Friday, October 10, 2025 • T-Mobile Park, Seattle, WA • 5:08 p.m. PT

A.L. Division Series Game #5 • TV: FOX • Radio: 97.1 FM/107.9 FM

FOR ALL THE MARBLES: The Detroit Tigers and Seattle Mariners today play a Winner-Take-All Game 5 in the American League Division Series after splitting the first four games ... down two games to one and trailing 3-0 halfway home in Game 4, the Tigers roared back for nine unanswered runs to earn the 9-3 win ... the winner of today's game will travel to Toronto to start the ALCS on Sunday.

- The Tigers find themselves in a Winner-Take-All affair for the second time this postseason ... in the Best-of-3 Wild Card series last week in Cleveland, the Tigers won Game 1, lost Game 2 and won Game 3 to advance to play Seattle ... the Tigers will now play two Winner-Take-All games within the same postseason for the first time in franchise history.
- The Tigers today play their 12th Winner-Take-All post-season game in club history, their sixth in a row on the road ... Detroit is 6-5 in its previous 11 games.
- This marks Detroit's ninth all-time Best-of-Five post-season series, and, like this year, the Tigers had fallen behind 2-1 in such a series two previous times, the first time since the 2013 ALDS vs. the Oakland Athletics when Detroit also won the first game 3-2 on the road, lost the next two games and came back to win Games 4, 5 and the Series ... overall, the Tigers have gone 1-1 in their previous Best-of-Five playoff series that they trailed 2-1 after three games.

Y'ALL COME BACK NOW: The Tigers on Wednesday scored at least nine unanswered runs to close out a post-season game for the first time in franchise history, turning a 3-0 deficit into a 9-3 win ... the Tigers are the first team to finish off a post-season game with at least nine unanswered runs since the Dodgers last year, the first A.L. team since the Astros in 2021 ... thanks to Elias.

THIS IS STRIKING: Tarik Skubal has 43 career post-season strikeouts, tied with Anibal Sanchez for the third-most K's in club history (Justin Verlander, 112; Max Scherzer, 80) ... Skubal has 23 K's this postseason, five more than anyone else ... Skubal's 11.50 K/9 IP rate is the best mark in post-season franchise history, a smidgen ahead of Max Scherzer's 11.49 K/9 IP rate in the playoffs with Detroit.

- Today marks Skubal's second-career Winner-Take-All starting assignment, as he was dealt a 7-3 setback in Game 5 of the ALDS last year at Cleveland.

THEY'RE MADE TO BE BROKEN: In Game 1 of the Wild Card Series at Cleveland, Tarik Skubal struck out 14 batters to set the A.L. record for most strikeouts in a post-season game by a southpaw ... his 14 K's tied for the second-most ever in a playoff game by a lefthander and were the most since Pittsburgh's John Candelaria struck out 14 on October 7, 1975 at the Reds in Game 3 of the NLCS.

- Only one left-handed pitcher in post-season history has topped Skubal's single-game strikeout total: Sandy Koufax, 15 Ks, October 2, 1963, Game 1 of the World Series at the Yankees.
- Skubal's 14 Ks were the most by any pitcher in a post-season game since Houston's Gerrit Cole struck out 15 Tampa Bay Rays on October 5, 2019 in Game 2 of the ALDS, and the most on the road since Roger Clemens had 15 Ks on October 14, 2000 in Game 4 of the ALCS at Seattle.
- Skubal's 14 strikeouts tied Detroit's single-game post-season club record set once previously by Joe Coleman on October 10, 1972 in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. the Oakland Athletics.

WELCOME TO OCTOBER: The Tigers are in the playoffs for the 18th time in franchise history and in back-to-back seasons for the first time since a four-year run from 2011-14 ... this marks the fourth time ever that the Tigers have made the playoffs at least two seasons in a row, joining the aforementioned 2011-14, 1934-35 and 1907-09.

- The Tigers are one of only four teams in all of baseball to reach the Division Series round in each of the last two seasons, joining the New York Yankees, the Philadelphia Phillies and the Los Angeles Dodgers ... the Tigers are the only team in baseball to achieve the Division Series round by first winning a Wild Card series in each of the last two seasons.

THAT WAS WILD: The Tigers secured a 2-1 series win in the Best-of-Three Wild Card in Cleveland thanks to a 6-3 win in October 2's Winner-Take-All Game 3 ... the Tigers improved to 6-5 all-time in their 11 Winner-Take-All affairs and have now won four of their last five such efforts.

- The Tigers have now won a playoff series in consecutive seasons for only the second time in franchise history, as the club once previously did so in three-straight years from 2011-13.

HOW DID WE GET HERE?: Describing Detroit's path to the postseason as somewhat of a circuitous yet earned journey could be a bit of an understatement, as the club experienced the very best of times while also overcoming moments of angst at various points throughout the year.

