WILLIAM O. DEWITT JR.

PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Cardinals since 1996, when he led the purchase of the team from Anheuser Busch, and he and his immediate family acquired controlling interest in the team. DeWitt oversees all baseball, operational, financial and league matters for the team. He is Chairman of the Major League Baseball Finance Committee, former Chairman of the Executive Council, a member of the Competition Committee and served on the Labor Policy Committee which reached agreement with the Players Association on a five-year Collective Bargaining Agreement in 2016. During 2014, he served as Chairman of the Commissioner's Succession Committee. Mr. DeWitt is also a member of the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt's father began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Major League Baseball Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy. His uniform (number 1/8) was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. and DeWitt Capital Group. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis, and they have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

Under his leadership, the Cardinals have had a number of significant achievements, including the following:

- Opened a new spring training facility in Jupiter, Fla., in 1998.
- Purchased the Palm Beach Cardinals of the Low-A Southeast League (A) in 1998.
- Purchased the Springfield Cardinals of the Double-A Central League (AA) in 2005 and opened Hammons Field in Springfield, Mo.
- Privately financed, built, and opened Busch Stadium in April, 2006.
- Hosted Major League Baseball's 2009 All-Star Game.
- Developed special events business highlighted by concerts by Dave Mathews Band, the Eagles, U2, Paul McCartney, Billy Joel, Metallica, international soccer matches and the National Hockey League Winter Classic.
- Surpassed 3 million in attendance 21 times since 1996, including 16 consecutive seasons from 2004-19.
- Won 12 Division Titles (1996, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2019), four Wild Cards (2011, 2012, 2020, 2021), four National League Pennants (2004, 2006, 2011, 2013) and two World Championships (2006, 2011).
- Won 75 postseason games - most amongst all National League teams since 1996.
- In 2019, became the only team in Major League Baseball to reach the League Championship Series in 10 of the prior 20 seasons.
- Opened Ballpark Village in March 2014, and Phase II in 2020.
- Purchased the Memphis Redbirds of the Triple-A East League (AAA) in March 2014; subsequently sold 75% of the team in April 2016, and the remaining 25% in 2021.
- Signed a new 15-year rights agreement with Bally Sports Midwest that began in 2018 and includes an equity component as part of the overall transaction.

WILLIAM DEWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March, 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the team and its affiliate clubs, as well as Bally Sports Midwest, and Ballpark Village.

He led the effort to develop Ballpark Village, a mixed-use project adjacent to Busch Stadium which opened in 2014. In 2020, the Cardinals, along with their development partner The Cordish Companies, opened Phase II of the project which includes an office tower (The PwC Pennant Building), a 200 room boutique hotel (Live! by Loews), a 29-story luxury apartment tower (One Cardinal Way), a health club (Onelife Fitness), and additional retail and restaurants.

Before his appointment to team President, DeWitt was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that, he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training.

DeWitt, 54, graduated cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. EPA in Washington D.C. He earned an MBA from Harvard Business School in 1995. JOHN MOZELIAK
PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named President of Baseball Operations on June 30, 2017, the first to be named to that position in franchise history. Mozeliak had served as the team's Senior Vice President and General Manager for almost 10 full seasons, since October, 2007. He was the 12th general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, and had previously held the position of Assistant General Manager for six seasons. His contract runs through the 2023 season.

Under Mozeliak, the Cardinals have reached the postseason nine times (2009, 2011-15, 2019-21), including a franchise record of five-straight seasons from 2011-2015. During that run, the Cardinals won three-straight National League Central Division titles (2013-2015), and have won five N.L. Central Titles overall (also 2009 and 2019) under Mo's leadership. The five-year postseason run began with St. Louis' 11th World Championship in 2011.

The 2021 season was the Cardinals 14th-consecutive winning season, a streak that began when Mozeliak was named General Manager prior to the 2008 season. The Cardinals 1,196 wins in those 14 seasons under Mozeliak's watch are third only to the Los Angeles Dodgers (1,247) and New York Yankees (1,238), while they and the Yankees are the only teams to have posted 14 consecutive winning seasons in that time period.

A consistent culture of retaining key players has resulted in several significant deals aimed at keeping the organization's top talent in St. Louis. Since 2012, the club has worked out multi-year deals with Yadier Molina (2012 & 2017), Adam Wainwright (2013), Matt Carpenter (2014), Carlos Martinez (2017), Paul DeJong (2018), Miles Mikolas (2019), Paul Goldschmidt (2019), and Nolan Arenado (2021).

Mozeliak engineered a series of late season moves in 2011 that transformed the Cardinals and saw the team go from 10 ½ games back in late August to winning the franchise's 11th World Championship. Baseball America named the Cardinals the 2011 Organization of the Year, the first time the franchise had received the honor. Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony La Russa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In 2012, the Cardinals fell just one win shy of capturing the N.L. Championship, and with the team's success, Mo was honored by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum with the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award as Executive of the Year. The 2013 team won the National League Championship and returned to the World Series just two years removed from winning the World Series title in 2011. Following that season, the organization was recognized by Baseball America as the Organization of the Year - the second such honor in three years - and was honored by USA Today Sports as having the best franchise among Major League baseball teams. The 2014 team captured the Central Division title for a second-straight season and returned to the National League Championship Series for a fourth-straight year. St. Louis led all Major League Baseball teams in wins and reached the postseason for a fifth-straight season in 2015, the ninth time in franchise history a Cardinals team had won 100 games.

Mozeliak, 53, is a 27-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of 1999 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and was promoted to Assistant General Manager in 2003. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo's duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness. Mozeliak lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Michael Girsch was promoted to Vice President and General Manager on June 30, 2017, becoming the 13th General Manager in franchise history. His contract as General Manager runs through the 2022 season, and he is responsible for handling the day-to-day work of the team, including coordinating the efforts of the team's baseball development group, contract negotiations, player evaluations and player transactions.

Prior to his appointment as GM, Girsch served as Assistant General Manager for seven seasons after being appointed to that position in January 2011.

From 2008-11, he served as the Director of Baseball Development, a newly created department focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting.

Before joining the Cardinals, Girsch, 45, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (17), Claire (15) and Tommy (14).

CAREER NOTES:

Oliver "Oli" Marmol was named the 51st manager in Cardinals franchise history on October 25, 2021, and at age 35, the youngest since Marty Marion who piloted the team at age 34 in 1951. He was signed to a three-year contract that runs thru the 2024 season.

Marmol spent the past five seasons as a member of the Cardinals Major League Coaching Staff, the past three (2019-21) as the team's Bench Coach after serving as the First Base Coach from 2017-18.

Oli, who was born in New Jersey, and is of Dominican descent, is only the second minority to manage the Cardinals and the first since Cuban-born Mike González did so for parts of the 1938 and 1940 seasons.

Marmol spent five seasons (2012-16) managing in the Cardinals farm system, leading his teams to the postseason in four of those five seasons, including the New York-Penn League title in 2014 with State College (Pa.).

Marmol's teams were a combined 268-225 (.544), posting league-best 48-win seasons in both 2013 and 2014 at State College.

In 2015, his first season managing at Palm Beach, the Cardinals reached the postseason for the first time since 2008, winning the Florida State League South Division second half before being eliminated in the first round. Prior to 2015, the last time Palm Beach had reached the FSL postseason, Marmol was the team's second baseman.

In 2014, Marmol led the State College team to the New York-Penn League Championship, defeating Hudson Valley in two straight games when facing elimination, then defeated Tri-City for the crown. The Spikes posted 48 wins for the second consecutive season, a year after Marmol led State College to the best record in the New York-Penn League at 48-27.

The former Cardinals minor league infielder led the 2012 Johnson City squad to a 39-28 record and a playoff appearance in his first season as a manager. Marmol began his coaching career in 2011 as the hitting coach at the Gulf Coast League level under manager Steve Turco.

Marmol spent four years playing in the Cardinals system, finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons at the College of Charleston (S.C.). He was drafted out of college in the sixth round of the 2007 June First-Year Player Draft by St. Louis.

Jeff Albert was hired as the St. Louis Cardinals hitting coach in November 2018 after the previous six years in the Houston Astros organization.

