The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 48th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2020. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 84,977,012 fans since 1973, 'The K' with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

Last offseason, the Royals replaced the original foul poles that had stood at the ballpark since the first game in 1973. Netting was also extended to cover the entirety of foul territory.

The Royals drew over 2 million fans to the park three seasons in a row (2015-17), something that hadn't been accomplished in three-straight years since the club did it in seven consecutive seasons, from 1985-91. 'The K' has played host to two World Series and an All-Star Game over the past eight seasons.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of this true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touches each and every fan entering the park.

After debuting the spectacular 84' x 104' Crown Vision HD scoreboard for the 2008 season, the Royals put the finishing touches on one of the most majestic and visually exciting scoreboards in the world with a brand-new interactive crown rising about 40 feet above Crown Vision.

Upon entering through the larger and grander entrances, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 360-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. An increase in both concessions and restrooms limit the time spent away from your seats.

Fans who want a field level view of the action can sit in the Crown Club, behind home plate, or in two field-level suites, located down the line from both the home and visiting dugouts.

Introduced in 2016, the Craft & Draft featuring Boulevard Brewing Company is a unique approach to the social experience of baseball located in the left field corner of The K on the Loge Level. The area replaced the former .390 Bar and Grill. The dining area provides 24 beers on tap and 50 bottled beers as well as a menu that takes a handcrafted approach to gastro pub fare with an emphasis on fresh and local ingredients.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans of Kansas City entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several brand-new locations to take in a game. Unveiled in 2012 was the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with Evergy. At the time, the array was the largest in MLB. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

The outfield overhaul now gives Royals fans a chance to sit and enjoy the game from a venue not previously offered. The Outfield Box seats in left-center field sit directly behind the outfield wall and in front of the world-famous fountains. Those seats hug the newly renovated Miller Lite Fountain Bar, which is built on the old JumboTron base. The expanded area offer a variety of unique amenities, including two group areas, lawn/tailgate games and photo opportunities.

In front of the fountains in left-center are the Sonic Slam seats. Right-center field offers a "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area is most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the iconic fountains.

The left-field area is home to the 7,000-square foot Royals Hall of Fame, presented by Commerce Bank, which opened in 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as memorabilia that will delight Royals fans. Behind the Hall of Fame, fans will find the kids area complete with the Price Chopper Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there is state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at the Sluggerrr's Putt-Putt, a Royals-themed carousel, the base run and several kids-friendly food options, including Belfonte's Ice Cream Shop.

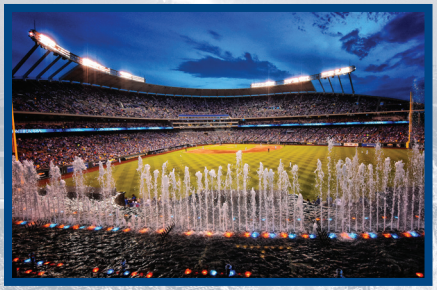

Also in left field is the set for the Royals' official pre- and post-game show, Royals Live on FOX Sports Kansas City. Throughout the season, broadcasters Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery will host shows from this set.

Fans move along the outfield "Walk of Fame" toward Sweet Baby Rays BBQ and the Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts Baseline Bar and the Blue Moon Taproom, which features specialty beers that can only be found at Kauffman Stadium, or at the Blue Moon Brewery in Colorado. Next to Rivals you will find the Price Chopper Patio which offers a unique view of the game for groups of 40-60 people located just above the iconic Kauffman Stadium Fountains.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, features wider concourses, fan amenities, the Konica Minolta Diamond Club premium seating area and 5,000-square foot retail store. On the 3rd base side of the Konica Minolta Diamond Club, the Craft Cocktail Bar, presented by Kansas City's own Restless Spirits Distilling Company offers a variety of innovative and refreshing cocktails to both the Konica Minolta Diamond Club members as well as fans on the main concourse.

The Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the View Level (upper deck) has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms and a retail store.

The new Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 and 2012 All-Star Games, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84, '85, 2014 and '15, with 13 World Series games in 1980, 1985, 2014 and 2015. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at eight feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to nine feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians.

Ewing M. Kauffman

Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was ingrained into the Royals' organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and being named one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

URBAN YOUTH ACADEMY

The Kansas City MLB Urban Youth Academy continues its mission to empower Kansas City's underserved youth through baseball and softball, as well as academic and social opportunities, to be the leaders of tomorrow. In its second year, the Academy served over 4,000 youth through various events and programs including the Sandlot League, Royals Youth Elite Training (YET) Program and the Raising Royals After-School Program.

SANDLOT LEAGUE

This year, the Sandlot League was split into two sessions: Spring Sandlot and Sandlot 2.0. The Spring Sandlot League served over 120 boys and girls, ages 6-9, and focused on the developmental basics of the game at three different levels – T-ball, coach pitch, and machine pitch. The program ran for eight weeks in April and May, with practices on Wednesdays and games on Fridays. The Spring Sandlot League was followed up by Sandlot 2.0, a six week instructional and developmental Fall program that continues the basic fundamentals of hitting, fielding and throwing with advanced instruction for youth ages 6-8.

