CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

MARK ATTANASIO

The 2011 season is the seventh for Mark Attanasio as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club.

As the Brewers wrapped up the celebration of their 40th anniversary in Milwaukee last October, Attanasio was already looking ahead to the next season. This offseason was especially busy as the front office took some bold steps to make the team considerably more competitive. In addition to securing a new field manager as well as two highly accomplished Major League pitchers, Attanasio also focused on continuing to fulfill the other three pledges he made when he and his group acquired the team.

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

During the offseason, Attanasio worked closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Melvin, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Gord Ash and the baseball operations staff to make significant improvements on the field, especially through the acquisitions of starting pitchers Shaun Marcum and 2009 American League Cy Young Award-winner Zack Greinke. These players were obtained while keeping the potent offense intact. The trades were made possible by the ability to offer top-quality young players from the Major League roster as well as highly-touted prospects; a tribute to the Brewers' scouting and player development departments.

One of the key differentiators of the Brewers has been the ability to develop and retain homegrown talent. In the past year, the Club was able to secure long-term contracts with All-Stars Yovani Gallardo and Corey Hart. The two joined All-Star Ryan Braun, who signed his long-term deal with the Brewers in 2008.

The Brewers also retained the continued presence of All-Star Prince Fielder as well as top leadoff hitter Rickie Weeks for the coming season. The bullpen was anchored in 2010 by players who progressed through the farm system, most notably John Axford, who recorded 24 of 27 save opportunities while posting a 2.48 ERA.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

In order to continue to offer the best experience to the most loyal and enthusiastic fans in baseball, Attanasio worked with Brewers business executives Rick Schlesinger and Bob Quinn to implement upgrades to Miller Park. Most notable among them for 2011 is the installation of a new state-of-the-art, high-definition scoreboard; the fourth-largest in Major League Baseball, covering approximately 5,940 square feet.

In addition, as part of Attanasio's pledge to the community to keep baseball affordable for everyone, the Brewers announced last October that ticket prices will remain unchanged, at 2010 levels, for all seats and packages.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

After the successful re-branding of the Club's charitable arm in 2010, the Brewers Community Foundation (BCF) is poised to build upon its successful inaugural season. Attanasio and his wife Debbie personally led the re-branding effort. In addition, the Attanasios contributed $1 million to jump start BCF's ability to make a difference in the community.

The 2010 season included new activities such as the 50/50 Raffle and the placement of Change for Children canisters throughout the ballpark. In addition, BCF organized and hosted the first summit meeting of the charitable arms of MLB Clubs to review and discuss "best practices" in maximizing the impact of the outreach that each club makes. This year, such longstanding efforts as Brewers Auctions, the Klement's Famous Racing Sausages 5K Run/Walk and events hosted by players, their wives, and other team personnel will continue to play a prominent role in the Club's community outreach.

The re-branding effort also resulted in a more targeted approach to positively impacting organizations and members of the community in its four areas of focus: health, education, recreation and basic needs. Organizations that were the recipients of some of the $3 million raised include those focused on youth sports, after-school programs, medical screenings, counseling and the supply of such basic needs as food, clothing and shelter.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio remains committed to ensuring that the Brewers organization continues to be one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his seven years as principal owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for free agents, front office personnel and those on the business side of baseball.

Attanasio has been involved in ensuring that employees are provided with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the Club's community outreach. Recent employee surveys indicate that the culture in the Brewers front office is one where people thrive as they strive to reach their personal and organizational goals both on and off the field.

In addition to his role with the Brewers, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for over 20 years. Currently, he serves as co-founder and managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., a Los Angeles-based asset management firm.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as around the United States, including Heal the Bay (an environmental group aimed at preserving the Pacific coastline), the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Sports Spectacular (which funds the study of medical genetics and birth defects), United Way of Milwaukee, The Greater Milwaukee Committee, Harvard-Westlake School and the President's Leadership Council of Brown University. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife Debbie have two sons.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger recently completed his eighth season with the Brewers. He was named to his current position on January 24, 2011 after previously serving as Executive Vice President – Business Operations. Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, guest services, public relations, community relations, broadcasting and communications.

Since Schlesinger joined the Brewers, attendance for home games has increased 80%, from 1.7 million in 2003 (25th in MLB) to the franchise record of nearly 3.1 million (9th in MLB) achieved in 2008. In the 2010 season, the Brewers once again excelled at the gate, placing 11th in all of Major League Baseball with nearly 2.8 million tickets sold. In his eight years with the Club, season ticket sales have more than doubled and all areas of the business have seen dramatic growth.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. This past winter's "signature" project was the installation of one of Major League Baseball's largest scoreboards, featuring a video board with the latest improvements for high definition picture quality in sports. The Club also renovated all of the Founder's Suites and media interview room in the offseason. Other recent enhancements include a statue honoring MLB Commissioner and former Brewers Owner Bud Selig; complete renovations of the Brewers Team Store by Majestic and other Miller Park retail outlets; construction of the Harley-Davidson Deck, Kalahari Splash Zone, NYCE Stadium Club, Gehl Club, Associated Bank Kids Zone and three Brewers Party Suites; plus a complete redesign of Miller Park's 43 Club Level suites and Miller Park function rooms.

