2013 YEAR IN REVIEW

APRIL

OPENING DAY NOTES: The Mets beat the Padres, 11-2, on Opening Day, April 1, to improve to a major-league best 34-18 (.654) on Opening Day…After losing their first eight Opening Day games, the Mets have now won 34 of their last 44 Opening Day contests…They have also won seven of their last eight openers...The Mets are 20-2 in their last 22 season openers at home, including 3-0 at Citi Field.

OPENING O: The Mets scored 11 runs on Opening Day, their fifth double-digit run total on Opening Day in franchise history…They last scored double-digits in an opener when they beat Chicago, 12-8, at Wrigley Field on April 4, 1994.

MORE COWGILL: Collin Cowgill hit his first career grand slam in the seventh-inning on Opening Day…Cowgill finished with four RBI to set a personal high…The only other Mets player to hit a grand slam on Opening Day is Todd Hundley, who did so on April 26, 1995 at Colorado…Cowgill was the first player to hit a grand slam in his Mets debut in franchise history, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…Only two other players in major league history have hit an Opening Day grand slam in their first game with a team: Jack Clark for the Red Sox in 1991 and John Buck for the Marlins (against the Mets, off Mike Pelfrey) in 2011…Cowgill, batting in the first spot in the batting order, hit a grand slam, to became only the third player since 1900 to hit a grand slam from the first spot in the batting order in a season opener according to the Elias Sports Bureau...The others to do it were Dain Clay for the Reds in 1945 and Alfonso Soriano for the Yankees in 2003.

WRIGHT OPENINGS: David Wright made his ninth Opening Day start, tying the third-highest total in franchise history with Jerry Grote and Howard Johnson…Only Bud Harrelson (11) and Tom Seaver (11) have started more Opening Days…Wright has hit in every home opener since making his first Opening Day roster in 2005… Wright is hitting .361 (13-36) in home openers… Wright also stole two bases on Opening Day to become the third player in franchise history to swipe two bags on Opening Day…Darryl Strawberry (April 3, 1989 vs. St. Louis) and Mookie Wilson (April 9, 1985 vs. St. Louis) did it prior to Wright.

JONATHON NIESE: Became the 22nd pitcher to start on Opening Day game for the Mets…He became the second home-grown lefthander to start for the Mets on Opening Day, joining Jerry Koosman, who started the first game of the year in 1978.

SCOTT RICE: Made his major league debut on April 1 after making his professional debut in 1999 with the GCL Orioles (R) of the Gulf Coast League…Tossed a scoreless inning and struck out two...Rice became the eighth-oldest player to make his major league debut with the Mets and second only to Shawn Gilbert among U.S.-born players...Ken Takahashi was the oldest at 40 years old and 16 days when he appeared in his first major league game with the Mets in 2009; Gilbert was 32 years old, 82 days when he debuted in 1997...Rice was 31 years old and 192 days.

WALK IT OFF: Marlon Byrd delivered a two-run single in the bottom of the ninth inning on April 7 to lift the Mets to a 4-3 win over the Marlins...It was the first walk-off win of the year and fifth walk-off hit of Byrd's career.

SPECIAL STUFF: Matt Harvey became the first pitcher in modern major league history (1900 to date) to win his first two starts of a season while striking out at least 19 batters and allowing no more than one run and four hits in those two games combined...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

NINE IS FINE: Matt Harvey became the third pitcher in team history to begin a season with nine or more strikeouts in each of his first two starts of the year (19 total)...David Cone also accomplished that feat in 1992, notching 20 strikeouts and Pedro Martinez had nine or more strikeouts in each his first three games in 2005 (30 strikeouts over 22.0 innings).

ON TARGET: New York played its first ever game at Target Field on April 12, winning 16-5…It was the 57th different venue where the Mets have played a major league game…The Mets scored five runs in the first inning and five more in the second inning to become the first team in major league history to score five or more runs in each of the first two innings at a particular ballpark…The Mets' 16 runs were their most in their first regular-season game at any venue…They had previously scored 10 runs in their first game at three places: Joe Robbie Stadium (1993), Monterrey Stadium (1996) and Turner Field (1997).

SWEET 16: The Mets set a season-high for runs on April 12 in a 16-5 triumph at Minnesota…The Mets scored five times in the first and second inning for the first time in team history.

WHAT A NIGHT: The Mets had three players with four RBI (Daniel Murphy, David Wright and John Buck) on April 12 at Minnesota...It marked the second time in franchise history that the Mets had three players with four or more RBI in the same game...New York tied a major league record on June 27, 2012 at Chicago-NL when four players had four or more RBI (Wright, Murphy, Ike Davis and Scott Hairston) accomplished the feat.

BUCKS: John Buck had 19 RBI through the team's first 10 games, joining an impressive list of players who have accomplished that feat...Jeff Kent held the Mets previous record with 16 RBI in New York's first 10 games in 1994...Buck also became the first to reach 19 RBI with a new team...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

MOST RBI IN MLB HISTORY IN TEAM'S FIRST 10 GAMES

Lou Gehrig	NYY	19	1927
Manny Ramirez	BOS	19	1999
JOHN BUCK	NYM	19	2013
Chris Davis	BAL	19	2013

BUCK BLASTS: John Buck hit a home run in four straight games (April 8-12) setting a career best streak... David Wright was the last Met to hit a home run in four consecutive games (June 6-10, 2007)...Richard Hidalgo holds the franchise record with a home run in five straight games from July 1-5, 2004...Buck had six home runs through 10 games, the second-most in team history behind Dave Kingman's seven home runs through 10 games in 1976.

SEVEN STRAIGHT: The Mets had seven straight hits in the fifth inning on April 13 at Minnesota, tied for the second-most consecutive hits in a single frame in team history...The franchise record is eight straight hits on September 29, 1999 vs. Atlanta... New York had seven consecutive hits in an inning three previous times, last on August 1, 2001 at Houston.

GOOD THINGS COME IN THREES: According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matt Harvey was the first pitcher in modern major league history (since 1900) to win each of his first three starts of a season, with at least 25 strikeouts and six or fewer hits allowed over those three games.

SNOW DAY: The Mets were snowed out on April 15…The last time the Mets had a game snowed out was April 9, 2000 vs. Los Angeles at Shea Stadium.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Major League Baseball named Matt Harvey the National League Player of the Week for the week of April 8-14...Harvey went 2-0 with a 1.20 ERA (two earned runs/15.0 innings) during the week...He allowed five hits, issued four walks and struck out 15.

TOUGH LOSS: The Mets loss the second game of the April 16 doubleheader at Colorado, 9-8, in 10 innings after leading by six runs, 8-2, heading to the bottom of the fifth inning…It was the ninth defeat in team history when leading by six or more runs and the first time since they lost after holding a six-run lead on August 26, 2008 at Philadelphia.

HOME RUN STREAK: The Mets hit at least one home run in each of their first 12 games, the longest such stretch to open the season in team history before failing to homer in the second game of the April 16 doubleheader at Colorado...That 12-game home run stretch to begin the season was the longest since Tampa Bay also went deep in the first 12 games of the year in 2007...The streak is also tied for third-longest in major league history to start a year...Only the 2002 Cleveland Indians (14 straight) and the Chicago Cubs (13 straight) had a longer home run stretch to start a campaign.

DAVID WRIGHT: Connected on two home runs in the first game of the April 16 doubleheader at Colorado.

4-0-10: Matt Harvey opened the year 4-0 and allowed only 10 hits combined in his first four starts becoming the first pitcher in baseball's modern era (since 1900) to win his first four starts while allowing no more than 10 hits in those four starts combined...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

HOME RUNS AT HOME: The Mets hit at least one home run in seven straight home games to begin the season…That streak tied the second-longest streak to open a home season schedule in franchise history…The 1962 team started their home schedule with a home run in 14 straight at the Polo Grounds, while the 2002 squad also homered in their first seven games at Shea that season.

TWO WITH TWO: Ike Davis and Lucas Duda both went deep twice on April 19 vs. Washington...It was the second time in Mets history that two players homered twice in the same game and both hit the home runs in the same inning (sixth and eighth)...The other occurrence was on June 20, 1964 when Joe Christopher and Hawk Taylor did it in the third and seventh innings in the Mets' 7-4 win over the Phillies at Shea Stadium...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau...The last time the Mets had multiple players with a multi-home run game was May 7, 2010, when Davis and Rod Barajas hit two home runs each in a 6-4 win vs. San Francisco.

FROM THE LEFT SIDE: Jonathon Niese made his 100th appearance on April 23…He became the fifth home-grown lefthanded pitcher to make 100 or more appearances for the Mets, joining Tug McGraw, Jerry Koosman, Jon Matlack and Randy Myers.

SPIN CITY: Jordany Valdespin hit the Mets sixth walk-off grand slam in team history on April 24 vs. Los Angeles off Josh Wall and first since Kevin McReynolds on June 25, 1991 vs. Montreal (off Scott Ruskin)…The six walk-off grand slams in team history are below:

6/26/1963	NYM 8 vs CHC 6	Tim Harkness	inning:14
8/9/1963	NYM 7 vs CHC 3	Jim Hickman	inning: 9
6/11/1980	NYM 6 vs LAD 2	Mike Jorgensen	inning: 10
6/10/1986	NYM 8 vs PHI 4	Tim Teufel	inning: 11
6/25/1991	NYM 8 vs MTL 5	Kevin McReynolds	inning: 9
4/24/2013	NYM 7 vs LAD 3	Jordany Valdespin	inning: 10

BUCK IN APRIL: John Buck hit his ninth home run of the year on April 29 vs. Los Angeles, tying a major league record for home runs by a catcher before the end of April...Johnny Bench (1971 Reds) and Charles Johnson (2001 Marlins) also clocked nine home runs before May 1...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

APRIL HOME RUNS: John Buck's nine home runs tied him for the most by a Met during the month of April with Carlos Delgado (2006) and Dave Kingman (1976).

JOHN BUCK: Finished April with 25 RBI, ranking second on the club's all-time April RBI list... Jeff Kent had 26 RBI in April, 1994.

NAME	APRIL RBI	YEAR
Jeff Kent	26	1994
John Buck	25	2013
Carlos Beltran	23	2007
Bernard Gilkey	23	1996

CATCHING RBI: The last catcher with at least 25 RBI in the month of April was Ivan Rodriguez, who drove in 25 runs with Texas in 2000.

TOUGH ENDING TO THE MONTH: The Mets lost consecutive games, April 29-30 at Miami, despite leading in the ninth inning or later for the first time since April 27–28, 1998…New York lead, 2-1, on April 29 and lost, 4-3, in 15 innings and took a 1-0 lead to the bottom of the ninth on April 30 before losing, 2-1…The last time the Mets suffered back-to-back walk-off losses was April 9-10, 2003, also vs. the Marlins.

PITCHER OF THE MONTH: Matt Harvey was voted the National League Pitcher of the Month for the month of April...Harvey recorded four victories (4-0) in six April starts, tying him for first among NL pitchers...His 1.56 ERA (seven earned runs/40.1 innings) ranked third, while his 46 strikeouts were tied for fourth...Harvey limited opposing hitters to a .153 batting average, the fourth-lowest mark in the NL and second-lowest in the majors...He was one of only two NL starters to post four wins in April without suffering a loss (also Lance Lynn of the Cardinals), and the Mets went 5-1 in games he started...Harvey was the first Mets pitcher to capture the award since R.A. Dickey was named the Pitcher of the Month in June, 2012.

SKID: New York lost a season-high six straight games from April 25-30…The Mets also lost six consecutive games from May 10-15.

STRIKEOUTS: The Mets struck out 210 times in April, their highest total in the first month of a season in team history.

MAY

PINCH-HIT MAGIC MAN: Jordany Valdespin slugged a three-run pinch-hit home run on May 1 to give the Mets a 5-4 lead...It was the Mets first pinch-hit home run of the year and the sixth pinch-hit home run of Valdespin's brief career...He is tied for second all-time on the club's pinch-hit home run list.

ML HISTORY: Six of Jordany Valdespin's first 10 career home runs in the major leagues were pinch-hit home runs...Only two other players in major league history had at least six pinch-hit home runs among their first 10 homers: Bill Taylor's first six home runs were as a pinch hitter for the Giants in 1954 and 1955; and six of Craig Wilson's first 10 were off the bench for the Pirates in 2001...Info courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING: May 3 at Atlanta was the first time in team history that two players hit home runs to erase the opponent's lead in both the eighth inning (Marlon Byrd) and the ninth inning (David Wright) in the same game...The last major league team with game-tying home runs in the eighth and ninth inning of the same game was the Rangers (Michael Young & Nelson Cruz) on May 29, 2011 vs. Kansas City...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

TRAILING IN ATLANTA: The Mets earned their first win in Atlanta when trailing in the ninth inning since September 18, 1993 on May 3 with a 7-5, 10-inning victory...David Wright tied the game with a solo home run in the ninth before New York plated two runs in the 10th...In 1993, the Mets won 3-2 in 10 innings when the club scored twice in the ninth and once in the 10th.

PERFECT 10: John Buck hit his 10th home run of the year on May 3 at Atlanta in his 25th game, tying him for the second fastest to 10 home runs in team history with Carlos Delgado (25 games in 2006) and Dave Kingman (25 games in 1982)...Kingman holds the record reaching 10 home runs in 23 games in 1976.

WELCOME: The Chicago White Sox made their first trip ever to Flushing for a two-game series, May 7-8...The Mets had hosted every other American League team at least once.

ONE-HITTER: The Mets held the White Sox to one hit over 10 innings on May 7 at Citi Field...It was the second 10-inning one-hitter in team history...Alex Rios singled with two outs in the seventh for Chicago's lone hit…The Mets other 10-inning, one-hitter came on October 1, 1982 at Philadelphia when Terry Leach hurled a complete game in a 1-0 win…Luis Aguayo had a fifth-inning triple in that game...The last 10-inning one-hitter in the majors was May 28, 2011 when the Twins won, 1-0, holding Anaheim to one hit...It was the 37th regular season one-hitter in Mets history...Since 1962, only the Dodgers (42) have more one-hitters.