The 41-year old hitting instructor was the second hitting coach with the Astros in 2018 after serving as the minor league hitting coordinator from 2014-17 and 2013 as the roving hitting instructor.

Prior to his time with the Astros, Albert launched his professional coaching career with the Cardinals organization starting as hitting coach for the Batavia MuckDogs of the short-season A ball affiliate in the New York-Penn League. Albert advanced to the Cardinals High-A Florida State League affiliate in Palm Beach where he served as hitting coach from 2009-12.

His accolades off the field include a Master's Degree in Exercise Science from Louisiana Tech University where he was also involved in various baseball training and research, as well as strength and conditioning work with the school's baseball and softball programs.

Albert is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and runs swingtraining.net, which is a site dedicated to baseball training and analysis.

Pacific Coast League Championship
1990: Albuquerque (AAA)

Maddux, 60, went to Washington from the Texas Rangers where the Rangers had earned four postseason berths. From 2010-13, the Rangers were one of just five clubs (along with ATL, STL, OAK, and TB) to post four consecutive sub-4.00 team ERAs, accomplishing that feat for just the second time in Rangers history (six straight, 1974-79). Prior to Maddux's arrival, the Rangers had not posted an ERA lower than 4.00 since 1990. During his first five seasons with Texas (2009-13), their 3.94 team ERA was Texas' lowest ERA over a five-year span since 1981-85 (3.92) and in 2014, his staff ranked second in the American league with 17 shutouts, second-most in Texas history.

Maddux joined Texas after six years (2003-08) with the Brewers as pitching coach where he oversaw a Brewers staff that ranked second in the NL with a 3.85 ERA in 2008, the lowest mark by a Milwaukee club in 16 years, en-route to securing the Brewers' first postseason berth in 26 years.

He coached three seasons as the pitching coach for Houston's Double-A Round Rock from 2000-02. The Express made the Texas League playoffs all three seasons in which he was the pitching coach winning the league championship in 2000, crowned as co-champs in 2001 with Arkansas and lost in the semi-finals in 2002.

Maddux enjoyed a 15-year Major League playing career, going 39-37 with a 4.05 ERA in 472 games (48 starts) with Philadelphia (1986-89), Los Angeles (1990, 1999), San Diego (1991-92), New York Mets (1993-94), Pittsburgh (1995), Boston (1995-96), Seattle (1997), Montreal (1998-99), and Houston (2000). The right-hander appeared in the postseason with Boston in 1995, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in two appearances vs. CLE in the American League Division Series.

"Mad Dog" is the older brother of 2014 National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee Greg Maddux. He played three years at the University of Texas-El Paso and graduated from Rancho (NV) High School in 1979. Mike and his wife, Lise, and daughters, Makayla and Lexie, reside in Westlake, Texas. Maddux is an avid hunter, golfer, and fisherman and he hit a pair of hole-in-ones in the same round on Oct. 14, 2019 at the Army-Navy course in Washington, D.C.

CAREER NOTES:

Willie McGee returns to the Cardinals Major League coaching staff for his fifth season and is responsible for a variety of areas including outfield play, base running and hitting. Prior to 2018, McGee spent several seasons serving as a Special Assistant to the GM, assisting with instruction at both the Major and Minor League levels.

McGee, 63, is a decorated member of the Cardinals organization, a beloved figure among Cardinals fans and a member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame (inducted in 2014).

McGee, who came to the Cardinals organization in October of 1981 in a trade with the New York Yankees for pitcher Bob Sykes, emerged on the national scene in 1982 when he starred during the World Series with his spectacular catches and a pair of key homers that helped the Redbirds to their first World Championship since 1967.

As a key member of the Redbirds during the "Whitey Ball" era, McGee helped the Cardinals to two additional World Series appearances in 1985 and 1987 and in 1985 he became the first Cardinal voted the National League's Most Valuable Player since 1979 (Keith Hernandez), leading the Senior Circuit with his .353 batting average, 216 hits and 18 triples. His .353 batting mark and 216 hits from 1985 still stand as the Cardinals single-season records for a switch-hitter.

A four-time All-Star (1983, 1985, 1987, 1988), the fleet-footed McGee posted a career batting mark of .295 with 352 steals and 94 triples in 18 seasons with St. Louis (1981-90 & 1996-99), Oakland (1990), San Francisco (1991-94) and Boston (1995). He currently ranks among Cardinals all-time top-10 leaders in stolen bases (301-4th), triples (83-7th) and pinch-hits (59-3rd).

In July of 1990, McGee was traded to the Oakland Athletics and helped them to the American League Championship. That year he became the first player in Major League history to win a batting title (.335) in one league after having been traded to a team in the other league. After stints in San Francisco and Boston, Willie returned to St. Louis in 1996 and helped the Cardinals to the N.L. Central title before retiring after the 1999 season.

McGee won Rawlings Gold Glove awards for defensive excellence in 1983, 1985 and 1986 and was a National League Silver Slugger recipient in 1985.

A 1976 graduate of Harry Ellis High School in Richmond, Calif., McGee and his wife, Vivian, have five children, Nanuashika, Jessica, Whitney, Virginia, William, and eight grandchildren.

CAREER NOTES:

Ward enters his first season in the Cardinals organization, joining the team in November of 2021 as Assistant Hitting Coach.

He previously served as a Major League hitting coach for Cincinnati (2019), Los Angeles Dodgers (2016-18) and the Arizona Diamondbacks (2014-15) and he was the Assistant Hitting Coach for Arizona in 2013.

Ward, who turned 57 on April 11, played 12 seasons in the majors from 1990-2001 before transitioning into coaching.

Drafted by the Yankees (18th round) in 1986 as an outfielder out of the University of South Alabama, the switch-hitting Ward played for the Indians (1990-91), Blue Jays (1991-1993), Brewers (1994-96), Pirates (1997-99), Diamondbacks (1999-2000) and Phillies (2001).

He spent eight years coaching in the Arizona Diamondbacks organization, serving as Hitting Coach at Class AA Mobile (2008-10), Manager at Mobile (2011-12), Assistant Hitting coach for Arizona (2013) and Hitting Coach for Arizona (2014-15). The Alabama native was the Hitting Coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 2016-18, which included consecutive trips to the World Series in 2017 and 2018. Ward then joined the Cincinnati Reds as hitting coach in 2019. He also managed in the minors in 2006 with the Gulf Coast League Pirates and in 2007 with the State College Spikes of the New York-Penn League (A).

Ward's Mobile teams won consecutive Southern League championships in 2011 and 2012, and he was named Southern League Manager of the Year in 2011 as Mobile was voted Minor League Team of the Year by Baseball America. Ward in 2012 was a coach for the World Team at the All-Star Futures Game at Kansas CIty and managed in the Southern League All-Star Game.

Ward played for the Toronto Blue Jays' World Series championship teams in 1992 and 1993 and he hit a pinch-hit, two-run HR in Game 3 of the 1999 NL Division Series for Arizona against the New York Mets. He was playing RF for the Pirates vs the Dodgers on 5/3/98 at Three Rivers Stadium when the momentum of his leaping catch of Mike Piazza's fly ball carried him through the outfield wall.

Ward graduated from Satsuma (AL) High School and attended the University of South Alabama in Mobile, where he was a teammate of 19-year veteran Major Leaguer Luis Gonzalez, and Faulkner State (Ala.) Junior College. In 2016 earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Phoenix. Turner and his wife, Donna, have three children; Tucker, Olin and Kendall. His son Tucker, a right-handed pitcher, was selected out of Louisiana Tech University by the Diamondbacks in the 40th round of the 2105 amateur draft and spent three seasons in the Arizona organization.

CAREER NOTES:

Warner enters his 32nd season in the Cardinals organization and his fourth on the Opening Day Major League coaching staff as the third base coach. The 2022 season marks his sixth-straight year in some capacity on the Major League staff with two prior seasons (2017-18) being transferred onto the Major League coaching staff midway through the season following coaching transactions.