Schlesinger has placed a very high priority on consistently improving the fan experience at Miller Park, and his efforts have been well received. In recent years, the Brewers and Miller Park have been recognized by both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In 2009, the organization received a high honor in being named one of five finalists for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award. In addition, Forbes Magazine named the Brewers as one of Major League Baseball's "Hottest Brands" for 2009 and ESPN the Magazine placed the Brewers seventh out of 122 major league sports franchises - and second among all MLB teams - in its "Ultimate Franchise Rankings" fan survey. Finally, in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience as voted on by both media and fans.

Under Schlesinger's leadership, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community. Most significantly, the organization re-branded its Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. philanthropic arm in 2010 and created several new impact initiatives to continue building fundraising efforts to benefit area causes. Recent efforts have also included the creation of the Brewers Community Foundation Week (a week designated to highlight the many efforts of the Milwaukee Brewers many contributions to the community) and the Brewers Block Parties (carnival-style events that take place in multiple locations throughout Southeastern Wisconsin).

On the corporate marketing front, the Brewers have significantly expanded their reach in recent years. Since 2005 alone, sponsorship revenue has increased 75%, and the total number of Brewers sponsors/partners has doubled.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as the Vice President, Business and Legal Affairs/Assistant General Manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after coming to Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) from Walt Disney Pictures and Television. Schlesinger handled all contract and legal matters for ASI, the Angels and the NHL's Mighty Ducks, and worked on all contractual and arbitration issues for the baseball club.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, Schlesinger spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Active in the community, Schlesinger serves on the Boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Wisconsin, the YMCA and the Wisconsin Sports Development Corporation, and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee that contributes to the cultural and economic base of the Milwaukee Metropolitan area.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin and resides in Milwaukee. He has three children - daughter Caitlin and sons Bradley and Sam.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, with over 17 years of experience in professional baseball, begins his ninth season in a senior business executive role with the Brewers.

Quinn joined the Brewers on January 3, 2003 as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer before being promoted to his current role on July 19, 2007. A fourth-generation baseball executive, Quinn oversees the financial operations of the Brewers as well as human resources, information systems, Miller Park operations, Arizona spring training operations and business administration.

Quinn plays a lead role in creating the annual and long-range business and financial plan for the Brewers that has allowed the team to stay competitive on the field and provided the resources to continuously enhance the fan experience at Miller Park. He was instrumental in the creation of new fan enhancements at Miller Park as well as significant changes in game entertainment, ticket packages and promotions. Quinn also initiated several programs that have been critical to the Brewers customer service practices. In 2007, he began the "Trading Places" program, where team management worked on the frontlines as concession workers, parking attendants, ticket takers, ushers and ballpark maintenance workers to sample the experience from the perspective of both event staff and fans. The past four years, he has led the "Fans First" effort, with Brewers front office executives randomly awarding fans each night with ticket upgrades, autographed items and once in a lifetime entertainment experiences.

In his tenure, the Brewers have posted significant gains in all areas of the business operations. Under Quinn's leadership, the team has established franchise attendance records, peaking at over three million fans in two of the past three seasons. The Club has also posted increased sales and revenue in merchandise, concessions and team sponsorships. With these gains, the Brewers in 2009 were named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award. The team also placed at or near the top in multiple other fan, media and industry surveys from 2005 through 2010.

Prior to coming to Milwaukee, Quinn spent nine years with the San Francisco Giants from 1994-2002, last serving as Vice President of Finance. He served in many capacities and contributed in all areas of the business throughout his tenure. He also played an instrumental role in the private financing and construction of AT&T Park.

Quinn graduated from Marquette University in 1990 with a degree in accounting and worked for the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse in Milwaukee and San Francisco before joining the Giants.

In addition to his accomplishments, Quinn continues a family legacy and influence in professional baseball, and in professional sports, as a member of one of the game's most celebrated multi-generational families. Covering over 275 combined years of experience, tradition and dedication to professional sports and professional baseball, Quinn comes from a long line of front office sports executives. His father, Robert E. Quinn, was general manager for the San Francisco Giants, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds (including the 1990 World Champions). Quinn's grandfather, John Quinn, was general manager of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves (including the 1957 World Champions) and of the Philadelphia Phillies. His great grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was general manager for the St. Louis Browns, Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves, and served as the first curator of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.

Quinn's honors and awards include being named as Milwaukee's "2008 CFO of the Year" by the Business Journal. In January 2007, Quinn was honored with the Young Alumnus Award, conferred through the College of Business Administration of Marquette University. In 2005, he was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list, a prestigious honor bestowed upon those who demonstrate leadership and accomplishments in their profession and community.

Quinn serves as Vice President and Treasurer of the Brewers Community Foundation, Inc., the Club's philanthropic arm which provides financial and other support for youth recreation, scholarships and education throughout Wisconsin. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves as a mentor to college students in the area.

Quinn has played lead guitar in several rock bands, culminating in appearances at Milwaukee's Summerfest Music Festival in each of the last four years.

