JOHN MOZELIAK
VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named the Cardinals Vice President/General Manager on October 31, 2007. Mozeliak was promoted from his previous position as Assistant General Manager with the club, a position he had held for six seasons. He is the 12th general manager in more than 100 years of Cardinals baseball history.

Mozeliak's in-season moves in 2009 helped the Cardinals to their first N.L. Central Division title since 2006. Mo traded for infielders Mark DeRosa and Julio Lugo and made his biggest splash with a trade on July 24 that brought outfielder Matt Holliday to St. Louis. He also added veteran right handed pitcher John Smoltz in August to bolster the pitching staff. In addition, he signed relievers Ryan Franklin and Trever Miller to new contracts during the 2009 season to keep them with the Cardinals for at least another two years.

In January of this year, Mo orchestrated the largest player contract in team franchise history with the signing of Matt Holliday to a seven-year deal with an option for 2017. Mo re-signed pitcher Kyle Lohse, who he picked up as a free-agent in March 2008, to a four-year deal the day following the conclusion of the 2008 season. Upon being named GM in 2007, he completed a deal with catcher Yadier Molina on a four-year contract with a club option for a fifth year that ensures one of the best young catchers in the game remains in a Cardinals uniform through at least 2011.

Mozeliak, 41, is a 15-year veteran of the Cardinals front office. He joined the organization following the 1995 season and served as an assistant in scouting operations during the 1996 and '97 seasons. He was named the assistant scouting director in 1998 and promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft and catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named the Director of Baseball Operations and he was promoted to Assistant General Manager in 2003. During his time as Asst. GM his duties increased as he focused more on the Major League club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and is a graduate of the University of Colorado. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, and daughter, Allyson More (7/22/99) and son, William John (1/7/05).

Since September 2006 Luhnow has served multiple roles as the club's farm director, amateur scouting director and international director. The promotion came after holding the position of scouting director since 2005 and international director since 2004. He reports to VP/General Manager John Mozeliak.

Under Luhnow's guidance, the Cardinals have concentrated on adding top prospects into the club's minor league system. Current Cardinals centerfielder, Colby Rasmus, was a draft pick under Luhnow's watch. Rasmus and nine other Cardinals farmhands made their Major League debut during the 2009 season. In addition, several players drafted and developed by Luhnow, including Brett Wallace and Chris Perez, were traded during 2009 to aquire Matt Holliday and Mark DeRosa, both important contributors to the 2009 Central Division Championship.

During 2004, Luhnow oversaw the opening of the Cardinals baseball academy in the Dominican Republic and led the re-establishment of the club's operations in Venezuela. In addition to his work in the scouting and international arena, from 2003 until 2007, Luhnow led the development of proprietary player evaluation methods to assist in player personnel decisions at both the amateur and professional level.

In his first year as farm director (2007), the organization added a seventh domestic minor league club in the Gulf Coast League. In the three seasons since, the organization has seen six clubs make it to the playoffs and two succeed as league champions: Batavia (A) in 2008 and Memphis (AAA) in 2009.

Luhnow, 43, is the founder, former President and COO of Archetype Solutions, Inc., and was General Manager and VP of Marketing for Petstore.com. Prior to that, Luhnow spent five years with the global management consulting firm of McKinsey and Company, where he was elevated to Associate Principal shortly before leaving to become an entrepreneur.

Luhnow is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with dual Bachelor of Science degrees in economics and engineering. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Abbamondi spent four seasons (2004-2007) with Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department, most recently as the Senior Director of Labor Economics. During his tenure at MLB, Abbamondi assisted MLB's clubs in salary arbitration, player contracts and negotiations, revenue sharing and MLB's Rules and Basic Agreement. He was a member of Commissioner Selig's staff that successfully negotiated the 2006-11 Basic Agreement with the Players Association, and he helped develop the new revenue sharing system that is a key part of that Basic Agreement. Abbamondi also served as a consultant for MLB Advanced Media and attended MLB's Scout Development Program in 2007.

2010 ST. LOUIS CARDINALS MEDIA GUIDE

WHITEY HERZOG

2010 Hall of Fame Inductee

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog, and the redeemer has been rewarded with induction into the Hall of Fame.

Herzog was elected by the Veterans Committee on December 7, 2009, receiving 14 votes from the 16-member committee that picked managers and umpires. He will be enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y., on July 25.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,232 through 2009) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October.

At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 32nd on baseball's all-time list. He was named the 1982 Major League Manger of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and '94.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963). As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Two of the Herzog's principal acquisitions with the Cardinals – relief pitcher Bruce Sutter from the Chicago Cubs in December of 1980 and shortstop Ozzie Smith from the San Diego Padres in February of 1982 – are fellow Hall of Famers. A total of 42 enshrinees spent part of their careers with the Redbirds, and Herzog is the 11th to have managed the club. The others are Roger Bresnahan, Roger Connor, Frank Frisch, Rogers Hornsby, Miller Huggins, Bill McKechnie, Kid Nichols, Branch Rickey, Schoendienst and Billy Southworth.

