

2012 Mets MEDIA GUIDE

IN MEMORY OF

GARY CARTER

1954-2012

His nickname 'Kid' captured how Gary Carter approached life. He did everything with enthusiasm and with gusto on and off the field. His smile was infectious. Gary guided the Mets young pitching staff to the World Series title in 1986 and he devoted an equal amount of time and energy raising awareness for a multitude of charities and community causes.

Gary Carter was a Hall of Famer in everything he did.

He will be dearly missed.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Driven by ownership, the Mets follow the top-down philosophy of "Doing Well While Doing Good" to give back to the community through multiple platforms and initiatives throughout the year in and around New York. Ownership, players, executives and front-office staff leverage the appeal of the Mets to positively impact organizations and individuals in our hometown by addressing social, cultural and educational needs. The Mets work with community members, sponsors and partners on a variety of programs involving schools, libraries, hospital and youth baseball leagues.

Mets FOUNDATION

The New York Mets Foundation funds and promotes a variety of educational, social and athletic programs and other charitable causes. Founded in 1963, it continues its mission to invest in the future of our community, and to provide assistance to myriad organizations that benefit children and others in need. A registered 501© 3 charity, the Mets Foundation takes no portion of the funds raised to offset internal costs. The New York Mets pay 100% of the Foundation's overhead to ensure that the entirety of a donation is directed toward helping others.

TeamMets

TeamMets is a community volunteerism initiative that uses the interest in the Mets and their players to encourage fans to join the team in helping others. Members of the Mets front office donate their time to events during the year, working with organizations such as City Harvest, New York Cares, the New York Blood Center and the Everybody Wins! Foundation. Fans are directed to NYCService.org, Mayor Bloomberg's volunteer initiative, which promotes service and directs volunteers to a multitude of opportunities to donate their time.

TEAMMATES
Mets IN THE COMMUNITY citi

Teammates in the Community Week is one of several community-based initiatives developed by the Mets and Citi to positively impact our hometown. The 2011 Teammates Week honored our nation's military through a series of events attended by Mets General Manager Sandy Alderson, who served in the Marines for four years, Manager Terry Collins, players, front-office staff and Citi Executives.

The week began with a Memorial Day ceremony at the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum and continued with a visit to the Empire State Building, a softball tournament at Citi Field with members of the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines and Coast Guard, a wheelchair softball exhibition in the Citi Field parking lot featuring veterans and a visit to a Veterans Hospital.

Mets General Manager Sandy Alderson, Mike Pelfrey and Justin Turner visited the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum for a Memorial Day ceremony last May.

FUNDRAISING

A NIGHT TO BELIEVE

The Mets hosted their annual Night to Believe fundraiser in the Big Apple section of Citi Field to benefit Project ALS, a non-profit organization renowned for their outstanding leadership in finding and funding treatments and a cure for Lou Gehrig's disease. Mets great John Franco and Mr. Met were part of a pre-game reception in celebration of the more than $200,000 raised in 2011 and $1.7 million over the past nine years. This year's Night to Believe is scheduled for Friday, June 1.

RONALD McDONALD HOUSE

The Mets have partnered with the Ronald McDonald House for the past seven years to raise over $200,000 through an "Evening with the Mets" fundraiser at Citi Field. This year's event in the Empire Party Suites raised $24,000 for the House, which is a home-away-from-home for families of seriously ill children undergoing medical treatment.

STARLIGHT NIGHT AT CITI FIELD

The Mets have partnered with ARAMARK the past nine years to raise $1.2 million for the Starlight Children's Foundation, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for children who suffer from critical, chronic and life-threatening illnesses. The 2011 event raised $120,000 as the Mets donated the tickets and ARAMARK provided catering for 850 people in the Big Apple section of Citi Field. This year's Starlight Night is schedule for Monday, June 25.

WELCOME HOME DINNER

The Mets hold their annual Welcome Home Dinner at the start of the season to celebrate the return of the team to New York. Attended by the players, coaches and the rest of the organization, the event features a fundraising auction, raffle and an autograph session. This year's gala, scheduled for Thursday, April 5 at the Hilton New York, will once again benefit The Katz Institute for Women's Health and Katz Women's Hospitals of the North Shore-LIJ Health System and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

EDUCATION

ANTI-BULLYING

The Mets launched an anti-bullying public service awareness campaign in partnership with NYC Council Member, Julissa Ferreras (21st District), designed to educate and support our children about all forms of bullying. The content of the PSA's, featuring David Wright, Daniel Murphy, R.A. Dickey and Jason Bay, was developed in conjunction with StopBullying.gov and was aired during the Mets games and on SNY.

CITI FIELD KIDS

Citi Field Kids is an educational and motivational program for New York City school students conducted during games at Citi Field. The community-based initiative, developed by Citi in collaboration with the Jackie Robinson Foundation, United Neighborhood Houses, the YMCA of Greater New York and the Mets, seeks to positively impact middle and high school students through the nine values and ideals of Jackie Robinson. The program, which launched on Jackie Robinson Day April 15, 2009, begins with a pre-game private tour of the Jackie Robinson Rotunda led by a Jackie Robinson Foundation scholar followed by guest speakers from the Mets and Citi in the auditorium before an afternoon of baseball.

Terry Collins meets with Citi Field Kids.

JACKIE ROBINSON FOUNDATION

The Mets and Citi have built on the team's longstanding relationship with the Jackie Robinson Foundation to support its education and leadership development program. The Foundation provides extensive mentoring and scholarships for college students who exemplify Jackie's humanitarian ideals and standard of excellence. The Mets established an endowed scholarship with the Foundation in 1996, which is created in perpetuity to assist promising students in reaching their goals through a college education.

NUTRITION AND FITNESS DAY

More than 7,000 students from the tri-state area were treated to a one-hour educational program on the Mets' annual Fitness & Nutrition Education Day. Mets players, trainers, and PIX 11's Dr. Steve talked to students about leading a healthy lifestyle and the importance of exercise. At the conclusion of the program, the students stayed at Citi Field to watch the game.

POWER LUNCH

Since 2000 Mets employees have visited P.S. 92 in Corona, Queens, to read books and share lunch with the same fourth or fifth grader every week from November through May. The visits are coordinated by the Everybody Wins! Foundation, a leading non-profit literacy and mentoring organization that pairs caring adult volunteers with children in elementary schools for weekly reading aloud and conversation. The Mets add a Reading Rally led by a Mets player for the entire student body and an annual fourth grade field trip to Citi Field for a game.

STUDENT ATHLETE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE SERIES

The Mets/Sharp Electronics Student Athlete Leadership Conference Series trains more than 1,200 student/athletes from 35 high schools on Long Island to become positive mentors to elementary school children. The workshops prepare the Student Athlete Leaders for their ongoing visits with fifth graders in their school districts to promote positive activities such as sports while delivering drug and alcohol abuse prevention and antibullying messaging.

WEATHER EDUCATION DAY

The Mets and broadcast television partner PIX 11 team up each spring to provide an educational and entertaining field trip for students prior to a weekday game at Citi Field. PIX 11 weather experts, Mr. G and Linda Church, join Mets players for the pre-game event followed by an afternoon of baseball.

HELPING HANDS

AMAZIN' CALLS

Amazin' Calls, presented by Verizon, is a unique program that connects Mets players personally with the public. Throughout the season, the Mets host a guest at Citi Field who has been called by a Mets player in the days leading up to the game. The thrill of speaking with a player is just the start for our VIP, who will then meet him on the field, watch the game from field level seats, and see their name in lights on the scoreboard. Guests are chosen for a variety of reasons, such as a 'thank you' for an extraordinary accomplishment or to provide a respite from a challenging illness or personal loss. They all can look forward to a day at the ballpark just for them.

BLOOD DRIVES

The Mets and longtime partners at the New York Blood Center host an annual Winter and Summer Blood Drive in the Caesars Club at Citi Field. A combined 1,085 pints collected in the two 2011 drives earned the Mets the Blood Center's prestigious Diamond Award for the third consecutive year. Each donor received a pair of tickets to a Mets game. Since 2009 and the opening of Citi Field, Mets fans have donated 3,500 pints of blood in the support of the Center's mission.

COAT DRIVE

HOLIDAY PARTY FOR KIDS

The Acela Club became the North Pole as the Mets hosted their annual Holiday Party for Kids at Citi Field. In keeping with a decades-long tradition, Daniel Murphy played Santa and his elves, Jonathan Niese and Justin Turner, helped hand out gifts that had been selected and wrapped by Mets employees.

KIDS DAY AT CITI FIELD

A special day takes place once each summer when the Mets take to the road. The grounds crew host their annual Kids Day at Citi Field for children and families served by The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. The grounds crew taught the children how to drag the infield, put the bases in place and take a home run trot. After a lunch break in the Modell's Clubhouse, Justin Turner treated the children to a baseball clinic on the field.

PLAY BALL

GREATER NEW YORK SANDLOT ATHLETIC ALLIANCE

The Mets provide support to the Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance (GNYSAA) for citywide tournaments and programs including the organization's annual All-Star Games at MCU Park, home of the Brooklyn Cyclones. The GNYSAA serves as an umbrella organization to several metropolitan amateur baseball organizations representing 20,000 young people and 1,100 teams each year.

