At long last, Dick Allen is heading to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

One of the greatest sluggers of his generation, Allen was elected by the Classic Baseball Era Committee and will be posthumously inducted on July 27, 2025. During his 15-year major league career, which included nine seasons with the Phillies (1963-69; 1975-76), Allen posted a slash line of .292/.378/.534 (.912 OPS) with 320 doubles, 79 triples, 351 home runs, 1,119 RBI, 1,099 runs scored and 133 stolen bases in 1,749 games. The 1964 National League Rookie of the Year made seven All-Star teams, including three with the Phillies, and was named Most Valuable Player of the American League in 1972.

JOHN MIDDLETON

Managing Partner and Chief Executive Officer

John S. Middleton has been a limited partner of the Phillies ownership group since 1994. Middleton has been the team's control person and its managing partner and chief executive officer since November 2016. In those roles, he is responsible for the overall operation and success of the club as well as compliance with Major League Baseball rules.

Middleton served a four-year term (February 2021-February 2025) as one of the eight owners who comprise MLB's Executive Council. He currently chairs the MLB Ownership Committee which oversees various issues related to club ownership and is a member of the industry's Finance Committee.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Phillies, Middleton has taken a leadership role, in partnership with Comcast Spectacor, to envision and execute a major development initiative that will transform the Sports Complex into a year-round mixed-use destination enhancing the visitor experience for all sports fans and event attendees. In so doing, Middleton and the partners have expressed their long-term commitment to Philadelphia.

Middleton looks forward to welcoming baseball fans to Philadelphia in 2026 when the Phillies host the 96th MLB All-Star Game. The game will be one of many events in the city to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Leigh and John Middleton have been honored by numerous organizations and causes including the prestigious Philadelphia Award for their civic and philanthropic contributions and leadership. The Middletons have been universally lauded for their efforts to end chronic homelessness in Philadelphia through their consistent and long-term commitment to Project HOME, on whose board of directors Leigh has long served. The Middletons also support education and workforce development through programmatic initiatives undertaken by the City of Philadelphia, the School District of Philadelphia, Drexel University, Philadelphia Youth Network and Philadelphia Academies.

Born and raised in Havertown, Pa., Middleton is a 1977 magna cum laude graduate of Amherst College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics, and a 1979 graduate of the Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration. He has served as a member of the board of trustees for both Amherst College and Penn Medicine.

EXECUTIVES

DAVID DOMBROWSKI

President of Baseball Operations

David Dombrowski was hired as the Phillies' first-ever president of baseball operations on Dec. 11, 2020. Philadelphia marks his fifth organization in charge of a baseball operations department, following stints with the Montreal Expos (1988-91), Florida Marlins (1991-2001), Detroit Tigers (2001-15) and Boston Red Sox (2015-19). Throughout his distinguished career, David has built two World Series-winning teams in Florida (1997) and Boston (2018), and his clubs have won five pennants and eight division titles. In 2022, when the Phillies captured their eighth National League pennant, David became the first head of baseball operations to lead four franchises to the World Series.

Over his time in Philadelphia (since 2021), the Phillies have posted four consecutive winning seasons – a first for the club since the 2006-11 campaigns – and have increased their win total in each year (82, 87, 90 & 95), with their .546 winning percentage (354-294) ranking fourth-best in the Senior Circuit in that span. In 2024, the Phillies won the NL East division title, the 12th in team history and first since the 2011 season.

Prior to joining the Phillies, David had spent most of 2020 working with Music City Baseball, a group dedicated to bringing a Major League Baseball team to Nashville, Tenn. He began as a consultant and a member of the board of directors until being named president on Nov. 1, positions that he abdicated upon being hired by the Phillies.

Before Nashville, David's previous affiliation with a major league club resulted in a World Series win. He joined the Boston Red Sox as president of baseball operations on Aug. 18, 2015, a position he held until September of 2019. From his hire date through the end of the 2018 season – when the Red Sox won the World Series – his club amassed the best record in all of Major League Baseball (320-210, .604). During his three full seasons in Boston (2016-18), the team won the American League East division title all three years, the first time in franchise history it had won consecutive AL East titles since the current alignment was established in 1969. The club's third consecutive division championship in 2018 came as the result of a single-season franchise-record 108 wins, eclipsing the previous record of 105 set in 1912, the first year at Fenway Park. Eleven more victories in the postseason gave Boston 119 for the year – the winningest season in club history.

Preceding David's time in Boston, he served as president, CEO & general manager of the Tigers from Nov. 5, 2001 until Aug. 4, 2015. In his time in Detroit, which spanned 14 seasons, his teams reached the postseason five times: first as the American League Wild Card winner in 2006, which snapped an 18-year playoff drought for the organization, and again with a franchise-record four consecutive AL Central division titles from 2011-14. Detroit captured the AL pennant twice in that time frame, in 2006 and in 2012, with the former marking the team's first trip to the World Series since 1984.

The Phillies mark his first time in charge of a National League club since David spent 10 years as GM for the Marlins. His tenure there began in September 1991, when was hired as the franchise's first-ever executive vice president and general manager. While at the helm in South Florida, David constructed the Marlins team that won the World Series title in 1997, just their fifth year of existence. Starting from their inaugural season in 1993 through 1997, the Marlins increased their winning percentage year over year, becoming the first-ever expansion team to do so. In 1998, the Marlins were honored by USA Today as Organization of the Year.

Before landing with the Marlins, David served the Expos for parts of five years (December 1986-September 1991) in a variety of front office roles, including director of the club's minor league system, assistant GM, vice president of player personnel and GM. He was 32 years old at the time of his appointment to GM prior to the 1990 season, the youngest chief baseball official in the major leagues at the time. Following the 1990 season, he was recognized as the UPI Major League Executive of the Year, and Baseball America acknowledged the Expos as Organization of the Year in both 1988 and 1990.

It was with the Chicago White Sox that David received his first baseball experience in 1978 under the tutelage of longtime baseball executive Roland Hemond. David spent four seasons working in the minor league and scouting department and in the player development department of the White Sox before being named assistant GM under Hemond in November 1981. He eventually was named vice president of baseball operations in December 1985.

In addition to his extensive accomplishments relating to on-field baseball performance, David has also been involved in areas off the field around the game. In April 2013, former Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig named him chairman of the Commissioner's On-Field Diversity Task Force, which addresses the talent pipeline that impacts the representation and development of diverse players and on-field personnel in Major League Baseball, particularly African Americans. While with the Tigers, also in 2013, he accepted the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence on behalf of the club for their Anti-Bullying community program.

Throughout his career, David has received numerous awards for his achievements in baseball, including Baseball America's Executive of the Year award in both 2006 and 2018. At MLB's annual General Managers Meetings, he has been recognized several times with the John Schuerholz Longevity Achievement Award for his years of service as a general manager and president of baseball operations, most recently in November 2023 for reaching 35 years in those roles. David was a co-recipient of The Sporting News' Executive of the Year Award with Milwaukee Brewers GM Doug Melvin in 2011 and received the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award the same year presented by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as AL Executive of the Year. In addition, he was named Sports Executive of the Year at the 10th annual March of Dimes National Athletic Awards dinner in February 1998. In January 2012, David was inducted into the Lou Boudreau Hall of Fame by the Pitch & Hit Club of Chicago.

A native of Chicago, David is a graduate of Richards High School in Oak Lawn, Ill. He attended Cornell University – where he played football – for one year, but later transferred to Western Michigan University where he earned a degree in business administration in 1979. His alma mater recognized him with its Distinguished Alumni Award in 1998. David and his wife Karie have dual residences in Philadelphia and Nashville. The couple has two children, a daughter, Darbi, who is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, and a son, Landon, a graduate of Wake Forest University who now works as a scout for the Seattle Mariners.

JACQUELINE S. CUDDEBACK
Chief Revenue Officer

Jackie Cuddeback was named chief revenue officer of the Phillies on Jan. 1, 2025. As a member of the executive leadership team, Jackie oversees the strategic development, execution and maximization of the Phillies' revenue-generating departments including media, corporate partnerships, ticketing, premium & suite sales and service, concessions, retail and all non-game day events.

Jackie brings over 25 years of sales, marketing and leadership experience, managing corporate partnerships, optimizing revenue streams and enhancing consumer engagement strategies to further elevate the Phillies brand presence and organizational revenue. Under her leadership, the Phillies' corporate partnerships team increased revenue for the past five consecutive seasons to reach an all-time high in 2024, including the addition of Independence Blue Cross as the team's first-ever Jersey Patch Partner. She joined the Phillies as vice president, partnership sales and corporate marketing in 2018 and was promoted to senior vice president in 2022, overseeing advertising sales, client services and suite sales.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Jackie held key media leadership roles at Time Inc., including vice president for the entertainment, food, beverage and spirits verticals. During her tenure, she developed and delivered multi-million-dollar programs for prestigious clients using Time Inc.'s entire portfolio of assets. Prior to that, she was the associate publisher at PEOPLE Magazine and PEOPLE.com.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Jackie attended Germantown Friends School and graduated in 1996 from the University of Vermont, where she played Division I lacrosse and received a Bachelor of Arts degree. She currently serves on the boards of the Boys & Girls Club of Philadelphia and Squash Smarts.

Jackie and her husband John live in Radnor, Pa., and have three children, Jack, Whitney and Cole.

JOHN NICKOLAS
Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

John Nickolas joined the Phillies organization in July 2003, has been chief financial officer since February 2007, and was named senior vice president and chief financial officer on July 1, 2017. John has executive oversight responsibility for all financial and business analytics aspects of the club's operations as well as its operations at BayCare Ballpark in Clearwater, Fla. Also, John is the MLB control person for the Clearwater Threshers franchise and oversees business affairs across the organization's four affiliated minor league teams. In addition, he currently serves as a trustee of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan and for more than a decade chaired the MLB Eastern Region Finance group.

John graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in accounting from West Chester University in 1990 and is a 1985 graduate of Archbishop Ryan High School in Northeast Philadelphia. He has served as a member of West Chester University's Foundation and Business School Advisory Council and has been a guest speaker for various organizations and universities throughout the Philadelphia area.

Prior to joining the Phillies, John served in a variety of financial and operational roles for Internet Capital Group, Inc., Safeguard Scientifics, Inc., and KPMG LLP. He is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants.

John and his wife Pam reside in Newtown Square, Pa., and they have two adult sons, John (Colleen) and Michael.

JOHN WEBER
Senior Vice President, Ticket Operations

John Weber joined the Philadelphia Phillies in 1987 as a ticket sales intern. Over his tenure, he has held various positions of increased responsibility and scope, culminating in his promotion to senior vice president of ticket operations in August 2017. With over 30 years of experience in the industry, John oversees all aspects of individual, group and season ticket sales, ensuring fans have the best possible ticketing experience.

The Phillies' ticketing strategy and fan engagement are recognized as among the best in Major League Baseball, and the sales team has surpassed 3 million in attendance 11 times, most recently in 2023 and 2024. Under John's leadership, the Phillies achieved a streak of 257 consecutive sellouts from 2009 to 2012. In addition to overseeing sales operations, he serves as the club's representative in ticketing and scheduling matters with MLB.

John served as president of Phillies Charities, Inc. from 2017 to 2024, playing an integral part in fundraising efforts for charitable organizations across the Philadelphia area. He was also actively involved with fundraising for ALS United Mid-Atlantic. During the club's 40-year partnership, the Phillies have raised more than $23 million in the fight against ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease). John is also a member of the Drexel University Sport Business Advisory Board.

Born in Philadelphia, John graduated from Purdue University with a bachelor's degree in European history. He continued his education and earned an MBA in management from Ball State University. John and his wife reside in Plymouth Meeting, Pa., and have two adult sons.

BONNIE CLARK

Vice President, Communications and Community Initiatives

Bonnie Clark joined the Phillies in 2008 as vice president, communications. In 2025, she expanded her role to include oversight of community initiatives and Phillies Charities, Inc.

In this role, Bonnie's day-to-day responsibilities include creating and executing a comprehensive communications strategy for the club. This includes business publicity campaigns, managing player, alumni and executive media relations, as well as leading crisis and issues management. She also directs the team's community efforts, including charity programs, youth baseball and softball, education initiatives, and the work of Phillies Charities, Inc.

Prior to the Phillies, Bonnie spent nine years (1999-2008) at multi-media retailer QVC, culminating in her role as vice president of public relations. During her tenure, she created public relations and media relations strategies that increased awareness and enhanced the company's image. She also spearheaded all crisis and issues management efforts.

Before QVC, Bonnie worked at Tierney in Philadelphia, where she served as associate vice president for the agency's consumer public relations division, developing and implementing communications initiatives for consumer clients. She also held various positions of increasing responsibility with Golin/Harris Communications in Philadelphia and at the agencies M. Silver Associates and Ogilvy & Mather Public Relations in New York, where she developed and implemented public relations campaigns for international consumer brands.

Bonnie serves as an assembly member for Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association.

A graduate of Delaware Valley High School in Milford, Pa., where she was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2013, Bonnie earned her bachelor's degree from West Virginia University's Perley Isaac Reed School of Journalism.

Bonnie resides in Cherry Hill, N.J., and has three adult children, Kyle (Laura), Troy and Jenna.

SALVATORE DEANGELIS

Vice President, Operations & Security

Salvatore DeAngelis was promoted to vice president, operations & security in August 2022 after serving 10 years as the director. Sal joined the Phillies as a game-day usher in 1994 and eventually transitioned into a full-time role in 1999. During his tenure, he has planned and executed such high-profile events as the closing of Veterans Stadium, numerous MLB playoff games, three World Series, the 2008 World Series parade, the 2012 NHL Winter Classic, annual sold-out concerts, and ancillary events surrounding the 2016 Democratic National Convention.

In his role, Sal oversees all areas of the ballpark including security, event operations, grounds crew and facility management.

Sal was the 2015 recipient of the Industry Leader Under 40 Award and more recently was named Professional of the Year. In 2019, Citizens Bank Park received the Facility of Merit for Safety and Security Award. All three awards were given by the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security.

Moonlighting as an adjunct professor, Sal has taught at Holy Family University, Drexel University and Temple University, lecturing at both the undergraduate and graduate levels on sport facility management and event planning. In 2012 he published a chapter for the textbook, Distribution Decisions in Sport Marketing.

Currently, Sal sits on the advisory board for the National Kidney Foundation of Eastern PA and NJ (since 2015) and serves as the alternate director for the Sports Complex Special Services District (since 2019).

Born in Northeast Philadelphia, Sal received his bachelor's degree in management marketing from Holy Family College in 1999 and his master's degree in sports and recreation administration from Temple University in 2002. He currently lives in Philadelphia with his wife Bridget.

BRIAN FLING

Vice President, Corporate Partnerships

Brian Fling joined the Phillies in February 2025 as vice president, corporate partnerships. In this role, he is responsible for leading the commercial rights development and partnership marketing team.

Brian began his career at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex in 1999 with evolving revenue-focused roles tied to Atlanta Braves Spring Training, the Double-A Orlando Rays, the PGA's National Car Rental Golf Classic, the inaugural 2006 World Baseball Classic and multiple Tampa Bay Rays regular season games played in central Florida. In 2012, Brian transitioned to a business development role with the NHL's Anaheim Ducks and later joined the New York Mets in 2015, where he ultimately led both the partnership and suites teams.

Born in Colorado, Brian is a graduate of Manitou Springs High School, the University of Northern Colorado and Stetson University's MBA program. Brian, his girlfriend Kelly and their dog Corky live in the Fishtown neighborhood of Philadelphia.

EXECUTIVES

KEVIN GREGG
Vice President, Baseball Communications

Kevin Gregg rejoined the Phillies in the newly created position of vice president, baseball communications on Jan. 3, 2022. In this role, the veteran of 18 seasons in Major League Baseball oversees media relations initiatives and strategy for the team's baseball operations department, as well as club publications. In December 2022, he was named the recipient of Major League Baseball's Robert O. Fishel Award for public relations excellence.

Kevin began his career in baseball with the Phillies in 2003, completing two years of internships in the merchandising and media relations departments. He concurrently interned for the Philadelphia 76ers from 2002-05, before joining them full time for two seasons as public relations coordinator. He returned to the Phillies in 2007 and spent six seasons in the media relations department, where he assisted in the staff's operations for the club's string of five consecutive National League East division titles from 2007-11, highlighted by the 2008 World Series championship. Following the 2012 season, Kevin joined the Boston Red Sox as director of media relations in January 2013, and was promoted to vice president, media relations five years later. Over his nine years in Boston, he was responsible for all baseball-related communications for the team, including the world championship clubs in 2013 and 2018.

