Harold Z. (Hal) Steinbrenner

Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hal Steinbrenner begins his 23rd season with the New York Yankees organization in 2013 and his fifth as Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson. On November 20, 2008, Major League Baseball formalized Mr. Steinbrenner's role as the New York Yankees' managing partner.

Under Mr. Steinbrenner's leadership, the Yankees have retained and enhanced their global popularity while continuing to field championship-caliber teams. In 2012, the Yankees led the American League in home attendance for the 10th consecutive year (3,542,406) and topped the Majors in road attendance (2,766,502) while reaching the postseason for the 17th time in the last 18 seasons (1995-2007, '09-12). Additionally, the Yankees Major League-leading combined draw of 6,308,908 fans paced the AL for the 14th consecutive year.

The 44-year-old son of George Steinbrenner was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1996, and he held that title for 13 seasons. In 2007, Mr. Steinbrenner was also named Chairman of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC. In his first full year as Managing General Partner in 2009, the Yankees capped their historic inaugural season in Yankee Stadium with their 27th World Championship.

Along with General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hank Steinbrenner, his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations, and directing financial aspects of the New York Yankees, Yankee Global Enterprises and affiliates. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Legends Hospitality, LLC, a concession and merchandising company developed with the Dallas Cowboys, which operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

Mr. Steinbrenner is Chairman and CEO of Steinbrenner Hotel Properties and holds a seat on both the Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and graduated from Williams College in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 1994. Mr. Steinbrenner and his wife, Christina, currently reside in Tampa, Fla.

Henry G. (Hank) Steinbrenner

General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hank Steinbrenner begins his sixth season as General Partner and fifth season as Co-Chairperson of the New York Yankees. Along with Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hal Steinbrenner, the 55-year-old son of George Steinbrenner is responsible for overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations.

Prior to the 2008 season, Mr. Steinbrenner was directly involved in the delicate negotiations and eventual re-signings of Yankees All-Stars Jorge Posada, Mariano Rivera and Alex Rodriguez, while guiding the managerial search that concluded with the hiring of former Yankees catcher and bench coach Joe Girardi, who led the club to the 2009 World Series title. Mr. Steinbrenner was also part of the collaborative front office effort of the 2008-09 offseason, which led to the signings of free agent first baseman Mark Teixeira and pitchers CC Sabathia and A.J. Burnett, who helped propel the club to the 27th championship in franchise history.

Mr. Steinbrenner has served as Chairman and Director of Minch Transit Company, Vice President and Director of Bay Farms Corporation, Vice President and Director of Mid-Florida Hotels Corporation, and has been a member of the board of the Ocala Breeders Sales Company. In the Tampa Bay community, he has been involved in a number of children's charities.

Since 2010, Mr. Steinbrenner has sponsored and supervised "Hank's Yanks," an 18-and-under summer league baseball team comprised of teenagers from a variety of socioeconomic backgrounds in the New York metropolitan area. Since the team's formation, Hank's Yanks have won three consecutive championships in Yaphank, Long Island's "Baseball Heaven" league and have been victorious in all three editions of the "Boss' Cup" youth baseball exhibition, two of which were played at Yankee Stadium. Since 2010, over 20 players have gone on to receive college scholarships, while seven players have either been signed or drafted by Major League teams, including the Yankees' fourth-round selection in 2011 (Matt Duran). In 2012, Mr. Steinbrenner was recognized for his commitment to Bronx-area youths, receiving The Bronx Chamber of Commerce Humanitarian Award.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and Central Methodist College. He is the father of four children and resides in Tampa, Fla.

Hot Ticket

The Yankees drew an AL-high 3,542,406 fans to Yankee Stadium in 2012…also led the AL with an average of 43,733 fans at home…both marks were second in the Majors to only Philadelphia (3,565,718 and 44,021)…marked the 10th consecutive season the Yankees led the AL in attendance…the organization also led the Majors in road attendance (2,766,502)…the Yankees' combined draw of 6,308,908 fans topped the Majors and was the most in the AL for the 14th consecutive season.

The Yankees currently own five of the six largest single-season attendance totals in professional sports history, including the all-time mark of 7,325,051 fans in 2006…in addition, the Yankees are the only Major League franchise to reach the four-million mark in home attendance in four straight seasons, accomplishing the feat from 2005-08.

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal begins her fifth full season in the role of General Partner/ Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees. In 2008, Ms. Steinbrenner held the title of Senior Vice President of New Stadium Public Affairs. The elder daughter of George Steinbrenner previously served in the Yankees Public Affairs Department in 1984-85 prior to spending 23 years actively participating in the philanthropic community.

Her present responsibilities include the implementation and integration of various community programs relating to Yankee Stadium. In addition, she serves as the President for the New York Yankees and Tampa Yankees Foundations, overseeing numerous local, regional and national outreach efforts.

Ms. Steinbrenner has a distinguished record of contributing to community projects and initiatives, including current commitments on the Florida State Fair Authority (Executive Committee, Agricultural Committee, and Chairwoman of the Marketing Committee), Board of Directors of Mary Lee's House (a child protection and advocacy center in Tampa), Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay, Board of Directors/Advisory Committee for the Tampa Salvation Army, and member of the Tiffany Circle of the Red Cross. She has also held prior board positions with the Children's Cancer Center of Tampa, H.B. Plant Museum at the University of Tampa, New York Pops, Florida Orchestra, Red Cross Angels of Tampa and Culver Academies.

A Morehead Scholar and 1981 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, Ms. Steinbrenner has previously served on the UNC Board of Visitors and the Parents Council. Her daughter, Haley, also a Morehead Scholar, received her undergraduate degree from UNC in 2008. Her son, Stephen, graduated from UNC in 2011 and currently works with the Yankees in their Stadium Operations Department.

Ms. Steinbrenner was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and makes her home in Tampa, Fla.

Jessica Steinbrenner

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jessica Steinbrenner begins her fifth full season as General Partner / Vice Chairperson for the New York Yankees. The younger daughter of George M. Steinbrenner previously served in the role of Senior Vice President for the team in 2008.

Mrs. Steinbrenner currently holds the position of Chief Executive Officer of Bay Farms Corporation while previously serving on the board of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association. In addition, she has authored two children's books: My Sleepy Room and My Messy Room.

Mrs. Steinbrenner attended Culver Girls Academy and graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia. She has four children and currently resides in Tampa, Fla., with her husband, Felix.

Joan Z. Steinbrenner

Vice Chairperson

Joan Steinbrenner holds the position of Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees. Mrs. Steinbrenner was married to Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner from 1956 until his passing in 2010.

Mrs. Steinbrenner has participated in many community projects and supported numerous philanthropic organizations. Among her many dignified community roles, she was named State Chairperson for the Florida Special Olympics in 1981 and 1982, and for two years was on the Board of Directors of the National Society to Prevent Blindness. She was also a charter member of Town and Gown, established in 1977 in an effort to form a bond between community supporters in the downtown Tampa area and the University of South Florida.

In addition, Mrs. Steinbrenner was a longtime board member for Children's Home, Inc., and was one of the original members of the H.B. Plant Museum Society. From 1991 to 2000 she served on the Development Council of St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation Board. She currently is a member of the Junior League of Tampa, the Chiselers, and sits on the Board of Directors for the Florida Orchestra.

A graduate of Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, Ohio, and Ohio State University, Mrs. Steinbrenner earned a degree in dental hygiene. She has four children and 14 grandchildren, and currently resides in Tampa, Fla.

Randy Levine

President

Randy Levine begins his 14th season as President of the New York Yankees in 2013. He was named to his position in January 2000, becoming the first person to hold the post with the club since 1986.

Under his supervision and guidance, the franchise constructed the state-of-the-art Yankee Stadium, completing the facility on time for the beginning of the 2009 season, which culminated in the franchise's 27th World Championship. Mr. Levine was a principal founder of the YES Network, which was recently named the most-watched regional sports network in the United States for the 10th consecutive year (2003-12). He was also one of the lead negotiators in the recent sale of 49 percent of the network to News Corp. In 2008, Mr. Levine was instrumental in creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, with the Dallas Cowboys which currently operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' stadiums, as well as many other world famous venues. In 2004, he helped organize Yankees-Steiner, a leading sports memorabilia company.

Mr. Levine has also played a prominent role in the Yankees' international brand expansion, including the 2007 establishment of a first-of-its-kind working relationship with the Chinese Baseball Association. More recently, he led a 2010 Yankees delegation that visited Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong with the 2009 World Series Trophy, marking the first-ever time that the Yankees have brought one of their World Series trophies to Asia. In addition, Mr. Levine helped develop the joint venture agreement in Japan between the Yankees and Yomiuri Shimbun, which is the parent company of the Yomiuri Giants.

In 2007, the Yankees became the first Major League organization to sign players from the Israel Baseball League and also embarked on their first-ever large-scale outreach into Taiwan by holding a clinic for high school players and coaches in Taipei, Taiwan. Mr. Levine is also the Yankees' principal liaison to Major League Baseball and contributes to player negotiations and contract issues.

Mr. Levine has been at the forefront of bringing a diverse array of entertainment and special events to Yankee Stadium, transforming the venue into a year-round destination for a variety of college football, soccer, music, boxing and corporate events. Highlights have included international soccer matches showcasing the likes of Chelsea, Paris Saint-Germain, Real Madrid and AC Milan, concerts by Paul McCartney and Madonna, two double-bills of JAY-Z and Eminem, as well as renewing the tradition of college football at the home of the Yankees with games featuring iconic institutions such as Notre Dame, Army, Syracuse and ascendant powers such as Rutgers, Iowa State, West Virginia and Kansas State.

The Yankees president has also been the driving force behind the creation, organization and implementation of the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The nationally broadcast contest provides the schools, their alumni and traveling supporters the unparalleled and thoroughly unique opportunity to enjoy a full week of bowl festivities in New York City during Christmas week.

Mr. Levine's baseball and business vision has also led to record numbers at Yankee Stadium turnstiles. In 2012, the Yankees topped the American League in home attendance for the 10th consecutive season (2003-12), leading Baseball in home attendance seven times over that same stretch (2003-08,'10). Additionally, the organization also led the Majors in road attendance last season. The Yankees combined draw of 6,308,908 fans topped the AL for the 14th consecutive season. In 2008, his direction helped the club establish the all-time AL single-season attendance record of 4,298,543 to become the only Major League franchise to exceed the 4 million mark at home in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Levine served as New York City's Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, Planning and Administration. He also served as New York City's Labor Commissioner.

From 1995 through 1997, Mr. Levine was Chief Negotiator for Major League Baseball. In 1996, he negotiated the labor agreement that for the first time included revenue sharing, luxury taxes and Interleague play. Prior to that, Mr. Levine served as Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General and Principal Deputy Attorney General at the United States Department of Justice. He has also served as a special delegate to the United States Department of Labor and was a board member for Hudson River Park. Mr. Levine presently serves on the boards of George Washington University, the ASCPA, the Yogi Berra Museum and The Taylor Hooten Foundation.

Mr. Levine has served on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and Legends Hospitality, LLC. He is also an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC. Additionally, Mr. Levine serves on the International, Diversity and Labor Policy Committees of Major League Baseball.

Mr. Levine has been a partner in the New York law firm of Proskauer Rose Goetz & Mendelson and is presently Senior Counsel at the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld. Born on February 22, 1955, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mr. Levine received a Bachelor of Arts degree from George Washington University in 1977, and in 2011 was named as Chair of the school's athletic committee. He received his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law in 1980. Mr. Levine and his wife, Mindy, reside in Manhattan.

Felix M. Lopez, Jr.

Executive Vice President/Chief International Officer

Felix M. Lopez, Jr. begins his fourth season as Executive Vice President/Chief International Officer in 2013. From 2005-09, he served as Yankees Senior Vice President. His current responsibilities include overseeing the daily operations of George M. Steinbrenner Field, the Himes Player Development Complex and the Single-A Tampa Yankees. He is also involved with the Yankees' Latin Baseball Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, as well as player development in Latin America.

Under Mr. Lopez' s supervision, the Yankees spring training home in Tampa, Fla., has undergone several structural enhancements and renovations in recent years, including the expansion of field box seating and the redesign of the Yankees' clubhouse facilities.

Fan-friendly amenities have been at the forefront of Mr. Lopez's operational strategy, including the design of the Brighthouse Networks Dugout Club, located underneath the field box seats behind home plate. In 2011, under Mr. Lopez's guidance, the Yankees Pavilion underwent a complete structural renovation, transforming into a year-round, all-weather multi-purpose event facility. In addition, Mr. Lopez was instrumental in developing the Yankees Deck, which was unveiled in 2008. Located beyond the right field wall, the unique and intimate structure features picnic-style seating for 500 people, private concessions and a full bar.

In January 2010, Mr. Lopez headed a Yankees delegation that took the club's 2009 World Series trophy to the Dominican Republic. The visit included stops at the Presidential Palace, U.S. Embassy, National Police Headquarters and Santo Domingo's Quisqueya Stadium for a Dominican Winter League playoff game.

Mr. Lopez also serves on the boards of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC, and Legends Hospitality, LLC.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Lopez was the president and owner of Architecture Design Construction, Inc., a company specializing in commercial construction in the southeastern United States. Born on April 1, 1954, in Havana, Cuba, Mr. Lopez moved to Tampa, Fla., in 1969 and later graduated from Cam Tech School of Construction. He is a member of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida and Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America. He also serves on the board of the Gold Shield Foundation and contributes to the efforts of the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mr. Lopez and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa, Fla.

Lonn A. Trost Chief Operating Officer

Lonn A. Trost begins his 14th season as Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees in 2013. He was named to the position on January 10, 2000, after serving as the club's Executive Vice President and General Counsel from 1997-99.

Mr. Trost is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Yankees' operations. Under his direction, the Yankees have seen tremendous growth in brand recognition and sponsorship opportunities, while also establishing single-season home attendance records nine times (1998-99; 2002-08). In 2012, the club led the American League in home attendance for the 10th consecutive season, drawing in excess of 13,000 more fans per home game than the combined average of the 29 other Major League teams. The Yankees have also led the Majors in home attendance seven times in the last 10 seasons (2003-08, '10).

Additionally, Mr. Trost, along with Hal Steinbrenner and Randy Levine, spearheaded the most complex undertaking in New York Yankees history—construction and development of Yankee Stadium, which is the largest privately funded building project in the history of the Bronx. While remaining true to the architectural grandeur of the 1923 original, the current facility is the most technologically advanced stadium in baseball.

Mr. Trost has played a significant role in Yankee Stadium becoming a year-round multi-purpose home to special events. Since 2010, Yankee Stadium has played host to an array of landmark activities that transcend baseball, including concerts by Paul McCartney and Madonna, two double-bills of JAY-Z and Eminem, a world championship boxing match between Miguel Cotto and Yuri Foreman, as well as renewing the tradition of college football at the home of the Yankees with games featuring iconic institutions such as Notre Dame, Army and Syracuse. Trost was also responsible for reintroducing a long-dormant Yankees tradition of hosting marquee professional soccer at Yankee Stadium. Four of the most high profile soccer teams in the world—Chelsea and Paris Saint-Germain, along with Real Madrid and AC Milan—played a pair of summertime matches in 2012 in front of almost 90,000 combined fans. In addition, Mr. Trost has been an integral figure in the development of college football's newest postseason game—the New Era Pinstripe Bowl—held annually for the last three years during Christmas week.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Trost was a partner and member of the Executive Committee of the law firm of Shea and Gould from 1972 to 1994. He was also a partner at the New York law firm of Herrick, Feinstein from 1994 through 1997. While with these firms, he served as outside general counsel for numerous sports franchises, institutions and agents. Among his clients were the New York Yankees and Mets, the New Jersey Nets and Devils, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Little League Baseball and TCI Cable.

Mr. Trost was instrumental in the creation of the YES Network and is a member of its Board of Directors. In addition, he serves as an officer for Yankee Global Enterprises and on the Board of Directors for Legends Hospitality, LLC, both of which he participated in founding. While he maintains his responsibilities with the New York Yankees Partnership and the Yankees' other affiliates, he is also actively involved with the Tourette Syndrome Association, with whom he is a member of the Corporate and Professional Council.

Born on May 8, 1945, Mr. Trost began his legal career in 1971 with the U.S. Justice Department, Office of Chief Counsel (Treasury Department). A 1968 graduate of Hunter College in the Bronx, Mr. Trost received his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1971. It's interesting to note that Mr. Trost's initial employment with the Yankees was as a grandstand vendor in the mid-1960s in the original Yankee Stadium. He resides in Monroe Township, N.J., with his wife, Carol. They have two children, Evan and Audra, and two grandchildren, Ariella and Alexander.

Brian Cashman

Senior Vice President, General Manager

Brian McGuire Cashman has literally grown up in the Yankees family. He joined the organization in 1986 as a 19-year-old intern in the Minor League and Scouting Department and now commands one of the most demanding jobs in sports as Yankees Senior Vice President and General Manager.

Over the course of his 27 seasons with the team, he has earned five World Series rings, including four as General Manager, becoming the first GM to win four World Series titles since the Dodgers' Buzzie Bavasi in the 1950s and '60s. Notably, he has won his titles with two different managers — Joe Torre in 1998, 1999 and 2000, and Joe Girardi in 2009.

Mr. Cashman assumed his current post on February 3, 1998. At age 30, he became the second-youngest General Manager in Baseball history. In his first season, he became the youngest-ever GM to win a World Series, and with championships in 1999 and 2000, he became the only GM in Baseball history to win world titles in each of his first three seasons. A pennant in 2001 gave him four straight League Championships, placing him alongside Hall of Fame Yankees General Managers Ed Barrow (1936-39, four) and George Weiss (1949-53, five) as the only GMs in Baseball history to win four-or-more straight league titles at any point in their careers.

Among his peers, Mr. Cashman has achieved unparalleled success while carrying on the winning tradition of the Yankees. His lifetime winning percentage of .603 (1,464-962-2) is the highest of any General Manager with at least five seasons of experience whose career began in 1950 or later and marks the best team winning percentage in the Major Leagues during that same stretch. Now in his 16th season, Mr. Cashman has the third-longest tenure among all general managers in Baseball (trailing San Francisco's Brian Sabean and Oakland's Billy Bean) and is the longest-serving Yankees GM since Barrow led the team from October 28, 1920 to February 20, 1945.

In all, his clubs have claimed 12 Division titles and six AL championships to go along with four World Series titles in his 15 years as G.M. His feat of reaching the playoffs in each of his first 10 seasons (1998-2007) remains unmatched in Baseball history.

In his present role, Mr. Cashman has been involved in dozens of high-profile Major League free-agent signings, including those of A.J. Burnett, Johnny Damon, Orlando Hernandez, Hiroki Kuroda, Hideki Matsui, Mike Mussina, CC Sabathia, Alfonso Soriano, Mark Teixeira and Kevin Youkilis. Mr. Cashman has also executed more than 90 trades involving over 225 players, bringing the talents of Bobby Abreu, Aaron Boone, Roger Clemens, Curtis Granderson, Chuck Knoblauch, David Justice, Michael Pineda, Alex Rodriguez and Nick Swisher to the Bronx.

Mr. Cashman has focused on reestablishing the Yankees farm system, while still maintaining World Championship talent at the Major League level. The emphasis he and his baseball operations staff have placed on the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting is demonstrated by the organization's homegrown talent, including Manny Banuelos, Dellin Betances, Robinson Cano, Joba Chamberlain, Phil Coke, Brett Gardner, Phil Hughes, Austin Jackson, Ian Kennedy, Jesus Montero, Ivan Nova, Eduardo Nunez, David Robertson, Austin Romine and Gary Sanchez.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Yankees and Mr. Cashman. With the club's recent World Series title, the Yankees were named "2009 Male Team of the Year" by the United States Sports Academy and were nominated as "Team of the Year" in the Laureus World Sports Awards competition. In both 1998 and 2000, the Yankees earned ESPY Awards — presented by ESPN — as "Outstanding Team of the Year," and were named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and by USA Today in 1999.

Mr. Cashman has been honored as "Executive of the Year" four times: by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2000 and 2009; and in 1999 and 2003 by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. In 2001, he received his third consecutive "40 Under 40" Award presented by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal to recognize the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. He has since been inducted into the publication's "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2003, Mr. Cashman was honored by the Latino Sports Writers and Broadcasters Association with their annual "Latino Achievement Award" for his contributions to the Latino media.

Philanthropy and community involvement play equally important roles in Mr. Cashman's scope of work. For the past three years he has served on the Board of Directors of Covenant House, which provides services for homeless youth. He was honored by the organization with their Beacon of Hope Award in 2011, having participated in the group's CEO Solidarity Sleepout by sleeping on the streets of Manhattan to draw attention to their cause.

In each of the last three offseasons, Mr. Cashman has rappelled down the 22-story Landmark Building in Stamford, Conn., as part of the Christmas-themed Heights and Lights Program, promoting activity in the city's downtown business district. He also traveled to Vermont in November 2011 to join Theo Epstein and Neal Huntington at an event organized by ESPN's Buster Olney to support farm relief in the wake of tropical storm Irene.

For his efforts at work and in the community, Mr. Cashman was recognized by the Catholic Youth Organization of New York with the 2011 John C. Mara Sportsman of the Year Award and the 2005 Ossie Davis Award for Inspirational Leadership for promoting diversity in the workplace.

His career as a full-time Yankees employee began following his graduation from Catholic University in 1989, when Mr. Cashman became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations. He was later promoted and transferred to Tampa, Fla., where he served as Assistant Farm Director from 1990 to 1992. He returned to New York and became Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration in November 1992.

Born on July 3, 1967, in Rockville Center, N.Y., Mr. Cashman grew up in Lexington, Ky. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, Md., before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C., where he majored in history and played intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when former Brooklyn Dodger Ralph Branca and his wife, Ann, arranged for him to serve as a bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

Mark Newman

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Mark Newman begins his 14th season as the Yankees' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and his 25th season with the Yankees. Prior to being named to his current position in 2000, Mr. Newman served as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting from 1997-99.

During his tenure, the Yankees player development system has been recognized for producing homegrown talent, including All-Stars Robinson Cano, Phil Hughes, Derek Jeter, Mariano Rivera and David Robertson. Under Mr. Newman's supervision, the Yankees have drafted and guided prospects to evolve into what has been lauded as one of the top player development systems.

In December 2010, Mr. Newman received the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award, recognizing his distinguished service to player development.

In addition to stringing together 17 seasons of Major League postseason play over the last 18 years (1995-2007, '09-12) and winning five World Championships over the stretch, the Yankees are one of only two teams, along with the Cleveland Indians, whose minor league affiliates have combined to post winning records in each of the last 22 seasons since 1990. The Yankees were selected as the "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and earned the same honor from USA Today in 1999. Over the last seven years (2006-12), Yankees farm teams have captured 11 league championships.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankees organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began his baseball coaching career at 22 years old as the pitching coach for Southern Illinois University. After spending nine successful seasons there—during which he earned his law degree with honors—he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jean Afterman

Senior Vice President, Assistant General Manager

Jean Afterman enters her 12th season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager and second as Senior Vice President in 2013. She became only the third female to hold the position of Assistant General Manager in Major League Baseball history, and is currently the only woman to hold the title.

Ms. Afterman has been an integral part of the Yankees' efforts to spearhead operations in Asia. In her first year with the Yankees, she was instrumental in developing the club's relationship with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League and signing three-time MVP Hideki Matsui. In 2007, she joined team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman on a week-long trip to Asia that concluded with a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association. She once again joined Levine and Cashman in 2010, when the Yankees brought the 2009 World Series trophy to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong. While in Hong Kong, Ms. Afterman was given the honor of throwing out one of the ceremonial first pitches at the 2010 Phoenix Cup Tournament, an annual international women's baseball tournament.

Ms. Afterman's contributions and leadership have been repeatedly recognized. In 2010, she was named by WISE (Women in Sports and Events) as one of the "Women of the Year," and was tabbed by New York Moves magazine as a "Power Woman." Ms. Afterman was named one of the 2004 "Power 100" by the Sporting News, and was selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" by the New York Post in 2003 and 2007. Also in 2007, Ms. Afterman was profiled as one of Crain's New York Business' "100 Most Influential Women in New York Business." In 2008, she was profiled by Forbes Magazine as one of the top female executives in Baseball.

Ms. Afterman joined the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, focusing on international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan matters. Prior to joining the Yankees, Ms. Afterman managed her own practice, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings. From 1994-99, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc. and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients, including Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 Major and Minor League players. In 1996, Ms. Afterman was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board.

Ms. Afterman graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner Prize and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991. In 2009, she was named "Alumni of the Year" by the Katherine Delmar Burke School in San Francisco.

Ms. Afterman maintains an active role in the Bronx community, working closely with P.S. 35, an elementary school within walking distance from Yankee Stadium. Over the last five years, she has organized Yankees-sponsored Read-A-Thons and directed a mentoring program which matches Yankees employees with fourth and fifth grade students. Additionally, she has reached out to high school-aged students through New York City's Explorers program, which engages young people through career-orientation programs. She received the 2009 "Exploring Leadership Award" for her work with the group. In January 2012, she was appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation.

Billy Eppler

Assistant General Manager/Pro Personnel

Billy Eppler begins his second season as Assistant General Manager/Pro Personnel with the Yankees, assisting General Manager Brian Cashman in all areas of Major League Operations including player acquisitions, roster composition and management, staffing and personnel decisions, and player contract negotiations. In addition, he oversees all phases and personnel in the Yankees' Major League and professional scouting departments both domestically and internationally.

The 2013 season marks his ninth with the Yankees organization, having been hired by the club as Assistant Director of Baseball Operations on November 1, 2004. He served as Director of Professional Scouting from 2006-09 and Senior Director of Professional Personnel from 2010-11.

Prior to his tenure with the Yankees, Eppler worked for five years in the Colorado Rockies organization where he was hired in January 2000. He was appointed as Area Scouting Supervisor in September of 2000 for the Southern California area. He then joined the front office as Assistant Director of Pro Scouting and Player Development from 2003-04.

A native of San Diego, Eppler graduated cum laude from the University of Connecticut with a Finance degree in 1998, and began his sports career as an intern in the Washington Redskins scouting department. He resides in New York City.

First Home Runs in Franchise History

Courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau

The first home run in franchise history was hit by John Ganzel on May 11, 1903. It was a fifth-inning, inside-the-park, solo homer at the Detroit Tigers' Bennett Park off George Mullin in an 8-2 Highlanders victory.

The first home run hit at home in franchise history was by Ernie Courtney on June 1, 1903, at Hilltop Park off Boston's Tom Hughes. The two-run, one-out homer in the bottom of the ninth accounted for the Highlanders' only runs in an 8-2 loss.

Commitment to Community

The New York Yankees organization takes as much pride in the championship baseball played on the field as they do in their charitable endeavors throughout the community. The Yankees' community efforts reach far beyond the Bronx and the tri-state area, encompassing programs and donations throughout the United States and even spanning into Latin America and Asia.

The Yankees strive to create partnerships with programs that support children's initiatives, education enhancement and health awareness. The club's donations, grants, tickets, promotional items and other contributions to such programs exceeded $7.0 million in 2012. Throughout the season, Yankees players and front office personnel make numerous visits to various local hospitals, schools and youth groups, and the club makes every effort to recognize community excellence through outreach and during pregame ceremonies.

ANNUAL FOOD DRIVES

The Yankees held their 19th Annual Holiday Food Drive at Yankee Stadium on December 12, 2012, presented by White Rose Foods. Yankees closer Mariano Rivera was on hand to greet donors, as 107,853 lbs. of food and $400 was collected. The Yankees extend special thanks to partners White Rose, for donating 90,000 pounds of canned goods.

The Yankees, in conjunction with Bronx clergy, distributed the food throughout the Bronx to those in need. Fans donating 30 pounds of nonperishable goods received a voucher valid for two tickets to one of 19 designated Yankees games in 2013 (restrictions apply).

In another holiday tradition, the Yankees and White Rose held their annual Pre-Thanksgiving Food Voucher Giveaway on November 15, 2012, distributing over 1,000 vouchers to Bronx residents for redemption at local Met Food markets or Pioneer Supermarkets.

Mariano Rivera was on hand to accept donations at the Yankees' annual Holiday Food Drive at Yankee Stadium.

HEALTHY HOME PLATE

On May 18, 2012, The New York Yankees invited 15 students from The Bronx School for Law, Government and Justice, for an educational presentation and cooking demonstration with celebrity chef and activist Jamie Oliver as part of the Healthy Home Plate program.

The Healthy Home Plate program provides youth an opportunity to learn the importance of preparing affordable, healthy meals and provides ways to incorporate the meals into their lifestyle. Started in 2011, the Yankees team with Legends Hospitality, Stop & Shop and Nourishing NYC for Healthy Home Plate to provide area youth, ages 12-15, the chance to participate in "Healthy Homeplate," a program focused on the methods for preparing healthy and affordable meals.

Joined by Stadium sous chefs and surrounded by area students, Oliver led a cooking demonstration to feature a healthy breakfast sandwich, dubbed the "EggO-Mega Starter Sandwich," and discuss the importance of a nutritional breakfast, along with representatives from Nourishing NYC.

Chef Jamie Oliver [far L] stopped by the cook with the New York Yankees' Healthy Home Plate Program.

COMMUNITY LEADERS

As part of the Yankees' annual Hispanic Heritage Month celebration, the organization once again distributed their Community Achievement Awards to recognize those who proudly serve the residents of the Bronx in the areas of arts, athletics, business and education.

The fifth annual ceremony was held on the field on Friday, September 14, prior to the Yankees-Rays game. The Yankees honored the accomplishments of El Museo del Barrio, the Bronx YMCA, White Rose and the Ronald McDonald House Charities/HACER Scholarship Program.

A SPECIAL DAY AT THE STADIUM

On August 29, 2012, the New York Yankees displayed some new teammates as approximately 20 Special Olympics athletes–all from the Bronx–took part in a "Field of Dreams" with the Yankees, joining Yankees players at their respective positions on the field for the national anthem.

A STRONG FOUNDATION

On August 27, 2012, the New York Yankees hosted a special day at the Stadium with the Women's Sports Foundation, who have made efforts to provide positive recreational outlets for girls throughout the five boroughs.

Olympic Gold Medalists Christie Rampone (Captain of the gold medal-winning 2012 U.S. Women's National Soccer Team) and Sarah Hughes (2002 Figure Skating gold medalist), threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch. Former WNBA New York Liberty star Kym Hampton sang the national anthem. Additionally, the Yankees Foundation made a contribution to support the Women's Sports Foundation's efforts.

For more information on the Women's Sports Foundation, which was founded in 1974 and advances the lives of girls and women through sports and physical activity, please visit womenssportsfoundation.org.

SHARPENING THEIR PENCILS

Starting in 2009, Yankees front office staff members began a mentoring program with students at P.S. 35 in the Bronx. Under the leadership of Yankees Assistant GM Jean Afterman, mentors from various Yankees front office departments have worked in small groups with students on career awareness and job-readiness projects, such as designing mock advertisements, proposing new product ideas and evaluating player statistics.

Manager Joe Girardi helped to kick off the group 2013 Read-a-Thon on January 11, 2013 at Yankee Stadium.

SOCKS FOR SOLDIERS

During the final homestand of the season, the Yankees launched a Socks for Soldiers initiative. Throughout the three-game series vs. the Boston Red Sox from Oct. 1-3, fans donated over 2,500 pairs of socks to be sent to U.S. servicemen and servicewomen stationed overseas. The socks were added to care packages which the Yankees front office assembled for military service members as part of their Veterans Day initiative.

STEPPING TO THE PLATE IN RELIEF

Following the devastation of Hurricane Sandy on the tri-state area in October 2012, the Yankees immediately sprung into action to lend their assistance.

The Yankees donated a total of $500,000 to the American Red Cross in the days following the storm's impact to support the relief efforts. An additional donation of $100,000 was made to the Salvation Army.

Additionally, beginning November 5, the Yankees set up a donation collection site at Gate 2 at for the public to bring non-perishable food and household items. As items were received, the Yankees immediately delivered and distributed them on an ongoing basis. Joe Girardi, CC Sabathia and Joba Chamberlain each lent a hand in collection efforts.

Yankees pitchers Joba Chamberlain [top] and CC Sabathia were on hand to help collect donations for Hurricane Sandy relief.

The Yankees also sponsored a New York Blood Center donor drive to help replenish supplies after Hurricane Sandy at Manhattan's Gotham Hall.

IMMUNIZATION & HEALTH FAIR

Prior to the start of the 2012-13 school year, the New York Yankees and Lincoln Medical and Mental Health Center partnered to host the sixth annual immunization and health fair at Yankee Stadium to afford Bronx youth, ages 4-18, the opportunity to receive their required vaccinations at no cost. More than 100 vaccinations were administered on August 21 at Yankee Stadium, as the immunization records of 62 Bronx youth were updated. The event also provided families with workshops on the value of good nutrition and dancing for physical fitness, promotional giveaways and tickets to attend a 2013 home game.

YANKEES SPREAD SOME PINSTRIPED CHEER

For the third straight year, the New York Yankees partnered with New York City's Public Schools Athletic League (PSAL) on a series of community initiatives to commemorate the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Yankee Stadium played host to the PSAL Football Championship Game on December 4 for the third consecutive year. Erasmus Hall High School (from Flatbush), defeated Tottenville (from Staten Island), 15-14, for their first-ever championships and city bragging rights.

Syracuse Head Coach Doug Marrone gives a "Chalk Talk" with local Bronx youth tackle football league players.

Additionally, the Yankees honored the best scholar-athletes in New York City on December 18 at Yankee Stadium during the MVP Scholar Athlete Awards Ceremony. The occasion brought together a group of 55 male and female student-athletes—11 from each of New York City's five boroughs—who have led by example in the community, classroom and in their respective sports. In addition, each of the MVPs were recognized during the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

The Yankees continued their community outreach during bowl week, as the participating schools (Syracuse and West Virginia) took part in community events, including hosting youth tackle leagues for a pep talk at Yankee Stadium, visiting children at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and paying their respects at the National September 11 Memorial at Ground Zero.

WALKING IN A WINTER WONDERLAND

On December 7, 2012, Yankee Stadium's Great Hall once again transformed into the North Pole for the Bronx Winter Wonderland event. Approximately 5,000 children from the Bronx were treated to a holiday extravaganza, complete with Christmas decorations and festive holiday music, including caroling from the Bronx-based Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club choir. Complimentary food and beverages were provided by Legends Hospitality and the Hard Rock Cafe.

Yankee Stadium's Great Hall became a Winter Wonderland on Dec. 7, 2012.

Additionally, Santa and his helpers set up their workshop in the Great Hall, handing out a toy to each child in attendance. The Yankees Foundation made a $25,000 contribution to cover the costs associated with the event, and a matching in-kind contribution was made by Neil and Amanda Friedman to ensure that each child in attendance received a holiday gift.

COMMUNITY MINDED

TEIXEIRA NOMINATED FOR 2012 ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Yankees first baseman Mark Teixeira was named the team's 2012 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes a Major League Baseball player who best represents the game of baseball through positive contributions on and off the field, including sportsmanship and community involvement.

In 2012, Teixeira continued his support of Harlem RBI, a nonprofit organization in East Harlem, New York, that provides more than 1,200 boys and girls, ages 5-22, with year-round academic, sports and enrichment programs.

Following his $1 million donation to Harlem RBI in 2011, he has helped raise additional funds through his Dream Team 25 campaign. The fundraising campaign is helping the organization build a 45-seat public charter school facility, a new community center, 87 units of low-income housing and a rebuilt public park in the Harlem community. All are designed to serve as a model for urban development.

In addition, Teixeira, who is the Co-Chair of the organization's $20 million Capital Campaign and the Chair of the organization's Home Run Leadership Council, works with Major League Baseball to connect with RBI programs nationally through in-stadium appearance with fellow Major League Baseball players and supports local RBI programs around the country.

Yankees HOPE Week

The Yankees were proud to celebrate their fourth annual HOPE Week (Helping Others Persevere & Excel) in 2012 – an initiative rooted in the fundamental belief that acts of goodwill provide hope and encouragement to more than just the recipient of the gesture.

Each day during HOPE Week from Monday, June 25 through Friday, June 29, the Yankees reached out to an individual, family or organization worthy of recognition and support. Though each day's celebration culminated at Yankee Stadium, outreach often took place away from the field. Whenever possible, the Yankees attempted to personally connect with individuals in the settings of their greatest success or locations that honored the spirit of their endeavors.

Initiated in 2009, HOPE Week is about people helping people. The one thing everybody has – no matter where they come from, what their financial situation is or what kind of skills they possess – is time.

A unique aspect of HOPE Week is that every player on the roster, Manager Joe Girardi, his coaching staff, General Manager Brian Cashman and many front office employees all participated in the outreach during the week.

Equally significant during HOPE Week is garnering publicity for the highlighted causes and organizations. The greatest challenge facing many not-for-profits is generating interest, awareness and funding for their missions.

Additionally, nonprofit 501(c)3 organizations related to the 2012 honorees each received a $10,000 gift from the Yankees Foundation to assist and encourage them to continue their good works.

The Yankees will once again celebrate HOPE Week from July 8-12, 2013. If you know an individual, family or organization that embodies the spirit of HOPE Week, please let us know by visiting hopeweek.com and telling their story in the nomination form.

MONDAY, JUNE 25

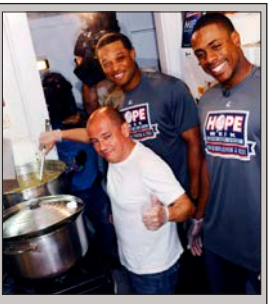

The Yankees began HOPE Week 2012 by celebrating Flying Manes. Yankees players Mark Teixeira, Eric Chavez and Jayson Nix, along with pitching coach Larry Rothschild surprised the special-needs children and their instructors during one of their therapeutic horse-riding classes at the Riverdale Equestrian Centre in the Bronx. The Yankees helped students with grooming the horses, and also assisted in leading and walking beside the horses during the riding lesson.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26

Yankees players Robinson Cano, Curtis Granderson, Hiroki Kuroda and Boone Logan surprised Jorge Munoz- dubbed "An Angel in Queens"- in the kitchen of his home and helped him cook the daily meal he prepares for 140 people who would otherwise go hungry. Shortly after the start of the game, Yankees General Manager Brian Cashman, Yankees front office staff and HOPE Week Alumni joined Jorge in traveling back to Queens to feed the hungry at his usual time and location (9:30 p.m. underneath the elevated subway tracks at Roosevelt Avenue and 73rd Street).

Robinson Cano [L] and Curtis Granderson [R] stepped into Jorge Munoz's kitchen to lend a hand to the "Angel in Queens."

HOPE Week was recognized as an award-winning effort by the National Sportsmanship Awards in 2010 and won the "Just Cause" Award at the PromaxBDA Sports Media Marketing Summit in 2011. Additionally, 2011 honorees Daniel's Music Foundation named the Yankees the 2011 "DMF Champion of HOPE" Award winner.

ORGANIZATIONAL INITIATIVE

The Yankees are proud that in 2012, all of their U.S.-based affiliates held their own HOPE Weeks, truly making the initiative one that the entire organization stands behind in words and in action.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27

The Yankees surprised five-year-old Andy Fass following their game vs. Cleveland game with a postgame party at the MLB Fan Cave in Manhattan. Yankees players Derek Jeter, CC Sabathia, Phil Hughes, Clay Rapada and Chris Stewart along with third-base coach Rob Thomson, first base coach Mick Kelleher and hitting coach Kevin Long escorted the Fass family and friends down to the Fan Cave, for a private tee-ball lesson and other games with children who also deal with Andy's condition of albinism.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28

The Yankees celebrated GlamourGals, a non-profit organization comprised of male and female high school and college-age volunteers who give manicures and makeovers to the elderly at senior homes. The organization's goal is to foster self-esteem and mutual respect while building meaningful relationships. Yankees players Nick Swisher, David and Erin Robertson and Brett and Jessica Gardner surprised the GlamourGals at the East Haven Nursing and Senior Rehab Center in the Bronx, joining them to assist in the makeovers of the residents.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29

The New York Yankees wrapped up HOPE Week 2012 on Friday by celebrating the Children's Alopecia Project (CAP). Yankees players Alex Rodriguez, Andruw Jones, Cory Wade, Raul Ibanez, Ivan Nova, Dewayne Wise, Joe Girardi, Freddy Garcia, along with former Yankees Reggie Jackson, Darryl Strawberry & David Wells and current Bullpen Coach Mike Harkey threw a surprise picnic for CAP kids who suffer from Alopecia, an autoimmune disease in which the immune system mistakenly attacks hair follicles, leading to hair loss on the scalp and elsewhere in varying degrees, affects approximately 4 million Americans. Yankees players and CAP kids enjoyed face- and head-painting, a scavenger hunt, lunch and games at the New York Botanical Gardens in the Bronx. In addition, the Yankees were proud to welcome Rutgers alum Eric LeGrand who took part in the day's events as a HOPE Week Ambassador.

Former Yankee David Wells–painting the head of Callie–joined the team for a fun-filled day with CAP

Once again, in conjunction with HOPE Week, the White House's Corporation for National and Community Service awarded HOPE Week honorees "President's Volunteer Service Awards," bestowed by the President to salute volunteers who strengthen the nation's culture of service. The Steinbrenner family was also honored with the President's Volunteer Service Award during the week, given "in recognition and appreciation of commitment to strengthening the Nation and for making a difference through volunteer service."

STATUS

- Re-signed to a three-year contract on October 29, 2010, extending through the 2013 season…was named the 32nd manager in club history on October 30, 2007, becoming the 17th Yankees manager to have played for the club and fourth former Yankees catcher to skipper the team (also Bill Dickey, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra).

AT THE HELM IN 2012

- Guided the Yankees to an AL-best 95-67 (.586) finish, the third-best record in the Majors behind Washington (98-64, .605) and Cincinnati (97-65, .599).
- Earned his 500th career win as manager on 6/15 at Washington…earned his 420th win as Yankees manager on 6/12 at Atlanta, surpassing Clark Griffith (419) for sole possession of seventh place on the Yankees' all-time managerial wins list…reached 400 wins as Yankees manager on 5/8 vs. Tampa Bay.
- Was ejected four times (9/4 loss at Tampa Bay–T. Randazzo, 8/9 win at Detroit – T. Welke, 6/2 loss at Detroit – B. Davidson, and 4/27 win vs. Detroit – J. West)…has been ejected 21 times in his career during the regular season, 18 times as a Manager (16 as Yankees manager) and 17 times as a Yankee (also 8/6/99 as a player)…in addition, was ejected in 2012 ALCS Game 2 vs. Detroit by 2B Umpire Jeff Nelson.
- Since taking over in 2008, the Yankees lead the AL with a .986 fielding percentage.
- At 48 years old, is the fifth-youngest manager in the Majors, behind Houston's Bo Porter (40), St. Louis' Mike Matheny (42), Seattle's Eric Wedge (44) and Chicago-AL's Robin Ventura (45).

IN THE WIN COLUMN

Owns a 557-415 (.573) career managerial record, trailing only Sparky Anderson (581), Davey Johnson (575), Al Lopez (570) and Frank Chance (570) for the most wins by any manager in his first six years at the helm (credit: Elias).

Has 479 wins as the manager of the Yankees, third-most in franchise history through a manager's first five seasons with the team…Casey Stengel (1949-53) and Joe Torre (1996-2000) share the record with 487 victories (credit: Elias).

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

- Enters his sixth season as Yankees manager with a 479-331 (.591) record.
- Is the only current manager to take his team to the postseason in each of the last four seasons…is one of four Yankees skippers to lead the club to four consecutive postseasons, joining Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel and Joe Torre.
- Is one of only four Yankees managers to record at least 95 wins in four-or-more consecutive seasons (also Joe McCarthy 1936-39, Casey Stengel 1949-57 and Joe Torre 2001-06)…only five other Major League managers have accomplished the feat: Sparky Anderson (1972-76 w/CIN), Frank Chance (1906-10 w/CHC), Bobby Cox (1996-2000 w/ATL), Connie Mack (1928-31 w/PHI) and Billy Southworth (1941-45 w/STL).
- Appeared in 39 career postseason games as a player, most among all current American League managers…among active Major League managers, only Cincinnati's Dusty Baker (40) appeared in more postseason games as a player.
- Guided the 2011 Yankees to the best record in the AL (97-65, .599), owning first place in the AL East, or at least a share of first for 98 days, including each of the final 26.
- Managed his 500th game with the Yankees in 4/17/11 win vs. Texas, becoming the ninth manager in franchise history to reach the plateau (also Clark Griffith, Ralph Houk, Miller Huggins, Billy Martin, Joe McCarthy, Buck Showalter, Casey Stengel and Joe Torre)…only Houk, McCarthy and Stengel had a better record than Girardi (296-204) through their first 500 games as Yankees manager—credit: Elias.
- The 2011 squad became the fourth team in Baseball history to record at least 220HR and 140SB, joining Colorado (1996), Toronto (1998) and Texas (2009).

- Guided the 2010 Yankees to the second-best record in the AL (95-67) and back to the postseason, falling to Texas in six games in the ALCS…the club led the Majors with 48 come-from-behind wins, including six when trailing after the end of the eighth inning…did not lose more than four straight games, and were the last team in the Majors to be swept in a series of at least three games (9/10-12 at Texas).
- Led the Yankees to their 27th World Championship in 2009 in his second season, becoming the ninth Yankees manager to win a World Series…in his postseason managerial debut, joined Ralph Houk and Billy Martin as the only three Yankees to play for and manage a Yankees World Championship team…also joined Houk, Bob Lemon and Casey Stengel as the only four Yankees managers to win a World Series in their first postseason as a manager.
- Led the club to a Major League-best 103-59 regular season record in 2009, their most wins since 2002 (103-58)…became the eighth Yankees manager to collect at least 100 wins in a full season, joining Miller Huggins, Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel, Ralph Houk, Billy Martin, Dick Howser and Joe Torre…joined McCarthy, Houk, Martin and Howser as the only five Yankees skippers to accomplish the feat within their first two full seasons with the team…finished third in AL Manager of the Year voting with 34 total points, including four first-place votes.
- The Yankees' 114 total wins in 2009 (including postseason) tied their second-most ever in a single year behind the 125 victories of the 1998 squad (also 114 wins in 1927)…was a member of the 1998 Yankees (114-48), becoming the only active Major League manager at the time to both play for and manage teams that won at least 100 games in a season and won a World Series, according to Elias…became the only Major League manager in the 2000s to lead a team to 100-or-more regular season wins and a World Series title.
- Earned his 200th career managerial win on 6/7/09 vs. Tampa Bay…earned his 100th win as Yankees manager on 4/29/09 at Detroit.
- Led the Yankees to an 89-73 record in 2008 in his first season as the club's skipper…was one of only two managers (also the Angels' Mike Scioscia) whose team did not lose more than four consecutive games during that season…won his Yankees managerial debut on 4/1/08 vs. Toronto.
- Earned his 100th career managerial win on 5/22/08 vs. Baltimore…was ejected by HP umpire Chris Guccione in the bottom of the ninth inning.
- Was named the 2006 NL "Manager of the Year" by the BBWAA and the Sporting News…guided the Florida Marlins to a 78-84 record in his first season as a Major League manager…since the award was established in 1983, became one of only three men in either league to win the honor in their managerial debuts: also Houston Astros' Hal Lanier (1986) and the San Francisco Giants' Dusty Baker (1993)…at the age of 41, became the youngest manager in Marlins history (previously 47-year-old John Boles in 1996)…was named Marlins manager just two seasons after retiring as a player prior to the 2004 campaign, marking the shortest time between being an active player (2003) and making a managerial debut (2006) since 1987, when both John Wathan (Kansas City) and Larry Bowa (San Diego) became managers after last playing during the 1985 season.
- Became the first manager in the Modern Era (since 1900) to improve his club's record above .500 after falling at least 20 games below the .500 mark during the same season…the Marlins were a season-low 20 games under .500 on 5/21 (11-31), but then went 62-41 through 9/12 to improve to 73-72…the only other Major League team to return to the .500 mark after falling 20 or more games below was the 1899 Louisville Colonels (managed by Fred Clarke), who were 22 games under at 16-38 and improved to 72-72-3 before finishing with a record of 75-77-3.
- Managed Anibal Sanchez's no-hitter on 9/6/06 vs. Arizona…was the fourth no-hitter in Marlins history and the fourth no-hitter that Girardi has been a part of, having caught two (Dwight Gooden's on 5/14/96 and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99) and been a teammate in one (David Wells' perfect game on 5/17/98)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Girardi became the first person since Jeff Torborg to both catch and manage a no-hitter…Torborg managed Wilson Alvarez's no-hitter on 9/11/91 with the White Sox after catching no–hitters by Sandy Koufax (perfect game, 9/9/65), Bill Singer (7/20/70) and Nolan Ryan (5/15/73).
- Made his coaching debut in 2005, as bench coach and catching instructor on Joe Torre's Yankees staff…assisted in guiding the Yankees to a 95-67 (.586) record and the American League East title.

ACTIVE MANAGERS TO WIN WORLD SERIES IN FIRST POSTSEASON

JOE GIRARDI . . . . . YANKEES, 2009
Terry Francona . . . . . Boston, 2004
Mike Scioscia . . . . . Anaheim, 2002

PLAYING CAREER

- Played parts of 15 seasons as a catcher in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1989-92 and 2000-02), Colorado Rockies (1993-95), New York Yankees (1996-99) and St. Louis Cardinals (2003)…was a member of three World Series Championship teams in New York (1996, 1998-99) and played in a total of six postseasons with the Cubs (1989), Rockies (1995) and Yankees (1996-99).
- In 1,277 career Major League games, batted .267 (1,100-for-4,127) with 454 runs, 186 doubles, 36HR and 422RBI, finishing with a .991 career fielding percentage while throwing out 27.6% of potential base stealers…batted .184 (21-for-114) with 2 triples and 1RBI in 39 career postseason games.
- Saw his first Major League action in 1989 as the Cubs' Opening Day catcher…was the first rookie catcher to start a season opener for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966…was selected to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie Team…played in four games of the 1989 NL Championship Series against San Francisco, recording one hit.
- Played his first full big league season in 1990…stole eight bases, the most by a Cubs catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924…ranked second among NL catchers in assists (61) and threw out 33.3% of baserunners attempting to steal (38-of-114).
- On 8/7/91, in his first game back after missing nearly four months with a strained lower back, suffered a broken nose in a home plate collision with the Phillies' John Kruk.
- Was selected by the Rockies with the 19th pick in the Expansion Draft from the Cubs…established career highs with 8HR, 55RBI and 63R in 1995 with the Colorado Rockies.

DID YOU KNOW??? Joe Girardi and Yogi Berra are the only Yankees catchers to be behind the plate for two regular season no-hitters. Girardi was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal. Berra caught both of Allie Reynolds' no-hitters in 1951.

- Was acquired by the Yankees on 11/3/95 from the Rockies in exchange for LHP Mike DeJean…hit a career-high .294 with 2HR and 45RBI for the 1996 World Series Champions…stole 13 bases, marking the highest total among big league catchers and a record for a Yankees catcher…stole home on the front end of a double steal on 4/11 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees catcher to steal home since Jake Gibbs on 7/13/68…had two triples during the 1996 postseason, including a run-scoring three-base hit off Greg Maddux in Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium.
- Was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle…in his final season as a player with the Yankees, caught David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal…had a career-high 7RBI on 8/23/99 in a 21-3 victory at Texas, going 4-for-6 with 2 doubles and 1 triple.
- Rejoined the Cubs organization in 2000 and earned his first and only trip to an All-Star Game that season in Atlanta as a replacement for the injured Mike Piazza (did not play)…when he homered on 5/2/00 vs. Houston off Jose Lima, it was his first Cubs home run since 5/8/92…only one player, Billy Jurges (nine years, 1938-47), had a longer span between homers with the Cubs.
- Recorded his 1,000th Major League hit on 5/27/01 vs. Milwaukee off Jimmy Haynes – a seventh-inning, game-winning, two-run double.
- Was one of the Cubs' co-captains in 2001 and 2002.
- Played his final career game on 9/28/03 at Arizona with the St. Louis Cardinals…his single in the ninth inning off the Diamondbacks' Edgar Gonzalez gave him 1,100 career hits.

WISE BEYOND HIS YEARS

In 2009, Joe Girardi became the youngest manager in Yankees history to win a World Series. He remains the fourth-youngest World Series-winning manager over the last 34 years (1977-2010) behind Minnesota's Tom Kelly (1987 and '91), the White Sox's Ozzie Guillen (2005) and the Mets' Davey Johnson (1986).

COACHING CAREER

- Begins his 24th season as a member of the Yankees organization in 2013, sixth on the Yankees Major League coaching staff and fifth as third base coach…served as the club's bench coach for the 2008 season.
- Also oversees Yankees outfielders, who combined for a Major League-leading .993 fielding pct. in 2012, committing just seven errors.
- Managed the Yankees for three games in 2008, going 1-2, becoming the first Canadian to manage a Major League game since George (Mooney) Gibson with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1934…was 0-2 from 4/4-5/08 vs. Tampa Bay when Joe Girardi missed two games with an upper respiratory infection…won on 5/23 vs. Baltimore while Girardi served a one-game suspension…also guided the Yankees to a "walk-off" victory on 5/22 vs. Baltimore when Joe Girardi was ejected in the sixth inning…went in the books as Girardi's 100th career managerial victory…again took over following a Girardi ejection on 7/5/08 vs. Boston, with the Yankees recording a "walk-off" win.
- Served as the Yankees' Major League field coordinator in 2007 after spending the previous three seasons (2004-06) as a special assignment instructor…was named to the Yankees' Major League coaching staff on 11/4/03.
- Joined the Yankees organization in 1990 as a third-base coach for Single-A Ft. Lauderdale.
- Coached in the Yankees system for five years before taking over as manager of Single-A Oneonta of the NY-Penn League in 1995.
- Served as the third base coach at Triple-A Columbus in 1996 and 1997 before moving to the Yankees front office as a field coordinator in 1998.
- Was promoted to director of player development in 2000 and named vice president of minor league development prior to the 2003 season.

PLAYING CAREER

- Attended the University of Kansas and was selected in the 32nd round of the 1985 draft by the Detroit Tigers.
- Was a catcher and a third baseman in the Tigers system from 1985-88 before joining the Tigers' minor league coaching staff in 1988.

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Michele, have two daughters, Jacqueline and Christina.

From the Bronx with Care

The New York Yankees, along with ServiceNation and Bank of America, teamed up on Thursday, November 15, 2012, in honor of Veterans Day to assemble approximately 5,000 Big Apple Packs for active servicemen and servicewomen

For the second straight year, Yankee Stadium's Great Hall hosted more than 120 volunteers, made up of Yankees front office employees, Bank of America's Community Volunteers, as well as service members and veterans who all helped assemble care packages of various items, including snacks, books, games and Yankees memorabilia.

Also on hand to lend support to the cause was New York Yankees Manager Joe Girardi, who assisted at the event in 2011, as well as Bank of America's event in 2010 at their downtown Manhattan office, and former Yankees pitcher David Cone.

Manager Joe Girardi [R] and David Cone [L] assisted with the 2012 Veterans Day event at Yankee Stadium.

The USO of Metropolitan New York distributed the packs to deploying troops and those serving in Afghanistan during the 2012 holiday season.

The event was part of the ServiceNation's Mission Serve program which was established in 2009, with support from First Lady Michelle Obama and Dr. Jill Biden, and seeks to establish Veterans Day as a day of service and celebration.

Baseball Glossary

HOW TO FIGURE…

Batting Average: (H/AB) Hits divided by at-bats.

ERA: (ERx9/IP) Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: (TB/AB) Total bases (1B=1, 2B=2, 3B=3, HR=4) divided by at-bats.

On-Base Percentage: (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF) Add hits, walks, hit by pitch and divide by the total of at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Fielding Percentage: (PO+A)/(PO+A+E) Total putouts plus assists divided by total chances.

Winning Percentage: The number of games won divided by the total games played (not including ties).

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFYING RULES

Batting Championship: To qualify for a batting title, a player must make 502 or more plate appearances (calculated by 3.1 plate appearances per team game scheduled, which is 162).

Pitching Championship: To qualify for the lowest ERA, a pitcher must throw at least 162.0 innings.

Fielding Championship: To qualify as the top fielder:
(a) a catcher must have played in at least 81 games at catcher.
(b) an infielder or outfielder must have played at his position in at least 108 games.
(c) a pitcher must have 162.0 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings
*No more than one save may be credited each game.

STATUS

- Signed as a non-drafted free agent on January 5, 2001…signed a four-year contract with two one-year club options on February 7, 2008…the contract extended through 2011 with options for 2012 and 2013.

CAREER NOTES

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, at 713-501 (.587), has the second-highest personal winning percentage among active players (min. 1,000G), trailing only teammate Derek Jeter's .599 (1,547-1,036-2) mark.
- Has 1,428 hits, 330 doubles and 697RBI as a second baseman since his debut on 5/3/05, each most among all Major League 2B over the span (credit: Elias)…his 177 career home runs are most by a Yankee whose primary position was 2B (ahead of Tony Lazzeri-169HR).
- Has collected 1,459 hits and 177HR through his first eight Major League seasons (2005-12), trailing only Joe DiMaggio (1,495) for the most hits in franchise history through a player's first eight seasons in the Majors…among active players, only Albert Pujols had more hits and home runs (1,531H, 319HR) in his first eight Major League seasons (credit: Elias).
- Has compiled eight straight seasons of at least 150H as a second baseman to begin his career…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, marks the longest such streak since Ryne Sandberg (10 straight, 1983-92).
- Recorded his 1,000th career hit with his eighth-inning, two-run double in 7/25/10 win vs. Kansas City…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two "homegrown" Yankees in the expansion era collected 1,000H in fewer at-bats than Cano (3,232): Derek Jeter (3,112) and Don Mattingly (3,042)…became the sixth second baseman to collect 1,000H with the Yankees, first since Willie Randolph…Elias also noted at the time that only six players active at the time of Cano's 1,000th hit reached the plateau in fewer at-bats than Cano (Ichiro Suzuki, Todd Helton, Albert Pujols, Derek Jeter, Vladimir Guerrero and Matt Holliday)…collected his 500th career hit in 9/25/07 loss at Tampa Bay (came in his 1,600th AB)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since Joe DiMaggio reached that milestone in 1938 (1,503AB), the only "homegrown" Yankee to collect 500 hits in fewer AB was Mattingly in 1986 (1,549AB).
- Is the only Major Leaguer with a hitting streak of at least 15G in each of the last four seasons (2009-12)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Has hit at least 10HR in each of his first eight Major League seasons (2005-12), joining Joe Gordon as the only second basemen to accomplish the feat in Major League history (min. 50% of games at 2B, credit: ESPN Stats and Research).
- Has reached 20HR in four straight seasons (2009-12), tying Alfonso Soriano, Bret Boone and Lou Whitaker for the second-most career 20HR seasons among AL second basemen behind only Joe Gordon (7)…joins Gordon (1938-41) as the only Yankees 2B to accomplish the feat…is one of only three second basemen in franchise history to hit at least 25HR in more than one season – also Joe Gordon, 1938-40 and Alfonso Soriano, 2002-03.

- Has hit the 25HR plateau four times in his career (2009-12), becoming the only Yankees second baseman to hit at least 25HR in four consecutive seasons and is one of only four players all time to accomplish the feat while playing at least 50% of their games as a second baseman (also Ryne Sandberg-four straight from 1989-92, Alfonso Soriano-four straight from 2002-05 and Dan Uggla-six straight from 2006-11).
- Owns nine career grand slams, including seven at the current Yankee Stadium…are the most grand slams by a Yankees second baseman in franchise history…his nine grand slams as a second baseman are tied with Rogers Hornsby for second-most from the position trailing only Jeff Kent (13)—credit: Elias…his nine career grand slams are tied with Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle for seventh-most in franchise history (Gehrig-23, DiMaggio-13, Rodriguez/Ruth-12, B. Williams-11 and Posada-10)…leads the Majors with seven grand slams since the start of 2010.
- His 334 career doubles are the fourth-most for any player in Baseball history through his first eight Major League seasons, trailing only Joe Medwick (353), Albert Pujols (342) and Paul Waner (337).
- Has reached the 25-doubles plateau in each of his first eight seasons, becoming the first Yankee to reach the mark in each of his first eight Major League seasons…is the only Yankees second baseman to reach both 25 doubles and 15HR at least six times in a career (2006-07, '09-12).
- Is the sixth player in Major League history to hit at least 30 doubles in each of his first eight Major League seasons, joining Albert Pujols (10, 2001-10), Earl Averill (9, 1929-37), Paul Waner (9, 1926-34), Ted Williams (8, 1939-42, '46-49) and Al Simmons (8, 1924-31)—credit: Elias.
- Has reached 40 doubles in each of the last four seasons and six times in his career, surpassing Bob Meusel (five) in 2012 for the second-most 40-double seasons in franchise history, trailing only Lou Gehrig (seven).
- In 2012, became the seventh Yankee all time to hit 40 doubles and 30HR in the same season and just the second second baseman (also Alfonso Soriano in 2002)…Elias notes he is the third player ever to collect at least 40 doubles and 25HR in four consecutive seasons, as he has done from 2009-12 (also Albert Pujols, 2001-04 and David Wright, 2005-08).
- Has hit 45 doubles three times in his career (2009 and '11-12), matching Lou Gehrig for most such seasons in franchise history.
- Is the only second baseman in Baseball history to reach 40 doubles, 25HR, 100R and 100RBI in consecutive seasons (2010-11) and just the third Yankee overall to reach the totals in back-to-back years, joining Lou Gehrig and Don Mattingly.
- Has 539 extra-base hits since 2005, more than any other second baseman in Baseball history through his first eight Major League seasons…has at least 80 extra-base hits in each of his last two seasons (2011-12), joining Rogers Hornsby (1924-25) as the only players in Baseball history to record back-to-back seasons with at least 80 extra-base hits while playing at least 50% of his games at 2B.
- Owns a .503 career slugging pct., second-highest all-time among Major League second basemen behind only Rogers Hornsby (.577)-min. 3,000PA.
- Joins Milwaukee's Ryan Braun as the only players to score at least 100R in each of the last four seasons (2009-12).

Home Sweet Home

The Yankees were a Major League-best 51-30 (.630) at Yankee Stadium in 2012. It marked the Yankees' 21st consecutive winning season at home (since 1992)…according to Elias, it is the longest current streak of any team in the Majors and the longest such streak by any team since a 21-year streak for the Yankees from 1969-89, which included two seasons (1974-75) at Shea Stadium.

The Yankees have collected at least 50 wins at home in each of their first four seasons at the current Yankee Stadium. In 2012, Yankee Stadium became the second ballpark to host the postseason in each of the first four years of its existence, joining Atlanta's Turner Field (first six)—credit: Elias.

The Yankees own the top two highest single-season home winning percentages all time: .805 (62-15) in 1932 and .802 (65-16) in 1961.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on March 1, 2003…signed through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Was named the organization's "Best Defensive Catcher" by Baseball America in four straight seasons from 2006-09.
- Is 9-for-20 (.450) with 1 double, 1HR, 26RBI and 3BB with the bases loaded in his career.

- Was 0-for-1 with 1R and 1BB in three games as a September call-up with the Yankees.
- Made his season debut in 9/4 loss at Tampa Bay, entering the game as an eighth-inning defensive replacement at C (did not bat).
- Scored the game-winning "walk-off" run after drawing a two-out walk in the 12th inning on 10/2 vs. Boston…did not play in the Yankees' previous 25 games.
- Spent the majority of the season with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, batting .246 (87-for-354) with 2HR and 39RBI in 99 games…posted a .993 fielding percentage (5E, 767TC) wile appearing in a career-high 96 games behind the plate…caught 27-of-90 (30.0%) potential basestealers.
- Following the season, appeared in 21 games with Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League…hit .305 (18-for-59) with 16R, 5 doubles, 2HR and 14RBI.

