In Memoriam
Gary Vanden Berg 1951-2011

Brewers Director of Grounds Gary Vanden Berg passed away on October 10, 2011. Vanden Berg began his career with the Brewers in 1981 as the Assistant Superintendent of Grounds but served more than 20 years as the Club's Director of Grounds. He was one of the five longest-tenured members of the organization and led a team that won multiple awards for excellence in their field.

Vanden Berg is survived by his wife, Lauri, and twin sons, John and Joel. A native of Fond du Lac, he resided with his family in Cedarburg, Wisconsin.

In Memoriam
Joe Migliaccio 1920-2012

Joe Migliaccio worked for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1990-2007. Joe was also the father of Tony Migliaccio, who is the current Director of Clubhouse Operations for the Brewers. "Joe Como" passed away on January 1, 2012 at the age of 91. He and his brothers owned and operated Como's Restaurant in Milwaukee.

Migliaccio is survived by his son, Tony, and his daughters, Jennifer and Joanne, and was preceded in death by his wife, Lucy.

CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER
MARK ATTANASIO

The 2012 season is the eighth for Mark Attanasio as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club.

Last season, the team clinched its first playoff series win in 29 years, capping one of the most magical seasons in Brewers and Major League Baseball history. Winning 96 out of 162 regular season games, the 2011 Brewers set a franchise record for victories in manager Ron Roenicke's first season. It was also a season of outstanding personal achievement, including Ryan Braun's election as National League MVP and John Axford setting a franchise record for saves. Immediately after the 2011 season ended, Attanasio began working to ensure that this year's team will also be a National League power. Attanasio collaborated with Club officials to continue to deliver on the four pledges he made when he and his group acquired the team.

1. FIELDING A PERENIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio works closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Melvin, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Gord Ash and the baseball operations staff to make significant additions to an already competitive team. All five starting pitchers from last year are returning for 2012 (Zack Greinke, Yovani Gallardo, Randy Wolf, Shaun Marcum and Chris Narveson), each of whom won more than 10 games in 2011. The bullpen will be bolstered by the addition of Jose Veras and anchored by one of the best set-up and closer combinations in the Major Leagues - Francisco Rodriguez (who joined the team in the middle of 2011) and Axford. In terms of position players, the team welcomes former Silver Slugger Award winner third baseman Aramis Ramirez, three-time Japanese batting average leader Norichika Aoki and veteran shortstop Alex Gonzalez. The Brewers roster will feature All-Star position players Braun, Rickie Weeks, Corey Hart, Ramirez and Gonzalez, as well as All-Star pitchers Greinke, Gallardo, Wolf and Rodriguez.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

On the heels of setting an all-time attendance record with 3,071,373 fans coming through the turnstiles at Miller Park during the regular season - the third year in the last four that the Brewers surpassed the milestone of three million in attendance - the Club has made several improvements to the fan experience for 2012. Attanasio worked with Brewers business executives Rick Schlesinger and Bob Quinn and their team to implement several upgrades to Miller Park, including construction of a new retail store on the Club Level and an additional retail location on the Field Level called "Bernie's Chalet," as well as upgrades to the press box, Helfaer Field and the all-inclusive areas - the Gehl Club, Harley-Davidson Deck and the ATI Club. Spurred by optimism about the 2012 season and the Club's continued investment in improving the Miller Park experience, Brewers fans set a new franchise record by purchasing more than one million tickets by the end of December 2011.

This season, FS Wisconsin will be the exclusive home of local Brewers telecasts with more than 75 percent of the 150 local games to be broadcast in high-definition. Hall of Fame announcer Bob Uecker will return to the radio broadcast booth, where he will be joined by Joe Block. Block comes to the Brewers this season with 10 years of experience calling over 900 professional baseball games.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio remains committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the Club, as it continues to grow since its 2010 re-branding. Of the $3.2 million raised by BCF last season, more than $1.8 million was contributed by Brewers fans, who showed their enthusiastic support by participation in the 50/50 Raffle held at each Brewers home game. All of the Brewers roster players as well as the rest of the organization also contributed to BCF, enabling it to provide funding to more than 150 Greater Milwaukee area and Wisconsin not-for-profit organizations that offer basic needs, educational, recreational and health-related services to our communities.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers organization one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his eight years as Principal Owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for some of baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives. Under Attanasio's leadership, the corporate culture focuses on best practices and achieving excellent results across all facets of the Club. Moreover, employees are provided with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the organization's community outreach programs.

In addition to his role as Chairman and Principal Owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 25 years. He is a co-founder and serves as a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as elsewhere around the United States, including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, United Way of Milwaukee, Greater Milwaukee Committee, Harvard-Westlake School and the advisory board of Columbia University School of Law. In addition, he is a member of the Major League Baseball Labor Policy, Finance, Money Management and Diversity committees and was named by Los Angeles Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa to his Blue Ribbon Commission to analyze bringing an NFL team to downtown Los Angeles.

Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger recently completed his ninth season with the Milwaukee Brewers and first in his role as Chief Operating Officer. He was named to his current position on January 24, 2011 after previously serving as Executive Vice President of Business Operations. Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, guest services, public relations, community relations, broadcasting and communications.

Since Schlesinger joined the Brewers, attendance for home games has increased 80%, from 1.7 million in 2003 (25th in MLB) to the franchise record of nearly 3.1 million (7th) achieved last season. In his nine years with the Club, season ticket sales have more than doubled and all areas of the business have seen dramatic growth.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. The 2012 season will continue that trend with upgrades and new construction for various retail outlets, including a re-creation of the iconic "Bernie's Chalet" in the left field Hot Corner area of Miller Park, and a new retail store on the Club Level.

Other recent enhancements at Miller Park under Schlesinger include installation of one of baseball's largest and advanced scoreboards; a statue honoring MLB Commissioner and former Brewers Owner Bud Selig; complete renovations of the Brewers Team Store by Majestic; construction of the Harley-Davidson Deck, Splash Zone, NYCE Stadium Club, Gehl Club, Associated Bank Kids Zone and three Brewers Party Suites; plus complete re-designs of Miller Park's Founder's Suites and Club Level Suites, Miller Park function rooms and Media Interview Room.

Schlesinger's efforts to upgrade the fan experience at Miller Park have been well received both locally and nationally. In recent years, the Brewers and Miller Park have been recognized by both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In the 2010 and 2011 ESPN The Magazine's "Ultimate Franchise Rankings," the team finished second out of 122 teams in the category of "Most Affordable" and sixth in "Stadium Experience." In 2009, the organization received a high honor in being named one of five finalists for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award. That same year, the Brewers placed seventh overall - and second among all MLB clubs - in ESPN The Magazine's annual ranking of all 122 major professional franchises. Finally, in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience as voted on by both media and fans.

Under Schlesinger's leadership, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community. Most significantly, the organization re-branded its Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. philanthropic arm in 2010 and created several new impact initiatives to continue building fundraising efforts to benefit area causes. Recent efforts have also included the creation of the "Brewers Community Foundation Week," (a week designated to highlight the many efforts of the Milwaukee Brewers' many contributions to the community), "Green Week" (to mark the franchise's sustainability efforts), and "Brewers Heritage Games" (where the team wears alternate uniforms and hosts cultural activities to celebrate the great ethnic diversity of Southeast Wisconsin).

On the corporate marketing front, the Brewers have significantly expanded their reach in recent years. Since 2005 alone, sponsorship revenue has increased 90% and the total number of Brewers sponsors/partners has more than doubled. The Club has achieved similar success in retail and concession sales.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as the Vice President, Business and Legal Affairs/Assistant General Manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after coming to Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) from Walt Disney Pictures and Television. Schlesinger handled all contract and legal matters for ASI, the Angels and the NHL's Mighty Ducks, and worked on all contractual and arbitration issues for the baseball club.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, Schlesinger spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Active in the community, Schlesinger serves on the Board of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee that contributes to the cultural and economic base of the Milwaukee Metropolitan area. He has also served as an adjunct professor at Marquette University Law School where he taught a class in sports law.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin and resides in Milwaukee. He has three children - daughter Caitlin and sons Bradley and Sam.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, with over 18 years of experience in professional baseball, begins his 10th season in a senior business executive role with the Brewers.

Quinn joined the Brewers on January 3, 2003 as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer before being promoted to his current role on July 19, 2007. A fourth-generation baseball executive, Quinn oversees the financial operations of the Brewers as well as human resources, information systems, Miller Park operations, Arizona spring training operations and business administration.

Quinn plays a lead role in creating the annual and long-range business and financial plan for the Brewers that has allowed the team to stay competitive on the field, and provided the resources to continuously enhance the fan experience at Miller Park. He was instrumental in the creation of new fan enhancements at Miller Park as well as significant changes in game entertainment, ticket packages and promotions.

Quinn also initiated several programs that have been critical to the Brewers' customer service practices. In 2007, he began the "Trading Places" program, where team management worked on the frontlines as concession workers, parking attendants, ticket takers, ushers and ballpark maintenance workers to sample the experience from the perspective of both event staff and fans. The past five years he has led the "Fans First" effort, with Brewers front office executives randomly awarding fans each night with ticket upgrades, autographed items and once in a lifetime entertainment experiences.

In his tenure, the Brewers have posted significant gains in all areas of the business operations. Under Quinn's leadership, the team has established franchise attendance records, peaking at over three million fans in three of the past four seasons, including a franchise record of nearly 3.1 million last season. The Club has also posted dramatically increased sales and revenue in merchandise, concessions and team sponsorships. With these gains, the Brewers in 2009 were named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award. The team also placed at or near the top in multiple other fan, media and industry surveys from 2005 through 2011.

Prior to coming to Milwaukee, Quinn spent nine years with the San Francisco Giants from 1994-2002, last serving as Vice President of Finance. He served in many capacities and contributed in all areas of the business throughout his tenure. He also played an instrumental role in the private financing and construction of AT&T Park.

Quinn graduated from Marquette University in 1990 with a degree in accounting and worked for the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse in Milwaukee and San Francisco before joining the Giants.

In addition to his accomplishments, Quinn continues a family legacy and influence in professional baseball, and in professional sports, as a member of one of the game's most celebrated multi-generational families. Covering over 275 combined years of experience, tradition and dedication to professional sports and professional baseball, Quinn comes from a long line of front office sports executives. His father, Robert E. Quinn, was General Manager for the San Francisco Giants, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds (including the 1990 World Champions). Quinn's grandfather, John Quinn, was General Manager of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves (including the 1957 World Champions) and of the Philadelphia Phillies. His great grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was General Manager for the St. Louis Browns, Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves, and served as the first curator of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.

Quinn's honors and awards include being named as Milwaukee's "2008 CFO of the Year" by the Business Journal. In January 2007, he was honored with the Young Alumnus Award, conferred through the College of Business Administration of Marquette University. In 2005, he was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list, a prestigious honor bestowed upon those who demonstrate leadership and accomplishments in their profession and community.

In 2012, Quinn begins a role with his alma mater, leading instruction for a masters course in "Sports Leadership Specialization" at Marquette for the College of Professional Studies.

Quinn serves as Vice President and Treasurer of the Brewers Community Foundation, Inc., the Club's philanthropic arm which provides financial and other support for youth recreation, scholarships and education throughout Wisconsin. The Foundation was re-branded in 2010 and has contributed financial and in-kind support to hundreds of area organizations. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves as a mentor to college students in the area.

Quinn has played lead guitar in several rock bands, culminating in appearances at Milwaukee's Summerfest Music Festival several times in recent years.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - GENERAL MANAGER

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin was named Executive Vice President and General Manager on September 26, 2002. He is the eighth GM in Brewers history. Following the 2008 season, he signed a contract extension that will keep him in Milwaukee through the 2012 season.

Melvin was named 2011 Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America after the team won a franchise-record 96 games and captured the National League Central Division title. He was also awarded Co-Executive of the Year by The Sporting News along with Detroit's Dave Dombrowski.

Melvin and his staff made several key moves which led to last season's success. He strengthened the pitching staff by acquiring former American League Cy Young Award winner Zack Greinke from Kansas City and Shaun Marcum from Toronto. Just prior to Opening Day, he acquired outfielder Nyjer Morgan from Washington. On the night of the 2011 All-Star Game, Melvin acquired reliever Francisco Rodriguez from New York-NL, and later in the second half of the season, infielder Jerry Hairston from Washington. All of these acquisitions proved to be big contributors to the team as the Brewers marched to the postseason for the second time in four years.

After a successful 2011, Melvin and his staff made a number of key free-agent signings to keep the team strong, including third baseman Aramis Ramirez, shortstop Alex Gonzalez and Japanese outfielder Norichika Aoki. He also bolstered the bullpen by acquiring reliever Jose Veras via trade with Pittsburgh.

Melvin was also able to ink one of the Brewers' homegrown stars, Ryan Braun, to a contract extension last season. The 2011 National League MVP is signed through 2020, marking the longest contract in franchise history.

During his tenure, Melvin has recorded 717 wins, three winning seasons, two postseason berths and a National League Central Division Championship.

In 2008, Melvin helped to bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years as the team finished 90-72, good enough to capture the National League Wild Card that season. The mid-season acquisition of CC Sabathia from Cleveland was key to the 2008 postseason run and will go down as one of the biggest trades in franchise history.

In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as it went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central. That offseason, Melvin added a number of veterans who played key roles in 2008, a group that included Mike Cameron, Jason Kendall and Salomon Torres.

The organization's farm system has produced a number of players who have contributed greatly to the Major League team since Melvin joined the organization. Ryan Braun, selected in the first round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, is a four-time All-Star and was 2007 National League Rookie of the Year in addition to his 2011 MVP honor. The system has also produced All-Stars Corey Hart, Yovani Gallardo and Rickie Weeks.

