14 LITTLE LEAGUE OPENING DAYS VISITED

DIAMONDBACKS YOUTH JERSEY PROGRAM

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

AVNET · Fry's Food Stores · Tide · Phoenix Children's

Since 2014, the Arizona Diamondbacks have been committed to breaking down financial barriers to youth sports participation through the D-backs Give Back Youth Jersey Program. In 2025, in partnership with Avnet, Fry's Food Stores, Tide, and Phoenix Children's, the program provided over 65,000 young athletes across 116 youth baseball and softball leagues in Arizona with free, high-quality jerseys and caps.

By fully covering uniform costs, the program enables leagues to redirect limited funds toward critical needs like equipment, facility upgrades, and lowering registration fees. This has become especially impactful as youth baseball and softball participation continues to rise—reaching its highest levels since 2008.

The D-backs amplified their commitment by attending 14 Opening Days throughout the state in 2025, including inaugural visits to Salt River Little League, Superior Little League, Pinal Mountain Little League, Nogales National Little League, Hayden-Winkelman Little League, Flagstaff Girls Softball, and Diamondback Little Leagues. These appearances brought excitement, visibility, and support to communities that often have limited access to professional sports outreach.

By investing in the future of the game and making diamond sports more accessible to all, the D-backs Give Back Youth Jersey Program remains one of the Foundation's most impactful and far-reaching initiatives.

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation hosted two free Girls Play Ball clinics in 2025—welcoming nearly 200 girls ages 7–14 to Chase Field and Salt River Fields for on-field instruction, stadium experiences, and skill-building. Each participant received a beginner glove, custom swag, and tickets to a 2026 D-backs game. Designed to empower young girls through baseball, the program has impacted over 800 participants from more than 25 Arizona communities since its launch. The June clinic also included a special on-field parade during National Girls in Sports Day, highlighting the D-backs' ongoing commitment to growing the game and building confidence, health, and opportunity for the next generation of female athletes.

The D-backs Nike RBI program provides high school baseball and softball players from underserved communities with access to professional-level training, academic support, and opportunities for personal growth. Since its launch in 2021, the program has grown to include both baseball and softball programs. Many of the athletes go on to earn college scholarships, employment with the D-backs Baseball Academy and at Chase Field, and opportunities in collegiate baseball and softball, all while learning the values of teamwork, perseverance, and leadership.

Through these programs, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation continues to create life-changing experiences and foster the next generation of leaders both on and off the field.

PLAY BALL FUND

arizona complete health

In partnership with Arizona Complete Health, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation continued its commitment to growing youth baseball and softball across the state through the D-backs Give Back Play Ball Fund. In 2025, the program awarded $60,000 in grants to 15 youth sports teams and organizations, providing vital support for equipment, player fees, coaching resources, and facility improvements. Grant recipients were honored in pre-game recognition ceremonies at Chase Field in April and September, celebrating the efforts of parents, coaches, and mentors who make youth sports possible. Organizations recognized included Apache Junction Little League, Barry Goldwater High School Baseball, South Mountain Little League, and Wolfpack AZ Baseball, among others. Since its launch, the Play Ball Fund has supported over 60 Arizona-based programs, ensuring that more kids have access to the game and its lifelong benefits, regardless of financial barriers.

2025 D-BACKS INTER-TRIBAL TOURNAMENT™

PRESENTED BY TALKING STICK RESORT

NATIVE AMERICAN RECOGNITION DAY

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

RESOLUTION COPPER

presented by TALKING STICK RESORT

In its 25th year, the D-backs Inter-Tribal Youth Baseball and Softball Tournament continues to stand as the largest Native American baseball and softball tournament in the world, and the only one of its kind hosted by a Major League Baseball team. Held June 2–5, 2025, in partnership with Talking Stick Resort, Resolution Copper, Nike, and the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, this year's event welcomed 79 teams, including over 1,050 young athletes and 280 coaches representing tribal nations from Arizona, New Mexico, California, and Oklahoma.

Launched by the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation in 1998 and operated by the D-backs Baseball Academy, the tournament creates an accessible, empowering space where Native youth athletes play on Major League-caliber fields, including Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the first professional sports facility on tribal land. As the tournament has grown, additional games are hosted on community fields throughout the Phoenix area—many of which were built or enhanced with support from the Foundation.

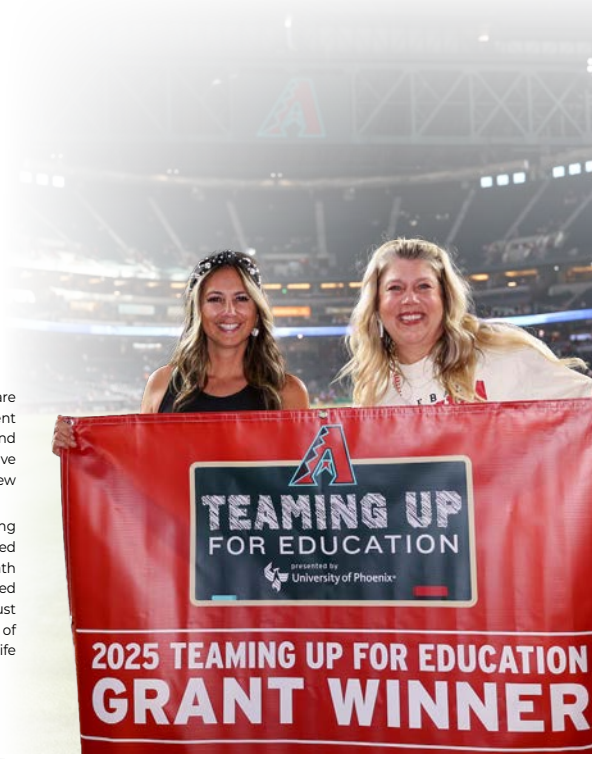

And With a $1.5 million investment, the tournament has impacted more than 20,000 Native American youth, providing low-cost entry, uniforms, and equipment to remove financial barriers. For many players, this event is about more than the game it's a chance to step beyond geographic and socioeconomic limits, connect with other tribal communities, and be seen on a Major League stage.

The 2025 tournament was once again held in conjunction with Native American Recognition Day at Chase Field, where participating teams were honored in front of thousands of fans. This recognition reinforces the Diamondbacks' ongoing commitment to diversity, inclusion, and cultural celebration, as well as to elevating the visibility and voices of Native American athletes. More than just a competition, the Inter-Tribal Tournament fosters unity, pride, and lasting hope - strengthening families, honoring heritage, and proving that sports can be a catalyst for opportunity, inspiration, and change.

TEAMING UP FOR EDUCATION

presented by University of Phoenix®

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and University of Phoenix are committed to supporting Arizona educators and enhancing student learning. Through the Teaming Up for Education Grants, K–12 teachers and administrators can apply for grants of $1,000–$10,000 to bring innovative projects to life that improve educational outcomes, incorporate new technology, or promote student wellness.

In 2025, the program invested up to $150,000 in Arizona schools, prioritizing underserved communities and unique projects. Past grants have supported initiatives such as robotics clubs, music programs, classroom upgrades, math projects, and collaborative learning experiences. Applications are reviewed by a panel of Diamondbacks and University of Phoenix employees and must demonstrate innovation, impact on students, and a clear plan for the use of funds. Educators are encouraged to apply to bring their creative ideas to life and transform the learning experience for their students.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS
SCIENCE OF BASEBALL

PRESENTED BY RESOLUTION COPPER

Since 2012, the Arizona Diamondbacks, in partnership with Resolution Copper, have promoted STEM education through the D-backs Science of Baseball initiative. Using baseball as a platform, the program engages students, teachers, and schools with hands-on activities, educational resources, and ballpark field trips, demonstrating how science, technology, engineering, and math are part of the game. The initiative also provides free workshops and professional development for educators, helping connect classroom learning to real-world STEM applications in sports.

D-BACKS STEM DUGOUT

RESOLUTION COPPER

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation created the STEM Dugout, presented by Resolution Copper, to showcase the connection between baseball and science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM). Located near section 327 on Chase Field's upper concourse, the STEM Dugout offers kids the chance to explore STEM facts, play baseball-themed educational games, and take photos in a special dugout next to manager Torey Lovullo. Throughout the season, local STEM-promoting non-profits and community groups activate at the Dugout, providing hands-on, interactive experiences for fans of all ages and encouraging exploration of STEM in a fun, baseball-themed environment.

D-BACKS CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

PRESENTED BY Sanderson Ford

The 2025 D-backs Celebrity Golf Classic, presented by Sanderson Ford, welcomed 120 golfers and raised over $225,000 in support of Arizona's veteran community. Held at Talking Stick Golf Club, the event featured appearances from 25 D-backs alumni, broadcasters, players, and coaches, and concluded with the Budweiser VIP after-party at the newly renovated clubhouse. Proceeds from the 2024 and 2025 events support the Veterans Community Project and its mission to build tiny homes for unhoused veterans in Glendale. Since its inception in 2011, the tournament has raised more than $1.7 million for military-focused nonprofits.

Strikeouts Helping Heroes, presented by Circle K, is a season-long initiative by the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation to raise funds and awareness for veterans facing homelessness, PTSD, addiction, and the challenges of transitioning to civilian life. For every strikeout thrown by a D-backs pitcher in 2025, $10 was donated by Circle K and the Foundation to support veteran-focused programs and services. Beyond the ballpark, the D-backs and Circle K partnered on hands-on community service projects, further demonstrating their commitment to honoring and supporting Arizona's military heroes.

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and NuVision Auto Glass have teamed up to support Arizona veterans in need through the Hits for Heroes program. Throughout the season, $20 is donated every time a D-backs player records a hit, funding projects that improve healthcare, treatment, and rehabilitation, while providing support to veterans and their families on their journey toward stability and success. Beyond the donations, the D-backs and NuVision Auto Glass also organize community service projects to honor and give back to those who have sacrificed for our country, making a meaningful impact both on and off the field.

POLICE vs FIRE

SOFTBALL GAME

Following the D-backs vs. Marlins game on Saturday, June 28, fans were invited to stay for the first-ever Police vs. Fire softball game. The friendly matchup featured teams from the Phoenix Police Department and Phoenix Fire Department, led by honorary managers Randy Johnson and Luis Gonzalez. A portion of ticket sales from the special event package supported the Phoenix Law Enforcement Association (PLEA) Charities and the Local 493 Firefighter Foundation, and proceeds from the 50/50 raffle were split between the two organizations. Fans enjoyed a fun, postgame showdown that celebrated camaraderie, community support, and charitable giving, with the Police team taking home the win, 22-10.