ONE BASE RUNNER: The Mets allowed one base runner in 10 innings on May 7 vs. Chicago-AL becoming the third team in modern major league history to allow only one base runner via a hit, walk, or hit batter in an extra-inning game...The others: Hooks Wiltse of the New York Giants pitched a 10-inning no-hitter in 1908 in which the only batter to reach base was the opposing pitcher, George McQuillan of the Phillies, who was hit by a pitch with two outs in the ninth inning...Pedro Martinez of the Montreal Expos retired all 27 batters over the first nine innings, and Mel Rojas got the last three after Martinez allowed a leadoff single in the 10th against the Padres in 1995... Courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

MATT MOWS THE SOX DOWN: Matt Harvey retired the side in order eight times on May 7 vs. the White Sox, tying the team mark, done nine previous times, last by Jonathon Niese on June 10, 2010…Harvey established a then career-high in strikeouts (12) and innings pitched (9.0)…In addition he joined Tom Seaver (7/6/69 vs. Cubs) and Jonathon Niese (6/10/10 vs. Padres) as the only pitchers in team history to allow one base runner over 9.0 innings of work.

LAST 100 YEARS: Matt Harvey became the first pitcher in last 100 years with at least 125 strikeouts and 25 or fewer earned runs allowed in his first 17 career starts...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

MORE HISTORY: Harvey was the first player in modern era (since 1900) to pitch 9.0 innings with 12 or more strikeouts allowing no walks and only one hit with a no decision on May 7 vs. Chicago-AL.

6.2 PERFECT INNINGS: Matt Harvey was perfect for 6.2 innings before Alex Rios singled to shortstop on May 7 vs. the White Sox…That is tied for the third-longest streak in team history...The last Mets pitcher with 6.2 perfect innings was Rick Reed on June 8, 1998 at home against Tampa Bay…Wade Boggs broke up the bid with a double with two outs in the seventh…Tom Seaver pitched 8.1 perfect innings on July 9, 1969 vs. the Cubs before Jimmy Qualls broke up the bid...Seaver also tossed 7.0 perfect innings on August 30, 1968 vs. St. Louis...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

WALK-OFF WIN: Mike Baxter singled home Ike Davis with one out in the 10th inning to give the Mets a 1-0 win on May 7 vs. the White Sox…It was Baxter's first career game-ending RBI.

WHITESTONE WALK-OFF: Mike Baxter, who grew up in Whitestone, N.Y., delivered the walk-off single on May 9 to beat the Pirates 3-2...It was Baxter's second game-ending pinch-hit single in three days, after never previously collecting a walk-off RBI in his career...He had a 10th-inning RBI single to beat the White Sox on May 7...Baxter was the first player since Boston's Jacoby Ellsbury, August 2-3, 2011 vs. Cleveland to produce a walk-off RBI twice in a three-game span...Ellsbury did so in consecutive games ...The last pinch-hitter to have walk-off hits in back-to-back wins was Houston's Rafael Ramirez, August 2-3, 1991 vs. Los Angeles (NL)...The last Met to have two walk-off hits in a three day span was Mike Cameron who accomplished the feat June 18-19, 2004 vs. Detroit...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

HELPING HIS OWN CAUSE: Matt Harvey drove in the go-ahead run in the seventh inning, breaking a 2-2 tie with an RBI single on May 17 at Wrigley Field to help edge the Cubs, 3-2...Harvey was the first Mets starting pitcher to earn a win and drive in a go-ahead run in the seventh inning or later since Sid Fernandez on August 16, 1993 at Cincinnati.

LAST 30 YEARS: Matt Harvey started 5-0 with a 1.55 ERA in his first nine starts...Only two other major league pitchers over the last 30 seasons remained undefeated through as many starts with as low an ERA: Kris Medlen in 2012 (7-0, 0.86 ERA) and Pedro Martinez in 2001 (6-0, 1.52)...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

WRIGHT SPEED: David Wright swiped his 10th stolen base on May 18 at Chicago-NL...Wright has nine consecutive seasons of double-digit stolen bases...Wright is the only player in the live ball era (1920 to date) to have nine straight seasons of 10 or more stolen bases while being primarily a third baseman in each of those seasons...The only other Met to have at least 10 stolen bases in nine straight seasons is Jose Reyes (2003 -2011).

PERFECT TIMING: Juan Lagares hit a two-run home run off the Cubs' Travis Wood in the seventh-inning on May 19 to tie the game, 3-3, in a game the Mets would eventually win, 4-3…Before Lagares, the last player whose first major league home run was a game-tying or go-ahead home run in the seventh inning or later with the team trailing was Lastings Milledge, who hit a 10th inning game-tying home run off the Giants' Armando Benitez on June 4, 2006 at Shea in a game the Mets eventually lost…The only player besides Lagares to do so in a Mets win was Ron Gardenhire in Montreal on June 29, 1982, off Ray Burris.

STARTING GATE: Matt Harvey (5-0) and Cincinnati's Mat Latos (4-0) were both undefeated after nine starts and matched-up against each other on May 22 at Citi Field…There had been only two other games in major league history in which each starting pitcher was undefeated in at least nine starts that season: Arizona's Brandon Webb (6–0) against San Diego's Jake Peavy (4–0) on May 26, 2005 and Cleveland's Mudcat Grant, Cle. (7–0) versus the Yankees' Ralph Terry, NYY (4–0) on June 15, 1961…Neither Harvey or Latos had a decision as the Reds won, 7-4.

TOP 20: The only pitchers with more strikeouts than Matt Harvey (144) in their first 20 starts for the Mets are Dwight Gooden (162) and Pedro Martinez (147)

SUSPENDED GAME: On May 24, the Mets and Braves game was suspended with the game tied at 5-5 in the top of the ninth inning….It was the first suspended game for the Mets under the recent rule change which makes official games that are stopped with the score tied suspended games, rather than having to be replayed from the beginning… The Mets' previous suspended game was the second game of a doubleheader against the Cubs at Wrigley Field on Aug. 6, 1986...It was suspended because of darkness with the Mets leading, 6-4, at the end of the seventh inning...The game was resumed the next day and the Mets won, 7-6…The Mets lost the resumption of the May 24 game, the next night, 7-5.

MEMORIAL DAY: The Mets and Yankees met on Memorial Day…The last time that two major-league baseball teams based in New York City played each other on Memorial Day was on May 30, 1949, when the Dodgers and Giants split a doubleheader at the Polo Grounds… The Dodgers won the first game, 2–1, in 13 innings, on a Jackie Robinson homer; the Giants took the nightcap, 7–4, behind home runs from Whitey Lockman and Johnny Mize.

SUBWAY WALK-OFFS: Lucas Duda collected his second career walk-off RBI on May 28 off the Yankees' Mariano Rivera...Duda joined Matt Franco (July 10, 1999), David Wright (May 19, 2006) and Jason Bay (July 3, 2011) as Mets who have had walk-off hits against the Yankees...Duda's other walk-off hit came on August 8, 2011 vs. San Diego.

WHAT AN ENDING: The May 28 game vs. the Yankees was the second time in Mets history in which they trailed, 1–0, going to the bottom of the ninth and won the game in that inning…The other came in 1998, a 2–1 win vs. the Dodgers…Matt Franco hit a pinch-hit game-tying home run off Jeff Shaw in the bottom of the ninth; then after a walk, Edgardo Alfonzo hit a game-winning double.

THREE STRAIGHT: The Mets tied a franchise record by winning three straight games in which they trailed in the seventh inning or later (May 26-28)…They previously won three in a row under those circumstances in 1977, 1996 and 1997.

AT CITI FIELD: The Mets had six straight wins at Citi Field (April 24-May 28) when they scored the game-winning run in their final at-bat…It marked the first time in franchise history that a span of six home wins all resulted from final at-bat runs.

QUEENS SUCCESS: The Mets swept the two-game series against the Yankees in Queens...It was the third series swept over the Bronx Bombers...The Mets swept a three-game set from their crosstown rivals in 2004 at Shea and the Mets took the final two games after rain washed out the first game of the series at Yankee Stadium in 2008.

THE CAPTAIN: For the second straight night vs. the Yankees, David Wright tied the game...On May 27, he hit a solo home run in the seventh inning...On May 28, he had an RBI single in the ninth.

MATT HARVEY: Fanned 10 Yankees on May 28 at Citi Field, his third double-digit strikeout game…At 24 years and 62 days old, he became the youngest pitcher to start a game for the Mets against the Yankees.

FIVE-RUN FIRST: The Mets scored five times in the first inning on May 29 at Yankee Stadium...It was the second time the Mets have scored five runs in the first inning against the Yankees...The other occurrence was June 22, 2012 at Citi Field.

SUBWAY SWEEP: The Mets won all four games vs. the Yankees, the club's first season series sweep of the Yankees...The four-game winning streak vs. the Yankees is also a franchise-high...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it also marked the first time in team history that the Mets have swept a season series of four-or-more games from any opponent...The Mets outscored the Yankees 16-7 during the four games...The Mets pitching staff notched 40 strikeouts over the four nights and issued only two walks.

NO FREE PASS: Mets pitchers did not issue a walk in three straight games (May 28-30) tying the franchise record (done three previous times, last, July 5-7, 1994)...Also from May 14-16, 1994 and August 29-31, 1968.

K TO BB: From May 28-30, Mets pitchers struck out 34 batters without issuing a walk…No other team's pitchers in the modern era (1900 to date) struck out more than 26 batters without walking any in a three-game span.

ONLY 3: Dillon Gee struck out 12 and did not walk anybody against the Yankees on May 30...Gee became the third Mets pitcher in 2013 with at least a dozen strikeouts and no walks in a game...Matt Harvey did it against the White Sox on May 7 and Shaun Marcum against the Braves on May 26...The Mets are only the third team since 1900 to have three different pitchers have a game with at least 12 strikeouts and no walks in the same season according to the Elias Sports Bureau...The 1968 Indians did it with Stan Williams, Luis Tiant and Sam McDowell and the 1998 Braves with John Smoltz, Greg Maddux and Kevin Millwood.

GREAT GEE: Dillon Gee became the second pitcher to strike out 12 Yankees, walk none, and allow four hits or fewer since the Yankees moved to New York in 1903...The other was Pedro Martinez in a 17 strikeout, one-hitter on September 10, 1999...Gee established a career-high with 12 strikeouts...His previous best was nine strikeouts, done twice, last, June 20, 2012 vs. Baltimore.

WIN STREAK: New York won a season-high five games in a row from May 26-30.

STRIKEOUTS: Mets batters struck out 241 times in May, their highest total in any month in team history, breaking the mark that had stood since July 1968 (235 strikeouts).

JUNE

HARVEY DOZEN: Matt Harvey made his 12th start of the season on June 2 without a loss to establish a franchise record…Armando Reynoso went 11 starts to begin the 1997 campaign without a loss…Harvey extended the streak to 13 starts before losing on June 13.

LUCAS DUDA: Became the fifth player in Mets history to hit at least 10 home runs in at least three straight seasons, starting as a rookie when he went deep on June 2 at Miami…The others: Jim Hickman (four, 1962–1965), John Milner (three, 1972–1974), Darryl Strawberry (eight, 1983–1990), and David Wright (nine, 2004–2012).

MARLON BYRD: Collected his 1,100th career hit on June 2 at Miami with his RBI single in the fifth inning.

EARLY POWER: David Wright hit a home run and Marlon Byrd went deep twice on June 5 at Washington all in the first three innings… The Mets had not hit three home runs in the first three innings of a road game since Jose Reyes, Carlos Delgado and Carlos Beltran all went deep on September 18, 2008, also at Washington.

EARLY BYRD: Marlon Byrd hit a two-run home run in the second inning and hit a solo shot in the third inning on June 5 at Washington...Byrd was the first Mets player to hit two home runs in the first three innings of a game since David Wright did it against the Diamondbacks at Citi Field on July 30, 2010.

MARATHON METS: The Mets and Marlins played 20 innings on June 8 at Citi Field…Miami prevailed, 2-1…It was the longest game in Citi Field history and the longest in the majors since April 17, 2010, when the Mets beat St. Louis, 2-1 in 20 innings...The previous long at Citi Field was October 3, 2010, a 14-inning, 2-1 loss to the Nationals…That game was also tied for the fourth-longest game in franchise history…The last home game to go at least 20 innings was the longest game in franchise history, a 25-inning affair on September 11, 1974 vs. St. Louis…Below are the 20-inning games in Mets history.

DATE	OPPONENT	INNING	SCORE	SITE
9-11-74	St. Louis	25	L, 3-4	Shea Stadium
4-15-68	Houston	24	L, 0-1	Houston
5-31-64	San Francisco	23	L, 6-8	Shea Stadium
4-17-10	St. Louis	20	W, 2-1	St. Louis
6-8-13	Miami	20	L, 1-2	Citi Field

NOTE ON 20-INNING GAMES: The Mets' five 20-inning games are the most in the majors since 1962...San Diego and Washington/Montreal each have played four games of 20 or more innings during that span… The Mets have lost four games of 20-plus innings in team history, tied for the highest total by any major-league team. The other teams with four 20-inning losses are the Braves (1918, 1927, 1940 and 1973) and Red Sox (1905, 1906, 1967 and 1981).

TWO TEAMS, TWO PITCHERS: The Mets and Marlins played 15 innings on April 29 at Marlins Park with the same starting pitchers as June 8 (Matt Harvey facing Jose Fernandez)…The last time two teams played two 15+ innings game with the same starters was 1884, when Jim Whitney faced Old Hoss Radbourn (Boston Beaneaters vs. Providence Grays)…Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

RISP/LOB: The Mets went a franchise-worst 0-19 with runners in scoring position on June 8…They had gone 0-15 twice, last on May 30, 2006 vs. Arizona…Since 1974, only two other teams have gone hitless in at least 19 at-bats with runners in scoring position: Boston at New York, April 24, 2004 (0-19) and Pittsburgh against San Diego, June 11, 1977 (0-19)…The Mets left 22 men on base, tying the highest total in the live ball era (1920 to date) by a team that scored one run or was shut out…The Mets were the winning team in the other instance, when the Cardinals left 22 on base in a 20-inning, 2–1 loss on April 17, 2010.

MORE EXTRAS: The Mets and Marlins played 10 innings on June 9, one day after playing 20 innings… According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time two teams played an extra-inning game following a 20+ inning game since 1989 when the Dodgers and Astros played 22 innings on June 3 with the Astros winning 5-4 and then played 13 innings on June 4 with the Astros prevailing, 7-6.

WRIGHT TYPE OF STREAK: David Wright reached base in a career high-tying nine consecutive plate appearances from June 13-15… Also accomplished the feat, August 23-24, 2005.

DOUBLE MURPH: Daniel Murphy collected his 20th double on June 15, becoming the seventh Mets player to get to 20 doubles in the club's first 63 games…Todd Zeile holds the club record with 21 doubles through 63 games in 2000…Edgardo Alfonzo was the fastest Mets player to reach 20 doubles, doing it in 55 games in 2000.

