WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.
CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As the principal owner of the Cardinals, Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer since 1996. DeWitt oversees all baseball, operational, financial and league matters for the team and is a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, the Board of Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Ownership Committee, the Diversity Committee, and the Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters. He also serves on the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt's father began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy. His uniform (number 1/8) was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. and DeWitt Capital Group. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

WILLIAM DeWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the business of the team and its affiliated entities, including the development of Ballpark Village - a 100,000 square-foot retail/entertainment project which will open adjacent to Busch Stadium in the spring of 2014.

Prior to his appointment as team President, he was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training and host a Florida State League team, the Palm Beach Cardinals.

DeWitt, 44, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in Washington D.C. for three years. He then attended Harvard Business School, earning his MBA in 1995.

DeWitt currently sits on the boards of the following institutions: Cardinals Care; Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri (Board Chair); the Partnership for Downtown St. Louis; the St. Louis Sports Commission; the RCGA; and the Muny. He was formerly a trustee of the Taft School in Watertown, Conn., and board chair for Emergency Children's Home (ECHO) in St. Louis.

DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (14) and son, Will (11). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named the Cardinals Senior Vice President and General Manager in October, 2007 and enters his sixth season in that role. Mozeliak received a three-year contract extension through 2016 in February. He was promoted from Assistant General Manager – a position he had held for six seasons – and he is the 12th general manager in the over 100-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mozeliak saw the 2012 team return to the National League Championship series and fall just one win short of a return trip to the World Series. Led by a new manager and with a series of young talent that stepped in throughout the season, the 2012 Cardinals captured the second Wild Card spot in the National League in Major League Baseball's new playoff format. Mo's efforts were recognized by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum which honored him with their Andrew "Rube" Foster Award as Executive of the Year. The organization was recently recognized by Baseball America, MLB.com and ESPN.com for its scouting and player development prior to the start of the 2013 season.

During his fourth season as General Manager in 2011, Mozeliak engineered a series of late season moves credited with helping transform the Cardinals into an exciting, "never say die" team that came from 10 ½ games back in late August en route to the team's 11th World Championship.

Baseball America named the Cardinals as their 2011 Organization of the Year. This prestigious honor, awarded to the Cardinals for the first time, recognized that the team's big league success was built upon a strong foundation of a restructured organization that claimed two minor league titles in 2011 and that since 2005 has had more team-drafted players debut in the majors than any other club in MLB. In addition, Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony LaRussa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In January 2010, Mo orchestrated the largest player contract in team franchise history with the signing of Matt Holliday to a seven-year deal with an option for 2017. Upon being named GM in 2007, Mo traded for David Freese and in March of 2012 he completed a deal with catcher Yadier Molina that ensures one of the best catchers in the game remains in a Cardinals uniform through at least 2017. Mo's in-season moves in 2009 helped the Cardinals to their first N.L. Central Division title under his watch.

Mozeliak, 44, is an 18-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo's duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness. Mozeliak lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Girsch is in his third season as the Cardinals' Assistant General Manager after being appointed to that position in January 2011. In his role, he assists General Manager John Mozeliak with Major League player transactions, contract negotiations and player evaluations and helps oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amatuer and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting. In 2008, he was named Director of the newly created Baseball Development department – a group focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Mike led the Baseball Development department for three years before being promoted to Assistant GM.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Girsch, 36, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (8), Claire (6) and Tommy (5).

DAN KANTROVITZ
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Kantrovitz begins his second season as the Cardinals' Director of Scouting overseeing the amateur draft. He reports to VP/General Manager John Mozeliak.

This is Kantrovitz's second stint with the Cardinals. From 2004-2008, he worked for the organization in roles in amateur, international and professional scouting, including Assistant Scouting Director and Director of College Scouting. He also assisted in the creation of the Cardinals' computer system, Redbirdog.

From 2009-2011, Kantrovitz led the International Scouting department for the Oakland A's, most recently as Director of International Scouting. Under his guidance, the A's signed players from the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Mexico, Cuba, Colombia, Panama, Taiwan, Korea, Aruba and Europe. He also assisted on analytical projects in various aspects of baseball operations.

Prior to working in baseball, Kantrovitz was an all-Ivy League shortstop at Brown University who twice batted over .400. He was drafted by the Cardinals in the 25th round of the 2001 MLB draft. After a shoulder injury shortened his professional career, he worked as an investment banking analyst and for a company providing statistical analysis to major league teams.

A St. Louis native, Kantrovitz, 34, graduated from John Burroughs High School. He holds a bachelor's degree from Brown University and a master's degree in statistics from Harvard University. He and his wife, Brenna, reside in St. Louis with their daughters, Lily (2) and Vida (8/7/12).

GARY LaROCQUE
SENIOR ADVISOR TO PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gary LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager and was named to his current position prior to the 2013 season. In this role, LaRocque will oversee all aspects of player development.

LaRocque is in his 38th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998, as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager and Vice President / Player Development and Scouting through 2005 and was appointed Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, Gary started his professional playing career as a minor league infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1979 as a minor league coach. He began managing in 1981 through 1983 in the Pioneer League and Gulf Coast Rookie Leagues, followed by the Class AA Texas League for four seasons and in 1988 managed in the California League. LaRocque moved into the scouting department in 1989 as area scout and from 1992-1997 was a regional scouting supervisor for the Dodgers.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary Education (Mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993.

JOHN VUCH
DIRECTOR OF MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

John Vuch is in his 26th season in Baseball Operations and his 35th overall with the Cardinals. He held the title of Farm Director from September 2010 through the 2012 seasons, and during that time oversaw Championships for three teams [Quad Cities (A) & Johnson City (R) in 2011, Springfield (AA) in 2012]. The championships in Quad Cities and Johnson City in 2011, marked the first time since 1994 multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the 2012 Springfield Cardinal team was recognized as the Minor League Team of the Year.

Under his leadership, the 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization. The Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and heading into 2013, the Cardinals organization has been recognized for its scouting and player development by Baseball America, MLB.com and ESPN.com.

As Director of Minor League Operations, a position he held for more than three years from 2007-2010, Vuch is responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system and is involved with the club's minor league player personnel decisions. Vuch has worked several years in the player development department, serving as the main contact for Cardinals' minor league players. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

He was awarded the Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the Baseball Writer's Association of America at their 51st annual dinner in 2009. A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County with their children Jack (18), Hayley (15) and Anna (12).

MIKE JORGENSEN
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen currently serves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he has held since September 2001. He served as director of player development for 10 seasons (1992-01), and was the team's minor league hitting instructor/coordinator in1990 and 1991.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, 'Jorgy' was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg and led the team to the Florida State League championship. He managed the Triple-A Louisville Redbirds from 1987-'89. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, he also remained in his post as director of player development.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman/outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and St. Louis.

Jorgensen, 64, graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., attended St. John's University and served from 1967-1972 in the United Stated Marine Corps Reserve. He and his late wife, Brenda, have three married children; Brian, Kristen and Eric, and four grandsons: Eric, Jacob, James and Owen, and one granddaughter, Quinn Ann.

MOISES RODRIGUEZ
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

Moisés Rodriguez will be entering his sixth year with the Cardinals as the Director of International Scouting. He is responsible for the organization's scouting effort overseas and supervising the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez worked nine-and-a-half years for Major League Baseball in New York, the last three-plus years as Manager of International Baseball Operations in the Commissioner's Office. During his tenure in the Commissioner's Office, he also specialized in the day-to-day handling of the waiver wire and rule interpretation/enforcement related to club's Major and Minor League player movement transactions. His first position at MLB was in 1998 as an assistant in Media Relations and waivers for the National League office. He began his work in sports as the Assistant Director of Sports Information at the University of Connecticut.

Rodriguez, 39, was born in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, before moving to New York City. He recieved a communications degree from the University of Connecticut. He and his wife, Michelle, reside in Jupiter, Fla., with their two sons: Moisés Angel (4) and Christian (7/12/12)

MATT SLATER
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Slater joined the Cardinals organization in 2007 and was named Director of Player Personnel in January 2012. He is in his 24th year in Major League Baseball where over the course of his career, he has helped build division winners and playoff teams in Baltimore, Los Angeles and St. Louis. In his current role as senior talent evaluator, Slater works hand in hand with the General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past seven years, Matt has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. He worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. Slater got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old. Beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers' Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management, and holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He serves on the board of directors for Independence Center, a non-profit mental health facility in St. Louis. He resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (12), Madison (9) and Jacob (9).

CHRIS CORREA
MANAGER OF BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Chris Correa joined the Cardinals in 2009 and was promoted to Manager of Baseball Development in 2012. In this position, Correa leads a group that provides statistical analysis and decision support tools to all areas of Baseball Operations. Correa previously served as a quantitative analyst and was responsible for developing proprietary analytical models and applications to assist with player personnel decisions at the amateur and professional levels.

Correa, 32, earned a Bachelor of Science in Cognitive Science from Hampshire College, a Master of Science in Psychology from the University of Illinois and was a doctoral candidate at the University of Michigan prior to joining the Cardinals. He and his wife, Lillian, reside in St. Louis.

RYAN FRANKLIN
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Ryan Franklin joined the Cardinals front office in 2012 after a 10-year career as a Major League pitcher, his final five seasons with St. Louis. In 2012 Franklin scouted both within the Cardinals organization and other organizations, and advised the General Manager on players within the Cardinals system. His role increases in 2013 to include reporting on all levels of the Cardinals system and other various responsibilities.

Franklin enjoyed a career both as a starter and reliever in the majors, starting over 100 games (106) earning a 62-76 record with 84 saves in over 1000 innings pitched (1201.0). In 2009 for St. Louis, he recorded a 1.92 ERA in 62 games picking up 43 saves (4th-most single season) and was named to the 2009 All-Star team, which was played in St. Louis. He finished his career with the Cardinals ranked 5th on the team's all-time saves list with 84.

A native of Oklahoma, Franklin, signed with Seattle in 1993 following two years at Seminole Junior College (Okla.). He won a gold medal as a member of the 2000 USA Olympic baseball team, picking up three wins to tie the Team USA record. He resides in Shawnee, Okla., with his wife, Angie, and four children: sons Logan (15) and Casen (5/11/12), and daughters Kaylin (13) and Teegan (8).

GREG HAUCK
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Hauck enters his third season as the Head Athletic Trainer with the Cardinals organization and his ninth year with the club overall. He joined the team in January of 2005 and served as the Assistant Athletic Trainer for six seasons. A native of Ashland, Oregon, Greg lived and worked in Phoenix, Ariz., prior to joining the Cardinals.

Before his move to St. Louis, Greg taught and practiced Sports Medicine in the Arizona school system. From 1997 through the 2000 season he was the Medical Rehab and Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator with the Oakland Athletics. He spent 10 years prior to that role as an Athletic Trainer in the A's organization.