TURNING DIRT INTO DIAMONDS

PRESENTED BY aps

Through the Mike Kennedy Diamonds Back Field Building Program, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and APS build and refurbish baseball and softball fields each year across Arizona. On September 18, 2025, the newest field was dedicated in Phoenix as Ketel Marte Field, honoring the impact and inspiration of Diamondbacks star Ketel Marte. This field reflects his love for the game and his dedication to giving back to the youth of Arizona.

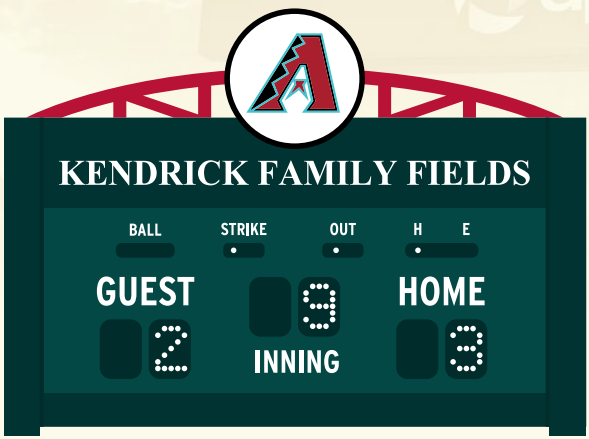

Thanks to the generosity of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and APS, Ketel Marte Field received significant improvements including new LED lighting, fencing, a renovated infield, upgraded dugouts, and a brand-new large scoreboard.

Ketel Marte Field will serve as a community gathering place, a source of pride, and a safe environment for hundreds of young athletes in RAMMS Little League to learn, play, and grow through the game of baseball.

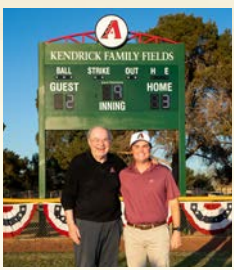

The Kendrick Family Field Program is a passionate commitment from the Kendrick family to invest in opportunities that demonstrate their love of baseball, and fund sport opportunities that enable children to learn leadership, teamwork, sportsmanship and determination. Ken and Randy Kendrick, alongside their children Cal and Catie, proudly work with the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation to refurbish fields for youth baseball and softball leagues in need through the D-backs Give Back Youth Jersey Program.

Each field stands as a point of pride and a gathering place in local communities where volunteer parents and coaches come together to spend time with their children, teaching and inspiring through baseball and softball. The Kendrick Family Field program renovations feature a big-league plan and quality materials designed in partnership with the local league officials. Leagues will be encouraged to use these quality fields to grow participation in the game.

During the month of July, 3,000 backpacks filled with school supplies were donated and distributed free of charge at a series of back-to-school events across the Valley. Students received a backpack, a D-backs and Honeywell illustrated STEM storybook, and a D-backs pencil pouch filled with pencils, highlighters, glue sticks, and more. In 2025, Diamondbacks Foundation staff and Honeywell volunteers visited seven Phoenix-area Title I schools and school fairs to deliver backpacks in person. At Valencia Newcomer School, students were surprised by Geraldo Perdomo and Honeywell Aerospace Technologies, receiving backpacks, school supplies, and copies of Perdomo's STEM-themed book, Great Moon Trap Escape.

Martian Moon Mayhem STEM Bilingual Storybook

Each year, the Arizona Diamondbacks and Honeywell create fun, educational STEM storybooks featuring the D-backs mascot D. Baxter alongside a Diamondbacks player. In 2025, Geraldo Perdomo was the featured player, helping bring STEM concepts to life for students.

The books are distributed at select home games and delivered directly to elementary schools, giving students a fun, hands-on way to explore science, technology, engineering, and math. As part of the Launch Back-to-School program, Perdomo helped distribute the STEM storybooks, inspiring a love of learning and encouraging students to explore STEM at school and at home.

Honeywell Futureshaper Robotics Competition

The Arizona Diamondbacks and Honeywell support STEM learning in Arizona through the Futureshaper Robotics Program, helping schools of all levels develop robotics skills and a love for science, technology, engineering, and math. The program's highlight, the Honeywell Futureshaper Robotics Competition, blends baseball and technology as students design robots to complete challenges like hitting, throwing, running bases, and navigating an obstacle course. In 2025, 14 schools competed at Chase Field, with every team receiving at least $500 and Globe High School winning $2,000. The program emphasizes creativity, collaboration, and accessibility, inspiring Arizona's next generation of STEM leaders.

D-backs & Honeywell Futureshaper STEM Grants

The Arizona Diamondbacks and Honeywell are proud to support outstanding STEM educators and initiatives in Arizona through the Futureshaper STEM Grants Program. During the 2025 season, 10 schools received $5,000 grants to bring innovative STEM projects to life. At the end of the season, one school with a particularly creative idea is awarded a $15,000 grant to further expand their program. The program is open to all Arizona public, private, and nonprofit charter schools serving Kindergarten through 12th grade. Applications can be submitted by teachers, coaches, administrators, or authorized district representatives aged 18 or older. This initiative reflects the D-backs and Honeywell's commitment to fostering innovation, hands-on learning, and the next generation of STEM leaders.

STEM Showcase Inspired by Honeywell

The Arizona Diamondbacks and Honeywell are once again teaming up to inspire young innovators through the annual STEM Showcase Inspired by Honeywell, taking place during the D-backs vs. Phillies game on Sunday, September 21. Fans can explore interactive STEM displays throughout Chase Field and take part in a fun scavenger hunt for a chance to win prizes—all while learning about science, technology, engineering, and math in action. WINTER CLASSIC

presented by University of Phoenix®

Each year, Chase Field transforms into a magical winter wonderland for the D-backs Winter Classic presented by University of Phoenix. On December 8, 2025, more than 600 students from local Title I schools visited Chase Field for a memorable holiday celebration. Each child received brand new athletic shoes, socks, a backpack, books, and a D-backs sweatshirt, and enjoyed festive activities including photos with Santa, baseball lessons, and the University of Phoenix Reading Corner. The day was made even more special with appearances from Diamondbacks players and alumni including Brandon Pfaadt, Tim Tawa, Brandyn Garcia, JJ Putz, Augie Ojeda, and Chris Owings, along with mascot Baxter, who spent time connecting with students and creating unforgettable moments.

On September 28, 2025, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation hosted the 12th annual D-backs Race Against Cancer, presented by Dignity Health Cancer Institute. This impactful 5K run/walk brought together thousands of participants in downtown Phoenix, starting and finishing at Chase Field, in a powerful display of unity, remembrance, and hope.

Far more than a race, this event serves as a community-wide rally to raise awareness and funds for organizations across Arizona that provide critical cancer screening, treatment, and support services. The 2025 race directly benefited nonprofits offering essential care and resources to individuals and families affected by all types of cancer, helping to ease the burdens they face during the most challenging times.

By participating, supporters helped fuel local solutions in the fight against cancer, honoring survivors, remembering loved ones, and standing in solidarity with those currently battling the disease. The D-backs Race Against Cancer exemplifies the Foundation's enduring commitment to improving lives through health equity, access, and compassion—one step at a time.

In 2001, Champions were born.

25 years ago, a mirage in the desert turned into baseball immortality. A franchise in its infancy stared down renowned legends, rewrote October into the unchartered dawn of November, and proved that heart beats history. Your 2001 Arizona Diamondbacks shocked the world and delivered a World Series title to the Valley of the Sun, all the while establishing the franchise's DNA that rings true a quarter-century later: Tough. Connected. Dangerous.