Quinn is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, and resides in Brookfield, Wisconsin with his wife Amy and their two daughters, Carolyn and Katie.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - GENERAL MANAGER

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin was named Executive Vice President and General Manager on September 26, 2002. He is the eighth general manager in Brewers history. Following the 2008 season, he signed a contract extension that will keep him in Milwaukee through 2012.

This past offseason, Melvin and his staff used trades to bolster the starting rotation. It began with the acquisition of Shaun Marcum from Toronto and continued with what was perhaps the biggest offseason trade in all of baseball as the team acquired the 2009 American League Cy Young Award Winner, Zack Greinke, from Kansas City. In the same trade, the Brewers also acquired shortstop Yuniesky Betancourt.

Melvin has dramatically overhauled the Brewers' roster during his time as general manager, creating a roster of veteran players alongside the homegrown, youthful talent. Melvin helped to bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years in 2008. The 2008 season also marked the second consecutive winning record for the team as the Brewers finished 90-72, good enough to capture the National League Wild Card. Melvin's midseason acquisition of CC Sabathia via trade with the Cleveland Indians was key to the 2008 postseason run and will go down as one of the biggest trades in team history.

Melvin was also able to ink one of the Brewers' young stars, Ryan Braun, to a multi-year deal during that 2008 season. Already one of the top players in the game, Braun is signed through the 2015 season, marking the longest contract in franchise history.

In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as they went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central. That offseason, Melvin added a number of veterans who played key roles in the run to the 2008 postseason, a group that included Mike Cameron, Jason Kendall and Salomon Torres.

During Melvin's tenure, the organization's farm system has produced a number of players who have contributed greatly to the Major League team. Braun, selected in the first round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, is a three-time All-Star and the 2007 National League Rookie of the Year. Prince Fielder, selected in the first round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, is a two-time All-Star and has finished in the top four in National League MVP voting in two of the last four seasons (third in 2007, fourth in 2009). The system also produced two-time All-Star Corey Hart, 2010 All-Star Yovani Gallardo and Rickie Weeks, one of the game's top leadoff hitters.

Melvin has also been successful at using the waiver wire to acquire players who have made contributions to the Major League team. Included in that group of players claimed by Melvin is current third baseman Casey McGehee and former Brewers Brady Clark, Todd Coffey, Joe Inglett, Scott Podsednik and Derrick Turnbow.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 58, was the general manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the team won the American League West three times. Melvin was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan, Tom Schieffer.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization as a special assistant to owner Edward Bennett Williams and General Manager Hank Peters beginning in 1986. He became Director of Player Personnel in charge of minor league operations in November 1987 and added the title of Assistant General Manager under Executive Vice President/General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his retirement as an active player. MILWAUKEE BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

BREWERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Community Relations Department of the Milwaukee Brewers is committed to supporting many worthy events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans that have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Each year, many charities, educational groups, youth groups, and non-profit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches and front office staff, will continue exercising our pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout our region.

Auction Requests

The Milwaukee Brewers Community Relations Department provided thousands of promotional items and autographed merchandise to assist organizations with their fundraising efforts last year. Although we make a great effort to support many programs and events, we first focus on and provide for those non-profit organizations in the Wisconsin area. It is not possible to honor out-of-state requests because we receive so many of them and resources are limited. Donation requests must be submitted in writing at least 45 days in advance of your event, and all requests must be accompanied by an IRS Letter of Determination or other documentation that demonstrates an organization's non-profit status. Questions should be directed to the Community Relations Hotline at (414) 902-4800.

Best Friends Day at Miller Park

The Milwaukee Brewers invite middle school girls who are members of the Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS) Best Friends program to shadow front office women during a typical day at the ballpark. Several MPS schools participate in the program, which concludes with a lunch and a special behind-the-scenes tour of Miller Park.

Each summer, our wives host a tailgate party to benefit Sojourner Family Peace Center, a shelter for battered women and children. Brewers players and their wives make appearances at schools, youth groups and hospitals. Many of the players and their wives purchase game tickets and food vouchers for kids or provide direct financial support for youth groups.

Cerveceros Day

In partnership with the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Wisconsin, the Brewers pay an annual tribute to Hispanic baseball by taking the field in their "Cerveceros" jerseys - "Cerveceros" is the Spanish translation of "Brewers." Father & Child Baseball Trip

Brewer staff and alumnus escort a group of fathers and their children on a one-day road trip to watch the Brewers game and enjoy a tailgate party with Brewers players prior to the game. They speak to students about the importance of school and community, taking advantage of opportunities, seeking positive role models and striving for excellence in education. Key to the presentation is the use of five baseballs. Each ball features one of the S.C.O.R.E. character messages printed on the side. During the program, players engage children in a dialogue about the importance of these five elements. It is a fun program that opens communication between the children and their role models. All students receive a t-shirt and bookmark.

S.C.O.R.E. with Character is a 24-page agenda supplement supported by teacher and parent resources. Miller Park offers a variety of meeting rooms and function spaces for non-game day activities to accommodate anywhere from 15 to 40,000+ people.

Five renovated meeting rooms, two club spaces, a lounge and numerous party suites, located on the Club and Terrace Levels, are perfect for business events, conferences, presentations, trade shows and social events.