A 1998 graduate of the Episcopal Academy, Kevin earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in sport management from James Madison University in 2003. The Philadelphia native is the son of the late Eric Gregg, who worked 23 years as a National League umpire.

Kevin, his wife Stephanie and their sons Oliver, Samuel and Jack live in Media, Pa.

MICHAEL HARRIS
Vice President, Marketing & Government Affairs

Michael Harris was named vice president, marketing and government affairs in January 2025, leading a department responsible for the team's brand, creative, video, digital and promotional efforts. He also serves as a liaison for various governmental and civic matters.

Michael has played a key role in major club initiatives throughout the years, including the development of Citizens Bank Park, focusing on securing private financing, obtaining legislative approvals, and overseeing the organization's transition from Veterans Stadium. He currently collaborates on the future mixed-use development of the Sports Complex and planning for the 2026 MLB All-Star Game.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Michael has a BA in political science from the University of Michigan and an MBA in both marketing and finance from Drexel University. He serves on the board of PHL Sports, a division of the PHLCVB; Phillies Charities, Inc., the organization's charitable foundation; The Philadelphia Visitor Center Corporation, which operates the Independence Visitor Center; Mural Arts Philadelphia, the nation's largest public art program; and is board president of the Sports Complex Special Services District, which coordinates efforts between elected officials, venue operators and the surrounding community.

Michael and his wife Joy live in Center City. They founded the Miso Harris Fund for Canine Cancer Research at the University of Pennsylvania's Ryan Veterinary Hospital in honor of their late cocker spaniel, Miso.

LESLIE SAFRAN
Vice President and General Counsel

Leslie Safran joined the Phillies in December 2014 as the club's associate general counsel. She was promoted to her current position in July 2021. In this role, she oversees the legal department as well as the human resources department.

Before joining the club, Leslie was the vice president & corporate HR business partner, and previously senior attorney, labor and employment, for Gardner Denver, Inc., a global manufacturer of industrial compressors, blowers, pumps, loading arms and fuel systems. Her work history also includes serving as senior counsel at Sunoco, Inc., a labor and employment associate at Ballard Spahr LLP and a federal judicial law clerk to the Honorable Clifford Scott Green, United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Leslie graduated from Franklin & Marshall College cum laude with a double major in English and Spanish. At Franklin & Marshall, she was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society, a three-year captain of the softball team and a member of the volleyball team. She received her JD, cum laude, as well as her LL.M. in trial advocacy, from Temple University School of Law.

Leslie and her husband Scott reside in Bala Cynwyd, Pa., with their two daughters, Quinn and Kendall. She serves on the board of Phillies Charities, Inc., for which she is the secretary.

SHANNON SNELLMAN

Vice President, Finance and Controller

Shannon Snellman was promoted to vice president, finance and controller in August 2022. Originally a summer accounting intern with the Phillies at the Vet and Citizens Bank Park, Shannon rejoined the club 10 years later in September 2014 as manager, financial reporting and analysis. She was promoted to director, finance in October 2017 and then had controller responsibilities added to her title in 2021 prior to being named to her current position. She began her career as an auditor for Ernst & Young and held various roles at Endo Pharmaceuticals before returning to the Phillies.

As controller, Shannon's main responsibilities include overseeing the daily responsibilities of the accounting and payroll functions, including quarterly and annual financial statements, financial reporting to Major League Baseball, budgeting and forecasting, taxes, treasury, accounts receivable and accounts payable. She holds an active CPA license in the state of Pennsylvania.

Born and raised in Lancaster, Pa., Shannon earned her bachelor's degree in accounting at La Salle University, where she was on the field hockey team. She is a current member of the La Salle Accounting Advisory Council.

Shannon lives in Media, Pa., with her husband Bryan and their three children, Charley, Laney and Colby.

SEAN WALKER

Vice President, Chief Technology Officer

Sean Walker joined the Phillies as vice president, chief technology officer in March 2018. In his role, he oversees the club's Information Technology Department to enhance overall business operations.

Sean brought 19 years of technology and information systems experience in highly visible sports environments, where he was responsible for strategic IT planning and project execution. In his career, he has helped define strategies to ensure high performance and cost-effective technology solutions.

Before joining the Phillies, Sean served as vice president of innovation and technology services for the Tampa Bay Lightning. Prior to that, he served as associate vice president of team, arena and event technology for the National Basketball Association (NBA). At the NBA, Sean worked with senior management to develop the technology strategy for use around the league. He also provided support for the league's premier events such as the NBA All-Star Game, NBA Finals and NBA Draft. Sean began his career with the Professional Golfers' Association of America (PGA). During his 13-year career with the PGA as director of enterprise applications, he developed and led technology initiatives for the world's largest working sports organization, including the PGA Championship and Ryder Cup.

Sean is a graduate of the University of Florida at Gainesville, where he received both Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees.

He and his wife Becca have three children, Ellie, Sean and Lillian.

BASEBALL PERSONNEL

SAM FULD
Vice President & General Manager

Sam Fuld is entering his eighth year in the Phillies organization and fifth as vice president & general manager, a position he was elevated to on Dec. 22, 2020. With that promotion, he became the fifth former major league player to hold the position of general manager with the Phillies.

Following the 2024 season, it was announced that Sam was pursuing his MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School and upon his graduation in May 2026, he will transition to president of business operations for the club.

Sam was originally hired by Philadelphia in November 2017 as the major league player information coordinator, a position he held for two years before being promoted to director, integrative baseball performance in January 2020.

During his first two years with the Phillies, Sam worked closely with the major league coaching staff as an outfield instructor and helped integrate advanced metrics.

A former major league outfielder, Sam played parts of eight seasons (2007; 2009-15) for four teams: the Chicago Cubs, Tampa Bay Rays, Oakland A's and Minnesota Twins. In 2009, he led all National League rookies with a .409 on-base percentage and finished fourth with a .299 batting average. Known as "Super Sam" for his outstanding defensive play, he was a finalist in left field for an American League Gold Glove Award in 2011, despite making only 76 starts in the outfield.

Sam was originally selected in the 10th round of the 2004 MLB Draft by the Cubs and made his major league debut in September 2007. Following that season, he was named MVP of the Arizona Fall League. He last played professionally in the 2017 World Baseball Classic for Team Israel.

Born in Durham, N.H., Sam currently resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife Sarah and their four children: Charlie, Jane, William and Spencer.

PRESTON MATTINGLY
Vice President & General Manager

Preston Mattingly was promoted to vice president & general manager on Nov. 8, 2024. For 2025 and the beginning of the 2026 season, he will share the duties of his current position with Sam Fuld, who will transition to president of business operations in the spring of 2026.

Mattingly was originally hired by the Phillies as director of player development on Sept. 29, 2021, and served in that role for two years before being elevated to assistant general manager, player development for 2024.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Preston spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Diego Padres, most recently as coordinator of major league advance scouting and game planning after serving as manager of scouting for three years. In his role with the Padres, he headed up information distribution to the pitchers, working with both the research and development department and the coaching staff.

A first-round selection (31st overall) by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 2006 MLB Draft, Preston subsequently spent six seasons playing in their minor league system as an infielder and outfielder. Following his playing time, he enrolled at Lamar University in Texas, where he served as captain of their NCAA Division I basketball team. He graduated from Lamar in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in communications and a minor in business.

Born in Englewood, N.J., and raised in Evansville, Ind., he is the son of Don Mattingly, who played 14 years in the major leagues for the New York Yankees and is currently serving as bench coach for the Toronto Blue Jays after 12 seasons as manager of the Dodgers (2011-15) and Miami Marlins (2016-22). Preston and his wife Ellie currently reside in the Philadelphia area.

ANIRUDH KILAMBI
Assistant General Manager

Anirudh Kilambi joined the Phillies as assistant general manager on Nov. 11, 2021. In his role, Ani oversees the club's research and information departments in addition to the club's use of data in all aspects of organizational decision-making.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Ani worked for the Tampa Bay Rays for seven years from 2015-21. Having spent his first year with the Rays as an intern in the club's research and development department, he was promoted to assistant, research and development in July 2016 and spent over one year in that role. Later, he was promoted again to analyst, predictive modeling in November 2017, a position he held for one year. In November 2018, he was elevated to assistant director, research and development and served in that role for three years. Finally, he was promoted to director, decision science in November 2021 before joining the Phillies.

Ani is a 2016 graduate of the University of California Berkeley, where he was a double major in statistics and operations research and management science. He and his wife Sarah reside in the Philadelphia area with their two cats.

NED RICE
Assistant General Manager

Ned Rice has served as assistant general manager since being hired on Jan. 6, 2016. He also spent two months as interim general manager from Oct. 10-Dec. 10, 2020.

With the Phillies, Ned has helped map out strategy of roster management, overseen the research and development department and assisted in player contracts and negotiations, transactions, salary arbitration and rules compliance. He came to the Phillies from the Baltimore Orioles, where he was director, major league administration. Ned began his career with the Orioles as a public relations intern in 2005 before shifting into baseball operations for 2006. He started as an intern and also served as the video coordinator for road games that year. In 2007, Ned was promoted to player information analyst, a role he held through 2011 before being named assistant director, major league operations in 2012.

Ned is a 2005 graduate of The College of William & Mary. He and his wife Cary currently reside in Philadelphia with their daughters Dorian and Wynn and son Decker.

JORGE VELANDIA
Assistant General Manager

Following an 18-year playing career (1992-2009) which ended in the Phillies minor league system, Jorge Velandia has spent the last 15 years working in various roles for the organization, including a stint on the major league coaching staff in 2015. He was promoted to assistant general manager in December 2020, becoming the first Venezuelan-born executive to hold that position in major league history. Jorge had previously spent four years as special assistant to the general manager.

After finishing his career with the Phillies' triple-A affiliate in Lehigh Valley, Jorge spent two years (2010-11) as a coach for single-A Williamsport and one each as the assistant field coordinator (2012) and special assistant, player development (2013) before being named special assistant, player personnel, a role he held for three seasons (2014-16). He also helped construct Team Venezuela for the 2013 World Baseball Classic and served as the director of baseball operations for La Guaira of the Venezuelan Winter League for two years (2014-15) after a five-year run as general manager (2010-14).

A former infielder, Jorge was originally signed out of Venezuela by the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and played for 23 different professional teams in 11 organizations. He appeared in 174 career major league games from 1997-2008 with San Diego, Oakland, New York (NL), Tampa Bay, Toronto and Cleveland.

Jorge was born in Caracas, Venezuela, and currently resides in Moorestown, N.J., with his wife Ruth and their son George.

BRIAN BARBER
Assistant General Manager, Amateur Scouting

Brian Barber joined the Phillies in October 2019 as the director of amateur scouting and was promoted to assistant general manager in November 2023. Entering the 2025 season, seven of the Phillies' top 10 prospects according to Baseball America (RHP Andrew Painter, No. 1; SS Aidan Miller, No. 2; OF Justin Crawford, No. 4; OF Griffin Burkholder, No. 7; OF Gabriel Rincones Jr., No. 8; OF Dante Nori, No. 9 and 2B Devin Saltiban, No. 10) were drafted under his watch and three of them were ranked in MLB Pipeline's top 100 list (Painter, No. 8; Miller, No. 27 and Crawford, No. 63).

Prior to being hired by the Phillies, Brian spent 18 years with the New York Yankees as an area scout (2002-06), East Coast crosschecker (2007-09) and national crosschecker (2010-19).

A first-round selection (22nd overall) in the 1991 MLB Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals out of Dr. Phillips High School (FL), Brian appeared in 186 games (183 starts) over nine minor league seasons and totaled 1,041.2 innings pitched. He spent parts of four seasons in the majors with the Cardinals (1995-96) and Kansas City Royals (1998-99).

In high school, Brian was selected as the Gatorade Player of the Year following his senior season. He was inducted into the Dr. Phillips Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001 and had his number retired by the school four years later.

A native of Trenton, Ohio, Brian grew up and still lives in Orlando, Fla., with his wife Angie, son Preston and daughter Dylan.

PAT GILLICK
Senior Advisor

The 2025 season is Pat Gillick's 20th year with the Phillies. In that time, he has served as the team's general manager, club president and also as a senior advisor.

Pat originally joined the Phillies as senior vice president & general manager on Nov. 2, 2005. During his time as GM, he built the club into back-to-back NL Eastern Division champions (2007-08) and 2008 World Series champions. The championship was the third of his 27-year career as a major league general manager and the second in the history of the Phillies franchise. After fulfilling his three-year contract as GM, Pat transitioned into the role of senior advisor to the president and general manager in November 2008, a position he held until being named interim president on Aug. 28, 2014. Pat spent the 2015 season as the team president, holding that position from Jan. 28 through Oct. 14.

On Dec. 6, 2010, Pat was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Expansion Era Committee. He is just one of five individuals elected whose career has been defined nearly exclusively as a team architect, along with Ed Barrow, Branch Rickey, John Schuerholz and George Weiss. He was inducted on July 24, 2011, along with Roberto Alomar and Bert Blyleven. Since his induction, Pat has been selected to sit on the Pre-Integration Era Committee in November 2015 and the Today's Game Era Committee in November 2018. Pat was also named to the advisory board for SABR (Society for American Baseball Research) in the fall of 2011. He was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 2018.

Prior to being named GM of the Phillies, Pat held the same position with the Toronto Blue Jays (1978-94), Baltimore Orioles (1996-98) and Seattle Mariners (2000-03). His career record as a GM stands at 2,276-1,993 (.533), including at least 91 wins in six of his final nine seasons. His resume includes two World Series championships (1992-93) and five AL East titles (1985, 1989, 1991-93) with Toronto; one AL East title (1997) and one wild card berth (1996) with Baltimore; one AL West title (2001) and one wild card berth (2000) with Seattle; and one World Series championship (2008) and two NL East titles (2007-08) with Philadelphia.

In August 1976, Pat was named the vice president of player personnel for the expansion Toronto Blue Jays, becoming the franchise's first general manager at age 38. His title was changed to vice president of baseball operations on Nov. 24, 1977, and then executive vice president, baseball on Sept. 24, 1984.

Pat stepped down as Blue Jays GM after the 1994 season and served as a consultant to the team in 1995.

Following the 1995 season, Pat had a brief retirement before being hired as Baltimore's GM on Nov. 27, 1995. In his first two seasons with Baltimore – 1996-97 – the Orioles advanced to the ALCS.

When his three-year contract with Baltimore expired after the 1998 season, Pat accepted a position as the chair of the 1999 Pan Am Games baseball team steering committee.

On Oct. 25, 1999, he was hired by Seattle as executive vice president & general manager, baseball operations.

Pat was born in Chico, Calif. In 1954 – at age 16 – he graduated from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, Calif., where he played baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Southern California in the fall and graduated in 1958 at the age of 20 with a bachelor's degree in business.

Pat and his wife Doris reside in Birmingham, Mich. The couple has one daughter, Kimberley.

LARRY BOWA
Senior Advisor to the General Manager

Throughout 142 years of Phillies baseball, no one has spent more seasons in uniform than Larry Bowa. For 29 years – 13 as a coach, 12 as a player and four as manager – Larry proudly wore the Phillies "P" until he moved into his current role in October 2017. The 2025 season is Larry's 60th associated with Major League Baseball and his 41st with the Phillies organization. He was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 1991 and into the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame in 2009. In October 2021, he was inducted into the All Sports Museum of Southern New Jersey.

Larry signed with the Phillies as an amateur player in October 1965 and spent four seasons in the club's minor league system until making his major league debut in 1970, the final season at Connie Mack Stadium. The following year, the club moved into Veterans Stadium and Larry singled for the first hit in the new park. He would go on to play 12 years (1970-81) with the team as the starting shortstop, make five All-Star teams, win two Gold Glove Awards and play on five postseason teams, including the 1980 World Series champions. He was traded to the Chicago Cubs following the 1981 season.

During the 1988 season, after a year and a half as manager of the San Diego Padres, Larry returned to the Phillies as third base coach, a position he would hold through the 1996 season.

After coaching stints with the Anaheim Angels (1997-99) and Seattle Mariners (2000), Larry was hired as Phillies manager for the 2001 season. In his first season as manager, his team won 86 games, a 21-game improvement from the previous season, and he was voted National League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Larry was the team's final manager at Veterans Stadium in 2003 and the first person to manage a game at Citizens Bank Park in 2004, his final season at the team's helm. He went 337-308 (.522) as Phillies manager.

Larry went on to coach for the New York Yankees (2006-07) and Los Angeles Dodgers (2008-10) before once again returning to the Phillies dugout as bench coach and infield instructor for four years (2014-17). Throughout his storied coaching career, Larry has worked with infielders such as Chase Utley, Jimmy Rollins, Alex Rodriguez, Robinson Cano, Jeff Kent, Nomar Garciaparra and Hall of Famers Mike Schmidt and Derek Jeter, among many others.