Hauck received his Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Oregon University and his masters degree from the University of Phoenix. In addition to being a Certified Athletic Trainer, he is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach. The 47-year-old Hauck enjoys reading and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter Courtney (13) and son, Garrett (7), and make their home in St. Louis with their dogs, Sara and Missy.

CHRIS CONROY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Conroy was named Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Major League club for the 2012 season and enters his second year in that role. He is in his 15th year working for the Cardinals organization overall.

Conroy, 36, has worked his entire career with the Cardinals including 2005-2011 as head trainer for the Memphis Redbirds (AAA). Throughout his time with the organization, he has also put time in at Tennessee, New Haven, Potomac and Johnson City.

He graduated from the College of Charleston in 1998, and is a native of Raleigh, North Carolina. He and his wife, Kristi, have a daughter, Madelyn (12/18/10), and they reside in St. Louis.

ADAM OLSEN
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER / PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Adam Olsen begins his fourth season in St. Louis with the Cardinals as Assistant Athletic Trainer/Rehab Coordinator after serving as the Medical/Rehab Coordinator for the Cardinals in Jupiter, Fla., the preceding four seasons. In his current position he not only assists in the daily athletic training needs of the club, but serves as the rehab coordinator for the team's Major League players. Currently a Full-Body Certified Active Release Techniques (ART) Practitioner, Olsen is working through the Dynamic Neuromuscular Stabilization (DNS) educational tract.

Olsen is a native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. He worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin- Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

Olsen, 35, and his wife, Amy, reside in St. Louis with their daughter, Annabelle Frances (3), and their dogs Maddie and Bailey.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi is in his 14th season at the Major League level for the Cardinals and his 17th year in the Cardinals system overall. He is a registered strength conditioning coach with distinction through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was recognized in 2011 as the Strength Coach of the Year by Major League Baseball. From 1997 through 1999, he was the organization's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 43, graduated from Florida State University where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through 1996.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi resides in St. Louis with his wife, Ellen, and their two children: Luke (7/23/11) and Samantha (8/23/12).

CARDINALS MEDICAL TEAM

St. Louis based Mercy is entering the first year as the team's official medical provider. Mercy will manage the team's orthopedic and sports medicine needs, as well as provide other medical services for the team, the Cardinals organization and front office. Dr. George Paletta, will continue to serve as the team's head Orthopedist, and will be joined by Dr. Lyndon Gross. Mercy doctors, sports medicine specialist Dr. Brian Mahaffey and interniest Dr. Jason Hand, join the team for the first year. I worked 13 years as a scout evaluating amateur, Minor League and Major League Baseball players. When my contract was not renewed, I had nowhere to turn to pay my mortgage and my bills became overwhelming. A friend suggested that I contact B.A.T. about my situation. B.A.T. stepped up in our time of need and helped us get back on our feet.

OFFICIAL MEDIA GUIDE

MANAGER, COACHES & PLAYERS

MICHAEL (MIKE) SCOTT MATHENY (22)

Mike Matheny was named the 49th manager in St. Louis Cardinals franchise history on November 14, 2011. Matheny, 42, will be entering his second season as a manager/coach at the professional level. He served as a Special Assistant in Player Development for the Cardinals prior to his being named manager.

Last year, at age 41, Matheny became the youngest active manager in the majors and the youngest Cardinals manager since Jack Krol, who was also 41 years of age when he managed the team in 1978. Matheny has joined notables such as Red Schoendienst, Joe Torre, Ken Boyer, Frank Frisch and Rogers Hornsby amongst Cardinals players who later served as the team's manager.

In his first year at the helm, Matheny guided the Cardinals to the National League Championship round of the playoffs, having captured a wild card berth on the next-to-last day of the regular season. A wild card win at Atlanta and a dramatic Division Series win over the Washington Nationals sent his club to the NLCS, where the Cards fell to the San Francisco Giants in seven games. In doing so, Mike became the first rookie manager to lead the Cardinals to the postseason since Eddie Dyer led the Redbirds to a World Championship win over Boston in 1946. He joined his predecessor, Tony La Russa, who was the last Cardinals manager to pilot the team to the playoffs in his first year with the club.

A veteran of 13 seasons in the majors, Matheny was drafted out of the University of Michigan by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 8th round of the 1991 draft. Matheny made his Major League debut with the Brewers in 1994 and spent five seasons (1994-98) with Milwaukee before signing a free-agent contract with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1999. Following his release by the Blue Jays, Matheny signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals on December 16, 1999 and he went on to spend five seasons with the Cardinals from 2000-04, earning trips to the postseason in four of those five seasons, including a National League Championship in 2004. As a Cardinal, Matheny appeared in 611 games at catcher, logging 4,938.1 innings while committing just 14 errors.

The four-time (2000, 2003-05) Rawlings Gold Glove recipient holds the Major League catching record for consecutive errorless games (252) and for consecutive errorless chances (1,565). He posted a lifetime batting mark of .239 with 67 home runs and 443 RBI in 1,305 games played in a career that was cut short due to complications from repeated concussion. Matheny signed with San Francisco as a free-agent prior to the 2005 season and he spent two seasons with the Giants before playing his final game on May 31, 2006. In his first season with the Giants, Matheny set the team record for fielding pct. (.9988) by a catcher, came within two of the team mark (36) for doubles by a catcher and was voted by his teammates as the recipient of the "Willie Mac Award" for being the most inspirational player on the team.

In 2002, Matheny served as an inspirational leader for the Cardinals, helping the team to cope with the shocking death of pitcher Darryl Kile while still reaching the National League Championship Series. Matheny was voted by his teammates as the first recipient of the "Darryl Kile Award" in 2003 - an award that goes annually to the Cardinals player who best demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day; those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man.

Matheny has been a tireless worker in the community, organizing and creating the "Catch-22" charity that donated tickets to Cardinals fans from 2002-04. In 2005, his group saw the opening of the "Catch 22 Miracle Field" at Chesterfield Valley Athletic Complex. The $650,000 project was designed and constructed to allow children of all abilities to experience the thrill of playing baseball, and is specially designed to accommodate athletes with physical and mental disabilities. The field incorporates a firm, rubber playing surface that is more forgiving and friendly for wheelchairs, walkers and children who may use braces, while dugouts provide room for wheelchairs to maneuver and wide concrete patios and ramps allow families to easily access both field and viewing areas. Funding for the field project was provided by "Catch 22 Foundation", which Mike created.

Matheny, born on September 22, 1970 in Reynoldsburg, Ohio, graduated from Reynoldsburg High School in 1988, where he was a team captain for both the baseball and football teams. He was a member of the Connie Mack National Championship team in 1989 and attended the University of Michigan, where he was co-captain of the Wolverines' baseball team. Mike's wife, Kristin, was also a varsity athlete at Michigan, playing field hockey. The couple reside in St. Louis county with their five children: daughter Katie (18) and four sons, Tate (19), Luke (16), Jacob (15) and Blaise (12). His son, Tate, plays baseball at Missouri State University in Springfield, Mo., and was drafted in the 23rd round of the June 2012 draft by St. Louis, but did not sign. His daughter, Katie, is a stand-out ice hockey player and has committed to play hockey at Ohio State University.

Matheny (pronounced muh-THEE-nee) is currently under contract through the 2014 season.

MICHAEL (MIKE) PETER ALDRETE (28)

BENCH COACH

Aldrete, 52, will begin his second season as the Cardinals Bench Coach and his sixth overall year as a member of the Cardinals organization. Aldrete served as the team's Assistant Hitting Coach from 2008 until his appointment as bench coach.

Aldrete was the Hitting Coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks from 2005-06 and was First Base Coach for the Seattle Mariners in 2004. Prior to joining Bob Melvin's coaching staff, Aldrete spent three seasons in the Diamondbacks farm system, working as the Hitting Coach in Yakima for 2001 and then serving managerial stints in 2002 with Yakima and 2004 with Lancaster.

The former first baseman/outfielder enjoyed a 10-year career in the majors with San Francisco, Montreal, San Diego, Cleveland, Oakland and the New York Yankees, making his big league debut in 1986 with the Giants.

A career .263 hitter, Aldrete enjoyed his best season in 1987, batting .325 while helping the Giants to the National League Championship Series where they were defeated by the Cardinals in seven games. Mike split the 1996 season between California and New York, finishing his final season on top with the World Champion Yankees.

Aldrete graduated from Monterey (Ca.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football. He graduated from Stanford University in 1983 and enjoyed a pair of trips to the College World Series with the Cardinal, earning third team All-America honors during his senior season. He was a member of the U.S. Collegiate All-Star Team that toured Japan in 1982. Mike, who was born on January 29, 1961 in Carmel, Calif., makes his off-season home in Salinas, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and their three children; Michael, Blake and Nicolette. Michael (RHP) was selected by the Cardinals in the June 2012 draft out of San Jose State (39th rd.).

BLAISE FRANCIS ILSLEY (49)

BULLPEN COACH

Ilsley was promoted to Bullpen Coach on November 5, 2012, following five seasons as the pitching coach for the Cardinals Triple-A Memphis affiliate. He was promoted to the Triple-A club in 2008 after working six seasons as the pitching coach at the Cardinals Double-A affiliate.

His combined 11 seasons with the Cardinals' organization includes overseeing a Memphis pitching staff that led the Pacific Coast League in team ERA in three of his five seasons. One of those years was the 2009 Memphis team that finished 77-67 en route to the PCL playoffs and eventually the league championship. The 2011 staff combined to lead the PCL with a league-best 4.10 ERA and tied for the league lead with a walks+hits/innings pitched ratio of 1.39 on the season.

Ilsley was honored by the Cardinals following the 2004 season with the George Kissell Award, presented annually by the Cardinals for excellence in player development. He came to the Cardinals from the Orioles' organization after serving as the pitching coach for Bluefield in the Appalachian League during the 2001 campaign. Ilsley began his coaching career in 1999 with Winnipeg of the Independent Northern League and moved on to coach at Sioux Falls in 2000. He spent 14 seasons playing in the minor leagues with the Astros, Cardinals, Cubs, Phillies, Indians and Expos, concluding his playing career in 1998.

He appeared in 10 games in the Major Leagues with the Cubs in 1994, making his Major League debut on April 4 of that year. A fourth-round pick of the Houston Astros in 1985, Ilsley was named to the Topps Rookie League All-Star team after leading the New York-Penn League with 116 strikeouts in 90 innings for Class-A Auburn. He combined to win 20 games at two minor league stops in 1986. The 1982 graduate of Alpena High School (Mich.) attended Indiana State University.

Ilsley, 49, resides in Sarasota, Fla., with his wife, Jo Anne.

DEREK JANSEN LILLIQUIST (36)

PITCHING COACH

Lilliquist is in his 12th year with the Cardinals organization and his third as a member of the Major League coaching staff and second season in his current role as Pitching Coach. He served as the team's bullpen coach in 2011, and took over the pitching coach duties in August 2012 after Dave Duncan took a leave of absence.

