's theme song "I'll Be There For You" as his at-bat music. One of the ways he improved his English was by watching all 236 episodes.

He took English classes provided by the Mets and bolstered his language skills by watching American television with a dictionary by his side.

Wilmer loves clothes and is always dressed to impress. During the 2021 offseason, Wilmer's partner needed to renew her visa to enter the U.S. Since any U.S. Embassy would work, they decided to go to the U.S. Embassy in Milan, Italy, and make a vacation of it. During their week in Milan, he and his wife bought two new suitcases to carry all the new Italian clothes back to Venezuela.

His favorite home-cooked meal (and his favorite food overall) is pasticho, which he describes is like lasagna but a little different.

Loves pizza and typically has it on Sundays. Some of his favorite toppings are pepperoni, cheese, ham, corn (which he admits they don't put on pizza much in the US) and anchovies. Has to have his pizza with a Coca-Cola.

WILMER? |

Grew up in a family of eight that included three brothers and two sisters. Three of the four sons are named Wilmer, however no one but dad gets to be called Wilmer. SF's Wilmer is called "Catire" (pronounced kah-tear-ay) by his family for his blonde hair as a baby (Catire is Venezuelan slang for a blondie).

His youngest brother, Wilmer De Jesus Flores, is called "Chiquito," meaning "little" and his other brother, Wilmer Rafael Flores, is called "Patacon," which is a popular Venezuelan dish made from fried plantains. Flores' oldest brother (and the only one that isn't named Wilmer) is named Ronny.

Wilmer De Jesus Flores (also a baseball player) is a starting pitcher on the 40-man roster in the Tigers organization. This past offseason the baseball-playing Wilmers both suited up for Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League.

It shouldn't come as a surprise then that when the Giants Wilmer and Ivonelis had their first baby in March of 2023 they named him...Wilmer José.

MLB.COM / MLB PIPELINE (PRE-SEASON)

- #1 Giants Prospect
- #23 Minor Leagues
- #1 Left Handed Pitching Prospect

- ▶ Started the year at Triple-A Sacramento and made 20 starts for the River Cats before having his contract selected.
- ▶ Went 1-3 with a 4.66 ERA (34er, 65.2ip) and struck out 105 of the 295 (35.6%) batters he faced at Triple-A...his 14.50 K/9ip in the minors ranked as the second-highest figure in all MiLB (min. 65.0ip).
- ▶ Had his contract selected on August 22 and made his MLB debut that night at Philadelphia...at 22 years and 10 days old, the southpaw became the youngest Giant to make his first career start since Madison Bumgarner in 2009 (20 years, 38 days).
- ▶ He was also the first Giants pitcher to start in his MLB debut since RHP Logan Webb on August 17, 2019 at Arizona.
- ▶ Made his first career appearance at Oracle Park on August 28 vs. the Reds...threw 6.1 innings and was awarded his first career win...became the youngest Giant to earn a win since Bumgarner (August 9, 2011 vs. PIT).
- ▶ Harrison struck out the first five batters he faced and 11 of the 24 overall in the August 28 start vs. Cincinnati.
- ▶ The start also made Harrison the youngest Giant (22 years, 16 days) to record 11 or more strikeouts in a game since Madison Bumgarner (21 years, 329 days) on June 26, 2011 vs. CLE (11) and the first Giants rookie overall to strike out at as many batters since Chris Heston's no hitter on June 9, 2015 at NYM.
- ▶ Became just the third rookie to record 11 or more strikeouts at Oracle Park.
- ▶ Harrison was just the second player in Giants history to have a double-digit strikeout game in their second-career start (other: Jeff Tesreau with 10 in 1912) and the first Giant since Randy Johnson (May 1, 2009 vs. COL) to start a game with five-straight strikeouts.
- ▶ Struck out 14 of the first 30 batters he faced in his MLB career, the third-most by a starter through as many batters since 1901, trailing only WSH's Stephen Strasburg (17, 2010) and MIL's Freddy Peralta (15, 2018)...he also became the only left-handed pitcher in the modern era to strike out 40% or more of the batters he faced through his first two starts (Opta- STATS).
- ▶ Gave up eight home runs through his first six career starts...the homers were the most by a Giant in their first six career games in franchise history.
- ▶ Tossed 5.0 innings of no-hit ball in his last start of the year on October 1 vs. the Dodgers...struck out five and walked three to become the first Giants rookie to exit with a no-hitter intact through 5.0 innings since Chris Heston threw his no-hitter on June 9, 2015...Harrison also became the third rookie in the SF era to accomplish that feat (also: Jim Barr on September 11, 1971).
- ▶ Suffered a moderate hamstring strain on July 5 while training in between starts...the injury led him to miss what would have been his second Futures Game... returned to play on July 31 and made four starts in the minors before having his contract selected on August 22.

CAREER NOTES |

HIGH SCHOOL (DE LA SALLE)

Committed to play at UCLA before signing with SF after being drafted by the Giants in the third round of the 2020 draft.

Suited up for the 18U Team USA Baseball team in 2019, winning a silver medal at the WBSC U18 Baseball World Cup in South Korea.

2021 SEASON

Spent the entire season at Single-A San Jose where he racked up 157 strikeouts in 98.2 innings over 23 starts pitching in his backyard.

Named the California League's Pitcher of the Year after his terrific season in San Jose.

Harrison's 157 strikeouts were tied for eighth-most in the minors.

2022 SEASON

Harrison joined the Flying Squirrels in late-May. A 20-year-old when he debuted, Harrison became the youngest pitcher in the history of the franchise.

Finished second in the minors with 186 strikeouts. Only D-Backs prospect Brandon Pfaadt had more (218).

Averaged 14.81 strikeouts per 9.0 innings, the highest rate for a pitcher in the minors (min. 100ip) in a season dating back to 1960.

Graduated from De La Salle High School in nearby Concord.

Younger brother, Connor "Bear" Harrison, is a catcher at local St. Mary's College. The 6-foot-2 youngster won the North Coast Section Player of the Year award at the Cal-Hi Sports' end-of-year banquet on May 21, 2023, at Levi's Stadium. He also won Team MVP honors for De La Salle.

His maternal grandfather, Skip Guinn, pitched parts of three seasons with the Braves and Astros between 1968-71. Guinn appeared in 35 games in total over the three years and recorded one save.

Really loves to cook when he has the time.

Harrison has actually pitched in two parks that Guinn pitched in on his way to the Majors. Guinn pitched for the San Jose Bees in 1973, the same ballpark where Harrison pitched in 2021. In 2022, Harrison pitched in Double-A Richmond at The Diamond. The seating structure at The Diamond is built on top of Parker Field where Guinn pitched in 1967-68 with the Richmond Braves.

- ▶ Traded from St. Louis to Toronto on July 30 for RHP Sem Robberse and RHP Adam Kloffenstein.
- ▶ Posted a 2.63 ERA and a 1.08 WHIP over 25 games for the Blue Jays.
- ▶ On August 19 at CIN, he tossed a 1-2-3 8th inning with 2 strikeouts...he threw a 103.2 MPH sinker to Elly De La Cruz, becoming the first Toronto player to eclipse the 103 MPH-mark in the pitch-tracking era (since 2008).
- ▶ Threw 470 pitches at 100+ MPH (42.2% off his total pitches) and 24 pitches at 103+ MPH, both second in MLB to Johan Duran.

QUICK HITS |

- ▶ Missed the majority of three career Major League seasons due to injuries (2019 and 2021) and opting out as a high-risk individual during the shortened 2020 season due to his Type 1 diabetes.
- ▶ Has allowed just 13 home runs over 243.2 career innings (0.48 HR/9.0ip).
- ▶ Named Baseball America Best Fastball - National League 2018: St. Louis.
- ▶ Named St. Louis BBWAA Joe Ostermeier/Jack Herman Rookie of the Year Award 2018 (with Jack Flaherty, Harrison Bader, Yairo Muñoz and Mike Silt)

2018 SEASON

Made the 2018 Opening Day roster as a 21-year old. Hicks had not previously pitched higher than Advanced-A Palm Beach, where he ended the 2017 season.

2019 SEASON

Underwent Ulnar Collateral Ligament surgery on his right elbow. The surgery was performed by Dr. Geroge Paletta in St. Louis.

2020 SEASON

Opted out of the shortened 2020 season due to his status as a high-risk individual with his Type 1 diabetes.

2021 SEASON

Made only 13 appearances (10 with St. Louis and three with Triple-A Memphis) as he battled right elbow inflammation. Did not pitch for St. Louis after May 1. His three appearances with Memphis came at the end of the season in September.

He then made two appearances in the Arizona Fall League with Goodyear.

2022 SEASON

Made eight starts in the rotation, primarily in the first half of the season, going 0-4 with a 5.47 ERA (26.1 IP), 25 strikeouts and 21 walks.

Was 3-2 with a 4.37 ERA (35.0ip), 38 strikeouts and 14 walks in 27 relief appearances.

Threw 274 of 1,051 total pitches at 100 mph or faster, 3rd-most in MLB behind Minnesota's Jhoan Duran (392) and Reds' Hunter Greene (337).

Hurled 133 pitches over 101 mph, 46 over 102 mph, and nine at 103 mph or faster.

Tied Ryan Helsley for 2nd in MLB with nine pitches over 103 mph.

Threw his fastest pitch clocking in at 103.8 mph at Atlanta (July 7), striking out Marcell Ozuna.

Made his first career Postseason roster and hurled combined 1.2 scoreless innings in relief, appearing in both games of the two-game Wild Card Series for the Cardinals.

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended Klein Oak High School in Spring, Texas for his freshman-junior seasons. Transferred to Cypress Creek High School in Houston, Texas for his senior season where he graduated in 2015.

Signed a letter of intent to play collegiately at Tulane but signed with St. Louis after being taken in the supplemental third round of the 2015 draft.

Hicks still currently resides in Houston. He grew up a fan of the Houston Astros. His favorite players were Lance Berkman and Craig Biggio.

12

Switched his uniform number from #49 to #12 after 2019. Number 12 is a meaningful family number to him. He told reporters he was gifted the number 12 from former Giant Paul DeJong while they were with the Cardinals.

Parents are Jason and Jennifer. Hicks has two siblings, an older sister and a younger sister.

DIABETIC PHENOM

Diagnosed with Type 1 diabetes at age 17 while in high school. Calls himself the "diabetic phenom", which was the Xbox identity he chose for himself. Diabetic phenom evolved into his brand and he now sells merchandise. 10% of the profits go to Diabetes Center: <https://diabeticphenom.com/>

Since entering the Majors in 2018, Hicks has consistently been one of the hardest throwing pitchers in the league. Below is a look at some of Hicks' speed numbers and where they stack up with the rest of Major League Baseball.

- 🔥 Has thrown 4,100 pitches in his Major League career, with 1,680 (41.0%) clocked at over 100 mph. Represents the highest number of pitches over 100 mph in MLB since Hicks made his debut in 2018.
- 🔥 In 2022, he averaged MLB's 3rd-fastest changeup (92.1 mph) and 4th-fastest sinker (99.4 mph).
- 🔥 In 2021, Hicks (one pitch) and Aroldis Chapman (two pitches) each topped out at 103 mph, fastest in the Majors.
- 🔥 In 2019, he averaged 101.1 mph on his sinker, the fastest average pitch in Major League Baseball. Threw the fastest pitch of the 2019 season against Victor Caratini vs. Chicago Cubs (5/31), a 104.3 mph sinker, and the top 21 fastest pitches of the season overall.
- 🔥 In 2018, he owned MLB's highest average velocity with his four-seam fastball (100.5 mph) & two-seam fastball (100.2 mph), and second-fastest sinker (100.4 mph).
- 🔥 Threw the three fastest pitches in MLB in 2018 (105.1 mph sinker & 105.0mph sinker vs. Philadelphia on 5/20 facing Odúbel Herrera; 104.4 MPH sinker at Arizona on 7/4 facing A.J. Pollock) and 7-of-the-10 fastest pitches (all 104.1+ mph).

- ▶ Over three games in September with SF, Hjelle didn't allow a run in 7.0 innings pitched, allowing three hits, one walk and striking out six.
- ▶ Spent much of the season in Triple-A...had a 6.00 ERA in 22 games (19 starts) for Sacramento.

AT KENTUCKY

In 2017, as a sophomore at Kentucky, was named the Southeastern Conference's Pitcher of the Year after logging a 9-2 record with a 3.17 ERA.

2022 SEASON

Recalled from Triple-A on May 6 and made his MLB debut that day. At 6-11, he tied Jon Rauch as the tallest player in Major League history. His hat from his debut was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

OFF THE FIELD |

Sean and his wife, Caroline, have two sons, George, who was born in 2020, and Emmett who was born in 2022.

Attended Mahtomedi High School in Mahtomedi, MN where he played baseball and basketball.

Last name is pronounced "Jelly". Sean is Norwegian-German on his father's side and Italian-Polish on his mother's side.

Hjelle majored in Secondary Education - Social Studies and graduated from Kentucky after he started his pro career. Hjelle earned his degree in 2020.

He is an avid reader of ancient civilizations and ancient religions. He has wanted to be a teacher since middle school and hopes to teach after his baseball career. He enjoyed studying history so much in college he took eight classes from the same history professor.

Hjelle's great-great grandmother's family moved from Germany to Russia at the behest of the monarchy which needed labor. In return the czar promised the men they would not be required to serve in the Russian army, which was mandatory.

He told the San Francisco Chronicle that his family went over there and were told they had to serve in the military, breaking the deal. So they instead came to America and got a farm in South Dakota before eventually settling in Minnesota.

CAREER NOTES |

AT CAL POLY

Walked-on to the baseball team and played three seasons for the Mustangs. Howard went 8-1 with a 1.95 ERA and 97 strikeouts during his final season in 2017, garnering second-team All-American and first-team All-Big West honors, and the team's Mike Krukow Outstanding Pitcher award.

Was drafted by the Phillies in the second round of the 2017 draft out of Cal Poly, where Howard was a business major.

2020 SEASON

Was a non-roster invite to spring training with the Phillies in February/March.

Howard was at Philadelphia's Alternate Training Site during the shortened season and had his contract selected on August 9 and made his MLB debut that day.

2022 SEASON

Was named PCL's Pitcher of the Month in June after going 3-1 with a 2.53 ERA. Struck out 39 batters in 32.0 innings and held opponents to a .165 clip.

Attended Templeton (CA) High School in where he was a pitcher and outfielder. Hit .306 at the plate and compiled a 7-3 record and 2.20 ERA on the mound as a senior, earning 2014 North San Luis Obispo County Player of the Year and Los Padres League Most Valuable Player honors.

Baseball wasn't the only sport he played in high school as Howard was also a member of the volleyball team and played rec soccer on the side.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Reinstated from the 60-day IL on May 30...missed the entire 2022 season after undergoing TJ surgery...made his Giants debut on May 31 with 1.0 scoreless inning vs. Pittsburgh.
- ▶ Logged nine appearances with SF before landing on the 15-day IL with a low back strain on June 25... missed 21 games and was activated from the IL on July 22.
- ▶ Struck out 43 batters in 33.1 innings of work (11.61 SO/9)...32 of his 43 strikeouts have come on his slider.
- ▶ Held right-handed hitters to a .182 average, compared to a .263 average against lefties.
- ▶ Over 15 games at Oracle Park, he posted a 2.40 ERA (4er, 15.0ip) and a .185 opponents average against.

TIMMY |

Told reporters earlier in his career that the reason he started pitching was because of former Giant Tim Lincecum. At the time, Lincecum had won back-to-back Cy Youngs and Jackson was of a similar build so he tried to mimic Lincecum's pitching motion. He said it did help him throw harder but he didn't know where the ball was going.

WITH TEXAS (2011-2016)

Originally drafted by the Rangers in the supplemental round (45th overall) of the 2010 draft out of Calvary Christian High School in Fort Lauderdale.

Was used predominantly as a starter from 2011-2014, reaching as high as Triple-A Round Rock in 2014.

Started pitching primarily out of the bullpen in 2015 and went on to make his MLB debut with Texas.

15

Appeared in 15 games for the Rangers at the Major League level between 2015 and 2016.

2017 SEASON

Acquired by Atlanta on December 8, 2016 in exchange for RHP Tyrell Jenkins and RHP Brady Feigl.

Went on to make a then career-high 43 appearances out of the bullpen for Atlanta in 2017.

2019 SEASON

Had a career year in 2019, posting career-bests in wins (nine), appearances (70), saves (18), innings (72.2) and strikeouts (106) in his third season in Atlanta.

2021 SEASON

In 2021, Jackson went 2-2 with a 1.98 ERA and 31 holds over 71 appearances out of the Braves bullpen. Among pitchers with as many appearances, his 14 earned runs were tied for the second-fewest in baseball. His 31 holds were second-most in MLB.

Did not allow a run in 3.2 World Series innings as the Braves beat Houston to win the World Series.

2022 SEASON

Underwent Tommy John surgery in April and missed the entire 2022 season, his final year in Atlanta. Dr. Keith Meister performed the surgery in Arlington, TX.

OFF THE FIELD |

Luke and his wife, Corinne, have two children: a son, Jett Jackson (born in September 2021) and a daughter, Sunny Jean Jackson (born September 2023).

Attended Calvary Christian High School in Fort Lauderdale, FL. Went 8-0 with a 0.90 ERA his senior year of High School, compiling 87 strikeouts with three shutouts and two saves. Hit also two home runs and recorded 21 RBI at the plate.

His father, Ed, played football at Florida State on the same team as Deion Sanders. He's now an entrepreneur and in the insurance business.

Is making a donation to the Giants Community Fund in each of his seasons in SF ($15,000 in 2023, $32,500 in 2024 and $35,000 in 2025 if the club option is exercised).

Luke and Corinne are foodies and have a spreadsheet that they track all of the places they have eaten (best cities, best coffee shops, best restaurants, etc). Will fill it out home and road and has been doing so since his minor league travels. Luke is more of a donut & coffee shop in the mornings while Corinne favors smoothies and then they rank their dinners.

The Jacksons have traveled all over the world, visiting six of seven continents. For two consecutive summers when Luke was in middle school, the Christian family worked, ministered and lived at an orphanage in Russia. After their second summer there, the Jacksons purchased property in Russia and built a new orphanage.

The family also has spent time in Africa (Johannesburg, Zimbabwe and Tanzania), also with orphaned children and also building schools and ministering to mothers and fathers dying of AIDS.

CAREER NOTES |

AT CAL

Named All Pac-12 First Team in 2015 after going 6-5 with a 2.92 ERA. In three seasons at Cal he went 15-13 with a 2.77 ERA, 186 strikeouts and a 1.10 WHIP.

Pitched for USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team in 2015.

Selected by Oakland in the first round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft (37th overall).

2017 SEASON

Started just two games for Single-A Stockton before undergoing Tommy John surgery on April 26 performed by Dr. William Workman.

2018 SEASON

Made one start in his return from Tommy John surgery before returning to the injured list on July 1.

2019 SEASON

Was healthy for a majority of the season, making a combined 26 appearances (15 starts) between High-A Stockton and Double-A Midland.

