SUNDAY SALVAGED: The Royals salvaged yesterday's series finale with a 7-4 win in Miami...All-Star Kris Bubic pitched 5.0 scoreless innings on 66 pitches and the offense scored 3 runs in both the 4th and 5th innings, including 2-run doubles by Jac Caglianone and Jonathan India...Salvador Perez added a solo home run in the 8th to give the Royals a 7-0 lead into the 9th, when the Marlins scored 4 unearned runs and brought the tying run to the plate...the Royals answered with Carlos Estévez, who got the final out to earn his American League-leading 26th save of the season.

ROYAL RUNDOWN: The Royals are 4 games under .500 (48-52) and 5.5 games behind Seattle (53-46) and Boston (54-47) for the final American League Wild Card spot, with 62 games to play...the Royals rank 2nd in the Majors with a 3.49 ERA, trailing only the Rangers (3.21)...the offense, however, ranks 29th out of 30 teams with an average of 3.43 runs per game, and ranks 25th with a .232 batting average with runners in scoring position...they rank among the American League's best teams defensively, committing just 43 errors in 100 games, 4th fewest in the league.

TRIPLE DOUBLE: There are nine players in the Majors this season with at least 25 doubles and three of them are Royals...in fact, no other team has more than one player with at least 25 doubles...Bobby Witt Jr. leads the Majors with 33 doubles—6 more than 2nd place Bo Bichette (27)—followed by Salvador Perez, Pete Alonso and Freddie Freeman (who each have 26)—and Maikel Garcia, Jackson Chourio, Jarren Duran and Miguel Vargas (tied with 25).

+ Including 5 doubles yesterday, the Royals rank 3rd in MLB with 177, trailing the Red Sox (203) and D-backs (178).

SALVY SPLASHES: Royals Captain Salvador Perez has homered in each of the last 2 games, extending his franchise record of consecutive games with a homer to 42, including two times this season...over his last 10 games, Salvy is batting .412 (14-for-34) with 11 runs, 3 doubles and 6 homers—2nd most in the Majors since July 6—for a 1.503 OPS.

+ Salvy has homered in at least 3 consecutive games four times, most recently from Aug. 25-29, 2021 (5 straight).
+ Perez's 15 home runs are tied with Vinnie Pasquantino for the team lead, and he now has 288 HR for his career, 12 shy of 300...he would be the eighth primary catcher to hit 300 HR and would be only the second to do so all with the same team...Johnny Bench ranks 2nd among catchers with 389 HR, all of which came with the Reds.
+ Perez, 35, is now just 29 home runs shy of matching George Brett (317) for the Royals all-time home run record.

ROAD WORK: The Royals are 24-26 on the road this season but are 22-16 in their last 38 road games, the 2nd-best road record in the Majors since April 20, trailing only Detroit (23-15)...the Royals rank 2nd in the Majors during this stretch in road ERA (3.33) and their offense ranks T-6th in batting average (.260)...the Royals lost 2 of 3 games in Miami to begin this road trip, but have won their last two completed road trips and are unbeaten on their last four.

+ Their 24-26 record on the road matches their home record, but they have a +8 run diff. on the road (-36 at home), have hit 52 HR on the road (25 HR at home) and are averaging 3.88 runs/game on the road (2.98 at home).
+ The Royals have scored at least 6 runs in a game 21 times this season, and 15 of those have come on the road.

INTERLEAGUE INTRIGUE: The Royals are 7-5 through the 1st 12 games of a run of 15 straight vs. National League teams...this five-series stretch began with 3 games in Arizona on the last trip, continued with a 6-game homestand vs. the Pirates and Mets last week, and concludes with this 6-game road trip to Miami and the North Side of Chicago.

+ This streak of 15 consecutive Interleague games tied a Major League record according to Elias, done many times by many teams, including eight times previously by the Royals and most recently in 2012...that record will soon be broken, however, as the Phillies are currently playing 21 consecutive Interleague games through Aug. 10.
+ The Royals are 19-17 (.528) in 36 games of Interleague play, and have scored 4.31 runs per game, while batting .264, T-6th-best team batting average in Interleague games this season...but in 64 games vs. American League teams, the Royals are just 29-35 (.453) and have scored 2.94 runs per game with a .232 team batting average.
+ Their 19 wins in Interleague play are tied with the Yankees for most among AL teams, 1 behind Houston (20).