"Lilly" served as the Jupiter Complex pitching coordinator from 2008-2010, working with rehabilitating pitchers, and from 2004-07 he served as the pitching coach for Palm Beach (A). Palm Beach made the playoffs twice in that span and won the 2005 Florida State League Championship as the pitching staff registered the second best ERA (3.94) in the FSL.

Lilliquist initiated his career with the Cardinals at rookie level Johnson City in 2002, then moved on to Peoria in 2003. Before joining the Cardinals, Lilliquist was a high school baseball coach at Vero Beach (Fla.) High School from 1998 to 2001.

The former lefthanded starter-turned-reliever spent five-plus years in the Major Leagues, recording 25 victories. In 1992 while with Cleveland, Lilliquist made 71 appearances, going 5-3 with a 1.75 ERA. The next season with Cleveland, he earned 10 saves while recording a 2.25 ERA. He was drafted in 1987 by the Atlanta Braves in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the June free agent draft and spent time in the Major Leagues with Atlanta, San Diego, Cleveland, Boston and Cincinnati, ending his professional career in 1997.

Lilliquist, 47, graduated from Sarasota (Fla.) High School and had an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Georgia where he compiled a 31-12 record with a 3.30 ERA in three years. In 1987 he led Georgia to the SEC title and a first-ever trip to the NCAA College World Series after being named College Pitcher of the Year by Baseball America.

He makes his off-season home in Vero Beach with his children Derek (19) and Alexandra (17).

JOHN STEVEN MABRY (47)
HITTING COACH

Mabry was named the Cardinals Hitting Coach on November 5, 2012. This season will be his first as the Cardinals Hitting Coach. He was assistant hitting coach to Mark McGwire in 2012. The duo helped lead a Cardinals offense that led the league last season in both runs scored and on-base pct., while finishing a close second in batting average.

Mabry, 42, was drafted by St. Louis in the sixth round of the June 1991 draft and played 14 seasons in the majors, including three stints with the Cardinals. He made his Major League debut in 1994 and put up some of his best offensive numbers with the Cardinals from 1995 - 1998. He hit a career high .307 in 1995 and during the 1996 season played in a career high 151 games, hitting .297 with a career high 161 hits, collected 13 homers and 74 RBI as the Cardinals advanced to the NLCS. In addition to playing with the Cardinals, his Major League career included playing time with eight Major League teams and ended in 2007 with the Colorado Rockies.

Before joining the Cardinals staff as a coach, Mabry assisted the team in various community relations initiatives, including the team's "Doin' it Right" school program from 2010-2011. A native of Delaware, he graduated in 1988 from Bohemia Manor (Md.) High School where he played football, baseball and basketball; and was drafted out of West Chester (Pa.) University. Mabry was named the Cardinals Rookie of the Year for 1995 by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA. He and his wife, Ann, make their home in St. Louis with their four children: J.T., Danielle, Nicole and Samantha.

JAMES CHRIS MALONEY (37)

FIRST-BASE COACH

Chris Maloney is entering his second season on the Cardinals Major League coaching staff as the team's First Base Coach after being named to that position in 2012. Maloney spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as the Memphis Redbirds (AAA) manager, leading the team to winning records in four of his five seasons. He guided the 2010 Redbirds to the Pacific Coast League Championship Series for the second straight season. The 2010 club entered the series on a nine-game PCL playoffs win streak dating back to 2009 when his Memphis club won the PCL Championship by sweeping Albuquerque and Sacramento in six straight games.

Maloney skippered two seasons at Springfield (AA) from 2005-06 prior to his promotion to Memphis. "Hammer" returned to the Cardinals organization in 2005 after having spent three years in the Astros organization as manager of the Triple-A New Orleans Zephyrs. Maloney posted a 212-220 record with the Zephyrs, including a first place finish in 2002.

Maloney's previous tenure with the Cardinals included Manager of the Year honors in three different leagues: the New York-Penn League while leading Hamilton to a 56-20 (.737) record in 1992, the highest winning percentage by a Cardinals minor league team; the South Atlantic League with Savannah in 1993, and the Texas League with Arkansas in 1998. His 1993 Savannah squad posted a 94-48 record and captured the league title as Maloney was named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Manager of the Year. In his 17 seasons as a manager in the Cardinals system, Maloney has compiled a 1016-870 (.539) record.

His work with young Cardinals players was formally recognized when he was presented with the 2006 and 2009 George Kissell Awards, presented annually for excellence in player development. The 2009 award made Maloney the first two-time winner.

Maloney, 51, is a native of Jackson, Miss. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1983 and was later signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets. The former outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played one minor league season at Springfield, Ill. He and wife, Laurie, have a daughter, Ann Bradley, and son, Jake, and reside in Jackson, Miss., in the off-season.

BENJAMIN (BENGIE) JOSE MOLINA (18)
ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Molina begins his first season with the Cardinals serving as assistant hitting coach. This is his first coaching job since concluding an 11-year Major League career following the 2010 season. He posted a .274 career batting mark with 144 HRs and 711 RBI.

Molina spent most of his career with the Anaheim Angels, after signing in 1993 as a non-drafted free-agent. He made his Major League debut in 1998 with Anheim and in his two best seasons for the Angels, 2000 and 2003, he had almost identical numbers: hitting .281, 14 home runs and 71 RBI in each season. He signed as a free agent with Toronto in 2006, hitting 19 home runs and batting .284. He signed with the San Francisco Giants in 2007 and again hit 19 home runs and then in 2009 he smacked a career-high 20 home runs.

Molina won a World Championship with the Anaheim Angels in 2002, playing in all seven World Series games while hitting .286. He also had the unique experience in 2010 of beginning the season wtih San Francisco before a mid-season trade to Texas, the two eventual World Series teams. Molina was a Gold Glove recipient in both 2002 and 2003.

Molina is the older brother of Cardinals catcher Yadier Molina and Tampa Bay Rays catcher Jose Molina. The trio's father, Benjamin, Sr., was inducted into Puerto Rico Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame as a second baseman on October 27, 2002, the same day as Game 7 of the 2002 World Series in which Bengie started.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Molina, 38, resides in Yuma, Ariz., with his wife, Jamie, and daughter, Jayda (3). He has two other daughters, Kyshly (18) and Kelssy (14).

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)
THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo is coaching in his 14th season as the Cardinals third-base coach, and is the longest tenured coach on the Cardinals big-league staff. He joined the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. Upon ending his playing career, he was a field instructor in the Cardinals farm system in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in 1998.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season Major League records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 49, now makes his home in Stuart, Fla., with his wife, Zenaida, their four children, and granddaughter, Gabriela. He was voted top utility man on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. Oquendo managed the Puerto Rican team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and again in 2009 and was the manager of the victorious World Team during the MLB Futures Game that was played during the 2009 All-Star Week in St. Louis.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 73, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 24th on the all-time list.

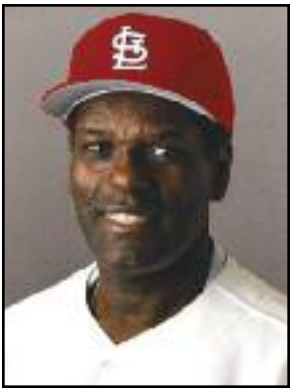

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 12 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984. He was voted leftfielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team at the end of the 2005 season. The National League has named the award given to the N.L.'s stolen base champion the "Lou Brock Award" in honor of Lou's success on the basepaths.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is in his 18th season as Cardinals special instructor. Gibson, 77, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 12 retired by the Cardinals. Gibson was voted top starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb. His son, Chris, was signed by the Cardinals in January of 2008 and spent playing time in both the Cardinals and Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Red Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 71 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager. His 12 seasons at the helm of the Redbirds stood as the longest tenure in club history until Tony La Russa managed his 13th season in 2008. Schoendienst managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: 1946 with the Cardinals and 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

- Since being called up in 2009, ranks 4th among Major League left-handed pitchers in total games pitched (280), sixth among all pitchers.
- Ranks 5th among active left-handed pitchers in opponents batting average against left-handers at .201 since his debut season in 2000 and has allowed the 3rd fewest home runs (7).

2012 SEASON:

- Began the season with the Miami Marlins before a mid-season trade to the Los Angeles Dodgers.
- Allowed just five extra-base hits while striking out 38 in 38.2 IP between the two clubs and posted a combined 3.03 ERA with one save while appearing in a Major League leading 80 games.
- Had a career high 20 holds, which was T16th in the National League and led the N.L. with 66 inherited runners, allowing 14 to score (21.2%).
- Ranked seventh among N.L. relief pitchers with a 74.4 groundball percentage.
- Limited opposing left-handed batters to a .158 mark (16-101) with just one HR. All batters hit just .206, which ranked 12th in the NL among relievers while first batters hit only .169 against him (11-for-65).
- Acquired in a trade by LAD on 7/25. Allowed seven runs (six earned) in 36 appearances with the Dodgers. Those 36 games led the Dodgers from 7/25 through the conclusion of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2011 – Landed on disabled list with left elbow inflammation on 8/18 (retro to 8/16), and was transferred to 60-day DL on 9/5...despite missing final six weeks of season, ranked fourth on the Marlins in appearances...among Marlins' relievers to appear in 45 games-or-more in a single season, recorded third-lowest ERA in franchise history at 1.82... T13th-most in National League with 43 inherited runners, T3rd in percentage of inherited runners scored at 14.0 (43 IR/6 scored)...percentage IRs scored was second-lowest in Marlins history (Vic Darensbourg 12.1 in 1998 (33/4))...held left-handed batters to a .145 average (10-69)...became first pitcher in Marlins' history to not allow an earned run at home over an entire season (min. 20 apps.)...went scoreless over 30 appearances (11.2 IP) from 4/14-6/25.

2010 – Spent his first full season at the Major League level ...established career-bests in wins (4) and appearances (85)...all four wins came between 7/3-8/28...his 85 apps. established a Tampa Bay Club record, led the American League and T2nd in the Majors... his 85 appearances were the most in the AL since the Yankees' Paul Quantrill (86) in 2004, the last AL left-hander to make more appearances was Detroit's Sean Runyan (88) in 1998...held left-handed hitters to a .202 avg. (25-for-124), fourth-lowest among qualifying AL relievers... allowed only one home run to a lefty (Luke Scott, 4/12 at BAL)... yielded a .410 average (16x39) vs. RHB...in 38 outings from 7/20-end of season went 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA (21.1 IP/4 ER) to lower his ERA from 6.56 to 4.23...held first batters faced to a .200 average (16x80) with only two walks.