Missed the remainder of the season recovering from a right pectoral muscle strain, however, after being placed on the IL on August 16.

2020 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on September 12 at Texas, striking out Nick Solak for his first MLB strikeout.

Finished the season ranked as Oakland's No. 3 prospect according to Baseball America.

2021 SEASON

Earned his first Major League win in his season debut on August 1 at the Angels. Made five appearances totaling 15 innings with the A's.

Missed the final few weeks of the season after hitting the IL with right elbow neuritis on September 18.

2022 SEASON

Made eight appearances for the A's but once again had a season cut short due to injury. Underwent surgery to correct Thoracic Outlet Syndrome on his right arm on June 13 (performed by Dr. Greg Pearl).

During his rehab process, he had his second Tommy John surgery, undergoing the surgery on September 9 with Dr. Neal ElAttrache performing the second surgery.

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended Buhach Colony High School in Atwater, CA. Was selected by the Miami Marlins in the 39th round of the 2013 draft but did not sign and elected to attend Cal.

Is the nephew of former MLB pitcher Blas Minor. Minor pitched six seasons in the Majors with Pittsburgh (1992-1994), New York-NL (1995-1996), Seattle (1996) and Houston (1997).

Older brother, Jake Jefferies, was selected by Tampa Bay in the third round of the 2008 First-Year Draft. Jake played six MiLB seasons in the for Tampa Bay (2008-2011) and Miami (2012-2013), reaching Triple-A with New Orleans (Miami) in 2012 and 2013.

- ▶ Appeared in 85 games for Kiwoom and slashed .318/.407/.456 with six home runs, 45 RBI and 50 runs scored.
- ▶ Had his season cut short after breaking his left ankle during a game against the Lotte Giants on July 22.
- ▶ Underwent season-ending surgery on July 27.
- ▶ Was able to make a brief appearance in the team's final game on October 10, where Lee had one at-bat in his final KBO appearance.
- ▶ Played for South Korea in the 2023 World Baseball Classic and hit .429 with two doubles and five RBI in the tournament.

2017 SEASONN

Selected by the Nexen Heroes in the 2017 KBO League draft held in 2016. He was originally taken as an infielder but converted to the outfield after joining the Heroes.

Made the team's Opening Day roster at just 18 years old without ever going through the KBO Futures League. He became the first rookie out of high school to appear in every game for a KBO team.

Set a KBO rookie record with 179 hits and slashed .324/.395/.417 with two homers, 47 RBI and 12 stolen bases on his way to win the KBO League Rookie of the Year Award.

2018 SEASON.355

Slashed .355/.412/.477 in his second season with the Heroes.

Represented South Korea at the 2018 Asian Games and delivered the winning RBI against Chinese Taipei.

2019 SEASON

Hit .336 during the regular season to help the Heroes reach the Postseason. He was named a KBO Playoff MVP after helping Kiwoom reach the Korean Series.

With Lee's father, Jong-beom, also being named MVP in the 1993 Korean Series, it became a first time in league history that both father and son won a postseason MVP award.

Following the KBO season, Lee played for the South Korean national baseball team at the 2019 WBSC Premier12.

2020 SEASON

Won his third consecutive Gold Glove Award while batting .333 with 15 home runs, 101 RBI and a career-high .921 OPS.

Played for the South Korean national baseball team at the 2020 Summer Olympics.

2021 SEASON

Led the KBO in batting average after hitting .360 in 123 games.

2022 SEASON

Named the KBO's MVP after slashing .349/.421/.575 in 142 games. Established career bests in homers (23) and RBI (113).

Once again led the KBO in average (.349) while also leading the league in hits (193), RBI (113) and OPS (.996).

Lee is the son of Jong-beom Lee, a former KBO MVP whose nickname is "Son of the Wind." He earned the label after stealing a KBO-record 84 bases in 1994 en route to being the league's Most Valuable Player.

GRANDSON OF THE WIND

In his introductory press conference, Jung Hoo called himself "Grandson of the Wind", honoring his father's legacy. His father's 19-year playing career began in Korea for the Kia Tigers but eventually took him to the Chunichi Dragons in Nagoya, Japan, where Jung Hoo was born.

Jong-beom was the 1993 Korean Series MVP winner after batting .310 to help Kia to a championship.

51

Lee will wear #51, the same number he wore through his seven-year career with the Kiwoom Heroes. Lee chose the number after his favorite player, Ichiro Suzuki, who was on the rise with the Orix Buffaloes in 1998 when Lee was born in Japan. Three years later, Ichiro would become the first position player to make the leap from Nippon Professional Baseball to the Majors.

Lee has his own cheer song, which fans would sing during his at-bats during his career in the KBO. You can watch video of the anthem here

HEY BUDDY!

Is good friends with San Diego infielder and former Kiwoom Heroes teammate Ha-Seong Kim. Kim played for Giants manager Bob Melvin in San Diego for two seasons from 2022-23. "He was my spiritual leader in Korea. I was able to start dreaming big dreams thanks to his great advice. It's at once surreal and exciting to put aside our friendship and face each other. I'll be asking him a lot of questions" Lee spoke on the friendship.

Lee will make a charitable contribution to the Giants Community Fund, donating $60,000 in 2024, $80,000 in 2025, $110,000 in 2026 and 2027, and $102,500 in 2028 and 2029.

Lee has two dogs, a Pomeranian named Kao (right) and a Chihuahua named Lua (left).

FAMILY TIES

Lee's sister, Ga Hyun Lee, is married to new Padres reliever Woo Suk Go. The two were wed in January of 2023. Go signed with San Diego this past offseason, joining Lee's close friend Ha-Seong Kim. Go served as the closer for the defending KBO champion LG Twins before coming to play in the states. Lee and Go have been competing against one another on the field since Lee's third year of middle school.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Appeared in 14 MLB games in his debut season in the Majors.
- ▶ Finished the season as SF's No. 2 prospect and MLB's #26 prospect overall...will still have rookie status in 2024.
- ▶ Began his season with Double-A Richmond in early May after missing the first month due to a back injury suffered in winter ball...missed the majority of August (while with Sacramento) with a hamstring injury.
- ▶ Hit .223 with 42 runs, 14 doubles, 15 home runs, 40 RBI and a .776 OPS in 74 MiLB games for Double-A Richmond and Triple-A Sacramento.

JULY 2, 2018

Signed with the Giants as a 16-year-old when the 2018 International Signing Period opened. Luciano was ranked by both Baseball America and MLB.com as the second-best prospect in the class. The Dominican Republic native signed with the Giants for $2.6 million.

2019 SEASON

Luciano finished among the AZL league leaders in runs scored (46, 1st), homers (10, T-4th), RBI (38, T-6th), OBP (.438, 3rd), SLG (.616, 5th), OPS (1.054, 4th) and total bases (90, T-9th).

2020 SEASON

Was a part of the Giants Alternate Site in Sacramento during the canceled 2020 MiLB season. Also played in Instructs.

2021 SEASON

Began his 2021 campaign in Low-A San Jose where he slashed .278/.373/.556 to post a .929 OPS in 70 games as one of the youngest players in the league. He had 14 doubles and 18 homers to go with 57 RBI.

Was promoted to High-A Eugene for the final 36 games of the regular season. In the playoffs for Eugene, Luciano went 6-for-15 with a double, triple, homer and three RBI as Eugene won the title.

Participated in the SiriusXM Futures Game, appearing on the NL Team. Luciano went 0-for-1 with a walk.

Following his 2021 season, Luciano was the No. 1 pick in the Dominican Winter League draft and was selected by the Estrellas Orientales.

Played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .253 with a .729 OPS and three homers in 21 games.

2022 SEASON

Was limited to 65 games during the regular season between the Emeralds and the ACL Giants Black due to a lower back strain that shut him down from June 4-August 3.

Promoted to Double-A Richmond for the playoffs, his first games at the Double-A level.

2023 SEASON |

- Started the year on the Injured List with right shoulder inflammation and was reinstated on May 5.
- Opened the year at High-A Eugene, throwing 3.0 innings of relief in his first outing on May 6.
- Landed in the IL once again on May 11 with a left hamstring strain, an injury that led him to miss nearly two months of action...was transferred to a rehab assignment on July 5.
- Made five rehab starts between the ACL Giants Orange and Black and worked 9.2 innings with a 2.79 ERA and 12 strikeouts.
- Was reinstated on July 28 and had a stellar return to the Emeralds...did not allow an earned run through his first five starts (21.0ip) and limited opponents to a .159 clip.
- Earned NWL Pitcher of the Week honors on August 20 after snagging his second win of the season with 5.0-scoreless innings.
- Was named August's NWL Pitcher of the Month as a result of his strong stretch with Eugene...finished the month with a 0.35 ERA (1er, 26.0ip) through six starts, holding batters scoreless in four of the six outings...struck out 28 and limited opponents to a .151 average.
- McDonald gave up a combined three earned runs in eight starts (0.78 ERA) after rejoining the Emeralds.
- Was added to the 40-man roster on November 14 ahead of the Rule 5 deadline.

CAREER NOTES |

AT GEORGE COUNTY

Attended George County High School in Lucedale, MS. Was dominant during his senior year, finishing 8-2 with a 1.78 ERA in 12 games and striking out 105 batters in 51.0 innings.

Had committed to play collegiately at South Alabama but decided to forgo college after the Giants drafted him in the 11th round.

2021 SEASON

Led the ACL Giants Orange in innings pitched (67.2) and co-led the team in strikeouts (69).

2022 SEASON

Split the season between Single-A San Jose and High-A Eugene. Served mostly as a reliever, appearing 19 times out of the 'pen and making 10 starts. Went 6-3 with a 2.31 ERA (26er, 101.1ip) and 120 strikeouts between the two teams.

- ▶ Became the first player since Brooklyn's Jim Gilliam in 1953 to score 10 or more runs in their first seven career games without hitting a home run.
- ▶ Scored 11 runs through his first 10 career games, matching Willie McCovey for the most in franchise history through first 10 games.
- ▶ Hit his first career triple on July 5 vs. Seattle to become the youngest Giant (21 years and 158 days old) to triple since Matt Williams in 1987 (21 years and 148 days old).

2019 SEASON

Started for the DSL Giants in 2019 and earned a promotion stateside to the AZL Giants at the end of their season. His .362 average was third-best in the Dominican League and sixth-best in all of rookie-level ball, while his 25 combined doubles were most among players in the rookie level.

Matos led the DSL Giants in average (.362), hits (85), RBI (47), stolen bases (20), doubles (24), runs (60), OPS (1.000), slugging (.570) and OBP (.430).

2020 SEASON

Did not play due to the pandemic but did join the Giants Alternate Site and played during the Fall Instructional League.

2021 SEASON

Slashed .313/.358/.494 with an .852 OPS in 109 games for Low-A San Jose. Matos had 35 doubles and 15 homers, picking up where he left off in 2019 after no season in 2020.

Led all Low-A batters in RBI (86), doubles (35), hits (141), total bases (223) and extra-base hits (51) and ranked second in runs (84) and seventh in batting average (.313)

Was tabbed as the Cal League MVP at the end of the season after playing the entire year as a 19-year-old. He was also named to the 2021 Cal League Post-Season All-Star team.

2022 SEASON

Played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League following the 2022 regular season and hit .241 with two homers and a .662 OPS.

Named the AFL's Defensive Player of the Year following the AFL season.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ A 2022 draft selection, Meckler started the year at High-A Eugene and worked his way through three swift promotions before having his contract selected on August 14.
- ▶ Became the fourth member of any organization's 2022 draft class to reach the Majors (the other three were all Angels prospects).
- ▶ His debut came just 13 months after being drafted... Meckler appeared in 20 games at the Major League level and hit .232 with a double and six runs scored.
- ▶ Played in 69 minor league games between Eugene (High-A), Richmond (Double-A) and Sacramento (Triple-A) before his MLB promotion and another 14 games upon being optioned.
- ▶ Hit .371 in 83 MiLB games with 62 runs, 17 doubles, four triples, six home runs, 50 RBI and a .966 OPS.
- ▶ His .371 combined average was the best among all Minor Leaguers (min. 80 games).

HIGH SCHOOL

As a freshman at Esperanza High School in Anaheim, CA, Meckler was just 4-foot-10, the shortest kid in the school, and weighed 75 pounds. By the time he was a senior, the utility man had reached 5-foot-8 and 145 pounds and finished the season batting .375 with 28 runs.

Meckler was a two-time All-League All-Academic selection. Throughout high school he had a 4.4 GPA, was a Collegiate Scholar and earned the Golden State Award. He graduated with honors, was an AP Scholar with Distinction and scored 1470 on his SAT.

AT OREGON STATE

Meckler did not receive any Division I or II offers and chose to attend Oregon State where he was a finance major. He was cut from the baseball team after his freshman year in 2019 after just 10 at-bats and did not make the team in 2020.

The Yorba Linda, CA native rejoined the team in 2021 and was the only Beaver to appear in all 66 games in 2022. He hit .347 with 23 doubles, three triples, two home runs and 32 RBI en route to being named to the All-Pac 12 First Team. During his three seasons at Oregon State, Meckler had a slash line of .326/.435/.467.

2022 SEASON

Made his professional debut with the rookie-level Arizona Complex League Giants and appeared exclusively in the outfield. He slashed .290/.460/.395 in 12 games with the ACL Giants Black.

Was promoted to Single-A San Jose, where he slashed .439/.540/.683 in 11 games.

2023 SEASON |

- ▶ Opened the year at Double-A Richmond and appeared in just six games with the Squirrels before earning a promotion to Sacramento on May 2.
- ▶ Went 1-0 with a 0.87 ERA in the six outings, striking out 15 batters in just 10.1 innings and holding opponents to a .094 clip.
- ▶ Made 48 appearances for the River Cats and went 2-1 with a 2.77 ERA (16er, 52.0ip) in those outings.
- ▶ Converted 14 of 17 save opportunities with Sacramento and struck out 73 batters (12.63 K/9ip).
- ▶ His 14 saves were tied for fifth-most in all Triple-A.

CAREER NOTES |

AT STANFORD

Attended Stanford University from 2017-2019 where he went a combined 17-9 with a 3.68 ERA in 46 games (42 starts) down on the farm during his career.

Miller was teammates with fellow Giant Tristan Beck at Stanford in 2017 and 2018 and Beck's younger brother, Brendan, in 2018 and 2019.

Selected by the Phils in the fourth-round of the 2019 First-Year Player Draft.

2020 SEASON

Did not pitch due to the pandemic but did pitch in the Florida Fall Instructional League.

2021 SEASON

Attended Major League Spring Training with the Phillies as a non-roster invite.

Was on the IL with a left shoulder strain from the beginning of the year through July 15. Appeared in five games and then went back on the IL with the same left shoulder strain on August 12.

Returned in the fall to play in the Arizona Fall League for Peoria. Miller posted a 1.80 ERA (2er, 10.0ip) with 12 strikeouts in six relief outings for the Javelinas.

OFF THE FIELD |

Graduated from De Smet Jesuit High School just outside of St. Louis.

Miller's hobbies include golfing.

In 2015 he was a member of the 18U USA Baseball National Team 28-Man Roster.

- ▶ Played in nine Spring Training games as a call-up from Minor League camp...went 3-for-11 (.273) with two runs, a home run and a hit-by-pitch.

CAREER NOTES |

2017 SEASON

Tied for the fourth-best batting average in the AZL in 2017 (.331) while averaging a strikeout once in every nine plate appearances, which was the third lowest in the AZL among qualified hitters.

2021 SEASON

Named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star and a NWL Post-Season All-Star in 2021 after leading all High-A hitters with a .336 batting average (11th overall in MiLB).

Missed the end of the 2021 season and the entire 2022 season with a wrist injury. He was hitting .485 with 24 runs, 11 doubles, two triples, four home runs, 20 RBI and a 1.237 OPS over a 23-game stretch with High-A Eugene prior to the injury.

FOR TÑO |

Munguia was called over for a MLB Spring Training game on March 3, 2023 vs. Colorado. After fouling off 14 pitches, he hit an emotional home run off the Rockies Case Williams in the 6th inning. The at-bat was not only his first since returning from a wrist injury that forced him to miss all of the 2022 season, it was his first since his younger brother, 18-year-old, Francisco Antonio "Tonõ" passed away in a motorcycle accident a week prior. "It was a very emotional moment for me," Munguia told the Chronicle. "When I hit the home run, I looked up in the sky and I said, 'This is for you, Tonõ.'"

Born in Chinandega, Nicaragua and would be the third player from Chinandega (first non-pitcher) to make the Majors joining Oswaldo Mairena (2004-2006) and Vicente Padilla (1999-2012). There have been 15 Nicaraguan natives to the Giants, two for the Giants, joining outfielder David Green (1985) and Marvin Bernard (1995-2003).

"He's one of my favorite players I've ever had the opportunity to coach," Richmond manager Dennis Pelfrey said. "He plays with energy and excitement. He is a 'creator of runs,' I like to call him. When the game is on the line, he usually comes through for us. He finds a way to get on base and finds way to create havoc on the bases. He plays with a lot of passion and he's really fun to watch."

"He's going to overachieve," Giants farm director Kyle Haines told Baseball America in 2023. "He's going to give his best effort, and I guarantee you he'll outplay his size."

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Played in 47 games during his fourth season with the Mariners...he missed the final six weeks of the season after landing on the Injured List on August 16 with a sprained left thumb.
- ▶ Had pretty even splits during his 2023 campaign, logging an .869 OPS with three homers versus left-handed pitching and an .876 OPS with five homers versus righties.
- ▶ After a tough April where he batted .182 (6-for-33) with two doubles and 13 strikeouts in 10 games, he went on to slash .321/.376/.625 from May through mid-August before his season-ending thumb sprain.
- ▶ Only struck out 31 times in his final 37 games of the year while drawing 10 walks.
- ▶ Logged a career-high tying nine-game hit streak from July 24-August 11, going 13-for-33 (.394) with five extra-base hits in that span.
- ▶ Had a catcher's ERA of 3.18 in his 41 games behind the plate.
- ▶ However, he only threw out one of 28 potential basestealers.

CAREER NOTES |

2015 SEASON

Was a September call-up for the Rockies and made his MLB debut on September 12 at Seattle.

2019 SEASON

Was briefly a Giant for a few days late in Spring Training after being claimed off waivers from Colorado on March 25.

He was designated for assignment by SF and traded to Seattle for RHP Jesus Ozoria on March 29.

Had his best MLB season, setting career bests in nearly every offensive category after hitting .273 with 12 doubles, 18 homers, 40 RBI and an .859 OPS.

2020 SEASON

Suffered a left foot metatarsal fracture during Summer Camp and was placed on the 10-day IL on July 23. Murphy missed the entire shortened season.

2022 SEASON

Saw action in only 14 games for the Mariners in his third season in Seattle. He went on the 10-day Injured List on May 7 with a dislocated shoulder and missed the rest of the season.

OFF THE FIELD |

Tom and his wife, Lindsay, make their offseason home in Constantia, NY with their three children: Tessa, Jase and Lex.

