TONIGHT'S GAME: The Braves and Mets open a three-game series tonight with the 17th of 19 meetings between the clubs this season...The two teams have not met since August 15-18 here in Atlanta, when the Braves took three-of-four.

- The Braves went 10-9 against the Mets last season, taking the season set from their NL East rivals for the fourth consecutive season...They went 7-3 in 2020, 11-8 in 2019 and 13-6 in 2018...The Braves need to sweep all three games this weekend to avoid losing the season series.
- The Braves won the last time these two met, August 18, in an identical matchup of tonight's starting pitchers...Atlanta plated a run in the seventh inning to take a 3-2 lead that would stand as the final score, giving Max Fried (7.0 IP, four hits, two runs) his 11th win of the season...Jacob deGrom allowed five hits and three runs over 6.2 innings in his first loss of the year.
- Atlanta is 7-9 against New York this season, but has outscored the Mets by nine runs in their 16 games...The Braves have tallied 76 runs and are averaging 4.8 runs/game, while New York has scored 67 times and is averaging 4.2 runs/game in their matchups.
- LH Max Fried has made 20 career appearances and 15 starts against New York, and is 6-5 with a 2.84 ERA (29 ER/92.0 IP)...Atlanta is an even 10-10 in his 20 total games against the Mets... In four starts this season, he is 2-2 with a 3.00 ERA (8 ER/24.0 IP) and 22 strikeouts...Fried has made seven career starts against the Mets here in Atlanta, and has yet to allow more than two runs in a turn...He is 4-2 with a 2.48 ERA (11 ER/40.0 IP) against New York here, and Atlanta is 5-2 in his seven starts as a club.
- (40 ER/172.2 IP) in 27 career games, all starts, against Atlanta...He has struck out 222 and walked 35 in his career against the Braves...In two starts against Atlanta this season, deGrom is 1-1 with a 3.65 ERA, allowing five earned runs in 12.1 total LOSS: The Braves snapped their four-game winning streak with a loss in their last game, 3-2 in 10 innings, on Wednesday night in Washington...Just one of the three runs Atlanta allowed in the game was earned.

- Six Atlanta relievers combined to allow just one hit and one unearned run in 6.0 innings out of the bullpen, with one walk and three strikeouts.
- The Braves bullpen has gone 6-3 with a 1.67 ERA (16 ER/86.0 IP) in September, the best ERA in baseball...Atlanta relievers also lead the majors with a .154 average against them in the month, allowing just 46 hits and fanning 101 in 86.0 innings out of the bullpen.
- ★ The club went 2-for-2 on replay challenges in the game, and is a perfect 5-for-5 in its last five challenges.

BRAVES AND METS: Atlanta trails New York by 1.0 game in the NL East standings, and is looking to overtake the Mets to win its fifth consecutive division title...Both teams have six games remaining, with one three-game series scheduled for next week.

- The Braves were a season-worst 10.5 games behind the first-place Mets after play on June 1...Since the following date, June 2, Atlanta has played to a 73-32 (.695) record, the second-best mark in baseball... New York has gone 63-41 (.606) since that date, fifth best in the majors.
- The Braves are trying to erase their biggest deficit in the division era to win a division title...The team's current record is 10 games in 1993.
- That 1993 club was  $10~{\rm games}$  behind first-place San Francisco in the NL West after play on July 22...The Braves ended up winning the division by one game with 104 wins.
- Atlanta is on pace to win 100 games, while New York is pacing to 101 victories...No NL East club has won  $100\,\mathrm{\bar{g}}$  games since the Phillies in 2011, and no two clubs in the division have ever won 100 games in the same year.
- MLB last had two 100-win teams in the same division just last season, when San Francisco won 107 games to win the NL West by a single game over the 106-win Dodgers.

WINS: With one more victory, the Braves would set their highest single-season win total over the last 19 seasons...The last Braves team to win more than 97 games was the 2003 club, who went 101-61 to win the NL East.

- If the Braves do not win the division this season, it would mark the most victories the team has ever had in a second-place finish.
- The record is currently held by the 1899 Boston Beaneaters, who went 95-57 to finish eight games behind Brooklyn.

OLSON THIRTY HOMERS: 1B Matt Olson drove his 30th home run of the season out to left field on Wednesday night, and has hit that plateau in each of his last three full seasons.

- He is one of just six players in baseball with 30 homers in each of the last three 162-game seasons, joining Pete Alonso, Nolan Arenado, Paul Goldschmidt, Kyle Schwarber and Eugenio Suárez.
- Olson also has 43 doubles on the season, and is one of three players in the majors with 40 doubles and 30 homers this year...Arenado and Goldschmidt have each done so for St. Louis.
- He is just the sixth player in franchise history with 40 doubles and 30 homers in a season, and the first since Ozzie Albies last season...Freddie Freeman (2016), Chipper Jones (1999) and Hank Aaron (1959, 1965) also did so.