Tom Seaver throws out the ceremonial first pitch of the Major League Wheelchair Softball Tournament at Citi Field.

MAJOR LEAGUE WHEELCHAIR SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

The Mets have hosted their annual Major League Wheelchair Softball Tournament (MLWST) at Shea Stadium and Citi Field since 2001, with the exception of 2011 when the National Wheelchair Softball Tournament was staged in New York for the first time. In partnership with United Spinal Association, New York City's Parks Department, Major League Baseball and the Wheelchair Sports Federation, the MLWST attracts as many as eight teams affiliated with an MLB franchise to New York in September for this two-day competition in Lot A of Citi Field.

YMCA JR. METS

The Mets Foundation sponsors the YMCA Jr. Mets, a comprehensive youth baseball program that emphasizes athletic and social skills as well as teaching how to improve health and wellness. The YMCA Jr. Mets program is an eight-week initiative that has introduced thousands of young people to baseball since its inception in 2001. The Mets provide members with tickets, caps and arrange for a player and coach to lead a baseball clinic at a YMCA site and at Citi Field.

STRIKING OUT HUNGER

CITY HARVEST

The Mets support City Harvest's effort to feed the hungry of New York City. In September members of the Mets Alumni Association presented by Citi and Citi employees repacked 25,000 pounds of potatoes on Mets Plaza before the game. Repacks ease the distribution process of food to more than 600 community food programs and thousands of families.

HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

The New York Mets, Goya Foods and City Harvest hosted a Holiday food Drive at Citi Field. Fans who donated 10 items of nutritious food received a pair of tickets to a 2012 Mets game and a discount for the Mets Team Store. Ike Davis and Lucas Duda stopped by to show appreciation to the many fans who participated.

ISLAND HARVEST

For eight years the Mets have shown their support for Island Harvest with a fundraiser at the ballpark, raising almost $200,000 for Long Island's largest hunger relief organization. Island Harvest distributes surplus food to 500 community food programs.

ROCK & WRAP IT UP!

Since 2006, the Mets and ARAMARK have helped Rock & Wrap It Up! collect unsold food at Shea Stadium and Citi Field for delivery to area food kitchens to help feed the hungry. The Mets expanded their partnership with Rock & Wrap It Up! in 2010 by launching the Snack Wrap program that encourages students in Long Island schools to donate unopened snacks for the needy.

MLB PARTNERSHIPS

B.A.T. (BASEBALL ASSISTANCE TEAM)

Founded in 1986, B.A.T. is dedicated to assisting members of the Baseball Family in need of medical, financial and psychological assistance with nowhere else to turn. Major League Baseball covers the operating expenses so that every dollar raised is a dollar used to help someone in need. The majority of the funds raised by B.A.T. come from the players who contribute through a payroll deduction program. In 2011 the players contributed more than $2.1 million.

EQUIPMENT COLLECTION DAY

To support the growth of youth baseball and softball, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund (BTF) has teamed up with MLB Baseball Clubs to organize equipment collection drives across the United States. The Mets have collected over 1,000 baseball and softball bats, gloves, balls and catcher's gear the past five seasons to benefit The Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance, which distributes the donations to area youth baseball organizations. The BTF also presents a grant of $5,000 to go toward the purchase of additional equipment.

FATHER'S DAY – PROSTATE CANCER FOUNDATION

Major League Baseball teams up with the Prostate Cancer Foundation to increase awareness and early detection of prostate cancer on Father's Day. On-field personnel wear blue wristbands, eye glare and ribbon uniform decals, while blue ribbon logos appear on bases, commemorative home plates and lineup cards. A "Home Run Challenge" fundraising component is implemented during select MLB games to benefit the Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Ike Davis gives Linda LaCugna, 2011 Honorary Bat Girl, a close up look at first base.

MOTHER'S DAY – SUSAN G. KOMEN FOR THE CURE

Major League Baseball and its 30 clubs join Susan G. Komen for the Cure each year for "Going to Bat Against Breast Cancer," a program that incorporates numerous facets of the game on and off the field to generate awareness about breast cancer and raise funds to help fight the disease. Mother's Day games feature an Honorary Bat Girl, special in-park programs and a 'pink theme' throughout, including many players using pink bats.

PITCH, HIT & RUN

Aquafina MLB Pitch, Hit and Run -- the official skills competition of Major League Baseball -- is a free grass roots program which encourages youth participation and emphasizes the fun of baseball. The competitor's ability to hit, run and throw is tested at regional trials and compared with others in his or her age group across the United States to qualify for the National Finals held during Major League Baseball's All-Star Game. The Mets host an on-field regional competition at Citi Field and recognize the local winners in a pre-game ceremony.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award, presented by Chevy, recognizes the player in Major League Baseball who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. In September, a nominee from each of the 30 MLB teams is announced on Roberto Clemente Day, which was established by MLB in 2002 to pay homage to the Hall of Famer's legacy. The Mets' 2011 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award was Mike Pelfrey.

R.A. Dickey presents the "Veteran of the Game" with an American flag.

WELCOME BACK VETERANS

Mets Chairman & CEO Fred Wilpon and private citizens created Welcome Back Veterans, a national public awareness and fundraising initiative that addresses the mental health and employment needs of America's returning war veterans and their families. Major League Baseball, Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Entertainment Industry Foundation and the McCormick Foundation support the program, which provides returning veterans the quality medical treatment they deserve. The Mets salute a "Veteran of the Game" at each home game at Citi Field throughout the season.

The circular Mets logo was unveiled on November 16, 1961 and has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back National League baseball to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, it has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

TOP TRADES IN METS HISTORY

GARY CARTER ACQUIRED FROM THE MONTREAL EXPOS FOR THIRD BASEMAN HUBIE BROOKS, CATCHER MIKE FITZGERALD, OUTFIELDER HERM WINNINGHAM AND PITCHER FLOYD YOUMANS ON DECEMBER 12, 1984

It didn't take Gary Carter long to prove the value of the five-player trade with the Montreal Expos. In his first game as a Met, Carter hit a solo home run in the 10th inning against the Cardinals' Neil Allen at Shea to give the Mets a 6-5 victory. Things would only get better. New York averaged 97 wins a season during Gary's five-year tenure with the Mets (1985-1989), including a World Championship in 1986 and a Division title in 1988.

Some of his Mets' highlights include:

- Hit three home runs in San Diego on September 3, 1985.
- Had two game-winning RBI during the League Championship Series victory over Houston in 1986.
- Cracked two home runs in the Game Four 1986 World Series triumph over the Red Sox.
- Started the rally in the 10th inning in Game Six of the 1986 World Series vs. Boston with a two-out single.
- Won the 1989 Roberto Clemente Award from Major League Baseball for his charitable efforts.
- Inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 2001 and the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003.

The Carter trade is generally regarded as the final piece in the Mets' road to the World Series crown in 1986. Here are some comments on what his acquisition meant:

GENERAL MANGER FRANK CASHEN: "The genesis of the trade was that we wanted to add a big bat to the lineup. He did that right away, but perhaps more importantly was the way he handled our young pitchers (Gooden, Darling, Fernandez). He was the perfect guy for so many reasons."

MANAGER DAVEY JOHNSON: "Gary was a one-man scouting system. What people didn't know was that he kept an individual book on every batter in the National League. He was the ideal catcher for our young pitching staff."

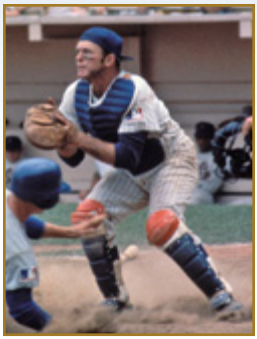

BOBBY OJEDA: "He brought an intensity and commitment to the ball club. He wanted every starting pitcher to win every game. He wanted you to do well no matter what he did at the plate that day."

DARRYL STRAWBERRY: "What he added to the team was character. His approach to the game was contagious. It spread to the rest of us. He helped each of us understand what it took to win."

RON DARLING: "Gary was our rudder. We had a lot of interesting characters on that 1986 team and Gary was one of the guys who helped hold everything together. We pitchers relied on him so much. In this era, coaches and scouts provide reports to the players. Well, Gary basically did that all by himself. He was our eyes and ears."

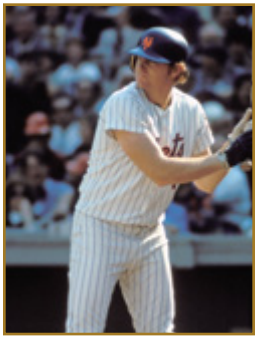

DWIGHT GOODEN: "I relied on Gary for everything when I was on the mound: location, what pitch to throw and when. Even when I didn't have my best stuff, he found a way to get me through the game. He was just a warrior on the field."

JERRY GROTE ACQUIRED FROM THE HOUSTON ASTROS FOR PITCHER TOM PARSONS ON OCTOBER 19, 1965.