- Hit .266 (33-for-124) with 17R, 4 doubles, 4HR, 22RBI and 9BB in 43 games (35 starts at C) with the Yankees in 2011…in his 35 starts, the Yankees went 25-10…had the fourth-lowest catchers ERA (3.50) among catchers with at least 300.0 innings of work.
- Began the season on the 15-day disabled list with a fracture in his left foot, missing the team's first 22 games…suffered the injury on 3/2 vs. Houston at GMS Field in Tampa in his second plate appearance of a spring training game, fouling a ball off his foot…was returned from rehab and reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 4/29.
- Hit grand slam and was 1-for-5 with 2R in 5/8 win at Texas…was his first career grand slam and just his second career homer (also 6/24/09 at Atlanta)…snapped a 307AB homerless stretch…Derek Jeter also homered in the game (snapping his own 259AB homerless stretch)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked the first time since 10/2/91 that a pair of Major League teammates each ended streaks of at least 250 homerless at-bats in the same game (Kansas City's Hal McRae-297AB and Jim Eisenreich-254AB)…Elias also notes it was the first time two Yankees had accomplished the feat since Juan Bonilla (264) and Bobby Meacham (310) on 8/1/87 vs. Detroit (10-5 loss).
- Stole two bases in 5/30 win at Oakland after having just one prior stolen base in his entire career (7/17/10 vs. Tampa Bay).

- Hit .271 (72-for-266) with 11 doubles, 3 triples and 38RBI in 93 games (80 starts at C) with the Yankees…the Yankees were 44-36 in his starts at catcher…marked the most hits and RBI by a Yankees catcher other than Jorge Posada since Joe Girardi in 1997 (105H and 50RBI)…caught 8-of-63 (12.7%) runners attempting to steal.
- Hit .545 (6-for-11) with 17RBI with the bases loaded…batted .381 (16-for-42) with 24RBI and a .435 OBP with RISP and two outs, ranking third in the Majors in average in such circumstances (min. 40PA).
- Made his first career Opening Day roster…hit safely in each of his first four starts, six of his first seven and 10 of his first 12, batting .360 (9-for-25) in April…made his first start—and appearance—of the season, in 4/10 win at Tampa Bay, when CC Sabathia held the Rays hitless through the first 7.2 innings.
- Became the third Yankee in the last 15 years with a triple and bunt single in the same game in 5/4 win vs. Baltimore (also Derek Jeter-1996 and 2009; and Alfonso Soriano-2002)—credit: Elias.
- Set a career high with 5RBI in 5/8 win at Boston (3-for-4, 1BB)…were the most RBI by a Yankees catcher since Jorge Posada on 9/6/06 at Kansas City (6RBI), the most by a Yankees catcher in a game vs. Boston since Yogi Berra on 7/3/57 at Yankee Stadium (8RBI), and most by a Yankees catcher at Fenway Park since Berra on 5/29/54 (6RBI).
- Appeared in one game during the postseason, starting Game 4 loss of the ALCS vs. Texas (0-for-2).

- Hit .298 (28-for-94) with 13R, 4 doubles, 1HR and 11RBI in 42 games (25 starts at C) over two stints with the Yankees (5/5-7/8, 9/1-10/4)…threw out 13-of-21 potential base stealers (61.9%)…at the time of his first start at catcher on 5/8, was the third-youngest active catcher to start a game in the Majors in 2009 (23 years old) behind Pablo Sandoval (Giants, 22) and Lou Marson (Phillies, 22)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Was recalled from Double-A Trenton on 5/5 when Jorge Posada was placed on the disabled list.
- Collected his first Major League hit—a fourth-inning single off Jeremy Guthrie—while calling CC Sabathia's CG shutout in 5/8 win at Baltimore, going 1-for-2 with 1R, 1BB and 1SH…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the second Yankees catcher to call a complete-game shutout in his first start, joining Thurman Munson who did so in his debut on 8/8/69 by catching Al Downing's four-hit shutout vs. the Athletics.
- Caught Phil Hughes the next night at Baltimore, becoming the first Yankees battery each under the age of 24 prior to September call-ups since Steve Kline and Thurman Munson on 6/1/71 (credit: Elias).
- Hit his first Major League HR in 6/24 win at Atlanta, a solo HR off RHP Kris Medlen.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 7/7, and recalled on 9/1…in 17 September games (two starts at C), was 7-for-16 (.438) with 3R, 1 double and 2RBI…hit game-winning "walk-off" RBI single with one out in the ninth inning of 9/16 win vs. Toronto after entering the game defensively in the eighth at C.
- Was named to the Yankees' ALDS and ALCS playoff rosters, appearing in 2G and striking out in his only at-bat.
- After the season, batted .214 (3-for-14) with 3R and 1 double in 6G with the Cardenales de Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League…prior to the season, appeared in 3G with Team Italy during the WBC and going 1-for-7 (.143).

- Appeared in three games (one start at C) with the Yankees, going hitless in five at-bats as a September call-up in his first Major League action…was recalled from Double-A Trenton on 9/15…made his Major League debut in 9/18 win vs. Chicago-AL, entering the game as a defensive replacement in the eighth at C (did not bat).
- Was one of three Yankees to make their Major League debut on 9/18 (also Juan Miranda and Humberto Sanchez)…according to Elias, was the first time three different Yankees made their ML debut in the same game since 3/31/03 when Hideki Matsui, Jose Contreras and Jason Anderson each debuted in the Yankees' win at Toronto.
- Made his first Major League start (at catcher) in 9/25 loss at Toronto.
- Began the season on the D.L. after breaking his right wrist in a home plate collision with Tampa Bay's Elliot Johnson on 3/8 at Legends Field…was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa for X-rays and had his wrist casted that night.
- Was reinstated from the minor league D.L. on 6/16 and assigned to Single-A Tampa…appeared in three games with Tampa before suffering a left knee sprain and returning to the D.L…returned to action on 7/30.
- Played winter ball with the Cardenales de Lara of the Venezuelan Baseball League following the season, batting .267 (16-for-60) with 2 doubles, 1HR and 5RBI in 26 games…caught 7-of-19 (36.8%) potential basestealers.

- Was 3-4 with three saves and a 4.40 ERA in a team-leading 73 relief appearances with the Yankees, working exclusively out of the bullpen for the entire season…opponents batted .253 (71-for-281, 6HR); LH .246 (31-for-126, 3HR), RH .258 (40-for-155, 3HR)…retired 48-of-73 first batters faced (65.8%)…prevented 28-of-37 inherited runners from scoring (75.7%)…the Yankees were 48-25 in games he appeared in.
- Made his third consecutive Opening Day roster…held opponents scoreless in 14 of his first 17 outings of the season.
- Earned the save in back-to-back games on 5/3 vs. Baltimore and on 5/4 vs. Baltimore—his first save since 9/23/07 vs. Toronto…according to Elias, at the time was one of just three Yankees to earn a save in consecutive games since Mariano Rivera became the team's closer in 1997 (also Mike Stanton-4/11-12/98 and Juan Acevedo-4/25-26/03).
- Struck out the side in a perfect eighth inning on 5/14 vs. Minnesota (1.0IP, 3K)…was credited with the win despite not being the pitcher of record when the Yankees took the lead.
- Beginning 7/28, just prior to the acquisition of Kerry Wood on 7/31, through the end of the season, went 2-0 with a 2.15 ERA in 30 relief appearances (29.1IP, 20H, 5BB, 30K)…allowed no more than 2H in any of his outings…three of the seven runs allowed came via solo HRs.
- Allowed 1ER in 3.1IP over three relief appearances in the postseason (4H, 2BB, 3K).

- Was 9-6 with a 4.75 ERA in 32 appearances (31 starts) with the Yankees…the Yankees were 20-11 in his starts, including 15 come-from-behind victories…were 15-4 in his 19 starts at home…opponents batted .274 (167-for-610, 21HR); LH .266 (85-for-319, 11HR), RH .282 (82-for-291, 10HR)…hit an American League-high 12 batters, matching the most HP by a Yankees pitcher in the 2000s (Randy Johnson, 2005).
- Allowed a total of 21R (19ER) in the first inning of games (30.2IP, 5.58 first-inning ERA)…combined to allow 73R (64ER) over his other 126.2IP (for a 4.55 ERA in the second inning of the game and beyond).
- Was 5-3 with a 4.03 ERA in 13 games (12 starts) on the road…went undefeated in his first nine road starts of the season, going 5-0 with a 2.78 ERA (55.0IP, 17ER)…went 4-3 with a 5.28 ERA (90.1IP, 53ER) in 19 starts at Yankee Stadium…was the second-highest home ERA in the AL behind Scott Kazmir (5.95).
- Did not record a decision in his first three starts of the year and 11 of his first 17 starts of 2009…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 10 decisions (7-3) through his first 29 career starts were the fewest in Major League history.
- Struck out a career-high 12 batters in 5/5 loss vs. Boston, including nine on called third strikes…were the most strikeouts in a game by a Yankees pitcher since Mike Mussina on 5/7/03 at Seattle (12K)…marked the most by a Yankee in a home game since Mussina on 9/24/02 vs. Tampa Bay (12K)…became the youngest Yankee to strike out 12-or-more batters since Al Downing on 6/21/64 (Game 2) at Chicago-AL (13K)…allowed the first four batters of the game to score and first five to reach, after which he permitted just one infield single, 2BB and 1HP with all 12K…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other pitchers since 1900 struck out 12-or-more batters in a game in which they allowed four-or-more first inning runs (Herb Score in 1959 and Nolan Ryan in 1973).
- Elias also noted that Chamberlain became one of five pitchers to strike out 12-or-more batters while pitching less than 6.0 innings in a game (also Cole Hamels in 2006, Curt Schilling in 1997, Kevin Appier in 1994 and J.R. Richard in 1978).
- Hit a batter in four consecutive starts from 4/24-5/10, matching the longest such streak for a Yankees pitcher in the last 50 years…also Rick Rhoden (1988), David Cone (1998), Orlando Hernandez (2002) and Randy Johnson (2005)—credit: Elias.

- Won his first four starts immediately following the All-Star break, posting a 2.03 ERA (26.2IP, 6ER) and a .156 (14-for-90) opponent's average from 7/19-8/6…was 3-0 with a 0.83 ERA over three starts from 7/19-29, allowing just 8H and 2ER in 21.2IP (8BB, 2HP, 1WP, 1BK, 1HR)…became the first Yankees pitcher to limit his opposition to 3H or fewer in three straight starts since Randy Johnson in April 2005.
- Recorded his first win at Yankee Stadium on 7/19 vs. Detroit, snapping a nine-start winless stretch at Yankee Stadium to begin the season (0-2, 5.36 ERA)…according to Elias, it marked the most winless starts at home to begin a season for a Yankees pitcher since 1990 when Andy Hawkins was 0-7 in his first 10 home starts and Tim Leary was 0-6 in his first nine home starts at the original Yankee Stadium.
- Recorded the win on 8/6 vs. Boston despite issuing a career-high 7BB…was the most walks allowed by a Yankees pitcher who also recorded a victory since David Cone walked seven in a 12-3 Yankees win on 4/9/99 vs. Detroit, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Set a franchise record by pitching 4.0 innings or less in six consecutive starts from 8/25-9/20, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…made his lone relief appearance of the season in the final team game of 2009 on 10/4 at Tampa Bay, tossing 1.0 perfect inning (1K).

- Made 10 relief appearances in the postseason, going 1-0 with a 2.84 ERA (6.1IP, 9H, 2ER, 1BB, 7K)…earned the win in Game 4 of the World Series, allowing the game-tying run on a solo HR and striking out the side in 1.0IP of relief.

- Was 4-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 42 appearances (12 starts) with the Yankees…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankee since Roy Sherid in 1929 to start his rookie season with at least 10 relief appearances before a mid-season switch resulting in at least 10 starts.
- The Yankees were 8-4 in his starts…in 30 relief appearances, was 1-2 with a 2.31 ERA…as a reliever, retired 25-of-30 first batters faced (83.3%) and prevented 8-of-10 (80%) inherited runners from scoring.
- Began the season in the Yankees bullpen before making the transition to a starter in late May.
- Among AL rookies, ranked first in ERA (2.60), second in strikeouts (118), fourth in opponents batting average (.233) and seventh in innings pitched (100.1)…allowed just 5HR, an average of 0.45HR/9.0IP, the second-lowest among all rookie Major Leaguers with at least 75.0IP (behind the Marlins' Chris Volstad, 0.32HR/9.0IP).
- His strikeout total marked the most by a Yankees rookie in a single season since Orlando Hernandez recorded 131K in 1998…were the third-most in a season by a Yankees pitcher under the age of 23, behind Al Downing's 171 in 1963 and Lefty Gomez's 150 in 1931.
- Made his first appearance of the season in 4/1 Opening Day win vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless eighth inning (1.0IP, 1BB, 2K)…made his first Opening Day roster…was placed on the bereavement list from 4/14-19 to be with his hospitalized father, Harlan, in Nebraska (missed five team games).
- Allowed a "walk-off" single to Joe Crede to suffer his first Major League loss on 4/23 at Chicago-AL…was his fourth appearance in five games.
- Began the transition from relief pitcher to starter on 5/21 vs. Baltimore, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 2BB, 3K)…Manager Joe Girardi announced the move following the game…tossed a relief-appearance career-high 40 pitches on 5/24 vs. Seattle (2.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 2K)…in three "transition" relief appearances, did not allow a run over 5.1IP, holding opponents to 3H and 4BB while striking out eight batters…Girardi announced on 5/30 that Chamberlain would make his first start on 6/3 vs. the Toronto Blue Jays.
- Allowed 1ER in 2.1IP (1H, 2R, 4BB, 3K, 1BK) without recording a decision in his first Major League start on 6/3 vs. Toronto…threw 62 pitches overall, facing 12 total batters and marking the first time he faced more than nine batters in a single game…opposed Roy Halladay and, according to Elias, joined Greg Cadaret as the only Yankee to make his first Major League start against a former Cy Young Award winner…Cadaret recorded the loss against Roger Clemens on 7/7/89 at Fenway Park after making over 100 relief appearances for the A's and Yankees.
- At 22 years old, joined Yankees pitchers Phil Hughes (21) and Ian Kennedy (23), as the first trio all age 23 or younger, to start a game in the same season for the Yankees prior to September call-ups since 1993 (Sterling Hitchcock, Mark Hutton and Sam Militello)…the last Yankees trio to do it as early in the season (prior to 6/4) was Gil Blanco, Al Downing and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.
- Held opponents to 3ER or less in each of his first 11 Major League starts from 6/3-7/30, becoming the first pitcher to do so since the Marlins' Josh Johnson in 13 straight starts from 2005-06 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…was the only Yankees pitcher in 2008 to have at least 11 straight starts and allow no more than 3ER in any of them…was the first Yankee to accomplish the feat since Mike Mussina from 4/4-5/31/06 (12 straight starts)…his 2.23 ERA was the lowest for any Yankees pitcher over his first 11 Major League starts since Mel Stottlemyre in 1964 (1.97 ERA).

- Earned his first career win as a starter on 6/25 at Pittsburgh, tossing 6.2 scoreless innings…was his first time holding opponents scoreless in a Major League start…tossed a career-high 114 pitches.
- Had 124K at the time he reached 100.0 career IP on 7/25 at Boston, the most for any Yankees pitcher all time through his first 100.0 innings in the Majors…allowed just 24R in his first 100.0IP, the fewest by a Yankee since Dave Righetti allowed 23 in 1981 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Was removed from 8/4 loss at Texas in the fifth inning with right shoulder stiffness after allowing 8H, 5ER and 2HR in 4.2IP…had an MRI performed on 8/5 and was seen by Dr. James Andrews on 8/6…was diagnosed with rotator cuff tendinitis and placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/6 (missed 24 team games).
- Was reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 9/2 and returned to the bullpen…pitched in relief that night at Tampa Bay, allowing 1H and 1BB in 1.1IP.
- Had a 2.38 ERA in 10 relief appearances after returning from the D.L. on 9/2, allowing 11H and 3ER in 11.1IP (14K) without recording a decision.
- Entered the 2008 season ranked by Baseball America as the Yankees' top prospect and the top pitching prospect in all of Baseball (third-best overall)…was also rated as having the "Best Fastball," "Best Curveball" and "Best Slider" among all pitchers in the Yankees system.

- Struck out 34 batters in 24.0IP, averaging 12.75 strikeouts per 9.0IP while issuing just 6BB…was the fourth-highest K/9.0IP ratio among Major League relievers with at least 20.0IP.
- Did not allow a run in his first 15.1 Major League innings…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the second longest scoreless-inning streak for any pitcher in Yankees franchise history beginning his Major League career behind Slow Joe Doyle, who went 18.0 innings before allowing his first career run in 1906.
- Made his ML debut in 8/7 win at Toronto, closing out the game with 2.0 scoreless IP (1H, 2BB, 2K)…was signed to a Major League contract and added to the roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre prior to the game.
- In 8/30 win vs. Boston, allowed 1H and 1BB in 1.1IP before being ejected in the ninth inning by HP Umpire Angel Hernandez…was suspended for two games (8/31-9/1) by Major League Baseball.
- Earned his first win on 9/5 vs. Seattle, tossing a perfect seventh inning (1.0IP)…became the ninth Yankees pitcher to record his first Major League win in 2007, extending the club record (previous six, done in 1946).
- Allowed one unearned run in 1.2IP on 9/12 at Toronto, snapping his streak of 15.1 scoreless innings to begin his Major League career…allowed solo-HR to Mike Lowell in the eighth on 9/16 at Boston, snapping his streak of 17.0IP without allowing an earned run to begin his Major League career, but still came away with the win.
- Recorded his first career save on 9/23 vs. Toronto, retiring the final four batters (3K) on his 22nd birthday…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the third pitcher to earn his first Major League save on his birthday (also Kansas City's D.J. Carrasco and the Mets' Grant Roberts, both in 2003).
- Made two appearances in the Division Series vs. Cleveland, posting a 4.91 ERA with no decisions…made his postseason debut in the seventh inning of Game 2 loss at Cleveland, recording the final two outs of the inning, inheriting two runners (none scored)…while taking the mound for the eighth, small flies known as "midges" descended on the field, congregating most densely above the pitcher's mound…did not allow a hit while completing the inning, but surrendered the tying run on 2BB, 2WP and 1HP…in Game 3 win vs. Cleveland, allowed 1ER in 2.0IP…joined Ross Ohlendorf as the first pair of teammates in Baseball history to pitch in the postseason less than two months after each made their Major League debuts (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Combined to make 18 appearances (15 starts) with Single-A Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Scranton/WB, going 9-2 with a 2.45 ERA while registering 135K in 88.1IP…in 15 minor league starts, went 9-2 with a 2.56 ERA…in three relief appearances, tossed 4.0 scoreless innings (1H, 0BB, 10K).
- Was named to the U.S. team for the 2007 Futures Game, played on 7/8 in San Francisco…in the game, allowed 1ER on 1H and 1BB in 1.0IP (1K) in relief.
- Entered the 2007 season ranked by Baseball America as the fourth-best prospect in the Yankees organization…also rated as having the "Best Fastball" among all pitchers in the Yankees system.

- Selected by the Yankees in Compensation Round A (41st overall) of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft, becoming the second-highest drafted Native American in baseball history.
- Made professional debut with the West Oahu CaneFires in the Hawaiian Winter League…in nine games (six starts) with West Oahu, was 2-2 with a 2.63 ERA (37.2IP, 28H, 11ER, 3BB, 46K)…ranked second in the league in strikeouts while his ERA was tied for fifth-best in the league.

CAREER NOTES

- Has stolen 137 bases in 167 career attempts…his 82.0% success rate ranks third in the American League among active players with at least 100 stolen base attempts.
- Collected 103SB within his first three years in the Majors (6/30/08-6/29/11)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, were the most SB by a Yankee within three years of his debut since Ben Chapman, who stole 113 bases from 4/16/30-4/15/32.
- Stole his 100th career base on 6/14/11…came in his 364th game and 124th career attempt…according to Elias, during the Live Ball Era (since 1920, the same year CS became an official stat in the AL), only Rickey Henderson (162 games) and Ben Chapman (313) reached 100SB for the Yankees in fewer games…Elias also notes his 24CS at the time of his 100th SB were the fewest among players who made their Major League debut with the Yankees in the Live Ball Era…broke the previous record held by Mickey Mantle, who had 27CS at the time of his 100th SB in 1960…overall, became the third Yankee since 1920 with as few as 24CS at the time of his 100th SB with the club: also Rickey Henderson and Alex Rodriguez.
- Recorded his 50th SB in his 171st game, the first Yankee to reach the plateau in as few games from the start of his career since Fritz Maisel on 6/21/14 (102 games) - credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Is one of three Yankees all-time with at least 45SB in back-to-back seasons (2010-11), joining Fritz Maisel (1914-15) and Rickey Henderson (1985-86).
- Collected 23 triples over his first four Major League seasons (2008-11), becoming the second Yankee in the Expansion Era (since 1961) to collect at least 20 triples over his first four seasons in the Majors (all with the Yankees), joining Derek Jeter (22, 1995-98).
- Has hit 15 home runs in his career, with the Yankees going 13-2 in those contests…seven of his 15HR have tied the game or given the Yankees the lead.

- Collected a triple and home run in the same game three times in 2009 (5/13 at Toronto, 5/15 vs. Minnesota and 6/26 at the Mets), becoming the first Yankee to accomplish the feat at least three times in a single season since Hank Bauer in 1957 (also three times)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Hit his first Major League home run—a two-run HR in the second inning—and was 2-for-3 with 2R, 1 triple, 3RBI and 1BB in 5/13 win at Toronto…along with Ramiro Pena, became the first pair of Yankees rookies to both hit triples in the same game since 8/31/70, when Thurman Munson and Johnny Ellis did so off Mike Cuellar (credit: Elias).

- Hit an inside-the-park solo-HR and was 3-for-3 with 2R and 1 triple on 5/15 vs. Minnesota after entering the game defensively in the fourth in CF when Johnny Damon was ejected…was the first inside-the-park HR by a Yankee since Ricky Ledee on 8/29/99 vs. Seattle…according to Elias, became the fifth Yankees rookie since Divisional play began in 1969 to hit an inside-the-park HR (Johnny Ellis-1969, Deion Sanders-1990, Derek Jeter-1996 and Ricky Ledee-1999)…joined Carl Crawford (2005), Brian Giles (2002) and Fred McGriff (1993) as the only players since 1989 to hit an inside-the-park HR and triple in the same contest (credit: Elias)…Elias also notes that he became just the third Yankee since 1998 to get 3H after entering as a sub (also Lance Johnson, 2000 and Cody Ransom, 2008).
- Missed three games from 5/18-20 with a bruised right shoulder…suffered injury in 5/17 win vs. Minnesota when he was tagged out at the plate by Joe Mauer…upon his return, reached base safely (via hit, walk or HP) in 22 straight games with an official PA (including 18 starts) from 5/21-6/26, batting .371 (26-for-70) with 14R, 1 double, 2 triples, 1HR, 5RBI and 9BB.
- Stole three bases in 5/26 loss at Texas after entering the game in the top of the first in CF…collected three hits in a game that he did not start for the second time in 2009 (also 3-for-3 on 5/15), becoming the first player with two three-hit games off the bench in one season since John Shelby for the 1983 Orioles (credit: Elias).
- Hit a solo-HR and was 5-for-6 with 3R, 1 triple, 1HR, 2RBI and 1SB in 6/26 win at the Mets, establishing a career high in hits and tying his career high in runs scored…according to Elias, became the first player from either the Yankees or Mets with at least 5H in a Yankees/Mets game during the regular or postseason…Elias also notes Gardner became just the third Yankees rookie in franchise history to record at least 5H and 1HR in the same game, joining Joe DiMaggio in 1936 (5H, 1HR) and Shane Spencer in 1998 (5H, 2HR).
- Was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 7/26 with a fractured left thumb…injury occurred while sliding into second base in the first inning in 7/25 loss vs. Oakland…remained in the game and went 1-for-3 with 1 triple…was returned from rehab and reinstated on 9/7 (missed 40 team games).
- Appeared in 14 of the Yankees' postseason games, going 2-for-13 with 3R and 1SB…started the final two games (WS Game 5 and 6) in CF when Melky Cabrera was removed from the roster with a hamstring strain.
- Hit .379 (25-for-66) with 12R, 3HR and 7RBI in 27 spring training games, tying for the team lead in stolen bases (5) and ranking second in hits…won the 2009 James P. Dawson Award, given to the most outstanding rookie in Yankees spring training by the New York chapter of the BBWAA.

- Hit .228 (29-for-117) with 5 doubles, 2 triples, 16RBI and 13SB in 42 games (17 starts in CF, 15 starts in LF) over two stints with the Yankees (6/30-7/25; 8/15-9/28)…the Yankees were 15-3 when he batted ninth.
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the 25-man active roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 6/30, making his Major League debut that night in a loss vs. Texas and going 0-for-3 with 1SB as the leadoff hitter…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the first Yankee to make his Major League debut in the leadoff spot since Roberto Kelly on 7/29/87 vs. Kansas City.
- Was 8-for-8 in stolen base attempts before being caught for the first time in 9/15 win vs. Chicago-AL…according to Elias, was the first Yankee to begin his Major League career with eight straight successful stolen base attempts since Andy Fox went 8-for-8 in 1996.
- Recorded his first Major League hit—a seventh-inning single off Warner Madrigal—and was 1-for-4 with 2R, 1RBI, 1BB and 1SB in 7/2 win vs. Texas, also recording his first run and RBI.
- Notched his first career "walk-off" hit in 7/6 win vs. Boston, going 2-for-5 with 1R, 1RBI and 1SB…singled home Cano from second base in the 10th inning (off Jonathan Papelbon)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankee to record a "walk-off" hit in his sixth career game or earlier since Alfonso Soriano (also in his sixth game) in 1999…Elias also noted he was the first Yankees rookie to provide a "walk-off" hit vs. Boston since Derek Jeter hit a 10th-inning single off Joe Hudson in a 12-11 Yankees victory on 9/21/96.
- Also had "walk-off" RBI single on 8/16 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees rookie with two "walk-off" hits in one season since Hideki Matsui in 2003 (credit: Elias)…Elias also noted that he became the first Major Leaguer to record two game-ending RBI within his first 20 career games since Ted Simmons had two in his first seven ML games spanning from 1968-69.
- In 94 overall games with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, batted .296 (101-for-341) with 68R, 12 doubles, 11 triples, 3HR, 32RBI, 70BB, 11SH and 37SB, while recording 27 multi-hit games…led all Yankees farmhands in SB and tied for fourth in average.
- Hit the first "walk-off" HR in Scranton/WB Yankees history on 4/23 vs. Buffalo, a solo HR in the bottom of the ninth.
- Was tabbed as having the IL's "Best Strike Zone Judgment" and being the IL's "Best Baserunner" by Baseball America following the season…was also named to the publication's Triple-A All-Star team…entered the season ranked by Baseball America as the eighth-best prospect in the organization and as the "Fastest Baserunner."

- Hit .281 (108-for-384) with 18 doubles, 8 triples, 1HR, 35RBI and 39SB in 99 combined games with Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre…led all Yankees minor leaguers in stolen bases and tied for the Thunder team-lead with five triples.
- Began the year at Trenton, batting .300 (61-for-203) with 18SB in 54 games…missed a month of action on the disabled list from 5/5-6/8 with a fractured right hand after being hit by an errant pitch on 5/4 at New Britain.
- Was promoted to Scranton/WB on 7/13 where he hit .260 (47-for-181) and successfully stole a base in 21-of-24 attempts…hit his first professional home run on 8/21 vs. Rochester, leading off the game in a 3-1 loss.
- Following the season, played with the Peoria Javelinas, hitting safely in 24-of-26 contests and leading the Arizona Fall League in stolen bases (16) and runs scored (27) while ranking second in hits (37), tying for third in walks (17), and placing fourth in on-base percentage (.433) and fifth in batting average (.343)…was named to the 2007 Arizona Fall League Top Prospects Team.
- Entered the season ranked as the Yankees' 10th-best prospect by Baseball America.

- Hit .298 (134-for-449) with 16 doubles, 8 triples, 35RBI and 58SB in 118 combined games with Single-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton…batted .336 (38-for-113) off left-handed pitchers.
- Ranked second among all Yankees prospects in stolen bases and was tied for second in batting average…was selected to the West Division All-Star Team for the Florida State League.
- With Tampa, reached base safely in 23 straight games from 4/17-5/11, batting .410 with 19R during the streak…also recorded 22 multi-hit games, including three four-hit games…in 55 games with Trenton, batted .272 (59-for-217) and reached base safely in 20 straight games from 6/28-7/22…missed a week of action from 8/3-10 while on the D.L. with a left knee contusion…recorded 18 bunt hits with the Thunder.
- Played in 27 games with Peoria in the Arizona Fall League, batting .250 (27-for-108) with 6SB.

Yankees Have a Fan in Fashion

Growing up as the youngest of Frank and Frieda Lifshitz's four children, Ralph Lauren didn't know what a fashion designer was and preferred to be either a movie star or a ballplayer. As homage to his baseball passion, the numbers 3, 4, 5, and 7 appear on the sleeves of his "Big Pony" line of shirts, representing the Yankee uniform numbers of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle.

A.L. Silver Slugger
- 2011

STATUS

- Acquired by the Yankees from the Detroit Tigers in a three-team, seven-player deal in which the Yankees sent LHP Phil Coke and OF Austin Jackson to Detroit and RHP Ian Kennedy to Arizona on December 9, 2009…signed a five-year contract on February 4, 2008 (while w/ Detroit) that extended through 2012 and included a club option for 2013.

CAREER NOTES

- Over the last five seasons (2008-12), owns the fourth-most extra-base hits (312) among American Leaguers…his 42 triples are the most in the AL over the span, while his 160HR are second-most (Miguel Cabrera-183).
- Career Breakdown: 2004-09 w/DET: 674G, 2,579AB, 102HR… 2010-12 w/NYY: 452G, 1,645AB, 108HR.
- Has hit 108HR since joining the Yankees in 2010 (61-home, 47-road), fourth-most in the Majors over the span behind Jose Bautista (124), Miguel Cabrera (112) and Albert Pujols (109)…has 10 multi-HR games since joining the Yankees, trailing only Mark Teixeira (11) for most by a Yankee over the stretch.
- Is the first Yankees player to hit at least 30HR as an outfielder in consecutive seasons (2011-12) since Dave Winfield (1982-83)—credit: Elias.
- Leads the Majors with 84HR since the start of 2011…has hit 30HR off left-handed pitching over the span, also most in the Majors.
- Became just the fifth Yankee to hit at least 40HR in back-to-back seasons (2011-12), joining Babe Ruth (1920-21, 1923-24 and 1926-32), Lou Gehrig (1930-31), Mickey Mantle (1960-61) and Jason Giambi (2002-03)…is one of just four players to accomplish the feat while also driving in at least 100 runs (all above except Mantle).
- Hit 26HR at Yankee Stadium in 2012 and 21HR at home in 2011, becoming the first left-handed batter to reach the 20HR plateau at home in back-to-back seasons since Bill Dickey from 1937-38.
- Is just the third Yankee to record consecutive seasons (2011-12) with at least 100R, 40HR and 100RBI (2011-12), joining Babe Ruth (1920-21, '23-24, '26-32) and Lou Gehrig (1930-31).
- In his career, has hit .277 (842-for-3,040) with 160HR vs. right-handed pitchers…owns a .222 (266-for-1,184) batting average with 50HR off lefties…since 2011, has hit 30HR against LHP and 54HR off RHP.
- With 7 triples in 2010 and 10 triples in 2011, became the first Yankee to collect at least 7 triples in each of his first two years with the club since Gene Woodling did so in three straight seasons from 1949-51.
- In 2010, became the first player in Major League history to be acquired during the offseason by defending World Series champions after coming off a 30-homer season (hit 30HR in 2009 w/ Detroit)—credit: Elias.
- Was the only Major Leaguer to score at least 100R, and collect at least 20 doubles, 10 triples, 20HR and 10SB in both 2007 and 2008.
- Among Major League outfielders since 2005, ranks second with 2,785 total chances behind only teammate Ichiro Suzuki (2,858)…has committed just 18 errors over the eight-year span, posting a .994 fielding percentage.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A.L. All-Star Team
- 2010

All-Star Futures Game
- 2006

Kevin Lawn Award Yankees "Minor League Pitcher of the Year"
- 2006

STATUS

- Selected by the Yankees in the first round (23rd overall) of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft…signed through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Hughes' 52 career wins are the most victories by a player the Yankees selected in the first round of the First-Year Player Draft.
- Is 46-34 with a 4.67 ERA (578.2IP, 300ER) in 103 career starts…is 6-2 with a 1.44 ERA (56.1IP, 9ER) in 49 career relief appearances.
- Ended the 2012 season having gone 18-8 in his last 31 starts that immediately followed a Yankees loss (since May 2009).
- According to Elias, the Yankees are 36-2 when staking Hughes to a lead of three runs or more in any of his starts, with Hughes winning 33 of those outings.
- In 134 career regular season appearances (85 starts) from May through October, is 48-27 with a 4.01 ERA (558.1IP, 249ER)…is 4-9 with a 7.04 ERA (76.2IP, 60ER) in 18 career starts during the month of April.
- With 18 wins in 2010 and 16 wins in 2012, is one of only two Yankees righthanders over the last 40 years (since 1972) to collect multiple seasons of at least 15 wins prior to turning 27 (also Doc Medich - 19 wins in 1974 and 16 wins in 1975).
- Was 23-11 prior to turning 24 on 6/24/10, marking the most wins by a Yankee under 24 since 1965, when Mel Stottlemyre (29 wins) and Al Downing (32 wins) each celebrated their 24th birthday.

- Went 16-13 with a 4.19 ERA (191.1IP, 89ER) in 32 starts with the Yankees…tied Hiroki Kuroda for the most wins on the staff and ranked second in starts to Kuroda.
- Recorded a decision in 29 of his 32 starts in 2012, tied for most decisions among Major League pitchers (also Gio Gonzalez, Matt Harrison and Clayton Richard).
- Allowed 35HR, tied with Jason Vargas for the second-most in the Majors behind Ervin Santana (39)…surrendered 22HR at home, the most such homers allowed by any Major League pitcher in 2012 and the most in a single season in franchise history…allowed at least 1HR in 12 of his 14 road starts.
- Allowed at least 1HR in each of his first 12 starts of the season, the second-most consecutive games with at least 1HR allowed in Yankees history, behind Dennis Rasmussen's streak of 14 straight from 7/10-9/29/86…tied Runelvys Hernandez (w/ Kansas City in 2006) for the second-longest streak in Major League history of allowing at least 1HR in consecutive games to begin a season.
- Went 11-4 with a 3.74 ERA (98.2IP, 41ER) in 16 starts at Yankee Stadium, tied for the most home victories among all Major League pitchers.
- Walked two or fewer batters in 28 of his 32 starts…his 2.16 BB/9.0IP ratio was the eighth-lowest among American League pitchers.
- His 11 unearned runs allowed (101R/90ER) were more than each of his prior five Major League seasons combined (seven from 2007-11).

- After beginning the season 1-4 in April, went 15-9 with a 3.77 ERA over his final 27 starts of the year beginning on 5/6…held opponents to 2ER or less in 16 of those outings…only the Angels' Jered Weaver (16) had more wins in the AL over the span.
- Tossed his second career complete game on 6/3 at Detroit, holding the AL champs to 1ER (Fielder solo HR) on 4H with 3BB and 8K…was the first CG by a Yankee since 8/2/11 at Chicago-AL (also Hughes)…was the only AL pitcher to record a complete-game win against Detroit in 2012.
- Allowed a career-high 4HR in 6/20 loss vs. Atlanta.
- Held opponents to a .194 average (13-for-67) with runners in scoring position in 15 starts after the All-Star break…marked the sixth-lowest such average in the AL during the span.

*start came after a Yankees loss – Bold-season high

- Had his six-game home winning streak snapped in 9/2 vs. Baltimore…had gone undefeated in his previous seven starts at Yankee Stadium from 6/26-8/28 (6-0, 1.62 ERA, 50.0IP, 9ER).
- Made his 100th career start in 9/13 win at Boston, becoming the fifth pitcher to reach the plateau with the Yankees after being selected by the team in the amateur draft (which began in 1965): also Stan Bahnsen, Doc Medich, Ron Guidry and Andy Pettitte (credit: Elias).
- Struck out four batters in the fourth inning of 9/20 win vs. Toronto (Hechavarria reached on a passed ball), becoming the second pitcher in franchise history to fan four batters in a single inning-also A.J. Burnett on 6/24/11 vs. Colorado (sixth inning).
- Made five official Grapefruit League starts against Major League opponents, going 0-1 with a 1.56 ERA (17.1IP, 3ER)…owned the lowest spring ERA among all Yankees starters.
- Made two postseason starts for the Yankees (ALDS Game 4 vs. Baltimore and ALCS Game 3 at Detroit), going 0-1 with a 1.86 ERA (9.2IP, 7H, 2ER, 6BB, 9K, 2HR)…was removed from ALCS Game 3 with a stiff back after 3.0IP.

- Went 5-5 with a 5.79 ERA (74.2IP, 48ER) in 17 appearances (14GS) with the Yankees…was 5-4 with a 5.90 ERA (71.2IP, 47ER) as a starter…made three relief appearances, going 0-1 with a 3.00 ERA (3.0IP, 1ER) in just 3.0IP out of the bullpen (1ER)…opponents batted .283 (84-for-297, 9HR); LH .312 (58-for-186, 4HR) and RH .234 (26-for-111, 5HR)…the Yankees went 9-5 in his starts.
- Allowed 16ER combined over his first three starts of the season, pitching less than 5.0 innings in each outing (10.1 combined IP).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/15 and transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 5/25 with right shoulder inflammation…missed 84 games before being returned from rehab and reinstated on 7/6…marked his third career D.L. stint and first since 5/1-7/30/08 (stress fracture, right rib cage).
- Combined to make three minor league rehab starts with short-season Single-A Staten Island and Double-A Trenton, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA.

- Limited opponents to 2ER or less in eight of his last 11 starts following his D.L. stint, going 5-3 with a 4.55 ERA (61.1IP, 31ER) and a .262 opponents batting average (62-for-237)…prior to going on the DL, went 0-1 with a 13.94 ERA (10.1IP, 16ER) with batters hitting .396 (19-for-48).
- Was staked to a 14-2 lead on 7/22 vs. Oakland, but was removed after 4.1IP (9H, 7 ER)…according to Elias, Hughes became the second starting pitcher since 1971 to be removed from a game without recording 5.0IP, despite leading by at least 12 runs…joined San Diego's Tim Stauffer who allowed 7R in just 3.2IP on 7/29/07 at Houston, after being afforded a 12-0 lead.
- Was credited with his first career shutout in his rain-shortened start on 8/2 at Chicago-AL, limiting the White Sox to 3H with no walks and 4K in 6.0 scoreless innings…according to Elias, prior to that start, the last Yankees pitcher to be credited with a shutout despite not pitching 9.0 innings was Sam McDowell on 7/20/73, also against the White Sox…McDowell threw only six innings in the second game of a doubleheader that was halted by rain at the original Yankee Stadium.
- Made his first relief appearance of the season on 8/7 at Boston…marked his first relief appearance in nearly a year, having last appearing out of the bullpen on 10/2/10 at Fenway Park.
- Held opponents to 11H in their last 57 at-bats (.193 avg.) with runners on base over the season's final two months.
- Appeared out of the bullpen in his final two outings of the season (9/26 and 9/28 at Tampa Bay), combining to allow just 1H in 2.2IP (3BB, 2K).
- Made two relief appearances in the ALDS vs. Detroit, combining to toss 2.1 scoreless innings (2H, 4K).

- Went 18-8 with a 4.19 ERA (176.1IP, 82ER) and 146K in 31G/29GS with the Yankees, setting career highs in wins…was tied for fourth in the AL and tied for seventh in the Majors in wins…was tied for fifth in the AL and tied for sixth in the Majors with a .692 winning percentage…lasted at least 5.0IP in 28 of his 29 starts (only exception on 8/25 at Toronto, 3.2IP)…opponents batted .244 (162-for-665, 25HR); LH .235 (81-for-345, 17HR) and RH .253 (81-for-320, 8HR)…the Yankees went 20-9 in his starts.
- Became the second Yankees pitcher age 24 or younger in the last 45 years to win at least 18 games in a season (also Andy Pettitte in 1996, 21 wins)…was the youngest Yankees righthander to win at least 18 games in a season since 23-year old Mel Stottlemyre won 20 games in 1965.
- Joined CC Sabathia (21-7) as the first set of Yankees teammates with at least 18 wins each since 2002 (Mike Mussina 18-10 and Davis Wells 19-7)…was the first time a pair of 18-game winning Yankees were 30 years old or younger since 1978 (Ron Guidry 25-3 and Ed Figueroa 20-9).
- Allowed 20HR at home (including each of his first 15 total HR allowed)…tied Baltimore's Kevin Millwood and the Dodgers' Ted Lilly for most homers allowed at home in the Majors in 2010…according to Elias, became the first pitcher to allow his first 15HR at home since Seattle's Gaylord Perry in 1982.
- Did not hit a batter, becoming the first Yankee since Ron Guidry in 1985 to throw at least 175.0IP in a season and not hit anyone.
- Received 7.49R/9.0IP of support in his starts, the highest mark among qualifying Major League pitchers.
- Appeared on his first All-Star roster, receiving his selection via the player ballot…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the third-youngest pitcher to represent the Yankees in an All-Star Game (1956-Johnny Kucks age 22; and 1965-Mel Stottlemyre age 23)…was charged with the loss in the 3-1 NL victory (0.1IP, 2H, 2ER), becoming the first Yankee to take the loss in the Midsummer Classic since Tommy John in 1980…faced three batters in the seventh inning, retiring Cincinnati's Joey Votto before allowing back-to-back singles to Cincinnati's Scott Rolen and St. Louis' Matt Holliday (who would both come around to score after he left).
- Was named the Yankees' fifth starter to open the season by Manager Joe Girardi on 3/25…following spring training, made two starts in extended spring training while remaining on the Yankees' 25-man active roster.

- Recorded his 16th win of the season on 8/31 vs. Oakland…joined CC Sabathia (18-5) to give the Yankees two pitchers each with 16 wins prior to September 1 for the first time since 1998 (David Cone-18 and David Wells-16).
- Was skipped in the rotation from 9/6-14, going nine days without a start…made his first of two relief appearances of the season on 9/10 at Texas, tossing 1.0 perfect inning of relief (1K) in the Yankees' 6-5, 13-inning loss…also tossed 1.0 scoreless inning in his final outing of the season in 10/2 Game 1 win at Boston.
- Made three postseason starts, going 1-2 with a 6.32 ERA (15.2IP, 11ER)…threw 7.0 scoreless innings in his first career postseason start in Game 3 of the ALDS on 10/9/10 vs. Minnesota, earning the win in the 6-1 victory to complete the series sweep…became the third Yankee to toss at least 7.0 scoreless IP in his first career postseason start, joining Orlando Hernandez (ALCS Game 4 on 10/10/98 at Cleveland - 7.0IP) and Waite Hoyt (WS Game 2 on 10/6/21 vs. NY Giants - 9.0IP)…became the first Yankee under the age of 25 to win a postseason start since Dave Righetti on 10/15/81 in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. Oakland…started and took the loss in Game 2 and Game 6 of the ALCS at Texas (8.2IP, 11ER)…at 24 years, 114 days, became the youngest Yankee to start either Game 1 or 2 of a playoff series since Andy Pettitte started Game 2 of the 1996 ALDS at 24 years, 109 days.

- Was 8-3 with three saves and a 3.03 ERA in 51 appearances (seven starts) with the Yankees…opponents batted .217 (68-for-314, 8HR); LH .257 (36-for-140, 3HR), RH .184 (32-for-174, 5HR).
- In 44 relief appearances, was 5-1 with three saves and a 1.40 ERA, leading all qualifying Major League relievers in ERA…struck out 33.7% of his batters faced as a reliever (65K, 193BF), the second-highest mark in the Majors…opponents batted .172 (31-for-180, 2HR)…37 of his 44 appearances were scoreless…held opponents hitless in 24 outings…stranded 15-of-16 inherited runners (93.8%)…retired 35-of-44 first batters faced (79.5%)…appeared in consecutive games 11 times and three straight games once (8/2-5).
- The Yankees were 35-9 in his relief appearances, including a 27-4 mark following the All-Star break…the Yankees won 18 consecutive games Hughes appeared in from 8/2-9/16…allowed just 3H in 33AB with runners in scoring position as a reliever (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…held opponents hitless in 26 consecutive AB with RISP from 6/14-9/22.
- Recorded the American League's lowest post-All-Star break ERA (1.64)…averaged 12.55 K/9.0IP after the All-Star break, ranking fourth in the Majors over the span.
- After stepping into the primary setup role on 7/3, the Yankees went 58-26, including a 31-5 mark in games Hughes appeared in…following his first relief appearance on 6/8, the Yankees bullpen went 27-7 with a 3.37 ERA and 37 saves in 105 games, allowing 277H and 127ER in 339.2IP (138R, 120BB, 326K, 37HR) while holding opponents to a .219 batting average…in 54 games prior to Hughes joining the bullpen, Yankees relievers were 13-10 with a 4.88 ERA, 14 saves and a .251 opponents average (175.1IP, 168H, 103R, 95ER, 78BB, 157K, 35HR).
- In seven starts, went 3-2 with a 5.45 ERA, allowing 37H and 21ER in 34.2IP (15BB, 31K, 6HR)…held his opponents to 3ER or less in five of his seven starts.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 4/28 and made the start that night at Detroit, recording the win in an 11-0 Yankees victory…threw 6.0 scoreless innings and struck out six batters (2H, 2BB), snapping a personal four-game losing streak.
- Allowed a career-high 8ER on 8H in 1.2IP on 5/9 at Baltimore, recording the loss in a 12-5 Orioles victory…marked his shortest career start (2BB, 0K, 1HR)…tossed a scoreless first inning then allowed nine of his next 11 batters faced to reach.

- Went undefeated over his final four starts from 5/15-31 (2-0, 3.91 ERA, 23.0IP, 10ER)…tossed 8.0 shutout innings (3H, 1BB, 6K) and recorded the win in an 11-1 Yankees victory on 5/25 at Texas.
- Made his first career regular season relief appearance in 6/8 win vs. Tampa Bay, tossing a perfect seventh inning (1.0IP, 1K).
- Did not allow a run over 16 consecutive outings from 6/14-7/26, tossing 21.0 shutout innings over the stretch (11H, 4BB/1IBB, 25K)…compiled a 23.1-inning scoreless stretch dating back to 6/10 at Boston, marking the longest single-season scoreless stretch for a Yankees reliever since Mariano Rivera's 30.2-inning scoreless stretch to finish the 1999 regular season (credit: Elias)…was also the fifth-longest by a Yankees pitcher, starter or reliever, from1985-2009, behind Rivera, Lee Guetterman (30.2 in 1989), Steve Farr (27.0 in 1991) and Rivera (26.0 in 1996)…had his scoreless streak broken on 7/30 at Chicago-AL, when he was charged with 1ER in 2.0IP (2H, 1K)…exited with the score tied 2-2 and two runners on base before Phil Coke allowed a "walk-off" RBI single.
- Earned his first regular-season win as a reliever on 7/17 vs. Detroit, tossing 2.0 scoreless IP while striking out six-of-nine batters faced (3H, 1BK)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became just the third pitcher in Yankees history to record at least 6K in a game with all his outs being recorded via strikeout (also Joe Page, 6K vs. Detroit on 9/13/47 and Goose Gossage, 6K vs. Kansas City on 9/1/79).
- Earned his first career save in 7/23 win vs. Oakland, tossing 2.0 perfect innings…became the youngest Yankees pitcher to earn a save of at least six outs since 18-year-old Jose Rijo notched a 3.0-inning save on 4/18/84 at Cleveland (credit: Elias).
- Opened the year with Scranton/WB, going 3-0 with a 1.86 ERA (19.1IP, 4ER) in three starts…allowed only 3BB while striking out 19 batters 19.1IP…opponents were batting .233 (17-for-73) at the time of his recall.
- Made nine postseason appearances, going 0-1 with an 8.53 ERA (6.1IP, 11H, 6ER, 4BB, 7K, 1HR).

- Was 0-4 with a 6.62 ERA in eight starts over two stints with the Yankees (3/31-7/30 and 9/13-28)…the Yankees were 3-5 in his starts…opponents batted .314 (43-for-137, 3HR); LH .333 (20-for-60, 1HR), RH .299 (23-for-77, 2HR)…his eight starts were the third-most all time by a Yankees pitcher in a winless season behind Steve Trout (9, 1987) and Ian Kennedy (9, 2008).
- Opened the season as the youngest pitcher in the Majors and the second youngest player in the Majors behind Arizona's Justin Upton (20 years old, born 8/25/87)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the youngest pitcher to begin a season in the Yankees rotation since Bill Burbach in 1969 (Opening Day age of 21 years, 232 days).
- At 21 years old, joined Yankees pitchers Joba Chamberlain (22) and Ian Kennedy (23) as the first trio—each under age 24—to start a game in the same season for the Yankees prior to September call-ups since 1993 (Sterling Hitchcock, Mark Hutton and Sam Militello)…the last Yankees trio to do it prior to June 4 of a season was Gil Blanco, Al Downing and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.
- Was 21 years old at the start of the season, and—with Ian Kennedy (age 23)—became the fourth pair of pitchers, each under the age of 24, to start for the Yankees within the team's first four games of a season (also Dave Righetti-23 and Mike Morgan-22 in 1982; Hippo Vaughn-23, Ray Fisher-23 and Ray Caldwell-22 in 1911; and Mel Stottlemyre-23 and Al Downing-23 in 1965)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Turned 22 on 6/24…made 19 starts with a 5-7 record and 71 career strikeouts before the age of 22…were the most starts, wins and strikeouts by a Yankees starting pitcher prior to his 22nd birthday since Bill Burbach went 6-8 with 76K in 24 starts prior to turning 22 years old on 8/22/69.
- With his first start of the season on 4/3 vs. Toronto in the Yankees' third game, became the youngest Yankees pitcher to start one of the team's first three games since Waite Hoyt (21 years, 217 days) took the mound for the club's second game in 1921.
- Underwent an MRI on 5/1 that revealed a stress fracture in his ninth right rib and was placed on the 15-day disabled list that day…was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on 7/18 when the Yankees signed 1B Richie Sexson…was returned from rehab, reinstated from the 60-day D.L. and optioned to Charleston on 7/30…did not allow a run in two relief appearances with Charleston, going 2-0 (6.2IP, 3H, 2BB, 6K)…was promoted to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 8/6 where he went 1-0 with a 5.90 ERA in six starts…in two postseason starts with Scranton/WB, was 1-0 with a 0.69 ERA, allowing 1ER in 13.0IP and striking out 23 batters (8H, 4BB)…recorded the series-clinching win in Game 4 of the Governor's Cup Series on 9/12 at Durham, allowing just 1ER in 5.0IP and striking out 12 (4H, 4BB) to establish a SWB single-game playoff strikeout record…his 23K also set a franchise-postseason record.
- Was recalled from Scranton/WB prior to 9/13 doubleheader vs. Tampa Bay and joined the Yankees the following day…made start on 9/17 vs. Chicago-AL, allowing 1ER in 4.0IP (4H, 2BB, 4K)…allowed three combined earned runs over his final two starts of the season (12.0IP), walking two and striking out 10.
- Established a career-high with 8.0IP in his final start of the season on 9/24 at Toronto…limited the Blue Jays to 2ER with 0BB and 6K…did not record a decision after the Yankees won in 10th on Bobby Abreu's grand slam.
- Pitched for the Peoria Javelinas of the Arizona Fall League following the season, making seven starts and going 2-0 with a 3.00 ERA (30.0IP, 10ER).

- Was 5-3 with a 4.46 ERA in 13 starts for the Yankees in his first Major League action…at 21 years old, was the youngest member of the Yankees rotation in 2007…opponents batted .235 (64-for-272, 8HR); LH .264 (34-for-129, 6HR), RH .210 (30-for-143, 2HR)…held opponents to 3ER or less in eight of his 13 Major League starts…opponents batted just .194 (19-for-98) the first time through the order and hit .259 after that (45-for-174).
- Had contract purchased from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 4/25 and made his Major League debut the next night vs. Toronto, recording the loss in a 6-0 Blue Jays victory…was the youngest Yankees pitcher (20 years, 306 days old) to debut since Jose Rijo on 4/5/84 (18 years, 328 days)…since Rijo's first appearance, the only other Yankees to make their Major League debuts under the age of 21 were Derek Jeter (20 years, 337 days), Dioner Navarro (20 years, 211 days) and Melky Cabrera (20 years, 330 days).
- According to Elias, was the youngest Yankees draftee to debut with the Bombers since the amateur draft began in 1965…was the youngest Yankee to debut as a starter since Gene Nelson on 5/4/81 (20 years, 152 days)…became the Yankees' first top draft pick to pitch for the club since Bill Burbach, who was chosen in 1965 (the inaugural year of the First-Year Player Draft).
- Earned his first Major League win in his second start on 5/1 at Texas…tossed 6.1 hitless innings (3BB, 6K) in the Yankees' 10-1 victory before being removed in the seventh inning with a left hamstring strain…was the furthest into a game that a Yankees starter had been removed with a no-hitter still intact since David Cone on 9/2/96, when he threw 7.0 no-hit innings in his first start after returning from aneurysm surgery (5-0 win at Oakland)-credit: Elias.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list with a strained left hamstring from 5/3-8/4 (retroactive to 5/2), missing 85 team games…was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 6/9…endured a setback on 5/25 when he suffered a sprained left ankle while participating in agility drills in Tampa…made five rehab starts from 7/9-29 with Single-A Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/WB, going 2-0 with a 0.42 ERA.
- Participated in the Triple-A All-Star Game on 7/11 at Isotopes Park in Albuquerque, pitching in relief and allowing 2H and 3ER in 0.2IP (1BB, 1K, 1HR) in a 7-5 International League win…was named International League "Pitcher of the Week" for the period from 7/23-29 (2-0, 0.00 ERA, 12.2IP, 5H, 4BB, 11K, .122 opp. avg.).
- Was returned from rehab and reinstated from the 60-day D.L. on 8/4 and started that day vs. Kansas City, recording a no-decision (4.2IP, 6ER)…surrendered his first Major League home run to David DeJesus in the fifth inning…was the first home run he allowed in either the Majors or minors in 2007, snapping a streak of 52.2 homerless innings (15.0IP Major Leagues, 37.2IP minor leagues).
- Recorded the win on 8/10 at Cleveland, allowing 4H and 1ER in 6.0IP…at 21 years, 48 days old, combined with RHP Joba Chamberlain (21 years, 322 days old) to become the youngest pair of Yankees pitchers to appear in the same game since 19-year-old Mike Jurewicz and 19-year-old Gil Blanco pitched in relief on 9/7/65 vs. Baltimore (Game 2).
- Was 3-0 in September and led Yankees starters with a 2.73 ERA (29.2IP, 9ER) for the month (ninth-best in the AL)…the Yankees won each of his final five starts (9/5-27) as he held opponents to 3ER or less in each outing.
- Appeared in two Division Series games vs. Cleveland, allowing only 1ER in 5.2IP of relief (1.59 ERA, 3H, 0BB, 6K)…tossed 2.0 innings in Game 1 loss at Jacobs Field, allowing a Ryan Garko solo-HR…at 21 years, 102 days old, became the youngest Yankees pitcher to appear in a postseason game since Bill Stafford (21 years, 58 days) in Game 5 of the 1960 World Series vs. Pittsburgh.
- Tossed 3.2 scoreless innings to earn the win in ALDS Game 3…at 21 years, 105 days old, surpassed Whitey Ford (21 years, 351 days old in 1950 WS Game 4) as the youngest pitcher in franchise history to earn a postseason victory.
- Entered 2007 ranked as the top right-handed pitching prospect in all of Baseball by Baseball America…also ranked as the Yankees' No. 1 prospect for the second straight year and was rated as having the "Best Curveball" and "Best Control" among all Yankees farmhands.

- Earned the 2006 "Kevin Lawn Minor League Pitcher of the Year" Award, given annually to the top pitching prospect in the Yankees organization, after posting a combined record of 12-6 with a 2.16 ERA in 26 starts with Class-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton…led all EL pitchers with a 2.25 ERA and ranked fourth in the league with 138K.
- Began the season in Tampa and went 2-3 with a 1.80 ERA, holding opponents to a .178 batting average and recording 30 strikeouts in 30.0IP…was promoted to Trenton on 4/30…in 21 starts with Trenton, went 10-3 with a Thunder franchise-record 2.25 ERA and 138 strikeouts in 116.0 innings…limited opposing batters to a .179 batting average and held left-handed hitters to just .161 (27-for-168)…was selected to participate in the Eastern League All-Star Game and was named to the U.S. team for the All-Star Futures Game at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.
- Did not allow a run in four consecutive starts from 6/23-7/17 (22.2IP, 7H, 6BB, 31K)…was named the Eastern League "Pitcher of the Week" from 8/7-13 after going 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA and 15K in 10.0IP…set a record for most strikeouts by a Thunder pitcher in a postseason game when he recorded 13K in 6.0IP on 9/6 vs. Portland in Game 1 of the Division Series.
- Following the season was named by Baseball America to the 2006 Minor League All-Star team as well as the Double-A All-Star squad.

- In his sophomore campaign, fought through two stints on the disabled list with right shoulder inflammation to go 9-1 with a 2.19 ERA and 93 strikeouts in 17 combined appearances (16 starts) with Single-A Charleston and Single-A Tampa.
- Went 7-1 with a 1.97 ERA in 12 starts for Charleston, striking out 72 batters in 68.2IP with only 16 walks…opponents batted just .192 and right-handed hitters were held to a .172 average…struck out eight batters and allowed only two hits in 5.0 shutout innings on 4/26 at Augusta…was credited with his first career complete game in a 6/1 win vs. Greensboro (game 1), limiting the Grasshoppers to 1ER on 2H in 7.0IP for the win…was scheduled to start the South Atlantic League All-Star Game on 6/28 but was scratched after being placed on the D.L. with mild inflammation in his shoulder…went 2-0 with a 3.06 ERA in five games (four starts) for the Tampa Yankees.

- Made only three starts for the Yankees' Gulf Coast League squad in his first professional season, holding opponents scoreless over 5.1IP without recording a decision (4H, 0BB, 8K)…missed most of the season with a fractured toe on his left foot.

PERSONAL

- Graduated from Foothill High School in Santa Ana, Calif., where he owns the school record for most career wins (23) and ranks third in school history with 182 strikeoutswas named the 2004 Most Valuable Player with a 9-1 record and a 0.69 ERA…was honored as a pre-season All-American prior to his junior year and set school single-season records with 12 wins and a 0.64 ERA that season…tossed a perfect game on 4/8/04 in a 9-0 win over Laguna Hills…named to the Los Angeles Times' 2004 All-Star team…prior to being drafted, was named by Baseball America as the top right-handed pitcher in the Orange County region…was primarily a third baseman until his sophomore year of high school…was signed by Jeff Patterson.

STATUS

- Selected in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft…re-signed to a three-year contract on December 7, 2010…contract extends through the 2013 season with a one-year player option for 2014.

CAREER NOTES

- Leads all active Major Leaguers with a franchise-record 3,304 career hits…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is the first Yankee to hold that distinction since Johnny Mize in 1952…owns the most hits by a shortstop in Major League history.
- His 3,304 career hits rank 10th on Baseball's all-time hits list…in 2012, surpassed Hall of Famers Dave Winfield (on 4/21), Tony Gwynn (5/13), Robin Yount (5/14), Paul Waner (5/26), George Brett (5/27), Cal Ripken, Jr. (6/29), Nap Lajoie (8/20), Eddie Murray (8/21) and Willie Mays (9/14)…among the nine players currently ahead of him on the all-time hits list, three played at least one career game at SS (Eddie Collins, Paul Molitor and Honus Wagner).
- Reached the 3,300-hit mark in 2012 at 38 years, 96 days old (at the time of the hit on 9/30)…among the 10 players to reach that milestone, only Ty Cobb (age 36 in 1923) did so at a younger age.
- Is one of only six players in Baseball history to compile at least 3,000H in his first 17 seasons, also Pete Rose-3,372, Stan Musial-3,116, Hank Aaron-3,110, Ty Cobb-3,053 and Paul Waner-3,042.
- Joins Willie Mays as the only players to record at least 3,000H, 250HR, 300SB and 1,200RBI in their careers.
- Is one of six shortstops since 1958 (when Gold Glove Awards were first awarded in each league) to win the honor at least five times (2004-06, '09-10)…is one of five Yankees to accomplish the feat: also Don Mattingly (nine-time winner), Dave Winfield (five), Ron Guidry (five) and Bobby Richardson (five).
- Has recorded 150H in 17 consecutive seasons (since 1996), the longest such streak among active players, the longest in franchise history, and, according to Elias, joins Hank Aaron (17 in-a-row from 1955-71) as the only players to compile such a streak.
- Has reached the 200-hit plateau eight times in his career, tying Lou Gehrig's club record and marking the most 200H seasons ever by a shortstop…also owns 11 seasons with at least 190 hits, surpassing Stan Musial (10) for the third-most 190H seasons behind Pete Rose (13) and Ty Cobb (12)—credit: Elias.
- Owns the most hits in Major League history from the shortstop position, surpassing Luis Aparicio (2,673) on 8/16/09 at Seattle…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is one of four players all time to record 1,500R and 1,500 games played at shortstop (also Bill Dahlen, Honus Wagner and Cal Ripken, Jr.).
- Owns 12 seasons with a .300 or better average, matching Lou Gehrig for the second-most such seasons in club history behind Babe Ruth (13 seasons), according to Elias.

DID YOU KNOW??? Of the 2,585 career regular season games Derek Jeter has played in, there has been just one in which the Yankees had already been mathematically eliminated from postseason play (9/26/08).

- Has 46 career double-digit hitting streaks, the most among active players and most ever by a Yankee in franchise history…since 1903, only four Major Leaguers have more double-digit streaks: Ty Cobb (66), Hank Aaron (48), and Tris Speaker (47).
- Has 14 career hitting streaks of 15-or-more games, trailing only Joe DiMaggio (20) for most in franchise history and tying teammate Ichiro Suzuki (14) for most among active players…has hitting streaks of more than 15 games in eight different seasons (1996, '99, 2002, '04, '06, '07, '09 and '12), most among active players…has seven career single-season hitting streaks of at least 17 games (17, 19 and 20 games in 2007; 25 in 2006; 17 in 1996 and 2004 and 19 in 2012), the most among active players.
- Has at least 150 hits against 13 opposing American League teams (all except Houston)…among players who have debuted over the last 25 years, is the only player to accomplish the feat—credit: Elias.
- Has collected at least 40H in a calendar month 15 times in his career, the most such months by a Yankee since Joe DiMaggio (17 months with at least 40H).
- Owns 971 career multi-hit games, second-most over the last 50 years (since 1963), trailing only Pete Rose (1,225).
- Leads all active players with 283 career games of three-or-more hits…posted at least a dozen games with three-or-more hits in 14 consecutive seasons from 1996-2009, matching Tony Gwynn (1984-97) for the second-longest streak of its kind for any player during the expansion era (since 1961) behind Pete Rose's 19 consecutive seasons from 1963-81 (credit: Elias).
- Has 44 career games with at least four hits, second-most among active players behind only Ichiro Suzuki (49)…only Lou Gehrig (53) has more games with at least 4H in franchise history.
- Has 1,868 career runs, 12th-most on Baseball's all-time runs scored list…in 2012, surpassed Hall of Famers Charlie Gehringer (on 4/18), Paul Molitor (4/23), Ted Williams (6/9), Carl Yastrzemski (7/13), Eddie Collins (7/24), Frank Robinson (8/8) and Mel Ott (9/12)…also passed Craig Biggio (on 8/20).
- Has reached the 100-run plateau 13 times in his career, tied with Lou Gehrig for most 100R seasons in franchise history…according to Elias, is tied with Gehrig, Rickey Henderson and teammate Alex Rodriguez for the second-most 100-run seasons in Major League history behind Hank Aaron (15).
- Has hit at least 15HR in 16 different seasons (1996-2010, '12)…is one of only two active players to record double-digit HR totals over 15 consecutive seasons at some point in their career, joining teammate Alex Rodriguez (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…also had his streak of collecting at least 10HR and 10SB in 15 straight seasons (1996-2010) snapped in 2011…is the second-longest streak all time behind only Barry Bonds (16 straight,1986-2001)—credit: Elias.
- Owns 29 career leadoff home runs (19 at home, 10 on the road), the most in franchise history…12 have come in the month of August.
- Has earned five career Gold Glove awards at shortstop (2004-06 and '09-10), tied for the fifth-most such awards in Baseball history.
- Has played 2,531 games at shortstop for the Yankees…ranks first on Baseball's all-time list in games at shortstop for one club (credit: Elias)…marks the second-most among players who never played a game at any other fielding position, trailing only Luis Aparicio (2,583)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau…only Omar Vizquel (2,709) and Aparicio have played in more games at the shortstop position than Jeter.