Function spaces unique to Miller Park include party suites dedicated to the 1957 Milwaukee Braves, the 1982 Milwaukee Brewers and the 2008 Milwaukee Brewers. Each suite can accommodate approximately 40 guests, with the option of combining two rooms for up to 80 guests. Located on the Club Level, each suite boasts a wonderful right-field view of Miller Park. Below the suites on the Field Level, is the Air Tran Airways Landing Zone, located in right field just past the warning track.

Gehl Club, open since April 2007, offers a breathtaking floor to ceiling field view and is one of the most unique spots to host a social or business event any month of the year. Gehl Club can comfortably hold up to 240 people between the interior and exterior patio space. Between October and April, when just the interior is available, the Gehl Club is still ideal for groups up to 100 people. In addition to the field view, modern furnishings and indoor and outdoor bars, there are 17 flat-screen televisions located throughout the 9,000 square foot space.

The NYCE Stadium Club, which was renovated and re-opened in April 2008, can accommodate up to 300 guests for an event any day or night of the week throughout the year. The NYCE Stadium Club is an exclusive function space that excels at combining baseball with a formal atmosphere. From social gatherings and business dinners to wedding receptions, class reunions and holiday parties, the options are endless for events in the NYCE Stadium Club on a non-game day. Flat screen televisions, a full indoor bar and ample patio space all add to the one-of-a-kind NYCE Stadium Club experience at Miller Park.

For something bigger and larger, a unique way to take advantage of Miller Park on a non-game day is to rent out the entire ballpark. Miller Park has hosted concerts by the likes of Bruce Springsteen, Bon Jovi, and the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid benefit. In addition to concerts, Miller Park has been host to day-long retreats and team-building activities for major corporations. Increasing in popularity, more and more couples are holding their wedding ceremonies at Miller Park. Couples can say their "I do's" at home plate with guests seated around the warning track and in the lower seating bowl. With the addition of personalized scoreboard and ribbon board messages, a wedding ceremony at Miller Park's home plate on a non-game day is sure to be unforgettable.

For more information on hosting a private event of any size at Miller Park, please contact Brewers Enterprises at 414-902-4452 or via e-mail at event.info@brewers.com.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is Milwaukee's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Year in and year out, the Brewers fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In 2010, Team Marketing Report stated in their annual "Fan Cost Index" survey that the Brewers ranked as the eighth-most affordable fan experience in Major League Baseball. In each of the previous three seasons, the Brewers have ranked in the top quarter of all professional sports franchises (122 overall) in ESPN's "Ultimate Franchise Rankings."

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in each of its ten seasons. The most notable improvement made for the 2011 season at Miller Park was the new scoreboard. The state-of-the-art, high definition scoreboard is twice the size of the previous scoreboard at Miller Park. At 5,940 square feet, it is the fourth-largest scoreboard in Major League Baseball. It is also the third, true 1080, high definition scoreboard in baseball.

Additional improvements throughout Miller Park for 2011 include renovated Field Level Founders suites and a renovated Media Interview Room.

During the 2009 offseason, improvements were made to the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level and the Milwaukee Braves Wall of Honor on the Field Level. Additionally, an outdoor "Plaza Pavilion" was constructed in the right-field corner of the Field Level. Year in and year out, the Brewers continue to make updates to Miller Park that make it one of the best ballparks in Major League Baseball and a major destination in the city of Milwaukee and state of Wisconsin.

Other recent improvements at Miller Park include the new Brewers Team Store by Majestic (2009), the renovation of 43 Club Level suites (2009), the Harley-Davidson Deck (2009), the renovation of the "NYCE Stadium Club" (2008), the Associated Bank Kids Zone (2008), the "Gehl Club" (2007) and the AirTran Airways Landing Zone (2007).

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001, a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the State of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that have already taken place in the Brewers new home.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

This was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark has also hosted the filming of the motion picture "Mr. 3000," starring the late Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, The Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. And in 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th Anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the Miller Park parking lots.

On Saturday, October 4, 2008, the ballpark played host to its first ever postseason game. A frenzied sellout crowd of 43,992 watched the Brewers defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, in Game 3 of the NLDS. Hall of Fame Brewers Broadcaster Bob Uecker threw out the ceremonial first pitch to a thunderous roar.

Most recently, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp.

Miller Park has drawn over 24 million visitors in its first ten seasons. That was highlighted by a record 3,068,458 for Brewers baseball in 2008, which shattered the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance.

Miller Park has been a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Airlines Convention Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley-Davidson Museum, Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of year.

TOURS

Experience the magnificence of Miller Park while enjoying an exclusive tour that includes a number of behind-the-scenes attractions. Daily tours run from April through September and cover more than one-half mile and 70 minutes. All tours are wheelchair accessible. Groups of 20 or more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance. Admission for the Miller Park tour is $10 for adults and $6 for children 12 and under and senior citizens. Special rates are also available for youth groups.

Tours are not offered when the Brewers play day games at Miller Park. For more information on tours, including times, please call the Miller Park Tour Hotline at (414) 902-4005.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark by the statues of Robin Yount and Hank Aaron. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 16 inductees going into the 2011 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount.