Warner has 11 years of managerial experience in the Cardinals organization, most recently as the manager of triple-A Memphis (2012-14) with double-A Springfield (2007-11) and high-A Palm Beach (2005-06) also under his tutelage. In 2003, his managerial career began with the rookie league Johnson City Cardinals of the short-season Appalachian League.

In 2005, Warner managed the Palm Beach Cardinals to the Florida State League playoffs, where the squad knocked off the Vero Beach Dodgers in three games (2-1) before winning the league championship in five games (3-2) over the heavily favored Lakeland Tigers. The resilient Palm Beach squad took the title game with home runs in the 9th and 10th innings tying and taking the lead on the road. Warner was named the 2005 George Kissell Award winner by his peers following his efforts.

Warner guided his teams to the postseason in five of his first eight years and 6-of-11 overall. His minor league managerial record stands at 734-730 (.501).

His coaching career began in 2000 serving as the batting practice pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals before moving on to take a coaching role for double-A New Haven in 2001. In 2002-03, Warner was the hitting coach for short-season New Jersey (A) and then held the same post with single-A Peoria in 2004.

Following his days as a minor league manager, Warner took roles as the team's Minor League Infield Coordinator (2015-16) and then Assistant Field Coordinator (2017-18).

Originally a 17th round draft pick (441st overall) by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1991 out of the University of Wyoming baseball program, Warner, a native of southern California, played nine years in the Cardinals minor leagues covering 792 career games. He batted .267 with 40 home runs and 242 RBI playing a myriad of positions including all infield spots, outfield and made three relief appearances as a pitcher. He played in 238 games as a shortstop, his most at any position.

Warner, 53, resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife Laura, sons, Colin Michael (1/9/04) and Benjamin Anthony (1/25/10) and daughter Callie Marie (10/2/11). He wears uniform No. 75 to honor the late Darryl Kile (flipping the 5-and-7), as the Cardinals have not issued uniform No. 57 since Kile's untimely death in 2002.

DUSTY BLAKE
PITCHING STRATEGIST (90)

Dusty Blake, 40, is entering his second season with the Cardinals organization in 2022. In his role, he works closely with the Major League coaching staff, video team and pitchers.

Before joining the Cardinals, Blake had spent the previous three seasons (2018-20) as pitching coach for the Duke University Blue Devils, where he handled the team's pitching staff in addition to managing scouting reports.

While at Duke, Blake's pitching staff set a school record in 2020 for consecutive scoreless innings (37) and had the program's first ever perfect game. The 2020 staff led the Atlantic Coast Conference in ERA, fewest walks and best strikeout/walk ratio, while also leading the nation in shutouts. Blue Devils pitcher Bryce Jarvis was the highest drafted (1st round -18th overall) player in Duke baseball history this past June. In 2018 and 2019, the team's pitchers set school records for strikeouts, ranking 14th in the nation in 2019.

Before his stint at Duke, Blake served as Head Coach and Associate Athletic Director at Pfeiffer University (NC) from 2013-17, where he led the NCAA Division II Falcons to back-to-back winning seasons in 2014-15 for the first time since 2003-04. Blake has also coached at USC Upstate (2012), Wofford College (2008-11), Catawba College (2006-07) and in the Coastal Plain League (summer ball). He also served as pitching coach and outfield coach at Pfeiffer (2005)

Blake is a graduate of Appalachian State University where he also pitched for the Mountaineers from 1999-2003. A native of Candor, NC, Blake resides in Durham, NC with his wife, Amy, and daughters, Mia and Macy.

PATRICK ELKINS
RUN PRODUCTION COACH (88)

Patrick "Packy" Elkins enters his 12th season in the Cardinals organization and his third as a member of the Major League coaching staff. His duties involve splitting time as a uniformed coach pregame, working with hitters alongside Jeff Albert and Turner Ward, while also developing advanced scouting.

Prior to his moving into his current role, Elkins worked five years as a Major League Pro Scout in the Cardinals organization and as a 4th Coach in 2014, where he joined Manager Mike Shildt's staff in Double-A Springfield.

Elkins played four years of college baseball at Belmont University in Nashville, Tenn., where he graduated with a Marketing degree in 2010. He was later selected by St. Louis in the 37th round of that season's First-Year Player Draft. The infielder played the 2010 season under Shildt in Johnson City, 2011 in Quad Cities, and 2012 in Palm Beach with Jeff Albert as his hitting coach.

Elkins, 34, resides in Raleigh, N.C. with his wife, Brittany, daughter, Annie (5), and son, Joseph (3).

- Was a perfect 10-0 on the road, becoming only the 3rd MLB pitcher (dating to 1908) to post a 1.000 road winning pct. while winning 10 or more games, joining Greg Maddux (13-0 for 1995 Braves) and Jimmy Key (10-0 for 1994 Yankees).

- In his only career relief appearance since joining St. Louis in 2018 (regular season and postseason), hurled a scoreless 10th inning on 10 pitches to earn the win in the 5-4 extra-inning victory over Atlanta in 2019 NLDS Game 4.
- Became the first Cardinals starting pitcher to earn a win as a reliever in extra innings since Lance Lynn in Game 1 of the 2013 NLCS vs. Los Angeles (13 innings).
- In the 2019 in NLCS Game 1 vs. Washington (6.0 IP, 7 H 1 R, 7 SO, 2 BB), became the 3rd pitcher in NLCS history to record at least seven strikeouts while allowing one run or fewer and suffer the loss, joining Dave Dravecky (1987 Padres) and Hall of Famer Tom Glavine (1991 Braves).

- Posted an 8-2 win over San Diego on 9/17 with 5.2 scoreless innings. It was his first win for the Cardinals in nearly two years (Sept. 12, 2019 in a day game at Colorado as Dexter Fowler and Kolten Wong hit back-to-back home runs to lead-off the game in a 10-3 victory).

CAREER NOTES

- Future first ballot Hall of Famer returns to St. Louis for the final season of his legendary career.
- His 2022 return to St. Louis marks 10 seasons (2012-21) since winning the 2011 World Series, which will be the most seasons between a World Series win and a player's next game with the same franchise in MLB history. (Elias)
- Pujols joins six former Cardinals to play their first 10+ seasons in St. Louis and then return for a second stint (Rogers Hornsby, Bill Sherdel, Del Rice, Red Schoendienst, Tim McCarver, and Ray Lankford).
- Notable players in MLB history to leave their original teams but return to finish their careers include Pete Alexander (Phillies), Willie McCovey (Giants), Pete Rose (Reds), Tony Perez (Reds), Reggie Jackson (Athletics), Phil Niekro (Braves), Don Sutton (Dodgers), Gary Carter (Expos), Kirk Gibson (Tigers), Tom Glavine (Braves), Ken Griffey Jr. (Mariners), and Ichiro Suzuki (Mariners).
- 2022 will be the 18th season since Adam Wainwright made his debut to become teammates of Pujols and Yadier Molina; the 18-season span will be the 2nd-largest between a trio's first and final seasons playing for the same team in the last 40 years. The only trio with a longer span are Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, and Mariano Rivera with the Yankees (19-season span from 1995-2013) (Elias).
- Pujols is the active career leader and ranks in MLB's all-time Top 10 in RBI (2,150, 3rd), home runs (679, 5th), doubles (672, 5th), extra base hits (1,367, 4th), total bases (6,042, 4th), at-bats (11,114, 8th) and hits (3,301, 12th).
- Led the NL in runs scored five times, hits once (212 in 2003), home runs twice (2008, 2010), and RBI once (118 in 2010).
- Has three seasons of 100+ walks (2008-10), and 10 consecutive campaigns of posting more walks than strikeouts, which all came in St. Louis (2002-11).
- Has a hit and home run against all 30 Major League teams, completing the cycle against St. Louis with both milestones.
- Singled off Adam Wainwright on July 4, 2013 at Angel Stadium that gave him his 30th team to get at least one hit against.
- Went yard off Seth Maness on May 12, 2016 at Angel Stadium for his 30th team to homer against.
- Since Game 7 of the 2011 World Series, 32 different Cardinals have appeared in at least one regular-season game at first base, most by Matt Adams (381).
- Enters 2022 as the oldest active player in MLB, and the 6th-oldest position player in Cardinals history.
- Among position players in Cardinals history, only Gabby Street (48.355 in 1931), Bobby Wallace (44.302 in 1917), Heinie Peitz (42.185 in 1913), Walker Cooper (42.255 in 1957) and Stan Musial (42.312 in 1963) were older.
- With his first start at either first base or DH in 2022, will become the oldest Cardinals starter at either position in franchise history ... Willie McGee holds both records for oldest starting 1B (40.277 on August 6, 1999 at Pittsburgh) and starting DH (age 39.234 June 24, 1998 at Cleveland).

