Fall Stars Recap

SAM ANTONACCI (GLD/CWS) completed the fourth walk off in Fall Stars Game history with a sac fly with the bases loaded in the ninth.

RAUDI RODRIGUEZ (SRR/LAA) took home MVP honors for the American League with two hits, two RBI, and a walk. His two-out RBI single in the second scored the first run of the game.

KEVIN MCGONIGLE (SCO/DET No. 1/MLB No. 2/SS) turned a walk into a double after a wild pitch on ball four with no runners on base, allowing the MLB No. 2 prospect to make his way to second base in the second inning. McGonigle later scored in that inning for the American League's second run of the game.

AL PITCHING STAFF struck out 11, allowing two earned runs through nine innings. Luis De León (PEO/BAL) started on the mound, striking out two in his one inning outing.

BLAKE MITCHELL (SUR/KC No. 2/MLB No. 62/C) had the lone extra base hit of the game, hitting a double in the second inning.