Melvin has also been successful at using the waiver wire to acquire players who have made contributions to the Major League team. Included in that group of players claimed by Melvin are current Brewers George Kottaras and Marco Estrada and former Brewers Casey McGehee, Brady Clark, Todd Coffey, Joe Inglett, Scott Podsednik and Derrick Turnbow. He has also signed a number of players to minor-league deals who have gone on to contribute to the Major League team, including the 2011 National League Rolaids Relief Award winner John Axford, Chris Narveson and Kameron Loe.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 59, was the General Manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the team won the American League West three times. Melvin was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan, Tom Schieffer.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization as a special assistant to owner Edward Bennett Williams and General Manager Hank Peters beginning in 1986. He became Director of Player Personnel in charge of Minor League Operations in November 1987 and added the title of Assistant General Manager under Executive Vice President and General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his retirement as an active player. He pitched batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the Major League coaching staff, earning a promotion to Scouting Director in 1985. In that role, he and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing All-Star Bernie Williams.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1996 and Major League Executive of the Year by the same publication in 1998. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996. He has been awarded National League Executive of the Year twice by the Negro League Baseball Museum (2009 & 2011). Melvin's most recent honor was announced this past February as he will be inducted into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame on June 23, 2012. He is already a member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame (1997) and the Chatham, Ontario Sports Hall of Fame (2000).

Melvin is one of only five Canadian natives to ever serve as a Major League GM, joining George Selkirk (Washington), Murray Cook (New York-AL, Montreal and Cincinnati), Gord Ash (Toronto) and Alex Anthopoulos (Toronto). Ash is currently the Assistant GM of the Brewers.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the minors for Pittsburgh and New York-AL, going 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years before being released. After sitting out 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by Pat Gillick and played four more years.

The Chatham, Ontario native played football, basketball and hockey at Chatham Kent Secondary School and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He still holds the school's basketball record with 55 points in one game. He played in a number of amateur baseball leagues in his hometown and credits another Chatham native, Hall of Famer Ferguson Jenkins, with influencing him to pursue his pro baseball career.

Doug and his wife Ellen have been visible in the community, making a yearly commitment to the Susan G. Komen Foundation for Breast Cancer Awareness. In appreciation of the community support, they donate $25,000 a year to selected programs through Brewers Community Foundation.

Doug and Ellen have two children, Ashley and Cory. Cory is in his fourth season in the organization as a professional scout.

VICE PRESIDENT - ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

GORD ASH

Gord Ash is entering his 10th season with the Brewers, his fifth under his current title. Ash joined the organization on November 1, 2002 as Assistant General Manager, and was promoted on January 15, 2008.

Ash assists with all aspects of the day-to-day baseball operation, including strategic planning, the development and implementation of the baseball plan, and long-term contract negotiations, including multi-year deals for core Brewers players Ryan Braun, Rickie Weeks, Yovani Gallardo and Corey Hart. His efforts have been key to the resurgence of the organization as the Brewers have been recognized with multiple honors at both the Major League and Minor League levels in recent seasons.

Ash, 60, brings a wealth of business and baseball experience to his post with the Brewers. Prior to joining the organization, he served as Vice President and General Manager of the Toronto Blue Jays, a title he held from 1994-2001. During his tenure, such current stars as Vernon Wells, Roy Halladay and Orlando Hudson were selected in the First-Year Player Draft. In addition, Blue Jays pitchers won three consecutive Cy Young Awards (Pat Hentgen, 1996; Roger Clemens 1997-98) while the 2000 Blue Jays became the first team in Major League history to have four players hit 20 home runs prior to the All-Star Break (Delgado, Batista, Mondesi, Cruz).

Ash began his professional career working for the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in May 1974. Following his tenure with the CIBC, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays first in 1977 as a part-time gameday employee then in a full-time role in February 1978 as a ticket office employee. The very next year he moved into the stadium operations department and became Assistant Director of Stadium Operations in February 1980.

In February 1984, Ash was appointed Blue Jays Administrator of Player Personnel, supervising the daily operation of the farm system. He was again promoted in January 1989 to the role of Assistant General Manager, working closely with General Manager Pat Gillick in the daily operation of the team. During their tenure, the Blue Jays won consecutive World Series titles in 1992 and 1993 in addition to American League East titles in 1985, 1989 and 1991. On October 14, 1994, Ash was named Vice President and General Manager.

During his distinguished career, Ash has served on a number of committees for Major League Baseball on such topics as labor, collective bargaining, technology, continuing education and minor-league facilities standards.

During his one season away from the game (2002), Ash served as a baseball analyst for the Team Radio Network and TSN, a national sports television network in Canada. He also wrote a weekly baseball column for TSN.ca in addition to serving as a consultant to an international sports special risk insurer, WJ Sutton and Co., based in Toronto.

Ash graduated from York University in 1974 with a degree in history and sociology and recently served as a member of the Power of 50 group, a team of York alumni who acted as ambassadors to help the school celebrate its 50th anniversary. In addition, Ash completed post graduate executive development courses at Queen's University and the University of Michigan.

SENIOR ADMINISTRATOR - BASEBALL OPERATIONS

BARB STARK

Barb Stark is in her 43rd season with the Brewers. Stark is the only employee to be with the organization since it came to Milwaukee from Seattle, and thus is the longest-tenured team employee.

Stark handles day-to-day administration for Doug Melvin, Gord Ash and other baseball operations staff. She was named to her current position following the 1999 season.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER/ PRO SCOUTING/PLAYER PERSONNEL

DICK GROCH

Dick Groch (Growsh) joined the Brewers on October 15, 2002. Groch previously spent two seasons in scouting with the Montreal Expos and 20 with the New York Yankees. He has seen 16 players he signed wear a Major League uniform. His most notable Major League player signed is Derek Jeter.

Groch has been named to the Port Huron Sports Hall of Fame and the National Junior College Hall of Fame. The Toronto Sun named Groch 2004 Canadian National Scout of the Year. He received the Meritorious Service Award from the American Baseball Coaches Association in 2006.

Groch received his bachelor's degree from Olivet College in 1962 and his master's degree from Central Michigan University in 1963. During his coaching days with St. Clair Community College, his record was 497-208 and his team appeared in the NJCAA World Series in 1970, 1972 and 1976, earning him District Coach of the Year. His team was the NJCAA World Series runner-up in 1976. Fifty-six of his former players were drafted by Major League teams with 44 signing contracts.

Groch also coached several seasons in international competition, serving on the United States team in the 1977 Intercontinental Cup and in the 1979 USA Pan American Games. He appeared on the staff for the Canadian National Team in the 1983 Pan American Games and the 1984 Olympic Games. In 1989, he was named to the coaching staff for the Eastern Leagues Diamond Diplomacy Tour of the USSR.

Groch has written two books, Mastering Baseball (Contemporary Press-Chicago, Illinois) and Baseball the Major League Way (W.C. Brown Company-Dubuque, Iowa).

Groch was born in Toledo, Ohio. He and his wife, Nancy, reside in St. Clair, Michigan. The couple has a daughter, Julie, two sons, Brian and Nick, and nine grandchildren.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER/BASEBALL OPERATIONS

DAN O'BRIEN

Dan O'Brien is entering his sixth season with the Brewers. He was named to his current position on November 27, 2006.

O'Brien assists in all facets of the baseball operations department. He serves as a talent evaluator and a strategic advisor to Doug Melvin for the Major League team, player development, scouting and international operations. He originally joined the organization in March 2006 to assist with the evaluation of players in the farm system. This past season, O'Brien oversaw the renovation and ultimate relocation of the new Brewers Latin American Academy in the Dominican Republic.

O'Brien brings over 30 years of Major League front office experience to the Brewers. Prior to joining the organization, he was the General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds from October 2003 through January 2006. Before joining the Reds, O'Brien was the Assistant General Manager of the Texas Rangers for seven seasons, during which time they won two American League West titles in the five years he worked together with Melvin.

Prior to his time with the Rangers, O'Brien served as Director of Player Development and Scouting with the Houston Astros. During his 15-year tenure with the Astros, he oversaw one of the most productive farm systems in the game, which included his involvement in signing and developing All-Star players such as Roy Oswalt, Johan Santana, Bobby Abreu, Billy Wagner, Craig Biggio, Freddy Garcia, Luis Gonzalez, Kenny Lofton and Carlos Guillen.

O'Brien began his baseball career in the marketing and sales department of the Seattle Mariners during the first five years of their existence. His varied business background, coupled with his extensive player personnel experience, is a rare combination among baseball executives and gives him a unique understanding of the overall daily operations of a Major League franchise.

O'Brien graduated with honors in 1976 from Rollins College with a double major in business and economics, at which time he earned a Rhodes Scholarship nomination. A native of Columbus, Ohio, he earned a master's degree in sports administration in 1977 from Ohio University, where he was also an assistant baseball coach. He was honored with the Ohio University Distinguished Alumni Award in 2005.

In the offseason, O'Brien serves as a guest lecturer for the graduate level sports administration program at Xavier University. His involvement allows him the privilege of providing career guidance and direction for students looking to enter the profession.

His father, Dan O'Brien, Sr., was a long-time Major League executive. Dan and his wife, Gail, reside in the Greater Cincinnati area.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER/ DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/TRAINING CENTER

REID NICHOLS

Reid Nichols, 53, was named to his current position in November 2002.

He oversees the Brewers' minor-league operations and is based out of the Arizona complex in Maryvale. Nichols also oversees the team's development camp each winter, where a group of minor-league players come to Maryvale for baseball, physical and life skills training.

Nichols prior experience includes serving as Director of Player Development and Minor League Instruction for the Texas Rangers from 1994-2001. During his tenure with the Rangers, he took the farm system from a ranking of 28th to fourth as rated by Baseball Weekly.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Nichols was Director of Field Operations for the Baltimore Orioles in 1993 and worked as a coach and instructor in the Orioles' system from 1991-93.

Nichols spent 13 seasons in professional baseball as a player and appeared in 540 games in the Major Leagues with Boston, Chicago-AL and Montreal from 1980-87.

Nichols was born in Ocala, Florida. He has three daughters, Amanda, Erin and Kendall. He resides with his wife, Elaine, in Phoenix.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

CRAIG COUNSELL

After a 15-year playing career, Craig Counsell, 41, joined the front office on January 17, 2012 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager.

Counsell owns a career .255 batting average in 1,623 games with Colorado (1995, '97), Florida (1997-99), Los Angeles (1999), Arizona (2000-03, '05-06) and Milwaukee (2004, '07-11). He played on four teams that qualified for the postseason, including World Series titles with Florida (1997) and Arizona (2001). He scored the game-winning run in Game 7 of the 1997 World Series against Cleveland. He was named Most Valuable Player of the 2001 National League Championship Series after batting .381 in the Diamondbacks' five-game victory against Atlanta.

During his time with Milwaukee, Counsell earned the team's Good Guy Award in 2008 and 2009 as voted on by members of the Milwaukee Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. He ended his playing career as the franchise leader in pinch hits (41) and pinch-hit at-bats (167).

A 1992 graduate from the University of Notre Dame with a degree in accounting, Counsell was named team MVP in his senior season. He was selected by Colorado in the 11th round of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft.

Counsell follows in the footsteps of his father, John, who worked in the Milwaukee front office as Director of the Speakers Bureau from 1979-85 and Director of Community Relations from 1986-87 following a five-year playing career as an outfielder in the Twins organization from 1964-68.

Counsell, a 1988 graduate of Whitefish Bay High School, currently resides in that same town with his wife, Michelle, their sons, Brady and Jack, and daughters, Finley and Rowan.

Active in the community, the Counsells support a number of causes, including the Urban Ecology Center in Milwaukee, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer (MACC) Fund, the Boys & Girls Clubs and Notre Dame Athletics.

DIRECTOR - AMATEUR SCOUTING
BRUCE SEID

Bruce Seid (side) is in his fourth season in his current position and 15th overall in the organization.

Seid spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons as West Coast crosschecker and nine seasons (1998-2006) as an amateur scout with the Brewers, scouting the Southern California and Southern Nevada regions.

Of the current Brewers top 10 Baseball America prospects, six have been drafted during Seid's tenure as Director of Amateur Scouting. Pitcher Mike Fiers, drafted in 2009, became the first player selected during Seid's three-year tenure to play in the Major Leagues with the Brewers as he pitched with the team in 2011.

Seid was the signing scout for 2011 Brewers Minor League Player of the Year Taylor Green (25th round in 2005) and the crosschecker for 2008 drafted players out of the West Coast region that brought back Nyjer Morgan (Cutter Dykstra) and Jerry Hairston (Erik Komatsu) in trades last season.

In his first year with the Brewers (1998), Seid was responsible for drafting and signing starting pitcher Nick Neugebauer (2nd round). Neugebauer was ranked as the Brewers' top prospect by Baseball America in 2000 and 2002. He reached the majors at age 20 in 2001 but saw his career end due to a shoulder injury in 2003.

Seid's scouting career began as a part-time scout with San Diego in 1992 and was followed by four seasons as an area scout in the Padres organization from 1993-96. In 1997, he worked as an amateur scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he was responsible for scouting Kentucky, Ohio and Michigan.

A former fourth-round draft choice of the Chicago Cubs in 1980, Seid spent three seasons in the minor leagues as a second baseman. He was a Gulf Coast League All-Star during his first pro season. Prior to being drafted, he was a four-time All-Region, twice First Team All-State and 1980 All-American selection at Oak Park High School in Michigan. Seid was inducted into the Michigan Jewish Sports Hall of Fame for his achievements in November 2011.