Other jobs Larry has held during his 60 years in baseball were bench coach for Team USA in the 2013 World Baseball Classic, an in-studio analyst for ESPN and MLB Network and talk show co-host for Sirius/XM Radio.

Larry and his wife Patty live in Conshohocken, Pa. He has one daughter, Tori.

CHARLIE MANUEL

Senior Advisor to the General Manager

The all-time winningest manager in Phillies history, Charlie Manuel completed a nearly nine-year run (2005-13) in that position before moving into a different role with the organization. He was named senior advisor to the general manager in January 2014. In his role, he assists in minor league hitting instruction, scouts at the amateur and professional levels and serves as a consultant to the baseball operations staff and as a club ambassador in the Philadelphia region. In 2019, he filled in as the major league hitting coach for the final seven weeks of the season. Charlie was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 2014 and the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.

During his time as the club's manager, Charlie led the Phillies to their first playoff appearance in 14 years (2007), five straight division titles (2007-11), two National League pennants (2008-09) and one World Series championship (2008). He posted a record of 780-636 (.551) for the Phillies and 1,000-826 (.548) overall as a major league manager. Entering the 2025 season, Charlie is one of 66 managers in major league history to reach 1,000 wins. He managed two NL All-Star teams (2009-10), guiding the 2010 team to a victory which snapped the NL's 13-year winless streak.

Before being named manager of the Phillies, Charlie spent his first two years (2003-04) with the organization as special assistant to the general manager under Ed Wade, serving as one of Wade's top scouts as well as working on major and minor league hitting instruction.

In the 15 years (1988-2002) prior to joining the Phillies, Charlie worked for Cleveland in a variety of roles, including minor league manager and major league hitting coach. He managed Cleveland for three years (2000-02), leading the team to the Central Division title in 2001, and was chosen as a coach for the 2002 American League All-Star team by Hall of Famer Joe Torre. From 1994-99, his second tour as hitting coach, Cleveland led the AL in runs three times (1994-95, 1999) and home runs twice (1994-95) and set a franchise record by hitting 220 homers in 1997.

Charlie also managed in the Minnesota Twins minor league system for five years (1983-87) and scouted for the organization in 1982. He was originally signed by the Twins in 1963 and went on to play professionally for 19 years, including major league stints with the Twins and Los Angeles Dodgers, where his only two managers were Billy Martin and Walter Alston. From 1976-81, Charlie had a very successful six-year career in Japan, playing for three pennant winners. He hit a combined .303 with 189 home runs and led his league in home runs in back-to-back seasons (1979-80), including 48 in 1980, the same year Hall of Famer Mike Schmidt led the major leagues with the same total. In 1979, he was the first American-born player to be named MVP.

Charlie is a two-time winner (2011 & 2013) of the Dallas Green Special Achievement Award, which had been presented annually by the Philadelphia chapter of the BBWAA. He has twice been recognized by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, the first such honor being a special achievement award in 2015 and again with the most courageous award in January 2025. Charlie also received the Ted Williams Lifetime Achievement Award from the Ted Williams Museum in 2018.

In addition to his duties with the Phillies, Charlie is an investor with Perfect Game, the world's largest youth baseball and softball platform.

Born in North Fork, W.V., Charlie grew up in Buena Vista, Va. He currently resides in Winter Haven, Fla., with his wife Melissa. He has five children, Chuck, Julie, Collin, Hailey and Allie, and five grandchildren.

SAL AGOSTINELLI

Senior Advisor, International Scouting

Sal Agostinelli was named to his current position in November 2023 after serving as director, international scouting since 2012. In this leadership role, he remains instrumental in various facets of international scouting with a focus on evaluation and the development of international players. Sal has been a part of the Phillies scouting staff since 1993, when he joined the organization as an area scout before being promoted to international scouting supervisor in 1997.

A former catcher, Sal was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 20th round of the 1983 MLB Draft out of Slippery Rock University. He played six seasons (1983-88) in the Cardinals minor league system before being traded in 1989 to the Phillies, where he played for double-A Reading and triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (1990-91) before retiring. In 1992, he was a player/coach for Reading prior to joining the scouting staff, for which he initially covered New York, New Jersey, Delaware and the New England region.

During his time as a scout, Sal has had a hand in the signings of Carlos Ruiz, Maikel Franco, Freddy Galvis and César Hernández, among many others. In 2015, he was the recipient of the Dallas Green Award for his achievements in scouting. Additionally, Sal won the International Scout of the Year Award at the 2018 Winter Meetings and was named the 2023 Executive of the Year by the Italian American Baseball Foundation.

Sal was born in Bronx, N.Y., and lives in Kings Park, N.Y., with his wife Sharon. He has three children: sons Danny and Anthony and daughter Toni-Ann.

DERRICK CHUNG
Director, International Scouting

Derrick Chung was promoted to director of international scouting in November 2023. The 2025 season marks his ninth year in the Phillies organization and his eighth year in the international scouting department.

In this role, Derrick oversees all aspects of the club's international scouting operations and works closely with Sal Agostinelli, the club's senior advisor, international scouting.

Born in Seoul, Korea, and raised in Cypress, Calif., Derrick originally joined the Phillies from the Baltimore Orioles during the 2017 season as an interpreter for the major league club. He moved into the international scouting department first as a pro scout later in 2017, then as a coordinator the following year, serving in that role through 2022, when he was named assistant director, international scouting and administration.

Derrick was selected by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 31st round of the 2012 MLB Draft out of Sacramento State University (CA), where he was a 2012 graduate with a degree in business administration, finance and international business. A right-handed hitter, he spent five seasons in the Blue Jays minor league system (2012-16) and was named an Organizational All-Star in both 2013 and 2014 and a Florida State League All-Star in 2014.

Derrick currently resides in Cherry Hill, N.J., with his wife Julie and their daughter Chloe.

CECI CRAFT
Director, Mental Performance, Life Skills and Education

Ceci Craft joined the Phillies in February 2021 as director, mental performance and the major league mental performance coach. She stepped away from the dugout in 2023 to take on life skills and education (LSE) responsibilities in addition to directing the mental performance department. In this expanded role, she oversees the club's LSE program, which helps international players finish high school and learn English and assists all players in developing life skills that will help them on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Ceci served as Cleveland's major league mental performance coach for six years (2014-19), during which time the club won three division championships. In her role, she assisted players and staff at the major league and triple-A levels of the organization in the continued development and integration of programs and services that enhance mental performance and development. Ceci worked closely with organizational coaches, coordinators, strength and conditioning personnel, athletic trainers and front office staff to integrate mental performance into assessment and training plans for players, teams and programs. She also worked closely with the scouting department to support the amateur draft.

Before and after her time with Cleveland, Ceci spent a combined seven years as a mental performance coach on Fort Bragg, working with Special Operations Forces (2009-14, 2019-21). While there, she led a team of 13 cognitive performance coaches in helping develop the mental strength and flexibility for the Army Special Operations population.

Ceci's educational background is in applied sport science with a focus in sport psychology from the University of Bangor, Wales. She attended Bates College for her undergraduate studies, majoring in psychology and minoring in Spanish, and captained the women's soccer team in 2005. Director, Mental Health

Dr. Deanna Nobleza has served as the director of mental health since January 2023, overseeing mental health services and programming for players and staff.

Dr. Nobleza earned her medical degree and completed residency in internal medicine and psychiatry at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. Before the Phillies, Dr. Nobleza worked as a staff psychiatrist at Princeton University working with Division I athletes, and then as director of student counseling at Thomas Jefferson University. Dr. Nobleza is a clinical associate professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Human Behavior at Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University.

Originally from Bridgewater, N.J., Dr. Nobleza now resides in South Jersey with her family.

MIKE ONDO
Director, Professional Scouting

Mike Ondo was named director of professional scouting in February 2010. He originally joined the Phillies baseball operations department in 1998.

In his role, Mike oversees the pro scouting staff at the major and minor league levels, including postseason advance scouting efforts. He also coordinates the club's preparation for the Rule 5 Draft and from 2010-20 organized the Phillies' annual Prospect Education Program, which took place each January in Philadelphia. During his time with the Phillies, Mike has worked under Dallas Green, Hall of Famer Pat Gillick, Ed Wade, John Vukovich, Ruben Amaro Jr., Matt Klentak, Chuck LaMar, Andy MacPhail, Dave Dombrowski and Paul Owens, among others.

Mike previously spent one year (2009) as pro scouting coordinator and two years (2007-08) as assistant director, minor leagues.

A four-year starting catcher at the University of Scranton, Mike graduated in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in communications. He was born in Pottstown, Pa., and lives in Lumberton, N.J., with his wife Colleen and their three daughters, Abigail, Marissa and Samantha.

RAY ROBLES
Director, International Operations

Ray Robles was promoted to director, international operations in February 2022. In this role, Ray leads all international business operations related to the Dominican Republic, while also directing immigration/visa procurement services for foreign players and staff.

Ray originally joined the Phillies in 2010 as administrative assistant, minor league operations. He was promoted to coordinator, international operations in 2013 and to assistant director, international operations in 2017.

Born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Ray earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Freed Hardeman University in 2008 and his MBA with a concentration in sports business from Saint Leo University in 2016. He currently lives in Palm Harbor, Fla., with his wife Melissa and their daughters Ava and Lea.

ROB SEGEDIN
Director, Strategic Initiatives

Rob Segedin assumed his current role in 2024 after serving for three years as the director of integrative baseball performance and strategic initiatives. In this role, he leads the strategic initiatives department, which encompasses three key areas: strategic budget planning for baseball operations, affiliate operations and facilities improvements, and emerging baseball technology. Rob's responsibilities include managing the capital budget process for baseball operations and spearheading major facility improvement projects for the organization, both in Philadelphia and the club's affiliates to ensure timely, cost-effective project completion that makes an impact on the on-field product.

During the shortened 2020 season, Rob served as the minor league assistant hitting coordinator after working as a player information assistant in 2019, his first year with the Phillies. In his current role, he works closely with the Phillies athletic training, strength & conditioning and nutrition departments.

Originally a third-round selection by the New York Yankees in the 2010 MLB Draft out of Tulane University, Rob played nine years of professional baseball, including 53 games in the major leagues with the Los Angeles Dodgers over the 2016-17 seasons. Prior to making his major league debut in August 2016, the former infielder/outfielder hit .319 with 23 doubles, 21 home runs and 69 RBI in 103 games for triple-A Oklahoma City. Rob earned his bachelor's degree in finance and management from Tulane and his master's degree in analytics from Indiana University.

Born in Teaneck, N.J., Rob and his wife Robin currently reside in Plantation, Fla. They have three children: Robinson, Roselily and Romeo.

BASEBALL PERSONNEL

BEN WERTHAN
Director, Baseball Development

Ben Werthan has served as director, baseball development since 2022. In this role he oversees major league strategy, player analysis and the video and technology department. Ben also supports Phillies player evaluation and player procurement processes while working closely with leadership to promote organizational alignment and guide future research and initiatives.

Originally hired by the Phillies in November 2017, Ben spent four years as the club's minor league player information coordinator. In this uniformed role, he facilitated integration of analytics and technology into player development and helped refine advance scouting processes. He spent time with each minor league affiliate and the major league team, working closely with Phillies coaches, players, front office staff and the research and development department.

Before joining the Phillies, Ben spent seven seasons (2011-17) with the Baltimore Orioles, including six as the advance scouting coordinator. He also assisted with the team's replay challenge operation. In addition to his duties with the Orioles, Ben served as Team Israel's lead advance scout and uniformed strategy consultant throughout the 2017 World Baseball Classic. He began his career in baseball operations as an intern for the Cincinnati Reds (2008) and Tampa Bay Rays (2009-10).

Born in Washington, D.C., Ben is a 2008 graduate of Dickinson College with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He lives in Philadelphia.

SPECIAL ADVISORS

COLE HAMELS
Special Advisor to Baseball Operations

Cole Hamels was named special advisor to baseball operations in December 2024. In this role, he will advise the front office on baseball matters and represent the Phillies as a club ambassador.

In addition to his duties as a special advisor, Cole is set to make his professional broadcasting debut for the Phillies in 2025, serving as a color analyst for spring training and regular season telecasts.

A first-round selection (17th overall) of the Phillies in the 2002 MLB Draft, Cole spent 10 of his 15 major league seasons in Philadelphia. The Most Valuable Player of the 2008 World Series champion Phillies finished his career in red pinstripes going 114-90 with a 3.30 ERA and 1,844 strikeouts in 295 games (294 starts). A three-time All-Star with the Phillies, Cole ranks third all-time in franchise history in strikeouts, fourth in starts and sixth in wins and innings pitched (1,930.0).

In 2015, his final season as a Phillie, Cole tossed the 13th no-hitter in club history on July 25 against the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field.

Cole, a native of San Diego, currently resides in the Dallas area with his children.

MIKE SCHMIDT
Special Advisor

Arguably the greatest third baseman to ever play in the major leagues – and the greatest player in Phillies history – Mike Schmidt returned to the organization in 2002 as a special instructor, a role he held through the 2018 season before being named special advisor.

Following his 18-year playing career (1972-89), spent entirely with the Phillies, Mike was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1995 with 96.5% of the votes, becoming the 26th player elected on the first ballot. He led the National League in home runs a record eight times; RBI, four times; slugging percentage, five times; and on-base percentage and total bases, three times. When he retired, Mike was ranked seventh on MLB's all-time home run list (548) and will enter the 2025 season ranked 16th, with Giancarlo Stanton the closest active player (51st all-time with 429 homers). Mike holds the career record for a third baseman in home runs (509) and set the major league record for homers in a season by a third baseman with 48 in 1980, which stood until it was broken in 2007 by Alex Rodriguez (52).

A 12-time NL All-Star during his career, Mike won three NL MVP Awards (1980, 1981 & 1986), six Silver Slugger Awards and 10 Gold Gloves, while also being named the MVP of the 1980 World Series.

In 2014, Mike began working as a broadcaster on Phillies telecasts during home Sunday games. From 2015-18, he worked Saturdays as well. He spent the 1990 season as a Phillies broadcaster and in 2004 managed single-A Clearwater, his first stint as a full-time manager or coach at any level, leading the club to a 55-81 record. In 2009, he served as third base coach for Team USA in the World Baseball Classic.

Mike was born in Dayton, Ohio, and currently lives in Jupiter, Fla., with his wife Donna.

CLUB AMBASSADORS

GARY MATTHEWS

One of the most memorable personalities in Phillies history, Gary Matthews – known simply as "The Sarge" – was named a club ambassador following the 2013 season. In his role, Gary works with the Phillies community outreach program in charitable endeavors, as well as visiting suites at Citizens Bank Park during games and attending sponsorship events.

Before being named to his current position, Gary spent seven seasons as a color analyst for Phillies broadcasts. His previous broadcasting experience included two seasons as a radio broadcaster for the Toronto Blue Jays (2000-01) and serving as a baseball analyst on Headline Sports Television, a Canadian cable network based in Toronto.

The former outfielder played 16 seasons in the majors, including three with the Phillies (1981-83). He was the Most Valuable Player of the 1983 National League Championship Series when the Phillies defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers to advance to the World Series. He also played for the San Francisco Giants (1972-76), Atlanta Braves (1977-80), Chicago Cubs (1984-87) and finished his playing career with the Seattle Mariners in 1987. For his career, Gary hit .281 with 234 home runs, 978 RBI and 183 stolen bases in 2,033 games.

Gary won the NL Rookie of the Year Award in 1973 and was a member of the 1979 NL All-Star team. He appeared in the NL Division Series with the Phillies in 1981, the NLCS and World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and the NLCS with the Cubs in 1984.

Following his playing career, Gary worked in private industry before joining the Cubs organization as a minor league hitting instructor (1995-97). He spent seven seasons as a major league coach: Toronto Blue Jays hitting coach, 1998-99; Milwaukee Brewers hitting coach, 2000; and Cubs hitting coach, 2003-04, and first base coach, 2005-06.

Gary was selected by the Giants out of San Fernando High School in the 1968 MLB Draft, the 17th player taken overall. His son Gary Jr. played in the majors with seven different teams.

Born in San Fernando, Calif., Gary lives in Chicago. He has five children, Gary Jr., Delvon, Dustin, Dannon and Paige, five grandsons and one granddaughter.

MICKEY MORANDINI

Mickey Morandini took on the role of club ambassador in 2018. He had spent the previous two years with the team as first base coach and baserunning instructor.