MANAGER, COACHES AND PLAYERS

Tony La Russa completed his14th season as the Cardinals manager in 2009 by guiding the team to a National League Central Division title, his 8th division title with St. Louis. On October 26, 2009, he signed a one-year contract to be the Manager of the Cardinals for a team-leading 15th season. His current 14 seasons are the most continuous years of managerial service with the organization, surpassing Hall of Famer Red Schoendienst (12). La Russa has guided his Cardinal teams to a franchise record 1,232 wins and is tops on the Cards all-time games managed list with 2,267 games.

With the 2009 Central Division title, La Russa has led his teams to eight division titles, two National League Pennants and a 10th World Championship title during his time with St. Louis. In addition to ranking first on the Cardinals all-time games managed list (2,267), he is the 17th manager in Major League history to surpass 2,000 games managed with one team. He currently ranks 3rd on Major League Baseball's all-time managerial wins list with 2,552 and 2nd in all-time games managed with 4,773. With the Redbirds World Series title in 2006, La Russa joined Sparky Anderson as the only managers in Major League history to have won a World Series in both the American and National League, and he and Leo Durocher are the only managers in Major League history to have 500 or more wins with three different teams.

La Russa's Cardinal teams have finished above .500 in 11 of his 14 seasons, including the 2004 and 2005 seasons in which the team recorded 105 and 100 wins, respectively, making La Russa just the second Cardinals manager to oversee two 100-win campaigns. His Cardinals teams have finished no lower than 3rd place in all but three seasons and they have held 1st place or been within a game of 1st place during the month of September in nine of the past 10 seasons. Prior to 2007's 78-84 finish, the Cardinals were the lone National League team to have posted a winning record in every season since 2000.

The 105 Cardinals victories in 2004 were the most by any La Russa-managed club in his career and the 105 wins tied for the second most in Cardinals' franchise history with the 1943 and 1944 clubs. The team's 105-57 record was tops in the Majors in 2004. La Russa was honored that season with the Negro League Museum's C.I. Taylor Award as Manager of the Year. Tony has also been honored as the N.L. Manager of the Year by the BBWAA in 2002 when the Cardinals won 97 games after he guided the team to the N.L. Central title in an emotion-filled season.

La Russa was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, after managing for 17 years in the American League with Oakland and Chicago. In his first N.L. season, La Russa guided the Cardinals to the 1996 Central Division title and was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, La Russa's honors include Manager of the Year recognition in five seasons, eight N.L. Central Division titles, two N.L. pennants, five A.L. Western Division titles, three A.L. pennants and two World Series championships. He has served as manager of the 2007 and 2005 National League All-Star teams and was a coach for the N.L. All-Star team in both 2003 and 2009.

La Russa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class- AA Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox. In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, La Russa quickly established his managerial acumen. In 1983, he guided Chicago to the A.L. West title and the best record in the major leagues, 99-63. He was rewarded with Manager of the Year accolades from the Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, La Russa's White Sox were tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and took over as the Oakland manager on July 7. In just his second full year with the A's, La Russa managed the club to an A.L. West-record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the 1988 World Series. He again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and the Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, La Russa guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, La Russa became the 40th manager in major league history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is Oakland's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional career spanned 16 seasons.

La Russa, the 48th manager in Cardinals history, actually was a member of the organization once previously, when he was a player-coach for the Cardinals Triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, La Russa passed the bar exam in December 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants, Brooklyn and Providence, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1913-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25). All of La Russa's predecessors are in the Hall of Fame.

La Russa, 65, makes his off-season home in Alamo, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). La Russa was born 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is the founder and chairperson of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) and is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care. He teamed with author H.G. Bissinger ("Friday Night Lights") on a book titled "Three Nights in August" that was released in 2005. La Russa was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)

PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 64, will be serving in his 15th season as the Cardinals' pitching coach after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. This season marks his 31st as a pitching coach - the most all-time in the majors, passing Galen Cisco's 28 years.

Allowing the fewest walks in the National League in 2009, his pitching staff had the fourth-lowest ERA (3.66) in the N.L. and the 2nd-lowest earned run mark since Duncan came on the scene with St. Louis.

His 2005 pitching staff posted the Cardinals first ERA (3.45) title since 1969 and the starting staff recorded 81 wins, the most by a Cardinals team since the beginning of Divisional play. His 2004 pitching staff finished percentage points behind Atlanta for the National League's ERA title (3.75), while the team's 3.01 bullpen ERA ranked among the league's best as did the team's 89 quality starts. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with eight Cy Young Award winners: he coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley, LaMarr Hoyt and Chris Carpenter; and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer and Mike Cuellar in Baltimore.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, David (Shelley) and Chris. Shelley was drafted by the New York Yankees in the June 2001 draft and made his Major League debut on July 20, 2007. Chris was a supplemental first-round draft pick by the Cardinals in the June 1999 draft and spent three-plus seasons as part of the Cardinals Major League team before a mid-season trade to Boston in 2009. Dave was honored at the January 2009 St. Louis Baseball Writers Dinner with a Meritorious Service Award. He and Jeanine make their off-season home near Table Rock Lake, Mo.

MARTIN (MARTY) LEE MASON (38)

BULLPEN COACH

Mason, 52, enters his 11th season as bullpen coach after working from 1997-1999 as the organization's Triple-A pitching coach. He begins his 25th year as a coach in the Cardinals system, dating back to his first assignment at St. Petersburg in 1986. After two seasons there, Mason coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas from 1990-96.