DIRECTOR - BASEBALL OPERATIONS
TOM FLANAGAN

Tom Flanagan, 39, enters his 23rd season in the organization and his seventh in his current position. Prior to his current role, Flanagan was Assistant Director of Scouting for six seasons from 2000-05 and Baseball Operations Assistant from 1996-99.

Flanagan works in concert with Gord Ash in handling the day-to-day duties of the baseball operations department. His duties include administration of player moves at the minor-league level, negotiating player contracts and traveling with the Major League team during parts of the season on behalf of Doug Melvin. He is involved in major and minor-league rules administration as well as preparations for the First-Year Player Draft. He also works closely with Bruce Seid and Reid Nichols in matters of player personnel and staffing.

Flanagan began his career with the Brewers in 1990 as a batboy in the visiting clubhouse. He then served as an attendant in the home clubhouse from 1992-96.

Born in Milwaukee, Flanagan graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, where he earned a degree in business administration.

DIRECTOR - TEAM TRAVEL
DAN LARREA

Dan Larrea, 43, joined the Brewers in 1996 as a member of the media relations department. He was named to his current position in 1997 and is considered the second Latino traveling secretary in Major League Baseball history.

Larrea is responsible for coordinating all phases of travel logistics for Brewers players, coaches and front office staff, including all spring training arrangements in Maryvale, Arizona. His duties include arranging hotel rooms, buses, air travel, baggage transportation, game tickets and per diems for spring training, the regular season and the postseason.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Larrea was a graduate intern in the media relations department of the Denver Broncos in 1995. Larrea earned his bachelor's degree in political science from the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1992, where he played rugby and was selected to the Southern California Collegiate All-Star Team. He received his master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts in 1995.

Larrea was born in Sacramento, California. He and his wife, Stacy, reside in St. Francis, Wisconsin.

BUSINESS MANAGER/PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

SCOTT MARTENS

Scott Martens is entering his 25th season with the Brewers and his seventh in his current position.

Martens is responsible for creating, overseeing and administering all operating budgets for each of the minor-league teams and programs. He also serves as a liaison with each of the Brewers' minor-league affiliates and their front offices and works with each in all matters with regards to their player development contracts.

Martens joined the organization in 1987 as Assistant of Baseball Operations. In 1992, he was named Assistant Director of Scouting and in 1996 was named Assistant Director of Scouting and Baseball Operations. During the 1999 and 2000 seasons, he was Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development. From 2001-05, Martens was Assistant Director of Player Development.

Martens is a native of Milwaukee and attended the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, where he earned a degree in mass communications with a minor in political science.

Martens and his family reside in Port Washington, Wisconsin.

DIRECTOR - PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

ZACK MINASIAN

Zack Minasian, 28, is in his eighth season with the Brewers, his second in his current position, and 15th in professional baseball.

Minasian oversees all aspects of the professional scouting department. His responsibilities range from running the scout development program to implementation of the direction and strategy of the pro scouting efforts to assistance in player transactions.

Prior to his current role, he served as Manager – Minor League Scouting Personnel/Coordinator of Pro Scouting after working as a baseball operations assistant.

A native of Chicago, Illinois, Minasian grew up in Arlington, Texas, where he graduated from the University of Texas-Arlington.

He spent several years working in a Major League clubhouse with his father, Zack, who served as a clubhouse and equipment manager from 1989 through 2009. Along with his brothers, his family has a combined 95 years in professional baseball.

Zack is godson to Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda and his wife Jo. He resides in Milwaukee.

DIRECTOR - VIDEO SCOUTING AND BASEBALL RESEARCH

KARL MUELLER

Karl Mueller, 32, is entering his ninth season with the Brewers and his second in his current position.

Mueller joined the Brewers as a baseball operations assistant in January 2004 and served as Coordinator/Manager of Advance Scouting and Baseball Research through the 2005-10 seasons. Prior to joining the Brewers, he spent the 2003 season as a baseball operations intern with the Cincinnati Reds.

Mueller oversees the Major League video operation and is actively involved in both advance scouting and player personnel. He also assists Doug Melvin and Gord Ash with statistical analysis, salary arbitration preparation, payroll projections and contract negotiations for players with less than three years of Major League service time.

Matt Kenny joined the Brewers in 2006 and is entering his second season in his current title. As Senior Director of Event Services, he oversees the fan experience at Miller Park. In addition to directing all aspects of the services, staff, and relationships that interact with guests, he assists in the development of non-baseball events at Miller Park, serves as the club representative with government agencies and community businesses, and co-chairs the Club's sustainability efforts.

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Kenny developed an interest in the business of entertainment while pursuing a degree in finance from Miami University (OH). He enjoys music, design, cooking and golf and resides in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin with his wife Ann, sons Charlie and Graham, and their dog Hattie.

SENIOR DIRECTOR - CORPORATE MARKETING

ANDREW PAULS

Andrew Pauls, 36, enters his seventh season with the Brewers, having joined the organization in 2005. He was named to his current role on November 1, 2010. Pauls served as Director of Corporate Marketing for two seasons and Manager of Suite Sales from 2005-08.

Pauls is responsible for generating revenue through sales of corporate partnerships, management and renewal of team sponsorships, tracking of inventory and supervision of the corporate marketing account service team.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Pauls founded and managed two companies -- Clear Path Partners, a business development consulting firm in Milwaukee, and cdINK, a web development company in New York City. He started his career in New York working for Ruder Finn, an international public relations firm.

A graduate of the University of Oregon with a degree in journalism, Pauls is a native of Sheboygan, Wisconsin. He and his wife Tai, the Manager of Special Events for Brewers Enterprises, reside on the East Side of Milwaukee.

SENIOR DIRECTOR - MARKETING
KATHY SCHWAB

Kathy Schwab, 43, is in her eighth season with the Brewers, having been named to her role in September 2004. Schwab oversees consumer marketing, advertising, research and branding initiatives for the organization.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schwab served as Vice President of Account Services for Zizzo Group Advertising & Public Relations in Milwaukee from 2000-04. She also held the position of Divisional Vice President/Creative Director for The Bon-Ton Stores, Inc., a regional department store chain with corporate offices in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and York, Pennsylvania.

Schwab is active in the Milwaukee community as well as nationally through volunteer efforts, advisory boards, and business organizations. She served as communications co-chair for Milwaukee's 2008 United Way Campaign. She currently sits on the Board of Directors for Children's Service Society of Wisconsin, a member of Children's Hospital. She has volunteered for many years with the Vince Lombardi Cancer Foundation and also serves on the marketing advisory boards for the YMCA of Greater Milwaukee and other organizations throughout the Milwaukee area.

Schwab is a Milwaukee Trustee for the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation; serves on the Steering Committee for the National Sports Forum; and is a member of TEMPO, a leading Milwaukee metro-area business organization.

Schwab was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list in 2006.

A native of York, Pennsylvania, Schwab played Division III volleyball and graduated with a degree in English/professional writing and a minor in business administration from Elizabethtown College in 1990.

Schwab and her husband, Dick, reside in Fox Point, Wisconsin.

SENIOR DIRECTOR - COMMUNITY RELATIONS
KATINA SHAW

Katina Shaw joined the Brewers organization in September 2006 as a community relations assistant and is entering her first season in her current role. She served as Community Relations Director for the previous three seasons.

Shaw serves as a liaison between the team and Wisconsin area charitable, scholastic and civic organizations. Prior to working with the Brewers, Shaw spent seven years as Market Manager for the American Diabetes Association.

Shaw is a member of various boards and committees in the Milwaukee community, including the American Lung Association Leadership Board, Wheaton Franciscan North Market Foundation Board, One Accord Foundation and the Girl Scouts of Wisconsin.

SENIOR DIRECTOR - BUSINESS OPERATIONS
TEDDY WERNER

Teddy Werner, 35, enters his seventh season with the Brewers and second in his current title. He joined the team in April 2006.

Werner assists with the organization's business affairs, with particular attention paid to construction projects and other enhancements to the Miller Park experience. He also oversees the salary arbitration practice. Earlier this year, Werner was named to the "Forty Under 40" list by The Milwaukee Business Journal.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Werner was a labor and employment associate at Proskauer Rose LLP in New York from 2003-06. He also worked in the NFL's media relations department from 1998-2000.

Werner is a board member of the Milwaukee College Preparatory School and is co-founder of the Miracle League of Milwaukee. He graduated from Yale University in 1998 and from Duke Law School in 2003.

A native of Los Angeles, Werner resides in Whitefish Bay with his wife Karin, and children, Isabel, Andy and Nora. Werner has completed the Boston, New York and Chicago Marathons and enjoys golf, skiing, games of Scrabble and spending time with his family.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is the team's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Year in and year out, the Brewers fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In 2011, Team Marketing Report stated in their annual "Fan Cost Index" survey that the Brewers ranked as the eighth-most affordable fan experience in Major League Baseball. It was the second consecutive year that the Brewers have ranked eighth in that survey. In each of the previous three seasons, the Brewers have ranked in the top quarter of all professional sports franchises (122 overall) in ESPN's "Ultimate Franchise Rankings."

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in each of its 11 seasons. Updates to the ballpark in 2012 include a new Brewers Team Store on the Club Level as well as updates to the Gehl Club and a new party suite honoring the 2011 Brewers.

In 2011, the Brewers debuted a state-of-the-art, high definition scoreboard at Miller Park. At 5,940 square feet, it is the fourth-largest scoreboard in Major League Baseball. It is also the third, true 1080, high definition scoreboard in baseball.

The Brewers continue to make updates to the ballpark that make it one of the best venues in Major League Baseball and a major destination in the city of Milwaukee and state of Wisconsin. Other recent improvements at Miller Park include the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level (2009); the outdoor Plaza Pavilion (2009); the new Brewers Team Store by Majestic (2009); the renovation of 43 Club Level suites (2009); the Harley-Davidson Deck (2009); the renovation of the "NYCE Stadium Club" (2008); the Associated Bank Kids Zone (2008); the Gehl Club (2007) and the ATI Club (2007).

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning. On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the State of Wisconsin. He, along with Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

This was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark also hosted the filming of the movie "Mr. 3000," starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, as well as the Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. And in 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the Miller Park parking lots.

Most recently, in October 2010, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp.

On Saturday, October 4, 2008, the ballpark played host to its first ever postseason game. A frenzied sellout crowd of 43,992 watched the Brewers defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, in Game 3 of the NLDS. Hall of Fame Brewers broadcaster Bob Uecker threw out the ceremonial first pitch to a thunderous roar. More postseason games were played at Miller Park in 2011 as the team reached the NLCS for the first time in franchise history.

Miller Park has drawn nearly 28 million visitors in its first 11 seasons. That was highlighted by a record 3,071,373 for Brewers baseball last season, which established the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. The Brewers have now drawn 3 million-plus fans in three of the last four seasons.

Miller Park has been a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Frontier Airlines Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley-Davidson Museum, Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a great place to visit.

TOURS

Experience the magnificence of Miller Park while enjoying an exclusive tour that includes a number of behind-the-scenes attractions. Daily tours run from April through September and cover more than one-half mile and 70 minutes. All tours are wheelchair accessible. Groups of 20 or more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance. Admission for the Miller Park tour is $10 for adults and $6 for children 12 and under and senior citizens. Special rates are also available for youth groups.

Tours are not offered when the Brewers play day games at Miller Park. For more information on tours, including times, please call the Miller Park Tour Hotline at (414) 902-4005.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark by the statues of Robin Yount, Hank Aaron and Commissioner Selig. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 16 inductees going into the 2012 season. The first class in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount.

Beginning in 2006, balloting changed to follow the National Baseball Hall of Fame guidelines with candidates needing 75% of the vote for election. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city. The first year, Eddie Mathews, Warren Spahn and former GM John Quinn were elected.

HELFAER FIELD: WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, the facility was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget. For 2012, Helfaer Field will receive a number of upgrades including a fresh paint job, new signage and misters for hot summer days.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was also replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third-base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there will be up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there will be up to three time slots at two hours each, and the facility is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to game days.

For more information on Helfaer Field reservations check out the club's website at brewers.com or call the Helfaer Field coordinator at (414) 902-4888.

SUNDAYS AT HELFAER

Beginning May 13, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field. Helfaer Field Sundays gives fans of all ages a chance to enjoy baseball's premier youth baseball facility. The ballpark opens 2 1/2 hours prior to the Brewers first pitch and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2012 season. Kids and adults alike can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats are not allowed.

BREWERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Community Relations Department of the Milwaukee Brewers is committed to supporting many worthy events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans that have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Many charities, educational groups, youth groups, and non-profit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches and front office staff, will continue exercising our pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout our region.

Auction Requests

The Milwaukee Brewers receive thousands of requests annually to assist local non-profit organizations, and community and civic groups with in-kind donations for fundraising events. Being an active and contributing member of our community is very important to us and we make every effort to accommodate requests within our region. In our continuing efforts to "Go Green," we will no longer accept written letter or fax donation requests. All future donation requests must be submitted online at brewers.com/donations. Visit brewers.com/donations where you will find our new donation guidelines and the online submission form.

Brewers On Deck

Brewers On Deck is the team's annual fan fest and season preview. Families can enjoy a day full of interactive games, clinics, autographs from players and the Brewers Community Foundation Treasure Hunt; featuring game-worn jerseys, game-used equipment and other Brewers paraphernalia. All proceeds from the treasure hunt go towards the Brewers Community Foundation youth recreation and education programs.

Brewers Community Achievers

This program recognizes everyday people from the local community who have helped their neighborhoods in extraordinary ways. Fans can nominate their Community Achiever online or pick up a nomination form at the Guest Relations booth at Miller Park.