Prior to joining the major league staff, Mickey spent five years in the Phillies minor league system as a coach for triple-A Lehigh Valley and double-A Reading and manager for single-A Lakewood and single-A Williamsport. He also spent four years as head coach for the Valparaiso High School varsity baseball team.

A 1995 National League All-Star, Mickey played nine of his 11 major league seasons (1990-2000) with the Phillies and was a member of the 1993 NL champions. He ranks fourth in Phillies history in games played at second base (926) and was the recipient of the Paul Owens Award in 1989 as the best player in the Phillies minor league system. Mickey was originally selected by the Phillies in the fifth round of the 1988 MLB Draft out of Indiana University. As an amateur, he won a gold medal as a member of the 1988 Olympic baseball team.

Born in Leechburg, Pa., Mickey and his wife Peg currently live in Glen Mills, Pa. They have three sons: Jordan, Griffin and Braydon.

CLUB AMBASSADORS

DICKIE NOLES

The 2025 season marks Dickie Noles' 34th with the organization after rejoining the Phillies in 1992. Prior to becoming a club ambassador, he spent 28 years as an employee assistance professional and, before that, four years in the community relations department.

Dickie pitched for parts of 11 major league seasons with the Phillies (1979-81; 1990), Chicago Cubs (1982-84; 1987), Texas Rangers (1984-85), Cleveland (1986), Detroit Tigers (1987) and Baltimore Orioles (1988) and finished his career at 36-53 with 11 saves and a 4.56 ERA in 277 games (96 starts). Selected by the Phillies in the fourth round of the 1975 MLB Draft, Dickie was a member of the 1980 World Series champions, pitching in relief.

In 1989, Dickie won the Texas Rangers Community Service Award and in 1992 he was honored as the International Christian Athlete of the Year. Other awards he has won include the Humanitarian of the Year by the Sunshine Foundation in 1997 and the Humanitarian Award from the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association in 2010. In 2019, he won the Richie Ashburn & David Montgomery Special Achievement Award, given annually to a Phillies employee who has demonstrated loyalty, dedication and passion for the game. Dickie was inducted into the All Sports Museum of Southern New Jersey in October 2021.

Dickie was born in Charlotte, N.C., and currently resides in Aston, Pa. He has one daughter, Brittany, twin sons, Christopher and Nicholas, and five grandchildren.

MILT THOMPSON

An outfielder for the 1993 National League champs and hitting coach for the 2008 World Series champions, Milt Thompson returned to the Phillies organization as a community club ambassador in March 2022. In this role, he serves as a club resource for community outreach with an emphasis on youth baseball and softball development, working with the Phillies RBI program and the Phillies Urban Youth Academy.

Milt previously served the Phillies as major league hitting coach (2005-10) following one season as first base coach (2004). From 2005-09, Milt guided Phillies hitters to the NL lead in home runs, RBI, runs, extra-base hits and total bases. He also served as a coach on the NL All-Star team in 2009.

Originally drafted by the Atlanta Braves out of Howard University in 1979, Milt played 18 years of professional baseball, including 13 seasons in the majors with the Braves (1984-85), Phillies (1986-88; 1993-94), St. Louis Cardinals (1989-92), Houston Astros (1994-95), Los Angeles Dodgers (1996) and Colorado Rockies (1996). He hit .294 with six RBI in the 1993 World Series and set a Phillies record with five RBI in Game 4 at Veterans Stadium.

Milt began his coaching career in 1997 as minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator for Tampa Bay before joining the Phillies minor league system as a coach at Reading (1998-99) and outfield/baserunning coordinator (2001-03). Manager

MANAGING/COACHING CAREER

- Signed an extension taking him through the 2026 season on 10/15/24 after originally signing a 2-year contract to serve as manager for the 2023 and 2024 seasons on 10/10/22, making him the 56th manager in Phillies history
- Led the Phillies to the 2024 National League East Division title, the 12th division title in franchise history and first since 2011
- Became the 6th Phillies skipper to win a division title, joining Charlie Manuel (5, 2007-11), Jim Fregosi (1, 1993), Paul Owens (1, 1983), Dallas Green (1, 1980) and Danny Ozark (3, 1976-78)
- Is the first manager in Phillies history to guide the big league club to the postseason in his first three seasons as manager (2022-24)
- Reached 250 career managerial wins in his 435th game on 9/29/24 at WSH, tying him with Bill Shettsline who won his 250th in his 435th game on 6/15/1901; only Pat Moran (1917) reached 250 managerial wins faster in Phillies history (425 G)
- Ended the 2024 regular season with a career record of 250-180 (.575), giving him the highest win percentage in Phillies history (minimum of 315 games)
- In NLDS Game 2 on 10/6/24 vs NYM, reached 20 postseason victories in his first 32 games which is tied for the 6th-fewest decisions needed by a manager to reach 20 wins in MLB history with Joe Torre, Joe Girardi and Earl Weaver
- Managed a Phillies club in 2024 that had a club-record 8 All-Stars, 5 of which were pitchers, an MLB record from one club
- In 2023 (90-72), guided the Phillies to their first 90-win season since 2011 and first consecutive postseason appearances since 2007-11
- Became the first of 56 Phillies managers to lead the club to the postseason in his first 2 seasons as manager
- Per Baseball Reference, there have been 839 managers in MLB history – of those 839, Thomson is 1 of only 13 to reach the postseason in their first 2 seasons as a manager (per Elias)
- Joined STL's Mike Matheny (2012-13) as the only managers to lead their clubs to the LCS in their first two years as manager
- Became the third manager in MLB history to win 18 of his first 25 postseason games to begin a managerial career; Hall of Famers Joe McCarthy went 18-7 with CHI and NYY from 1929-39 and Casey Stengel went 18-7 with NYY from 1949-53
- Managed the NL All-Stars on 7/11/23 at T-Mobile Park to a 3-2 win, giving the NL its first win since 2012; was the first Canadian-born skipper to manage and win an MLB All-Star Game
- Named Phillies interim manager on 6/3/22; guided the club to a 65-46 record (.586) after taking over as manager and led the club to its first postseason berth since 2011
- Became the fourth manager to take a team at least 7 games under .500 and lead them to the postseason, joining Dick Howser (KC, 1981), Cito Gaston (TOR, 1989) and Jim Tracy (COL, 2009)
- Guided the Phillies to their eighth NL pennant and first since 2009 with a 4-games-to-1 series victory over SD on 10/23/22
- Became the eighth manager (9th time) to lead a team to a World Series after the club began the season with a different manager and the first since Jack McKeon in 2003 with MIA
- Became the first Canadian-born skipper ever to manage a game in the postseason in NL Wild Card Series Game 1 on 10/7/22 at STL
- The Phillies won 61 of their first 100 games with Thomson as manager in 2022 which was the most wins for any manager in Phillies history who had begun their managerial career in Philadelphia; Steve O'Neill won 66 games over his first 100 games between 1952-53, but he had prior managerial experience with CLE, DET and BOS

- Finished 5th in 2022 NL Manager of the Year voting; received two first-place votes
- Hired as Phillies bench coach on 12/5/17; coordinated ML spring training from 2018-22
- Spent 28 years as member of the NYY organization (1990-2017), including 10 on the ML coaching staff as the bench coach (2008, 2015-17) and 3rd base coach (2009-14)
- Stood in as manager for Joe Girardi for 3 games in 2008, and was believed to be the first Canadian to manage or stand in to manage a ML game since 1934 (PIT's George "Mooney" Gibson)
- Went 1-2 in those games as manager, although the totals counted toward Girardi's managerial record
- Served as NYY's major league field coordinator in 2007 after spending 3 seasons (2004-06) as a special assignment instructor
- Was named NYY's director of player development in 2000, holding the position until his promotion to vice president of minor league development prior to 2003
- Moved into NYY's front office as a field coordinator in 1998 after spending 2 seasons (1996-97) as 3rd base coach for Columbus (AAA)
- Spent the 1995 season as manager of Oneonta (A) in the New York-Penn League after spending 5 years (1990-94) as a coach in NYY's minor league system
- Joined the NYY organization in 1990 as a 3rd base coach for Fort Lauderdale (A)

2024

- Ranked T-2nd in the National League in sacrifice flies (9), 6th in stolen bases (32) and T-10th in infield hits (21)
- Defensively, ranked 3rd among NL 2nd basemen (5th among MLB 2B) with 7 defensive runs saved
- Named a Rawlings Gold Glove Award finalist for the second straight season
- His 32 SB were a career high and he was the first Phillie with at least 31 SB in consecutive seasons since Jimmy Rollins in 2005-09
- Set a single-season career high with 53 walks
- Walked in a career-high 5 straight games from 3/31-4/5/24
- Registered his first career multi-HR game and drove in a season-high-tying 4 runs on 4/28 at SD
- Had a career-high 18-game on-base streak from 4/28-5/19 during which he slashed .382/.532/.709
- His 9 stolen bases in May were the most by a Phillie in the month since Shane Victorino stole 11 bases in May 2008
- Went a career-high 52 straight PA without a strikeout from 5/8-23, the longest such streak by a Phillie since Ben Revere in 2014 (73 PA)
- Hit the farthest HR of his career (432 ft.) on 7/9 vs LAD, marking his 100th ML XBH
- His HR on 7/26 vs CLE was the hardest-hit of his career (107.7 mph)
- With 5/12 at MIA and 8/29 vs ATL, became the first Phillie since Richie Ashburn in 1958 with multiple games in a season of 3 walks and 2 stolen bases
- In the postseason, appeared in all 4 games (3 starts) of the NLDS vs NYM
- In Game 2 of the NLDS vs NYM on 10/6, joined Robinson Canó (10/22/09) as the only players in MLB postseason history with a triple on their birthday

2023

- Set career highs in games played, runs, hits, doubles, triples (tied), HR, RBI and extra-base hits
- Finished T-5th in the NL in sacrifice flies (8), T-7th in stolen bases (31) and 10th in pitches/PA (4.16)
- Led the Phillies with a 4.4 bWAR
- His 17 outs above average were tied for 4th in MLB and ranked 3rd among all 2nd basemen (SF's Thairo Estrada, 20 and CLE's Andrés Giménez, 18)
- Named a Rawlings Gold Glove Award finalist
- Made his second career Opening Day roster
- His 31 SB were the most by a Phillies 2nd baseman since Juan Samuel had 33+ stolen bases each season from 1984-88
- Tied for the ML lead with KC's Bobby Witt Jr. with 82 hits with two strikes; it was the most such hits by a Phillie since Jayson Werth in 2010 (85)
- Per Elias, his 32 hits through the first 20 games were the most by a Phillie in such a span since Lefty O'Doul had 33 hits to start the 1930 season
- Hit safely in a career-high 17 straight games to begin the season, setting a modern day (since 1900) franchise record, passing Willie "Puddin' Head" Jones
- Per Elias, was the first Phillies player since 1900 (Elmer Flick, 14; Nap Lajoie, 14; and Ed Delahanty, 12) with 12+ multi-hit games across the club's first 19 games of a season
- Set a franchise record when he began his career with 84 consecutive games at 2nd base without an error, eclipsing the previous mark set by Tomas Perez (57 games) from 2001-02
- Gave the Phillies their first walk-off win of the season on 4/8 vs CIN with the second walk-off hit of his career
- Clubbed his first career leadoff HR on 4/16 at CIN
- Went 28 consecutive plate appearances without striking out between 5/15-22
- Homered in back-to-back games, 5/21 vs CHI and 5/22 vs ARI, for the second time in his career with 5/21 marking his first career pinch-hit HR
- His second triple of the season on 6/14 at ARI was the 50th extra-base hit of his career
- On 7/23, was the second Phillie in the modern era (Richie Ashburn, 8/16/55) and 12th player in AL/NL history with 4+ BB and 3+ SB in a game (last, Darren Lewis, 9/16/91)
- Slashed .337/.391/.506 (.897 OPS) in 23 July games with 10 extra-base hits & 16 runs scored
- His SB on 9/8 vs MIA was the 3,000th of the season in the majors, the first time MLB reached that mark since 2012
- Recorded his first career game-winning hit in extra innings with a go-ahead 2-run double in the 10th inning on 9/20 at ATL
- His 5 stolen bases were the most by a Phillies player in a single postseason in franchise history (prev. 4 steals, 5 times)
- His 9 RBI were T-2nd-most by a Phillies second baseman in a single postseason (Chase Utley, 10 in 2009)
- Hit his first career postseason HR, a grand slam in NLWCS Game 2, 10/4 vs MIA (Andrew Nardi), marking the second grand slam in Phillies postseason history (Shane Victorino, 10/2/18, NLDS Game 2 vs MIL)

2022

- Made his first Opening Day roster after being a non-roster invitee to ML spring training

- Made his Phillies season debut in a start on 5/13 at COL (ND, 4.0 IP, 3 ER)
- His 48.5% ground ball percentage was the 10th-best in the National League (min. 100.0 IP)
- Limited the 93 LHH he faced to a .218/.244/.368 slash line (.612 OPS)
- With his curveball, held batters to a .143 AVG (12-84), which ranked 5th in the NL (min. 50 PA)
- On 9/10 vs MIA, carried a no-hitter into the 7th inning and struck out a career-high 10 batters

SUÁREZ PHAST PHACTS

- 2024 NL All-Star
- NL Pitcher of the Month for March/April 2024

- Had a 5-game streak of at least 6.0 IP and 1 or no runs allowed from 6/4-27; became the ninth Phillie to have such a streak dating back to 1893 and the first since Cole Hamels did so from 7/19-8/9/14
- Posted a 17.0-inning scoreless streak from 6/9-20, which was the longest of the season for any Phillies pitcher
- Had a 1.08 ERA (4 ER, 33.1 IP) in June, which was the 3rd-best in MLB; in that span, struck out 33 batters while holding opponents to a .202 AVG (24-119)
- Allowed only 2 HR in his first 7 starts (37.2 IP)
- Had a road ERA of 2.75 (18 ER, 59.0 IP), which ranked 3rd in the NL (min. 50.0 IP)
- On the 15-day IL with a right hamstring strain, 8/16-31
- Made 4 starts in the postseason and went 1-1, 1.93 ERA (4 ER, 18.2 IP) with 19 SO to 2 BB
- Became one of two pitchers in the modern era to allow 10 or fewer baserunners in their first 3 starts of a postseason (1-0, 0.64 ERA, 1 ER, 14.0 IP, 2 BB, 13 SO)
- Started and earned the win in the Phillies' NLDS clincher on 10/12 vs ATL (5.0 IP, 1 ER)

2022

- Set career marks in innings (155.1) and starts (29) in his first full season as a starter; his 29 starts were most by a Phillies LHP since 2014 (Cole Hamels, 30)
- Was the Fielding Bible Award winner at pitcher
- His 9 defensive runs saved were more than any pitcher in MLB by 3 and the most by a Phillie since 2002, the year to which the stat can be tracked
- Did not make an error in 44 chances over 155.1 IP and did not allow a stolen base
- Had a 21.0-inning scoreless streak end in the 1st inning of his season debut on 4/11 vs NYM (streak started 9/20/21 vs BAL)

2024 REVIEW

2024 TEAM NOTES

REGULAR SEASON RECAP

The 2024 club finished with 95 wins, the 6th-most ever in a single season in franchise history and most since a franchise-record 102 wins in 2011. The Phillies began the season 8-8 through 16 games (3/29-4/14) before winning 37 of their next 48 from April 15 through June 8, which marked the best 48-game span in the franchise's modern-day history (since 1900).

FLAGS FLY FOREVER

On Sept. 23, the Phillies clinched the 12th division title in franchise history (others: 1976-78, 1980, 1983, 1993, 2007-11) in the fifth division clinch at home, joining 2007-09 and 2011… Doing so in Game #157, it was tied for the 3rd-fastest divisional clinch in club history in terms of games (with 2010, 1993 & 1977), trailing only the 2011 club (150 G) and 1976 club (155 G)… Doing so on Sept. 23, it marked the 2nd-earliest clinch in franchise history going by date, behind only 2011 (Sept. 17).

POSTSEASON RECAP

Winners of the National League East with the second-best record in the NL, the Phillies secured a bye in the Wild Card Series with an automatic spot in the NLDS, where they faced off against the division rival New York Mets in the first ever postseason meeting between the two clubs… In Game 1 at CBP, Kyle Schwarber hit a leadoff home run as Zack Wheeler allowed only one hit over 7.0 scoreless innings, but the Mets scored five runs in the top of the 8th for a 6-2 win… In Game 2, the Phillies were down 3-0 before Bryce Harper (2-run HR) and Nick Castellanos (solo HR) went back-to-back in the 6th inning to tie the game… The clubs would trade the lead back and forth until the 9th inning when Castellanos walked it off with an RBI single… The series shifted to New York for Games 3 & 4, with the Mets winning both… Philadelphia's starting pitchers posted a 2.53 ERA (6 ER, 21.1 IP) during the series with 30 strikeouts but the bullpen allowed 16 ER in 12.2 innings (11.37 ERA).