Murphy will make a $20,000 donation to the Giants Community Fund in both 2024 and 2025.

Murphy graduated from Paul V. Moore High School in Central Square, NY, which is about 20 miles north of Syracuse.

Played collegiately at the University at Buffalo for three seasons where he batted .337 with 47 doubles, four triples, 27 homers and 120 RBI.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Made his first start of the year on March 31 against Cleveland and was removed after just 3.1 innings (91 pitches)...had been feeling elbow pain since the 2nd inning and left the game after walking five hitters and giving up five runs (three earned) on four hits.
- ▶ Was placed on the 15-day injured list the following day and ruled out for the season after being diagnosed with a left flexor strain.
- ▶ Underwent surgery to repair his left flexor tendon as well as his ulnar collateral ligament (Tommy John) on May 3...the procedure was performed by Dr. Keith Meister.

AT BRENTWOOD HS

Selected by Washington in the 12th round of the 2010 draft out of Brentwood High School in Tennessee. Ray had committed to be a two-way player at the University of Arkansas before signing with the Nationals.

2013 SEASON

Traded from Washington to Detroit on December 2, 2013 as part of the return package for RHP Doug Fister going to the Nationals.

2014 SEASON

Recorded the win in his Major League debut on May 6 vs. Houston with Detroit.

WITH ARIZONA (2015-2020)

Was traded to Arizona as part of a three-team deal that sent IF Didi Gregorius to the Yankees and RHP Shane Greene to the Tigers.

Struck out 218 batters over 174.1 innings in his second season with Arizona in 2016. Ray became just the second pitcher in history to record at least 218 strikeouts in less than 175.0 innings in a single season, joining Kerry Wood in 1998 (233 K in 166.2 IP).

In 2018, Ray became the only pitcher in Major League history to record 165 strikeouts in fewer than 125 innings (123.2ip) in a season.

WITH TORONTO (2020-21)

Acquired by Toronto on August 31, 2020 with cash in exchange for LHP Travis Bergen.

Signed a one year deal with the Blue Jays prior to the 2021 season. Was named the American League Cy Young Award winner after receiving 29 of 30 first-place votes in his first full season with Toronto in 2021. Ray went 13-7 with a 2.84 ERA and a Major-League best 248 strikeouts that season.

Reached the 1,000 inning milestone on August 30, 2021. Ray's 1,241 strikeouts were the most all-time over a player's first 1,000 career innings in MLB history.

2022 SEASON

Signed a five-year Major League contract with Seattle worth $115 million on November 30, 2021 that included a no-trade clause for the first two years.

Crossed the 200+ strikeout threshold for the fifth time in his career after fanning 212 batters in his first season with the Mariners. Went 12-12 with a 3.71 ERA in 32 starts.

At the time, Ray was one of just six active pitchers with at least four 200+ strikeout seasons prior to turning 30, joining Clayton Kershaw, Chris Sale, Madison Bumgarner, David Price, Justin Verlander.

OFF THE FIELD |

Robbie and his wife, Taylor, were married in November 2014. The couple has four children: two sons Asher and Brady, and two daughters Leighton and Sophia, who was born on January 10, 2024.

Attended Brentwood High School in Tennessee. Posted 7-1 record and a 0.50 ERA his senior year of High School, compiling 95 strikeouts while pitching three no-hitters.

Played on the same Nashville-area travel ball team as 2018 American League MVP Mookie Betts, who attended John Overton High School.

AWARDS |

★ ALL-STAR
2021 W/MIN

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Played his first full season in a Giants uniform.
- ▶ Appeared in 60+ games for the fifth time in his eight MLB seasons.
- ▶ Allowed just six of his 23 inherited runners to score (26.1%), his best mark since 2018 with Minnesota (25.6).
- ▶ His .211 opposing average was the second-lowest in his career (had a .206 opponent's average against in 2018 with Minnesota).
- ▶ Held batters to a .165 clip off his sweeper and struck out 30% of the batters he faced with the pitch.
- ▶ Allowed just four earned runs in 27 road games (23.1 ip)...his 1.54 road ERA was seventh-lowest in the NL (min. 20.0ip).
- ▶ Walked a career-high four batters and did not record an out on April 12 vs. LAD at Oracle Park....all four runs came around to score.
- ▶ After the outing, went 6-3-2 with a 2.79 ERA in 55 games to finish the season...struck out 63 batters in 48.1 innings (11.73 K/9ip).
- ▶ Notched his first save of the year on April 19 at Miami in SF's 5-2 win.

AT KENTUCKY

Taylor attended the University of Kentucky for three years from 2010-12, going 13-18 with a 5.35 ERA in 45 games (42 starts) for the Wildcats. He was an 11th-round pick of the Twins in 2012.

2019 SEASON

Named Minnesota's Joseph W. Haynes Pitcher of the Year as voted upon by the members of the Twin Cities Chapter of the BBWAA.

2021 SEASON

Was an All-Star with Minnesota after posting a 3.35 ERA with eight walks and 54 strikeouts in 37.2 innings in the first half of the season. Unfortunately, he did not appear in the game, which was held in his hometown of Denver.

2022 SEASON

Was traded to San Diego on April 7 and posted a 0.44 ERA with 17 saves in 18 opportunities over his first 20 games of the season with San Diego.

Acquired by Milwaukee on August 1. Left-handed batters went 1-for-21 with 13 strikeouts vs. Rogers during his time with Milwaukee.

Posted an 11.8 K/9ip ratio in 2022, his best over a full season. His 31 saves between San Diego and Milwaukee were also a career-best.

OFF THE FIELD |

Taylor graduated from Chatfield High School in Littleton, CO.

Won Minnesota's Mike Augustin Media Good Guy Award in 2020 and the Twins' Carl R. Pohlad Community Service Award in 2021.

When Taylor received the call-up to the Major Leagues on April 13, 2016, he kept the exciting news to himself for more than three hours -- he was waiting until Tyler finished practice with the Richmond Flying Squirrels. Only after telling Tyler did he call his parents.

Grew up a Broncos fan and attends every home game. He has season tickets and still resides in the Denver area.

TRANSACTIONS ◀

Selected by Minnesota in the 11th-round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft; signed by Twins scout Rick Sellers.

Placed on the 10-day injured list on July 27, 2021 (left middle finger sprain)...transferred to the 60-day IL on September 18, 2021 and missed the remainder of the 2021 season.

Welcomed by San Diego on April 7, 2022 along with OF Brent Rooker and cash. RHP Chris Paddock, RHP Emilio Pagan, and a PTBNL went to Minnesota in return.

Welcomed by Milwaukee on August 1, 2022 along with RHP Dinelson Lamet, IF Esteury Ruiz and LHP Robert Gasser. LHP Josh Hader went to San Diego in return.

Signed by San Francisco to a three-year Major League contract on December 28, 2022.

Taylor and Tyler Rogers are the fourth set of twins to play for the same team (see below). The two are known as “mirror image” twins, which Scientific American says is an “unofficial phenomenon” affecting one-quarter of identical twins. Only some traits are mirrored; one twin might have a freckle on one cheek, while it’s on the opposite cheek on the other twin. In the case of the Rogers brothers, Taylor is left-handed and Tyler is right-handed.

With Tyler’s Major League debut in 2019, he and Taylor became the 10th set of twin brothers to both play in the Major Leagues and the seventh set to do so in the same season. The other nine are listed below:

- Jose Canseco (1985-2001) / Ozzie Canseco (1990-1993)
- Stan Cliburn (1980-1980) / Stu Cliburn (1984-1988)
- Marshall Edwards (1981-1983) / Mike Edwards (1977-1980)
- Ray Grimes (1920-1926) / Roy Grimes (1920-1920)
- George Hunter (1909-1910) / Bill Hunter (1912-1912)
- Bubber Jonnard (1920-1935) / Claude Jonnard (1921-1929)
- Damon Minor (2000-2004) / Ryan Minor (1998-2001)
- Eddie O’Brien (1953-1958) / Johnny O’Brien (1953-1959)
- Joe Shannon (1915-1915) / Red Shannon (1915-1926)

IT TAKES TWO TO TANGO

On April 11, 2022 vs. San Diego, Tyler & Taylor both made appearances, marking the second time in MLB history that two twin brothers pitched in the same game and the first time for opposing teams. The only other time it happened in MLB history prior to last season was on July 31, 1956 when Johnny & Eddie O’Brien, primarily position players for their careers, both pitched for Pittsburgh.

STICKING TOGETHER

According to Elias, Taylor and Tyler Rogers are the fourth set of twins to play on the same team in Major League history. The last set of twins to do so were Jose and Ozzie Canseco, who both played for Oakland in 1990. The other two sets of twin teammates are: Eddie and Johnny O’Brien for the Pirates in 1953 and 1955-58 and Joe and Red Shannon for Boston in 1915.

Both brothers say they would have become firefighters had they not succeeded in baseball. There are four generations of firefighters in their family. Their father, Scott, a career firefighter for more than 30 years, was an Operations Chief in Lakewood, CO and recently retired this past offseason. Their great grandfather also served as did their great-great-grandfather, who emigrated from Ireland and traveled to Denver in a covered wagon

The brothers started the Rogers Family Foundation, dedicated to the mental wellness of first responders. “The military has done great job, bringing post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) to the forefront, letting people in the military know it’s okay to seek help,” Taylor said. “There’s a misconception that all firefighters do is go into burning buildings. That’s a small portion of what they actually do. The things they do affect their mental state.”

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Appeared in 68 games, second-most on the team behind Doval (69).
- ▶ Had a 27.0-inning scoreless streak from September 6, 2022 to April 23...the streak was the second-longest active in the Majors at the time and was snapped when NYM's Francisco Álvarez homered in Rogers' second inning of work.
- ▶ Only gave up four runs in May and June combined (26.0 innings).
- ▶ Held teams scoreless in 47 of his 68 outings.
- ▶ His 84.4 mph average exit velocity was second-best in MLB.
- ▶ Rogers' 27.6% opposing hard hit rate was eighth-best in the Majors.
- ▶ Opponents hit .395 (15-for-38) off him on the first pitch.
- ▶ Since his MLB debut on August 27, 2019, no pitcher in the Majors has appeared in more games than Tyler (262g).
- ▶ 45 of his 60 strikeouts came with his slider, with batters hitting .187 off the pitch.

AT GARDEN CITY CC / AUSTIN PEAY

Tyler attended Garden City Community College (KS) for his freshman and sophomore seasons before transferring to Austin Peay for his final two seasons.

Tyler is a submariner, with his knuckles barely staying off the ground as he delivers the ball to the plate. It was at Garden City Community College where he became a submarine pitcher. His coach at the time, Chris Finnegan, suggested Tyler try a submarine style motion.

2019 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on August 27 vs. Arizona after spending seven seasons in the Giants' minor league system.

2020 SEASON

Led the National League with 29 appearances in the shortened season.

2021 SEASON

Logged a career-best seven wins after posting a 2.22 ERA through 80 outings. Rogers' 80 appearances were most in the NL.

2022 SEASON

Posted a career best 0.36 HR/9ip after allowing just three home runs in 75.2 innings.

Opposing batters' average exit velocity off Rogers was 84.2 mph, second-lowest in MLB only to NYY's Jonathan Loáisiga (83.9mph).

OFF THE FIELD |

Tyler and his wife, Jennifer, were married on November 14, 2020. Tyler Beede, a Giants teammate at the time, served as the officiant for the wedding.

The couple welcomed their first child, Jack Ryan Rogers, in April 2022.

Tyler graduated from Chatfield High School in Littleton, CO.

Was inducted into Austin Peay's Athletics Hall of Fame in February 2024. Rogers was a key member of the Governors 2012 and 2013 OVC championship teams.

CAREER NOTES |

AT EASTERN FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE

Led the NJCAA with 136 strikeouts as a sophomore in 2017.

Selected by the Mariners in the 15th round of the 2017 draft following his sophomore year.

2018 SEASON

Traded from Seattle to Tampa Bay on May 25 with RHP Andrew Moore in exchange for RHP Alex Colome, OF Denard Span and cash.

Finished inside the top-5 in numerous Midwest League leaderboards. Ranked second with a 2.95 ERA, tied for first with 11 wins, fourth with 131 strikeouts, tied for first with a .238 opposing batting average and eighth with a 1.27 WHIP.

2020 SEASON

Suited up for Caguas (three games) during the Puerto Rican Winter League. He also pitched one game for PR in the 2021 Caribbean Series.

2022 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on April 12 against the Oakland Athletics. His counterpart, right-handed pitcher Adam Oller, was also making his MLB debut. It was just the 28th time in MLB history that both starting pitchers made their MLB debuts in the same game.

Claimed off waivers by the Nationals on August 25.

Named Triple-A East Pitcher of the Month in September after going 5-0 with a 0.31 ERA (1er, 29.1ip) and 36 strikeouts in five starts.

Graduated from Coral Springs (FL) Charter-School in 2015.

BOCH?

Attended Eastern Florida State College, the same college former Giants manager Bruce Bochy attended. The EFSC baseball team plays its games at Bruce Bochy Field.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Made his first career Opening Day roster, with his MLB debut coming with a start in LF on Opening Day...became SF's 17th straight different Opening Day left fielder dating to 2007.
- ▶ Was one of two Giants position players to remain on the active roster the entire season (other: IF/OF LaMonte Wade Jr.).
- ▶ Was a Rule-5 pick of the Reds in December 2022 before being traded to the Giants hours later... stayed on SF's active roster the entire season and is a full member of SF's organization.
- ▶ Hit .368 (28x76) with RISP, which ranked second among rookies (min. 75 PA).
- ▶ Logged a .744 OPS with all 13 HRs vs. RHPs. (295 PA) compared to a .392 OPS vs. LHPs (49 PA).
- ▶ Slashed .259/.319/.444 with 10 homers in 67 games before the All-Star break...slashed .190/.267/.295 with three homers in 43 games after the break.
- ▶ His 34.0% strikeout rate was in the bottom 2% of MLB, and his .198 XBA was in the bottom 1%.
- ▶ Hit .252 with 20 runs, five doubles, nine home runs, 26 RBI and a .755 OPS as a catcher compared to batting .217 with eight runs, three doubles, three home runs, 15 RBI and a .616 OPS in left field.
- ▶ Was the first Giant to hit home runs as a catcher and an outfielder in the same season since John Rabb in 1984.
- ▶ Hit his first career walk-off home run in the 9th inning on April 25 vs. STL's Ryan Helsety, the first Giants catcher to hit a walk-off homer since Nick Hundley did so on September 2, 2017 vs. STL.
- ▶ Per Sarah Langs, Sabol was the fifth Giants rookie to hit a walk-off home run in the Wild Card era, with OF Jaylin Davis being the last (Sept. 25, 2019)
- ▶ Struck out in 23 consecutive games from April 2-May 10, the fourth-longest streak in MLB in 2023.
- ▶ Recorded a career-best five RBI and two home runs on July 3 vs. SEA.

AT USC

Attended USC and spent three years with the Trojans before being drafted. Sabol hit .268 with eight doubles, three triples, three homers and 22 RBI in 55 games as a junior.

2021 SEASON

Logged a .957 OPS across 66 games between Single-A Bradenton and High-A Greensboro in the Pirates organization, his first full season in pro ball after no season in 2020.

2022 SEASON

Appeared in 98 games for Double-A Altoona in the Pirates system. Sabol slashed .281/.347/.486 with 14 homers and 60 RBI.

Was behind the plate for 58 of his 98 games with Altoona while also seeing some action in both left field and right field.

Was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis for the final 25 games of the season where he homered five times in 25 games while hitting .296.

OFF THE FIELD |

Proposed to his college girlfriend, Sydney van Alphen, in January 2022. She was a tennis player at USC and has been a huge support to Blake through the minor leagues. Both were business majors. Blake would like to earn an MBA at USC. The couple lives in Orange, CA, in the offseason and are scheduled to be wed this November.

Blake attended Aliso Niguel High School. In 2015, Sabol was rated as the No. 64 player in the nation in his class and seventh-best catcher by Perfect Game.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Sabol's father, Rob, played baseball during his college days at Long Beach State. Rob was an outfielder.

Won a gold medal at the Pan Am Games in Colombia with Team USA's U15 squad in 2013. Also on that team were the White Sox Andrew Vaughn and former first overall pick Mickey Moniak.

SUP, CUZ?

Sabol's second cousin is former Trojan and Pittsburgh Steeler Troy Polamalu. Blake's mom used to babysit Troy.

ROOTS

Sabol is of Samoan heritage. His mother, Carmelita, is "straight from island," Sabol says, by which he means Samoa, not American Samoa. (Father Rob is of Croatian descent.) As 50 percent Samoan, Sabol is considered an Afakasi, the term for part-European Samoans.

GOOD JUJU?

Upon Sabol signing his contract after being drafted by the Pirates in 2019, he went out to dinner with one of his best friends from college, NFL wide receiver Juju Smith-Schuster.

Sabol has two brothers, Stefan and Jarrett. Stefan was drafted by the Mets in the 2012 draft out of Oregon and played five years in the minors, mainly as an outfielder.

Jarrett is currently attending Aliso Niguel High School as a junior where he plays catcher and outfield. Jarrett is also committed to attend USC.

Stefan and Michael Lorenzen are the same age and Blake was a bat boy on Lorenzen's travel ball teams as a kid. Blake and Lorenzen have worked out together in the offseason.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Played for the Dubai Falcons of the Baseball United League, becoming the first in the new league's history to hit a six-run home run.
- ▶ The six-run homer was possible because Sandoval's at-bat was the "Moneyball" at-bat, meaning every run that scored during the AB counted as two runs... so Sandoval's three-run homer became a six-run homer.
- ▶ Other players in the league include former Giants catcher Hector Sánchez, former MLB Cy Young winner Bartolo Colón, four-time Gold Glove infielder Andrelton Simmons and eight-time All-Star Robinson Canó.

2008 SEASON

Named SF's Minor League Player of the Year and made Major League debut.

Selected to SF's roster from Connecticut on August 13 and debuted the next day at Houston as the Giants' starting catcher.

Singled off Mike Hampton in the 2nd inning on August 16 at Atlanta for his first career hit, part of a three-hit effort in his second Major League game.

Clubbed his first career homer on August 27 vs. Colorado off Livan Hernández.

2009 SEASON

His .330 average ranked second among NL qualifiers to Florida's Hanley Ramirez (.342).

Also ranked among NL leaders in 2B (3rd, 44), multi-hit games (2nd, 57), average vs. LHP (3rd, .379), hits (4th, 189), total bases (6th, 318), SLG (6th, .556), XBH (7th, 74), and IBB (9th, 13).

His 189 hits were the most by a Giant since Jeff Kent (195 in 2002).

Made his first career Opening Day roster. At 22 years old, was the Giants youngest Opening Day starter at 3B since Tom O'Malley at 22 years old in 1983.

2011 SEASON

Led the Giants in average (.315), hits (134), homers (23), extra base hits (52), RBI (70), and runs (55) despite missing 40 games with a fractured hamate bone (procedure by Dr. Don Sheridan).