2009 – Began the season at Durham (AAA) and joined Tampa Bay on 5/25...made 61 appearances in the Rays final 115 games…only two others in the AL made more appearances during that span: OAK Craig Breslow (63) and MIN Jose Mijares (62)...finished 2nd in the AL in inherited runners scored efficiency, allowing only nine out of 57 IRs to score (15.79 percent), 2nd best in club history behind J.P. Howell's 11.4 percent in 2008...led the majors in one-batter relief appearances (29)...picked up his only win 9/27 at TEX, his first major league win since 9/14/04 vs. COL with Arizona...held lefthanders to a .141 average (11-78, 1-HR), 5th best in the majors (min. 75 AB) and 2nd best in club history behind Grant Balfour's .120 mark in 2008...converted all five save opportunities; faced a total of eight batters in those five games and retired all eight...earned his first two saves in consecutive nights 5/29-30 vs. MIN - the first 2 saves of his career (198 major league relief apps.)...only one active pitcher had more career relief apps without a save: Clay Meredith, who had 220 apps at the time...for his first save, struck out major league batting leader Joe Mauer, the only batter he faced...opponents batted .111 (2-18) with two outs and runners in scoring position...in his first 10 appearances with the Rays (8.0 IP) allowed only one hit as opponents batted .042 (1-24)...was 3-0 with a 3.72 ERA in a staff-high 21 apps. for Durham.

2008 – Pitched in the Brewers organization with Triple-A Nashville, making 26 apps (2 starts)...missed the first half of the season with a fractured fourth metacarpal on the left hand, suffered during spring training...held left-handed hitters to a .206 average (7-34) in Nashville, compared to a .289 (35-121) mark against righties...pitched for Aguilas Cibaenas of the Dominican Winter League following the season...made 26 relief apps (3.80 ERA, 3 saves) and did not allow a run over his final 13 games.

2007 – Except for a two-game stint with Arizona in late June, spent the season with Tucson (AAA)...was his fourth consecutive season splitting time between Tucson and Arizona...entered spring training as a non-roster invitee with MIN...was designated for assignment on 3/24, declared free agency, and signed a minor league deal with Arizona on 4/17...contract was purchased by Arizona on 6/26, and made a pair of relief apps 6/26-27 at LAD without retiring a batter (allowed 3 hits)...was designated for assignment 6/28 and returned to Tucson on 7/2.

2006 – Began the season with Tucson (AAA) and had a pair of stints with Arizona (6/13–8/8, 9/1 through season's end)...made 73 apps. between both levels, 43 for Tucson and 30 for Arizona ...logged a career-high eight saves for Tucson & held opponents to a .228 avg.

2005 – Began the season on the D-backs Opening Day roster but was designated for assignment on 5/5 after eight outings (7.0 IP)...outrighted to Tucson (AAA), where he pitched 40 innings in 47 games.

2004 – Traded to Arizona on 3/27 in exchange for RHP John Patterson, ending a three-month stay with Montreal...the Expos had acquired him from the Yankees on 12/16/03...spent most of the season with the Diamondbacks...his 74 apps. established an Arizona franchise record for a lefthander that still stands...also made 15 apps in Tucson (AAA) from 8/8–9/7 before returning to the Major League level the rest of September.

2003 – Spent majority of the season with Triple-A Columbus (Yankees), where he appeared in 54 games (3 starts)...had one stint with the Yankees from 4/19–5/13 in which he made 5 apps. (3.2 IP) and was scoreless in four of those five outings.

2002 – Made the Yankees Opening Day roster for the second straight season...made 18 relief apps during several stints with the Major League club...held opponents to a .217 average...at Columbus (AAA) crafted a 1.72 ERA over 31 relief apps. as opponents batted just .189.

2001 – Made his first career Opening Day roster and spent most of the season with the Yankees, where he went 3-1 with a 3.35 ERA in 37 relief outings...opponents hit only .202 (34-168) with no home runs...earned his first major league win 4/19 at TOR in a 17-inning victory...optioned to Columbus on 8/21, but returned to the majors on 9/1. 2001 POSTSEASON – Did not appear in the 2001 ALDS or ALCS for the Yankees, but was named to the World Series roster and pitched in Games 1 and 6 against Arizona...pitched 2.2 scoreless frames in Game 6.

2000 – Gained his first experience in the majors with New York Yankees...was called up from Columbus (AAA) from 6/29–8/5 and returned to the Majors 8/11 until season's end...over 22 major league apps. held opponents to a .215 average...made his Major League debut 7/1 at TB...first strikeout victim was Brady Anderson 7/4 vs. BAL. 2000 POSTSEASON – Made one appearance in both the ALDS vs. Oakland and the ALCS vs. Seattle.

1997 - 1999 – Converted to the bullpen in 1999 while pitching for Tampa (High-A) where he made 47 apps. and struck out 62 in 50.0 IP...after being drafted in 1997 and signing with the Yankees, made 10 starts for Oneonta (SS)...combined to start 21 games in 1998 between Tampa and Greensboro (A).

MISC: Graduated from Winston Churchill High School in San Antonio, Texas...lettered in baseball for three years and was All-State during his junior and senior years...played college ball at Florida State and was named First Team All-ACC in 1997... compiled a 13-3 record that season as the staff ace, and became one of six Seminoles selected in the 1997 June Draft, including J.D. PITCHER

CAREER:

- Has the lowest career ERA (min. 10 games started) at Busch Stadium III with a 2.48 mark over 39 career starts (258.0 IP).
- Signed a 4-year contract extention with club options for 2016 & 2017 on July 13, 2011.
- Was the first pitcher to win at least 13 games for the Cardinals in both his rookie season and the following year since Harvey Haddix in 1953 (20-9 as a rookie) and 1954 (18-13). (Elias)
- Has posted 33 wins and a 3.36 ERA over the past three seasons, ranking T15th & 8th respectively among LHP.
- Won 13 games in 2010 and '11, to become the first Cards LHP to win 10+ games in back-to-back seasons since Donovan Osborne in 1992 (11) & 1993 (10).

2012 SEASON:

- Saw his season shortened with shoulder issues, making 20 starts surrounding his D.L. stint.
- Made 11 starts before being placed on the disabled list on 6/6 (left shoulder strain). Was 3-4 with a 4.48 ERA in those starts.
- Missed 64 games while on the D.L. and made four rehab starts: one at High-A Plam Beach, two at Double-A Springfield and a final rehab start at Triple-A Memphis.
- Activated off the disabled list on 8/19. Made nine starts to close out the year and went 4-3 with a 3.25 ERA.
- Ranked T11th in the NL with 17 double plays induced. Induced double plays at a rate of 1.26/9 IP, which would have ranked 1st in the N.L. with the necessary innings needed to qualify.
- Was 4-2, 2.82 in nine starts at Busch, with none less than 5.2 IP and went 3-5, 5.02 in 11 road starts.
- Ranked 1st in the National League with 1.53 GDP/9 IP during Septemebr and 8th in N.L. ERA (2.45) for the month. Also had a sub 3.00 ERA in April (2.78).
- His 10 hits and .250 BA paced St. Louis pitchers. Recorded four sac hits on the year, three coming in one game: 9/4 vs. NYM.
- Was first Cards pitcher since Adam Wainwright in 2009 to have a single, double, triple and homer in the same season.
- Struck out a career-high 10 batters vs. PIT on 8/19 in his first start after returning from the D.L. Threw a season-high 8.0 innings allowing two unearned runs.
- Won his last start, 10/1 vs. CIN to even his record at 7-7. Allowed two runs in 6.2 IP and struck out six in the 4-2 win.

2012 POSTSEASON: Started just one game during the poastseason, Division Series Game 2 vs. Washington and went just 2.0 IP allowing a single run before coming out of the game...was removed from the roster after Game 2 start with a left shoulder strain and inflammation and did not pitch the remainder of the postseason.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2011 – Posted career highs in innings (194.2), strikeouts (156), games started (32) and tied for wins (13)...his 194.2 innings pitched were the most by a Cardinals left-handed pitcher since Mark Mulder (205.0 in 2005)...struck out a career high nine batters in each of his first two starts (4/3 vs. SD & 4/9 at SF)...Cardinals were 19-13 in his 32 starts... became the first Cardinals LHP (17th instance overall) since Rick Ankiel (194 in 2000) and second since John Tudor (169 in 1985) to strike out 150 batters in a season... only allowed 11 extra base hits to LH batters and just two home runs (Carlos Gonzalez - 8/13; Freddie Freeman - 9/10...both at Busch Stadium)...was honored as National League co-Player of the Week (week ending 4/3) with Cubs' Starlin Castro...went 3-0 with a 2.08 ERA in April (4th lowest ERA in NL in April)...posted sub-3.00 ERA in April (2.08), July (2.51) and September (2.64)...won three consecutive decisions three separate times during the season and a high of five-straight (4/3-5/12)...hurled two shutouts, the first on 4/3 vs. SD (first start of the season) and again on 5/6 vs. MIL...threw the first complete game shutout of the 2011 Major League season when he blanked the Padres (4/3) 2-0 in his first start of the season...retired career-best first 22 batters of the game (7.1 IP) vs. MIL on 5/6 before settling for his third career complete game shutout, a career low two-hitter with eight strikeouts... allowed just six earned runs over his first eight home starts (5-1, 0.94 ERA, 57.1 IP)...didn't lose his second game until 6/8 at HOU, allowing three runs in a 4-1 loss at Minute Maid Park...finished second on the team with 13 wins (T12th, NL), T2nd in the N.L. in shutouts (2) and T9th in complete games (2)...led MLB with 23 unearned runs allowed, the most by a Cardinals pitcher since Bob Forsch (27) in 1976 ...ranked 1st in NL in highest run support average (5.92) and 7th in MLB...ranked T3rd in the N.L. in double plays (25) and 4th in DP/9 IP (1.16)...uncorked a career-high 12 wild pitches, ranking T2nd in the N.L...had a home record of 9-4 with a 2.55 ERA (7th in NL) in 15 starts - the nine home wins were T7th in the NL...hit his 1st career HR, a 3-run shot into the second deck at Miller Park, on 8/2 in a Cardinals 8-7 win in 11 innings...threw 7.2 innings allowing four unearned runs in a 6-5 win over NY (9/21) to tie his single-season high of 13 wins. 2011 POSTSEASON: Made five starts in the postseason recording an 0-2 record with a 4.21 ERA...had a 1.80 ERA in two World Series starts (10.0 IP), which was the lowest by a Cardinals pitcher making two starts in the same World Series since Danny Cox registered a 1.29 ERA in two starts in 1985...his 9.0 strikeouts/9.0 IP were T5th best in Cardinals World Series history (min. 2 GS)...his 25.2 innings pitched ranked 3rd trailing only Chris Carpenter (36.0) and C.J. Wilson (28.0) in 2011 postseason...his 21 strikeouts ranked T3rd with teammate Chris Carpenter, trailing C.J. Wilson (26) and Justin Verlander (25)...started Game 3 of the NLDS vs. PHI and threw 6.2 scoreless innings with seven strikeouts before Ben Francisco hit a three-run home run with two outs in the bottom of the 7th - his seven strikeouts were the most in a single postseason game by a Cardinals pitcher in 2011...was one of two pitchers (Gallardo, MIL) to record an RBI in the postseason, grounding out to score David Freese in Game 5 of the NLCS; became one of 20 Cardinals pitchers to record an RBI in the postseason...threw 7.0 scoreless innings of three-hit ball in Game 2 of the World Series in a no-decision in 2-1 Cardinals loss...started Game 6 of the World Series and did not get a decision, allowing two runs over 3.0 innings.

SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to searching for baseball talent in four unique areas, including professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyse and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

RON "POP" WARNER — MANAGER

Warner begins his second season as the field manager in Memphis. He was promoted to his current post on November 16, 2011 after spending five seasons as the only manager of the Springfield Cardinals since their origin in 2007.

Originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 17th round of the 1991 draft as a shortstop out of the University of Wyoming, Warner has spent every year since 2000 in the Cardinals organization and enters his ninth as a field manager and 12th as a coach.

Warner was promoted to the Springfield post after managing the Palm Beach Cardinals for two seasons. He led his teams to the postseason in five of his eight seasons as a manager, narrowly missing in 2008 despite having the North Division's best overall record (76-64). In his first season at Springfield in 2007, he guided the club to the Texas League championship series. His 2011 team produced four Texas League all-stars, the Texas League Player of the Year and the organization's Minor League Player and Pitcher of the Year.

Warner was voted the 2005 George Kissell award winner by the Cardinals' organization after guiding his Palm Beach squad to their first Florida State League playoff appearance and Championship in his first season coaching in the FSL.

Overall, he owns a 559-556 (.501) record as field manager. In 2004, he served as the hitting coach at Peoria (A) and guided the Midwest League's top hitting club (.277 team batting average). The previous two years (2002-2003), Warner was a coach at Class-A New Jersey. He made his coaching debut in 2001 at Double-A New Haven.

In 2000, Warner served as the batting practice pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals in the Major Leagues.

Warner, 43, spent nine years playing in the Cardinals farm system. He resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife, Laura, and sons, Colin Michael (1/9/04) and Benjamin Anthony (1/25/10).

MARK BUDASKA — HITTING COACH

Budaska begins his sixth season as Memphis hitting coach.

During his five-year tenure at Memphis from 2008-12, Budaska has tutored Cardinals batters David Freese, Allen Craig, Jon Jay, Daniel Descalso and Matt Carpenter, who all posted career minor league years in Memphis before moving on to St. Louis.

Budaska has spent the last three off-seasons as the hitting and outfield coach for the Tigres de Aragua in the Venezuelan Winter League. In 2011, the Tigres won the championship four games to two over the Tiburones de La Guaira.

He previously served as hitting coach from 2004-07 at Triple-A Pawtucket in the Boston Red Sox system. He had been with the Red Sox since 2002, when he was hitting coach at Double-A Portland of the Eastern League

In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Double-A Little Rock affiliate in the Texas League. The Travelers won the Texas League Championship that year and ranked fourth in the league with a .266 team average.

Budaska was a hitting coach and first base coach for a major league team in Taiwan from 1998-2000.

The former switch-hitting outfielder played 10 years in the Oakland organization, including stints at the big league level in 1978 and 1981.

BRYAN EVERSGERD — PITCHING COACH

Eversgerd enters his first season in Memphis after spending the last two in Springfield (AA) as pitching coach for the Double-A Cardinals.

In 2012, the Springfield Cardinals won the Texas League championship for the first time with the pitching staff registering a 3.83 team ERA and finishing with the second fewest hits allowed in the league. The staff went on to hurl a postseason best 2.48 ERA over nine games in the Texas League playoffs.

Eversgerd has been the pitching coach for the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Year the past two seasons with Seth Maness in 2012 and Shelby Miller in 2011.

His pitching coach experience began at the Cardinals Midwest League Low-A affiliate in Peoria and Quad Cities from 2004-07 prior to joining Springfield's staff in 2008-09 and a one year stint in Palm Beach in 2010.

In 2004, he served at Peoria after being out of baseball for two years. His inaugural coaching season was in 2001 for the Cardinals as pitching coach at their High-A Potomac affiliate in the Carolina League.

Eversgerd began his playing career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994, at Florida. The left-hander also pitched for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 44, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987, playing college baseball at Kaskaskia Community College and leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Hoffman, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, daughter, Kristen (15) and son, Jacob (13).

MIKE SHILDT — MANAGER

Mike Shildt enters his second season as the Springfield manager and will also act as minor league Spring Training coordinator for the fifth consecutive season.

Shildt has led his teams to league championships in each of the last three seasons. The first two were won at Appalachian League entry Johnson City in 2010 and 2011 at the short-season level, before leading the Double-A Springfield Cardinals to their first Texas League championship defeating Frisco 3-1 after a tumultuous opening round win over Tulsa, three games to two.

In 2011, Shildt led short-season Johnson City to their second consecutive Appalachian League championship while setting a team record with 45 wins, just a year after tying the previous mark of 42. While at Johnson City, Shildt compiled a 124-77 (.617) record over three seasons, averaging 41 wins per season and guided the team to their first championship since 1976. Over the past four years, Shildt's 166-103 (.617) record in the second half of the season is remarkable, holding an average of just under 42 wins. In his first year at the helm of Johnson City, he led the squad to their best record in 13 years (37-30), just a year removed from serving as the hitting coach for the squad in 2008.

Shildt began every season from 2004-07 serving as an area scout and player development instructor before moving on to coach for a Cardinals short-season team, first as hitting coach at New Jersey in 2004-05, then bench coach in State College in 2006 and position coach for Batavia in 2007.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Shildt worked from 1999-2003 as an associate scout for the MLB Scouting Bureau.

Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt working as the hititng coach and recruiting coordinator at both UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville. He also owned & operated On Deck, Baseball Academy in Pineville, N.C., training many major and minor league players for four years.

Shildt, 44, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Matthews, N.C. He was a three-year letterwinner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the Orioles Double-A team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr., and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard.

PHILLIP WELLMAN — HITTING COACH

Wellman enters his third season with Springfield after spending seven seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization, four as manager of the Mississippi Braves (AA) from 2007-10.

The Texas League Most Valuable Player and Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year has been under Wellman's tutilege the past two seasons as Oscar Taveras was named TL Most Valuable Player in 2012, leading the league in batting and led all Cardinals minor leaguers in doubles, triples, home runs, RBI and slugging. A year prior, in his first season as hitting coach in Springfield, Wellman tutored the 2011 Texas League Player of the Year and Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year, Matt Adams.

In 2008, he led Mississippi to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year in his second season after serving the previous three years as hitting coach for Greenville (2004-05) and Mississippi (2006).

Wellman boasts 25 years of coaching experience with 15 years as a manager at various levels in the minors.

His previous managerial posts include three with the Reds organization in Chattanooga (1999, 2001-03), Burlington (1997-98) and Winston-Salem (1996). He also spent three years managing co-op squads in River City (1995) and Lethbridge (1993-94) following his first post as manager with the Gulf Coast League Orioles in 1992.

Wellman began his coaching career in 1988 as a hitting instructor for the Pulaski Braves. He worked in the Braves system until 1991 before returning in 2004.

Wellman spent parts of four seasons (1984-87) as a player in the Braves, Twins and Pirates organizations. He attended Sam Houston State University and graduated from Southwestern University (Texas) in 1985. He resides in Bulverde, Texas, with his wife Montee. They have a daughter, Britnee (24) and a son Brett (21).

RANDY NIEMANN — PITCHING COACH

Niemann begins his first season as the Springfield pitching coach as well as his first season in the Cardinals organization.

Last season, Niemann was the bullpen coach for the Boston Red Sox under Bobby Valentine before a late season promotion as pitching coach to finsh the 2012 season.

Prior to the Red Sox, Niemann spent 24 years in the Mets organization, most recently as the pitching rehabilitation coordinator in 2011.

His playing career spanned eight seasons from 1979-87, playing for the Astros, Pirates, White Sox, Twins and the 1986 World Champion New York Mets, in which Niemann was 2-3 with a 3.79 ERA in 31 appearances. He finished his career with a 7-8 record and 4.64 ERA in 122 appearances totaling 200.0 innings.

Niemann, 57, is married to Mary Anne and the couple has two sons, Daniel (30) and Michael (29) and a daughter Alexandra (26).

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ — MANAGER

Rodriguez enters his second season as the manager of Palm Beach and fourth in the Cardinals organization.

In 2011, he led Quad Cities to their first Midwest League title since 1991 and his 2010 squad produced the second-best record as a member of the Midwest League (83-55).

Rodriguez was a hitting coach at Johnson City before moving on to his managerial posts. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez was a member of the Florida Marlins organization, where he was hitting coach at Jamestown in 2007-08. He had been with the Marlins since 2002, beginning as manager of the Jamestown affiliate.

Rodriguez's professional career spans over 25 years, starting out in the New York Yankees organization for 17 years before moving on as a hitting coach in the Expos organization for two seasons in 2000-01.

Prior experience was gained at the college level at the University of Miami (Fla.), Miami-Dade Community College and at the nationally prominant high school baseball program at Westminster Christian High School (Fla.). He also has scouting experience with Astros, Angels, Mets and Brewers organizations.

In October of 2002, he led an amateur team filled with draft-eligible prospects to the championship of the Perfect Game/Baseball America World Wood Bat tournament held in Jupiter, Fla.

His son, Sean, is a middle infielder for the Tampa Bay Rays and made his Major League debut with the Los Angeles Angels on April 18, 2008, versus Seattle. Rodriguez, 56, resides in Miami, Fla.

ROGER LaFRANCOIS — HITTING COACH

LaFrancois begins his first season as hitting coach for Palm Beach after the previous three seasons in the same role at Batavia in the New York-Penn League.

He brings over 20 years of coaching experience at the minor league levels serving at every level with several different Major League organizations including the White Sox, Giants, Mets, Expos and Braves.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, he was a coach with the Worcester Tornadoes of the Can American League (2008-2009) in Independent Baseball.

His playing days involved him as a catcher in the Boston Red Sox organization, spending eight years with the Red Sox, where he saw action in eight Major League games during the 1982 season batting .400 in his opportunity.

He is the founder and director of the Connecticut Dugout Club, and has also been a partner and director of the World Baseball Coaches Convention since 2003 and America's Game since 2001, in which coaches and athletes are instructed in the game of baseball.

LaFrancois, 56, resides in Old Saybrook, Conn.

ARTHUR (ACE) ADAMS — PITCHING COACH

Adams begins his first season as Palm Beach pitching coach moving up from Quad Cities in 2012, just a year removed from Batavia in 2010 and 2011. This is his sixth season in the Cardinals organization following four years in the Red Sox organization as a pitching coach.