VS. CUBS: The Royals are visiting the friendly confines of Wrigley Field this week for the first time since 2023...tonight marks the Royals 21st game in this ballpark but only the 6th at night, and the 1st under the lights with fans since Sept. 28, 2015...the Royals are 8-12 all-time at Wrigley Field despite outscoring the Cubs here 84-74 (+10)...the Royals are one of 19 teams who've played at least 20 games at Wrigley Field in the Live Ball Era (since 1920) and their 3.66 ERA here ranks 1st, ahead of the Cubs and Dodgers, who are tied for 2nd with a 3.84 ERA all-time in this ballpark.

+ The Royals are 16-21 all-time vs. the Cubs and have lost 4 of the last 5 games...they dropped 2 of 3 last July at Kauffman Stadium, despite winning the 1st game 6-0, and holding leads in each of the next 2 games (both losses).
+ The Royals have faced the Cubs in six of the last 10 seasons, after meeting six times in the previous 18 seasons.

PITCHING PROPS: Despite being 4 games under .500 (48-52), the Royals rank 2nd in MLB with a 3.49 ERA, trailing the Rangers (3.21)...Royals starting pitchers also rank 2nd in ERA (3.36), 3rd in innings (556.1) and tied for 3rd in quality starts (46)...Royals relievers have thrown the 3rd-fewest innings (332.0) and rank 9th in ERA (3.69)...the Royals are one of three teams that rank in the top 10 in both starters and relievers ERA, along with the Astros and Rangers.

WHAT A RELIEF!: Royals All-Star closer Carlos Estévez leads the American League and ranks 2nd in the Majors with 26 saves, matching his total from all of last season with the Angels and Phillies...he's 5 saves shy of matching his career high of 31, set in 2023 with the Angels...the Royals are 43-0 when leading after the 8th inning, the 2nd-most such wins without a loss behind only the Tigers (53-0), and they haven't lost a game when leading after the 8th since Aug. 3, 2024 at Detroit...they've won 64 such games since, the 3rd-longest active streak in the Majors, according to Elias.

FOUR SCORE: The Royals have scored 4 runs or fewer in 77 of 100 games (77.0%), tied with the Pirates for the most such games in the Majors...they're 28-49 when scoring 4 runs or fewer and their 28 wins are the most in Majors, 3 more than San Diego (25)...they were 17-16 when scoring 4 runs or fewer through May 9 but are 11-33 since.

+ The Royals are 32-8 when scoring at least 4 runs and their .800 win pct. in those games ranks 3rd in the Majors.

FIRST THING'S FIRST: The Royals have outscored opponents 41-21 (+20) in the 1st inning, the 4th-best run differential in the Majors behind only the Phillies (+36), Reds (+28) and Tigers (+22)...the Royals have allowed just 21 1st-inning runs in 100 games this season for a 1.89 ERA, both of which lead the Majors...they allowed just 17 1st-inning runs in the unofficial 1st half, the 2nd fewest by any team before the All-Star break (excluding shortened seasons), more than only the 1990 Montreal Expos (16)...they're on pace to allow just 34 1st-inning runs, which would best their 162-game season low (since 1974), by the 1975 Royals (60)...it would shatter the lowest 1st-inning run total by any team in a 162-game season since at least 1974...the current record is held by the 2023 Rays, who allowed 41 1st-inning runs.

WALL BALL: The Royals rank 29th in the Majors with 77 home runs in 100 games, but they've hit 19 HR in their last 12 games and 43 HR in their last 40 games, after hitting just 34 HR through the 1st 60 games...they've hit 52 HR in 50 road games and just 25 HR in 50 games at Kauffman Stadium...the difference (27) is 2nd highest in Major League Baseball and 1 shy of the Rangers, who have hit 28 more HR on the road (66) than they have at Globe Life Field (38).

+ The Royals have hit 5 3-run HR in their last 27 games since June 18, after hitting 1 3-run HR in the 1st 73 games, and that came on Opening Day vs. Cleveland.
+ The Royals are 14-2 (.875) when hitting multiple HR, the 3rd-best record in the Majors, and they have a Majors-most 19 wins without the benefit of a HR.

NOAH CAMERON is making his 13th career start tonight vs. the Cubs...he was drafted by the Royals in the 7th round of the 2021 Draft out of the University of Central Arkansas, but did not appear in any games that season while he recovered from Tommy John Surgery.