THE ELECTRIC FACTORY

The Phillies finished with the best home record in baseball at 54-27 (.667 win %); the Dodgers were 2nd with a .642 winning percentage (52-29) at Dodger Stadium… Philadelphia's record in home games included a "home" loss to the Mets in London; at CBP, the Phillies went 54-26 (.675 win %)… Philadelphia's 54 wins at CBP tied a ballpark record set in 2010, when the Phillies won 54 of 84 games played at CBP, three of which were against the Blue Jays due to the G20 summit in Toronto… Philadelphia's .675 winning percentage at CBP in 2024 is the 2nd-best mark in the franchise's Modern Day history (since 1900) in their home ballpark in a single season, behind only the 1977 club, which posted a .741 winning percentage at Veterans Stadium (60-21)… The Phils finished 3rd among all clubs in baseball in attendance per game at home with an average of 41,527 per game, behind only the Dodgers (48,657) and Yankees (41,897)… Of the 80 games at CBP in 2024, 47 were sellouts (59%) and 60 were crowds of at least 40,000 (75%)… The Phillies finished with a total attendance of 3,308,638 at CBP, their second straight season of 3,000,000+ in attendance and largest single-season attendance since 2012 (3,565,718).

ALL THE STARS

The Phillies set a franchise record and tied an MLB record (since 1961/Expansion Era) with eight All-Star selections (Alec Bohm, Bryce Harper, Jeff Hoffman, Cristopher Sánchez, Matt Strahm, Ranger Suárez, Trea Turner & Zack Wheeler)… Philadelphia's eight All-Stars eclipsed the previous franchise record of five All-Stars, accomplished six times and last in 2011 (Halladay, Lee, Hamels, Polanco, Victorino)… The Phillies set an MLB record with five pitchers selected for the ASG – the previous mark was four, accomplished several times, last by the 2021 Brewers… Additionally, Philadelphia's five first-timers (Bohm, Hoffman, Sánchez, Strahm, Suárez) tied an MLB record, accomplished by four other clubs since 1961: 2022 Braves, 2015 Royals, 2014 Athletics and 2001 Mariners.

MONTH TO MONTH

The Phillies finished with 15 wins in five different months: 19-9 in April, 20-7 in May, 15-11 in June, 15-13 in August and 15-11 in September… In club history, this marked the eighth time the Phils have won at least 15 games in five months.

7 INNINGS? 34 STRAIGHT WINS

From April 15-Sept. 17, the Phillies won 34 consecutive games when a starting pitcher went at least 7.0 IP, which was the longest streak in Phillies history and the 2nd-longest streak in MLB history… During that 34-game streak, Phillies starters combined to go 30-0 with a 0.96 ERA (27 ER, 253.0 IP), .156 OPP AVG, .413 OPP OPS, 232 SO/35 BB (6.63 SO/BB ratio) and 0.67 WHIP (134 H).

PHILLY SPECIAL

Beginning in 2018, the Phillies have increased their win total in each full season played year over year (2020 not included): 80 wins in 2018 (after 66 the previous season), 81 in 2019, 82 in 2021, 87 in 2022, 90 in 2023 and 95 in 2024… The Phillies are the first National League club and only the third team in MLB history to increase their win total from the year before in six straight seasons (min. 150 G played) – they join the Kansas City Royals, who did so from 2010-15, and the New York Yankees, who did so from 1991-98 (excluding 1994 & 1995).

CITY CONNECT

The Phillies debuted a City Connect jersey that was worn during every Friday home game… The blue and yellow colors are based on the city of Philadelphia's flag, unchanged since its inception… The script of the Philly lettering on the front of the jersey is reminiscent of our country's historic founding documents and the chestplate features a subtle pattern inspired by the crack of the Liberty Bell… The skyline of Philadelphia is proudly depicted on the inside of the jersey's collar – most notably is the bright blue shade of the collar, intended to represent what Philadelphia is at its core: a blue-collar big city with a small-town feel… The sleeve patch features "City of Brotherly Love" with the iconic Liberty Bell integrated within the word "Love", a nod to the notable LOVE sculpture located in the heart of Philadelphia… The cap features the Liberty Bell and skyline with two stars representing the stars in the traditional Phillies logotype.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

FIRST PHILLIES GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th Street and Columbia Avenue. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 2,193 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 161 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 15-9 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics, under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first president to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three future Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of du Pont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on Nov. 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Robin Roberts, Eddie Sawyer and Richie Ashburn

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Paul Owens, Dallas Green and Ruly Carpenter

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976, but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two future Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies defeated the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive world championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on Sept. 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games remaining to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year, the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Series championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on Oct. 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, an estimated 2 million fans attended the parade down Broad Street. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

The Phillies recorded a franchise-record 102 victories in 2011 and for the second time in as many seasons, they led the majors in wins, a first in club history. That year also brought the team's run of consecutive division titles to five, tied with the Oakland Athletics and Cleveland Indians for the fifth-longest streak in the Divisional Era (since 1969) among all major league teams, trailing only the Braves (14 and 6), Yankees (9), Dodgers (8).

Fan support at Citizens Bank Park has been strong since the ballpark opened in 2004. Through their first 10 seasons at the ballpark, the club drew better than 3 million fans eight different times, including the record-setting mark of 3,680,718 in 2011. Highlighting that run was a streak of 257 consecutive regular-season sellouts at Citizens Bank Park from July 7, 2009 through Aug. 5, 2012.

From the 1950 pennant-winners to the great 1976-83 era to the 2007-11 run, one theme has been common throughout: homegrown talent. Whether it was Richie Ashburn, Robin Roberts and Del Ennis or Mike Schmidt, Larry Bowa and Greg Luzinski or Chase Utley, Jimmy Rollins and Ryan Howard, the Phillies have largely had their greatest successes relying on their scouting and player development.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2024, a total of 2,193 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been Miller (14), Johnson (12), Smith (12) and Jones (10).

OPENING DAY NOTES

- The Phillies have a 63-77-2 Opening Day record.
- The two ties came in back-to-back seasons – 1923 at Brooklyn and 1924 vs. Boston.
- In 1907 the New York Giants forfeited the opener to the Phillies at the Polo Grounds.
- There have been 14 openers which have gone extra innings; the last was in 2021. The Phils are 5-7-2 in those games.

1915 WORLD SERIES
PHILLIES VS. BOSTON RED SOX
(Red Sox win series, 4 games to 1)

Game 1 – October 8

The Phillies produced two runs in the eighth inning on an RBI groundout by Gavvy Cravath and an infield single by Fred Luderus to break a 1-1 tie, giving them their first WS win, 3-1. Grover Cleveland Alexander scattered eight singles in a complete-game victory. Babe Ruth, a 20-year-old left-handed pitcher who had 18 wins during the regular season, was used as a pinch-hitter, his only appearance in the Series.

1980 WORLD SERIES
PHILLIES VS. KANSAS CITY ROYALS
(Phillies win series, 4 games to 2)

Game 1 – October 14

KC took a 4-0 lead after three innings before the Phillies got going. Larry Bowa singled and daringly stole second. It was the spark of a five-run inning, capped by Bake McBride's three-run homer. Leading by a run, Tug McGraw struck out Willie Wilson to end the game and give the Phillies a 7-6 win.

Over 65,000 jammed Veterans Stadium looking for a Phillies win and their first World Championship. This time, the script didn't call for a comeback win. The Phillies grabbed a four-run lead before the Royals chased Steve Carlton with an eighth-inning run. Three more outs were all the Phillies and Tug McGraw needed. After Amos Otis struck out, a walk and two singles loaded the bases. Frank White lofted a foul pop in front of the Phillies dugout. Bob Boone and Pete Rose converged. The ball bounced off Boone's glove but the ever-alert Rose was there to make the catch. At 11:29 p.m. Veterans Stadium erupted when McGraw struck out Willie Wilson to win the World Series.

Game 2 – October 8

Colorado evened up the series with a 5-4 win over Cole Hamels and the Phillies in front of a sellout crowd at Citizens Bank Park. Trailing, 4-0, after five innings, the Phillies battled back, scoring three runs in the sixth inning and one more in the eighth to make it a one-run game. Philadelphia had a pair of base runners on in the ninth inning but could not get the tying run in off Rockies closer Huston Street.

Game 3 – October 11

Due to snow and record-low temperatures in the Denver area, Game 3, originally scheduled for October 10, was postponed to the following day. Despite a first-pitch temperature of 35 degrees at Coors Field, the Phillies beat the cold and the Rockies, 6-5. The Phils overcame a 3-1 deficit after three innings, broke a 4-4 tie in the sixth inning and a 5-5 tie in the ninth on a Ryan Howard sacrifice fly to take a 2-1 series lead.

2009 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES
PHILLIES VS. LOS ANGELES DODGERS
(Phillies win series, 4 games to 1)

Game 1 – October 15

The Phillies opened the NLCS with an 8-6 win at Dodger Stadium. Philadelphia erased the Dodgers' early 1-0 lead with a five-run fifth inning, highlighted by Carlos Ruiz's three-run homer off LA starter Clayton Kershaw. Raúl Ibañez added a three-run homer of his own in the eighth inning and Brad Lidge came on in the ninth to nail down the save.

Game 2 – October 16

In his first postseason appearance with the Phillies, Pedro Martinez allowed only two hits over his 7.0 scoreless innings pitched, but Los Angeles tied up the series with a 2-1 win. Ryan Howard's fourth-inning solo home run off Dodgers starter Vicente Padilla gave the Phils a 1-0 lead. In the eighth inning, a Chase Utley throwing error on a double play attempt allowed the tying run to score, and Andre Ethier's bases-loaded walk off J.A. Happ drove in the eventual game-winning run.

2009 WORLD SERIES
PHILLIES VS. NEW YORK YANKEES
(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

Game 1 – October 28

Chase Utley and Cliff Lee led the Phillies to a 6-1 win in the first-ever World Series game at new Yankee Stadium. Utley gave the Phils the early advantage with a pair of solo home runs off Yankees starter CC Sabathia, one in the third and the other in the sixth inning. Lee tied the Phillies postseason record with 10 strikeouts and threw his second complete game of the 2009 playoffs. 2010 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES
PHILLIES VS. CINCINNATI REDS
(Phillies win series, 3 games to 0)

Game 1 – October 6

In his postseason debut, Roy Halladay became the second pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in the playoffs in a 4-0 win over Cincinnati. Halladay narrowly missed throwing his second perfect game of the calendar year as he walked one batter, Jay Bruce, in the fifth inning. After taking a 1-0 lead in the first inning, the Phillies extended their lead in the second on an RBI single by Halladay and a two-run base hit by Shane Victorino. The win was the Phillies' seventh consecutive victory in Game 1 of a postseason series, tying the National League record.

Philadelphia took a 2-0 series lead in a wild, 7-4 victory at Citizens Bank Park. The series appeared to be heading to Cincinnati tied at one game apiece when the Reds took a 4-0 lead into the bottom of the fifth inning. The Phillies offense, however, responded and cut Cincinnati's lead to one (4-3) after six. In the seventh, Philadelphia plated three unearned runs to take the lead and the game. Reds outfielder Jay Bruce lost a fly ball hit by Jimmy Rollins in the lights with runners on first and second which allowed both runners to score. Five of the seven runs scored by the Phils were unearned and both teams combined to commit six errors in the game, which set a League Division Series single-game record.

Game 5 – November 3

Kyle Schwarber energized the crowd with a leadoff home run, but the Phillies did not score again until the eighth inning, while Houston sent three across the plate. The Phillies had chances to tie the game or go ahead late, but two great defensive plays on hard-hit balls by Kyle Schwarber and J.T. Realmuto shut down any potential rally. Justin Verlander earned his first career World series win as the Astros took a 3-2 series lead.

Game 6 – November 5

For the second straight day, Kyle Schwarber gave the Phillies a 1-0 lead with a solo home run, this time breaking the ice in the sixth inning of a pitcher's duel between Framber Valdez and Zack Wheeler. But the Astros tied the game in the bottom of the inning, and with two on and one out, Yordan Alvarez hit a mammoth home run to center off José Alvarado to put Houston up, 4-1. The bullpen held on to capture the second-ever title for the Astros in what was the latest-ending Fall Classic in MLB history.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2023 NATIONAL LEAGUE WILD CARD SERIES
PHILLIES VS. MIAMI MARLINS
(Phillies win series, 2 games to 0)

Game 1 – October 3

Zack Wheeler set the tone by allowing just one run over 6.2 innings in the Phillies' 4-1 win over the Marlins. José Alvarado closed out the seventh inning with a strikeout to strand a pair of Miami runners in scoring position. The entire starting lineup recorded a hit for the Phillies, and Alec Bohm, Bryson Stott, Cristian Pache and Nick Castellanos all collected an RBI.

Game 2 – October 4

The Phillies completed a two-game series sweep over Miami and advanced to the National League Division Series with a 7-1 win. With the Phils leading 3-0 in the bottom of the sixth inning, Bryson Stott put the game and the series out of reach with a first-pitch grand slam off left hander Andrew Nardi. Aaron Nola earned the win after allowing only three hits over 7.0 scoreless innings.

2023 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES
PHILLIES VS. ATLANTA BRAVES
(Phillies win series, 3 games to 1)

Game 1 – October 7

The Phillies used seven different pitchers to hold Atlanta to five hits to open the NLDS with a 3-0 shutout. Bryson Stott started the scoring with an RBI single in the top of the fourth, and Jeff Hoffman worked out of a bases-loaded jam to close out the bottom of the inning. Bryce Harper added a solo home run in the sixth and Trea Turner scored on a catcher's interference in the eighth. Craig Kimbrel worked a perfect ninth inning for the save.

Game 2 – October 9

Despite holding a 4-0 lead through 5.0 innings, the Phillies lost a tough one in Atlanta, 5-4. Starter Zack Wheeler was in control early and recorded a single-game postseason high with 10 strikeouts. After plating a run in the sixth inning, the Braves hit two-run home runs in both the seventh and eighth innings to take the lead. Bryce Harper walked to lead off the ninth inning, but the Phillies' comeback was thwarted when Michael Harris II robbed Nick Castellanos of extra bases in right-center field and Harper was doubled off first base as the Braves evened the series.

Game 3 – October 11

The Phillies turned the page as the offense had 11 hits – eight of which went for extra bases – in a 10-2 win over Atlanta at Citizens Bank Park. After the Braves went ahead 1-0 in the top of the third, Nick Castellanos answered in the bottom of the frame with a solo homer, and Bryce Harper followed with a three-run blast to the second deck in right field to highlight a six-run inning. Castellanos and Harper went deep again, and Trea Turner and Brandon Marsh joined in the homer party as well, making the Phillies the second team to ever hit six home runs in a postseason game.

The Phillies eliminated the Braves in the NLDS and reached the National League Championship Series for the second consecutive year. Ranger Suárez tossed 5.0 innings and allowed Atlanta's only run of the game in the fourth. Once again, Nick Castellanos hit two home runs – both off Spencer Strider – and became the first player in major league history to have consecutive multi-homer games in the postseason. Five Phillies relievers combined to pitch 4.0 scoreless innings, with Matt Strahm closing out the 3-1 win to earn his first career postseason save.

2023 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES
PHILLIES VS. ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS
(Diamondbacks win series, 4 games to 3)

Game 1 – October 16

Kyle Schwarber led off Game 1 with a first-pitch home run off Diamondbacks ace Zac Gallen as the Phils took an early lead. Starter Zack Wheeler struck out eight and allowed two runs over 6.0 innings. Bryce Harper and Nick Castellanos each hit home runs to add to the lead. A two-run homer from Geraldo Perdomo and a sacrifice fly by Alek Thomas reduced the deficit to two runs, but José Alvarado and Craig Kimbrel finished the game by only allowing one base runner.

The Phillies took a 2-0 series lead with a 10-0 win. Philadelphia clubbed seven extra-base hits to post 10 runs for the second time in the 2023 postseason. Behind the offense, Aaron Nola shut down Arizona with 6.0 scoreless innings and seven strikeouts for his third win of the postseason. Home runs from Trea Turner and Kyle Schwarber staked Nola to an early lead, and four runs in both the sixth and seventh innings put the game out of reach.