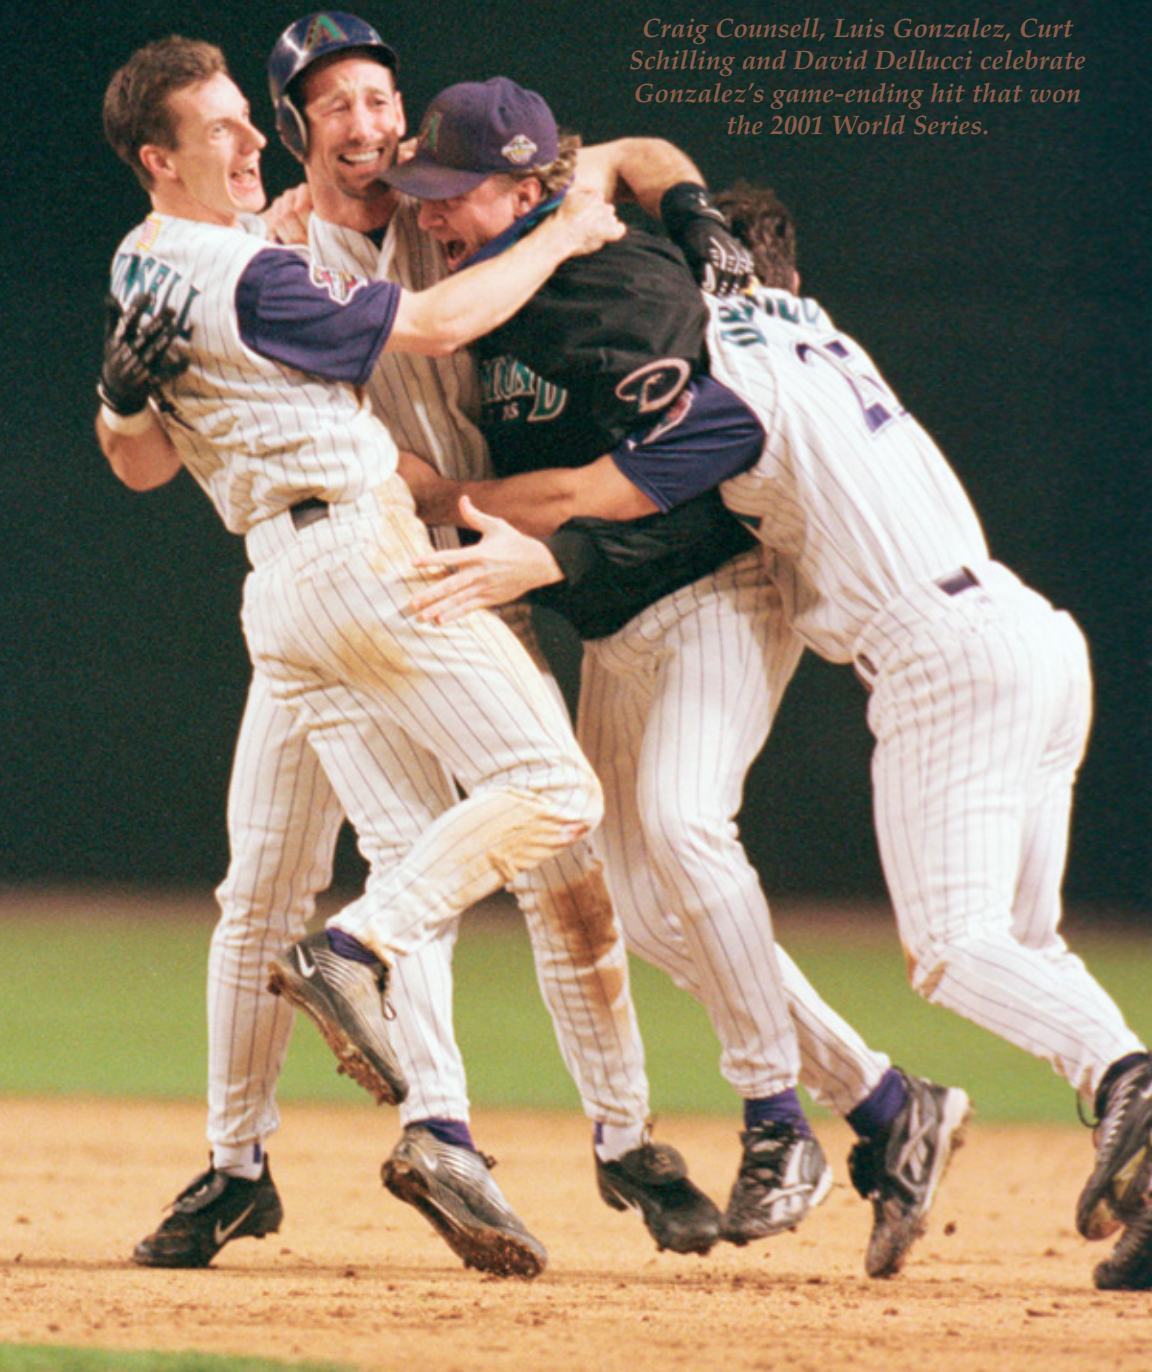

The silver anniversary of a gold standard shines brightest in its natural setting. This year Chase Field will play host to 25 years of memories for a 25-man roster with a legacy that will last a lifetime. Throughout the season, fans will relive the magic of 2001 and honor the players, performances, and moments that made the Grand Canyon State the epicenter of the baseball universe, culminating in a special 25th Anniversary celebration and full-team reunion on Saturday, September 19.

25 years later, the spirit of 2001 lives on in the memories, in the fans, and in the fabric of the franchise.
Born in the desert. Forged on the grandest stage.
Defined by greatness. A legacy remembered.

In 2026, Champions are forever.

2001 - World Title Lands in Arizona
(92-70, First in N.L. West - World Series Champs)

Brenly's troops defeat Yankees in seven-game thriller… Johnson/ Schilling co-World Series MVP's

A season that began full of question marks ended with the most emphatic exclamation point imaginable as the Diamondbacks went from potential contender in the spring of 2001 to Champions of the first World Series ever staged in the month of November.

New manager Bob Brenly wanted a more relaxed atmosphere for a clubhouse still comprised of mostly veteran players, and he was aided in that cause by the winter signing of free agent first baseman Mark Grace. The longtime Chicago Cub was brought in to not only solidify the Diamondbacks' infield, but to bring a fresh attitude to a team that had bogged down under the weight of high expectations and mounting injuries the year before.

The Diamondbacks also sought to improve an offense that had struggled throughout 2000. In addition to Grace, who had led the majors in hits during the decade of the 1990's, Arizona signed outfielder Reggie Sanders, who brought with him a booming bat that had been slowed by injuries the season prior while a member of the Atlanta Braves. Arizona would also benefit from a full season's production of 2 of the game's most dominant pitchers, Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling. Still, the experts had the Diamondbacks pegged anywhere from first to third with a lot of concerns about age as the season began.

In the season's first month, Arizona started slowly. After giving their new manager a win in the season opener at Los Angeles and a series win by taking 2 of 3 from the Dodgers, the Diamondbacks returned home, only to be swept in a 3-game set by St. Louis. The night after the Cardinals series, Diamondback fans were treated to a classic pitcher's duel, as Curt Schilling bested Kevin Brown and the Dodgers, 2-0, in a game that took only 1 hour and 55 minutes to complete.

Sanders roared out of the starting gates, batting .344 in April, hitting 8 home runs, including a walk-off shot on April 20 to beat Colorado. The next day, Sanders hit his first career grand slam as part of a 2-homer game in a 10-5 Diamondback win. Sanders' power output paled in comparison to teammate Luis Gonzalez, who tied a major league record by hitting 13 home runs in the month., earning National League Player-of-the-Month honors in the process. The pitching staff was bolstered by Schilling, who went 3-0 in April, and by a surprising face, righthander Robert Ellis. A non-roster invitee in the spring, Ellis stepped into the starting rotation after injuries claimed Bobby Witt and Brian Anderson, and posted a 3-0 record, including a 6.0 inning effort in a 2-1 debut win at St. Louis on April 16.

Injuries, which had derailed Arizona's pennant hopes in 2000, became a factor again as closer Matt Mantei suffered a capsule strain of the right elbow on April 25. The injury eventually required season-ending "Tommy John" surgery.

Randy Johnson added yet another accomplishment to an already long list on the night of May 8, when he struck out 20 Cincinnati Reds at Bank One Ballpark to tie a major league record for 9 innings of work. Johnson, however, was not involved in the decision, though the Diamondbacks pulled out a 4-3 win in 11 innings.

The Diamondbacks hit their stride in May, going 18-10, including a 13-6 mark at home. Arizona moved from third place at the start of the month to first place in the N.L. West by month's end. The key was an 8-2 record against division competition, and the start of a 9-game winning streak that would go into June. Gonzalez continued to sizzle at the plate, batting .339 for the month, with 7 home runs, and Grace drove in 23 runs while hitting .345. In addition to Johnson's record-setting performance, Arizona pitchers had a strong month overall, setting team monthly records for runs allowed (88) and ERA (2.75). Rookie Bret Prinz, called up to replace the injured Mantei, picked up 4 saves while recording a 0.82 ERA. Schilling also continued to dominate, going 5-1 for the month.

Near the end of the May, Arizona was locked in the longest game in franchise history, an 18-inning marathon in San Francisco, that was scoreless until Erubiel Durazo's RBI double in the top of the 18th just after 1:00 a.m.

All-Star outfielder Luis Gonzalez keeps an eye on one of his club record 57 home runs in 2001.

A winning streak against division foes that began in late May carried into June, as Arizona reeled off 9 in a row, all against N.L. West foes. An 18-9 record in June pushed Arizona to a 6-game lead in the N.L. West. Gonzalez earned his second National League Player-of-the-Month Award of the still not half over season, batting .417 with 12 home runs and 35 driven in. In the process, Gonzalez set team monthly records in 6 offensive categories. His performance was highlighted by a 3-homer game on June 8 in Kansas City, hitting roundtrippers to each part of the outfield. Rookie infielder Junior Spivey, called up earlier in the month, tied a club record with a 5-hit game at Colorado on June 21.

Johnson and Schilling combined to go 9-1 for the month, while as a team, Arizona hit .300. The D'Backs tied a team record with 12 home wins in June.

As strong as they were in June, the Diamondbacks found an equal amount of trouble in July, going 11-15. The club went into the All-Star Break on a downward slide, losing 5 out of 6, including being swept at home by Oakland, a series in which Arizona managed just 2 runs. It took a Danny Bautista leadoff single in the eighth to break up Mark Mulder's bid for a perfect game in the series opener, while Tim Hudson and Barry Zito continued the dominance in the remaining games. An 11-game road trip out of the break saw the Diamondbacks go 6-5, yet their division lead shrunk to 1 1/2 games, and the lead turned into a deficit after Arizona was swept in a 4-game home set by San Francisco. After beating Montreal on July 31, Arizona stood a half-game out of the lead.

The Diamondback logo took on a patriotic look behind home plate at Bank One Ballpark following the tragedies of September 11, 2001.

Johnson remained a steady force during the month, and continued to make history. On July 18, Arizona's game at San Diego had to be suspended when a transformer in Qualcomm Stadium exploded. The game was resumed as part of a doubleheader the next day, with Johnson coming on in "relief" of Curt Schilling. Johnson struck out 16 Padres, setting a major league record for most strikeouts in a relief appearance. In addition, the Big Unit limited the Padres to 1 hit over 7.0 innings in a 3-0 Diamondbacks win. For the month, Johnson went 3-0. The closer's role had been given to righthander Byung-Hyun Kim, who picked up 4 saves. It was another strong month at the plate for Gonzalez, who batted .310 with 9 home runs.

In an attempt to bolster a pitching staff hit by injuries, the Diamondbacks acquired righthanded pitcher Albie Lopez from Tampa Bay on July 25.

Johnson, Schilling and Gonzalez were selected to the National League All-Star Game, and Gonzalez was selected to participate in the Home Run Derby the night before the midsummer classic in Seattle. Gonzo, who had been voted by fans to the N.L. starting lineup, knocked off Sammy Sosa in the finals to take home a surprise victory. Schilling had been selected by N.L. Manager Bobby Valentine to start the game, but citing the fact he would be pitching in Anaheim 3 days later, deferred to Johnson, who made his second consecutive start, and the eighth appearance of his career.

With the season hanging in the balance, Arizona righted itself in August, and the night of August 10 can be targeted as the specific date things got put back on track. After dropping 2 out of 3 in Florida, and with a weekend series with the Braves in Atlanta next, Curt Schilling delivered a masterpiece, blanking the Braves on 6 hits over 7.0 innings, with Spivey and Grace both collecting 2 hits in a 7-0 win. Arizona went on to sweep the 3-game set, with Spivey delivering another 5-hit game in the series finale, becoming the 50th rookie all-time to have a pair of 5-hit games in his first season.

Danny Bautista slides head-first at home plate on Tony Womack's game-ending single that staked the Diamondbacks to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals, propelling Arizona into the NLCS against Atlanta.

Johnson hit the record books again in August, becoming the first pitcher in history to have 4 consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons by fanning his 300th victim on August 23 in Pittsburgh. Johnson went 5-1 for the month, coupled with Schilling's 4-1 mark. The pitching staff set monthly records in strikeouts (227) and fewest home runs allowed (20). Gonzalez and Sanders each hit 10 homers in the month, with Sanders batting .322. By month's end, the Diamondbacks were back in first place by 4 games.

A pair of heartbreaking 1-run losses in San Diego opened September, but baseball took a back seat on September 11 due to the terrorists attacks. A week-long postponement of games would push the regular season into the first week of October. When play resumed on September 17, the Diamondbacks' game at Colorado was both a game and somber tribute to those who had lost their lives and the public servants who put their lives on the line to help others. On the field, Arizona maintained a steady lead on San Francisco, in spite of losing 2 of 3 at Pac Bell. The lone win was Curt Schilling's 20th of the season, making him the franchise's first 20-game winner. Johnson followed him on September 27, making the duo the first 20-win teammates since 1999.

