A TOUGH YEAR: For the fifth straight season, the San Francisco Giants posted a non-winning season as they finished 2026 at 65-97, the second-worst record in the National League ahead of Colorado (58-104) and the fourth-worst record in the Majors ahead of the A's (64-98), Angels (62-100) and Rockies.

- It's the first time in franchise history the Giants have gone five consecutive seasons without posting a winning record.
- Overall, the 65-97 (.401) winning percentage was the Giants' worst season since 2017, when they finished the year 34 games under .500 at 64-98 (.395)…the club's .401 winning percentage was the third-worst winning percentage in the SF-era behind only 2017 (.395) and 1985 (62-100, .383).
- This season marked the ninth time in the last 10 years (since 2017) in which the Giants have missed the Postseason with the 107-win 2021 season being the outlier.

DUG A HOLE AND NEVER CLIMBED OUT: A sweep at the hands of the New York Yankees at home to open the season dug the Giants a hole they'd never climb out of with the club never reaching the .500 mark this year.

- The closest SF came to .500 was one under and that came after winning two straight in San Diego to improve to 2-3 and again on April 2 after taking a series opener from the Mets to get to 3-4…never again would SF get within a game of .500.
- This year's club never sustained a four-game winning streak, something no Giants team in team history had ever done over the course of a full season.

THE INJURY ~~BUG~~ EPIDEMIC: SF was beset by injuries from the midway point of the season on and ended up with the most player games missed due to injured list placements of any team in the Majors in 2026 (2,081 games)…they ended the regular season with 24 players on the IL…of those 24 players, 17 were on the 60-day Injured List and will need to be added back to the 40-man roster at the conclusion of the postseason.

- According to Stats LLC, the 33 different players that spent time on SF's injured list this season were second-most of any Giants club since at least 1987…only the 2021 team (37) had more.
- However, the 2,081 player games that were missed due to IL stints were the most by any Giants team since at least 1987…the previous high since at least 1987 was 1,490 by the 2021 club.
- The 33 different players on the IL were most in the Majors overall this year.
- SF's 24 players on the IL at season's end was most in the Majors by a wide margin… the next closest team was Toronto (14).

KIDS: With all the injuries, the Giants ended up using a franchise-record 71 players in 2026, surpassing the previous mark of 66 used in 2022….the 71 players used were most in the Majors this year and tied for the most by any team in Major League history with last year's Atlanta Braves.

- This year's club featured 17 different players making their Major League debut, a new modern-era franchise-record (previous high was 16 in 2008)…the 17 debuts were most in the Majors this season.
- With all of the youth infused to SF's roster by season's end, the Giants were one of the youngest teams in the Majors…on the last day of the season, SF's average age was 27 years, 90 days the fourth-youngest team in MLB.
- Overall, the Giants used a total of 28 players this year with rookie status, by far the most in MLB ahead of the Nationals (21)…it was the most in a season for the Giants all-time and tied for second-most by any team in NL history behind the 1890 Pittsburgh Alleghenys (34).

HELP IS ON THE WAY?: While it was a tough year at the Major League level, the Giants boasted the best farm system in terms of winning percentage and run differential of any organization in the Majors…furthermore, they were voted MLB Pipeline's Farm System of the Year following the season.

- Giants affiliates went a combined 413-303 (.577 win %) this year with two full-season affiliates (Single-A San Jose and High-A Eugene) finishing with winning percentages north of .600 during the regular season…the next best organization was the Dodgers with a .552 winning percentage (394-340).
- SF's +540 run differential amongst all its affiliates was head and shoulders above anyone else with the Yankees org. checking in second with a +435 run diff.
- The Giants system shot up prospect rankings leaderboards with Baseball America's midseason ranking placing them the fourth-best system in baseball (SF started the year #14)…MLB Pipeline has the Giants fifth after being ranked 19th in the preseason…ESPN had SF seventh in their late-August re-rank, up from 19th.
- At season's end, SF had five players listed in MLB's Top-100 list (IF Josuar González at #7, IF Luis Hernández at #25, RHP Jackson Flora at #28, IF Jhonny Level at #43 and RHP Ramon Marquez at #94)….they also had five in Baseball America's last re-rank in August (González at #18, Hernández at #35, Level at #49, Flora at #50 and OF Bo Davidson at #83).
- For more on the Giants' farm system this year, see page five

2026 IN REVIEW

BY THE BAY: SF went 37-44 (.457) at Oracle Park, tied for the club's fourth-lowest home winning percentage in the SF-era (since 1958) with the 1974, 2005 and 2008 clubs...only the 1984 Giants (.432), 2019 Giants (.432) and 1972 Giants (.442) had lower home winning percentages in the SF-era.

- Since moving into Oracle Park in 2000, the .457 winning percentage at home is tied for the second-lowest behind that 2019 team (.432).
- SF's .457 home winning percentage this year was fifth-lowest in the Majors and third-lowest in the National League ahead of only the Mets (36-45, .444) and Rockies (32-49, .395).