WHAT A RALLY: Kirk Nieuwenhuis hit his first career walk-off home run, a three-run shot off Carlos Marmol on June 16…It was his second walk-off RBI of his career…Nieuwenhuis had a walk-off RBI single to beat the Marlins on April 26, 2012…It was the first walk-off home run to come with the Mets trailing by two runs since August 30, 1992, when Bobby Bonilla hit a three-run home run off Cincinnati's Rob Dibble to lift the Mets to a 4-3 win…It was the seventh time in team history the Mets had been trailing by two runs and hit a walk-off home run to win the game.

HOME RALLY: The Mets trailed 3–0 entering the bottom of the ninth inning on June 16 vs. the Cubs…The last three times the Mets have won a home game after overcoming a deficit of three or more runs in the ninth inning or later have been against the Cubs (September 25, 2004, May 17, 2007 and June 16, 2013)…The last time the Mets trailed by three or more runs in the ninth inning or later and won was September 22, 2011 at St. Louis…New York trailed 6-2 entering the ninth inning and won, 8-6.

GEE WHIZ: Dillon Gee allowed a walk-off home run to Atlanta's Freddie Freeman after 8.1 shutout innings on June 17 at Atlanta...The only other starting pitcher in franchise history who had a shutout spoiled by a walk-off home run was Roger Craig on July 19, 1963; he was taken deep by the Phillies' Roy Sievers at Connie Mack Stadium…The last Mets starting pitcher to surrender a walk-off home run was Paul Wilson on May 3, 1996, when Sammy Sosa hit a three-run home run at Wrigley Field.

SUPER TUESDAY: The Mets swept a doubleheader at Atlanta on June 18, winning 4-3 and 6-1, behind Matt Harvey and Zack Wheeler… The last time the Mets swept a doubleheader in Atlanta was July 7, 1987 when they won 6-2 in game one and 5-1 in game two...The last time New York swept a doubleheader on the road was June 29, 2007 at Philadelphia.

WHAT A DUO: Matt Harvey struck out 13 batters in the first game and Zack Wheeler fanned seven in the night cap...Since 1900, only two other pairs of teammates, both age 24 or younger, started and won on the same day while totaling at least 20 strikeouts...The others were Bob Feller and Denny Galehouse (1936 Indians), and Mickey Lolich and Denny McLain (1965 Tigers).

FIRST 1990s MET: Zack Wheeler was born on May 30, 1990...He became the first player born in the 90's to appear in a game with the Mets.

3 GAMES ONE DAY: Monday night's game (June 17) ended at 1:22 a.m. then the Mets and Braves played a doubleheader on June 18...The last time a major league team finished three games on the same calendar date was August 23, 1996 when the Cincinnati Reds did it...The Reds game on August 22 at Atlanta ended at 1:47 a.m. on August 23...Then on August 23, the Reds played a doubleheader at Florida...Game one ended at 6:24 p.m. and game two at 11:15 p.m.

NO-HIT STUFF: Matt Harvey took a no-hitter into the seventh inning on June 18 at Atlanta…It was the third time in 2013 he took a no-hitter past the 6.0 inning...Only three other pitchers during the expansion era held an opposing team hitless through 6.0 innings three times in the first 25 starts of their career: Al Downing, Jose DeLeon (four times), and Kent Mercker...Research courtesy of Elias.

ZACK WHEELER: Became the third pitcher in team history to earn a victory while throwing 6.0 or more shutout innings in his major league debut...The other two: Masato Yoshii on April 5, 1998 vs. Pittsburgh and Dick Rusteck on June 10, 1966 vs. Cincinnati...As a note, Matt Harvey tossed 5.1 shutout innings in his debut on July 26, 2012 at Arizona.

ZACKKKKKKK: Zack Wheeler's seven strikeouts are tied with four others for the fifth-most in a major league debut in franchise history...Wheeler trails Matt Harvey (11), Collin McHugh (9), Bill Denehy (8) and Tom Seaver (8).

STRIKEOUTS: Mets pitchers combined for 16 strikeouts in game one on June 18 at Atlanta, tying the third-most for a nine-inning game in team history...New York has had two 19-strikeout performances in a nine-inning game...During both ends of the double dip, Mets pitchers racked up 24 strikeouts, tied for the third-most in a doubleheader in franchise history...The last time the staff recorded at least 24 strikeouts in a doubleheader was September 4, 1971 at Philadelphia (also 24 strikeouts)...The record is 26 strikeouts, done twice, last, May 29, 1971 at San Diego.

1,500: David Wright collected his 1,500th career hit in the ninth inning of the second game of the June 18 double dip at Atlanta...He already is the franchise holder for career hits...Wright became the 30th active player to collect 1,500 hits, but only six others have collected 1,500 hits with their current team (Derek Jeter, Todd Helton, Paul Konerko, Jimmy Rollins, David Ortiz and Robinson Cano).

HALL OF FAME COMPANY: David Wright became the seventh player to have at least 200 home runs and a batting average of .300 or higher through the game in which they collected their 1500th hit for a New York team...The six who have done that: Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Mel Ott, Joe DiMaggio, Duke Snider and Mickey Mantle...Credit research to the Elias Sports Bureau.

THIRD BASEMEN: Among players who debuted in the expansion era (1961 to date), only five have had at least 1500 hits as a third baseman for one team: Chipper Jones (2355), Mike Schmidt (2059), George Brett (2044), Wade Boggs (1999) and Tim Wallach (1597).

CATCHING HR: John Buck and Anthony Recker became the second pair of Mets catchers to hit home runs on the same day when they each went deep on June 18 in the doubleheader at Atlanta...Gary Carter and Ed Hearn did that in the same game on June 20, 1986 against the Cubs.

ON THE ROAD: New York took three of five from the Braves in Atlanta from June 17-20 to become the first road team to win a series at Turner Field in 2013.

WRIGHT ON THE MONEY: David Wright connected on two home runs June 20 at Atlanta...it was his 10th and 11th home run of the year…Wright has at least 10 home runs in all 10 of his major league seasons...The only other players to reach double-digits as a third baseman in at least 10 consecutive seasons starting as a rookie were Eddie Mathews (1952-66), Ron Cey (1973-86), and Mike Schmidt (1973-84)…Wright now has 20 career multi-home run games, ranking second in team history...See the list below.

NAME	MULTI-HR GAMES
Darryl Strawberry	22
David Wright	20
Mike Piazza	17
Carlos Beltran	17

ANDREW BROWN: Cracked a pinch-hit solo home run on June 20 at Atlanta to tie the game in the fifth-inning...It was his first career pinch-hit home run…It was also his second home run in as many plate appearances (40 games apart)...The last major leaguer to accomplish that feat in as many games apart was Bo Jackson in 1990.

HARVEY IS A PEACH: Matt Harvey took a no-hitter into the seventh inning for the third time this season on June 18 at Atlanta...Only three other pitchers during the expansion era held an opposing team hitless through 6.0 innings three times in the first 25 starts of their career: Al Downing, Jose DeLeon (four times), and Kent Mercker.

EXTRA, EXTRA: David Wright collected four extra-base hits (two doubles, one triple, one home run) on June 23 at Philadelphia to tie the franchise record...It was the ninth time a Met had four extra-base hits in a game, last accomplished by Edgardo Alfonzo on August 30, 1999 at Houston.

WHEELER LIMITING HITS: Zack Wheeler is one of four starting pitchers in team history to not allow more than four hits in each of his first two major league starts...The others are Matt Harvey (2012), Brian Bannister (2006) and Juan Berenguer (1978)...Wheeler allowed four hits over 6.0 innings at Atlanta in his major league debut on June 18 and surrendered four hits at Chicago-AL in 5.1 innings on June 25.

SHAUN MARCUM: Became the second pitcher to begin his Mets career by losing his first seven decisions…Marcum would stretch the streak to nine games before winning on June 26…RHP Bob Miller was 0-12 in 1962 before winning his final start… Marcum entered his start against the White Sox on June 26 having dropped all nine of his decisions, but he threw 8.0 shutout innings and earned the win... Marcum is only the third major league pitcher since 1900 who was 0-9 or worse to that point in the season and won a game while throwing 8.0 or more scoreless innings...The others were Tom Underwood (1979 Blue Jays) and Danny Jackson (1995 Cardinals), each of whom threw complete-game shutouts.

BYRD IS THE WORD: Marlon Byrd hit a two-run home run in the eighth inning turning a 2-1 deficit for the Mets into a 3-2 lead on June 27 at Colorado...It was the first time in Byrd's career that he hit a behind-to-ahead home run in the sixth inning or later…His six home runs in June were a new personal best for a calendar month...He had five home runs for Texas in September 2009 and for the Mets in May.

FRANCHISE MARK: The Mets set a single-season franchise mark scoring five or fewer runs in 30 consecutive games at home from April 25-July 1...The 1968 and 1979 Mets scored five or fewer runs in 26 straight contests...The last team with a streak equal to the Mets was the 1988 Pittsburgh Pirates, who went 30 games from July 20-September 24.

JEREMY HEFNER: Posted a 1.88 ERA in June, the fifth-lowest among NL pitchers with four starts in June, trailing Jose Fernandez (1.67), Jeff Locke (1.67), Tim Hudson (1.82), and Mike Leake (1.85).

JULY

WALK-OFF ON 0-2 PITCH: Andrew Brown singled on an 0-2 pitch with two outs in the bottom of the 13th to lift the Mets to a 5-4 win on July 1 vs. Arizona...Brown was the first player in five years facing an 0-2 count, with his team trailing and two outs to deliver a walk-off hit...The last player to accomplish this feat was San Francisco's Eugenio Velez on August 9, 2008, also against the Diamondbacks...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau…Brown's two-run walk-off single was the first walk-off hit of his career.

FIRST TIME SINCE 1963: The Mets trailed 4-3 entering the bottom of the 13th inning but rallied to win, 5-4…It was the first time since June 26, 1963 that the Mets won on a walk-off hit that came while trailing in the 13th inning or later...Tim Harkness hit a walk-off grand slam to lift the Mets to an 8-6 win in 14 innings on that date...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

TWO COMEBACKS: The July 1st win was the eighth time in team history, the Mets won after trailing two separate times in the ninth inning or later...The last was May 28, 2008 vs. Florida in a 7-6, 12-inning win.

DOUBLE DIGIT K'S: Matt Harvey is the only pitcher since 1916 with three outings featuring 10 or more strikeouts and no walks among his first 27 career starts...He is the only pitcher with three such outings this season...His three outings ties a franchise record for most such starts in a season...Tied Tom Seaver (1971), Jon Matlack (1974) and R.A. Dickey (2012).

JOSH SATIN: Hit his first major league home run, a solo shot, in the fourth inning on July 3 vs. the Diamondbacks.

HOME RUN NOTES FROM JULY 4: Anthony Recker hit a game-tying home run in the bottom of the 13th inning and Kirk Nieuwenhuis connected for a solo shot that again tied the Diamondbacks in the 14th inning...It was the first time in exactly 28 years that a team hit two game-tying home runs in extra innings and still lost...On July 4, 1985 at Fulton County Stadium, the Braves' Terry Harper hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the 13th inning to tie the Mets, 10-10, and then pitcher Rick Camp hit a solo home run in the bottom of the 18th to tie the score at 11.

EXTRA INNINGS BACK-TO-BACK: The Mets and Diamondbacks played 13 innings on July 1 and 15 innings on July 2…The last time the Mets had two games of at least 13 innings in a series was April 7 and April 9, 1997 in Los Angeles against the Dodgers…They lost both games, 3-2…The last time it happened at home was June 2 and June 4, 1988 against the Cubs.

ONLY ONE SINCE '21: Kirk Nieuwenhuis became the only major league player since 1921 to have four or more hits, score three or more runs, drive in five or more runs, collect two or more walks and have one or more stolen bases in a single game on July 5 at Milwaukee.

KIRK NIEUWENHUIS: Collected a career-high four hits and five RBI on July 5 at Milwaukee...The last Met to have five RBI in a game was Ike Davis on September 24, 2012 vs. Pittsburgh...Nieuwenhuis' previous best for hits in a game was three, done five times last on June 14, 2012 at Tampa Bay...His previous best for RBI in a game was three, done, three other times, last on June 16 earlier this year vs. Chicago-NL.

REACHING BASE: Kirk Nieuwenhuis reached base safely six times (four hits and two walks) on July 5 at Milwaukee...The last Mets player to reach base six times in a nine inning game was Mike Piazza (two hits, four walks) on May 27, 2000 at St. Louis.

BIG NIGHT: Kirk Nieuwenhuis reached base six times and drove in five runs on July 5 at Milwaukee...Only four other players in Mets history have accomplished that feat...Dave Magadan on June 12, 1990 against the Cubs, Jeromy Burnitz in a 13-inning game on August 5, 1993 against the Expos, Carl Everett on August 8, 1995 against the Phillies and Edgardo Alfonzo on August 30, 1999 against the Astros...The last major league player to do that was the Yankees' Russell Martin, against the A's on August 25, 2011 at Yankee Stadium...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

LONG EXTRAS: The Mets played four games of 15 or more innings – July 8, 4-3 win in 16 innings; July 4, a 5-4 loss vs. Arizona in 15 innings; June 8, a 2-1 loss vs. Miami in 20 innings and April 29, a 4-3 setback at Miami in 15 innings) matching the franchise record set in 1968…According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Mets became the first team in major league history to play four games of 15 or more innings prior to the All-Star Break.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: David Wright collected his 20th double of the season on July 9 at Miami...It was the ninth straight year he's had 20 or more doubles, the most in franchise history...Mike Piazza had seven years of 20 or more doubles.

SLAM: Marlon Byrd hit his seventh career grand slam in the eighth inning on July 9 at Miami...It was his first slam since September 26, 2009 vs. Tampa Bay as a member of the Texas Rangers.

ERIC YOUNG: Had a stolen base in five straight games, July 4-8, one shy of the longest streak in Mets history…Vince Coleman had a six-game stolen-base streak in May 1991 and Jose Reyes had two streaks of that length, in July 2005 and August 2007.

HOMETOWN STARTER: David Wright received 6,411,381 votes and was elected to start the All-Star Game at Citi Field…He was the second Met to start an All-Star Game in his home ballpark...Ron Hunt started at second base when Shea Stadium held the 1964 Midsummer Classic... Wright's vote total was the fourth-highest in the NL.