CAREER NOTES

- The 2022 season marks Wainwright's 18th as a Cardinal and 17th as an active player (2005-10, '12-22), 4th-most in franchise history and tied with Bob Gibson (17 years, 1959-75), for 2nd-most by a pitcher behind Jesse Haines (18 years, 1920-37).
- Among players to appear exclusively as a Cardinal in their career, only Stan Musial (22, 1941-44, '46-63) and Yadier Molina (19, 2004-22) have been a Cardinal longer than Wainwright.
- Wainwright is the 2nd-longest tenured active Major Leaguer to appear with the same franchise, trailing only teammate Yadier Molina (19, 2004-22).
- Enters the 2022 season as the 4th-oldest active player in Major League Baseball behind Albert Pujols, Rich Hill, and Nelson Cruz.
- Has faced every Major League team except St. Louis, and earned a regular season win against 26 teams in his career (Orioles, Yankees, Rangers & Cardinals are the exceptions).
- Threw a near perfect game on May 20, 2014 vs. Arizona, facing just one over the minimum; pitched a complete game one-hit (Paul Goldschmidt double) shutout as he walked none and struck out nine in the 5-0 win.
- Settled for a two-hit shutout the previous season on May 11, 2013 vs. Colorado, allowing his first hit of the game on a one-out single in the 8th inning to Nolan Arenado.

BEN JOHNSON — MANAGER

Ben Johnson enters his fourth year as a coach in the Cardinals organization, all as manager of the Memphis Redbirds.

Last season, the Redbirds reeled off a franchise record 15-game winning streak (July 9-25), which tied for the longest in all of Minor League Baseball during the 2021 season.

In his first season leading the Redbirds, Johnson's squad won 29 of their final 40 games and were in contention for the division title until Memphis was eliminated on the second to last day of the season by Iowa. The Redbirds clubbed a franchise record 200 home runs in 2019, outdistancing their previous high of 181 in 2004.

Johnson came to the Cardinals from the Durham Bulls, the Triple-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, where he spent the 2018 season as the third base coach working with outfielders and base running. The Bulls led the International League in home runs, slugging percentage, runs scored and finished second in hits on their way to the league championship.

Prior to his time with the Bulls, Johnson was a scout with the Arizona Diamondbacks (2014-17), coached high school baseball at Millennium High School in Goodyear, Ariz. (2011-13), and managed Independent League baseball in Arizona.

No stranger to Bluff City, Johnson was born in Memphis, Tenn., and played high school baseball at Germantown High School with 10-year veteran Major League pitcher Paul Maholm. Upon graduation from high school, Johnson was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 4th round of the June 1999 First-Year Player draft. During the 2000 season, he was traded along with RHP Heathcliff Slocumb to the San Diego Padres in exchange for veteran catcher Carlos Hernandez and minor league infielder Nate Tebbs.

Johnson made his Major League debut on June 26, 2005, vs. Seattle and would play 98 games over the next three seasons as a member of the Padres and Mets. He posted a career batting average of .230 with seven home runs and 26 RBI while playing all three outfield positions.

He was named the Padres Minor League Player of the Year in 2005 when he hit a career-high .312 with 25 home runs and 83 RBI as a member of the Portland Beavers. Johnson played 901 games over parts of 10 minor league seasons with the Cardinals, Padres, Mets and Tigers organizations batting .262 with 115 career home runs and 473 RBI. He played his final season in professional baseball in 2010 with the Erie Seawolves of the Eastern League in the Tigers organization.

Johnson, 40, is married to his wife Elizabeth and the couple has two children, Ethan and Ruby. They reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

BRANDON ALLEN — HITTING COACH

Allen enters his sixth season in the Cardinals organization and his third as a hitting coach in Memphis after serving in the same capacity in Springfield (AA) in 2019, Palm Beach (A) in 2018 and Johnson City (R) in 2017.

In 2021, Allen mentored a lineup that featured Cardinals top prospects Nolan Gorman and Juan Yepez, who collectively hit .282 with 36 HR, 39 doubles and 111 RBI for Memphis.

Allen played professionally for 13 years that included parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues. The former left-handed hitter batted a combined .203 with 12 home runs and 41 RBI in 116 games between Arizona (2009-11), Oakland (2011-12), Tampa Bay (2012).

In 2011, Allen became only the second player in history to homer into the upper deck at the New Yankee Stadium (Russell Branyan being the first). In 2012, Allen was the Opening Day first baseman for the eventual A.L. West champion Oakland Athletics, starting the MLB opener on March 28 in Tokyo against the Mariners.

Allen, who earned a football scholarship to Rice as a linebacker/defensive end and had a baseball scholarship at the University of Houston, was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the fifth round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of Montgomery (Texas) High School. The 36-year-old resides in Indiana, Pa., with his wife Gabrielle.

DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco enters his fifth season as pitching coach with Memphis and 17th in the Cardinals organization, serving at five different levels of player development.

The 2021 Memphis staff was led by Matthew Liberatore, who finished with a 2.67 ERA over his last 10 starts despite never pitching above Low-A prior to the start of the season.

The 2018 Redbirds led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.54 ERA out-distancing second place Oklahoma City (3.92) and allowed the fewest hits, en route to the league championship and Triple-A National Championship. The Redbirds pitching staff was led by Dakota Hudson, the PCL Pitcher of the Year and 2018 Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

Orozco previously spent three seasons as pitching coach with Peoria (A), all of which included trips to the Midwest League playoffs, following two seasons with State College (A) in the New York-Penn League.

The Chiefs pitching staff combined for at least 10 shutouts in each of Orozco's three seasons, and the 2015 Peoria squad led the league in strikeouts (1,149) while boasting the league leader in ERA (Matt Pearce, 2.43), wins (Austin Gomber, 15) and strikeouts (Gomber, 140). In 2014, his State College pitching staff ranked second in the league in ERA (2.97) en route to the league championship while posting an outstanding 0.87 ERA over six postseason games, including two shutouts. The 2013 State College squad led the New York-Penn League in ERA (2.80).

Orozco began his time with the Cardinals as a coach in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006-08 before receiving the title of pitching coach in Venezuela in 2010. He was the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009 and 2011.

Orozco played six pro seasons in the Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) in 2002, and went 4-2 over 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season.

Orozco, 41, resides in Venezuela in the off-season.

JOSÉ LEGER — MANAGER

Leger enters his second season as manager of the Springfield Cardinals and fifth as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He previously spent three seasons as the Latin American Field & Academy Development Coordinator at the Cardinals Dominican complex in Boca Chica (2018-20).

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Leger served as a manager across three levels in the New York Mets organization from 2010-17 where he compiled a 389-368 career record. He was named the 2015 South Atlantic League Manager of the Year after piloting Savannah (A) to a playoff berth with an overall record of 84-53. During his time in the Mets system, he had a role in developing well known prospects Amed Rosairo, Dominic Smith, Luis Guillorme and Tomas Nido. Leger started his collegiate career at Middle Georgia College (2001-02), where the Warriors qualified for the JUCO World Series both seasons and he was named to Georgia's All-Star team in 2002. He then transferred to Georgia College & State University (Division II) for the 2003 and 2004 seasons and was named to the Peach Belt All-Conference team both years.

Signed as a non-drafted free agent by Minnesota in July 2004, Leger played in 154 minor league games in the Twins systems as a catcher and infielder from 2004-08. He advanced as high as Double-A in the Eastern League at New Britain (CT) in 2006, before an injury to his right shoulder kept him from playing in 2007 and 2008. He ended his professional career with a batting average of .269 with 2 HR and 67 RBI. He started his coaching career in 2009, serving as hitting coach for the DSL Twins.