Brewers Wives in the Community

Brewer players' wives play an important role in community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Brewers players and their wives make appearances at schools, youth groups and hospitals. Many of the players and their wives purchase game tickets and food vouchers for kids or provide direct financial support for youth groups.

Cerveceros Day

In partnership with the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Wisconsin, the Brewers pay an annual tribute to Hispanic baseball by taking the field in their "Cerveceros" jerseys - "Cerveceros" is the Spanish translation of "Brewers." The Chamber's annual "Fiesta Tailgate", along with bilingual PA announcements, scoreboard features and mariachi bands, give the whole ballpark a Latin flare.

Fatherhood Initiative Trip

Brewers staff and alumnus escort a group of fathers and their children on a one-day road trip to watch the Brewers game and enjoy a tailgate party with Brewers players prior to the game. This unique program is a tie-in with the Mayor's Fatherhood Initiative to bring together the past, present and future by raising awareness about the importance of involved, responsible and committed fathers.

Home Run Fitness Powered by HOPSPORTS

The Milwaukee Brewers provide HOPSports Training Systems for designated schools and youth community organizations throughout Wisconsin.

The training systems focus on the importance of physical fitness, nutrition and weight management and are being utilized to train, evaluate, educate and entertain youth of all ages.

Negro Leagues Tribute

As part of our Negro Leagues Tribute, Brewers players wear uniforms inspired by the Milwaukee Bears - the city's 1923 Negro National League team. The game-worn jerseys are signed by the players and auctioned off online. Proceeds from the auction go to Brewers Community Foundation and are earmarked for the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City and Yesterday's Negro League Foundation.

RBI League

The RBI League - Reviving Baseball in the Inner City - is an initiative of Major League Baseball which began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined many other Major League teams in offering this program, which targets African-American teenagers ages 13 to 15. Brewers RBI teams have competed in regional competition. The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Milwaukee County Parks Department and other local baseball groups are important partners in the league. The Brewers Community Foundation, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund and a designated player provide funding.

RBI Athlete of the Month

Each month, an athlete who is enrolled in the RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) will be recognized for his dedication to academics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and monthly performance. RBI coaches can nominate their RBI Athlete of the Month online.

S.C.O.R.E. Education Program

S.C.O.R.E. is the organization's youth education and recreation initiative. The acronym stands for School, Community, Opportunities, Role Models and Excellence. S.C.O.R.E. is designed for players, alumni and front office personnel to serve as ambassadors for increasing the impact of our youth outreach efforts throughout the year. Through school visits, kids are able to learn from members of the Brewers organization, providing special moments that they will always remember. The S.C.O.R.E. program will continue to be presented in the future at most assemblies that involve interaction between Brewers staff and area children. Brewers personnel every year make hundreds of appearances at youth-oriented events. For more information, contact the Community Relations Hotline at (414) 902-4800.

S.C.O.R.E. for Excellence Day

S.C.O.R.E. for Excellence Day is a joint venture with local schools designed to motivate middle school students to excel in academics, attitude and attendance. The event is a one-day morning visit held in May. Brewer players, coaches and front office staff visit middle schools in the Wisconsin area, touching the lives of more than 15,000 youths. They speak to students about the importance of school and community, taking advantage of opportunities, seeking positive role models and striving for excellence in education. Key to the presentation is the use of five baseballs. Each ball features one of the S.C.O.R.E. character messages printed on the side. During the program, players engage children in a dialogue about the importance of these five elements. It is a fun program that opens communication between the children and their role models. All students receive a t-shirt and bookmark.

Youth Baseball Clinics

Each summer, hundreds of youngsters gather at local parks to learn the finer points of baseball. Players and coaches donate their time to help kids develop proper techniques of hitting, pitching, fielding, and base running. The instruction is invaluable with an additional emphasis on sportsmanship and goal setting.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. is the official charitable arm of the Milwaukee Brewers. We are proud to give back to our community in many ways. Brewers Community Foundation harnesses the pride, passion and commitment of Brewers fans, players and other supporters to positively impact the lives of children and families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. We seek to be thoughtful and dependable, philanthropic leaders actively engaged in providing needed financial support consistent with our mission.

Brewers Community Foundation 50/50 Raffle

Tickets will be sold throughout the ballpark from the time gates open during every Brewers home game. The winning ticket will be announced, and a lucky fan will take home half of the net proceeds from the day's raffle ticket sales! The other half will benefit Brewers Community Foundation. Some of the non-profit programs previously supported by the Foundation include Arts at Large, Beckum Stapleton Little League, Boys & Girls Club, COA, Felix Mantilla Little League, Girl Scouts of Milwaukee, Hunger Task Force, Habitat for Humanity, Make-a-Wish, Sojourner Truth House, Susan G. Komen, UPAF, United Way, YMCA, and YWCA.

Brewers Community Foundation Drive for Charity

During the months of April, June and August, Brewers Community Foundation invites fans to drop off items or make a donation of $5 and receive a Milwaukee Brewers player collectible pin. These items and donations are then distributed to non-profit organizations in areas where they are desperately needed. This year the dates and requested items will be:

April 20 – 22: Any new full size toiletry items for men living in a shelter for homeless

June 29 – July 1: New or gently used baseball equipment for youth

August 31 – September 2: New school supplies for children

BCF Week

Brewers Community Foundation will host its third annual BCF Week August 16 through August 22, 2012. The week will feature fundraisers on each game day that will engage and delight fans throughout the homestand. The "Ultimate Auction" will be held online during this period featuring Brewers memorabilia and VIP experiences. Proceeds from each fundraiser will benefit Brewers Community Foundation.

Brewers Buddies Ticket Program

Last season, thousands of complimentary game tickets were distributed to youth groups and community organizations through this program. The program is made possible through the generosity of season seat holders, ownership, players, sponsors and MLB Commissioner Bud Selig, who provides game tickets to Brewers Community Foundation for distribution to community groups. For more information about participation in this program, call (414) 902-4509.

Change for Children Collection Boxes

In an effort to address the many challenges facing our community, Brewers Community Foundation, in partnership with the Brewers, has installed Change for Children Collection Boxes throughout Miller Park. Your change will provide needed financial support to a number of non-profit organizations throughout Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Our small change will have a big impact in the lives of children and their families. We hope you will join our efforts to make a difference.

5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk

Runners and walkers look forward to the annual 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk held each summer at Miller Park. The 2012 5K Run/Walk will be held on July 28th. The event starts and finishes at the Klement's Sausage Haus at Miller Park. Last year 3,000 participants raced with the popular Klement's Famous Racing Sausages, who actually run the entire 5K course. All net proceeds from the annual run/walk support the programs of Brewers Community Foundation. Individual fundraising through Brewers Community Foundation's online tool will provide needed support to Fisher House Wisconsin, a-soon-to-be-built facility for injured military and their families.

Grant Requests

Brewers Community Foundation provides a significant number of grants each year to non-profit organizations. Our funding efforts strategically extend financial support to non-profits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs, with a particular focus on low income and disadvantaged youth and their families. Grants are generally limited up to $10,000 for Wisconsin-based organizations. All grant requests must be made in writing. A grant application form can be found at brewers.com/bcf. In 2011, Brewers Community Foundation awarded more than $2 million in grants and other monetary donations with more than 175 organizations receiving funding.

Evening with Hank Aaron

An Evening With HANK AARON 44 BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Baseball legend and former Braves' and Brewers' great Hank Aaron returns to Milwaukee each year for a special fundraising event held in Miller Park's NYCE Stadium Club and hosted by Brewers Community Foundation. Proceeds from his event are directed to the Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Foundation, which helps area children fulfill a special talent and realize their full potential. The Evening with Hank Aaron event has raised more than $750,000 with funds donated by Brewers Community Foundation and administered through the Greater Milwaukee Foundation.

Little Brewers Club

The Milwaukee Brewers, Brewers Community Foundation, U.S. Cellular, the Boys & Girls Club of Wisconsin and a Brewers player sponsor the Little Brewers Club, a statewide baseball league for children between the ages of six and nine. The program has grown to more than 2,000 children from two dozen Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Wisconsin. Each year the program concludes with a tailgate party at Miller Park.

Scoreboard Recognition Program

Fans can purchase either a Full Scoreboard Message or a Single Line Shared Message during a game at Miller Park through the Scoreboard Recognition Program. Miller Park has been the site of many marriage proposals and birthday wishes through this program. All proceeds benefit Brewers Community Foundation. A scoreboard message form can be requested by e-mailing Meredith Malone at meredith.malone@brewers.com.

Selig Scholars Program

More than 90 students have been recipients of college scholarships through this program, created in the name of former Brewers owner and current Commissioner of Baseball, Allan H. (Bud) Selig. Funding for the scholarships resulted from proceeds donated by Major League Baseball from the All-Star Workout Day, which was part of the 2002 All-Star festivities held at Miller Park. Wisconsin students selected for the program who show promise but are financially challenged receive up to $10,000 in funds to attend a college in Wisconsin and participate in a variety of mentoring, job shadowing and internship opportunities offered through the program.

Applications are available by visiting brewers.com/bcf or by mail at: Brewers Community Foundation, Selig Scholars Program, One Brewers Way, Milwaukee, WI 53214.

Thanksgiving Turkey and Christmas Family Feast

The Milwaukee Brewers, Brewers Community Foundation, Feeding America, Hunger Task Force, Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office and 1290 WMCS-AM radio station mark the Thanksgiving holiday season by donating approximately 500 turkeys with the fixings to families in need throughout the Milwaukee community. A combination of players, coaches, broadcasters and front office staff help deliver Thanksgiving baskets in advance of the holidays. The Brewers Community Foundation joins 1290 WMCS and the Salvation Army annually in support of their effort to feed 10,000 people during the Christmas Family Feast. Toys, hats, gloves and books are distributed to the children who attend this heartwarming annual holiday gathering.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR - BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

CECELIA GORE

Cecelia Gore joined the Brewers on August 13, 2009. During the winter of 2009, she led the rebranding efforts of Brewers Community Foundation and created several new programs to strengthen the Brewers' charitable initiatives throughout the area.

Gore previously served as program director of the Jane Bradley Pettit Foundation. She is an active participant in the community and serves as a member of several Milwaukee-based non-profit boards including Alverno College, Marcus Center for the Performing Arts, Milwaukee Public Library Foundation and Menomonee Valley Partners.

In her role, Gore leads the development of the team's philanthropic efforts through the Brewers Community Foundation. The mission states that Brewers Community Foundation harnesses the pride, passion and commitment of Brewers fans, players and other supporters to positively impact the lives of children and their families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Funding efforts shall strategically extend financial support to non-profits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs, with a particular focus on low-income and disadvantaged youth and their families.

A Milwaukee native, Gore is a graduate of Alverno College, where she earned a bachelor's degree in business and professional communication and master's degree in business administration. She currently resides in Milwaukee with her husband.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

BREWERS ENTERPRISES

Miller Park offers a variety of meeting rooms and function spaces for non-game day activities to accommodate anywhere from 15 to 40,000+ people.

Function spaces including the Brewers Conference Center meeting rooms, two club spaces, the Home Plate Lounge, party suites and concourses, are perfect for business events, conferences, presentations, trade shows and social events. Gehl Club, open since April 2007 and updated for the 2012 season, offers a breathtaking floor-to-ceiling field view and is one of the most unique spots to host a social or business event any month of the year. Gehl Club can comfortably hold up to 240 people between the interior and exterior patio space. Between October and April, when just the interior is available, the Gehl Club is still ideal for groups up to 100 people. In addition to the field view, modern furnishings and indoor and outdoor bars, there are 17 flat-screen televisions and multi-media equipment for presentations and programs.

The NYCE Stadium Club, can accommodate up to 300 guests for an event any day or night of the week throughout the year. The NYCE Stadium Club is an exclusive function space that excels at combining baseball with a formal atmosphere. From social gatherings and business dinners to wedding receptions, class reunions and holiday parties, the options are endless for events in the NYCE Stadium Club on a non-game day. Flat screen televisions, a full indoor bar and ample patio space all add to the one-of-a-kind NYCE Stadium Club experience at Miller Park.

For something larger, a unique way to take advantage of Miller Park on a non-game day is to rent the playing field or even the entire ballpark. Miller Park has hosted concerts by the likes of Bruce Springsteen, Bon Jovi, and the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid benefit. In addition to concerts, Miller Park has been host to private parties and meetings for major corporations. Increasing in popularity, more and more couples are holding their wedding ceremonies at Miller Park. Couples can say their "I do's" at home plate with guests seated around the warning track and in the lower seating bowl. With the addition of personalized scoreboard and ribbon board messages, a wedding ceremony at Miller Park's home plate on a non-game day is sure to be unforgettable.

For more information on hosting a private event of any size at Miller Park, please visit MillerPark.com.

DID YOU KNOW.....

Randy Wolf's brother, Jim, has been a Major League umpire since 1999.....in fact, Randy was sitting in the dugout as a member of the Phillies during Jim's Major League debut in San Francisco on 9/2/99..... by rule, Jim is not permitted to umpire behind the plate during games in which his brother is pitching.....the only exception came during spring training of 2008, when he was the home plate umpire with Randy pitching as member of the Padres.....ironically, the game took place in Maryvale against the Brewers!

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND SCOUTING

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/TRAINING CENTER

TONY DIGGS

Tony Diggs, 44, enters his ninth season in the Brewers organization and his seventh in his current position.

In addition, he will serve his fifth season as the manager of the Arizona Brewers. In 2010, he was named Arizona League Manager of the Year after leading the team to a 34-22 regular-season record and the Arizona League championship.