The first game at Chase Field featured a pitchers' duel between Ranger Suárez and Brandon Pfaadt. They both pitched into the fifth inning, stifling the offenses by holding them to three and two hits, respectively, while not allowing any runs. Bryce Harper helped the Phillies break the scoreless tie with his aggressiveness on a wild pitch in the seventh, but the Diamondbacks tied it back up in the bottom of the inning on a Lourdes Gurriel Jr. RBI double. With one out in the bottom of the ninth, Ketel Marte hit a walk-off RBI single to give Arizona a 2-1 victory and its first win of the series.

The Phillies lost a back-and-forth contest, 6-5, in Cristopher Sánchez's first career postseason start. The Diamondbacks established a 2-0 lead by the end of the third inning with RBI singles from Emmanuel Rivera and Gabriel Moreno. Kyle Schwarber cut the lead in half with his fourth home run of the NLCS, and the Phils scored four more times over the next three innings with Brandon Marsh, Alec Bohm and Trea Turner all driving in runs. A bases-loaded walk for the Diamondbacks in the seventh trimmed the lead to two and Alek Thomas hit a game-tying, two-run, pinch-hit home run off Craig Kimbrel in the eighth. Another RBI single by Moreno gave Arizona the lead and Paul Sewald recorded the save to even the series.

2024 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES
PHILLIES VS. NEW YORK METS
(Mets win series, 3 games to 1)

Game 1 – October 5

Despite Zack Wheeler delivering 7.0 shutout innings in which he allowed one hit and punched out nine Mets hitters, the Phillies dropped the opening game of the series. Kyle Schwarber's leadoff home run gave the Phillies the early lead, but New York erased that 1-0 advantage with five-run eighth inning by way of a walk, two sacrifice flies and five singles against the Phillies bullpen.

Game 2 was an instant classic at Citizens Bank Park. The Mets silenced the home crowd by jumping out to an early two-run lead that grew to three in the sixth inning. With two outs in the home half, Bryce Harper and Nick Castellanos slugged reinvigorating back-to-back home runs to tie the game. The Phillies plated three more runs in the bottom of the eighth to take a two-run lead, but New York knotted the game in the ninth on a two-run homer by Mark Vientos. A two-out RBI single by Castellanos in the ninth inning gave the Phillies their fifth postseason walk-off victory in franchise history and evened the series headed to New York.

ALL-STAR GAMES

July 13, 1943, Shibe Park

NL	3	10	3
AL	5	8	1

Bobby Doerr's three-run homer in the second inning propelled the AL All-Stars to their third straight victory before 31,938. Vince DiMaggio led the NL with a single, triple and home run. It was the first ASG played entirely under the lights. Winner: Dutch Leonard; Loser: Mort Cooper. Game was shortwaved to American servicemen throughout the world.

July 8, 1952, Shibe Park

AL	2	5	0
NL	3	3	0

Only game in ASG history not to go nine innings as rain halted play after five innings. Jackie Robinson hit a solo homer in the first and Hank Sauer hit a two-run homer onto the LF roof in the fourth for all the NL runs. Two Philadelphia pitchers played in the game: Curt Simmons (Phillies) started for the NL and Bobby Shantz (A's) pitched the fifth for the AL, fanning Whitey Lockman, Robinson and Stan Musial to the delight of 32,785 fans. Winner: Bob Rush; Loser: Bob Lemon. Game was broadcast on Mutual Radio System and on NBC TV.

IN PHILADELPHIA

July 13, 1976, Veterans Stadium

AL	1	5	0
NL	7	10	0

ASG MVP George Foster hit a two-run homer to lead the NL to its fifth win in a row. Third-largest crowd (63,974) in ASG history included President Gerald Ford. Five Cincinnati Reds were in the starting lineup. For the first time in Phillies history, they had five players in the game: Greg Luzinski (starter in LF), Dave Cash (2b), Larry Bowa (ss), Bob Boone (c) and Mike Schmidt (3b). Winner: Randy Jones; Loser: Mark Fidrych. An estimated 60 million fans watched the game on ABC TV.

July 9, 1996, Veterans Stadium

AL	0	7	0
NL	6	12	1

NL defeated AL for third straight year with a 6-0 shutout, behind MVP and Norristown native Mike Piazza's monster home run to the left field upper deck and RBI double in the second and third innings, respectively. Biggest ovation from the crowd of 62,670 went to Ozzie Smith, playing in his 15th and final All-Star Game. Winner: John Smoltz; Loser: Charles Nagy. Game was broadcast on NBC TV and CBS Radio.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Commissioner Rob Manfred and until 2019 the late Vera Clemente, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. Winners from each club are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978, Garry Maddox in 1986, and Jimmy Rollins shared the honor in 2014 with Paul Konerko. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken Jr. and Andrew McCutchen.

PAUL OWENS AWARD

Since 1986 the Phillies have honored the top player and pitcher in their minor league system. The award is named in honor of Paul Owens, who passed away in December 2003 after spending 48 years in the Phillies organization as a scout, farm director, general manager, manager and senior advisor.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Larry Rojas

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman and then was named chairman emeritus in 2015.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball in the Phillies organization. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

AWARDS

JOHN VUKOVICH AWARD

Started in 2007, the John Vukovich Award is presented annually to an instructor in the Phillies organization who embodies the characteristics of the award's namesake: loyalty, dedication, competitiveness, knowledge, honesty and a terrific work ethic.

"Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

He spent 30 of his 41 years in baseball as a member of the Phillies organization. With 17 years on the coaching staff, he is the longest tenured coach in team history and one of the most respected persons to ever wear a Phillies uniform.

DALLAS GREEN AWARD

To honor the accomplishments of Dallas Green, a longtime fixture in the Phillies organization, the club established the Dallas Green Scout of the Year Award in 2011. This annual award is presented to the amateur or professional scout who best exemplifies the Phillies' standard for scouting while demonstrating the same loyalty, work ethic, dedication and passion as the award's namesake. It also recognizes the scout's ability to judge not only a player's talent, but also his character and heart.

Over his distinguished career, which encompassed 62 years in baseball, including 46 with the Phillies, Green served in almost every capacity in the game, including player, scout, manager, general manager, senior advisor and club executive.

WALL OF FAME

TOYOTA

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Left Field Plaza behind the scoreboard building. Toyota is the sponsor of the Wall of Fame.

Phillies executives, players, managers and coaches with four or more years of service are eligible.

With rare exception, all candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Longtime Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas. Other former Phillies broadcasters to be honored include Chuck Thompson (1993), Herb Carneal (1996) and Tim McCarver (2012).

BBWAA CAREER EXCELLENCE AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. The BBWAA Career Excellence Award has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing." Charles Dryden, who wrote for The North American at the turn of the century, was honored in 1965 and legendary sportswriter Red Smith, who early in his career worked for The Philadelphia Record, won in 1976. Other winners include former Philadelphia Inquirer writers James Isaminger (1974), Allen Lewis (1981), Claire Smith (2017) and Jayson Stark (2019); Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988); Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992); Bill Conlin from the Philadelphia Daily News (2011); Paul Hagen (2013), who wrote for the Daily News for 25 years before joining MLB.com; and Gerry Fraley (2024), who wrote for the Clearwater Sun and Philadelphia Bulletin.

BBWAA AWARDS

In 2004, the Philadelphia Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America introduced four awards that were presented to Phillies players at the end of every season. A fifth award was added in 2014, the Charlie Manuel Award for Service and Passion to Baseball, given to former broadcaster and club ambassador Chris Wheeler. The awards were discontinued in 2015.

PAUL OWENS AWARD WINNERS

Outfielder Justin Crawford and right-handed pitcher Eiberson Castellano were selected as the recipients of the 2024 Paul Owens Award, presented annually to the Phillies' top minor league player and pitcher.

The 21-year-old Crawford began the season with high-A Jersey Shore before being promoted to double-A Reading on July 12. He slashed .313/.360/.444 (.804 OPS), going 143-for-457 with 25 doubles, four triples, nine home runs, 61 RBI, 32 walks, 42 stolen bases and 79 runs scored in 110 total games with both teams. The left-handed batter also went 1-for-3 as the leadoff hitter for the National League in the All-Star Futures Game. During his time with Reading, he ranked first in the Eastern League in batting average (.333), tied for second in hits (55) and stolen bases (15), tied for third in doubles (11) and fifth in OPS (.835). Crawford, who led all Phillies minor leaguers in hits, is currently ranked as the No. 3 prospect in Philadelphia's farm system and the No. 63 prospect in all of baseball by MLB.com. Crawford was selected by Philadelphia in the first round (17th overall) of the 2022 MLB Draft and was signed by Zach Friedman.

Castellano, 23, went 6-5 with a 3.99 ERA (46 ER, 103.2 IP) and a 1.14 WHIP across 22 appearances (20 starts) with Jersey Shore and Reading. He recorded 136 strikeouts to 29 walks (4.69 SO/BB ratio) and held opposing hitters to a .229 (89-389) batting average. Castellano, who led all Phillies minor league pitchers in strikeouts, struck out 11.81 batters per 9.0 innings pitched and had a 31.3 percent (136-434) strikeout rate compared to a 6.7 percent (29-434) walk rate. The Venezuela native limited right-handed hitters to a .197/.273/.293 (.566 OPS) slash line in 232 plate appearances and recorded a career-high 13 strikeouts on May 31 against Brooklyn. The Phillies Minor League Pitcher of the Month in July, Castellano signed with the Phillies as an amateur free agent on July 2, 2018, and was signed by Rafael Álvarez and Rómulo Oliveros.

GENERAL INFORMATION

TOM McCARTHY

Now in his 25th season in the big leagues, Tom McCarthy is in the 18th year of his second tour of duty with the Phillies doing television play-by-play. In his first stint with the club, he spent five seasons (2001-05) as the host of the pre- and postgame radio shows, while also doing radio play-by-play. He also hosted his own weekday afternoon-drive show on ESPN Radio 920 AM, which concentrated on local sports. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as a radio broadcaster with the New York Mets on WFAN before returning to the Phillies in November 2007.

A graduate of The College of New Jersey (BA degree in communications), Tom spent six seasons with the Trenton Thunder, the former double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He was hired as director of public and media relations in 1993 and promoted to assistant general manager in 1996, while also working as one of the team's broadcasters, doing play-by-play on radio and television for CN8.

After the 1999 season, Tom left the Thunder to pursue a full-time career in broadcasting, creating the first local-driven show on ESPN Radio 1680 AM. He also used to work national shows for ESPN Radio.

Tom has done extensive broadcasting for collegiate sports in his career. He currently does NFL games for CBS, basketball and college football play-by-play for CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and NFL and college basketball games for Westwood One, after three years of doing NFL games with Sports USA Radio. Previously, he worked as the radio voice of the Saint Joseph's University men's basketball team (2004-09) and the play-by-play voice for Rutgers University football (2001-03), as well as Princeton University football (1995-2000) and men's basketball (1995-2003).

In 2000, Tom earned a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award for his work on CN8 and is a two-time winner (2002 & 2004) of the Achievement in Radio Award for Best Local Sports Coverage. He also received the Radio/TV Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in January 2007 and the Good Guy Award in 2009. He was inducted into the Trenton Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 2011 and had the radio booth at Trenton's Waterfront Park named after him. Additionally, he was named the 2013 Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and was inducted into the Irish American Baseball Hall of Fame in June 2019. In March 2022, Tom received the Bob Vetrone Award, which recognizes those whose service, professionalism and commitment have made a lasting contribution to the student-athletes and institutions of the Atlantic 10 Conference.

Born in Jersey City, N.J., Tom and his wife Meg live in Allentown, N.J. They have two sons, Patrick and Tommy, and two daughters, Maggie and Kerri. Patrick, a broadcaster for the New York Mets, filled in for his dad for a few games in 2021-22 when he was with triple-A Lehigh Valley.

JOHN KRUK

One of the most popular and colorful players in Phillies history, John Kruk rejoined the club's broadcast team in January 2017. He had previously been a color analyst for the team in 2003, the final season at Veterans Stadium.

Prior to rejoining the Phillies broadcast team, John spent 13 years with ESPN as both a color commentator on "Sunday Night Baseball" and a studio analyst for "Baseball Tonight." He also worked for FOX and co-hosted "The Best Damn Sports Show Period." In 2001, he was a hitting coach for the Phillies' double-A team in Reading, Pa., before transitioning to a role assisting the club with suite sales for Citizens Bank Park. John also acted in several films, including the baseball-themed movie, The Fan, starring Robert DeNiro and Wesley Snipes.

John played 10 years in the major leagues, six of them with the Phillies, and was a member of the 1993 National League championship team when he posted career bests with a .316 batting average and a .430 on-base percentage. He made three consecutive All-Star teams (1991-93) as a Phillie, which included a memorable at-bat against future Hall of Famer Randy Johnson at the 1993 Midsummer Classic.

The San Diego Padres selected John in the third round of the 1981 draft. At the major league level, he played for the Padres (1986-89), Phillies (1989-94) and Chicago White Sox (1995). John finished his playing career with a .300 batting average, a .397 on-base percentage, 199 doubles, 100 home runs and 592 RBI in 1,200 games.

In 2003, John was selected to the All-Vet Team, which honored the best Phillies to play each position at Veterans Stadium, and he was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 2011.

John and his wife Melissa live in Naples, Fla., with their son Kyle and daughter Keira.

BEN DAVIS

Ben Davis enters his 11th season in the booth after joining the Phillies broadcast team in February 2015. He is also in his 15th year as an in-studio baseball analyst for NBC Sports Philadelphia's pre- and postgame shows and makes occasional appearances on 94 WIP's morning show.

A local product, Ben was selected by the San Diego Padres as the second overall pick in the 1995 draft out of Malvern Preparatory School and went on to have a seven-year (1998-2004) major league career with the Padres (1998-2001), Seattle Mariners (2002-04) and Chicago White Sox (2004). Ben converted to pitcher for the final three seasons (2008-10) of his professional career, spent with single-A Sarasota in the Cincinnati Reds organization and the Camden Riversharks of the independent Atlantic League.

Ben currently resides in Chadds Ford, Pa., with his wife Megan and their four children.

PHILLIES BROADCASTERS

RUBEN AMARO JR.

Over the past four decades, Ruben Amaro Jr. has held several positions with the Phillies – general manager, assistant general manager, player, bat boy and now color analyst. Ruben joined the broadcast team in 2020 for select Phillies telecasts and had his role expanded for the 2021 season. In addition, he joined MLB Network as an on-air analyst in March 2022 and makes regular appearances on the WIP morning show.

A Philadelphia native, Ruben was a bat boy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a bachelor's degree in human biology from Stanford University and was a member of the NCAA championship baseball team.

Selected by the Angels in the 11th round of the 1987 MLB Draft, Ruben made his major league debut with the club in 1991. Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for two league champions – the pennant-winning 1993 Phillies and the 1995 Cleveland club that captured the AL crown. In 1996, he ranked third among National League pinch-hitters with a .387 average.

At the conclusion of the 1998 season, Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as assistant general manager and held that position through 2008 under both Ed Wade and future Hall of Famer Pat Gillick. After the Phillies' World Series win in 2008, Gillick transitioned into a new role and Ruben succeeded him as GM.

In his first year as GM, the Phillies won the NL pennant, making it to the seventh World Series in club history, and the team's 93 wins were the most in 16 years (97 wins in 1993). Following the season, Ruben was named Executive of the Year by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association (PSWA) and the Phillies were honored as the Team of the Year by the PSWA and Organization of the Year by Baseball America. Over a two-year span (2010-11), he constructed a team that had the best records (97-65 and 102-60, respectively) in the major leagues. Prior to 2010, the Phillies had never posted the best record over the course of a major league season.

Ruben left the Phillies toward the end of the 2015 season and spent the next three years as first base coach and outfield instructor for the Boston Red Sox (2016-17) and New York Mets (2018). He worked as a scout for the Mets in 2019.

Ruben is the co-founder and ambassador for Sluggball: Baseball Reimagined, president of the Ruben Amaro Sr. Foundation, vice president of the Ashburn-Kalas Foundation and ambassador for the Darren Daulton Foundation.

He lives in Philadelphia with his partner Lori and has two daughters, Andrea and Sophia.

TARYN HATCHER

Taryn Hatcher joined NBC Sports Philadelphia's Phillies broadcast team in 2023 as a sideline reporter. She has also worked as a sideline reporter covering the Flyers and 76ers as well as an in-studio host, field reporter and anchor since joining NBCSP in 2018.

Beyond her duties with NBC Sports Philadelphia, Taryn has covered the Stanley Cup Playoffs on TNT, college football for Big Ten Network and Penn Relays for NBC Sports Network.