Hit safely in a career-high 22 straight games from June 19-July 14 (.323, 31-for-96). It was the longest streak by a Giant since Jack Clark hit in 26 straight games in 1978. He reached safely in a career-high 27 straight contests from June 19-July 19.

Had an XBH in nine straight games from June 26-July 4, the longest streak for a Giant since Willie Mays (nine straight in 1963).

Named to his first career All-Star team by manager Bruce Bochy as a replacement for Mets SS José Reyes. He went 1-for-1 with an RBI double in his lone PA after entering as a defensive replacement at third in the 6th inning.

Hit for the cycle on September 15 at Colorado. He homered in the 1st, singled in the 2nd, doubled in 5th, and tripled in the 6th.

2012 SEASON

Began the year with a 20-game hit streak. He became just the third SF Giant with two separate 20+ game hit streaks (also 2011), along with Willie Mays and Willie McCovey.

Selected by the fans as the starting NL All-Star 3B with 5,743,542 votes. He hit the first bases-loaded triple in All-Star Game history on July 10 at Kansas City. Sandoval became only the third player in All-Star Game history to come to the plate with the bases loaded and drive in all three men (also Fred Lynn in 1983 and Brian McCann in 2010).

Homered from both sides of the plate for the first time in his career on September 20 vs. Colorado with a solo HR off LHP Jorge De La Rosa in the first inning and a three-run shot off RHP Edgmer Escalona in the 4th.

Was the first-ever Venezuelan-born World Series MVP (award first given out in 1955). The award has since been won by Kansas City catcher Salvador Pérez in 2015. He went 8-for-16 (.500) with three HR and four RBI in a four-game WS sweep of the Tigers.

Made ML history in Game 1 of the WS after hitting home runs in each of his first three PA, just the fifth three-HR game in WS history and the ninth in postseason history.

2013 SEASON

Recorded his second career three-HR game on September 4 at San Diego (also Game 1 of 2012 WS vs. Detroit). He became the sixth player in MLB history to have a three-HR performance in both the regular season and Postseason, and was the first reigning World Series MVP in MLB history to hit three homers in a game the following year.

2014 SEASON

Won a third World Series title in his final season of his first stint with the Giants. Hit .279 with 26 2Bs, three 3Bs, 16 HRs, and 73 RBI while setting career highs with 157 games and 153 starts.

Helped the Giants to the 2014 World Series title, batting .366 with seven 2B, five RBI, and five BB. He started all 17 of SF's postseason games and reached safely in 16 of them.

Set a Major League record for any single postseason with 26 hits.

Sent Game 2 of the NLDS to extras with a two-out RBI double that ended the top of the 9th (Buster Posey out at home) in a game that SF won in 18 innings, 2-1.

Batted .429 (12x28) with multiple hits in four of the seven games of World Series against Kansas City.

Had his 25-game postseason on-base streak snapped in Game 3 of the WS (0-for-4).

2015 SEASON

Played 126 games in his first season with the Boston Red Sox. He batted exclusively left-handed beginning with a pinch-hit single in the 8th inning on May 24 vs. Los Angeles-AL. From that date on, he hit .255 against southpaws (was 2-for-41 prior to that point).

On June 15 vs. Atlanta, he recorded both his 200th career double in the 7th inning and his 1,000th career hit with a two-out double in the 9th.

Sandoval played in just one of the Red Sox' last 17 games beginning September 18 due to illness that resulted in pneumonia.

2016 SEASON

Was limited to three games due to a shoulder injury. Underwent successful surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder on May 3. Dr. James Andrews performed the surgery in Pensacola, FL.

2017 SEASON

Was released by Boston on July 19 and signed a minor league contract with the Giants on July 22. He would later have his contract purchased by SF from Triple-A Sacramento on August 5.

With Boston, he missed 31 games with a right knee sprain and 19 games with a left inner ear infection.

He had a 39 at-bat hitless drought from Aug. 25-Sept. 8, which marked the longest hitless streak of his career and the longest by a Giants position player since 1900.

2018 SEASON

Came in to pitch the 9th inning in Game 1 of a doubleheader vs. Los Angeles-NL on April 28 and induced three groundouts in a 1-2-3 inning. He was the fourth position player to pitch in the SF Giants era and first since Greg Litton did so on July 4, 1991 vs. Houston.

Placed on the 10-day injured list on July 30 with a right hamstring strain suffered while scoring on a sacrifice fly on July 29. Had season-ending surgery on August 7.

2019 SEASON

His .820 OPS and .507 slugging percentage were his highest totals since 2011 (.909 and .552, respectively). Averaged one homer every 19.43 at-bats, the second-best HR/AB rate of his career.

Had 18 hits as a pinch-hitter (most in MLB). The 18 hits were tied with Ken Oberkfell (1989) for most by a Giant since 1974.

2020 SEASON

Played in 33 games with the Giants after making the Opening Day roster as a minor league free agent out of camp.

Released by San Francisco on Sept. 10, and signed with Atlanta three days later. Atlanta would purchase his contract on Sept. 27 and he would go 0-for-3 with a hit-by-pitch in three Postseason games.

2021 SEASON

Returned to the Braves and slashed .178/.302/.342 while hitting four home runs in 69 games before being traded to Cleveland on July 30 for OF Eddie Rosario, and subsequently released.

2022 SEASON

Played 71 games in the Mexican League with Aceros del Norte (28 games) and Olmecas de Tabasco (43 games). He had a slash line of .282/.361/.421 with 10 home runs and 42 RBI.

POSTSEASON NOTES |

Sandoval is a winner of three World Series rings all with the Giants. Sandoval has appeared in 42 Postseason games overall in his career, batting .338 (53-for-157) with 13 doubles, six homers and 20 RBI.

53

His 53 Postseason hits are second-most for any Giants player in SF-era history (Buster Posey first w/57).

His career .338 Postseason batting average is tied for best in big league history (min. 155 PA) with Steve Garvey.

He set all-time record for single Postseason with 26 hits in Giants' 2014 run to World Series title. The record has since been broken by Tampa Bay outfielder Randy Arozarena (29 in 2020).

Was named 2012 World Series MVP after hitting .500 (8-for-16) in SF's four-game sweep of Detroit.

Is one of only four players ever to hit three home runs in a World Series game, along with STL's Albert Pujols (2011 G3), NYY's Reggie Jackson (1977 G6), and NYY's Babe Ruth (two times, 1926 G4 & 1928 G4).

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Made his MLB debut on May 9 vs. Washington... became the 19th player in Giants history to homer in his debut for his first MLB hit...also became the youngest Giant (24 years, 69 days) to homer in their ML debut since Will Clark (22 years, 26 days).
- ▶ Was the 22nd Giant in the SF-era to record two or more hits in ML debut.
- ▶ Recorded at least one hit in nine of his first 10 big league games...his 16 hits through 10 games are the second-most in SF Giants history, only behind Al Gallagher's 18 in 1970.
- ▶ Slashed .342/.351/.500 in first 20 MLB games through May 29...struggled at the plate from May 30 until he was optioned on August 6, with a line of .121/.207/.161 in 49 games.
- ▶ Logged 42 games at shortstop, 35 at third base and 19 at second base.
- ▶ Had the top-26 hardest throws by a Giants infielder in 2023, with his top two registering at 94.1 mph.
- ▶ His 92.5 mph average on throws was second-hardest in MLB behind Cincinnati's Elly De La Cruz (95.9mph) for second basemen, shortstops and third basemen.
- ▶ Had his first multi-homer game in the final game of the season vs. LAD on October 1.
- ▶ Was SF's #4 prospect according to MLB.com entering the season...was named the 2023 Barney Nugent Award winner out of Spring Training.
- ▶ He slashed .300/.346/.435 with 28 runs, 13 doubles, a triple, four home runs and 33 RBI in 47 Triple-A games.

AT SAN DIEGO STATE

Went to San Diego State University, where he hit .323 with four doubles and nine RBI in the shortened 2020 season as a junior. Was also a closer for the Aztecs, recording six saves in eight mound appearances that year.

Received second-team all-Mountain West recognition in 2019 as a sophomore after finishing the season with a .315 batting average, five home runs, 36 RBI and a .415 OBP.

As a freshman, Schmitt became the first SDSU player since Stephen Strasburg in 2007 to be named a freshman first-team All-American by Baseball America after setting SDSU's single season earned run average record with a 0.28 mark (min. 30ip).

2021 SEASON

Logged his first season of pro ball, spending the entire year with Single-A San Jose but only playing in 64 games. He missed time a majority of the time after suffering a left wrist fracture after being hit by a pitch. He was also hit in the face earlier in the season and missed some time.

2022 SEASON

Shot through SF's minor league system, beginning the year in High-A and ending it in Triple-A.

Named the Rawlings Minor League Gold Glove winner at third base after committing only 10 errors across all three levels (169 chances).

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended Eastlake High School in Chula Vista and was rated as the 45th-best player overall in California as a senior in 2017. Schmitt led Eastlake High to the CIF championship game in both 2016 and 2017.

Took up surfing when he was younger but doesn't do it as much now.

DID YOU KNOW?

Schmitt says he modeled part of his game after former Giants IF Evan Longoria.

Before attending and playing baseball collegiately at San Diego State, Schmitt used to go to their games when he was younger. He went to the games with his mom, who is also a SDSU alum.

Spent summer 2020 during the Covid shutdown working out at home. He and his dad built a batting cage on the side of the house and his dad helped him work on groundballs.

Went to both Disneyland and Disney World this past offseason and enjoys going on all the rides.

2023 SEASON

- Spent the entire season pitching for Double-A Richmond...went 5-3 with a 3.99 ERA, 114 strikeouts and a 1.23 WHIP in a career-high 112.2 innings.
- Named the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week on August 6 with Richmond...allowed just one hit while striking out nine across 5.0 shutout innings on August 1 at Altoona to win the award.
- Finished with the eighth-best ERA (3.99), the fourth-best WHIP (1.23) and the fourth-best opposing batting average (.231) in the Eastern League.
- Posted a 1.96 ERA in six May games (three starts) with 14 strikeouts, a 1.09 WHIP and a .217 opposing batting average across 23.0 innings.

OFF THE FIELD

Spent his freshman year at Dartmouth before transferring to Kansas State as a sophomore. Spent three more years at K-State before being drafted by the Mets in 2021.

Would attend a new baseball stadium every year growing up with his dad, Brian. Their first ballpark was Coors Field. Told Richmond.com that they've been to 16-17 stadiums, including Oracle Park.

His father Brian has participated in four Ironman competitions and works as a firefighter.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Hit .270 with 24 runs, nine doubles, five home runs, 20 RBI and a .748 OPS in 89 games (42 starts).
- ▶ Batted .318 with eight extra-base hits and a .906 OPS in 44 home games...hit .227 with six extra-base hits and a .595 OPS in 45 road games.
- ▶ Slashed .288/.361/.439 vs. lefties compared to slashing .226/.317/.302 vs. right-handed pitching.
- ▶ Finished the season 18-for-51 (.353) with nine runs, six 2Bs, three RBI, seven walks and a .912 OPS in his last 25 games.
- ▶ His eight pinch-hit HRs since making his debut in 2017 are tied with teammate IF Wilmer Flores for most in MLB in that span...his eight career pinch-hit homers are also second-most in the SF-era behind Willie McCovey (13).
- ▶ Hit .341 (15-for-44) with runners in scoring position.
- ▶ Missed the first 21 games of the season with a left hamstring strain sustained during Spring Training... missed another 17 games from May 11-May 29 with a second left hamstring strain.
- ▶ Went 8-for-36 (.222) as a pinch-hitter with a double, two home runs and seven RBI.
- ▶ Underwent right elbow surgery on October 11, performed by Dr. Keith Meister in Dallas, TX.. Slater had an arthroscopic procedure to remove a bone spur in the back of his elbow...he also had an ulnar nerve transposition to address his ongoing nerve discomfort during this past season...the rehabilitation process should take approximately four months and he's expected to be ready for Spring Training.

AT STANFORD

Attended Stanford University and studied Science, Technology and Society as an integrated-studies major. Was an All-Pac-12 First Team outfielder in 2014. Hit .310 to go along with five homers and 72 RBI in 113 career games during three seasons at Stanford.

2019 SEASON

Hit his first career grand slam on July 6, 2019 vs. St. Louis, a pinch-hit shot off RHP Miles Mikolas in the 4th inning. The homer was also his first career pinch-hit homer. He was the first Giant with a pinch-hit grand slam since Rich Aurilia did it June 12, 2003 at Chicago-AL. Slater's was the 22nd pinch-hit grand slam in SF-era.

SLAM2021 SEASON

Played in a career-best 129 games while setting career bests in home runs (12) and stolen bases (15).

Four of his 12 homers were pinch-hit homers, tied for the most by a Giant in a single season in the SF-era. Slashed .289/.438/.711 in 38 at-bats as a pinch-hitter overall.

2022 SEASON

Went 10-for-30 (.333) with two doubles, one homer, six RBI, 10 runs scored and 11 walks as a pinch-hitter.

Was 12-for-13 in stolen base attempts.

OFF THE FIELD |

Slater and his wife, Caroline, were married in December 2022 at the nearby Stanford Memorial Church.

Attended The Bolles School in Jacksonville, FL, where he was the shortstop and captain of the baseball team that won three straight state championships. Was originally picked as a high school shortstop by the Dodgers in the 44th round of the 2011 draft.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2011, as a senior at The Bolles School, he was considered the top baseball prospect in Florida until he broke his ankle during a game of Frisbee with friends. The injury caused him to miss his senior season, and his draft stock plummeted. He considers his ankle injury a blessing in disguise because of how much he now values his college experience.

Austin's favorite pro athlete growing up was the Braves' Chipper Jones, who is also an alum of The Bolles School. The Braves were also his favorite team growing up.

IN THE COMMUNITY |

Austin Slater has used his platform as a Giant to make an impact on the community. Raising awareness for mental health, especially for young people, has been a priority for Slater through his annual Mustache May initiative that shines a light on the need for additional access to mental health services.

Additionally, Slater focuses on bettering the city of San Francisco by participating in tree planting events in San Francisco neighborhoods. He's also stepped up to serve food and distribute critical need items to neighbors experiencing homelessness through the St. Anthony Foundation in the Tenderloin.

- ▶ Wrapped up his eighth Major League season and third with the Padres going 14-9 with a 2.25 ERA over 32 starts, earning his second career Cy Young Award (first in the NL).
- ▶ Snell, who previously won the award in the American League with Tampa Bay in 2018, joined Roger Clemens, Randy Johnson, Pedro Martinez, Max Scherzer, Gaylord Perry and Roy Halladay as the only players in MLB history to win the Cy Young Award in both leagues
- ▶ Led the Majors in ERA for the first time in his career... also led all MLB pitchers in opposing average (.181), opponent slugging percentage (.286), opponent OPS (.579), hits allowed per 9.0 innings (5.75) and percentage of pitches put in play (12.8%).
- ▶ Snell's 234 strikeouts were tied for third-most in the Majors behind ATL's Spencer Strider (281) and TOR's Kevin Gausman (237).
- ▶ Became the first pitcher since ERA was established in both leagues in 1913 to finish as baseball's walks and ERA leader.
- ▶ Named The Sporting News 2023 National League Starter of the Year
- ▶ Posted career-bests in starts, strikeouts and opponents slugging percentage and came just two outs shy of matching a career-high in innings pitched (180.0).
- ▶ Sported the best bWAR among pitchers (6.0) in the NL and fifth-highest WAR in the NL overall.
- ▶ The southpaw received NL Pitcher of the Month honors in both June (3-1, 0.87 ERA) and September (3-0, 0.58 ERA).

Selected by Tampa Bay in the first round (52nd overall) of the 2011 draft out of Shorewood High School in Shoreline, WA.

2015 SEASON

Named Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today and Baseball America after going 15-4 with a 1.41 ERA and 163 strikeouts in 25 appearances (23 starts) between Charlotte (A), Montgomery (AA) and Durham (AAA). Snell struck out 31.3% of all batters faced across the three levels.

His 1.41 ERA led all MiLB and was the lowest for a full-season pitcher since Justin Verlander's 1.29 ERA in 2005.

2018 SEASON

Earned his first Cy Young award after going 21-5 with a 1.89 ERA across 31 starts. His 1.89 ERA ranked as the lowest figure in the AL and second in MLB behind only NYM's Jacob deGrom (1.70), while his 21 wins were most in the AL.

At 25 years old, Snell became the youngest pitcher to win a Cy Young Award since LAD Clayton Kershaw (25) in 2013, and the youngest AL pitcher since SEA Félix Hernández (24) in 2010.

His 180.2 innings pitched were the fewest ever for a Cy Young Award-winning starting pitcher over a full season.

180.2

Only two pitchers have won the AL Cy Young and appeared in fewer career games than Snell (74) at the time of their award: BOS Roger Clemens in 1986 and OAK Vida Blue in 1971.

In his Cy Young season in '18, and ERA (1.89), both TB club records. The last AL pitcher to match his combination of wins and ERA was NYY Ron Guidry in 1978 (25, 1.74).

Won the 2018 Warren Spahn Award given to the Majors' top left-handed pitcher.

Finished ninth in the MVP voting that season and was named an American League All-Star in addition to receiving AL of the Month honors in August and September.

2020 SEASON

Went 2-2 with a 3.03 ERA (10 ER, 29.2 IP) in the Postseason. While facing the Dodgers in the World Series, Snell became the third left-handed pitcher to record nine or more strikeouts twice in a single Fall Classic, joining Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers (3x in 1965) and Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers (2x in 1945).

Acquired by San Diego on December 29 in exchange for Blake Hunt, Cole Wilcox, Francisco Mejía and Luis Patiño.

2022 SEASON

Posted the second-highest SO/9IP ratio (12.02) of his career, along with five double-digit strikeout performances.

12.02

From 2018-22, he posted the third-most double-digit strikeout games (23) among all MLB left-handers, trailing only current teammate Robbie Ray (26) and Chris Sale (25).

This past off-season he launched a 12U travel baseball team for kids in Seattle. The team is called the Zilla National, a namesake of Snell's famous nickname, "Snellzilla". Their team mottos are "Chasing Greatness" and "Eat or Be Eaten".

Has a pizza named after him at Spiro's Pizza and Pasta in Shoreline, WA. The pie comes with Italian salami, pepperoni, Canadian bacon and mozzarella cheese. Spiro's remains one of his favorite food spots.

BLAKE'S CORNER

Along with Jake Lamb, Blake sponsors one corner of the University of Washington's Husky Ballpark. "Blake's Corner" hosts underprivileged kids, with tickets provided by Blake himself.

Has three brothers: an older brother Dru, twin brother Tyler and younger brother David.

His remodeled home in Lynnwood, WA, features a dedicated gaming space with a custom computer and four monitors on the wall. He collects cleats from fellow athletes to display in the room.

He regularly streams his video games via his Twitch channel (@Snellzilla4), which has more than 53,000 subscribers.

He owns more than 400 pairs of shoes. Snell began his collection in the 7th grade by saving the money he earned from catching the bullpens of his father's pitching students.