A righthanded pitcher originally signed by the New York Yankees in 1980, Mason was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. While in the Yankees' system, he led the South Atlantic League with an .846 winning percentage in 1981, when he was 11-2 at Greensboro. At the Cardinals' Springfield affiliate in 1983, Mason ranked second in the Midwest League with 54 appearances and third in games finished, with 46. Mason also pitched for Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, Ky. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on Feb. 22, 1986, and the couple have two daughters, Brandy Leigh and Lindsey. Mason enjoys bass fishing in his spare time. Mason rides and builds custom Harley Davidson motorcycles and vintage dirt bikes. He is also a U.S.C.G. licensed Master Captain, and runs a light tackle guide service during the winter in Stuart, Fla. He received an Outstanding Achievement award from the St. Louis BBWAA for his work with the Cardinals relief staff in 2005.

MARK DAVID McGWIRE (25)

HITTING COACH

Mark McGwire was named as the Cardinals hitting coach on October 26, 2009, his first return to uniform since announcing his retirement as a player following the 2001 season. McGwire, who along with the Chicago Cubs Sammy Sosa, inspired a renaissance of the National Pastime in 1998 as he blasted his way to a then major league record 70 home runs, eclipsing Roger Maris' 1961 record of 61 homers. He currently ranks T8th with Alex Rodriguez on Major League Baseball's all-time home run list (583) and holds the majors single-season rookie record for home runs with 49, set in 1987 with the Oakland A's.

A 12-time Major League All-Star selection, McGwire played parts of 12 seasons with the Oakland A's (1986-97) and four-plus seasons for the Cardinals (1997-2001).

"Big Mac" was selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June 1994 amateur draft out of the University of Southern California. He was voted the consensus American League Rookie of the Year in 1987 when his 49 homers led the league and tied for the Major League high. He hit a dramatic game winning homer in the ninth inning of Game 3 in 1988 World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers and was a key cog in the A's World Championship title run in 1989 when Oakland defeated the San Francisco Giants in the "Earthquake Series". He hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs in 1996, becoming just the 14th player in Major League history to hit 50 home runs.

In 1997, Mark became only the second Major Leaguer, after Babe Ruth, to hit 50 or more homers in consecutive seasons and he became the first player to hit 20 home runs with two different teams in one season, hitting 24 homers for the Cardinals after arriving in a July 31 trade from Oakland. He matched his previous single-season high for home runs on Sept. 16 vs. LA, when he launched a 517-foot blast off the facade above the left-center field scoreboard — at the time the longest estimated homer at Busch Stadium. Earlier that same day he'd signed a contract extension with the Cardinals through the year 2000.

In addition to breaking the single-season home record in 1998, Mark led all Major Leaguers with a .752 slugging average, second in N.L. history to Rogers Hornsby's .756 average in 1925. One of that season's more memorable blasts was a 545-foot shot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16 that caromed off the St. Louis Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field. Mark connected for historic home run No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tue., Sept. 8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Forneris. In the Sept. 27 season finale vs. MON, Mark hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

He followed up his record-breaking season by hitting 65 home runs in 1999 to lead all Major Leaguers for the fourth straight season. He joined the exclusive 500 career home run club on Aug. 5 vs. SD, clouting a pair of homers off Andy Ashby: No. 500 was a 451-foot solo blast to center field; No. 501 was a 479-foot solo drive to left-center. He became only the second player, after Harmon Killebrew, to have a multihomer game while reaching 500 homers. He was named to baseball's All-Century Team during the 1999 World Series. At the time of Mark's contract signing in 1997, he announced that he was founding the Mark McGwire Foundation for Children to assist agencies that work with child-abuse victims...Mark and his family reside in southern California.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)

FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 60, enters his 15th season as the Cardinals' first-base coach and his 25th season on Tony La Russa's coaching staff. McKay was La Russa's first-base coach in Oakland from 1989-95 and handled bullpen and bench coach duties for the A's beginning in 1984. In all, McKay spent 16 years as a player or coach in the Oakland system.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minor leagues. He broke into the majors in a big way, homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on Aug. 22, 1975. He hit safely in 21 of his first 22 major league games.

After the 1976 season, the Twins lost McKay in the expansion draft to Toronto, where McKay was the starting third baseman in the first game in Blue Jays franchise history. After splitting time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979, McKay signed with the A's in 1980. He played for Oakland through 1982, helping the A's to the 1981 Western Division crown by batting .288 in the second half and belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach.