- Hit .316 (216-for-683) with 99R, 32 doubles, 15HR and 58RBI in 159 games (133 starts at SS and 25 at DH) with the Yankees…marked his second-most hits in a single season (219H in 1999)…earned his fifth career Silver Slugger Award…finished seventh in AL MVP voting, receiving votes for third place (two), fourth (one), fifth (five), sixth (one), seventh (three), eighth (two), ninth (one) and 10th (one).
- Led the Majors with 216 hits…also led the Majors in hits in 1999 (219H), becoming the first player in franchise history to finish a season as the outright Major League leader in hits multiple times…is just the fourth player to record a 200-hit season 14-or-more years after his first one, joining Ty Cobb, Pete Rose and Paul Molitor…only one other player as old as Jeter (age 38) finished a season as the Major League leader in hits (Pete Rose – 140H for the Reds in the strike-shortened 1981 season at age 40)—credit: Elias…his 200th hit came in his 145th game of the season, matching his fewest games needed to reach 200H (also 145 games in 1999 and 2009).
- Became the fifth player to record a 200-hit season at age 38 or older, joining Paul Molitor (age 40 in 1996), Sam Rice (twice, age 40 in 1930 and age 38 in 1928), Jake Daubert (age 38 in 1922) and Pete Rose (age 38 in 1979)—credit: Elias…only Molitor (225H) had more hits.
- Also ranked among AL leaders in at-bats (first), average (fifth) and runs (ninth)…tied Miguel Cabrera for the most multi-hit games (64) in the Majors…also led the AL in road average (.347) and avg. vs. LHP (.364).
- According to Elias, his 216H were the most in a season by a player who entered the year with 3,000 or more career hits, surpassing Ty Cobb's previous mark of 211H in 1922 and '24.
- Since returning from the D.L. on 7/4/11 through the end of the 2012 season, hit .321 (310-for-967) with 144R, 47 doubles, 19HR and 99RBI in 228 regular season games…led the Majors in hits over the stretch…batted .372 (110-for-296) off left-handed pitching over the span.
- Led the Majors in hits in both April (37) and August (43)…according to Elias, prior to 2012 had held the outright Major League lead in hits during a calendar month twice in his career – 44H in May 1998 and 50H in August 1998.
- Recorded at least 30H in April for the eighth time in his career, tying Tony Gwynn's record (credit: Elias).
- Hit .378 (54-for-143) with 7BB when leading off the first inning…hit five leadoff HR in 2012 (8/21 at Chicago-AL, 6/20 vs. Atlanta, 6/3 at Detroit, 4/16 vs. Minnesota and 4/10 at Baltimore), tying his most in a single season (also 2005)…homered on the game's first pitch twice (6/2 at Detroit off Justin Verlander and 8/21 at Chicago-AL off Francisco Liriano).
- Hit 15HR, nearly matching his total from his previous two seasons combined (10HR in 2010, 6HR in 2011).
- At age 38, became the oldest player ever to hit at least 10HR in a season from the shortstop position, surpassing Pee Wee Reese who did so in 1955 at age 37 (credit: Elias)…surpassed Honus Wagner (181H at age 38 in 1912) for most hits by a shortstop in his age-38 season or older.
- Made just 10E in 506TC (.980 fielding pct.), tied for third-fewest among all Major League shortstops.

- Was elected to his 13th career All-Star Game, going 1-for-2 in the 8-0 NL win on 7/10 at Kauffman Stadium…his first-inning single was his 11th career All-Star hit, surpassing Mickey Mantle (10) for most in franchise history…with Cano elected as the AL's starting 2B, the duo became just the second 2B/SS pair to earn three straight fan-elected All-Star starts together, joining Cincinnati's Joe Morgan and Dave Concepcion from 1975-77.
- Made his 16th Opening Day start at SS for the Yankees on 4/6 at Tampa Bay, the most O.D. starts by a Yankee at any single position in franchise history, surpassing Bill Dickey's 15 O.D. starts at C…according to Elias, became the only active player to make 16 O.D. starts, all for the same team, at any single position…is the first SS to do so since Barry Larkin started 17 Opening Day games for the Reds from 1987-2004…was also his eighth O.D. start at SS with Alex Rodriguez at 3B, extending their record for most starts by a SS/3B combo in franchise history…became the first SS/3B combo to start together for the same team on eight different Opening Days since the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Bill Russell (last in 1982)…Elias also notes they became the second pair of teammates in the last 56 years (since 1957) to start a season opener at SS and 3B both age 36 or older…the only other teammates to do so over the span were Larry Bowa and Ron Cey for the 1984 Cubs.
- Collected a Major League-leading 37H in April, his most ever in the month…marked the most hits by a Yankee through the end of April since 2003 (Alfonso Soriano, 46H)…became the first player in franchise history to record as many as 30 hits through the team's first 16 games of the season.
- Totaled exactly 40H in his first 100AB, becoming the first Yankee to collect as many hits in his first 100AB of a season since Paul O'Neill in 1994 (46H in 100AB)—credit: Elias).
- Had 44 hits in the Yankees' first 25 games…according to Elias, was only the fifth AL player in the last 70 seasons to record at least 44 hits in his team's first 25 games of a season…the others were Tony Oliva (1964 Twins, 47H), Rod Carew (1983 Angels, 48H), Darin Erstad (2000 Angels, 46H) and Alfonso Soriano (2003 Yankees, 45H).
- Became the first Yankee ever to reach 50H within the team's first 30G of a season (through 5/9)…according to Elias, became the oldest Major Leaguer since 1900 to record 50H through his team's first 30 games of a season.
- Hit safely in 15 straight games from 4/9-25…batted .456 (31-for-68) with 14R, 6 doubles, 4HR and 13RBI over the span…was his longest hitting streak since a 16-game streak from 5/17-6/2/09.
- Hit his 25th career leadoff HR (and first since 6/12/10 vs. Houston) in 4/10 win at Baltimore, surpassing Rickey Henderson (24) for most in franchise history.
- Homered in consecutive games (4/15 vs. Los Angeles-AL and 4/16 vs. Minnesota) for the first time since 5/22-23/09 vs. Philadelphia…homered in three of four games from 4/15-18, marking the first time he hit three total HR over a four-game stretch since 6/18-21/05 (also 3HR) and the first time he homered in three different games over a four-game stretch since 5/9-12/02 (also 3HR).
- Hit three-run HR in 4/15 win vs. Los Angeles-AL, his first of the season at Yankee Stadium…did not hit his first home run at Yankee Stadium in 2011 until 7/9 vs. Tampa Bay (career hit No. 3,000).
- Hit first-inning leadoff HR – his second homer in as many days and first of back-to-back leadoff HRs with Granderson—in 4/16 loss vs. Minnesota…his back-to-back HRs with Granderson to lead off the game were the first by a pair of Yankees since Jeter and Robinson Cano on 9/23/05 vs. Toronto.
- Walked for the 1,000th time in his career in the third inning of 4/28 loss vs. Detroit…collected his 500th career double in the third inning of 5/3 loss at Kansas City.
- Recorded his 10,000th career at-bat in the sixth inning of 5/11 win vs. Seattle (groundout to third).
- Was hitless in four straight games (6/5-8) for the first time since 5/9-12/10 (also four games)…snapped an 0-for-17 stretch with his first-inning single in 6/9 win vs. the Mets…was his longest hitless stretch since going 0-for-18 from 5/18-25-08 (credit: Elias).
- Went 0-for-4 in 6/8 win vs. the Mets…snapped his 25-game home hitting streak vs. the Mets (since 6/28/03) and his streak of reaching base safely in 34 overall games vs. the Mets (since 5/21/05)–credit: Elias.
- Reached his 38th birthday (6/26) with 3,181 career hits, 11 more hits than all-time hits leader Pete Rose (3,170) at the time of his 38th birthday (credit: Elias)…the only players to accumulate more hits prior to turning 38 years old were Hank Aaron (3,272) and Ty Cobb (3,666).
- Played in his 2,500th career game in 6/29 loss vs. Chicago-AL…appeared in his 1,500th career win on 6/30 vs. Chicago-AL…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the only player in Major League history to reach the 1,500-win milestone with fewer than 1,000 losses (1,500-999-2), 136 fewer losses than the next closest player at the time of his 1,500th victory (Eddie Collins-1,135)…became the 18th player who debuted since 1900 to play in at least 1,500 winning games.

- Turned 34 years old on 6/26…his 2,438 career hits were the most by a Yankee before turning 34 years old (17 more than Lou Gehrig when he turned 34)…was the most among all active players prior to their 34th birthday…in AL history, only Ty Cobb and Robin Yount accumulated more hits than Jeter before turning 34.
- In 7/12 win at Toronto, hit his 200th home run as a Yankee…Elias notes that with Jason Giambi (8/9) and Alex Rodriguez (8/12) also hitting their 200th Yankees homers in 2008, became the first teammates on any club to reach the 200HR plateau together in the same season.

DEREK JETER'S FAREWELL SPEECH FOLLOWING FINAL GAME AT THE ORIGINAL YANKEE STADIUM

September 21, 2008

"For all of us up here, it's a huge honor to put this uniform on every day and come out here and play. Every member of this organization, past and present, has been calling this place home for 85 years. There's a lot of tradition, a lot of history, and a lot of memories. Now, the great thing about memories, is you're able to pass [them] along from generation to generation. And although things are going to change next year – we're going to move across the street – there are a few things with the New York Yankees that never change. That's pride, it's tradition, and most of all, we have the greatest fans in the world.

"We're relying on you to take the memories from this Stadium, add them to the new memories that come at the new Yankee Stadium and continue to pass them on from generation to generation. So, on behalf of the entire organization, we just want to take this moment to salute you, the greatest fans in the world."

- Became the 88th player all time—and the sixth then-active Major Leaguer—to reach the 2,500-hit plateau with his first-inning single in 8/22 win vs. Baltimore…also became the third player in Yankees franchise history to tally 2,500 hits with the club, joining Lou Gehrig (2,721) and Babe Ruth (2,518)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players in the last 65 years were younger than Jeter (34 years, 57 days) at the time of their 2,500th hit (Hank Aaron in 1967 and Robin Yount in 1989).
- In 9/7 loss at Seattle, hit solo-HR to mark his 1,000th career RBI…had a third-inning single to tie Babe Ruth (2,518) for second place on the all-time Yankees hit list…collected his 2,519th career hit with a first-inning single off the Angels' Ervin Santana on 9/9 at Los Angeles, surpassing Ruth…marked the first time since 6/22/33 that someone other than Ruth or Gehrig occupied first or second place on the Yankees' all-time hits list (credit: Elias).
- Went 6-for-7 in 9/13 doubleheader vs. Tampa Bay, going 3-for-4 in Game 1 loss and 3-for-3 in Game 2 win…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankee to record 3H in each game of a doubleheader in remodeled Yankee Stadium (since 1976) and only the sixth Yankee over the last 40 years to accomplish the feat at any park (Johnny Damon in 2006, Willie Randolph in 1987, Dave Winfield in 1983, Matty Alou in 1973 and Roy White in 1972)…also recorded 3H in the series finale on 9/14, finishing the series 9-for-11 and reaching base in 11 of his 13 plate appearances (1BB, 1HBP)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fifth player (and second Yankee) to record at least three hits in every game of a series of three games or more at Yankee Stadium joining Boston's Edgar Renteria (2005), the Yankees' Ken Griffey Sr. (1982), Oakland's Reggie Jackson (1973), and Boston's Dom DiMaggio (1949).

- Recorded his sixth 200-hit season…also recorded his 11th career season with 100-or-more runs scored (1996-2002; 2004-07), tying Babe Ruth for second-most such seasons behind only Lou Gehrig (13) in franchise history.
- Fashioned 17-game, 19-game and 20-game hit streaks in the first 72 games of the season…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player since 1950 to record three separate hitting streaks of at least 17 games in the same season and the only player to record three hitting streaks of at least 15 games in his team's first 70 games of a season…collected four separate hitting streaks of at least 15 games in 2007, becoming the first Major Leaguer since 1941 to accomplish the feat (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

DID YOU KNOW??? Derek Jeter hit safely in 92 of 100 games from 7/21/06-5/16/07 (G1), becoming the first player in modern Major League history (since 1900) to hit safely in that many contests over a 100-game stretch… according to the Society for American Baseball Research, the last player prior to Jeter to accomplish the feat was Wee Willie Keeler, who hit in 93 of 100 games over a stretch from 1898 to 1899.

- Was 1-for-4 with 2RBI and 1HP in 4/2 Opening Day win vs. Tampa Bay…was his 11th Opening Day start at SS for the Yankees, tying Phil Rizzuto's franchise record for most starts by a Yankee at SS on Opening Day.
- Hit safely in 20 straight games from 4/8-5/3 and 23 of his 24 games played with an official at-bat to begin the season…during the 20-game streak, hit .364 (32-for-88) with 17R…including the final 37 games of 2006, hit safely in 59 of 61 regular season games (since 8/20/06)…also reached base safely in each of his 25 games played to begin 2007 and 66-of-67 games dating back to the previous season (since 8/17/06)…became only the third player in Yankees history to have at least two separate single-season hitting streaks of 20 or more games (also 25 games, 8/20-9/16/06)…Joe DiMaggio had four of them (streaks of 21 and 22 in 1937, 23 in 1940 and 56 in 1941); Don Mattingly had a pair (20 games in 1985 and 24 in 1986).
- Hit safely in 25 consecutive Interleague games from 6/25/06-6/23/07, batting .396 (40-for-101) with 18R, 11 doubles, 2HR, 11RBI, 13BB and 4SB…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the second-longest hit streak in the history of Interleague play (Matt Lawton hit in 37 straight Interleague games from 6/5/99-7/12/01).

- Reached his 33rd birthday on 6/26 with 2,250 career hits, the most since Robin Yount had 2,391 at that juncture of his career (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…was 83 more hits than Pete Rose (2,167)—Baseball's all-time hits leader—had at the time of his 33rd birthday.
- Hit safely in the final 15 games of the regular season, batting .386 (27-for-70), 13R, 7 doubles, 1 triple, 3HR and 11RBI during the streak…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest hitting streak by a Yankee to close out a season since Bobby Murcer in 1971 (also 15 games).
- Batted .176 (3-for-17) with 1RBI in four Division Series games vs. Cleveland.

DYNAMIC DUO

SS Derek Jeter appeared in 1,693 regular season games for the Yankees with teammate Jorge Posada, surpassing Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri (1,659 games) for the most games played together by any pair of teammates in franchise history.

Along with Posada and Mariano Rivera, became the first trio of teammates in MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL history to appear in a game together in each of 17 straight seasons (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

- Hit .311 (191-for-614) with 110R, 21HR and 74RBI in 150 games (150 starts at SS)…hit .324 (34-for-105) with 17R, 5HR and 11RBI in 26 games as a leadoff hitter and had nine first-inning hits (seven for extra bases) in 24AB…appeared in only five spring training games, going 3-for-15 with 1RBI…missed first nine games of spring training with inflammation in his right shoulder and final 14 games with a strained right quadriceps…was placed on the 15-day D.L. (retroactive to 3/23) with strained right quad to begin the season…snapped a stretch of five straight Opening Day starts at SS.
- Was activated from the 15-day D.L. prior to 4/7 game and made first appearance of the season that day vs. Toronto, going 1-for-5…his steal of home in the third inning of 5/5 win at Baltimore was the first by a Yankee since he did it on 6/18/99 at the Angels…established a career high with 5H, hit a solo-HR and was 5-for-5 with 3R and 1 double in 5/23 win vs. Boston…became first Yankee SS to have a five-hit game since Tony Kubek in 1962.
- Was selected to his fourth straight All-Star Game, hitting his first All-Star HR (solo shot in the sixth) in the AL's 4-1 win on 7/10 in Seattle…was the first Yankee HR in an All-Star Game since Yogi Berra in 1959…led the AL with 40H in July…earned his first AL "Player of the Week" award from 7/30-8/5, batting .524 (11-for-21) in 6G with 2HR and 5RBI.
- Collected 43 hits in August (third-most in AL), marking the eighth time in his career he reached the 40-hit plateau in one month…among active players, only Tony Gwynn had more 40-hit months (19) at that time…in 9/19 win at Chicago-AL, recorded the third multi-HR game of his career and first since 9/9/98 at Boston.
- Batted .226 (14-for-62) in 17 postseason games…in five Division Series games vs. Oakland, hit .444 (8-for-18)…made famous "flip play" on 10/13/01 in Game 3 at Oakland, relaying Shane Spencer's errant throw to Jorge Posada in time to nail Jeremy Giambi at the plate in the seventh inning…was 2-for-3 in Game 5 of the ALDS and established a Major League record for most career postseason hits with 87 (in 66 games), surpassing Pete Rose's 86H (in 67G)…had his 14-game World Series hitting streak snapped in World Series Game 1…his streak tied Roberto Clemente for the third-longest streak of all time (behind only Hank Bauer, Yankees, 17 straight games, 1956-58; and Marquis Grissom, Atlanta-Cleveland, 15, 1995-97)…hit "walk-off" home run in the 10th inning of World Series Game 4 vs. Arizona to earn the nickname "Mr. November."

- Was a member of his fourth World Series championship team, becoming the first player in Major League history to be named MVP of the Fall Classic and All-Star Game in the same season…the only other player to win both awards in his career is Frank Robinson, World Series MVP in 1966 and All-Star MVP in 1971…at 26 years old, only Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (at 24) and Billy Martin (25) earned four World Championships at a younger age…hit .339 with 15HR and 73RBI in 148 games (148 starts at SS).
- Recorded his third straight 200-hit season, becoming only the third Yankee to compile three consecutive 200-hit seasons (joining Lou Gehrig, 1927-29 and Don Mattingly, 1984-86)…joined Bernie Williams in reaching the 100-run plateau for the fifth straight season…was only the third time since 1900 that teammates have each scored 100 or more runs in at least five consecutive seasons…the Yankees' Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Earle Combs accomplished the feat in seven consecutive seasons (1926-32) and Cincinnati's Joe Morgan and Pete Rose broke the 100-run plateau in five straight seasons (1972-76).
- Reached his 26th birthday on 6/26 with 887 career hits…only two Yankees had more hits at age 26 (Mickey Mantle, 1,080 and Joe DiMaggio, 970)…only three active players at the time had more hits before turning 26 (Roberto Alomar, 1054; Ken Griffey, Jr., 1039 and Ivan Rodriguez, 948)…was selected to his third All-Star Game by Manager Joe Torre…went 3-for-3 with 1R and 2RBI in his first start and was named Most Valuable Player of the 71st All-Star Game in Atlanta…became the first player in Yankees history to be named MVP of the All-Star Game and the fourth shortstop to take home the honor.
- Made fifth straight Opening Day start at SS…reached base safely in 26 of the first 28 games of the season (4/3-5/6)–including 23 straight from 4/7-5/3…scored his 500th career run on 4/23 at Toronto, becoming only the fourth Yankee to reach the 500-run plateau before his 26th birthday (joining Gehrig, DiMaggio and Mantle)…left game in third inning on 5/11 vs. Tampa Bay and missed five games (5/12-17) with an abdominal strain…was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/19-27.
- Compiled a streak of 10 consecutive games with at least one walk from 8/14-23, (14BB total)…was the longest such streak by a Yankee since Jesse Barfield also walked in 10 straight games from 8/9-19/90…reached the 1,000-hit plateau with a fifth-inning single and was 3-for-4 on 9/25 vs. Detroit…at 26, became the second-youngest Yankee to reach 1,000 hits (behind only Mickey Mantle, who was 25 when he collected his 1,000th hit in 1957).
- Hit .317 (20-for-63) and led the Yankees with 13R and 4HR in the postseason…had his 17-game postseason hitting streak snapped in Game 1 of the Division Series at Oakland, going 0-for-3…was the World Series MVP, hitting .409 (9-for-22) with two doubles, one triple, 2HR and 2RBI in five games…set a five-game World Series record with 19 total bases and tied five-game records with 9H and 6R…also became the eighth player to lead off a World Series game with a home run in Game 4.
- Became the third shortstop to ever win the World Series MVP Award, joining the Yankees' Bucky Dent in 1978 and Detroit's Alan Trammell in 1984…hit safely in all five World Series games, extending his hitting streak in the Series to 14 games.

- Won his third World Championship in his first four full seasons…only two other Yankee players (Mickey Mantle, 21 years old and Joe DiMaggio, 23 years old) won three championships at a younger age than Jeter (25)…hit .349 with 37 doubles, 24HR and 102RBI in 158 games (all at SS)…set career highs in nearly every offensive category, including batting average, runs (134), hits (219), triples (9), home runs, RBI, and walks (91)…was named to his second All-Star team by Yankees manager Joe Torre (was 0-for-1)…placed sixth in AL MVP voting.
- Was among the AL leaders in multi-hit games (first-67), hits (first), batting average (second), runs (second), triples (tied for second), on-base percentage (third-.438) and total bases (tied for fourth-346)…his 102RBI were the second-most ever by a Yankees shortstop in a single season behind only Lyn Lary's 107 in 1931…led the Yankees in hits for the fourth straight season and became the first player since Ernie Banks (1954-57) to lead his team in hits in each of his first four full seasons…his 219 hits were the fourth-highest single-season total by a Yankee and most since 1986 (Don Mattingly, 238)…joined centerfielder Bernie Williams as the first pair of Yankee teammates to record 200 or more hits in the same season since DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig accomplished the feat in 1939…became the first player to score at least 100 runs in four straight seasons starting with his rookie year since Jim Gilliam did it for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1953-56.
- Reached base safely in each of the first 53 games of the season, the longest streak in the Majors in 1999 and the longest by a Yankee in the post-expansion era (since 1961)…the streak ended in a 7-2 loss on 6/6 vs. New York-NL…had six hitting streaks of at least 10 games, including a season-high 16-game streak from 5/4-22.
- Tied his career high with 5RBI in a 10-1 win on 5/7 vs. Seattle…posted seven consecutive multi-hit games from 6/7-14, the most by a Yankee since Dave Winfield in 1988…batted third for the first time in his career on 6/18 vs. Anaheim and went 2-for-3 with 2R, 1RBI and 1HBP…also stole home on the front end of a double steal with Chili Davis…batted fourth for the first time ever on 7/10 at New York-NL…was 0-for-4 with 1IBB.
- Snapped an 0-for-17 skid with the game-winning two-run home run off David Wells in the eighth inning of a 3-1 victory on 8/2 vs. Toronto…was his 20th HR of the season, becoming the first Yankees SS ever to hit 20HR in a season.

- Began the season on the disabled list with right shoulder soreness, missing nearly one month…was reinstated from the D.L. on 5/5 and assigned to Trenton where he batted .314 (27-for-86) in 23 games with the Thunder.
- Following a promotion to Scranton/WB on 6/1, batted .266 (87-for-327) with 50R, 25 doubles, 13HR and 56RBI in 84 games…ranked second on the team in doubles and third in home runs and RBI.
- Combined at both levels to record a .970 fielding percentage (15E, 497TC) for the season, appearing in 95 games defensively - all at 2B.
- Batted .214 (3-for-14) in 10 spring training games with the Yankees.

- Spent the entire season as the primary second baseman for Double-A Trenton, batting .277 (138-for-499) with 75R, 38 doubles, 8 triples, 5HR and 58RBI in 131 games.
- Set career highs in games played, runs, doubles and triples, while leading all Thunder players in games, hits, doubles, RBI and walks…was also named to the Eastern League's midseason All-Star team.
- Recorded a 17-game hitting streak from 4/18-5/6, batting .339 (21-for-62) with 11R, 2 doubles, 2 triples, 1HR and 9RBI over the stretch…was the longest single-season hitting streak by a Thunder player in 2011 and third-longest in the EL in 2011.
- Played in 25 games for the Phoenix Desert Dogs of the Arizona Fall League following the season, batting .227 (22-for-97) with 14R, 8 doubles, 2HR and 11RBI.
- Was added to the Yankees' 40-man roster on 11/18/11.

- Combined to bat .283 (139-for-492) with 63R, 33 doubles, 7 triples, 6HR and 65RBI in 129 games with Single-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton.
- Began the season with Tampa where he was named to the FSL midseason All-Star team after batting .302 (115-for-381) with 52R, 27 doubles, 6HR and 52RBI in 98 games…prior to his promotion to Trenton, led all Tampa batters in average, hits, doubles and on-base percentage (.378).
- Was promoted to Trenton on 8/2, hitting .216 (24-for-111) with 6 doubles, 4 triples and 13RBI in 31 games for the Thunder.
- Was named by Baseball America as the "Best Defensive Second Baseman" among all Single-A players.

- Batted .300 (114-for-380) with 39R, 17 doubles, 4HR and 57RBI in 100 games with Single-A Charleston…ranked fifth in the South Atlantic League in batting average…selected to the SAL's postseason All-Star team as the league's top 3B.
- Began the season with a 12-game hitting streak from 5/11-23, batting .308 (16-for-52) with 4 doubles and 1 triple over the stretch…named the SAL July "Player of the Month."

- Made his professional debut with the GCL Yankees, batting .277 (44-for-159) with 25R, 15 doubles, 2HR and 18RBI in 49 games…led the team and tied for third in the GCL in doubles…also led all GCL Yankees in runs scored.
- Reached base safely in each of his final 18 games beginning on 7/11.

PERSONAL

- Was named Midstate "Player of the Year" after batting .510 with 15HR and 58RBI in his senior season at Franklin High School (Tenn.)…committed to attend and play baseball for the University of Kentucky after graduating high school, but instead signed with the Yankees…his brother, Caleb, was also selected in the 2008 First-Year Player Draft as the Baltimore Orioles' seventh-round pick.

Steinbrenner High School

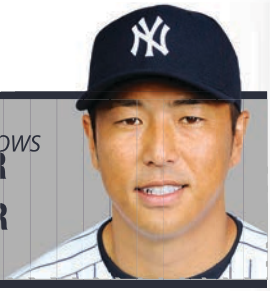

Named for the late Yankees Principal Owner, George M. Steinbrenner High School opened in August 2009 on Lutz Lake Fern Road just north of Tampa.

"Over the years, Mr. Steinbrenner has been deeply involved in the community, particularly with the schools and the school system," said Steven Ayers, director of community relations for Hillsborough County public schools. "He has been very involved and very philanthropic. He has probably donated tens of millions over the length of time. He's had a significant amount of money and significant amount of involvement in the community."

In addition to regular classroom curriculum, the school also offers classes for students preparing for a career in sports with sports marketing, sports medicine and the business of sports (BOSS). The school's mascot is the Warriors, featuring navy and gold coloring.

STATUS

- Signed as a free agent to a one-year contract on November 20, 2012…contract extends through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Has made at least 30 starts and tossed at least 180.0 innings in four of his five Major League campaigns (all but his injury-shortened season in 2009).
- Has averaged 2.10BB/9.0IP in his career…is the 10th-lowest mark among pitchers with at least 500.0IP over the last five years (2008-12).
- Among all Japan-born pitchers with at least 20 starts or 350.0IP in the Majors, owns the lowest all-time career ERA (3.42)…his 690K and 57 wins each rank second only to Hideo Nomo's 1,918K and 123 wins.
- Has raised his win total and games started in each of the past four seasons.
- Was the fourth Japan-born player and third such pitcher to appear in a Major League game for the Yankees…joined Hideki Matsui (2003-09), Kei Igawa (2007-08), and Hideki Irabu (1997-99) as the only players to do so up to that point.
- Spent 11 seasons (1997-2007) pitching for the Hiroshima Toyo Carp of the Japanese Central League, going 103-89 with a 3.69 ERA (1,700.1IP, 697ER) in 271 appearances (244 starts).

- Went 16-11 with a 3.32 ERA (219.2IP, 81ER) in 33 starts with the Yankees…established career highs in wins, starts, innings pitched and strikeouts (167)…tied for tops on the staff in wins (also Hughes) and led in starts and innings pitched…among AL pitchers, ranked fourth in innings pitched, tied for sixth in wins and ranked eighth in ERA.
- Also recorded three complete games and two shutouts, the first Yankee with multiple shutouts in a single season since Mike Mussina in 2005.
- Opponents batted .249 (205-for-822, 25HR); LH .253 (120-for-474, 15HR), RH .244 (85-for-348, 10HR).
- Faced the Rangers' Yu Darvish (on 4/24 at Texas) and the Red Sox's Daisuke Matsuzaka (on 10/3 vs. Boston), marking the seventh and eighth times, respectively, in MLB history that two Japan-born starters faced off against each other.
- Went 13-5 with 2.92 ERA over his last 24 starts from 5/27 through the end of the season, after opening the year 3-6 with a 4.56 ERA (53.1IP, 27ER) in his first nine outings…among AL hurlers, marked the fourth-lowest ERA over the stretch, and only David Price and Jered Weaver (14 each) had more wins during the span.
- Exactly half of his starts (16 of 32) were against teams with winning records at the time that he faced them, with Kuroda going 8-5 with a 3.95 ERA (107.0IP, 47ER) in those starts…beginning on 6/8, lost just two of his last 12 starts against ballclubs with a .500 or better record, going 7-2 with a 3.87 ERA (76.2IP, 33ER) in those contests.
- Held opponents to 2BB or less in 27 of his starts, including 18 of his final 19 outings…his 2.08 BB/9.0IP ratio was the sixth-lowest among AL pitchers.
- Tossed at least 7.0 innings in 18 of his starts, six of which he held his opponent scoreless…only Seattle's Felix Hernandez (seven) had more among Major League hurlers.

- Did not allow a first-inning run in 17 of his final 19 starts after combining to surrender 12R in the opening frame over his first nine outings.
- Won five of his eight daytime starts…had not recorded a winning daytime record in any of his previous four Major League seasons.
- Went 11-6 with a 2.72 ERA (132.1IP, 40ER) in 19 starts at Yankee Stadium, the AL's seventh-best home ERA…was 5-5 with a 4.23 ERA (87.1IP, 41ER) on the road.
- Averaged 15.2 pitches per inning, the fifth-lowest mark among AL hurlers…opponents stole 17 bases while Kuroda was on the mound, most for any Yankees pitcher.
- Handled 42 chances without committing an error, the most flawless chances by an AL pitcher in 2012.

*start came after a loss – Bold-season high

- Tossed 8.0 scoreless innings in his second start of the season on 4/13 vs. Los Angeles-NL in the Yankees' home opener, becoming the first Yankees starter to throw at least 8.0 scoreless innings in a home season opener since Rick Rhoden on 4/5/88 vs. Minnesota (9.0IP)…also became the first Yankees starter with at least 8.0 scoreless innings in his first start at Yankee Stadium (old or current) since Bob Shirley on 4/27/83 vs. Kansas City (9.0IP) - credit: Elias.
- Over his final seven starts of the year vs. AL East foes beginning on 7/18, went 6-1 with a 3.18 ERA (6.2IP, 20ER)…prior to that, had been 1-2 with a 6.94 ERA (23.1IP, 18ER) in four starts vs. the division to begin the season.
- Recorded his fourth career CG (all shutouts) and second of the year on 8/14 vs. Texas…was the first 9.0-inning shutout by a Yankee, while allowing 2H or less, since 7/28/06 vs. Tampa Bay (Chien-Ming Wang, 2H)…became the first Yankee to toss a complete game SHO against the Rangers since David Wells on 8/21/98 at Rangers Ballpark.
- Allowed a seventh-inning solo-HR to Adrian Gonzalez on 8/19 vs. Boston, snapping a career-high 16.1IP scoreless streak.
- Threw 99 pitches on 8/31 vs. Baltimore, snapping a streak of 12 consecutive games in which he threw at least 100 pitches beginning on 6/25…had been the longest such streak of his career and the second-longest by a Yankees pitcher this season (CC Sabathia - 15 games, 4/6-6/24).
- Went 0-1 with a 2.81 ERA (16.0IP, 5ER) in two postseason starts (ALDS Game 3 vs. Baltimore and ALCS Game 2 vs. Detroit) with the Yankees.
- Did not allow a baserunner over the first 5.0 innings of ALCS Game 2 loss vs. Detroit, becoming the first Yankees starter to carry a perfect game through the first five innings of a postseason game since Mike Mussina on 10/12/04 in ALCS Game 1 win vs. Boston (retired first 19 batters)…was his first career start–regular or postseason–on short rest…struck out 11 batters, matching his single-game career high (third time, first in postseason play)…became the fifth pitcher in franchise history to strike out at least 11 batters in a postseason game–first since Orlando Hernandez in Game 3 of the 2000 World Series at the Mets…also didn't walk a batter, becoming the fifth pitcher in postseason history to fan at least 11 batters without issuing a walk (also Cliff Lee in 2010 ALDS; Sterling Hitchcock in 1998 NLDS; Tom Seaver in 1973 NLCS; and Don Newcombe in 1949 World Series).

- Went 13-16 with a 3.07 ERA (202.0IP, 69ER) in 32 starts with Los Angeles-NL, establishing a career best in ERA…recorded the third-lowest single-season ERA among Japan-born pitchers who qualified for an ERA title in the Majors, behind only Hideo Nomo (2.54 in 1995) and Daisuke Matsuzaka (2.90 in 2008).
- Opponents batted .254 (196-for-773, 24HR); LH .264 (99-for-375, 12HR), RH .244 (97-for-398, 12HR)…held opponents to a .194 (30-for-155) average with runners in scoring position, the fifth-best mark in the NL.
- Ranked fifth in the NL with a 2.85 road ERA (94.2IP, 30ER), posting a 7-7 record in 15 starts away from Dodger Stadium.
- Went 1-10 with a 3.38 ERA (72.0IP, 27ER) in 12 starts from 5/22-7/27…posted a career-long six-game losing streak over a seven-start span from 5/22-6/25…received an average of just 2.25 runs of support (18R) during the stretch.
- Won a career-high four straight starts from 8/14-30, recording a 3.12 ERA (26.0IP, 9ER) with an average of 11.08 runs of support per start over the span…earned a win in seven of his last 10 decisions overall from 8/2-9/27, going 7-3 with a 3.00 ERA (69.0IP, 23ER) in 11 games.
- Allowed a career-high 4HR in 9/5 loss at Washington, with all 5ER allowed coming via HRs (6.0IP, 8H, 0BB, 9K).

- Went 11-13 with a 3.39 ERA (196.1IP, 74ER) in 31 starts with the Dodgers…opponents batted .243 (180-for-741, 15HR); LH .245 (83-for-339, 6HR), RH .241 (97-for-402, 9HR)…ranked eighth among NL qualifiers in ERA…tossed at least 7.0 innings in 15 of his starts and a season-high 8.0 innings five times.
- Recorded a 3.31K/BB ratio (159K, 48BB), the eighth-lowest mark in the NL…averaged 2.20BB/9.0IP (48BB, 196.1IP), tied for the fifth-lowest mark in the NL.
- Posted a 2.13 ERA (76.0IP, 18ER) in his 11 wins, holding opponents to a .211 (58-for-275) batting average in those starts.
- Recorded a 2.87 ERA (94.0IP, 30ER) in 14 starts following the All-Star break…opponents hit .204 (69-for-338) in those starts, tied with Houston's Wandy Rodriguez for the fifth-lowest mark among NL starters during the stretch.

- Took a no-hit bid into the eighth inning and earned the win on 8/30 vs. Philadelphia, allowing 1H in 7.2IP (2BB, 1HP, 7K)…recorded his first hit of the season with a seventh-inning single off the Phillies' Roy Halladay, snapping an 0-for-45 stretch to begin the year.

- Was 8-7 with a 3.76 ERA (117.1IP, 49ER) in 21 appearances (20 starts) for the Dodgers…opponents batted .243 (110-for-452, 12HR); LH .233 (50-for-215, 7HR), RH .253 (60-for-237, 5HR).
- Was the Dodgers' Opening Day starter, earning the win after allowing 4H and 1ER in 5.2IP (1BB, 2K) on 4/6 at San Diego…became just the third Japan-born pitcher to make an Opening Day start in the Majors.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/11 (retroactive to 4/7) with a left oblique strain and was reinstated on 6/1…did not record a decision in two rehab starts with Single-A Inland Empire, posting a 5.19 ERA (8.2IP, 5ER).
- Tossed 30.1 consecutive innings without walking a batter from 6/6-7/3, the second-longest such streak in the Majors that season, trailing only the Cardinals' Joel Pineiro (34.0IP).
- Made his only career relief appearance in the Majors in 7/12 win at Milwaukee, allowing 2H and 3ER in 1.1IP (1BB).
- Sustained a concussion on 8/15 at Arizona when he took a comebacker off the right side of his head…the ball came off the bat of Rusty Ryal in the sixth-inning of the Dodgers' 4-3 loss, hit Kuroda's head and bounced all the way back toward the Diamondbacks' on-deck circle and into the seats…he never lost consciousness and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix for a CAT Scan, the results of which were negative…remained in the hospital overnight for observation and was discharged the following morning after he was cleared to fly with the team back to Los Angeles following that afternoon's game in Arizona…was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 8/19 (retroactive to 8/16)-9/6 with a concussion…made one rehab start with Inland Empire, allowing 5H in 5.0IP (1R, 0ER).
- Went 3-2 with a 2.79 ERA (29.0IP, 9ER) in five starts following his second D.L. stint…won three straight starts for the first time in his Major League career from 9/11-22, with wins over San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Washington over the span…allowed just 3ER in 20.0IP (1.35 ERA) during the streak.
- Missed his final regular season start due to a sore neck caused by a small herniation in his cervical spine…was not placed on the Division Series roster against St. Louis…started NLCS Game 3 at Philadelphia on 10/18, allowing 6H and 6ER in 1.1IP to record the loss in his only playoff appearance.

- Saw his first Major League action, going 9-10 with a 3.73 ERA (183.1IP, 76ER) in 31 starts with the Dodgers…opponents batted .253 (181-for-715, 13HR); LH .260 (94-for-361, 9HR), RH .246 (87-for-354, 4HR)…tied for eighth in the NL with a 2.06BB/9.0IP (42BB, 183.1IP) ratio, allowing 2BB or less in 26 of his 31 starts.
- Made his Major League debut—and earned his first Major League win—on 4/4 at San Diego, allowing 1ER in 7.0IP (3H, 0BB, 4K, 1HR)…became the seventh Japan-born player to appear in a game for the Dodgers, joining Hideo Nomo (1995-98, 2002-04), Kazuhisa Ishii (2002-04), Masao Kida (2003-04), Norihiro Nakamura (2005), Dave Roberts (2002-04) and Takashi Saito (2006-07).
- Tossed his first career complete game and shutout on 6/6/08 vs. Chicago-NL, retiring 16 of his final 17 batters faced (9.0IP, 4H, 11K)…tossed a one-hit shutout (9.0IP, 6K) on 7/7/08 vs. Atlanta, going perfect through 7.0 innings before allowing an eighth-inning leadoff double to Mark Teixeira…was just the third rookie since 1969 to carry a perfect game into the eighth inning, joining Bob Owchinko in 1977 and Orel Hershiser in 1984…was the first pitcher since Cleveland's Billy Traber (7/8/03 vs. New York-AL) to throw a complete-game one-hitter without issuing a walk…became the first Dodgers pitcher to throw two complete-game shutouts in the same season since Jeff Weaver and Derek Lowe each accomplished the feat in 2005.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 6/13-7/2 with right shoulder tendinitis, missing 17 team games.
- Made his postseason debut, going 2-0 with a 1.46 ERA (12.1IP, 2ER) in two starts…won the series-clinching game in NLDS Game 3 vs. Chicago-NL, holding the Cubs to 6H in 6.1 scoreless IP (2BB, 4K)…also earned the win in NLCS Game 3 vs. Philadelphia, holding the eventual World Series champions to 5H and 2ER in 6.0IP (1BB, 3K).

STATUS

- Acquired by the Yankees along with RHP Javier Vazquez from Atlanta in exchange for OF Melky Cabrera, LHP Mike Dunn and RHP Arodys Vizcaino on December 22, 2009…signed through the 2013 season.

- Was 7-2 with a 3.74 ERA (55.1IP, 23), 28BB and 68K in a team-high 80 relief appearances…opponents batted .234 (48-for-205, 6HR); LH .231 (28-for-121, 3HR), RH .238 (20-for-84, 3HR)…retired 58-of-80 first-batters faced (72.5%)…stranded 49-of-64 inherited runners (76.6%)…faced just one batter in 18 of his outings.
- Made a career-high 80 relief appearances, more than any other Yankees left-handed pitcher in a single season…marked the most appearances by any pitcher in a season under Joe Girardi…is one of just four Yankees pitchers to appear in at least 80 games in a season, joining Paul Quantrill (86 in 2004), Scott Proctor (83 in 2006) and Tom Gordon (80 in 2004).
- Pitched on consecutive days 23 times and three straight days three times (6/9-11, 9/5-7 and 9/11-13)…appeared in 19 of the Yankees' final 31 games in September and October, including 11-of-13 from 9/5-19.
- His seven wins were the most by a Yankees reliever since Alfredo Aceves went 10-1 in 2009…were the most wins by a Yankees left-hander out of the bullpen since Mike Stanton in 2002 (7-1).
- Held opponents scoreless in 64 of his 80 outings…52 of his appearances were less than an inning…tossed a season-high 2.0 innings three times, holding his opponent scoreless in each appearance.
- Made his fifth career Opening Day roster and third with the Yankees.
- Held left-handed opposing batters hitless in their first 10 at-bats against him.
- Struck out four batters in 2.0 scoreless IP in 4/18 loss vs. Minnesota, recording at least 4K for the third time in his career (also 8/25/11 vs. Oakland-4K and 5/2/06 at Cleveland w/ Chicago-AL-5K)…later matched the total with 4K in 5/12 win vs. Seattle.
- Earned his first save of the season—and second of his career (also 4/25/06 at Seattle w/ Chicago-AL)—in 5/12 win vs. Seattle, allowing 1ER in 1.1IP (2H, 4K).
- Held opponents scoreless over a 13-outing stretch from 5/22-6/19 (7.2IP)…had the scoreless streak snapped in 6/20 loss at Atlanta with a Jason Heyward HR—his first HR allowed since 4/8 at Tampa Bay.
- Recorded his first loss of the season on 8/16 vs. Texas (0.1IP, 2H, 2ER, 1K)…also took the loss two outings later on 8/20 at Chicago-AL after allowing a two-run HR to Alexi Ramirez (1.2IP, 2H, 2ER, 1BB, 2K).
- Made five postseason relief appearances, tossing 3.2 scoreless innings (3H, 2K)…his 2.1IP in ALCS Game 3 at Detroit (1H, 1K), were his most ever in a postseason game.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 2003…signed through the 2013 season.

2012

- Hit .500 (1-for-2) with 1RBI in three games in his first Major League action as a September call-up with the Yankees.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre prior to 9/11 loss at Boston…made his Major League debut in 9/22 win vs. Oakland, appearing as a pinch runner in the 14th inning.
- Recorded his first Major League hit and RBI—in his first career at-bat—with a pinch-hit single in the eighth inning of 10/1 win vs. Boston.
- Combined to bat .264 (121-for-458) with 79R, 26 doubles, 23HR and 67RBI in 121 games with Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre…ranked second among all Yankees farmhands in home runs behind only Luke Murton (25)…set career highs in batting average, doubles and HR.
- Began the year with Trenton, batting .277 (92-for-332) with 60R, 18 doubles, 14HR and 46RBI in 88 games en route to being named to the EL Midseason All-Star team…was promoted to Scranton/WB on 8/2, hitting .230 (29-for-126) with 19R, 8 doubles, 9HR and 21RBI in 33 games.

- Spent the season with Double-A Trenton, where he batted .251 (97-for-386) with 58R, 24 doubles, 4 triples, 9HR, 46RBI and 18SB…appeared in games in both right field and center field…hit .211 (43-for-204) prior to the All-Star break, and .297 (45-for-182) following the break.
- Landed on the disabled list from 5/27-6/25 with a stiff back…played in four rehab games with Single-A Tampa (.167, 2-for-12).

- Named the Florida State League's "Player of the Year" after hitting .260 (116-for-446) with 81R, 21 doubles, 9 triples, 19HR and 74RBI in 121 games with Single-A Tampa…set career highs in runs, hits and triples and tied his career high in RBI…was named to the FSL postseason All-Star team.
- Ranked third among all Yankees minor leaguers in home runs (19) and stolen bases (31) and fifth in RBI (74)…ranked second in the FSL in slugging percentage (.475), third in HR, triples (9) and extra-base hits (49) and fifth in runs (81)…ranked second in the league with 1HR every 23.47AB.
- Named the FSL "Player of the Week" for the period from 8/2-9, batting .406 (13-for-32) with 5R, 3 doubles, 2HR and 9RBI in seven games…hit an 11th-inning "walk-off" RBI single on 8/5.
- Following the season, was rated by Baseball America as the "Best Athlete" and as having the "Best Outfield Arm" in the Yankees organization.
- Was added to the Yankees' 40-man roster on 11/1/10.

- Hit .225 (112-for-497) with 24 doubles, 7 triples, 74RBI and a career-high 20HR in 133 games with Single-A Charleston…finished the season tied for fourth in the South Atlantic League in home runs and ranked fifth in runs (76)…hit all 20HR in his first 93 games of the season (from 4/9-7/23), going homerless in his final 40 contests of the year (7/24-9/7).
- Was the only RiverDogs player to be selected to both the South Atlantic League's midseason and postseason All-Star teams…hit 2HR in a game three times (4/15 vs. Augusta, 4/22 at Augusta and 6/25 at Savannah).
- Was named the SAL's "Player of the Week" from 6/23-29, batting .550 (11-for-20) with 3R, 1 triple, 2HR, 5RBI and 2BB in five games over the stretch.
- Was tabbed by Baseball America as the "Fastest Baserunner," "Best Athlete" and as having the "Best Outfield Arm" in the Yankees organization.

- Batted .221 (27-for-122) with 19R, 5 doubles, 2 triples, 7HR and 23RBI in 46 games with short-season Single-A Staten Island…led the team in homers…over half (14) of his 27 hits went for extra bases.

2007

- Hit .235 (36-for-153) with 27R, 10 doubles, 3HR and 13RBI in 49 games with the GCL Yankees.

Sheppard Honored by Congress

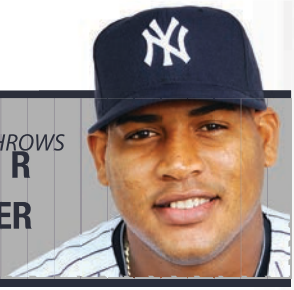

On November 16, 2010, Congresswoman Carolyn McCarthy (NY-04) proposed House Resolution 1529, commending Bob Sheppard – the Voice of Yankee Stadium – for his respected career as the public-address announcer for the New York Yankees and the New York Football Giants. The resolution was voice-voted and there was no opposition.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on July 15, 2004…signed through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Made his 50th career start in 7/3/12 loss at Tampa Bay…his 26-7 (.788) record through his first 50 ML starts established the highest winning percentage for any Yankees pitcher in franchise history over their first 50 career starts…also marked the second-highest such winning percentage behind the .795 (31-8) mark posted by Roy Oswalt among Major League pitchers who debuted in 1900 or later (credit: Elias).
- Won 16 of his first 20 career decisions…was one of three active pitchers at the time, also Tim Hudson and Roy Oswalt (both 16-4) to go 16-4 or better over their first 20 career decisions…the last Yankee was Whitey Ford, who won 18 of his first 20 decisions.
- Is 16-6 in road games over the last two seasons (2011-12), tying for the fifth-most such wins in the American League over that span…according to Elias, Nova's .850 winning percentage (17-3) over his first 30 career starts on the road was the fourth-highest mark all-time for any MLB pitcher, behind Whitey Ford (.909, 20-2), Chris Young (.867, 13-2) and Storm Davis (.864, 19-3).

- Was 12-8 with a 5.02 ERA (170.1IP, 95ER) in 28 starts for the Yankees…became just the third Yankees pitcher over the last 80 years to win at least 12 games in a season with an ERA above 5.00: also Randy Johnson (17-11, 5.00 ERA in 2006) and Richard Dotson (12-9, 5.00 ERA in 1988).
- Held opposing batters to a .169 (11-for-65) batting average with runners in scoring position and two outs…marked the second-lowest such average among AL pitchers who made at least 25 starts in 2012, behind the Angels' Jered Weaver (.152).
- Allowed 87 extra-base hits (52 doubles, 7 triples, 28HR), tied with Arizona's Ian Kennedy for most among all Major League hurlers and the most ever surrendered in a season by a Yankees pitcher.
- Registered a team-high 10 hit-batters, tying for the eighth-most in the AL…hit four batters over his final six starts of the year (8/11-9/27).
- Induced 19 double play grounders, second-most on the staff behind Hiroki Kuroda (23).
- Went 4-2 with a 4.67 ERA (52.0IP, 27ER) in nine daytime starts, and posted an 8-6 mark with a 5.17 ERA (118.1IP, 68ER) in 19 starts at night.
- Allowed 2HR in 4/15 win vs. Los Angeles-AL, including a fifth-inning two-run homer to Chris Iannetta…snapped a streak of 196.2 consecutive innings pitched without allowing a homer with a runner on base that dated back to September 2010.
- Suffered his first loss on 5/2 at Baltimore, snapping his 15-game winning streak dating back to 6/10/11…was the second-longest winning streak by a Yankee in franchise history, trailing only Roger Clemens (16 straight wins from 5/26-9/19/01).
- Struck out a career-high 12 batters in 5/19 loss vs. Cincinnati, including each of his first seven outs…became the first Yankees pitcher in exactly 79 years to allow at least five runs while fanning at least a dozen batters (also Don Brennan, who surrendered five runs while striking out 12 St. Louis Browns at the original Yankee Stadium on 5/19/33).

- Also became the fourth Yankee in the Live Ball Era (since 1920) with at least 12K in 6.0IP or less (also A.J. Burnett and Joba Chamberlain in 2009 and Scott Sanderson in 1991).
- Had his 12-game road winning streak snapped on 7/3 at Tampa Bay…was undefeated in his previous 16 road starts (6/20/11-6/23/12), going 12-0 with a 3.17 ERA (105.0IP, 37ER) over the span.
- Went 2-5 with a 7.05 ERA (60.0IP, 47ER) following the All-Star break.
- Lost three straight decisions over five starts from 7/15-8/6… marked the first time in his career he lost consecutive decisions as a starter (in 55GS)…according to Elias, only David Cone (81 starts) and Whitey Ford (53 starts) also went at least 50 starts into their Yankees careers before losing two straight decisions as a starter.

- Tied a career-high with 3HR allowed in 7/15 loss vs. Los Angeles-AL.
- Allowed a career-high 9ER on 7/31 vs. Baltimore (5.0IP, 10H, 1HR, 1BB, 5K, 1WP), becoming the first Yankees pitcher to allow at least 9R and 10H in a start since Sergio Mitre on 9/6/09 at Toronto (11H, 11R) and the first Yankee to allow at least 9R in a start at the current Yankee Stadium…allowed 7R in a 32-pitch second inning.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/23 with inflammation in his right rotator cuff…missed 14 games before being reinstated prior to his start on 9/15 at Tampa Bay in which he earned the win.
- Combined to allow 7ER in 7.0IP over his final two starts (9/22 vs. Oakland and 9/27 at Toronto).

- Was 16-4 with a 3.70 ERA (165.1IP, 68ER) in 28 games (27 starts) in his rookie season with the Yankees…among qualifying rookie starters (starts only), ranked first in wins (16), second in ERA (3.66), third in innings pitched (164.2) and fourth in opponents' batting average (.256) and strikeouts (98)…opponents batted .258 (163-for-633); LH .240 (75-for-313), RH .275 (88-for-320).
- His 16 wins marked the most among ML rookies and tied for ninth-most among all Major League pitchers…marked the most wins by a Yankees rookie since Stan Bahnsen in 1968 (17-12)…since 2000, only three Major League rookies compiled more wins in a season: CC Sabathia in 2001 (17 w/ Cleveland), Justin Verlander in 2006 (17 w/ Detroit) and Jason Jennings in 2002 (16 w/ Colorado).
- Won 16 of his first 20 decisions of the season…according to Elias, only four other rookies won at least 16 of their first 20 decisions in a season: Bob Grim (1954), Jack Sanford (1957), Wally Bunker (1964) and Tom Gordon (1989).

tied with four others*

- According to Elias, the Yankees' 19-8 (.703) mark in games started by Nova was the second-best for any AL team in starts by one pitcher (min: 20GS), behind only Detroit's Justin Verlander (25-9 , .735).
- Went 15-3 (.833) through his first 25 starts of the season, marking the second-highest such winning percentage for a rookie since 1910…according to Elias, only Boston's Mike Nagy (.846, 11-2 in 1969) had a higher mark over his first 25 starts of a season during the span.

- Made five spring training starts, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (20.0IP, 4ER), earning a spot in the rotation…led all Yankees starters in ERA.
- With his win on 4/4 vs. Minnesota, became the first Yankees rookie to win a start within a season's first four games since 22-year-old Al Leiter beat the Brewers, 4-1, in the fourth game of the 1988 season-credit: Elias.
- Started three of the Yankees' first 12 games, the first Yankees rookie to do so since Bill Piercy in 1921…became the seventh Yankees rookie to start four games in April, joining Bill Burbach (1969), Doc Medich (1973), Bob Tewksbury (1986), Al Leiter (1988), Kei Igawa (2007) and Ian Kennedy (2008).
- Made his lone relief outing on 4/19 at Toronto and recorded the loss after allowing 1ER in 0.2IP (2H) in Blue Jays' "walk-off" win.
- Held the Rangers to one unearned run and just 2H in 7.1IP to earn the win on 5/6 at Texas…became just the second Yankees rookie over the last 25 years (since 1986) to earn a win while limiting his opponent to just 2H and 0ER and pitching more than 7.0 innings in a road start (also Mariano Rivera, 7/4/95 at Chicago-AL).
- Went undefeated in his last 16 starts (12-0 with a 3.25 ERA)…according to Elias, tied the Yankees' all-time record for longest winning streak as a starting pitcher in a single season by a rookie, set by Russ Ford in 1910 and matched by Atley Donald in 1939…was the longest for any Major League rookie since Cincinnati's Tom Browning went undefeated in 14 consecutive starts in 1985…had his streak of winning eight consecutive starts come to an end in his start on 9/8 at Baltimore with a no-decision…the eight-start streak ran from 7/1-9/2, becoming the first Yankees rookie with such a streak since Marius Russo won eight straight in 1939, according to Elias.
- The Yankees won 12-consecutive starts with Nova on the mound from 6/10-9/2/11, their longest streak of wins in games started by a particular pitcher since they won 20 straight games started by Roger Clemens in 2001.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 7/3, following Bartolo Colon's return from the D.L…made three starts for Scranton/WB, going 1-2 with a 3.38 ERA (16.0IP, 6ER, 18K, 2BB)…made his last minor league start on 7/19 at Columbus, recording the loss (1.1IP, 1ER)…was removed from the game with a sore right ankle (3H, 1BB, 3K, 1HR).
- Was recalled from Scranton/WB prior to his start on 7/30 in Game 2 of a doubleheader vs. Baltimore…went 8-0 with a 3.18 ERA (73.2IP, 26ER) over the rest of the regular season, holding opponents to 3ER or less in nine of 11GS.
- Went 1-1 with a 4.32 ERA in two ALDS appearances (one start) vs. Detroit…made his postseason debut in relief in Game 1, which was halted due to rain on 9/30 in the bottom of the second inning with the score tied, 1-1…game was resumed the following day with Nova on the mound for the Yankees…held the Tigers to 2ER in 6.1IP (4H, 4BB, 5K) to earn the win, becoming the first Yankees rookie to earn a win in his postseason debut since Orlando Hernandez on 10/10/98 in Game 4 of the ALCS at Cleveland…retired his first seven batters faced.
- Made his first career postseason start in the deciding Game 5, allowing 2ER in 2.0IP (3H, 0BB, 3K, 2HR) before exiting with a tight right forearm and suffering the loss…was the first Yankees rookie to start a winner-take-all postseason game since Mel Stottlemyre in the 1964 WS at St. Louis, and became only the second rookie pitcher all time to make his first postseason start in a winner-take-all game, joining the Phillies' Marty Bystrom in the 1980 NLCS Game 5 at Houston, according to Elias.
- Was diagnosed with a Grade 1 Flexor Strain of his right forearm after seeing Dr. Christopher Ahmad and undergoing an MRI at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital on 10/7.

- Was 1-2 with a 4.50 ERA in 10 games (seven starts) with the Yankees in his first Major League action…opponents batted .268 (44-for-164, 4HR); LH .276 (27-for-98, 3HR), RH .258 (17-for-98, 7HR)…went 0-1 with a 1.69 ERA (5.1IP, 1ER) in his three relief outings…posted a 1-1 record with a 4.91 ERA in his seven starts.
- Opposing batters hit .230 (17-for-74) with two extra-base hits their first time through the order, .262 (17-for-65) with eight extra-base hits their second pass and .400 (10-for-25) with two extra-base hits the third time through.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/10…made his Major League debut in 5/13 loss at Detroit, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (2H, 1K) of relief…made one additional relief appearance (5/16 vs. Minnesota) before being optioned back to Scranton/WB on 5/17 when Chan Ho Park was reinstated from the 15-day D.L.
- Was recalled a second time on 8/22, joining the starting rotation…completed 6.0 innings just once (9/8 vs. Baltimore)…was removed with a lead in four of his seven starts.
- Made his first start at Toronto on 8/23, recording a no-decision, (5.1IP, 6H, 2ER, 1BB, 3K, 1HR)…pitched out of a bases-loaded, no-out jam in the first…both runs allowed came on a two-run HR by Jose Bautista in the third.
- Recorded his first Major League win in his second start on 8/29 at Chicago-AL, allowing 1ER in 5.2IP (5H, 1BB, 7K)…became the first Yankees rookie starter to earn a win since Alfredo Aceves on 9/9/08 (credit: Elias) as the Yankees became the last Major League team in 2010 to have a rookie earn a win.
- Suffered his first loss on 9/25 vs. Boston in his ninth appearance, seventh start (4.2IP, 4H, 4ER, 3BB, 2K, 1HP)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became one of two Yankees since 1980 to go undefeated in his first six career starts, joining Joba Chamberlain (first 7GS in 2008).
- Went 12-3 with a 2.86 ERA in 23 starts at Triple-A Scranton/WB (145.0IP, 135H, 50R, 46ER, 48BB, 115K, 10HR, .250 opp. BA)…led the staff in wins, ERA, innings pitched (145.0) and strikeouts (115)…ranked second in the International League in ERA, trailing only Baseball America "Player of the Year" Jeremy Hellickson…tied for first in winning percentage and ranked third in wins…among Yankees farmhands, tied for third in wins and ranked fifth in ERA.
- Made 17 "quality starts" (at least 6.0IP, 3ER or fewer) with SWB, lasting 7.0 or more innings in seven of his outings and recording a season-high-tying 8.0IP twice…lost just one of his final 14 starts with Scranton/WB, going 10-1 with a 2.19 ERA (94.2IP, 23ER) over his final 14 starts from 6/5-8/18.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on February 25, 2004…signed through the 2013 season.

2012

- Hit .272 (26-for-89) with 14R, 4 doubles, 1HR and 11RBI in 38 games (13 starts at SS, five at 3B, three in LF, three at DH and one at 2B) over two stints with the Yankees in 2012 (4/6-5/11 and 9/1-10/3).
- Appeared at 2B, 3B, SS, LF, RF and DH (starting at all but RF)…was one of only eight Major Leaguers to appear in at least one game at each of those six positions in 2012.
- Made his second career Opening Day roster.
- Had his career-high eight-game hitting streak dating back to 2011 snapped in 4/18 loss vs. Minnesota…hit safely in each of his eight games with an AB from 9/26/11-4/17/12, batting .435 (10-for-23) over the stretch.
- Made his first career start and second appearance in LF (also 1.0 inning on 4/25/11 vs. Chicago-AL) in 4/30 win vs. Baltimore…was his third OF start (also 2GS in RF).
- Recorded his sixth career multi-SB game in 5/10 win vs. Tampa Bay…made two errors in the game, marking his fourth career multi-error game, first at 3B.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/11…was recalled as a September call-up on 9/1.
- Hit solo HR—his first homer of the year and the second of back-to-back HRs with Granderson—in 9/15 win vs. Tampa Bay…was his first HR in nearly one year (last on 9/21/11 Game 1 vs. Tampa Bay, also off James Shields).
- Stole a career-high three bases in 9/16 win vs. Tampa Bay, the most by a Yankee since Brett Gardner swiped three bases on 10/2/10 in Game 2 of a DH at Boston…went 0-for-3 in the game with 1BB and scored twice, becoming the first Yankee to collect at least 3SB and 2R in a game without a hit since Willie Randolph (0-for-2, 2R, 3SB, 4BB) on 6/11/80 in an 11-inning win at the Angels…was the first Yankee to do so in a nine-inning game since Bob Meusel (0-for-2, 2R, 3SB, 3BB) on 5/28/25 in Game 2 of a doubleheader vs. Boston.
- In 38 games with Scranton/WB, batted .227 (37-for-163) with 18R, 2HR and 16RBI…missed over two months on the D.L. (5/20-7/23) with right thumb inflammation…played in six rehab games with the GCL Yankees and Single-A Tampa, going 4-for-17 with 1HR.
- Following the season, appeared in 12 games with Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League, batting .275 (14-for-51).

- Hit .265 (82-for-309) with 38R, 18 doubles, 2 triples, 5HR, 30RBI, 22BB and 22SB in 112 games (50 games at SS, 40 at 3B, 16 at 2B, three in RF and one in LF) with the Yankees.
- Tied for second among AL rookies (with Oakland's Jemile Weeks) and tied among all Major League rookies with 22SB…marked the third-most SB by a Yankees rookie over the last 35 years (since 1977) trailing Alfonso Soriano (43, 2001) and Brett Gardner (26, 2009)…was caught just six times, including just 2CS over his final 16 attempts from 6/25 through the end of the season.
- Of his 30RBI, 14 either tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead (46.6%)…hit exactly 1HR in each month from May-September.