ALL-STAR NOTES: David Wright was selected to his seventh All-Star team (2006-2010, 2012-2013), which is tied for the second-most in franchise history with Mike Piazza and Darryl Strawberry...Tom Seaver was named to nine All-Star Games with the Mets...This year was the fifth time (2006-2007, 2009-2010, 2013) Wright has started for the National League, tying Strawberry for the second-most in team history... Piazza started six All-Star Games for the Mets...Wright finished 1-3 with a single...Wright is hitting .389 (7-18) during his seven All-Star Games.

HEY NOW YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Matt Harvey became the fourth pitcher in club history to make the All-Star team in his first full season in the majors...He joined Tom Seaver (1967), Jerry Koosman (1968) and Dwight Gooden (1984)...Harvey become the third Mets pitcher to start an All-Star Game...Gooden started the 1988 All-Star Game at Cincinnati and the 1986 Game at Houston...Seaver started the 1970 All-Star Game in Cincinnati...The last major league pitcher to start an All-Star Game in his home park was Roger Clemens in 2004 in Houston…Harvey was the sixth Mets pitcher to be selected for the All-Star Game in either his rookie or sophomore season, joining Tom Seaver (both years: 1967–68), Jerry Koosman (1968–69), Dwight Gooden (1984–85), Ron Darling (1985, sophomore) and David Cone (1988, sophomore)…Harvey was the fifth pitcher to start an All-Star Game less than a year after his major-league debut, joining Dave Stenhouse (1962 Senators), Mark Fidrych (1976 Tigers), Fernando Valenzuela (1981 Dodgers) and Hideo Nomo (1995 Dodgers)…Harvey tossed 2.0 scoreless innings and struck out three...The three strikeouts are the most by a Mets pitcher in an All-Star Game since Sid Fernandez also had three strikeouts in the 1986 All-Star Game.

FIRST HALF: Matt Harvey's 147 strikeouts at the All-Star Break were tied for the fourth-most in Mets history and the most since David Cone had 152 at the break in 1992...Also Tom Seaver (178 in 1970), Dwight Gooden (153 in 1985) and Seaver (147 in 1973)...Harvey had the second-lowest first half WHIP, 0.92, and opponent OPS, .525, of any qualified pitcher in franchise history...Pedro Martinez had a 0.84 WHIP and .519 OPS at the break in 2005

WHEELER IS WINNING: Zack Wheeler was one of four Mets pitchers to make his major league debut with the team and win at least three of the first five appearances of his major league career...He tied Tom Seaver and Octovio Dotel for the second-most wins (three) in team history...Jason Jacome had four wins after his first five major league outings.

HITTING SHOES: New York had eight or more hits in 15 consecutive games, July 1-20, the second-longest streak in team history...The Mets had eight or more hits in 17 straight games from August 29-September 16, 1987.

NL PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Juan Lagares was named the National League Player of the Week for the week ending July 21...Lagares has multiple hits in three games, going 7-10 (.700) with two doubles, one home run and five RBI over those games...Lagares was tied for the major league lead in hits (seven), tied for third in the NL in RBI (five), led the majors with a .700 batting average and was second in the NL with a 1.200 slugging percentage that week.

LEADOFF HOME RUN FOR LONE RUN: On July 23, Andrelton Simmons hit a leadoff home run off Carlos Torres…The Mets did not allow another run in a 4-1 win…It was the third time in franchise history that the Mets allowed a leadoff home run and then did not allow another run...The other occurrences: Pete Rose, September 2, 1963 (second game of a doubleheader vs. Cincinnati) and Darryl Hamilton, August 19, 1998 vs. Colorado...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

HARVEY ON THE ROAD: Matt Harvey was the first pitcher in Mets history to go unbeaten in his first nine road starts of one season (April 8-July 26).

30 GAMES: Matt Harvey had the lowest ERA (2.38) and WHIP (0.97) in franchise history after his first 30 games.

JENRRY MEJIA: On July 26 at Washington, Mejia became only the third pitcher in Mets history to go at least seven innings and allow no runs and no walks in his first game of a season…The other Mets to do that were Jon Matlack in 1976, with a 1–0 four-hit shutout over the Expos at Shea Stadium, and Frank Viola in 1990, when he pitched 7.2 innings and got the win in a 3–0 victory against the Pirates in New York…Each of those two games was the Mets' second game of the season.

ROOKIE NO-HIT BID: Zack Wheeler held the Marlins hitless through 6.1 innings on July 30 at Miami... It was the third-longest no-hit bid by a rookie in Mets history…The two Mets rookies to go deeper into a game without allowing a hit than Wheeler were Randy Tate against the Expos at Shea Stadium on August 4, 1975 (7.1 innings, broken up by a Jim Lyttle single) and Dwight Gooden at Pittsburgh on June 6, 1984 (7.0 innings, Doug Frobel singled).

BYRD IN JULY: Marlon Byrd finished as one of the National League leaders in numerous categories in July: fifth in batting average (.336); second in runs scored (20), hits (39) and total bases (66); tied for third in runs batted in (20); and tied for first in triples (three).

JUAN IN JULY: Juan Lagares led all major league rookies with a .353 (24-68) batting average in July (minimum 50 at-bats)…Wil Myers finished a close second (.352).

AUGUST

SATIN TIES THE RECORD: Josh Satin reached base safely (via hit, walk or hit by pitch) in each of the first 29 games he started...That is tied for the longest such streak by a Mets rookie for a single-season with Steve Henderson (1977).

IT'S BEEN A WHILE: The Mets played host to the Royals from August 2-4…New York last played Kansas City at home in 2002…The Mets had played every other American League team at least once since their last series against the Royals, a three-game set in Kansas City in 2004 (June 11–13, 2004).

WALK-OFF WIN: Eric Young, Jr. hit his first walk-off home run in the 11th inning on August 2 to lift the Mets to a 4-2 win over the Royals...It was Young's first career game-ending hit, his seventh career home run and his first with the Mets.

SWING & MISS: Opponents swung and missed at least 10 times in each of Matt Harvey's 26 starts, from September 4, 2012 to August 7, 2013...That was the longest streak in the majors.

WRIGHT TIES PIAZZA: David Wright hit the 220th home run of his career on August 2 off Kansas City's Wade Davis, tying Mike Piazza for second place on the club's all-time list…Darryl Strawberry leads with 252.

PEDRO FELICIANO: Got Alex Gordon to ground out in the ninth inning, the only batter he faced in his first major league appearance since October 2, 2010 (also with the Mets) on August 2 vs. Kansas City.

HISTORICAL NOTE: August 3 was the first time in team history that Mets pitchers did not issue a base on balls in a game that lasted 12.0 or more innings in a 4-3 loss in 12 innings to the Royals.

BIRTHDAY MLB DEBUT: Wilmer Flores celebrated his major league debut and his birthday on August 6…Only one other Met made his major league debut on his birthday...RHP John Pacella pitched 2.0 innings on his birthday (September 15) at Philadelphia in 1977.

HARVEY BRILLIANT: Matt Harvey recorded his first career shutout and complete game on August 7 vs. Colorado…He did pitch 9.0 shutout innings in a Mets' 10-inning 1-0 win vs. Chicago-AL on May 7…Harvey faced three batters over the minimum…Mets pitchers had three such outings last season, most recently by R.A. Dickey vs. Baltimore on June 18.

FLORES FLOURISH: Singled to centerfield on August 7 vs. Colorado for his first major league hit...In the eighth-inning he laced a three-run double for his first major league RBIs...He is the sixth player in team history to collect three RBI in one of his first two games and the first since Mike Jacobs on August 21, 2005 vs. Washington...The only other player to have a multi-hit, three-RBI performance among his first two career games this season was Yasiel Puig, who hit two home runs and five RBI in his second career game on June 4 vs. San Diego.

FIRST FIVE: Wilmer Flores had eight RBI in his first five games he played in the major leagues…Flores became the third player in Mets history to register eight or more RBI in his first five games with the club to start a career…Mike Jacobs had nine RBI in his first five game in August 2005.

OVER 40: LaTroy Hawkins closed out the Mets' 3-2 win over Colorado on August 6...He became the third reliever in franchise history age 40 or older to record a save...He joined John Franco and Roberto Hernandez...Mariano Rivera was the only other major league reliever over 40 with a save this season.

WILMER FLORES: Had 11 RBI through his first 11 major leagues games, tied for the most by a Mets player through his first 11 major league games...Jose Reyes had 11 RBI in his first 11 major league games in 2003.

FIVE OF SIX: Wilmer Flores had at least one RBI in five of his first six major league games...He is one of 12 major leaguers since 1916 to have an RBI in five of a player's first six games in the majors and first since Gerardo Parra in 2009...Only two players since 1916 (George Shuba and Dale Alexander) drove in at least one run in six of their first six career games.

ROOKIE RBI: Wilmer Flores had an RBI in five straight games, August 7-11, tied for the fourth-longest streak in franchise history by a rookie...Justin Turner had a seven-game RBI streak from May 14-21, 2011 and a six-game streak from May 25-30 that season...Ron Swoboda had an RBI in six straight games from August 22-26, 1965.

WHAT BROWN DID FOR THE METS: Andrew Brown hit a pinch-hit three-run home run on August 11 at Arizona...It was Brown's second pinch-hit home run of the year...He also went deep off Atlanta's Mike Minor on June 20...Brown is one of 27 Mets to hit two or more pinch-hit home runs in the same season.

MARLON BYRD: Hit his 100th career home run August 14 at Los Angeles off Chris Capuano...Byrd connected on a 3-0 pitch...According to ESPN research, it was the Mets' first 3-0 home run since April 3, 2011 when Ike Davis went deep off the Marlins.

WINNING WHEELER: The Mets went 7-3 in Zack Wheeler's first 10 starts...The seven wins in Wheeler's first 10 games were tied for the most games the Mets have won in any starter's first 10 career appearances in franchise history with Jason Isringhausen and Octavio Dotel...Wheeler's five wins are the second-most in team history for a starter in his first 10 starts...Isringhausen had six wins in 1995.

ZACKKKKK: Zack Wheeler became the fifth pitcher in Mets history with seven outings of at least five strikeouts among his first 10 career games…Joins Matt Harvey (8), Dwight Gooden (8) and Nolan Ryan (7) and Octavio Dotel (7).

DIRTY DOZEN: Zack Wheeler struck out 12 Padres on August 15 in his 11th major league appearance...It was the fourth time in team history that a Mets pitcher had 12 or more strikeouts within his first 11 career games...The others to accomplish the feat were Dwight Gooden, Nolan Ryan and Dick Selma...The last Mets rookie with 12 or more strikeouts in a game was Gooden on September 17, 1984 at Philadelphia when he fanned 16...Matt Harvey had 11 strikeouts in his first major league start on July 26, 2012…Wheeler was the eighth Mets rookie to record 12 or more strikeouts in a game and the first since Dwight Gooden fanned 16 at Philadelphia on September 17, 1984.

6 & 12: Wheeler joined Pedro Martinez and Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers in team history to notch 12 or more strikeouts in 6.0 innings or less...Martinez accomplished the feat April 4, 2005, in his first start with the Mets, at Cincinnati, going 6.0 innings with 12 strikeouts...Ryan struck out 12 Cardinals over 6.0 innings on August 31, 1971 at St. Louis.

MATCH UP: Matt Harvey (9-3, 2.09 ERA) faced Hyun-Jin Ryu (11-3, 2.99 ERA) on August 13 at Los Angeles-NL, the fifth game in Mets history in which each starting pitcher had a winning percentage of .750 or higher in at least 10 decisions and an earned-run average below 3.00. ..The previous four: June 30, 1985 at St. Louis Dwight Gooden (11–3, 1.68) vs. Danny Cox (9–3, 2.49) Cardinals won 2–1 (11 innings), June 16, 1990 at Pittsburgh Frank Viola (9–2, 2.04) vs. Doug Drabek (8–2, 2.68) Pirates won 11–6, September 26, 1998 at Atlanta Al Leiter (17–5, 2.40) vs. Tom Glavine (20–6, 2.53) Braves won 4–0. July 19, 2012 at Washington R.A. Dickey (12–1, 2.66) vs. Gio Gonzalez (12–4, 2.93) Mets won 9–5.

STRIKEOUTS: New York's pitching staff tied a franchise with consecutive games of 13 or more strikeouts, August 15-16 at San Diego...It was the seventh time in team history that the Mets have recorded two straight games with 13 or more strikeouts, the last time was September 29-30, 2007 vs. Florida...Mets pitchers had 15 strikeouts on August 15 and 13 strikeouts on August 16, including a season-high-tying nine strikeouts by Jonathon Niese.

JONATHON NIESE: Was the eighth pitcher in Mets history to record six strikeouts in the first two innings of a game on August 16 at San Diego...The others: Nolan Ryan, Pete Falcone, Ron Darling, Sid Fernandez, Dwight Gooden, David Cone and Johan Santana...Info courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

LAGARES HITTING STREAK: Juan Lagares hit in a career-high 12 straight games from August 25-September 7...Over those 12 games, Lagares hit .370 (17-46) with six runs scored, three doubles and five RBI...The streak tied David Wright's streak for the club season-high.

STRIKEOUTS: The Mets tied a franchise record on September 6 at Cleveland by striking out 15 times in a game in which they did not draw a walk…The club's other 15-strikeout, no-walk games were at Cincinnati in 1982, at Pittsburgh in 1985 and at Arizona in 2001.

ONE-HIT: The Mets were held to one hit on September 9 vs. Washington…It was the 34th time that the Mets had exactly one hit in a regular-season game and the seventh time that a rookie (Zach Lutz) recorded the Mets' only hit in a game…The other Mets rookies to do that were Ron Swoboda (1965), Cleon Jones (1965), John Stearns (1975), Anthony Young (1992), Rico Brogna (1994) and Ty Wigginton (2003).

AARON HARANG: Fanned 10 batters on September 12 vs. Washington, his 13th double-digit strikeout game and second this season (also, June 11 vs. Houston)…Harang became the third Mets pitcher to strike out double-digits in his debut for the team…Matt Harvey struck out 11 in his major league debut on July 26, 2012…Pedro Martinez was the first when he fanned 12 on April 4, 2005…On the other hand, Harang tied the record for most home runs allowed by a pitcher in his first game as a Met (three)…The others to do that were Mike Birkbeck (in 1992), Brian Rose (in 2001) and Steve Trachsel (in 2001).