2019 ROYALS SPRING TRAINING EXPERIENCE

The KCUYA hosted a group of athletes representing KCMO and Kansas RBI programs in Surprise, Arizona to attend Royals Spring Training. These student-athletes had access to Major League and Minor League coaching staffs in learning about the "Royal Way" through skill and personal development, participated in workouts with Minor League players and attended two Major League games to give them the full Spring Training experience.

YOUTH ELITE TRAINING (YET) PROGRAM

The Royals Youth Elite Training (YET) baseball and softball programs came back in full force in 2019 with a new Spring session, in addition to Fall. The YET program is designed to identify athletes who have the skills and desire to compete on a more competitive level. The Spring baseball session focused on a series of hitting, fielding and base running drills while the Fall session focused on individual positions, beginning with pitching and catching. The weekly softball sessions covered basic mechanics of the game, including offensive and defensive fundamentals. Over 300 boys and 100 girls participated in both sessions throughout the year.

RAISING ROYALS AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

The Raising Royals program welcomed 3rd-5th grade scholar-athletes from 13 area schools for the 2019-2020 school year. The program runs from Monday-Thursday and provides the opportunity to grow the knowledge of baseball and softball while emphasizing the importance of character development, educational enrichment and physical wellness. Scholar-athletes also engage in daily activities, both educational and baseball/softball-related, that provide measurable improvements of performance on and off the field including Science of Baseball lessons, monthly community service projects and enhancing interpersonal skills.

MLB ALL-STAR WEEK 2019

Major League Baseball hosted the 2nd annual Jennie Finch Classic and Commissioner's Cup in Cleveland, Ohio as part of the 2019 All-Star Week festivities. Both events are semi-competitive youth baseball and softball tournaments for Major League Baseball Youth Academies. The KCUYA selected 14 boys and 13 girls, ages 14-17, to represent the Academy and showcase their talent on the field. Throughout the week, participants had the opportunity to compete in games, and take in MLB All-Star Week events such as the Celebrity Softball game and Futures game, a first-time memorable experience for all of the student-athletes.

MLB BREAKTHROUGH SERIES

This year, the MLB Softball Breakthrough Series made its way to Kansas City for the first time. The event is designed to promote softball as a viable collegiate option for girls from underrepresented and underserved communities. The event is completely cost-free for participants, who are selected by invitation only. The program focuses on developing players on and off the field through seminars, mentorship, gameplay, scout evaluations, video coverage and the highest level of instruction. In all, 60 participants from the class of 2019, 2020 and 2021 were selected from all over the country through league nominations. DAYTON MOORE

SR. VP-BASEBALL OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Dayton Moore is in his 14th full season with the Kansas City Royals in 2020 after being named Senior Vice President-Baseball Operations/General Manager on May 30, 2006. He officially assumed his duties, becoming the sixth general manager in franchise history, on June 8, 2006.

From day one, the goal Moore set out to accomplish was bringing a World Championship back to Kansas City, a dream that was brought to fruition in 2015. The Royals bested the New York Mets in five games to win the franchise's first World Series in 30 years. The club became just the fourth since 1997 to reach the World Series in back-to-back seasons after falling to the San Francisco Giants in the 2014 Fall Classic.

The 2019 season featured several individual accomplishments at the Major League level as Jorge Soler became the second player to break the franchise's home run record in the last three seasons, slugging a career-high 48. Whit Merrifield led the Majors in hits for the second-straight season, with 206, which were the most by a Royal since 2000. At the minor league level, four of Kansas City's affiliates were crowned champions of their respective leagues, while a fifth finished as a runner-up after advancing to the championship round. The Royals became the first organization to have five affiliates qualify for their league championship series in Major League history and the first to have four win championships since the Cleveland Indians in 2004.

Moore's tenure in Kansas City has been one of the most successful runs in franchise history as the Royals have boasted 18 Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, 29 All-Star Game selections, five Silver Sluggers and a Cy Young Award winner. Since he took over as general manager in 2006, no Major League club has earned more Rawlings Gold Gloves, while KC's run of nine-straight years with at least one Gold Glove winner is the longest active streak in the American League and second longest in the Majors, behind Colorado's 10.

ROYALS GENERAL MANAGERS

Joe Burke	1974-81
John Scheurholz	1981-90
Herk Robinson	1990-2000
Allard Baird	2000-06
Dayton Moore	2006-present

The 2015 season was one for the ages as Kansas City stormed to their first AL Central Division title, winning an American League-best 95 games, their highest total since 1980. The club became just the second in Major League history to improve its win total in six-straight seasons. Along the way, the Royals set records in attendance, drawing 2.7 million fans to their 81 home games; local television viewership, recording an MLB-best 12.3 household rating during the 2015 season; and All-Star Game selections, sending seven players to the Midsummer Classic, which included four players who were selected as starters.

Moore has received several accolades over the last six years, being named to the Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame and the Kansan of the Year in 2014. He has also been tabbed "Executive of the Year" by Major League Baseball (GIBBY Awards) in both 2014 and 2015 and earned the same distinction from the Kansas City Sports Commission in 2015. He was also recognized by the Boys & Girls Club with the John J. "Buck" O'Neil Diamond MVP Award as well as the Negro League Baseball Museum's Rube Foster Award for A.L. Executive of the Year in 2016.