Grote was a two-time All-Star who went on to play 12 seasons with the Mets. He anchored the pitching staffs of the 1969 World Series Champions and the 1973 National League Pennant Winners. He was one of the top defensive catchers in the game, leading the NL catchers in fielding percentage in 1975.

AL LEITER ALONG WITH INFIELDER RALPH MILLIARD ACQUIRED FROM THE FLORIDA MARLINS FOR PITCHERS A.J. BURNETT AND JESUS SANCHEZ AND OUTFIELDER ROBERT STRATTON ON FEBRUARY 6, 1998.

Leiter pitched the Mets into the postseason for the first time in 11 years in 1999 when he hurled a two-hit, complete-game shutout to turn back the Reds, 5-0 in a one-game playoff. In 2000, Al went 16-8 with 200 strikeouts and an All-Star selection as the Mets won their fourth National League pennant.

RUSTY STAUB ACQUIRED FROM THE MONTREAL EXPOS FOR OUTFIELDER KEN SINGLETON, INFIELDER TIM FOLI AND FIRST BASEMAN MIKE JORGENSEN ON APRIL 5, 1972.

Staub helped the Mets return to the World Series in 1973 where he hit .423. He collected three home runs in the 1973 National League Championship Series vs. the Reds. In 1975, he became the first Mets player with 100 RBI in a season.

HOWARD JOHNSON ACQUIRED FROM THE DETROIT TIGERS FOR PITCHER WALT TERRELL ON DECEMBER 7, 1984.

Johnson became the only Met to lead the National League in RBI in 1991. He was a three-time member of the 30-30 club (1987, 1989 and 1991). Johnson won two silver slugger awards (1989 and 1991) and was selected to two All-Star Games (1989, 1991).

DONN CLENDENON ACQUIRED FROM THE MONTREAL EXPOS FOR PITCHER STEVE RENKO, INFIELDER KEVIN COLLINS AND MINOR LEAGUE PITCHERS JAY CARDEN AND DAVE COLON ON JUNE 15, 1969.

Clendenon compiled a .357 batting average with three home runs and was named the World Series Most Valuable Player as the Mets won the title in five games from the Orioles in 1969. He helped the Mets win 39 of their last 50 games to finish with 100 victories for the regular season.

KEITH HERNANDEZ ACQUIRED FROM THE ST. LOUIS CARDINALS FOR PITCHERS NEIL ALLEN AND RICK OWNBEY ON JUNE 15, 1983.

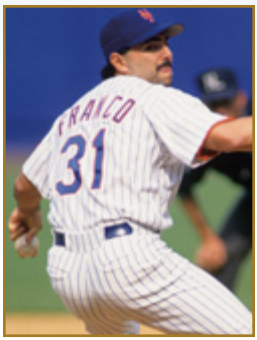

Hernandez went on to be the captain of the Mets. His leadership, clutch hitting and defense helped turn around the fortunes of the franchise, culminating with the 1986 World Series Championship. Had three RBI in Game Seven of the '86 Series. The slick-fielding first baseman earned 11 straight Gold Glove Awards.

JESSE OROSCO ACQUIRED FROM THE MINNESOTA TWINS FOR PITCHER JERRY KOOSMAN AND MINOR LEAGUE PITCHER GREG FIELD ON DECEMBER 8, 1978. OROSCO IS SENT AS THE PLAYER TO BE NAMED LATER ON FEBRUARY 7, 1979.

Orosco won three games against the Astros in the 1986 League Championship Series and saved two more contests in the World Series that year against Boston...Made two All-Star teams in 1983 and 1984.

JOHN FRANCO AND OUTFIELDER DON BROWN ACQUIRED FROM THE CINCINNATI REDS FOR PITCHERS RANDY MYERS AND KIP GROSS ON DECEMBER 6, 1989.

Franco pitched for the Mets from 1990-2004 and amassed 276 saves, tops in club history. Franco's 424 career saves are the fourth-most all-time and most by a lefthanded pitcher. He was the team captain from 2001-2004. Franco made the 1990 All-Star team with the Mets.

MIKE PIAZZA ACQUIRED FROM THE FLORIDA MARLINS FOR OUTFIELDER PRESTON WILSON AND PITCHERS GEOFF GOETZ AND ED YARNALL ON MAY 22, 1998.

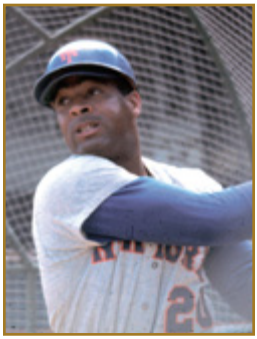

Piazza helped lead the Mets to the postseason in consecutive years for the first time in franchise history (1999 and 2000 World Series). On May 5, 2004, he surpassed Carlton Fisk for most home runs by a catcher (352). Piazza was a six-time All-Star with New York and also won four Silver Slugger Awards.

TOMMIE AGEE AND AL WEIS ACQUIRED FROM THE CHICAGO WHITE SOX FOR PITCHERS JACK FISHER AND BILLY WYNNE, INFIELDER TOMMY DAVIS AND CATCHER BUDDY BOOKER ON DECEMBER 15, 1967.

Agee batted .357 to spark the Mets to a three-game sweep over the Atlanta Braves in the 1969 League Championship Series. He saved five runs with two electrifying catches (Elrod Hendricks and Paul Blair) to help preserve the Mets' 5-0 win over the Orioles in Game Three of the 1969 World Series. Agee also led off that game with a home run.

Weis hit .455 to play a key part in the Mets' 1969 World Series title. In Game 2, his ninth-inning single scored Ed Charles with the winning run in a 2-1 victory. In the clincher at Shea Stadium, Weis hit a home run off the Orioles' Dave McNally in the seventh inning to tie the game at 3-3.

BOBBY OJEDA, ALONG WITH PITCHERS TOM MCCARTHY, JOHN MITCHELL AND CHRIS BAYER ACQUIRED FROM THE BOSTON RED SOX FOR PITCHERS CALVIN SCHIRALDI AND WES GARDNER AND OUTFIELDERS JOHN CHRISTENSEN AND LASCHELLE TARVER ON NOVEMBER 13, 1985.

Ojeda, who pitched for the Mets from 1986-1990, posted an 18-5 record and a 2.57 ERA for the 1986 World Championship Mets. After New York fell to Houston, one game to nothing in the League Championships Series, Ojeda won Game Two with a nine-inning effort. He also won the crucial Game Three of the '86 World Series.

RON DARLING AND WALT TERRELL ACQUIRED FROM THE TEXAS RANGERS FOR OUTFIELDER LEE MAZZILLI ON APRIL 1, 1982.

Darling posted a 99-70 career mark with the Mets from 1983-1991 (.586 winning percentage). He posted double figures in wins from 1984-1989. In 1986, he was 15-6 with a 2.81 ERA to help the Mets capture the World Championship against the Red Sox and was a career-best 17-9 to spark New York to the pennant in 1988.

MEET THE METS (LYRICS)

BY RUTH ROBERTS & BILL KATZ (1962)

Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets, of New York town.

Oh, the butcher and the baker and the people on the streets,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!
Oh, they're hollerin' and cheerin' and they're jumpin' in their seats,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!
All the fans are true to the orange and blue,
So hurry up and come on down -
'cause we've got ourselves a ball club,
The Mets of New York town!

Give 'em a yell! Give 'em a hand!
And let 'em know you're rootin' in the stands!
Come on and Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets,
Of New York town,
Of New York town!!!!!

- Started the season with Buffalo (AAA) of the International League, where he threw a near perfect game...Set a Buffalo modern-day record when he retired 27 straight hitters on April 29 vs. Durham...Fernando Perez singled on an 0-2 pitch to start the game before Dickey set down the next 27 hitters in order...He needed just 90 pitches, throwing 68 for strikes in his second complete game of the season...Went 4-2 with a 2.23 ERA for the Bisons.

- Established a career-high six-game winning streak from May 25-June 23...During the streak, recorded a 2.23 ERA (10 earned runs/40.1 innings) and struck out 33...His previous winning streak was four straight games from August 3-August 20, 2003.
- His start on July 29 came on three-days rest...Became just the second pitcher over the past four seasons to start a game on short rest (no more than three days between starts) and throw more than 8.0 shutout innings...The other was Johan Santana who accomplished the feat in a 2-0 shutout win for the Mets against the Marlins on the next to last day of the 2008 season.

METS PITCHER GRAND SLAMS

In the entire history of the club, only two Mets pitchers have hit a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded home run at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

HISTORY

THE 1962 METS

When speaking to members of the 1962 Mets, there are two constant themes: the season was fun despite the 120 losses and manager Casey Stengel wasn't the cartoon character that most people assumed he was.

"I totally enjoyed my experience in New York," said leftfielder Frank Thomas, who hit .266 with 34 home runs and 94 RBI that season. "Despite the losses, I never found out it hard to come to the park, one thing about baseball is that even if you lost 15-0 there was always tomorrow.

"My family loved New York," he recalled. "There was always so much to see. When the World's Fair opened they went there every day. I wouldn't trade any of it."

Thomas was one of the many Mets who enjoyed playing for Casey.

