

PITTSBURGH PIRATES LATIN AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS & BASEBALL TRAINING COMPLEX FACT SHEET

Overview:

- Located in municipality of El Toro in the Dominican Republic
- Approximately 46-acres of property
- Full-scale, campus style complex
- Two and one-half fields, plus bunting station
- Covered observation stations behind home plate
- Covered bleachers on main field
- Covered batting tunnels with four individual stations
- Six individual bullpens
- Covered Observation Tower

Main Building:

- Dormitory able to house and feed 90 players and coaches
- Separate player bathroom and shower areas
- Recreational Room
- Two Classrooms with computer/video training stations
- Player Lounge
- Administration Offices
- Conference Room
- Dining Hall and Kitchen

Clubhouse/Baseball Training Building:

- Clubhouse capable of holding two full teams plus eight other players invited for tryouts
- Player showers and bathroom facilities
- Academy Director's Office
- Coaches Locker Room for up to 10 coaches
- Coaches Conference Room
- Trainer's Room
- Weight Room
- Equipment Storage Room
- Laundry Room

Observation Tower:

- Covered Second Floor Observation Deck
- Umpires Locker Rooms
- Bathroom and shower facilities
- Maintenance Storage Room

Maintenance Building:

- Maintenance / Storage Room
- Maintenance office
- Employee Dormitory Rooms
- Bathroom and shower facilities
- Laundry Room