Beginning in 2006, balloting changed to follow the National Baseball Hall of Fame guidelines with candidates needing 75% of the vote for election. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city. The first year, Eddie Mathews, Warren Spahn and former general manager John Quinn were elected.

HELFAER FIELD: WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium, and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was also replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third-base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there will be up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there will be up to three time slots at two hours each, and the facility is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to game days.

For more information on Helfaer Field reservations check out the club's website at brewers.com or call the Helfaer Field coordinator at (414) 902-4888.

SUNDAYS AT HELFAER

Beginning May 15, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field. Helfaer Field Sundays gives fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark opens 2 1/2 hours prior to the Brewers first pitch and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2011 season. Kids and adults alike can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats are not allowed.

A former Major League catcher, Greene broke into the majors with the New York Mets in 1996. He spent five seasons in the majors, also with the Orioles (1997-98), Brewers (1999) and Blue Jays (2000).

Greene spent the last four years of his career playing in the minor leagues (2001-04). He was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 19th round of the 1991 draft.

His father, Charlie Sr., is one of the best known college coaches, having coached at Miami-Dade Community College for 30 years and as head coach for Team USA in 1988 and 1989.

Charlie and his wife, Blake, have two sons, Patrick and Garrett. They reside in Tallahassee, Florida.

PITCHING COORDINATOR
LEE TUNNELL

Lee Tunnell is in his third season in the Brewers organization.

Prior to his current role, Tunnell spent three seasons with the Cincinnati Reds as bullpen coach (2006) and as a pro scout (2007-08). He was the pitching coach at Triple-A Oklahoma from 1999-2002 and during the 2005 season. He also was the pitching coach at Class-A Charlotte (1998) after making his coaching debut at Rookie Pulaski in 1997.

Tunnell pitched six seasons in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1982-85), St. Louis (1987) and Minnesota (1989), going 22-28 with a 4.23 ERA and 1 save in 132 career games (66 starts). He was a member of the National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals in 1987, making two relief appearances in the World Series.

He played in Japan from 1991-93 and spent the end of his career in the minor leagues with Colorado in 1994 and with Detroit in 1995.

Originally selected in the second round of the 1981 draft, Tunnell played three years at Baylor University and also attended Liberty College (VA).

Don Money
MANAGER

Don Money enters his third season as Nashville's manager and his 14th season as a manager in the Brewers farm system.

He previously spent four seasons as manager at Double-A Huntsville (2005-08), where he led the Stars to the postseason twice (2006-07).

In 2007, Money was named the Southern League Manager of the Year after guiding the Stars to a division title in both halves of the season. This marked a first in franchise history. For his efforts, he was named manager for the Southern League All-Star Game. Additionally, Money was selected to coach in the All-Star Futures Game at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

Prior to joining the Stars, he managed at Class-A Beloit for seven seasons (1998-2004) and guided the Snappers to the Midwest League Championship Series three times.

Before managing in the professional ranks, Money coached at Sacred Heart Catholic School for five years (1987-91), leading the team to two state tournaments.

HELENA BREWERS 2010 REVIEW

The Helena Brewers claimed the 2010 Pioneer League title after defeating the Ogden Raptors in both games of the best-of-three championship series. The Brewers qualified for the playoffs by compiling the second-best record in the division in the second half (Great Falls won both halves of the Northern Division). Manager Joe Ayrault was named the league's co-Manager of the Year after leading the Brewers to a 41-34 regular-season record. The Brewers went 19-19 in the first half and 22-15 in the second half.

All-Stars Cody Hawn and Matt Miller led the Brewers in the majority of hitting and pitching categories, respectively. Hawn (.308, 13hr, 61rbi) tied for the Pioneer League lead in RBI and was among the league leaders in home runs (T3rd) and slugging percentage (5th, .542). Miller, who went 7-2 with a 4.06 ERA in 14 starts, tied for the league lead in wins and posted the seventh-best ERA.

LOGO HISTORY

Seattle Pilots (1969)
The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

Milwaukee Brewers (1970-1977)
The "Barrel Man" logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)
The "ball-in-glove" logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An Art History student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)
As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-PRESENT)
The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 1975-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a then Major League-record 755 home runs. He was National League Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. Aaron hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 11 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handle-bar mustache famous had his number "34" retired at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers took home both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired at County Stadium during a ceremony on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired at County Stadium during ceremonies on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier as a Brooklyn Dodger in 1947 had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers' retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the Major Leagues for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the South Dock located in the right-field corner on the Service Level at Miller Park. Credentials are available for pickup four (4) hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the park.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The main press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during post-game by radio stringers to send sound. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media directly to the Service Level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid immediately after the game. The press box is equipped for wireless internet access as well as DSL. Information on accessing the wireless network is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the first-base side. The visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the third-base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. All media must leave the clubhouse one hour prior to game time. Television cameras are not permitted in the clubhouse prior to the game without approval from the Brewers Media Relations Department. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are OFF LIMITS to media. The clubhouse area is closed during respective club's batting practice sessions. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the club's media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 30 minutes prior to game time. The Brewers Grounds Crew and Media Relations Department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
Newly renovated for the 2011 season, the Media Interview Room, located across from the Brewers clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility that features telephone, internet and power service. The Media Interview Room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES
The Brewers Media Relations Offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by entering the Brewers main offices in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the Media Relations Department.