McKay attended Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash., and Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. Born in Vancouver, B.C., McKay was inducted into the Canadian National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001. He and his wife, Lene, who is from Denmark, make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz. Their son, Cody, was a catcher in the Cardinals organization from 2004-2005. Dave and Lena enjoy spending time in the offseason with Cody, his wife, Tiernan, and their three children: Eden, Rocco and Gioia.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)

THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo is in his 11th season as the Cardinals' third-base coach, after joining the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. Upon ending his playing career, he was a field instructor in the Cardinals farm system in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in 1998.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 46, now makes his home in St. Louis County with his wife, Zenaida, their four children, and granddaughter, Gabriela. He was voted top utility man on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 70, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 23rd on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 10 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984. He was voted leftfielder on the All Busch Stadium II team at the end of the 2005 season. The National League has named the award given to the N.L.'s stolen base champion the "Lou Brock Award" in honor of Lou's success on the basepaths.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is in his 15th season as Cardinals special instructor. Gibson, 74, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 10 retired by the Cardinals. Gibson was voted top starting pitcher on the All Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb. His son, Chris, was signed by the Cardinals in January of 2008 and spent playing time in both the Cardinals and Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Red Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 68 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager. His 12 seasons at the helm of the Redbirds stood as the longest tenure in club history until current manager, Tony La Russa, managed his 13th season in 2008. Schoendienst managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

The player development department is responsible for the instruction and education of players on nine minor league teams, including two international clubs. There are three arms to the department, all reporting to Jeff Luhnow and, ultimately, John Mozeliak: the director of minor league operations; pitching instruction staffs; roving instructors, team managers and hitting coaches.

JOHN VUCH
DIRECTOR OF MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

John Vuch is in his 23rd season in Baseball Operations and his 32nd overall season with the Cardinals. Vuch began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

Vuch was promoted to director of minor league operations on December 12, 2006. Vuch is responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system, and is involved with the club's minor league player personnel decisions. He was promoted to his current position after a year steered more toward Major League baseball operations. John had previously worked for several years in the player development department, serving as the main contact for Cardinals' minor league players. Vuch also serves as the official MLB statistician for many home games and is responsible for estimating the distance of all home runs hit at Busch Stadium.

John was awarded the Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the Baseball Writer's Association of America at their 51st annual dinner on January 19, 2009.

A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife Maria reside in south St. Louis County with their children Jack (15), Hayley (12) and Anna (9).

The scouting department has employees devoted to searching for baseball talent in four unique areas, including professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyse and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

CHRIS MALONEY — MANAGER

Maloney is in his fourth season as Memphis skipper. He served two seasons as Springfield (AA) manager from 2005-06 prior to his promotion to Memphis. He returned to the Cardinals organization in 2005 after having spent three years in the Astros organization as manager of the Triple-A New Orleans Zephyrs. Maloney posted a 212-220 record with the Zephyrs, including a first place finish in 2002.

The 2009 Redbirds was a major accomplishment as Maloney led them to the Pacific Coast League championship by sweeping through Albuquerque and Sacramento in six games before dropping the AAA title game to Durham in 11 innings. The Redbirds were led by Cardinals' Minor League Player-of-the-year, Allen Craig, and won the division and PCL Championship despite finishing the season without one organizationaal player-of-the-week or all-star representative.

Maloney's previous tenure with the Cardinals included Manager of the Year honors in three different leagues: the New York-Penn League while leading Hamilton to a 56-20 (.737) record in 1992, the highest winning percentage of any winning percentage by a Cardinals minor league team; the South Atlantic League with Savannah in 1993, and the Texas League with Arkansas in 1998. His 1993 Savannah squad posted a 94-48 record and captured the league title as Maloney was named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Manager of the Year. In his 15 seasons as a manager in the Cardinals system, Maloney has compiled a 857-742 (.536) record.

His work with young Cardinals players was formally recognized when he was presented with the 2006 and 2009 George Kissell Awards, presented annually for excellence in player development. The 2009 award made Maloney the first two-time winner.

Maloney, 49, is a native of Jackson, Miss. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1983 and was later signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets. The former outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played one minor league season at Springfield, Ill. He and wife Laurie have a daughter, Ann Bradley, and son, Jake.

MARK BUDASKA — HITTING COACH

Mark begins his third season as Memphis hitting coach after serving in the same capacity from 2004-07 at Triple-A Pawtucket in the Boston Red Sox system. He had been in the Red Sox organization since 2002, when he was hitting coach at Double-A Portland of the Eastern League

In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Double-A Little Rock affiliate in the Texas League. The Travelers won the Texas League Championship that year and ranked fourth in the league with a .266 team average.

Budaska was a hitting coach and first base coach for a major league team in Taiwan from 1998-2000.

The former switch-hitting outfielder played 10 years in the Oakland organization, including stints at the big league level in 1978 and 1981.

BLAISE ILSLEY — PITCHING COACH

Ilsley enters his third season as the pitching coach at Memphis. He was promoted to the Triple-A club on January 17, 2008 after working six seasons as the pitching coach at the Cardinals Double-A affiliate. For the second season in a row, Ilsley's pitchers recorded the lowest ERA in the Pacific Coast League. In 2008, the Redbirds had a 4.34 and it lowered to 4.05 in 2009 as Memphis finished 77-67 en route to the PCL playoffs and eventually the league championship.