Diggs assists with the day-to-day administration duties at the Brewers' facility in Maryvale, Arizona. Previously, he served as a hitting coach in the organization with Class-A Beloit (2004) and Class-A Brevard County (2005).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Diggs was a minor-league hitting coach for the St. Louis Cardinals (1998-99, 2002-03). He also spent two years as Director of Player Development/MLB Consultant with the International Baseball League of Australia and was a consultant for Team Australia in the 2000 Olympics.

Selected by the Brewers in the sixth round of the 1989 draft, Diggs played eight professional seasons in the minor leagues with Milwaukee (1989-93) and St. Louis (1994-96). A native of Starke, Florida, he graduated from Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville before attending the University of North Florida. He resides in Goodyear, Arizona with his wife, Kim, and children: Amber, A.J., Aaron, Andrew, Aidan, Alaina and Addison.

ATHLETIC TRAINING COORDINATOR

FRANK NEVILLE

Frank Neville, 45, begins his 10th season in his current position.

He is responsible for overseeing all of the organization's minor-league athletic trainers while supervising the training operations at the Maryvale complex. In 2007 and 2008, he was recognized by his peers as the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) Minor League Medical/Rehab Coordinator of the Year.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Neville served as an athletic training coordinator for eight seasons with the Texas Rangers (1995-2002). He was also an assistant trainer at Western Kentucky University from 1992-94 in addition to being an athletic trainer in the Baltimore Orioles organization for Rookie Bluefield from 1991-93.

PHYSICAL THERAPIST

KENNY PATTERSON

Kenny Patterson, 45, is in his seventh season in the Brewers organization as physical therapist.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Patterson was a physical therapist for Physiotherapy Associates in Tempe, Arizona for two years. From 2001-04, he worked as a sports medicine coordinator at the Creighton University Medical Center and was a staff physical therapist for Sports Rehabilitation Specialists in Fort Worth, Texas in 2000.

His previous experiences include Director of Physical Therapy at Gateway Sports Medicine & Rehab as well as seven years with HealthSouth, where he treated high school, college and professional athletes. During this time, he worked as a rehab consultant for the Texas Rangers organization from 1994-99.

Patterson received an associate's degree from Murray State College in 1987 and a bachelor's degree from Emporia State University in 1990. He is also a 1993 graduate with a master's degree in physical therapy from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Kenny and his wife, Stephanie, have three children: Caleb, Lyric and Nolan. They reside in Avondale, Arizona.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

JEFF MESTER

Jeff Mester, 32, enters his seventh season as strength & conditioning coordinator. He is a certified strength & conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Mester previously spent three seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization. He joined the Reds in 2003 as a strength and conditioning intern for the Dayton Dragons of the Midwest League, where he spent two seasons. In 2005, he was a strength and conditioning intern with the Reds.

He began his baseball career in 2002 working as an intern for the Gulf Coast League team of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

A native of Belmont, Wisconsin, Mester is a 2002 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse with a bachelor's degree in fitness with an emphasis in strength & conditioning and coaching competitive athletics. He also earned a master's degree in exercise and sport science from UW-La Crosse in 2004.

Mester and his wife, Orla, have a daughter, Lauren, and son, Ben. They reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

LATIN LIAISON
ROLANDO VALLES

Rolando Valles, 32, begins his fifth season with the Brewers. In his role, Valles assists with the off-field needs and development of the non-English speaking players in the organization.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Valles spent 10 seasons as a pitcher in the minor leagues (1997-2003, 2005-07). He signed with the Houston Astros as a non-drafted free agent in April 1997 and spent five seasons in their system. He also played in independent leagues with Amarillo (2002-03) and New Haven (2005-07), serving as a player/pitching coach in 2007.

A native of Maracaibo, Venezuela, Valles currently resides in Litchfield Park, Arizona.

MINOR LEAGUE EQUIPMENT MANAGER
J.R. RINALDI

J.R. Rinaldi, 49, enters his 12th season in the Brewers organization in his current position at the Maryvale complex.

A veteran of 22 years in Major League Baseball, Rinaldi previously worked for the Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers organizations. He has also served as the equipment manager for the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio for 25 years.

Rinaldi is a certified professional equipment manager and works as a journeyman ironworker in his spare time. In 2007, he was re-elected to his second term as a member of the Canton City School District Board of Education.

Rinaldi has two children, Chelsee and Nick, and resides in Canton, Ohio, the birthplace of professional football.

MARYVALE CLUBHOUSE MANAGER
MATT BASS

Matt Bass, 37, begins his 12th season with the Brewers. Bass is responsible for assisting with the daily operations of the Maryvale clubhouse. In 2003, he served as the equipment manager at the Maryvale complex for Team USA during its preparation for pre-Olympic qualifying.

Before joining the Brewers organization, Bass spent two seasons (1999-2000) as the assistant minor-league equipment manager for the Houston Astros at Osceola County Stadium in Kissimmee, Florida. He also worked as an operations assistant for the Indianapolis Indians of the International League at Victory Field in 1998.

Bass graduated from Illinois State University with a bachelor's degree in political science in 1998. While at Illinois State, he worked two seasons as the team manager for women's basketball.

COORDINATOR - ARIZONA COMPLEX/VIDEO OPERATIONS
MATT KERLS

Matt Kerls, 30, joined the Brewers organization as an advance scouting intern in 2008.

For the past three seasons, he has served as the minor-league video coordinator, overseeing all aspects of video and internal data collection. In addition to his video responsibilities, he also serves as the Maryvale complex coordinator.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Kerls worked as the assistant equipment manager for the University of Notre Dame football team from 2004-07. In college, he worked as a student manager for three years and served as the head football manager for personnel during his senior year.

NATIONAL CROSSCHECKER
JOE FERRONE

Joe Ferrone, 45, enters his second season in the Brewers organization.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Ferrone spent two seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates as Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League scout.

He also spent five seasons with the Detroit Tigers as West Coast supervisor (2004-08) and eight seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers as area scout (1995-98) and West Coast supervisor (1999-2002). While with the Dodgers, he was responsible for signing future All-Star players such as Ted Lilly and Shane Victorino.

Ferrone began his scouting career with Montreal and spent two and a half seasons with the Expos (1993-94, 1997).

Additionally, he coached at Class-A San Bernardino, an affiliate of the Dodgers, in 1998 alongside manager Tim Wallach and coach Del Crandall.

He graduated from the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1989 and was an infielder on the baseball team for four seasons (1986-89). He also played professionally for Perugia in the Italian Baseball Federation in 1990 before attending graduate school at Ohio University, where he earned his master's degree in sport management.

Joe has two children, Mac and Janie, and resides in Grosse Pointe, Michigan.

NATIONAL PITCHING CROSSCHECKER
JIM ROONEY

Jim Rooney, 51, begins his ninth season in the Brewers organization. He was named to his current position in December 2010 following two seasons as a roving crosschecker. Rooney also spent five seasons as the organization's pitching coordinator (2004-08), where he oversaw the progress of each pitcher in the system.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Rooney worked in the Toronto Blue Jays organization from 2000-03 as a minor-league pitching coach and area scout. He also served as pitching coach with Escogido in the Dominican Winter League in 2003.

Rooney began coaching in 1987 at Pace University. The following year, he coached at West Point Military Academy. He then joined Rockland Community College, where he coached for seven seasons (1989-95).

In addition, Rooney gained global managing experience with France (1996) and Italy (1997-98). In 1999, he served as Director of Player Personnel for the Somerset Patriots of the independent Atlantic League. Rooney also was a pitching coach in the Venezuelan Winter League with Lara for two seasons (2000-01), winning the league championship in 2000. As a result, he served as pitching coach for Venezuela in the Caribbean World Series in January 2001.

EAST COAST CROSSCHECKER
DOUG REYNOLDS

Doug Reynolds, 44, begins his 20th season in the Brewers organization and his fourth season as East Coast crosschecker.

He previously served as an area scout in Georgia, South Carolina and northern Florida. During his 16 seasons as an area scout (1993-2008), he has also scouted in Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee. In this role, he was responsible for signing players such as pitcher Tim Dillard, first baseman Mat Gamel and outfielder Lorenzo Cain.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Reynolds spent one season (1992) as an assistant coach at Tallahasee Community College. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 1989 June Draft and played three seasons as a catcher in the organization (1989-91). Reynolds graduated from Liberty University, where he earned a degree in business management.

Doug resides in Tallahassee, Florida with his wife, Jennifer, and three children: Brooke, Scott and Nicholas.

WEST COAST CROSSCHECKER
COREY RODRIGUEZ

Corey Rodriguez, 43, enters his 19th season in the Brewers organization and his fourth season in his current position.

He joined the Brewers in 1994 and spent 15 seasons as an area scout in central and southern California and Hawaii. Players signed by Rodriguez include former All-Star outfielder Geoff Jenkins along with prospects such as outfielder Logan Schafer and second baseman Eric Farris.

Rodriguez earned an associate's degree in psychology from De Anza Junior College in 1989 and graduated from the University of South Alabama in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He also earned a master's degree in athletic administration and kinesiology from California State University Hayward in 1994.

DIRECTOR, SCOUTING - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC
FERNANDO ARANGO

Fernando Arango, 64, is entering his 10th season with the Brewers. He was promoted to Director of Scouting for the Dominican Republic following the 2011 season after nine seasons as Coordinator - Latin America. He joined the Brewers in 2003 as an area scout in northern Florida.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Arango was a scout for five seasons with the Tampa Bay Rays (1996-2000). He was also a scout for four seasons with the New York Yankees (1992-95).

Arango spent 19 years in the coaching ranks, beginning as the pitching coach at the University of Iowa from 1975-78. He later served as the head coach at Cleveland State from 1978-91. During this time, he also managed the Columbus All-Americans in the Great Lakes NCAA Summer League (1989-91).

Arango served as the pitching coach for Oneonta of the New York-Penn League in 1992 and as an assistant coach with the Australian Professional Winter League in 1993.

A native of Matanzas, Cuba, he earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish from the University of Iowa and also obtained master's degrees in spanish literature and physical education.

He and his wife, Marcia, reside in Davie, Florida. His son, Tony, worked as a scout with the Washington Nationals.

COORDINATORS

FIELD AND CATCHING COORDINATOR
CHARLIE GREENE

Charlie Greene, 41, enters his sixth season as field coordinator and eighth season as roving catching coordinator. As a roving coordinator, Greene oversees and evaluates the organization's minor-league catchers while working closely with each club's coaching staff.

A former Major League catcher, Greene broke into the majors with the New York Mets in 1996. He spent five seasons in the majors, also with the Orioles (1997-98), Brewers (1999) and Blue Jays (2000).

Greene spent the last four years of his career playing in the minor leagues (2001-04). He was selected by the San Diego Padres in the 19th round of the 1991 draft.

His father, Charlie Sr., is one of the best known college coaches, having coached at Miami-Dade Community College for 30 years and as head coach for Team USA in 1988 and 1989.

PITCHING COORDINATOR
LEE TUNNELL

Prior to his current role, Tunnell spent three seasons with the Cincinnati Reds as bullpen coach (2006) and as a pro scout (2007-08). Tunnell was also with the Texas Rangers organization for nine seasons (1997-2005). He served as a pitching coach for seven seasons and as pitching coordinator for two seasons (2003-04). He was the pitching coach at Triple-A Oklahoma from 1999-2002 and during the 2005 season. He also was the pitching coach at Class-A Charlotte (1998) after making his coaching debut at Rookie Pulaski in 1997.

Tunnell pitched six seasons in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1982-85), St. Louis (1987) and Minnesota (1989), going 22-28 with a 4.23 ERA and 1 save in 132 career games (66 starts). He was a member of the National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals in 1987, making two relief appearances in the World Series while posting a 2.08 ERA in 4.1 innings.

He played in Japan from 1991-93 and spent the end of his career in the minor leagues with Colorado in 1994 and with Detroit in 1995.

Originally selected in the second round of the 1981 draft, Tunnell played three years at Baylor University and also attended Liberty College (VA).

Lee and his wife, Bea, reside in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. They have four children and one grandson.

HITTING COORDINATOR
SANDY GUERRERO

Sandy Guerrero, 45, enters his first season as hitting coordinator and his 10th season coaching in the Brewers organization.

Guerrero was a coach with Triple-A Nashville for the past three seasons. Prior to joining the Sounds, he spent six seasons coaching at Double-A Huntsville (2003-08).

Before coaching, Guerrero had a 19-year playing career that included stints in the minor leagues with Toronto and Milwaukee. He also played professionally in Mexico, Taiwan and the independent Northern League.

The former infielder played in the Brewers farm system with Class-A Stockton (1986-88), Double-A El Paso (1989-90) and Triple-A Denver (1991-92). In 1998, Guerrero won a league championship in Taiwan, claiming the batting title with a .361 batting average.

ROVING OUTFIELD AND BASERUNNING COORDINATOR
REGGIE WILLIAMS

Reggie Williams, 51, is in his third season in the Brewers organization.

Previously, Williams spent 13 seasons as the Vice President of Community Relations with the Memphis Redbirds, the Triple-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals (1997-2009). He also worked as a teacher and assistant principal with the Memphis City School District from 1991-97.

Williams, who was selected by the Dodgers in the 13th round of the 1982 draft, spent four seasons in the Major Leagues with Los Angeles (1985-87) and Cleveland (1988).

He batted .259 with 5 HR and 39 RBI in 200 career games. He continued his playing career in the minor leagues with the Pirates in 1989 and with the Rangers in 1990.

Williams played collegiately at Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Following his playing career, he received his master's degree in teaching from the University of Memphis in 1994 and earned a second master's degree in school supervision and administration in 1997.

Reggie and his wife, Allyson, have three children: Lesly, Reginald Jr. and Lane. They reside in Collierville, Tennessee.