PARKING
To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off I-94. Exit Miller Park and circle around the ramp. The media parking area is in the Staff Lot (formerly the Phillies Lot) located just south of the South Dock entrance. Those with season credentials will receive a season parking pass. Those with single-game credentials will be placed on a list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The Staff Lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION
Photo wells are located on the first and third base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. There are also two photo wells located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the Brewers clubhouse. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wireless internet is also available. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POST-GAME ACCESS
The Brewers clubhouse is open 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. At this time, the manager will be made available in the Media Interview Room. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access. The elevator behind the press box will be reserved for media immediately following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS
Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning 2 1/2 hours prior to game time and full meal service will end 30 minutes after the first pitch. A $9.00 charge is levied for a full meal. Meal tickets can be purchased at the main entrance to the press box. Soda, frozen yogurt and milkshakes are complimentary. The Media Dining Room is located behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge Level. A daily menu is posted series-by-series.

TELEVISION CREWS
Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION is allowed during games inside Miller Park. Additional game highlights are available through the Miller Park Scoreboard Department.

WORKING CREDENTIALS
Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies, subject to the discretion of the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department, and can be obtained via the MLB Credentialing website, credentials.mlb.com. All single-game credential requests must be made via the MLB Credentialing website at least 24 hours in advance of the game or their fulfillment cannot be assured. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Daily credentials can be picked up at the South Dock at Miller Park no later than four hours prior to gametime. Under no circumstances should credentials be transferred from person to person or be used by media who are not working the game. Violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials.

BOB UECKER

Entering his 41st year behind the mic as a Major League Baseball broadcaster for his hometown team calling play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker will celebrate his 56th year in professional baseball in 2011.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter. Also in 2003, he became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He is one of only 16 people who has received this special honor entering 2011.

Known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 30 seasons as the team's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. In May 2011, he will also be inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed, he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special," which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars."

Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller during the 1980s. He was also cast as a radio announcer in the movie "Major League," which was filmed at County Stadium, and the sequel, "Major League II." Uecker even made appearances in the professional wrestling circuit as he served as a host at Wrestemania III and Wrestlemania IV, earning him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker's experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained him national recognition as he went on to serve as play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher in the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease, is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

CORY PROVUS

Cory Provus, 32, enters his third season with the Brewers as play-by-play announcer on WTMJ-AM and the Brewers Radio Network.

Provus began his Major League Baseball career in March 2007 as the Chicago Cubs' pre and post-game show host. He also handled play-by-play duties, backing up Pat Hughes, and anchored the morning and afternoon drive sportscasts as a reporter for WGN-AM in Chicago.

In June 2006, Provus was named the voice of the University of Alabama-Birmingham Blazers. At UAB, he handled radio play-by-play for football, men's basketball and baseball. He also hosted the weekly coaches radio and television shows. While at UAB, he was named the 2006 Radio Sportscaster of the Year by the Alabama Broadcasters Association.

Provus also has a variety of experience hosting studio shows, managing production and doing play-by-play for properties of International Sports Properties. Provus handled play-by-play for the Conference USA Football Championship game, the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament and play-by-play duties for Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia Tech baseball, football and basketball. Additionally, Cory did television play-by-play for the inaugural Under Armour Brandon Jennings Invitational in January 2011 in Milwaukee.

A graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, Provus also worked at WAER-FM in Syracuse from 1996-2000, handling radio play-by-play and acting as studio host for Orange football, basketball and lacrosse.

A native of Highland Park, Ill., Provus resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Dana.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 26th season as the producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the radio producer/director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and periodically fills in doing men's basketball play-by-play. He was named director of the Marquette basketball radio network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University women's basketball radio broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Sommerfeld was the sports director of Cable TV-6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Sommerfeld has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas, as a sports/news photojournalist.

TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson was named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007. Anderson begins his fifth season as a Major League broadcaster.

For the past three seasons, he has been tabbed by TBS to do play-by-play for the network's coverage of the MLB playoffs. As a part of his duties in 2010, Anderson called the historic no-hitter thrown by Roy Halladay of the Philadelphia Phillies in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. Cincinnati.

In 2010, Anderson added TBS Sunday Game of the Week broadcasts to his resumé. He will continue to call selected Sunday national games in 2011. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Anderson and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award. In addition to baseball, Anderson also does NCAA basketball play-by-play for the Big Ten Network.

Anderson joined the Brewers from Golf Channel, where he worked as a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA and Nationwide Tours. Anderson also worked at Fox Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07, and serving as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-07, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA Championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the San Antonio Missions, the Double-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-2003.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated Cum Laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a Major League scout in the Texas Rangers organization.

Brian and his wife, Michele, and daughter, Maddy, live in Hartland, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

Bill Schroeder returns for his 17th season as color commentator on Brewers telecasts.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder began his career behind the mic as the Brewers' color man after a distinguished playing career. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Schroeder and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

For the past eight winters, Schroeder has served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' spring training home in Maryvale, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 at Baltimore in the midst of the team's Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990.