Blake does everything right-handed, except on the baseball field.

THE 12's

He is a big fan of the University of Washington and Seattle Seahawks. He never misses a game, whether in person or on television.

Blake's alter-ego, "Snellzilla," became nationally known in 2018. Teammates have simply called him Zilla. It was a nickname given to him by his older brother.

His father, Dave, is in his eighth year as head baseball coach at Shoreline (WA) Community College. Dave was drafted in the 9th round of the 1982 MLB Draft by the San Francisco Giants and went on to pitch six minor league seasons with Royals and Mariners from 1983-88. His mother, Jane Snell, has worked as a hair stylist for four decades on the University of Washington campus.

Currently has three dogs: Junior, named after Ken Griffey Jr., Deuce and Boogie.

2023 RECAP

- ▶ Named to his first All-Star team with Miami after slashing .254/.350/.527 with 52 runs, 18 doubles, 23 home runs and 51 RBI before the break.
- ▶ Finished the season batting .250 with 77 runs scored, 24 doubles, 36 home runs, 75 RBI and an .853 OPS.
- ▶ Posted a 1.080 OPS with 14 homers in 135 plate appearances versus lefties in 2023.
- ▶ Started 102 games as a DH, but also played 32 games in right field (31 starts).
- ▶ His 15.0% barrel rate ranked ninth-best in MLB, and fifth-best in the National League (minimum 350 batted balls).
- ▶ Hit a 436' homer off LHP Alex Wood at Oracle Park on May 21...the homer was tied for second-furthest at Oracle Park all season, and the 113.9 MPH exit velocity was the hardest-hit home run at the ballpark in 2023...furthermore, the homer was tied for the third-hardest hit home run at Oracle Park in the Statcast era.
- ▶ Placed on the Injured List on September 6 with a right oblique strain...was activated on September 17.
- ▶ His 137 games played in 2023 were the third-most he's played in his career behind 2019 with KC (162) and 2021 between KC and ATL (149).

CUBAN CAREER

Played in the 2010 World Junior Baseball Championship, which took place in Ontario, Canada. Cuba finished with the Bronze medal while Soler had a .304/.500/.522 slash line and finished second in the tournament with nine walks.

Soler defected from Cuba in 2011 and established residency in Haiti. He later signed with the Cubs as an international free agent in 2012.

2014 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on August 27 with Chicago-NL, homering in his first MLB at-bat off Cincinnati RHP Mat Latos.

Became the fourth player since 1900 to have at least one extra-base hit in each of his first five career games...others: Cincinnati IF Jake Beckley (1901), St. Louis OF Enos Slaughter (1938) and Boston IF Will Middlebrooks (2012).

2015 SEASON

Logged a .723 OPS with 10 homers and 18 doubles in 101 games with the Cubs during the regular season. Had a great Postseason, going 9-for-19 with three doubles, three homers and five RBI in seven games.

2016 SEASON

Appeared in 37 games for the Cubs during the regular season and hit 12 homers. Appeared in eight games during the playoffs as the Cubs won their first World Series since 1908.

Acquired by Kansas City on December 7 in exchange for RHP Wade Davis.

2019 SEASON

Led the American League with 48 home runs while seeing action in all 162 games for the Royals.

Became the first Royal in team history to eclipse 40 home runs in a season. His 48 home runs are now tied with C Salvador Pérez for most in a season in franchise history after Pérez also hit 48 in 2021.

Was the eighth player in MLB history to hit at least 48 home runs and play 162 games in a season.

2021 SEASON

Acquired by Atlanta from KC on July 30 in exchange for LHP Kasey Kalich.

Soler slashed .192/.288/.370 in 94 games with Kansas City prior to trade and slashed .269/.358/.524 in 55 games for Atlanta after.

Named World Series MVP after recording three home runs and six RBI in the Braves' six-game series victory over Houston. The only other Cuban-born player to be named World Series MVP was Miami's Liván Hernández in 1997.

Became the first player to homer in the first plate appearance of a World Series, taking HOU's Framber Valdez deep. There had been four prior instances of a player hitting a HR in their team's first PA but all four were the home team (BAL's Don Buford in 1969, BOS' Dustin Pedroia in 2007, KC's Alcides Escobar in 2015 and LAD's Chris Taylor in 2017).

2022 SEASON

Appeared in 72 games in his first season in Miami. Back spasms forced him to the IL on July 23 and he missed the rest of the year.

Soler resides in Pembroke Pines, FL with his wife, Leydis Sennano, and his children, Jorley and Leysa.

EL CRUDO

Was given the nickname El Crudo (The Raw One) as a child in Cuba because of his talent and raw potential similar to an undeveloped rough diamond.

CAREER NOTES |

AT CUMBERLAND CO. COLLEGE / ST. JOHN'S

Attended Cumberland County (NJ) College for his first two years. Threw two no-hitters while helping Cumberland finish second in the NJCAA Division III World Series in 2014.

Transferred to St. John's as a junior in 2015 and helped the Red Storm to a 2015 Big East Title.

Selected by Minnesota in the 13th round of the 2015 draft, the same draft the Twins took current Giant LaMonte Wade Jr. in the ninth round.

2019 SEASON

Made his MLB debut on July 23, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings vs. the Yankees. Went on to pitch 1.2 innings in his postseason debut, also against the Yankees, that October.

Walked just one of 104 total batters faced in rookie season.

2021 SEASON

Missed most of the season with a left back disc injury, making only 17 total relief outings between Minnesota (15 games) and Triple-A St. Paul (two games).

2022 SEASON

Appeared in only 11 games for the Twins after hitting the IL with a right shoulder impingement on May 22. Eventually underwent surgery to repair a torn labrum and missed the rest of the season.

Cody and his wife, Taylor, have two children, a son named Cody Joseph (born in 2020) and a daughter named Sadie (born in 2022).

RED STORM

Attended St. John's University for his junior year. Other notable former Giants to attend St. John's are infielders Rich Aurilia and Joe Panik.

CAREER NOTES |

2017 SEASON

Underwent Tommy John surgery on July 19, 2017 after making six starts with Low-A Columbia to start the season. Szapucki missed the rest of the 2017 season.

2018 SEASON

Also missed the entire season recovering from the Tommy John surgery and did not pitch in game action again until 2019.

2019 SEASON

Pitched at three levels in his first season back after Tommy John, working his way up from Low-A Columbia to Double-A Binghamton. He combined to post a 2.63 ERA in 21 games (18 starts) between the three stops, striking out 72 batters in 61.2 innings pitched.

#7

Coming off the solid 2019 campaign, Szapucki was ranked as the Mets #7 prospect entering 2020 according to Baseball America.

Attended Major League Spring Training and the Summer Camp. He did not pitch for the Mets but was a member of their Alternate Training Site in Brooklyn.

2021 SEASON

Heading into the 2021 campaign, he was ranked as the Mets #16 prospect. He made 10 appearances at Triple-A Syracuse and also made his MLB debut with the Mets.

His season ended prematurely after he underwent left ulnar nerve transposition surgery on July 13, 2021 at the Hospital for Special Surgery. Dr. David Altchek performed the procedure.

2022 SEASON

After spending his entire pro career as a starter, Szapucki was transitioned to the bullpen at Triple-A Syracuse at the end of July 2022, just before being acquired by the Giants at the Trade Deadline.

Acquired by San Francisco on August 2 along with IF J.D. Davis, LHP Nick Zwack and RHP Carson Seymour in exchange for IF/OF Darin Ruf.

Made 10 relief appearances for San Francisco after the trade, posting a 1.98 ERA with 16 strikeouts in 13.2 innings.

- ▶ Spent majority of the season at Triple-A...hit .272 with 54 runs, 14 doubles, 17 home runs, 51 RBI and an .869 OPS in 75 games for Sacramento...recalled from Triple-A three times.
- ▶ Did not appear in a game for SF at the Major League level after July 24.
- ▶ Knocked in a career-high five runs while homering twice on April 3 at Chicago-AL.
- ▶ Pitched a scoreless inning of relief on June 22 vs. San Diego.

AT SOUTH FLORIDA

Hit a home run in his first collegiate at-bat. Made 2018 All-American Athletic Conference First Team as a junior in 2018 after setting a conference record with 24 doubles and finishing second with a .374 average.

2021 SEASON

Slugged 20 homers in 106 games for Double-A Richmond, setting the club record for homers in a single season in a notoriously difficult hitter's league.

2022 SEASON

Enjoyed a breakout campaign between Triple-A Sacramento and San Francisco.

Was named PCL's Most Valuable Player after posting a league-leading 1.021 OPS in 84 games for Sacramento. Overall with the River Cats, Villar hit .275 with 19 doubles, one triple, 27 homers and 82 RBI.

36

Combined to hit 36 homers between Triple-A and San Francisco. Villar's 36 home runs were the most by anyone throughout the Giants organization since Barry Bonds hit 45 homers in 2004.

Was named to the Futures Game on July 7, but did not participate due to being on the Major League roster.

6

His six HRs in September were tied for the third-most by SF rookie in the month of September (Tom Haller & Buster Posey with seven).

OFF THE FIELD |

Got engaged to his long-time girlfriend Allison Chilton this past offseason.

Attended American Heritage School in Plantation, FL.

Villar was 3 years old when he played in his first T-ball league.

DID YOU KNOW?

At the University of South Florida, Villar received a criminology degree after finishing the last remaining credits during the pandemic. He intends to go to law school one day, either to enter sports law or to become a prosecutor.

Credits current Rays pitcher Shane Bieber with helping him get drafted. McClanahan had many scouts at his starts during his time at USF so Villar would use that to his advantage to try and show out that day.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Played in a career-high 135 games, 116 at first base, after making his second career Opening Day roster... set career-bests in batting average (.256), runs (64), walks (76) and on-base percentage (.373).
- ▶ His 17 homers were third on the team...finished one home run shy of tying his career-high 18 set in 2021.
- ▶ His 14.6% walk rate was seventh-best in MLB.
- ▶ Was one of two Giants position players to stay on the active roster all year (other: C/OF Blake Sabol).
- ▶ Had a .369 OBP as a leadoff hitter, which ranked sixth in MLB (min. 400 PA as leadoff hitter).
- ▶ Slashed .254/.377/.428 vs. right-handed pitching, and .269/.351/.358 vs. lefties.
- ▶ Hit five leadoff home runs for a total of eight in his career.
- ▶ Had walk-off RBI in two of SF's three games vs. CLE...he first hit a walk-off single in the 10th inning on September 11...the other came September 13 with a walk-off sacrifice fly.
- ▶ Posted a .900 OPS over his final 22 games of the season, batting .292 with 11 runs, a triple, four home runs, 10 RBI and a .508 slugging percentage.

AT MARYLAND

Attended the University of Maryland where he hit .335 with a .453 OBP as a junior in 2015. In the NCAA Tournament that year, he was named the Louisiana Regional's Most Outstanding Player.

2020-2021 OFFSEASON

Wade drove an hour each way from his home to the University of Maryland four days a week. Back at school, Wade worked on his hitting under Maryland assistant coach Matt Swope. Those sessions helped lay the foundation for his breakout season in 2021.

2021 SEASON

Had a breakout campaign in his first season with the Giants in 2021. Set career bests in virtually every offensive category: hits (85), runs (52), 2B (17), 3B (3), HR (18), RBI (56) and walks (33).

Earned the nickname "Late Night LaMonte" after his late-game heroics. Wade had six game-tying or go-ahead hits in the 9th inning in 2021, the most by any MLB player in a season in the last 40 years (Stats, LLC).

Won the 2021 Willie Mac Award, an annual honor bestowed upon the most inspirational player on the team, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff, clubhouse staff and the fans. The award was established in 1980 in honor of legend and Hall of Famer Willie McCovey.

2022 SEASON

Was bothered by a troublesome left knee most of the season that actually dated back to the end of his 2021 campaign. Appeared in only 77 games for SF, hitting .207 with eight homers.

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended St. Paul's High School in Brooklandville, MD where he was a four-year letterwinner in baseball and basketball.

As told to the San Francisco Chronicle, Wade penned a book for a middle school project titled "My Love for Baseball" which he dedicated to his parents. In it, he said he became transfixed with the game as a toddler by watching his mom play competitive slow-pitch softball where she was a slugging left fielder.

Wade is an avid ping pong player and practices against a robot to improve his skills. His mother, Emily, is also an avid ping pong player and plays competitively in tournaments.

MAKIN' A SPLASH |

Wade clubbed his first career Splash Hit on July 31, 2021 vs. Houston. His mom, Emily, was in attendance that day and was standing on the portwalk in RF and watched the homer sail over her head. She later got the ball back.

Two years later, it was Wade who connected on the 100th Giants Splash Hit in Oracle Park history. Wade took Baltimore's Dean Kremer deep to lead off the game for the milestone homer.

Entering 2024, Wade has five career Splash Hits, tied for sixth-most in Oracle Park history.

BIRTHPLACE |
ARLINGTON, WA, USA

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Started the year at Triple-A Sacramento and appeared in 15 games with the River Cats before having his contract selected on May 19.
- ▶ His 0.89 ERA (2er, 20.1ip) with Sacramento prior to his promotion was tops in the Giants organization (min. 20.0ip)...had a 31.1% strikeout rate.
- ▶ Made his MLB debut on May 21 vs. Miami...earned the win as he tossed 1.0-scoreless inning.
- ▶ Appeared out of the 'pen in each of his first 11 games, but took over the role of opener on June 19 after RHP John Brebbia landed on the IL.
- ▶ Started 13 games for SF and had a 2.21 ERA (5er, 20.1ip) with 32 strikeouts (14.16 K/9ip)...the Giants won each of his first seven starts.
- ▶ Posted a 5-2 record and 3.73 ERA in 36 relief outings.
- ▶ Was on the Paternity List from August 19-22 as he and his wife, Alexis, welcomed their first child – a girl name Rylie.
- ▶ Notched first career save on August 23 at Citizens Bank Park in Philadelphia.
- ▶ His 26.4% opposing hard hit rate was fifth-best in the Majors.
- ▶ Walker's 11.45 K/9ip ratio was the best by a Giants rookie pitcher since 1958 (min. 30.0ip in his rookie season).

AT WASHINGTON STATE

Attended Washington State and thrived during his first two seasons on campus, posting ERAs of 2.72 and 2.40 his first two seasons.

Regressed his junior year after being moved into the starting rotation where he posted a 5.67 ERA. Walker saw his velocity dip as a starter so they moved him back to the bullpen for his final 12 outings.

As a senior, Walker led the team in appearances (23) all out of the bullpen and had a 3.98 ERA.

Finished his Cougars career with 87 appearances, second-most in school history. His 13 relief wins are tied for first in school history.

2018 SEASON

Pitched at three levels after being drafted by SF in the 31st round earlier in the year. Walker reached High-A San Jose.

2021 SEASON

Returned to the High-A level, this time with SF's new affiliate in Eugene. Made 40 appearances there before a late season promotion to Double-A Richmond. Spent the last month of the year at Double-A.

2022 SEASON

Started back at Double-A and made 43 appearances before his first promotion to Triple-A, four years after he'd been drafted.

OFF THE FIELD |

Met his now wife, Alexis, while at Washington State. Alexis was a psychology major born and raised in San Francisco. At WSU, she was a star volleyball player who left WSU first in career digs (2,152), second in digs per set (4.26) and 10th in service ace (39). They were married on September 25, 2021.

Ryan and Alexis welcomed their first child last August, a girl named Rylie. The couple makes their offseason home in Arizona.

When Ryan is in San Francisco during the season he stays with Alexis' parents.

During the 2020 shutdown, Walker wasn't sure if the Giants would cut him loose. He got a job as a locksmith working 10 hours a day "because I had nothing else to do and wanted to make as much money as I could". It also turned out he really liked locksmithing.

He also was able to focus on what he needed to do in baseball. He found a former Giants trainer to train him for free. He got up at 5 a.m. to drive to the gym 45 minutes away. After the workouts he'd go to his locksmith gig. He ended up gaining an extra 5 mph of velocity that offseason.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Missed the first two months of the season while recovering from a labrum tear in his right shoulder.
- ▶ Returned to play in early June with the ACL Giants Black and was at High-A Eugene by the end of the month.
- ▶ Returned to Double-A with Richmond on July 14 and played in nine games for the Squirrels, hitting .280 with two homers.
- ▶ Spent the final two months of the season at Triple-A Sacramento, hitting .208 with a .632 OPS in 31 games for the River Cats.

AT OKLAHOMA STATE

Drafted by the Mets in the 36th round of the 2012 draft but chose to attend OK State.

Attended OSU and hit .337 with 44 RBI and a .428 OBP as a senior and helped lead the Cowboys to the 2016 College World Series.

Became the only OSU player and one of only 10 in conference history to earn All-Big 12 First Team honors three times in a career.

Drafted a second time, this time in the 23rd round in 2015 by Milwaukee but he returned to school.

Drafted by Seattle in the fifth round of the 2016 draft following his senior season.

2019 SEASON

Won a Rawlings Minor League Gold Glove at second base while playing most of the year for Double-A Arkansas.

Made his MLB debut with the Mariners on September 19 vs. Cincinnati. Logged his first hit two days later.

2022 SEASON

Acquired by the Giants on May 11 in exchange for RHP Prelander Berrera. Went on to appear in 24 games for SF.

Had his season cut short after suffering a shoulder injury with Triple-A and missed the rest of the season.

OFF THE FIELD |

Attended Bishop Kelley High School in Tulsa, OK. As a junior he led BKHS to the Class 5A State Championship. Walton was also a quarterback on the football team and played varsity basketball.

His father, Rob, has been the OSU pitching coach for over a decade following a standout career for the Cowboys. After Walton made his MLB debut the first thing he did was call his dad and tell him "we did it".

DREAM TEAM

With SF in 2022, Walton was called upon to pitch, fulfilling a lifelong dream of his father Rob, who was supposed to be called up by Baltimore to make his MLB debut in 1988 but he tore his rotator cuff and never pitched again.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Opened the season at Triple-A Salt Lake in the Angels organization...appeared in five games for the Bees and worked 7.0 scoreless innings with eight strikeouts.
- ▶ Had his contract selected by the Angels on April 21 and made two appearances for the Angels.
- ▶ Was placed on the 15-day injured list on April 26 with right elbow inflammation...was transferred to the 60-day IL on May 28 and missed the rest of the season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

CAREER NOTES |

COLLEGE CAREER

Spent his junior and senior seasons at UNC Wilmington after attending Wake Tech Community College in Raleigh, NC for his first two seasons.

Selected by the Angels in the sixth round of the 2018 draft following his senior season at UNC Wilmington. In 28 relief appearances as a senior he logged a 1.75 ERA and went 8-0 with 64 strikeouts in 51.1 innings.

2019 SEASON

Was a California league mid-season All-Star for Inland Empire. He struck out 63 in 43.2 innings for the Angels High-A club before a promotion to Double-A.

Suited up in the Arizona Fall League and logged a 1.54 ERA (2er, 11.2ip) in nine games.

2021 SEASON

Began the year in Triple-A after not pitching in 2020. Appeared in 22 games for the Bees before having his contract selected by the Angels on July 28.