Craig Counsell, Curt Schilling and David Dellucci surround Luis Gonzalez after his game-winning hit to end the World Series against the Yankees

Luis Gonzalez' magic season continued, as he became the 26th player in history to go over 400 total bases in a season on September 29. The night before, Gonzalez' 11th inning walk-off homer gave Arizona a huge 4-3 win over Los Angeles.

The Diamondbacks used the final week of the season, rescheduled due to the terrorist attacks, to clinch their second N.L. West title in 3 years. After a 3-game home sweep of the Rockies, the club traveled to Milwaukee, where Albie Lopez tossed a 3-hit complete-game for a 5-0 victory. Later, much later that night (1:00 a.m. local time), the Giants lost at home, giving the Diamondbacks the title. After an emotional rollercoaster of a season, and the events that shook the nation, Arizona and its fans had been through plenty. The ride, however, was just getting started.

Arizona defeated St. Louis in the Division Series, 3 games to 2, beating Atlanta in the National League Championship Series, 4 games to 1, and became the fastest team to win a World Series, defeating the New York Yankees in a classic confrontation, 4 games to 3. This historic week climaxed on Sunday, November 4, when Luis Gonzalez looped a single over a drawn-in Yankee infield to cap a 2-run ninth inning rally off of Mariano Rivera and to set off the celebration and bring the Valley of the Sun its first major sports championship.

The series was credited with giving the nation a much-needed break from the tragedy, and reaffirmed baseball's place in the fabric of the country. In addition to being able to raise the Commissioner's Trophy, Diamondback pitchers Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling ended a season in which they dominated as few pitching duos ever had, by being named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

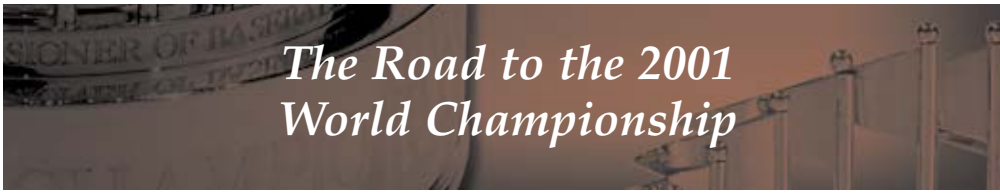

Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling display the World Series Most Valuable Player award after sharing the honor by going a combined 4-0 with a 1.40 ERA during the Fall Classic. They were also named Co-Sportsmen of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

The accolades continued days later, as the club treated 300,000 fans to a parade through Copper Square, leading to a championship celebration in a packed Bank One Ballpark. In mid-November, Johnson received his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award. Luis Gonzalez earned the Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Award, and as the World Champions, the Diamondbacks capped their phenomenal season with a visit to the White House to meet President George Bush on December 13.

Game #4

New York 4, Arizona 3 (10 innings)

Halloween night had crazy things in store as Curt Schilling was making his first career start on 3 days rest…Schilling, who had downplayed the "mystique" and "aura" of Yankee Stadium, gave up 3 hits and a run with a walk and 9 K's over 7.0 innings…Shane Spencer put the Yankees ahead in the third inning with a solo homer…Mark Grace evened the score with an upper deck blast in the fourth inning, his first career World Series home run…the D'Backs jumped to a 3-1 lead in the eighth when Erubiel Durazo doubled to scored Luis Gonzalez from first base with the go-ahead run…Midre Cummings, running for Durazo, scored an insurance run on Matt Williams' fielder's choice…Byung-Hyun Kim entered in the bottom of the eighth and fanned the first 3 batters he faced…in the Yankees' ninth, Paul O'Neill delivered a 1-out single to left, then was followed by Bernie Williams who struck out swinging…with 2 outs and the tying run on first base, Tino Martinez launched Kim's first pitch over the centerfield fence, tying the game at 3-3… Mariano Rivera induced 3 Diamondback ground balls in the top of the tenth…the World Series moved into November baseball as midnight struck and Kim retired Scott Brosius and Alfonso Soriano on flyouts…Derek Jeter worked Kim to a 3-2 count before poking the game-winning homer just inside the rightfield foul pole to even the series.

Game #5
Thursday, November 1 - Yankee Stadium
New York 3, Arizona 2 (12 innings)

Miguel Batista made his World Series debut with 7.2 innings of shutout ball, but a second straight ninth inning rally by the Yankees sent the Diamondbacks home with as many wins in the series that they had upon arriving in New York…the D'Backs took the initial lead when Steve Finley led off the fifth inning with his first career World Series homer…two outs later, Rod Barajas, making an unscheduled start for the injured Damian Miller, homered to left…Batista left with a 2-0 lead while Arizona missed opportunities to add insurance runs in the seventh and eighth innings, leaving 4 runners on base…Byung-Hyun Kim entered the game in the ninth inning with a 2-0 lead but Jorge Posada led off the with a double to left…Kim appeared to thwart any ideas of a second consecutive ninth inning rally, retiring Spencer on a groundball and fanning Chuck Knoblauch…but, with two outs, Scott Brosius smacked a game-tying 2-run homer to leftfield, sending the game into overtime…Danny Bautista and Erubiel Durazo opened the 11th with back-to-back singles against Mariano Rivera and advanced on a Matt Williams sacrifice bunt…Finley was intentionally walked to load the bases, then Reggie Sanders appeared to have knocked in the go-ahead run with a line drive up the middle, but Yankee second baseman Alfonso Soriano made a diving stab…Rivera escaped the jam on a fielder's choice…Albie Lopez entered the game in the 12th for the D'Backs and gave up a single to Knoblauch, who was then sacrificed to second by Brosius…Soriano followed with a single to rightfield, plating Knoblauch with the game-winning run…the improbable comebacks by the Yankees marked the first time in World Series history that a team won 2 games in the same Series when trailing by at least 2 runs entering the ninth inning…it was also the first time a team has won in the bottom of the ninth or later since Minnesota posted "sudden death" wins in games 6 & 7 of 1991 series vs. Atlanta…the back-to-back extra-inning games in Yankee Stadium marked the fourth time consecutive games have gone into bonus frames, first since games 6 & 7 of the '91 series between Twins & Braves.

Game #6
Saturday, November 3 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 15, New York 2

After the frustrating visit to New York, the D'Backs couldn't wait to get back to Bank One Ballpark and it was evident as Randy Johnson and the offense thumped the Yanks, 15-2…Tony Womack opened the home half of the first with a double to right off of Andy Pettitte, then scored on Danny Bautista's single…Arizona scored 3 more in the second inning courtesy of Womack's 2-run single and Bautista's run scoring single…Pettitte, who allowed 6 runs on 7 hits over 2.0 innings, walked Greg Colbrunn followed by a Matt Williams double to open the third and was removed in favor of Jay Witasick…the rout was on as Arizona scored 8 times in the third inning for a 12-0 lead…the Diamondbacks added 3 more runs in the fourth off of Witasick and Randy Choate while New York managed only 2 hits through the first 5.0 innings…Bobby Witt and Troy Brohawn closed out the game for the D'Backs in place of Johnson, who did not need to go the distance since there was a chance he could be called upon in game #7…the Big Unit also added a hit and scored twice…Arizona set a World Series single-game record with 22 hits.

Game #7
Sunday, November 4 - Bank One Ballpark
Arizona 3, New York 2

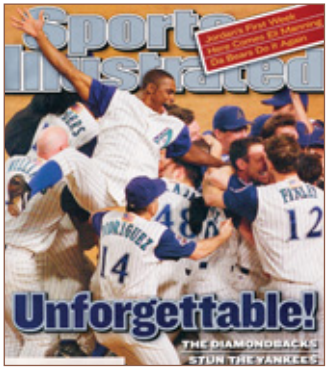

The stage was set for a classic showdown as Curt Schilling took the hill against Roger Clemens, the first meeting of 20-game winners in a Game #7 since 1985 when John Tudor of the Cardinals faced Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen…Schilling, working on 3 days rest for the second straight time, allowed only 1 hit through the first 6.0 innings…the D'Backs didn't have much more success against Clemens until Steve Finley led off the sixth with a single to center then scored when Danny Bautista lashed a double to left-center…New York answered with a run in the seventh on an RBI single by Tino Martinez…with the game tied at 1-1, Alfonso Soriano led off the eighth by hitting a low 0-2 pitch into the seats in left to stake the Yankees to a 2-1 advantage…after a 1-out hit by David Justice, Schilling was lifted in favor of Miguel Batista, the pitching star from game #5 in New York and he retired Jeter for the second out…Randy Johnson was then summoned from the pen less than 24 hours after working 7.0 innings in game #6…the Big Unit retired all 4 men he faced over 1.1 innings then left it to the offense…to win a World Series crown, the Diamondbacks would have to beat Mariano Rivera, who allowed a hit and struck out 3 in the eighth inning…Rivera, who had posted 23 consecutive post-season saves, gave up a leadoff single to Mark Grace…the inning unraveled in Arizona's favor when Rivera threw wildly into centerfield on a potential force out at second base…Jay Bell pinch-hit for Johnson and reached base on a fielder's choice with Rivera recording a force out at third base…with Midre Cummings pinch-running for Damian Miller at second, Tony Womack lashed a double down the rightfield line, tying run and sending Bell to third…Craig Counsell was hit to load the bases and pitting Rivera against D'Back slugger Luis Gonzalez, who had launched a team record 57 home runs during the regular season…with the infield drawn in and an 0-1 count, Gonzalez choked up and blooped a ball a little over 100 feet into short left-center…Bell cruised home from third base with the winning run and leaped into the arms of fellow inaugural D'Back Matt Williams to set-off the celebration…in a moment of pure pandemonium, players, coaches and staff surged out of the dugout and bullpen as the tune of "We Are the Champions" played while fireworks went off…in a post-game ceremony on the field, Jerry Colangelo and his Arizona Diamondbacks were presented with the 2001 World Series trophy…co-MVPs Schilling and went a combined 4-0 in 6 total appearances (5 starts) allowing 6 earned runs over 38.2 innings while recording 45 strike-outs…in winning game #6 as a starter and #7 in relief, Johnson became the first pitcher in history to win 5 games in any single post-season.

2001 World Series Notebook

- The Diamondbacks entered the World Series with Craig Counsell as the only active player in possession of a World Championship ring while the Yankees were 3-time defending champs.

- Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling were the second co-MVP's in World Series history joining the Los Angeles Dodger trio of Ron Cey, Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager…it marked the 20th and 21st time a starting pitcher won the award, first since Florida's Livan Hernandez in 1997.

- It was the third time in World Series history that the home team won every game, joining the Twins against St. Louis in 1987, and Twins against Atlanta in 1991.

- The Diamondbacks outscored New York 31-5 in the 4 wins, and were outscored 9-6 in the trio of 1-run losses in Bronx.

- The Diamondbacks were the fastest expansion team to get to the Fall Classic a year quicker than Florida in '97…other expansion clubs to make the World Series and the year they qualified - Mets (eighth year), Royals (12th year), Seattle Pilots/Milwaukee Brewers (14th year), San Diego (16th year), Toronto (16th year)… remaining expansion clubs that have not appeared in the Series include the Angels, Senators/Rangers, Colt 45's/Astros, Expos, Mariners, Rockies and Devil Rays.

- Arizona pitching held the Yankees to .183 team average (42-for-229), the lowest average ever in a 7 or 8 game World Series… previous low was .185 by St. Louis vs. Kansas City in 1985.

- Arizona's overall staff ERA of 1.94 was lowest in World Series play since Cincinnati's 1.70 mark in a 4-game sweep of Oakland in 1990 and lowest in a 7-game set since Kansas City had a 1.89 mark in '85 vs. the Cardinals.

- The Diamondbacks were the first team in 80 years to win the first 2 games they ever played in the World Series, the fourth team overall joining the 1914 Boston Braves, 1919 Cincinnati Reds and 1921 New York Yankees.

- The walk-off finish to game #7 was the 11th overall "sudden death" ending to a World Series, the third in a row that involved a 7-game series…the last was the '97 finish when Craig Counsell scored the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as Florida defeated Cleveland…the other was Minnesota's 10th inning win over the Braves in the Metrodome in 1991.

- The Diamondbacks are the 19th team to win the series after trailing 3 games to 2…it was also the 11th time a team won games 6 & 7 at home.

- It was the first time the Yankees were involved in a game #7 of any post-season series since the 1964 World Series went to the limit against St. Louis.

- The Diamondbacks snapped New York's post-season series streak at 11, handing the Bronx Bombers their first series loss since the 5-game Division Series with Cleveland in 1997.

- When Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens hooked up in the final game, it marked the sixth time 20-game winners squared off in the seventh game, first since John Tudor (St. Louis) and Bret Saberhagen (Kansas City) in 1985.

- The 15-2 win in game #6 alone was worth the following tidbits:
  …The Diamondbacks recorded a World Series record 22 hits.
  …The 15 runs tied with Toronto for third highest in a World Series game.
  …The 13-run margin of victory tied for second best ever matching the Yankees' 16-3 win over Pittsburgh in game #2 of '60 World Series, and was the second highest ever, just behind an 18-4 Yankee win in game #2 of the 1936 win over the Giants.
  …The 15-0 lead after 5 innings tied the biggest lead by any team at any time in World Series game…the Yankees had a 16-1 lead in game #2 of the '60 series against Pittsburgh.
  …Arizona's 8-run third inning marked the best inning since game 6 of 1968 series when Detroit scored 10 times in third inning of 13-1 win over St. Louis.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS FOUNDATION

The D-backs and the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, in 2026, are celebrating $100 Million in Giving through their signature "D-backs Give Back" investment in communities across Arizona, earning the distinction of being among professional sports' most impactful philanthropic organizations in fewer than three decades.

March 9 will forever be celebrated as "D-backs Give Back Day," as proclaimed by Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs, ensuring the organization's longstanding commitment to Arizona will be recognized each year.

The organization's philanthropic leadership has been built through strong, longstanding relationships across hundreds of nonprofit organizations, youth programs and community initiatives statewide. This pinnacle achievement is a blueprint for community impact and giving, reflecting a sustained, scalable philanthropic model embedded into the organization's identity.

Established in March 1996, just shy of a year of when the franchise was established and two years before they had even played their first game, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation was created with a clear mission, to use its platform to create meaningful and lasting impact. Since that first season in 1998, the team has demonstrated a legacy of investment, supporting hundreds of nonprofit organizations and community initiatives.

Key highlights of the Foundation's impact include the Ken Kendrick Grand Slam Awards, Derrick Hall President's Circle Grants, Mike Kennedy 'Diamonds Back' Field Building Program, Kendrick Family Fields, D-backs Give Back Youth Jersey Program, education initiatives, youth baseball & softball outreach, strategic partnerships with community partners and nonprofits and so much more.

CHASE FIELD
HOME OF THE DIAMONDBACKS

NEW SCOREBOARD

NEW MAIN SCOREBOARD IS 63FT (H) X 152FT (L).
DISPLAY = 9,600 SQ FEET | 52% BIGGER THAN PREVIOUS

Using Corbin Carroll (5'10"), it would take almost 11 Corbin Carrolls standing on top of each other (10.8) to reach the height dimensions (63 ft).

MAIN DISPLAY WEIGHS 110,713 POUNDS

A LITTLE MORE THAN 55 TONS

About the same as an adult humpback whale (110,000 pounds)

LARGEST DISPLAY IN THE STATE OF ARIZONA
Top 10 in MLB

Using the most common Major League bat length (33"), it would take 55 full bats to make it across the scoreboard length (152 feet) (nine inches left over). It would take 200,000-230,000 baseballs to fill that space

NEW RIBBON BOARDS

A TRIP AROUND THE BASES IS 360 FEET...

LOWER RIBBON BOARD = 1,141 FT LONG (.21 MILES)

You'd have to round the bases 3 times plus a little more than 2/3rds of the way back to first base to reach 1,141 feet.

UPPER RIBBON BOARD = 984 FT LONG

That's the equivalent to one trip around the bases, followed by reaching third base on your second lap.

If you add up the two longest home runs in Chase Field history

ADAM DUNN
504 FT on 9/27/08 vs. COL

RICHIE SEXSON
503 FT on 4/26/04 vs. CHC

...a total of 1,007 feet you'd still be 134 feet away from totaling the distance of the largest ribbon board.

TOTAL DIGITAL SIGNAGE = 21,000 SQ FEET

Real world space use w/ 21,000 sq feet = event venue for 1,500-2,000 people, a large office floor for 100-150 employees

DOMINICAN ACADEMY EDUCATION PROGRAM

The first-of-its-kind education program was established in 2014 following a commitment made by Derrick Hall to then–Dominican Republic President Danilo Medina to provide players with a best-in-class education alongside baseball development. The organization covers the full cost of tuition and each student is provided with a laptop computer. Players in the program attend school three days per week in the Ken Kendrick Education Center, working with assigned tutors and receiving weekly progress evaluations from education committee.

As part of the modernized Boca Chica facility's grand opening in late 2024, the organization dedicated the Ken Kendrick Education Center, three classrooms in honor of the Managing General Partner's leadership and vision for all players to have the tools to be successful in life on or off the field.

"Every detail [of the complex] has the players in mind, because not only do we want to develop them on the field, more importantly, we want to develop them off the field. [Ken Kendrick] made a promise to this country [Dominican Republic] and to the President years ago saying not only will we build the best and finest academy, but we will have the best educational program in this country for the players."

In 2025, the D-backs unveiled on May 5 and debuted on May 9 their new Nike City Connect Serpientes uniforms, a cutting-edge redesign representing the team's iconic jerseys over the years, focusing on vibrant colors and reimagining traditional patterning to create something unmistakably Arizona.

Following the success of the original City Connect jerseys, the Nike City Connect 2.0 "Serpientes" uniforms bring a fresh and visually dynamic interpretation of the team's connection to Arizona, drawing inspiration from previous Diamondbacks jerseys, the state's rich cultural diversity, and Arizona's desert surroundings. The name "Serpientes," Spanish for snakes, symbolizes the Diamondbacks' fierce competitive nature.

The uniforms unique features include:

"Arizona Born" Collar Graphic: The only major sports team born with Arizona in its name, this motto pays homage to a legacy rooted in the desert and built for the entire state.

"Flag" Patch: The flag patch unites the team and its state, a symbol of its unwavering connection.

"Established" Jock Tag: The mark celebrates the establishment of the team (1998) and Arizona (48th State).

Jersey Details: The jersey pays tribute to the team's history, blending elements of the original pinstripes with a snakeskin pattern.

Sleeve Trim: The sleeve features a modern interpretation of the distinctive braiding from the team's classic alternate uniforms.

The Cap: The "S" logo makes its on-field cap debut, standing out in the classic purple and teal colorway.

COACHING CAREER

- Is in his second season as pitching coach with the D-backs.
- Spent the previous 3 seasons (2022-24) as the Phillies' assistant pitching coach and director of pitching, where he oversaw pitching development with the Major League club as well as throughout the organization, integrating multiple groups within player development (strength and conditioning, athletic training, etc.) to create individualized plans for success.
- From 2022-24, Phillies' pitchers led the Majors with a combined 69.0 fWAR (ahead of the Braves' 61.9 fWAR).
- In 2024, Phillies' starting pitchers ranked among the NL in BB/9.0 IP (1st, 2.49), groundball pct. (1st, 47.6), fWAR (2nd, 16.0), innings (2nd, 903.0), ERA (3rd, 3.81) and K/9.0 IP (5th, 8.48).
- In 2024, Phillies' relievers ranked among the NL in K/9.0 IP (3rd, 9.71), fWAR (4th, 5.8) and ERA (7th, 3.94).
- Was part of the NL coaching staff at the 2023 All-Star Game.
- From 2019-21, served as an integrative baseball performance consultant with the Phillies.

COLLEGE CAREER CUT SHORT

- Was a highly regarded pitcher in high school and had his sights set to play for one of college baseball's best teams.
- Briefly pitched at the University of Notre Dame (2000-01) and Santa Fe College [Fla.] (2001-02), but his career was cut short due to what would have been identified as Thoracic Outlet Syndrome.

> "My arm, my body, it wasn't working with me. It was working against me. The wheels started turning. I told guys earlier in camp, 'I want to make sure that I give you all the ability to stay healthy, stay on the field, let everything about your stuff, your delivery, your command, all that come out, and not be hindered by any type of injuries or issues.' And that kind of all spurred from what I went through in college."
> Kaplan told Todd Zolecki with MLB.com

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE GAME

- After college, spent a few years away from baseball, selling fitness equipment and designing gyms in Florida.
- Local parents learned of his playing experience and asked him to help with their kids development, which he found enjoyment in.
- Founded Athletic Development Performance (ADP) sports training facility in Jupiter.
- ADP led to co-founding Cressey Sports Performance (Fla.), a highly regarded training facility for professional baseball players, including pitchers Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander and Corey Kluber and Devin Williams.