ROVING INFIELD COORDINATOR
BOB MISCIK

Bob Miscik, 53, begins his fourth season in the Brewers organization and his second season as roving infield coordinator.

Miscik joined the Brewers in 2009 as manager at Double-A Huntsville and also served as a coach for the XM All-Star Futures Game in St. Louis that year. He was the manager at Class-A Brevard County in 2010.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Miscik served as the Cincinnati Reds Minor League Field Coordinator in 2005. He held the same position with the Texas Rangers from 1997-2002 and also worked as the team's player development coordinator from 2003-04.

Miscik also managed in the Rangers organization at Class-A Charlotte in 2000, where he led the team to a 58-43 record after taking over the club on May 15. Prior to his tenure with the Rangers, Miscik spent six seasons with the Baltimore Orioles as manager at three different levels (1991-96), including Class-A Kane County (1991), Class-A Frederick (1992), Triple-A Rochester (1993-94) and Double-A Bowie (1995-96). He began his coaching career with the Orioles as the hitting coach at Frederick in 1990.

The former infielder played nine minor-league seasons with Pittsburgh (1980-86) and California (1987-88).

Mike Guerrero
MANAGER

Mike Guerrero begins his first season as manager of the Nashville Sounds. He spent the past two seasons as manager at Double-A Huntsville. During the offseason in 2010, he managed the Surprise Rafters of the Arizona Fall League.

Prior to joining the Stars, he spent two seasons as manager at Class-A Brevard County (2008-09), where he led the Manatees to a 145-120 record. For his efforts, Guerrero was named to the 2009 Florida State League Postseason All-Star Team as a coach. During the 2008 offseason, he managed the West Oahu CaneFires of the Hawaiian Winter Baseball League.

Guerrero managed two years at Class-A West Virginia from 2006-07. He guided the team to a South Atlantic League-best 48-20 record in the first half of 2007 to earn a playoff berth. The team finished 82-54 overall that year.

This year marks Guerrero's 18th season as a manager, his 17th as a member of the Brewers organization. He managed the Arizona Brewers from 2003-05 after serving as manager of the Dominican League Brewers from 1996-02. In 2001, Guerrero led the Brewers' Dominican club to a league title. During the 2003 season, he also served as the hitting coach with Class-A Beloit.

His first coaching experience came in 1995 when he managed the Toronto Blue Jays' Dominican League team. The next season he joined the Brewers as camp director and Dominican League manager.

Guerrero spent nine seasons as a minor-league infielder with Milwaukee (1987-92, '94-95) and Kansas City (1993).

Mike and his wife, Larissa, reside in Melbourne, Florida with their sons, Michael and Daniel.

Fred Dabney
PITCHING COACH

Fred Dabney enters his first season as pitching coach with the Sounds and his ninth overall season in the Brewers organization. He spent the past seven seasons as pitching coach at Class-A Brevard County. Dabney originally joined the organization as pitching coach at Double-A Huntsville in 2004.

During the 2010 season, Dabney served as interim bullpen coach with the Brewers from April 23 to May 23. He took the place of Stan Kyles, who underwent prostate surgery in April.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Dabney spent five seasons as a pitching coach in the Texas Rangers farm system with the Rookie GCL Rangers (1999), Class-A Savannah (2000), Class-A Charlotte (2001-02) and Class-A Stockton (2003). While with Charlotte, he coached in the Florida State League All-Star Game both seasons. His staff posted a league-best 3.40 ERA in 2002 and ranked third with a 3.37 ERA in 2001.

The left-hander spent nine minor-league seasons as a pitcher with Chicago-AL (1988-93), Cleveland (1994) and Chicago-NL (1995-96) and finished his career in Taiwan (1997). He was originally chosen in the 15th round by the White Sox in the 1988 draft after attending Seminole (OK) Junior College. Fred and his wife, Inger, reside in Venice, Florida with their sons, Dane and Tanner.

Al LeBoeuf
COACH

Al LeBoeuf begins his first season on Nashville's coaching staff and his third season in the Brewers organization. He served as a coach with Double-A Huntsville the past two seasons.

LeBoeuf has 23 years of experience as a minor-league manager or coach. He began his coaching career in 1989, spending 12 seasons in the Phillies organization (1989-2000), including six as a manager between Class-A Batavia (1993-95), Class-A Clearwater (1996) and Double-A Reading (1997-98).

He guided Batavia to the playoffs in 1995 and led Clearwater to the Florida State League finals in 1996. The following season, he was named Manager of the Year at Reading.

LeBoeuf served as hitting coach at Triple-A Norfolk (2001-04) and as a coach at Class-A St. Lucie (2005) in the Mets organization. He spent one season in the Royals organization as hitting coach with Triple-A Wichita (2006) and was with the Blue Jays organization for three seasons as hitting coach at Triple-A Syracuse (2007-08) and as hitting coach at Class-A Dunedin (2009).

LeBoeuf was selected by the Phillies in the 28th round of the 1981 draft and spent eight seasons playing in their minor-league system from 1981-88. Al resides in Palm Harbor, Florida with his wife, Laura, and son, Mac.

Greg Barajas
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Greg Barajas joins the Sounds for his first season as athletic trainer. This marks his second career stint with the Brewers organization (previously 1998-2004).

Barajas spent the past two seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for the Boston Red Sox. Prior to that, he worked 12 seasons in the minor leagues with the Red Sox and Brewers.

His most recent experience in the minor leagues included five seasons as athletic trainer for Triple-A Pawtucket (2005-09), where he was named the International League's Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2007. He spent the previous seven years in the Brewers farm system with Rookie Helena (1998-99), Class-A Beloit (2000), Class-A High Desert (2001) and Double-A Huntsville (2002-04). In 2001 with Class-A High Desert, he won California League Trainer of the Year honors.

Barajas graduated from Metropolitan State College of Denver with a bachelor's degree in sports medicine and holds a master's degree in sports management from Northern Colorado University. Barajas is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and a Performance Enhancement Specialist from the National Academy of Sports Medicine. Greg and his wife, Heather, have one daughter, Ava. They reside in Peoria, Arizona.

Andrew Emmick
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

Andrew Emmick is in his third season as strength and conditioning specialist with the Sounds and his fourth season in the organization. He served in the same role with Double-A Huntsville in 2009.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Emmick spent three seasons in the Angels farm system as strength and conditioning coach with Class-A Cedar Rapids (2006), Rookie Tempe (2007) and Triple-A Salt Lake (2008). In addition, he has worked at Athletic Edge Sports since 2005 as a training specialist for the NFL Combine.

Emmick earned his bachelor's degree in business from Brescia University in 2004 and received his master's degree in health and fitness management from the United States Sports Academy in 2006.

NASHVILLE SOUNDS 2011 REVIEW

The Nashville Sounds went 71-73 in 2011 to finish third in the Pacific Coast League American Conference Northern Division. The team played in a franchise-record 52 one-run games, going 24-28 in those contests.

Offensively, Nashville's 1,383 hits marked the highest single-season total in the franchise's 34-year history. Third baseman Taylor Green was named to the All-PCL team after batting .336 with 22 HR and 88 RBI. First baseman Mat Gamel led the Sounds in HR (28), RBI (96) and runs (90). Outfielder Caleb Gindl hit for the cycle on July 10 at Albuquerque to become the third player in team history to turn the trick, joining J.R. House (2004) and Tike Redman (2001).

Pitchers Mark DiFelice and Sam Narron were named to the midseason PCL All-Star Team, while Mike Fiers went 8-0 with a 1.11 ERA in 12 games (10 starts) for Nashville (64.2ip, 8er).

Darnell Coles
MANAGER

Darnell Coles is in his first season as manager at Double-A Huntsville and his third season in the Brewers organization. He spent the past two seasons as hitting coordinator.

Before joining the Brewers, Coles spent four seasons in the Washington Nationals organization. He served as hitting coach at Triple-A Syracuse in 2009 and as manager with Class-A Hagerstown (2008) and Class-A Vermont (2007). He also spent the 2006 season as Washington's roving hitting instructor.

Coles had a 14-year Major League playing career with Seattle (1983-85, 1988-90), Detroit (1986-87, 1990), Pittsburgh (1988), San Francisco (1991), Cincinnati (1992), Toronto (1993-94), St. Louis (1995) and Colorado (1997). He batted .245 with 75 HR and 368 RBI in 957 games.

Selected by the Mariners in the first round of the 1980 draft, Coles went on to become one of only 14 players, including Babe Ruth, to hit three home runs in a single game in both the American League and National League. He also worked as an ESPN baseball analyst from 2001-06.

Darnell and his wife, Shari, have three children: DeAnna, Darnell Jr. and Jared, and are grandparents of two. They reside in Safety Harbor, Florida. Their son-in-law, Zack Segovia, pitched in the Brewers organization in 2011.

Chris Hook
PITCHING COACH

Chris Hook begins his fifth season in the Brewers organization. He returns to Huntsville as pitching coach in 2012, a role he also held in 2008. He spent the past three seasons as pitching coach at Class-A Wisconsin

Previously, Hook was the pitching coach for the Florence Freedom of the independent Frontier League from 2003-07. He also spent three seasons as the pitching coach for Northern Kentucky University from 2000-02.

Prior to coaching, Hook pitched 11 seasons (1989-99), including two years in the Major Leagues with San Francisco from 1995-96. He owns a 5-2 mark with a 5.89 ERA in 55 career Major League games. Originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by Cincinnati in 1989, he also pitched in the minor leagues with San Diego, San Francisco, California and Houston. He finished his playing career in the independent Atlantic League.

Since 2001, Hook has owned and operated a baseball training center based in Florence, Kentucky, where he resides along with his wife, Toni, and their two sons, Christian and Brennan.

Dwayne Hosey
COACH

Dwayne Hosey begins his first season as a coach with the Huntsville Stars. He joined the Brewers organization in 2010 and spent two seasons as a coach with Class-A Brevard County.

Hosey played 15 professional seasons as an outfielder, including parts of two seasons in the Major Leagues with Boston (1995-96). He played in the minor leagues with Chicago-AL (1987-88), Oakland (1989-91), Milwaukee (1991), San Diego (1992-93), Kansas City (1994-95), Boston (1995-96), Montreal (1999) and Anaheim (2000).

From 1997-98, Hosey played in Japan for the Yakult Swallows, where he was the home run champion with 38 in 1997. That same season, he was named co-MVP of the Japan All-Star Game along with Ichiro Suzuki. He also played for the Winnipeg Goldeyes of the independent Northern League to start the 1999 season.

Hosey served as hitting coach for Class-A Cedar Rapids (Angels) in 2001 before making a comeback with the Bridgeport Bluefish of the independent Atlantic League in 2002. He coached youth baseball for the Omaha Pacesetters from 2002-09 and has served as hitting coach at the Ultimate Baseball Academy in Omaha, Nebraska for the past four seasons (2007-10).

Dwayne and his wife, Bronwyn, have four children: Dwayne Jr., Bronson, Bailey and Braeden. They reside in Omaha, Nebraska.

Aaron Hoback
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Aaron Hoback is in his third season as the athletic trainer with the Huntsville Stars. This marks his sixth season in the Brewers organization after working as the athletic trainer with the Helena Brewers (2007-08) and Wisconsin Timber Rattlers (2009).

Hoback graduated from Western Illinois University in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Wichita State baseball team in 2006 and also served as an intern athletic trainer with the St. Louis Cardinals and the St. Louis Rams.

Aaron and his wife, Kathryn, reside in Glen Carbon, Illinois.

Tim Gifford
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

Tim Gifford begins his first season with Huntsville after joining the Brewers organization in 2011. He held the same position with Class-A Wisconsin last season.

During the winter and spring of 2010, Gifford served as a strength and conditioning intern with the human performance department at Muskego High School in Muskego, Wisconsin. He also worked with the Milwaukee Brewers as a summer intern.

Gifford earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis on exercise and fitness from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. He is a native of Waukesha, Wisconsin, and resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

HUNTSVILLE STARS 2011 REVIEW

General Manager ..... Kyle Smith

Joe Ayrault
MANAGER

Joe Ayrault begins his first season as manager of the Manatees following two seasons as manager with Rookie Helena. In 2010, he guided Helena to a 41-34 record and the Pioneer League championship. He was named Pioneer League Co-Manager of the Year.

Ayrault spent six seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization, including three seasons managing at Class-A Sarasota (2007-09). In 2007, his first season managing at the professional level, he led the Sarasota Reds to the Florida State League playoffs with an 81-59 record. He also served as Sarasota's hitting coach in 2006 and handled the same duties for the Rookie Gulf Coast League Reds from 2004-05.

Ayrault spent three seasons in the Texas Rangers organization, where he served as a coach with the Rookie GCL Rangers (2001), Class-A Savannah (2002) and Class-A Stockton (2003).

The former catcher spent his entire playing career in the Atlanta organization from 1990-97. He made his only Major League appearances in 1996, playing in seven games for the Braves and making the postseason roster that year.

Mark Dewey
PITCHING COACH

Mark Dewey is in his first season in the Brewers organization as pitching coach at Class-A Brevard County. He spent the past two seasons as pitching coach for the Washington Wild Things of the independent Frontier League. Under his guidance, Washington's pitching staff posted a league-best 3.62 ERA in 2011. He also served as pitching coach at Emory & Henry College from 2009-11.

Dewey was drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the 23rd round of the 1987 First-Year Player Draft. In six Major League seasons, he went 12-7 with a 3.65 ERA in 205 relief appearances with San Francisco (1990, 95-96), New York-NL (1992) and Pittsburgh (1993-94). He ranked tied for third among pitchers in the National League with 78 appearances in 1996, his final season in the majors.