In 2016, Moore had the honor of being the featured speaker at the National Prayer Breakfast Leadership Luncheon in Washington, D.C. The National Prayer Breakfast is a series of meetings, luncheons and dinners, established in 1953 under Kansas native, President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Under the direction of Moore, the Kansas City MLB Urban Youth Academy officially opened in 2017. While being viewed as a model for youth baseball and softball development, the $21M facility is a center for character development and educational advancement for our Community's urban youth. Using a focused intent on treating the Academy as an extension of the Royals minor league system, Moore's vision of providing kids the opportunity to develop "The Royals Way" is also fostering a culture that eliminates economic and social barriers in the City.

A leader in the Kansas City community, Moore is also a regular speaker at numerous community events each year. In 2013, Moore started the "C" You In the Major Leagues Foundation. It was created to support youth baseball, education, families in crisis and faith-based programs and organizations. The foundation's mission is to provide hope and support to children and families by using youth baseball to develop future character-driven leaders. With that in mind, Moore started the "C" You at 'The K' program in 2016, bringing high school students from six local youth organizations — the KCMO Police Athletic League, Ozanam, Boys Hope Girls Hope of Kansas City, the Guadalupe Center, and the two area RBI programs — for a special evening at Kauffman Stadium, including a character-based leadership discussion with the students. Some of the other organizations that have benefitted from "C" You In the Major Leagues are the Jewish Community Center, Higher M-Pact, National Center for Fathering, and the City Union Mission. Following the 2014 season, Moore wrote a book, "More Than a Season" (updated in 2016), with all of the author proceeds going to "C" You In the Major Leagues.

Moore, a native of Wichita, Kan., brought an impressive resume to the Royals in 2006, having previously worked for the Atlanta Braves' organization during their run of 14-straight division titles.

With Atlanta, Moore served three years as Director of Player Personnel, beginning in 2002. He originally joined the Braves' organization as an area scouting supervisor and was promoted to the front office in August, 1996 as an assistant in the baseball operations department.

Before joining the Braves, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at his alma mater, George Mason University (1990-94). He received a bachelor's degree (1989) and a master's degree (1992) from GMU.

Moore and his wife, Marianne, reside in Leawood, Kan., and have two daughters, Ashley and Avery, and a son, Robert.

- Opponents hit .324 (12-for-37) with runners in scoring position over his first eight starts, but he held them to a .177 average (11-for-62) over his last 14 starts from June 12 through season's end, which ranked second in the American League during that time (min. 75 batters faced), trailing only Gerrit Cole (.101).
- Pitched to a 3.21 ERA (17 ER in 47.2 IP) and held opponents to a .233 average (42-for-180) in his eight daytime starts…it marked his best day game ERA since 2016 (1.85) and lowest opponents' average since 2014 (.212).

RECAPPING THE SEASON – The Kansas City Royals finished the 2019 season with a 59-103 record, one game better than their 2018 record (58-104). It marked the Royals' second-straight season with 100+ losses and the sixth in franchise history. KC placed fourth in the American League Central standings for the seventh time since MLB switched to the three-division format and first since 2011.

YOST GOES OUT ON TOP – The winningest manager in franchise history, Ned Yost completed his managerial tenure with 1,203 career victories, including 746 with the Royals. Yost was named the 16th full-time skipper in club history on May 13, 2010 and retired following KC's season finale on September 29. He led Kansas City to consecutive World Series appearances in 2014 and 2015, winning the second World Series championship in franchise history in 2015, defeating the New York Mets in five games. Yost completed his career with 2,544 games managed, three ahead of Hall of Fame manager Earl Weaver for 32nd on baseball's all-time list.

TAKE ME TO YOUR LEADERS – The Royals became the first team to have a player or players lead the American League in hits, triples and home runs in 41 seasons. Whit Merrifield led the Major Leagues in hits (206), while he, Adalberto Mondesi and Hunter Dozier tied for the MLB lead in triples (10), with Arizona's Eduardo Escobar. Jorge Soler became the first Royal to lead the AL in home runs (48). The last team to accomplish this feat was the 1978 Red Sox, when Jim Rice was the league's MVP by leading the Majors in all three categories, with 213 hits, 15 triples and 46 homers. The last AL club to do this with a combination of players was the 1964 Minnesota Twins, who had Rich Rollins and Zoilo Versalles lead in triples (10), Tony Oliva in hits (217) and Harmon Killebrew in homers (49).

LEAGUE LEADER IN BRUISES – Alex Gordon also led the American League in the most painful category as Gordo was hit by pitch an AL-high 19 times this season, one more than Oakland's Mark Canha and Texas's Shin-soo Choo, who tied for second. Gordo's season total was also the second highest in franchise history, behind David DeJesus, who was plunked 23 times in 2007. His career total of 118 hit-by-pitches is now 40 more than the club's previous record holder, Mike Macfarlane, who finished his career with 78. Gordon's career total is tied for third among players active in 2019, matching Derek Dietrich and trailing Choo (150) and Anthony Rizzo (145). His total is also tied for 56th all-time in Major League history.