> "Brian really understands how the body works. He understands what things need to be done in the weight room, the training room, to accomplish what you want on the bump. He knows what questions to ask. He can speak the same language and work with people in multiple departments and help connect the dots."
> Phillies former GM Sam Fuld told MLB.com

PITCHING DEVELOPMENT MENTALITY

- As the Phillies' director of pitching, had a pitching mentality around performance and toughness for player development:

> "Guys spend a lot of time training. They get themselves immersed in pitching labs and they think that's what's necessary to be a big leaguer. It's not. You're not always going to be the biggest and strongest. It's not always the guy who throws the hardest or hits the ball the farthest. It's the guy that knows how to control his body, knows how to repeat it, knows how to manage it over the course of the season."

PERSONAL

- Is married to Ashley…has 3 children: Ellie, Grey and Maeve.
- Hobbies include surfing, playing golf and spending time with family.
- Earned an associate degree in arts, business and administration from Santa Fe College.

Even though playing pro baseball is one of my dreams, I never gave up on my education because I feel that it's also very important. I'm so grateful that the D-backs allowed me to fulfill that dream. My family was very happy when they saw me in my cap and gown."

Barrosa on his academic achievement

"He is a very good example for other players like him. In the transition of coming to a new country and becoming a professional player, he put his schooling on hold. But we conveyed to him that an education is something that lasts forever, and he returned to the program and graduated. I felt extremely proud of him because I remembered how important education was for his parents and how happy they were to see that, in addition to viewing these youngsters as professional players, we also cared about the human side."

"COVID was kind of a blessing in disguise for him a little bit. It allowed him to kind of master a pitch that I don't think he would have been able to get there without that two months or whatever it was. He was able to master it and have a really good feel. We unlocked a little bit (in spring) and then he went home and unlocked it totally."

Brewers' pitching coach Chris Hook told The Arizona Republic

THE MENTAL GAME

- Following a struggling 2019 season, started working with mental performance coach, Brian Cain, based in Arizona to develop a strategic weekly routine:

"I have a five-day routine that I stick to, both physically and mentally. The way I break down my outings, the way, really, I go about life, has come through that mental practice. I think the mental side of it got me through 2019 and kind of helped me turn the corner, so that's definitely something I'll continue to practice and continue to evaluate outings.

"It's freed me up. I don't have to look at box scores and results to know how I'm doing because when I break down my outing, I'll know. I'll give myself a score and know what I need to work on, just all from breaking the game down."

Burnes told pitcherlist.com in 2024

CAL RIPKEN JR.'S IMPACT

- As an undersized 14-year-old, was inspired by Hall-of-Famer Cal Ripken Jr. when he spoke to his little brother's team during the Cal Ripken Jr. Baseball World Series.
- His dad, Rick, thought the message resonated with Corbin to stay eager before eventually hitting a growth spurt during his college years:

"His brother [Tyler] is two years younger than Corbin, and we didn't have Little League. We all played Cal Ripken Jr. Baseball. One year, his brother made it to the Cal Ripken World Series, and Corbin, who was 14, came along. He was our assistant coach, because he couldn't stand not being part of it. So Cal Ripken Jr. made it a point to sit down with every team that made it to the World Series and gave them 30 minutes or an hour to talk and answer questions. He looks 6-foot-6. He's a big man. But he looks at these kids and says, 'When I was a kid, I might have just snuck onto this team, but I would have never seen the field. You guys are so much better than I was at your age. So don't hold back. If you think you've got it, go fight for it.'"

Rick Burnes told MLB.com

A FUTURE STAR FOUND ON THE CAPE

- First took notice by Brewers' scout, Corey Rodriguez, while with the Orleans Firebirds of the Cape Cod League in the summer of 2015.
- Burnes was suggested as a replacement for his teammate (due to innings limit) by his college coach, Eric Valenzuela, to which they agreed.
- In January 2016, Rodriguez and area scout Joe Graham met Burnes at a Starbucks near St. Mary's and left with intent on making him a Brewer.

"I was supposed to pitch somewhere that summer, I don't even remember where. But on the Cape, you know you are going to get in front of some eyes that otherwise wouldn't have seen you -- and definitely wouldn't have seen you at a place like St. Mary's. Sometimes your college coach has an opportunity to change your career. That's what happened to me."

Burnes told MLB.com

"I said, 'Hey, what do you like to do besides baseball?' He goes, 'Well, I play golf.' And I said, 'Just curious, what's your best round? And he goes, '61.' I said, 'Just so you know, that's my front nine.'

"But the way he said it, you know he was telling the truth. We just got a great feeling about the competitiveness, the focus, the presence. He doesn't have any fear in him."

Rodriguez told MLB.com

FRESH SIGHT IN 2020

- Underwent Lasik surgery over the 2019-20 offseason.

"We [had] been talking about it for a while. I was far-sighted. I always wore contacts in high school, then playing baseball I had issues with the contacts, so I went to glasses. In the summer, when it's humid, they would always fog up. It was less of a headache to have the surgery done. A lot of people are scared with lasers on the eyes but it's only four or five seconds. It's all machines now. I'm happy with it. I haven't had any issues. It's nice."

Carroll told Steve Gilbert, dbacks.com

"I always had dreams of being a big leaguer but I also always had goals of impacting people off the field. My goal, especially in the offseason, is to just say 'Yes' to everything. Through doing that, I've kind of found my area or avenue of what, I feel like, is meaningful and impactful. This is just the beginning of where I see things going for me."

"I think that that's where I feel like the most meaningful impact can be made. [The kids are] the future. That's the future big leaguer, the future doctor, the future anything. And so just to be able to give opportunity, in some way, to children that lack opportunity, I think that means a lot to me, because I feel like I'm very much a product of opportunities I was given as a kid. I realize that I was very fortunate in that regard, and that other kids may need additional support, other than a family group or school."

A SCOUT'S PERSPECTIVE

- While recovering from shoulder surgery in 2021, spent majority of the season watching D-backs games in the scout's section behind home plate at Chase Field with the club's then-advance scout, Jeff Gardner.

"[Jeff Gardner] would be with our Major League players every day and then be sitting behind home with me every night. He was gracious enough to let me come into his workspace. It was really, really great for him to let me do that. But it was a really neat look at the preparation piece of it and into some of the different approaches that our hitters were having toward their pitcher and seeing how they executed that. Just some of the finer details that I think I definitely wouldn't have had if I didn't have access to that. So, I'm super grateful to him for letting me barrage in there."

Carroll told The Arizona Republic

2021 REVIEW

- Limited to 7 games with High-A Hillsboro after suffering a season-ending right shoulder injury on May 10 @ Eugene while hitting a go-ahead, 2-run homer…underwent surgery to repair tears in the labrum and posterior capsule in his right shoulder.
- Hit safely in 6 of 7 games, batting .435 (10-for-23) with 1 double, 2 triples, 2 homers and 5 RBI with the Hops.

- Entered the season ranked as the D-backs' No. 1 prospect by both Baseball America (42nd overall) and MLB Pipeline (47th).

ICHIRO INSPIRATION

- His first baseball memory is of being a young boy sitting in the upper deck on the first-base side at Safeco Field watching Ichiro Suzuki play right field.
- Before the 2019 draft, the Mariners, who knew Carroll had grown up idolizing Ichiro and his iconic swing, invited him to visit Safeco Field and made sure the 2 met.
- Carroll talked with Ichiro about hitting and took away an important lesson from his lifelong idol: "Be consistent in your routine."
- To this day, Carroll's phone screensaver is a photo with Ichiro from that 2019 meeting holding a tiny No. 51 jersey, Carroll's first jersey as a kid when he was about 6 yrs old.

> "So by keeping the same routine every day, you can at least have the confidence to say that you went out there with 100% confidence in your preparation. I think I take a lot of confidence in my ability to prepare."
> Carroll told Steve Gilbert, dbacks.com

2020 REVIEW

- Spent the entire season at the D-backs' Alternate Training Site at Salt River Fields.

> "There was that personal piece to it, that personal development, of facing better pitchers than I would have, working with higher level coaches and understanding a little better what would be expected at the big league level. Also, learning to play with guys like Alek Thomas, guys that hopefully I'm playing with for a long time. I think that was so valuable because in a normal year we probably would have been playing on different fields."

THANKS MOM!

- Drove with his mom, Pey-Lin, from Seattle to Scottsdale, arriving the day before the D-backs' 2020 Alternate Training Site opened.
- With "a lot of nervous energy" the day before camp started, Carroll and his mom went to Chaparral High School in Scottsdale and his mom threw him batting practice.
- After they were done and back at their car in the parking lot, they realized the gate was locked and were stuck…the D-backs ended up sending Luis Gonzalez, whose son Jacob graduated from Chaparral, over to get them out.

> "She's pretty good. She's a lefty too, so that's a good angle for me to see."

YOUNG BUCK ON THE BUMP

- At age 23-324, became the fifth youngest D-back starting pitcher to toss 6.0+ innings in their debut, behind Tyler Skaggs (21-040, 2012), Archie Bradley (22-244, 2015), Bryan Augenstein (22-306, 2009) and Enrique González (23-318, 2006).

- His 83 pitches marked the fewest thrown among D-back starters who worked, at most, 6.0 innings in a debut.

PURSUIT OF HIS BÉISBOL DREAM

- At 18, had yet to sign with an MLB club and suffered a broken wrist, prompting him to quit baseball and move from his native Venezuela.
- The life change saw him move from Colombia to Ecuador, then Peru, where he earned money by selling beverages and desserts on the streets, cleaning car windshields at stop lights or simply asking for assistance just to be able to afford something to eat.

- He met a fellow Venezuelan street vendor, Jhonatan Carrillo, in Peru, who encouraged him to not give up on his baseball dream…Carrillo helped him train and sent out videos of Díaz pitching to scouts he knew back in Venezuela.
- When he tried out for D-backs area scout, Ronald Salazar, he impressed enough to earn a strong recommendation to be signed.
- However, because of signing restrictions during covid, he was forced to stay at the club's academy in the Dominican Republic, which allowed him to train regularly and put on weight thanks to an improved diet.
- In February of 2021, Díaz was finally signed.

"We signed him because [Salazar] was all over him. He was insisting that we sign him. That was the first player he signed. And now this is his first big-leaguer."

D-backs Latin American Scouting Director César Gerónimo Jr. said to Nick Piecoro of the Arizona Republic

"I went through a lot of things in life besides baseball, moving to those countries, asking for money on the streets, so a tryout was nothing. It was the same the day I stepped on a big league mound. I didn't even feel nervous."

Díaz told the Arizona Republic

"I've played 2 seasons there and the experience you gain has helped me in my career. A lot of veterans helped me out. Just the words they shared with me and the little things, I'm so grateful for everything."