He was pitching coach for the Red Sox Double-A Portland affiliate who won the 2006 Eastern League championship. Adams advanced a level in each of his previous two seasons, at High-A Wilmington and before in Low-A Augusta. He also served as the Boston Red Sox traveling batting practice pitcher in 1984-85.

Adams has previously served as pitching coach in the Florida State League with Jupiter from 1999-2002 while affiliated with the Expos and Marlins. His 2002 Jupiter squad posted a league-best 3.41 ERA and made the playoffs.

Adams made the switch from college to the professional ranks in 1997, joining the Expos after 13 years as a college coach at the University of Michigan (1989-96), Brandeis (1986-89), Harvard (1985) and Dartmouth (1984).

While at Michigan, the Wellesley, Mass., native was the pitching coach for current St. Louis Cardinals manager Mike Matheny (1989-91) when he was a catcher for the Wolverines.

Adams, 60, and his wife Wendy reside in Longmeadow, Mass., with their daughter Abigail.

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Bilardello enters his first season as manager of Peoria after having spent the previous three in the New York-Penn League with Batavia. This is his seventh year with the Cardinals organization, working as the minor league catching coordinator from 2007- 2009.

Last season, Bilardello's MuckDogs posted an outstanding 44-32 record finishing a game out of the wild card and two games behind the division leader after pulling off a nine-game win streak when the MuckDogs had to win every game to be in a position to play for the division title. His 2010 squad won the Pinckney Division crown in his first season at the helm.

The former Major League catcher has four years of minor league managing experience in the Red Sox and Dodgers organizations. He coached the Wilmington Blue Rocks in the Carolina League during the 2005 season, spent three years managing the Dodgers' Great Falls affiliate in the Pioneer League (2002) and the following two years with Columbus in the South Atlantic League. He led Great Falls to a Pioneer League Championship in 2002 with a record of 47-28 and 4-1 in the playoffs.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (8) and RBI (38). He hit his first home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 53, resides in Vero Beach, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as the Palm Beach High-A level. Trey is a professional golf caddie for Tag Ridings on the Nationwide Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and volleyball for three years.

ERIK PAPPAS — HITTING COACH

Pappas begins his first season as hitting coach for Peoria and first in the Cardinals organization. The former Major League catcher spent 2006-12 at the Cangelosi Baseball Academy in Orland Park, Ill., while also serving as a scout for the Texas Rangers from 2005-09.

Pappas played three seasons in the Major Leagues, the first with the Cubs in 1991 and his final two under manager Joe Torre for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1993-94. In his career, Pappas batted .242 with one home run and 35 RBI over 104 games. His lone home run came off Denny Neagle on June 14, 1993 vs. Pittsburgh at Busch Stadium. He was the Chicago Cubs Minor League Player of the year in 1989.

Pappas, 46, was a first round selection (6th overall) of the California Angels out of Mount Carmel High School in Illinois in the 1984 Major League draft. He played for Greece during the 2004 Summer Olumpics in Athens. Pappas resides in Chicago, Ill.

JASON SIMONTACCHI — PITCHING COACH

Simontacchi enters his first season as a coach in the Cardinals organization, doing so as the pitching coach at Peoria.

The former Major League pitcher posted four seasons in the big leagues with the St. Louis Cardinals from 2002 to 2004 and with the Washington Nationals in 2007.

Simontacchi made his Major League debut on May 4, 2002, in a 3-2 win over Atlanta at Busch Stadium, throwing 7.0 innings and retiring the first 10 batters he faced in the victory. He is the last Cardinals rookie pitcher to win his first MLB start at home. He then went on to win his first five decisions to earn June National League Rookie Pitcher of the Month honors. He would receive Cardinals Rookie Pitcher of the Year award from the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA and one third place vote for N.L. Rookie of the Year.

The right-hander started 24 games in his 2002 rookie season posting an 11-5 record over 143.1 innings. His final career marks were a 26-17 record in 53 starts posting a 5.09 ERA over 355.2 innings.

He played college baseball at De Anza (Calif.) Junior College and the College of Idaho. Simontacchi was originally drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 21st round of the 1996 draft. He resides in St. Louis with his wife, Paula, and two sons: Bradley (13) and Nathan (11).

OLIVER MARMOL — MANAGER

Marmol begins his first season as manager at State College after serving in the same capacity at Johnson City in 2012. This will be his third year in the Cardinals coaching ranks.

The former Cardinals minor league infielder led the Johnson City squad to a 39-28 record and a playoff appearance in his first experience as a manager, just a season after the Cardinals won back-to-back Appalachian League titles. Marmol began his coaching career in 2011 as the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals under manager Steve Turco.

Marmol spent four years playing in the Cardinals system, finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. He batted .203 with five home runs and 68 RBI, while stealing 42 of 55 bases in his minor league career.

Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons at the College of Charleston. He was drafted out of college in the sixth round of the 2007 June First Year Player Draft by St. Louis.

Currently the youngest manager in the Cardinals organization at 26-years old, Marmol resides in Orlando in the off-season with his wife, Amber.

RAMON ORTIZ — HITTING COACH

Ortiz enters his first season as hitting coach at State College after spending the previous three in the same capacity at Johnson City. He has 15 years experience in the Cardinals organization, including the last six as hitting coach; first for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2008, the same role for Batavia in 2009 before moving on to Johnson City.

In 2011, the Johnson City club won their second straight Appalachian League title and the offense led the league in batting average, runs, hits, doubles, slugging percentage and on-base plus slugging percentage, a year after leading the league in almost every major offensive statistical category.

Ortiz was previously in the Dodgers organization from 2005-07, last serving as hitting coach for the GCL Dodgers in 2007 following a stint with the Vero Beach Dodgers in 2006.

Previous career experience came with two of the Tampa Bay Rays affiliates, coaching with the Rays' Hudson Valley affiliate in the New York-Penn League (1999-02), then two years at Bakersfield in the California League (2003-04).

The Venezuela native started his coaching career at the University of Central Venezuela (1983-85). He spent nine seasons (1987-95) as a coach in the Cardinals' system, followed by three seasons (1996-98) in the Yankees' organization.

Ortiz, a former outfielder, played five seasons of professional baseball in the Expos and Twins systems.

DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco begins his eighth season as a pitching coach in the Cardinals system and his first season with State College.

This is his second consecutive season in the New York-Penn League serving as pitching coach for Batavia in 2012. His 2012 staff posted the 4th-lowest ERA in the league (3.08) and the lowest walk total (143), one of two teams issuing less than 200 walks. Orozco spent 2011 with the GCL Cardinals following a season as pitching coach for the Cardinals' Venezuelan Summer League entry.

Orozco has four years coaching experience in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006-2008, in addition to 2011. He was pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009, which produced current St. Louis Cardinals reliever Trevor Rosenthal.

The 31-year-old played six professional seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) in 2002, and went 4-2 with a 6.09 ERA with four walks and 21 strikeouts over 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season.

In 2004, he was the first base coach for the Tigres De Aragua baseball club in the Venezuelan Winter League.

JOE KRUZEL — MANAGER

Joe Kruzel begins his first season as manager of Johnson City after spending the previous five seasons as hitting coach for the Cardinals Class-A affiliate in Quad Cities.

The 2013 season marks his eighth season coaching at the minor league level and his second stint as a minor league manager, most recently for the Cincinnati Reds rookie-level Billings affiliate in the Pioneer League in 2007.

In 2012, Quad Cities ranked third in the Midwest League in batting while leading the league in home runs and RBI, smacking 107 round trippers with 649 runs driven in. In 2011, Quad Cities finished tops in the Midwest League in doubles, walks, on-base percentage and slugging percentage.

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Reds organization. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds before moving on to the manager position at Billings in 2007.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran college coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (Ohio) University in 2005. He spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach (1989-92) and then head baseball coach (1993-2003). In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 47, resides in Hamilton, Ohio.

ROBERTO ESPINOZA — HITTING COACH

Roberto Espinoza begins his first season as hitting coach at Johnson City, which is also his first professional coaching position.

Espinoza was originally signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent out of Palo Negro, Venezuela in March of 2006.

The former Cardinals minor league catcher played in the organization for six seasons before an injury sidelined him during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, when he went in the coaching direction.

Espinoza played in 202 games advancing as far as High-A Palm Beach in 2010, when he batted .158 in seven games for the Cardinals.

Espinoza, 24, is the youngest coach in the Cardinals minor league system and resides in Palo Negro, Venezuela in the off-season.

PAUL DAVIS — PITCHING COACH

Davis begins his first season as Johnson City's pitching coach and his first in professional baseball.

Last year, Davis coached at Ralston High School in Nebraska while serving as an adjunct professor for Athletic Coaching at the University of Nebraska, a position he held since 2006.

Davis has six years college coaching experience at Dana College in Blair, Neb., from 1994-99. In six seasons at Dana, Davis was twice named Nebraska-Iowa Athletic Conference Coach-of-the-Year and led the Vikings to a school-record 32 wins and a conference championship in 1996 at the NAIA level. Other collegiate positions include coaching the Omaha Indians of the MINK Collegiate Summer League.

A former pitcher at Creighton University in 1984-85, the Kissimmee, Fla., native also pitched for Valencia Community College in 1983, while graduating from Creighton with a B.A. in psychology.

Davis is currently a doctoral candidate in leadership studies at Nebraska, and resides in Omaha, Neb., with his wife of 26 years, Martha, and two sons, Nick (21) and Jake (16).

STEVE TURCO — MANAGER

Turco enters his fifth season as manager of the Gulf Coast League club and has improved the club's win total every season since he took over the reigns in 2008.

Turco led the GCL Cardinals to their first Division Championship and playoff appearance in 2012, posting a team-high 34 wins en route to a 34-24 record and East Division title. In 2011, he led the rookie Redbirds to a 31-win season. Through four seasons at the Gulf Coast level, Turco has compiled a 118-107 (.524) mark, after they were 41-68 in the franchise's first two seasons.

His success instructing the upcoming Cardinals and steady improvement over his four years at the Gulf Coast League played a big part in winning the George Kissell Award in 2011 as voted on by his coaching and player development peers.

After spending nine seasons as a Cardinals scout, Turco returned to managing in 2009 and took over as manager of the Gulf Coast League club. The 2009 team has already produced its first Major League player in St. Louis with pitcher Trevor Rosenthal.

Previous managerial stops in the Cardinals chain included Johnson City for six seasons from 1994-99 and New Jersey in the New York-Penn League from 1992-93. In 1996, he led Johnson City to an Appalachian League playoff berth with a then-team record mark of 42-26, a win total which held up until 2011 when broken by current Double-A manager Mike Shildt. He is 385-390 in 12 seasons as a manager.