NATIONALS HOME RUNS: The Nationals hit 13 home runs during their four-game sweep of the Mets, September 9-12, the most in a single series at Citi Field in the ballpark's history…The previous record was seven, done last by the Yankees during a three-game series in June, 2012… Washington matched the third-highest home run total in major-league history in a series of any length in which one team hit all of the home runs in the series…The Red Sox set the record by outhomering the Yankees, 16–0, in a three-game series at Fenway Park in June 1977; the Tigers hit all 14 of the home runs in their series against the Mets in Detroit in June/July 1997; and the Yankees outhomered the Athletics, 13–0, in a three-game series in Philadelphia in June 1939…Washington hit 22 home runs at Citi Field this year, tied for the most in a single season by a visiting team against the Mets in club history…The 1962 Cardinals (Polo Grounds) and the '66 Pirates (Shea Stadium) hit 22 in New York against the Mets.

100 FOR EY: Eric Young, Jr. swiped his 100th career base in the second inning of game two of the September 14 doubleheader vs. Miami...Young is one of 56 active major leaguers with 100 or more stolen bases.

10-40: LaTroy Hawkins earned his 10th save in New York's 3-1 win on September 14 in the second game of a doubleheader vs. the Marlins...He became the 19th pitcher to notch double-digit saves after turning 40...Mariano Rivera has done it three times, and, Hoyt Wilhelm had seven seasons of 10 or more saves after age 40.

ERRORLESS GAMES: New York had a season-high eight-game errorless streak from September 8-14.

DAISUKE MATSUZAKA: Became the 326th different pitcher in team history to win a game and the eighth Japanese-born pitcher to do so on September 14 vs. Miami.

WALK-OFF WIN: Travis d'Arnaud singled home Lucas Duda with two outs in the 12th inning to give New York a 1-0 win on August 15 vs. Miami…It was d'Arnaud's first game-ending RBI and his first hit with runners in scoring position…D'Arnaud was the first Mets starting catcher to get a walk-off hit in the 12th inning or later since Gary Carter did so in Game 5 of the 1986 NLCS against the Houston Astros... D'Arnaud was also the first rookie in Mets history to record a walk-off RBI in a 1–0 Mets victory.

VIC BLACK: Earned his first major league win on September 15 vs. Miami working a scoreless inning.

ANOTHER WALK-OFF WIN: Josh Satin singled home two runs in the ninth inning to lift the Mets to a 5-4 win on September 18 vs. San Francisco...It was Satin's first career game-ending hit and the Mets' 10th walk-off win this season.

DOWN TO THEIR LAST OUT: The Mets collected two walk-off hits this season with the bases loaded and two outs (September 18 vs. San Francisco and July 1 vs. Arizona when Andrew Brown had a RBI single in the 13th inning)...The only other year the Mets had a two bases loaded, two out, walk-off hits was in 1999 (John Olerud and Matt Franco).

BIG RALLY: The Mets rallied from a three-run deficit in the ninth on September 18 vs. San Francisco, their largest comeback in the ninth inning or later since June 16 of this season when they scored four times in the ninth to beat the Cubs, 4-3 at Citi Field…Kirk Nieuwenhuis ended that game with a three-run home run…New York also overcame a four-run deficit to win, the largest this season by the club...The Mets trailed 4-0 heading to the bottom of the eighth before rallying to win, 5-4.

VS. SAN FRAN: The Mets notched their 30th walk-off win vs. the Giants in franchise history on September 18...Between the two clubs the Mets have been victorious in the last nine walk-off decisions dating back to August 25, 2001.

TRAILING AFTER 8: New York posted seven wins when trailing after eight innings, the most such victories in the majors in 2013…Six of those wins came at home which set a season-season record.

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING: In six of the Mets 10 walk-off wins this season the winning RBI was driven in by a player collecting his first career walk-off RBI...The list includes: Mike Baxter, Andrew Brown, Travis d'Arnaud, Jordany Valdespin, Eric Young, Jr. and Josh Satin.

JUAN CENTENO: Made his major league debut on September 18 vs. San Francisco…He singled in the fifth for his first hit, then singled again in the ninth to drive in his first major league run.

TOUGH HOMESTAND: Over the Mets 11-game homestand, September 9-14, the club was outscored 46-24 and outhomered 19-4…The Mets' .184 batting average was their lowest mark on any of the 112 previous homestands of 10 or more games in franchise history (they did not hit below .200 on any other homestand of 10-plus games).

DAVID WRIGHT MOVES AHEAD OF PIAZZA: David Wright played in his first game since August 2 on September 20 at Philadelphia and hit a home run in his first at-bat...The home run was Wright's 221st of his career, moving him into sole possession of second place on the Mets all-time home run list, one ahead of Mike Piazza...Darryl Strawberry is first on the list with 252 home runs...Wright had been on the DL since August 3 with a right hamstring strain.

NICE COMPANY: Daniel Murphy extended his career-high with his 20th stolen base on September 20 at Philadelphia...Murphy was one of six major leaguers with 35 or more doubles, 10 or more home runs and 20 or more stolen bases this season...He joins Mike Trout, Hunter Pence, Andrew McCutchen, Jason Kipnis and Ian Desmond.

WRIGHT HR STREAK: David Wright hit a home run in his second straight game since returning from the Disabled List on September 21 at Philadelphia...Wright hit a home run in three straight games dating back to August 2...He also hit a home run in three consecutive games earlier this year from May 1-5.

DAVID WRIGHT IN PHILLY: David Wright has hit 19 home runs at Citizens Bank Park during his career, the most of any visiting player at the ballpark...Wright's 19 home runs at CBP are also the most he's hit in any visiting park...The Mets captain also has 61 career RBI in Philadelphia, the most in any visiting city.

MURPHY HR MARK: Daniel Murphy hit his 12th home run on September 21 at Philadelphia to give the Mets a 2-1 lead...The 12 home runs tied his career-high (2009)...Murphy hit his career-best 13 home run on September 24 at Cincinnati.

100 FOR HAWK: LaTroy Hawkins closed out the Mets 4-3 win at Philadelphia on September 22 with a scoreless ninth inning for his 100th career save...Hawkins became the 24th active reliever to reach the 100 save milestone.

WHAT A DEBUT: Wilfredo Tovar became the ninth Met to make his major league debut this year for the club on September 22 against the Phillies...He had two hits, the game-tying RBI in the seventh-inning and a stolen base...Tovar became one of four Mets to have two or more hits, one or more RBI and one or more stolen bases in his major league debut, joining Rod Gaspar, Lenny Dykstra and Preston Wilson.

WALK-OFF LOSSES: The Mets suffered their 13th walk-off loss this season on September 23 at Cincinnati...It was the most since the team also had 13 walk-off defeats in 1989...The 13 walk-off losses were tied for the second-most in the majors this year…Miami had 15 walk-off losses…The franchise record for walk-off losses in a season is 14 set in 1974 and equaled in 1978.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON: Eric Young, Jr. extended his single-season career high with 40 stolen bases on September 23 at Cincinnati… Eric Young, Sr. recorded six seasons of 40 or more steals in his 15-year big-league career…The Youngs are the third father/son pair who each had seasons of 40 or more stolen bases in the major leagues...The others are Maury (7) and Bump Wills (1), and Bobby (7) and Barry Bonds (3)...The Willses did 50/50.

DAVID AARDSMA: Stranded all 19 inherited runners in 2013 including his final one on September 23 at Cincinnati, the most in the majors and the most in franchise history, without a allowing an inherited runner to score.

BLACK OUT: Vic Black earned his first major league save on September 24 at Cincinnati closing out the 4-2 victory.

JUAN LAGARES: Threw out Shin-Soo Choo at home plate in the first inning for his 13th outfield assist of the season on September 24 establishing a new team record for rookies...Tsuyoshi Shinjo had 12 outfield assists in 2001...Lagares led all rookies and was third in the majors with 15 outfield assists.

ERIC YOUNG, JR.: Stole two bases on September 29 vs. Milwaukee to finish with a NL-best 46…Young is the second Met win the stolen base crown, joining Jose Reyes who led in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

YOUNG BY THE MONTH: Eric Young recorded 13 stolen bases in July, swiped 11 bases in both August and September…Young was the third player in Mets history to steal at least 10 bases in each of three or more consecutive months in one season…The others were Roger Cedeno in 1999 (May through July), and Jose Reyes in both 2005 (a four-month streak, June through September) and 2007 (a five-month streak, April through August).

JUAN LAGARES: Threw out Sean Halton at home plate in the third inning on September 29 vs. Milwaukee, his 15th outfield assist, which extended his franchise record for a rookie…It's the most outfield assists by a Met since Cliff Floyd also had 15 in 2005…It's the most by major league rookie since 2007, when Delmon Young had 16 for Tampa Bay.

IRON MAN: Daniel Murphy played in 161 of the Mets' 162 games…The only game he did not play this year was on August 18 at San Diego…Murphy became the sixth man to play at least 161 games in one season for the Mets, joining Felix Millan (162 in 1975), John Olerud (162 in 1999), Robin Ventura (161 in 1999), Jose Reyes (161 in 2005) and Carlos Beltran (161 in 2008).

RBI FOR MURPH: Daniel Murphy finished with 74 RBI as a second baseman (four more as a first baseman)…The only other Mets player to record that many or more RBI as a second baseman in one season was Edgardo Alfonzo, who did so twice (108 in 1999 and 92 in 2000).

FRANK FRANCISCO: Tossed a perfect ninth on September 29 vs. Milwaukee for his first save since September 1, 2012.

STRIKEOUTS: The Mets set a franchise record striking out 1,384 times…The old mark (1,250) was set in 2012…New York was tied with Atlanta for the National League lead in strikeouts and finished tied for third in the majors.

#33 MATT HARVEY (9-5, 2.27) RHP

Height: 6-4 Weight: 225 pounds Age: 24 (3/27/89)
Born: New London, CT Resides: Mystic, CT Signed Through: 2013

FIRST 36 STARTS: Harvey has the second-best WHIP (0.98) of any pitcher since 1921 in his first 36 career starts...The only other pitchers since 1921 that had a WHIP under 1.00 through 36 starts were Vida Blue (0.94), Orel Hershiser (0.99) and Jim Hardin (0.99)..His 4.58 K/BB ratio ranks fifth since 1921 in a pitcher's first 36 starts...His 2.39 ERA is the 12th-best mark through 36 starts...Info courtesy of STATS LLC.

ALL-STAR STARTER: Harvey became the fifth pitcher to start an All-Star Game less than a year after his major league debut...He became the fourth pitcher in club history to make the All-Star team in his first full season in the majors...Joined Tom Seaver (1967), Jerry Koosman (1968) and Dwight Gooden (1984)...He became the third Mets pitcher to start an All-Star Game...Gooden started the 1988 All-Star Game at Cincinnati and the 1986 Game at Houston...Seaver started the 1970 All-Star Game in Cincinnati...He was the first major league pitcher to start an All-Star Game in his home park since Roger Clemens in 2004 in Houston.

ALL-STAR GAME: Harvey tossed 2.0 scoreless innings and struck out three during the All-Star game ...The three strikeouts were the most by a Mets pitcher in an All-Star game since Sid Fernandez also had three strikeouts in the 1986 All-Star Game.

PITCHER OF THE MONTH: Voted National League Pitcher of the Month for the month of April...Recorded four victories (4-0) in six April starts, tying him for first among NL pitchers...Only one of two NL starters to post four wins in April without suffering a loss (also Lance Lynn)...His 1.56 ERA (seven earned runs/40.1 innings) ranked third in the NL, his 46 strikeouts were tied for fourth.

2013 RANKS: Finished third in the majors with a 2.27 ERA (45 earned runs/178.1 innings), 6.16 K/BB ratio, .282 opponent slugging percentage and .530 OPS ...Ranked second in the majors with a 0.93 WHIP, .248 opponent on base percentage and 8.58 baserunners/9...Third in the NL and sixth in the majors a 9.64 K/9...Six in the majors with 1.56 BB/9 rate...Seventh in the majors with a 6.81 H/9...His 191 strikeouts ranked first in the NL and fourth in the majors on August 24, the date of his final start...His opponent OPS is the 12th-best single-season mark since 1969.

SINCE DEBUT: Since his debut on July 26, 2012, Harvey has the majors' third-best: ERA (2.39); WHIP (0.98), K/9 (9.88), opponent slugging (.296), opponent OPS (.556) and baserunners/9 (9.13)...His opponent on base percentage (.260), opponent batting average (.207) and H/9 (6.39) are fourth best in the majors...His HR/9 (0.45) is the second-best rate in the majors.

NL PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Major League Baseball named Harvey the National League Player of the Week for the week of April 8-14...He went 2-0 with a 1.20 ERA (two earned runs/15.0 innings) during the week...He allowed five hits, issued four walks and struck out 15...Harvey earned his first career Player of the Week award.

HISTORIC STRETCH: In his four starts between September 19, 2012 and April 13, Harvey became the first pitcher with four straight starts of 7.0 or more innings and three or fewer hits allowed since July 2004...The feat has only been pulled off five other times since 1916: Johan Santana (five straight games) in 2004, Nolan Ryan (five straight games) in 1976-1977, Woody Williams in 2001, Kevin Milwood in 1999 and Roger Clemens in 1998.

HISTORIC BEGINNING: Harvey became the first pitcher in modern major league history (since 1900) to win each of his first three starts of a season, with at least 25 strikeouts and six or fewer hits allowed over those three games...He also became the first pitcher in baseball's modern era to win his first four starts while allowing no more than 10 hits in those four starts combined...The following week, Matt Moore became the second pitcher to pull off the feat...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

PERFECT BID: Harvey retired the first 20 batters he faced against Chicago-AL at Citi Field on May 7...The 6.2 perfect innings are tied for the third-longest streak in team history...The last Mets pitcher with 6.2 perfect innings was Rick Reed on June 8, 1998 at home against Tampa Bay...Tom Seaver pitched 8.1 perfect innings on July 9, 1969 and 7.0 perfect innings on August 30, 1968...Research courtesy of Elias Sports Bureau...In the game, Harvey became the third Mets pitcher to allow only one baserunner in 9.0 innings of work...Tom Seaver (July 9, 1969 vs. the Cubs) and Jonathon Niese (June 10, 2010 vs. the Padres) are the other two...He became the first player in the modern era (since 1900) to pitch 9.0 innings with 12 or more strikeouts, allowing no walks and only one hit to receive a no-decision.