Made his debut on July 29 vs. Oakland and finished the year in the Angels bullpen. He did not allow an earned run in 13 of his 16 MLB games.

2022 SEASON

Made his first career Opening Day roster but didn't spend a ton of time on the Major League roster due to various injuries.

Suffered a nasal fracture on May 3 after being hit by a foul ball during Red Sox batting practice and had surgery to repair it on May 10. Also missed more time with a right triceps strain.

Is engaged to Trinity Carroll and the two are scheduled to be married this year.

Graduated from Terry Sanford HS in Fayetteville, NC where he earned all conference honors three times in baseball and all-region honors twice.

Was also a member of the school's bowling team, earning all-conference honors and finishing third in state individual championships.

Austin's father, Marty, was an eighth-round pick of the White Sox in 1985 out of Campbell University. Marty pitched two minor league seasons in the White Sox system.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Finished second in the NL Cy Young voting after setting career bests in starts (33), innings pitched (216.0), strikeouts (194) and fewest walks in a full season (31).
- ▶ Led the Majors in innings, surpassing the 200-inning threshold for the first time in his career.
- ▶ Became the first Giant to lead the Majors in innings pitched since Gaylord Perry in 1970.
- ▶ Webb's 24 quality starts were most in the National League, and tied for most in MLB with NYY's Gerrit Cole...was the first Giant to lead or share the league lead in quality starts since Rick Reuschel led with 28 quality starts in 1988 (Stats, LLC).
- ▶ The Giants were 15-18 in Webb's 33 starts.
- ▶ Outside of leading MLB in innings pitched, and being tied for the lead in quality starts, he ranked among the Majors' best in ERA (3.25, 10th), complete games (two, T-3rd), games started (33, T-3rd) and WHIP (1.07, 6th).
- ▶ Was worth 4.9 fWAR, tied for fourth-best in the National League among starters...his 2.95 xFIP was second while his 3.16 FIP was fourth-best.
- ▶ His 62.7% ground-ball rate led the Majors, and was up from a 57.8% mark in 2022 and above his career average of 59.3%...his 62.7% mark in 2023 also established a career-best, slightly upping his 62.2% total from his breakout 2021 campaign.
- ▶ Webb's 3.6% walk rate was the lowest of his career and was the lowest in the NL among qualified pitchers...it was third-lowest overall in MLB behind SEA's George Kirby (2.5%) and TB's Zach Eflin (3.4%)... he walked only 31 of the 850 batters faced in 2023.
- ▶ Allowed 20 homers in 216.0 innings...his 2.4 HR% was the second-highest of his career behind his 2.9 HR% from his rookie year (2019).
- ▶ Eight of the 20 homers surrendered by Webb came in his first seven starts of the year (45.0ip)...over his final 74.1 innings of the year, he only permitted three homers and none in his last four starts.
- ▶ Dominated hitters with his changeup, using the pitch 41.6% of the time with opponents hitting .225 with a .309 SLG% off the pitch.
- ▶ His changeup was the second-most valuable pitch in the Majors in terms of run value at +28 (Statcast)... only the Yankees Gerrit Cole had a more valuable pitch (+29 with his four-seam fastball) (run value is defined as the run impact on an event based on the runners on base, outs ball & strike count).
- ▶ Made his second consecutive Opening Day start for SF, taking the ball on March 30 at NYY...was the first Giants pitcher to get consecutive Opening Day starts since LHP Madison Bumgarner started four consecutive season openers from 2014-2017.

2016 SEASON

Underwent Tommy John surgery in June of 2016 and returned a season later in 2017.

2019 SEASON

Began with an 80-game suspension for PEDs while playing for Double-A Richmond.

When he returned, he made stops at every level from Arizona rookie to Low A, Double A, a single start in Triple A, then his Major League debut on August 17 in Phoenix.

He became the youngest Giants pitcher to make his debut as a starter since then 20-year-old Madison Bumgarner in September 2009.

2020 SEASON

Won his home start on September 8, 2020, beginning a stretch where the Giants would go on to win 18 consecutive regular season Webb starts at Oracle Park through May 24, 2022. The 18-game run matched Atlee Hammaker's stretch (18, 1982-83) for the longest by any Giant in the modern era.

2021 SEASON

Enjoyed his breakout campaign where he went 11-3 with a 3.03 ERA in 27 games (26 starts).

Held opponents to two runs or fewer in 14 consecutive outings from May 11-September 2, the first Giant in over a century to boast such a streak since Ferdie Schupp when 16 consecutive such outings from 1916-17.

The Giants went 22-5 in Webb's 27 games (26 starts) during the regular season. Over his final 20 starts, SF was 18-2 while Webb himself went 10-0 with a 2.40 ERA.

2021 POSTSEASON

Was dominant in his first Postseason, going 1-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1er, 14.2ip) and 17 strikeouts in two NLDS starts against LA.

Fired 7.2 scoreless innings with no walks and 10 strikeouts in his playoff debut on October 8 vs. the Dodgers. In doing so. He became the fourth Giants pitcher all-time to strike out at least 10 batters in his Postseason debut. Overall, Webb was the 11th Giants pitcher to strike out 10 or more batters in a Postseason game.

2022 SEASON

Won 15 games while boasting a 2.90 ERA. Became the eighth Giants right-hander 25 or younger to win 15+ games since 1958.

Led the National League with a 57.8 groundball percentage. Only Houston's Framber Valdez (67.4%) was better among qualified pitchers.

Had the fourth-lowest home run % in the Majors (second-lowest in the NL). Only José Quintana (1.2%), Framber Valdez (1.3%) and Martín Pérez (1.3%) had a lower mark than Webb.

IN THE COMMUNITY |

In 2022, Webb began talking to high school children in his native Sacramento area for an awareness campaign about the dangers of fentanyl following the unexpected and sudden passing of Logan's cousin, Kade, who died days before Webb's wedding in 2021 after taking a counterfeit pain pill laced with fentanyl.

"That whole night was a blur," Webb told The Athletic's Andrew Baggarly in 2022. "It was things you never want to see, body bags, stuff like that. You feel like it's not real. We were there in the parking lot of that Safeway from midnight until 3 or 4 a.m. I had to try to go through that weekend like everything was normal. And it wasn't normal."

You can read the full story from Baggarly here or watch his appearance on ESPN's Outside the Lines here.

Married his high school sweetheart Sharidan Morales on December 5, 2021 in Sacramento, CA.

Grew up going to both A's and Giants games but mostly A's because his father was a fan. Logan's favorite A's: Tim Hudson, Bobby Crosby and Stephen Vogt (who would catch him in his major league debut with the Giants).

Roots for the Sacramento Kings and Las Vegas Raiders.

Threw for 3,767 yards with 47 touchdowns and 18 interceptions in his football career at Rocklin (CA) High School. Was the starting quarterback his junior and senior seasons.

He is considered legally blind because of astigmatism, which causes blurred vision. Diagnosed in 3rd or 4th grade when he was having a hard time seeing the ball. Wore glasses until age 11 or 12, which made football difficult, then switched to contacts. He still usually wears glasses when he's not playing ball but only at night.

His dad Erik played one season on the Serra High baseball team in San Mateo with Barry Bonds.

Webb's favorite snack food are Cheez It crackers.

He drinks three Red Bulls before every start. One right before he gets to the field, one before he starts stretching with the trainer, and then one as he finishes his warm-up pitches in the bullpen.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Started the year at Triple-A Sacramento and went 0-6 with a 4.81 ERA in 17 outings (14 starts) with the River Cats.
- ▶ Recalled on June 12 and made his Major League debut on June 13 at STL in relief, firing 4.0 innings and picking up the save.
- ▶ Became the third Major Leaguer since saves became an official stat in 1969 to pitch at least 4.0 innings and earn the save in his MLB debut...the other two are STL's Zack Thompson on June 3, 2022 and BOS' Bob Stanley on April 16, 1977 (Elias).
- ▶ Grew up in Ollie, IA, about a four-hour drive from in St. Louis....had a bunch of family and friends from his hometown at his debut.
- ▶ Had two IL stints - the first came with Sacramento on July 29 - August 19 and the second with SF, when he missed nine games on the COVID IL from September 20-29.
- ▶ Struck out nine batters on September 3 vs. COL...he and teammate Harrison (11, 8/28 vs. CIN) became the first Giants rookie duo to each strike out nine or more in a game in the same season since 2003, when both Jesse Foppert (10, 6/11 at CWS and 7/20 vs. COL) and Jerome Williams (9, 8/1 at CIN) did so.
- ▶ Winn pitched at least 3.0 innings in all nine career outings...he became just one of three Giants rookies since 2010 to pitch at least 3.0 innings in each of his first nine career games (also: Andrew Suárez in 2018 and Shaun Anderson in 2019).

AT IOWA WESTERN CC

Played for Iowa Western Community College and wrapped up his two seasons with a 7-1 record and a 2.37 ERA in 24 appearances (four starts).

Was actually drafted twice by the Giants, being taken by SF in the 20th round of the 2017 draft (606th pick) but he opted to return to school. SF took him again in the fifth round in 2018 and he signed.

2021 SEASON

After not playing in 2020 due to there being no minor league season, Winn missed the entire '21 season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

2022 SEASON

Returned from Tommy John surgery and began the year at Single-A San Jose before ending it at Double-A Richmond. Worked 108.0 innings total across the three levels (San Jose, Eugene and Richmond).

Was added to the Giants 40-man roster following the season.

Attended Perkin Community High School in Packwood, IA where he was all-district in football, baseball and basketball. Was also a 4x200 track state champion.

As a member of the Panthers basketball team, Winn logged a record-breaking 26 rebounds in one game.

23

Returned to Perkin this past offseason to have his baseball jersey number (#23) retired. Winn still holds the school career record for ERA as well as the distinction of having the only perfect game in school history.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Hit .175 with 10 runs, five doubles, two home runs, eight RBI and a .498 OPS in 51 games.
- ▶ Made his first Opening Day roster, making his MLB debut as a defensive replacement in center field on Opening Day at Yankee Stadium.
- ▶ With C/OF Blake Sabol also making his MLB debut on Opening Day, it was just the sixth time since 1958 in which multiple Giants made their MLB debut on Opening Day (Elias).
- ▶ Played 37 games at second base, 18 in center field, one in left field, one at shortstop, and pitched 1.0 inning in the Majors.
- ▶ Hit his first MLB home run on May 6 vs. MIL's Tyson Miller.
- ▶ Played 67 games for Triple-A Sacramento, batting .285 with 40 runs, 20 doubles, a triple, six home runs, 31 RBI and an .883 OPS.

AT GULF COAST STATE COLLEGE

Attended Gulf Coast State College in Panama City, FL. Combined to hit .363 with 15 homers and a 1.075 OPS in his two seasons with the Commodores, in addition to a 11-4 record and 2.86 ERA in 24 appearances on the mound.

Originally selected by Tampa Bay in the 15th round of the 2019 draft out of Gulf Coast State College.

2021 SEASON

Logged an .879 OPS in 100 games between Single-A Charleston and High-A Bowling Green, his first full minor league season.

Stole 31 bases and was caught only eight times.

2022 SEASON

Spent a majority of the year at Double-A Montgomery where he was named a Post-season Southern League All-Star.

His 31 steals were eighth-most in the league while his six triples were tied for second-most.

Promoted late in the season to Triple-A Durham and played in five games for the Bulls. Played for the Bulls in their Postseason run to the Triple-A National Championship.

Acquired by SF in November for OF Tristan Peters.

Went to Sandalwood High School, where he won the Times-Union's All-First Coast player of the year award as a senior in 2017. Hit .515 and turned into a two-way player that year, recording an area-leading 11 wins despite never logging a single varsity inning before then.

His older brother, Alec, was drafted on the same day as him, as Cleveland's 34th round selection (1,030th overall). Alec is two years older than Brett and was a pitcher in the Guardians organization until being released in 2022.

MURPH

During the 2022-23 offseason, Wisely worked at lululemon in Jacksonville as a side job. Former MLB'er and Jacksonville native Daniel Murphy and his wife entered the store one day. Wisely attended a few of Murphy's camps as a child. He re-introduced himself and the two exchanged numbers. Wisely ended up working out a few times with Murphy, who offered advice on his swing as both are left-handed hitting infielders.

2023 RECAP |

- ▶ Made his fourth career Opening Day roster, starting in center field...missed a total of 51 games with three different left hamstring strains from May 1-May 11, June 22-July 3 and July 31-August 30.
- ▶ Hit .233 with 54 runs, 23 doubles, a triple, 15 home runs, 43 RBI and a .775 OPS in 106 games...the 106 games were his fewest in a full MLB season.
- ▶ Logged his fourth career walk-off RBI on June 19 vs. SD...all four of his walk-offs have been home runs...it was also Yastrzemski's sixth career "splash hit," and his second career splash hit walk-off home run, previously doing so on July 29, 2020 vs. San Diego (both were multi-homer games).
- ▶ Hit his second career leadoff homer on September 11 vs. CLE (also: 8/18/20 at LAA vs. Dylan Bundy).
- ▶ Had an .843 OPS with 11 runs, six doubles, four home runs and 11 RBI in 29 games upon returning from his final IL stint.
- ▶ Set career-bests in average exit velocity (90.0 MPH) and hard hit % (44.0)...also turned in the second-lowest chase rate of his career (20.2%) behind a 19.7 mark in the shortened 2020 season.
- ▶ Saw action all across the outfield, playing 56 games in right field, 51 in center field and 17 in left field.
- ▶ Was worth +9 defensive runs saves across the three outfield positions (+5 in RF, +2 in CF and +2 in LF).

AT VANDERBILT

Selected in the 36th round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft by Boston but did not sign and elected to attend Vanderbilt.

Played collegiately at Vandy and was roommates with former Giants Tyler Beede and Curt Casali during his time there. Also played with current Major Leaguers Dansby Swanson, Walker Buehler, Tony Kemp, Bryan Reynolds, Sonny Gray and Sam Selman at Vanderbilt.

Also drafted after his junior season at Vanderbilt by Seattle (30th round, 2012) but returned to school.

Graduated from Vanderbilt with a bachelor of sciences degree in crime and society.

Drafted by Baltimore in the 14th round in 2013 and signed.

2013-2018 WITH BALTIMORE ORGANIZATION

Slashed .288/.346/.490 with 14 homers and 75 RBI in 129 games during his first full minor league season in 2014 between Single-A Delmarva, High-A Frederick and Double-A Bowie.

Returned to Bowie in 2015 and played in 128 games but only posting a .688 OPS.

Bounced between Bowie and Triple-A Norfolk in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

.800

Logged an .800 OPS in 94 games with Triple-A Norfolk in 2018.

2019 SEASON

Received his first invite Baltimore's Major League Spring Training as a 28-year-old

Acquired by San Francisco at the end of Spring Training on March 30, 2019 in exchange for RHP Tyler Herb.

Posted a 1.090 OPS in 40 games with Triple-A Sacramento, hitting 12 homers and 11 doubles with 25 RBI.

Made his Major League debut May 25 after 703 games, 2,600 at bats in the minors and riding more 200,000 miles on buses. He spent four long years in Triple-A, always seemingly on the verge of making the big leagues.

Posted an .852 OPS and hit 21 homers during his rookie season with SF in 2019. The only other Giant rookie in the SF era (1958-present) to post an .850 OPS and hit at least 20 homers was Orlando Cepeda in 1958.

5

Became the fifth player in the live-ball era to make his Major League debut in May or later and end up leading his team in homers that season. Yaz was tied for the team lead in homers (21) with Kevin Pillar in 2019.

Clubbed three homers on August 16 at Arizona, becoming the second Giants rookie in franchise history with a three-homer game. OF Jarrett Parker had the other on September 26, 2015 at Oakland. Yastrzemski's three-homer game came in his 70th career MLB game. His grandfather Carl had one three-homer game in his entire career (May 19, 1976 at Detroit).

Hit 21 homers in 2019, becoming the first Giants rookie to hit 20 or more homers in a season since Dave Kingman hit 29 in 1972.

He hit a combined 33 homers between Triple-A Sacramento and the Giants in 2019. He'd never hit more than 15 in a year entering 2019.

2020 SEASON8

Had a 2.7 WAR in the shortened season. Only MVP Freddie Freeman (3.4), Mookie Betts (3.0) and Fernando Tatis Jr. (2.9) were better in the NL. Yastrzemski also had a 165 OPS+, which ranked fifth. Yastrzemski finished eighth in the NL MVP voting with 81 points.

Named second-team All-MLB for his breakout season.

Slashed .297/.568/.400 with 10 homers and 35 RBI in 54 games.

Won the 2020 Willie Mac Award, an annual honor bestowed upon the most inspirational player on the team.

2021 SEASON25

Hit a career-best 25 homers to help the 107-win Giants reach the Postseason. Also had a .768 OPS but saw his batting average drop to .224.

Named a Gold Glove finalist in right field but lost to eventual winner Adam Duvall.

2022 SEASON

Hit 17 homers with a .697 OPS but saw his batting average dip further to .214 while playing in a career-best 148 games. Also struck out 141 times, a career-high.

Married his college sweetheart Paige Cahill on November 10, 2018 in Nashville, TN. The two welcomed their first child, Quinley Mae, on December 3, 2021.

His first concert was the Backstreet Boys when he was eight. He rode in a limo for the first time to the show.

Works with Heart and Armor, a Bay Area organization, since 2021 to connect more deeply with veterans. Yastrzemski and the group had conversations about mental health, resilience, history and taking care of one another.

Enjoys golfing in his spare time.

TB12

Grew up a Patriots fan and his favorite non-baseball athlete is Tom Brady.

YAZ |

Is the grandson of Hall of Famer Carl Yastrzemski, who played 23 seasons for the Boston Red Sox from 1961-1983 and was an 18-time All-Star, seven-time gold glove, three-time batting champion and also a triple crown and MVP winner.

Mike was offered #8 when he was called up to SF in 2019 but chose #5 instead.

Mike's father, Carl Michael (who also went by Mike), was a third-round pick by the Braves in 1984 and played in the minors from 1984-88, reaching as high as Triple-A in the White Sox organization. His father passed away in 2004.

When the Giants visited Boston in 2019, Carl returned to Fenway Park to throw out the first pitch to Mike. Mike later homered in that series.

2023 RECORD: 67-82 (5th Place, PCL West)

Dave Brundage ►► Manager

Dave Brundage will embark on his eighth season as Manager for the Sacramento River Cats in 2024. Brundage led the River Cats to a PCL title and a Triple-A National Championship in 2019. He was at the helm of the Lehigh Valley IronPigs in the Philadelphia Phillies' organization from 2013-2017. Prior to 2013, he worked for the Atlanta Braves and led Triple-A Richmond to the International League championship in 2007 en route to being named the organization's Minor League Manager of the Year. He also managed the U.S. team at the 2007 Futures Game. Prior to his time with the Braves, Brundage spent 19 years with the Seattle Mariners as a minor league player, coach and manager. He managed Triple-A Tacoma in 2006 after five years with Double-A San Antonio. In 2003, he was named Baseball America's Minor League Manager of the Year and the Texas League Manager of the Year. In 2001, he managed the West Division in the Texas League All-Star Game. He was originally drafted by the Phillies in the fourth round in 1986 and played two years in their minor league system before being traded to Seattle. Brundage then spent eight seasons playing and pitching in Seattle's system, the final three as a player-coach.