"A lot of people thought that Casey was some kind of a clown," he went on. "Nothing could be further from the truth. He forgot more baseball than I knew."

Frank Thomas

Ed Kranepool

On June 27, Ed Kranepool, fresh out of James Monroe High School in the Bronx, joined the Mets on a West Coast road trip in Los Angeles. He became a Stengel fan immediately.

"There were really two Casey Stengels" said Ed, whose first day in the majors turned out to be the night Sandy Koufax pitched a perfect game and struck out 15 Mets. "There was the double talking Casey whom the press and fans saw, but the Casey I knew was the one who loved to work with young players.

"He would take me out to rightfield and teach me how to hit the cutoff man," continued Kranepool. "There was this 75-year-old man teaching me how to throw. No one really wrote about that."

Kranepool, who only had six at bats in 1962, had this personal story about Casey's good nature and character.

"I had this clause in my contract that I would get a bonus if I stayed in the majors for 90 days," Kranepool related. "Well, the front office was going to send me down on day 89. Casey found out about it and went to the people above and said you couldn't do this to the kid. I never went anywhere."

Bob "lefty" Miller, experienced what it was like to play for the 1962 Mets as soon as he arrived after being traded for original Met Don Zimmer on May 7.

"Mets mania swept the city," he said. "You didn't have to win a game to get a free meal, you only had to pitch. "We had a sign in the lockeroom listing 11 great restaurants like Toots Shor's and the 21 club," said Miller, who once pitched in 11 straight games. "We were always welcome for a free meal. The people were just so happy to have a National League baseball back."

There were actually two Bob Millers on the Mets that year, a lefty and a righty.

"Right after the trade, both of us went on a television show called to 'Tell the Truth'," said the lefthanded Miller. "There was actually a third Bob Miller from the Phillies who was on the show. It was historical."

Jay Hook

The 1962 Mets

The start of the season was far from historical for the Mets who dropped their first nine games before Jay Hook spun a complete game to turn back the Pirates, 9-1, in Pittsburgh on April 23.

"When we came back to the clubhouse after the game, Casey told the press to take as long as they needed," said Hook. "He said the buses can wait. By the time we got done there was no hot water left and we had to wash in the whirlpool."

Hook, who lives in Western Michigan and recently turned 75, still savors winning the first game in Mets history.

"It's something they can never take away from me," said Jay, who went 8-19 in 1962. It's something my grandkids can always be proud of."

Roger Craig

Two workhorses of the 1962 staff were righthander Roger Craig who was 10-24 with 13 complete games and lefthander Al Jackson, who went 8-20 with four shutouts that first year.

"This might sound crazy but my experience with the 1962 and 1963 Mets helped make me a better teacher," said Craig, who was 15-46 with 27 complete games those two seasons. I was a pitching coach for 13 years and a manager for nine and when players complained to me about a slump I could draw on what happened to me with the Mets to help teach them to keep things in perspective.

"People have asked me was it hard to lose all those games," he said with a laugh. "I reply, 'it was easy. All I had to do was step on the mound. I'm proud of the fact that out of our 40 wins the first year, I managed to win 10."

Jackson, who still works for the Mets today wasn't embarrassed about his 20-loss season.

"I wasn't embarrassed at all about losing 20," said Jackson. "If Casey wasn't happy with me he would have taken me out of the rotation. Casey was a great communicator. He always told you what he was thinking and he always explained to you why he did things."

Perhaps the Mets best stretch of the year was from May 6-May 20 when Stengel's club went 9-3 to increase its record to 12-18. Although a 17-game losing streak would follow to drop to record to 12-36 on June 6.

Rookie rightfielder Jim Hickman was able to cope with the losing year because it was his first season in the majors.

"Quite honestly, I was just happy to be there," he explained. "The first part of the season was really a honeymoon," Hickman added. "The fans cheered even when we lost. Sure it got old, but I enjoyed myself immensely. Playing for Casey Stengel was a real treat. I didn't really realize all the important stuff he was telling me until a few years later. I remember telling myself, 'Casey really knew what he was talking about back then.'"

Stengel's Mets won 40 games and lefthanded relief pitcher Ken MacKenzie won five of them. In fact, at 5-4 he was the only pitcher with a winning record.

"How did I get to be 5-4? I really don't know," said MacKenzie with a smile. I pitched pretty well for most of the year. I know this may sound crazy but when the season started I didn't think we were going to be all that bad. We had a lot of former Dodgers and guys like Richie Ashburn and Gus Bell, but things just didn't work out.

"I was actually sad when I got traded in August of 1963," he went on. "There were only seven of the original guys left at the time and I was hoping to be here when things got better. I lived in Greenwich Village during my time with the Mets and I remember how much fun it was to experience New York City."

Don Zimmer

Don Zimmer's experience with the 1962 Mets was short, only lasting 20 games before he was traded to Cincinnati. He would like to forget the 0-34 streak he put together from April 25-May 4. Still the memories 50 years later are still filled with a sense of laughter and warmth.

"It's funny how the year started," recalled Zimmer. "Spring training was like a World Series atmosphere. There were cameras and newspapers guys all over the place. They were all there to see Casey because he had just come over from the Yankees.

"I feel honored to be an original Met," he concluded. "One thought, don't blame me for all 120 losses. When I left we had only 16."

METS RETIRED NUMBERS

Casey Stengel's #37 was officially retired on September 2, 1965 in a small, private ceremony at Shea Stadium. Stengel was named the Mets first manager on September 29, 1961 and despite the team's early on-field struggles, the city proudly embraced their "lovable losers" due to Stengel's witty charm and dynamic personality. Stengel led the Mets to a 40-120 record in 1962 and then had an 11-game improvement, going 51-111 the following year. The Mets were 31-65 when Stengel fractured his hip on July 24, 1965 ending his managerial career. Stengel continued to serve in the Mets front office as a scout, public speaker and Vice President. He was still a member of the Mets front office when he passed away due to cancer on September 29, 1975 at age 85. Stengel was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

Gil Hodges' #14 was retired on June 9, 1973 during the Old Timers Day ceremony at Shea. Hodges played for the Mets from 1962-1963 and hit the club's very first home run on April 11, 1962 in the team's first game at St. Louis. He was named the club's third manager on October 11, 1967. Just two years later, after never posting a winning season, Hodges guided the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Championship after beating the Atlanta Braves in the National League Championship Series and then topping the heavily favored Baltimore Orioles in five games in the World Series. Hodges was named the Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press following the season. Hodges guided the Mets from 1968-1971, compiling 339 victories. He died from a heart attack on April 2, 1972 shocking and saddening the organization and baseball community. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

Tom Seaver's #41 is the only player number in franchise history to be retired. The ceremony took place in a special tribute at Shea Stadium on June 24, 1988. Seaver won three Cy Young Awards and was a nine-time All-Star with the Mets. The Franchise won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. He earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967. Seaver was 25-7 in 1969 to help the Mets capture the World Series. He ranks first in team history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), strikeouts (2,541), and shutouts (44) after pitching with New York from 1967-1977 and returning for one final year in 1983. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992 with the highest percentage (98.84) in Hall of Fame history. Seaver was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

On April 15, 1997 in a historic ceremony at Shea Stadium, acting commissioner Bud Selig announced the retirement of Jackie Robinson's #42 throughout Major League Baseball. "The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig during the ceremony as he stood side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and President Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring #42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

On April 8, 2008, in the final home opener in Shea Stadium's history, the Mets honored William A. Shea, the man for whom their previous ballpark was named after, by placing the name "Shea" alongside the retired numbers. Thirty member of the Shea family spanning three generations took part in the celebration. Shea was an attorney and the driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York City after the departure of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957. He spearheaded New York City Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League Baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. Shea was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983. He died at age 84 on October 2, 1991.

Home Uniform

1962

Home Uniform: The colors chosen were "Dodgers Blue" and "Giants Orange," and the NY monogram on the cap was a resurrection of the Giants' logo. The jersey was white with blue pinstripes and "Mets" in script across the chest on an upward slant, which was based on the Brooklyn Dodgers uniform. Road Uniform: The words "New York" in all capital letters with orange piping were used. The home pinstripe base was replaced by a solid gray color. The Mets skyline logo appeared on the left sleeve, and the same royal blue cap was used for both home and road uniforms.

1964-1965

During the team's first two seasons at Shea Stadium, a patch commemorating the city's hosting of the World's Fair replaced the Mets skyline logo on the sleeve of the home and road jersey. This was a relatively new innovation in baseball uniforms across the country and in New York. Only the Brooklyn Dodgers during the 1938 season had used a patch unrelated to the team's history, also to promote the upcoming World's Fair in 1939. The patch featured the Unisphere, which is still synonymous with Queens to this day.

1969

A patch commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys, again replacing the skyline logo. The patch features the Major League Baseball logo and the wording 100th Anniversary.

1972

The Mets wear a black armband on the left sleeve of both the home and road uniforms in memory of Mets manager Gil Hodges, who passed away prior to the start of the1972 campaign.

1974

Both the home and road uniforms are changed from flannel uniforms with double-knit lettering to tackle twill. In addition, "zig-zag" pinstripes are featured on the home uniform. "New York" on the front of the road jersey is replaced by "Mets."