The Redbirds pitching staff was nothing less than outstanding in the playoffs going 6-0 with a 1.00 ERA in 54 innings, allowing just 41 hits and striking out 54 batters. During the regular season, Memphis ranked second in hits allowed and runs allowed, while finishing fourth in strikeouts. Ilsley was honored by the Cardinals following the 2004 season with the George Kissell Award, presented annually by the Cardinals for excellence in player development. He had joined the Cardinals from the Baltimore Orioles' organization after serving as the pitching coach for Bluefield in the Appalachian League (R) during the 2001 campaign. Ilsley began his coaching career in 1999 with Winnipeg of the Independent Northern League and moved on to coach at Sioux Falls in 2000. He spent 14 seasons playing in the minor leagues with Houston, St. Louis, Chicago Cubs, Philadelphia, Cleveland and Montreal. He concluded his playing career in 1998. He appeared in 10 games in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1994, making his Major League debut on April 4 of that year. A fourth round pick of the Houston Astros in 1985, Ilsley was named to the Topps Rookie League All-Star team that year after leading the New York-Penn League with 116 strikeouts in 90 innings for Class-A Auburn. He combined to win 20 games at two minor league stops in 1986. He is a 1982 graduate of Alpena High School (Mich.) and attended Indiana State University. Ilsely, 46, resides in Sarasota, Fla., with his wife, Jo Anne.

He led his teams to the postseason in four of the last five seasons, narrowly missing in 2008 despite having the North Division's best overall record (76-64). In his first season at Springfield in 2007, he guided the club to the Texas League championship series. His Palm Beach clubs made back-to-back postseason trips, including a 2005 Florida State League Championship.

He is in his ninth season as a coach in the Cardinals farm system with this his fifth campaign as a manager. Overall, he owns a 364-327 (.527) record as a bench boss. In 2004, he served as the hitting coach at Peoria (A) and guided the Midwest League's top hitting club (.277 team batting average). The previous two years (2002-2003), Warner was a coach at Class-A New Jersey. He made his coaching debut in 2001 at Double-A New Haven.

In 2000, Warner served as the batting practice pitcher for the Major League club. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 17th round in 1991 as a shortstop out of the University of Wyoming and spent nine years playing in the Redbirds farm system. In 1999, he hit .290 with 11 home runs and 33 RBI for Memphis while playing several positions.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ — MANAGER

Rodriguez enters his first season as a manager in the Cardinals organization after spending the 2009 season as the hitting coach in Johnson City.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez came from the Florida Marlins organization, where he was hitting coach at Jamestown in 2007-08. He had been with the Marlins since 2002, when he began as a manager at Jamestown.

Rodriguez served as a hitting coach in the Expos organization in 2000-01. Prior to joining the Expos, he spent 17 seasons as a coach in the New York Yankees system, at the University of Miami, Miami-Dade Community College and at the nationally prominant high school baseball program at Westminster Christian High School (FL).

Rodriguez, 53, also has scouting experience with Houston, Los Angeles Angels, New York Mets and Milwaukee organizations.

In October of 2002, he led an amateur team filled with draft-eligible prospects to the championship of the Perfect Game/Baseball America World Wood Bat tournament held in Jupiter, Fla.

Has a son, Sean, who is a middle infielder in the Tampa Bay Rays system. Sean made his Major League debut on April 18, 2008 versus Seattle for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

Mitchell Page returns to the Cardinals organization after working as the hitting coach for the Washington Nationals from 2006-07, mentoring both Alfonso Soriano (Nationals franchise record 46 HR, Silver Slugger) and Ryan Zimmerman (20 HR and 110 RBI at the age of 21) during the 2006 season. He served as the Nationals minor league hitting coordinator in 2005.

The Cardinals ranked first in the National League in batting (.275) when he was the hitting coach for St. Louis from 2001-04, and were third in the majors (Boston .283, Los Angeles Angels .278). St. Louis' 2004 club led the National League in runs (757), hits (1,544) and slugging percentage (.460).

Prior to working in St. Louis, Page was the Cardinals organizational hitting coordinator for two years and served as the hitting coach for Triple-A Memphis in 1998. Previous major league coaching experience included three years as the Kansas City Royals first base coach (1995-97).

Page enjoyed an eight-year major league career with Oakland (1977-83) and Pittsburgh (1984), in which he batted .266 with 72 home runs and 259 RBI in 673 games. He was named American League Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News in 1977 after batting .307 with 21 HR, 75 RBI and 42 stolen bases.

Page resides in Glendale, Ariz. and has one son Kyle, who was drafted by the Nationals in 2006 (did not sign) while playing at Brevard Community College. Page played the role of Angels' player "Abascal" in the 1994 movie "Angels in the Outfield."

TIM LEVEQUE — PITCHING COACH

Leveque begins his third season as pitching coach in the Cardinals organization and first at Quad Cities. He has moved up a level each season starting in Johnson City in 2008 before earning a promotion to Batavia in 2009.

Leveque was hired by the Cardinals in March of 2006 as a pitching specialist who coordinated and studied video of draft-eligible pitchers. He will continue these tasks prior to the start of the each season.

Leveque attended and played baseball at Crespi High School in Encino, Calif., the same school that produced former Cardinals pitcher Jeff Suppan. He was drafted out of high school by the Detroit Tigers but did not sign, instead choosing to attend and play college baseball at the University of Michigan.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Leveque is single and currently resides in Northridge, Calif.

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Dann Bilardello will become the new manager of Batavia after working as the Cardinals Minor League catching coordinator for the past three seasons.