- Committed a team-high 20E (14 at SS, 6 at 3B), fourth-most in the AL…marked the most errors by a Yankee since 2006 (Alex Rodriguez-24E)…made 13 miscues over his first 149 total chances (through 7/20), then just 7E over his final 130 chances of the season.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster…appeared in just seven of the Yankees' first 21 games, collecting only two plate appearances (0-for-2).
- Appeared in the outfield for the first time in his professional career in 4/25 loss vs. Chicago, entering the game as a pinch-runner in the eighth inning and remaining in the game in LF.
- Committed two errors on 4/28 vs. Chicago-AL and again in his next start on 5/5 at Detroit, starting at SS in both contests…according to Elias, the only other Yankees shortstops to make at least two errors in consecutive games played since 1920 were Frank Crosetti (twice, 1936 and '45) and Mark Koenig (twice, 1927 and '28).
- Made 17 consecutive starts at SS from 6/14-7/2 while Derek Jeter was on the 15-day disabled list, batting .339 (20-for-59) with 5R, 5 doubles, 2HR, 7RBI and 4BB during the stretch while the Yankees went 14-3.
- Hit solo HR and was 2-for-4 with 1BB and 2SB in 6/15 win vs. Texas on his 24th birthday…became the eighth Yankee since 2000 to homer on his birthday and first since Hideki Matsui in 2009…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since Yogi Berra homered on his 22nd birthday in 1947, the only other Yankee younger than Nunez to hit a birthday homer was Rusty Torres on his 23rd birthday in 1971.
- Set a career high in hits in 7/1 win at the Mets, going 4-for-4 with 1 double and 1RBI…joined Brett Gardner (5-for-6 on 6/26/09 at the Mets) as the only Yankees since 2007 to record at least four hits in a game as a rookie.
- Went 7-for-8 in the first two games of the series at Citi Field on 7/1 and 7/2, becoming the first Yankee ever to collect 7H over a two-game span in the same series against the Mets—credit: Elias…also according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fourth Yankees rookie shortstop to have at least three hits in back-to-back games in the expansion era (since 1961), joining Frank Baker (1970), Andy Stankiewicz (1992) and Derek Jeter (1996).
- Batted .261 (29-for-111) with 16R, 5 doubles, 1 triple, 1HR and 12RBI in 35 games from 7/9-8/20 while Alex Rodriguez was on the 15-day disabled list, making 23 starts at 3B during the stretch.
- Hit in the leadoff position in the starting order for the first time in his career in 9/7 loss vs. Baltimore, going 0-for-4 with 1SH before being removed for PH (Chavez) in the 11th.
- Collected five extra-base hits (4 doubles, 1HR) over his final nine games with an AB.
- Appeared in one ALDS game vs. Detroit as a pinch runner, stealing a base in the Game 3 loss at Comerica Park.

- Hit .280 (14-for-50) with 12R, 1 double, 1HR and 7RBI in 30 games (10 starts at 3B and three at SS) with the Yankees…stole five bases without being caught…struck out just twice in 53 plate appearances.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/WB on 8/19 when Lance Berkman went on the 15-day D.L…made his Major League debut in that night's win vs. Detroit, entering the game defensively in the seventh at SS and going 0-for-1.
- Made his first Major League start (at 3B) in 8/21 win vs. Seattle, going 1-for-3 with 1R and 1RBI…collected his first hit with a go-ahead RBI-single off Jason Vargas in the seventh inning.
- Made 11 starts from 8/21-9/4 (nine at 3B and two at SS) while Alex Rodriguez was on the disabled list…hit .293 (12-for-41) over the stretch, committing just one error in 27 chances.
- Hit two-run HR—the first of his Major League career—and was 3-for-4 with 2R, 4RBI, 1BB and 1SB in 8/29 win at Chicago-AL…marked the most RBI in a game by a Yankees rookie since Brett Gardner on 9/26/08 at Boston (also 4RBI)…became the first Yankee to drive in at least four runs in a game within his first 10 Major League contests since Shelley Duncan in 2007 (4RBI vs. Tampa Bay) and just the fifth to do so in the last 44 years (since 1967), joining Andy Phillips (4RBI on 4/24/05 vs. Texas), Hideki Matsui (4RBI on 4/8/03 vs. Minnesota) and Brian Dayett (4RBI on 9/18/83 Game 2 at Cleveland)…according to Elias, became just the fifth Yankee in franchise history to hit his first Major League HR and steal his first base in the same game, joining Willie Randolph (1976), Roy White (1966), Gil McDougald (1951) and Wally Pipp (1915).
- Began the season with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, batting .289 (134-for-464) with 55R, 25 doubles, 3 triples, 4HR, 50RBI and 23SB in 118 games…recorded the third-highest average among all Yankees farmhands and led all Scranton/WB batters in hits, doubles and stolen bases…at the time of his recall, was leading the International League in hits…was named to the International League postseason All-Star team as the league's top shortstop…also selected to the IL midseason All-Star team, starting at SS and going 0-for-2 in the IL's 2-1 victory.
- Following the season, was named by Baseball America as the eighth-best prospect among Yankees farmhands…also selected by the publication as the "Best Defensive Infielder" and as having the "Best Infield Arm" in the organization.
- Batted .348 (8-for-23) with 2RBI in seven games with the Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League following the season…missed time after a ball he bunted ricocheted off his face.

- Batted .322 (160-for-497) with 9HR, 55RBI and 19SB in 123 games with Double-A Trenton in 2009, making 120 starts at SS…set career highs in hits, doubles and home runs in his first season at the Double-A level…ranked second in the Eastern League in hits and third in batting average…committed 33 errors, most among EL players.
- Was named the top shortstop in the EL, earning a spot on the postseason All-Star team…was also the starting shortstop for the North Division in the Eastern League midseason All-Star Game.
- Compiled five hitting streaks of eight-or-more games, including an 11-game hitting streak from 4/30-5/11, in which he batted .378 (17-for-45) over the stretch with just 5K.
- Appeared in four games with Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League, going 2-for-10 (.200).

CAREER NOTES

- Has posted a .500-or-better record in each of his 17 Major League seasons (1995-2010, '12)…made at least 15 starts in each of his first 16 seasons (had 12GS in 2012), surpassing Cy Young (15, 1890-1904) and Tom Seaver (15, 1967-81) for the most .500-or-better seasons with at least 15 starts from the start of a Major League career… posted a winning record in each of his first 13 Major League seasons (1995-2007), marking the third-longest streak of consecutive winning seasons to start a Major League career behind Grover Alexander (17) and Cy Young (15).
- Among active Major League pitchers, ranks first in wins (245), starts (491), strikeouts (2,320), and innings pitched (3,130.2)…among active lefthanders, is first in wins, starts, IP and strikeouts.
- Owns a .633 (245-142) career winning percentage, eighth-best among all lefthanders who began their careers in 1950 or later (min: 140 decisions).
- Has recorded 208 wins as a Yankee, third-most in franchise history and the most for any pitcher with his current club (credit: Elias)…ranks second in strikeouts (1,892), second in games started (408), fourth in IP (2,611.0), and seventh in appearances (417)…is the only pitcher drafted by the Yankees to win 200 games in the Majors.
- Has now made at least one start in 14 different seasons with the Yankees (1995-2003, '07-10, '12)…is just the third pitcher in Yankees franchise history to accomplish the feat, joining Whitey Ford (16 seasons) and Red Ruffing (15).
- As a Yankee, is 86-49 (.694) in regular season starts immediately following a team loss (credit: Elias).
- Over the last 11 years (2002-12), has posted a 130-77 (.628) record with a 3.74 ERA (1681.0IP, 698ER), tying for 10th in wins among all Major League pitchers over the span–despite missing all of 2011.
- Enters 2013 season 103 games over .500 (245-142)…is the only pitcher currently on a Major League 40-man roster and one of 26 pitchers all-time at least 100 games over .500…of those other pitchers, 18 are in the Hall of Fame (Grover Alexander, Three-Fingered Brown, John Clarkson, Bob Feller, Whitey Ford, Lefty Grove, Walter Johnson, Tim Keefe, Juan Marichal, Christy Mathewson, Joe McGinnity, Kid Nichols, Jim Palmer, Eddie Plank, Old Hoss Radbourn, Tom Seaver, Warren Spahn and Cy Young)… five are not yet eligible (Tom Glavine, Randy Johnson, Greg Maddux, Pedro Martinez and Mike Mussina)… and two remains eligible for the HOF ("Parisian Bob" Caruthers, who went 218-99 from 1884-92, and Roger Clemens).
- Has won 49.6% of his 491 career starts (is 244-141 in his starts), marking the third-best percentage among active pitchers with at least 250 career games started (Roy Halladay-51.9% and teammate CC Sabathia - 49.8%).
- According to Elias, is the fifth player in franchise history to play for the team in his 20s, 30s and 40s, joining Spud Chandler, Red Ruffing, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera…also became the first ever Yankee to play for the team before the age of 23 and after the age of 40.

*start came after a Yankees loss / Bold-season high / (CG) complete game

- Made his 52nd career Interleague start on 6/16 at Washington, surpassing Livan Hernandez (51) for the most such starts all-time.
- Made his first career start at Citi Field (opened in 2009) in 6/22 loss at New York-NL, the 40th different ballpark that he has pitched in…has earned the win as a Yankee in 23 different ballparks in his career, the most for any pitcher in franchise history (credit: Elias).
- Was removed from the game in the fifth inning on 6/27 vs. Cleveland after being hit in the left ankle by a ground ball off the bat of Casey Kotchman…was placed on the 60-day disabled list with a fractured left ankle on 6/28 and reinstated from the D.L. prior to his start on 9/19 vs. Toronto, missing 72 team games.
- Made his 415th career appearance as a Yankee on 9/19 vs. Toronto, tying Bob Shawkey for seventh on the Yankees' all-time list…also earned his 244th career win, tying Jack Powell for 50th on Baseball's all-time list.
- On 9/19 vs. Toronto, snapped a five-start stretch in which he struck out at least six batters a game from 6/5-6/27…had been the longest such streak of his career (accomplished twice before on 8/1-21/06 with Houston and 8/30-9/18/96 with the Yankees).
- Made two postseason starts for the Yankees (ALDS Game 2 at Baltimore and ALCS Game 1 vs. Detroit), combining to go 0-1 with a 3.29 ERA (13.2IP, 5ER)…recorded his 174th career postseason strikeout in ALDS Game 2 (Chris Davis), surpassing Roger Clemens for sole possession of second place on Baseball's all-time postseason strikeouts list.

- Did not pitch.

- Went 11-3 with a 3.28 ERA (129.0IP, 47ER) in 21 starts with the Yankees…his .786 winning percentage was the best in the AL and third-best in the Majors among pitchers with 10-or-more decisions (Milwaukee's John Axford and Arizona's Daniel Hudson both were 8-2, .800)…was the best winning percentage of his career…marked his lowest single-season ERA since 2005 w/ Houston (2.35) and lowest as a Yankee since 2002 (3.27)…opponents batted .257 (123-for- 479, 13HR); LH .186 (24-for-129, 2HR); RH .283 (99- for-350, 11HR)…the Yankees went 16-5 in his starts.
- Was named to the 2010 All-Star team after Boston's Clay Buchholz withdrew due to injury… because Buchholz was elected via the "Player Ballot," Pettitte received the nod as he was the next-highest ranking pitcher who had not yet been named…tossed a scoreless inning in the NL victory (1.0IP, 1H, 2K)…marked his third All-Star appearance (also 1996 and 2001), all as a Yankee…became just the third player ever to go at least nine years between All-Star selections, joining Bert Blyleven (1973 to '85) and Claudell Washington (1975 to '84).
- Began the season 5-0, winning his first five decisions of a season for just the second time in his career (started 5-0 in 1997)…joined Phil Hughes in beginning the season 5-0…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, marked just the fourth time in the last 50 years that two Yankees starters each won their first five decisions in the same season (also 2004 with Kevin Brown and Orlando Hernandez; 2003 with Mike Mussina and David Wells; and 1980 with Ron Guidry and Tommy John).
- Made his first start of the season on 4/7 at Boston, limiting the Red Sox to 1ER in 6.0IP (6H, 3BB, 4K, 1HP) and exiting without a decision in the Yankees' 3-1 extra-innings win.
- Started the Yankees' home opener on 4/13 vs. Los Angeles-AL, tossing 6.0 shutout innings and recording the win in the 7-5 Yankees victory (5H, 3BB, 6K)…improved to 4-0 with a 2.25 ERA (24.0IP, 6ER) in four career home opener starts as a Yankee (also wins vs. KC in 1996, vs. TB in 2002 and vs. MIN in 2003).
- Surrendered a first-inning three-run HR to Paul Konerko on 4/30 vs. Chicago-AL…marked his first HR allowed in 2010 after starting the year with a 28.1IP homerless stretch…marked the longest such stretch to start a season in his career.

- Left his start on 5/5 vs. Baltimore after the fifth inning with soreness in his left arm…still earned the win in a 7-5 Yankees victory (6H, 1ER, 2BB, 2K)…underwent an MRI that day at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital that revealed mild inflammation of his left elbow…was held out of his next scheduled start on 5/10.
- Recorded his 200th career win as a Yankee on 6/11 vs. Houston in a 4-3 Yankees victory (7.1IP, 4H, 3R, 2ER, 1BB, 5K, 1HR), also surpassing 3,000.0IP in the start…became the third player to reach the 200-win plateau with the franchise (also Whitey Ford-236 and Red Ruffing-231)…became the 35th pitcher all time to win at least 200 games for one franchise (credit: Elias)…was his 237th career win, breaking a tie with Whitey Ford (236) and tying Hall of Famer Waite Hoyt for 57th place on Baseball's all-time list.
- Became the 105th pitcher all time to reach the 3,000.0IP plateau in the 6/11 outing…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fifth pitcher in the Expansion Era to record his 3,000th inning pitched as a Yankee (also Whitey Ford-1965, Catfish Hunter-1976, Tommy John-1979 and Mike Mussina-2005).
- Notched final win of the season on 7/8 at Seattle, allowing just 1ER in 8.0IP (5H, 4BB, 9K)…was his 392nd start as a Yankee, surpassing Red Ruffing (391) for sole possession of second place on the Yankees' all-time list.
- Exited his 7/18 start vs. Tampa Bay in the third inning with a strained left groin…was taken to NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital to undergo an MRI which revealed a Grade 1 left groin strain.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/20 (retroactive to 7/19) with a strained left groin (missed 57 team games)…made two rehab starts with Double-A Trenton, both in postseason play…on 9/9 in Game 2 of the first round of the Eastern League playoffs, tossed 4.0 scoreless IP (2H, 4K, 2WP) with no decision in a 3-2 Thunder win in 10 innings…on 9/14 at Altoona in Game 1 of the Eastern League Finals, allowed 2ER in 5.0IP (6H,1BB, 4K, 1HR, 1WP) with no decision in a 12-inning, 1-0 Thunder victory.
- Made three starts after being returned from rehab and reinstated from the disabled list on 9/19, going 0-1 with a 6.75 ERA (13.1IP, 10ER).
- Made two postseason starts, in Game 2 ALDS win at Minnesota on 10/7 (7.0IP, 5H, 2ER, 1BB, 4K, 1BB) and Game 3 loss vs. Texas on 10/18 (7.0IP, 5H, 2ER, 5K, 1HR), recording the decision in both outings…his loss in the ALCS snapped a nine-start undefeated streak in the postseason, tied with five others for the third-longest all time behind Roger Clemens (12GS from 10/15/01-10/16/04) and Orel Hershiser (10GS, 10/10/85-10/15/95).

- Was 14-8 with a 4.16 ERA in 32 starts with the Yankees…lasted at least 5.0IP in 29 of his 32 starts and exited 24 of his 32 starts in the lead or with the game tied…the Yankees were 21-11 in his starts.
- Opponents batted .259 (193-for-746, 20HR); LH .282 (62-for-220, 6HR); RH .249 (131-for-526, 14HR)…limited opponents to a .236 (38-for-161) batting average with runners in scoring position.

Feeling at Home

LHP Andy Pettitte has won four career home openers with the Yankees…according the Elias Sports Bureau, only Whitey Ford (five) and Red Ruffing (four) have won as many home openers for the Yankees…Elias also notes that only two other active pitchers have four (or more) wins in his team's home opener: Josh Beckett (four total—three for Boston, one for Florida) and Livan Hernandez (four, one each for Florida, Minnesota, San Francisco and Washington).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Kevin Lawn Award Yankees "Minor League Pitcher of the Year"
- 2010

STATUS

- Selected by the Yankees in the 14th round of the 2008 First-Year Player Draft…signed through the 2013 season.

- Made his first career Opening Day roster and combined to go 4-4 with a 3.34 ERA (99.2IP, 37ER) in three stints with the Yankees (4/6-6/14, 6/29-7/4 and 7/18-10/3).
- His 3.34 ERA marked the third-lowest ERA among all American League rookie pitchers (min. 95.0IP) and the fourth-lowest in the Majors…ranked second among AL rookies in opponents batting average against (.223) and eighth in strikeouts (96).
- As a starter, went 2-2 with a 3.77 ERA (57.1IP, 24ER) in 11 starts…also went 2-2 with a 2.76 ERA (42.1IP, 13ER) in 22 appearances out of the bullpen.
- Went undefeated over his last six starts of the season, going 1-0 with a 4.41 ERA (32.2IP, 16ER), allowing 3ER or less in four of those outings…held his opponents to a .216 (25-for-116) batting average over the stretch.
- Opponents scored in the first inning in five of his final eight starts after being held scoreless in each of his first three starts to begin the season…allowed the first run of the game in eight of his 11 starts.
- In 22 relief appearances, went 2-2 with a 2.76 ERA (42.1IP, 13ER), holding opponents scoreless in 14 of those contests…out of the bullpen, opponents batted just .209 (32-for-153)…retired 15-of-22 first batters faced and stranded nine of his 16 inherited runners.
- Made his Major League debut in 4/8 loss at Tampa Bay, retiring both batters faced in the eighth (0.2IP, 1K).
- Retired all seven batters faced in relief of Freddy Garcia in 4/10 win at Baltimore (2.1IP, 4K), including four straight batters on called third strikes…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became just the second Major League pitcher since 2007 to accomplish the feat, joining the Rockies' Jhoulys Chacin, who did so in 2011.
- Retired each of his first 13 batters faced in the Majors prior to allowing a solo HR to Vernon Wells on 4/14 at Los Angeles-AL…according to Elias, marked the longest streak of consecutive batters retired to begin a Major League career by a Yankees pitcher over the last 50 years.
- Allowed just 1H in 5.1IP in relief in 4/14 loss at Los Angeles-AL (1H, 1ER, 2BB, 4K, 1HR, 1WP)…according to ESPN Research, the last Yankee to pitch at least 5.1 innings in relief and allow just 1H was Steve Shields on 6/8 vs. Boston (5.2IP)…was the longest relief outing by a Yankee since Hector Noesi tossed 6.0 innings of relief in 6/7/11 loss vs. Boston.
- Earned his first Major League win on 5/14 at Baltimore, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning (3H, 1K).
- Did not allow a run in nine consecutive relief appearances from 7/19-9/23 (12.1IP, 5H, 4BB, 15K).

- Went 9-10 with a 3.74 ERA (171.0IP, 71ER) in 28 starts with the Mariners in his first Major League action…opponents batted .211 (133-for-629, 18HR); LH .237 (77-for-325, 8HR), RH .184 (56-for-304, 10HR)…his .184 opponent average vs. right-handers was a Major League low (min. 225 batters faced).
- Finished fifth in American League "Rookie of the Year" Award voting, leading all AL rookies in strikeouts (173) and K/9.0IP (9.11), ranking second in innings pitched, opponents batting average (.211) and quality starts (19), tying for second in starts and ranking fourth in wins…both his strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.15, 173K, 55BB) and strikeouts/9.0IP are the second-highest all time by a qualifying AL rookie behind Brett Anderson (3.33, 2009 w/Oakland) and Herb Score (9.70, 1955 w/Cleveland), respectively…finished second among all AL pitchers in K/9.0IP in 2011, trailing only Toronto's Brandon Morrow (10.19).
- His 173K were fifth-most by any pitcher at age 22 or younger since 1969, trailing only Dwight Gooden (276K in 1984), Kerry Wood (233K in 1998), Tom Griffin (200K in 1969) and Bobby Witt (174K in 1986)…were the sixth-most by an AL rookie over the last 30 years and second-most all time by a Mariners rookie behind Mark Langston's 204K in 1984.
- Was named to the American League All-Star team as a replacement for Detroit's Justin Verlander after posting an 8-6 record with a 3.03 ERA (113.0IP, 38ER) in 18 starts in the first half…became the second rookie pitcher in Mariners history to be named to the All-Star team (also Matt Young in 1983)…tossed a scoreless third inning with 2K in the game, becoming the first rookie AL All-Star with at least 2K since Don Schwall in 1961.
- Opened the season in the Mariners' starting rotation and—at 22 years, 72 days (as of March 31)—was the third-youngest AL player on a 2011 Opening Day roster, behind Kansas City LHP Tim Collins (21 years, 222 days) and Chicago-AL LHP Chris Sale (22 years, 1 day)…became the first Mariners rookie pitcher to make the club's Opening Day starting rotation since Freddy Garcia in 1999.

- Made his Major League debut on 4/5 at Texas, allowing 5H and 3ER in 6.0IP (1BB, 4K) while recording the loss…struck out his first batter faced (Ian Kinsler) on three pitches…was the first Seattle rookie pitcher to make his Major League debut as a starter since Felix Hernandez on 8/4/05.
- Earned his first Major League win on 4/12 vs. Toronto (7.1IP, 5H, 2R, 1ER, 2BB, 7K).
- Was named the April AL "Rookie of the Month," going 4-1 with a 2.01 ERA (31.1IP, 7ER) in five starts.
- Recorded his first Major League hit in 6/23 loss at Washington, a sixth-inning single off Jason Marquis.

- Signed by the Yankees as a minor league free agent on February 8, 2012…signed through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Is 8-0 in 148 career appearances…is the only pitcher in Baseball history to appear in at least 148 games to start his Major League career without recording a loss (credit: Elias).
- Has held left-handed hitters to a .168 (37-for-220, 4HR) combined batting average in his Major League career.

- Made his first career Opening Day roster and went 3-0 with a 2.82 ERA (38.1IP, 12ER) in a career-high 70 relief appearances…retired 54-of-70 first batters faced…allowed just seven of his 57 inherited runners to score…opponents batted .215 (29-for-135, 2HR); LH .186 (19-for-102, 2HR), RH .303 (10-for-33, 0HR).
- Held lefthanded batters to a .186 batting average, allowing just 19H in 102AB…marked the sixth-lowest batting average against vs. lefty batters among southpaw AL relievers, and the 11th-lowest in the Majors (min. 38.0IP).
- Appeared in 32 games vs. the AL East and allowed seven of his 12 total ER allowed on the year, going 1-0 with a 4.97 ERA with 8BB and 14K (12.2IP)…against all other competition, went 2-0 with a 1.75 ERA (25.2IP, 5ER) in 38 relief appearances, registering 24K with 9BB.
- Made 30 one-batter relief appearances, the most in the American League and third-most in the Majors.
- Began the season with a 9.00 ERA (5.0IP, 5ER) in 10 road outings (through 5/16)…over his final 25 appearances away from Yankee Stadium (beginning 6/1), yielded just a 1.69 ERA (10.2IP, 2ER) and held opponents to a .184 (7-for-38) batting average.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster after being signed to a Major League contract and selected to the Yankees' 25-man roster on 4/4…went 1-0 with a 0.90 ERA (10.0IP, 1ER) and 13K in 12 spring training outings.
- Made his Yankees debut in 4/7 loss at Tampa Bay, allowing 2H, 2ER and 2BB in 0.2IP.
- Held opponents hitless over a career-high 21AB stretch from 6/7-22 (previous best was 18AB in 2010 w/ Texas)—credit: Elias.
- Did not allow an earned run in 21 consecutive appearances from 6/9-7/22, holding opponents to just 5H (11.0IP, 1R, 2B, 16K)…tied Mike Myers (2006) for the second-longest such streak by a Yankees lefty since 1920, trailing only Boone Logan's 25-game stretch without allowing an earned run in 2010.
- Pitched on four straight days from 6/9-12 and five of six days overall from 6/7-12.
- Retired 19 consecutive left-handed hitters from 6/7-27.
- Struck out each of his four batters faced in 6/20 loss vs. Atlanta (1.1IP), establishing a career high in strikeouts.
- Allowed just 1ER over final 15 outings (8/18-10/3), recording 8K in 5.2IP during the span.
- Made five postseason relief appearances, holding opponents scoreless over 1.2IP (2BB/1IBB, 1K).

- Made 25 relief appearances over two stints with Detroit, going 3-0 with a 4.22 ERA (21.1IP, 10ER)…was first recalled on 4/11 and made eight straight scoreless appearances…earned his first Major League win on 4/15 vs. Minnesota.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/21-6/8 with right biceps tendinitis…appeared in one game on 6/9, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings before being optioned to Triple-A Toledo on 6/13…returned to Detroit as a September call-up.

- Split the season between the Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers organizations…appeared in five games at the Major League level, allowing 3ER in 2.2 combined IP without a decision.
- Spent the bulk of season at Triple-A Iowa, going 7-2 with a 3.58 ERA (55.1IP, 22ER)…made his Major League debut and only appearance with the Cubs on 6/14 vs. Seattle, retiring his only batter faced (Raul Ibanez).
- Was acquired by Detroit on 8/30 as the player to be named later in a trade for Craig Monroe on 8/23…made a pair of regular season appearances for Triple-A Toledo following the trade, and pitched in one game for the Mud Hens during the International League playoffs, fanning three batters in 2.0 scoreless frames.
- Pitched in four games for Detroit as September call-up, allowing 3ER in 2.1IP.

- Combined to go a 6-4 with 21 saves and a 1.60 ERA (67.1IP, 12ER) in 61 games for Double-A West Tenn and Triple-A Iowa.
- Began season at West Tenn, allowing just 4ER in 43.2IP… finished third in the Southern League with 1.65 BB/9.0 IP (third) and tied for fifth in saves, earning a selection to the SL midseason All-Star team…promoted to Iowa on 6/22, appearing in 28 games (3-2, 3.04 ERA).
- Following the season, pitched in the Arizona Fall League, going 1-1 with a 3.07 ERA (14.2IP, 5ER) in 16 games.

- Was limited to 27 appearances for Single-A Daytona (1-3, 3.83 ERA, 42.1IP, 18ER) due to a pair of D.L. stints…was sidelined 4/7-6/1 with a left shoulder strain and 8/17 to the end of season after undergoing an appendectomy.

2004

- Pitched the entire season with Single-A Lansing, going 6-6 with 3 saves and a 2.33 ERA (85.0IP, 22ER) in 57 relief appearances…was named to the Midwest League's postseason All-Star team…ranked second in the league in games pitched.

2003

- Opened the year with Single-A Boise, making one appearance (3.0 scoreless innings) before being promoted to Single-A Lansing on 6/23… appeared in 21 games (four starts–the only ones of his career) for the Lugnuts, going 1-2 with a 5.31 ERA (42.1IP, 25ER).

2002

- Compiled a 1.50 ERA (18.0IP, 3ER) with no decisions in 12 games in his professional debut at Single-A Boise.

STATUS

- Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 17, 1990…signed a one-year contract on November 30, 2012, that extends through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Owns 608 career saves, the most in Major League history…has an 89.3% career conversion rate in 681 save opportunities, third-best all-time among qualifying relievers (Eric Gagne, 91.7%, 187 saves / 204 opportunities; Joe Nathan, 89.5%, 298 saves / 333 opportunities)…the Yankees have gone 639-42 in games in which he had a save opportunity.
- Has a career ERA of 2.21, the second-lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1,000.0IP since earned runs became an official statistic (1912-NL, 1913-AL) behind only Eddie Cicotte (2.20), and just ahead of Jim Scott (2.26) and Babe Ruth (2.28)—credit: Elias.
- Has recorded at least one save in 17 consecutive seasons (since 1996)…according to Elias, is the longest streak in AL history and is tied with Lee Smith for the second-longest such streak all time behind John Franco's 18.
- At 42 years old in 2012, surpassed Jim Kaat (40 years, 312 days in 1979) as the oldest pitcher in Yankees history to record a save (credit: Elias)…they are the only two pitchers in franchise history to record a save after turning 40…is the oldest AL pitcher to record a save since Oakland's Doug Hones on 6/7/00 vs. San Diego at 42 years, 349 days.
- Had his streak of recording at least 25 saves in 15 consecutive seasons (1997-2011) snapped in 2012…marked the longest such streak since saves became an official statistic in 1969…has reached the 30-save plateau 14 times in his career, tying Trevor Hoffman's record (14)…recorded nine straight seasons of at least 30 saves from 2003-11, surpassing Hoffman (eight seasons from 1995-2002) for the longest streak all time…has saved at least 35 games in a season 11 times in his career, one behind Hoffman's Major League record (12)…has reached the 40-save mark eight times in his career, second-most all time behind Hoffman (nine).
- Has exactly twice as many saves with one team as Jeff Montgomery—who ranks second in saves among players who spent their entire career with one club—had with Kansas City (304).
- Owns 116 career saves when recording more than three outs and 11 saves when tossing at least 2.0 innings.
- Despite missing the majority of 2012, over the last 10 years (2003-12) leads the Majors with 365 saves and is tied for sixth with 603 appearances.
- Has made 60 appearances 14 times in his career, surpassing Mike Stanton (13) for most all time…has made at least 60 appearances with a sub-2.00 ERA in eight of his last 10 seasons, including four straight from (2008-11), becoming the only pitcher in Baseball history to record four such consecutive seasons after the age of 35.
- His 1,051 career appearances rank eighth on Baseball's all-time list, most among active players…in 2012, surpassed Kent Tekulve (1,050)…is the only pitcher ever to appear in at least 1,000 games with a single team.

- Has made the most appearances (1,051) in club history, more than twice as many as second-place Dave Righetti's 522…ranks ninth in club history with 1,119K…owns seven of the 10 highest single-season save totals in franchise history (1. 53 in 2004; 2. 50 in 2001; 4. 45 in 1999; 5. 44 in 2009 and 2011; and T7. 43 in 1997 and 2005).
- Along with Derek Jeter and Jorge Posada, became the first trio of teammates in any of the four major sports (MLB, NBA, NFL, NHL) to play together in each of 17 straight seasons (1995-2011).
- Has been selected to 12 All-Star teams, joining teammate Derek Jeter as the only players to be named to the All-Star team with their current team at least 12 times, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…is tied with Elston Howard (12) for fifth-most selections in franchise history, trailing Mickey Mantle (20), Yogi Berra (18), Joe DiMaggio (13) and Derek Jeter (13)…his 12 All-Star selections are tied with Tom Seaver for second-most all time for a pitcher, trailing only Warren Spahn (17)…owns four career All-Star saves, most all time.
- Owns a career save conversion rate of 83.0% in March/April (88-for-106), compared to a 90.4% mark over the remainder of the year (520-for-575).
- Converted 51 straight saves at home from 8/18/07-4/30/10, tied with Eric Gagne (51 straight from 8/28/02-7/1/04) for the longest such streak all time (credit: Elias).
- Is the all-time leader in Interleague saves with 68…since blowing a save on 7/14/01 at Florida, has converted 43 of his last 45 save chances in Interleague play, including 24 straight from 6/20/06-6/29/11 (credit: Elias)…converted 26 straight save chances against the NL (including two in the 2009 World Series), tying Troy Percival for the second-longest streak of consecutive saves vs. the opposing league all time (including postseason), trailing only Eric Gagne (29 straight).
- Recorded his 1,000th strikeout on 9/18/09 at Seattle, at which time he had walked just 255 batters in his career…according to Elias, only three pitchers since 1900 (Shane Reynolds-233; Ben Sheets-247; and Billy Wagner-255) had as many or fewer walks at the time of their 1,000th strikeout.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 230 saves at the original Yankee Stadium are most by any one pitcher in any one ballpark.
- Has 42 career postseason saves—including 11 in the World Series—both Major League records…his 24 World Series appearances are the most all time…owns a 0.70 ERA (141.0IP, 11ER) in 96 postseason games, the lowest ERA all-time (min. 30.0IP) and the most postseason appearances for any pitcher in Major League history…owns 14 career 2.0-inning saves in the postseason.
- Held opponents scoreless in 33.1 consecutive postseason innings from 9/29/98 (ALDS Game 1)-10/13/00 (ALCS Game 3), marking the longest postseason scoreless stretch by any pitcher in Baseball history.
- Has allowed just 2HR in 141.0 career postseason innings (Cleveland's Sandy Alomar Jr in 1997 ALDS Game 4 and the Mets' Jay Payton in 2000 World Series Game 2).
- Leads all Major Leaguers with 39 appearances and 18 saves during the ALDS…has also pitched in a Major League-high 33 ALCS games, collecting an all-time-record 13 saves.
- Has recorded the final out in 16 of the last 19 Yankees postseason series clinching wins since the 1998 ALDS.
- Only two pitchers have recorded a postseason save at an older age than Rivera – Dennis Eckersley (4 times, oldest was at 42 years, 9 days in the 1996 NLCS) and Dick Hall (41 years, 14 days in the 1971 World Series).

- Was 1-2 with 44 saves (in 49 opportunities) and a 1.91 ERA (61.1IP, 13ER) in 64 relief appearances with the Yankees…tied his 2009 mark for the fifth-highest single-season saves total in franchise history…all five blown saves came on the road…ranked second in the AL—trailing only Detroit's Jose Valverde (47 saves)—and was fifth in the Majors in saves…ranked 10th in the Majors in ERA (fourth in the AL)…opponents batted .215 (47-for-219, 3HR); LH .240 (25-for-104, 2HR), RH .191 (22-for-115, 1HR)…retired 50-of-64 first batters faced (78.1%)…prevented 11-of-17 inherited runners from scoring (64.7%)…appeared in consecutive games 12 times and three straight games three times…the Yankees were 53-11 in games he appeared in.
- Was perfect in converting save opportunities at home (23-for-23) for the fourth time in the last six seasons (also 2006, 2008 and 2009)…held opponents scoreless in his first 21 home appearances of the season (21.0IP, 10H, 1BB, 17K)…was three games shy of the record for most consecutive scoreless home appearances to start a season shared by George Sherrill (2007, SEA), Steve Kline (2004, STL) and Graeme Lloyd (1998, NYY).
- At 41 years old, became the oldest player in Baseball history to save at least 40 games in a season…became one of just three pitchers ever to register as many as 15 saves in a season at age 41 or older (also St. Louis' Dennis Eckersley-30 in 1996, and 36 in '97; and Milwaukee's Trevor Hoffman-37 in '09)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Was named to his 12th All-Star team on 7/3, but was unable to attend the game…received four fifth-place votes in Cy Young balloting…also tabbed as the AL's top reliever on the Sporting News 2011 All-Star Team.
- In 3/31 Opening Day win vs. Detroit, tossed a perfect ninth inning for his third career Opening Day save—most in franchise history—and sixth save in a Yankees home opener.
- Recorded back-to-back blown saves in 4/19 loss at Toronto (1.0IP, 4H, 2ER) and 4/24 win at Baltimore (1.1IP, 2H, 1ER)…marked the eighth time in his career—and fourth in April—he blew consecutive save opportunities and first overall since 4/15-20/07.
- Made his 1,000th career appearance in 5/25 win at Toronto, tossing a scoreless ninth (1.0IP, 1H, 1K)…became the 15th pitcher in Baseball history to reach the 1,000-game plateau, first to do so with the same team—credit: Elias .

- Recorded his fourth blown save of the season in 7/3 loss at the Mets, allowing 2H and 1ER in the ninth (1.0IP, 1BB, 1K)…snapped a stretch of 16 straight converted save chances against the Mets since July 1999, and 26 consecutive converted save chances against the NL (24 during the regular season and two in the 2009 WS).
- Converted each of his final 15 save opportunities of the season (8/11-9/21)…in 18 total games over the span, allowed just 2ER in 17.0IP (1.06 ERA, 8H, 3BB, 1HR, 21K)…retired 17 consecutive batters from 8/11-29…had the span snapped with Ortiz's double to lead off the ninth inning of 8/30 win at Boston.
- Earned his 600th career save in 9/13 win at Seattle, tossing a scoreless ninth (1.0IP, 1H, 2K).
- Recorded his 602nd career save in 9/19 win vs. Minnesota (1.0IP, 1K), surpassing Trevor Hoffman (601) for Baseball's all-time record…came in a 1-2-3 ninth inning, the 208th such save of his career—credit: Stats, LLC…came exactly 15 years and 125 days after his first save…tied Hoffman for most saves all time in 9/17 win at Toronto.
- Was named the American League "Player of the Week" for the period ending 9/25 in recognition of surpassing Trevor Hoffman (601) to become Major League Baseball's all-time saves leader.
- Appeared in two ALDS games vs. Detroit, combining to toss 1.1 scoreless IP (1K)…marked just the third Yankees postseason series since 1998 in which Rivera did not have a save chance (also 2006 ALDS vs. Detroit and '07 ALDS vs. Cleveland) and just the fourth in which he did not record a save (also 2004 ALDS vs. Minnesota, 0-for-1).
- Following the season, underwent throat surgery on his vocal cords on 12/2 at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital.

- Was 3-3 with 33 saves (in 38 chances) and a 1.80 ERA in 61 relief appearances with the Yankees…opponents batted .183 (39-for-213, 2HR); LH .214 (22-for-103, 2HR), RH .155 (17-for-110, 0HR)…retired 49-of-61 first batters faced (80.3%)…prevented 13-of-16 inherited runners from scoring (81.3%)…appeared in consecutive games 15 times and three straight games once…his five blown saves were his most since 2003 (six).
- Was named to his 11th All-Star Game…did not attend the game to rest a sore right knee and left side…named to Sporting News' 2010 Top 50 Baseball Players list (No. 11).
- Made his 15th career Opening Day roster…did not allow a run in his first 11.0IP of the season…according to Elias, matched his second-longest scoreless streak to begin a season (also 11.0IP in 1998 and 16.0 in 2008).
- Went 11 days between appearances from 4/30-5/11…was the second-longest gap between appearances in his 15 seasons as a reliever (not including D.L. stints)…went 21 days between outings from 8/31-9/22/06.
- In 5/16 loss vs. Minnesota, registered his first blown save after walking in a run and allowing a grand slam (Kubel)…was his fourth career grand slam surrendered and third as a reliever (first since Bill Selby "walk-off" GS on 7/14/02 at Cleveland)…was the fourth bases-loaded walk issued in his career and first since 5/6/05 vs. Oakland (Keith Ginter).

- Was named the winner of the "MLB Delivery Man of the Month" Award in July for the second time in his career (also April 2008)…was 10-for-10 in save opportunities without allowing a run…marked just the second time in his career he earned at least 10 saves in a single month without allowing a run (also August 1999).
- Allowed a two-run "walk-off" home run to Ichiro Suzuki with two outs in the bottom of the ninth on 9/19 at Seattle…marked just his fifth "walk-off" HR allowed…his strikeout of Mike Carp in the ninth was his 1,000th.
- Was a part of his fifth World Championship team, making 12 postseason appearances, recording five saves (in five opportunities) and allowing just 1ER in 16.0IP (0.56 ERA)…six of the outings were more than 1.0IP, including two 2.0-inning saves (Game 6 of ALCS and Game 2 of WS)…was on the mound for the clinching game in each of the three rounds for the fourth time in his career…made his 23rd career World Series appearance in Game 4 on 11/1 at Philadelphia, surpassing Whitey Ford (22) for most all time…with two World Series saves, became the second-oldest pitcher to earn a save in a World Series game behind Baltimore's Dick Hall (age 40 in 1971)…tossed a World Series career-high 41 pitches in Game 6 on 11/4 at Yankee Stadium…has been the Yankees final pitcher in each of their last four World Series-clinching wins (1998, '99, 2000 and '09)…donated his postseason cap to the Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Was 6-5 with 39 saves (in 40 chances) and a 1.40 ERA in a team-high 64 appearances with the Yankees…were his most wins and saves and his lowest ERA since 2005 (7, 43, 1.38)…established a career high with a 97.5% save pct., the highest mark by an AL closer since Boston's Tom Gordon in 1998 (97.9%, 46-for-47)…finished fifth in AL Cy Young Award voting.
- Opponents batted .165 (41-for-249, 4HR); LH .147 (19-for-129, 2HR), RH .183 (22-for-120, 2HR)…was the lowest opponents average among qualifying AL relievers, trailing only the Cubs' Carlos Marmol (.135) among all ML relievers…stranded 16-of-20 inherited runners (80.0%)…retired 47-of-64 first batters faced (73.4%)…saved consecutive games five times and earned the save in three straight games three times.
- Had the Majors' lowest ERA among all pitchers with at least 70.0IP…ranked third among AL relievers in strikeouts and was tied with Joe Nathan for fifth in the AL in saves.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 12.83 K/BB ratio (77K, 6BB) was the third highest in modern Major League history (min. 50.0IP), behind Dennis Eckersley's 1989 (18.33) and 1990 (18.25) campaigns.
- Converted his first 28 save opportunities to start the season, marking a career best (converted first 12 chances in 2004)…was not charged with a run in any of his first 22 save opportunities, becoming the first pitcher since 1975 (when the current save rules came into effect) to accomplish the feat (credit: Elias).
- Was selected to his ninth All-Star Game…tossed 1.2 scoreless innings in the 15.0-inning AL victory on 7/15 at the original Yankee Stadium, entering with one out and one on in the ninth…donated his jersey as well as dirt from the mound to the Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Recorded his second career Opening Day save, tossing a perfect ninth inning (1.0IP, 1K) in 4/1 win vs. Toronto…did not allow a run or walk in his first 14 appearances (4/1-5/10), recording 10 saves and striking out 12 batters in 15.0IP (6H)…was the longest scoreless streak to begin a season in his career…named the April winner of the "DHL Presents the Major League Baseball Delivery Man of the Month" Award.
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 6/1, earning his first career weekly award…in 6/7 win vs. Kansas City, recorded his second win of the season despite allowing a home run to David DeJesus, his first batter faced, on his first pitch (1.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1K, 1HR)…was his first HR allowed since 8/15/07 vs. Baltimore (Aubrey Huff) and marked the first time he had allowed a HR on his first pitch after entering a game since 8/23/97 at Seattle to Roberto Kelly (credit: Elias).

- Surrendered his first run of the season in a save opportunity in 7/5 win vs. Boston…allowed 1ER and loaded the bases with no outs (2HP) before retiring the final three batters of the game to earn his 23rd save…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time Rivera escaped a bases-full-none-out jam with the tying run on third in the game's final inning.
- In 7/29 loss vs. Baltimore, pitched the ninth to surpass the 1000.0IP plateau…on 8/1 at Los Angeles-AL, allowed one-out ninth-inning "walk-off" RBI-single to Chone Figgins on his first and only pitch of the game as the Angels won 1-0…was the second time he threw just one pitch (also 8/7/05 at Toronto – earned the save).
- In 8/12 win at Minnesota, allowed game-tying three-run HR to Delmon Young in the eighth for his only blown save of the season…in 8/15 loss vs. Kansas City, allowed the go-ahead run to score on a wild pitch…was just the second time in his career he allowed a run on a wild pitch (also 6/24/00 at Chicago-AL) and his first time allowing the go-ahead run on a WP (credit: Elias).
- Saved all three games of the Yankees' series at Baltimore from 8/22-24, marking the sixth time in his career he has saved all the games in a series of three or more games (previous 6/1-3/04 vs. Baltimore)…the only other Yankees pitchers to earn a save in each game of a series (of at least three games) are Dave Righetti (1986), Steve Howe (1994) and John Wetteland (twice in 1996).
- Recorded his 479th career save in 9/15 win vs. Chicago-AL, surpassing Lee Smith (478) for sole possession of second place on Baseball's all-time saves list.
- Threw 1.0 scoreless inning in the final game at Yankee Stadium on 9/21 vs. Baltimore, inducing a Brian Roberts groundout to 1B Cody Ransom with the game's final pitch to secure the Yankees victory.
- Returned to New York during the season's final road trip to undergo an MRI on his shoulder that revealed calcification in the AC joint in his right shoulder.
- Collected his 39th and final save of the season in 9/28 Game 1 win at Boston, tossing 1.1 scoreless IP to save Mike Mussina's 20th win of the season…was the second time he recorded a save in a pitcher's 20th win (also Roger Clemens in 2001).
- Underwent surgery on the AC joint in his right shoulder on 10/7…procedure was done by Dr. David Altchek at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York.

- Was 3-4 with a 3.15 ERA and 30 saves in 67 relief appearances for the Yankees…ranked fourth in the American League with 59 games finished and tied for eighth with 30 saves…opponents batted .248 (68-for-274, 4HR); LH .255 (35-for-137, 1HR), RH .241 (33-for-137, 3HR)…converted 30-of-34 save opportunities (88.2%).

- Was selected to the American League All-Star team, his eighth career selection…tossed a scoreless ninth to earn the save in the American League's 3-2 victory on 7/11 at PNC Field in Pittsburgh…was his third career All-Star save, tying Dennis Eckersley for most saves in All-Star history.
- Tossed 3.0 scoreless innings on 5/30 at Detroit to earn the win, marking his longest outing in the regular season since 9/6/96 vs. Toronto when he also went 3.0 innings…in 6/6 win vs. Boston, tossed a perfect ninth for his 12th save of the season and the 391st of his career, surpassing Dennis Eckersley for fourth place on Baseball's all-time list.
- On 7/20 at Toronto, allowed 11th-inning "walk-off" home run to Vernon Wells to record fifth loss (1.1IP, 2H, 1ER)…was the third "walk-off" home run allowed in his career in the regular season and the first since 7/24/04 at Boston (Bill Mueller)…had gone 51.0 innings without allowing a home run in 2006 and had gone 73.0 innings since he had last allowed a home run (Eduardo Perez on 8/16/05 at Tampa Bay), marking the longest such streak by a Yankees pitcher since Andy Pettitte in 2002 (also 73.0 innings)…missed 22 games from 9/1-20 with a strained right forearm.
- Made one relief appearance in the Division Series vs. Detroit, allowing 1H in 1.0IP in Game 1 win on 10/13.

- Was 7-4 with a career-low 1.38 ERA and 43 saves in 71 relief appearances…won his second straight "Rolaids Relief Man of the Year" Award…also was named "DHL Delivery Man of the Year"…became only the third pitcher in Major League history to save at least 40 games with a sub-1.50 ERA while working 75.0 innings or more (also John Wetteland in 1993 and Eric Gagne in 2003)…led the American League with 67 games finished, was tied for third with 43 saves and was tied for eighth with 71 games…led all American League relievers in ERA and opponent's batting average (.177)…was tied for seventh with 78.1IP…allowed more than one earned run in an appearance only once (2ER in 2.0IP on 8/13 vs. Texas)…allowed only 1ER on the road in 34 appearances (35.0IP) the entire season (0.26 ERA).
- Converted 43-of-47 save opportunities (91.5%)…saved consecutive games five times…saved three consecutive games three times…made appearances in consecutive games 13 times and three straight games six times…retired 58-of-71 first batters faced (81.7%)…prevented 16-of-18 inherited runners from scoring (88.9%)…opponents batted .177 (50-for-283, 2HR); LH .177 (25-for-141, 1HR), RH .176 (25-for-142, 1HR).
- Was selected to the 2005 American League All-Star team, his seventh career All-Star selection…retired the final batter of the All-Star Game at Detroit to record his second career All-Star save.
- Blew his first two save chances of the season on consecutive days, 4/5 and 4/6 vs. Boston, the first time he blew consecutive save opportunities in the regular season since 7/24/04 at Boston and 7/26/04 at Toronto (he had never blown saves on consecutive days)…following the back-to-back setbacks, converted 31 straight save opportunities from 4/9-8/11, the longest such streak of his career, allowing only 1ER in 31.2IP (0.28 ERA) while limiting batters to a .140 batting average (15-for-107, 3BB, 33K)…allowed only 4ER in his 46 overall appearances during that same span (51.2IP, 0.70 ERA).
- Did not allow a run in 22 appearances from 5/9-7/4 (23.0IP, 8H, 5BB, 23K)…the longest single-season scoreless innings streak by a Yankees pitcher since Mike Mussina threw 23.0 straight scoreless innings in 2001…was the longest such streak by any Yankees reliever since 1999, when Rivera finished the regular season with 30.2 shutout innings, the longest streak of his career.
- On 8/16 at Tampa Bay, allowed game-tying ninth-inning home run (Eduardo Perez) to record fourth blown save of the season and second in span of three opportunities…prior to blowing the save, had recorded 33 consecutive saves vs. the Devil Rays, the most saves at the time—without a blown save—by a pitcher against one particular opponent in AL history.
- Recorded saves in each of his two appearances against the Angels in the ALDS (3.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1BB, 1K)…recorded the 15th Division Series save of his career in Game 4 vs. the Angels, tossing 2.0 perfect innings for his first two-inning postseason save since 2003 ALCS Game 5 at Boston…was his Major League-leading 34th career postseason save (in 39 opportunities).

Most Seasons With Current Team

1. DEREK JETER ..... YANKEES .....18 (1995-2012)
   MARIANO RIVERA .. YANKEES 18 (1995-2012)
3. Todd Helton.....Colorado.....16 (1997-2012)
4. ANDY PETTITTE .... YANKEES.. 14 ('95-'03, '07-'10, '12)
   Paul Konerko.....Chicago-AL.....14 (1999-2012)
6. Jimmy Rollins.....Philadelphia..... 13 (2000-12)

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Derek Jeter, Mariano Rivera and Jorge Posada became the first trio of teammates in MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL history to appear in at least one game together in each of 17 consecutive seasons from 1995-2011…the second-longest trios in Yankees franchise history played 13 years together (Bill Dickey, Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing from 1930-42; and Whitey Ford, Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle from 1955-67).

Elias also notes that Rivera and Jeter, in 2012, became the first pair of players to be teammates in 18 or more consecutive seasons since Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker with Detroit, who were together 19 straight seasons from 1977-95.

The first game in which Derek Jeter and Mariano Rivera appeared together was Sept. 28, 1996 at Fenway Park. Jeter started and went 0-for-4. LHP Andy Pettitte also appeared in his first career game with the trio that day, starting and going 2.0IP. Ramiro Mendoza picked up the win, Rivera pitched 1.0IP and earned the hold, and John Wetteland earned his 43rd save. Posada also pinch-hit in the contest, striking out. The Yankees won, 4-2, and the losing pitcher was Roger Clemens.

- 2011

STATUS

- Selected in the 17th round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft…signed through the 2013 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Owns a 12.03K/9.0IP career ratio (351K, 262.2IP), fourth-best among active Major League pitchers—min. 100.0IP…is the highest K/9.0IP ratio for any pitcher in Yankees history (min. 100.0IP).
- Is the only pitcher in Baseball history to record at least 10K/9.0IP in each of his first five Major League seasons (2008-12)…was one of five pitchers all-time to do so in each of his first three seasons (2008-10), joining Dick Radatz, Troy Percival, Mark Prior and Takashi Saito.
- His 12.03K/9.0IP career ratio is second-best in Major League history (min. 200.0IP) behind Rob Dibble (12.17).

- Was 2-7 with two saves and a 2.67 ERA (60.2IP, 18ER) in 65 relief appearances…allowed just seven of his 22 inherited runners to score, retiring his first batter faced on 50 occasions…opponents combined to hit .229 (52-for-227) with 15 extra-base hits (8 doubles, 2 triples, 5HR) and 24RBI.
- Opponents batted .229 (52-for-227, 5HR); LH .208 (25-for-120, 1HR), RH .252 (27-for-107, 4HR).
- His seven losses were the most by a Yankees reliever since Jeff Nelson went 3-7 in 1997.
- Made his third career Opening Day roster.
- Did not allow a run in his first 13 appearances of the season from 4/6-5/8 (13.0IP, 8H, 5BB, 23K)…going back to 2011, did not allow a run over a 26.1-inning stretch from 9/1/11-5/8/12, marking the longest scoreless stretch by a Yankees pitcher since Mariano Rivera tossed 30.2 consecutive shutout innings from 7/22-10/2/99…had been the longest active scoreless streak in the Majors at the time it was snapped on 5/9.
- Struck out eight consecutive batters faced from 4/29-5/4…was 1K shy of the most by a Yankee in the expansion era (since 1961), trailing only Ron Davis (9K: 8K on 5/4/81 at California to end the game and 1K on 5/9/81 at Seattle with his only batter faced).
- Earned his first save of the season—and fourth of his career (first since 9/3/11 vs. Toronto)—in 5/8 win vs. Tampa Bay, tossing a scoreless ninth.
- Allowed 3H and 4ER in 0.2IP (1BB, 1K, 1HR) on 5/9 vs. Tampa Bay to record his first loss and blown save…marked his first runs allowed in 2012…marked his most runs allowed since 7/2/10 vs. Toronto (also 4ER)…allowed a solo HR to Matt Joyce, just his second HR allowed over a 99-game span (96.0IP) that dated back to 8/31/10 (also 8/29/11 at Baltimore, J.J. Hardy)…also snapped a personal streak of 231 opponent at-bats at Yankee Stadium without allowing a home run, the longest such stretch by any pitcher in the current Yankee Stadium.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/15 (retroactive to 5/14)–6/14 with a left oblique strain (missed 28 games)…made two rehab appearances (one start) with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre from 6/10-12, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (2K).

- Struck out his 300th career batter (Vinny Rottino) in 6/24 win at the Mets…reached the mark in fewer innings (219.2) than all but two pitchers in Major League history – Billy Wagner (194.1) and Brad Lidge (210.2).
- Made his second appearance in as many days on 6/28 vs. Chicago-AL, entering the game with two on and no outs in the ninth and allowing a go-ahead three-run HR to Viciedo to record his second blown save and second loss (1.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1K, 1HR).
- Allowed 3ER and a career-high 5H in 1.0IP (1K, 1HR) in 8/8 win at Detroit.
- Pitched on three straight days for the first time in his career from 8/26-28 (and five times in a six-game stretch overall from 8/22-28).
- Became a father for the first time with the birth of son Luke Joseph Robertson (8 lbs., 7 oz.) on 8/27…pitched in that night's loss vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless eighth (1.0IP, 2H, 1K).
- Was 1-0 with a 1.42 ERA (6.1IP, 1ER) in six postseason relief appearances…earned the win in ALDS Game 3 vs. Baltimore after holding the Orioles scoreless in the 11th and 12th innings (2.0IP, 1H, 2K).

- Was 4-0 with one save and a 1.08 ERA in a team-high 70 relief appearances with the Yankees in 2011…led all American League relievers and ranked second in the Majors in ERA trailing only Atlanta's Eric O'Flaherty (0.98)…held opponents scoreless in 63 of his appearances.
- Opponents batted .170 (40-for-235, 1HR), marking the ninth-lowest average among ML relievers; LH .156 (19-for-122, 0 HR), RH .186 (21-for-113, 1HR)…retired 52-of-70 first batters faced (74.3%)…prevented 34-of-44 inherited runners from scoring (77.3%)…appeared in consecutive games 13 times and three straight games twice (5/25-28 and 9/13-16)…the Yankees were 43-27 in games he appeared in, including a 15-6 mark over his final 21 outings…61 of his relief outings were at 1.0IP or less (85.9%).
- Led all AL relievers and ranked fourth among Major League relievers with 100K…marked the most strikeouts by a Yankees reliever since Mariano Rivera in 1996 (130), also marking the last time a Yankee led AL relievers in Ks (credit: Elias)…ranked fourth in the Majors (second in the AL) with 13.50 K/9.0IP, striking out at least one batter in 60 of his 70 outings…marked the highest K/9.0IP ratio by a Yankees reliever in franchise history…became the third pitcher all time to fan at least 100 batters while throwing less than 70.0IP, joining Billy Wagner (1997 w/Houston and 2010 w/Atlanta) and Joel Hanrahan (2010 w/Pittsburgh).
- Opponents batted .053 (1-for-19) with 14K with the bases loaded…according to Elias, the 14K with the bases loaded matched the most by any pitcher in the last 35 seasons (Nolan Ryan, 1977 Angels and Mark Littell, 1978 Cardinals)…held opponents hitless in their last 23AB with men on base to close out the season.
- Allowed just 1ER (a J.J. Hardy solo HR on 8/29 at Baltimore) in 36 appearances on the road (0.25 ERA, 36.0IP, 18H, 18BB, 52K)…held opponents scoreless in his first 28 road outings (28.2IP, 15H, 12BB, 41K) from 4/8-8/28 (Game 2), surpassing Mariano Rivera's (24 straight to open 2005) to establish a Major League record

- Held opponents homerless over a franchise-record 71 appearances (68.0IP) from 8/31/10-8/28/11 (Game 2), surpassing Mariano Rivera's 61-game homerless stretch from 8/19/05-7/17/06…had the streak snapped with Hardy's HR on 8/29 at Baltimore.
- Was named to his first career All-Star Game, tossing a scoreless second inning (1.0IP, 1H, 1K) for the AL in the 5-1 NL victory on 7/12.
- Made his second career Opening Day roster and held opponents scoreless in his first 10 appearances of the season from 4/2-26, allowing 8H in 8.1IP (2BB, 10K).
- Earned his first win of the season—on his 26th birthday—on 4/9 at Boston, retiring all five batters and stranding both inherited runners (1.2IP, 1K).
- Held opponents scoreless in 26 of his final 27 appearances of the season, beginning on 7/26, allowing just 11H and 1ER over the 26.2IP stretch with 37K (9BB, .128 opponents batting average)…span was bookended by a pair of 13-game scoreless streaks from 7/26-8/28 and 9/1-28.
- Did not allow a run in 13 September outings, surrendering just 4H and striking out 19 batters over his final 13.1IP this season (6BB, 1HP).
- Earned the win in the AL East-clinching victory in 9/21 Game 2 win vs. Tampa Bay to improve to 4-0…entered the game with one out and the bases loaded and induced a Zobrist double play on his first pitch…was his third career one-pitch win (also 7/22/08 vs. Minnesota and 6/4/09 vs. Texas), tied with Brian Shouse for most in the Majors since the start of 2008.
- Appeared in two ALDS games vs. Detroit, tossing 2.0 scoreless IP.

- Was 4-5 with one save and a 3.82 ERA in 64 relief appearances with the Yankees, striking out 71 batters in 61.1IP…opponents batted .258 (59-for-229, 5HR); LH .268 (26-for-97, 2HR), RH .250 (33-for-132, 3HR)…retired 43-of-64 first batters faced (67.2%)…prevented 23-of-33 inherited runners from scoring (69.7%)…appeared in consecutive games 10 times and three straight games twice…ranked seventh among all AL relievers with 10.42K/9.0IP…of his 64 relief outings, 48 were 1.0 inning or less (75.0%)…50 of his 64 outings were scoreless.
- Allowed 11ER over his first 10 appearances from 4/4-5/7 (7.1IP)…in 54 appearances from 5/8 through the end of the season, posted a 2.50 ERA (54.0IP, 15ER)…held opponents scoreless in 45 of those 54 outings.
- Tossed a season-high 2.0 scoreless IP (2BB, 2K, 1BK) in 5/16 loss vs. Minnesota…faced three batters before being removed from 5/29 loss vs. Cleveland with a mild lower back strain…did not pitch for six days.
- Earned his first win of the season on 7/4 vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless 10th inning (1.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 1IBB, 1K)…was the first of 19 consecutive scoreless appearances from 7/4-8/21 (18.1IP, 9H, 8BB, 24K)…according to Elias, held opponents hitless in 23 consecutive at-bats prior to Willie Bloomquist's ninth-inning double on 8/12 at Kansas City, the longest such streak of his career.
- Earned his second career save in 8/12 win at Kansas City, recording the final out of the game.
- Appeared in six postseason games, allowing 6ER in 3.1IP…surrendered 5ER in 10/18 ALCS Game 3 loss at Texas.

HOUDINI

RHP David Robertson has faced 51 batters with the bases loaded in his career, with 26K in those situations, including 2K in 3PA in 2012…registered14K in 19PA in 2011, matching the most by any pitcher from 1977-2011 (also Nolan Ryan, 1977 Angels and Mark Lettell, 1978 Cardinals), credit: Elias…allowed just 1H in 19PA against with the bases loaded in 2011.

Struck out 10 consecutive batters faced with the bases loaded during the 2011 season, becoming the only Major League pitcher since 1965 to register 10 straight bases-loaded strikeouts in a single season, according to Elias.

- Was 2-1 with one save and a 3.30 ERA (43.2IP, 16ER) in 45 relief appearances over three stints with the Yankees (4/16; 4/24-5/9; 5/26-10/4)…opponents batted .216 (36-for-167, 4HR); LH .189 (14-for-74, 2HR), RH .237 (22-for-93, 2HR)…stranded 16-of-25 inherited runners (64.0%)…retired 34-of-45 first batters faced (75.6%).
- Had a 12.98K/9.0IP ratio (43.2IP, 63K)…among pitchers with at least 40.0IP, marked the second-best K/9.0IP ratio in the Majors behind the Dodgers' Jonathan Broxton (13.50).
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre prior to the Yankees' first-ever regular season game at Yankee Stadium on 4/16…made his first appearance of the season in the loss that day vs. Cleveland, striking out three batters in 2.0 scoreless innings (2H)…was optioned back to Scranton/WB the next day…recalled a second time on 4/24 when RHP Chien-Ming Wang was placed on the D.L…appeared in four games (2.2IP, 2H, 3R, 2ER, 4BB, 4K) before being optioned back to Scranton/WB.
- Was recalled a third time on 5/26 and pitched out of the Yankees bullpen for the remainder of the season…did not allow a run in any of his first seven appearances following his third recall (5.0IP, 2H, 2BB, 6K).
- Threw one pitch (Elvis Andrus flyout to LF) to earn his first win of the season on 6/4 vs. Texas…was his second career one-pitch win (also 7/22/08 vs. Minnesota).
- Held opposing left-handed batters hitless in 18 consecutive at-bats from 4/25-6/18.
- Struck out three batters in 0.2IP in 8/6 win vs. Boston, becoming the first Yankee to record at least three strikeouts without completing a full inning of work since Ron Davis on 9/17/80 vs. Toronto (0.2IP, 3K).
- Was shut down for three weeks from 9/6-28 with elbow stiffness…had an MRI on 9/7 and was seen by Dr. James Andrews in Pensacola, Fla., on 9/10.
- Began the year at Scranton/WB, going 0-3 with two saves and a 1.84 ERA (14.2IP, 3ER, 6BB, 25K) in eight outings.
- Did not allow a run in five appearances during the 2009 playoffs, tossing 5.1 scoreless innings (4H, 3BB, 3K)…earned the win in each of his first two postseason appearances (Game 2 of ALDS vs. Minnesota and Game 2 of ALCS vs. Los Angeles-AL), as the Yankees recorded "walk-off" wins in each contest.
- In his first career postseason appearance in Game 2 of ALDS vs. Minnesota, escaped a bases-loaded, no out jam in the top of the 11th inning without allowing any runs (Yankees won in the bottom of the frame on Teixeira's "walk-off" HR).

- Was 4-0 with a 5.34 ERA in 25 relief appearances over two stints with the Yankees (6/28-8/28; 9/13-28)…opponents batted .257 (29-for-113, 3HR); LH .259 (14-for-54, 0HR), RH .254 (15-for-59, 3HR)…retired 16-of-25 first batters faced (64.0%)…prevented 6-of-14 inherited runners from scoring (42.9%)…pitched in three consecutive games twice (7/13-18 and 8/24-27)…tossed a season-high 2.0 innings on six occasions.
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the Yankees' 25-man roster on 6/28…made his ML debut in 6/29 loss at the Mets, allowing 1ER in 2.0IP (4H, 1K)…struck out his first batter faced (Oliver Perez).
- Held left-handed batters hitless over 16AB from 6/29-7/21 (9G) before Luke Scott's leadoff single in the sixth on 7/28 vs. Baltimore.
- Pitched a scoreless 12th inning and recorded his first Major League victory on 7/19 vs. Oakland (1.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 1K) after Jose Molina was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded, bringing in the game-winning run.
- Recorded his second Major League victory (within a four-game span) on 7/22 vs. Minnesota, stranding two inherited runners and getting the final out in the sixth on one pitch.
- In 7/28 loss vs. Baltimore, allowed a grand slam to Adam Jones and set a career high with 5ER…was his first HR allowed as a professional after 148.1 career IP (minors-136.0IP from 2007-08 and Majors-12.1IP).
- Allowed 16ER over 10 outings (13.1IP) from 7/28-8/27 and was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 8/28…was recalled from Scranton/WB on 9/13…did not allow a run over four appearances in his second stint (4.2IP, 2H, 3BB, 7K).
- In 53.2 combined minor league innings with Scranton/WB and Double-A Trenton, went 4-0 with three saves and a 1.67 ERA over 30 relief appearances (28H, 13R, 10ER, 23BB, 77K).
- Made three postseason relief outings with IL-champion SWB, allowing 3ER in 4.1IP (6.23 ERA, 2H, 4BB, 6K).
- Named the International League's "Best Reliever" in Baseball America's 2008 Best Tools survey.