DIVISIONAL WORK – Kansas City took the final game of the season-ending three-game series against AL Central champion, Minnesota, finishing 31-45 against its own division. It marked the Royals' fewest wins in the division since going 31-41 in 2008. KC won its season series vs. the White Sox (10-9), but had a losing record against Detroit (9-10), Cleveland (7-12) and Minnesota (5-14), which matched the most losses in a season vs. a single opponent (also: 2016 vs. Cleveland, 2006 vs. Detroit, 2002 vs. Minnesota and 2001 vs. the White Sox). KC finished 28-58 in its out-of-division work, going 10-23 vs. the AL East, 9-24 against the AL West and 9-11 in Interleague play, which included an 8-8 record vs. the NL East and a 1-3 mark against St. Louis.

RECORD-SETTING DEFENSE – Kansas City committed just 73 errors this season, second fewest in the American League behind Houston (71) and third in the Majors (St. Louis-66). It marked the third-straight season that the Royals have set the club's single-season record for fewest errors in a 162-game season, after being charged with 79 miscues in 2017 and 77 in 2018. The Royals became the first team to record 80 errors or fewer in three-straight 162-game campaigns. Kansas City's .988 fielding percentage for the year was also the highest in franchise history, regardless of season length.

TRIPLE TRIPLE – In the final game of the season, Hunter Dozier tripled in the eighth inning and scored the tying run. With his 10th three-base hit, Dozier matched Arizona's Eduardo Escobar as well as teammates Whit Merrifield and Adalberto Mondesi for the Major League lead. The trio of Royals are the first to lead the American League in triples since Jose Offerman's 13 led the league in 1998. The 2019 Royals are the first team to have three players record at least 10 triples since 1984, when Houston's Jose Cruz (13), Bill Doran (11) and Craig Reynolds (11) turned the trick, while the last AL team to do it was the 1979 Royals with George Brett (20), Willie Wilson (13) and Darrell Porter (10). With their trio of league leaders, the Royals became the first team to have three players tie for the Major League lead in any major stat category (Elias). Despite this, as a team, KC finished tied for third in triples with 40 as a team, one behind Colorado and Detroit for the Major League lead.

SECOND-BEST THIEVES – After leading the Majors in steals for much of the season, Kansas City finished second to Texas (131), swiping 117 bags to match its total from 2018. It marked the ninth time in the last 10 years that the club has recorded at least 100 thefts. Despite appearing in just 102 games, Adalberto Mondesi finished second in the big leagues with a career-high 43 steals on the year, second to Mallex Smith's 46 thefts. Mondi led the Majors with 31 stolen bases when he was placed on the Injured List for a second time, July 17, but upon his return swiped an MLB-best 12 bags in September, before missing the final five games of the season.

SUPER SOLER – Jorge Soler became the first Royal to lead the American League in home runs, slugging a club-record 48 of them, which were 10 more than Mike Moustakas' previous record (38) from 2017. He hit three home runs over the final two days of the regular season, which included his fourth multi-homer game of 2019 and sixth of his career on September 28. His 48 home runs were one more than Rafael Palmeiro (47 in 1999 and 2001) for the most in a single-season in Major League history by a Cuban-born player. He became the fifth American League player to hit 48+ home runs in a season since 2010, joining Khris Davis (48 in 2018), Aaron Judge (52 in 2017), Chris Davis (53 in 2013) and José Bautista (54 in 2010). He hit 21 home runs at Kauffman Stadium, matching Chili Davis (1997) and Dean Palmer (1998) for the most in one season in the 47-year history of the ballpark. Soler also finished tied for second in the American League with 117 RBI, which were seventh most in a season by a Royal and the highest total since 2000, when Mike Sweeney (144) set the club record and Jermaine Dye collected 118 RBI.

ANOTHER WHIT TITLE – For the second year in a row, Whit Merrifield led the Majors in hits, finishing with 206, which matched Mike Sweeney (2000) for the sixth-most in a season in Royals history…after leading the Majors with 192 hits in 2018, Whit became just the second right-handed batter to lead MLB in knocks in consecutive seasons, joining Kirby Puckett, who did it in 1988 and '89. He is the first player regardless of handedness to lead the Majors in hits since Ichiro Suzuki did it in five-straight seasons (2006-10). Merrifield recorded a hit in a Major League-best 129 of 162 games (80.1%), three more than Kevin Seitzer's previous club record (126) set in 1987. It's the most games with a hit in the Majors since Derek Jeter also hit in 129 games in 2012, while he finished six games shy of tying the MLB record (since 1908), shared by: Suzuki (2001), Jeter (1999), Wade Boggs (1985), Chuck Klein (1930) and Rogers Hornsby (1922).

LET'S PLAY 162! – Whit Merrifield and Jorge Soler both played in every game this season, joining Baltimore's Jonathan Villar and Oakland's Marcus Semien as the only American League players to appear in all 162 games. Merrifield and Soler are the seventh and eighth Royals to play 162 games in a season, joining: Alcides Escobar (2014, 2016-17), Eric Hosmer (2017), Billy Butler (2013), Carlos Beltrán (2002), Al Cowens (1977) and Hal McRae (1977). The Royals were the first AL club to have two players appear in 162 games since the 2017 Royals, while prior to that it hadn't been done since Raúl Ibañez and Ichiro Suzuki did it with Seattle in 2008. In addition to 2019 and 2017, Cowens and McRae made the 1977 club the only other Royals team in which two players played in all 162 contests.