NO-HIT BIDS: Harvey took a no-hitter into the seventh inning three times this season: April 13 at Minnesota, May 7 vs. Chicago-AL and June 18 at Atlanta...Only three other pitchers during the expansion era held an opposing team hitless through 6.0 innings three times in the first 25 starts of their career: Al Downing, Jose DeLeon (four times) and Kent Mercker...Research courtesy of Elias Sports Bureau.

RUNS: Harvey and Dwight Gooden are the only starters since 1916 to allow one run or fewer in 19 of their first 36 career games...Harvey has struck out six or more batters in each of those 19 starts...His 14 starts in which he has allowed one run or fewer was tied for the fifth-most in the majors.

STRIKEOUTS: Harvey had at least six strikeouts in 22 of his 26 outings...Since 1916, Harvey has the seventh-most strikeouts (261) after his first 36 career games...Trails Dwight Gooden (310), Yu Darvish (293), Kerry Wood (290), Hideo Nomo (288), Mark Prior (281) and Herb Score (276).

DOUBLE-DIGIT K'S: Harvey's six double-digit strikeout outings were the most in the NL...He is the sixth pitcher in team history to register six double-digit strikeout games in a single season, joining Tom Seaver, Dwight Gooden, David Cone, Sid Fernandez and R.A. Dickey...Harvey had four outings with 10 or more strikeouts and no walks this season...Since 1916, no pitcher previously had more than two such outings among his first 30 career games...He became the first pitcher in franchise history and 10th pitcher since 1916 with four such outings in one season...Cliff Lee became the 11th pitcher to pull off the feat...Harvey is the third pitcher to have four such games in his entire Mets career...Became the 10th pitcher since 1916 with at least five double-digit strikeout games in his first 21 starts

WHIP: Harvey became the 11th pitcher in the divisonal era (since 1969) to post a WHIP of 0.93 or lower in a season...Joined Pedro Martinez (did it four times), Greg Maddux (twice), Roger Nelson, Randy Johnson, Don Sutton, Catfish Hunter, Clayton Kershaw, Justin Verlander, Johan Santana and Mike Scott...Harvey, who had a 9.64 K/9, is the sixth pitcher since 1885 to finish a season with a WHIP of 0.95 or lower and a K/9 of greater than 9.20...Also Pedro Martinez (four times), Randy Johnson, Johan Santana, Sandy Koufax and Mike Scott...After Harvey's first 23 starts this season, he had a 0.86 WHIP and the best WHIP (0.94) of any pitcher since 1921 through his first 33 career starts.

HOME RUNS: Harvey's 0.35 HR/9 rate (seven home runs/178.1 innings) this season was the lowest in the majors, the fourth-lowest single-season mark since 1999 and the sixth lowest in Mets history...Trails Jon Matlack (0.27; 1974), Bobby Ojeda (0.28; 1988), Dwight Gooden (0.29; 1984 and 1988) and Tom Seaver (0.35; 1975)...Harvey is the third Mets pitcher to allow no more than seven home runs in a season with at least 140 IP...Ojeda allowed six in 1988 and Gooden allowed seven in 1984...The seven home runs are tied with four others for the fewest allowed since 1995 (min. 175 IP)...Also Andy Pettitte ('97), Pedro Martinez ('03), Chris Carpenter('09) and Josh Johnson ('10).

HOMERLESS STREAK: Ended the season by pitching 54.1 innings and facing 213 batters since allowing his last home run (Buster Posey on July 8)...Only Mark Melancon had more consecutive homerless innings this season (63.0 IP)...Harvey has gone 33 straight starts without allowing multiple home runs...Only Jhoulys Chacin has had a longer such streak since 2012 (currently at 40 starts)...Anibal Sanchez also currently has a 33-game streak...It matches the longest such streak by a Mets starter since 1991...Also Mike Hampton in 2000 and Dwight Gooden in 1992.

FAST START: Harvey's outing on April 19 was his fourth straight start of 7.0 innings or more and one run or less...The last pitcher to open the season with such a streak was Tim Hudson in 2007...Hudson also went four straight games...The last Mets pitcher to do so was Rick Reed in 2000; he also went four straight ...Became the third pitcher since 1916 to begin a season with four consecutive starts of 7.0 or more innings while allowing four or fewer hits...The two other pitchers with such an open were Ken Hill for the 1993 Expos and Nolan Ryan for the 1979 Angels.

UNDEFEATED: Harvey was unbeaten after his first 13 starts, becoming the first Mets pitcher to remain undefeated after his first 12 starts of a season...Dating to his final start of last season on September 19, 2012, Harvey avoided a loss in 14 conescutive starts...He is one of eight starters in franchise history to go at least 14 straight starts without a loss....The last Mets pitcher to start a season 5-0 or better was Dillon Gee who went 7-0 to start 2011.

FIRST HALF: Harvey struck out 29.3% of the batters he faced before the All-Star Break, the best first-half mark in Mets history, while his 10.18 K/9 only trailed Dwight Gooden's 10.78 first-half mark for the highest in team history...Harvey's 147 strikeouts at the All-Star Break were tied for the fourth-most in Mets history and the most since David Cone had 152 at the break in 1992...Also Tom Seaver (178 first half K in 1970; 147 in 1973) and Dwight Gooden (153 in 1985)...Harvey had the second-lowest first half WHIP, 0.92, and opponent OPS, .525, of any qualified pitcher in franchise history...Pedro Martinez had a 0.84 WHIP and .519 OPS at the break in 2005.

SECOND HALF: In seven starts after the All-Star Break, he had a 2.05 ERA (11 earned runs/48.1 innings), a 0.97 WHIP and a 14.7 K/BB ratio (44K/3BB)...Did not allow a second-half home run...Did not allow an earned run in the first 20.1 innings after the All-Star Break, the longest such stretch of his career.

FIP: Harvey recorded a 2.04 FIP (Fielding-Independent Pitching, which takes strikeouts, walks and home runs allowed into account) this season, the third-best mark in the divisional era (since 1969)...Only Pedro Martinez (1.52 in 1999) and Dwight Gooden (1.80 in 1984) had better marks.

SHUTOUT: Harvey recorded the first complete game and shutout of his career on August 7 against Colorado at Citi Field...He did also pitch 9.0 shutout innings in a Mets' 1-0, 10-inning win three months earlier on May 7 vs. Chicago-AL...It was the first complete game shutout by a Mets pitcher since R.A. Dickey shut out the Marlins 3-0 on August 31, 2012 at Marlins Park...Harvey faced three batters over the minimum in his shutout...The last Mets pitcher to have such an outing was R.A. Dickey on June 18, 2012 against Baltimore at Citi Fied...Harvey was the sixth pitcher in franchise history with multiple outings of 9.0 shutout innings and no walks in one season.

WHIFFS: Harvey induced at least 10 missed swings in 26 straight starts from September 4, 2012 to August 7, 2013...That was the longest active streak in the majors...Research courtesy of Elias...Harvey's 27.9 missed swing percentage ranked second in the NL.

HITS ALLOWED: Allowed the fewest hits, 74, of any pitcher in franchise history in his first 19 career starts...After his 19th start on May 17, he held the lowest H/9 rate, 5.41, of all qualifying starters since his debut on July 26, 2012...Through Harvey's first eight starts of the season, he led the majors with a 4.01 H/9, while no other pitcher had a H/9 under 5.2 in that span.

RUNS STREAKS: Harvey has allowed no more than five runs while striking out at least three in each of his first 36 career games...No pitcher since 1916 had a streak of longer than 21 such games to begin a career...He went 24 straight starts allowing four runs or fewer from August 10, 2012 to June 28, 2013…That stretch was the sixth-longest such streak in team history…Dwight Gooden holds the record with 34 consecutive starts, August 11, 1984-August 10, 1985…Harvey's streak is tied for the second-longest in the majors dating to the start of last year…Only Arizona's Trevor Cahill has had a longer such streak in that time (28 straight starts).

THREE RUNS STREAK: Allowed three runs or less in 16 consecutive starts from August 10, 2012 to May 17, 2013, the fifth-longest streak in franchise history…It's the longest streak since Johan Santana went 21 games, July 22, 2008-May 11, 2009…Dwight Gooden has the franchise record, 24 games, April 14-August 10, 1985.

4K STREAKS: Harvey went 29 straight starts with at least four strikeouts from August 16, 2012 to August 7, 2013, the second-longest streak in Mets history...Tom Seaver went 35 consecutive starts with at least four strikeouts from August 16, 1969 to August 6, 1970, exactly 43 years before Harvey's stretch...Harvey was one such appearance shy of matching Seaver's mark of 30 such straight games...Harvey had the second-longest active streak in the majors, which trailed Yu Darvish's run that is currently at 51 games...Harvey's stretch of 29 straight games with four or more strikeouts and three or fewer walks was the fifth-longest since 1916.

INNINGS: He is the second pitcher since 1916 to toss at least 5.0 innings in each of his first 36 career starts...Josh Tomlin did so in his first 37 games...All three of Harvey's outings that were shorter than 6.0 innings this season occured in Miami.

BASERUNNERS: Became one of 10 starters since 1916 (and the first in Mets history) to allow no more than 10 baserunners in each of his first 19 career games.

NICE COMPANY: Harvey became one of three pitchers to have an ERA below 2.25 and at least 125 strikeouts in his first 20 starts in the majors since ERA was an official stat (1912 in NL, 1913 in AL), joining Hideo Nomo (2.08 ERA, 175 K) and Vida Blue (2.10 ERA, 125 K)...Research courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau.

BRINGING THE HEAT: Harvey had the highest average velocities in the majors for his fastball (95.8), slider (89.9) and curveball (83.5), according to PITCHf/x data...Stephen Strasburg's fastball ranked second at 95.3, as did Homer Bailey's slider at 88.4 and A.J. Burnett's curve at 82.6.

VS. LEFTIES: Lefthanders hit .178 (57-321) against Harvey this season, the seventh-best mark in the majors and only trailing Jarred Cosart (.173) for the lowest mark among righthanders...Among active right-handed starters who have faced at least 450 left-handed batters, Harvey has allowed the lowest batting average (.187; 82-439) and OPS (.512) in the majors...No other active right-handed starter has allowed an average less than .219 or OPS less than .629 against lefties...Harvey has struck out 31.3% of the lefties he has faced in his career...He is the only active right-handed starter who has struck out more than 28% of the lefties he has faced.

13 K: Struck out a career-high 13 in his at Atlanta on June 18 in the first game of a doubleheader...Became the third Mets pitcher to record a 13-strikeout game since 2010...R.A. Dickey (twice) and Chris Capuano also accomplished the feat...Tied for the second-most strikeouts by a Mets pitcher against the Braves...Sid Fernandez totaled 16 strikeouts on July 14, 1989, while Capuano (August 26, 2011) and Dick Selma (September 12, 1965) also both had 13...Harvey became the fifth Mets pitcher to have a 13-strikeout outing among his first 25 career games.

10 K, 3 HITS: Harvey had a franchise-record five starts with at least 10 strikeouts and three or fewer hits allowed...His four such games trailed only Yu Darvish's six for the most in the majors...No other NL pitcher had more than three such outings this season...Harvey is only the fourth pitcher since 1916 to record three outings of 10 or more strikeouts, three or fewer hits and no walks in a season...Also Pedro Martinez (2000), Mike Mussina (2001) and Randy Johnson (2004)...Harvey is only the second pitcher since 1916 to have at least five double-digit strikeout games in which he allowed three or fewer hits within his first 36 games...Hideo Nomo had six such outings among his first 36 starts.

7.0 IP, THREE HITS: Harvey worked 7.0 or more innings and allowed three or fewer hits seven times this season...The seven such outings tied Tom Seaver (1970) for the single-season franchise record.

AFTER 30 STARTS: Harvey's 2.38 ERA and 0.97 WHIP after 30 starts are the lowest marks in franchise history after 30 appearances (minimum 40 IP over those outings)...Only Jerry Koosman had a lower ERA (2.21) through 30 starts in franchise history.

TOUGH LUCK: Harvey is the only pitcher since 1908, to make at least 25 starts with an ERA as low as 2.27 but receive less than 10 wins...He is the only qualifying pitcher since 1918 to receive less than 10 wins with a WHIP under 1.03...After June 1, the Mets went 5-10 in Harvey's starts, while Harvey went 4-5, despite posting a 2.60 ERA (29 earned runs/100.1 innings)...In the 17 starts Harvey did not receive a win, the Mets scored an average of 1.71 runs while he was on the mound and 2.59 runs per game…In Harvey's 12 no-decisions, he had a 2.42 ERA (22 earned runs/81.2 innings) and a 0.98 WHIP...His six no-decisions in starts he allowed one run or fewer are tied for the most in Mets history...His seven starts that he allowed one run or fewer without a win are tied for the most in the majors this season and one such start shy of Roger Craig's franchise record set in 1963.

NO-DECISIONS: Harvey had eight no-decisions in a nine-start stretch from April 24 to June 8, four of which went to extra innings...It marked the 29th time in major league history that a starting pitcher received eight no-decisions in a nine-start span within one season (with no relief appearances during that streak)...Harvey's 2.66 ERA over those nine starts is the lowest in any of those 29 sequences...The previous low was a 3.07 ERA by Cincinnati's Erik Hanson from June 12 to July 28 in 1994...Info Courtesy of Elias Sports Bureau.

APRIL STRIKEOUTS: Harvey's 46 strikeouts tied a Mets record for the month of April...Pedro Martinez also had 46 strikeouts April 2005

0-2 COUNT: After reaching an 0-2, opposing hitters batted .026 (1-38) with 24 strikeouts and one walk against Harvey in his first seven starts this season...The sole hit after an 0-2 count was Justin Morneau's home run on April 13 at Target Field, which broke up Harvey's no-hitter with two outs in the seventh inning...Opposing hitters batted .117 (18-154) with 87 strikeouts after an 0-2 count.

RISP: Opposing hitters batted .167 (8-48) with runners in scoring position and two outs against Harvey...He held the opposition to a .095 batting average (2-21) with RISP in his first eight starts.

BASERUNNERS: Harvey allowed three or fewer baserunners in four starts this season, tied with Stephen Strasburg for the most such starts in the majors...Harvey's 10 starts without allowing a walk are tied for the fourth most in the majors...Harvey, Chris Archer and Jordan Zimmermann are the only pitchers this season with multiple outings of 9.0 innings in which they faced 30 batters or fewer.

ALL-STAR REMATCH: Harvey faced Max Scherzer in his final start of the season...According to Elias, that was the first time the All-Star Game starting pitchers faced each other in a regular season game in the same season...It happened twice in a World Series game later that season: Dwight Gooden vs. Roger Clemens in 1986, and Red Ruffing vs. Paul Derringer in 1939.