- In his first professional season, pitched at Single-A Charleston, Single-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton, combining to go 8-3 with four saves and a 0.96 ERA in 44 relief appearances (32BB, 113K).
- Ranked third among minor league relievers, with a .154 opponents batting average…was named to the South Atlantic League's midseason All-Star team (w/ Charleston)…39 of his 44 outings were 2.0 innings and all but two were more than 1.0 inning…held opponents scoreless in 35 of his appearances and did not allow a hit in 16 of his games…converted on four of five save opportunities.
- Was 5-2 with three saves and a 0.77 ERA (47.0IP, 4ER) in 24 appearances with Charleston…began his career with 10 consecutive scoreless outings from 4/3-5/3, allowing just 7H in 18.1IP (6BB, 27K).
- Went 3-1 with one save and a 1.08 ERA with Tampa…did not allow an earned run in nine appearances at home (17.1IP, 8H, 2R, 9BB, 12K).
- Made two regular season appearances with Trenton, allowing 1ER in 4.0IP (2.25 ERA)…appeared in two postseason games for the Eastern League champion Thunder, surrendering 2ER in 5.0IP (3.60 ERA) and striking out five batters.

No Hits For You

Former Yankee and Hall of Famer Allie Reynolds (pictured) is one of only four pitchers to record two regular-season no-hitters in the same season, accomplishing the feat in 1951…prior to Reynolds, Cincinnati's Johnny Vander Meer was the only pitcher to hurl two no-hitters in the same season, doing so in back-to-back starts in June 1938…Detroit's Virgil Trucks (1952) and California's Nolan Ryan (1973) are the only other pitchers to match the record.

Reynolds' first no-hitter of the 1951 season came on July 12 vs. Cleveland…his second no-hitter, an 8-0 Yankees victory on September 28 vs. Boston, clinched the American League title for the Yankees.

- Stole his 300th base in the sixth inning of 8/8 win at Boston.
- Hit three home runs (solo-HR and two two-run HRs) in 8/14 win at Kansas City, going 4-for-5…hit the three homers in consecutive plate appearances off three different pitchers (a span of five pitches)…was his fourth career three-HR game and first since 4/26/05 vs. Los Angeles-AL.
- Was named the "AL Player of the Month" for September (.309, 25-for-81, 15R, 9HR and 26RBI in 22 games).
- Appeared in all nine postseason games, reaching base in eight of the contests (.219, 7-for-32, 5R, 2 doubles, 3RBI and 4BB).

- Hit .286 (127-for-444) with 17 doubles, 1 triple, 30HR, 100RBI and 14SB in 124 games (113 starts at 3B, nine at DH) with the Yankees…missed 28 team games at the beginning of the season due to injury…became the 12th player all time to reach 30HR and 100RBI in a season in which he played fewer than 125G, first since Manny Ramirez in 2002.
- The Yankees went 90-44 (.672) following his return from the disabled list on 5/8, marking the best winning percentage in the Majors over the stretch…ranked second in the American League in RBI and tied for second in the AL in home runs after coming off the D.L., trailing only teammate Mark Teixeira.
- Was involved in scoring or driving in the game-winning or tying run in six of the Yankees' 15 "walk-off" innings in 2009 (two game-ending home runs, one game-tying home run, two game-winning runs scored and hit a pop-up resulting in a two-run "walk-off" error vs. the Mets)…batted .310 (18-for-58) with 8HR and 21RBI in "close and late" situations, tying for second-most HR in the Majors in such situations.
- According to Elias, 15 of his 30HR either tied the game or put the team ahead…had 12HR in the seventh inning or later, seven of which tied the game or put the Yankees ahead…51 of his 100RBI tied the game or put the team ahead, tying for second in the AL with 29 go-ahead RBI…had 33RBI in the seventh inning or later, 15 of which tied the game or put the team ahead.
- Became the third Yankee to reach the 100RBI plateau in fewer than 125 games in a season (also Joe DiMaggio in 1939 and Bill Dickey in 1936).

- Was placed on the 15-day D.L. from 4/4–5/8 (retroactive to 3/27)…missed 28 team games…underwent arthroscopic surgery on 3/9 to repair his right hip labrum, remove an impingement in the joint and drain a cyst in the hip…the procedure was performed by Dr. Marc Philippon at the Vail Valley Surgery Center in Vail, Colo…the cyst and tear were discovered during an MRI taken on 2/28…cyst was originally drained on 3/5.
- In 44 plate appearances during rehab assignment from 4/30-5/7, was 7-for-36 (.194) with 3HR, 8BB and 8K…reported to Tampa on 4/13 to continue his rehab program…was selected to participate in the World Baseball Classic with the Dominican Republic, but was unable to play (hip surgery).
- Missed the Opening Day active roster for the first time since 1995, snapping a stretch of 13 straight Opening Day starts.
- Hit three-run HR on his first pitch seen of the season and was 1-for-4 in 5/8 win at Baltimore…became the first Yankee to homer on the first pitch of his first plate appearance of a season since Andy Phillips on 9/26/04 at Boston, in the first PA of his Major League career…was the second time that Rodriguez hit a HR in his first AB of a season (also 2006).
- Seven of his first 10 hits after returning from the disabled list on 5/8 were home runs…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the first Yankee in franchise history to collect 7HR within his first 10H of the season.
- Homered on four straight days from 5/16-19, marking the eighth time in his career he homered in at least four consecutive games…according to Elias, his five streaks of four straight games with a HR as a Yankee tie him with Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Yogi Berra for the most in franchise history.
- Hit 6HR on the Yankees' 10-game homestand from 5/15-24, matching his most HR hit during any homestand in his Major League career (third time).
- Reached the 14-year anniversary of his first HR (Tom Gordon on 6/12/95 w/ Seattle vs. Kansas City) with 561 homers…according to Elias, his career total of within 14 years of hitting his first were most all time…the next-highest such home run totals were Mark McGwire (552) and Sammy Sosa (539).
- Hit two-run HR—the 564th of his career to surpass Reggie Jackson for 11th place on the all-time list—in 6/26 win at the Mets.
- Hit two-run "walk-off" HR in the 15th inning of 8/7 win vs. Boston, becoming the fifth player in Baseball history to hit a "walk-off" HR in the 15th inning or later to break a scoreless tie, joining Old Hoss Radbourn in 1882 w/ Providence (18th inning), Earl Averill in 1935 w/ Cleveland (15th inning), Willie Mays in 1963 w/ San Francisco (16th inning) and Adrian Garrett in 1975 w/ Chicago-NL (16th inning)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau…was his ninth career extra-inning HR.

Triple Your Pleasure

The Yankees turned a triple play in the sixth inning of their April 22, 2010, loss at Oakland (5-4-3 – Alex Rodriguez to Robinson Cano to Nick Johnson on a ground ball hit by Kurt Suzuki), marking the team's first since June 3, 1968 vs. Minnesota, when the Twins' Johnny Roseboro hit into a 1-5-3 (Dooley Womack to Bobby Cox to Mickey Mantle). The Yankees had gone 6,632 regular season games between turning triple plays, during which every other Major League team had made at least one triple play and the Yankees themselves had hit into nine triple plays.

STATUS

- Signed as a free agent to a seven-year contract, extending through the 2015 season, on December 18, 2008…agreed to a one-year extension for the 2016 season, with an additional vesting club option for 2017 on October 31, 2011.

CAREER NOTES

- Since his debut in 2001, has a 191-102 (.652) record with a 3.50 ERA and 2,214K in 383 starts, marking the most wins and strikeouts in the Majors over the stretch…is second in starts, IP (2,564.1) and complete games (35), and tied for second in shutouts (12) over the span.
- Owns 191 career victories and 2,214K, one of only five MLB pitchers all-time to reach those respective marks prior to beginning a season with an Opening Day age of 32 (also Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Bob Feller and Don Drysdale)…his 191 victories are the ninth-most for any pitcher that debuted in the Live Ball Era for any pitcher prior to his age-32 season.
- Has recorded at least 11 wins in each of his first 12 seasons to begin his Major League career, one of just four pitchers in the Modern Era (since 1900) to accomplish the feat: also Don Sutton (first 17 seasons, 1966-82), Eddie Plank (first 16 seasons, 1901-16) and Tom Seaver (first 13 seasons, 1967-79).
- Elias notes that he is the only pitcher in Baseball history to win more than 10 games while posting a winning record in each of his first 12 Major League seasons.
- Owns 34 career games of at least 10K, third-most among active pitchers behind Johan Santana (50) and Javier Vazquez (43)…has recorded 15 games of 10-or-more strikeouts as a Yankee, the fourth-most in the Live Ball Era (Ron Guidry-23, David Cone-21 and Al Downing-17)…his 2,214K are the 11th-most since 1893 for any pitcher through his age-31 season.
- Among all active Major League pitchers who finished the season on a Major League roster, is second in strikeouts, third in complete games, fourth in wins (Andy Pettitte-269, Roy Halladay-199, Tim Hudson-197) and shutouts, seventh in starts, eighth in IP and ninth in ERA (min: 1,500.0IP)…among active lefthanders on Major League rosters at the end of the season, is first in winning percentage (min: 100 decisions), second in wins and strikeouts, third in ERA (min: 1,000.0IP) and fourth in starts.
- Has gone 91-39 (.700) with a 3.11 ERA over the last five seasons (2008-12), leading the Majors in wins, winning pct. (min: 50 decisions), and IP (1158.0), ranking third in strikeouts (1,072) and tied for fourth in shutouts (7).
- Is the only Major League hurler to win at least 15 games in each of the last six seasons (2007-12), including his first four as a Yankee (2009-12)…is the first Yankee to reach 15 wins in four straight seasons since Ron Guidry (1977-80), and one of six Yankees to do so in each of his first four years with the club - first since Allie Reynolds (six straight, 1947-52).
- Owns 74 wins as a Yankee (2009-12), the third-most for a pitcher in his first four years with the organization behind only Jack Chesbro (104) and Herb Pennock (79).

- With 19, 21, and 19 wins, respectively, from 2009-11, became the first Major Leaguer to win at least 19 games in three straight years since Randy Johnson (2000-02) and the first American Leaguer since Dave Stewart won 20 games in each season from 1987-90 (credit: Elias)…became just the fourth Yankee with at least 19 wins in three-or-more straight years, joining Vic Raschi (4 straight years, 1948-51); Red Ruffing (4, 1936-39); and Jack Chesbro (4, 1903-06 in the first four seasons the franchise was based in New York)…joins Chesbro as the second Yankee to accomplish the feat in his first three years with the club…was the first pitcher to win at least 19 games in each of his first three seasons with a team since Oakland's Ken Holtzman, Cleveland's Gaylord Perry and the Angels' Nolan Ryan each accomplished the feat from 1972-74.
- Has tossed at least 200.0IP in each of the last six seasons (2007-12), joining Mark Buehrle as the only left-handers to reach the plateau in each season over the span…included a stretch of five straight seasons with at least 230.0IP from 2007-11…according to Elias, since 1990, just two other pitchers had streaks as long: Randy Johnson (1998-2002) and Kevin Brown (1996-2000)…was the first Yankees pitcher since Ed Figueroa (1976-78) and first Yankees LHP since Fritz Peterson (1969-72) to record at least 230.0IP in three-or-more consecutive seasons.
- Has recorded at least 139K in each of his 12 Major League seasons, just the third Major Leaguer in the Modern Era to record as many or more strikeouts in each season from the start of his career, joining Tom Seaver (first 12 seasons, 1967-78) and Don Sutton (first 13, 1966-78).
- Owns three seasons of at least 200K (2007-08, '11), trailing only Johan Santana (five) for most among active LHPs.
- Leads all active Major League pitchers under age 33 in strikeouts (2,214), wins (191) and innings pitched (2,564.1).
- With 383 career starts, owns the most career starts among active pitchers who have never made a regular season relief appearance…has made at least 28 starts in each of his 12 big league seasons.
- Has thrown a Major League-high 39,979 pitches since his debut in 2001.
- Has 74 wins since joining the Yankees prior to the 2009 season, second behind Detroit's Justin Verlander (78) for most in the Majors over the span…over the same stretch, has compiled 77 starts of at least 7.0IP and 3ER-or-less, tied with Verlander, trailing only Felix Hernandez (88)…has posted a 3.22 ERA (905.0IP, 324ER) in 129GS since joining the Yankees, marking the second-best ERA among Yankees starters with at least 500.0 starting IP since 1973 (trailing only Rudy May, 3.13 ERA).
- Owns a 74-29 career record as a Yankee in 129 starts, winning 71.8% of his decisions and 57.4% of his starts…Elias notes that both respective percentages are the highest in franchise history among pitchers who have started at least 100 games.
- Went 59-23 (.720) in his first 100 starts with the Yankees…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, tied for the second-most wins by a Yankee within his first 100 games with the club (Jack Chesbro-63, Russ Ford-59), and was the most wins through 100 starts as a Yankee since Ron Guidry went 62-19 in his first 100 starts in pinstripes…Elias also notes that his 618K through his first 100GS as Yankee were the third-most in franchise history behind David Cone (673) and Ron Guidry (660).
- Is 33-11 with a 2.99 ERA (430.1IP, 143ER) and a .220 opponents average in 60 regular season starts at the current Yankee Stadium (since 2009), marking the most all-time wins at the venue…marks the sixth-most home wins by a Major League pitcher over the stretch (2009-12)…Elias notes that his .806 (29-7) winning percentage over his first 50 home starts at Yankee Stadium was the third-highest for any pitcher in franchise history, behind Ron Guidry (.854, 35-6) and David Cone (.833, 30-6).
- Won 21 consecutive regular season starts at Yankee Stadium from 7/18/09-9/10/10 (16-0, 2.05 ERA)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, tied Whitey Ford (8/8/64-8/18/65 at the original Yankee Stadium) for the longest undefeated streak of starts by a Yankee at any ballpark (home or away), and was tied for the longest home winning streak in franchise history with Johnny Allen (1932-33) and Ron Guidry (1985-86).
- Won at least 12 games prior to the All-Star break in 2010 and 2011, the second Yankee in franchise history to do so in consecutive years - also Tommy John (13-4 in 1979; 12-3 in 1980)…became just the fifth pitcher in the last 20 seasons (1992-2011) to win 12-or-more games prior to the break in consecutive seasons, joining Jack McDowell (1992-93 w/Chicago-AL), Curt Schilling (2001-02 w/Arizona), Mark Mulder (2003-04 w/Oakland) and Roy Halladay (2005-06 w/Toronto).
- Has made nine career Game 1 starts in the postseason, trailing only Greg Maddux (11) for most all time.
- As a Yankee in the postseason (since 2009), is 7-2 with a 3.50 ERA (82.1IP, 32ER) in 14 games (13 starts)…in home games at Yankee Stadium over the span, is 4-1 with a 2.03 ERA (40.0IP, 9ER) in seven games (6GS)…has never allowed more than 2R in a home postseason start.
- Went undefeated over eight straight postseason starts with the Yankees from 11/1/09 (World Series Game 4 at Philadelphia) through 10/12/12 (ALDS Game 5 vs. Baltimore)…is the fifth-longest stretch of undefeated playoff starts by a Yankee in franchise history (Roger Clemens-10 straight and Andy Pettitte, Orlando Hernandez and David Cone-each nine straight).

GOING STRONG

LHP CC Sabathia enters 2013 having compiled 12 straight seasons with a winning record and at least 180.0IP to start his career. He is one of four pitchers all time to reach the marks in 12 straight seasons at any point in his career. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he joins Cy Young (14, 1881-1904), Greg Maddux (17, 1988-2004) and Christy Mathewson (12, 1903-14).

- Was 15-6 with a 3.38 ERA (200.0IP, 75ER) and 197K in 28 starts for the Yankees…marked his sixth straight season with at least 15 wins and 200.0IP, making him the only pitcher to accomplish the feat since 2007…struck out 8.87 batters per 9.0IP, the second-best such mark of his career behind 2008 (8.93K/9.0IP).
- Among AL pitchers, finished third in winning percentage (.714), seventh in strikeouts and opponents batting average (.238) and tied for 10th in wins…led Yankees pitchers in strikeouts, was second in IP (Kuroda-219.2), and third in wins (Phil Hughes-16 and Kuroda-16) and ERA (Pettitte-2.87 and Kuroda-3.32)…received four no-decisions in starts in which he left the game with a lead.

DUELING LEFTIES

In 2010, CC Sabathia (21-7, .750) and Andy Pettitte (11-3, .786) became just the second set of Yankees left-handers each with at least a .750 winning percentage and a minimum 20 starts in the same season…the 1953 combo of Whitey Ford (18-6, .750) and Eddie Lopat (16-4, .800) are the only other pair of hurlers in franchise history to accomplish the feat.

CAREER NOTES

- Ranks 74th in Major League history with 2,606H…has 49 career games with four-or-more hits, the most of any active player.
- Since 2001, has recorded the most hits (2,606) and multi-hit games (798) in the Majors…owns three of the top 17 single-season hit totals in the Modern Era (since 1900): 262H in 2004, 242H in 2001 and 238H in 2007…joins Freddie Lindstrom (1928 and '30) and Rogers Hornsby (1921-22) as only players with at least two seasons of 230-or-more hits.
- Owns eight seasons with at least 200H and 100R (2001-08), joining Lou Gehrig as the only players in the Modern Era to reach the plateaus eight times in a career…Willie Keeler (1894-1901) is the only other player to do so in consecutive seasons.
- His 37 career leadoff HR ranks sixth all-time.
- Has recorded at least 150H in each of his first 12 Major League seasons (since 2001), joining Paul Waner (first 14 straight from 1926-39), Richie Ashburn (first 13 from 1948-60) and Albert Pujols (first 12 from 2001-12) as the only players to accomplish the feat in the Live Ball Era.
- Owns 43 hitting streaks of at least 10 games in his career, marking the sixth-most double-digit hitting streaks in the Majors since 1903 (Ty Cobb-66, Hank Aaron-48, Tris Speaker-47, Derek Jeter-46 and Al Simmons-44).
- Owns 11 seasons (2001-11) with at least 50 multi-hit games, fifth-most over the last 70 years behind Pete Rose (15), Stan Musial (14), Derek Jeter (14) and Tony Gwynn (13).
- Has recorded at least 20SB in each of his 12 seasons to start his Major League career (2001-12)…joined Rickey Henderson (who stole at least 20 bases in each of his first 23 seasons) and Ozzie Smith (who stole at least 20 bases in each of his first 16 seasons) as the only players to accomplish the feat.
- Has played in a Major League-high 1,911 games during his 12 seasons in the Major Leagues…only three other players have appeared in 1,900 or more games over a span of 12 seasons: Cal Ripken (1,939; 1982-93), Pete Rose (1,922; 1969-80) and Billy Williams (1,920; 1962-73)…has missed only 35 games in his 12 Major League seasons (2001-12)…played in 1,749 of 1,782 games with Seattle from 2001-11, including 1,733 starts (97.3%)…played in all 67 games that he was on the Yankees roster in 2012, including 56 starts.
- Is the sixth Japan-born player to appear in a game for the Yankees, joining Hideki Irabu (1997-99), Hideki Matsui (2003-09), Kei Igawa (2007-08), Hiroki Kuroda (2012) and Ryota Igarashi (2012).

- Batted .283 (178-for-629) with 77R, 28 doubles, 6 triples, 9HR, 55RBI and 29SB in 162 combined games between Seattle and the Yankees…was acquired by the Yankees along with cash considerations from Seattle in exchange for RHPs D.J. Mitchell and Danny Farquhar on 7/23.
- Played in 162 games in 2012, tying the Cubs' Starlin Castro, Detroit's Prince Fielder and Baltimore's Adam Jones for the Major League lead…has played in at least 155G in 11 different seasons, tying for the fifth-highest total in Major League history behind Cal Ripken-15, Pete Rose-15, Eddie Murray-12 and Billy Williams-12.
- Hit .322 (73-for-227) with 28R, 13 doubles, 1 triple, 5HR, 27RBI, 5BB and a .340 OBP in 67 games with the Yankees.
- Made 56 starts in LF (26), RF (24), CF (five) and DH (one) with the Yankees…had made just one start in LF in his career prior to 2012 (2001 ALCS Game 5 w/ Seattle at the Yankees)…according to Elias, had started 1,798 Major League games in the outfield prior to the game (1,533 in RF, 265 in CF)…the last player to start in LF for the first time in the regular season after starting as many games at other OF positions was Kenny Lofton (1,932GS in CF and RF) before starting in LF for the 2007 Cleveland Indians.
- His 73H after the trade mark the most by a Yankees midseason acquisition who played for another team since David Justice had 84H for the 2000 Yankees after being acquired from Cleveland.
- Hit 5HR (all at Yankee Stadium) in 58G with the Yankees after hitting 4HR in his first 95G to start the year with Seattle.
- Opened the season with Seattle…in 95 games (93-RF/2-DH), batted .261 (105-for-402) with 49R, 15 doubles, 4HR, 28RBI and 15SB (in 17 attempts).
- Went 4-for-5 in Seattle's Opening Day win vs. Oakland in Tokyo on 3/28…tied the Mariners' Opening Day record for hits (also Ken Griffey Jr. on Opening Day in 1990)…owns a Mariners-record 17 OD hits.
- Began the season batting .338 (26-for-77) with nine multi-hit games over his first 18 road games.
- Recorded his 100th career outfield assist in 5/11 loss at Yankee Stadium, throwing out Robinson Cano at second base…had the day off on 5/30 at Texas, snapping streak of 150 straight games played (since 6/11/11).
- Homered twice in 6/2 win at Chicago-AL for his first multi-homer game since 8/21/10 at Yankee Stadium.
- Collected the 2,500th hit of his MLB career in 6/19 win at Arizona as part of a 4-for-5 day.
- Made his Yankees debut in 7/23 win at Seattle, batting eighth and playing right field…with 2,533H, had the third-highest total by any player at the time of his debut for the Yankees, behind only Paul Waner (3,151 in 1944) and Ivan Rodriguez (2,584 in 2008)—credit: Elias.
- Hit safely in each of his first 12G as a Yankee from 7/23-8/5, the longest hitting streak by a Yankee acquired during the season and tying the longest hitting streak for any player to begin his Yankees career (also Don Slaught – 1988).
- Had exactly 1H in each of the 12 games, a franchise record for most consecutive games with exactly one hit…did not strike out during the stretch, marking the longest streak of "one-hit" games with zero strikeouts by any Major League player in the Live Ball Era (surpassed Enos Slaughter-1939 and Yogi Berra-1953 who each had 10-game stretches with exactly 1H and 0K).
- According to Elias, was the longest streak of its kind in the Majors since Willy Aybar had exactly 1H in 13 consecutive games in 2006 w/Los Angeles-NL.
- Batted in the leadoff position for the first time as a Yankee in 7/25 win at Seattle, going 1-for-5.
- Hit solo HR—his 100th career HR and first as a Yankee—and was 1-for-4 with 1SB in 7/30 loss vs. Baltimore…snapped a 188AB homerless stretch.
- Struck out in his second at-bat in 8/6 loss at Detroit, snapping a stretch of 55 consecutive plate appearances without a K…also snapped a stretch of 49 plate appearances without a walk or strikeout since joining the Yankees…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, marked the longest such streak for a Yankee since Steve Sax, who went 55PA without walking or striking out in 1991.

- 2004, 2005, 2009

STATUS

- Signed as a free agent to an eight-year contract on January 6, 2009…contract extends through the 2016 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Had his eight-season streak of reaching 30HR and 100RBI snapped in 2012…had been the only Major Leaguer to reach the totals in each of the previous eight seasons (2004-11)…according to Elias, is one of only three first basemen all time (also Jimmie Foxx and Albert Pujols) to record 30HR and 100RBI in eight straight seasons by age 31.
- Failed to hit at least 25HR in 2012 for the first time in his career…had reached the 25HR plateau in each of his first nine Major League seasons (2003-11)…according to Elias, was just the fourth player in Baseball history to accomplish the feat, joining Albert Pujols (12 seasons), Eddie Mathews (11) and Darryl Strawberry (nine).
- With 338 career home runs, is one of nine players all-time to hit at least 325HR within the first 10 years of their Major League careers and one of four active players to accomplish the feat, joining Albert Pujols (408 from 2001-10), Adam Dunn (354 from 2001-10) and Alex Rodriguez (345 from 1994-2003).
- Holds the record for the most HRs by a switch-hitter through his first 10 Major League seasons (2003-12)…Mickey Mantle is second with 320 (1951-60)…reached the 300HR plateau in his 1,296th career game (on 6/30/11 vs. Milwaukee), surpassing Mantle (1,314) to become the fastest switch-hitter ever to reach the mark.
- Has homered from both sides of the plate in the same game 13 times in his career, the most such games all time.
- In 2011, became the sixth player in Baseball history to reach the 1,000RBI plateau within their first nine MLB seasons…he joins Al Simmons (1,156), Ted Williams (1,135), Joe DiMaggio (1,122), Albert Pujols (1,112) and Hank Greenberg (1,003).
- Is one of nine players in Baseball history—and the second switch-hitter (also Chipper Jones)—to have at least 100RBI in at least eight of his first 10 Major League seasons…his eight 100RBI seasons tie him with Carlos Beltran for the second-most all-time among switch-hitters, trailing only Jones (nine).
- Since returning to the AL on 7/29/08 when he was acquired by the Angels from Atlanta, is second in the American League in RBI (468, behind Cabrera-526) and third in HR (148, behind Cabrera-166 and Granderson-149)

LONG SHOTS

The Yankees hit a franchise-record 245HR in 2012 (surpassing the previous mark of 244 set in 2009).

- Hit 138HR at home and 107R on the road…tied the 1996 Seattle Mariners for the seventh-most home runs in a season all-time.
- Became the first team to homer in 131 games in a single season.
- Reached the 200-homer plateau for the 12th time in the last 13 years since 2000 (all but 2008).
- Scored 48.4% of their runs on homers.

The Yankees have held the outright Major League lead in home runs in three of the last four years (2009, '11-12)… prior to the 2009 championship year, had not accomplished that feat since 1961.

In 2012, the Yankees had nine players with at least 15HR (Cano, Chavez, Granderson, Ibanez, Jeter, Martin, Rodriguez, Swisher and Teixeira)…it marked the franchise's most players with at least 15HR in a single season and tied the Major League record (also the 2005 Indians and 2005 Rangers)…had 10 players with at least 10HR, most for any team in 2012 and tying the franchise record (also 1998).

The Yankees 2012 roster featured eight players with at least 200 career homers (Alex Rodriguez, Andruw Jones, Mark Teixeira, Raul Ibanez, Derek Jeter, Eric Chavez, Nick Swisher and Curtis Granderson)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, they became the first team to feature as many 200-homer men.

New York Yankees Museum Presented by Bank of America

On the Main Level, near Gate 6, sits the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America, telling the story of Baseball's most historic franchise through various displays of artifacts and memorabilia.

Items on display include a "Ball Wall" which contains nearly 900 autographed baseballs from Yankees past and present, Thurman Munson's locker from the original Yankee Stadium and a replica of a locker from the Yankees clubhouse in the current Stadium.

On game days, fans are welcome in the museum from the time the gates open until the end of the eighth inning. On non-game days, visitors may visit it as part of Yankee Stadium tours.

"Nobody tells a story like the New York Yankees," says Yankees Museum Curator Brian Richards.

With rotating exhibits throughout the season, the museum offers fans the opportunity to explore different eras of New York Yankees history. In addition to permanent displays, the museum has featured specially designed exhibits including: "Sultan of Swat": The Legacy of Babe Ruth; "The Closest Tie": The New York Yankees and Negro Leagues Baseball; "Subway Series": New York City's Baseball Rivalries; "Iron Horse": The Life and Career of Lou Gehrig; and "Mickey Mantle": The Life and Legacy of a Baseball Hero.

Over the years, the museum has given fans the chance to closely view artifacts such as: all seven World Series trophies won by the Yankees since the Steinbrenner family assumed principal ownership, the bat used by Babe Ruth to hit Yankee Stadium's first home run; the bat used by Lou Gehrig to hit four home runs in one game on 6/3/1932 at Philadelphia; Mickey Mantle's first contract with the Yankees organization from 1949 and his 1956 Most Valuable Player Award, a catcher's mitt worn by Yogi Berra (c. 1952-1953), and a Joe DiMaggio game-used bat from 1938.

- Combined to hit .235 (103-for-438) with 19HR and 60RBI over 122 games for Boston and Chicago-AL…hit .275 (33-for-120) with 8HR vs. left-handed pitchers.
- Was acquired by the White Sox from the Red Sox on 6/24 with cash considerations in exchange for infielder Brent Lillibridge and pitcher Zach Stewart…his .235 average was a career low, and his 60RBI and 51BB were his fewest in a full season.
- Began the season with Boston, hitting .233 (34-for-146) with 4HR and 14RBI in 42 games.
- Made his seventh Opening Day start for Boston in 4/5 loss at Detroit…hit his second career grand slam in 4/26 win at Chicago-AL.

- Missed three straight games from 4/30-5/2 due to a stiff lower back…was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/2 (retroactive to 4/29) with a lower back strain…appeared in four rehabilitation games with Triple-A Pawtucket…returned from rehab and was reinstated from the D.L. on 5/22 (missed 22 team games).
- Homered in his first game after returning from the D.L. in 5/22 loss at Baltimore, going 1-for-3.
- Was ejected by home plate umpire Doug Eddings in 6/8 loss vs. Washington (his fourth career ejection).
- Appeared in his first game with the White Sox in 6/25 loss at Minnesota, going 1-for-4 and starting at 3B…batted .236 (69-for-292) with 15HR and 46RBI overall with Chicago-AL…started 80 games with Chicago-AL (78 at 3B, two at 1B).
- Collected five game-winning RBI in his first 14 games with the White Sox, the first Sox player to accomplish the feat since at least 1974 (credit: STATS LLC).
- Hit safely in 14 of his first 19 games with the White Sox (.315, 23-for-73)…included was an eight-game hitting and RBI streak from 7/1-13 during which he batted .419 (13-for-31) with 3HR and 12RBI.
- Recorded a go-ahead RBI in four straight games from 7/1-5, becoming just the second White Sox player (also Paul Konerko, June 2011) to accomplish the feat.
- Went 3-for-6 with a solo HR, 3R and 4RBI in his White Sox home debut in 7/3 win vs. Texas…joined Fred Eichrodt (4/22/31 vs. Cleveland) as the only players in franchise history with at least 3H and 4RBI in their first home game (source: Elias).
- Drove in the go-ahead run in each of his first three home games with Chicago-AL, becoming the only White Sox player since 1920 to accomplish the feat, according to Elias.
- Hit .250 (22-for-88) with 20R, 3 doubles, 6HR and 19RBI in 24 July games, ranking among the AL leaders for the month in runs (tied for fourth), home runs (tied for eighth) and RBI (tied for eighth).
- Went 3-for-4 with 2 doubles in 7/16 loss in his first game back at Fenway Park…hit a three-run homer in 7/17 win at Boston, his sixth game-winning RBI in his first 18 games with Chicago-AL.
- Collected his 1,000th career hit in the eighth inning of 8/16 win at Toronto (Major League Baseball overturned an error ruling from earlier in the game, and he reached the milestone retroactively).
- Hit a game-winning grand slam (third of his career) in the fifth inning of 8/21 win vs. the Yankees…according to Elias, became the first player since 1952 (Boston's Don Lenhardt) to hit a grand slam against and for one team in the same year.
- Played in his 1,000th career game in 8/22 win at Yankee Stadium…registered his 11th career multi-homer game in 9/12 loss vs. Detroit.

After being postponed one day by rain, the Yankees suffered the series sweep, falling in Game 4 at Comerica Park, 8-1…were swept in a potseason series for just the fifth time and first since the 1980 ALCS vs. Kansas City (0-3)…snapped a streak of 36 straight postseason series without being swept…allowed their most hits in a postseason game since 2005 ALDS Game 3 vs. the Angels (19H)…surrendered 4HR in the game, matching their most allowed in a postseason contest (eighth time, first since 2010 ALCS Game 4 vs. Texas)…LHP CC Sabathia allowed 11H and 6R (5ER) in 3.2IP (2BB, 3K, 2HR)…RF Nick Swisher (1-for-4, 1RBI) and SS Eduardo Nunez (1-for-3, 1R) had the Yankees' only hits in the game, coming in the sixth inning… the 2H matched their fewest ever in a postseason game (fourth time, first since 2010 ALCS Game 3 vs. Texas).

PITCHING IN

Yankees pitchers compiled a 2.76 team ERA in the 2012 postseason (88.0IP, 27ER), their lowest mark since 2003 (2.73)…held opponents to 3R or less in seven of the nine postseason games…Yankees starters tossed at least 6.0IP with 3ER or less in each of their first seven starts, matching 2009 for the best such stretch to start a postseason in franchise history.

OF/DH Raul Ibanez had a game-tying solo HR in the ninth and "walk-off" solo HR in the 12th inning in ALDS Game 3 vs. Baltimore; and a game-tying two-run HR in the ninth in ALCS Game 1 vs. Detroit, becoming the first player in Major League history to homer three times in the ninth inning or later in a single postseason…joined Johnny Bench as the only two players ever with three career game-tying or go-ahead home runs in the ninth inning or later in postseason play…also became the second player in Major League history to hit two game-tying or go-ahead home runs with his team trailing in the ninth inning or later in one postseason, joining Alex Rodriguez who did it with the Yankees in 2009 (ALDS Game 2 vs. Minnesota and ALCS Game 2 vs. the Angels) - credit: Elias.

Two-Stadium Doubleheaders

On three occasions, the Yankees and Mets have played two-stadium day-night doubleheaders. Each instance was precipitated by a rainout. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the first occurrence in 2000 marked the first dual-venue doubleheader in the Majors since September 7, 1903, when the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Superbas (later called the Dodgers) faced off in Game 1 (Giants 6 - Brooklyn 4) at Washington Park in Brooklyn and Game 2 (Brooklyn 3 - Giants 0) at the Polo Grounds in Manhattan.

Played for or Managed Yankees and Mets

Through the 2012 season, there have been 113 players to appear in at least one game for both the Yankees and Mets. The first was "Marvelous" Marv Throneberry, who broke in with the Yankees (1955, '58-59) before joining the Mets via a May 9, 1962, trade with Baltimore. The only other Yankee to play on the Mets in their inaugural 1962 season was Gene Woodling, who played six seasons in the Bronx from 1949-54, winning World Series championships in each of his first five seasons with the club. He was purchased by the Mets from Washington on June 15, 1962.

There have been 34 players who have played on World Series-winning Yankees teams who have also appeared in at least one game for the Mets. Conversely, there have been nine World Series-winning Mets (1969-Swoboda; 1986-Elster, Gooden, Jefferson, Mazzilli, Ojeda, Orosco, Santana and Strawberry) to play for the Yankees at some point in their careers.

Dwight Gooden [L] and Darryl Strawberry [R] are the only players to be part of World Series-winning teams for both the Yankees and Mets. While each player won rings with the Mets in 1986, Gooden played on championship Yankees clubs in 1996 and 2000, and Strawberry was a member of Yankees World Series winners in 1996, '98 and '99.

Exhibition Games vs. Mets/Dodgers/Giants

Mayor's Trophy Game

In the majority of seasons from 1946-83, the Yankees played the Giants, Dodgers or Mets in an annual exhibition game. The Mayor's office sponsored each mid-season contest and awarded a trophy to the game's winner. The proceeds from each game supported sandlot baseball programs and other New York charities. The Yankees won 20 of the 32 Mayor's Trophy Games played, going 7-1 vs. the Giants, 3-2 vs. the Dodgers and 10-8-1 vs. the Mets.

Notable Exhibitions between the Yankees, Dodgers and Giants

The Yankees, Dodgers and Giants played a number of preseason games against each other over the years in Florida and on the East Coast (while heading north from spring training). The clubs also played games in New York just prior to the start of the season. Additionally, many in-season exhibitions were arranged, including the Mayor's Trophy Games (noted in left column) and other charitable endeavors. Some of the most notable games are listed below.

October 1910 - The Yankees and Giants faced each for the first time in a series of exhibition games following the 1910 regular season. Pitcher Christy Mathewson won three of the games as the Giants win the series, 4 games to 2. In an exhibition rematch after the 1914 regular season, the Giants again defeated the Yankees, 4 games to 1.

April 21, 1912 - At the Polo Grounds, the Yankees and Giants staged a benefit game for survivors of the Titanic. The Giants won, 11-2, as $9,425.25 was raised.

April 5, 1913 - The Yankees helped the Dodgers open Ebbets Field on April 5, 1913, with an exhibition game, which Brooklyn won, 3-2. The Dodgers' rookie outfielder Casey Stengel hit the first unofficial home run.

Sept. 9 and 24, 1931- The three local clubs played a two-day, round-robin with proceeds going to the Mayor's Unemployment Fund. In the first game on Sept. 9 in front of 60,549 fans at Yankee Stadium, the Yankees defeated the Giants, 7-3, netting $59,642 as Babe Ruth hit the game's only home run. On Sept. 24, the teams played a doubleheader at the Polo Grounds, bringing in $48,135 for the fund with 44,119 fans on hand. The Giants defeated Brooklyn, 3-1, in Game 1 and the Yankees defeated the Dodgers, 5-1, in Game 2 behind homers from Lyn Lary, Bill Dickey and Lou Gehrig. Contests among the players were held in between games, including Babe Ruth hitting the longest fungo (421 ft., 8 in.) and Ben Chapman making the longest throw (392 ft. 10 in.).

June 26, 1944 - The Yankees, Giants and Dodgers played a unique mid-season "three-cornered" exhibition game. Each team batted in six innings and played defense for six innings. The Dodgers won the contest, which generated over $6.5 million worth of war bond sales.

Inning	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Brooklyn Dodgers	1	2	X	0	0	X	0	2	X	5	9	1
New York Yankees	0	X	0	0	X	0	0	X	1	1	4	0

July 11, 1949 - The Yankees, Giants and Dodgers each played six innings at Yankee Stadium (three against each opposition) in a "Night of Champions" benefit for the N.Y. Heart Fund, Babe Ruth Foundation and Lou Gehrig Memorial Fund. Approximately $32,000 was raised as 26,120 saw Brooklyn win on total runs, 5 to 3 to 3.

Spring Training Games vs. the Mets

The Yankees and Mets used to meet on a regular basis in spring training, dating back to the Mets' inaugural season in 1962. The very first game between the clubs was a 4-3 Mets victory on March 22, 1962, at their spring facility in St. Petersburg. The most recent spring meetings occurred last spring during a home-and-home series on April 3, 2012, at Port St. Lucie (Mets 7 - Yankees 6) and April 4, 2012, at GMS Field (Yankees 8 - Mets 3). Prior to last year's games, the most recent contests between the clubs were in 1996, when the teams split a pair of games at GMS Field in Tampa (on 3/29/96, Yankees 7 - Mets 3; and on 3/30/96, Mets 5 - Yankees 3).

HISTORY & RECORDS

THIS SEASON MARKS THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF AARON BOONE'S 11TH-INNING, LEADOFF HOME RUN OFF BOSTON'S TIM WAKEFIELD IN GAME 7 OF THE 2003 ALCS, WHICH PROPELLED THE YANKEES TO THEIR SIXTH WORLD SERIES IN EIGHT SEASONS.

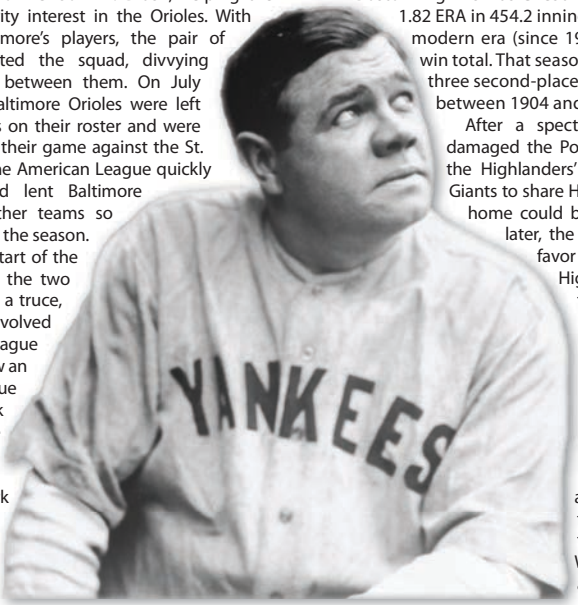

History of the New York Yankees

The Yankees are baseball's most storied franchise. With 27 World Championships and 40 American League pennants, the club stands alone in both categories.

The team's glorious history has surprisingly humble origins at the start of the previous century, when the upstart American League declared itself a Major League following the 1900 season. At that time, the league sought to place a team in New York for the 1901 campaign. But due to the political strength of the National League's New York Giants, the American League instead put a team in Baltimore, calling it the Orioles, with the intent to move it to New York as soon as possible.

Managed by John McGraw, the 1901 Orioles finished 68-65 and failed to draw substantial crowds. The following season, McGraw, fearing the team would relocate to New York without him in 1903, precipitated a midseason release from his contract. He immediately teamed with Giants owner Andrew Freedman and Cincinnati Reds owner John T. Brush, helping them acquire a majority interest in the Orioles. With control of Baltimore's players, the pair of owners decimated the squad, divvying up the players between them. On July 17, 1902, the Baltimore Orioles were left with five players on their roster and were forced to forfeit their game against the St. Louis Browns. The American League quickly stepped in and lent Baltimore players from other teams so they could finish the season.

Prior to the start of the 1903 campaign, the two leagues reached a truce, part of which involved the National League agreeing to allow an American League team in New York City. Racehorse owner Frank Farrell and ex-New York chief of police Bill Devery purchased the remnants of the Baltimore franchise for $18,000 and reestablished it in upper Manhattan.

The New York Americans, as they were formally named, were New York City's third Major League team, joining the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League. They played home games at American League Park, a hastily constructed all-wooden structure at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site was one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the team was commonly called the "Hilltoppers" or "Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park." The club played its inaugural game on April 22, 1903, at Washington, losing, 3-1, to the Senators. The next day, they defeated the Senators, 7-2, recording the very first win in franchise history.

Led by future Hall of Famers Jack Chesbro, Clark Griffith and Wee Willie Keeler, the Highlanders finished with a 72-62 record, 17.0 games out of first place. They nearly captured the American League pennant in 1904—finishing 1.5 games behind the Boston Pilgrims—as Chesbro went 41-12 with a 1.82 ERA in 454.2 innings pitched, setting a modern era (since 1900) record with his win total. That season marked the first of three second-place finishes for the club between 1904 and 1910.

After a spectacular fire severely damaged the Polo Grounds in 1911, the Highlanders' owners invited the Giants to share Hilltop Park until their home could be rebuilt. Two years later, the Giants returned the favor and allowed the Highlanders to become tenants in their rebuilt and vastly superior facility.

Following the move in 1913, newspapers and the public increasingly referred to the club as the "Yankees," a moniker that first appeared in the press in 1904. While no official announcement was ever made to formally change the team's nickname, 1913 is considered the year that "Yankees" became the team's principal nickname.

From 1911 to 1919, the Yankees won as many as 80 games in a season only twice. But three key moves—the January 11, 1915, purchase of the ballclub by Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, the 1918 hiring of Manager Miller Huggins by Ruppert (without Huston's blessing) and the 1919 midseason trade for right-handed pitcher Carl Mays (26 wins in 1920 and 27 wins in 1921)—set the stage for the greatest course-altering transaction in baseball history, when on January 5, 1920, the Yankees completed the purchase of the contract of George Herman "Babe" Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $100,000 plus interest along with a reported $350,000 personal loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Ruth's impact was immediate. The Yankees won 95 games in 1920, their highest victory total up to that point, then captured their first American League pennant a year later. With the Babe hitting 54 home runs in 1920—more than any other team in the American League—Yankees attendance at the Polo Grounds doubled to 1,289,422. In 1921, the Giants, being outdrawn in their own park, asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. Now bitter rivals, the two teams squared off in the World Series in 1921 and 1922 with the Giants winning on both occasions.

Though he came up on the wrong end in both Series, Yankees pitcher—and 1969 Hall of Fame inductee—Waite Hoyt allowed just one earned run over 35.0 combined innings over the two Fall Classics. Remarkably, he went 2-2 in his five appearances (four starts), including a 1-0, Series-clinching loss (on an unearned run) in Game 8 of the 1921 best-of-nine championship.

With their departure from the Polo Grounds inevitable, the Yankees' owners set out to build a ballpark of their own. Designed to be baseball's first triple-decked structure with an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would be the first baseball facility to be labeled a "stadium."

The team's upcoming success was masterminded by business manager and future Hall of Famer Ed Barrow, whose responsibilities from 1921 through 1944 included both player personnel and the club's finances. He developed a fantastic relationship with Huggins from the outset and brought in Paul Krichell, who not only developed the Yankees scouting department but personally signed Lou Gehrig, Phil Rizzuto and Whitey Ford to their first Yankees contracts.

Construction on the original Yankee Stadium began on May 5, 1922, and in only 284 working days, it was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923, against the Boston Red Sox. An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed the Stadium for a glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Appropriately, Ruth christened the Stadium with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees, behind starter Bob Shawkey, won, 4-1.

Playing in their new stadium, dubbed "The House that Ruth Built" by New York Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb, the Yankees won the American League by 16.0 games in 1923, using just eight pitchers all season. Each of their five starting pitchers—Shawkey, Joe Bush, Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones and Herb Pennock—won at least 16 games. In October, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series at the structure, and the Yankees won the first World Championship in franchise history, defeating their former landlord, the Giants, in six games.

Less than two seasons later, one of the greatest players in franchise history was given his chance to crack the lineup. On June 1, 1925, in a 5-3 loss vs. Washington, Huggins called upon Gehrig, a 21-year-old first baseman with 34 career games to his name, to pinch-hit for light-hitting shortstop Paul "Pee Wee" Wanninger. It would mark the first of 2,130 consecutive games played by the "Iron Horse," who replaced Wally Pipp as the Yankees' starting first baseman the very next day. The story of Gehrig replacing Pipp because of a headache is a myth. Pipp, who led the AL in homers in 1916 and 1917 and was an integral part of the Yankees' World Series clubs from 1921-23, had been having a poor start to the season, and Manager Miller Huggins wanted to see what the younger and much-heralded Gehrig could do.

After the Yankees suffered a tough loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1926 World Series (which famously ended with Babe Ruth making the final out in Game 7 while trying to steal second base), the Yankees rolled to World Championships in both 1927 and 1928, sweeping the Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals, respectively. The 1927 club, known as the "Murderers' Row" Yankees, is often the yardstick by which team greatness is measured. During that season, Ruth broke his own single-season home run record (previously 59 in 1921) with his 60th on September 30, 1927, off Washington's Tom Zachary. Gehrig also added 47 homers and 173 RBI.

Lou Gehrig

In his 15 seasons in pinstripes from 1920-34, Ruth helped establish a winning tradition with seven American League pennants and four World Championships. He finished his unparalleled career with 714 home runs (including 49 with the Red Sox from 1914-19 and six with the Boston Braves in 1935), 12 American League home run titles and six RBI crowns, including five seasons with more than 150 RBI. A charter member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, he remains widely regarded as the greatest player of all time.

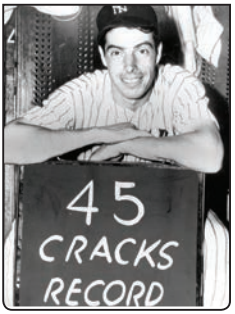

Throughout Ruth's time in pinstripes, he often overshadowed the soft-spoken, Manhattan-born Gehrig, who posted incredible numbers in his own right. From 1926 through 1938, Gehrig drove in at least 112 runs each season. A player on seven World Championship clubs (1927-28, 1932, 1936-39) and a major contributor to the first six, he finished with a .340 lifetime batting average and 493 career home runs in just 8,001 at-bats. He was the AL's starting first baseman in each of the first five Major League Baseball All-Star Games, and in 1934, became the first of two Yankees in franchise history (also Mickey Mantle in 1956) to win the Triple Crown, hitting .363 with a career-high-tying 49 homers and 166 RBI. He also still holds the American League record for RBI in a single season with 184 in 1931.

After the 1934 season, Ruth's last in New York, the Yankees purchased the contract of a budding star named Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League. Two years later, DiMaggio made his debut in pinstripes and helped the Yankees to an incredible string of four consecutive World Championships under Manager Joe McCarthy from 1936 through 1939. The 1930s also produced one of the game's greatest lefty-righty pitching combinations in future Hall of Famers Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing. A four-time 20-game winner—including 24-7 in 1932 and 26-5 in 1934—Gomez posted a 6-0 record over five World Series. Ruffing, who was acquired on May 6, 1930, from Boston for outfielder Cedric Durst and $50,000, had been 39-96 with the Red Sox since his 1924 rookie season. After coming to the Yankees, however, he built his Cooperstown credentials, going 231-124 in pinstripes while posting 20, 20, 21 and 21 wins on the four World Championship clubs from 1936 through 1939. He was also an exceptionally good hitter for a pitcher, totaling 36 career home runs and a .269 lifetime batting average.

From 1931 through part of the 1946 season, the Yankees were led by McCarthy, who compiled a Yankees-record 1,460 wins in his time at the helm. Having also spent time leading the Chicago Cubs (1926-30) and the Boston Red Sox (1948-50), he is eighth on the all-time managerial wins list with 2,125 victories. With the Yankees, he reached eight World Series (1932, 1936-39, 1941-43), winning a World Championship in all but one—the 1942 Fall Classic against St. Louis.

Sadly, in 1939, Gehrig was diagnosed with a crippling disease, eventually determined to be amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and his streak of playing in 2,130 consecutive games came to an end on May 2, when he took himself out of the lineup prior to the Yankees' 22-2 win at Detroit. He never played in a Major League game again.

On July 4 of the same season, the Yankees honored their captain with an emotional Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day at Yankee Stadium, and his uniform No. 4 became the first in Baseball to be retired. He died on June 2, 1941.

Joe DiMaggio

With Gehrig's retirement, DiMaggio became the pillar of the next generation of Yankees champions. In his 13 seasons in pinstripes (1936-42 and '46-51), DiMaggio made the AL All-Star team every year, and his club played in the World Series in all but three years (1940, '46, '48), winning nine World Series titles. Along the way, he tallied three AL MVP Awards (1939, '41, '47) and batted .324 over his career, marking the third-highest average in franchise history. The legendary "Yankee Clipper" compiled one of the game's most remarkable—and unbreakable—records in 1941, when he hit safely in an all-time-best 56 consecutive games.

DiMaggio's retirement after the 1951 season at the age of 37 was made easier by the emergence of Mickey Mantle, who played side-by-side with DiMaggio in the outfield in the Yankee Clipper's final campaign. With contributions from future Hall of Famers Yogi Berra, Whitey Ford and Phil Rizzuto, the Yankees were nearly unstoppable from the late 1940s through the early 1960s. Manager Casey Stengel sublimely handled the Yankees juggernaut following his surprising appointment prior to the 1949 season, as the club marched to an all-time record five consecutive World Series titles from 1949 through 1953.

His emphasis on platooning players (often to their chagrin) allowed him to exploit matchups in a way not emphasized in his era. Nicknamed "The Old Perfessor," with a vernacular called "Stengelese," he remains one of the most colorful personalities in the game's history. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees, Stengel brought his club to the World Series 10 times, winning on seven occasions (also 1956 and 1958).

His staff during the remarkable five-year run of championships was anchored by a trio of starters who each pitched eight seasons with the Yankees and combined for 10 All-Star appearances while with the club. Allie Reynolds, known as "Superchief," went 131-60 with a 3.31 ERA in 295 games (209 starts) from 1947-54, after being acquired from Cleveland in exchange for fellow Hall of Famer Joe Gordon. Reynolds also finished 70 regular season games for the Yankees in an era before the save was an official statistic. The No. 2 starter, Vic Raschi, broke into the Majors at age 27 and didn't become a full member of the Yankees rotation until two years later in 1948. He won exactly 21 games in each of three consecutive years from 1949-51 and tallied a .706 winning percentage (120-50) and 3.47 ERA with the club from 1946-1953. The least-heralded of the three, "Steady" Eddie Lopat, went 113-59 with a 3.19 ERA with the Yankees from 1948-1955, including an AL-leading 2.43 ERA in 1953.

For all the great players of the 1950s and early 60s, Mantle overshadowed everyone. He would achieve greatness despite suffering from osteomyelitis (a painful inflammatory bone disease) and numerous other injuries. The powerful switch-hitter belted 536 home runs, collected 2,415 hits and batted .300 or higher 10 times in an 18-year career. In his first 14 seasons in pinstripes (1951-64), the Yankees missed the World Series only twice (1954 and 1959) and won the Fall Classic seven times. With his .353 batting average, 52 homers and 130RBI in 1956, he remains the last Yankees player to win the Triple Crown.

Ford, who played his whole career in pinstripes, is the Yankees' all-time wins leader. His lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the second-best career winning percentage (.690) of any pitcher who began his career in the modern era (since 1900) with 150 or more decisions, trailing only career-Yankee Spud Chandler (.717, 109-43). Ford paced the American League in victories three times and in ERA and shutouts twice. He still holds many World Series records, including those for wins (10), consecutive scoreless innings (33.0) and strikeouts (94).

The heart of the Yankees for 18 seasons, Berra played on an incredible 14 pennant winners and 10 World Championship teams—a record number for any individual player in Baseball history. He is one of only 10 players in Major League history to win three MVP Awards and was selected to the All-Star team in every season from 1948 through 1962. Incredibly, he led the Yankees in RBI every season from 1949-55, had more career 100-RBI seasons (five) than Mantle (four), and hit at least 20 home runs in 11 different seasons. Known as much for his quotes ("It ain't over 'til it's over" and "I really didn't say everything I said," etc.) as he is for his accomplishments on the field, he remains one of the most beloved players to ever play the game.

Rizzuto played on 10 pennant winners and eight World Series championship teams from 1941 through 1956, capturing the league's MVP award in 1950, batting .324 with 200 hits and 125 runs scored. Eventually elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994, he gave one of the most memorable induction speeches in the history of the ceremony.

Not every notable Yankee was a future Hall of Famer. In Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium, right-hander Don Larsen authored one of the game's greatest pitching performances when he retired all 27 Dodger batters for the only perfect game in World Series history.

The Yankees opened the 1960s winning pennants in the first five seasons (1960-64) and World Series titles in 1961 and 1962. Incredibly, in the 29 seasons from 1936 to 1964, the Yankees won 22 pennants and 16 World Championships. The 1961 club is still regarded as one of the best teams in Baseball history. With Mantle and Roger Maris embroiled in a season-long race to break Ruth's single-season home run record, the Yankees rolled to 109 wins en route to a World Championship. Maris broke Ruth's record when he belted his 61st home run on October 1 off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium in the last game of the season.

Age finally caught up with the ballclub after a seven-game Series loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964. The Yankees finished above fourth place just once in the next nine seasons, and they actually fell to last place in 1966 for the first time in 53 years.

The team's fall from grace ended on January 3, 1973, when it was sold by CBS to a group headed by George M. Steinbrenner III. With the addition of Catfish Hunter, baseball's first marquee free agent, shrewd trades that brought Ed Figueroa, Mickey Rivers, Chris Chambliss and Willie Randolph to the club, and a strong nucleus that included Thurman Munson, Graig Nettles, Roy White and Sparky Lyle, the Yankees returned to the postseason in 1976, ending an 11-year drought (1965-1975) by winning their first American League East title.

Reggie Jackson hit three home runs in Game 6 of the 1977 World Series.

Then on October 14, 1976, in the deciding Game 5 of the American League Championship Series vs. Kansas City, Chambliss launched a ninth-inning, pennant-winning home run to put the Yankees back in the World Series.

This newfound success took place in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. The 1974 and '75 Yankees played in Shea Stadium for two years while vast improvements were made to the original Yankee Stadium (for more details, see "History of Original Yankee Stadium").

After a disheartening four-game sweep by the Cincinnati Reds in the 1976 World Series, the Yankees introduced Reggie Jackson—the most prolific slugger of his era—as the club's newest free-agent acquisition. Jackson capped an exciting 1977 season with one of baseball's greatest individual performances. In the World Series-clinching win vs. Los Angeles in Game 6 at Yankee Stadium, "Mr. October" belted three home runs on three swings of the bat to join Babe Ruth (and now Albert Pujols and Pablo Sandoval) as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

In 1978, the Yankees overcame a 14.0-game deficit in the American League East to force a one-game playoff with Boston at Fenway Park to decide the division. Shortstop Bucky Dent erased a 2-0, seventh-inning Red Sox lead with a dramatic three-run homer, and the Yankees went on to win, 5-4. The Yankees then defeated Kansas City for the third straight year in the ALCS, and took care of the Dodgers in six games for their first back-to-back World Series titles since 1961-62.

The 1978 season also saw the emergence of Ron Guidry as one the franchise's greatest pitchers. A four-time American League All-Star, Guidry compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history while becoming known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA in leading the Yankees to their dramatic comeback, compiling club-records with 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts and winning the AL Cy Young Award in unanimous fashion. On June 17 that season, Guidry set the single-game club record for strikeouts, fanning 18 California Angels at Yankee Stadium. A five-time Gold Glove Award winner, Guidry also racked up 20-win seasons in 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6).

The 1970s ended with tragedy. Thurman Munson, the Yankees' first captain since Gehrig and 1976 AL MVP, was killed when his private jet crashed on August 2, 1979. Only 32 years old at the time of his death, Munson was the undisputed leader of the clubs that won three consecutive pennants and two World Championships. After the captain's death, the Yankees would make only one more World Series appearance (1981) in the next 17 years despite compiling the best record in the Major Leagues during the 1980s.

Bucky Dent hits his famous three-run home run in the one-game AL East playoff contest on Oct. 2, 1978 at Fenway Park.

During this period, Don Mattingly became one of the most popular players in franchise history, batting .307 in a 14-year career (1982-95) played entirely in pinstripes. He compiled an incredible six-year stretch from 1984 through 1989, in which he batted .327 and topped 100 RBI five times, including a career-high 145 in 1985, when he captured the AL MVP Award. A year earlier, he outdueled teammate Dave Winfield for the 1984 AL batting crown (.343 to .340), going 4-for-5 on the final day of the season. His performance and loyalty were recognized when he was named the 10th captain in Yankees history from 1991-95.

Winfield, who came to the Yankees as the game's most sought-after free agent in 1981, compiled Hall of Fame credentials in his eight-plus seasons in pinstripes (1981-90). With the Yankees, he belted 205 home runs with 818 RBI and won five Gold Glove Awards.

After a 13-year absence (1982-94), the Yankees returned to postseason play in 1995 as the American League's first-ever "Wild Card" entry. A heart-wrenching five-game loss to the Seattle Mariners in the Division Series marked the start of a 13-year run of consecutive postseason appearances (1995-2007) — a record topped only by the Atlanta Braves' 14-season streak (1991-93, 1995-2005).

Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, owner George Steinbrenner and manager Joe Torre celebrate the 1996 World Series win.

In 1996 under new skipper Joe Torre, the Yankees returned to the World Series against Atlanta, coming back from an 0-2 deficit to win four straight games, including Games 3, 4 and 5 in Atlanta. Following a Division Series exit in 1997, the Yankees won three straight World titles from 1998 through 2000, giving them four championships in five years. Their 114 victories in 1998 shattered the 44-year-old AL mark of 111 wins set by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (since broken by Seattle in 2001) and their 125 total victories, including 11 postseason wins, remains the highest single-season total in baseball history.

Beginning in the early 90s, the Yankees made a concerted effort to draft and cultivate homegrown talent such as All-Stars Bernie Williams, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. In addition, trades and free-agent acquisitions brought All-Stars such as Wade Boggs, Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jimmy Key and Tino Martinez to the Bronx. Another of those players, Paul O'Neill, acquired in a November 3, 1992, trade with Cincinnati, became adored by Yankees fans for his intense and gritty approach. Winner of the 1994 batting title (.359) and often described as a "warrior," he is typically thought of as the heart and soul of the club's turn-of-the-century success.

In 2001, the Yankees fell just shy of becoming the second team in history to win four consecutive World Series titles, but they nevertheless captured the hearts of the nation in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of September 11. The Yankees dropped the first two games of the Series at the Arizona Diamondbacks' Bank One Ballpark but rallied to win the next three at Yankee Stadium behind dramatic ninth-inning comebacks in Games 4 and 5. On consecutive nights, Martinez and Brosius erased two-run, ninth-inning Diamondbacks leads with home runs, and the Yankees won both games in extra innings. It was in Game 4 that Jeter earned his "Mr. November" nickname with a 10th-inning "walk-off" home run. The victories marked the first time in World Series history that a team won two games in the same Series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

Scott Brosius hits a two-run, ninth-inning, game-tying homer in Game 5 of the 2001 World Series vs. Arizona.

No one personifies the Yankees' success since 1996 more than Jeter, who was a rookie on that squad. He heads into the 2013 season 10th on the all-time hits list and tops among active players. During the 2011 season, he became the 28th member of the 3,000 hit club, reaching the plateau on July 9 at Yankee Stadium with a home run off Tampa Bay's David Price. Jeter's personal career winning percentage of .599 (1,547-1,036-2) is the best among active Major Leaguers who have played in a minimum of 1,000 games. Through the 2012 season, he tops the Yankees' all-time list in hits, games played (2,585), stolen bases (348), at-bats (10,551), singles (2,460) and hit-by-pitch (163). Jeter has also recorded eight 200-hit seasons and is one of two players in franchise history along with Gehrig (eight) with as many as four. In fact, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other player in Baseball history has had as many as four 200-hit seasons while playing at least 100 games at shortstop per year.

Posada and Rivera have also crafted special places for themselves in the annals of the franchise. Posada, a 24th-round selection in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft, was one of six catchers in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in eight seasons while playing a minimum of 50 percent of his games behind the plate. Known for his toughness and durability, the Puerto Rico-born backstop started at least 120 games in eight consecutive seasons from 2000-07, and retired a lifetime Yankee prior to the 2012 season.

Rivera, who now has 608 career saves, became Baseball's all-time saves leader in 2011, surpassing Trevor Hoffman (601). His reputation has been cemented by postseason excellence, which includes an 8-1 record and 0.70 ERA in 96 career postseason games (141.0 innings pitched) and an all-time record 33.1 consecutive scoreless postseason innings. His Major League-leading 42 career postseason saves is almost as many the second, third and fourth place totals combined (44). Additionally, his 2.21 career ERA is the second-lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1,000.0IP since ERA was made an official statistic in 1912 in NL and 1913 in AL (Eddie Cicotte 2.20).

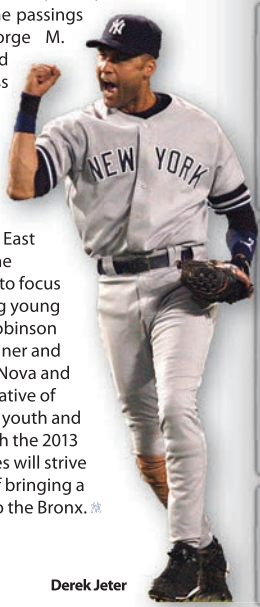

In 2004, the organization acquired Alex Rodriguez in a trade from the Texas Rangers. Since his arrival in the Bronx, the now 14-time All-Star transitioned to a new position at third base and was voted the AL MVP in 2005 and 2007, while becoming the seventh—and youngest—player in Baseball history to reach the 600-home run plateau in 2010.