OUT OF THE SUITCASE: The Giants were 28-53 (.346) on the road, tied for the second-lowest road winning percentage in the Majors with the Angels and Royals...only the Rockies had a worse road record in 2026 (26-55, .321).

- The club's .346 road winning percentage was third-lowest in the SF-era (since 1958) ahead of only the 1985 Giants (24-57, .296) and 2017 Giants (26-55, .321).

WELL, WE KNOW HOW THE REST WENT...: MGR Tony Vitello completed his first season as a Major League manager with the Giants going 65-97 (.401)...that is the lowest winning percentage by a Giants manager in the SF-era in his first full season at the helm.

- The previous holder of that mark was four-time World Series-winning MGR Bruce Bochy (three with SF, one with Texas)...Bochy went 71-91 (.438) in his first season leading the Giants in 2007.
- Vitello was ejected seven times, most in the Majors just ahead of Pittsburgh's Don Kelly with six...the seven ejections are the most by a Giants manager in the SF-era surpassing a mark also held by Bochy in 2007 (six).

LET'S GO TO THE TAPE: The Giants won only 14 of their 45 (31%) non-ABS (replay review) challenges, the lowest overturned rate in the Majors.

- The next closest teams to the Giants in replay reviews were the Rangers (36.6% overturned) and Pirates (38.6% overturned)...the league average for overturned calls was 52.9%.
- 20 of SF's 45 replay review challenges (44.4%) came back "stands", the highest percentage in the Majors while the 20 returned "stands" were tied for most in MLB with the Angels.
- In terms of ABS challenges (in its first year in 2026), the Giants had an overall success rate of 51.3% between batting, pitching and catching ABS challenges...league average was 53.9%
- Breaking it down by group, SF's batters had a 46.6% success rate on ABS challenges, 20th of 30 teams, the pitchers were successful on one of half of their six challenges while SF's catchers had a 55.2% success rate, 22nd of 30 clubs.

ALL-STARS: The Giants sent two members of the club to the 2026 All-Star Game in Philadelphia in RHP Logan Webb and IF Luis Arraez.

- For Webb it was his third straight All-Star selection (2024-present) while it was the fourth career award for Arraez and his first since going three straight years from 2022-2024.

TEAM BATTING NOTES

THE OFFENSE: The Giants had a .706 OPS that ranked 23rd of 30 MLB clubs and 12th of 15 teams in the National League.

- SF averaged 4.13 runs per game, 26th in the Majors and second-worst in the NL ahead of only the Reds (4.11).
- Through April, the Giants averaged 3.35 runs/game (30th in MLB) and had a team OPS of .657 (29th)...from May 1-end of the season, the Giants .718 OPS was 19th of 30 clubs while their 4.31 runs/game were tied for 22nd of 30 teams.
- When scoring four or more runs this year, the Giants were 50-25 and 47-14 when scoring five or more...when they scored fewer than three runs, SF was 15-72.
- The Giants were an MLB-worst 16-29 in one-run games in 2026 and 25-43 in one or two-run games (28th of 30 teams).

OPS BY POSITION, A BREAKDOWN: Below is a chart of the Giants OPS by position and in parentheses is where that OPS ranked in the Majors.

Giants OPS Broken Down by Position with MLB Rankings – 2026

Pos	OPS	MLB Rank	Pos	OPS	MLB Rank	Pos	OPS	MLB Rank
C	.608	26th	3B	.632	25th	LF	.621	30th
1B	.797	12th	SS	.690	16th	CF	.662	23rd
2B	.726	9th	DH	.859	3rd	RF	.763	12th

- The Giants saw the biggest positional OPS upgrades at first base (a .622 OPS that was 30th in MLB a season ago), second-base (a .616 OPS that was 27th last year) and the DH spot (.760 OPS that was 14th in MLB last year).
- Conversely, they saw their biggest drop offs at third base (.813 OPS that was 2nd in MLB last year) and left field (.736 OPS that was 15th in MLB last season).

STRETCHING OUR LEGS: After combining to steal the fewest bases in the Majors in the last two seasons (136), the Giants stole 88 bases this year (22nd of 30 clubs), the most by a Giants club since stealing 93 bases 11 years ago in 2015.

- Much of this was fueled by a different group of players once much of the Opening Day lineup went down...the Giants stole 53 bases after the break, tied for eighth-most in the Majors with Cleveland.

ON THE BASEPATHS...: The Giants made 47 outs on the bases (does not include pickoffs, force plays or caught stealings), 15th of 30 MLB teams and slightly below league average (45).

- In terms of taking the extra base, the Giants were successful 41% of the time, right about league average (42%).

TEAM PITCHING NOTES

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT: The Giants pitching staff finished the season with a 4.33 ERA, 23rd of 30 MLB clubs and fourth-highest in the National League ahead of only the Nationals (4.67), Reds (4.83) and Rockies (5.59)...SF's 1.36 team WHIP was 24th of 30 MLB clubs.