The former Major League catcher has four years of minor league managing experience in the Boston Red Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations.

Bilardello coached the Wilmington Blue Rocks in the Carolina League during the 2005 season and spent three years managing for the Dodgers in Great Falls of the Pioneer League in 2002 and the following two years with Columbus in the South Atlantic League. He led Great Falls to a Pioneer League Championship in 2002 with a record of 47-28 and 4-1 in the playoffs.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (8) and RBI (38). He hit his first home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 50, resides in Vero Beach, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as the Palm Beach High-A level. Trey is a professional golf caddie for Jeff Brehaut on the Nationwide Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and played volleyball for three years.

JOE KRUZEL — HITTING COACH

Joe Kruzel begins his third year as a hitting coach in the Cardinals organization and first in Batavia, previously serving as the hitting coach at Quad Cities from 2008-09.

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization. In 2007, he was manager at rookie-level Billings of the Pioneer League. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran college coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (OH) University in 2005. He spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach (1989-92) and then head baseball coach (1993-2003). In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 44, resides in Hamilton, Ohio.

ARTHUR "ACE" ADAMS — PITCHING COACH

Ace Adams will enter his third season as a pitching coach in the Cardinals organization and first in Batavia. His previous two seasons were spent serving as the pitching coach at Quad Cities.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, he was a pitching coach in the Boston Red Sox system, with his last assignment for the Eastern League champion Portland Sea Dogs in 2006. He spent 2005 as the Wilmington Blue Rocks pitching coach and held the same role for the Augusta Greenjackets in 2004.

Adams coached the Florida Marlins Single-A Jupiter affiliate in 2002, when his pitching staff helped lead the team to an 81-57 record while compiling an overall 3.41 ERA. He also coached the Expos Florida State League entry in Jupiter from 1999-2001 and was the pitching coach for the Expos' short-season Vermont club in 1998.

Adams entered the professional coaching ranks in 1997 with the Montreal Expos organization after 13 years as a college coach at the University of Michigan (1989-96), Brandeis (1986-89), Harvard (1985) and Dartmouth (1984). The Wellesley, Mass., native was a traveling batting practice pitcher for the Red Sox from 1984-85.

THE DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father, and a humble man. A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

CARDINALS RETIRED NUMBERS

In the 118-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 12 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owners box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (14) have recognized more individuals with retired numbers. The honored Redbirds' jersey numbers appear in two areas; encircled in a series below the main scoreboard and above the Coca Cola Scoreboard Patio in right-center field and on the left-field wall at the new Busch Stadium.

Along with the 12 Cardinals retired numbers is that of Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, whose uniform No. 42 was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his breaking the big-league color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1962.

The most recent honory was Hall of Fame closer Bruce Sutter, who returned to Busch Stadium for the ceremony on a soggy day prior to a rainout versus the San Francisco Giants on September 17, 2006.

OZZIE SMITH
SHORTSTOP

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 180 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success of the 1980s, and became one of the city's most popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly hit .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career high of six home runs and 54 RBI. He subsequently stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast - on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer - was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 4, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375), chances accepted (12,624) and double plays (1,590) by a shortstop. He led the N.L. in fielding percentage eight times and had a career .978 mark, fifth in baseball annals.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games, and when he retired following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On St. Louis' career lists, Smith ranks second in walks (876); third in games (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and stolen bases (433); sixth in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and ninth in doubles (338).

Smith was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, his first year on the ballot, receiving nearly 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Fans voted Smith shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on October 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove Team, created to honor the Rawlings Gold Glove Award's 50th anniversary.

RED SCHOENDIENST

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals' baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club three years after signing out of nearby Germantown, Ill. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. Originally an outfielder, Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base the following year. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average - second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers at .344 - with 15 home runs and 79 RBI. On June 14, 1956, Schoendienst was involved in a surprising trade when he was sent to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch hits (53); fifth in games (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); sixth in doubles (352); and seventh in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times either led or tied for the N.L. lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 over the Red Sox and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, now the second-longest in franchise history behind Tony La Russa.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland Athletics in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee.

STAN MUSIAL

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial

BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1963.

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,599) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fifth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) Joe Medwick (.335) and Albert Pujols (.334). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season. He immediately began a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples and earned the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of three World Championship teams (1942, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He has the fourth-most hits in baseball history - behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot Hall of Fame selection in 1969, being named on 93 percent of the ballots. Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the organization and served as general manager in 1967, when the Cardinals won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox. More than anything else, the personable Musial has been a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium on the newly-dedicated Musial Plaza with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight."

ENOS SLAUGHTER

OUTFIELDER

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/16 at Roxboro, North Carolina.
DIED: 8/12/02 at Durham, North Carolina.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the scored tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained there as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second base with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of five straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average - second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves at .330 - and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield cast of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history, and helped lead the Redbirds to the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1946. All he did is top the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs both years.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On St. Louis' career lists, he ranks second in RBI (1,148); third in triples (135) and walks (839); fourth in games (1,820), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); fifth in at-bats (6,775) and doubles (366); and 11th in home runs (146). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

KEN BOYER
THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri. DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

Since 1900, only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle on two occasions. It's Ken Boyer, who accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory, and he contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game by the score of 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists, Boyer ranks third in home runs (255); fifth in RBI (1,001) and total bases (3,011); sixth in at-bats (6,334); and seventh in games (1,667), runs (988) and hits (1,855) and ninth in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for the second most in club history behind Stan Musial's nine.