WE'RE GOING STREAKING – Whit Merrifield opened the year by hitting safely in his first 11 contests of 2019 to establish a club record with a 31-game hitting streak, which dated back to September 7, 2018. Merrifield's run was one better than George Brett, who hit in 30-straight games between July 18-August 18 in 1980. It was the longest hitting streak in the Major Leagues since Atlanta's Dan Uggla hit safely in 33 consecutive contests in 2011. Merrifield also had a 15-game hitting streak from June 29-July 15, which was the longest by a Royal in 2019 and eighth longest in the American League this season.

RACKING UP THE K's – After being acquired by the Royals on July 15, left-hander Mike Montgomery enjoyed a career night in Detroit less than a month later, fanning 12 Tigers over 7.0 shutout innings in a 7-0 triumph. He recorded the third 12-strikeout performance by a Royal without issuing a walk, joining Luke Hochevar (13 K in 7.0 IP) at Texas on July 25, 2009 and Zack Greinke (12 K in 9.0 IP) vs. Cincinnati on June 13, 2010. Monty's 12 strikeouts were the most in a game by a Royals pitcher since Nate Karns also fanned 12 on May 13, 2017 vs. Baltimore. Montgomery recorded the fifth and final double-digit strikeout game by a Royal in 2019, joining Brad Keller (10) on April 12 vs. Cleveland, Jorge López (10) at the White Sox on April 16, Jakob Junis (11) vs. the White Sox on July 15 and Danny Duffy (11) at Atlanta on July 23. Kansas City's 1,230 strikeouts for the year were second most in franchise history, behind the 2016 squad's 1,287. Junis led the staff with 164 K's, matching his team-leading total from 2018.

KENNEDY JOINS ELITE COMPANY – Ian Kennedy made the successful transition from starter to reliever this season, tying for fourth in the American League with 30 saves. He became the fifth different Royal to record 30+ saves in a season, joining Jeff Montgomery and Dan Quisenberry, who did it five times each and Greg Holland and Joakim Soria, who each had three 30-save campaigns. Kennedy, who had just two relief appearances at the big league level prior to this season, recorded a career-high 21 victories in 2011 with Arizona, making him the fourth pitcher to record both a 20-win and a 30-save campaign, joining John Smoltz, Derek Lowe and Dennis Eckersley. Kennedy saved 10 of KC's final 16 victories (earned the win in the season finale) and 30 of the club's 59 wins overall (51.7%), the highest rate by an AL pitcher who worked with just one team this season and second highest in the Majors, behind Kirby Yates, who saved 40 of San Diego's 70 wins (57.1%). Of Kennedy's 30 saves, 28 of them came between May 30 and the end of the season, two more than any other pitcher in the big leagues during that time.

ON NEUTRAL GROUND – On June 13, Kansas City played its first neutral-site game in franchise history, when it downed division rival Detroit, 7-3 at TD Ameritrade Park in Omaha, Neb., the site of the NCAA College World Series. It also marked the first Major League game played in the state of Nebraska. Rookie Nicky Lopez, who played his home games at the park with Creighton University, hit his first Major League home run to get KC on the board in the second inning. Whit Merrifield, also of College World Series fame with the University of South Carolina, collected a pair of doubles in the contest, including a two-base hit in the fourth inning that brought in a pair of runs.

HOMEGROWN ROSTER – Kansas City finished the season with a Major League-high 21 players on the active roster that were either drafted or originally signed by the organization. The Royals also had 13 different players make their Major League debuts in 2019, eight of which were originally drafted or signed by KC. The total number of debuts was one shy of the franchise record, set in 1995 and matched in 2004. The 13 players to debut included Frank Schwindel (March 28), Kyle Zimmer (March 31), Chris Ellis (March 31), Richard Lovelady (April 9), Kelvin Gutierrez (April 27), Nicky Lopez (May 14), Humberto Arteaga (June 20), Bubba Starling (July 12), Josh Staumont (July 25), Nick Dini (August 7), Ryan McBroom (September 3), Erick Mejia (September 5) and Gabe Speier (September 5). During the season, KC used 51 players (30 pitchers), which were the most since it employed 55 players (31 pitchers).

HOME CROWDS – The Royals drew 1,479,659 fans to Kauffman Stadium in 2019, upping the franchise total to 88,190,682 in 51 seasons. The home attendance mark includes just 80 dates, due to the traditional doubleheader vs. Tampa Bay on May 1.

SUPER DUPER – Royals replay specialist Bill Duplissea once again posted the best overturn rate (75.0%) in the Majors this season, with 24 of the 32 calls he challenged being overturned. His total was also third highest in baseball, behind only Texas (31) and Philadelphia (27), though both challenged 49 calls or more. His percentage was well above the Major League average of a 46.8% overturn rate. Duper had a streak of 47 consecutive challenges that came back as overturned or stands that was halted on April 9 of this year when a play at the plate came back as confirmed. Duplissea has a Majors-best 73.2% success rate (109-for-149) since 2016.

- Named Royals Player of the Year eight times

George Brett wrapped up a 21-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993 after establishing himself as one of the greatest to ever play the game.