Turco has three years of non-managerial experience as a coach starting in Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Originally signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder, Turco played in the farm system from 1979-1984.

Turco, 56, graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Clearwater, Fla.

DARWIN MARRERO — PITCHING COACH

Marrero begins his first season as pitching coach with the Gulf Coast Cardinals and his first in the Cardinals organization. Most recently, Marrero was a pitching coach for the Sioux City Explorers in the American Association in 2008. The Explorers pitching staff compiled a league best ERA, boasted the Pitcher of the Year and the closer established a new league saves record. In 2005, he was pitching coach for the Capitales de Quebec in the Can-Am League.

His playing career lasted from 1998-2004 in the Montreal Expos organization, attaining his highest level at Double-A with Harrisburg, as well as pitching eight seasons in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Marrero, 32, a Venezuela native, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Monica, and their three children, Darwin, Jr. (8), Nikary (5) and Sophia (4).

JOBEL JIMENEZ — HITTING COACH

Jimenez begins his first season with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals. He began his career wtih St. Louis prior to the start of the 2007 season, and has spent the previous five seasons as a hitting coach with the Cardinals organization.

Jimenez first served as hitting coach for the VSL Cardinals from 2007-2009. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he worked for five years (2001-06) with the Red Sox as a scout, outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Jimenez, 34, also served as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Marlins organization from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder for two seasons (1993-94) in the Dodgers system, Jimenez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent four seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

Trainer: Amaury Rivera
Coach: John Matos

FRAY PENICHE — MANAGER

Peniche begins his third season as manager of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals after coaching the previous12 seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization, the most recent stint as manager of the DSL Tigers (2007-10).

He began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (A) in 1999, then coached the 2000-2006 seasons with the DSL squad. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche has spent the majority of his career in the Tigers organization starting as a player who was a non-drafted free agent of the Tigers, playing four seasons in their minor league system. He played three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers (R) and one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers.

KLEININGER TERAN — HITTING COACH

Teran begins his first season as a hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals, as well as his first season as a coach after playing in the Cardinals system for the past eight seasons.

Teran was a third baseman whose playing plateau was Class-A Quad Cities in 2011 before sitting out the entire 2012 season with an injury.

The native of Maracay, Venezuela, Teran played in 256 career games for the Cardinals minor league affiliates, batting .276 with three home runs and 90 RBI. He was a member of the 2010 Johnson City Cardinals which won the Appalachian League Championship.

BILL VILLANUEVA — PITCHING COACH

Villanueva is entering his sixth year as a pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals after joining the organization as pitching coach for the DSL entry in the summer of 2005.

After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals Jupiter, Fla. complex in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

A former right-handed pitcher, Villanueva signed with the Marlins in 1995 and pitched six seasons in their minor league system. His final stop was in 2000 at Single-A Kane County of the Midwest League, where he went 1-6 with a 3.76 ERA. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts).

Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

The 34-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

JOHN MATOS — COACH

Matos begins his fourth season with the Cardinals organization after getting hired prior to the start of the 2010 season.

He has worked all four seasons as a coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals. One of his main responsibilities includes working with the infielders of the DSL team.

A former infielder, Matos signed with the Cincinnati Reds in 1999 and played two seasons in their minor league system.

The 36-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

THE DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father, and a humble man. A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

In the 121-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 14 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owner's box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (15 numbers/16 individuals) have recognized more individuals among Major League Baseball franchises. The honored Redbirds' uniform numbers appear in two areas at Busch Stadium – on the leftfield wall and encircled in a series below the main scoreboard and above the Coca Cola Scoreboard Patio in right-center field.

Uniform No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1962. The Cardinals subsequently retired No. 42 for Hall of Fame relief pitcher Bruce Sutter in 2006.

The most-recent Redbird so honored was manager Tony La Russa, who returned to Busch Stadium on May 11, 2012, for a pregame ceremony during which his No. 10 was retired before a sellout crowd. He also was presented a key to the city by St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay.

SHORTSTOP

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 180 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success of the 1980s, and became one of the city's most popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly hit .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career high of six home runs and 54 RBI. He subsequently stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast - on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer - was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 4, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Upon his retirement, Smith was baseball's career leader in assists (8,375), chances accepted (12,624) and double plays (1,590) by a shortstop. He led the N.L. in fielding percentage eight times and had a career .978 mark, fifth in baseball annals at the end of his career.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games, and when he retired following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). Upon retirement, Smith ranked second among Cardinals in walks (876); third in games (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and stolen bases (433); sixth in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and ninth in doubles (338).

Smith was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, his first year on the ballot, receiving nearly 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Fans voted Smith shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on October 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove Team, created to honor the Rawlings Gold Glove Award's 50th anniversary.

RED SCHOENDIENST
SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals' baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club three years after signing out of nearby Germantown, Ill. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. Originally an outfielder, Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base the following year. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average - second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers at .344 - with 15 home runs and 79 RBI. On June 14, 1956, Schoendienst was involved in a surprising trade when he was sent to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. When his number was retired, Schoendienst ranked fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch hits (53); fifth in games (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); sixth in doubles (352); and seventh in total bases (2,657) on the Cardinals' career lists. He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times either led or tied for the N.L. lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 over the Red Sox and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, now the second-longest in franchise history behind Tony La Russa.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland Athletics in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee.

STAN MUSIAL

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Left THREW: Left
BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania.
DIED: 1/19/13 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963.

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,599) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season. He immediately began a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples and earned the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of three World Championship teams (1942, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He has the fourth-most hits in baseball history - behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot Hall of Fame selection in 1969, being named on 93 percent of the ballots. Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the organization and served as general manager in 1967, when the Cardinals won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox. More than anything else, the personable Musial was a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium on Musial Plaza with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." Musial was chosen in 2010 by President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom - the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER

OUTFIELDER

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/16 at Roxboro, North Carolina.
DIED: 8/12/02 at Durham, North Carolina.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the scored tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained there as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second base with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of five straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average - second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves at .330 - and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield cast of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history, and helped lead the Redbirds to the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1946. All he did is top the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs both years.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On St. Louis' career lists at the time of his uniform retirement, he ranked second in RBI (1,148); third in triples (135) and walks (839); fourth in games (1,820), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); fifth in at-bats (6,775) and doubles (366); and 11th in home runs (146). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

TONY La RUSSA

MANAGER

10

FULL NAME: Anthony La Russa Jr.
BORN: 10/4/1944 at Tampa, Florida.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1996-2011.
NUMBER RETIRED: 2012.

Tony La Russa was tantamount with winning.

As manager of the Cardinals from 1996 to 2011, La Russa amassed 1,408 victories. He became the winningest manager in franchise history with No. 1,042 on Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst.

La Russa also won championships in St. Louis: eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2006 and 2011 World Series. All told, the Cardinals made nine postseason appearances in La Russa's 16 seasons at the helm, and his teams finished first, second or third in the N.L. Central Division 13 times.

His finest hour may have been his last. Trailing three games to two in the 2011 World Series to the Texas Rangers – and twice down to their final strike in Game 6 – the Cardinals rallied to force Game 7 and went on to capture the franchise's 11th world championship. It capped a magical two-month odyssey for the ball club, which had been staving off elimination seemingly at every turn since Aug. 25, when it trailed the N.L. wild card race by 10 1/2 games, and made the playoffs on the season's final day.

When La Russa announced his retirement Oct. 31, 2011, his 16 years of continuous service were the most among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he totaled 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Hall of Famers Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755).

La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of two to win a World Series title in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

In Oakland, La Russa piloted the A's to four division titles, three American League pennants and the 1989 World Championship. He is the A's franchise leader with 798 wins. The 1983 White Sox won the A.L. Western Division to make their first postseason appearance in 24 years.

La Russa and Hall of Famer Leo Durocher are the only two managers in major league history to win 500 games with three different teams. La Russa was named Major League Manager of the Year in 1983 and 1996; A.L. Manager of the Year in 1983, 1988 and 1992; and N.L. Manger of the Year in 2002.

La Russa is the only manager to win an All-Star Game in both leagues, and he had a 4-2 record in the Midsummer Classic.

A native of Tampa, Fla., La Russa played second base, shortstop and third base in the majors for parts of six seasons with the Kansas City A's (1963), Oakland (1968-71), Atlanta (1971) and Chicago Cubs (1973).

Nineteen years before becoming manager of the Cardinals, La Russa served as a player-coach for the organization's New Orleans Triple-A affiliate in 1977. He began his managerial career a year later in the White Sox minor league system with Double-A Knoxville.

La Russa is a 1978 graduate of the Florida State University College of Law. He passed the bar exam in 1979 and became one of five lawyer/managers in baseball history, joining Monte Ward, Hughie Jennings, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey – all members of the Hall of Fame.

KEN BOYER
THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri. DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

Since 1900, only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle on two occasions. It's Ken Boyer, who accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory, and he contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game by the score of 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Boyer ranked third in home runs (255); fifth in RBI (1,001) and total bases (3,011); sixth in at-bats (6,334); and seventh in games (1,667), runs (988) and hits (1,855) and ninth in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for the third most in club history behind Stan Musial's nine and Albert Pujols' 11.

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. East Division the following year. But in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got untracked, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age.

DIZZY DEAN
PITCHER

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas. DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974.

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' post-1900 history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout to win Game 7 by the score of 11-0.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On St. Louis' career lists upon his number retirement, Dean ranked second in strikeouts (1,095); third in winning percentage (.641); sixth in wins (134), complete games (141) and shutouts (23); and ninth in innings pitched (1,738).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a doubleheader against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1953.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979.

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he holds the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering the mark of 104 by Maury Wills during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases to become the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium.

Brock paid immediate dividends in St. Louis, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) is a World Series record, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Brock ranked first in stolen bases (888 - Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427), hits (2,713), doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and 10th in RBI (814). He was a six-time N.L. All-Star.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a baserunning consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (baserunning and outfield play) since 1995. He was a first-ballot Hall of Fame inductee in 1985.

Fans voted Brock the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

WHITEY HERZOG

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: 11/9/1931 at New Athens, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October.

At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 33rd on baseball's all-time list through 2011. He was named the 1982 Major League Manger of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 1/8/53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006.

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made famous the split-fingered fastball, was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start to a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969 – with chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowing throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck off Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals' right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and 20th through 2006. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth.

BOB GIBSON
PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975.

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,885.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for 10th in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned Series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente broke Gibson's right leg July 15. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18 and then go 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts in the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox.

The postseason dominance was an indicator of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight complete-game starts in Series play. Gibson, the series MVP, totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, clouting 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Gloves. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981, his first year of eligibility. "Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

Fans voted Gibson the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005, as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

ROGERS HORNSBY

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/1896 at Winters, Texas. DIED: 1/5/1963 at Chicago, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure).

