

Data and Technology Coordinator, Appalachian League

A Data and Technology Coordinator in the Appalachian League combines the duties of a data administrator and director of operations to support the day-to-day technical and operational needs of one of the nation's premier summer collegiate baseball leagues run by USA Baseball and powered by Major League Baseball. This position will report to Manager, Baseball Administration and work directly with both team and front office staff.

Off Season Duties

- Attend any scheduled meetings at the request of the Manager, Baseball Administration and/or the Director, Baseball Development
- Familiarize yourself with Trackman, Synergy, Pixellot, and Diamond Kinetics
- Attend Coaching Development sessions when possible

In-Season Duties

- Participate in training to gain full understanding of the functionality and operation of Trackman, Synergy, Pixellot, Diamond Kinetics, and other key technology platforms
- At Home Games, serve as Trackman operator and perform all necessary functions of tagging and uploading
- Serve as the liaison for automated streaming services
- At Away Games serve as Synergy operator and perform all necessary functions of operations and uploading
- Be Responsible for the safekeeping and maintenance of all equipment
- Aid coaching staff and league operators in analyzing captured data/video from Trackman and Synergy
- Aid in ensuring guidelines defined by the Director, Baseball Development are executed
- Work with Manager, Baseball Administration to create and deliver clips and highlights
- Assist league staff with communication for all matters pertaining to on-field scheduling and personnel changes
- Actively participate in players community service-related functions and aid team staff in tracking participation at the request of the General Manager
- Assist in equipment inventory and distribution

Basic Qualifications

- Working towards a Bachelors or Masters Degree
- Basic familiarization with existing technologies such as Trackman and Synergy
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Must have an excellent attitude, work ethic, and work well in a team setting

Preferred Qualifications

- Passionate about athlete development with an understanding of both the college and professional amateur baseball landscape