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. East Division the following year. But in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got untracked, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas. DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974.

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' post-1900 history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout to win Game 7 by the score of 11-0.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On St. Louis' career lists, Dean ranks second in strikeouts (1,095); third in winning percentage (.641); sixth in wins (134), complete games (141) and shutouts (23); and ninth in innings pitched (1,738).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1953.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979.

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he holds the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering the mark of 104 by Maury Wills during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases to become the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium.

Brock paid immediate dividends in St. Louis, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) is a World Series record, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 - Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427), hits (2,713), doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and 10th in RBI (814). He was a six-time N.L. All-Star.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a baserunning consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (baserunning and outfield play) since 1995. He was a first-ballot Hall of Fame inductee in 1985.

Fans voted Brock the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 1/8/53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006.

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made famous the split-fingered fastball, was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start to a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969 – with chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowing throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck of Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals' right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and 20th through 2006. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind Jason Isringhausen (217), Lee Smith (160) and Todd Worrell (129).

BOB GIBSON
PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975.

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,884.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for ninth in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned Series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente broke Gibson's right leg July 15. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18 and then go 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts in the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox.

The postseason dominance was an indicator of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight complete-game starts in Series play. Gibson, the series MVP, totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, clouting 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Gloves. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981, his first year of eligibility. "Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

Fans voted Gibson the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005, as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

PROMINENT CARDINALS WHO WORE NO. 45

- Von McDaniel, 1957-58

ROGERS HORNSBY

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: 4/27/1896 at Winters, Texas. DIED: 1/5/1963 at Chicago, Illinois.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure).

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby. Only two playes have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Hornsby, primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals' history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On May 31, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, as well, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees.

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 20, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Hornsby ranks first in batting average (.359); second in triples (143); third in runs (1,089), hits (2,110) and total bases (3,342); fourth in doubles (367) and RBI (1,072); seventh in home runs (193); seventh in walks (660); eighth in at-bats (5,881); and ninth in games (1,580). He played 997 games at second base, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1942.

Retired Numbers

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.

PRESIDENT

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.
BORN: 3/28/1899 at St. Louis, Missouri. DIED: 9/29/89 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s, Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of "new" Busch Stadium. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the decade of the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the City of St. Louis' most popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK

BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: 8/21/1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts.
DIED: 6/18/2002 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-2001.
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002.

He never swung a bat or thew a pitch. Yet, Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals - perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX radio from 1954 to 2001. He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals' fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals' victory was "That's a winner," and those words are printed on Buck's retired number pennant.

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked along side another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cards' third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the privilege of calling games with his son Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck was inducted into the broadcaster's wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987. He was honored with a statue outside the Cardinals' executive offices at Busch Stadium in 1998.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals' baseball. He broadcast several World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland Athletics. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS-TV's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991, and he also worked for ABC and NBC.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS, and he was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1996, working with former NFL head coach Hank Stram. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extends well beyond his trademark gravely voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community.

When Buck passed away in June 2002, some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:
Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

RADIO

KTRS Radio, St. Louis, will be in its fifth full season as the flagship station of the St. Louis Cardinals. The club boasts a network of 100-plus stations covering nine states. KTRS will broadcast all 2010 games and Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday spring training games with commentary by Mike Shannon and John Rooney.

TELEVISION

KSDK, St. Louis, will televise 20 regular-season games and two spring training games locally and to a network of 40 stations reaching eight states. Commentary will be provided by Jay Randolph and Rick Horton. FSN Midwest, a regional cable network, will televise 130 games and five spring training games. Commentary is provided by Al Hrabosky and Dan McLaughlin.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 39th season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcastor for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FSN Midwest.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the Cardinals regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, Shannon hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Whitey Ford as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series. His home run off Boston's Gary Bell was the key blow in Game 3 of the 1967 Series and his solo shot in Game 7 of the 1968 Series was the Cardinals only run off Mickey Lolich as the Tigers clinched the Series.

His career was cut short by nephritis, a kidney disease, in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his popularity and performance on the air and as a player on the field. A few of the numerous awards and honors Shannon has received throughout his career include the Missouri prep Player of the Year in 1957 for basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year, St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, St. Louis Variety Club 1996 Champion for Kids and the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter. In November 2009, he was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires.

Mike, 70, resides in Illinois. He, and his late wife, Judy, have six children and 10 grandchildren.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his fifth year of broadcasting Cardinals games with partner Mike Shannon. Rooney, a Richmond, Mo. native, came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV and 17 seasons following in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privalege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 54, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds. John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and also called University of Missouri basketball games for 20 seasons. His major league baseball radio assignments have included the Division Series (1995-97, 2002-03), League Championship Series (1987-97), All-Star Games (1990-1998, 2009), World Series (1987-97), and the FOX Saturday afternoon "Game of the Week" (1996-98). John also has broadcast several college football bowls as well as the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, including the Final Four (1984-2002).