An active member in the community, Schroeder won the Athletes for Youth Good Guy Award in 1988.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Princeton, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

"Rock" and his wife, Kate, reside in Muskego, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son Billy. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Otis.

CRAIG COSHUN

Craig Coshun begins his 11th season covering the Brewers as a pre-game host and sideline reporter for selected games on FS Wisconsin. Coshun has also filled in as the play-by-play announcer during his time with the team. Following the baseball season, he performs the same duties for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state, calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Network and the ESPN family of networks. He has also handled the WIAA state high school football championships and is a feature writer for Inside Wisconsin Sports Magazine.

As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Coshun and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

Coshun has worked at NBC affiliates in Eau Claire (WEAU) and Madison (WMTV) and was the sports director at WMTV from 1992-2000. He is a graduate of UW-Whitewater.

DAVE NELSON

Dave Nelson enters his fifth season as an analyst for FS Wisconsin broadcasts. He also serves as Brewers Director of Alumni Relations and leads the team's Speakers Bureau. In his front office role, Nelson maintains a database of former Brewers players as well as organizes events for Brewers alumni.

Prior to his current role, Nelson served as Brewers first-base coach from 2003-06. In 2001 and 2002, he was a minor-league outfield instructor. Nelson began his Major League coaching career in 1981 with Chicago-AL and later spent time coaching in Cleveland, Oakland and Montreal. In 1980, he was on the coaching staff at Texas Christian University.

Nelson enjoyed a 10-year Major League playing career from 1968-77. The former outfielder played for Cleveland, Washington, Texas and Kansas City. He was named to the American League All-Star team in 1973.

Born in Fort Still, Oklahoma, Nelson went on to graduate from Junipero Serra High School in California. He attended Compton Junior College for one year and Los Angeles State College for two years. Nelson also served in the Army Reserve for six years. He currently splits time between Bradenton, Florida and Milwaukee.

Telly Hughes enters his third season as an on-field reporter for Milwaukee Brewers telecasts on FS Wisconsin.

Hughes, a former college pitcher, played at Illinois State University, where he majored in mass communication and broadcast journalism. Upon graduation, Hughes started building his reputation in the world of sports broadcasting. He began his career as a teleprompter operator for a morning show in St. Louis where he shadowed sports reporters at the station.