+ He has made 75 minor league starts over the last four seasons, logging a 3.90 ERA (145 ER in 334.1 IP) and 418 strikeouts (29.8 K%) to just 100 walks (7.1 BB%).
+ Cameron had his contract selected to the 40-man roster on Nov. 19 of last year in anticipation of the Rule 5 Draft in December during the Winter Meetings in Dallas.
+ He made his MLB debut on April 30 and was optioned the next day...he was recalled from Triple-A Omaha again on May 17 to start in place of Seth Lugo (IL).
+ Last Thursday was his 26th birthday, making tonight's start his 1st as a 26-year old.

THE METROPOLITAN MAN: Noah did not factor into the decision of his last start of the 1st half on July 13 vs. the Mets, a 3-2 Royals win in which he recorded 6.2 shutout innings on a career-high-tying 7 hits...the Mets had runners on base early and often, as Cameron stranded at least one runner in scoring position in three of his first four innings, before facing just nine batters over his final 2.2 innings of work, although he was aided by a pair of double plays in the 6th and 7th innings...the Royals took a 2-0 lead into the 9th inning, when Carlos Estévez blew the save by allowing 2 runs, but Nick Loftin saved the day with a walk-off single in the bottom half, his 2nd walk-off of the last homestand.

+ His ERA fell to 2.31 (18 ER in 70.0 IP) after 6.2 shutout frames, which is the 4th lowest in the Wild Card Era (since 1995) by a left-handed pitcher through his 1st 12 career games (min. 70.0 IP), trailing Seattle's James Paxton (1.77 from 2013-14), Florida's Dontrelle Willis (1.98 in 2003) and José Quintana (2.30 in 2012) of the White Sox...it's the lowest ERA through 12 career outings (all starts) in Royals history.
+ This marked Cameron's 6th start of at least 6.0 innings and no more than 1 run allowed, accounting for half of his Major League starts...since 1969, only 12 pitchers have recorded more such starts—all of whom recorded 7 in 12—a list that includes Paul Skenes (2024), Dwight Gooden (1984) and James Paxton (2013-14), who was also the only left hander to record at least 7 such starts.

ROAD RULES, CHICAGO: In 5 road starts, Noah has allowed 3 earned runs in 29.0 innings for a 0.93 ERA, and has held opponents to a .160 average (16-for-100) and just 1 HR allowed, but the Royals are 1-4 in those games, including 4 consecutive team losses.

+ Excluding openers, Cameron's 0.93 road ERA through 5 career road starts ranks 4th in the 21st century behind Minnesota's Randy Dobnak (0.82, 2019-20), San Diego's Stephen Kolek (0.85, 2025) and Pittsburgh's Paul Skenes (0.86, 2024).

ROOKIE RANKS: Through just 12 starts, Cameron enters tonight with a 2.8 bWAR, 2nd best among American League rookies behind Boston's rookie catcher Carlos Narváez (2.9)... Noah leads American League rookie pitchers (min. 70.0 IP) in ERA (2.31), opponents' average (.190), opp. on-base percentage (.255), opp. slugging (.316), opp. OPS (.571), hits allowed (48), runs and earned runs allowed (18), is tied for 1st with 7 quality starts (with Baltimore's Tomoyuki Sugano, who has made 6 more starts) and 8 groundball double plays (with Sugano and Shane Smith of the White Sox, who also has 6 more starts).

DAVID VS. NOT GOLIATH: In his 12 starts to begin his rookie season, Cameron has faced some quality competition that includes each of last year's pennant winners, who touched him up to the tune of 11 runs on 10 hits and 4 walks in 9.2 innings (10.24 ERA)... he's been much better in his other 10 starts vs. everyone who didn't win a league title last year, boasting a 1.04 ERA (7 ER in 60.1 IP), though 7 of his starts that weren't vs. the Yankees or Dodgers came vs. teams that are currently within 4.0 games of a playoff position, including the Cardinals (2 starts), Reds, Rays, Padres, Mariners and Mets...in fact, only 3 of his 12 starts have come vs. teams with a sub-.500 record, including the Twins (who were 6 games over when he faced them on May 23), the Athletics and the Pirates.

SWING AND A WHIFF: Noah has induced a whiff rate higher than 25.0% on four of his offerings, including his changeup (36.8%), slider (31.4%), curveball (28.6%) and cutter (27.1%)...per SportRadar via FanDuel Sports Network's Shawn Van Becelaere (van-beece-lur), he is one of just three pitchers in the Majors this season to have at least four pitches with whiff rate of at least 25.0% (min. 175 offerings with each pitch), joining teammate Kris Bubic and Atlanta's Spencer Schwellenbach, who both also have four such pitches.