1976

The Mets once again wear black armbands commemorating the passing of two of the primary figures at the time of the club's inception – owner/president Joan Payson and manager Casey Stengel-both of whom passed away following the 1975 season. In addition, a patch commemorating the bicentennial of the United States of America is worn on the right sleeve. For selected games during the season the team also wears special striped hat as part of the celebration surrounding America's bicentennial.

1978

The white jersey changes to a pullover with a two-button, crew-neck style collar. Two blue stripes and one orange stripe, equal in width, are added to the cuff of both the left and right sleeve, as well as around the collar. In addition, orange and blue striping is added down the leg of the road pants.

1979

Prior to the start of the season, the National League passed a rule requiring all teams to wear names on the backs of their road uniforms. Although not required by the League offices, the Mets also add names to the back of their home uniforms.

1982

The Mets add an alternate blue road jersey for the '82 campaign. The royal blue pullover jersey features thick orange and blue racing stripes with "Mets" across the chest.

1983
The pullover white pinstriped jersey with thick striping from the neck all the way down to the socks is unveiled. In addition, the skyline logo is removed from the jersey. The Mets road jersey also changed to the pullover variety with "Mets" in script across the chest of the gray jersey with the thick stripes down the side.

1986
The team wears a special 25th Anniversary patch commemorating the franchise's founding year of 1962.

1987
The only Mets uniform to last but a single year. The 1987 road uniform marked the first appearance of the words "New York" written in script across the chest.

1988
"New York" on the front of the road jersey is changed to block lettering in an arch across the chest. A white outline is added to the outline of all letters and numbers as well as to the racing stripe down the side of the uniform.

1991
Buttons return to the uniform. The home jersey still features the script "Mets" and the road jersey keeps the block-lettered "New York".

1992
A special "S" patch is added to the sleeve of both the home and road jerseys in tribute to the late William A. Shea, who was instrumental in the birth of the franchise.

1993
The skyline logo returns to the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys while the thick racing stripes are removed from both uniforms entirely. A new style script is used for the "Mets" lettering across the chest of the home uniform. The lettering is similar to the script "Mets" used from the team's inception, with an added tail that underlines the entire word. In addition, the "zig-zag" pinstripes that had been featured on the home uniform since 1972, is changed to a straight pinstripe. The road jersey features a script lettering "New York" that also is underlined. Finally all hats worn by teams across Major League Baseball feature the MLB logo, centered on the back of the cap.

1994
A patch commemorating the 125th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the right sleeve of both the home and road uniforms. The skyline logo on the left sleeve is also replaced for this season with a special patch commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the Miracle Mets.

1995
The skyline logo returns to the sleeve of both the home and road uniforms, while the underlining of the "Mets" and "New York" on both versions of the jerseys is removed in favor of the more classic lettering. The button atop the blue Mets cap is changed from royal blue to orange.

1996
Both the home and road jerseys are embroidered with a special logo which features a home plate design and inscription "J.M., N.L. Umpire, 10" in memory of John McSherry, an umpire who died during a game on Opening Day of the 1996 season.

1997
An alternate home "snow white" uniform is added. The jersey is very similar to the traditional home uniform, without the pinstripes. The team also adds an alternate white cap with a blue brim and an interlocking orange NY. Finally, all teams across Major League Baseball feature a special 50th Anniversary patch commemorating Jackie Robinson's breaking baseball's color.

1998
The alternate white cap is scrapped in favor of a new black cap with royal blue trim and an inter-locking NY in royal blue. The team also adds a second alternate jersey, which is worn both at home as well as on the road. The black uniform, with "Mets" across the chest on an upward slant, features blue letters and numbers with a white and orange drop shadow.

1999

A second alternate cap is added. The all-black cap features an interlocking NY in royal blue with white and orange drop shadow. In addition, player names are removed from all three jerseys worn at home – white pinstripes, "snow white," and black alternate. An alternate black road jersey is added as well, similar to the alternate black home jersey, but featuring "New York" across the chest. Additionally, a slight change is made in the Mets skyline logo, as the small interlocking NY is removed. This is the first change to the skyline logo since the team's inception in 1962.

2000

All teams add the Major League Baseball logo to the back of the home, road and alternate jerseys. The team also opens the season in Tokyo, Japan and feature a special patch commemorating the first games played outside North America. Player names return to the back of all versions of the home jersey after a one-year hiatus. Finally, the Mets wear a patch with the official logo of the 2000 World Series during that years' Fall Classic.

2001

The team wears a special patch in memory of the passing of Mets legend Tommie Agee, who died of a heart attack prior to the season and prospect Brian Cole, who was killed in an automobile accident. The patch featured 20 and 60, the numbers worn by Agee and Cole, and was worn for the Mets home opener on April 10, 2001. Later in the season, in response the attacks on September 11th, the Mets wear caps honoring the NYPD, FDNY, Port Authority, Emergency Medical Services, and numerous other city services that were affected by the terrorist attacks. An American flag is also added to the back of all jerseys league wide, and American flags are also added to the side of all caps.

2002

The Mets honor the franchise's 40th Anniversary with a commemorative patch on the right sleeve of the home jerseys, below which is stitched "9-11-01" in remembrance of the September 11th attacks.

Alternate Home Uniform (2010)

2004

The team celebrates Shea Stadium's 40th birthday with a patch on the right sleeve of the home jersey. The logo is split between blue and orange and features the iconic pitcher and batter neons which adorned Shea Stadium's exterior. All jerseys also feature an embroidered "Ya Gotta Believe-Tug" patch, in memory of former Mets reliever Tug McGraw. The team also honors the passing of the voice of the Mets, as "Bob Murphy" is embroidered above the Mets logo on the left sleeve in memory of the Hall of Fame broadcaster.

In recognition of the team's final season at Shea Stadium, the Mets wear a patch commemorating their time in the ballpark which opened in 1964. The logo is adorned to the right sleeve and features a split image of the stadium's original façade from 1964 coupled with a more modern version. The imagery is then surrounded by the wording "Shea Stadium 1964-2008."

2009

The Mets open Citi Field with a patch commemorating their first year in their new world-class home. The logo is placed on the right sleeve of the Mets home jersey and resembles the Citi Field logo, but features the wording "Inaugural Season 2009."

2010

The Mets introduce a new pinstripe jersey that combines elements of both new and old Mets uniforms. The natural color and pinstripes were staples of the Mets uniform when the team debuted in 1962, and were complemented by a more modern day script "Mets" across the chest.

2012

To celebrate the club's 50th Anniversary, the team will wear white and road grey uniforms reflecting the look of the original uniform from their inaugural season. The black dropshadow will be removed from the Mets script logo, letters and numbers. The pinstripe jersey will be the primary home uniform. The Mets also introduced a 50th Anniversary logo that incorporates the basic elements of the original blue and orange skyline logo, with gold accents in celebration of the franchise's golden anniversary. The Mets will wear a new blue and orange batting practice jersey.

POLO GROUNDS

For the first two years of their existence, the Mets played their home games at the historic Polo Grounds while waiting for the finish of the construction of Shea Stadium.

The stadium where the Mets won 56 games during the 1962 and 1963 seasons actually was the fourth venue to carry the name the "Polo Grounds." The first structure, located between 110th and 112th Streets and Fifth and Sixth Avenues in upper Manhattan, opened its doors in 1876 as a home to polo matches. In 1880, the New York Metropolitans leased the grounds for baseball with the New York Giants following suit three years later.

The second Polo Grounds, sporting a 15,000-seat wooden grandstand, was located on 155th Street and Eighth Avenue with the Giants as the main tenants. Although polo was not played there, the team brought the name of its former home. It was here that the famous quirky dimensions—475 feet to center-field and only 258 feet out to right—were first unveiled. After a fire destroyed the stadium in 1911, it was rebuilt later that year with a capacity of 34,000.

The Mets first game at the Polo Games, April 13, 1962.

In 1913, the Yankees joined the Giants as tenants, but left after an attendance dispute in 1922. Finally, in 1924, the fourth remodeling of the Polo Grounds was finished, complete with seating for 55,987. It was this incarnation that the Mets began calling home in 1962.

The Giants left New York and the Polo Grounds in 1957, leaving the stadium with only the memories of some of the most famous moments in baseball history, such as Bobby Thomson's game-winning "Shot Heard 'Round the World" to clinch the 1951 pennant, and Willie Mays' over-the-shoulder catch in the 1954 World Series. Without a Major League Baseball team as a regular tenant, the stadium deteriorated to the point where the Mets needed to spend $300,000 to refurbish the ballpark before moving in to start the 1962 season.

With a fresh coat of paint, a new scoreboard, better lighting, more dining options for fans and a complete overhaul of the outfield and infield grass, the Mets played their first home game in the Polo Grounds on April 13, 1962 and lost 4-3 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. New York played 160 more games at their temporary home over the next two seasons and left for good following a 5-1 loss to Philadelphia Phillies on September 18, 1963.

The aging stadium was finally demolished over a period of four months in 1964. A housing development now occupies the famous site.