Moreno said about his Winter League stints

A BOYHOOD IDOL
- Fulfilled a lifelong dream when he got the opportunity to meet Venezuelan legend and one of his idols, Miguel Cabrera, during his first call-up to the Major Leagues on June 11, 2022 @ Tigers.

"He's a legend to all of us in Venezuela. A Hall-of-Famer, God-willing. I'm extremely proud to have been able to meet him while making my debut versus Detroit. Extremely proud to be able to exchange a few words with him. It was really exciting."

- With 4 children to care for, his father, José, struggled to provide, which forced the youngest Moreno to quit baseball for lack of funds.

"My dad wasn't making much money. He couldn't find much money, and when he did, it was for food, not for baseball."

Moreno told MLB.com

- Moreno's baseball dream, however, was kept alive thanks to Jose Mejia, president of the local "12 de Octubre" baseball school…Mejia believed in his ability so much that he did everything he could to ensure he got back on the field at age 11, including letting him stay at his home for days and becoming his main method of transportation getting to away games.

"He picked me up, dropped me off, made everything easier for me. He helped me return to baseball. Thanks to him, I was able to go to the academy that signed me. I'm so grateful for him. He's been like a father to me and his whole family has helped me so much."

- Per Baseball Savant, Run Value is defined as "the run impact of an event based on the runners on base, outs, ball and strike count".

"People get on base and they're like, 'How does anybody hit his fastball? It's just like an invisaball.'"

D-backs first baseman Pavin Smith told Dbacks.com's Steve Gilbert

A "SEMI-UNICORN" FASTBALL

- Averages 19.0+ inches of vertical break on his 4-seam fastball (at 95.0+ MPH), 3.0+ inches above the league average.

"He stays behind the ball so he creates the hoppy type of fastball, which, the ball doesn't really rise but it doesn't go down as most everybody else. So that makes him a semi-unicorn."

Former pitching coach Brent Strom

"I love it when I see 20 [inches of vertical break on the scoreboard]. That's when you know it's a good fastball.

"I've always felt even when I was throwing 90-92 (mph), it felt like I had a good fastball. That was before I knew the numbers and spin rates and stuff. I think it's my natural arm slot, arm path and how I deliver the ball."

Nelson told the Arizona Republic

- Prior to his first call-up in 2019, his agent, Mark Pieper phoned his parents to inform them of the good news coming for their son, but the catch was that they couldn't tell A.J.

"We were told not to tell him and just to (let him) focus."

A.J.'s father, David, said

- The Puks kept the news to themselves, and then in the early morning hours after he was told, A.J. called his dad to let him know he had gotten called up.

DRAWING RANDY JOHNSON COMPARISONS
- In 2018, then-Athletics' manager, Bob Melvin, mentioned "Randy Johnson" when asked to name a starter similar to the 6-foot-7 left-hander.

"The obvious guy is the guy I managed in Arizona. You hate to put that kind of expectations or comp on a guy but there are some similarities, maybe a little different arm angle. But the hair, the whole bit and the height and the velocity."

Melvin told Susan Slusser of the San Francisco Chronicle

- In 2017, Melvin asked Johnson to talk to Puk and teammate and fellow lefty starter, Sean Manaea.

"He didn't get into grips and stuff like that, it was more kind of the mindset and how to prepare yourself, what to expect, how to be self-driven. Both those guys were really interested, and why wouldn't you be? Randy was not a real talkative guy over his career, but I was really impressed with what he had to say. I was thrilled to death to get him out here."

Melvin added

"Yeah, he's a tall guy. I'm a tall guy. When he was younger, he had long hair, so do I. It's nice to be compared to him."

Puk told the San Francisco Chronicle

- Drafted by the Tigers in the 35th round of the 2013 Draft but did not sign.
- Participated in the 2012 Perfect Game All-American Classic held at Petco Field.

FOOTBALL IS A FAMILY SPORT

- His father, Dr. David Puk, was a 4-year football letterman (fullback) and Academic All-American at the University of Minnesota from 1982-85, uncle Steven lettered at Minnesota in 1984, uncle, J.J. was an all-Big Ten linebacker at the University of Iowa from 1986-87 and uncle, Kevin, lettered at Stanford from 1989-91, while all 4 also played football at Washington High School.
- As a high school sophomore, A.J. was the Warriors' starting quarterback and guided them to the state playoffs.
- In summer 2011 following his sophomore year, he made the decision to only pursue baseball... the decision was made after attending the Perfect Game National Games-Class of 2013 Showcase in San Diego.

"When he gave up football, I've got to admit Friday nights died for me. It's hard to put into words, but there's always been a Puk playing (football). All my brothers would call me and ask me what he was going to do and I told them, 'Well, he's giving up football.' And we all kind of went, 'Well, OK, it's not the end of the world.' But it felt like it every Friday night (this past fall) and I do miss those Friday nights.

"He was going to play football in the fall but after going out to San Diego and speaking with a couple of pitching coaches, they told him this was something he really should stay with. That made his decision and from there he just played with his heart and soul."

A.J.'s father, David, told Perfect Game

"It was difficult because my whole family has played football. But it really worked out and it was something that had to be done."

A.J. said of his decision to concentrate on baseball

INCREASE IN VELOCITY

- Went into the 2011 Spring Top Prospect Showcase at Perfect Game Field at Veterans Memorial Stadium in Cedar Rapids more highly regarded for his hitting prowess than his pitching skills, with a fastball that sat at 81-83 mph.
- After a few months of continued work on his pitching skills, he was invited to the PG Junior National Showcase in Fort Myers, Fla. and displayed that his fastball velocity increased from to 84-86 mph.

"When I was at the Junior National in Florida, the catchers asked me how hard I threw, and I was only throwing in the low-80s. I kind of lied, I guess, and told them mid-80s and then I actually started throwing in the mid-80s. It was kind of funny because I hadn't ever thrown that hard."

TALENTED FAMILY

- Father, Dr. David Puk, is a Cedar Rapids Ophthalmologist (eye specialist), and his mother, Chris, was a gymnast at the University of Missouri.
- Sister, Jessica, played softball at Ole Miss and Arizona State.
- Brother, Owen, played baseball at Florida International University from 2022-25.

THE LEFTY LENDS A HELPING HAND
- As originally written by Peter Abraham of The Boston Globe in 2019:

> "When a team of Little Leaguers (8-10-year-old division) from Maracaibo, Venezuela, qualified for the Latin America championship tournament in Mexico, Rodriguez paid the airfare so the team could attend. The team had appealed for help from the government and other sources in Venezuela but struck out each time. They even slept on the streets of Caracas while on a fundraising trip but found no assistance in a country devastated by poverty. It appeared likely at one point that the team wouldn't get to Mexico. Rodriguez got word of their plight and arranged for the tickets. The team arrived in Mexico after the opening ceremony, but won the tournament by beating Guatemala, Panama, Puerto Rico, and Mexico twice before defeating Curacao in the championship. They arrived back in Maracaibo to a celebration attended by 2,000 people at Edgar Ferrer Stadium and were given the name 'The Heroes of San Miguel' for the part of the city they're from."

"EL GUALO"
- Given the nickname "Gualo" by his family after they found it funny and cute that his little brother, Luis, could not pronounce Eduardo when he began to speak…the nickname stuck and he placed it on the back of his jersey in Boston during Players' Week.

PERSONAL
- Married to Catherine…has 2 children: Annie and Ian.

DAD IN THE BIGS
- Father, Allen, was the White Sox's Director of Strength and Conditioning from 2004-21, which led to Alek being a mainstay in the clubhouse.

"I've been around a lot of the guys…Jim Thome was a big guide for me, having the same mental approach and being a good guy on and off the field. Adam Engel, I spent a lot of time with. Adam Eaton, Juan Pierre, Andruw Jones, Todd Frazier, Tim Anderson, Jose Abreu. The whole team, pretty much, since 2003."

"I think I've lived sort of a professional life from being with my dad for the past however long he's been in the game. It's not too different. Being a player is obviously different, but having my own locker is pretty much the only thing that's different, so there's not really too much that stands out."

"HEY, DAD!"
- Hit a home run in front of his father, Allen, during a Spring Training game against the White Sox in March 2019...also exchanged lineup cards before the game at home plate.

"I told my dad, 'Hey, you better believe I'm hitting a home run tomorrow, no matter who is on the mound." Allen responded, "[Lucas Giolito] is on the mound so you'd better get ready."

"It was a funny moment, a cool moment. I was telling my dad, 'I told you I was going to hit one.'"

Allen said: "The phone rings and it's [Executive VP of the White Sox] Kenny Williams telling me to smile, but I didn't want to because we were getting crushed."*

BYUNG-HYUN KIM INSPIRATION

- His submarine-style delivery was inspired by former D-backs closer, Byung-Hyun Kim.
- As a kid, would mimic Kim's "untouchable" style while playing wiffle ball with his friends.
- Prior to his high school junior year in the summer of 2008, a pitching coach looked at "how low Thompson's legs crouched in his delivery" and that his arm slot "looks like it might be natural a little bit lower".

"It was logical. And the results pretty much happened right away. The whole sidearm thing, it's me. Without it, I don't play Division I baseball and I don't play professional baseball."

Thompson told the Arizona Republic

SERVING THE YOUTH

- Served as a celebrity coach in 2024 in the D-backs' Baseball Camp held at Chase Field for players ages 7-12.

"As a kid, Major League Baseball players were my superheroes. Now I get a chance to be in the role of hero, yet show kids that remind me of myself 20 years ago that I am a regular human being and that, if they work hard enough, they can be exactly where I am today."

Thompson said about the camp

HIS FIRST TRADING CARD + COLLECTION

- Found the first Topps trading card of himself in 2025.
- After finding his own card, he "re-fell in love" with them again, and began collecting cards of his teammates and coaches, from manager Torey Lovullo all the way to the training staff.

"After six years in the major leagues, I finally got my first card. So, I started to get into cards, and as I'm collecting, it's fun to pull a teammate's card and get them to sign it."

Thompson told Arizona Sports

AUTOGRAPH HOUND

- Ryan's dad, Ed, took him on a weekend trip to Seattle each year to attend a Mariners series and they would wait at visiting hotels for players to sign.
- During one of the series, he ran at full speed up a "down direction" escalator to reach Derek Jeter.

"The Yankees were in town. It was around two in the morning. I was going down the escalator, turned around and looked up, and Jeter and Tanyon Sturtze were right there. I was not going the miss the opportunity, so I turned around and starting sprinting as fast as I could up the escalator. I made it to the top step, tripped and hit my face on the metal grate. Jeter and Sturtze turned and went 'oooohhhh'. I got up and was bleeding. I asked if I could have their autograph. They were like, 'kid, it ain't worth it.' Jeter didn't sign for me, but the next day, I was waiting for him outside and he signed for me."