NOAH CAMERON CAREER vs. CUBS BATTERS

PLAYER	AB	H	2B	3B	HR	RBI	BB	SO	AVG	OBP	SLG

Noah has not faced a Cubs batter

LITTLE HELP: Cameron has received just 28 runs of support in his 70.0 innings for a 3.60 runs support average, though 8 of those 28 runs (28.6%) came in 1 start on July 7 vs. Pittsburgh...in his other 11 starts, he's received just 20 runs of support in 63.0 innings for a 2.86 run support average, including 2 runs or fewer in 8 of 12 starts...Noah has exited with a lead exactly half of his 12 starts, but his record is just 3-4 and the Royals have won only 4 of his 12 starts.

NOAH-MANIA: Cameron began his career with 5 consecutive quality starts, matching Steve Busby, who spun 5 in a row from Sept. 8 (G2)-Oct. 3, 1972, for the franchise record to begin a career...Noah was also the second pitcher in Major League history to record at least 6.0 innings and allow 1 run or fewer in each of his 1st 5 career starts, joining Fernando Valenzuela, who did so in his 1st 7 starts to begin his 1981 season, following 12 relief appearances to begin his career in 1980.

A DEBUT FOR THE AGES: Cameron made his Major League debut on April 30 at George M. Steinbrenner Field in Tampa, Fla., and spun 6.1 1-hit, shutout innings en route to a 3-0 win...he carried a no-hitter into the 7th inning, but surrendered a 1-out single to Curtis Mead after retiring Brandon Lowe to begin the frame and issued a 1-out walk to Danny Jansen...John Schreiber replaced Cameron after Mead's single and retired two batters, stranding both bequeathed runners.

+ Was the eighth pitcher since 1961 to record a no-hit bid of at least 6.1 innings in his debut, and first since Daniel Ponce de Leon (7.0) on July 23, 2018 (Elias).
+ He was the first southpaw to take a no-hitter into the 7th inning of his debut since Boston's Billy Rohr on April 14, 1967 at Yankee Stadium...Rohr came within 1 strike from completing a no-hitter before an Elston Howard single broke it up (STATS)...a St. Joseph, Mo. native, Noah was the second pitcher since 1961 to begin his debut with at least 6.0 no-hit innings for the team in his home state, joining Houston's Jarred Cosart (from Texas) on July 12, 2013 at TB (Elias).
+ Noah's debut marked the third by a Royal in 2025, joining infielder Tyler Tolbert (March 31 at Milwaukee) and left hander Evan Sisk (April 15 at Yankee Stadium), though three others have since debuted...he was the first Royal to make his debut as a starting pitcher since Jonathan Bowlan served as the opener for a bullpen game on Sept. 27, 2023 in Detroit, and the first as a traditional starting pitcher since Alec Marsh (June 30, 2023 vs. the Dodgers).

TOMORROW NIGHT'S STARTER: TBA

MANAGER MATT QUATRARO (kwuh-TRAIR-roe)

+ Matt Quatraro is in his third season as the 18th full-time Manager in Royals history, after going 56-106 in his first season and 86-76 last season.
+ He led the Royals to a 30-win improvement last season, becoming the sixth team in the 162-game Era (since 1961), according to Elias, to have at least a 30-win improvement from one season to the next...Quatraro also led the Royals to become the third team to make the postseason following a 100-loss season, according to Elias, following the 2017 Twins and 2020 Marlins...the remarkable turnaround placed Q as the runner-up in the 2024 AL Manager of the Year voting.
+ Quatraro, 51, is in his 30th season in professional baseball and 12th as a coach or Manager on a Major League staff...during Quatraro's 11 previous seasons working on a Major League coaching staff, his teams have reached the postseason seven times (63.6%) and have posted a winning record 10 times (90.9%).
+ Before joining the Royals, he spent five years on Kevin Cash's staff in Tampa Bay, including one season as the Third Base Coach in 2018 and four years as the Bench Coach from 2019-22...the Rays reached the postseason in four of those five seasons, including a World Series appearance in 2020...during his four years as Bench Coach with Tampa Bay from 2019-22, the Rays 322-224 (.590) record ranked 4th in the Majors behind only the Dodgers, Astros and Yankees.
+ Quatraro was selected by the Rays in the 8th round of the 1996 Draft and played seven seasons in the Rays organization from 1996-02, topping out at Triple-A Durham in his final year...he primarily played catcher, but also saw time at first base, third base and the corner outfield positions.