SHEA STADIUM

The Mets first game at Shea Stadium, April 17, 1964.

In 1964, the Mets moved from Manhattan to Queens and their brand-new home, William A. Shea Municipal Stadium. Located on 126th Street and Roosevelt Avenue, Shea would welcome more than 94 million fans and some of the most famous moments in Mets history during its 45 years.

The stadium originally was to be called "Flushing Meadows Stadium." But in 1962, behind a movement led by department store magnate Bernard Gimbel, the Flushing Meadows Stadium label was dropped in favor of a name that honored the man most responsible for returning National League baseball to New York, prominent attorney Bill Shea. Shea Stadium was born.

Architect John Waterbury drew up the plans for the stadium and the ceremonial groundbreaking took place on October 28, 1961. The designs called for the city to contribute $24.5 million to construct the ballpark, with the Mets to chip in another $6.5 million for office space, restaurants and other amenities.

The 55,300-seat stadium was completed and Shea opened to 48,736 fans on April 17, 1964. But in a scene reminiscent of Opening Day at the Polo Grounds two years earlier, the Pirates again beat the Mets, 4-3.

In their first season at Shea, the Mets drew 1,732,597 fans and hosted the All-Star Game before baseball handed off the reigns to football and the New York Jets for the winter. Football would be a permanent winter staple in Queens until 1983, when the Jets left for New Jersey.

Pope John Paul II address the crowd at Shea Stadium in 1979.

Shea was designed to be a multi-purpose complex—it was the first major stadium in the United States to have two movable field box sections—and as such held a variety of events. The Beatles gave the first-ever concert at Shea Stadium on August 15, 1965, in front of more than 55,000 fainting, crying and screaming fans. It was, and remains to this day, the most historic concert ever, as it was the first time in history that a sports stadium was used for a rock concert. The groundbreaking Beatles concert at Shea set new attendance records at the time; it was the first large-scale, outdoor concert that demonstrated such events could be hugely successful and profitable.

Other unforgettable Shea moments include the historic papal Mass celebrated by Pope John Paul II in 1979, plus concerts staged by music legends including Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix and Bruce Springsteen. The stadium also played host to a wide variety of sporting events, such as soccer, boxing and wrestling matches and college football, along with the normal schedule of baseball and NFL football games.

In 1975, Shea was the center of the New York sports world. The Mets, Yankees, Jets and Giants all called the stadium home, marking the first and only time in professional sports history that two baseball teams and two football teams shared the same facility in the same year. Both the Yankees and Giants needed a temporary home while Yankee Stadium underwent renovations.

Throughout the years, Shea was the site for some of the most memorable moments in Mets history: Cleon Jones catching the clinching out of the 1969 World Series, the amazing comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series, and President Bill Clinton joining Jackie Robinson's widow, Rachel, to retire the Hall of Famers uniform number 42 on April 15, 1997. Shea finally closed its doors on September 28, 2008 following the Mets' 4-2 loss to the Florida Marlins.

The demolition of Shea took several months, with the final piece coming down on February 18, 2009 at 11:22 A.M. Citi Field's Parking Lot D covers the grounds where Shea once stood, with markers commemorating the original locations of the stadium's home plate, bases and pitching mound.

1964 ALL-STAR GAME

The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. The Mets lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL. San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error by Yankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy. Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale. The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead. The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat. The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch. The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard. Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.

The 41,800-seat ballpark brings fans closer to the action for a more intimate experience, offering unprecedented amenities and comfort throughout its 1.3 million square feet.

HIGHLIGHTS

Citi Field's design produces a superior experience for fans throughout the ballpark, offering a warm atmosphere with seating closer to the action and angled toward the infield. Citi Field features some of the widest, unobstructed concourses of any sports and entertainment facility. Concession stands and restrooms are located within the facility's exterior walls, allowing fans uninterrupted views of the field. Wider seats provide enhanced comfort throughout the ballpark with more space between rows providing additional legroom. Fans throughout Citi Field can choose from wide-ranging menus at multiple sit-down, climate-controlled restaurants, bars, clubs, and lounges including the Delta Sky360 Club, Champions Club and Caesars Club behind home plate, and the Acela Club, the multi-tiered, glass-enclosed 350-seat restaurant overlooking leftfield.

The Mets and ARAMARK's unique partnerships with world-renowned restaurateurs Danny Meyer of Union Square Hospitality Group, Drew Nieporent of Myriad Restaurant Group, and Dave Pasternack of Esca have redefined the dining experience to make Citi Field a culinary destination. Taste of the City on the Field Level in the outfield showcases the very best from these restaurateurs at Shake Shack, Blue Smoke, El Verano Taqueria, Box Frites and Catch of the Day. The World's Fare Market features cuisine from local dinning institutions including Mama's of Corona and Daruma of Tokyo.

Citi Field's FanFest behind the centerfield scoreboard features activities for the whole family including: Mr. Met's Kiddie Field, a miniature replica of Citi Field complete with its own video board, batting cages and a game kiosk.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Citi Field's design is inspired by the Mets' National League heritage. The brick, limestone, granite and cast stone throughout the ballpark closely resembles the masonry used at Ebbets Field, the legendary home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The dark green seats and soot-colored exposed steel recall the Mets' first home, the historic Polo Grounds and former home of the New York Giants. A structural steel "bridge" motif throughout Citi Field reinforces the Mets' connection to New York's five boroughs while symbolically linking the team's beloved tradition to its future. Shea Bridge in right-center is named after William A. Shea, extending the legacy of the man who was the driving force behind bringing National League baseball back to New York and for whom Shea Stadium was named.

OUTFIELD WALLS

In 2012, the outfield walls at Citi Field moved in as much as 12 feet and the height of the outfield walls was lowered to 8 feet throughout. The outfield wall will also be blue this season concurrent with the Mets 50th Anniversary. The Mets erected a new wall in leftfield starting between the New Era and Caesars signs and angled to the Citi sign in left-centerfield. The new wall is closer to home plate by approximately 4 feet in leftfield and up to approximately 12 feet in deep left-centerfield. A new wall starts in right-centerfield and extends toward the bullpen, and is approximately 11 feet closer to home plate. The fence in front of the Mo's Zone/Modell's Clubhouse moved in approximately 10 feet. The distances from home plate to centerfield and the foul poles in leftfield and rightfield will remain the same. As a result of moving the walls in, the Mets created a unique seating section in leftfield between the new and existing wall to accommodate about 100 fans. The club also expanded the Modell's Clubhouse in rightfield to incorporate an outdoor seating area for approximately 40 additional fans.

JACKIE ROBINSON ROTUNDA

The iconic main entry to Citi Field honors Jackie Robinson, the great American trailblazer who became the first African-American player to break Major League Baseball's color barrier with the Dodgers in 1947. Evoking the classic design of Ebbets Field, the Rotunda recognizes and perpetuates the humanitarian ideals of one of our country's civil rights pioneers.

Engraved into the Rotunda's 160-foot diameter floor and etched into its 70-foot archways are words and larger-than-life images that defined Jackie's "nine values": Courage, Excellence, Persistence, Justice, Teamwork, Commitment, Citizenship, Determination, and Integrity. The Rotunda features an eight-foot sculpture of Jackie's number 42, which was retired in perpetuity throughout Major League Baseball in 1997.

METS HISTORY AT CITI FIELD

The Mets Hall of Fame and Museum at Citi Field is the home for 50 years of Mets history. Located adjacent to the Jackie Robinson Rotunda, the spectacular attraction is a virtual walk down memory lane, featuring a treasure trove of artifacts and images. It's interactive touch-screen exhibits showcase video and audio highlights of the franchise's signature moments. The Mets Hall of Fame and Museum is open during Mets home games.

Citi Field's VIP entrances are named after individuals who made an indelible mark on the club and whose numbers have been retired. First Base VIP honors Gil Hodges, the manager who led the Mets to their first World Championship in 1969. Third Base VIP recognizes Tom Seaver, the Hall of Fame pitcher and Mets leader in wins, earned run average and strikeouts. Left Field VIP is named after Casey Stengel, the first manager in Mets history.

Photographic imagery of famous Mets and historic moments are displayed inside Citi Field along the concourses and outside the ballpark with banners on Mets plaza, in the parking lots and encasing the ramp in leftfield. More than 20,000 bricks outside the Jackie Robinson Rotunda on the Citi Field Fanwalk pay tribute to the Mets, their fans and the Amazin' Moments in team history. A new Fanwalk commemorating the Mets 50th Anniversary will be installed this season.

THE METS AND CITI

On November 13, 2006, the Mets and Citi signed a 20-year landmark partnership that includes the naming rights for Citi Field and working together on a series community outreach initiatives.

The Mets and Citi have also built affordable housing for New Yorkers in Brooklyn and at Citi Field with Habitat for Humanity, and repackaged apples and potatoes to feed the hungry with City Harvest, and partnered with several veterans organizations to provide assistance to troops returning home and those deployed oversees.