He became the only Royal and just the 11th third baseman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 25, 1999 after receiving 98.2 percent of the votes, now the eighth-highest mark. He had his number retired by the Royals on May 14, 1994.

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in three decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the AL career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

Born May 15, 1953 in Wheeling, W.Va., he captivated the baseball world with his performance in the 1985 ALCS and World Series, earning ALCS MVP honors after the Royals rallied from a three games to one deficit against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Brett posted a .373 career World Series average, going 19-for-51 in 13 games, with three doubles, one triple, one home run and four RBI. He holds numerous ALCS records after recording a career batting average of .340 in the league championships.

He culminated his career with his 3,000th hit on September 30, 1992. Overall, he guided the Royals to seven postseasons and two World Series. During his 21-year career with the Royals, Kansas City posted 15 winning seasons, including eight years with at least 90 wins.

20 FRANK WHITE

Second Baseman, 1973-90

Career Honors

- Inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1995
- Named to five All-Star games
- Won eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, including six straight, from 1977-82
- The eight Rawlings Gold Gloves are tied for the third-most among second basemen all-time
- Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- Named to TSN Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- Played in seven postseasons and two World Series
- Twice named Royals Player of the Year

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973 to 1990, winning eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, an American League record for second basemen at the time. Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Rawlings Gold Glove award six-straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just four errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Star team five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranked seventh all-time in fielding percentage among second basemen when he retired, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the 1985 World Series, White led all players with six RBI, hitting three doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a three games to one deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases and extra base hits. He hit three inside-the-park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

White was honored with the Ernie Mehl Award for his contribution to the Kansas City community in 1988.

10 DICK HOWSER

Manager, 1981-87

Career Honors

- Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1987
- Managed Royals during 1985 World Series title season
- Ranks third in team history with 404 wins as Royals manager
- Directed Royals to three division titles
- Guided KC to a 91-71 record in 1985, tied for sixth-most wins in franchise history
- ESPN Manager of the Year in 1984
- Named to 1961 All-Star team as a player
- 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year
- Elected into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won three division titles and a World Series championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skippering the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 club was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the AL West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

Artifacts scheduled to be on display include Grover Cleveland Alexander's baseball jersey, William Howard Taft's lapel pin and first pitch baseball from 1910 – the first ever thrown by a sitting president on opening day. Gloves worn by Dwight D. Eisenhower and Jimmy Carter; a 1937 All Star Game Program featuring President Franklin Roosevelt – the first president to attend a mid-summer classic; and a baseball bat signed by Base Ruth and given to President Warren G. Harding.

EWING KAUFFMAN

OWNER: 1968-93 (INDUCTED 1993)

The strength and integrity of Ewing Kauffman's ownership was the cornerstone of success for the Royals during the club's first 25 years. When purchasing the club as an expansion team in 1968, his primary motivation was to provide winning Major League Baseball for Kansas City. Prior to his death in 1993, he provided an innovative plan to ensure new ownership would keep baseball in Kansas City.

MURIEL KAUFFMAN

ROYALS FIRST LADY: 1968-95 (INDUCTED 1996)

Muriel Kauffman, the Royals' First Lady, was the driving force behind Mr. K's decision to buy the Kansas City Royals. She was a member of the club's Board of Directors and served as a major impetus to the smashing success of the Royal Lancers. Away from the ballpark, she established the Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation to support and perpetuate the performing arts and to advance education, research and prevention in the health field. "Mrs. K" passed away in 1995.

DENNIS LEONARD

The "Voice of the Royals" has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in seven different decades. He was honored as the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner during Hall of Fame induction ceremonies on July 29, 2007. Matthews joined the Royals as the number two announcer alongside Buddy Blattner prior to KC's inaugural season in 1969. He then took over the number-one job following the 1975 season.

JOHN MAYBERRY

FIRST BASEMAN: 1972-77 (INDUCTED 1996)

65 YEARS OF BASEBALL IN KANSAS CITY

2020 marks the 65th anniversary of the first American League game played in Kansas City. Left-handed pitcher Alex Kellner and the Athletics handed Ned Garver and the Detroit Tigers a 6-2 loss in the A's 1955 KC debut. Outfielder Bill Wilson hit the first home run in Kansas City A's history with a shot in the eighth inning. Pre-game festivities included a ceremonial first pitch by Kansas City native and former president Harry S. Truman.

The A's played all their games at Municipal Stadium (pictured below), sharing the facility with the Kansas City Chiefs football team. The stadium, located at 22nd and Brooklyn, opened July 3, 1923. It was originally named Muehlebach Field and also housed the Kansas City Monarchs and Kansas City Blues (minor league). A pair of short-lived football franchises, The Kansas City Blues (1924) and Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26) also played at the stadium. The Royals used the stadium from 1969-72.

THREE HOME-GROWN CY'S
In their 51-year history, the Royals have boasted three Cy Young Award winners (Bret Saberhagen, David Cone and Zack Greinke) with all three of them originally drafted by Kansas City. The Los Angeles Dodgers are the only other franchise to have done this since the first year of the draft in 1965.

David Cone was named the AL Cy Young Award winner in 1994 (Getty Images)

George Brett is the only Royal to win the AL Most Valuable Player Award, doing so in 1980.