Alain Quijano ►► Pitching Coach

Alain Quijano embarks on his fifth season in the Giants organization in 2024 as a Pitching Coach. This season marks his first with Triple-A Sacramento having spent the previous four with High-A Eugene. Prior to joining the Giants, Quijano spent five years working as a Pitching Coach for the Gary SouthShore RailCats of the Independent American Association in Gary, IN. In that same time, he's also served as the Head Baseball Coach at Olive Harvey College, a city college in Chicago, IL and was a Pitching Coach at South Suburban College (IL) from 2018-2020. He coached at the college level at Grand View University (2008-2010) in Des Moines, IA, Iowa Wesleyan College (2010-2011) in Mount Pleasant, IA and Moraine Valley Community College (2012-2013) in Palos Heights, IL. As a player, he played nine years of Independent League baseball from 2005-2014 and was 49-53 with a 4.58 ERA in 204 career games (128 starts).

Damon Minor ►► Hitting Coach

Damon Minor embarks on his ninth season as the hitting coach for Sacramento. He spent the previous five seasons as Triple-A New Orleans' hitting instructor in the Marlins organization. Minor was drafted by the Giants in the 12th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft and made his Major League debut in 2000. He batted .232 in 136 games over parts of four seasons and established a career high by playing in 83 games and hitting 10 home runs in 2002, helping the Giants to the National League pennant. Minor played on the University of Oklahoma's national championship squad in 1994. Following his retirement in 2006, he returned to his alma mater as a volunteer hitting instructor for the Sooners and founded the Minor-Foral Baseball Academy. He and his wife, Allison, reside in Edmond, OK.

Rob Riggins ►► Assistant Hitting Coach

Rob Riggins embarks on his third season in the Giants organization, and first as assistant hitting coach for Sacramento, after spending the previous seasons with the DSL Giants. He previously spent a year working at Heavy Mettle Baseball, a research and data driven player development business, located in the Texas Panhandle. While at Heavy Mettle, Riggins specialized in hitting and pitching mechanics for baseball and softball players. In 2020, he was hired by the Milwaukee Brewers as a Development Coach with the Rocky Mountain Vibes of the Rookie League but after a few weeks of spring training the season was cancelled due to the pandemic. Riggins started coaching pitchers at age 18 and he earned his first high school head coaching job at 22. A Clovis, NM native, he attended Eastern New Mexico University.

Jolbert Cabrera ►► Fundamentals Coach

Jolbert Cabrera enters his ninth season in the Giants' organization and his sixth as a Fundamentals Coach for Triple-A Sacramento. In 2018, Cabrera served as the Manager of Class-A Augusta. In 2023, he served as Manager for Team Columbia in the World Baseball Classic. He was the Hitting Coach for the Rookie AZL Giants in 2016 and was Salem-Keizer's Manager in 2017. After a professional playing career that spanned more than 20 years, he spent the previous three seasons as a coach in the Cincinnati Reds organization. An accomplished Major League utility player, Cabrera played in parts of eight seasons with the Indians (1998-2001), Dodgers (2002-03), Mariners (2004) and Reds (2008). He appeared at every infield and outfield position during his Major League career and saw action in the 2001 American League Championship Series as a member of the Indians. Jolbert is the older brother of former big league shortstop Orlando Cabrera. He resides in Scottsdale, AZ.

Brian Reinker >>> Athletic Trainer

Brian Reinker begins his third season as an athletic trainer with the Sacramento River Cats. He previously worked as an athletic trainer in the Angels organization for the Arizona League Angels (2003), Class-A Cedar Rapids (2004), High-A Rancho Cucamonga (2005-06), Double-A Arkansas (2007), Triple-A Salt Lake (2008-2019), Long Beach Alternate Site (2020), and LAA Major League Assistant (2021) during his professional career. Reinker earned an athletic training degree from Capital University in Columbus, Ohio in 2003.

Chris Walsh >>> Athletic Trainer

Christopher Walsh begins his third season with the Giants organization and first with Sacramento after spending the last two seasons with Richmond. He previously served as an Athletic Trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals and Aguilas Cibaenas of the Dominican Winter League. He has also spent time as a trainer in professional hockey, and as a medical coordinator for the Pan American Games. Walsh earned his Bachelor's Degree in Kinesiology from Acadia University, his Athletic Therapy Degree from Sheridan College, and is currently enrolled at the Canadian College of Osteopathy. He resides in Hobe Sound, FL with his wife, Kate, and children, Billie, Lily and Jackson.

Eric Wood >>> Strength & Conditioning Coach

Eric Wood enters his third season with the Giants and in Sacramento as the Strength and Conditioning Coach. Prior to joining SF, he spent 2020 and 2021 as the Coordinator of Strength and Conditioning, 2016-2020 as the Asst. Coordinator of Strength and Conditioning and 2012-2016 as a Minor League Strength Coach for the San Diego Padres. From 2009-2011 he was a Minor League Strength Coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Wood graduated from the University of Northern Colorado in 2005 with a bachelors degree in Sport and Exercise Science.

Dennis Pelfrey ►► Manager

Dennis Pelfrey embarks on his third season as the manager of the Flying Squirrels after managing the Eugene Emeralds (69-50) to a championship in 2021, his first year in the Giants' organization. Before joining the Giants, Pelfrey guided the Florence Freedom of the Independent Frontier League for five seasons from 2015-2019. In that time, Pelfrey's teams posted four winning seasons, made the playoffs three times and won the Frontier League's Championship series. Overall, the Freedom's record in those five seasons was 261-218. He was a coach for the Gary SouthShore RailCats of the American Association from 2011-2014. As a player, Pelfrey was an infielder who played from 1999-2004 in Independent baseball with Rio Grande Valley, Dubois County, Kenosha, Fort Worth and Springfield/Ozark. The Texas native attended Bowie High School in Arlington, TX and played collegially at Northwood University in Cedar Hill, TX.

Paul Oseguera ►► Pitching Coach

Paul Oseguera begins his fifth season as a coach in the Giants organization in 2024 and returns to the organization that drafted him in the 16th round of the 2006 draft out of UCLA. The left-handed pitcher spent four years in the Giants system, reaching as high as Double-A Connecticut in 2008. He played one more season of affiliated ball with Class-A Advanced Stockton in the A's system in 2010 before three seasons of Independent ball with Bridgeport of the Atlantic League (2010-2012). He pitched for two seasons in Japan for Softbank from 2013-2014 and three seasons in the Mexican League (with Reynosa in 2013 and 2014 and Puebla in 2016). In his 11 pro seasons, he went 75-54 with a 3.60 ERA in 207 career games (172 starts).

Cory Elasiak ►► Hitting Coach

Cory Elasiak enters his fifth season as a coach in the Giants' organization and his second as the hitting coach for Richmond. Elasiak spent one season as the AZL Hitting Coach and then spent two seasons as the hitting coach for Eugene. He spent part of the 2020 season assisting with hitters at the Giants Alternate Site in Sacramento. Before joining the Giants, Elasiak was the Hitting Coach and Recruiting Coordinator at St. Johns River State College (2015-2020). He and his wife Brooke reside in Orange Park, FL.

Lipso Nava ►► Fundamentals Coach

Lipso Nava returns for his 17th year with the Giants organization and is in his second stint as the Fundamentals Coach for Richmond. In 2022, Nava managed the San Jose Giants in what was his fourth different stint as manager of San Jose. In 2021, Nava worked as a Fundamentals Coach for Eugene following two years in the same role for Richmond. He spent 2017 as the Hitting Coach with Richmond and prior to that was the Manager of San Jose in 2016. He also was the Hitting Coach for three years with San Jose. Nava managed Class A Augusta in 2011 and 2012, leading the GreenJackets to the playoffs in 2011. He also spent three seasons (2008-2010) as the Hitting Coach at Augusta. In 2016, Nava was named Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Winter League, becoming the first Venezuelan manager in the Aguilas del Zulia organization with the award. The former infielder played seven seasons in the minors with the Mariners (1990-94), Red Sox (1995) and Cubs (1997), advancing as high as Triple-A. Nava was originally a 14th round draft pick by the Mariners in 1990. He resides in Saint Cloud, FL with his wife Karla and daughters Valerie and Valeska.

Timothy Vigue ►► Athletic Trainer

Timothy Vigue enters his fifth season with the Giants and his first with Richmond after spending the previous three seasons with Eugene. Prior to joining SF, he spent five years as the Head Baseball Athletic Trainer for Florida International University. He also served as an Athletic Trainer for USA Baseball from 2016-2018, covering the 18U National Team for the Tournament of Stars (2016-17) and the 15U National Team in 2018. In 2013, he served as a seasonal Athletic Trainer for the Atlanta Falcons. He earned his bachelor's in Athletic Training from the University of South Carolina and his master's degree from the University of Louisiana at Monroe.

Michelle Kuda ►► Strength & Conditioning Coach

Michelle Kuda begins her third season with the Giants organization, and first with Richmond after spending the previous two seasons with San Jose. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology and a Master of Science in Exercise Science from the University of Rhode Island and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the NSCA. She has previously served as a Strength and Conditioning intern for the Arizona Diamondbacks organization and at Harvard University. She resides in Charlestown, RI with her fiancé, Matt, and their dog Milo.

Jeremiah Knackstedt ►►► Manager

Jeremiah Knackstedt begins his fifth season in the Giants organization and his first as the Manager of the Eugene Emeralds. Last season, he managed Single-A San Jose as the Giants won the CAL North division first half. Prior to managing at San Jose, Knackstedt was the club's Fundamentals Coach in 2022. He held the same role for the AZL Giants in 2020 and 2021. Knackstedt managed the Springfield Sliders of the summer collegiate Prospect League in 2019 and was slated to manage the Terre Haute Rex in the same league in 2020 before taking his role with the Giants. He skippered the St. Louis Rebels in the Metro Collegiate League in 2018 and the Norfolk Bluefish in the Virginia Beach Collegiate Baseball League in 2017. He's also spent time coaching in the Frontier League. As a player he played as a catcher at Greenville (IL) University from 2002-07 and continued playing after college, playing in the Frontier League.

Mario Rodríguez ►►► Pitching Coach

Mario Rodríguez begins his first season as Pitching Coach for Eugene after spending the previous 11 seasons as the Pitching Coach for the Arizona League Giants. Prior to coaching, Rodríguez spent seven seasons in the Giants minor league system as a left-handed pitcher. He originally signed as a non-drafted free agent in 2006 and spent two years pitching for the DSL Giants before coming to the United States in 2008. He had his best year as a Giant in 2011, when he pitched for the Augusta GreenJackets, finishing with an 8-5 record and a 4.28 ERA in 90.1 innings.

Jared Walker ►►► Hitting Coach

Jared Walker begins his second season as a Hitting Coach in the Giants system, first with Eugene, after coaching his first season with ACL Giants Black. Walker wrapped up his nine-year playing career in 2022 with Southern Maryland in the Independent Atlantic League. The former fifth-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers spent six years with the organization that drafted him, peaking at the High-A level. In 2021, Walker spent a majority of his time with the Hickory Crawdads, the Texas Rangers High-A affiliate. Scottsdale Stadium

The 2020 campaign marked the opening of a new clubhouse and world class training facility at Scottsdale Stadium. Nestled in the heart of historic Old Town Scottsdale and surrounded by art galleries, restaurants and boutique shops, Scottsdale Stadium has become the home of not only the San Francisco Giants and the Arizona Fall League, but also of numerous special events, festivals, concerts, and parties. Designed by the architects of Camden Yards in Baltimore, the stadium is adorned with turn-of-the-century lamps, framed antique baseball gloves, and sidewalk bricks in the shape of home plate.

Headlining Phase 1 of the Scottsdale Stadium renovations was the new multi-story clubhouse and event center on the Osborn Road side of the ballpark. The 10,000 square-foot event facility is the largest in downtown Scottsdale and is used year-round by the Giants and the City of Scottsdale. The event space currently holds the team's dining room. The Giants also utilize the space if rain keeps them from working out outside.

The clubhouse sits at the base of the three-story, 40,000 square foot building and includes 10 televisions, plenty of comfortable seating, and mood lighting that can be changed with a flick of a switch. In the back of the building is the first floor of the two-story world-class weight room and training facility, which has views of the back field at Scottsdale Stadium, where the Giants do workouts in the spring and hold simulated games. The second floor includes a float tank for players to recover. The third floor has a lounge for players to hang out and includes two decks overlooking the stadium.

From the fan side, there is now an expanded entrance to Scottsdale Stadium off Drinkwater Blvd. that also includes a new box office. Fans also notice aesthetic changes to the ballpark in right field where there are new right field concourse bleachers with standing room decks as well as an expansion of the Charro Lodge in right field. The expanded Charro Lodge increases shade and capacity for Giants Spring Training games.

ENGLISH BROADCASTERS

Jon Miller

Jon Miller, honored by the National Baseball Hall of Fame as the 2010 Ford C. Frick award winner for baseball broadcasting excellence, the “Voice of the Giants”, enters his 28th season in the broadcast booth on KNBR Radio, NBC Bay Area and NBC Sports Bay Area. 2024 will mark the 50th anniversary of Miller’s first Major League broadcast when he debuted with the Oakland A’s in 1974. Miller was thrilled to broadcast his 16th World Series in 2014 as the Giants won it all for the third time in five years. Miller was inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame in 2014. In 1990 when ESPN TV first began its coverage of Major League Baseball, Miller was chosen as the first play-by-play commentator on the award-winning ESPN Sunday Night Baseball game of the week broadcast. Miller and his Hall of Fame partner, Joe Morgan, teamed up on the prime time telecast for 21 seasons. During his tenure at ESPN, he was nominated twice for a national Emmy Award, and broadcast 13 consecutive World Series on ESPN Radio. He has broadcast 16 World Series overall. In 2020 Miller was named “one of the 50 most significant off-field figures in baseball in the past 50 years” by the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR). It was one of a series of such lists published as part of the 50th Anniversary of SABR’s founding. He was also nominated six times for an “ACE” award, emblematic of cable television excellence, and won the award in 1991 - the first ESPN play-by-play announcer to win the award, and 1996. Miller was named National Sportscaster of the Year by the American Sportscasters Association (ASA) in 1998. That same year, Miller was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association of America (NSSAA). In 2018, Miller received a Northern California Emmy Award, the fourth local Emmy for his Giants television work. Prior to his work on ESPN, Miller broadcast an occasional game on NBC-TV with either Tony Kubek or Joe Garagiola. Miller spent 14 years with the Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Giants. Prior to joining Baltimore in 1983, the talented broadcaster spent two seasons with the Texas Rangers (1978-79) and three seasons with the Boston Red Sox (1980-82). Miller got his first baseball play-by-play job in 1974 at age 22 calling radio and TV for that year’s World Series Champion Oakland Athletics. The Bay Area native has also broadcast NHL hockey, NBA basketball and championship soccer games on national television in his distinguished career. In 2018, Miller was inducted into the College of San Mateo (CA) Hall of Fame. Miller began his broadcasting career as a student at CSM and broadcast baseball, football and basketball games on KCSM, the college’s radio and TV stations. Jon and his wife, Janine, reside in San Francisco. They are parents to three daughters, Misha, Holly (married to Paul Gallagher) and Emilie, and a son, Alexander (married to Christina Vanoverbeck).

Duane Kuiper

Duane Kuiper, a 13-time Emmy award-winning broadcaster, begins his 40th season as a Major League announcer. He embarks on his 31st consecutive year in the NBC Sports Bay Area, NBC Bay Area and KNBR Radio broadcast booths in 2024. He was named California’s 2020 Sportscaster of the Year as selected by the National Sports Media Association. Kuiper was one of 10 finalists for the 2024, 2023 and 2014 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Kuiper and his NBCSBA broadcast partner, Mike Krukow, were both named as one of 10 finalists on the 2024 Frick Award ballot. Kuiper emerged as one of the top three fan selections in online voting in 2014. The former 11-year big league infielder has received 13 local Emmy awards for his distinguished broadcasting career: On-Camera talent (9); Sports Live Broadcast (2); and Sporting Event/Game-Live (2). He provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1993. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven campaigns with the Cleveland Indians. In 2004 he was voted by Cleveland fans as one of the 100 greatest players in Tribe history. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. Kuiper’s scorecards from Barry Bonds’ historic 756th home run game, Randy Johnson’s 300th career victory, Matt Cain’s perfect game in 2012 and the scorecard from Gaylord Perry Day (August 13, 2016 - BAL @ SF) are displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. The Wisconsin native previously served as a board member of the Giants Community Fund and was a member of the Junior Giants Committee and the former Chair of the Junior Giants Glove Drive. Kuiper lends his time and support to ARF (Animal Rescue Foundation, <http://www.arflife.org>). Kuiper, along with his NBCSBA partner, Mike Krukow, served as an ambassador for the UTAC (Until There’s A Cure) campaign in 2023. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper resides in Danville. He and his late wife, Michelle, are parents to two children, Cole (married to Rachel Jensen) and Dannon (married to Zach Rease), and have two granddaughters, Andy and Kit.

Mike Krukow

Mike Krukow enters his 34th season in the television booth, and his 30th full season on the radio side. A 13-time Emmy award winner, Krukow is the broadcast team's color analyst on NBC Sports Bay Area and NBC Bay Area telecasts, and on KNBR Radio broadcasts. Krukow was one of the finalists for the 2024 and 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for baseball broadcasting excellence. Krukow and his NBCSBA broadcast partner, Duane Kuiper, were both named as one of 10 finalists on the 2024 Frick Award ballot. He was named California's 2023, 2017 and 2015 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association (NSMA). The former big league pitcher has received 13 local Emmy awards: On-Camera talent (7); Sports Live Broadcast (2); Sporting Event/Game-Live (2); Arts/Entertainment-Program/Special (1); and Executive Producer Baseball Ballet (1). In 2021, he was inducted into the National Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame. Krukow's playing career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. "Kruk", named as the starting right-handed pitcher to the 1980's Giants All-Decade Team in a vote by Bay Area media in 1999, is noted for his deep knowledge of the game and tremendous sense of humor. A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record and a 3.90 ERA. In 2008, Kruk was honored as a member of the inaugural class of Giants alumni with a plaque in the Giants Wall of Fame which lines the wall outside of Oracle Park. Krukow's scorecard from Tim Lincecum's no hitter in 2014 is displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. Krukow supports Canine Guardians (www.canineguardians.org), a non-profit organization that provides trained service dogs to assist and enrich the daily lives of wounded veterans with PTSD, diabetics, children with cancer and others with disabilities. Krukow, alongside his NBCSBA partner, Duane Kuiper, served as an ambassador for the 2023 UTAC (Until There's A Cure) campaign. Krukow resides in Reno, NV with his wife, Jennifer. The couple has five children, Jarek (married to Siobhan O'Neill), Baker (married to Celina Roberge), Tessa, Chase (married to Alix Roe) and Weston, two grandsons, Coen and Max, and two granddaughters, Reagan and Sailor Lucille.

