BACK IN THE POSTSEASON: After a 10-year drought, the Tigers advanced to the postseason for the 17th time in franchise history and the first time since 2014. The Tigers secured a Wild Card spot for the second time, joining the 2006 team. The Tigers swept the Astros in the Wild Card series, before falling to the Guardians in five games in the AL Division Series. Detroit, which was eight games under .500 after the game on August 10 at San Francisco, became the second MLB team ever to make the playoffs in a non-shortened season after being eight-or-more games under .500 in August or later, joining the 1973 New York Mets.

ABOUT THE POSTSEASON ROSTER: The Tigers featured a young roster throughout the postseason. During the Wild Card round, the average age of Detroit's 26-man roster was 26.47, which was the youngest playoff roster since Cleveland in 2022 (26.33). Prior to this year's postseason, only Matt Vierling had previous playoff experience. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Tigers were the first team to have 0 or 1 players with previous postseason experience since the 2002 Los Angeles Angels.

SECOND-HALF SURGE: The Tigers posted a Major League best 31-13 record from August 11 until the end of the season. It was the team's best record over the final 44 games of a season since 2011, when Detroit went 32-12. The Tigers led the Majors with a 2.72 ERA (401.0IP/121ER) from August 11 until the end of the season, while also ranking first with a +62 run differential.

TRIPLE CROWN TARIK: Tarik Skubal won the American League Pitching Triple Crown, finishing first in wins (18), ERA (2.39) and strikeouts (228). He became the third pitcher in franchise history to win the Triple Crown, joining Justin Verlander (2011) and Hal Newhouser (1945). Detroit is the second organization to have three different pitchers win the Triple Crown since 1913, joining the Los Angeles Dodgers (Clayton Kershaw (2011), Sandy Koufax (three times) and Dazzy Vance (1924)).

SKUBAL SNACKS: In addition to leading the American League in the Triple Crown categories, Tarik Skubal also ranked highly in several other areas. He led the AL in FIP (2.51), fWAR (5.9), bWAR (6.3), opponent slugging percentage (.311) and opponent OPS (.558), while ranking second in WHIP (0.92), opponent on-base percentage (.247), strikeouts per 9.0 innings (10.69) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (6.51) and fourth in opponent batting average (.201), walks per 9.0 innings (1.64) and home runs per 9.0 innings (0.70).

KEEP CALM AND KERRY ON: Kerry Carpenter continued to be one of the most impactful hitters in the Tigers lineup in 2024. Despite only playing in 87 games due to injury, Carpenter led the team with 16 multi-RBI performances, while ranking second with 18 home runs and tied for third with 57 RBI. Among American League hitters with at least 250 plate appearances during the season, Carpenter ranked second in ISO (.303), third in slugging percentage (.587), sixth in home run rate (6.1%) and seventh in OPS (.932).

HOLTON DOWN THE OPPOSITION: Tyler Holton put together an impressive 2024 season, pitching in nearly every role for the Tigers bullpen. From June 29-September 18, Holton had a 4-0 record with six saves, a 0.38 ERA (47.1IP/2ER) and 37 strikeouts. Dating back to 1913, his 0.38 ERA was the lowest in any 33-game span by a Tigers pitcher (min. 40.0 innings), while it was the lowest for any MLB pitcher since Cla Meredith from July 23-September 26, 2006. For the season, Holton led all Major League pitchers (min. 90.0 innings) with a 0.78 WHIP, a .173 opponent batting average, a .222 opponent on-base percentage and a .500 opponent OPS, while ranking second with a .279 opponent slugging percentage and third with a 2.19 ERA (94.1IP/23ER).

OUT OF THE PARKER: Parker Meadows returned from the injured list on August 3 and was a key contributor over the final two months of the season. Over 47 games from August 3 until the end of the season, Meadows slashed

.296/.340/.500 with 10 doubles, five triples, six home runs and 23 RBI. Meadows had a 2.0 fWAR in that span, which ranked tied for fifth in the American League. On September 5 at San Diego with the Tigers trailing 3-0, Meadows hit a go-ahead grand slam with two outs and two strikes in the top of the ninth. Prior to his blast, the last Tigers go-ahead grand slam when trailing with two strikes and two outs in the ninth came on June 21, 1988 vs. New York (AL) when Alan Trammell hit a grand slam off Cecilio Guante. According to Stats Perform, it was just the second grand slam by a team on the road, down by three and an out away from being shut out, joining Ted Williams, who did so on August 27, 1955 vs. Detroit.

CHIEF KEITH: Colt Keith finished the season with a team-leading 35 multi-hit games, which was tied for the best among American League rookies and tied for fourth among all rookies. Keith became Detroit's second rookie since 1988 to log 130-or-more hits, 30-or-more extra-base hits and 60-or-more RBI in a season, joining Nick Castellanos in 2014. From May 8 until the end of the season, Keith ranked fourth among MLB rookies (min. 200 plate appearances) in batting average (.284), hits (118) and total bases (178) and fifth in RBI (53).

ON THE MOUND: The Tigers pitching staff ranked among the best in the Majors throughout the season. Detroit finished the season with a 3.61 team ERA (1447.0IP/581ER), which ranked third in the American League and fourth in the Majors. It marked Detroit's lowest season ERA since also having a 3.61 ERA in 2013. The Tigers finished second in the big leagues with a 1.16 WHIP, 3.72 FIP, .292 opponent on-base percentage, .372 opponent slugging percentage, .664 opponent OPS and 2.59 walks per 9.0 innings and fourth with a 3.25 strikeout-to-walk ratio and 0.99 home runs per 9.0 innings.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Riley Greene and Tarik Skubal were selected to the American League All-Star Team for the first time in their career. Both players were voted in through the player ballot. It was the first time the Tigers have had multiple All-Stars (not counting 2022 when Miguel Cabrera was a Commissioner's selection) since 2017. Greene was the Tigers youngest All-Star outfielder since Willie Horton in 1965, while Skubal was the first homegrown Detroit starting pitcher to be selected to the All-Star Game since Justin Verlander in 2013.

ONE-RUN GAMES: The Tigers finished the season with a 31-24 record in one-run games. Detroit won 13 of its last 15 games decided by one run. The Tigers 55 one-run games was tied with Seattle for the most in the Majors and were the most in a season for Detroit since also playing 55 in 1976.

LEADING OFF WITH A BANG: The Tigers recorded nine leadoff homers during the 2024 season with Matt Vierling hitting three, Riley Greene and Parker Meadows two each and Andy Ibanez and Wenceel Pérez one apiece. The nine leadoff round-trippers were the most in a season for Detroit in franchise history, besting the previous mark of eight, which happened in 2016, 2009 and 2007.

ALL GAS, NO BRAKES: One of the major keys to the Tigers success in the second half of the season was their athleticism and aggressiveness on the basepaths. From August 1 until the end of the season, Detroit led the Majors by going first to third 41 times. During that stretch, the Tigers were thrown out just once, posting a 97.6% success rate.

DOWN ON THE FARM: In addition to the success of the Major League club, the Tigers had strong performances throughout the organization in 2024. Four of Detroit's affiliates advanced to the postseason this season, led by Double A Erie, which won the Eastern League championship for the second straight year, and the FCL Tigers, which won the Complex League. Single A Lakeland advanced to the Florida State League championship series and the DSL Tigers 2 advanced to the Dominican Summer League playoffs.

2024 DETROIT TIGERS PLAYERS