- The Tigers this year woke up on May 1, June 1, July 1, August 1 and September 1 with the best or tied-for-the-best record in the A.L., a feat the franchise had previously done only thrice, including only two other times in the last 115 years: 1984, 1968, 1909.
- The Tigers were the first team in the majors to 30, 40, 50 and 60 wins this year for just the fifth-time ever, joining the 2006, 1984, 1961 and 1911 Tigers clubs ... thanks to Elias.
- Despite losing 12 of 13 games during a stretch surrounding the All-Star Break, the Tigers still had the best record in the A.L. on August 1 and were the first A.L. team to reach 80 wins, getting there on August 31 to run their record to 80-58 with one month to play.

SEPTEMBER MOURN: The Tigers then went 7-17 (.292) in September, the second-lowest winning percentage in the majors that month ahead of only the Rockies (4-21, .160) ... meanwhile, the Guardians led the majors with a 20-7 (.741) record in September, allowing them to leapfrog the Tigers and erase a deficit that stood at 10.5 games through August and 15.5 games through July 8.

- Detroit's .292 winning percentage in September is the lowest in that particular calendar month by a playoff qualifier dating back to when the World Series began in 1903.
- The Tigers went 3-13 in their final 16 games to become the second team in major league history to lose 13 of their final 16 games yet still make the postseason, joining the 2000 Yankees who, like Detroit, finished that season 87-75 ... the Yankees went on to win the World Series.

ROSTER RUMBLINGS: On the Tigers 26-man Division Series roster, every player now has post-season experience ... only Dillon Dingler, Jahmai Jones, Casey Mize, Troy Melton and Kyle Finnegan lacked said experience prior to the Wild Card round, a stark contrast from last year.

- In Game 1 of the Wild Card Series at Cleveland, he struck out 14 batters to set the A.L. record for most strikeouts in a post-season game by a southpaw...his 14 K's tied for the second-most ever in a playoff game by a lefthander and were the most since Pittsburgh's John Candelaria struck out 14 on October 7, 1975, at the Reds in Game 3 of the NLCS.
- Only one left-handed pitcher in post-season history has topped Skubal's single-game strikeout total: Sandy Koufax, with 15 Ks on October 2, 1963, in Game 1 of the World Series at the Yankees.
- Skubal's 14 Ks were the most by any pitcher in a post-season game since Houston's Gerrit Cole struck out 15 Tampa Bay Rays on October 5, 2019, in Game 2 of the ALDS, and the most on the road since Roger Clemens had 15 Ks on October 14, 2000, in Game 4 of the ALCS at Seattle.
- Skubal's 14 strikeouts tied Detroit's single-game post-season club record set once previously by Joe Coleman on October 10, 1972, in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. the Oakland Athletics.
- Detroit lost each of Skubal's final three starts in the regular season, including the final two against Cleveland.
- Has made 12 starts this year in which he has pitched at least six innings and allowed zero runs, extending his franchise record for the most such starts in a season...he is one of only two pitchers in the last 60 years to make 12 such starts in a single season, joining Adam Wainwright in 2014 (Elias).
- His 10th strikeout against Houston was also his 200th of the season, becoming the first pitcher in MLB this year to reach the mark...through his first 25 starts, he recorded 200 strikeouts while walking just 25, joining Curt Schilling (2002) as the only pitchers in major league history to accomplish that feat.
- Named the starting pitcher for the American League in the All-Star Game this year...his second straight year being an All-Star and first time getting the starting nod.
- On Sunday Night Baseball against Minnesota, he became the first left-handed pitcher in the pitch-tracking era to have multiple starts of 13+ strikeouts in fewer than 95 pitches...he also became just the fourth left-handed pitcher ever to have multiple starts in a single season of 13+ strikeouts, 0 runs and 2 or fewer hits.
- Threw the first complete-game shutout of his professional career on May 25 against Cleveland, tossing a "Maddux". He needed just 94 pitches (72 strikes/22 balls) to record 27 outs, with 13 of those coming by way of strikeout, tying his career high. His 13 strikeouts were the most strikeouts by any pitcher in major league history in a "Maddux".
- In that outing, he became the first pitcher in Tigers history to throw a complete game issuing zero walks and allowing no more than two hits with at least 13 strikeouts...he is the first pitcher in the majors to record such a start since Jacob deGrom did so on April 23, 2021.
- Was the unanimous AL Cy Young winner in 2024, becoming the fifth Tiger to win the award, the first since Max Scherzer in 2013, and the second LHP in franchise history to ever do so (Willie Hernandez in 1984).
- Won the American League Pitching Triple Crown last year, finishing first in wins (18), ERA (2.39) and strikeouts (228)...became the third pitcher in franchise history and the 22nd pitcher in Major League history to win the Triple Crown, joining Justin Verlander (2011) and Hal Newhouser (1945).