CITI FIELD AND THE ENVIRONMENT

The Mets have implemented a wide range of sustainable environmental initiatives the design construction and operation of Citi Field. The ballpark was built with recycled concrete and construction vehicles were fueled with ultra lowsulfur diesel. Citi Field's building management system monitors and automatically controls all aspects of energy operation from temperatures to lights to minimize energy consumption. Grease and cooking oil are recycled along with cardboard, glass, metal, bottles, cans, light bulbs and batteries. The Mets save more than four million gallons of water per year by using 414 hands-free faucets, 635 automated toilet flush-valves and 270 waterless urinals. A 11,000 square foot green roof atop the administration building in rightfield, white PVC roofs throughout the ballpark, high mast parking lot light fixtures, permeable pavers, and an underground well used to irrigate the playing field are other ways the Mets are working to protect the environment.

CITI FIELD SCOREBOARDS

Citi Field features a unique, integrated, state-of-the-art video scoring and display system developed specifically for the ballpark. Over 13,000 square feet of digital display technology provides fans with high definition video, real-time statistics and much more.

Working closely with the Mets, the integrated system at Citi Field was designed and manufactured in the USA by Daktronics. Designed with fans in mind, it incorporates the latest LED display and control technologies to provide an even greater game-day experience.

Daktronics is recognized as the world's leading LED video provider and has video/scoring display systems installed at 26 MLB ballparks.

The center field display is 51 feet high by 70 feet wide, and provides 1,200 lines of resolution with full color LED lines of pixels on 12 mm (.47") spacing. This Citi Field LED video display features the tightest line resolution in Major League Baseball, providing Mets fans with one of the sharpest pictures in any outdoor venue.

The second giant HD display is located in right field, providing line ups, scores, game in progress information and statistics in addition to high definition video and graphics. A third high resolution video display in the right field corner displays inning break features, game action and replays to fans seated in left and center field. Both HD displays utilize cutting edge Daktronics HDX technology, providing incredible viewing angels (nearly 180 degrees horizontal viewing), improved contrast for vibrant colors, increased brightness (7,500 nits), world-class image processing and a fast refresh rate for enhanced detail and smooth motion.

Citi Field is also home to one of the longest ribbon boards in baseball. Surrounding the seating bowl on the Promenade level fascia, the board is nearly 850 feet in length. The ribbon board provides a variety of scoring information, as well as open captioning of the PA Audio system - a helpful amenity for the hearing-impaired.

One of MLB's largest out-of-town scoreboards graces the front of the roof canopy in left-center field, keeping fans informed with the continuous display of scores, innings, pitchers, base runners and outs from the day's MLB games.

Seven additional LED displays are located outside the seating bowl. Video and scoring displays are mounted on the rear of the main center field scoreboard, providing video and game information to fans visiting the Taste of the City and Fan Fest areas beyond center field. An additional LED video display is located on Mr. Met's Kiddie Field at Fan Fest so kids can see themselves as they take a few swings.

An exterior marquee display on the North side of the building greets arriving fans, and provides information to those passing by. Citi Field's main entrance, the beautiful Jackie Robinson rotunda, is served by two 9 foot by 16 foot LED video displays, providing multi-media imagery of the great Jackie Robinson as well as game day information and video. An additional HD video screen carries all of the game action for fans visiting the shops and eateries on the Promenade plaza behind home plate.

The video and scoring displays at Citi Field are operated by the Mets Video & Entertainment staff. The New York Mets organization is a member of IDEA, the Information Display & Entertainment Association, and has won several IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for excellence in video and scoreboard programming.

MAY 30, 1962: The Dodgers return to New York for the first time and sweep a doubleheader from the Mets in front of 54,360 fans, the NL's largest crowd of the year. The Mets turn their first-ever triple play in the sixth inning of Game Two.

Hickman's natural cycle is still the only one in franchise history and one of 14 in the major league record books.

AUGUST 9, 1963: Jim Hickman hits a two-out, game-winning grand slam off Lindy McDaniel to give the Mets a 7-3 victory over the Cubs at the Polo Grounds and also end Roger Craig's then-franchise record 18-game losing streak.

APRIL 17, 1964: William A. Shea Municipal Stadium opens to a near-capacity crowd of 48,736 and a Mets loss, 4-3 to the Pirates. JULY 7, 1964: Shea plays host to its only All-Star Game and Ron Hunt becomes the first Mets player to make the All-Star team as the National League uses a four-run ninth inning to beat the American League, 7-4. Hunt starts at second base and finishes with one hit in three at-bats.

OCTOBER 4, 1964: With the NL pennant on the line for the Cardinals, the Mets drop the season finale, 11-5, at St. Louis. A Mets victory would have created a three-way tie between the Cardinals, the Reds and the Phillies.

NOVEMBER 17, 1964: The Mets sign catcher and future Hall of Famer Yogi Berra to a two-year contract.

NOVEMBER 23, 1964: The Mets get their second future Hall of Famer in less than a week when the team acquires lefthander Warren Spahn from Milwaukee.

AUGUST 26, 1965: Tug McGraw allows two runs in 7.2 innings and the Mets beat the Dodgers and Sandy Koufax, 5-2. It is the first time in 14 career games that the Mets beat the future Hall of Famer. Koufax had been 13-0 against the Mets prior to the loss.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1965: Jim Hickman hits three home runs in a game, becoming the first player to do so in club history. His record has been matched seven other times.

OCTOBER 19, 1965: The Mets acquire catcher Jerry Grote from Houston for a player to be named later.

FEBRUARY 24, 1966: USC righthander Tom Seaver and Atlanta agree to a $50,000 contract, violating a major league rule prohibiting college players from signing with a pro team after the start of the collegiate season.

MARCH 2, 1966: Major League Baseball Commissioner William Eckert voids Tom Seaver's contract with Atlanta.

APRIL 2, 1966: The Mets are awarded negotiating rights with Tom Seaver after they, along with Philadelphia and Cleveland, match Atlanta's original offer of $50,000. But it's the Mets' slip of paper that MLB Commissioner William Eckert picks out of a hat, thus giving the Mets a chance to sign the former number one pick.

TWO STADIUMS DOUBLEHEADERS

The Mets and Yankees have previously met in a day-night, home-road doubleheader three times. The Mets and Yankees first historic doubleheader took place on July 8, 2000. Both New York teams played a regularly scheduled day game at Shea Stadium and then a played a night game at Yankee Stadium which was a rescheduled contest from a rainout on June 11th. The Yankees won both games by the same 4-2 score. According the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first day-night doubleheader taking place in different venues since September 7, 1903. On that day, the New York Giants played two games against the Brooklyn Superbas (later known as the Dodgers). The first game was played in the morning at Brooklyn's Washington Park with John McGraw's Giants winning, 6-4. The second game was an afternoon contest at the Polo Grounds with Brooklyn winning, 3-0. The other day-night, Shea-Yankee Stadium doubleheaders were on June 28, 2003 and June 27, 2008. In 2003, the day game took place at Yankee Stadium with the Yankees winning, 7-1. The night cap was at Shea and the Yankees prevailed, 9-8. In 2008, the final year of both Shea Stadium and Yankee Stadium, the Mets and Yankees played a day-night, cross-borough doubleheader. The Mets won the day game at Yankee Stadium, 15-6, and the Yankees took the night cap, 9-0, at Shea.

POSTSEASON

1969 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

In the club's first ever trip to the postseason, the Mets sweep the best-of-five series vs. Atlanta, three games to none.

In Game One, trailing, 5-4, in the top of the eighth, New York rallied for five runs and a 9-5 win. Tom Seaver struggled, allowing five runs in 7.0 innings, but earned the victory.

In Game Two, two-run home runs by Tommie Agee, Ken Boswell and Cleon Jones lifted the Mets to an 11-6 win.

In front of 53,195 fans at Shea, New York advanced to the World Series with a 7-4 victory in Game Three. The lead changed hands three times before Wayne Garrett's two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth put the Mets ahead, 5-4. Nolan Ryan hurled 4.0 shutout innings to pick up the win and complete the sweep.

Jerry Koosman greets Ron Swoboda.

Boswell hit .333 with two home runs and five RBI, while Agee batted .357 with two home runs and four RBI. Hank Aaron cracked a home run in each game and drove in seven runs for the Braves.

Mets fans celebrate on the field at Shea Stadium after the final out of the 1969 World Series.

1969 WORLD SERIES

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph.

In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece.

A jubilant Jerry Koosman leaps into the arms of catcher Jerry Grote after the final out of the 1969 World Series in Game Five vs. Baltimore.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES VS. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES 4-1

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335 watched the Mets shut out Baltimore, 5-0 in Game Three. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, when Agee made a running, backhanding catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center, Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches, ever just three innings apart.

In Game Four, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed into rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the base-path.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea, behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with an RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

 # Second at-bat of the inning + Leadoff Home Run
* Was the second home run in consecutive at-bats for player  Pinch-Hit Home Run

1973 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed just six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant, tossing a two-hit, 5-0 shutout in Game Two to even the series. Rusty Staub's solo home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four runs in the ninth, two coming home on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored all nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. However, the game will always be remembered for the fight that broke out between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. With the bench-clearing brawl behind them, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Bud Harrelson and Pete Rose start a bench-clearing brawl in Game Three of the 1973 NLCS.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the game 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected a RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

* Day/Night Doubleheaders

1973 WORLD SERIES

New York lost its first ever postseason series, falling in a seven-game set to the Oakland Athletics.