Kansas City rallied from two-games-to-none and three-games-to-one deficits to capture their first World Championship by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in the "I-70 Series." The Royals became the first club in the 82-year history of the Fall Classic to lose their first two games at home and come back to win the title. The Royals became the first AL expansion club to win a World Championship and the second expansion team overall, joining the New York Mets (1969). KC's talented and youthful pitching staff held the Major League's best hitting club to 13 total runs and a batting average of .185—the lowest ever in a 7-game World Series. Bret Saberhagen earned Most Valuable Player honors with two wins and a 0.50 ERA.

2014 WORLD SERIES VS. SAN FRANCISCO (GIANTS WIN, 4-3)

Kansas City participated in its first World Series in 29 years, as the Royals captured the American League pennant and faced the San Francisco Giants in a thrilling seven-game Fall Classic. In a nip-and-tug set, the Giants claimed the deciding game behind series MVP Madison Bumgarner's 5.0 scoreless innings of relief in Game 7. The Royals threatened in the ninth inning, putting the tying run on third base with two outs, but could not advance the final 90 feet. Center fielder Lorenzo Cain capped his torrid postseason, batting .308 (8-for-26) with 3 doubles and 5 RBI during the series. Rookie fireballer Yordano Ventura started two of KC's wins, including Game 6 when he tossed 7.0 scoreless frames in a 10-0 triumph.

Game 1 • at Kansas City • Tuesday, Oct. 21

San Francisco jumped out to an early lead on the strength of Hunter Pence's two-run blast and never looked back. Madison Bumgarner earned his first of two victories in the Series. Catcher Salvador Perez provided KC's only offense with a solo home run in the seventh inning.

1960 ALL-STAR GAME

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the N.L. would win once again, shutting out the A.L., 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the N.L. and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the N.L. a 3-0 lead.

The N.L. added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a two-run home run in the eighth to bring the A.L. within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

1973 ALL-STAR GAME

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the first All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill Hallahan, Lefty Gomez, Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Dykes and Charlie Gehringer.

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with two runs in the top of the third and also scored in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing two hits and one ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the fourth inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few, while Hall of Fame manager Joe Torre played in the game for the National League. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas - and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City hosted its third MLB All-Star Game on July 10, 2012. The 83rd version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Kauffman Stadium with the National League prevailing, 8-0, moving the senior circuit's record to a perfect 3-0 in All-Star Games playing in the City of Fountains.

Eleven pitchers combined on the six-hit shutout for the National League with the win claimed by starter Matt Cain.

The victory was the National League's third straight and clinched home field advantage which proved beneficial for the San Francisco Giants who won the first two games of the 2012 World Series en route to a sweep over the Detroit Tigers. Giants played key roles in the All-Star Game win, including MVP Melky Cabrera, starting and winning pitcher Matt Cain, and 2012 World Series MVP Pablo Sandoval, who connected for a three-run triple.

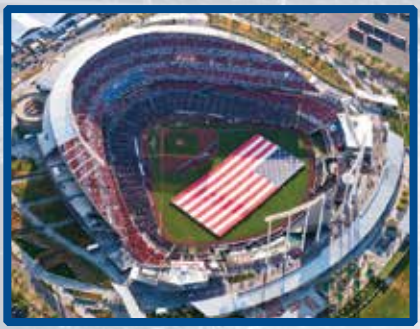

The game in Kansas City was attended by 40,933 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Justin Verlander of the Detroit Tigers, scoring five times.

After a strikeout to open the game, a Cabrera single and Ryan Braun double scored the game's first run. A pair of two-out walks loaded the bases for Sandoval, who emptied the bags with a triple. Dan Uggla followed with a single, driving in Sandoval.

Neither league threatened until the fourth when the National League added three runs, all with two outs, to create the final 8-0 deficit. Rafael Furcal tripled, then scored as his Cardinals teammate Matt Holliday singled. Cabrera followed with a two-run home run to deep left field.

The American League's best scoring chance came in the bottom of the fifth as back-to-back one-out singles from David Ortiz and Mike Napoli and a two-out walk to Asdrubal Cabrera loaded the bases. But Ian Kinsler flied out to end the threat.

Cabrera of the San Francisco Giants, who played with the Royals in 2011, was named the MVP after going 2-for-3 with two RBI and two runs scored.

STEVE BUSBY

KANSAS CITY 3, DETROIT 0

April 27, 1973 at Detroit

In just his 10th Major League start, 23-year old Steve Busby recorded the first no-hitter in club history by shutting down Detroit on April 27, 1973. His no-hitter was the first in Tiger Stadium since 1952. He allowed 6 walks and struck out 4 in the 3-0 win.

In his next start, Busby allowed just 1 hit in 5.2 innings of work in a 5-3 win at Milwaukee on May 4. Busby picked up where he left off, tossing 5.1 hitless innings until Dave May homered in the sixth inning. Busby didn't allow any more hits but was removed later that inning because of wildness.

REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director (and future Yankees General Manager) Syd Thrift was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

Wireless Internet Access is available in the main press box free of charge. Please contact a Royals Media Relations member if you are having trouble connecting. In addition, some high-speed lines are provided.