In 2013, the Los Angeles Dodgers selected him with their 33rd round pick in the June 2013 First-Year Player Draft. Pederson played one year of professional baseball in the Arizona League before competing in Independent League baseball from 2014-16 with the San Rafael Pacifics, Vallejo Admirals and Rockford Aviators.

Pederson, 33, comes from an athletic family. He is the son of former Dodgers outfielder Stu Pederson, and the older brother of All-Star outfielder Joc Pederson. The 2019 Springfield pitching staff was led by Angel Rondón, the Texas League ERA leader and 2019 Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

In the 2018-19 off-season, Marrero was the pitching coach for Panama which won the Caribbean Series and posted the lowest ERA in the tournament. He also served as pitching coach for Venezuela in the Pre-Olympics in the 2020-21 off-season.

GARY KENDALL — MANAGER

Gary Kendall joins the Cardinals organization as manager of the Palm Beach Cardinals following two years as manager of the Triple-A Norfolk Tides and 17 years managing overall in the Orioles organization.

He led four teams to the postseason in his career including an Eastern League Championship with the 2015 Bowie Baysox (AA) and the 2013 Arizona Fall League Championship with the Surprise Saguaros. Overall, Kendall has compiled a 1,014-1,084 record as a manager in the minor leagues.

Prior to coaching in professional baseball, Kendall began his career coaching as a 23-year old at the Community College of Baltimore from 1987-89 before moving on to Towson State University (1990-91). Scouting was the next calling for Kendall as he served as a part-time scout for the Orioles for five seasons (1991-95) and four more years with the Padres (1996-99).

Kendall's coaching career with the Orioles included stints as a field coach in Bluefield (2000-01) and Aberdeen (2002-03). His field manager career began with Bluefield in 2004 and spanned the next 16 seasons through Delmarva (2005-07), Aberdeen (2008-10) Bowie (2011-18) and Norfolk (2019 & 2021). Kendall holds the record for most managerial wins for Bowie with 570 over his eight years with the Double-A club.

Kendall, 58, resides in Princess Anne, Maryland in the off-season with his wife Merlita and daughter, Isabel.

KEDEEM OCTAVE — HITTING COACH

Kedeem Octave begins his first season as hitting coach for the Palm Beach Cardinals. It is his second stint with the Cardinals organization, having previously been hired as a 4th Coach with the Peoria Chiefs in 2020 before COVID-19 protocols canceled the season.

Octave worked for the Mets in the Dominican Republic in 2021, establishing infrastructure with technology and data to track and improve the progress of hitters. His professional baseball experience also includes the 2019 season in the Twins organization working with Video and Data Analysis. In 2018, he served as the Director of Baseball Operations for the United States Military Academy at West Point, scheduling the team's travel, budget and video.

Octave founded the K.S. Octave Foundation in 2019 to give all kids an opportunity to succeed in the game of baseball, regardless of financial background. The foundation currently awards one scholarship a year to a graduating senior to continue their career in baseball (ksoctavefoundation.org).

His playing career includes a season in Independent League baseball with the Great Bend Boom of the Pecos League in 2016 after playing at Division II St. Thomas Aquinas of the East Coast Conference in 2014.

Octave, 28, resides in New York in the off-season.

GIOVANNI CARRARA — PITCHING COACH

Giovanni Carrara begins his eighth season in the Cardinals organization and first as pitching coach for Palm Beach after seven seasons as pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals. He also served as pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals in 2015.

The 2018 GCL squad, which advanced to the league championship, led the league with 40 wins and had the league ERA champion in Perry DellaValle. The 2016 club captured the GCL Championship behind five wins and a 2.32 ERA from Franyel Casadilla, who also tossed five shutout innings in a game one, 3-0 win in the finals vs. the GCL Phillies.

Carrara was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela by the Blue Jays in 1990. He pitched in parts of 10 MLB seasons (1995-2006), appearing in games with the Blue Jays (1995-96), Reds (1996-97), Rockies (2000), Dodgers (2001-02, 2004-06) and Mariners (2003). He posted a 29-18 career record with a 4.69 ERA in 313 games (18 starts).

He posted a career-best 2.18 ERA in 2004 when he went 5-2 with two saves in 42 appearances as an integral part of the Dodgers bullpen. The Dodgers claimed the National League West Division that season, and Carrara made three postseason appearances before his team fell to St. Louis in the NL Division Series. Carrara pitched in a career-high 72 games at the age of 37 in 2005, winning a career-high seven games in a relief role.

Carrara, 54, represented Italy in the 2007 Euros due to his parents heritage from Italy. He resides in El Tigre, Venezuela, in the off-season.

Espinoza enters his ninth season in a coaching role for the Cardinals organization and his second as manager for the FCL Cardinals. Previously, he served as manager for the Johnson City Cardinals (2017-20) where he won the 2019 Appalachian League Championship.

Prior to his managerial turn, Espinoza was hitting coach for the Appalachian League Champion squad in 2016. In 2015, Espinoza was hitting coach for the GCL Cardinals following a year as the bullpen assistant in St. Louis.

The former Cardinals minor league catcher was originally signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent out of Palo Negro, Venezuela, in March 2006.

He played five seasons in the Cardinals organization before an injury sidelined him during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, when he pursued a career in coaching. Espinoza played in 202 games, advancing as far as Palm Beach (High-A) in 2010.

Espinoza, 33, resides in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., in the off-season with his wife Johely and children Roberto Alexander and Valeria.

Gilkey enters his third season as a coach with the FCL Cardinals following a two-year role (2018-19) on the Cardinals Core staff in the Baseball Operations and Player Development department.

The former Cardinals outfielder played 12 Major League seasons with five organizations (Cardinals, Mets, Diamondbacks, Braves and Red Sox). He compiled a .275 BA with 118 HR and 546 RBI over 1,239 career games. His finest season came with the Mets in 1996 batting .317 with 30 HR and 117 RBI, finishing 14th in the National League MVP voting.

Off the field, Gilkey made an appearance as an actor in the 1997 hit movie “Men in Black.”

Gilkey, 55, resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife Patrice. The couple have two sons, Jaelen, who played college baseball at Central Arizona JC and Miles College, and Caeven, who played at High Point University.

RICK HARIG — PITCHING COACH

Harig begins his first season as pitching coach for the FCL Cardinals and fifth as a coach in the Cardinals organization.

Harig was the pitching coach for Peoria last season and was set to serve the same role for Palm Beach in 2020 before the minor league season was cancelled. Prior to that, he spent two seasons as pitching coach in Johnson City (2018-19).

Harig joined the Cardinals baseball operations department in 2016 after more than 30 years as a coach at the amateur level, as well as work in player development and scouting for several MLB teams.

In his coaching experience, Harig amassed more than 1,300 wins and nine state championships as an American Legion and high school coach, and was a 2015 inductee of the Colorado Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. A University of Colorado-Boulder graduate, Harig taught high school math at Fairview High School from 1985-2016 to pupils such as former MLB pitcher Jesse Crain and Cardinals President of Baseball Operations John Mozeliak. He also worked part-time for the San Diego Padres player development department in the mid-2000s and was a regional scout for various MLB teams for 15 years.

Harig also started his own company in 2007, working as a performance coach and keynote speaker who focuses on performance development.

DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man.

A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

TALE OF 10,000 TRIUMPHS

On June 25, 2018, the St. Louis Cardinals won their 10,000th regular-season game as a member of the National League with a 4-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians at Busch Stadium.

The Cardinals became the sixth N.L. franchise to reach that plateau, following the Braves, Cubs, Dodgers, Giants, and Pirates. The Yankees also boast 10,000 wins.

After playing in the American Association from 1881-91, St. Louis became a charter member of the newly reorganized N.L. in 1892. The club was known as the Browns (1892–98) and Perfectos (1899) before becoming the Cardinals in 1900.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

In the 130-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 15 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owner's box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (21 numbers/22 individuals) have recognized more individuals among Major League Baseball franchises. The honored Redbirds' uniform numbers appear in two areas at Busch Stadium – on the left-field wall and below the main scoreboard in right-center field.