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Colleen and Rachel.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be calling games on Cardinals telecasts this year for his 26th season. It marks his 14th straight-season in his role as color commentator on FSN Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985 and through the years has worked for Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 60, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including the Health Careers Foundation. He participates in the Cardinals Legend Camp each off-season and hosts an annual golf tournament, "The Mad Hungarian Legends Classic" with the Health Careers Foundation a beneficiary of both. In September 2004 he helped open "Al Hrabosky's Ballpark Saloon" just south of Busch Stadium. He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin enters his 11th year as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts. He covers all road games and several home games on FSN Midwest, as well as serving as a pre-game host and analyst on FSN broadcasts. Dan has also filled in on Cardinals radio broadcasts.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin, 36, has worked 14 years as a regular on St. Louis Blues telecasts on FSN Midwest and CW11, and has also been a pregame, intermission and postgame analyst for Blues radio broadcasts. He has also served as a television play-by-play voice for the University of Missouri men's basketball team, Missouri Valley Conference and the Mid-Continent Conference. Dan is a regular contributor to the national magazine show "Fox Sports Net Across America."

Before joining the Cardinals, McLaughlin did baseball play-by-play at the collegiate level. A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, he began his professional broadcasting career in 1996 as a sports talk show host at KMOX Radio.

McLaughlin is involved in several local charities as well as hosting "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament to benefit the Special Education Foundation". Dan and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son, Luke (7/12/05), daughter, Avery (2/19/07) and twins Olivia and Barrett (2/11/09).

JAY RANDOLPH

Jay Randolph returned to the Cardinals broadcast booth in 2007 to call games on KSDK TV, just as he did previously from 1973-1987. He also worked alongside Johnny Bench in 1988 for Cincinnati Reds telecasts and in 1993-2001 for the Florida Marlins as the first television play-by-play voice for the organization.

Golf was Randolph's first passion as he won several amateur championships in the late '50's. He began his career in broadcasting, however, in 1958 taking the job of sports and promotion director at WHAR-Radio in Clarksburg, WV. After five years in West Virginia and two years in Dallas with the Cowboys and Southern Methodist University, he joined KMOX in Saint Louis in 1966 to call the football Cardinals and be the original television voice of the St. Louis Blues. In 1968 he became Sports Director and anchor for KSDK (NBC-TV). Over 28 years with KSDK, Randolph did play-by-play for the NFL, college football, PGA Tour, PGA Champions Tour, LPGA, Major League Baseball's Game of the Week, Pro Bowler's Tour, three Olympic Games and the NCAA Basketball Tournament. He hosted the nationally syndicated "The Golf Show" in the late 1980's and early 90's and for 22 years was lead announcer for the Big 8 Basketball Network. Most recently, he broadcast the PGA Champions Tour tournaments on CNBC from 2000 through 2003.

In August 2006 he received Delta Tau Delta Alumni Achievement award at their convention in Indianapolis. Randolph was inducted into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame in January 2005 and into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mo. in 2007. He and his wife, Sue, reside in St. Louis and have three children; Jay, Brian and Rebecca, and two grandchildren, Jennings and Grace.

RICK HORTON

Rick Horton will provide color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts for a fourth season as well as continuing his role as a baseball analyst for FSN Midwest for a fourth year. He provided color commentary for three previous seasons on KPLR telecasts (2004-'06) and was a co-anchor on the WB11 post-game show, Extra Innings, in 2003. Horton has filled in on KMOX Radio and Cardinals television broadcasts since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Rick spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings with 55 strikeouts. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and also works with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies.

Horton, 50, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children; Jen, 23, and Drew, 19.

We strive to improve the lives of hundreds more children every year through ball field construction, cash grant distribution, complimentary ticket programs, baseball and health clinics, school programs, auctions and public involvement. Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies is the Cardinals Care youth development program that supports kids both on and off the baseball field. This special league provides all the uniforms, gloves, bats, balls and other equipment, as well as extensive off-field guidance in the areas of health, education, mentoring and cultural arts. Currently Redbird Rookies has 20 leagues, serving nearly 4,000 kids in the St. Louis area and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Rookies are invited to attend health fairs (left) where they learn to develop positive habits of eating right and staying active—and they get to hang out with Fredbird (above).

Each rookie gets fitted for a complementary bike helmet. In addition, they also receive free vision and hearing screenings.

The Rookies Readers program offers a grand prize of playing a game at Busch Stadium.

Rookie leagues are invited to attend a home game and parade around the field.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches are out in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans and those in need.

Fundraising Events

The annual Winter Warm-Up and Jerseys Off Our Backs days are major fundraising initiatives which combine a great opportunity for the fans to interact with players while donating to a great cause. Thanks to the generous assistance of our players, coaches, staff, volunteers, sponsors, and especially our loyal fans, these events continue to be a tremendous success.

Neighborhood Ball Fields

In an effort to assist in the revitalization of communities throughout our region, Cardinals Care works with local neighborhoods to identify and fulfill their needs. Building ball fields and establishing baseball leagues gives youth the opportunity to learn to play ball and instills the importance of giving back.