In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning. New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, which would prove to be Mays's last hit in the majors.

Tug McGraw reacts after saving the Mets 2-0 Game Five win.

The Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top, 2-0 in the first inning of Game Three. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shut out the A's on three hits.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver.

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

1986 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six-game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the postseason after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1 victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had an RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

Lenny Dykstra rounds the bases after hitting the game winning home run in Game Three of the NLCS to give the Mets a 6-5 victory.

HOUSTON ASTROS VS. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES 4-2

In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game, three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10.0 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Game Six at the AstroDome was simply a classic, the longest postseason game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, Strawberry's double and Knight's single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

1986 WORLD SERIES

Ray Knight races home with the winning run in New York's dramatic 7-6, 10th inning comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series vs. Boston.

BOSTON RED SOX VS. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES 4-3

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the World Champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shut out the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored the lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through 7.0 innings as New York won, 7-1.

In Game Four, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's 7.0 shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph.

The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2 entering the bottom of the eighth and 5-3 going to the bottom of the tenth. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs enabling Knight to score the winning run.

After a day of rain, the Mets won their second World Championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

1988 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had an RBI double in the inning and a two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good.

Darryl Strawberry led the National League with 39 home runs and drove in 101 runs in 1988.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five.

On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete-game in a 5-1 Game Six win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

1999 DIVISION SERIES

The Mets returned to the postseason for the first time since 1988, and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game Three with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

Todd Pratt is greeted at home plate after his 10th inning, walk-off, series-ending home run in Game Four vs. Arizona in the 1999 National League Division Series...Pratt's solo blast to center just eluded D-Backs centerfielder Steve Finley to give the Mets a 4-3 win.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first postseason victory.

1999 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series.

Gerald Williams had an RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In Game Three, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss.

Trailing 2-1 in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Robin Ventura waves to the Shea faithful after his "grand slam single" won Game Five of the 1999 NLCS.

Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing 5-0 after the first inning, the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

2000 DIVISION SERIES

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the postseason in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants.

In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1.

Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game.

Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York to a 3-2 triumph.

Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first postseason complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four. Jeff Kent collected the only Giants' hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

Bobby Jones pitches a one-hitter in the Division Series to send the Mets to the NLCS agains the St. Louis Cardinals.

Robin Ventura celebrating after clinching a trip to the National League Championship Series.

2000 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

New York defeated its longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986.

In Game One, Mike Piazza had an RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3 vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three.

New York set a postseason record with five doubles in one inning (first) and scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.

Mike Hampton is mobbed by teammates after hurling a complete-game 7-0 shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals in Game Five of the 2000 National League Championship Series to send the Mets to their first World Series since 1986.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS VS. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES 4-1

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career postseason RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless innings, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

2000 WORLD SERIES

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets faced the New York Yankees.

In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and an RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino.

Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton.

The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced an RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings.

The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in the first three innings and hung on to beat the Mets, 3-2, in Game Four. Piazza's two-run home run put the Mets on the board in the third.

The Yankees topped the Mets, 4-2, in Game Five to win their third straight World Series. Al Leiter fired 8.2 brilliant innings, before Luis Sojo's ninth inning, two-out, RBI single to centerfield broke a 2-2 tie. Derek Jeter was named the Series MVP.

Mike Piazza celebrates after the Mets 4-2 Game Three victory at Shea Stadium.

The Mets and Yankees met in the first Subway Series since 1956. Here the two teams line-up for the national anthem before Game Three of the 2000 World Series.

2006 DIVISION SERIES

New York swept the Dodgers, three games to none, to advance to the NLCS. The Mets won Game One, 6-5, as Carlos Delgado went 4-5 with two RBI and David Wright chipped in three RBI. Delgado became the fifth player in major league history to have four or more hits with at least one home run in his first career postseason game. Carlos also tied the team record with four hits in a playoff game. In the second inning, Russell Martin singled to right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Paul Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score. Tom Glavine posted his 13th career postseason victory in New York's 4-1 win over the Dodgers in Game Two.

In a series-changing play at the plate, Paul Lo Duca celebrates after tagging out two Dodgers on the same play in the second inning of Game One of the 2006 NLDS. Los Angeles' Russel Martin singled to the right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score.

Glavine fired 6.0 shutout innings. Billy Wagner notched his second save of the series with a 1-2-3 ninth inning. Endy Chavez collected two hits and Jose Reyes drove in two runs.

The Mets completed the sweep with a 9-5 triumph at Los Angeles. The Mets grabbed a 3-0 first inning lead, but the Dodgers regained a 5-4 lead after five innings. New York retook the lead with consecutive RBI singles by Reyes, Lo Duca and Carlos Beltran in the sixth inning. Green had three hits and two RBI. He also caught the final out (Ramon Martinez) of the series.

2006 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

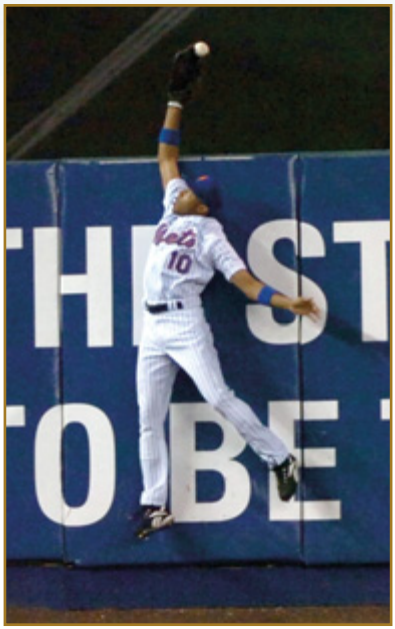

The Cardinals defeated the Mets in a seven-game series. Tom Glavine, Guillermo Mota and Billy Wagner combined on a 2-0 shutout in Game One. Carlos Beltran cracked a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Carlos Delgado hit two home runs and drove in four runs in Game Two, but So Taguchi hit a solo home run off Wagner in the ninth inning that snapped a 6-6 tie to lift St. Louis to 9-6 victory. St. Louis scored five runs off Steve Trachsel in the first two innings and Jeff Suppan hurled 8.0 shutout innings as the Cardinals defeated the Mets, 5-0 in Game Three.

Delgado delivered five RBI and Beltran crushed two home runs as New York evened the series at two games apiece with a 12-5 triumph in Game Four.

Jose Valentin laced a bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in a six-run sixth inning. New York established club LCS records with four home runs and 12 runs scored. The 12 runs were also the most by the Mets in any playoff game. St. Louis won Game Five, 4-2, behind home runs from Albert Pujols and Chris Duncan.

The Mets returned to Shea and captured Game Six, 4-2. Jose Reyes led off the game with a home run and Paul Lo Duca had a two-out, two-run single in the eighth inning. John Maine fired 5.1 scoreless innings to pick up the win.

New York fell, 3-1, in Game Seven. Yadier Molina hit a two-run home run in the ninth inning off Aaron Heilman that snapped a 1-1 tie. David Wright had an RBI single in the first inning. Endy Chavez made one of the greatest postseason catches ever when he robbed Scott Rolen of a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Jeff Suppan was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player.

Endy Chavez leaps high above the leftfield wall to rob Scott Rolen of a two-run home run in the sixth inning of Game Seven of the NLCS vs. St. Louis.

Digital Domain Media Group – an award-winning digital production company – entered a multi-year marketing partnership with the New York Mets in 2010 that includes naming rights to Digital Domain Park the Spring Training home of the Mets. Digital Domain, a pioneer in visual effects for feature films and advertising, works with the Mets to use digital technology to enhance the fan experience in Port St. Lucie, Florida and in New York at Citi Field.

The Digital Domain Park will have several new features in 2012. The right field bleacher area is being replaced with 500 field-level seats, highlighted by an outdoor bar and grill similar to the third base-side Tiki Bar. The right field section will also connect to the outfield grass berm area for easy access throughout the facility. The scoreboard will be upgraded to include a larger screen and will now replay highlights in HD.

Digital Domain enjoys extensive branding inside and outside the Mets' 100-acre Florida facility, home of the St. Lucie Mets of the Florida State League. Branding is featured throughout prominent locations such as the entrance to the complex, on the exterior façade and at each fan entrance.

The partnership with the Mets builds upon Digital Domain's commitment to the Port St. Lucie, Florida, community which includes a 115,000 square foot animation studio and digital production facility. This studio, which will create more than 500 jobs, will focus on the development of original content and digital imagery for animated feature films, visual effects-driven live action films and video games.

Founded in 1993, Digital Domain has built a legacy of achievement, listing Titanic, the Transformers series, 2012 and TRON: Legacy among its 80-plus film credits. The company's work and employees have been recognized with numerous entertainment industry awards and nominations, including seven awards issued by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences — three Academy Awards for Best Visual Effects and four awards for Scientific and Technical Achievement. Digital Domain is also a creative giant in advertising, earning scores of industry awards for some of the world's most memorable advertisements.