Uniform No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. The Cardinals subsequently retired No. 42 for Hall of Fame relief pitcher Bruce Sutter in 2006.

The most-recent Redbird so honored was Hall of Fame catcher Ted Simmons, whose No. 23 was retired during a pregame ceremony at Busch Stadium on July 31, 2021. He also was awarded the 12th statue outside of Busch Stadium – the first unveiled outside Busch Stadium III.

OZZIE SMITH
SHORTSTOP

1

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 150 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: December 26, 1954 at Mobile, Alabama
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But, after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success in the 1980s, and he became one of the city's most-popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly improved that figure to .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career-high six home runs and 54 RBI. He stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast – on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer – was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Glove Awards between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 5, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Among shortstops, Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375) and ranks second in total chances (12,905) and double plays (1,590). He led the N.L. in fielding percentage seven times and had a career .978 mark. In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove team, selected to honor the 50th anniversary of the Gold Glove Award.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games and started 11 of them. At the time of his retirement following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Midsummer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On the Cardinals' career lists, Smith ranks third in walks (876) and stolen bases (433); fourth in games played (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and sacrifice flies (54); tied for fourth in sacrifices (131); seventh in runs (991) and game-winning RBI (83); and eighth in hits (1,944).

Held in high esteem for his civic-mindedness, Smith received the Lou Gehrig Award (presented to the player who best exhibits the character and integrity of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field) in 1989, the Branch Rickey Award (in recognition of his exceptional community service) in 1994 and the Roberto Clemente Award (presented to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team) in 1995.

Smith was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2002, earning 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America, and an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

RED SCHOENDIENST
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: February 2, 1923 at Germantown, Illinois
DIED: June 6, 2018 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and was involved with the organization for a total of 67 years.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club to fill in for left fielder Stan Musial, who was serving in the U.S. Navy. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. The following year, Musial returned to the Cardinals, and Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average – second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers (.344), 15 home runs and 79 RBI. In a surprising trade, Schoendienst was dealt to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman on June 14, 1956.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in pinch-hits (54), fifth in at-bats (6,841), sixth in games played (1,795) and runs (1,025), seventh in hits (1,980), eighth in doubles (352) and ninth in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times he either led or tied for the league lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory over the Red Sox in 1967 and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, the longest in franchise history until Tony La Russa surpassed him in 2008. Schoendienst's 1,041 wins ranks second in franchise annals behind Tony La Russa (1,408).

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Midsummer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. From 1996 to 2018, Schoendienst served as special assistant to the general manager. Schoendienst was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

STAN MUSIAL
OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Left THREW: Left
BORN: November 21, 1920 at Donora, Pennsylvania
DIED: January 19, 2013 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games played (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), extra-base hits (1,377), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,605), intentional walks (298), total bases (6,134) and multi-hit games (1,059). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks ninth with 35 pinch-hits. He has the most walk-off homers in franchise history (12) and the second-most multiple-homer games (37), extra-inning homers (11) and grand slams (9) – behind Albert Pujols (42, 13 and 12, respectively).

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season, beginning a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples en route to earning the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of four World Series teams (1942, 1943, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Midsummer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch-hit double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He still has the fourth-most hits in baseball history – behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Following his playing days, Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the Cardinals and served as general manager when they won the 1967 World Series over the Boston Red Sox.

Musial was the first player in Cardinals history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1969, receiving 93 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Musial was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Rogers Hornsby as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

More than anything else, the personable Musial was a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." In 2010, Musial was chosen by former President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER
OUTFIELDER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: April 27, 1916 at Roxboro, North Carolina
DIED: August 12, 2002 at Durham, North Carolina
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained at first base as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of four straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average – second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves (.330) – and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history. The Cardinals won the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1949 and topped the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On the Cardinals' career lists, he ranks third in triples (135) and RBI (1,149); fourth in walks (838) and multi-hit games (597); fifth in games played (1,820), runs (1,071), extra-base hits (647) and total bases (3,138); sixth in at-bats (6,775) and hits (2,064); and seventh in doubles (366). He is the franchise career leader with 20 bases-loaded walks. Slaughter batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1985, and he was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

TONY La RUSSA
MANAGER

10

FULL NAME: Anthony La Russa Jr.
BORN: October 4, 1944 at Tampa, Florida
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1996-2011
NUMBER RETIRED: 2012

Tony La Russa was tantamount with winning.

As manager of the Cardinals from 1996 to 2011, La Russa amassed 1,408 victories. He became the winningest manager in franchise history Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042.

La Russa also won championships in St. Louis: eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2006 and 2011 World Series. All told, the Cardinals made nine postseason appearances in La Russa's franchise-most 16 seasons at the helm, and his teams finished first, second or third in the N.L. Central Division 13 times.

His finest hour may have been his last. Trailing the Texas Rangers three games to two in the 2011 World Series – and twice down to their final strike in Game 6 – the Cardinals rallied to force Game 7 and went on to capture the franchise's 11th world championship. It capped a magical two-month odyssey for the ball club, which had been staving off elimination seemingly at every turn since Aug. 25, when it trailed the N.L. wild card race by 10 1/2 games, and made the playoffs on the season's final day.

When La Russa announced his retirement Oct. 31, 2011, his 16 years of continuous service were the most among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). He returned to the White Sox for the 2021 season, becoming the first active Hall of Fame manager (not Hall of Fame player who became manager) in baseball annals. Over 34 seasons, La Russa has amassed 2,821 victories and managed 5,259 games, ranking second in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731 wins and 7,755 games).

La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of two to win a World Series title in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 71 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 2 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

In Oakland, La Russa piloted the A's to four division titles, three American League pennants and the 1989 World Championship. He is the A's franchise leader with 798 wins. The 1983 White Sox won the A.L. Western Division to make their first postseason appearance in 24 years.

La Russa and Leo Durocher are the only managers in major league history to win 500 games with three different teams. La Russa was named Major League Manager of the Year in 1983 and 1996; A.L. Manager of the Year in 1983, 1988 and 1992; and N.L. Manager of the Year in 2002.

La Russa is the only manager to win an All-Star Game in both leagues, and he had a 4-2 record in the Midsummer Classic.

A native of Tampa, Fla., La Russa played second base, shortstop and third base in the majors for parts of six seasons with the Kansas City A's (1963), Oakland (1968-71), Atlanta (1971) and Chicago Cubs (1973).

Nineteen years before becoming manager of the Cardinals, La Russa served as a player-coach for the organization's New Orleans Triple-A affiliate in 1977. He began his managerial career a year later in the White Sox minor league system with Double-A Knoxville.

La Russa is a 1978 graduate of the Florida State University College of Law. He passed the bar exam in 1979 and became one of five lawyer/managers in baseball history, joining Monte Ward, Hughie Jennings, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey.

In 2014, La Russa was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Elaine, are the founders of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation, which saves abandoned dogs and cats and finds them homes.

Before returning to the White Sox, La Russa served as an executive with Major League Baseball (2012-13), the Arizona Diamondbacks (2014-17), Boston Red Sox (2017-19) and Los Angeles Angels (2019-20).

THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: May 20, 1931 at Liberty, Missouri
DIED: September 7, 1982 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

Only one player in Cardinals history has hit for the cycle twice. Ken Boyer accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove Awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory and contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game, 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Midsummer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists, Boyer ranks third in home runs (255); sixth in RBI (1,001); seventh in at-bats (6,334), total bases (3,011) and sacrifice flies (48); eighth in runs (988); ninth in games played (1,667), hits (1,855) and extra-base hits (585); and 10th in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for third in club history behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club on April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division the following year. But, in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got on track, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age. He was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the Gas House Gang. The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout in an 11-0 Game 7 win.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On the Cardinals' career lists, Dean ranks third in strikeouts (1,095), sixth in complete games (141) and shutouts (23), seventh in wins (134) and 10th in innings pitched (1,737.1). His .641 winning percentage is tops among pitchers with a minimum of 1,500 innings, while his 2.99 ERA ranks fifth.