A native of Delran, N.J., Taryn previously worked as a sports anchor and reporter in Honolulu, Hawaii, at Hawaii News Now KGMB/KHNL. During her time in the Aloha State, she covered a variety of sports, including the Pro Bowl, Tua Tagovailoa's breakout high school seasons, LPGA and PGA events and the Triple Crown of surfing.

Taryn broke into the business while a student at Rutgers University, making appearances on Big Ten Network as a sideline reporter and serving as an intern with NBC Sports Philadelphia.

MIKE SCHMIDT

Hall of Famer Mike Schmidt had his role with the Phillies expanded in 2014 when he returned to the Phillies broadcast booth for Sunday home games. From 2015-18, he also worked Saturday home telecasts. Mike previously worked as a Phillies broadcaster during the 1990 season.

(For a complete bio, please see page 25 of the Phillies Media Guide.)

COLE HAMELS

Cole Hamels is making his professional broadcasting debut for the Phillies in 2025, serving as a color analyst. The MVP of the 2008 World Series, Cole also was named a special advisor to baseball operations in December 2024 and represents the Phillies as a club ambassador.

(For a complete bio, please see page 25 of the Phillies Media Guide.)

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and postgame host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. The duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage in 2007 and 2008. Additionally, they received the Bill Campbell Award for excellence in local broadcasting from the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association in 2017. Scott is also a three-time winner of the Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award (2010, 2015 and 2022), given by the National Sports Media Association.

A 1994 graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. He worked for two seasons as the part-time pre- and postgame host for his hometown Texas Rangers (1997-98) before becoming the voice of the Kane County Cougars, a single-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins (1999-2001). In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia, for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and postgame shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born in Dallas and currently lives in Gladwyne, Pa., with his wife Lori, son Gus and twin daughters Loretta and June.

LARRY ANDERSEN

Larry is in his 28th season serving as a color analyst for Phillies games, making him the club's longest-tenured active broadcaster. He chose to reduce his schedule in 2018 and now calls mostly home games, along with select road series.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008, he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category. In 2017, the duo was honored with the Bill Campbell Award for excellence in local broadcasting by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with Cleveland (1975-79), Seattle (1981-82), Houston (1986-90), Boston (1990), San Diego (1991-92) and two stints with the Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known for being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for future Hall of Famer Jeff Bagwell in August 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993, and also appeared in the ALCS twice, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak in 2011.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Bellevue, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by Cleveland in the seventh round and made his major league debut with the club in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (1997). He also served as a guest instructor at Phillies spring training for five years (2013-17).

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He and his wife Kristi live in Philadelphia.

GREGG MURPHY

Gregg Murphy joined the Phillies television broadcast team in 2012, bringing viewers closer to the action by reporting from the field, dugouts and elsewhere throughout the ballpark during games. He added some play-by-play duties in 2014 and continued in both roles through the 2020 season. In 2021, Gregg moved over to the radio side to handle pre- and postgame show duties, while occasionally filling in for Scott Franzke on play-by-play.

Originally hired as part of the on-air team at NBC Sports Philadelphia in December 2008, Gregg is a multiple Emmy winner and nominee in numerous categories, including sports reporting. He was also recognized twice as the winner of the Associated Press Outstanding Talk Program for "Out of Bounds," a program he hosted earlier in his career.

Before joining NBC Sports Philadelphia, he was at CN8, "The Inquirer High School Sports Show" and WFMZ in Allentown, Pa.

A 1993 graduate of St. Joseph's University with a degree in English, Gregg has reported on many notable sports events, including the NCAA Tournament, Super Bowl, World Series and NBA Finals.

Born in Meadowbrook, Pa., Gregg was raised in Mt. Laurel, N.J., and attended Holy Cross High School in Delran, N.J. He gives his time and hosting talents to the Families Behind the Badge Foundation, which benefits Philadelphia police officers.

Gregg lives in Mullica Hill, N.J., with his wife Christa. Together they have five children: one daughter, Quinn, and four sons, Matthew, Colin, Shane and Beckett.

PHILLIES BROADCASTERS

KEVIN STOCKER

A member of the 1993 Phillies National League championship team, Kevin Stocker rejoined the Phillies radio broadcast team in 2022. He previously served in that capacity in 2018, working select road games, after calling six games in the two prior seasons.

Prior to his work with the Phillies, Kevin spent 18 years as a college baseball color analyst for the Pac-12 Network, CBS College Sports Network and ESPN. A former college player himself, Kevin was selected by the Phillies in the second round of the 1991 MLB Draft out of the University of Washington. He played eight seasons in the major leagues, including his first five (1993-97) with the Phillies. In 545 games for the club, Kevin batted .262 with a .347 on-base percentage. He made his major league debut on July 7, 1993, and played all 20 innings of the Phillies' win over the Los Angeles Dodgers that night.

During the 2017 season, Kevin also broadcast four Major League Baseball games as part of the Intel True VR Game of the Week venture between MLB and Intel Corporation.

Kevin currently resides in Newtown Square, Pa., with his wife Brooke. They have three children, daughter McKenna and sons Logan and Zach.

BILL KULIK

The 2025 season marks Bill Kulik's 21st season as a member of the Phillies' Spanish broadcasting team and his 31st in professional baseball as a broadcaster and producer of Spanish-language sports content.

Bill established the Spanish Béisbol Network in 2001 and the company has continued to grow, adding Spanish broadcasting rights to the Philadelphia Eagles in 2012. Prior to his time with the Phillies, Bill called games for the Boston Red Sox and, between the two clubs, has been part of five World Series broadcasts (2004; 2007-09; 2022).

A native New Englander, Bill lived in Latin America for 10 years, earned a bachelor's degree from Bryant University in marketing and went to graduate school at Boston College. He and his wife Chesco reside in Moorestown, N.J., and have six children: Amanda, Arielle, KJ, Bryce, Seychelle and Quinlan.

OSCAR BUDEJEN

Oscar joined Phillies Spanish radio broadcasts in 2021, working alongside Bill Kulik. He has two decades of sports broadcasting experience in the Hispanic market in the U.S. and across Latin America covering MLB, NFL, college football and the NBA. He has called multiple Super Bowls, World Series and NBA Finals in Spanish. He also currently serves as the color analyst for the Eagles Spanish radio broadcasts.

Oscar is also an accomplished global business executive that has worked in leadership positions for world-class organizations like Procter & Gamble, The Coca-Cola Company and Aramark. At Coca-Cola, he managed the company's sports and entertainment assets around the world including MLB, NBA, FIFA and Disney, among many others.

Oscar is a passionate advocate for the development of the Hispanic community and has served as an advisor for multiple Hispanic organizations, such as Congreso, The National Hispanic Corporate Council and Hispanic Business Development Center.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela, Oscar received his MBA from Mercer University and he currently resides in Philadelphia with his family.

ANGEL CASTILLO

The 2025 season is Angel's 18th on Spanish-language baseball broadcasts and his 14th with the Phillies. He also worked on the Washington Nationals Spanish radio broadcasts for four years (2008-11).

From 2022-23, Angel produced and hosted a Spanish sports talk show called "Sabado Deportivo," which aired on WTTM 1680 AM in Philadelphia and South Jersey. It was his second show on the station, having previously produced his own sports radio show called "Deportes de Aquí y de Allá," which aired weekdays from 2006-08. Most recently, Angel served as the play-by-play announcer for ALDS playoff games on MLB Network alongside former major leaguer Yonder Alonso.

Angel was born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, and is a graduate from Superior School of Locution and Social Communication in the DR with a concentration in social communication. He has lived in Philadelphia since 2001 and he and his wife, Michel, have two sons, Brian and Brandon.

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

Dan Baker has the distinction of being the longest-tenured public address announcer in Major League Baseball, an honor he achieved in 2008. After missing the 2020 season due to health concerns, the 2025 season will be his 53rd with the Phillies, having started with the team in 1972.

During his 50+ years, Dan has been the on-field voice of the Phillies for over 4,000 games, including six World Series and two All-Star Games in two ballparks, Veterans Stadium and Citizens Bank Park. Dan also served as the PA announcer for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles for 29 years (1985-2013) without missing a regular season or postseason game. He announced three NFC Championship games (2002-04) and each Army-Navy game that has been played at Lincoln Financial Field.

Away from the professional ranks, Dan has been the play-by-play voice for Big 5 basketball (1977-98), Drexel University basketball (1997-2012), Temple University football (1977-83) and University of Pennsylvania football (1986-88). As executive secretary, Dan helped preserve the Philadelphia Big 5 basketball tradition from 1981 through 1996. In 1997, he was inducted into the Big 5 Basketball Hall of Fame, one of six local sports Halls of Fame in which he is enshrined. He was inducted into the Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia Hall of Fame in November 2019. In March 2022, he was honored by Coaches vs. Cancer with the Dinsmore Award, given annually to an inspiring cancer survivor in the Philadelphia basketball community. Most recently, Dan was honored by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association in January 2023 with a Lifetime Achievement Award and Most Courageous Person Award.

Since 2008, Dan has co-hosted the "Bull Session" with Phillies Wall of Famer Greg Luzinski every Monday during the baseball season on WBCB 1490 AM.

Dan and his wife Cathy – a former Phillies employee – live in West Deptford, N.J. They have two children, Darren and Courtney.

PHILLIES TELEVISION NETWORK

The Phillies enter their 28th season in 2025 with the all-sports cable network NBC Sports Philadelphia. NBCSP and NBCSP+ will once again carry the bulk of the games, along with "Phillies Pregame Live" and "Phillies Postgame Live" programming. Additional games will be aired by Philadelphia's NBC10.

Besides the local broadcasts, the Phillies are scheduled to make at least four appearances on ESPN: April 27 at the Chicago Cubs, May 11 at the Cleveland Guardians, June 22 vs. the New York Mets and July 23 vs. the Boston Red Sox. There will also be six games carried nationally on FOX: April 26 at the Cubs, June 21 vs. the Mets, June 28 at the Atlanta Braves, July 12 at the San Diego Padres, Aug. 9 at the Texas Rangers and Sept. 11 vs. the Mets. Additionally, the Phillies will be featured on the Roku Sunday Leadoff game at Washington on Aug. 17 at 11:35 a.m. and on Apple TV+ hosting the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 4 and the Mets on June 20. Please visit phillies.com for the most up-to-date broadcast schedule.

Fans can enjoy complete coverage of the Phillies with the NBC Sports mobile app. Authenticated NBCSP subscribers can access local market games and pre- and postgame shows, as well as live and on-demand video, podcasts and written coverage, from anywhere in the United States.

PHILLIES RADIO NETWORK

All Phillies games can be heard on the team's flagship station, SportsRadio 94WIP (94.1 FM). In addition to WIP, Phillies baseball can be heard on the 15-station Phillies Radio Network throughout the tri-state area. Once again, games will be broadcast in Spanish and aired on WTTM (1680 AM), with Bill Kulik, Oscar Budejen and Angel Castillo behind the microphone. Spanish-language broadcasts are also available using the SAP function during Phillies Television Network games.

2025 MEDIA INFORMATION

BALLPARK ENTRANCE

All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's postgame media conference, are held in this room.

PRESS BOX

The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Relations Workroom and library, is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR

An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY

A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS

Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA RELATIONS WORKROOM

Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Relations Workroom that contains a copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the Workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the Media Relations Workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Relations Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

PHOTO WORKROOM

The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials or Baseball Writers' Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS

Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to submit a $25 check to Phillies Charities prior to being issued a new credential.

ACCESS TO CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses will be open to the media for a minimum of 50 minutes before the start of the game, in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations, at a time determined by the public relations staff. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Please note that the clubhouse is open for conducting or coordinating interviews, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse. Absolutely no transmitting (phone calls/texts/e-mails/social media updates) is allowed in the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY

The manager is available before and after every Phillies home game.

2025 MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA DRESS CODE

In accordance with a MLB directive, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and the Phillies, as well as MLB, expect members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in the press area
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
  - Sheer or see-through clothing
  - Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
  - Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
  - Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

PRESS BOX SEATING

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

INTERNET

Wireless internet is available throughout the press box area and in the photo workroom.

PRESS DINING ROOM

Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. The meal price is $12, and food is served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The beverage area remains open during the game and postgame. Media members are prohibited from bringing guests into the press box.

SMOKING

Smoking is not permitted inside Citizens Bank Park.

STAFF

We look forward to working with you during the 2025 baseball season. Our offices are located on the Suite Level, which is one level below the Press Box/Hall of Fame Club Level.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Through both Phillies Charities, Inc. and the club's ongoing outreach efforts, the Phillies have a continued presence in the community throughout the year.

Phillies Charities, Inc. is the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, as well as areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Continued fan support enables fundraisers, including the ◀ Phantastic Auction, Phillies Charities 50/50 Drawing, Phillies Charities 5K presented by Fox Chase Cancer Center and many memorabilia auctions, to contribute largely to a Phillies Charities Grant Fund. Grants are awarded on a regular basis to primarily local organizations serving a wide variety of needs. In 2024, more than $4.6 million in grants was distributed to dozens of charitable causes.

The Phillies Wives are committed to giving back and lending their time and efforts to support local charities. Each year, several of the Phillies Wives serve on the board of Phillies Charities and work together to represent the club on charitable projects or fundraisers. Most recently, the Phillies Wives raised over $30,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA and provided Turning Points for Children with back-to-school clothing for teenage girls living in foster care.

Phillies players lend their support by dedicating time to connect with individuals, groups and families throughout the year.

- Aaron and Hunter Nola hosted Bowling for the Troops to benefit Team Red, White & Blue, a nonprofit organization which enriches the lives of veterans. New this year, Aaron Nola's Charity Poker Tournament benefiting Team Red, White & Blue will be held in May. Aaron, who lost his uncle to ALS, has also supported that cause in various ways, including cohosting Strike Out ALS with his brother Austin, an MLB catcher.
- J.T. and Lexi Realmuto host Faith and Baseball Night ▶, an inspiring pregame conversation with fans about how they celebrate the intersection of faith and baseball in their daily lives, led by Jeffrey Boettcher, the club's MLB Chaplain.
- Kyle and Paige Schwarber thank frontline heroes and first responders through The Schwarber Family Foundation. They host Schwarber's Neighborhood Heroes, a community ticket program that treats groups, including local police officers, firefighters and military veterans, to special experiences at Citizens Bank Park. In addition, they host the annual Schwarber's Block Party fundraiser, along with an appreciation event, Schwarber's Field Day, to thank and support local first responders for their hard work, sacrifices and bravery.
- Trea and Kristen Turner host families from The V Foundation for Cancer Research throughout the season in support of the fight against pediatric cancer.
- Throughout each season, players spend time meeting with patients and granting wishes through the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

The Phillies support over 7,000 youth baseball and softball players through the Nike RBI ▶ (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program. Uniforms, equipment and instructional clinics are just some of the resources provided to local leagues. Additional events are provided for RBI players and coaches including coaching clinics, player skill development and body care. The Nike Jr. RBI League is sponsored by Citizens while the Nike RBI League is sponsored by Nike and Richman's Ice Cream.

The Phillies MLB Urban Youth Academy provides free, year-round instruction to RBI participants and local athletes in Philadelphia through both the baseball and softball fields in FDR Park and the Ryan Howard Training Center. Throughout the year, in-classroom and on-field programming is held by instructors and members of the Phillies organization to help develop players on and off the field. Programming includes a leadership course instructed by Umps Care Charities, offseason workouts, position-specific instructional work and education on the college recruitment process for high school athletes looking to further their baseball or softball careers. Players from the academy have also participated in MLB's Breakthrough Series, Commissioner's Cup, Elite Development Institute and the Jennie Finch Classic.

Each year, the Carpenter Cup Classic presented by Nike gives baseball and softball athletes from local high schools the chance to showcase their skills in front of scouts and college coaches.

Over 7,000 children participate in the annual Phillies Home Run Derby, a baseball and softball hitting contest for kids ages 7-12. Participants advance through local and regional competitions to reach the championship, which is held annually at Citizens Bank Park.

The Phillies host a variety of educational programs for the local community. ◀ Phanatic About Reading, presented by Xfinity, encourages students in grades PreK-8 to read for a minimum of 15 minutes per day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. Phillies Phitness, presented by The GIANT Company, encourages children of all ages to start on the path to a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Through a partnership with the City of Philadelphia Parks & Recreation Department, Phillies Phundamentals, sponsored by Chick-fil-A Greater Philadelphia, uses baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills to children during the summer months. The All-Star

Students contest, presented by LF Driscoll, recognizes students who go above and beyond during the school year, while the work of area educators is highlighted annually through Teacher Appreciation Night, powered by Constellation. Citizens Weather Education Day, presented by Citizens and NBC10/Telemudo62, is an educational experience focused on weather that is enjoyed by thousands of children each year. Students from the School District of Philadelphia's mentoring program participate in Q&A sessions with members of the Phillies front office, thanks to support from the Pennsylvania Auto Theft Prevention Authority, while hundreds of students and teachers participate in Phillies Science of Baseball presented by PGW. The Phillies Skilled Trades All-Star Program powered by NEST, gives students the opportunity to go behind the scenes with trade industry experts at Citizens Bank Park.