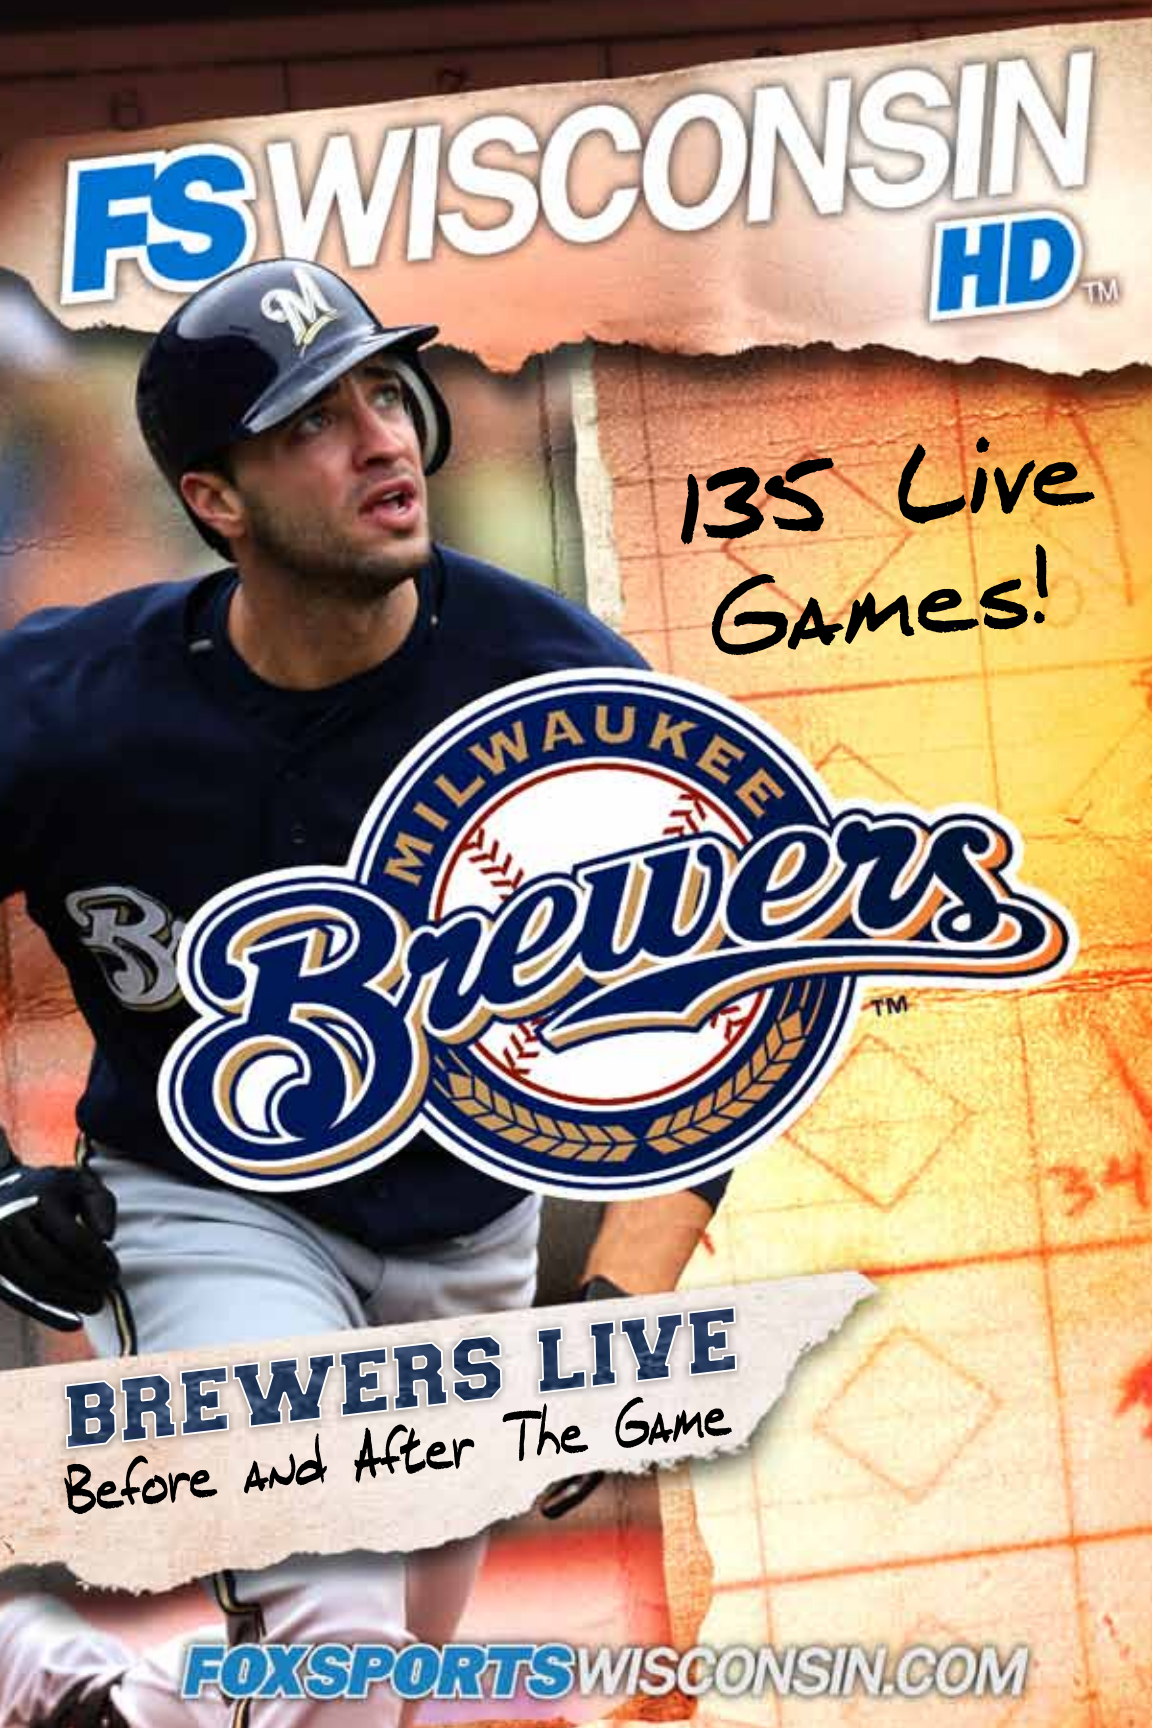

Hughes was later hired as a weekend sports reporter for WMAZ in Macon, Georgia. He continued to gain experience in front of the camera and eventually moved to Des Moines, Iowa to work for NBC affiliate, WHO. Hughes returned home to St. Louis to work for KPLR before making his way to FOX Sports North in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He spent a year at FOX Sports North, covering the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota Timberwolves and Minnesota Wild.

Hughes made the transition to FOX Sports Wisconsin in February 2009. Over the last two years, he has worked as a reporter and host for FOX Sports Wisconsin, covering the regional network's pre-game, sideline, and post-game coverage for the Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks.

A native of East St. Louis, Illinois, Hughes resides in Milwaukee with his family.

MASCOTS

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's rich baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer has become a symbol of what's good about being a fan of the Brewers.

As the official mascot of the Brewers, Bernie Brewer entertains fans young and old from his dugout located in the left-field bleachers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That season, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. On August 16, a bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973 he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the Brewers' powerful years, when home runs came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. In 1993, by popular demand, Bernie made a triumphant return and has been a fixture at every home game since.

KLEMENT'S FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Klement's Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 90s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on selected Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season -- the final year of County Stadium -- the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the club might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades.

In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the Racing Sausages after a one-game debut in 2006.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 14th spring training at beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park. The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 4,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half-fields. The Brewers minor-league players also train at the Maryvale complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this exceptional complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development. The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, AZ. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