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1953 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: June 18, 1939 at El Dorado, Arkansas
DIED: September 6, 2020 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he owns the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering Maury Wills' mark of 104 during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases, making him the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), becoming the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium. Brock's 3,023 career hits rank 28th on baseball's all-time list through 2021.

Upon his arrival in St. Louis, Brock paid immediate dividends, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) ranks as the third-best in World Series history, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox. Brock holds the Fall Classic record for stolen bases in a single series (7 in both 1967 and 1968).

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 – Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games played (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427), hits (2,713) and multi-hit games (788); third in doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121), extra-base hits (684) and intentional walks (118); and seventh in walks (681). His 21 career leadoff home runs are the second-most in club annals behind Matt Carpenter (24).

Brock remained active in baseball after retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a base-running consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (base running and outfield play) from 1995-2020.

The six-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1985 and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Brock was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

TED SIMMONS
CATCHER/FIRST BASEMAN

23

FULL NAME: Ted Lyle Simmons
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 193 BATTED: Switch THREW: Right
BORN: August 9, 1949 at Highland Park, Michigan
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1968-80
NUMBER RETIRED: 2020

Ted Simmons was a switch-hitting catcher for the Cardinals and a fan favorite from 1968 to 1980 as part of a 21-year major league career that eventually led to his election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Simmons was selected by the Cardinals in the first round (10th overall) of the 1967 MLB June Amateur Draft. He made his big league debut a year later at age 19 and went on to become a six-time All-Star with the Cardinals: 1972, 1973, 1974, 1977, 1978 and 1979. He was voted the National League starter in 1978, ending Johnny Bench's streak of nine straight starts.

Simmons placed in the top 10 in the N.L. in batting average and RBI five times with the Cardinals. He was runner-up for the batting crown with a .332 average in 1975, when he had 18 home runs and 100 RBI and finished sixth in Most Valuable Player voting. Simmons boasted two other top-10 MVP campaigns (ninth in 1977 and 10th in 1972) and won a Silver Slugger Award in 1980 (its inaugural season). From 1972 to 1978, he played an average of 153 games per season.

- Fernando Tatís, 1998-2000
- Bernard Gilkey, 1990-95
- Sam Jones, 1957-58

On the Cardinals' career lists, Simmons ranks third in sacrifice flies (67), eighth in RBI (929), ninth in home runs (172) and 10th in total bases (2,626). A .298 batter, he is third with 151 intentional walks and tied for third with seven grand slams – trailing only Stan Musial and Albert Pujols in both categories. His 1,439 games behind the plate are second to Yadier Molina in franchise history. Simmons holds season records for home runs (26 in 1979) and RBI (96 in 1972) by a catcher.

Acclaimed for handling pitchers with aplomb, Simmons caught two no-hitters – Bob Gibson at Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, and Bob Forsch against Philadelphia on April 16, 1978 – and 122 shutouts (eighth-most in baseball history).

On Dec. 12, 1980, the Cardinals traded Simmons, Rollie Fingers and Pete Vuckovich to the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for Sixto Lezcano, Lary Sorensen, Dave LaPoint and David Green. Simmons was instrumental in helping the Brewers reach the World Series for the first time in franchise history in 1982 against the Cardinals. In Game 1 of the Fall Classic – his first time back in St. Louis – Simmons socked a home run, and he hit another one the next night.

Simmons played in Milwaukee through the 1985 season and then spent three years with the Atlanta Braves before retiring. For his career, he slashed .285/.348/.437 with 2,472 hits, 248 home runs and 1,389 RBI. He drew 855 walks and struck out only 694 times in 8,680 at-bats.

Simmons returned to the Cardinals as director of player development from 1988 to 1991 and then was general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates for a year before becoming a coach, advisor and scout with several organizations.

Simmons was a member of the Hall of Fame Class of 2020 after receiving 13 votes from the 16-member Modern Baseball Era Committee. His selection came 25 years after receiving just 3.7% of the vote by the Baseball Writers' Association of America in his year first of eligibility and being dropped from the ballot. He was the 19th catcher inducted and merely the eighth who debuted after World War II, following Roy Campanella (1969), Yogi Berra (1972), Bench (1989), Carlton Fisk (2000), Gary Carter (2003), Mike Piazza (2016) and Ivan Rodriguez (2017).

Nicknamed "Simba" for his shoulder-length hair that resembled a lion's mane, Simmons was voted the catcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2015.

WHITEY HERZOG
MANAGER

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: November 9, 1931 at New Athens, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his on-field managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October. At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 37th on baseball's all-time list through 2021. He was named the 1982 Major League Manager of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it. Herzog was voted the manager on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: January 8, 1953 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made the split-fingered fastball famous, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969. Chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowed throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck out Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and tied for 30th through 2021. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind Jason Isringhausen (217), Lee Smith (160) and Todd Worrell (129). Sutter was voted the relief pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

BOB GIBSON
PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: November 9, 1935 at Omaha, Nebraska
DIED: October 2, 2020 at Omaha, Nebraska
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), games started (482), quality starts (328), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,884.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528). His 2.91 ERA ranks tied for second among pitchers with a minimum of 1,500 innings and tied for ninth among pitchers with a minimum of 750 innings.

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente on July 15 broke Gibson's right leg. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18. In the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox, Gibson went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts to again be named series MVP.

The postseason dominance was a sign of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered merely two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight distance-going performances. Gibson totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, socking 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Glove Awards. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1981 and an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and voted the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Gibson was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

"Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also did some broadcasting and served as a special instructor for the Cardinals from 1996-2020.

PROMINENT CARDINALS WHO WORE NO. 45

- Von McDaniel, 1957-58

Retired Numbers

ROGERS HORNSBY
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: April 27, 1896 at Winters, Texas

DIED: January 5, 1963 at Chicago, Illinois

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933

NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure.)

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby. And only two players have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, Hornsby batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On June 1, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees. He tagged out Babe Ruth attempting to steal second base for the final out of Game 7, calling the play that clinched the 3-2 victory "the biggest thrill of my baseball career."

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 26, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Hornsby ranks first in batting average (.359); second in triples (143); third in extra-base hits (703), multi-hit games (641) and sacrifices (135); fourth in runs (1,090), hits (2,110) and total bases (3,342); fifth in RBI (1,072); sixth in doubles (367); seventh in home runs (193); eighth in walks (662); and 10th in at-bats (5,881). His 30 career inside-the-park home runs are the most in club annals, while he is tied for third with seven grand slams behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1942. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Hornsby was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.
PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.
BORN: March 28, 1899 at St. Louis, Missouri
DIED: September 29, 1989 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of Busch Stadium II. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious for the ball club to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 8, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the city of St. Louis' most-popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996. August Jr. was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK
BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: August 21, 1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts
DIED: June 18, 2002 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-59, 1961-2001
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002

He never swung a bat or threw a pitch, yet Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals – perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX Radio for 47 years (1954-59 and 1961-2001). He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals victory was "That's a winner."

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked alongside another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cardinals third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the pleasure of calling games with his son, Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck received the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals baseball. He broadcast seven World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland A's. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS television's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1995, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram. Buck called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS television. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extended well beyond his trademark gravelly voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community. Late in his life, Buck became interested in writing poetry, and he authored a piece called "For America" that he read to the crowd at Busch Stadium prior to the Cardinals' first game following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. Buck passed away June 18, 2002, and some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

A key factor in the Cardinals' consistent success has been the leadership of outstanding field managers. For proof, look no further than the franchise's 10 winningest skippers – eight of them have been inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

While it is recognized that some of the managers earned induction into baseball's ultimate shrine for their accomplishments away from St. Louis or for their playing careers, the fact remains that the Cardinals have regularly employed Cooperstown-worthy individuals.