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby. Only two playes have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Hornsby, primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals' history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On May 31, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, as well, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees.

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 20, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Hornsby ranked first in batting average (.359); second in triples (143); third in runs (1,089), hits (2,110) and total bases (3,342); fourth in doubles (367) and RBI (1,072); seventh in home runs (193); seventh in walks (660); eighth in at-bats (5,881); and ninth in games (1,580). He played 997 games at second base, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1942.

Retired Numbers

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.

PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.

BORN: 3/28/1899 at St. Louis, Missouri. DIED: 9/29/89 at St. Louis, Missouri.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s, Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of "new" Busch Stadium. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the decade of the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the City of St. Louis' most popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK
BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: 8/21/1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts.
DIED: 6/18/2002 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-2001.
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002.

He never swung a bat or thew a pitch. Yet, Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals - perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX radio from 1954 to 2001. He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals' fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals' victory was "That's a winner," and those words are printed on Buck's retired number pennant.

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked along side another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cards' third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the privilege of calling games with his son Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck was inducted into the broadcaster's wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987. He was honored with a statue outside the Cardinals' executive offices at Busch Stadium in 1998.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals' baseball. He broadcast several World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland Athletics. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS-TV's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991, and he also worked for ABC and NBC.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS, and he was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1996, working with former NFL head coach Hank Stram. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extends well beyond his trademark gravely voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community.

When Buck passed away in June 2002, some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:
Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:
Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:
Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:
A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:
15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued to only legitimate news-gathering agencies and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made online at credentials.mlb.com. Requests should be made at least two working days prior to the game. Credentials are issued to working members of the press; no spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations could result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available four hours prior to the start of the game at the media window, 424 South 7th St., located at the southwest corner of the stadium, near Gate 2. Photo identification is required. The press entrance is to the right of the media window.

ADMISSION — All media should enter the stadium through the press entrance at the southwest corner of the stadium, Media / VIP Entrance. The stadium will be open to media four hours before game time. If an earlier entrance to the ballpark is necessary, please contact a member of the media relations staff.

PRESS BOX — The broadcast level of the pressbox is located on Level 3 (Loge Concourse) and the upper pressbox is located on Level 4 (Terrace Concourse) of the stadium. The media elevator is loacted in the lobby of the media entrance and is designated for employees and press only. Media should take the elevator to either the third level (broadcast) or fourth level (writers/radio) to reach the pressboxes. The press box is for working members of the media only and is a non-smoking area.

MEDIA DINING — The media dining facility is on the main service level of the stadium. It is open for meal service one-and one half hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately one hour after the game begins. The dining facility is located down the hallway off the media entrance lobby, on your left at the end of the hall.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals and visitors clubhouses are located on the lower level of the stadium. The Cardinals clubhouse is on the first-base side while the visitors area can be found on the third-base side of the stadium. All working media with clubhouse credentials have access to the clubhouses 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until the beginning of batting practice. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion.

FIELD — No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges. All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours prior to game time and on www.mlbpressbox.com. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

MLBPRESSBOX.COM — Gamenotes, team headshots, logos, press releases and MLB information can all be found at this site. Accredited media agencies can sign up for an account to have access at all times to regular season and postseason data.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

RADIO

KMOX Radio begins their third consecutive year, 55th overall, as the Voice of the Cardinals. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005 and returned as the team's flagship station in 2011. The club boasts a radio network of 118 stations covering nine states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2013 games and 18 of the team's spring training games. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 42nd season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcastor for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FSN Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the Cardinals regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Whitey Ford as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series. His home run off Boston's Gary Bell was the key blow in Game 3 of the 1967 Series and his solo shot in Game 7 of the 1968 Series was the Cardinals only run off Mickey Lolich as the Tigers clinched the Series.

Mike's career was cut short by nephritis, a kidney disease, in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

He has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, St. Louis Variety Club 1996 Champion for Kids and received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his on air career and as a player on the field, and in November 2009 was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires. In September 2010, Shannon was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year.

Mike, 73, resides in Illinois. He, and his late wife, Judy, have six children, 18 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his eighth year of broadcasting Cardinals games with partner Mike Shannon. Rooney, a Richmond, Mo. native, came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV and 17 seasons following in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privalege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 58, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds. John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. His major league baseball radio assignments have included the Division Series (1995-97, 2003-04), League Championship Series (1987-97), CBS and ESPN radio All-Star Games (1990-1997, 2003-present), CBS radio World Series (1986-97), the FOX Saturday afternoon "Game of the Week" (1996-98) and select Sunday Night Baseball for ESPN Radio (2004 to present). John also has broadcast several college football bowls as well as the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, including 10 NCAA National Championship Games on CBS Radio Network, NCAA National Semi-Finals for 19 years and the Final Four (1984-2002).

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Colleen and Rachel.

TELEVISION

Fox Sports Midwest, a regional cable network, is the television home for Cardinals broadcasts again in 2013. The network will carry all non-nationally broadcast games and an all-time high 10 St. Louis Cardinals spring training games in 2013. Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Al Hrabosky and Rick Horton.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be calling games on Cardinals telecasts for his 29th season. It marks his 17th straight-season in his role as color commentator on FSN Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985 and through the years has worked for Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 63, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including Little Patriots Embraced. He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin will be entering his 16th year as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on Fox Sports Midwest. A St. Louis native, McLaughlin called his first major league game at the age of 23 and his work last season earned him an Emmy Award for outstanding play-by-play. His baseball assignments have included the national telecasts of "FOX Saturday Baseball" and ESPN's post-season coverage of College Baseball. Dan has previously filled in on numerous Cardinals radio broadcasts working alongside Mike Shannon and Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, and he continues to produce daily radio and television features along the Cardinals Network and cardinals.com.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin has worked play by play of "FOX NFL Sunday" as well as calling college football for ESPN and FOX College Sports. For a decade Dan served as the television play-by-play voice for the University of Missouri men's basketball team, as well as ESPN's basketball coverage of the Big East, ACC, Big 12, and Missouri Valley Conference Game of the week. In addition to basketball, McLaughlin has done work as the studio host of St. Louis Blues hockey on both radio and television broadcasts.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood University, where he played baseball, Dan began his professional broadcasting career at KMOX Radio and in 2001, he won the A.I.R. Award as St. Louis' best sportscaster. McLaughlin, 38, was inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame in 2005. Away from the booth, he serves on the boards and is active in numerous local charities including "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament" which has raised nearly two million dollars for children with disabilities. He and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son Luke, daughter, Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

RICK HORTON

Rick Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for a 10th season. For a second straight season, he will provide play-by-play and color commentary on FSN Midwest, as well as continue to provide postgame analysis. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts during the 2007-2010 seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play & analyst and Cardinals Live post-game analyst for Fox Sports Midwest. He provided color commentary on KPLR telecasts from 2004-'06 and was co-anchor on the WB11 post-game show, Extra Innings, in 2003. Horton has filled in on the Cardinals Radio Network and Cardinals television broadcasts since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Rick spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings with 55 strikeouts. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and he has also worked with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies.

Horton, 53, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children; Jen and Drew.

Cardinals Care...Caring for Kids in the Community

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation dedicated to improving the lives of children. Since its inception in 1997, Cardinals Care has distributed more than $19 million to support St. Louis area organizations. They strive to reach under-served youth through ball field construction and maintenance, cash grant distribution, complimentary ticket programs, baseball and health clinics, school programs, charitable auctions and civic involvement. For more information or to make a donation, please go to www.cardinals.com/community or call 314-345-9418.

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies is the Cardinals Care youth development program that supports kids both on and off the baseball field. This special league provides all the uniforms, gloves, bats, balls and other equipment, as well as extensive off-field guidance in the areas of health, education, mentoring and cultural arts. Currently Redbird Rookies has 22 leagues, serving over 4,000 kids in the St. Louis area and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Rookies are invited to attend health fairs (above) where they learn to develop positive habits of eating right and staying active—and they get to hang out with Fredbird (left).

Each Rookie receives free vision, hearing and asthma screenings, and screenings and finger printing for Child ID kits.

Former Cardinals player Ken Reitz helps prep Redbird Rookie players at a skills clinic.

Cardinals third baseman David Freese hosts members of the Boys & Girls Club.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches spend quality time on the home field and out in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans in need.

Matt Holliday spends some time with a big fan (above, left), sharing an autographed baseball after batting practice.
Outfielder Jon Jay (above) shows some excelling Redbird Rookies how to hit, catch, throw and run like the pros.

Fundraising Events

The annual Winter Warm-Up and Jerseys Days are major fundraising initiatives for Cardinals Care which combine an opportunity for the fans to interact with players while donating to a great cause. The Cardinals Care 6K and One Mile Fun Run promotes health and fitness. Thanks to the generous assistance of our players, coaches, staff, volunteers, sponsors and especially our loyal fans, these events continue to be a tremendous success.

Third baseman David Freese gives an autographed jersey to a fan who purchased a winning raffle ticket during a Cardinals game.

Fans can meet past, present and future Cardinals favorites at the Winter Warm-Up held downtown every year during Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend.

The 2012 6K run honored Stan Musial and allowed fans to finish on the field at Busch Stadium, raising over $160,000 for kids.

Neighborhood Ball Fields

In an effort to assist in the revitalization of communities throughout our region, Cardinals Care works with local neighborhoods to identify and fulfill their needs. Building ball fields and establishing baseball leagues gives youth the opportunity to learn to play ball and instills the importance of giving back.

To date, Cardinals Care has built and revived 20 ball fields throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area. Thousands of children now have a safe place to practice and play. In August 2012, the new ballfield in Sesser, Ill., was dedicated as the Lance Berkman field (right).

Fredbird's "Doin' it Right" School Program

"Say NO to Drugs! Stay in School! Participate in Sports and Stay Fit!"

These are the key messages conveyed to more than a quarter of a million grade school students in the St. Louis area. Former players Joe Cunningham, Al Hrabosky and Andy Benes, along with current hitting coach John Mabry and Mike Claiborne from the Cardinals broadcasting team join Fredbird to host this traveling, no-cost program that entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals.

Cardinals alumni Joe Cunningham educates kids during a local school program (above).

Complimentary Tickets

The Cardinals donate over 45,000 tickets each year to numerous organizations including senior-citizen and community service groups, as well as local schools through their Staight-A, library and safety programs. Hundreds of area kids who participate in the Knothole, Special and Player Ticket Programs get the chance to experience a Cardinals game.

Cardinals Kids Club

This special fan club just for kids 15 and under includes game tickets, unique promotional items, an end-of-season members-only party at Busch Stadium and much more! Sign-up your favorite fan online at cardinals.com/kids or at any home game.

Kids Crew members get exclusive access to meet players and even had the opportunity to ask Cardinals Manager Mike Matheny the tough questions — like his favorite ice cream flavor!