Dave Flemming

Dave Flemming begins his 21st year of broadcasting for the Giants. The 47-year-old will join Jon Miller and Duane Kuiper as the team's primary play-by-play voices on KNBR radio broadcasts and NBC Sports Bay Area telecasts. In addition to his work with the Giants, he serves as a lead play-by-play voice for ESPN television, working college football, Major League Baseball, basketball and golf, providing coverage of the PGA Championship and The Masters. Flemming was named California's 2019 Sportscaster of the Year, as selected by the National Sports Media Association. He has previously called Major League Baseball on FOX, and for six years was the play-by-play voice of Stanford football and basketball. In 2008, Sports Business Journal named Flemming "the best of the new generation of baseball announcers". He has won three Northern California Area Emmy Awards for his Giants play-by-play work. The Alexandria, VA native received a Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Stanford, and a Master's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University. For more than a decade, Flemming has served on the board of the Good Tidings Foundation, a Bay Area charity that has worked closely with the Giants in building and refurbishing baseball fields and other athletic facilities across Northern California. Good Tidings also grants college scholarships for economically disadvantaged students who have demonstrated extraordinary community service, and builds art studios in underserved schools and neighborhoods. In 2017, Good Tidings presented Flemming with the Nate Thurmond Medal, in recognition of lifetime contributions to community service. Since 2011, Dave has participated in the Giants Community Fund's annual Education Day pre-game program where 60 Harmon and Sue Burns scholars and their guests learn about the importance of higher education. Flemming has also participated in the Willie Mac Award Luncheon and the Junior Giants Commissioner's Meeting. Flemming and his wife, Jessica, reside in San Francisco with their twin daughters, Katie and Carter, and son, David Henry.

Javier Lopez

Javier Lopez enters his seventh season in the in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth and will broadcast select road games. In addition to broadcasting games for the Giants, Lopez previously broadcast college baseball games for ESPN's ACC Network. The former left-hander pitched for Colorado (2003-05), Arizona (2005), Boston (2006-2009), Pittsburgh (2010), and San Francisco (2010-2016). He won three World Series rings (2010, 2012, 2014) as a member of the Giants and one World Series ring with the Red Sox in 2007. Lopez attended the University of Virginia and earned a degree in psychology despite leaving early to begin his baseball career. In 2011, Lopez was one of two major league relief pitchers to throw at least 50 innings without giving up a home run. In 2013, Lopez posted a career-best 1.83 ERA. A left-handed specialist known for his sidearm delivery, Lopez, along with teammate Brandon Crawford, won the Willie Mac Award in 2016. The award honors the Giants' most inspirational player. Lopez lends support to the Word of Honor Fund (www.wordofhonorfund.com). Lopez is married to Renee, and they reside in Suwanee, GA with their two children, Kylan and Cristian.

Hunter Pence

Hunter Pence enters his third season in the NBC Sports Bay Area TV booth and will broadcast select road games. He is a former Major League Baseball player, broadcaster, gamer, entrepreneur, and philanthropist. Pence's 14-year MLB career includes two World Series Championships as a member of the San Francisco Giants (2012 and 2014), four All-Star appearances, and four Heart and Hustle Awards. Pence made his Major League Debut with the Houston Astros in 2007 and went on to play for the Philadelphia Phillies (2011-2012), San Francisco Giants (2012-2018, 2020), and the Texas Rangers (2019). Now in retirement from baseball, Pence has established himself as a national sports broadcaster and motivational speaker. Pence is the founder of the Healthy Planet Project and co-owner of Coral Sword Gaming Café in Houston, Texas, and Pineapple Labs, a coffee and lifestyle brand. Follow Hunter Pence on social media @hunterpence.

Joe Ritzo

Joe Ritzo enters his second season in the KNBR radio booth and will broadcast select road games. Ritzo initially joined the Giants in 2017 on spring training broadcasts before making his regular season debut in a fill-in role during the 2019 season. In addition to calling games for the San Francisco Giants, Ritzo continues as a play-by-play broadcaster for the San Jose Giants. He's served as a broadcaster for the Giants minor league affiliate, working on both radio and television, since his start with the organization at the age of 19. Ritzo has also spent the last seven years as the play-by-play voice for Santa Clara women's basketball. Ritzo began his broadcast career calling games for Stanford baseball at age 17. He's also served in a fill-in capacity on the Stanford football radio broadcast. A graduate of Santa Clara University, Ritzo is originally from Palo Alto, CA. Ritzo and his wife, Emily, reside in Castro Valley with their two children, Benjamin and Elijah.

FP Santangelo

FP (Frank Paul) Santangelo enters his second season in the KNBR radio booth and will broadcast select road games for the Club in the 2024 season. The El Dorado Hills (CA) native served as a fill-in radio announcer during the 2023 season. Drafted in 1989 by the Montreal Expos, his Major League career included stints in Montreal, San Francisco, Los Angeles (NL) and Oakland. After his playing career ended, Santangelo co-hosted a talk show on KHTK Radio in Sacramento from 2006-2008. In 2010, he became a host on KNBR's SportsPhone 680 and worked as a fill-in color analyst for Giants telecasts on CSN Bay Area. In 2011, the former outfielder returned to the organization with which he spent over half his playing career (Expos relocated to Washington in 2005), and was named the color analyst for the Washington Nationals' telecasts on MASN (Mid-Atlantic Sports Network). Santangelo returned to San Francisco in 2022, where he hosted the Giants pre-game show on KNBR as well as the station's late night call in show. Santangelo resides in San Francisco and has two children, Frank-Paul Jr. and Summer.

RADIO & TELEVISION AFFILIATES & PRODUCTION

NBC Sports Bay Area

NBC Sports Bay Area, part of NBC Sports Regional Networks, has been the club's cable television rightsholder since 1990. In 2008, NBC Sports Bay Area (formerly CSN Bay Area) was formed as a partnership between NBC Sports Group and the San Francisco Giants and the network signed a 25-year agreement to broadcast Giants games through the 2033 baseball season. In 2024, the network will continue to present all Giants regular season games in HDTV and will feature Giants related programming all year long. NBC Sports Bay Area serves more than four million households in Northern California, Nevada, Southern Oregon and Hawaii. In addition to the Giants, NBC Sports Bay Area serves as the television home of the Golden State Warriors and is the official regional sports network of the San Francisco 49ers.

SPANISH BROADCASTERS

Erwin R. Higueros

Erwin Higueros, a 36-year veteran of Bay Area sports broadcasting, begins his 26th full season, his 27th overall in the Giants' Spanish language radio booth. In addition to his broadcast responsibilities, Higueros is a member of the Giants front office, working in both the media relations and Hispanic marketing departments, and serves as the official Spanish language translator for the Club. In 2016, Higueros received a Northern California Area Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Achievement Sporting Game Live for the first Giants game to be televised in Spanish on Telemundo/KSTS-Channel 48. In 2018, Higueros was awarded a second Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Sports-News Feature/Segment (Spanish). In 2019, he was awarded a third Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Commercial-Single Spot or Campaign (Spanish). A multi-talented announcer, Higueros hosts Conversación Gigante, a 30-minute show that airs on Telemundo with in-depth interviews with Giants Latin players that allows each individual to tell the story about his personal journey to the Majors. During Fiesta Gigantes in 2023, Higueros became the 22nd recipient of the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum's Pioneer Award. An active participant in community programs, last November Higueros was the host for the virtual walk experience for the National Kidney Foundation Walk that originated from Oracle Park. In addition, prior to the 2020 presidential election he was the MC for a special voter engagement Chalk Talk that featured California Secretary of State Alex Padilla. In 2019, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play radio announcer for the Anaheim Ducks first-ever hockey game in Spanish. The Ducks hosted the Vancouver Canucks as part of the celebration of Día de los Muertos at the Honda Center. In 2023 Higueros again provided the play-by-play for the Ducks' Día de los Muertos game vs. Toronto. Higueros began his broadcasting career with the Oakland A's (1988-97), and was the play-by-play announcer for games that were televised on Telemundo-Channel 48 from 1995-97. A versatile broadcaster, Higueros was the Spanish play-by-play voice for a number of Bay Area professional sports teams including the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 and 2012-2013 seasons, the San Jose Sharks in 1995, and the Oakland Raiders in 1995-96 and 2002-06. He also handled the radio play-by-play duties on Spanish radio for the Fresno State Bulldogs football team (2009-14). Higueros broadcast the League Division Series for FOX Sports International in 2004-06. In 2013, Higueros was the recipient of the Community Service Award from the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum. Born in Guatemala, he moved to the United States when he was 12 years old. A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, he attended Cal State Hayward and the Columbia School of Broadcasting. Higueros resides in Brentwood with his wife, Maria. The couple has two grown children, Claudia and Erwin, Jr., and two grandchildren, Alison and Erwin, III.

Tito Fuentes

Tito Fuentes returns to the Giants' Spanish language broadcast booth for his 20th season. Fuentes previously served as a member of the Spanish language broadcast team from 1981-92, and in 1996-2004 he broadcast for FOX Sports International which is aired in Latin America. An active participant in the Giants' marketing efforts, he is a regular participant in the Giants Fantasy Camps. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965-74, Fuentes saw big league action with San Diego, Detroit and Oakland. The Havana, Cuba native was initially signed as an 18-year-old amateur before the start of the 1962 season and was the last baseball player signed directly out of Cuba before the United States embargo against Cuba. A .268 hitter over his 13-year career, he was voted the starting second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants 25th Anniversary team by San Francisco fans in 1982. In 1997, "23" was inducted into the Cuban Baseball Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maritza, reside in Reno, NV.

Carlos Orellana

Carlos Orellana is entering his 16th season as a Spanish radio engineer and producer in Major League Baseball and his 13th overall with the San Francisco Giants (2009-2011, 2015-present). Orellana began his radio career with the Giants in 2009, at the age of 18, as an assistant producer for KIQI Radio. He was the Oakland Athletics Spanish radio network producer from 2012-2014. In 2015, he rejoined the Giants Spanish radio booth as one of the producers for ESPN Deportes Radio and has remained a part of the broadcast team since. In addition to his producing duties, Orellana has been serving as the back-up play-by-play announcer for Erwin Higueros since the 2015 season. Aside from producing baseball games, the multi-talented San Francisco native has worked with the San Francisco 49ers (2009) and the Oakland Raiders (2013-2019). Orellana has also produced international broadcasts, including the NFL International Series Games in Mexico City (2016 and 2017) and the 2016 NHL Stanley Cup Final for Viasat Sports (Finland). In his young career Orellana has also engineered and produced prestigious events including the 2010 MLB World Series, 2012 and 2013 ALDS, 2012 NFC Divisional Playoffs, 2014 AL Wild Card, 2014, '16, and '21 NLDS, 2016 AFC Wild Card, and Super Bowl 50 Radio Row. He currently resides in Hayward with his wife, Daniela.

Ford C. Frick Award Winners

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

Mel Allen and Red Barber were the first two recipients in 1978. A single winner has been selected in each year following.

The annual Frick Award ballot is created by a subcommittee of the voting electorate. A new election cycle has been established starting with the 2017 Award, rotating annually between Major League Markets (team-specific announcers); National Voices (broadcasters whose contributions were realized on a national level); and Broadcasting Beginnings (early team voices and pioneers of baseball broadcasting). This cycle will repeat every three years.

The Frick Award Committee casts ballots during November, and the results are announced during the Baseball Winter Meetings in December. The Frick Award electorate is comprised of the living Frick Award recipients and four broadcast historians/columnists.

Voters are asked to base their selections on "Commitment to excellence, quality of broadcasting abilities, reverence within the game, popularity with fans, and recognition by peers." To be considered, an active or retired broadcaster must have a minimum of 10 years of continuous major league broadcast service with a ball club, network, or a combination of the two.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during Hall of Fame Weekend. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Below is a list of Giants broadcasters who have been recipients of the Ford C. Frick Award:

Russ Hodges

Frick Award Winner: 1980

"Voice of Giants" for 21-year run that spanned both coasts...began in New York Giants' radio booth in 1949, followed club west in 1958, and broadcast San Francisco Giants games through 1970...author of most famous call in franchise annals, and perhaps in baseball history, with his "Giants Win the Pennant!" description of Bobby Thomson's playoff-winning homer against Brooklyn Dodgers Oct. 3, 1951...his "Bye-Bye Baby" call became synonymous with Giants home runs...Ford C. Frick Award winner entered Hall of Fame in 1980.

Lindsey Nelson

Frick Award Winner: 1988

Nelson spent three seasons on the airwaves with the Giants from 1979-1981 after spending 17 seasons working in the New York Mets radio booth from 1962-1978...was nicknamed "Mr. New Year's Day" for calling the play-by-play of the Cotton Bowl Classic for 26 seasons on CBS...Nelson also called many Army-Navy games and was also the first announcer during the first NFL game on CBS that used instant replay where he had to remind viewers the programming wasn't live...was the Ford C. Frick Award winner in 1988.

Lon Simmons

Frick Award Winner: 2004

One of original voices of San Francisco Giants, teaming with fellow Hall of Famer Russ Hodges to form arguably finest broadcast team in sports history...brought trademark "Tell It Goodbye" home run call to Giants broadcast booth for 23 years over three different stints (1958-'73, '76-'78 and '96-2002)...is only man to broadcast debuts for each of club's three San Francisco ballparks—Seals Stadium in 1958, Candlestick Park in 1960 and Pacific Bell Park in 2000...beloved for his wit and charm, Bay Area legend was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2004 as 29th winner of Ford C. Frick Award.

Jon Miller

Frick Award Winner: 2010

Miller, who has gained accolades for his attention to detail and his intellect, has spent four decades calling Major League Baseball games for the A's, Rangers, Red Sox, Orioles and his current team the Giants...was voice of ESPN's national Sunday Night Baseball telecasts for 21 years...broadcast 13 straight World Series on ESPN Radio and 16 overall...his energy, preparation and thoroughness has helped bring game to life in homes and hearts of so many listeners...Miller was honored as 35th Ford C. Frick Award recipient during Hall of Fame Weekend 2010.

Al Michaels

Frick Award Winner: 2021

Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, was the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974...Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network...he became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics...Michaels becomes the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

SFG Productions

SFG Productions is the in-house video production team for the San Francisco Giants and part of the Content and Entertainment Department and staffed with a team of editors, producers, motion designers and cinematographers. SFG Productions content and personnel are integrated with the 4K centerfield scoreboard for live in-game entertainment and Giants Enterprises events as well as producing original content for television, web, social media, commercials, promotional items and corporate initiatives. Since 2010, SFG Productions has won 16 Northern California Emmy® Awards.

THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS ARE DEDICATED TO ENRICHING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH INNOVATION AND EXCELLENCE ON AND OFF THE FIELD

In a collaborative effort, the Giants Community Fund, the club's 501(c)(3) non-profit, and the team's Community Relations Department, work to identify, develop, support and raise awareness for people, issues and programs that are important to our fans and communities throughout the Bay Area and Northern and Central California.

Each season, the Giants strive to serve our community by raising awareness for important causes, providing memorable experiences for our fans and inspiring the next generation of baseball and softball players. Here are some of our favorite moments from the 2023 season that celebrate the incredible people that make up the Giants Family.

PEDIATRIC CANCER AWARENESS

The Giants hosted the annual Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night on Friday, September 8. In collaboration with Forever Giant Buster Posey and his wife Kristen, the Giants brought together 350+ pediatric cancer patients, families, doctors and from local Bay Area hospitals, cancer treatment centers and nonprofits for a number of pregame activities. Additionally, the scoreboard featured portraits of Giants players in-game that were handdrawn by pediatric cancer patients during an art workshop at Oracle Park.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

The San Francisco Giants are determined to bring important conversations about mental health to the forefront in their work to end the stigma surrounding mental health. We believe that by supporting those around us, providing resources and openly discussing the value of healthy life habits, we can continue to prioritize mental wellness within the organization and for our community. In partnership with the Giants Mental Health team, the Giants raised awareness in May and in September for the importance of prioritizing mental health.

SAN QUENTIN GIANTS

To build upon existing prison reform initiatives, the San Francisco Giants formally announced their community partnership with San Quentin Rehabilitation Center to provide philanthropic support to the 20+ members of San Quentin Baseball - the prison's longest running and most successful restorative initiative. Renamed the San Quentin Giants, members of the SF Giants - John Brebbia, Sean Manaea, Ryan Walker, Drew Robinson, Shana Alexander, Emily Payette - visited the center and presented the team with new uniforms, helmets and equipment.

FAMILY HOUSE

Family House San Francisco serves as a home away from home for families of children with cancer and other life-threatening illnesses - providing physical and emotional support without financial concern. The Giants made three team visits to Family House in 2023 to meet and play baseball with children and their families. Players and coaches in attendance included Logan Webb, Mike Yastrzemski, Blake Sabol, Patrick Bailey, Tristan Beck, Austin Slater, Luke Jackson, Wilmer Flores, Alyssa Nakken and Thairo Estrada.

JUNIOR GIANTS

Junior Giants, the flagship program of the Giants Community Fund, is a free, noncompetitive, coed baseball and softball program for youth ages 5-18. Through the power of the game, youth are introduced to important life lessons so that they may be Giants on the field, in the classroom and in the community. In 2023, the Fund established a service record, reaching 35,368 youth across 86 leagues and 80 schools.

NIKE CITY CONNECT

The Giants in partnership with Nike created a unique themed jersey featuring the Golden Gate Bridge Towers peeking over the thick San Francisco fog. These jerseys represent the fusion of cultures, vibrancy from the City streets, having a dream and believing in yourself, and the impactful work in the diverse communities of San Francisco. City ConnectED highlighted the stories of perseverance, hard work, dedication, grit and drive. These stories define success as impact - on their community, on those less fortunate, on their friends, family and teammates. Each story is a piece of San Francisco.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Giants employees, from the players to the front office staff, are expected to give back to the community and our fans. Players and uniformed personnel do this through developing their own community programs or supporting existing programs in the form of appearances, financial contributions and relaying important messages through videos, press conferences and appearances. The front office staff supports many of the organization's community initiatives and actively volunteers their time throughout the year. The Giants also donated over 97,000 tickets through MLB's Community Commissioner's Initiative to organizations and community groups to bring people to games in 2023 who may not have had the opportunity to attend otherwise. In addition, autographed memorabilia was donated to hundreds of nonprofit organizations throughout Northern California to assist in fundraising efforts.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Each season, the Giants team up with community organizations to raise awareness for various causes. The Giants used TV and radio broadcast spots, social media posts and in-game assets to support these causes. Programs included: Alzheimer's Awareness, Salute to the Military, Pediatric Cancer Awareness, Until There's A Cure, Strike Out Violence Day, Mental Health Awareness, Lou Gehrig Day, Junior Giants Stretch Drive, Heritage Nights, Step Up to the Plate for Homelessness, and many others.