THANKS DAD!

- In 2020, with no fans allowed inside Tropicana Field, Ryan's father, Ed, flew to St. Petersburg from Oregon to watch his Major League debut from Ferg's Sports Bar & Grill near the ballpark.

  "This whole journey has been mine and my dad's together. This is what he wanted to do. When I was growing up, he set me up to live his dream for him. When I got 10 or 12 or so it became my dream as well and we've lived it out together. We've been together every step of the way."

  "For him to not be there for my debut was killing him so he was like I am going to fly in anyways and I'm going to be as close to the stadium as I can to feel like I'm there. It was cool and we got to meet up afterwards in the parking lot. I didn't want to be that guy that got covid and got everyone sick so we were at a distance waving."

- On Father's Day, June 16, 2024, at Chase Field, Ed "Big Ed" Thompson threw out a ceremonial first pitch to his son.

MORE THAN JUST A TATTOO

- Has "Riley 2001-2021" tattooed on the inside of his right wrist, a dedication to his closest hometown friend since birth, who died by suicide.
- Overwhelmed with emotion, he confided in former pitching coach, Barry Enright, who lost his father at age 13 to heart disease, and worked frequently with mental skills staff to slowly pull himself back to a healthier place.

> "Having somebody there to motivate you and tell you that you're worth it and that, if you stay on schedule and do what you need to do, you've got a bright future, Barry [Enright] telling me all that kept me motivated."

CHANGEUPS AND FOOTBALL

- In 2022, former Double-A Amarillo pitching coach, Shane Loux, said Walston's changeup emerged as "by far his best secondary pitch," in part thanks to some work the former high school quarterback put in throwing the football around before games.

> "Walston said the release on the football was similar to what he wanted to feel with his changeup. As he threw the football and turned his hand over to get the spiral, he found a changeup that had some really good sink to it. He was able to get under some bats with it."

LUIS GONZALEZ AWARD

In 2015, the Luis Gonzalez Award was created, which will be given annually to the D-backs player who best exemplifies the talents, spirit and heart of the D-backs legend both on and off the field, as voted by his teammates, coaches and clubhouse staff.

One of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship, Gonzalez became the first former player to have his number retired by the D-backs during a pre-game ceremony in 2010.

NO-HITTERS

RANDY JOHNSON ON MAY 18, 2004 @ BRAVES

Adept at setting records throughout his career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, at Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since the Yankees' David Cone on July 18, 1999 vs. Montreal. It was also the first perfecto in the National League since the Expos' Dennis Martínez on July 28, 1991 @ Dodgers.

EDWIN JACKSON ON JUNE 25, 2010 @ RAYS

Edwin Jackson tossed the second no-hitter in D-backs history and 278th no-hitter in Major League history on June 25, 2010, @ Rays in memorable fashion, as his 149th pitch induced Jason Bartlett's game-ending groundout to Stephen Drew. Jackson's 149 pitches were the most all-time in a no-hitter, while his 36 batters faced tied for the most and his 8 walks tied for the third-most all-time. He threw more than 60 pitches in the first 3.0 innings, causing the D-backs to warm-up 4 relievers.

UNOFFICIALLY MADISON BUMGARNER ON APRIL 25 @ BRAVES [GAME 2]

Madison Bumgarner tossed MLB's first unofficial no-hitter (7.0 IP) on April 25, 2021 @ Braves [Game 2] under the new doubleheader rules that began in 2020, facing the minimum 21 batters.

In an effort to speed the proceedings during the coronavirus pandemic, Major League Baseball declared that games played as part of a doubleheader would be scheduled to last 7.0 innings instead of 9.0.

Although the game was officially a "complete game", the league stated that it would abide by the definition of the Elias Sports Bureau: "No-hitters by teams and individuals shall not be credited in scheduled seven-inning games, unless the game goes to extra innings and the team (or individual in a complete game) pitches at least nine innings and does not allow a hit."

It marked Bumgarner's 300th career start, 16th complete game and seventh shutout.

JACKIE ROBINSON

MLB CAREER

YEARS: 1947-1956

AWARDS: 6x NL All-Star (1949-54), 1947 Rookie of the Year, 1949 NL Most Valuable Player.

NOTES: Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997, that Jackie Robinson's No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball, barring players on any Major League club to wear the number…as an exception to the retired number policy, MLB has recently begun honoring Robinson's legacy by allowing players to wear No. 42 on April 15 each season to celebrate Jackie Robinson Day…for the 60th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut, MLB invited players to wear No. 42 on Jackie Robinson Day in 2007…the gesture was originally the idea of Ken Griffey, Jr., who sought Rachel Robinson's permission to wear the number…after receiving her permission, Selig not only allowed Griffey to wear the number, but also extended an invitation to all clubs to do the same.

GREG SCHULTE RADIO BOOTH DEDICATION | SEPTEMBER 29, 2023

GUB
GREG SCHULTE
RADIO BOOTH

Greg Schulte, who retired following the 2023 season, joined the Arizona Diamondbacks organization in the 1998 inaugural season and served as the D-backs' broadcaster for 26 seasons. On September 29, 2023, Schulte was surprised by a seemingly impromptu gathering of media and front office staff upon his arrival. D-backs President, CEO & General Partner Derrick Hall greeted Schulte, his wife Nancy, son Scott, daughter Stephanie and other family members to honor a D-backs legend. As Schulte walked down the familiar Chase Field hallway, he walked past photos lining the walls celebrating his career and the radio broadcast booth he'd spent so much time in over the last 26 seasons, now bearing his name. The Arizona Diamondbacks dedicated and renamed the booth the "Greg Schulte Radio Booth."

"We could not think of a better way to celebrate a career like Greg's and the impact he has had on the Arizona Diamondbacks organization. Greg's voice is synonymous with D-backs baseball and generations of D-backs fans have experienced the game through listening to his calls on the radio. Now, his legacy will live on right here at Chase Field as the next generation of broadcasters make calls from the Greg Schulte Radio Booth."
Derrick Hall, D-backs President, CEO & General Partner

CAREER CALLS & HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

- Nearly 4,000 regular-season and postseason games on radio and TV during his 26 seasons.
- Luis Gonzalez's walk-off, ninth-inning single to win Game 7 of 2001 World Series over the New York Yankees.
- Randy Johnson's historic achievements, including his perfect game on May 18, 2004 @ Braves, his 20-strikeout game, his 3,000th and 4,000th strikeout games and more.
- Four no-hitters, two for his team and two by opposing pitchers: D-backs' Edwin Jackson on June 25, 2010 @ Rays and Tyler Gilbert on August 14, 2021 vs. Padres; Cardinals' Jose Jimenez on June 25, 1999 @ D-backs; and Marlins' Anibal Sanchez on Sept. 6, 2006 vs. D-backs.
- His 3,000th D-backs game on April 19, 2017.
- In recognition of his 2,000th D-backs' broadcast, the organization honored Schulte by distributing a bobblehead in his likeness (first 15,000 fans) on July 10, 2010 vs. Marlins.
- His unique homerun call of "deep drive…warning track…wall…you can touch 'em all" is synonymous with D-backs radio broadcasts.
- From 1998-99, Schulte and Bob Brenly partnered for 3 innings nightly on television and his nickname "the Gub'nuh" was bestowed upon him by Brenly and Thom Brennaman.
- Part of the Phoenix broadcast scene since 1979.

MEDIA COVERAGE AND CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

Pursuant to Major League Baseball policy and Arizona Diamondbacks media coverage and credential guidelines:

Credentials for the Arizona Diamondbacks Spring Training and Regular Season (does not apply to the Postseason) are issued at the discretion of the Arizona Diamondbacks Communications Department. Approved media outlets will be issued either Season Credentials or Single Game/Daily credentials based on the below guidelines.

Credentialed media members must adhere to Major League Baseball (MLB) terms and conditions (MLB.com/tac) and any violations are grounds for the revoking of a credential.

All requests for credentials must be submitted on MLB's online credential site: http://credentials.mlb.com. Priority is given to working media using the following factors, among others, to issue credentials accordingly:

- Credentials/coverage will be considered for working members of the media representing major media outlets, including Daily Major Metropolitan Newspapers, Local Affiliates of National TV Networks, FM/AM Local Radio Stations and Websites of National Outlets, in the business of news gathering.
- The dissemination of editorial content must be the primary purpose of the news outlet and the news outlet must demonstrate a record of sustained, original coverage of local sports and/or news.
- Credible media outlets are growing businesses with a strong following/readership/viewership and focused on news gathering and dissemination with credential holders on assignment providing original, active, and consistent coverage specific to the event.
- Past coverage and attendance at Spring Training and Regular Season games, media sessions, workouts, events, etc. for the past five (5) seasons will be taken into consideration for the granting of credentials.
- Media outlets should have gone "live" to the public prior to January 1, 2021, and the staff (writers, reporters, content creators) should have a strong professional history in the business of news gathering and dissemination.
- Media outlets should employ at least three (3) full-time salaried individuals who provide editorial oversight before an article can be posted. Full-time employees intending to provide event coverage may be considered for a credential.
- Independent bloggers or fan sites where anyone can submit articles for publication do not qualify for full season credentials.
- Media outlets should have at least one (1) designated beat writer or reporter with content attributed to the beat writer(s) or reporter(s).
- A requesting media agency should represent a collective, organizational editorial voice, not simply the offerings of a single individual.
- Media outlets should have a strong following/readership/viewership and exhibit consistent and substantial growth in legitimate, unique visitors per month over a rolling 12-month period.
- Credentials will not be issued to representatives whose outlet exists solely as a platform for distributing unoriginal content (press releases, aggregate news sites, etc.).
- Credentialed media outlets should have an active website and at least two (2) consistently active social media channels, preferably bearing the name of the outlet (and not the individual).
- Media who exclusively use social media platforms (Instagram, Twitter/X, Facebook, YouTube, TikTok, etc.) and do not have a website will not be credentialed without a media purpose.
- Freelance writers and photographers should have a specific assignment from an affiliated, established, major news-gathering outlet and the editor or director must make their request from an official outlet email address.
- Photographer credentials with full access will be given to individuals associated with a legitimate wire service or accompanied by an approved writer from the same media outlet. Any photos taken should be used for editorial purposes only. Commercial use of photos should be sourced through Getty Images or MLB directly.
- Interns will be allowed for Daily Major Metropolitan Newspapers, Local Affiliates of National TV Networks, FM/AM Local Stations and Websites of National Outlets on a case-by-case basis.