Dewey returned to pitching in the winter of 2000-01 (November-January) as a pitcher/pitching coach in Australia. The league was organized by former Brewers catcher David Nillson and Dewey's team won the winter league championship. He made 11 relief appearances with Triple-A Nashville in 2001 until a back injury ended his attempt to return to the majors. Dewey served as a coach with the rookie-level Kingsport Mets in 2000 and 2002 and he has additional experience as a pitcher/bullpen coach with the Aiken Foxhounds of the independent South Coast League in 2007.

In 1995, Dewey was honored by his alma mater, Grand Valley State University, when he was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame. The right-hander was honored with induction into the Grand Rapids Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

A native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, he founded and pastored a church from 2003-08. During that time he also served as the local high school's head coach.

Ned Yost IV
COACH

Ned Yost IV begins his first season as a coach with Class-A Brevard County following three seasons as a full-time coach with the Rookie Helena Brewers. He served as an assistant coach with Helena in 2008.

Yost played in the organization as an infielder for three seasons (2005-07) after he was signed as a non-drafted free agent out of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 2005.

Ned resides in Marietta, Georgia. He is the son of former Brewers manager and current Royals skipper, Ned Yost.

Tommy Craig
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tommy Craig is in his sixth season as athletic trainer with the Brevard County Manatees. Prior to joining the Brewers, he worked for the Toronto Blue Jays.

While with Toronto, Craig filled many roles during his 25-year tenure, including head athletic trainer and rehab coordinator. He served as head athletic trainer during Toronto's back-to-back World Series championship seasons in 1992 and 1993. He was also the head athletic trainer for the American League at the 1991 All-Star Game and served as head athletic trainer for Team Canada in the 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classic.

A graduate of East Carolina University, Craig and his family reside in Palm Harbor, Florida. He has three children: son Geoff, and daughters, Sarah and Natalie.

Jonah Mergen
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

Jonah Mergen enters his second season in the Brewers organization, both with the Manatees.

He joined the Brewers in 2011 after one season in the Astros organization as a strength and conditioning specialist for Rookie Greeneville.

Mergen has also worked in the strength and conditioning departments at North Carolina State University, the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and the National Strength and Conditioning Association World Headquarters.

Mergen graduated from St. Ambrose University with a bachelor of science degree in exercise science and bachelor of arts degree in Spanish in 2007. He received his master's degree from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in human performance in 2009. He resides in Madison, Wisconsin.

BREVARD COUNTY MANATEES 2011 REVIEW

The Brevard County Manatees improved their win total by eight games in the second half to finish with a 62-76 overall record. The Manatees went 27-43 in the first half compared to a 35-33 record in the second half.

INF Scooter Gennett set a new Brevard County single-season record with 167 hits to lead the Florida State League. He earned Florida State League midseason and postseason All-Star honors. Infielder Hunter Morris also established a single-season Manatees' record with 19 home runs, while infielder/outfielder Brock Kjeldgaard belted 18 homers in just 65 games with Brevard County prior to his promotion to Double-A Huntsville. Kjeldgaard earned FSL Player of the Week honors for three straight weeks (May/June).

Pitcher Nick Bucci and outfielder Khris Davis also participated in the FSL All-Star Game. Bucci led the team in wins (8), ERA (3.84), strikeouts (119) and innings pitched (150.0). Davis had a team-high .309 batting average and 68 RBI.

Matt Erickson
MANAGER

Matt Erickson, a native of Appleton, Wisconsin, is in his second season as manager. He spent two seasons as a coach with the Timber Rattlers (2009-10).

As a former infielder, he played 11 professional seasons (1997-2007) and made his Major League debut with the Brewers in 2004.

Erickson, a career .300 hitter in the minors, was selected in the seventh round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft by the Florida Marlins. He played eight seasons in their farm system (1997-2003, 2005). He also spent parts of two seasons in Milwaukee's organization (2004-05) and finished his career with the Arizona Diamondbacks organization (2006-07).

Erickson played collegiately at the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville.

Dusty Rhodes
COACH

Dusty Rhodes is in his second season as a coach with Class-A Wisconsin. In 2011, he returned to the Brewers organization following 23 seasons as the head coach at the University of North Florida.

Previously, Rhodes was the manager with Rookie Helena (1988-89, 91) and was an assistant coach with Class-A Beloit (1990).

An experienced baseball coach at the collegiate, professional and international levels, Rhodes founded the baseball program at North Florida in 1988 and moved the university from NAIA to NCAA Division II to NCAA Division I during his tenure. He compiled a 909-448 record (.670) at UNF and guided the school to 16 postseason appearances, including five trips to the College World Series (two in NAIA and three in NCAA Division II).

A member of the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame, he also coached at the University of Florida (1982-87), Class-A Greensboro in the Yankees farm system (1982), Palm Beach Junior College (1975-81) and Florida Southern College (1969-73). Overall, Rhodes compiled a managerial record of 1,212-566 (.682) as a collegiate head coach.

Additionally, he has been heavily involved in international amateur baseball. He was selected as the head coach of the Greek Olympic team at the 2004 Summer Games in Athens and he returned to serve as the head coach of the Greek National Team in the 2005 European Championships. Rhodes was also an assistant for Greece in 2002 and 2003 and also served as an assistant coach for the 1996 Australian Olympic team. In 1993, 1994 and 2001, he was an assistant coach for the United States national team.

Rhodes earned an associate of arts degree from Palm Beach Junior College in 1966, a bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida Southern College in 1969 and a master's degree in education from Florida Atlantic in 1973.

He and his wife, Jenny, reside in Jacksonville, Florida.

Jeff Paxson
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Paxson begins his 19th season in the organization and his third as athletic trainer with the Timber Rattlers. He was named the 2011 Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society and has been recognized as the Midwest League Athletic Trainer of the Year in each of the past two seasons.

Before joining the Wisconsin staff, he spent five seasons as the athletic trainer with Triple-A Nashville (2005-09).

Previously, Paxson served as the team athletic trainer with Beloit (1994-97), Ogden (1998), Stockton (1999-2000), Arizona Brewers (2001-02) and Indianapolis (2003-04). He has also worked as an athletic trainer in winter leagues for six years.

Additionally, he has worked four Minor League All-Star Games and has been honored as his league's Athletic Trainer of the Year on five separate occasions: Midwest League (1997, 2010 and 2011), California League (2000) and the Pacific Coast League (2007).

Paxson graduated from Northeast Missouri State with a degree in exercise science and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist. He lives in Roanoke, Indiana.

Christian Polega
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

Christian Polega is in his second season in the Brewers organization and his first as strength and conditioning specialist with the Timber Rattlers. He worked with Rookie Helena in 2011.

Polega graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and a certificate in strength and conditioning.

He resides in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

WISCONSIN TIMBER RATTLERS 2011 REVIEW

The Wisconsin Timber Rattlers had an overall record of 67-72 in 2011 after going 38-32 in the first half and 29-40 during the second half of the season.

Right-handed pitchers Austin Ross (13g, 12gs, 6-3, 3.25) and Tyler Thornburg (12gs, 7-0, 1.57) provided a dominant starting duo during the first half before they both earned a promotion to Class-A Brevard County. Meanwhile, reliever Greg Holle tied Wisconsin's single-season saves record with 19, tying John Thompson's mark in 1995.

Infielders Chris Dennis and Mike Walker joined Ross and Thornburg at the Midwest League All-Star Game. Reggie Keen led the Brewers organization with 41 stolen bases.

Jeff Isom
MANAGER

Jeff Isom returns to the Helena Brewers as manager, the same position he held in 2007 when he guided Helena to a 48-28 mark to capture the first-half title in the Pioneer League's North Division.

Isom spent the past four seasons managing at the Class-A level in the Brewers farm system with Brevard County (2011), Wisconsin (2009-10) and West Virginia (2008). He is in his sixth season overall in the organization.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Isom spent seven years managing in the independent leagues. In 2006, he guided the Traverse City Beach Bums to a 57-39 record. He also managed the Joliet JackHammers (2004-05), Washington Wild Things (2002-03) and Canton Crocodiles (2000-01).

Isom spent three seasons in the minors as a pitcher in the Pittsburgh Pirates (1993-94) and San Diego Padres (1994-95) organizations. He was selected by the Pirates in the 18th round of the 1993 draft from Purdue University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in education.

Jeff resides in Attica, Indiana with his wife, Lisa, and two children.

Elvin Nina
PITCHING COACH

Elvin Nina enters his fourth season in the Brewers organization as pitching coach at Helena.

Nina spent 10 seasons playing professional baseball with five different organizations from 1997-2006. He began his playing career in Oakland's farm system after being selected by the Athletics in the 17th round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft. He also played at the minor-league level with the Angels, Dodgers, Royals and D-backs before finishing his career in the independent Atlantic Baseball League.

Nina is a 1995 graduate from Northeast Oklahoma A&M University. From 2007-08, he worked as a counselor for youth and high school students in the Queen Creek, Arizona area.

Don Money
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT & COACH

Don Money, who spent 14 seasons as a manager in the Brewers minor-league system, begins his first season as Special Instructor, Player Development and coach with the Helena Brewers.

Money completed his third season as manager of the Triple-A Nashville Sounds in 2011, where he compiled a 223-209 (.516) record.

Prior to that, he spent four seasons as manager at Double-A Huntsville (2005-08), where he led the Stars to the postseason twice (2006-07).

In 2007, Money was named the Southern League Manager of the Year after guiding the Stars to a division title in both halves of the season. This marked a first in franchise history. For his efforts, he was named manager for the Southern League All-Star Game. Additionally, Money was selected to coach in the All-Star Futures Game at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

Prior to joining the Stars, he managed at Class-A Beloit for seven seasons (1998-2004) and guided the Snappers to the Midwest League Championship Series three times.

Before managing in the professional ranks, Money coached at Sacred Heart Catholic School for five years (1987-91), leading the team to two state tournaments.

Money enjoyed a 16-year Major League playing career with Philadelphia (1968-72) and Milwaukee (1973-83). A four-time All-Star with Milwaukee, Money became the first Brewer to start in an All-Star Game (1978). He was a member of the 1982 American League Champion squad.

Money was voted Brewers' team MVP in 1974 and 1977. During the 1977 season, he set a Major League record for consecutive errorless chances at third base (261) and currently holds the Major League record for most consecutive errorless games at that position (88), set from September 28, 1973 through July 16, 1974. He ended his playing career in Japan in 1984.

In 2005, Money was inducted as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers "Walk of Fame," which recognizes the franchise's top performers.

Don and wife Sharon have two children, Don Jr. and Shannon, and are grandparents of six. They reside in Vineland, New Jersey.

Jimmy Gentry
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jimmy Gentry is in his fourth season as the athletic trainer with the Helena Brewers. He held the same role with the Rookie Arizona Brewers from 2007-08.

Gentry completed his undergraduate studies at California Lutheran University, where he earned his degree in exercise science and sports medicine.

Jimmy and his wife, Yolanda, reside in Fullerton, California.

Matt Cole
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

Matt Cole begins his first season in the Brewers organization as strength and conditioning specialist with Helena.

He is a graduate student in the strength and conditioning master's program at Springfield College in Massachusetts. Cole received his bachelor's degree in sport management from Colby-Sawyer College in New Hampshire.

Cole graduated from Tantasqua Regional High School in 2007. He resides in Sturbridge, Massachusetts.

HELENA BREWERS 2011 REVIEW

The Helena Brewers went 30-46 during the 2011 season. The team went 18-20 during the first half and dropped to 12-26 during second half play.

INF Yadiel Rivera was selected as the team's lone All-Star representative after batting .248 with 8 home runs and 38 RBI in 74 games. He hit for the cycle on July 18 at Casper, going 5-for-5 with a walk, 5 runs and 4 RBI. First baseman Nick Ramirez, a fourth-round draft selection in 2011, made an instant impact, batting .369 with 8 home runs and 30 RBI in just 23 games to earn a promotion to Class-A Wisconsin. He homered in five consecutive games from July 16-21 (6 HR total during that span).

Steve Cline
PITCHING COACH

Steve Cline begins his 32nd season as a pitching coach in the minor leagues. This season marks his 17th season in the Brewers farm system after he joined the organization in 1996.

Cline was the pitching coach with Rookie Ogden for five seasons (1996-2000) and has been in his current position since 2001.

He began his coaching career in 1981 in San Francisco's organization, where he spent 15 seasons.

Prior to his coaching experience, Cline played his entire career in the minor leagues with the Giants (1974-80). He played collegiate baseball at Clemson University (1972-74) and Hagerstown Junior College (1970-72).

Steve and his wife, Julie, reside in Phoenix, Arizona with their family.

Kenny Dominguez
COACH

Kenny Dominguez begins his fourth season as a coach with the Arizona Brewers. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach with Florida College in 1977 and has coached or managed at the amateur or minor-league level every year since.

He spent the 2008 season in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization as hitting coach of the Rookie Gulf Coast League Dodgers. Prior to joining the Dodgers, he spent three seasons in the Phillies organization as a coach at Class-A Williamsport (2007), Class-A Lakewood (2006) and Class-A Batavia (2005).

Dominguez was with the White Sox organization from 2001-04 as a hitting coach for three seasons (2001-03) and as manager at Class-A Winston-Salem in 2004. He spent his first 11 seasons of minor-league instruction (1989-99) in the Yankees organization as a manager and hitting coach. In addition, he served as an assistant coach for the silver medal-winning U.S. baseball team in the 1987 Pan-American Games.

He piloted the University of Tampa to the Division II College World Series twice in his five seasons as manager (1984-88). He also managed at Hillsborough Community College (1980-84), the University of Kentucky (1979-80) and Western Kentucky University (1978-79).