Following is a thumbnail sketch of each of the eight Hall of Famers, listed by victories in a St. Louis uniform:

TONY LA RUSSA

1st – 1,408 wins / 1996-2011 / Hall of Fame 2014

La Russa became the winningest manager in franchise history Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. The Cardinals won the 2006 and 2011 World Series, three National League pennants and eight division titles in his 16-year tenure, the longest in franchise history. Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). He returned to the White Sox for the 2021 season, becoming the first active Hall of Fame manager (not Hall of Fame player who became manager) in baseball annals. Over 34 seasons, La Russa has amassed 2,821 victories and managed 5,259 games, ranking second in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731 wins and 7,755 games). La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of just two to win a World Championship in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 71 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 2 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

RED SCHOENDIENST

2nd – 1,041 wins / 1965-76, 1980, 1990 / Hall of Fame 1989

Schoendienst served as a coach on the Cardinals' 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 followed by another National League pennant in 1968 and went on to occupy the manager's office for 12 years. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Previously, Schoendienst played for the Cardinals from 1945 to 1956 and again from 1961 to 1963, becoming one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time. A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Midsummer Classic.

WHITEY HERZOG

3rd – 822 wins / 1980-90 / Hall of Fame 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Herzog. His teams won three National League pennants (1982, 1985 and 1987) and the 1982 World Series, the franchise's first championship in 15 years. Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980, and that December, in the dual role of field manager and general manager, he began to transform the ball club with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. Fans subsequently flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79).

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

BILLY SOUTHWORTH

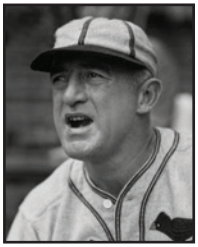

4th – 620 wins / 1929, 1940-45 / Hall of Fame 2009

Southworth piloted Cardinals teams that won the World Series in 1942 and 1944, sandwiched around a third National League pennant in 1943. St. Louis won a franchise-best 106 games in 1942, followed by back-to-back 105-win seasons, marking the best three-year run in team annals. Furthermore, a Redbird won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award each of those years: pitcher Mort Cooper in 1942, outfielder Stan Musial in 1943 and shortstop Marty Marion in 1944. Southworth's winning percentage of .642 tops the Cardinals' record book. After leaving St. Louis, Southworth managed the Boston Braves from 1946 to 1951, capturing the N.L. pennant in 1948. His lifetime winning percentage of .597 (1,044-704 record) ranks fifth on baseball's all-time list, trailing Joe McCarthy (.615), Jim Mutrie (.611), Charlie Comiskey (.608) and Frank Selee (.598).

FRANKIE FRISCH

T6th – 458 wins / 1933-38 / Hall of Fame 1947

The 1934 Cardinals – the collection of swashbuckling players dubbed the Gas House Gang – won the World Series with a roster that featured seven future Hall of Famers. The leader of the posse was Frisch, who filled the two-fold role of second baseman and manager for six seasons. The 1931 National League Most Valuable Player posted a winning record in each of his four full campaigns, recording 95 victories in 1934 and 96 the following year. Frisch, who played in the major leagues for 19 years with the New York Giants (1919-26) and Cardinals (1927-37), finished with 2,880 career hits and a .316 batting average, the highest ever for a switch-hitter. He played on two World Championship teams with each organization and was a member of the first three N.L. All-Star teams from 1933 to 1935. Frisch later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates (1940-46) and Chicago Cubs (1949-51).

BRANCH RICKEY

T6th – 458 wins / 1919-25 / Hall of Fame 1967

Certainly, Rickey is most known for his role in Jackie Robinson breaking Major League Baseball's color barrier and for creating and sustaining the first significant farm system. But during his quarter-century as manager and vice president of the Cardinals from 1917 to 1942, Rickey transformed the once-downtrodden franchise into a bona fide winner. With Rickey as manager, St. Louis finished as high as third in the National League in 1921 and 1922, but a foundation was being laid that led to the franchise's first four World Championships (1926, 1931, 1934 and 1942) and two additional N.L. pennants (1928 and 1930). Rickey, who previously was manager of the St. Louis Browns from 1913 to 1915, went on to hold executive positions with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1943-50) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1950-55). He handpicked Robinson to become the first African American to play in the big leagues in 1947.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

JOE TORRE

9th – 351 wins / 1990-95 / Hall of Fame 2014

Torre was a standout catcher, first baseman and third baseman for the Cardinals from 1969 to 1974 and later manager during a time of transition. In 1971, he topped the National League with a .363 batting average and 137 RBI en route to being named Most Valuable Player. Torre batted .297 over the course of his 18-year career. Following managerial stints with the New York Mets (1977-81) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84), Torre returned to St. Louis to replace Whitey Herzog. He piloted the Cardinals to three winning seasons, including a second-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division in 1991. Toward the end of his tenure, Anheuser-Busch made plans to sell the franchise, and Torre moved on to the New York Yankees (1996-2007). His Bronx teams made the playoffs in each of his 12 seasons and won four World Series: 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000. Torre subsequently managed the Los Angeles Dodgers (2008 to 2010). His 84 postseason victories are the most all time.

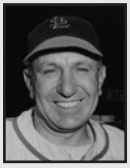

MILLER HUGGINS

10th – 346 wins / 1913-17 / Hall of Fame 1964

Like Joe Torre, Huggins enjoyed his ultimate success as manager of the New York Yankees. A second baseman for the Cardinals from 1910 to 1916, Huggins took on managerial duties as well in 1913. The following year, St. Louis wound up in third place in the National League with an 81-72 record, its best finish since 1891. Huggins went on to manage the Yankees from 1918 to 1929, winning the franchise's first World Series in 1923. Under Huggins, New York won six American League pennants and two additional World Championships (1927 and 1928) with their Murderer's Row lineup that included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. It was Huggins who inserted Gehrig into the starting lineup on June 2, 1925, beginning his streak of 2,130 consecutive games played.

The two non-Hall of Famers on the Cardinals' top 10 wins list are Mike Matheny and Eddie Dyer.

In six-plus seasons from 2012 to 2018, Matheny amassed 591 wins to rank fifth. He became the first manager in Major League Baseball history to take teams to the postseason in each of his first four full campaigns. The Cardinals won three consecutive National League Central Division championships from 2013 to 2015 and captured the N.L. pennant in 2013

Dyer ranks eighth with 446 wins after piloting the Cardinals from 1946 to 1950. His .578 winning percentage is topped only by Billy Southworth among St. Louis managers at the helm for more than two seasons. Dyer's first team, which welcomed back players who served in World War II, captured the franchise's third World Championship in five seasons, and each of his next three squads finished second in the N.L. Dyer did not manage again after leaving the Redbirds.

Five other individuals who served as manager of the Cardinals are Hall of Famers: Roger Bresnahan (1909-12), Roger Connor (1896), Rogers Hornsby (1925-26), Bill McKechnie (1928-29) and Kid Nichols (1904-05).

CARDINALS HALL OF FAME

The Cardinals Hall of Fame was established in January of 2014 to honor those individuals who have had a significant impact on the tradition-rich franchise.

Twenty-two individuals were automatically selected for the Hall of Fame in conjunction with its formation. Members of the inaugural class included those Cardinals enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, primarily as members of the Cardinals organization, and those individuals whose numbers have been retired by the franchise.

The Hall of Fame currently consists of 47 members.

To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played for the Cardinals for at least three seasons and have been retired from Major League Baseball for at least three years. Eligible players are divided into two categories – modern players and veteran players. A veteran is a player who retired more than 40 years prior to the induction year.

Annually, the Cardinals convene a "Red Ribbon Committee" of experts to select six to 10 players to be placed on a ballot on Cardinals.com, where fans have the opportunity to vote for a period of six weeks. The two players with the most online votes will be inducted. The committee also picks a veteran player to be inducted. In addition, the Cardinals organization may choose from time to time to induct an important figure in franchise history, such as a coach, broadcaster or member of the front office, without a vote or committee selection.

Each member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame is permanently recognized in the Hall of Fame Gallery presented by Edward Jones, located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Hall of Fame Gallery is free and open to the public.

The seventh and eighth induction classes of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame included pitcher John Tudor (1985-88, 1990), second baseman Tommy Herr (1979-88), first baseman Keith Hernandez (1974-83), and first baseman Bill White (1959-65, 1969), Saturday, August 21, 2021.