Former Yankees catcher Joe Girardi was named the 32nd manager in franchise history on October 30, 2007, heading into the final year of the original Yankee Stadium. The 2008 season was full of nostalgia and notable events, including the third Papal Mass in Stadium history on April 20 and a 15-inning, 4-3 American League victory in the All-Star Game on July 15. Though the Yankees played their last-ever home game in the original Stadium on September 21, defeating the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3, the drama of the season didn't end until its final day as Mike Mussina earned a win in the first game of a doubleheader over Boston at Fenway Park to become the oldest first-time 20-game winner in Baseball history.

The 2009 season proved nothing short of storybook material as the club finished the inaugural season in the newly-constructed Yankee Stadium with the best regular season record in the Majors (103-59) and a six-game World Series win over the Phillies. Free-agent acquisitions CC Sabathia (19 wins) and Mark Teixeira (second in AL MVP voting, 39HR, 122RBI) each played major roles in the club's success.

Sadly, the following season, 2010, will be remembered for the passings of Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III and longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard.

In recent years, the Yankees have become a fixture in the postseason, having made the playoffs in 17 of the last 18 seasons since 1995, including 13 AL East titles in the last 17 years. The organization will continue to focus on procuring and nurturing young talent. Second baseman Robinson Cano, outfielder Brett Gardner and pitchers Phil Hughes, Ivan Nova and David Robertson are illustrative of the team's commitment to youth and international scouting. With the 2013 season at hand, the Yankees will strive toward the singular goal of bringing a 28th championship back to the Bronx.

History of the Yankees Uniform & NY Logo

Babe Ruth wears the pinstriped cap of 1921.

When the Yankees (then "Highlanders") first took the field for their inaugural season in 1903, their uniforms did not resemble the iconic style for which they are known today. A large ornate "N" decorated one breast and a large ornate "Y" the other. Two years later for the 1905 season, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast, creating a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

It wasn't until 1909 that the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the caps and left sleeves of Highlanders uniforms. It is thought that the design was inspired by a similar one created in 1877 by Tiffany & Co. for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, a policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former New York City police chief, the design was adopted by the organization. The familiar "NY" eventually migrated from the left sleeve to the left breast of home uniforms from 1912-16, albeit in a larger version than is currently worn today.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees (as they were frequently called by then) made a fashionable debut at their April 11 home opener by wearing pinstripes for the first time in their history. The club was not the first team to wear pinstripes (eight of baseball's other 15 teams had already worn them at some point), and they would actually abandon the look in the following two seasons (1913-14). By 1915, though, home pinstripes were back for good.

In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 19 years until it was reinstated in 1936. Babe Ruth, whose Yankees career spanned 1920-34, played his entire Yankees career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs from 1903 until 1921—including pinstripes in 1915, '16, '19 and '21—until they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia in 1922.

The club's road uniforms have remained relatively unchanged since 1918—solid grey with "NEW YORK" in block letters across the chest. The notable exception was from 1927-30, when "NEW YORK" was replaced by "YANKEES." In 1973, with the introduction of more breathable double-knit uniforms, Yankees road jerseys added navy-and-white banded trim to the cuffs of the sleeves as well as white shadowing behind the jersey lettering.

The home uniform remains the Yankees' signature look. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the 1940s—it has remained mostly unchanged for more than 70 years.

In keeping with the team's reverence of tradition, the Yankees have worn "alternate" uniforms just twice in their history. On April 8, 1996, at Detroit, the team wore replicas uniforms of the Negro National League's New York Black Yankees, and on April 20, 2012, in Boston, on the 100th anniversary of the first game at Fenway Park, the Yankees wore polyester reproductions of their 1912 ensemble.

Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri pose at Yankee Stadium in 1927. Yankees jerseys did not feature the "NY" insignia from 1917 through 1935.

Derek Jeter sports the 1912 throwback uniform worn by the club on the 100th anniversary of Fenway Park on April 20, 2012, in Boston.

Origin of Numbered Uniforms

Numbers first appeared on Major League uniforms on June 26, 1916, when the Cleveland Indians wore large numerals on their left sleeves in an experiment that lasted just a few weeks. Another brief trial by Cleveland the next season and a similar sleeve trial by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923 both proved temporary. It wasn't until the 1929 season that another attempt was made, as both Cleveland and the New York Yankees began their seasons with numbers as a permanent part of their respective uniforms. Though the Yankees are typically credited as being the team with the longest-standing such policy, it should be noted that the Indians began their season two days earlier than the Bombers, as the Yankees' April 16 Opening Day contest was rained out.

The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees roster was made according to the player's respective position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9 and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). By the mid-1930s, other teams adopted the idea, and uniform numbers became the standard for all teams.

Top Hat Logo Design

Though not appearing on the uniform, the Yankees "top hat" logo is one of the most identifiable in sports. It was created by well-known, longtime graphic artist Henry Alonzo "Lon" Keller after a commission from then-Yankees co-owner Larry MacPhail. An initial version consisting solely of the Yankees script with a top hat above the "k" first appeared on the cover of the 1946 spring training roster. MacPhail, however, asked Keller to further develop his work. The designer's more elaborate design debuted during the 1946 season and remains largely unchanged to the present day. Information regarding Keller's contribution was taken from articles in the 1976 Yankees scorecard and Aug. 22, 1995, edition of Yankees Magazine.

Origin of the Names "Highlanders" and "Yankees"

In the early 1900s, fans, the media and front office personnel did not see club nicknames as the defining elements they are today. People thought of clubs by the city they represented and the league in which they played. Anything beyond that was the work of clever newspapermen trying to freshen up the references to teams in their stories.

Much of the logo- and nickname-oriented items we have today, such as caps, T-shirts or jerseys simply didn't exist a century ago when games weren't televised and men uniformly wore jackets and ties to the park.

Prior to the 1903 season when the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles franchise to New York, the rivalry and enmity between the upstart AL, about to enter its third season, and the more traditional National League was just beginning to ebb. It was commonplace for clubs and the media to refer to AL teams as "Americans" and NL clubs as "Nationals," especially as half of the cities with Major League Baseball at the time had teams in both leagues (Boston, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis). The terminology served to differentiate the New York American League team from the two longstanding NL clubs, the Brooklyn Superbas (as the Dodgers were then known) and the New York Giants, with whom they were now battling for fans.

The club's first home in New York was a rickety wooden structure often referred to as "American League Park." It was located on 168th St. and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. As a result, the team also became known as the "Hilltoppers" and their field "Hilltop Park."

The name "Highlanders," as the team of that era is most-popularly remembered today, also started in the club's formative years. It originated not only as a nod to their elevated Manhattan perch, but also as a reference to club president Joseph W. Gordon, whose last name conjured up thoughts of the famous Scottish army unit, the Gordon Highlanders.

Other nicknames for the team were "Porch Climbers," "Burglars," and "Invaders"—all three usually reserved for writers sympathetic to the Giants, who held lingering animosity at having American League competition in such close proximity.

As early as 1904, however, the name "Yankees" became common in the press. The earliest known use was in an April 7, 1904, article in the New York Evening Journal that bore the headline "YANKEES WILL START HOME FROM SOUTH TODAY," which was published following a successful spring training in the South. A week later, the same newspaper's coverage of Opening Day was headlined "YANKEES BEAT BOSTON," and the term also appeared in the article's lead sentence.

The name "Yankees" likely owes its success to newspaper typesetters and editors grateful for a team name with fewer letters than "Highlanders" or "Hilltoppers."

When the franchise moved from Hilltop Park to the low-lying Polo Grounds in 1913, the media and public dropped the other nicknames (which were no longer fitting) in favor of using "Yankees."

Patches & Armbands on the Yankees Uniform

Over the Yankees' 109-year history, temporary patches and armbands have been worn to commemorate special occasions and mourn the passings of members of the Yankees family. The list below represents the most thorough compilation of special additions to the uniform available at the time of the publication of this book. Annual alterations such as Major League Baseball's Mothers' Day and Fathers' Day ribbons, or permanent additions such as MLB logo patches on the backs of caps and jerseys are not included in the list below.

*Please note that all sleeve notations reflect game jerseys (GJ) unless otherwise noted to be batting practice jerseys (BPJ).

Important Dates in Yankees History

Jan. 9, 1903 - Frank Farrell and Bill Devery purchase the defunct Baltimore franchise of the American League for $18,000, then move the team to Manhattan.

March 12, 1903 - The New York franchise is approved as a member of the American League. The team will play in a hastily constructed, wooden ballpark at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site is one of the highest spots in Manhattan, their home field is referred to as "Hilltop Park."

April 22, 1903 - The Highlanders (as the Yankees were commonly known then) play their first game, a 3-1 loss at Washington.

April 23, 1903 - Pitcher Harry Howell records the first victory in franchise history, a 7-2 win at Washington.

April 30, 1903 - The Highlanders notch a 6-2 win vs. Washington in their inaugural home opener at Hilltop Park.

May 11, 1903 - John Ganzel hits the first home run in franchise history - an inside-the-park homer at Detroit's Bennett Park off George Mullin in an 8-2 Highlanders victory.

April 11, 1912 - Pinstripes first appear on Highlanders uniforms, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports.

April 21, 1912 - At the Polo Grounds, the Highlanders and Giants stage a benefit game for survivors of the Titanic. The Giants win, 11-2, as $9,425.25 is raised.

May 3, 1912 - The Highlanders lose at Philadelphia, 18-15. The 33 total combined runs mark the highest total in franchise history, since equaled twice, both also at Philadelphia (5/22/30 Game 2 and 6/3/32, each in 20-13 Yankees wins).

April 1913 - The name "Yankees" becomes the predominant nickname of the club after the team moves to the Polo Grounds, home of the National League's New York Giants.

April 5, 1913 - The Yankees play an exhibition game against the Dodgers, losing, 3-2, in the first-ever game at Ebbets Field.

April 17, 1913 - The Yankees play their first home game at the Polo Grounds, losing to Washington, 9-3. It marks the beginning of 10 seasons as tenants of the National League's New York Giants.

Jan. 11, 1915 - Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston agree to purchase the Yankees for $460,000. The deal is formally completed on Jan. 30.

April 24, 1917 - Lefthander George Mogridge becomes the first Yankee to throw a no-hitter in a 2-1 win at Fenway Park.

April 3, 1919 - Yankees outfielder Ping Bodie defeats an ostrich named Percy in a spaghetti-eating contest in Jacksonville, Fla., during spring training, after Percy passes out after his 11th plate of pasta (credit: SABR Biography Project).

Jan. 5, 1920 - After being announced two days earlier, the Yankees complete the purchase of the contract of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $100,000 plus interest and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

May 1, 1920 - Babe Ruth hits his first homer as a Yankee in a 6-0 win over the Red Sox at the Polo Grounds.

Feb. 5, 1921 - The Yankees issue press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of land in the West Bronx that will become the site of the original Yankee Stadium. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor, cost $675,000.

Oct. 5, 1921 - The Yankees play the first postseason game in franchise history, as Carl Mays tosses a complete game shutout to defeat the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in Game 1 of the World Series.

May 5, 1922 - The construction contract for Yankee Stadium is awarded to White Construction Company with the edict that the job is to be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923.

Yankee Stadium on its first Opening Day in 1923

April 18, 1923 - Yankee Stadium hosts its first regular season game as the Yankees defeat Boston Red Sox, 4-1, before an announced crowd of 74,200. Babe Ruth hits the Stadium's first home run - a three-run shot in the third inning - and starter Bob Shawkey records a complete-game win.

April 30, 1923 - The Yankees sign 19-year-old Columbia pitcher and position player Lou Gehrig to a professional contract.

May 21, 1923 - Yankees announce that Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1.5 million to become sole owner of the Yankees.

Sept. 28, 1923 - The Yankees record 30 hits in a 24-4 win over Boston at Fenway Park. The hit total remains the most in a nine-inning game in franchise history.

Oct. 15, 1923 - The Yankees defeat the New York Giants, 6-4, at the Polo Grounds in Game 6 of the World Series, clinching the first World Championship in franchise history.

June 1, 1925 - Lou Gehrig begins his record streak of 2,130 consecutive games played, pinch-hitting for "Pee Wee" Wanninger in a 5-3 loss to Washington at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 6, 1926 - Babe Ruth becomes the first player to hit three home runs in a single World Series game in Game 4 at St. Louis.

June 23, 1927 - In an 11-4 Yankees win at Fenway Park, Lou Gehrig become the first (of two) players in franchise history to hit 3HR in a single game against the Red Sox (also see May 8, 2010).

Hilltop Park was home to the Yankees from 1903 through 1912.

Sept. 30, 1927 - Babe Ruth breaks his own single-season Major League record by hitting his 60th home run (off Tom Zachary) in a 4-2 win over Washington at Yankee Stadium.

April 20, 1928 - Yankee Stadium's left field stands are enlarged to three decks.

Oct. 9, 1928 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. the Cardinals at St. Louis' Sportsman's Park, Babe Ruth hits three home runs, marking his second three-homer World Series game.

April 18, 1929 - The Yankees wear numbered uniforms for the first time in their history, two days after the Cleveland Indians permanently adopt them as well (Numbers would become standard for all teams by 1932).

Sept. 24, 1929 - The Yankees celebrate Babe Ruth Day at Fenway Park by winning, 5-3, over Boston. Ruth goes 2-for-3 with a double and Tom Zachary (pitching for the Yankees) records his final decision of the season, improving to 12-0, still a Major League record for most wins in a season without a loss.

June 4, 1933 - Starter Johnny Allen allows a first-inning single to Philadelphia's Ed Coleman, then holds the A's hitless the rest of the way, notching a one-hit shutout in a 6-0 Yankees home victory in the second game of a doubleheader.

July 6, 1933 - In the very first MLB All-Star Game, Babe Ruth hits the game's first HR – a two-run shot off the Cardinals' Bill Hallahan – leading the AL to a 4-2 victory at Comiskey Park. Lefty Gomez starts for the AL, tossing 3.0 scoreless IP to earn the win. He also records the first All-Star RBI with a second-inning single.

Joe DiMaggio

June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag goes 6-for-6 in a 15-3, nine-inning win in Game 1 of a doubleheader at Boston, becoming the first of only two Yankees to go 6-for-6 in a single game (see June 7, 2008- Johnny Damon).

Nov. 21, 1934 - The Yankees purchase Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League for $50,000.

May 24, 1936 - The Yankees tally their single-game franchise-high in runs in a 25-2 win at Philadelphia. Tony Lazzeri is the star with three home runs (including two grand slams) and a triple. His 11 RBI set a still-standing AL single-game record.

April 20, 1937 - The Yankees' 15th season at Yankee Stadium opens with the right-field stands enlarged to three decks. Wooden bleachers are replaced by a concrete structure, and the distance to center field drops from 490 feet to 461 feet.

May 30, 1938 - A franchise-record crowd of 81,841 attends a doubleheader sweep of the Boston Red Sox at Yankee Stadium.

June 22, 1938 - In a rematch of their 1936 bout, Joe Louis KOs Max Schmeling in 124 seconds to avenge his prior loss to the German and retain the heavyweight title in front of 70,043 fans at Yankee Stadium and an estimated 70 million people listening on the radio.

Aug. 27, 1938 - Monte Pearson authors the first Yankee Stadium no-hitter by a Yankee, defeating Cleveland, 13-0, in Game 2 of a doubleheader.

Jan. 13, 1939 - Col. Ruppert passes away, and his estate takes ownership of the ballclub.

April 30, 1939 - Lou Gehrig plays in the last of his 2,130 consecutive games, going 0-for-4 in a 3-2 loss vs. Washington at the Stadium.

May 2, 1939 - Lou Gehrig's playing streak of 2,130 consecutive games ends when he does not make an appearance in a 22-2 Yankees win at Detroit. Babe Dahlgren plays first base for the Yankees and contributes a double and a home run.

June 26, 1939 - At Philadelphia's Shibe Park, the Yankees play their first-ever night game, losing to the Athletics, 3-2.

July 4, 1939 - "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" is held at Yankee Stadium in between games of a doubleheader vs. Washington. His uniform No. 4 is the first to be retired in Major League Baseball. Gehrig makes his famous "luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech.

May 15, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak begins with a single off Edgar Smith in a 13-1 loss vs. Chicago.

June 2, 1941 - Lou Gehrig dies of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis at the age of 37 in the Riverdale section of the Bronx.

July 2, 1941 - In an 8-4 win vs. Boston, Joe DiMaggio goes 1-for-5 with a three-run home run, extending his hitting streak to 45 games and surpassing Wee Willie Keeler's single-season Major League record 44-game streak set in 1897.

July 17, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's consecutive-game hitting streak ends at 56 when he goes 0-for-3 in a 4-3 Yankees win at Cleveland. Indians third baseman Ken Keltner twice robs DiMaggio of hits with great fielding plays. DiMaggio hits safely in his next 16 games, giving him hits in 72 of 73 games.

Aug. 14, 1942 - The Yankees set a still-standing Major League mark by recording seven double plays in an 11-2 win at Philadelphia.

June 26, 1944 - The Yankees, Dodgers and Giants play a three-way exhibition game at the Polo Grounds to promote the purchase of war bonds. Each team batted six times and played the field six times while a crowd of 50,000 fans bought $5.5 million in war bonds. Brooklyn wins by a score of 5 to 1 (Yankees) to 0 (Giants).

Jan. 25, 1945 - Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2.8 million from the estate of the late Col. Jacob Ruppert. MacPhail replaces Ed Barrow as President and General Manager.

May 28, 1946 - The first night game is played at Yankee Stadium, a 2-1 loss vs. Washington before 49,917 fans.

April 27, 1947 - "Babe Ruth Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and throughout Major League Baseball.

June 29 - July 17, 1947 - The Yankees reel off a franchise-record 19 consecutive wins, outscoring their opposition 119-41.

Oct. 3, 1947 - Yankees pitcher Bill Bevens loses his no-hitter and the game with two outs in the bottom of the ninth as pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubles home two runs in a 3-2 Dodgers win in Game 4 of the World Series at Ebbets Field.

June 13, 1948 - Babe Ruth's uniform No. 3 is retired at Yankee Stadium's 25th Anniversary celebration. The visit marks the Babe's final Stadium appearance.

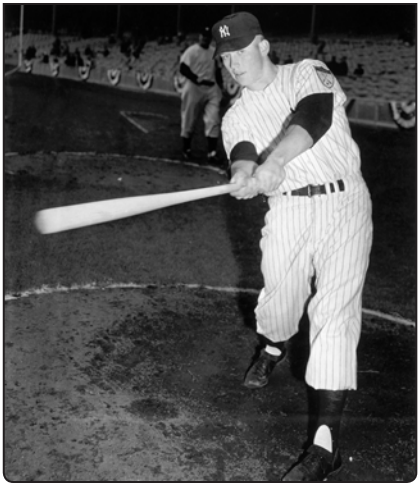

Aug. 16, 1948 - Babe Ruth dies of throat cancer in New York at age 53.

Oct. 12, 1948 - The Yankees announce that Casey Stengel will replace Bucky Harris as manager.

Oct. 1-2, 1949 - The Yankees come back from a one-game deficit with two games to play, defeating Boston in the final two games of the season at Yankee Stadium, 5-4 and 5-3, respectively, marking the first of five consecutive American League pennants.

Oct. 5, 1949 - In Game 1 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, Tommy Henrich breaks up a scoreless pitchers' duel between the Yankees' Allie Reynolds and the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, hitting a game-winning solo HR in the bottom of the ninth.

April 17, 1951 - Mickey Mantle makes his Major League debut, going 1-for-4 in a 5-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. The game also marks Bob Sheppard's first as Yankees public-address announcer. Boston's Dom DiMaggio is the first hitter announced.

Mickey Mantle takes a practice swing in his 1951 rookie season.

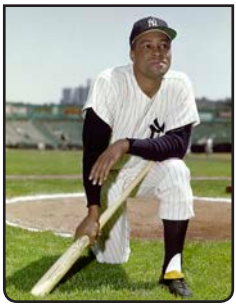

Sept. 28, 1951 - In an 8-0 Game 1 win in a doubleheader vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Allie Reynolds becomes the second of four players in Baseball history to toss two no-hitters in the same season (also Johnny Vander Meer in 1938, Virgil Trucks in 1952 and Nolan Ryan in 1973). Reynolds had previously no-hit the Indians at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium on July 12 in a 1-0 win.

Dec. 11, 1951 - Joe DiMaggio officially announces his retirement.

Oct. 7, 1952 - Second baseman Billy Martin makes a running catch on a two-out, seventh-inning, based-loaded pop-up off the bat of Jackie Robinson to preserve the Yankees' lead in a 4-2 World Series-clinching Game 7 win at Brooklyn's Ebbets Field.

April 17, 1953 - Mickey Mantle clears the left-field wall at Washington's Griffith Stadium with a 565-foot home run off Chuck Stobbs in the fifth inning of a 7-3 Yankees win. Yankees PR representative Red Patterson retrieves the ball and measures off the distance, giving birth to the phrase "tape-measure home run."

Oct. 5, 1953 - Billy Martin singles home the winning run in the ninth inning of a 4-3, Game 6 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. The win clinches the Yankees' all-time record fifth-consecutive World Championship.

Elston Howard

April 14, 1955 - Elston Howard becomes the first black player in Yankees history, making his Major League debut in an 8-4 loss at Boston. He records an RBI single in his only plate appearance.

Oct. 4, 1955 - Brooklyn's Johnny Podres outduels Yankees starter Tommy Byrne and two relievers, 2-0, clinching the Dodgers' first World Series Championship. The World Series loss snaps the Yankees' string of seven consecutive appearances in the Fall Classic without losing a Series (1943, '47, '49-53). It also marks the Yankees' first World Series loss to Brooklyn after wins in 1941, '47, '49, '52 and '53.

May 30, 1956 - Batting against Pedro Ramos in Game 1 of a doubleheader vs. Washington, Mickey Mantle nearly hits a home run out of Yankee Stadium, with the ball striking the upper deck frieze in right field.

Oct. 8, 1956 - Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in World Series history, a 2-0, Game 5 win over Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 10, 1956 - Johnny Kucks pitches a complete game shutout, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, 9-0, to win Game 7 of the World Series.

June 15, 1957 - In the wake of the "Copacabana incident," the Yankees trade Billy Martin to Kansas City along with Woodie Held, Bob Martyn and Ralph Terry for Ryne Duren, Jim Pisoni and Harry Simpson.

April 22, 1959 - Whitey Ford pitches a 1-0, 14-inning complete game shutout at Washington, allowing just seven hits and striking out 15.

May 7, 1959 - The Yankees and Dodgers play an exhibition game before 93,103 fans at the L.A. Coliseum. The game is played to honor paralyzed Dodgers catcher Roy Campanella.

Oct. 8, 1960 - Second baseman Bobby Richardson sets an all-time World Series record (since tied by Hideki Matsui on 11/4/09 vs. Philadelphia and Albert Pujols on 10/22/11 w/ St. Louis at Texas) with 6RBI in Game 3 of the World Series vs. Pittsburgh, hitting a grand slam in the first inning and two-run single in the fourth inning of a 10-0 Yankees win.

Sept. 26, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 60th home run of the season off Baltimore's Jack Fisher in a 3-2 Yankees win at Yankee Stadium, tying Babe Ruth's Major League record.

Oct. 1, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 61st home run in the season's final game off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium, establishing a then-Major League record and still-standing AL record. It was the only run in a 1-0 Yankees victory.

June 24, 1962 - Jack Reed's two-run, 22nd-inning home run ends the longest game in Yankees history, a 9-7 win at Detroit.

Oct. 16, 1962 - In Game 7 of the World Series, superb fielding from RF Roger Maris holds Matty Alou at third base after a two-out, ninth-inning Willie Mays double. Bobby Richardson then snares a screaming line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey for the game's final out, securing a 1-0, Series-clinching victory over the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick Park. New York scores the game's only run when Tony Kubek grounds into a fifth-inning double play. It would be the last championship for the Yankees until 1977.

May 22, 1963 - In an 8-7, 11-inning win vs. the Kansas City A's, Mickey Mantle hits the upper deck frieze in right field for the second time in his career, this time off righthander Bill Fischer.

June 20, 1963 - The Yankees lose to the Mets at Yankee Stadium, 6-2, in the first-ever Mayor's Trophy game.

Nov. 2, 1964 - CBS purchases 80 percent of the Yankees for $11.2 million. The network later buys the remaining 20 percent.

May 14, 1967 – Mickey Mantle becomes only the sixth player—and second Yankee—to reach the 500 home run plateau, when he connects off Baltimore's Stu Miller in a 6-5 win at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 23, 1968 - The Yankees play the longest tied game in franchise history, matching Detroit, 3-3, in Game 2 of a doubleheader at Yankee Stadium. Yankees pitcher Lindy McDaniel tosses seven perfect innings in relief in the 19-inning affair.

June 8, 1969 - "Mickey Mantle Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and his uniform No. 7 is retired.

June 24, 1970 - Bobby Murcer hits home runs in four consecutive ABs over two games of a doubleheader vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

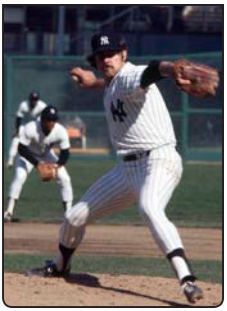

Aug. 8, 1972 - The Yankees sign a 30-year lease to play in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. Completion is scheduled for 1976.

Jan. 3, 1973 - A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner III as its managing general partner, purchases the Yankees for a net price of $8.7 million from CBS.

April 6, 1973 - At Fenway Park in Boston, the Yankees' Ron Blomberg becomes the Major League's first designated hitter. Batting in the top of the first inning, he walks with the bases loaded off Luis Tiant. He goes 1-for-3 with 1RBI as the Yankees lose to the Red Sox, 15-5.

Sept. 30, 1973 - The Yankees play their final game in Yankee Stadium before gets remodeled, losing 8-5 vs. Detroit. Tigers pitcher John Hiller gets Yankees first baseman Mike Hegan to fly out to centerfield for the game's final out.

April 6, 1974 - The Yankees begin the first of two seasons at Shea Stadium as Yankee Stadium is remodeled. The Yankees will go 90-69 at Shea over the two seasons (1974-75).

Jim "Catfish" Hunter

Dec. 31, 1974 - Free agent Catfish Hunter signs a then-record five-year contract with the Yankees.

Aug. 1, 1975 - Billy Martin replaces Bill Virdon for his first of five stints as manager.

April 15, 1976 - Remodeled Yankee Stadium opens with an 11-4 win over Minnesota. The Twins' Dan Ford hits the first home run.

April 17, 1976 - In a 10-0 win, catcher Thurman Munson homers off the Minnesota Twins' Jim Hughes, marking the first home run hit by a Yankee in remodeled Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 14, 1976 - Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game 5 of the ALCS vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium gives the Yankees their 30th AL pennant and first trip to the World Series since 1964.

Nov. 29, 1976 - Free agent Reggie Jackson signs a five-year contract.

June 30, 1977 - The Yankees set a franchise record (since tied on 6/21/05 vs. Tampa Bay) with four home runs in a single inning in an 11-5 at Toronto. Cliff Johnson hits three homers in the game, including two of the Yankees' four in the eighth inning.

Oct. 9, 1977 – The Yankees rally for one run in the eighth and three runs in the ninth for a 5-3, series-clinching win in the decisive Game 5 of the 1977 ALCS at Kansas City. Sparky Lyle earns the win for the second consecutive night, finishing the game with 1.1 scoreless innings on no rest following his scoreless 5.1-inning relief appearance at Kauffman Stadium in Game 4.

Sparky Lyle

Oct. 18, 1977 - Reggie Jackson hits 3HRs (on three consecutive pitches) in Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. Jackson, Babe Ruth, Albert Pujols and Pablo Sandoval are the only players to hit at least three homers in a single World Series game.

April 13, 1978 - The Yankees defeat the White Sox, 4-2, in the Yankee Stadium opener on "Reggie!" Candy Bar Day. When Jackson slugs a three-run HR in the first inning, the field is showered with the chocolate and peanut candy bars, which were given out free to fans at the game.

June 17, 1978 - Ron Guidry establishes a franchise record by striking out 18 batters in the Yankees' 4-0 win vs. California.

July 24, 1978 - Billy Martin resigns as manager.

July 25, 1978 - Bob Lemon is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 29, 1978 - On Old-Timers' Day, the Yankees announce that Billy Martin will return as Yankees manager in 1980 and Bob Lemon will become General Manager (also see June 18, 1979).

Oct. 2, 1978 - The Yankees, 14.0 games behind Boston as late as July 19, defeat the Red Sox, 5-4, at Fenway Park in only the second one-game playoff in AL history. Bucky Dent's three-run, seventh-inning home run becomes one of the most memorable in Baseball history.

June 18, 1979 - Billy Martin is rehired as Yankees manager, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 2, 1979 - Yankees Captain Thurman Munson dies in a plane crash in Canton, Ohio, at age 32. His No. 15 is immediately retired.

Aug. 6, 1979 - After delivering a eulogy at Thurman Munson's funeral earlier that morning in Canton, Ohio, Bobby Murcer hits a three-run seventh inning homer and a two-run ninth-inning single, accounting for all five of the Yankees' runs in an emotional 5-4 comeback win vs. Baltimore at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 28, 1979 - Dick Howser replaces Billy Martin as manager.

Dec. 15, 1980 - Free agent Dave Winfield signs a then-record 10-year contract.

Nov. 21, 1980 - Gene Michael is named manager, replacing Dick Howser.

May 4, 1981 - Yankees reliever Ron Davis enters in the bottom of the seventh inning of a 4-2 Yankees win at California. After getting Don Baylor to pop out to the second baseman, he strikes out eight consecutive Angels to record the save. The performance ties the American League record for consecutive strikeouts in a single game, previously set by Nolan Ryan (twice) and later tied by Roger Clemens and Blake Stein. Davis remains the all-time Major League leader in consecutive strikeouts in a relief appearance.

Sept. 6, 1981 - Bob Lemon is named manager for a second time, replacing Gene Michael.

April 26, 1982 - Gene Michael becomes manager for a second time, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 3, 1982 - Clyde King is named Yankees manager, replacing Gene Michael.

Jan. 11, 1983 - Billy Martin is named Yankees manager for the third time, replacing Clyde King.

July 4, 1983 - Dave Righetti pitches the sixth regular season no-hitter in franchise history and the first since 1951 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. Righetti strikes out Wade Boggs for the final out.

July 24, 1983 - The Yankees and Kansas City play the infamous "Pine Tar" game at Yankee Stadium. George Brett hits a two-out, ninth-inning home run off Goose Gossage to give the Royals an apparent 5-4 lead. Manager Billy Martin points out that the pine tar on Brett's bat is above the allowable 18 inches and Brett is subsequently called out for using an illegal bat. The Yankees (temporarily) win 4-3 (see Aug. 18, 1983).

"The Pine Tar Game"

Aug. 18, 1983 - Kansas City's protest is upheld and play is resumed at Yankee Stadium from the point immediately after Brett's home run. Yankees pitcher Ron Guidry plays center field while lefthanded first baseman Don Mattingly plays second base. Royals' reliever Dan Quisenberry retires the Yankees in order in the bottom of the ninth for a 5-4 Royals win.

Dec. 16, 1983 - Yogi Berra is named manager for the second time, replacing Billy Martin.

April 8, 1985 - At 46 yrs., 7 days old, Phil Niekro becomes the oldest Opening Day starter in Yankees franchise history (and third-oldest all time), allowing 5ER in 4.0IP while picking up the loss in a 9-2 Yankees defeat at Boston.

April 28, 1985 - Billy Martin is named manager for the fourth time, replacing Yogi Berra.

Aug. 4, 1985 - The Yankees celebrate "Phil Rizzuto Day" at Yankee Stadium, dedicating a plaque in his honor and retiring his No. 10. The Yankees lose their scheduled game to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, as Tom Seaver wins his 300th career game.

Oct. 6, 1985 - Phil Niekro tosses a four-hit complete game shutout in an 8-0 victory at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium for his 300th career win.

Oct. 17, 1985 - Lou Piniella is named manager for the first time, replacing Billy Martin.

June 29, 1987 - At Toronto's Exhibition Stadium, the Yankees defeat the Blue Jays, 15-14, behind a pair of grand slams from Don Mattingly and Dave Winfield.

July 18, 1987 - Don Mattingly homers off Texas' Jose Guzman to tie Dale Long's Major League record of hitting a home run in eight consecutive games (Mattingly hits 10 HR during the streak).

Sept. 29, 1987 - Don Mattingly hits a grand slam off Boston's Bruce Hurst, setting a Major League record (tied by Travis Hafner in 2008) with six grand slams in a season.

Oct. 19, 1987 - Billy Martin is named manager for the fifth time, replacing Lou Piniella.

June 23, 1988 - Lou Piniella is named manager for the second time. Billy Martin is replaced as manager of the Yankees for the fifth and final time.

July 27, 1988 - Tommy John commits three errors on one play during the fourth inning of a 16-3 Yankees victory vs. Milwaukee. John becomes the first pitcher in the Modern Era to commit three miscues in the same inning.

Oct. 7, 1988 - Dallas Green is named manager, replacing Lou Piniella.

Dec. 9, 1988 - The Yankees sign a 12-year television contract with the Madison Square Garden Network.

Aug. 18, 1989 - Bucky Dent is named manager, replacing Dallas Green.

Dec. 25, 1989 - Billy Martin dies in an automobile accident near Binghamton, N.Y. at age 61.

June 6, 1990 - Stump Merrill is named manager, replacing Bucky Dent.

July 1, 1990 - With a no-hitter intact with two out in the bottom of the eighth at Comiskey Park, the Yankees make three errors behind starter Andy Hawkins, leading to four unearned runs as the Yankees go on to lose, 4-0. While initially ruled a "no-hitter", MLB removes the designation in 1991 after redefining a "no-hitter" as requiring a pitcher(s) to complete at least 9.0IP.

Oct. 29, 1991 - Buck Showalter is named manager, replacing Stump Merrill.

Sept. 4, 1993 - Jim Abbott tosses a 4-0, no-hit win vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 13, 1995 - Mickey Mantle dies of cancer at age 63 in Dallas, Tex.

Sept. 6, 1995 - Lou Gehrig's Major League record of 2,130 consecutive games played is broken when Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. plays in his 2,131st.

Oct. 4, 1995 - The Yankees play the longest postseason game in their history, a 15-inning, 7-5 win over Seattle at Yankee Stadium won on a two-run homer by Jim Leyritz. The contest was the final Yankee Stadium game for Don Mattingly.

Nov. 2, 1995 - Joe Torre is named the Yankees' 31st manager, replacing Buck Showalter.

Mar. 1, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5-2, in the first ever game at Legends Field (renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field in 2008), the club's new spring training home.

April 9, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Kansas City Royals, 7-3, in a snowy Bronx home opener. Starter Andy Pettitte earns the win as newcomers Joe Girardi (replacing Mike Stanley) and Tino Martinez (replacing Don Mattingly) get booed during pregame introductions. Hitting in the ninth spot, rookie shortstop Derek Jeter goes 1-for-3 with a single.

May 1, 1996 - Outfielder Gerald Williams goes 6-for-8 with 1 HR and 3RBI in a 15-inning, 11-6 win at Baltimore. With Myril Hoag (6/6/1934 at Boston) and Johnny Damon (6/7/2008 vs. Kansas City), he is one of three Yankees in franchise history with six hits in a single game.

May 14, 1996 - Dwight Gooden hurls the eighth regular season no-hitter in Yankees history, a 2-0 blanking of the Seattle Mariners at Yankee Stadium.

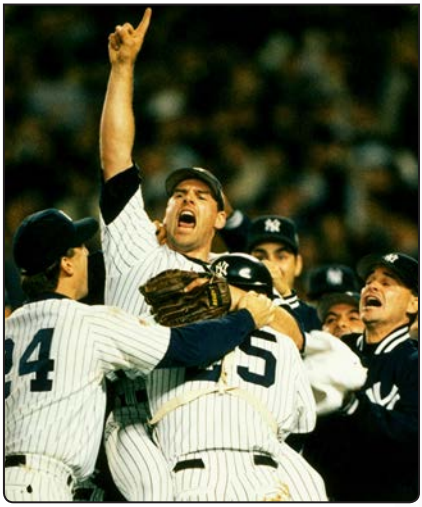

June 16, 1996 - Mel Allen, the legendary "Voice of the Yankees" from 1939-64, passes away at age 83.

Aug. 25, 1996 - A monument in honor of Mickey Mantle is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

Oct. 23, 1996 - In Game 4 of the World Series at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, Jim Leyritz hits a three-run eighth inning homer off the Braves' Mark Wohlers, knotting the game at 6-6. The Yankees went on to win, 8-6, in 10 innings.

Oct 24, 1996 - The Yankees' Andy Pettitte (8.1IP) outduels Atlanta's John Smoltz (8.0IP), 1-0, in Game 5 in Atlanta.

Oct. 26, 1996 - In Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, John Wetteland closes out a 3-2 win vs. Atlanta, giving the Yankees their first World Championship in 18 years.

John Wetteland and the Yankees celebrate their 1996 World Series title.

June 23, 1997 - With 16 strikeouts in a 5-2 Yankees win at Detroit, David Cone sets the Yankees' all-time single-game high for a right-handed pitcher.

May 17, 1998 - David Wells tosses the first regular-season perfect game by a Yankee (and 14th in Baseball history), defeating Minnesota 4-0 at Yankee Stadium.

Sept. 25, 1998 - The Yankees set a then-American League record with their 112th win of the season (a 6-1 win vs. Tampa Bay at Yankee Stadium), breaking the mark of 111 by the 1954 Cleveland Indians

Sept. 27, 1998 - The Yankees finish their regular season with a 114-48 (.704) mark, becoming the first team since the 1954 Indians (111-43, .721) to finish a season with a winning percentage above .700.

Oct. 21, 1998 - The Yankees complete an incredible season with a four-game World Series sweep of the San Diego Padres to capture the franchise's 24th World Championship. The 3-0 win gives the club a 125-50 record over the entire season (114-48 in the regular season, 11-2 in postseason).

March 8, 1999 - Joe DiMaggio dies at age 84 in Hollywood, Fla.

April 25, 1999 - A monument in honor of Joe DiMaggio is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park in front of a sold out Stadium and many of DiMaggio's former teammates. Paul Simon sings "Mrs. Robinson" while standing in center field.

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses the 15th regular season perfect game in Baseball history, one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Amazingly, Don Larsen—who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series—throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

Oct. 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves, capturing their 25th World Championship.

April 23, 2000 - In a 10-7 Yankees win at Toronto, Jorge Posada and Bernie Williams become the first (and only) pair of teammates in Major League history to each hit home runs from both sides of the plate in the same game.

July 8, 2000 - The Yankees and Mets play the first two-stadium, split doubleheader in nearly 100 years with the Yankees sweeping both games by the score of 4-2. Game 1 took place at Shea Stadium followed by Game 2 that night at Yankee Stadium. It marked the first day-night doubleheader to take place in different venues since the New York Giants and Brooklyn Superbas faced off on 9/7/1903.

Oct. 21, 2000 - The Yankees' World Series Game 1 win vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium marks their 13th consecutive victory in World Series play, breaking the 12-game record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

Oct. 26, 2000 - The Yankees win World Series Game 5 over the Mets at Shea Stadium, clinching their third consecutive World Championship in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. It marks the first time a club has won three consecutive World Series titles since the 1972-74 Oakland Athletics.

Sept. 2, 2001 - Mike Mussina comes within one out of a perfect game at Fenway Park, before Carl Everett singles with two outs in the ninth.

Sept. 23, 2001 - Yankee Stadium hosts "A Prayer for America" service for those lost on September 11. It was the first large-scale and formally staged program offered in memory of those killed or missing and presumed dead in the terrorist assault on the World Trade Center towers.

Oct. 13, 2001 - With a 1-0 lead and two-out in the bottom of the seventh of Game 3 of the ALDS in Oakland, Derek Jeter picks up Shane Spencer's errant throw from the outfield and "flips" the ball in a backhand motion to Jorge Posada, who tags Jeremy Giambi for the final out of the inning. The Yankees go on to win the game, 1-0, and the series 3 games to 2. The play will be known as the "Flip Play."

Oct. 30, 2001 - President George W. Bush throws out the first pitch prior to the Yankees' 2-1 World Series Game 3 win vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 31, 2001 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, Tino Martinez's two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings. Shortly after the stroke of midnight, Derek Jeter wins the game with a "walk-off" solo home run in the 10th, earning him the nickname "Mr. November."

Nov. 1, 2001 - In the late innings of Game 5 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, fans serenade Paul O'Neill, who is playing in his last game at Yankee Stadium. Scott Brosius' two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings, and Alfonso Soriano singles in the winning run in the 12th.

May 17, 2002 - Jason Giambi becomes only the 21st player—and second Yankee—to hit a "walk-off" grand slam with his team trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/24/25). His 14th-inning slam off Minnesota's Mike Trombley erases a 12-9 Twins lead, giving the Yankees a 13-12 win.

April 8, 2003 - Hideki Matsui hits a grand slam in his Yankee Stadium debut, leading the Yankees to a 7-3 win over Minnesota.

June 3, 2003 - Derek Jeter is named the 11th captain in franchise history.

June 13, 2003 - In a 5-2 win vs. St. Louis at Yankee Stadium, Roger Clemens records both his 300th career win and 4,000th career strikeout (Edgar Renteria).

Oct. 16, 2003 – In Game 7 of the ALCS vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Aaron Boone becomes only the fifth player—and second Yankee—to end a postseason series with a "walk-off" home run (also Chris Chambliss, 1976 ALCS vs. Kansas City), when his 11th-inning leadoff solo shot off Tim Wakefield clinches the Yankees' 39th pennant.

March 30-31, 2004 - The Yankees play their first-ever regular season games outside of North America, splitting a pair of games with Tampa Bay at the Tokyo Dome, losing 8-3 and winning 12-1, respectively.

July 1, 2004 - Derek Jeter makes his most famous catch, diving into Yankee Stadium's third base stands to nab a 12th-inning popup off the bat of Boston's Trot Nixon. John Flaherty wins the game with a 13th-inning RBI single.

April 26, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits three home runs (all off Bartolo Colon) and becomes just the second Yankee in franchise history to record at least 10 RBI in a game (also Tony Lazzeri, 11 on 5/24/36) in a 12-4 win vs. the Angels at Yankee Stadium.

June 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed in Macombs Dam and John Mullaly Parks, which are located on the north side of 161st Street (adjacent to the site of the original Stadium).

April 29, 2006 - For the second time in franchise history, the Yankees score in each inning of a game during a 17-6 win vs. Toronto (also 7/26/39 vs. St. Louis).

May 11, 2006 - Hideki Matsui fractures his left wrist and is removed from the game in the top of the first inning vs. Boston. According to Rule 10.24 (c), his 1,768 consecutive-games-played streak as a professional (1,250 with the Yomiuri Giants and 518 with the Yankees) comes to an end has he did not play one half-inning in the field or complete a time at-bat by reaching base or making an out. His streak as a Yankee is the longest since Lou Gehrig's (2,130 games).

May 16, 2006 - The Yankees tie a franchise record by overcoming a nine-run deficit vs. Texas to win, 14-13, in nine innings. Jorge Posada hits a two-run "walk-off" home run off Akinori Otsuka.

Aug. 16, 2006 – The Yankees break ground for a new Yankee Stadium, scheduled to be ready for Opening Day 2009.

George Steinbrenner [C] breaks ground for the current Yankee Stadium on Aug. 16, 2006.

Aug. 4, 2007 - Alex Rodriguez becomes the 22nd and youngest (32 years, 8 days) player in Baseball history to reach the 500-home run mark in a 16-8 win vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium. He is the third player to hit his 500th career homer as a Yankee, joining Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle.

Sept. 5, 2007 - Bob Sheppard works his final game as Yankees Public Address Announcer, a 3-2 win over Seattle.

Oct. 30, 2007 - Joe Girardi is named the 32nd manager in Yankees franchise history.

Mar. 18, 2008 - The Yankees traveled to Blacksburg, Va., to play an exhibition game vs. Virginia Tech, on-campus at English Field, to honor the victims and aid in the healing process following the tragic events that took place on the college's campus on April 16, 2007. The players and staff visited the campus' memorial site before heading to the stadium.

March 27, 2008 - Prior to the Yankees' final home exhibition game of spring training, Legends Field is renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field.

June 7, 2008 - Johnny Damon goes 6-for-6 in the Yankees' 12-11 win vs. Kansas City, matching the franchise record for hits in a nine-inning game (see June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag) and becoming the only Yankee in original Yankee Stadium history to record six hits in a game of any length. His final hit is a "walk-off" single.

Sept. 16, 2008 - Derek Jeter singles off Chicago's Gavin Floyd in the first inning for his 1,270th career hit at Yankee Stadium, surpassing Lou Gehrig for the most all-time hits at the ballpark. Jeter finishes the game 2-for-3 in the 6-2 loss.

Sept. 21, 2008 - The Yankees play their last ever game in the original Yankee Stadium. Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, throws out the ceremonial first pitch, and Jose Molina hits the park's final home run in the fourth inning. Following the Yankees' 7-3 win over Baltimore, Derek Jeter thanks the fans over the Stadium public address system.

Sept. 28, 2008 - On the final day of the season in the first game of a doubleheader at Boston's Fenway Park, Mike Mussina records his 20th win of the year, becoming the oldest pitcher in Major League history to win 20 games for the first time.

Mike Mussina [R] smiles with Johnny Damon on Sept. 28, 2008, at Fenway Park in Boston after becoming the oldest pitcher to win 20 games for the first time.

Nov. 8, 2008 - Local Bronx high school youth groups are joined by Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jeff Nelson and Paul O'Neill of the Yankees' 1998 World Championship team and Yankees General Partner and Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal in removing home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Yankee Stadium, then installing them in the current Yankee Stadium.

April 3-4, 2009 – The Yankees play their first exhibition games in Yankee Stadium, defeating the Cubs, 7-4 and 10-1, respectively. Chien-Ming Wang tosses the first pitch in the April 3 contest.

April 16, 2009 – The Yankees play the first regular season game in Yankee Stadium history, falling to Cleveland, 10-2. CC Sabathia tosses the Stadium's first official pitch, Johnny Damon records the first hit (first-inning single off Cliff Lee) and Jorge Posada hits the first HR (fifth-inning off Lee).

May 14 – June 1, 2009 – The Yankees set an all-time Major League mark with 18 consecutive errorless games, safely handling 660 chances over the stretch.

Sept. 11, 2009 – Derek Jeter breaks Lou Gehrig's all-time franchise mark of 2,721 hits with a single off Baltimore's Chris Tillman at Yankee Stadium. Gehrig had held the mark since 9/6/37.

Oct. 4, 2009 – Alex Rodriguez hits a three-run HR and a grand slam in the sixth inning of the season finale at Tampa Bay in a 10-2 Yankees win, setting an all-time AL mark with 7RBI in an inning.

Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada, Derek Jeter and Mariano Rivera admire the 2009 World Series trophy following Game 6 at Yankee Stadium.

Nov. 4, 2009 – The Yankees win their 27th World Series, defeating Philadelphia in Game 6, 7-3. Hideki Matsui ties Bobby Richardson's World Series mark (1960 Game 3 vs. Pittsburgh) with 6RBI (since tied by Albert Pujols in 2011). Andy Pettitte records the win, becoming the first pitcher to start and record the win in the clinching game in all three rounds of a single postseason. Manager Joe Girardi joins Billy Martin and Ralph Houk as the only individuals in franchise history to win a World Series with the Yankees as a player and as a manger.

May 8, 2010 – Mark Teixeira becomes the second Yankee in franchise history to hit 3HR in a game against Boston (also see June 23, 1927), homering in the fifth, seventh and ninth innings of a 14-3 Yankees win at Fenway Park.

June 12-13, 2010 – Jorge Posada becomes the first Yankee since Bill Dickey (June 3, Game 2 - June 4, 1937) to hit grand slams in back-to-back games as he accomplishes the feat in 9-3 and 9-5 wins vs. Houston.

July 11, 2010 – Longtime Yankees P.A. announcer Bob Sheppard passes away at his home in Baldwin, Long Island, at age 99.

July 13, 2010 – Yankees Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III passes away in Tampa, Fla. at age 80.

Aug. 4, 2010 – Alex Rodriguez becomes the seventh (and youngest) player in Major League history to hit his 600th HR, accomplishing the feat at 35 years, 8 days old in a 5-1 win vs. Toronto off pitcher Shaun Marcum.

Sept. 20, 2010 - The Yankees dedicate a monument to Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III in Monument Park.

July 9, 2011 - Derek Jeter becomes the 28th player all time to record 3,000 hits - and the first Yankee, accomplishing the feat with a third-inning solo home run vs. Tampa Bay off David Price.

July 30, 2011 - In the second game of a doubleheader, the Yankees score 12 first-inning runs in a 17-3 win vs. Baltimore, sending 16 men to the plate with 13 reaching base on seven singles, two doubles, 1HR, 2BB and 1 error. All nine batters had at least one hit and one run. The club sets a franchise record for most runs scored in the first inning in any game.

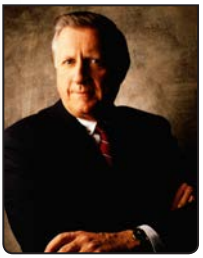

August 25, 2011 - Robinson Cano, Russell Martin and Curtis Granderson each hit grand slams for the Yankees, as the club becomes the first team ever to hit three grand slams in a single game.

Sept. 19, 2011 - Mariano Rivera records his 602nd career save, closing out a 6-4 win vs. Minnesota at Yankee Stadium to surpass Trevor Hoffman and become the all-time Major League leader.

Oct. 3, 2012 - With a 4HR performance in the season finale vs. Boston, the Yankees set a single-season franchise record with 245 homers.

George M. Steinbrenner III (1930-2010)

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF OWNERSHIP

From 1973 until his passing on July 13, 2010, George M. Steinbrenner III created a legacy of winning unmatched by his peers. His foresight, drive and commitment permanently transformed not only the Yankees organization, but the game of Baseball.

On January 3, 1973, a group of businessmen formed and led by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the New York Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million. It took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the organization back into World Champions. In his time as Principal Owner of the club, the Yankees won more pennants (11) and World Series (7) than any other team in baseball, while posting a Major League-best .566 winning percentage (3,364-2,583-3 record) over the stretch.

In addition to the team's on-field success under the direction of Mr. Steinbrenner, the New York Yankees consistently shattered franchise and league attendance records at home and on the road. In 2009, they drew 3,719,358 fans in their first season of play in the current Yankee Stadium, topping the American League in attendance for the seventh straight season (2003-09). The Yankees remain the only franchise in Baseball history to draw more than 4 million fans at home in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

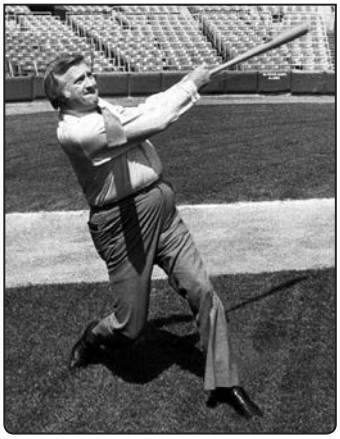

Most recently, Mr. Steinbrenner's foresight into both sports and business continued to build the value and prominence of the franchise, positioning it for the future. In 2002, Sporting News named him the No. 1 "Most Powerful Man in Sports," and Forbes magazine has continued to list the Yankees as the most valuable franchise in all of Baseball.

Mr. Steinbrenner's vision led to the creation of YankeeNets, which owned the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and ultimately led to the launch of the YES Network, a trailblazing enterprise that has been the nation's most watched regional sports network since 2003. Additionally, Mr. Steinbrenner teamed with long-time friend and Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company which currently operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

In 2006, his participation in the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Yankee Stadium underscored his role as the principal impetus in moving the much-anticipated facility towards its opening in 2009.

Mr. Steinbrenner's tenure of over 37 years exceeded that of any other New York Yankees owner by 13 years (Colonel Jacob Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston in January 1915, bought out Huston in 1922, and maintained sole ownership in the club until his death in January 1939—a total of 24 years). During Mr. Steinbrenner's time as the sole Principal Owner of the Yankees, the other 29 Major League clubs had over 100 owners or ownership groups.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world began at an early age. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy (where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame) and at Williams College. He began his successful coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue. Then he assembled championship basketball teams in the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues. In 2002, he was honored with the prestigious Gold Medal Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for a lifetime of "outstanding commitment, dedication and dynamic leadership in his business, as well as his personal life."

Mr. Steinbrenner devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC) as he did to his many other sporting endeavors. He was on the U.S. Olympic Foundation Board from 1986-2002 and served as Chairman over the last six years of his tenure. He also was Chairman of the 1989 Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the U.S. Olympic program, and served as Vice President of the USOC from 1989 to 1992. As a result of his distinguished service, he was presented with the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award. In 2005, the U.S. Olympic Foundation created the George M. Steinbrenner Sports Leadership Award in his honor, which celebrates a member of the U.S. Olympic family who has made outstanding contributions to sport.

Additionally, Mr. Steinbrenner was a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and served on the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees beginning in 1990.

Most of Mr. Steinbrenner's philanthropic endeavors were performed without fanfare. However, he was repeatedly recognized by the communities in which he immersed himself. In 1993, he earned the Tampa Civitan Club's "Outstanding Citizen" Award, and in 1998, Tampa Law Enforcement named him "Citizen of the Year" for founding a scholarship fund for the children of slain law enforcement officers. Mr. Steinbrenner was also honored as an "Outstanding New Yorker" by the N.Y. Society of Association Executives in 1997 and credited in 2009 by the Museum of the City of New York as one of the "New York City 400," recognizing "people who have helped create the world's greatest city since its founding in 1609."

In February 2008, the Tampa City Council and the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioner's Office both passed resolutions endorsing the renaming of Legends Field in Tampa after Mr. Steinbrenner to pay tribute to his numerous contributions to the area. On March 27, 2008, Mr. Steinbrenner—joined by his family—pulled down a curtain draped above the outfield scoreboard to unveil the new name for the Yankees' spring training home: George M. Steinbrenner Field.

In the fall of 2009, George M. Steinbrenner High School opened in Lutz, Fla. The school was named after Mr. Steinbrenner by the Hillsborough County School Board in recognition of his philanthropic involvement in the community, particularly with the school system.

Mr. Steinbrenner was dually honored in January 2011, winning the Joan Payson Community Service Award from the New York chapter of the BBWAA and having his legacy of charitable work recognized at the 22nd annual Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) Dinner.

He is survived by his wife, Joan; sisters Susan Norpell and Judy Kamm, children, Hank, Hal, Jennifer and Jessica; and his grandchildren.

On September 20, 2010, prior to the team's game vs. Tampa Bay, the Yankees unveiled a monument in Mr. Steinbrenner's honor in Monument Park, reflecting the special connection, appreciation and responsibility that he felt toward Yankees fans.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

JULY 4, 1930 – JULY 13, 2010

New York Yankees Principal Owner
"The Boss"
1973 - 2010

Purchased the New York Yankees on January 3, 1973. A true visionary who changed the game of baseball forever, he was considered the most influential owner in all of sports. In his 37 years as Principal Owner, the Yankees posted a Major League-best .566 winning percentage, while winning 11 American League pennants and seven World Series titles, becoming the most recognizable sports brand in the world. A devoted sportsman, he was Vice President of the United States Olympic Committee, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees. A great philanthropist whose charitable efforts were mostly performed without fanfare, he followed a personal motto of the greatest form of charity is anonymity.

Bob Sheppard "The Voice of Yankee Stadium"

Bob Sheppard will forever be the "The Voice of Yankee Stadium." With his instantly recognizable elocution — in which each syllable was given meticulous attention — Sheppard provided a soundtrack of irreproachable dignity to Yankee Stadium for 57 years.

Sadly, he passed away on July 11, 2010, at his home in Baldwin, N.Y., with his wife, Mary, by his side. He was 99 years old.

Born in Ridgewood, Queens, Sheppard began his tenure as Yankees public address announcer on April 17, 1951—Opening Day of Joe DiMaggio's final season and the day of Mickey Mantle's Major League debut. Among the approximately 4,500 baseball games he worked over his tenure with the Yankees were 121 consecutive postseason contests from 1951 to 2006, including 62 games in 22 World Series.

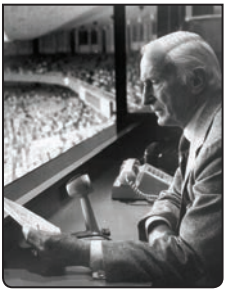

Sheppard's incredible career behind the microphone started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island, in the late 1940s. An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game. He liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after just one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York football Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered him their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees discovered him as a result and offered him their PA role for the 1950 season. Though he turned down their offer due to conflicts with his teaching schedule, he changed his mind the following year.

In addition to his baseball duties, Sheppard was the public address voice for the New York football Giants for 50 seasons—from their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956 until his retirement after the 2005 season. Sheppard also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium, the New York Cosmos soccer team, and St. John's University's basketball and football teams. Sheppard also handled PA duties for five Army-Navy football games in Philadelphia.

Some of the events he listed as the most memorable of his incredible career were: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game 6 of the World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard attended St. John's College, which eventually became St. John's University. Always a talented athlete, he received a full athletic scholarship to the school, playing quarterback on the football team all four years. He later enrolled at Columbia University, where he received his master's degree in speech and worked his way up from teacher-in-training to substitute teacher to permanent teacher to department chairman. In order to supplement his teaching salary, Sheppard played semiprofessional football on Sundays in Long Island with the Valley Stream Red Riders and the Hempstead Monitors, earning $25 a game.

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" Award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ballclub.

On May 7, 2000, a plaque was dedicated to Sheppard in Monument Park of the original Yankee Stadium to commemorate his 50th anniversary season. Additionally, the Yankee Stadium media dining room was named "Sheppard's Place" prior to the 2009 season to commemorate his legacy.

The native New Yorker was elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame. He was awarded honorary doctorates from St. John's University (Pedagogy) and Fordham University (Rhetoric), and in 2007, received St. John's' Medal of Honor, the highest award that the university can confer on a graduate.

Sheppard also made cameo appearances in numerous motion pictures and television shows, including 61, It's My Turn, It Could Happen to You, Anger Management, Seinfeld* and Mad About You.

Sheppard announced his final game at Yankee Stadium on September 5, 2007, a 3-2 Yankees victory over the Seattle Mariners.

On Sept. 21, 2008, Sheppard provided a valedictory in the bottom of the seventh inning of the final game at the original Yankee Stadium. Unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium since the final weeks of the 2007 season, Sheppard gave his tribute through a taped segment played on the video board. He recited, "Farewell, old Yankee Stadium, farewell / What a wonderful story you can tell / DiMaggio, Mantle, Gehrig and Ruth / A baseball cathedral in truth."

When the Yankees moved into the current Yankee Stadium in 2009, the media dining room was named "Sheppard's Place" in his honor.

Voices Before Sheppard

Not even Bob Sheppard himself could remember who preceded him as Yankee Stadium public address announcer. The last game by this mystery man would likely have been the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

The answer, however, seemed to have turned up in the transcript of an interview conducted in 1991 by writer Paul Doherty with Don Carney, the producer-director of Yankees telecasts for more than three decades.

Extolling Sheppard's longevity, Carney told Doherty that "Bob's been around forever. He followed Red Patterson, who was the club's Public Relations Director and also did the P.A."

Carney's words give not only the answer but may also explain the mystery. Sheppard's predecessor was widely but anonymously quoted in the newspapers for an infamous gaffe he made during a Yankees-Philadelphia Athletics game on May 31, 1946. "Will the spectators in the front row please remove their clothing…" he began, with the rest of his announcement: "from the front railing," drowned out by the crowd's laughter.

Red Patterson: The man who preceded Sheppard

The story got into the papers, but the identity of the speaker did not. Of course, it didn't. The writers didn't want to embarrass their main conduit for information about the club!

Additional research shows that Yankee Stadium was the last ballpark in the Majors to install a public-address system. It debuted in Game 3 of the 1936 World Series and was manned by Jack Lenz and George Levy, two veterans of the time when information was still relayed to the crowd by megaphone.

The careers of Lenz and Levy began in 1915 when the Yankees and Giants shared the Polo Grounds. When the Yankees hopped across the Harlem River in 1923, Levy stayed with the Giants while Lenz took the Yankee post.

"I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat and Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early 1930s to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.

Current Yankees Public Address Announcer Paul Olden

On April 15, 2009, the Yankees announced that Paul Olden would assume full-time duties as Yankee Stadium public address announcer, replacing the iconic Bob Sheppard. Olden, a 12-time Super Bowl public address announcer, first manned the Yankees booth during the team's workout day on April 2. He also worked the team's first-ever Stadium exhibition games vs. the Chicago Cubs on April 3-4.

Sheppard, the Yankees PA announcer since 1951, had been suffering from a bronchial infection and was last able to perform his role on September 5, 2007. His longtime backup, Jim Hall, handled PA responsibilities in 2008.

Olden had a long broadcasting career prior to taking the Yankees PA position, including three seasons in the Yankees television broadcast booth from 1994-96 alongside Phil Rizzuto and Bobby Murcer. He also called games on the radio for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1998-2004), California Angels (1991), and Cleveland Indians (1988-89), as well as for the NFL's New York Jets (1993-96) and Los Angeles Rams (1991-92).

Previously, Olden did fill-in radio work with the NBA's New Jersey Nets (1995-96) and MLB's Angels (1989-90, '92). He was also a full-time radio broadcaster for UCLA's basketball and football teams (1989-1992) and worked for The Football Network (2003), FOX SportsNet LA (1997) and ESPN (1991-92), calling Major League Baseball and college football.

Olden's prior PA work included the NCAA's Outback Bowl from 2002-05 and USC Trojans baseball from 1972-76. He also did on-air radio work for KPMC and KNX in Los Angeles.

Born in Chicago and raised in L.A., Olden attended Los Angeles City College and Los Angeles Valley Cottage (2006-08). He was presented with a New York Emmy Award for best local sports coverage in 1994 for his work on Yankees telecasts.

Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day - July 4, 1939

Prior to the Yankees' May 2, 1939, game at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, captain Lou Gehrig gave the umpires his team's lineup card—which did not have his name on it. He watched the entire game from the bench, marking the end of his 2,130-consecutive-games-played streak. "The Iron Horse" was suffering the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), a disease known since as Lou Gehrig's disease. He would never play again.

Just over two months later, on July 4, 1939, Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day was held in front of approximately 62,000 fans at Yankee Stadium. Ceremonies took place between games of a doubleheader against the Washington Senators. Gehrig and his teammates were joined by members of the 1927 Yankees. After speeches by Mayor Fiorello La Guardia and Postmaster James A. Farley, Manager Joe McCarthy said his public goodbye to Gehrig: "Lou, what can I say except that it was a sad day in the life of everybody who knew you when you came to my hotel room that day in Detroit and told me you were quitting as a ballplayer because you felt yourself a hindrance to the team. My God, man, you were never that."

Various gifts were presented to Gehrig from club employees and the rival New York Giants. His teammates gave him a trophy, which was inscribed with a poem by New York Times writer John Kieran. As the crowd chanted, "We want Lou; We want Lou…," Gehrig stepped to the microphone to deliver one of the most oft-quoted speeches in American history.

"For the past two weeks you've been reading about a bad break. Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the Earth. I have been in ballparks for 17 years and have never received anything but kindness and encouragement from you fans.

"When you look around, wouldn't you consider it a privilege to associate yourself with such fine-looking men as are standing in uniform in this ballpark today? Sure, I'm lucky. Who wouldn't consider it an honor to have known Jacob Ruppert? Also, the builder of baseball's greatest empire, Ed Barrow? To have spent six years with such a grand little fellow as Miller Huggins? To have spent the next nine years with that smart student of psychology, the best manager in baseball today, Joe McCarthy? Who wouldn't feel honored to room with such a grand guy as Bill Dickey?