The Press Dining Room is located behind the writing press box on Level 6 for a pregame meal ($12.00 charge) and refreshments. It is open for the media with appropriate credentials approximately two hours prior to the game. Complete NOTES, STATISTICAL INFORMATION and LINEUPS are available approximately three hours prior to the game toward the back of the writing press box and in the hallway of the broadcast press level.

Interview periods are arranged prior to and following Royals games through the Royals Communications Department.

Pregame: The manager, coaches and players are generally accessible before batting practice on the field and in the clubhouse. Players are not available during stretching and batting practice, and pregame interviews should not interfere with the players' specific game preparations. Manager Mike Matheny is available to the media before games in the Royals' dugout, usually around 4:20 p.m. prior to 7:05 p.m. games. He may also be available before the clubhouse opens upon special request through the Media Relations Department. We request that reporters and broadcasters leave the field and dugout area at the conclusion of batting practice and that photographers report to their assigned photo positions.

Manager Postgame: The Royals will conduct a postgame interview with the manager in the interview room on Level One immediately following each Royals home game. This is the only area where the media may interview the manager postgame. There will be no postgame interviews allowed in the manager's office. Postgame interviews with all personnel should be related to the game and not of the feature variety.

Photographers will be assigned to photo bays on the field at either end of each dugout or the bay located in the main press box. Photographers in the dugout field boxes should leave between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers should remain in foul territory in the area behind the first and third base bags on the dirt warning track. Photographers should assume their assigned positions at the conclusion of batting practice. Wireless Internet is available.

The Royals Clubhouse will be open to media who possess clubhouse credentials approximately 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. Exact clubhouse times will be posted daily on the monitors located in the elevator lobbies on Level 4 and Level 6. The clubhouse will be closed for the remainder of pre-game when the Royals are on the field for batting practice. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance and are asked not to loiter. For postgame interviews, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes following the game. The Royals' clubhouse will be closed between games of a doubleheader. There will be occasions when the Royals may request the clubhouse be cleared for team meetings and we ask your cooperation at these times. The players' lounge, training room, coaches' office adjacent to manager's office and conditioning areas are closed to everyone except players, coaches and Royals' officials. The dugout is off limits in accordance with American League rules during the game to everyone except the manager, coaches, players and certain club officials. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse. Television cameras are only permitted to shoot player interviews.

DENNY MATTHEWS

ANNOUNCER

Denny Matthews is in his 52nd season behind the microphone, calling Royals games since the club's inception in 1969. He's the third announcer in Major League history to broadcast for the same team for 50+ seasons, joining Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers, 67 seasons) and Jaime Jarrin (Los Angeles Dodgers, 60 seasons). This is Matthews' seventh decade of broadcasting the Royals, with only Jarrin's eight decades (1959-present), being a longer run with one team.

The 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He also became a member of the Royals' Hall of Fame in 2004.

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his time with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside the late Buddy Blattner prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-98 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Over the last 12 seasons, Steve Physioc and Steve Stewart have served as Denny's partners, along with Bob Davis (2008-12).

The veteran broadcaster has lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the California Angels and Milwaukee Brewers.

Royals Hall of Fame pitcher Jeff Montgomery is in his 11th season contributing to Royals broadcasts on FOX Sports Kansas City, serving as a co-host on "Royals Live" pre-game and postgame shows. "Monty" also offers analysis in the broadcast booth during select games on FSKC.

He spent 12 of his 13 big league seasons with the Royals and is the club's all-time saves leader with 304. The three-time All-Star (1992, 1993, 1996) was the Rolaids AL Reliever of the Year in 1993, finishing tied for the league lead with 45 saves, matching a club record at that time. He also holds the club record for career appearances (686) and ranked ninth on MLB's all-time saves list at the time of his retirement.

Montgomery has served as the Vice President of Union Broadcasting, Inc. in Kansas City since 1999, and also contributes to MLB Network shows and broadcasts.

The Royals 52nd Spring Training season in club history will be their 18th in Surprise, Ariz.

The Royals and Texas Rangers share a $48 million, 10,500-seat multi-purpose Recreation and Major League Spring Training Campus on land owned by the City of Surprise. In addition, the city utilizes the facilities for adult and youth recreation programs, community events and programs, special events and meeting facilities.

The stadium complex and baseball practice fields are incorporated into a master-planned municipal center, including administrative offices, recreation/aquatic center, 23,000-square-foot library and 35-40 acre passive park.

In 2015, the Royals complex underwent an $8-million renovation, adding approximately 14,000-square feet to the facility. The project included expanding the clubhouse, coaches' locker room, training and dining facilities, while giving the club six additional offices on site.

Surprise is approximately 35 minutes northwest of Phoenix, past Sun City West off Highway 60. The complex is located on 125 acres in the vicinity of Bullard Avenue and Greenway Road.

Populous (formerly HOK), an internationally-renowned Kansas City architectural firm devoted to creating exceptional sports facilities, was designated to design the facility.

Groundbreaking took place with Hall of Famers George Brett and Nolan Ryan in attendance on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated during a special ceremony and community celebration attended by members of the Royals and Rangers on December 7, 2002. The two teams played the first game at the complex on February 27, 2003, with the Royals coming away with a 6-3 win.

The Royals have won the unofficial Cactus League title three times, their first season in Arizona in 2003, 2011 and 2013.