IN A PINCH: Pinch-hit on July 1 vs. Arizona and had a sacrifice bunt...Was the first Mets pitcher to pinch-hit since Jonathon Niese on May 16, 2011 vs. Florida

RETURN: After returning from the DL on August 11, Niese went 5-2 with a 3.00 ERA (22 earned runs/66.0 innings) to close out the season...Struck out 56 and walked 15...Finished with four consecutive quality starts.

SHUTOUT: Niese tossed a three-hitter on August 27 against the Phillies for the second shutout of his career...Also tossed a one-hit shutout on June 10, 2010 in the second game of a doubleheader against the Padres...Niese threw 113 pitches, 78 for strikes and retired 17 straight from the second to the seventh inning...He became the second Mets pitcher to throw a shutout and drive in three runs, joining Pete Falcone, who also did it against the Phillies on September 29, 1981 at Veteran's Stadium.

OPENING DAY: Tossed 6.1 innings, allowing four hits and two earned runs to win his first career Opening Day start, April 1 vs. San Diego…Niese became the 22nd different pitcher to start Opening Day for the Mets.

OPENING DAY HITS: Tied his career high with two hits, April 1 vs. San Diego…It was Niese's fourth game with multiple hits (September 5, 2010; June 3, 2012; September 14, 2012)…Niese became the third Mets pitcher with two hits on Opening Day; Tom Glavine did it on April 3, 2006 vs. Washington and Craig Swan had two on April 10, 1980 vs. Chicago.

K/BB: Walked a career high-tying six on May 5 at Atlanta...In his first 13 starts this season he had a 1.33 K/BB ratio (44 strikeouts/33 walks)...In his final 11 starts, the lefthander compiled a 4.07 K/BB mark (61 strikeouts/15 walks)...His career mark his 2.61.

AUGUST SUCCESS: Went 3-0 with a 1.93 ERA (six earned runs/28.0 innings) in four August starts...His 1.93 ERA was the eighth-best mark for the month among all MLB pitchers...Also compiled a .204 batting average against, the 11th-best mark in the majors for the month.

STRIKEOUTS: Niese struck out a season high-tying nine in back-to-back starts on August 16 at San Diego and August 21 vs. Atlanta...Prior to that, he had only struck out more than eight once in his career...He fanned 10 in 6.0 innings against St. Louis at Citi Field on June 3, 2012...His K/9 for the season was 6.61...His career K/9 is 7.35.

DAYS REST: In 11 starts on four days rest, Niese went 3-2 with a 2.27 ERA (16 earned runs/63.1 innings)...In his 13 starts with more than four days rest, Niese's ERA was 4.86 (43 earned runs/79.2 innings).

BASERUNNERS: Niese finished with the fourth-highest WHIP (1.44) in the NL (minimum 140 IP)...Niese's WHIP last season was 1.17.

HOLDING BASERUNNERS: Allowed a stolen base to Michael Bourn in the first inning in his September 7 start against Cleveland, his first stolen base against this season (second attempt)...Allowed his only other one in his last start of the season, when Carlos Gomez swiped second base...Has allowed the eighth-fewest stolen bases (18) in the majors since 2008 (minimum 600 innings).

RBI: Drove home a career-high three runs with a bases-loaded double in the sixth inning on August 27 vs. Philadelphia…Became the 20th Mets pitcher to have at least three RBI in a game and the first since Al Leiter drove in three runs on August 12, 1999 vs. San Diego.

HOME/ROAD: Niese finished the season with a 2.70 ERA (26 earned runs/86.2 innings) in 14 starts at Citi Field, but won three of 14 starts...On the road, Niese went 5-3, with a 5.27 ERA (33 earned runs/56.1 innings) in 10 starts.

NATIONALS PARK: Went 1-0 with a 1.38 ERA (two earned runs/13.0 innings) at Nationals Park this year...Owns a 1.67 (six earned runs/32.1 innings) career ERA at Nationals Park, the second-best in the ballpark's history (min. 30.0 innings).

SURGERY: Underwent Tommy John surgery on August 28 at the Hospital for Special Surgery...Mets Medical Director Dr. David Altchek performed the prodecure...Was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List on August 10 with a partial tear of the MCL in his right elbow...His last start came on August 9 at Arizona.

QUALITY: Allowed two or fewer earned runs in eight straight starts from June 4-July 12, the longest such stretch by a Met since Johan Santana had 13 straight such starts from 2008-2009 and the longest single-season since Masato Yoshii had a nine-game streak in 1999...Hefner's streak of allowing two or fewer earned runs over eight starts was tied for the 10th-longest stretch in team history...14 of his 23 starts were quality starts.

NUMBER ONE: Hefner posted a 1.76 ERA (10 earned runs/51.0 innings) from June 4-July 12, a span of eight starts...His 1.76 ERA was the lowest in the majors during that time...Oakland's Bartolo Colon was second (1.80) and Francisco Liriano was third (1.89).

SCORELESS STREAK: Held the opposition scoreless from the second inning of his start against the Dodgers at Citi Field on April 25 through the eighth inning of his start against the Marlins at Marlins Park on April 30...The 14.0-inning scoreless streak is the longest of Hefner's career and was tied for the longest by a Mets pitcher this season with LaTroy Hawkins.

CAREER HIGHS: Established several career highs during the year, including strikeouts (eight, done twice, last, July 7 at Milwaukee) and winning streak (three games, June 21-July 7)...Equaled his career-best with 8.0 innings on April 30 at Miami.

WITH TWO OUTS: Opposing hitters batted .153 (23-150) against him with two outs...That was the best mark for any pitcher in the majors (minimum 100 batters faced)...His .235 opponent on base percentage with two outs was the third-lowest behind Clayton Kershaw (.218) and Kevin Slowey (.226).

ER/BB STREAK: Hefner was the second starter in franchise history to allow two or fewer earned runs and two or fewer walks in eight straight starts (June 4-July 12)...Only Tom Seaver had a longer such streak, 11 games from July 9-August 25, 1973...Hefner and the Dodgers' Zack Greinke (August 21-September 29) were the only pitchers in the majors to pull off the feat in eight straight starts this season.

HOME RUNS: Hefner was one of 18 NL pitchers to allow at least 20 home runs...Hefner allowed 1.38 home runs per nine innings, the fourth-highest mark in the NL (minimum 100.0 innings) ...Allowed a career-high three home runs on July 24 vs. Atlanta...Allowed seven home runs in his first four starts (April 5-20) and at least one home run in five straight starts (seven home runs total) from July 2-24.

WALKS: Hefner issued only 17 walks in his last 14 starts dating back to May 29 but five of them came at Miami on July 29...During this stretch, Hefner's 3.65 K/BB ratio (62K/17BB)...His July 29 outing snapped a streak of 13 straight starts with two walks or fewer, which was tied for the second-longest Mets streak since 2001...Jonathon Niese went 17 straight starts with no more than two walks in 2012.

JUNE: Posted a 1.80 ERA (six earned runs/30.0 innings) in June, the seventh-best mark in the majors that month...Issued five walks and notched 23 strikeouts.

THE COUNT: After throwing a first-pitch ball, opposing batters hit .326 (56-172) against Hefner, the third-highest mark in the NL...They batted only .211 (58-275) after a first-pitch strike.

TRIO: In his final three starts before the All-Star Break, Hefner became one of three pitchers in this season's first-half to allow fewer than 10 hits in a three-game span in which he went at least 7.0 innings in each start...Matt Harvey (April 3-April 13 and April 8-April 19) and Lance Lynn (April 20-May 1) were the others.

FINAL FIVE: Over his final five starts of the year, Hefner posted a 9.13 ERA (23 earned runs/22.2 innings), going 0-2 from July 19-August 9.

TOUGH START: Allowed a career-high eight runs and equaled his career-high surrendering 10 hits in 2.0 innings of work on July 19 vs. the Phillies...Hefner had allowed 10 earned runs over his previous 51.0 innings in his previous eight starts.

RELIEF OUTING: Made his only relief appearance of the year on April 18 at Colorado...Worked 1.0 innings, allowed two hits (both home runs), two runs, earned, with one strikeout.

#45 ZACK WHEELER (7-5, 3.42) RHP

Height: 6-4 | Weight: 185 pounds | Age: 23 (5/30/90)
Born: Smyrna, GA | Resides: Dallas, GA | Signed Through: 2013

DEBUT: Made his major league debut on June 18 at Atlanta after beginning the year at Las Vegas (AAA) of the Pacific Coast League.

DYNAMIC DEBUT: Became the third pitcher in team history to earn a victory while throwing 6.0 or more shutout innings in his major league debut...The other two: Masato Yoshii on April 5, 1998 vs. Pittsburgh and Dick Rusteck on June 10, 1966 vs. Cincinnati...Matt Harvey tossed 5.1 shutout innings in his debut on July 26, 2012 at Arizona...Wheeler's seven strikeouts tied four others for the fifth-most in a major league debut in franchise history...Trails Harvey (11), Collin McHugh (9), Bill Denehy (8) and Tom Seaver (8).

HISTORIC DEBUT: Wheeler became the 31st pitcher since 1916 to not allow a run and strike out at least seven in his major league debut...Collin McHugh struck out nine in 7.0 shutout innings on August 23, 2012 in his debut against the Rockies at Citi Field...Four weeks earlier, Matt Harvey struck out 11 in 5.1 shutout innings in his debut on July 26, 2012 at Arizona.

WINS: Wheeler won seven of his first 17 major league starts, tied for the seventh-highest total in franchise history with Matt Harvey and Rick Aguilera...Tom Seaver, Dwight Gooden, Octavio Dotel and Gary Gentry are tied for third with eight wins, Dillon Gee is second with nine and Jason Isringhausen is first with 10...The club also went 7-3 in his first 10 starts, tied for the most wins in a starter's first 10 appearances with Jason Isringhausen and Octavio Dotel in franchise history.

BEARING DOWN: In his first two starts, opposing batters were 0 for 19 with men on base against him, which matched the longest streak of hitless at-bats with runners on base to start a career since 1977...Info courtesy of Elias...For the season with men on, the opposition hit .208 (31-149), good for sixth best in the NL.

RISP: Wheeler allowed 14 hits in 81 at-bats with runners in scoring position (.173)...That mark was the third-best mark in the National League from June 18 (Wheeler's debut) through the end of the season...With runners in scoring position and two outs, Wheeler compiled a .128 batting average against (5-39), which was the fifth-lowest total in the NL (min. 39 at-bats against with runners in scoring position).

ROOKIE RANKS: Among rookies, Wheeler ranked tied for the 10th in the majors in wins...From his debut through the end of the season, Wheeler was tied for seventh in wins, was eighth in innings (100.0), tied for fifth in strikeouts (84) and was seventh in ERA (3.42).

JULY SUCCESS: Was the only NL pitcher with at least five July starts and no losses in the month, as he went 3-0 with a 2.73 ERA (nine earned runs/29.2 innings)...The Mets went 5-0 in his July starts.

ON THE ROAD: In nine starts away from Citi Field, Wheeler went 5-1 with a 2.32 ERA (14 earned runs/54.1 innings)...He is only the second rookie in team history to win five consecutive road decisions in one season...Jerry Koosman won his first six road decisions in 1968.

NO-HIT BID: Wheeler's July 30 start at Miami marked the fifth time in 2013 that a Mets pitcher took a no-hit bid into the seventh inning, which was broken up when Ed Lucas singled with one out in the bottom of the seventh inning...Matt Harvey accounted for three of the games and Dillon Gee accounted for one...Wheeler's no-hit bid was the third-longest by a rookie in franchise history...Randy Tate went 7.1 innings against Montreal at Shea Stadium on August 4, 1975 (broken up by a Jim Lyttle single) and Dwight Gooden threw 7.0 hitless innings at Pittsburgh on June 6, 1984 (Doug Frobel single)...Research courtesy of Elias.

12K: On August 15 at San Diego, Wheeler became the eighth Mets rookie to strikeout at least 12 in a game and the first since Dwight Gooden fanned 16 at Philadelphia on September 17, 1984...He is only the 14th rookie pitcher with at least 12 strikeouts in a game since 2003...Wheeler became the 37th pitcher since 1916 and the fourth in franchise history to record 12 strikeouts in one of his first 11 career games...Dwight Gooden, Nolan Ryan and Dick Selma are the other Mets...Wheeler joined Pedro Martinez (April 4, 2005) and Nolan Ryan (August 31, 1971) as the only pitchers in team history to notch 12 or more strikeouts in 6.0 innings or less.

HOME RUNS: Wheeler allowed one home run over his last seven starts, a span of 43.0 innings...For the season, the rookie righthander compiled a 0.90 home runs/nine innings mark, giving up 10 total.

VS. THE NL: Wheeler went 7-3 with a 2.98 ERA (28 earned runs/84.2 innings) in 14 starts against the National League...In comparison, went 0-2 with a 5.87 ERA (10 earned runs/15.1 innings) in interleague play.

HITS: Allowed no more than seven hits in each of his first 15 starts, the third longest streak of its kind to begin a career for a Mets pitcher...Nolan Ryan (32 starts) and John Pacella (18) are the only with longer streaks.

AT THE PLATE: Collected his first major league hit, single, on July 5 at Milwaukee...Notched his first major league RBI, July 10 at San Francisco.

#38 SHAUN MARCUM (1-10, 5.29) RHP

Height: 6-0	Weight: 195 pounds	Age: 31(12/14/81)
Born: Kansas City, MO	Resides: Excelsior, MO	Signed Through: 2013

INJURY: His season ended with surgery...On July 10 in St. Louis, he underwent a procedure for thoracic outlet syndrome...Dr. Robert Thompson performed the procedure...The Mets had placed him on the 15-Disabled List on July 9...Was unconditionally released on July 23.

DISABLED LIST: Began the year on the 15-Day Disabled List with right biceps tendinitis...Activated on April 27.

DEBUT: Made his first Mets start on April 27 and lost, 9-4, to the Phillies at home…In 4.0 innings, he allowed three earned runs on five hits with two walks and three strikeouts.

TWO ROLES: Was 0-2 with a 2.79 ERA in two games in relief (three earned runs in 9.2 innings) and 1-8 with a 5.64 ERA in 12 games as a starter (43 earned runs in 68.2 innings).