"When the New York Giants, a team you would give your right arm to beat, and vice versa, sends you a gift—that's something. When the groundskeepers and office staff and writers and old-timers and players and concessionaires all remember you with trophies—that's something. When you have a wonderful mother-in-law who takes sides with you in squabbles against her own daughter—that's something. When you have a father and a mother who work all their lives so that you can have an education and build your body—it's a blessing. When you have a wife who has been a tower of strength and shown more courage than you ever dreamed existed—that's the finest I know.

"So I close in saying that I might have been given a bad break, but I've got an awful lot to live for. Thank you."

On January 6, 1940, Yankees team president Ed Barrow announced that No. 4 would be retired from use. To this day, Gehrig remains the only Yankee ever to wear the number.

Gehrig died on June 2, 1941, at his home in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. He was 37.

Babe Ruth Day - April 27, 1947

On April 27, 1947, Babe Ruth Day was celebrated throughout Major League Baseball, as the Babe said goodbye in an on-field ceremony at Yankee Stadium. Dressed in a topcoat and hat, Ruth, weakened by throat cancer, made the following remarks:

"Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen. You know how bad my voice sounds—well it feels just as bad.

"You know this baseball game of ours comes up from the youth. That means the boys. And after you're a boy and grow up to know how to play ball, then you come to the boys you see representing themselves today in your national pastime. The only real game—I think—in the world is baseball.

"As a rule, some people think if you give them a football, or a baseball, or something like that—naturally they're athletes right away. But you can't do that in baseball. You've gotta start from way down [at] the bottom, when you're 6 or 7 years of age. You can't wait until you're 15 or 16. You gotta let it grow up with you. And if you're successful, and you try hard enough, you're bound to come out on top—just like these boys have come to the top now.

"There's been so many lovely things said about me, and I'm glad that I've had the opportunity to thank everybody. Thank you."

Ruth memorably returned to Yankee Stadium on June 13, 1948, to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Yankee Stadium and have his uniform No. 3 retired.

He died on Aug. 16, 1948, at Memorial Hospital in New York at age 53. His body lay in state at the entrance of Yankee Stadium on Aug. 17 and 18, before his funeral on Aug. 19 at New York's St. Patrick's Cathedral.

The 1927 Yankees - "Murderers' Row"

Many baseball writers and historians consider the 1927 Yankees the greatest baseball team of all time. With a lineup known as Murderers' Row, the club marched to a 110-44 regular season record, leading the AL from wire-to-wire and finishing ahead of the second-place Philadelphia A's by 19.0 games. The club featured seven future Hall of Famers – outfielders Babe Ruth and Earle Combs, first baseman Lou Gehrig, second baseman Tony Lazzeri, pitchers Waite Hoyt and Herb Pennock, and manager Miller Huggins. Additionally, the team was constructed by an eighth Hall-of-Famer, general manager Ed Barrow.

Ruth had his signature season, hitting 60 home runs, including 17 in September. With his final blast of the year off the Washington Senators' Tom Zachary, he surpassed his own single-season record of 59 set in 1921. Ruth also led the Majors in on-base percentage (.486), slugging pct. (.772), runs (158), walks (137) and strikeouts (89).

Hitting behind Ruth in the clean-up spot, Gehrig won the AL MVP Award, batting .373 with 173 RBI, 117 extra-base hits and 447 total bases. While this marked Gehrig's breakout season, his winning the award had a lot to do with the rules of the time, which prohibited a repeat winner (Ruth had won in 1923). Nevertheless Gehrig's totals for extra-base hits, total bases and RBI are the second-highest, third-highest and tied for the fourth-highest, respectively, in a single season in Baseball history.

As a club, the Yankees led the Majors in almost every offensive category, including runs (975), triples (103), home runs (158), walks (642), batting average (.307), on-base percentage (.384) and slugging percentage (.488). Ruth and Gehrig alone tallied 107 combined homers, just two shy of the New York Giants, who had the second-most as a team in the Majors.

For all the attention that the hitters received, the pitchers were every bit as good. They led the Majors with a 3.20 combined ERA and allowed the third fewest walks (409) and homers (42) among the Majors' 16 teams. They tossed 82 complete games (second in the AL) and led their league with 11 shutouts.

The group was paced by Hoyt, who had the best overall season of his career, going 22-7 with a 2.64 ERA and tying for the AL lead in wins. Urban Shocker, a four-time former 20-game winner with the St. Louis Browns, went 18-6 with a 2.84 ERA, while dealing with a mitral valve disorder that forced him to sleep sitting up and contributed to his death the following year.

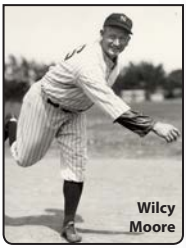

The biggest surprise on the staff was Wilcy Moore – a player Barrow discovered in 1926 while reading minor league statistics in the Sporting News. Moore became a spot starter as well as the Yankees' principal all-purpose relief pitcher, tossing 213.0 innings (93.0 as a starter, 120.0 as a reliever), going 19-7 and leading the Majors with a 2.28 ERA.

The Yankees capped off their season with a four-game World Series sweep of Pittsburgh, outscoring the Pirates 23-10. Ruth hit the only two homers of the Series and Moore tossed a complete game in the clincher.

The 1961 Yankees and Roger Maris' 61-Home Run Season

The 1961 Yankees are considered to be among the greatest teams of all time. Led by Roger Maris, who broke Babe Ruth's all-time single-season home run mark, the club powered their way to the 19th World Series championship in franchise history.

The Yankees finished the regular season with a 109-53 (.673) record, eight games ahead of the 101-61 (.623) Detroit Tigers. The clubs were just 1.5 games apart in the standings heading into the final full month of the season before the Yankees reeled off a 13-game winning streak from Sept. 1-12 to vault an insurmountable 11.5 games in front. Their massive win total was fueled by a 65-16 mark at Yankee Stadium, the best single-season home record in Major League history.

Assembled by General Manager George Weiss, the Yankees had sluggers up and down the lineup, including Moose Skowron (28 HR), Yogi Berra (22 HR), Elston Howard (21 HR) and "Super-sub" Johnny Blanchard, who hit 21 homers in just 243 at-bats. Of the 240 home runs the Yankees hit, 10 were pinch-hit homers, setting a still-standing single-season franchise mark.

Roger Maris hits his 61st home run of the season on Oct. 1, 1961 at Yankee Stadium.

The pitching staff was paced by Whitey Ford, who had a career year, going 25-4 with a 3.21 ERA. Under first-year manager Ralph Houk, Ford took the ball every fourth day for the first time in his career and set career highs in wins, winning percentage (.862), starts (39) and innings pitched (283.0), earning the Cy Young Award as the best pitcher in both leagues. Bill Stafford (14-9, 2.68 ERA), Ralph Terry (16-3, 3.15 ERA) and Rollie Sheldon (11-5, 3.60 ERA) were the Yankees' other top starters, and Luis Arroyo picked up 15 wins in relief, the highest total by a reliever in franchise history.

In the World Series, the Yankees triumphed over Cincinnati, 4-games-to-1, as Ford tossed 14.0 combined scoreless innings, earning wins in Game 1 and 4. With the Series knotted at one game apiece, Game 3 proved pivotal. Down, 2-1, heading into the eighth, Blanchard tied the game with a solo homer before Maris hit a game-winning solo shot in the ninth. The Yankees then outscored the Reds 20-5 over the final two contests to win the first of two consecutive World Series titles.

Much of the season's drama centered on the chase by the M&M Boys – Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle – to break Ruth's seemingly untouchable single-season record of 60 home runs, which he set with the 1927 Murderers' Row Yankees. Maris, the American League MVP in 1960 and 1961, was joined in his pursuit by Mantle, who topped out at 54 home runs after sitting out seven of the club's final 10 games with an abscess in his right hip.

Maris tied Ruth's mark on Sept. 26 at Yankee Stadium with a home run off Baltimore's Jack Fisher in the team's 159th game of the season. Needing one homer to break the record with four games to go (the Yankees had played a tie earlier in the year), Maris was given a full game off prior to going homerless in the first two games of a three-game series against Boston at Yankee Stadium.

In the season's final game on Oct. 1, Maris connected in the fourth inning off Tracy Stallard, hitting a line-drive into the right-field stands for his 61st home run, which turned out to be the only run in a 1-0 Yankees victory. The quiet and humble Maris had to be pushed back onto the field by his teammates for his curtain call.

The chase was not without controversy as writers and fans loyal to Ruth clamored that the record should receive a special notation given that the American League was playing a 162-game schedule in 1961 due to the addition of two expansion teams. With the exceptions of 1901-03 and 1918-19, the AL had always played a 154-game format.

Ford Frick, a former sportswriter and New York City sportscaster who had previously ghostwritten Ruth's 1928 autobiography Babe Ruth's Own Book of Baseball, was the commissioner of baseball at the time. In the middle of the season, he issued the directive that baseball's official record book, The Little Red Book of Major League Baseball, compiled by the Elias Sports Bureau, should show two records — one for a 154-game schedule and another for a 162-game schedule. Contrary to popular lore, an asterisk was never used for the notation, and separate designations remained in the official record book until 1991, when Major League Baseball finally rescinded the distinction.

Maris' 61 in 1961 remains the highest single-season home run total in American League history and the seventh-highest single-season total all time, behind those of Barry Bonds (73), Mark McGwire (70, 65) and Sammy Sosa (66, 64 and 63).

The 1998 Yankees - "Most Wins in a Single Season"

The 1998 Yankees were one of the most dominant teams in Major League baseball history. Despite starting the season with a three-game losing streak and dropping four of their first five, they proceeded go 64-16 dating from their sixth game of the year, marking the best single-season 80-game run in franchise history.

Ultimately, the Yankees finished the regular season 114-48 (.704) and won the AL East by 22.0 games, marking the third-largest margin of any league or division winner in Major League history, behind only Cleveland in 1995 (+30.0) and Pittsburgh in 1902 (+27.5). Their regular season winning percentage trailed only the 1927 Murderers' Row team (.714) for the best in franchise history, and their 125-50 overall record including the postseason, marks the most single-season wins by any team all time.

The 1998 club was good at every facet of the game, leading the American League in runs scored (965), runs per game (5.96), on-base percentage (.364), fewest runs per game allowed (4.05) and ERA (3.82). They ranked second in stolen bases (153) and tallied the league's third-fewest errors (98). Five members of the club (Scott Brosius, Derek Jeter, Paul O'Neill, David Wells and Bernie Williams) were named to the AL All-Star team.

The club fielded a remarkably balanced lineup as 10 different batters hit at least 10 home runs, with no player hitting more than 28. Additionally, the 1998 club became the first team all time to have eight players hit at least 17 home runs in a single season.

Bernie Williams led the AL with a .339 batting average in 1998.

Second baseman Chuck Knoblauch was the team's leadoff hitter (.265BA, 117R, 17HR, 64RBI), after being acquired from Minnesota for four players just before the start of spring training. He was followed in the second spot by Jeter, who batted .324 (203-for-626) in posting the first of his seven career 200-hit seasons. The future captain led the AL with 127 runs scored while making his first All-Star team.

O'Neill, Williams and Tino Martinez were the Yankees principal 3-4-5 hitters, though Martinez batted cleanup for stretches, including when Williams was on the disabled list with a sprained right knee from June 11 - July 18. O'Neill, in his sixth year with the club after parts of eight seasons with Cincinnati, batted .317 (191-for-602) with 40 doubles, 24HR and 116RBI, setting career highs in hits and runs scored (95). Williams won his only career batting title, posting a .339 (169-for-499) mark with 26HR, 97RBI and a .422 on-base percentage. He also won a Gold Glove for his play in centerfield.

Martinez led the club with 123RBI and solidified the defense at first base. On the opposite corner, Scott Brosius had a career year, batting .300 (159-for-530) with 19HR and 98RBI, making his only All-Star team. The catching duties were split between Jorge Posada (.268BA, 17HR and 63RBI in 111 games) in his first year as the first-string backstop and Joe Girardi (.276BA in 78 games).

One of the hallmarks of the club was its depth. Darryl Strawberry hit 24 home runs in just 295 at-bats and Tim Raines put up a .395 on-base percentage in 109 games. Rookie Shane Spencer lit up the Bronx with 10 homers in 67 at-bats, including eight after being called up in September and seven in the Yankees' last 11 games of the season. The bench was so strong that over the course of the season, the substitutes (.370) had a better on-base percentage than the starters (.364).

The pitching staff was anchored by David Cone (20-7, 3.55 ERA in 31GS), who tied for the AL and Major League lead in wins. Lefthander David Wells (18-4, 3.49 ERA in 30GS) led the AL with five shutouts and a 1.05 WHIP. Along with tossing a perfect game on May 17 vs. Minnesota, Wells also had eight complete games during the season, a total that no Yankee has equaled since.

Orlando Hernandez added a boost to the rotation following his June call-up. Signed in March as a free agent from Cuba, "El Duque" went 12-4 with a 3.13 ERA in 21 starts. Andy Pettitte (16-11, 4.24 ERA) and Hideki Irabu (13-9, 4.06 ERA) rounded out the rotation, which often got bailed out by utility pitcher Ramiro Mendoza, who went 10-2 with a 3.25 ERA in 41 appearances, including 14 starts. Mike Stanton (4-1, 5.47 ERA in 67G), Jeff Nelson (5-3, 3.79 ERA in 45G) and lefthanded specialist Graeme Lloyd (3-0, 1.67 ERA in 50G in his best career season) provided the bridge to Mariano Rivera (3-0, 1.91 ERA), who notched 36 saves and allowed just four of 24 inherited runners to score.

Tino Martinez celebrates his World Series Game 1 grand slam with Derek Jeter.

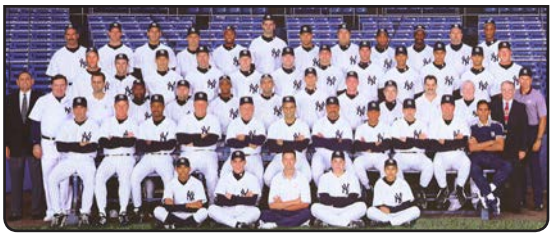

In the postseason, the Yankees swept Texas in three games in the ALDS, outscoring them 9-1 and outhitting them 23-13. The ALCS was trickier as Cleveland took a 2-games-to-1 series lead before the Yankees won in six games. David Wells earned MVP honors, winning both of his starts in Game 1 and Game 5.

The Yankees met San Diego in the World Series, and the turning point came early. Down 5-2 in the seventh inning of Game 1 at Yankee Stadium, Knoblauch tied the score with a three-run homer. Five batters later, Tino Martinez hit a two-out, full-count grand slam off Mark Langston into the upper deck in right-field to cap a seven-run inning in a 9-6 Yankees win.

The Yankees never looked back. They won Game 2, 9-3, and they took Game 3 due to the heroics of World Series MVP Scott Brosius (.471 BA, 8-for-17, 2HR, 6RBI), who got the Yankees on the board in the seventh with a solo home run and then provided the margin of victory with a three-run homer in the eighth, propelling the Yankees to a 5-4 win.

Andy Pettitte held the Padres scoreless over 7.1 innings in Game 4, which was closed out by Mariano Rivera, who recorded his third save of the series and sixth of the postseason. Rivera tossed 13.1 scoreless innings in 10 appearances during the 1998 postseason, allowing just six hits.

The championship was the Yankees' second in three years (also 1996) and the first of three consecutive (1998-2000). It marked the highpoint of one of the greatest eras in club history, establishing the yardstick by which all of baseball's post-integration teams are measured.

Official Scoring at Yankee Stadium

The Yankees-Tigers contest at the Polo Grounds on May 15, 1922, might be the most significant game in the history of official scoring. In the second inning that wet day, Yankees shortstop Everett Scott failed to come up with a ground ball off the bat of Ty Cobb. Official scorer John Kieran (the first Sports of the Times columnist and founding editor of the Information Please Almanac) charged an error on Scott. Glancing over his shoulder as he fled the rain that was blowing into the press box, Fred Lieb (national president of the Baseball Writers Association of America and New York chapter chairman) scored it a hit. It was so reported by the Associated Press, for whom Lieb was compiling the box score. As was the custom, Kieran did not announce his call and Lieb, who was probably more interested at that moment in staying dry, did not ask.

The hit/error mattered — a lot. When official American League statistics were compiled (at the end of the season), the one-hit discrepancy was discovered. Cobb's season average was either .401 or .399. A predictable brouhaha ensued. Despite Lieb's willingness to cede to Kieran's official capacity, and despite the BBWAA's December vote that no hit be awarded, AL president Ban Johnson ordered the record to reflect that Cobb earned a hit and thus a .401 average. So it remains, officially, for all time.

As a result of "The Case of the Two-Point Base Hit" (as it was known), official scorers were instructed to contemporaneously communicate their calls to the press box, and the leagues assured the BBWAA that, in the future, a scorer's judgment would not be questioned.

Scorers' calls on close plays have also had a hand in Yankee Stadium no-hitters (and near misses). Had Lieb scored Whitey Witt's leadoff grounder to third on Sept. 11, 1923, an error and not a hit, Boston's Howard Ehmke would be remembered with Johnny Vander Meer as hurlers of consecutive no-hitters. And had John Drebinger of The Times not changed a hit (originally scored an error) back to an error after consulting during the game with Detroit's Johnny Pesky regarding Phil Rizzuto's fourth-inning grounder to short, Virgil Trucks would have thrown only one no-hitter in 1952.

Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb at the Polo Grounds, which was the site of the "Two-Point Base Hit."

Bill Shannon (pictured here in 1983) was the official scorer for approximately 800 games at Yankee Stadium from 1979 until his passing in 2010.

Dan Daniel of the World-Telegram scored many Yankees home games during Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak in 1941, and according to Jerome Holtzman (later the official historian of Major League Baseball), he awarded at least two arguable hits to help keep the streak alive. Four years later, a reversed call on the last day of the season by Bert Gumpert of the Bronx Home News gave Yankees second baseman Snuffy Stirnweiss the hit he needed to edge the White Sox's Tony Cuccinello for the AL batting title by .000087.

The cavalcade of scorers who have worked at Yankee Stadium includes some of the giants of the baseball writers industry: Lieb, Daniel, Sid Mercer (an original BBWAA member in 1908), Frank Graham (Lou Gehrig's first biographer), John Drebinger (who covered 203 consecutive World Series games over 34 years), Dick Young (who covered New York baseball for the Daily News and New York Post for 44 years), Leonard Koppett (author of The Thinking Fan's Guide to Baseball), Jack Lang (BBWAA secretary-treasurer for 22 years), Maury Allen (author of over 30 sports books), Red Foley (senior scorer in New York for 15 years), and Bill Shannon (senior scorer in New York for nine seasons and author of Official Scoring in the Big Leagues).

Jacob Ruppert - 2013 Hall of Fame Inductee

On December 3, 2012, it was announced that former New York Yankees owner Colonel Jacob Ruppert had been posthumously elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by its Pre-Integration Era Committee.

Ruppert received 15 of a possible 16 votes (93.8 percent) from committee members, who considered individuals whose most significant impact on baseball occurred between the time of baseball's origins through 1946. Ruppert will be inducted along with umpire Hank O'Day and 19th Century catcher/third baseman Deacon White on July 28 in Cooperstown, N.Y. Election required at least 75 percent of the vote.

Ruppert becomes the 48th Hall of Famer to have played, managed, coached, owned or been a general manager for the Yankees. He joins Ed Barrow, Larry MacPhail, Lee MacPhail and George Weiss among Hall of Famers who had ownership stakes or were general managers of the Yankees but never played for, coached or managed the club.

Among all Cooperstown inductees, he becomes the 34th individual to be classified by the Hall of Fame as an "Executive or Pioneer" and the seventh inductee whose greatest contributions to the game came as a modern era Major League team owner, along with Charles Comiskey (Chicago White Sox), Barney Dreyfuss (Pittsburgh Pirates), Clark Griffith (Washington Senators), Walter O'Malley (Brooklyn/L.A. Dodgers), Bill Veeck (Cleveland Indians, St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox) and Tom Yawkey (Boston Red Sox).

Jacob Ruppert [at R] co-owned or owned the Yankees for 24 years beginning in 1915. In the photo above, he stands with manager Miller Huggins, with whom he won the first six pennants in franchise history.

"The election of Jacob Ruppert to the Hall of Fame is a great honor for the Yankees organization," Yankees Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner said. "Under his leadership the Yankees became the most popular and successful team in baseball, setting the standard that we try to uphold today."

Ruppert, the son of Jacob Ruppert Sr., was born on Aug. 5, 1867, in New York City. As a teenager, he began working in his father's brewery on Third Ave. between 90th and 92nd Streets in Manhattan, starting as a barrel washer to learn the business from the bottom up. Around the same time he joined the National Guard and served with the rank of private from 1886-89, before joining the staff of Gov. David B. Hill and being promoted to the rank of colonel — a moniker that stuck with him as owner of the Yankees.

By 1896, Ruppert was running his father's brewery. He added to his responsibilities in1898 after being elected to the first of four two-year terms as a Democratic U.S. Congressman, representing New York's 15th district for his first two terms and the 16th district in his final two terms. After leaving Congress, Ruppert returned to the family brewery, of which he became president upon his father's death in 1915.

That same year also changed the course of the then-floundering Yankees franchise as he along with partner Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston (who served as a captain in the Spanish-American War and a colonel in World War I), agreed to the purchase of the Yankees on January 11, 1915 from Frank Farrell and Bill Devery for approximately $460,000. Following their first three mostly forgettable seasons of ownership, Ruppert and Huston looked for a replacement for their manager "Wild Bill" Donovan.

While Huston (who was often called "Cap" or "Captain" to differentiate him from the "Colonel") was with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in France in the fall of 1917, Ruppert famously hired future Hall of Fame manager Miller Huggins for the job despite knowing Huston's strong preference for his close friend, Brooklyn manager Wilbert Robinson. But with the decision firmly made in Huston's absence and no recourse for Cap, a grudge was formed that permanently colored the relationship between the two co-owners and often made managerial life difficult for Huggins.

Ruppert's subsequent baseball accomplishments formed the bedrock of the franchise. He was an active procurer of talent, willing to include large amounts of money in trades to acquire players such as Del Pratt ($15,000), Carl Mays ($40,000), "Bullet" Joe Bush, "Sad" Sam Jones and Everett Scott ($100,000 for the trio), Joe Dugan ($50,000), Herb Pennock ($50,000), Earle Combs ($50,000), Mark Koenig ($50,000), and Tony Lazzeri ($50,000). He also signed off on the most significant player acquisition in baseball history, finalizing the purchase of Babe Ruth's contract from the Red Sox on January 5, 1920 ($100,000 plus interest).

The club, which had knocked on the doorstep of success by finishing 3.0 games behind in the standings in 1920, won pennants in 1921 and 1922, only to lose the World Series to the Giants, with whom they shared the Polo Grounds.

This success coupled with Ruth's overwhelming popularity and the Yankees' surge in attendance made the AL club an unwelcome tenant at the Polo Grounds. Ruppert forged ahead with the planning and construction of Yankee Stadium, which became the first triple-decked ballpark in the country. The team broke ground on May 5, 1922, and in just 284 working days completed construction. The Stadium opened on April 18, 1923 with a 4-1 victory over the Red Sox.

Approximately one month later, on May 21, 1923, the Yankees announced that the colonel would become sole owner of the club effective on June 1, after buying out Huston for a reported $1.25 million. It had been some time since Huston had an active role in the operations or financing of the club, but his absence left no doubt as to who was in charge. At season's end, the Yankees won the first World Series championship in franchise history with a six-game victory over their then-arch rivals, the Giants.

During Ruppert's 24-year ownership tenure, the Yankees won seven World Series titles (1923, '27-28, '32, '36-38) and 10 American League pennants (also 1921-22, '26). In addition to hiring Huggins, he also hired Hall of Fame general manager Ed Barrow from the Red Sox and manager Joe McCarthy, who became the winningest skipper in franchise history, tallying a record of 1,460-867 (.627) and piloting the team for the final four World Series titles under the Colonel's watch.

Ruppert [R] and business manager Ed Barrow [C] look on as Babe Ruth signs a contract with the Yankees.

After years of purchasing talent from the minor leagues as was standard in the day, Ruppert became one of the first owners to recognize the importance of using a farm system to develop Major League talent. In 1931 he hired future Hall of Fame general manager George Weiss to create and oversee the Yankees' network of minor league teams, including the Newark Bears who played in Ruppert Stadium and were one of the best minor league clubs in baseball history.

On January 13, 1939, Ruppert passed away at age 71. To commemorate his landmark achievement of building Yankee Stadium, he was immortalized by the organization in the year after his death with a massive plaque on the centerfield wall, which fans can see today in Monument Park. The plaque reads: "Gentleman • American • Sportsman through whose vision and courage this imposing edifice destined to become the home of champions was erected and dedicated to the American Game of Baseball."

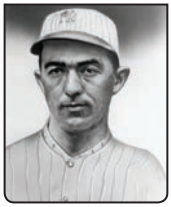

Yankees in Cooperstown

Including 2013 inductee Colonel Jacob Ruppert, there are 48 members of the Baseball Hall of Fame who have played, managed, coached, owned or been a general manager for the New York Yankees at one time or another. The Yankees' first inductee was Babe Ruth, who entered the Hall in its inaugural 1936 class along with Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson and Honus Wagner. Prior to Ruppert's enshrinement on July 28, the Yankees' most recent inductees were Joe Gordon and Rickey Henderson, who were formally inducted in Cooperstown on July 26, 2009.

In addition to the 48 individuals below, at least three Hall of Famers worked for the Yankees in other capacities, including Joe Kelley (HOF in 1971 / Yankees Scout from 1915-25), Dick Williams (HOF in 2008 / NYY adviser from 1995-2001) and Pat Gillick (HOF in 2011 / NYY scouting director from 1974-76).

Currently, the choice of which insignia appears on the cap of each Hall of Famer's plaque belongs to the Hall of Fame itself. The decision is based on the "historical accomplishments" of the player and "where that player makes his most indelible mark" (though the wishes of the inductee are always considered). It is important to remember that caps have not always had insignias and some players' images are cast as profiles without visible insignias.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's No. 4, the Yankees have retired 15 uniform numbers to honor 16 players and managers. Additionally, Major League Baseball retired No. 42 on April 15, 1997, in honor of Jackie Robinson, though players using the number at the time could continue wearing it. The Yankees' Mariano Rivera is the last active player still wearing the number.

1 Billy Martin (Number retired in 1986)

Born: May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, Calif. • Died: Dec. 25, 1989 in Binghamton, N.Y.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: R/R

Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes, and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 1950s as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime World Series batting average is sixth all time among players with at least 75 at-bats. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankees history.

3 Babe Ruth (Number retired in 1948)

Born: Feb. 6, 1895 in Baltimore, Md. • Died: Aug. 16, 1948 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 215 • B/T: L/L

Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American League team. En route to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World Championships. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 Lou Gehrig (Number retired in 1940)

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, N.Y. • Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, N.Y.
Height: 6-1 • Weight: 212 • B/T: L/L

Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games from 1925 to 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939, making his memorable "Luckiest Man" speech. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939. Announcement made on Jan. 6, 1940, by Yankees President Ed Barrow that No. 4 was being retired. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 film, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper.

5 Joe DiMaggio (Number retired in 1952)

Height: 6-2 • Weight: 193 • B/T: R/R

The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, and a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder. Owned a powerful and accurate arm, and was a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. A two-time batting champion and three-time MVP, he powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle (Number retired in 1969)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 201 • B/T: S/R

"The Mick" was the most feared hitter on some of the most successful teams in history. Fast and powerful, his famous 565-foot home run in Washington in 1953 brought about the term "tape-measure home run." In the 14 seasons between 1951 and 1964, he led the Yanks to 12 Fall Classics and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs and walks in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate, hitting 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 Yogi Berra (Number retired in 1972)

Height: 5-8 • Weight: 191 • B/T: L/R

Was mainstay behind the plate for some of the most dominating teams in history from the end of World War II until the early 1960s. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player Awards. Was selected to play in the All-Star Game in 15 successive seasons (1948-62) and played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led the Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

8 Bill Dickey (Number retired in 1972)

Height: 6-1 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/R

Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American League record. In 1931, he did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 full seasons, while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankees pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 Roger Maris (Number retired in 1984)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 197 • B/T: L/R

In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's single-season record of 60 home runs on the final day of the 1961 season. Maris's 61 homers that season was a Major League record until 1998 and still remains the American League mark. A two-time American League MVP (1960-61), he is considered one of the best-fielding right fielders in Yankees history.

10 Phil Rizzuto (Number retired in 1985)

Height: 5-6 • Weight: 150 • B/T: R/R

Playing 13 years for the Yankees, the "Scooter" went to nine World Series, winning seven. Diminutive yet tough, he was a skilled bunter and an enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 career batting average. In 1950, Rizzuto earned the AL MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 walks and 125 runs scored. One year later, he batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series MVP. He also spent 40 years as a Yankees broadcaster (1957-96) tossing around his signature phrase, "Holy cow!" and calling his partners "Huckleberry." He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

15 Thurman Munson (Number retired in 1979)

Height: 5-11 • Weight: 190 • B/T: R/R

Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on Yankees teams that won three consecutive AL pennants (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75) and the AL MVP in 1976. From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each season. He also hit the first Yankees home run in remodeled Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankees history than August 2, 1979, when Munson passed away in a plane crash at age 32.

16 Whitey Ford (Number retired in 1974)

Born: Oct. 21, 1928 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

"The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on great Yankees teams of the 1950s and early '60s. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best winning percentage (.690) of any pitcher with 200-or-more decisions whose career began in the modern era (since 1900). He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33.0 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

23 Don Mattingly (Number retired in 1997)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/L

"Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6–since tied), most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and most homers in eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

32 Elston Howard (Number retired in 1984)

Height: 6-2 • Weight: 196 • B/T: R/R

Became the first black player in Yankees history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of AL pennant-winning Yankees teams in nine of his first 10 seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field set a powerful example for his teammates.

37 Casey Stengel (Number retired in 1970)

Born: July 30, 1890 in Kansas City, Mo. • Died: Sept. 29, 1975 in Glendale, Calif.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 175 • B/T: L/L

In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Perfessor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as one of the top managerial accomplishments of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of Baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

44 Reggie Jackson (Number retired in 1993)

Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career home runs. In Game 6 of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.

49 Ron Guidry (Number retired in 2003)

Born: Aug. 28, 1950 in Lafayette, La.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: L/L

Known as "Louisiana Lightning," Ron Guidry was a four-time American League All-Star and three-time 20-game winner. He compiled one of the most dominating seasons in Baseball history in 1978, going 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA. He led the Yankees to a dramatic comeback from 14.0 games behind the Boston Red Sox to capture their second straight World Championship. That season, he also compiled a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the American League's Cy Young Award winner. On June 17, 1978 at Yankee Stadium, Guidry struck out 18 California Angels, breaking the club's single-game record. With Willie Randolph, he served as Yankees co-captain from 1986 through his retirement in 1989. He remains in the Top 10 on the Yankees' all-time list in games pitched (368), innings pitched (2392.0), wins (170), winning percentage (.651), strikeouts (1778) and shutouts (26).

Yankees retired numbers are immortalized in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

All-Time Roster

In the Yankees' 110 seasons since being established in New York in 1903, 1,520 players have appeared in at least one game.

World War I Service

According to Marty Appel's book Pinstripe Empire, the following Yankees went into the armed forces in WWI: Walter Bernhardt, Neil Brady, Alex Ferguson, Ray Fisher, Frank Kane, Bill Lamar, Bob McGraw, Ed Monroe, Wally Pipp, Muddy Ruel, Bob Shawkey, Walt Smallwood, Sammy Vick and Aaron Ward.

Future Yankees who served in WWI included Carl Mays, Mike McNally, Herb Pennock, Urban Shocker, Ernie Shore and Casey Stengel. Former Yankees Les Nunamaker and Fritz Maisel also served in the "Great War."

Additional research shows that Tom Burr, a Chicago native who attended Choate Prep in Connecticut and Williams College, is the only Yankee to have been killed in military service. He was a defensive replacement for the Yankees in one game on April 21, 1914 vs. Washington in his only Major League appearance. He was killed in an air training accident on Oct. 12, 1918, in Cazaux, France at age 24.

All-Time Numerical Roster

In 1929, the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians became the first teams to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The Yankees' initial distribution of numbers was made according to the player's spot in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1; Mark Koenig No. 2; Babe Ruth No. 3; Lou Gehrig No. 4; Bob Meusel No. 5; Tony Lazzeri No. 6; Leo Durocher No. 7; Johnny Grabowski No. 8; Benny Bengough No. 9; and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared catching duties). After some exhaustive research, the Yankees' Media Relations staff compiled the following list of Yankees uniform numbers.

The list represents uniform numbers worn by coaches (c), managers (m) and players who officially appeared in a regular season game. Yankees retired numbers are denoted in boldface text.

Yogi Berra (No. 8) congratulates Roger Maris on hitting his 61st home run on Oct. 1, 1961.

OPENING DAY HOME RUNS

The Yankees have hit 99 Opening Day home runs in franchise history by 60 different players, including one in 2012 by Raul Ibanez. Babe Ruth hit a franchise-high five OD-HRs, and he is followed by Yogi Berra, Mickey Mantle and Jorge Posada, who each hit four. Derek Jeter (with 3OD-HRs) has the most of any active Yankee. In 2010 at Boston, Jorge Posada and Curtis Granderson hit back-to-back homers, marking the first Yankees to go back-to-back on Opening Day since Dave Winfield and Steve Kemp in 1983 at Seattle. Joe Pepitone (pictured above) was the last Yankee to homer twice on Opening Day.

Joe McCarthy [C] is the winningest manager in Yankees history, having compiled a 1,460-867 (.627) regular season record over 16 seasons. He won seven World Series (1932, '36-39, '41, '43) in eight appearances with the club and owns the best career winning percentage of any Yankees skipper who piloted the club for more than one season. In the photo above, he stands between sluggers Lou Gehrig [L] and Babe Ruth [R].

1923 World Series Champion Yankees

The first World Series-winning team in franchise history

Led by Manager Miller Huggins, the 1923 Yankees went 98-54 during the regular season before winning the first World Series in franchise history, 4-games-to-2 over the New York Giants. The season was a turning point for the Yankees in many ways, most notably because it marked the inaugural season of the original Yankee Stadium. The victory also established the Yankees as New York City's dominant team after losses to John McGraw's Giants in the prior two Fall Classics, 5-games-to-3 in 1921 and 4-games-to-0 (with one tie) in 1922.

1962 World Series MVP Ralph Terry is carried off the field following his complete-game, 1-0 win in Game 7 at Candlestick Park over the San Francisco Giants. During the Series he went 2-1 in three starts, allowing just 5ER in 25.0IP with two walks and 16 strikeouts. The title was the Yankees' second in a row and their 10th in a 16-year span dating to 1947. For Terry, his clutch Game 7 performance was a measure of redemption. Two years earlier he allowed Bill Mazeroski's Game 7, World Series-winning, "walk-off" home run, which gave Pittsburgh the 1960 championship even though they had been outscored by the Yankees 55-27 over the course of the seven-game Series.

Going Glass

On July 2, 2009, Seattle's Russell Branyan hit a two-run home run off Alfredo Aceves in an 8-4 Seattle victory, becoming the first and only player to hit a home run off the glass-facing of the Mohegan Sun Sports Bar, which also serves as the centerfield batter's eye. Branyan is also one of two players to hit a ball into the upper deck (300 Level) of the current Yankee Stadium, accomplishing the feat on Aug. 21, 2010, off Javier Vazquez. Brandon Allen of the A's became the second hitter to reach the 300 Level on Aug. 23, 2011 off Bartolo Colon.

Pinch-Hit Home Runs

2012 Notes: The Yankees hit six pinch-hit home runs in 2012 (Jones-2, Ibanez-2, Chavez-1, Granderson-1) after not hitting any in 2011…in Game 3 of the ALDS, Raul Ibanez hit a game-tying, ninth-inning pinch-hit solo HR to tie the game, 2-2, before hitting a solo HR to win it in the 12th.

Other Pinch-hit HR Notes: The Yankees have hit 261 pinch-hit home runs in franchise history, including 21 pinch-hit grand slams…in 1998, the Yankees hit two pinch-hit home runs, both ninth-inning grand slams by Darryl Strawberry (on 5/2 at Kansas City and 8/4 at Oakland, G2).

Don Larsen (R)-Perfect Game	WS-G5 10/8/56 vs. BRO (2-0)	9.0	0	0	0	0	7	0	97/71	Yogi Berra	Sal Maglie

Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. Brooklyn remains the only no-hitter in World Series history and the only perfect game in any round of postseason play. The only other pitcher to throw a no-hitter in postseason play was Roy Halladay on 10/6/2010 in NLDS Game 1 with Philadelphia vs. Cincinnati.

No-Hits Allowed in Official Games Less than 9.0 Innings

Thrown by Yankees (1)

Pitcher	Date/Opp/Score	IP	H	R	ER	BB	SO	HR	Pit/Str	Catcher	Opp. Starter
Andy Hawkins	7/1/1990 at CWS (0-4, loss)	8.0	0	4	0	5	3	0	131/79	Bob Geren	Greg Hibbard

Hawkins allowed all four unearned runs in the bottom of the eighth inning. The White Sox' Sammy Sosa reached first base on a two-out fielding error by 3B Mike Blowers, then stole second. Hawkins then walked Ozzie Guillen and Lance Johnson, loading the bases. The next batter, Robin Ventura, hit a fly ball that LF Jim Leyritz dropped for an error, allowing all three runners to score and Ventura to reach second. RF Jesse Barfield then dropped a fly ball hit by Ivan Calderon, allowing Ventura to score and Calderon to reach second. Hawkins got out of the inning by getting Dan Pasqua to pop out to short. The total for the bottom of the eighth was four unearned runs on two walks and three errors. Also of note in this game, White Sox starter Greg Hibbard began the game perfect through his first 16 batters.

"Long" Tom Hughes	8/30/1910 (G2) vs. CLE (0-5, loss)	11.0	7	5	-	1	7	0	NA	Lou Criger	Russ Ford

Over the first 9.0 innings of the game, Hughes allowed just one baserunner to reach (on a throwing error by 3B Jimmy Austin in the seventh). The no-hitter was broken up by a single by Harry Niles with one out in the 10th. Nap Lajoie also singled in the 10th, but Hughes did not allow any runs. However with two out the 11th, Hughes allowed five runs on five hits and a walk to take the loss. Cleveland's George Kahler allowed just 3H and 2BB in tossing a complete game shutout.

Don Larsen - Oct. 8, 1956
World Series Game 5 vs. Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium

With the 1956 World Series knotted at two games apiece, Don Larsen authored what many consider the greatest game ever pitched, a 2-0 perfect game over the Brooklyn Dodgers in front of 64,519 at Yankee Stadium.

Amazingly, Larsen didn't even know he was going to be pitching that day until he got to the Stadium. As was the Yankees' tradition at the time, he arrived in the clubhouse to find a brand new baseball placed in one of his shoes by coach Frank Crosetti, which was manager Casey Stengel's way of letting a pitcher know he was being tabbed to start.

Larsen's date with history came on the heels of a disastrous start in Game 2 in which he was pulled with a 6-1 lead with two out in the second inning. He faced just 10 batters in the outing, allowing four unearned runs on four walks and a single in a game that the Yankees ultimately lost, 13-8.

After realizing he was getting the Game 5 start, Larsen went into the training room and took a nap, only to be awakened less than an hour before the first pitch.

According to the 6-foot-4-inch righthander, he had the best control of his career on that October day, reaching three balls once in the entire game with a full count on Pee Wee Reese in the first inning.

The perfect game was preserved by three notable fielding plays. In the second inning, Jackie Robinson was retired on a groundout that ricocheted off 3B Andy Carey's glove to SS Gil McDougald, who threw out the speedy infielder at first. Additionally, Brooklyn's Gil Hodges was robbed twice, first on a fly to deep left center that was tracked down by CF Mickey Mantle and again in the eighth by Carey on a low liner.

Brooklyn starter Sal Maglie held the first 11 Yankees batters off the bases until Mantle's fourth-inning solo homer into the right-field stands. The balance of the scoring came on Hank Bauer's sixth-inning RBI single which brought in Carey, who had been advanced to second on a sac bunt by Larsen.

In the ninth, Larsen set down Carl Furillo on a fly to right before getting Roy Campanella on a grounder to 2B Billy Martin. As his last gasp, Dodgers manager Walter Alston sent pinch-hitter Dale Mitchell to bat but he was famously called out on strikes by National League umpire Babe Pinelli, who was calling his final game behind the plate after a distinguished career.

The momentum from the win did not carry over to Game 6 at Ebbets Field as Yankees starter Bob Turley lost a 10-inning duel with Brooklyn's Clem Labine, 1-0. Game 7, however, was a romp as sophomore pitcher Johnny Kucks tossed the game of his life, shutting out the Dodgers, 9-0, on three hits and three walks to give the Yankees' their 17th World Championship and avenge their seven-game Series loss to Brooklyn in 1955.

Larsen's performance was the sixth perfect game all time, fourth in the modern era and first since the White Sox's Charlie Robertson blanked Detroit, 2-0, on April 30, 1922, at Navin Field. It remains the only perfect game in postseason history.

Larsen played with seven franchises over his 14-year Major League career, finishing with an 81-91 record. He tallied a 45-24 mark in five seasons with the Yankees before being part of the Dec. 11, 1959, trade that brought Roger Maris to New York from the Kansas City Athletics.

Don Larsen delivers the final pitch of the game — a called strike to Dodgers pinch-hitter Dale Mitchell.

David Wells — May 17, 1998 vs. Minnesota at Yankee Stadium

The 1998 season was full of highlights for the Yankees, a team that went 114-48 on the way to a World Series title. But one of the season's signature moments came on "Beanie Baby Day" in front of 49,820 fans at Yankee Stadium when David Wells pitched the second perfect game in franchise history, matching the feat of Don Larsen, who, like Wells, attended Point Loma H.S. in San Diego.

By the time the game rolled around to the seventh, Wells and his teammates were well aware of what was taking place. The only player willing to talk to him was pitcher David Cone, who tried to ease the tension by saying, "I think it's time…to break out the knuckleball."

The 34-year-old lefthander struck out nine of his first 17 hitters and 11 over the game, including Twins C Javier Valentin three times. He reached three balls on just four batters.

The Yankees gave Wells an early lead, scoring runs on a wild pitch in the second and a Bernie Williams solo-HR in the fourth. They tacked on two more in the seventh on an RBI triple by Darryl Strawberry and an RBI single from Chad Curtis.

In the ninth, Wells got leadoff hitter Jon Shave to pop to Paul O'Neill in right and Valentin to strike out swinging. Pat Mears made the final out, flying out to O'Neill. Delirious fans cheered Wells being carried off the field on his teammates' shoulders. Then they filed out too, clutching their Beanie Babies.

Beanie Baby "Valentino" was given away to children at Yankee Stadium on the day of Wells' perfect game.

David Cone — July 18, 1999 vs. Montreal at Yankee Stadium

Fans arrived at Yankee Stadium on July 18, 1999, to celebrate Yogi Berra Day, but they left saluting David Cone. The righthander needed just 88 pitches to throw the third perfect game in Yankees history in front of 41,930 fans and a host of legendary Yankees, including Don Larsen, who threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch.

On a day in which the temperature hovered in the 90s, the Yankees gave Cone a 5-0 second-inning lead via a pair of two-run homers from Ricky Ledee and Derek Jeter sandwiched around an RBI-double by Joe Girardi.

Cone's masterpiece, just one season removed from David Wells' perfect game at Yankee Stadium, was a picture of economy. Of the last 20 regular season and postseason perfect games thrown since 1922, Cone required the fewest pitches. It also gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, a mark since tied by the White Sox (Charlie Robertson, Mark Buehrle and Philip Humber). It was the third perfect game at the original Yankee Stadium—the most for any single venue.

Over the course of the game, Cone got 13 outs in the air, four on the ground and 10 via strikeout. The closest he came to allowing a baserunner was with one out in the eighth, when second baseman Chuck Knoblauch made a nice play ranging far to his right before throwing out Jose Vidro at first. The final out was a foul pop to third off the bat of Orlando Cabrera, which was snagged by the sure-handed Scott Brosius. Cone's gem remains the only perfect game in the history of regular season Interleague Play.

One-Hit Games

The most-recent Yankee to have a one-hit complete game was Ted Lilly on 4/27/02 in a 1-0 defeat at Seattle, becoming the first Yankee in franchise history to lose a one-hit CG in the regular season (allowed a walk, WP and RBI-single in 7th).

The Yankees' last one-hit complete-game win was by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 at Boston in a 1-0 Yankees victory…he retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth to break up a perfect game…it was the first complete-game one-hit victory by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California.

The Yankees have had two postseason one-hit complete games… Roger Clemens still holds the all-time record for fewest hits allowed in an AL or NL Championship Series complete game with his one-hit, 15K performance in the Yankees' 5-0 ALCS Game 4 win at Seattle on 10/14/00… Bill Bevens famously lost his one-hit CG in Game 4 of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn…he was one out from a no-hitter when pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory…Bevens walked 10 batters and had one wild pitch on the day…the World Series marked the last games Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

Bob Turley tossed three complete game one-hitters as a Yankee, tying Whitey Ford for the most in franchise history.

Yankees with multiple complete-game one hitters are Whitey Ford (3), Bob Turley (3), Lefty Gomez (2), Rip Collins (2) and Vic Raschi (2), while Bill Bevens (see above paragraph) also threw a one-hit CG in the regular season.

One hitters by opponents against the Yankees: The Yankees were last held to 1H on 6/30/07 at Yankee Stadium by Oakland's Chad Gaudin and Rich Harden… the last starter to throw a one-hitter against the Yankees was Mike Maroth on 7/16/04 at Detroit…Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only pitchers with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913… Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

All-Star Selections and Starts by Player

The Yankees have had 406 all-time All-Star selections (50 pitchers with 124 selections; and 69 position players with 282 selections). Additionally, the AL team has been skippered by a Yankees manager on 32 occasions.

According to Major League Baseball, on three occasions Yankees elected to start the game were ultimately replaced in the starting lineup (OF Reggie Jackson by Fred Lynn in 1978, SS Derek Jeter by Asdrubal Cabrera in 2011, and 3B Alex Rodriguez by Adrian Beltre in 2011). Conversely, there have been five Yankees who have started the game after replacing the originally elected starters (Bobby Murcer replacing Tony Oliva in the OF in 1971, Thurman Munson replacing Carlton Fisk at C in 1974, Willie Randolph replacing Paul Molitor at 2B in 1980, Graig Nettles replacing George Brett at 3B in 1980, and Derek Jeter replacing Alex Rodriguez at SS in 2000).

Please note that two All-Star Games were played in each year from 1959-62. Game participated in are noted below with a "G1" and/or a "G2".

Formal balloting was not conducted by Major League Baseball in 1945, when the All-Star game was canceled due to WWII travel restrictions. The AP polled 13 of 16 AL managers who unofficially voted RHP Hank Borowy, 1B Nick Etten, 2B Snuffy Stirnweiss and 3B Oscar Grimes as All-Stars, with the former three as starters. However, the 1945 voting was unofficial and is not included in the totals below.

Yankees All-Time All-Star Batting Statistics

Data below includes all Yankees with at least one All-Star plate appearance. Of all NYY non-pitchers to appear in an ASG, only Billy Johnson (1947) and Irv Noren (1954) made their only Yankees ASG appearances as a defensive replacement without ever receiving a PA. Additionally, there have been five position players named to an All-Star team who never entered the game at all in their only ASG as a Yankee (Tony Lazzeri-1933; Johnny Lindell-1943; Russell Martin-2011; Aaron Robinson-1947 and Buddy Rosar-1942).

Yankees All-Star Game Notes and Highlights

Since the game originated in 1933, the Yankees have had the most All-Star players (119) and most total All-Star selections (406) of any Major League Baseball franchise…Yankees pitcher Lefty Gomez is the only pitcher in All-Star Game history to earn three wins (1933, '35, '37), having made five career All-Star starts…Babe Ruth hit the first-ever All-Star homer in 1933 off the Cardinals' Bill Hallahan…Joe DiMaggio (13-time All-Star) and Tom Tresh (three-time All-Star), own the distinction of being the only Yankees rookies to start for the American League (1936 and 1962, respectively)…among Yankees on the roster as of Feb. 1, 2013, third baseman Alex Rodriguez leads the team with 14 career selections to the Midsummer Classic, followed by shortstop Derek Jeter with 13 and closer Mariano Rivera with 12…Jeter was the last Yankee to lead the AL in balloting with 4,851,889 votes in 2009…Rodriguez led the Majors in All-Star balloting in 2007 and 2008.

All-Star MVP

(Award given since 1962)

Derek Jeter is the only Yankee to ever be named All-Star MVP, taking home the honor at the 2000 All-Star Game at Turner Field in Atlanta with a 3-for-3 performance with 1 run, 1 double and 2 RBI. He doubled in the first inning off Randy Johnson, singled and scored in the third off Kevin Brown and had a two-run single in the fourth off Al Leiter in the American League's 6-3 win.

All-Star Games at Yankee Stadium

The Yankees have hosted four All-Star Games, including the 2008 Midsummer Classic in Yankee Stadium's final season. The Stadium also hosted the All-Star Game in 1977 (48th), 1960 (29th) and 1939 (seventh). Only Cleveland's old Municipal Stadium hosted as many All-Star Games as Yankee Stadium. Overall, New York City has hosted eight MLB All-Star Games, the highest total in Major League history, with the Polo Grounds (1934 and 1942), Ebbets Field (1949) and Shea Stadium (1964) also serving as host sites. The 2008 game marked the first time the Midsummer Classic was held in the host team's final season at its ballpark.

Seventh All-Star Game

July 11, 1939, Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was chosen to host the 1939 All-Star Game due to the World's Fair which was being held at Flushing-Meadows in Queens during the 1939 season. The Cubs' Gabby Hartnett managed the National League squad while Yankees skipper Joe McCarthy led the American League team, which featured 10 Yankees All-Stars, six of whom were starters. Yankees centerfielder Joe DiMaggio was 1-for-4 in the game, hitting a solo home run. Lou Gehrig, who announced his retirement in May of 1939, was an honorary member of the AL squad.

29th All-Star Game

National League 6, American League 0
July 13, 1960 (Game #2), Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was the host site for baseball's second All-Star Game in three days in 1960. The National League completed the All-Star sweep with a 6-0 win, having won Game 1 on July 11 in Kansas City, marking the only year that both All-Star games were won by the same team. Yankees hurler Whitey Ford was the starting pitcher for the AL squad, while fellow Yankees Yogi Berra (catcher), Mickey Mantle (left field), Roger Maris (center field) and Bill Skowron (first base) all appeared in the starting lineup. The National League used six different pitchers to combine on the shutout effort and hit an All-Star record-tying four home runs, including one by Willie Mays. The 38,000 fans who attended the game witnessed Ted Williams in his final All-Star appearance.

48th All-Star Game

July 19, 1977, Yankee Stadium

Showcasing its renovation, Yankee Stadium hosted the All-Star Game on July 19, 1977, in a game dedicated to Jackie Robinson. With the Yankees defending their 1976 pennant, Billy Martin managed the AL team on his home field. The National League won its sixth consecutive All-Star Game, part of the Senior Circuit's 11-game win streak. Joe Morgan opened the game with a home run off Jim Palmer as the NL squad scored four first-inning runs. Yankees outfielder Reggie Jackson and second baseman Willie Randolph were AL starters. National League Manager Sparky Anderson described the game's final score by saying, "the only reason we're here is to kick the living hell out of those guys."

79th All-Star Game

July 15, 2008, Yankee Stadium

In the final Midsummer Classic at the original Yankee Stadium, the American League emerged with a 4-3 win in 15 innings as Texas' Michael Young brought home Minnesota's Justin Morneau with a "walk-off" sacrifice fly. The 4-hour, 50-minute contest was the longest All-Star Game time-wise and tied for the longest ASG in innings (also 1967 at Anaheim, 2-1 NL win). It was the AL's 12th straight All-Star Game victory and ensured American League home-field advantage in the World Series. SS Derek Jeter started and recorded the game's first hit in the first inning. RHP Mariano Rivera pitched 1.2 scoreless innings. Yankees Manager Joe Girardi joined the AL coaching staff as did Yankees Head Athletic Trainer Gene Monahan, who made his fourth All-Star Game appearance (also 1977, '86 and '92). Pregame ceremonies included 49 Hall of Famers, marking one of the largest gatherings of living baseball HOFers ever. The festivities were highlighted by Yankees Principal Owner/Chairperson George Steinbrenner, who delivered baseballs to the ceremonial first pitch participants (Reggie Jackson, Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra and Goose Gossage).

Yankee STADIUM

The New York Yankees began a new chapter in their storied history with the opening of Yankee Stadium in 2009. Located directly across the street from the site of the original, the new Stadium's architecture is a celebration of the spirit and tradition of the franchise. While firmly rooted in the past, the Stadium has a vision toward the future, incorporating the best in technology and state-of-the-art guest services.

All of the Stadium's modern amenities exist within the framework of classic elements of the original, most notably the instantly recognizable frieze that again circles the grandstand. Among the countless fan-friendly elements, massive video boards give Yankees fans more information than ever before, and concessions have been placed on concourses that allow for continuous viewing of the game.

Yankee Stadium, as a living museum, has been designed to set the standard—much like the team has done with its 27 World Championships.

The current Yankee Stadium [L] and the original Yankee Stadium in 2008.

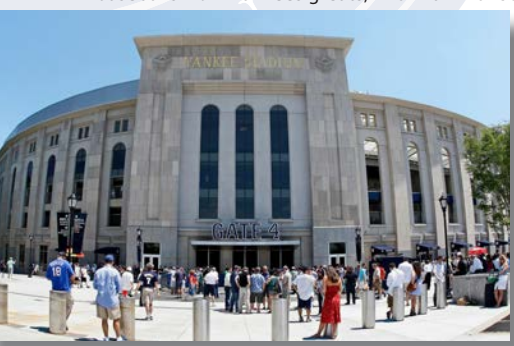

HOMAGE TO THE ORIGINAL

The current Yankee Stadium evokes the spirit of the original, while restoring many of the lost treasures from before the renovations of 1974-75.

The signature frieze once again outlines the top of the Stadium bowl. As in the past, it is attached to a roof that extends into the Stadium, covering the top rows of the Grandstand.

Monument Park has been relocated to its original position in center field, albeit behind the fence, unlike before the renovation when the monuments were on the playing field. All plaques, monuments and tribute displays for the 16 Yankees who have had their numbers retired are on display for fans, who may visit Monument Park prior to all home games.

On the Main Level, near Gate 6, the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America—a museum within a museum—tells the story of baseball and the Yankees franchise through various displays of artifacts and memorabilia. Items include a "Ball Wall" with hundreds of signed baseballs from Yankees greats, Thurman Munson's locker from the original Yankee Stadium and a replica of a locker from the Yankees clubhouse in the current Stadium. On game days, fans are welcome in the museum from the time the gates open until the end of the eighth inning. On non-game days, visitors can enjoy the museum as part of Yankee Stadium tours.

Gate 4 at Yankee Stadium

Babe Ruth Plaza, located on the south side of the Stadium in between Gates 4 and 6, honors the man proverbially credited with building the original House that Ruth Built. Through a series of storyboards displayed on light posts, the Babe's life story is recounted throughout the plaza.

THE STADIUM SITE

The Yankees are proud to play in the Bronx, which is home to approximately 1.4 million residents and is one of the five boroughs that make up New York City.

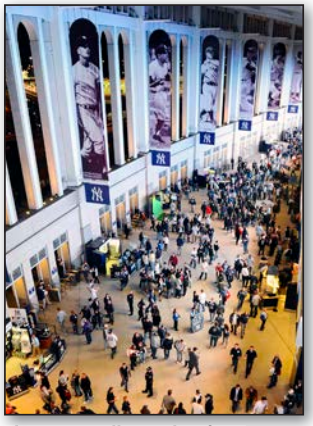

The Stadium sits on former parkland from Macombs Dam Park and Mullaly Park, with the Stadium grounds bounded by Jerome Avenue to the west, River Avenue to the east, and 161st Street to the south. The northern edge of the site is located between 162nd Street and 164th Street. In a nod to tradition, the footprint of the original Stadium has been replicated in the new Stadium.

Yankee Stadium is the fourth permanent home of the New York Yankees, following Hilltop Park (1903-12), the Polo Grounds (1913-22), and the original Yankee Stadium (1923-73, '76-2008). The Yankees also played two full seasons at Shea Stadium (1974-75) in Queens when the original Stadium underwent remodeling.

INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE AND MODERN AMENITIES

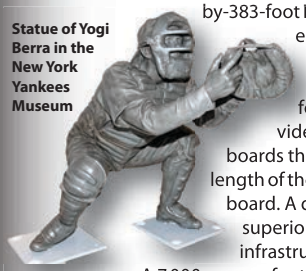

One of the goals in building Yankee Stadium was to bring fans closer to the action in a facility more attuned to modern needs and expectations. The new building is 63 percent larger than the original Stadium with about 500,000 square feet of additional space.

Improved sight lines, wider concourses and the installation of nearly 1,400 high-definition video monitors throughout the Stadium all ensure guests won't miss a minute of on-field action while in their seats or at concession stands. In addition to the live game broadcast, these centrally controlled Internet protocol monitors can also provide up-to-the-moment news, scores, weather, traffic information and safety updates.

The Great Hall stretches from Gate 4 to Gate 6.

The Great Hall is a 31,000-square-foot space located between the Stadium's exterior wall and the interior of the Stadium. Spanning from Gate 4 to Gate 6, it is covered overhead but has massive open-air archways, which help support the Yankees' "green initiative." It is home to large banners bearing the images of past Yankees greats from Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig to more modern stars such as Don Mattingly and Paul O'Neill. A 24-foot-high-by-36-foot-wide 10mm true high-definition video board and a 5-foot-by-383-foot LED ribbon board immediately greet guests who enter through this portion of the Stadium.

Statue of Yogi Berra in the New York Yankees Museum

The audio/visual experience at Yankee Stadium is highlighted by a 59-foot-high-by-101-foot-long 16mm true high-definition centerfield video board, which is flanked by two smaller video boards that display day-of-game lineups and out-of-town scores. Additionally, the entire length of the Terrace Level is spanned by a 3-foot-high, 1,279-foot long full-color LED ribbon board. A distributed sound system optimizes speaker placement for audio quality vastly superior to that in the original Stadium. The entire Stadium is built with a future-proof infrastructure designed by Cisco Systems that is easily adaptable to new technologies.

A 7,000-square-foot state-of-the-art FedEx Banquet and Conference Center is designed to meet the needs of guests who wish to host business functions in the ballpark.

URBAN PLANNING

The site for Yankee Stadium was in part selected for its proximity to mass transit. Like the original Stadium, it is served at the 161st Street/Yankee Stadium subway stop by the No. 4, B and D trains.

Metro-North offers train service to Yankee Stadium from anywhere in its service territory, and Yankee Stadium is accessible by New York City Transit bus lines. For more information, call the MTA at 511 or visit www.mta.info.

Pedestrian access points are located at Yankee Stadium's four gates: Gate 2 on Jerome Ave. and 164th St.; Gate 4 at Jerome Ave. and 161st St.; Gate 6 at River Ave. and 161st St. and Gate 8 at River Ave., south of 164th St.

View of Gate 6 and Babe Ruth Plaza from the No. 4 train stop outside of Yankee Stadium.

RETAIL & FOOD OPTIONS

There are six distinct retail stores in Yankee Stadium, headlined by the 5,825-square-foot Home Plate Team Store near Gate 4, which houses the largest selection of Yankees merchandise and memorabilia. Women's clothing and accessories are the focus of the Women's Team Store located on the Field Level near Section 114A.

Traditional baseball fare the Stadium

Yankee Stadium is home to two premier dining establishments. The iconic Hard Rock Cafe is open year-round and houses music memorabilia and Yankees-related pieces in a 7,000 square-foot restaurant at Gate 6. NYY Steak, located above the Hard Rock Cafe, offers an upscale dining experience, including dry aged USDA prime steaks, five-star seafood dishes and an impressive collection of wines from around the world.

More casual fare can be found at a New York-themed food court located on the third-base side of the Field Level concourse and in other locations throughout the Stadium.

DISABLED SERVICES

Yankee Stadium strives to provide an accessible environment for all of its guests. Wheelchair accessible and aisle transfer seats are available at various price points and locations, and include the Yankees' Premium Offerings seat locations.

There are two dedicated open-captioning video boards for guests who are deaf or have hearing impairments: one in left field, just below Section 233B, and one in right field, just below Section 206. Captioning is also provided on the right-center field televisions, the high-definition video board in the Great Hall, high-definition video monitors throughout Yankee Stadium and on the video board in the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America.

The Yankees extend their appreciation to those who participated in periodic outreach meetings led by the United Spinal Association, which helped build a Stadium that Lev Dassin, Acting U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, called, "a model of accessibility to people with disabilities."

GREEN DESIGN

Sports Lighting: The Yankees take the field under the glow of some of the most advanced lighting technology in the world. Each fixture along the Yankee Stadium frieze uses high-efficiency reflectors which vastly decreases waste energy and "light-spill" onto adjacent property. Additionally, control systems increase the lifetime of the lighting system by some 3,000-5,000 lamp-hours. These lighting improvements save nearly 207,000 pounds of CO^2 emissions per night game—the equivalent of one tree being planted for every pitch.

Sustainability Facility Program: This program ensures the efficiency of all equipment while focusing on energy reduction. Beverage cups in the Stadium are made of biodegradable material instead of petroleum-based plastics. Waste generation is combated by composting and the recycling of cardboard, glass, metal, plastics and paper, which diverts approximately 40 percent of the Stadium's trash away from landfills.

Waste Cooking Oil: During the course of a typical season, more than 20,000 gallons of cooking oil from the Stadium are collected and recycled. This oil produces more than 18,600 gallons of biodiesel fuel, which when used in vehicles results in a carbon reduction of more than 30,000 pounds - the equivalent of removing approximately 27 cars from the road for a year.

Restrooms: Each year, Yankee Stadium's plumbing fixtures are projected to save 3.1 million gallons of water while reducing the Stadium's water consumption by 22 percent. Additionally, Yankee Stadium uses GoJo hand soap, which doesn't require water for use. If each guest takes advantage of this feature, close to 1 million gallons of water can be saved each season.

BRONX INCENTIVES

Yankee Stadium is one of the premier building projects to take place in the Bronx in the last 50 years. The hard work and dedication of engineers, architects and construction professionals in building and designing the Stadium made the facility one of the most impressive and fan-friendly venues in Major League Baseball. Equally important was the project's dedication to support local community groups, institutions and residents as the Yankees remain devoted to the long-term development of the Bronx.

Building a new state-of-the-art facility required an army of talented and experienced professionals. As part of the Yankees' commitment to ensure the Stadium project created economic opportunities in the Bronx, the Yankees made a concerted effort to recruit a wide range of vendors and employees from the local community. Of the 190 contracts awarded, 63 were allotted to Bronx-based businesses (accounting for over 33 pct. of the contracts and resulting in $133 million in contracts to Bronx-based businesses). The Yankees also stayed committed to hiring at least 25 pct. of the total workforce from Bronx residents, again providing incentive to the surrounding community.

In conjunction with the construction of the Stadium, the Yankees also established a $1 million grant for professional skills training for Bronx residents. Among the supported initiatives was Project H.I.R.E. (Help In Re-entering Employment), which taught Bronx residents functional construction skills for practical use in local building projects.

Other Events at the Current Yankee Stadium

College Football

Notre Dame-27, Army-3 11/20/10
The first football game at the current Yankee Stadium marked the 50th all-time meeting between the two teams. Heisman Trophy winners Johnny Lujack and Pete Dawkins served as honorary captains, joining Yankees Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner for the coin toss. The crowd of 54,251 was the largest ever for any event at the current Yankee Stadium.