Dominguez resides in Oldsmar, Florida.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE BREWERS 2011 REVIEW

The Dominican Summer League Brewers qualified for the playoffs with a Wild Card berth after going 44-27 during the regular season. They dropped a best-of-three series against the DSL Orioles in the first round of the playoffs.

Infielder Orlando Arcia, catcher Deivi Mejia and right-handed pitcher Gian Rizzo were each named to the DSL All-Star Team. Right-hander Carlos Sosa led the league in saves with 19.

In November, the Brewers announced a long-term partnership with a new baseball academy in the Dominican Republic that is owned by former Brewers closer Salomon Torres. Located in Ramon Santana, San Pedro de Macoris, the complex features two baseball fields, batting cages, bullpens, a clubhouse, weight room, 13 rooms of housing, classrooms and a cafeteria.

LOGO HISTORY

Seattle Pilots (1969)
The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

Milwaukee Brewers (1970-1977)
The "Barrel Man" logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)
The "ball-in-glove" logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An Art History student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)
As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-PRESENT)
The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

ALL-TIME NUMERICAL ROSTER

The Milwaukee Brewers have had 72 different uniform numbers worn by players and managers since 1970. The franchise has retired four uniform numbers (#4, #19, #34, #44) in addition to Major League Baseball's retirement of Jackie Robinson's #42 in 1997. The following list does not include the Seattle Pilots or any coaches.

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 1975-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a then Major League-record 755 home runs. He was National League Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. Aaron hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 11 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handle-bar mustache famous had his number "34" retired at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers took home both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired at County Stadium during a ceremony on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired at County Stadium during ceremonies on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier as a Brooklyn Dodger in 1947 had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers' retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the Major Leagues for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

 - Shortened Season

1981 Season: In a season cut short by a players' strike, the Brewers had the best overall record in the American League East, going 62-47. The club went 31-25 in the first half and then won the second-half title with a 31-22 mark.
1994 Season: The season was cut short on August 12 due to a players' strike.
1995 Season: Due to an owners' lockout, the Major League season did not begin until April 25 (Brewers opened on April 26).

Brewers in March: The Brewers have played four regular-season games in March, losing on 3/31/98 at Atlanta, 3/31/03 at St. Louis and 3/31/11 at Cincinnati and winning on 3/31/08 at Chicago-NL.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EAST DIVISION SERIES - MILWAUKEE vs. NEW YORK

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League East Division, New York, winners of the first half, confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time that the Yankees participated in the postseason, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best-of-five series, three games to two, and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers, four games to two, in the 78th World Series.

1982 WORLD SERIES - MILWAUKEE vs. ST. LOUIS

It was labeled the "Suds Series" and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers, four games to three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was the Cardinals' 13th trip to the World Series and the Brewers' first.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS MEDIA INFORMATION

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the South Dock located in the right-field corner on the Service Level at Miller Park. Credentials are available for pickup six (6) hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the park.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The main press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during post-game by radio stringers to send sound. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media directly to the Service Level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid immediately after the game. The press box is equipped for wireless internet access as well as DSL. Information on accessing the wireless network is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the first base side. The visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the third base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouse closes when team batting practice begins and will remain closed through the game. Television cameras are not permitted in the clubhouse prior to the game without approval from the Brewers Media Relations Department. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are OFF LIMITS to media. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the club's media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 30 minutes prior to game time. The Brewers Grounds Crew and Media Relations Department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
The Media Interview Room, located across from the Brewers clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility that features telephone, internet and power service. The Media Interview Room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES
The Brewers Media Relations Offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by entering the Brewers main offices in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the Media Relations Department.

PARKING
To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off I-94. Exit Miller Park and circle around the ramp. The media parking area is in the Staff Lot (formerly the Phillies Lot) located just south of the South Dock entrance. Those with season credentials will receive a season parking pass. Those with single-game credentials will be placed on a list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The Staff Lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION
Photo wells are located on the first and third base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. There are also two photo wells located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the Brewers clubhouse. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wireless internet is also available. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POST-GAME ACCESS
Clubhouses open no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. At this time, the home manager will be made available in the Media Interview Room. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access. The elevator behind the press box will be reserved for media immediately following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS
Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning 2 1/2 hours prior to game time and full meal service will end 30 minutes after the first pitch. A $9.00 charge is levied for a full meal. Meal tickets can be purchased at the main entrance to the press box. Soda, frozen yogurt and milkshakes are complimentary. The Media Dining Room is located behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge Level. A daily menu is posted series-by-series.

TELEVISION CREWS
Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION is allowed during games inside Miller Park. Additional game highlights are available through the Miller Park Scoreboard Department.

WORKING CREDENTIALS
Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies, subject to the discretion of the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department, and can be obtained via the MLB Credentialing website, credentials.mlb.com. All single-game credential requests must be made via the MLB Credentialing website at least 24 hours in advance of the game or their fulfillment cannot be assured. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Daily credentials can be picked up at the South Dock at Miller Park no earlier than six hours prior to gametime. Under no circumstances should credentials be transferred from person to person or be used by media who are not working the game. Violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials.

BOB UECKER

Entering his 42nd year behind the microphone as a broadcaster for his hometown team calling games on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker will celebrate his 57th year in professional baseball in 2012.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter. Also in 2003, he became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He is one of only 16 people who has received this special honor entering 2012.

On April 17, 2012, Uecker will also be inducted into the National Association of Broadcasters Broadcasting Hall of Fame during the NAB Show in Las Vegas.

Known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 31 seasons as the team's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. In May 2011, he was inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed, he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special," which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars."

Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller during the 1980s. He was also cast as a radio announcer in the movie "Major League," which was filmed at County Stadium, and the sequel, "Major League II." Uecker even made appearances in the professional wrestling circuit as he served as a host at Wrestemania III and Wrestlemania IV, earning him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker's experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained him national recognition as he went on to serve as play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher in the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease, is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

JOE BLOCK

Joe Block, 34, comes to the Brewers for his first year on the radio broadcast team after more than 10 years of broadcasting experience.

He has called the action for more than 900 professional baseball games, including the Jacksonville Suns (2003-2006), Great Falls White Sox (2007) and Billings Mustangs (2010), among others. He also handled play-by-play for select games during the Expos final two seasons in Montreal (2003-04).

Recently, Block served as post-game show host on radio for the Los Angeles Dodgers on KABC-AM (2011) and was radio studio host for the NBA's New Orleans Hornets (2007-2011). He has also handled play-by-play for major college basketball and football for various regional networks over the past 10 years.

A native of Roseville, Michigan and a 1999 graduate of Michigan State University, Block and his wife, Bethany, reside on Milwaukee's East Side.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 27th season as the producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the radio producer/director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and periodically fills in doing men's basketball play-by-play. He was named director of the Marquette basketball radio network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University women's basketball radio broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Sommerfeld was the sports director of Cable TV-6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Sommerfeld has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas, as a sports/news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Sommerfeld attended Brookfield Central High School. Kent and his wife, Karen, reside in New Berlin with their family, Peter, Luke and Donovan.

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson was named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007. Anderson begins his sixth season as a Major League broadcaster.

For the past four seasons, Anderson has been tabbed by TBS to do play-by-play for the network's coverage of the postseason. In 2011, he called the Brewers-Cardinals NLCS. In 2010, he was behind the mic for Roy Halladay's historic no-hitter for the Philadelphia Phillies in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. Cincinnati.

Since 2010, Anderson has called network play-by-play for Turner Sports' Sunday MLB on TBS package. He will continue to call selected Sunday national games in 2012. In addition to baseball, Anderson also does NCAA basketball play-by-play for CBS Sports and Big Ten Network. In March of this year, he joins CBS Sports' coverage of the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

Anderson joined the Brewers from the Golf Channel, where he was a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA Tour and Nationwide Tour. Anderson also worked at Fox Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07 and serving as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-2007, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA Championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the San Antonio Missions, the Double-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-2003.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated Cum Laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a Major League scout in the Texas Rangers organization.

Brian and his wife, Michele, and daughter, Maddy, live in Hartland, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

Bill Schroeder returns for his 18th season as color commentator on Brewers telecasts.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder began his career behind the mic as the Brewers' color man after a distinguished playing career. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Schroeder and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

For the past nine winters, Schroeder has served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' spring training home in Maryvale, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 at Baltimore in the midst of the team's Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990.

An active member in the community, Schroeder won the Athletes for Youth Good Guy Award in 1988.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Princeton, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

"Rock" and his wife, Kate, reside in Muskego, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son named Billy. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Otis.

CRAIG COSHUN

Craig Coshun begins his 12th season covering the Brewers as a pre-game host and sideline reporter for selected games on FS Wisconsin. Coshun has also filled in as the play-by-play announcer during his time with the team. Following the baseball season, he performs the same duties for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state, calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Network and the ESPN family of networks. He has also handled the WIAA state high school football championships.

As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Coshun and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

Coshun has worked at NBC affiliates in Eau Claire (WEAU) and Madison (WMTV) and was the sports director at WMTV from 1992-2000. He is a graduate of UW-Whitewater.

DAVE NELSON

Dave Nelson enters his sixth season as an analyst for FS Wisconsin broadcasts. He also serves as Brewers Director of Alumni Relations and leads the team's Speakers Bureau. In his front office role, Nelson maintains a database of former Brewers players as well as organizes events for Brewers alumni.

Prior to his current role, Nelson served as Brewers first base coach from 2003-06. In 2001 and 2002, he was a minor-league outfield instructor. Nelson began his Major League coaching career in 1981 with Chicago-AL and later spent time coaching in Cleveland, Oakland and Montreal. In 1980, he was on the coaching staff at Texas Christian University.

Nelson enjoyed a 10-year Major League playing career from 1968-77. The former outfielder played for Cleveland, Washington, Texas and Kansas City. He was named to the American League All-Star Team in 1973.

Born in Fort Still, Oklahoma, Nelson went on to graduate from Junipero Serra High School in California. He attended Compton Junior College for one year and Los Angeles State College for two years. Nelson also served in the Army Reserve for six years. He currently splits time between Bradenton, Florida and Milwaukee.

TELLY HUGHES

Telly Hughes enters his fourth season as an on-field reporter for Milwaukee Brewers telecasts on FS Wisconsin.

Hughes, a former college-level pitcher, played at Illinois State University, where he majored in mass communication and broadcast journalism. Upon graduation, he started building his reputation in the world of sports broadcasting. He began his career as a teleprompter operator for a morning show in St. Louis where he shadowed sports reporters at the station.

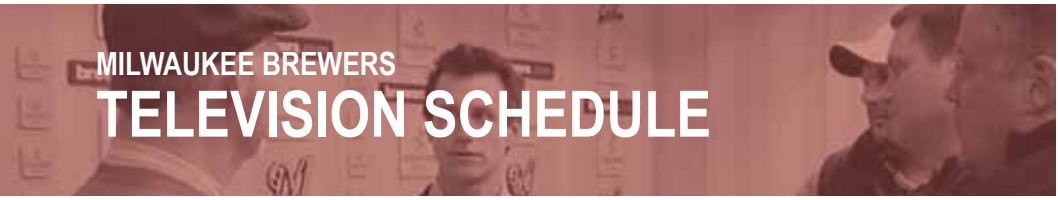

Hughes was later hired as a weekend sports reporter for WMAZ in Macon, Georgia. He continued to gain experience in front of the camera and eventually moved to Des Moines, Iowa to work for NBC affiliate, WHO. Hughes returned home to St. Louis to work for KPLR before making his way to FS North in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He spent a year at FS North, covering the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota Timberwolves and Minnesota Wild.

Hughes made the transition to FS Wisconsin in February 2009. Over the last three years, he has worked as a reporter and host for FS Wisconsin, covering the regional network's pre-game, sideline, and post-game coverage for the Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks.

A native of East St. Louis, Illinois, Hughes resides in Milwaukee with his family.

BREWERS TELEVISION HISTORY

The first Milwaukee Brewers television broadcast took place on May 22, 1970 when the Brewers lost, 6-3, at Kansas City. The game aired on WTMJ-TV in Milwaukee and featured Tom Collins and Merle Harmon calling the action. The first home telecast took place on May 30, 1970 and saw the Brewers defeat the Detroit Tigers, 9-7. A total of 26 games were broadcast on WTMJ-TV during the Brewers' first season of 1970. Special thanks to Rick Schabowski for providing that information.

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the Milwaukee Brewers.

If the game begins with the roof open:

- It shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the closing of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- The roof may be re-opened by following the procedures for opening the roof as detailed below.

If the game begins with the roof closed:

- It may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions.
- Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied when opening the roof during a game:

  - The roof may be opened only once during the game.
  - The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion
  - The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
  - The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.

MASCOTS

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's rich baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer has become a symbol of what's good about being a fan of the Brewers.

As the official mascot of the Brewers, Bernie Brewer entertains fans young and old from his dugout located in the left-field bleachers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That season, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. On August 16, a bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973 he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the Brewers' powerful years, when home runs came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. In 1993, by popular demand, Bernie made a triumphant return and has been a fixture at every home game since. In April of 2010, Bernie joined Twitter. He has the largest following of any MLB mascot on the social network. Fans can follow him at twitter.com/bernie_brewer.

KLEMENT'S FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Klement's Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 90s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on selected Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season -- the final year of County Stadium -- the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the club might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 15th spring at Maryvale Baseball Park. The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as room for 4,000 on the lawn. The complex features eight baseball fields, including two half-fields. The minor-league players also train at the complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development. The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessibility Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues; the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects; and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