RELIEF LOSSES: Both of his losses as a reliever came in extra inning games against Miami…Lost, 4-3, in 15 innings on April 29…Allowed two runs in 1.2 innings...Dropped a 2-1, 20-inning decision at Citi on June 8…Went 8.0 innings and permitted one run on five hits, with no walks and seven strikeouts…The eight innings were the most a Mets pitcher had worked in relief since Gerard Cram pitched 8.0 innings September 11,1979 vs. St. Louis.

0-9: Became the third pitcher in franchise history to start a season 0-9...The others were Anthony Young (0-13, 1993) and Bob Mittler (0-12, 1962)...Also became the 12th pitcher in team history to suffer a nine-game losing streak.

WIN: Picked up his lone win of the year when he went 8.0-shutout innings, allowing four hits and two walks to turn back the White Sox, 3-0.

STRONG START: Had a no-decision at home, May 26 vs. the Braves…In 7.0 innings, he gave up two runs on four hits with no walks and a career-best 12 strikeouts...It was his fourth double-digit strikeout game of his career...His previous best was 11 strikeouts, June 16, 2007 with Toronto at Washington.

WINNING PERCENTAGE: In 12 starts, Marcum had a .091 winning percentage, the lowest percentage among all major league pitchers (minimum 10 decisions).

#52 CARLOS TORRES (4-6, 3.44) RHP

Height: 6-1	Weight: 185 pounds	Age: 30 (10/22/82)
Born: Santa Cruz, CA	Resides: Kansas City, MO	Signed Through: 2013

SEASON RECAP: Set major league career-highs with 33 appearances and nine starts after starting the year with Las Vegas (AAA) of the Pacific Coast League...The Mets selected his contract on June 15.

AS A STARTER: Went 3-5 with a 4.89 ERA (27 earned runs/49.2 innings) in nine starts...Allowed three runs or less in seven of the starts and one run in three of them...Allowed 11 of his 15 home runs while in the rotation and struck out better than a batter per inning (50 strikeouts/49.2 innings) as a starter.

SUCCESS AS A RELIEVER: Went 1-1 with a 1.47 ERA (six earned runs/36.2 innings) in 24 games out of the bullpen...Among pitchers who tossed at least 35.0 innings in relief, his 1.47 ERA was the 10th-lowest mark in the majors and the fourth-lowest mark in the National League...His .203 batting average against as a reliever was also 18th best in the NL, while his strikeout to walk ratio (5.00; 25 strikeouts/five walks) was eighth-best...Compiled a 7.85 baserunners per nine innings mark working out of the bullpen, the best in the NL.

MORE AS A RELIEVER: Allowed a run in only five appearances out of the bullpen...Got four outs or more as a reliever a team-high 15 times, and did not allow an earned run in 12 of those appearances...Did not allow an earned run over 18.1 relief innings from June 25-August 10.

AT CITI FIELD: Posted a 2.66 ERA (14 earned runs/47.1 innings) in 17 games, five starts at Citi Field...In comparison, went 1-3 with a 4.38 ERA (19 earned runs/39.0 innings) in 16 games, four starts on the road.

SITUATIONAL STATS: Opponents hit just .208 (26-125) against Torres with runners on base, with 30 strikeouts and 10 walks...Prior to 2013, opponents had hit .280 (51-182) against Torres with runners on, with 37 strikeouts and 26 walks.

EARLY SUCCESS: In Torres' first 11 appearances this season, he only allowed one earned run, a walk-off home run to Kevin Frandsen in Philadelphia on June 22.

DEEP INTO GAMES: Torres went at least 6.0 innings in six of his nine starts...Tossed 7.0 innings on September 3 at Atlanta, tying his career-high (also, September 3, 2009, Chicago-AL at Chicago-NL).

STRIKEOUTS: Struck out a career-high eight on September 14 vs. Miami...From August 29 through the end of the season, had 41 total strikeouts which ranked fourth in the NL...Compiled a 9.80 K/9, which ranked seventh-best in the league during that span.

HOME RUNS: Allowed four home runs on September 9 vs. Washington...Became the first Mets pitcher to allow four home runs in a game since Johan Santana gave up four at Yankee Stadium, June 8, 2012...Torres became the second Mets pitcher to surrender four at Citi Field; Santana allowed four in a 6-5 win over Philadelphia on June 9, 2009.

MORE HOME RUNS: Allowed 15 home runs in 86.1 innings, including nine in September, which tied for the second most in the majors and one behind the lead (Bronson Arroyo)...His home run rate per nine innings was 1.56, the eighth-highest mark in the majors among pitchers who threw at least 85.0 innings.

MINORS: During his time at AAA Las Vegas, Torres was used exclusively as a starter...Had a 6-3 record with a 3.89 ERA (31 earned runs/71.2 innings pitched)...Earned Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week on June 10 after throwing back-to-back complete games, giving up only one run in 18.0 innings and striking out 15...He won each of his last five starts in Las Vegas, posting a 1.67 ERA (seven earned runs/37.2 innings pitched) over that stretch...Recorded quality starts in five of his final six starts in the minors and pitched at least 6.0 innings in all six.

SCORELESS: Went a career-high 11.1 scoreless innings from June 25-July 9.

#16 DAISUKE MATSUZAKA (3-3, 4.42) RHP

Height: 6-0	Weight: 185 pounds	Age: 32 (9/13/80)
Born: Tokyo, Japan	Resides: Tokyo, Japan	Signed Through: 2013

SEASON RECAP: Joined the Mets on August 22 after pitching with Columbus (AAA) of the International League in Cleveland's organization...Asked for, and was granted, his unconditional release on August 20...Signed a one-year contract with the Mets on August 22 and made seven starts with the team.

LAST FOUR: Matsuzaka compiled a 1.37 ERA (four earned runs/26.1 innings) and a 3-0 record over his final four starts of the season...Struck out 21 and walked nine.

FIRST THREE: Lost his first three starts with the Mets, allowing 15 earned runs over 12.1 innings (10.95 ERA)...Walked seven and allowed 19 hits and three home runs.

FIRST WIN: Beat the Marlins, 3-1, on September 14 at Citi Field...It was his first win since August 27, 2012, while with Boston vs. Kansas City...Went 0-7 with a 12.86 ERA (40 earned runs/28.0 innings) in eight starts between wins.

JAPANESE METS: Matsuzaka became the eighth Japanese-born pitcher to win a game for the Mets...He also became the 12th Japanese-born player to appear in at least one game with the Mets.

RANKINGS AMONG JAPANESE-BORN PITCHERS: This season, Matsuzaka surpased Tomo Ohka for third among Japanese-born pitchers with 53 career major league wins...Trails Hideo Nomo (123) and Hiroki Kuroda (68)...Has the third-most strikeouts (642) and walks (337)...Ranks fourth among Japanese-born pitchers with 123 games started and and sixth with 707.0 innings.

FINAL START: Went 7.2 shutout innings in his final start of the season on September 25 at Cincinnati...Won, 1-0, in his longest outing since going 8.0 innings on April 23, 2011 with Boston at Los Angeles-AL

PITCHES: Matsuzaka threw 292 pitches in 20.2 innings over his final three starts, an average of 14.45 pitches per inning...In his first four starts with the Mets, the righthander averaged 20.61 pitches per inning (371 pitches/18 innings)...On his August 28 start, Matsuzaka became the second pitcher in the majors this season and the second pitcher in Mets' history to throw at least 110 pitches while recording 13 outs or less...Houston's Lucas Harrell threw 112 pitches in 4.1 innings on April 7 against Oakland...The only other Met to do so was Tom Glavine, who also needed 110 pitches to get through 4.1 innings of a 9-7 Mets victory over the Phillies on June 13, 2006.

2013 MINORS: Made 19 starts this season for Columbus...In his first 10 starts, he pitched at least 6.0 innings only once, but in his final nine starts he pitched at least 7.0 innings seven times...Matsuzaka allowed one earned run in five of his final eight starts...Did not allow more than three walks in any of his last 16 starts...In total, he struck out 95 and walked 39, while sporting an 8.3 K/9...Opponents batted .245 (93-380).

WALKS: Walked 16 in 38.2 innings this past season, and since his debut in 2007, Matsuzaka has a 4.29 BB/9 ratio, the third-highest mark in the majors (minimum 700 IP)...Only Jonathan Sanchez (4.99) and Edinson Volquez (4.72) have higher walk rates...The 16 walks from the time of his Mets debut through the end of the season tied for the eighth most in the NL.

#58 JENRRY MEJIA (1-2, 2.30) RHP

Height: 6-0 Weight: 204 pounds Age: 23 (10/11/89)
Born: Tabara Arriba, Azua, Dominican Republic Resides: Santo Domingo, DR
Signed Through: 2013

2013 SUCCESS: Mejia finished with a 2.30 ERA (seven earned runs/27.1 innings), 1.17 WHIP and 6.75 K/BB ratio (27K/4BB) in five starts for the Mets...The 6.75 K/BB was the seventh-best mark in the majors among qualified pitchers during Mejia's time at the big league level (July 26-August 17)...Three of Mejia's five outings this past season were quality starts.

INJURY: Was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List with inflammation in his right elbow on March 31...Transferred to the 60-Day DL on May 13...Returned from his rehabiliation assignment and reinstated from the DL on July 26...Returned to the 15-Day Disabled List on August 18 with a bone spur in his right elbow...He underwent surgery on August 28...Dr. David Altchek performed the surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery...Moved to the 60-Day Disabled List on September 7.

NEW HIGHS: Mejia tossed at least 5.1 innings in four of his five starts...Prior to this season, he had not pitched more than 5.0 innings in any of his six career starts...Mejia struck out at least four in each of his five outings...Prior to 2013, had only struck out at least four batters in one of his first 37 career appearances...Also fanned a career-high seven twice (July 26 and August 6).

FEWER BALLS: Mejia walked four batters in five starts, after walking multiple batters in five of his first six career starts...Only 14 of the 112 batters (12.5%) Mejia faced went to three-ball counts...Coming into this season, he threw three balls to 58 of the 257 hitters (22.6%) he faced.

RISP: Opposing hitters went 2-16 (.125) against Mejia with runners in scoring position this season...In his career, he has held opponents to a .222 (20-90) batting average in those situations.

GROUNDBALLS: Got 47 groundballs and 19 flyballs, a 71.2% GB/FB rate...His career rate is 73.7% (168/60)...Since 2010, when Mejia entered the league, the league leader in that category, Charlie Morton, owns a 76.0% mark.

DOMINANT DEBUT: Struck out seven over 7.0 scoreless innings to win his season debut, 11-0, on July 26 at Washington...Mejia's 2013 debut was one of 10 times this season that a Mets pitcher finished a game with at least 7.0 shutout innings...It was one of three Mets outings that included at least seven strikeouts and no walks and one of 38 in the majors...Matt Harvey had the other two for the Mets...His outing was one of 11 this season by a Mets pitcher with at least seven strikeouts and no walks.

YOUTH: In his season debut on July 26 at Washington, Mejia became the youngest Mets pitcher (23 years, 288 days) to toss 7.0 shutout innings with no walks and at least seven strikeouts since Jason Isringhausen threw a shutout against the Marlins as a 23-year old (276 days) on June 9, 1996...The only other Mets pitcher younger than Mejia to record 7.0 shutout innings over that span was Jonathon Niese, who did it twice: first as a 21-year-old on September 13, 2008 and then again as a 23-year-old on June 10, 2010.

2013 MINORS: Began a rehab assignment on June 29 and appeared in four games between the Gulf Cost League Mets and Binghamton Mets, compiling a 1.67 ERA (three earned runs/16.2 innings pitched), including a 0.82 ERA (one earned run/11.0 innings pitched) with Binghamton (AA) of the Eastern League...Struck out eight batters in 6.0 innings in his final appearance before his promotion.

#44 AARON HARANG (5-12, 5.40) RHP

Born: San Diego, CA	Resides: San Diego, CA	Signed Through: 2013

SPLIT SEASON: Made 22 appearances, all starts, for Seattle before finishing the season with New York...The Mets signed Harang to a minor league contract on September 1, 2013, one day after he was released by the Mariners, and assigned him to Las Vegas (AAA) of the Pacific Coast League...He joined the Mets, his sixth major league club, on September 9.

2013 WITH SEATTLE: In 22 appearances, all starts, Harang went 5-11 with a 5.76 ERA (77 earned runs/120.1 innings)...He allowed 81 runs, 77 earned, and 133 hits...Struck out 87 and walked 28.

2013 WITH NEW YORK: In four games with the Mets, went 0-1 with a 3.52 ERA (nine earned runs/23.0 innings)...Struck out 26, walked 12 and allowed 20 hits.

STRIKEOUTS: Struck out 10 in his Mets debut, September 12, vs. Washington, his 13th double-digit strikeout game and second this season (also, June 11 vs. Houston)…Harang became the third Mets pitcher to strike out double digits in his debut for the team…Matt Harvey struck out 11 in his major league debut on July 26, 2012…Pedro Martinez was the first when he fanned 12 on April 4, 2005 at Cincinnati.

MORE STRIKEOUTS: After joining the Mets on September 12 through the end of the season, struck out 26 hitters, tied for the sixth-most in baseball and tied for the second-most in the NL in that timeframe.

SHUTOUTS: Harang was one of 11 major leaguers to pitch at least two complete game shutouts, the second time in his career he has done so...Also tossed two shutouts in 2006...He beat San Diego, 9-0, on May 27 at home and then blanked Houston, 4-0, also at Safeco Field...His eight shutouts since the start of the 2004 season are tied for seventh most in the majors over that span.

LOTS OF STARTS: Since 2004, Harang has started 289 games, ninth-most in the majors in that time...Started 267 games in the NL, the most during of any pitcher in that span.

HOME RUNS: Gave up five home runs with the Mets, including three in his debut...Became one of four Mets pitchers to surrender three home runs in their debut with the team...Steve Trachsel (2001), Brian Rose (2001) and Mike Birkbeck (1992) also did it.

MORE HOME RUNS: Among pitchers who threw at least 140.0 innings, Harang had the highest HR/9 (1.63) in the majors...Gave up 26 long balls this season.

LAS VEGAS: Harang made one regular season appearance for the Las Vegas 51s on September 2...Pitched 4.0 innings in relief, allowed two runs, earned, and seven hits...Struck out five, walked one and left the game with the score tied at three...He then started Game Four of Las Vegas' playoff series against Salt Lake on September 7 and had a no-decision in the 51s' season-ending loss...Pitched 6.0 innings, allowed three runs, earned, and six hits...Struck out six and walked two in the 100-pitch outing.