New Era Pinstripe Bowl 12/30/10
Syracuse-36, Kansas State-34
The inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl marked the second-ever college football bowl game in the Bronx (also Gotham Bowl in 1962). Syracuse and Kansas State played an instant classic that was decided by one play – a failed two-point conversion by the Wildcats with just over one minute left in regulation.

Rutgers-27, Army-12 11/12/11
Rutgers and Army squared off against each other at the home of the Yankees for the first time since 1948. The Scarlet Knights scored 14 unanswered points over the final seven minutes of the game for the victory.

New Era Pinstripe Bowl 12/30/11
Rutgers-27, Iowa State-12
The Scarlet Knights emerged victorious in the second New Era Pinstripe Bowl. RB Jawan Jamison was named the game's MVP.

New Era Pinstripe Bowl 12/29/12
Syracuse-38, West Virginia-14
In a snow-filled contest, Syracuse junior running back Prince-Tyson Gulley compiled 264 total yards and three touchdowns to win MVP honors. Syracuse's defense held the Mountaineers to just 285 total yards and 0-for-14 on third and fourth down.

Soccer

Chelsea-1, Paris Saint-Germain-1 7/22/12
Soccer returned to the Bronx with this draw between Chelsea, the reigning Champions League champs, and PSG, the heavy favorites to win the 2012-13 French Ligue 1. Chelsea's Lucas Piazon scored in the 82nd minute to equalize in front of a crowd of 38,202 in the first soccer match at the current Yankee Stadium.

Real Madrid-5, AC Milan-1 8/8/12
Star player Cristiano Ronaldo scored two goals for Spanish powerhouse Real Madrid in their defeat of popular Italian club A.C. Mllan in front of 49,407 fans. Yankees reliever Mariano Rivera took part in the ceremonial coin toss.

Concerts

JAY-Z/Eminem 9/13-14/10
Yankee Stadium played host to its first-ever concerts, featuring Grammy Award winners JAY-Z and Eminem in a two-night affair. The sold-out shows featured crowds of 45,434 and 46,272, respectively.

Paul McCartney
7/15-16/11
The former Beatle played his first ever concerts at the home of the Yankees, drawing 44,037 and 43,966 fans, respectively, on consecutive nights.

Sir Paul McCartney

The Big 4
9/14/11
Metallica, Slayer, Megadeth and Anthrax performed a combined 9 hours of music in front of a headbanging crowd of 41,451.

Roger Waters 6/6-7/12
The co-founder and principal songwriter of Pink Floyd, Roger Waters, brought his production of "The Wall," including a 20,000-square-foot screen for a two-night event, drawing 31,752 and 28,392, respectively.

Madonna 9/6/12 & 9/8/12
The pop icon and best-selling female rock artist of the 20th century played two nights at Yankee Stadium in front of 37,775 and 37,767 fans, respectively.

Boxing

Press Conference to Announce 9/10/09
Manny Pacquiao-Miguel Cotto Fight
Yankee Stadium played host to a press conference to announce the boxing match between Miguel Cotto and Manny Pacquiao, which took place on Nov. 14, 2009, at the MGM Grand Garden in Las Vegas.

Miguel Cotto TKO (9th Rd.) Yuri Foreman 6/5/10
Boxing returned to the Bronx for the first time in 34 years with "Stadium Slugfest," as Miguel Cotto recorded a ninth-round technical knockout of Yuri Foreman in the Yankee Stadium outfield in the main event. In front of a crowd of 20,272, Cotto secured the WBA Super Welterweight title.

Beau James (1957)
Damn Yankees (1958)
The F.B.I. Story (1959)
Safe at Home! (1962)
Bang the Drum Slowly (1973)
Manhattan (1979)
It's My Turn (1980)
Major League (1989)
It Could Happen to You (1994)
For Love of the Game (1999)
Life (1999)
Anger Management (2003)
P.S. I Love You (2007)

The current Yankee Stadium has already been documented on film, appearing in The Adjustment Bureau (2011) as well as episodes of television's Extreme Makeover: Home Edition (2010), Entourage (2011) and White Collar (2012). The Stadium was also the site of Mariah Carey's music video for her 2009 song "I Want to Know What Love Is," and has been featured in a handful of commercials.

The game-day ticket price is effective as of 12:01 a.m. on the day the game initially is scheduled to be played.

The term "premium game(s)" is defined as the Opening Day game, the Old-Timers' Day game and all home games played against the Boston Red Sox, Los Angeles Dodgers, New York Mets and San Francisco Giants.

Game times listed as TBA are subject to determination by, among others, Major League Baseball and its television partners.

All seat locations are subject to availability.

Time, opponent, date and team rosters and lineups, including the Yankees' roster and lineup, are subject to change.

Tickets may not be used for advertising, promotions of any kind (e.g., self promotions, product promotions, ticket promotions, business promotions and/or commercial promotions) or any other commercial purposes, including, without limitation, contests, auctions, sweepstakes and giveaways, without the express written consent of the Yankees.

In no event will the Yankees be liable to the ticket holder and/or ticket purchaser for any direct, indirect, consequential, exemplary, incidental, special or punitive damages or for lost profits, revenues or business opportunities even if the Yankees have been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Be advised that the Yankees reserve the right to take appropriate action against individuals who fraudulently obtain wheelchair accessible and/or companion seats, including, without limitation, ejection and legal action.

History of the Original Yankee Stadium

One year after changing the course of Baseball history with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another acquisition that would forever alter the way the game was watched.

On February 5, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Manhattan-situated Polo Grounds, which the Yankees had been unhappily sharing with their landlord, the New York Giants of the National League, since 1913.

The relationship between the clubs crumbled after the 1920 season when the Yankees' attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to almost 1.3 million, approximately 25 percent more than that of the Giants. In 1921, the Giants asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankees co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans by the architect—the Osborn Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield, as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot-high copper frieze adorned the front of the roof, which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium a stately dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor left-handed power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though the right-field fence would shoot out to 429 feet in right-center). The left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, but right-handed hitters would be neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 feet to left-center. The new stadium would also be patron-friendly, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (After the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from Midtown Manhattan and relocated between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Company on May 5, 1922, with the edict that the job be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Philip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field, where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox.

Yankee Stadium in the 1920s

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, New York Evening Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb dubbed it "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, as the Yankees won their first World Championship, defeating their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the original Stadium became the stage for a staggering 26 world titles, it would also become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope rose toward the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Advertising signs lined the tops of the bleachers except in right-center, where a lone manually operated wooden scoreboard was large enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues. Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil Baseball's first electronic message board in 1959.

The original manual scoreboard

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major face-lift. The triple-decked grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole and several rows of box seats were removed in order to extend the left-field foul pole distance to 301 feet. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing for "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the grandstand expansion, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced with a concrete structure, and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-distant 461 feet.

In 1932, the Yankees began their tradition of commemorating their heroes with monuments and plaques when they dedicated a monument to Manager Miller Huggins, who had died suddenly during the 1929 season. Five more monuments were added (one each for Lou Gehrig, Ruth, Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio and one to honor the victims and heroes of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001) along with numerous plaques. For years, existing monuments were in the field of play in deep center field, and outfielders occasionally had to work around them to retrieve baseballs hit to that part of the park.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium remained relatively unchanged until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of the Yankees' new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5 million modernization, most of which was spent on 90 tons of paint. The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the timeworn greenish copper frieze. Also, all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York, which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-anniversary in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while the majority of Yankee Stadium was torn down and rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization was the removal of the numerous obstructive steel columns that supported the second and third decks, as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans were dramatically improved. Capacity was reduced from 65,010 in 1973 to 54,028 upon reopening as wider plastic seats replaced wooden seats.

Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the copper frieze. However, an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the frieze atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard wall, which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board also included Baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. With seven additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already grand Stadium received an even more majestic look. A 138-foot Louisville Slugger-shaped smokestack, commonly called "The Bat," was added outside the Stadium near the home-plate entrance.

The renovated Stadium also saw the mammoth fence distances in left and center field greatly reduced as "Death Valley" in left-center was brought in from 457 feet to 430 feet, and straightaway center field was slimmed from 463 feet to 417 feet. Subsequent alterations prior to the 1985 and 1988 seasons brought fences in to the configuration that is now replicated in the current Yankee Stadium.

The remodeled original Yankee Stadium reopened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota, 11-4. Like its predecessor and successor, it hosted the World Series in its inaugural season. In fact, the remodeled Stadium hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons, as the Yankees followed their 1976 Series loss to Cincinnati by winning back-to-back World Series titles in 1977 and 1978 over the Dodgers.

As one of the world's most prestigious addresses, the original Yankee Stadium was also the home for scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or in the offseason, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title just three months after the gates opened on July 23, 1923. When Muhammad Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, it marked the 30th championship fight at the Stadium. All previous title bouts had taken place between 1923 and 1959–perhaps none more memorable than the June 22, 1938, heavyweight championship rematch between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with Syracuse and Pittsburgh inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and professional football matchups on October 20, 1923. Five years later at Yankee Stadium, on November 12, 1928, during halftime of a scoreless Army-Notre Dame contest, legendary coach Knute Rockne made his famous "Win One for the Gipper" speech at halftime, spurring the Fighting Irish to a 12-6 victory.

The New York Football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and on December 28, 1958, took part in what has since been dubbed "The Greatest Game Ever Played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game, 17-17, on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed into the end zone from the 1-yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions, especially those of the Jehovah's Witnesses. In 1950, the group began holding conventions at the Stadium, including one that drew 123,707 people on August 8, 1958—the largest single-day event in Stadium history. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium held the first-ever Papal Mass in the United States as Pope Paul VI celebrated Mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Pope John Paul II also celebrated Mass at the original Yankee Stadium on October 2, 1979, during his tour of the United States.

On August 16, 2006, a groundbreaking ceremony was held for a new Yankee Stadium to be ready for the 2009 season. The location chosen for the new building was the north side of 161st Street and River Avenue in the Bronx, directly across the street from the site of the original.

As part of its final season in 2008, Yankee Stadium hosted a third papal visit on April 20 from Pope Benedict XVI, NYU's commencement ceremony on May 14 (believed to be the first ever college commencement in Stadium history) and a 15-inning 4-3 AL victory in the All-Star Game on July 15 (the fourth at Yankee Stadium, joining Midsummer Classics in 1939, 1960-Game 2, and 1977).

The building took its final bow on September 21, when the Yankees played the last game in Stadium history. Gates opened at 1:00 p.m., allowing approximately 13,000 fans the opportunity to visit Monument Park and walk around the warning track. With a national Sunday night audience watching on television, all-time Yankees greats, along with the evening's starting lineup, took their positions in the field before Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, tossed out the ceremonial first pitch. Fittingly, the game ended in a Yankees victory, this one over the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3. After the final out, the club assembled by the pitcher's mound at the side of captain Derek Jeter. Over the PA, he thanked the crowd for their years of support, while reminding everyone of the new memories soon to be made.

In the bottom of the seventh inning of the Yankees' final home game on September 21, 2008, a taped valedictory was given on the Yankee Stadium video board by longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard, who was unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover at home from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium for the entire season. His appearance on screen brought a reverential hush to the crowd as everyone recognized they were about to hear the most perfect of all couplings perhaps for the last time—Bob Sheppard's voice reverberating in the original Yankee Stadium. He said the following:

"Farewell, old Yankee Stadium, farewell.
What a wonderful story you can tell.
DiMaggio, Mantle, Gehrig and Ruth,
A baseball cathedral in truth."

Negro Leagues at the Original Yankee Stadium

Satchel Paige warming up at Yankee Stadium on August 2, 1942

For almost 20 years in the 1930s and '40s, Yankee Stadium was a regular home to Negro Leagues baseball. During that time the greatest black stars of the day drew thousands of fans to watch players prohibited from playing in the Major Leagues at the time. Almost every Negro Leagues player of note over that two-decade stretch played at Yankee Stadium, including Hall of Famers Leroy "Satchel" Paige, John Henry "Pop" Lloyd, "Cool Papa" Bell, Oscar Charleston, Buck Leonard, Hilton Smith and Josh Gibson, who hit some of the longest home runs in the Stadium's history.

Yankee Stadium opened to black baseball on July 5, 1930, when Yankees owner Jacob Ruppert donated the free use of the facility to the New York Lincoln Giants and Baltimore Black Sox for a benefit doubleheader to raise money for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, one of America's most prominent black unions. The games raised approximately $3,500 and included the appearance of Bill "Bojangles" Robinson who entertained the crowd along with the 369th Hell Fighters marching band.

Black baseball games at Yankee Stadium usually took place on Sundays when the Yankees played on the road. Sometimes a pair of teams would play a doubleheader, while at other times four-team doubleheaders were scheduled in order to maximize attendance and profits. Bands often performed and celebrities such as Joe Louis and New York City Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia were common. Track races and other pregame contests also delighted fans.

In 1931, Lloyd organized an All-Star team of black players named the "Harlem Stars," which played several games at Yankee Stadium. Eventually, that team became the New York Black Yankees of the Negro National League. The club went on to use Yankee Stadium for a portion of their home schedule between 1936 and 1947, often wearing the used uniforms of the Major League Yankees. In the spring of 1941, Paige, black baseball's greatest pitcher, briefly joined the Black Yankees, pitching and winning his only game in a New York uniform at Yankee Stadium.

Dressed in their Homewood Grays uniforms, Hall of Famers Josh Gibson [L] and Buck Leonard [R] join Sam Bankhead [C] at Yankee Stadium in 1939.

Yankee Stadium also served as the venue for black baseball All-Star games and championship contests. One of the most memorable Negro Leagues All-Star games took place on August 27, 1939, when the Negro National League defeated the Negro American League, 10-2, with the help of Gibson's bases-clearing triple.

Ruppert's death in 1939 did not put a stop to black baseball at the Stadium. In fact, the Yankees sponsored a Jacob Ruppert Memorial Cup tournament among Negro National League teams. Ten doubleheaders were held at Yankee Stadium that summer to determine a winner, and on September 24, 1939, the Baltimore Elite Giants were crowned champs in Ruppert's name.

In October 1946, Yankee Stadium was home to two noteworthy exhibition games between an African-American All-Star team managed by Paige and an American League All-Star team led by future Hall of Famer Bob Feller. Cleveland Indians pitcher Bob Lemon hit a home run to win the first game for the AL but Paige out-pitched Feller in the second game to earn a split.

When Jackie Robinson finally broke the color barrier with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947, it was a watershed moment in the history of civil rights in the United States. But it did precipitate the decline and eventual extinction of the Negro Leagues.

Black baseball's relationship with the New York Yankees came to a close on August 20, 1961, as stars of the Negro American League gathered for its All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium. Paige, reportedly 55 years old at the time, pitched three scoreless innings and claimed the game's Most Valuable Player honors.

Previous Homes of the Yankees

Hilltop Park

American League Park (commonly known as Hilltop Park) was the Yankees' first home. Hastily constructed in just six weeks on one of the highest points in Upper Manhattan, the all-wooden ballpark sat on a block bounded by Broadway, 165th Street, Fort Washington Avenue and 168th Street, in close proximity to the New York Giants' 155th Street home, the Polo Grounds. The first game at Hilltop Park was played on April 30, 1903—a 6-2 win over Washington, started by Hall of Famer Jack Chesbro.

The ballpark had a covered grandstand ringing the infield from first base to third base and uncovered bleachers running up the foul lines. There was seating for approximately 15,000 people, but as was the case in many ballparks of that time, it could accommodate overflow crowds both in the outfield and along foul ground in the infield, occasionally bringing capacity up toward 25,000.

When a fire ravaged the Polo Grounds on April 14, 1911, the Yankees allowed the Giants to play their home games at Hilltop Park until the Polo Grounds could be rebuilt. From April 15 through May 30, the Giants put together a 20-8 record at their temporary home.

The Yankees were successful in their 10 years at Hilltop Park, compiling a 398-342 all-time record there. The club's final game at the structure came on October 5, 1912—an 8-6 win vs. Washington. After the Yankees' lease at Hilltop Park expired at the end of the season, they decided to leave the rickety ballpark to become renters at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants became their landlords. The move, unthinkable years earlier, was facilitated by the Yankees' post-fire hospitality.

In 1914, Hilltop Park was torn down. Currently, its former location is the site of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

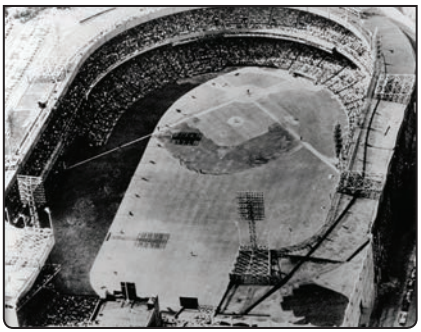

Hilltop Park (above/below) served as the Yankees' first home. It was built in just six weeks and was located near Broadway and 168th Street in Upper Manhattan.

Polo Grounds

The Yankees called the Polo Grounds home from 1913 through 1922, sharing the park with the New York Giants. Located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, the Polo Grounds was overlooked by a promontory called Coogan's Bluff to the west. To the east was the Harlem River—on the other side of which Yankee Stadium was built in 1923.

The Polo Grounds was constructed with straight sides, and the outfield fences by the foul poles ran parallel to each other and away from home plate. The foul poles in left and right were approximately 277 and 258 feet away from the plate, respectively, while left-center, center and right fields were all in the range of 445-483 feet away from home.

The Polo Grounds, located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, served as the home of the Yankees from 1913-22.

The Yankees compiled a 416-338 all-time regular season record at the uniquely-shaped facility, winning the first two pennants in franchise history while tenants in 1921 and 1922. The club lost both of those World Series to the NL Champion Giants—5 games to 3 in 1921 and 4 games to none with one tie in 1922—in Fall Classics played entirely at the Polo Grounds.

The American Leaguers were welcome tenants as long as they remained less popular than the Giants. But with Babe Ruth's arrival in 1920 and the team's subsequent success, the dynamic quickly changed. After the Yankees started outdrawing the Giants in their own park in 1920 and 1921, the National Leaguers asked the Pinstripers to vacate to a new facility as soon as possible. The 1922 season marked their final season in Manhattan before their April 18, 1923, Yankee Stadium debut in the Bronx.

The Polo Grounds remained home to the Giants until they moved to San Francisco in 1958. It stood empty until 1962 when the Mets arrived to play two seasons there before moving into Shea Stadium. In 1964, the Polo Grounds was demolished. Apartment buildings called the Polo Grounds Towers occupy the site today.

Monument Park

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the dedication of monuments and plaques in Yankee Stadium. The tradition continues in the current Stadium in Monument Park, located behind the outfield fence in centerfield.

The first monument was dedicated on May 30, 1932, to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Monument Park is located just behind the centerfield fence and is accessible to all fans.

Two additional monuments followed: in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Ed Barrow (1954) and two great Yankees center fielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (1969). After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument on August 25, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio—who passed away less than two months earlier—was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument. (The two plaques which previously honored DiMaggio and Mantle were donated by the Yankees to the Yogi Berra Museum and Learning Center in Montclair, N.J.).

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and Stadium flagpole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track approximately 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go behind the monuments to retrieve the baseball.

One tradition of Yankee Stadium before it was remodeled was to allow fans to exit through the center-field gates via the warning track, where they could pause and reflect on the achievements of these honored legends. After Yankee Stadium was remodeled in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankees' and visitors' bullpens.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980s, plaques were dedicated to Yankees greats Thurman Munson (1980), Elston Howard and Roger Maris (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Whitey Ford and Lefty Gomez (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). The Yankee also dedicated two plaques to non-uniformed Yankees legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen (1998); and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard (2000). Yankees greats Don Mattingly (1997), Reggie Jackson (2002), Ron Guidry (2003) and Red Ruffing (2004) are the most recent Bombers to be honored with plaques in Monument Park.

Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated by the Knights of Columbus, and a plaque commemorating the New York Yankees' interlocking "NY" insignia was added to the park in 2001. The most recent plaque was dedicated in 2008 following the visit of Pope Benedict XVI.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence of the original Stadium was moved in, the Yankees were able to open Monument Park for up-close fan viewing. By 1988, long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the area. A special walkway was added with an exhibit honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

In a pregame ceremony on Sept. 11, 2002, the Yankees dedicated a monument in remembrance of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy. It was the sixth monument dedicated in Yankee Stadium and the first to non-Yankees personnel.

During the 2010 season, a monument was erected in honor of Yankees Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner, III , who passed away on July 13, 2010. During a special pregame ceremony on Sept. 20, 2010, the entire Yankees team joined the Steinbrenner family and Yankees alumni in unveiling the monument.

In all, there are seven monuments (for four Yankees players, one manager, one owner and one to commemorate the tragedy of 9/11) and 24 plaques (for 14 players, two managers, one owner, one executive, one PA announcer, one broadcaster, three Papal visit commemorations and one noting the history of the NY logo).

We Remember
On September 11, 2001, despicable acts of terrorism were perpetrated on our country.

In tribute to the eternal spirit of the innocent victims of these crimes and to the selfless courage shown by both public servants and private citizens, we dedicate this plaque.

These valiant souls, with unfettered resolve, exemplify the true character of this great nation. Their unity and resilience during this time of distress defined American heroism for future generations.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

July 4, 1930 – July 13, 2010
New York Yankees Principal Owner
"The Boss"
1973 - 2010

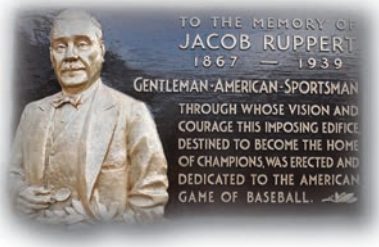

Purchased the New York Yankees on January 3, 1973.
A true visionary who changed the game of baseball forever, he was considered the most influential owner in all of sports.
In his 37 years as Principal Owner, the Yankees posted a Major League-best .566 winning percentage, while winning 11 American League pennants and seven World Series titles, becoming the most recognizable sports brand in the world.

A devoted sportsman, he was Vice President of the United States Olympic Committee, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees.
A great philanthropist whose charitable efforts were mostly performed without fanfare, he followed a personal motto of the greatest form of charity is anonymity.

Yankees Around the Globe

As the game of Baseball continues to grow on a global scale, "America's Pastime" has become infused with talent from all four corners of the world.

The New York Yankees, as one of the most recognized brands in the world, are dedicated to making meaningful and lasting footprints throughout the international Baseball community.

The Yankees began the 2012 season with 12 foreign-born players, second only to the Kansas City Royals' 13. Just over 28 percent of players on Major League rosters on Opening Day 2012 were born outside the United States. For the Yankees, the total was 37.5 percent (12 of 32 players, including seven on the D.L.).

Of the Yankees' 32 players on their 2012 Opening Day roster (including those on the D.L.), seven hailed from nations outside the United States, including Canada, Curacao, Dominican Republic, Japan, Panama, Puerto Rico and Venezuela — the most among all Major League clubs.

The Yankees' brand transcends international borders as fans show their pride around the globe.

Signing and developing exceptional talent from around the globe has become a trademark of the Yankees organization. Some of the club's acquisitions include the American League's all-time saves leader and Panama native Mariano Rivera, five-time All-Star Jorge Posada of Puerto Rico, two-time All-Star Hideki Matsui from Japan, 2006 Cy Young Award runner-up Chien-Ming Wang from Taiwan and All-Star Robinson Cano of the Dominican Republic.

At the minor league level in recent years, the organization has signed two Chinese minor leaguers, two players from the Israel Baseball League, and procured top minor league talent from Australia, Brazil, Canada, Cuba, the Czech Republic, Colombia, Mexico, Nicaragua, Taiwan and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees field two Dominican Summer League teams and operate a state-of-the-art Latin Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

The Latin Béisbol Academy

For the vast majority of the Yankees' Latin American prospects, the Latin Béisbol Academy is the starting point for their professional careers.

Constructed in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, the Yankees built their academy from scratch, allowing player development personnel to manage every detail of the project, from the trainer's room to the clubhouses to the classrooms. The end result is a four-building, four-field complex with the capacity to house up to 110 players. There is also a small apartment building for coaches and instructors. The academy, which officially opened in June 2005 and was completed in the spring of 2006, has a campus feel to it that is not lost on the ballplayers, many of whom are spending time away from their families for the first time.

Previously, the Yankees had leased a variety of facilities in Latin America for scouting and player development use, but it became apparent that it was necessary to find and develop their own facility.

"We've never had as many fields or batting cages," said Mark Newman, Yankees Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations, at the time the academy opened. "We've never had this level of control over player nutrition or this kind of strength and conditioning facility. All of these things enhance our player development efforts. Already, we've seen the physical, mental, emotional and fundamental maturation of players at a more rapid rate, and we should see it to a greater degree in the future."

As a dedicated investor in Latin American talent, the Yankees make every effort to provide their players with a well-rounded education off the field. The complex is staffed with educators who teach players academic disciplines such as Spanish and English along with broad-based life skills such as conflict resolution, financial literacy and American customs. Players are also given guidance on how to deal with the heavy travel incumbent in a baseball lifestyle. Throughout their time at the academy, the young Yankees hopefuls participate in clinics with local children, reminding them to always be mindful of their community.

The Yankees also arrange for past and present Major League stars, such as Mariano Rivera, Robinson Cano and Reggie Jackson, to be guest lecturers for the prospects. In November 2007, Yankees Manager Joe Girardi visited the Béisbol Academy. The players received a special visitor in January 2011 when professional boxing champion Miguel Cotto paid a visit.

The players and staff are also active in local community events as well, hosting annual instructional clinics in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees' Latin complex has hosted several R.B.I. (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) tournament games and joined the Yankees organization in the 2007 donation of $65,000 in food and cash to hurricane damaged areas in the D.R. and Nicaragua. The Yankees have also adopted an orphanage in the Dominican town of La Romana, supplying it with food, money and clothing.

"The Latin Béisbol Academy was built to instruct, enhance and further develop the inherent skills in young, aspiring baseball players from all parts of Central and South America."

~ Yankees Chief International Officer, Executive Vice President Felix Lopez

In July 2010, Dominican Summer League players delivered gifts to ailing children at a local hospital in Santo Domingo. The Latin Béisbol Academy also played host to a fundraiser game in 2010 against the Dominican National Police Department to raise money for local charities throughout the D.R. In 2011, select Yankees draft picks held a clinic in San Pedro de Macoris for over 100 kids, handing out shoes, equipment and uniforms to participants.

The Yankees field two DSL teams, winning back-to-back titles in 2005-06. With the hard work and dedication of the Yankees Player Development staff, the organization looks forward to the future, when these young players can be a part of a World Championship in the Bronx.

Partners in Japan

During the 2002 season, the Yankees entered into a working agreement with the Yomiuri Giants, winners of 22 Japan Series Championships. Pursuant to the agreement, the teams consented to share baseball information, ideas and strategies. Also in 2002, the Yankees pursued and signed three-time Central League MVP Hideki Matsui. A nine-time Japanese League All-Star and three-time home run champion, Matsui became the first bona fide power hitter to make the transition from Japan to the Major Leagues.

In 2004, the Yankees traveled to Tokyo to open the regular season against the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. The historic trip marked the 70th anniversary of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig's 1934 All-Star tour of Japan. It also recognized the anniversary of the founding of the Yomiuri Giants franchise, Japan's oldest professional baseball team. The two-game series was just the second-ever Major League season opener to take place in Japan. At the time, the two games were the highest-rated televised Major League games in Japan's history.

Yankees Teach in Taiwan

In January 2009, the Yankees joined the Chinese Taipei Baseball Association under the auspices of Major League Baseball in holding a clinic for high school pitchers, catchers and coaches at the National Taiwan Sport University's Taoyuan Campus in Taipei, Taiwan. It marked the Yankees' first-ever large-scale outreach in Taiwan and represented the club's initiative in cultivating baseball talent and increasing brand recognition in Asia and the greater international community. The five-day clinic focused on pitching and catching fundamentals and philosophy.

Yankees and Chinese Baseball Association Reach Memorandum of Understanding

The New York Yankees and the Chinese Baseball Association (CBA) held a press conference in Beijing, China, on January 29, 2007, to announce a Memorandum of Understanding that for the first time formalized a strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball club and the Chinese Baseball Association. During the Yankees' 2009 World Series trophy tour, club officials met with the CBA in Beijing to further the cooperation agreement between the two entities.

The agreement, subject to Major League Baseball's rules, regulations and agreements pertaining to the People's Republic of China, states that the Yankees will provide the CBA with guidance in training baseball players, including sending coaches, player development staff, scouting and training personnel to China to assist the CBA. The partnership also allows the CBA to send staff to the Yankees' facilities in the United States in furtherance of those goals.

Yankees Team President Randy Levine and GM Brian Cashman established a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association on Jan. 29, 2007.

During their 2007 trip, the Yankees were represented in Beijing by team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman, and Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorship Michael Tusiani. Beijing Womei Advertising Company Limited and Sportscorp China, headed by President and Managing Director Marc Ganis and Managing Director Kenneth Huang, coordinated the meetings and were instrumental in the Yankees' involvement in China.

The CBA was represented by Chairman Hu Jianguo, Secretary General Shen Wei and Deputy Secretary General Tian Yuan.

On June 16, 2007, the Yankees announced the signings of catcher Zhenwang Zhang and left-handed pitcher Kai Liu to minor league contracts, marking the first-ever acquisition by a Major League organization of Chinese baseball players. Both players were members of the Chinese National team that competed in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

Yankees Championship Trophy Tour of the Dominican Republic, Japan and China

Following their 2009 championship season, the Yankees embarked on a world tour with their 2009 World Series Trophy, traveling to the Dominican Republic and Asia.

Led by Chief International Officer and Executive Vice President Felix M. Lopez, Jr., a Yankees contingent took the championship trophy to the Dominican Republic for a three-day tour from Jan. 7-9, 2010. The Dominican Republic leg of the trophy tour included stops at the National Palace for a ceremony with Dominican Republic President Dr. Leonel Fernández, where Lopez was joined by bench coach Tony Pena, and players Robinson Cano, Damaso Marte, Francisco Cervelli and Edwar Ramirez as well as by several Yankees minor leaguers. The next day, the Yankees visited the U.S. Embassy and the National Police Headquarters. That evening, the Yankees displayed the trophy for fans at the Dominican Winter League playoff game between the Licey Tigers and Escogido Lions at Quisqueya Stadium in Santo Domingo, and Lopez threw out the ceremonial first pitch. On their final day in the D.R., the Yankees placed the trophy on display for residents of the town of Casa de Campo. In the evening, Lopez tossed the ceremonial first pitch at a game between La Romano and Escogido, and the Yankees again displayed the trophy for fans.

The Yankees' 2009 W.S. trophy visited the MLB Café in Tokyo, where it was displayed alongside the Yomiuri Giants' 2009 Championship trophy.

Three weeks later, a Yankees delegation including Team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman and Senior Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorships Michael Tusiani, took the trophy on a six-day tour to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong from Jan. 31 through Feb. 5, 2010.

The contingent was met by fans and media at Tokyo's Narita Airport, marking this first-ever occasion of a Yankees World Series trophy being brought to Asia. The next day, another historic moment took place at the MLB Café in Tokyo as the trophy was displayed alongside the Yomiuri Giants' 2009 Japan Series championship trophy.

From there, the trophy traveled to China, where fans in Beijing and Hong Kong had their first opportunity to gaze at Major League Baseball's grandest prize. The trophy tour in China was organized by QSL Sports, which has been active in the promotion of Baseball in the People's Republic of China (PRC) and operates the China Youth Baseball League together with the Chinese Baseball Association. The events in China were hosted by QSL Sports, New World Department Stores (one of the largest owners and operators of department stores in China), and K11, the "World's First Art Mall," which integrates elements of art, culture and nature, while elevating the shopping experience.

Chinese youth were on hand with the trophy during a press event with the Chinese Baseball Assoc.

On Feb. 3, 2010, Yankees officials met with the CBA in Beijing to further the cooperation agreement between the two entities, after which the groups held a joint press conference at the Kunlun Hotel. Later that evening, the championship trophy made its first public appearance in China at the New World Department Store, which included traditional Chinese performances and ceremonies. Joining the Yankees delegation were CBA officials, New World representatives and the Beijing Yankees youth baseball team, which is part of MLB's "Play Ball" youth baseball program in China.

Hong Kong marked the final stop on the Asian tour, with a Feb. 5, 2010, event at the Hyatt Regency hotel adjacent to the recently-opened K11 Mall. The next morning, the trophy was introduced to players and fans during the opening ceremony for the 2010 Phoenix Cup, Hong Kong's International Women's Baseball Tournament.

The Yankees thank their partner Delta Air Lines for ensuring the safe transportation of the World Series trophy and appreciate the efforts of Sportscorp China, led by president Marc Ganis.

GRANDERSON GOES ABROAD

Adding stamps to his passport, Yankees outfielder Curtis Granderson made an offseason trip to Korea (three days) and Japan (eight days) as part of the MLB International Ambassador program in December of 2012.

During his time in Seoul, he participated in a baseball clinic and donated equipment to the children at the SOS Children's Village orphanage. He also took part in a clinic at the Seoul National School for the Deaf as well as a meet and greet with the New York Yankees Fan Club of Korea.

Granderson then traveled to Tokyo, Kyoto, Ishinomaki and Okinawa, Japan. He took part in a field commemoration at the Ishinomaki Municipal Baseball Stadium, in the Tohoku region of Japan that was devastated by the 2011 earthquake and tsunami, also holding a clinic for young baseball players led by the semi-pro team in Ishinomaki.

Granderson conducted a clinic for the Girls Professional Baseball League in Kyoto. He also visited with young baseball players and held clinics at Konan High School and Okinawa Shogakuin High School in Okinawa. While in Tokyo, he participated in a panel discussion at Waseda University in Tokyo on "CSR within Professional Sports" and spoke to students at The American School in Japan.

Granderson first served as an MLB International Ambassador when he traveled to England, the Netherlands and Italy in 2006. In 2007, he made a trip to South Africa and followed in 2008 with a trip to Beijing and Shanghai, China where he became the first current MLB player to tour China. Most recently, Granderson traveled to New Zealand in 2010, then was a member of an MLB All-Star tour to Japan in 2011.

Yankees in the World Baseball Classic

This season marks the third World Baseball Classic.

The Yankees have had 12 players participate in the event, representing eight different countries (see below for stats).

Of their current roster, seven Yankees have appeared in the World Baseball Classic. That includes Ichiro Suzuki, who anchored Team Japan's first place finishes in both 2006 and 2009.

For the 2013 World Baseball Classic, three Yankees were named to provisional rosters: Robinson Cano (DR), Mark Teixeira (USA) and Francisco Cervelli (Italy). Additionally, Yankees Bench Coach Tony Pena will manage the Dominican Republic Team.

The New PNC Field

In 2012, Scranton/Wilkes-Barre played its home games at six different venues, while PNC Field underwent a $43 million renovation. The project began on May 1, 2012, and is scheduled to be ready for Opening Day, April 4 vs. the Pawtucket Red Sox. With a capacity of 10,000 (seating capacity of 7,500), the modernized park promises to stand among the best in all of minor league baseball. The upgraded amenities include new club level seating, suites and party areas. Fans will enjoy a 150-foot-long high-definition videoboard along the right field wall, and a new videoboard and scoreboard in left field.

U.S. MILITARY ALL-STAR BASEBALL TEAM VISITS YANKEES' LATIN BÉISBOL ACADEMY IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

On April 24, 2008, the U.S. Military Baseball Team paid a visit to the Yankees' Latin Béisbol Academy in Boca Chica in the Dominican Republic. The team joined Yankees players for a workout as part of its Armed Forces "Baseball Diplomacy" program, undertaken in conjunction with the United States Embassy, the Dominican Armed Forces, the National Police Sporting Club, and the Dominican Baseball Federation. Following the training session, coaches from the academy joined U.S. military players at Ensanche Luperon in Santo Domingo, to give a baseball clinic to local children. In return, the Yankees sent coaches and scouts to participate in a clinic on April 26, 2008, at the Olympic Center, also in Santo Domingo.

1978 World Series Champion Yankees
35th Anniversary

This year marks the 35th anniversary of the Yankees' memorable 1978 World Championship season. The club came back from a 14.0-game deficit in the AL East standings at the close of play on July 19 to take the division with a dramatic 5-4, one-game playoff victory over the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park on Oct. 2. The team went on to defeat Kansas City 3-games-to-1 in the ALCS before winning their second straight Fall Classic over Los Angeles, 4-games-to-2. The club was piloted to the title by Bob Lemon, who led the club to a 48-20 record after taking over following Billy Martin's midseason resignation.

Thurman Munson Award

Each summer, the Cape Cod League presents the Thurman Munson Award to the player with the highest batting average in the league. The award is presented in memory of the great New York Yankee catcher and captain, whose life ended on August 2, 1979, when the private jet he was piloting crashed near his hometown of Canton, Ohio. Munson starred for the 1967 Chatham A's, for whom he batted .420. The following spring, the Yankees made him their first-round draft choice.

Media Services for Yankees Games

The New York Yankees Media Relations staff welcomes you to Yankee Stadium. Please see below for helpful information and guidelines for the 2013 season. Contact us with any questions or concerns you may have. We look forward to working with you.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM/CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: All media must enter Yankee Stadium via the Press Gate, adjacent to Gate 4. The Press Gate opens five hours prior to game time. BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or credentials issued by the New York Yankees are necessary for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. All bags are subject to search upon entry. Photo ID will be required.

ADMISSION TO FIELD AND DUGOUTS: On game days, the field and dugouts can be accessed from the Service Level (000) via the Field Access Tunnel (located on the outfield side of the Visitors Clubhouse) or through either team's clubhouse when open to the media during regular clubhouse hours. Take the press elevator or stairs from the Press Gate or Main Press Box down to the Service Level and follow the interior concourse to the right for the Yankees Clubhouse or to the left for the Field Access Tunnel and Visitors Clubhouse. Please note that the field is closed to media at the conclusion of the visiting team's batting practice.

CREDENTIAL QUESTIONS: Please direct questions to Alexandra Trochanowski in the Yankees Media Relations office at credentials@yankees.com or (718) 579-4460.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: All requests for single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium may be made online at https://credentials.mlb.com. The online application is the only acceptable method for requesting single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium. Applications must be completed by a Sports Editor or Sports Director and require at least 24 hours notice.

INTERNET: Wireless Internet is available throughout all working media areas. Please see a Yankees Media Relations representative for login instructions.

PARKING: Media are encouraged to park in the Ruppert Plaza Garage, located on the corner of Jerome Ave. and the Macombs Dam Bridge ramp, directly across the street from the Press Gate. The garage will open six hours prior to the start of the game and remain open at least three hours after the last pitch.

PRESS BOX: Take the press elevator or stairs to Main Level. Doors open by the TV and radio booths. The press box, working press room and media dining room will be to your left. Please sit in assigned seats. If no seat is assigned, please ask a Yankees Media Relations representative for assistance.

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: Take the press elevator or stairs down to the Service Level. The Press Conference Room is on the first base side, opposite the Yankees clubhouse.

PRESS DINING: Sheppard's Place is open to those with BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. Entrance is through the Press Box, behind the working press box. Meals are served starting 2 hours and 30 minutes prior to game time and will remain available through the sixth inning.

TELEPHONE ASSISTANCE: For assistance with ordered telephone lines, please call a Yankee Global Technology representative at 646-977-TECH.

WORKING PRESS ROOMS: Both Print and Audio Workrooms are located behind the working press box. The Photographers workroom is on the Service Level across from the Visitors' clubhouse on the third base side.

Roving in the stands and concourses is prohibited. Likewise, field access during the game is limited to the first and third base photo boxes. Yankees Twitter Roster

The Yankees Media Relations Department encourages our media to visit yankeespressbox.com, a one-stop resource for all Yankees media relations materials. Documents are posted to the site the moment they are available and include: pregame notes, lineups/scorecard (home games only), stat packs, milestones, minor league report, the most up-to-date Yankees roster and postgame notes.

All press releases, special packets (A-Rod Career HRs, Rivera Career Saves, etc.) and a PDF edition of the 2013 Yankees Media Guide & Record Book are also available on the site. Additionally, almost all items available at yankeespressbox.com are archived for access throughout the season.

When accessing the website (which is for media members only), you will be asked to sign in using an mlb.com ID, available only through Major League Baseball.

Yankees Social Media Clubhouse

Fans can interact with the New York Yankees—players and front office—across the social media landscape.

The 27-time World Champions are also at the top when it comes to Social Media. The Yankees rank No. 1 among MLB teams on Facebook (more than 6 million likes at facebook.com/yankees) and Twitter (nearly 800,000 followers on @yankees). Among the four major North American sports leagues, the Yankees rank fifth on both platforms. The franchise's Social Media presence also extends to Instagram, Google+, Pinterest and Tumblr. All of the team's official accounts can be found and followed at Yankees.com/connect.

Yankees Television Broadcasters

Michael Kay

Now in his 12th season as the play-by-play announcer for the YES Network and WWOR-TV, Additionally, Kay is the host of YES'"CenterStage" series, hosts his own radio talk show on ESPN Radio in New York and is a frequent contributor to ESPN's Emmy Award-winning Sports Reporters. In 2008, he handled play-by-play duties for the ESPN Radio Network's coverage of the AL Division Series.

A 21-time Emmy Award nominee and three-time Emmy winner, Kay was named by Radio Ink magazine the second-most influential local sports talk show host in America in 2012.

Before joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network from 1989-2001 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities and continued in that role through the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, Kay also worked as a Yankees analyst on WABC Radio from 1992-2002. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBBR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees' World Series victories in 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2009, Kay and John Sterling were asked by New York City's Mayor to host the post-parade victory celebration at City Hall.

In 1998, Kay also began co-hosting Sports Talk with John Sterling and Michael Kay, an MSG-produced nightly sports radio call-in show which aired on WABC Radio during the winter months. During the baseball season, Kay and Sterling hosted Yankee Talk which aired 90 minutes prior to all weekend Yankees games.

Shortly after graduating from Fordham University in 1982 with a B.A. in Communications, the Bronx, N.Y., native became one of the hot sports reporters in New York City with a style that combined great reporting skills with quality writing. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at Sports Phone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League.

In 1982, Kay landed a job as a general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering college basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, whom he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he moved to baseball where he served as his paper's Yankees beat reporter. While he was in that position, he got his first television job with MSG Network as host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's Sports Night. Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, where he covered the Yankees until 1992, when he made the jump to radio. With the move, he became the first newspaper reporter in any sport to make the jump into the broadcast booth full-time, performing both play-by-play and analysis.

Kay was given the Dick Young Award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG Production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Series." In 1996 and '97, he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets".

Kay resides in Manhattan, N.Y., and in 2005 had an honorary street sign in his name erected on the Grand Concourse in the Bronx. He is active with the Alzheimer's Association in memory of his mother, Rose, who passed away from the disease in 2006. Kay has also joined Joe Girardi for the "Remember When, Remember Now" banquet at the Grand Central Oyster Bar to benefit Girardi's Catch 25 Foundation and Alzheimer's research. He co-hosted the 2013 B.A.T. fundraising dinner in New York, and served as master of ceremonies at the 2013 Thurman Munson Awards fundraising dinner in New York

He and his wife, Jodi, were married in February 2011 and have a daughter Caledonia Rose born in January 2013.

Ken Singleton

Former Major Leaguer Ken Singleton enters his 12th season as a game analyst and announcer for YES Network broadcasts of the New York Yankees.

Prior to joining YES, Singleton divided his time calling play-by-play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

Singleton joined the MSG Network in 1997 from The Sports Network (TSN), where he served as analyst for the Montreal Expos from 1985-96. From 1991-96, he also called play-by-play and served as analyst for CIQ Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and '97, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and '98, he worked as an analyst for Major League Baseball International.

Singleton enjoyed a 15-year Major League career with the New York Mets, Montreal Expos and Baltimore Orioles, batting .282 with 317 doubles and 246HR. He is one of only 11 players in Baseball history to hit 35 or more home runs in a season as a switch-hitter. He also ranks among the all-time leaders in most Baltimore offensive categories, including homers, RBI and total bases. During his career, Singleton was named to the American League All-Star team in 1977, '79, and '81. He was named Most Valuable Oriole in 1975, '77, and '79 and was a member of the Orioles' 1983 World Championship team. In1982, he was the recipient of Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award, honoring him for his contributions both on and off the field.

Born in Manhattan and raised in nearby Mount Vernon, N.Y., Singleton played both baseball and basketball in high school, and also played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at Macombs Dam Park on the current site of Yankee Stadium. After getting a basketball scholarship to Hofstra University and playing baseball as well for one year, Singleton was drafted by the Mets in 1967.

Singleton serves on the Board of Directors for the Cool Kids Campaign, a non-profit organization that helps children and their families who are dealing with cancer. He was honored with the "Denzel Lifetime Achievement Award in Sports" at the Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon's 100th Anniversary Gala in March 2012.

David Cone

David Cone returns to the YES Network for his sixth season as an analyst. Upon his retirement from the game, Cone joined the YES Network team during its inaugural year in 2002, again for 2008-09 and returned in 2011.

Cone compiled a 194-126 record, 3.46 ERA and 2,688 strikeouts in his 17-year Major League career with the Kansas City Royals (1986, 1993-94), New York Mets (1987-1992, 2003), Toronto Blue Jays (1992, '95), New York Yankees (1995-2000) and Boston Red Sox (2001). He was a five-time All-Star (1988, 1992, 1994, 1997 and 1999) and captured the American League Cy Young Award in 1994 after posting a 16-5 record with a 2.94 ERA. With the award, he became the first pitcher to win the Cy Young despite not leading the league in any category or pitching for a first-place club.

While with the Yankees, Cone was 64-40 with a 3.91 ERA and 888 strikeouts, and was part of four World Championship teams (1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). He had arguably his finest season in pinstripes in 1998, when he was 20-7 with a 3.55 ERA and 209 strikeouts. A year later, on July 18, 1999, he hurled the 14th perfect game in modern Major League history (since 1900, including postseason) in a 6-0 win vs. the Montreal Expos at Yankee Stadium. The performance also marked the third perfect game ever thrown by a Yankees pitcher, following Don Larsen's in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. Brooklyn and David Wells' vs. Minnesota in 1998. The Kansas City, Mo. native, was selected by his hometown Kansas City Royals in the third round of the 1981 First-Year Player Draft.

He compiled an 8-3 career postseason record and also won a title with the 1992 Blue Jays.

In 1996, Cone established the David Cone Charitable Gift Fund. He was honored with numerous awards for his community service as a player and still pursues his charitable endeavors, working with the Maria Fareri Children's Hospital at the Westchester Medical Center.

Jack Curry

Jack Curry joined the YES Network in 2010 as studio analyst, reporter and program contributor, following a 20-year career covering the Yankees for the New York Times. In addition, he contributes as a columnist on YESNetwork.com.

During his career with the Times, Curry authored more than 4,500 articles, covering 18 World Series, 11 All-Star Games and two World Baseball Classics. The New Jersey native also was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in 1999, and won multiple Times Publisher Awards.

Curry's television experience extends back to 1991, when he began contributing to Madison Square Garden Network's Yankees pre-game show and weekly baseball magazine show. Since November 2005, Curry has been a regular contributor to YES' Yankees Hot Stove and Yankees Baseball Daily shows. In addition, he was a featured panelist on MSG's Angles roundtable show, was a frequent guest on WCBS-TV's Baseball Insider weekly studio show, and has also provided expert baseball analysis and commentary on television and radio programs such as ESPN's Outside The Lines, MSNBC's Countdown with Keith Olbermann, ESPN Radio's The Michael Kay Show and various WFAN Radio programs.

He also co-wrote a book with Derek Jeter entitled The Life You Imagine: Life Lessons for Achieving Your Dreams, which was a New York Times best-seller. A 1986 graduate of Fordham University, Curry resides with his wife, Pamela, in New Jersey.

John Flaherty

Former Yankees catcher John Flaherty enters his eighth season as a field reporter, studio analyst and game analyst for YES Network telecasts in 2013. He received New York Emmy Award nominations in 2010 and 2011 for his analyst work at YES.

Drafted by Boston in 1988, Flaherty progressed through the Red Sox farm system before joining their Major League squad in 1992. He played 14 seasons in the Majors with Boston (1992-93), Detroit (1994-96), San Diego (1996-97), Tampa Bay (1998-2002) and the Yankees (2003-05), compiling a .252 average with 80HR in 1,047 games.

Flaherty brought his knowledge of the game and his veteran style of leadership to the Yankees clubhouse when he signed as a free agent in 2003. He played in 134 games with the Yankees across three seasons, and will be long remembered for his dramatic pinch-hit, "walk-off" single that defeated the Boston Red Sox in the 13th inning of a 5-4 victory on June 1, 2004, in the contest that featured Derek Jeter's famous dive into the third base stands.

Flaherty is a New York City native and a graduate of George Washington University. On May 15, 2009, he was awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from St. Thomas Aquinas College in Sparkill, N.Y.

Al Leiter

Entering his eighth year with the YES Network, former Yankees pitcher Al Leiter serves as color commentator, providing viewers with insight gained from his 19 years as a player in the Major Leagues. He is also a contributor to YES's Yankees on Deck series, and is an analyst for the MLB Network, where he was nominated for a 2010 National Emmy Award for his work there.

Prior to signing with YES, Leiter had worked as a postseason game analyst for FOX Sports and ESPN.

Originally drafted by the Yankees in 1984, Leiter played parts of 19 professional seasons with the Yankees (1987-89, 2005), Toronto Blue Jays (1989-95), Florida Marlins (1996-97, 2005) and New York Mets (1998-2004). He was a two-time All-Star (1996, 2000), and was a part of two world championship teams (Toronto in 1993 and Florida in 1997). On May 11, 1996, Leiter tossed the first no-hitter in Marlins history in an 11-0 win vs. Colorado.

For his community work, he was honored by MLB with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2000, and the Bart Giamatti Award in 2002. Also in 2002, he was appointed to the board of directors of the Twin Towers Fund in NYC. He was named the March of Dimes "Sportsman of the Year" in 2003 and the John V. Mara "Sportsman of the Year" in 2004 by the Catholic Youth Organization. He also created "Leiter's Landing," a charitable organization committed to the betterment of youth through education, health care and social and community service.

A native of Bayville, N.J., Leiter was inducted into the New Jersey Sports Writers Association Hall of Fame in January 2012. He also served as master of ceremonies at New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg's first induction ceremony at City Hall in 2002.

Meredith Marakovits

Meredith Marakovits was named the YES Network's New York Yankees clubhouse reporter just prior to the start of the 2012 season, reporting on the team within the network's Yankees game telecasts, pre- and post-game shows, and Yankees Batting Practice Today show. Marakovits also appears on YES' special Yankees programming and contributes to YESNetwork.com.

Previously, Marakovits served as the Philadelphia 76ers sideline reporter with Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia, also participating in several Comcast SportsNet regional sports network programs. She also covered the Yankees and Mets for 1050 ESPN, and contributed elsewhere to WFAN radio in New York.

Prior to her work in New York, she served as the Phillies reporter for 950 ESPN Radio/97.5 the Fanatic. This came after her stint as the pre- and post-game host and field reporter for the Triple-A Lehigh Valley Ironpigs Television Network.

A Northampton, Pa. native, Marakovits is a graduate of La Salle University in Philadelphia, where she played volleyball and graduated in 2005 with a degree in communications. She began her career for Service Electric 2's sports division as a sideline reporter for college football, basketball, and indoor football broadcasts.

Paul O'Neill

Paul O'Neill returns for his 12th season in broadcast television in 2012, serving as a game analyst for the YES Network. He received a New York Emmy Award nomination in 2011 for his analyst work on YES.

The five-time All-Star outfielder played 17 years in the Majors, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. He appeared in six World Series, winning five titles, including four with the Yankees (1996, '98-2000).

Affectionately known as a "warrior" to most Yankees followers, O'Neill began his Major League career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds and earned the first of his five World Series championships in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American League batting title with a .359 average. From July 1995 to May 1997, he played in 235 consecutive games in right field without making an error. In 2001, at the age of 38, O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season.

He lives in his native Cincinnati with his wife, Nevalee, and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra. He was named "Father of the Year" in June 2008 by the National Father's Day Council at its 67th Annual Father of the Year dinner in New York.

Yankees Radio Broadcasters

John Sterling

"Yankees win! Theeeeeee Yankees win!"

If anything has become synonymous with the Yankees' run of success over recent years, it is John Sterling's memorable conclusion to so many Yankees victories. As the radio voice to 162 games a year, plus preseason and postseason, he has called 3,985 official games (3,819 regular season/166 postseason) over the last 24 seasons, without missing even one, making him one of the most recognized—and imitated voices—in all of New York sports.

Sterling joined the Yankees broadcast team in 1989 from Atlanta's TBS and WSB Radio, where he called Hawks basketball (1981-89) and Braves games (1982-87). It marked a return to the town where he first achieved fame, hosting a talk show on WMCA from 1971-78, and calling the Nets (1975-80, and as a fill-in, in 1997) and Islanders (1975-78) for WMCA ,WVNJ, WWOR-TV and SportsChannel.

Sterling also previously called Morgan State Football (eight years) and Washington Bullets basketball in 1981. In addition to his seven years at WMCA and a year at WSB in Atlanta, he has also hosted talk shows on WFAN and WABC in New York. He has not missed a broadcast of any kind since the fall of 1981.

As the host of the YES Network's acclaimed Yankeeography series, Sterling has won a total of 12 Emmy Awards since 2003. He has also been honored by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association with its Radio-TV Excellence Award (1999), and was the winner of the 2001 Whitney Radio Jimmy Cannon Award. In addition, his call of a Jason Giambi home run on WCBS radio in 2002 was voted the "Best Baseball Call of the Year" in a poll conducted by MLB.com. In 2002, Sterling was also honored by the NY Air Awards for being a part of the best play-by-play team on radio.

When he's not in the booth, Sterling serves as a master of on-field ceremonies for major Yankees events, and is well known for his emcee work at City Hall (with his former radio partner Michael Kay) at "Key to the City" ceremonies following Yankees World Series victories.

Sterling enjoys attending Broadway shows and boasts an extensive knowledge of the lyrics to many American pop standards. In 2007, he embarked on his own Broadway venture in a cabaret show titled "Baseball and Broadway" in which he both served as emcee and sang alongside broadway talent.

For the past 20 years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He enjoys reading, movies and swimming. He lives in Bergen County, N.J., and is the proud father of four children: daughter Abigail and triplets, Veronica, Bradford and Derek.

Suzyn Waldman

Award-winning journalist Suzyn Waldman begins her 27th season either covering or broadcasting the New York Yankees. She joined John Sterling in the radio booth in 2005 as the Yankees' color commentator on WCBS-AM radio, becoming the first woman to hold a full-time position as a Major League broadcaster.

Waldman has spent nearly three decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster and has risen to the top of her profession. In 2006, she became a permanent part of the "Women in Baseball" exhibit at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, and in 2009, her World Series Game 6 scorecard was added to the Hall of Fame's collection, commemorating her being the first female broadcaster to call game action in the World Series.

In 1987, Waldman became the first female voice heard on WFAN-AM in New York, the first all-sports radio station in the country. She was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news-breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards. Her accolades include the "International Radio Award" for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 "NY Sportscaster of the Year" Award from the National Sportscasters & Sportswriters and the 1999 "Star Award" for radio from the American Women in Radio and TV. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted midday slot until leaving WFAN in 2002 to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally-televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play-by-play for a Major League team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid 1990s. The first woman ever to host an NBA pre-and post-game show, Suzyn worked in that capacity for the New York Knicks on WFAN, provided play-by-play for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst on St. John's basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston and the US Federal Women's Program. In 2006, she received the first Women's Global Health Award from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at the United Nations. She is a tireless motivational speaker at schools and cancer centers around the country, encouraging young women to pursue their dreams despite any pitfalls they may encounter. In each of the last two years (2011-12), she has joined Bronx Borough President Ruben Diaz Jr. as host of the borough's annual Hannukah celebration.

Waldman's life and accomplishments have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, and chapters in children's and motivational books. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline.

A native Bostonian with a degree in Economics from Boston's prestigious Simmons College, Suzyn spent 15 years on the Broadway Musical Stage and performed in countless night clubs around the world. She is proudest of her two years starring opposite Richard Kiley in Man of La Mancha. She lives in Westchester with her German Shepherds, A.J., Gatsby and Margo.

Carlos Silva - Producer/Engineer

Carlos Silva, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, enters his eighth season producing and engineering Yankees games for WCBS Radio 880 AM (Spanish and English). The 2013 season will mark his 13th year working on Yankees radio broadcasts and his 24th overall season in baseball. It also marks his third year producing and conducting interviews in Spanish for yesnetwork.com. Silva has also worked for ESPN Radio, Phillies Spanish radio, and the NBA's Orlando Magic and New Jersey Nets. He is also responsible for the translation and recording of Spanish broadcast spots throughout the season. In the offseason, he resides in Lutz, Fla., with his wife, Teresa, and his children Leslie, Kimberly and Matthew.

Yankees en Español

For the 17th consecutive season, the Yankees – in conjunction with WCBS radio – will provide Spanish radio and SAP (second audio programming) for game broadcasts.

Beto Villa

Beto Villa, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, has been broadcasting the Yankees since the beginning of the club's Spanish radio network in 1997, becoming one of the most recognized voices in baseball. The 2013 season will mark Villa's 17th as the "Spanish voice of the New York Yankees." His famous home run call: "¡La bola va atrás, se va, se va, se va, se vaaaaaaaaaa…se fue de cuadrangular…jonrón de…!" has made him very popular in the tri-state area and around the world.

Beto provides Spanish listeners with thorough and thoughtful Yankees coverage. He treasures his pages and pages of statistics of Latin American ballplayers, which he uses during his radiocasts. After beginning his career in 1981, he has had the opportunity to broadcast both the Major League World Series and the Caribbean World Series. He is currently a Senior Editor of Latinobaseball.com, a Web site covering Latin American players in the Majors and Winter Leagues. Beto has a daughter, Margarita.

Francisco Rivera

Since 1995, Francisco Rivera has been involved in baseball as a color commentator and play-by-play announcer, including seven years in the Yankees' broadcast booth. A native of Morovis, Puerto Rico, he covered the Philadelphia Phillies for "Radio Tropical" from 1995 to 1998 and worked the American League Championship Series in 2003 and 2004 for ESPN.

Rivera received his Bachelors Degree in Spanish Literature from Rutgers University and graduated from the Cambridge University-affiliated Miguel Angel Torres School of Communications in Manhattan in 1978. He began his communications career covering NBA basketball for WADO, and was later one of the pioneers of the talk show WADO Deportivo where he worked until 2003. Francisco is married to Yvette Rodriguez and has two daughters, Melissa and Lorraine.

George M. Steinbrenner Field

This year marks the 18th season the Yankees will play their spring training games at George M. Steinbrenner Field in Tampa, Fla. Since opening in 1996, the complex has also served as the home of the Single-A Tampa Yankees of the Florida State League. The field's dimensions are an exact replica of Yankee Stadium in the Bronx, measuring 318 feet down the left line, 408 feet to center field and 314 feet down the right field line. In 2008, the addition of the Right Field Party Deck in right field expanded the Stadium's capacity to 11,076, making it the largest spring training facility in the Grapefruit League.

Fans will also notice another link to the Bronx with replicas of the Yankees' retired numbers placards from Yankee Stadium greeting them as they enter the complex.

Originally opened in 1996 as Legends Field, the complex was renamed in honor of the late Yankees' Principal Owner and Chairman prior to the Yankees' March 27, 2008, spring training game against the Pittsburgh Pirates. On February 14, 2008, Hal and Hank Steinbrenner announced that the New York Yankees would rename the facility George M. Steinbrenner Field. The name change followed two unanimous resolutions recommending and supporting the change from the Hillsborough County Commission and the Tampa City Council.

"I am humbled and flattered to have this outstanding and totally unexpected honor conferred on me," said George M. Steinbrenner at the time the resolution was passed. "I extend my thanks to the Tampa City Council and to the Hillsborough County Commissioners for passing resolutions suggesting and recommending the change. I also thank my family for supporting the renaming of the stadium and for everything they have done for so many years that helped bring about this great day "

The resolution passed by the Tampa City Council on February 7, 2008, cited Mr. Steinbrenner's many charitable donations on behalf of youth activities, hospitals and the arts. The resolution passed by the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioners on February 6, 2008, recognized Mr. Steinbrenner's numerous extraordinary contributions to the area.

The Yankees Pavilion at George M. Steinbrenner Field is a half-acre covered party area located next to the Yankees' pregame workout field and offers fans an exclusive spot to eat, drink and watch warm-ups right before the game.

James P. Dawson Award

Each spring training, the Yankees present the James P. Dawson Award to the outstanding Yankees rookie in spring training. The award was established in honor of James P. Dawson (1896-1953), who began a 45-year career with The New York Times as a copy boy in 1908. Eight years later, he became boxing editor and covered boxing and baseball until his death during spring training in 1953. New York Yankees beat writers vote on the winner.

Two winners of the honor, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win the American League "Rookie of the Year" Award. The total list of the award's past winners include:

The term "premium game(s)" is defined as the Opening Day game, the Old-Timers' Day game and all home games played against the Boston Red Sox, Los Angeles Dodgers, New York Mets and San Francisco Giants.

Game times listed as TBA are subject to determination by, among others, Major League Baseball and its television partners.

Time, opponent, date and team rosters and lineups, including the Yankees' roster and lineup, are subject to change.

In no event will the Yankees be liable to the ticket holder and/or ticket purchaser for any direct, indirect, consequential, exemplary, incidental, special or punitive damages or for lost profits, revenues or business opportunities even if the Yankees have been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Be advised that the Yankees reserve the right to take appropriate action against individuals who fraudulently obtain wheelchair accessible and/or companion seats, including, without limitation, ejection and legal action.

NOTICE: For the safety of every Guest, all persons specifically consent to and are subject to metal detector and physical pat-down inspections prior to entry. Any person or property that could affect the safety of Yankee Stadium, its occupants or its property shall be denied entry. Guests may bring into the Stadium one soft-sided bag no larger than 16 inches by 16 inches by 8 inches.

WARNING: During all batting practices, fielding practices, warm-ups and the course of all baseball games and the baseball game experiences, hard hit baseballs and bats and fragments thereof may be thrown or hit into the stands, concourses and concessions areas. For the safety of every Guest, all Guests must stay alert and be aware of their surroundings at all times while visiting Yankee Stadium. Accordingly, Guests who are concerned with their original ticketed location by reason of the foregoing, at any time before, during or after the baseball game and the baseball game experiences, should contact any Guest Relations representative to request that they be relocated; however, please remember that: (a) any requested relocation is subject to availability, and (b) any alternate seat or standing location may be in a section and/or level of the Stadium and/or within a price category that is not in the same section and/or level and/or price category of the Guests' original ticketed location, regardless of their original ticketed location.

NOTICE: The Yankees reserve the right, with or without refunding any amount paid by the ticket holder, to refuse admission to and/or eject any person who: (a) is or appears to be impaired; (b) deliberately conceals alcohol or illegal substances while attempting to enter Yankee Stadium; (c) uses foul or abusive language; or (d) wears or fails to cover obscene or indecent clothing. Ticket holders acknowledge and agree that the Yankees' ban on foul/abusive language and obscene/indecent clothing does not violate their right to free speech and/or expression and that such time, place and manner of the restrictions are reasonable to ensure the safety of all Guests and event participants and to preserve the enjoyment of the game or event for all Guests. In addition, ticket holders further acknowledge and agree that by entering the Stadium, they hereby consent to the ban on foul/abusive language and obscene/indecent clothing and waive, to the fullest extent they may legally and effectively do so, any objection they may now or hereafter have to such ban and the penalties that the Yankees may impose for any violation of the same.
