

Internship: Radio Broadcaster

- 1). Candidates must be available for entire season.
- 2). These internships are Broadcasting & Support for the front office. Not just calling games
- 3). No Calls! Anyone who calls will be disqualified. Interested candidates should email resume, sample writing and demo to AppyLeague@mail.com
- 4). These are one-year internships only. This is not a permanent broadcasting job.
- 5). Positive attitude and energy is required. Looking for good people.

Experience managing MLBAM operated websites is helpful.

Ideal candidate will be able to meet the following requirements:

- * Capable of performing as primary play-by-play broadcaster for all games
- * Host pregame and postgame show during all home and road games
- * Write game recaps and press releases to send to local media and post to team's website
- * Provide game notes, stat packs, rosters and game day paperwork to media
- * Prepare press releases, manage relationships and inquiries from local media pertaining to home games and other official team events
- * Manage website through MLB Advanced Media
- * Maintain media platforms such as Twitter and Facebook
- * Oversee, manage, and maintain an organized and professional press box
- * Self-motivated with positive attitude and ability to work in a team environment