Female fans are treated to a day behind the scenes at Citizens Bank Park during the Behind the Diamond Clinic for Women sponsored by Inclusive Collection, part of World of Hyatt. Activities include a clinic with coaches and a Q&A session with a player.

The Phillies partner with Aramark and OVG360 on their Red Goes Green program. Through ◀ Home Runs for Trees presented by Asplundh and a partnership with the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, over 2,000 trees have been planted in the Delaware Valley. In addition, through the program, hundreds of trees have been donated to local schools.

Since 2011, Phans Feeding Families, the hunger relief partnership between the Phillies, Citizens, Aramark, Campbell's, The GIANT Company, Goya Foods, Hatfield Quality Meats, KPMG, SEPTA, Tri-State Toyota Dealers and Philabundance has raised more than $784,000 and provided more than one million meals to people in need throughout the Greater Philadelphia area.

Making numerous community appearances throughout the year, the Phillies Ballgirls ▶ are ambassadors for the team both on and off the field. In addition to hosting an annual Christmas in July toy drive, the ballgirls act as captains of the Red Goes Green Team presented by WM and recognize a Ball Kid of the Month prior to home games.

In conjunction with Minding Your Mind, Strike Out the Stigma presented by GHOST Energy is the Phillies' mental health awareness community program focused on bringing important conversations to the forefront about the value of healthy life habits, supporting those around us and removing the negative connotation surrounding mental health.

The Phillies are dedicated to honoring all the men and women who have served or continue to serve our country. Military appreciation is celebrated annually during Salute to Service and First Responders Night presented by Toyota. In addition, Rothman Hometown Heroes are recognized in-game throughout the season.

Each season, the Phillies partner with Major League Baseball in supporting a variety of initiatives, including Armed Forces Weekend, ◀ Childhood Cancer Awareness Day, Father's Day, Hispanic Heritage Month, Jackie Robinson Day, Lou Gehrig Day, Mental Health Awareness, Mother's Day, Play Ball Weekend, Roberto Clemente Day, September 11th Remembrance and Spirit Day.

The Phillies and The GIANT Company team up to host the annual Phillies Summer of Giving. It features a week of charitable events, including a picnic with Peter's Place, Mickey Morandini's cornhole classic, Phillies Give Back at Ronald McDonald House and MANNA, a pep rally at Jefferson Moss Magee Rehabilitation Hospital and Project HOME bingo night.

The annual Phillies Season of Giving presented by SEI provides a way for the Phillies to give back to the community during the offseason. Events include dropping off holiday gifts for residents at Jefferson Moss Magee Rehabilitation Hospital, preparing and serving a holiday dinner at The Bethesda Project Our Brother's Place and delivering toys to children at the Ford PAL Center.

Front office employees volunteer their time each year through the Phillies Give Back program. Activities have included participating in a bocce ball tournament with athletes from Special Olympics PA, redecorating the bedroom of a local child currently battling cancer and serving a Thanksgiving dinner at Hope Lodge ▶.

The Phillies are committed to diversity, equity and inclusion and fostering an inclusive culture. The Phillies support and provide Commissioner's Initiative tickets to organizations in the Philadelphia region that serve diverse communities and celebrate the history and culture of underrepresented groups during special events and theme nights throughout the year. In addition, the Phillies stay actively engaged in community and cultural events throughout the region and partner with diversity-focused organizations to keep diversity, equity and inclusion at the heart of everything that they do.

The Phillies' work in the community would not be possible without the dedication and support of the many partners and fans who support our mission. Learn more by visiting phillies.com/community.

CITIZENS BANK PARK FACTS

After 33 years at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies moved into their new state-of-the art facility, Citizens Bank Park, in 2004. The world-class ballpark – rated one of the best in the country – opened on April 3, 2004, with an exhibition game against Cleveland. Since that time, the Phillies have captured a World Series championship (2008), three National League pennants (2008-09, 2022) and six NL East titles (2007-11; 2024), while countless records have been broken both on and off the field.

ACCESSIBILITY: Excellent regional highway access for vehicles and Broad Street Subway Line for public transportation.

ACRES: 21-acre site, north side of Pattison Avenue between Citizens Bank Way and Darien Street.

ADA-FOCUSED DESIGN: With the help of an Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) consultant, the park was designed to be universally accessible and comfortable for all fans with disabilities.

AMERICAN GOLD STAR MOTHERS CHAIR OF HONOR: Located in Section 137, this unoccupied seat pays tribute to every mother who lost a son or daughter during active service and is dedicated to the memory of their loved ones.

ARCHITECTS/DESIGN TEAM: EwingCole and HOK Sport+Venue+Event (HOK SVE).

BALLPARK DESTINATION AREAS:

Ashburn Alley: Festive outfield entertainment area named after Phillies Hall of Famer and former broadcaster Richie "Whitey" Ashburn; 625 feet in length covering 50,000 square feet. Highlights include:

- Right Field: The Yard, a 13,000-square-foot interactive kids' baseball experience complete with Citizens Phan Field (a 70-foot Astroturf-covered field), a Hatfield Phillies Franks Hot Dog Launcher, a 30-foot Phanatic Chevrolet Climbing Wall, Bullpen pitching area and Richman's Ice Cream bar.

- Other Alley highlights: 10-foot statue of Richie Ashburn; Phillies All-Star Walk, bi-level bullpens, CP Rankin Rooftop, the Alley Store, and more food and drink options including the Budweiser Batter's Eye Bar, Campo's, Chickie's and Pete's, Jim Beam Cocktail Bar, Manco & Manco Pizza, P.J. Whelihan's and Tony Luke's. The Alley also features the Yuengling Party Pavilion and Casamigos Bar in right field.

- Photo Opportunities: Features oversized World Series trophies and statues of retired numbers, including 1 (Richie Ashburn), 20 (Mike Schmidt), 36 (Robin Roberts) and 42 (Jackie Robinson). Other highlights include Phillies championship banners and the Toyota Phillies Wall of Fame. Plus, statues of Phillies retired numbers 14 (Jim Bunning) and 32 (Steve Carlton) greet fans as they approach the Left Field Gate.

- Concessions & Social Areas: Coca-Cola Corner, Bull's BBQ, Miller Lite Liberty Landing and Leinenkugel's Left Field.

Third Base Plaza:

- Photo Opportunities: Features statues of retired numbers including 15 (Dick Allen) and 34 (Roy Halladay). Plus, the iconic 19-foot-high Liberty Bell that was once located atop Veterans Stadium is prominently displayed as fans approach the ballpark.
- Pass and Stow: This 24,500-square-foot space features an outdoor Kona at the Park Bar, Foundry Pizza with Manco & Manco, a family-friendly sports pub, TVs to catch game action and more. Pass and Stow is a historic nod to the Liberty Bell, which has been part of the Phillies brand and logo for many years. The name is derived from the two Philadelphia foundry workers, John Pass and John Stow, who recast the original bell in 1753, and whose names are inscribed on this important piece of American history.

- Shake Shack: Adjacent to Pass and Stow is the 6,000-square-foot Shake Shack, which offers its sit-down restaurant experience, with seating for 120 fans. This popular, modern-day "roadside" burger stand serves its classic burgers, crinkle-cut fries, hand-spun shakes and more.

CITIZENS BANK PARK FACTS

MLB'S GO-AHEAD ENTRY: Launched by MLB with the Phillies as a pilot program in August 2023. Includes a combination of free-flow security screening technology and facial authentication-based gate management, resulting in quicker, hands-free entry into the ballpark. This entry point is available at the First Base, Third Base and Left Field Gates. Fans enroll in this feature through the MLB Ballpark app.

NETTING: The protective netting extends most of the way down each baseline to Section 109 (right field line) and Section 138 (left field line). The netting behind the dugouts and down the baselines is approximately 25 feet high and made of state-of-the-art "field green" material to blend in with the playing field and minimize obstruction of views.

PARKING: 21,000 parking spaces in the Sports Complex.

PHILADELPHIA STARS DISPLAY: Located in the Home Plate Suite Level lobby at Citizens Bank Park. The area showcases floor-to-ceiling graphics of the Philadelphia Stars from their playing days in the Negro Leagues, as well as an information panel covering "The Story of the Philadelphia Stars." Also featured are paintings of two local players who starred in the Negro Leagues and are currently enshrined in Cooperstown: Judy Johnson from the Hilldale club and Roy Campanella, a Philadelphia native who played for the Baltimore Elite Giants, Philadelphia Stars and Brooklyn Dodgers.

PHILLIE PHANATIC: Part of a permanent exhibit at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and recognized by Forbes magazine and other media outlets as the most popular mascot in sports, the Phillie Phanatic has grown to become a recognizable symbol of the Phillies across the country and around the world. The Phanatic is a fixture at Phillies home games and entertains fans young and old at countless appearances throughout the Delaware Valley.

PHILLIES SCOREBOARD WITH HDR PHANAVISION EXPERIENCE: Debuted in 2023 and is among the largest in the major leagues. Features the latest and greatest in high dynamic range (HDR) video technology.

- Weight: 116,298 pounds, supported by 190 tons of structural steel.
- Overall size: 152 feet wide by 86 feet tall; 77% larger than the former Phillies display (an increase in size from 97 feet wide by 76 feet tall).
- 16:9 aspect ratio; able to display 516 life-size Phillie Phanatics simultaneously.
- With a 4K capable and HDR system utilizing nearly 11.6 million pixels with 10mm pixel spacing, the scoreboard delivers rich colors and superb clarity.
- Features better viewing angles and exceptional short-distance viewing.

Supporting the enhanced system is a modernized production control room located in the Cadillac Hall of Fame Club. To further add to the fan experience, several new technology enhancements have been made throughout the ballpark for 2025. This includes new LED rings on the Suite and Terrace fascia, new low-frequency speakers for the PA system, and tech upgrades to the CP Rankin Club and Kona at the Park Bar at Pass and Stow.

PIONEERS IN PINSTRIPES DISPLAY: Located in the Cadillac Hall of Fame Club, this new area was created to honor the trailblazers of Phillies integration and racial/ethnic diversity, focusing mostly on the time from when Jackie Robinson broke baseball's color barrier to when Dick Allen became the Phillies' first Black superstar. Pioneers in Pinstripes pays tribute to both the well- and lesser-known figures who helped pave the way for future generations of Black and other minority athletes on the Phillies and in the city, while also educating the public and serving as a home base for collections and research on the subject of Phillies integration.

PUBLIC RESTROOM FACILITIES & CAVITY BUSTERS NURSING MOTHER'S LOUNGE: A total of 68 restrooms are conveniently located throughout the park. This includes 26 women's, 26 men's and 15 family restrooms, with an additional restroom in the Service Level specifically for wheelchair guests seated in the Field Level area by the third base dugout. All are wheelchair accessible.

Fans also have access to a private area for nursing mothers and babies at the Cavity Busters Nursing Mother's Lounge, located on the Main Concourse behind Section 125 (between the Phillies Radio Booth and Home Plate lobby).

SEATS: Capacity: 42,901; Color of seats: Sapphire blue; Hussey Seating Co. Seats are angled toward the infield and equipped with cup holders.

CITIZENS BANK PARK FACTS

Located on Pattison Avenue, it includes the American flag along with flags and engraved plaques representing the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and POW/MIA.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6-6; WT: 300
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galápagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phillie Phanatic was created by the team's marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot evolved and is celebrated as part of a permanent exhibit in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Over the years, various national media outlets have ranked the Phanatic as the No. 1 sports mascot.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, in recent years he stepped into prime time with appearances on the NBC television show "30 Rock" and ABC's "The Goldbergs" and "Schooled." He's also visited the sets of NBC's "Today," "Good Morning America," "CBS This Morning," and ESPN's "SportsCenter" and "College GameDay." A frequent flyer, the Phanatic has logged miles to Japan, Australia, Mexico and Europe and most notably journeyed to his homeland of the Galápagos Islands.

Dave Raymond, a graduate of the University of Delaware, was the original performer in costume and spent 16 years entertaining as the Phanatic. The current Phanatic, Tom Burgoyne, began his fanatical career in 1989 as Raymond's backup, later joining the Phillies marketing department in 1990. Over the course of his tenure, Tom has written two Phillies books, 20 children's books and a business/leadership book called Pheel the Love. In addition, he's developed a reading program (Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read at least 15 minutes every day. In 2020, Tom was honored with the Richie Ashburn & David Montgomery Special Achievement Award, which is given to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated loyalty, dedication and passion for the game.

Tom is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

Ball wedges in chain link fence in front of out-of-town scoreboard: Two Bases.
Ball strikes fence or scoreboard and goes over center field fence without striking the ground: Home Run.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 26-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.
No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

EXTRA INNINGS: If the score is tied after nine innings, and for each extra inning of those games, the team batting will begin the inning with a runner on second base. The runner on second base at the start of each half-inning has to be the player (or substitute for such player) in the batting order immediately preceding that half-inning's leadoff hitter.

INFIELD POSITIONING: Infielders must be positioned on either side of second base when the pitch is released. All four infielders must have both feet within the infield when the pitcher is on the rubber.

MINIMUM NUMBER OF BATTERS FOR PITCHERS: An amendment to Rule 5.10(g) requires that starting pitchers and relief pitchers must pitch to either a minimum of three batters or the end of a half-inning (with exceptions for incapacitating injury or illness).

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

PITCH TIMER: The timer will be set at 15 seconds when bases are empty and 18 seconds with runner(s) on base. Hitters will receive one timeout per plate appearance and the pitcher can step off the rubber twice.

ROSTER LIMITS: The active roster limit from Opening Day through Aug. 31 and in postseason games is 26 (max. 13 pitchers), with a 27th player allowed for doubleheaders. From Sept. 1 through the end of the season, all clubs must carry 28 players on the active roster (max. 14 pitchers).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)… A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

Prior to the start of a game, the right to play is vested in the home club. Once lineup cards have been exchanged, the Umpire-In-Chief shall have the sole authority to determine whether and when play shall be halted and whether and when play shall resume. He shall not call the game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as be believes there is any chance to resume play. The Crew Chief shall at all times try to complete a game. His authority to resume play following one or more suspensions of as much as 30 minutes each shall be absolute and he shall terminate a game only when there appears to be no possibility for completing it.

For series that begin on or after September 1, during the final series of the season between two clubs in the home ballpark of each club – even if the game has not yet begun – MLB's Executive VP of Baseball Operations (or his designee) shall be the sole authority as to whether or not a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather or the unfit condition of the playing field.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

BAYCARE BALLPARK

"If there is a gold standard among Grapefruit League ballparks, it is Clearwater's BayCare Ballpark. It is the standard by which older ballparks are evaluated and new ballparks are planned. It's not the biggest or the most historic, but on virtually every level it's the nicest, and it works very well on a functional level: you never, ever feel crushed or crowded, even when you're queuing up for parking or an entrance to the ballpark. We really can't think of a better time at a spring training game than to spend the afternoon at BayCare Ballpark." – springtrainingonline.com

Fans certainly have enjoyed spending the afternoon at BayCare Ballpark since it first opened in 2004. As the Phillies entered their 22nd spring at their Clearwater home, total attendance stood at 2,448,155.

Of that total, 113,037 were there in the first year, easily breaking the spring record (94,811 in 1994) at Jack Russell Memorial Stadium, where the Phillies trained starting in 1955. Attendance for the first year there was a meager 16,832. .

The Phillies first moved to Clearwater in 1947, replacing the Cleveland franchise, which moved to Tucson, Ariz. Athletic Field, with a seating capacity of 3,000, was their first home. The previous spring, the Phillies trained in Miami Beach, Fla. Because of World War II travel restrictions, the Phillies trained close to home in 1943 (Hershey, Pa.) and 1944-45 (Wilmington, Del.).

Only the Detroit Tigers have been in a Florida location longer, holding camp in Lakeland since 1934. The Tigers defeated the Phillies, 13-1, in their first Clearwater game, March 11, 1947, before a paid crowd of 1,766 and lost the first game at Jack Russell Stadium, 4-2, on March 10, 1955, before 4,209 fans.

In 2004, the Phillies also opened a new home in Philadelphia, Citizens Bank Park. No other club ever unveiled two ballparks in the same year.