- Giants pitchers walked 596 batters, most by a Giants team in nearly 20 years when the 2008 club walked 652...the 596 this year were sixth-most in MLB and third-highest in the NL.
- Furthermore, SF pitching faced 1,383 batters with a three-ball count this season, third-most in the Majors behind only the Reds (1,428) and A's (1,386).
- Lastly, the Giants lost 45 games in 2026 where they led at some point in the game, tied for second-most in MLB with the Angels...only the Nationals had more (48)...the club's .591 winning % when holding a lead at any point was third-lowest in MLB ahead of only the Angels (.579) and Rockies (.569).

- In innings 5-8, the Giants bullpen had a 3.81 ERA, seventh-best in the Majors and third-best in the National League.
- From the 9th inning on, however, SF's 5.51 team ERA was third-highest in the Majors and second-highest in the NL behind only Washington (6.00).
- SF lost nine game this year when leading after eight innings, most in the NL and second-most in the Majors behind the Angels (11).

2026 IN REVIEW

TEAM DEFENSE NOTES

BY TRADITIONAL METRICS: The Giants made a Major League-high 108 errors and also had the lowest fielding percentage (.982) of any team in the Majors.

- It's the second time in the last four seasons SF has led the league in errors (also 2023 with 117)...the Giants 408 errors since 2023 are most in the NL and second-highest in the Majors behind Boston (415).
- Conversely, SF's 145 double plays converted in 2026 were second-most in the Majors behind St. Louis (153).

BY OUTS ABOVE AVERAGE: SF was a -17 OAA in 2026, 22nd of 30 clubs.

- SF infielders combined for a -5 OAA, 17th of 30 teams, while their outfielders were at -12 OAA (tied for 25th of 30 teams).

BY DEFENSIVE RUNS SAVED: According to Fangraphs, SF finished the year +26 defensive runs saved, tied for 13th of 30 teams with the Yankees.

- The Giants outfield group, which was a -21 DRS last season, finished the year at +1 (12th-best of 30 teams).
- Most of SF's DRS in '26 came from third base where they were +19, best in the NL and second-best in MLB behind KC (20).

BEHIND THE DISH: The Giants allowed 134 stolen bases, fifth-most in the Majors while catching 37 (tied for eighth-most).

INDIVIDUAL PLAYER NOTES

HE'S STILL A DUDE: IF/DH Rafael Devers logged one of the best offensive seasons in a Giants uniform in the last 20+ years even after a tough first month of the season.

- Devers finished the season with 37 homers and 98 RBI, one of five players in the Majors to accumulate those totals (also BAL's Pete Alonso, HOU's Yordan Alvarez, CHC's Pete Crow-Armstrong and TB's Junior Caminero.
- The last Giants player to put up a season with at least 36 doubles, 37 homers and 98 RBI was Hall of Famer Jeff Kent in 2002 (37 homers, 108 RBI and 42 doubles).
- From May 1 until the time he went on the injured list for the remainder of the season, Devers ranked among the Majors' best hitters (see chart below).

Devers Among MLB Leaders — May 1 - September 12 (Last Game before IL stint)

Category	Devers	MLB Rank	Category	Devers	MLB Rank
Slugging %	.590	3rd	HR	35	2nd
OPS	.953	3rd	RBI	87	1st
ISO	.318	2nd	XBH	68	2nd

- Devers led the Giants in nearly every offensive category (doubles, home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, SLG and OPS) in his first full season in San Francisco...his 136 wRC+ was seventh-best in the National League at season's end.
- The 29-year-old was on a heater when he was shut down with his core muscle injury (something he battled through all season)...in his last 27 games before going on the IL he was slashing .317/.418/.779 (1.197 OPS) with nine doubles, 13 homers, 34 RBI and 26 runs scored.

LIVING UP TO THE HYPE: IF Bryce Eldridge enjoyed a standout rookie season that lived up to the expectations that he'd been carrying with him since being taken in the first round of the 2023 draft out of high school.

- The 21-year-old slashed .269/.364/.461 (.825 OPS) with 23 doubles, 17 homers, 57 RBI and 59 walks in 107 games after being called up for good in early May.
- Among qualified rookies, Eldridge ranked tied for third in OPS, fifth in OBP, sixth in slugging %, tied for eighth in homers, tied for eighth in walks, and ninth in doubles.
- His 131 wRC+ led qualified NL rookies according to Fangraphs.
- He became one of three rookies in Giants history to homer at least 17 times in a season as 21-years-old or younger...the other two were Orlando Cepeda (25 in 1958) and Willie Mays (20 homers in 1951).
- He rattled off two separate on-base streaks of at least 19-games (a 19-gamer and a 22-gamer)...with his 22-game streak he became the second batter in the SF-era to reach base safely in at least 22 games at 21-years-old or younger...the other was Willie McCovey in 25 straight games in 1959.

MAKING A CASE: IF/OF Casey Schmitt was in the midst of a breakout season when he was lost for the season to a meniscus tear in his left knee in late July.

- The 27-year-old set single-season career-bests in most offensive categories before going down with injury...his 98 games, 47 runs scored, 105 hits, 17 doubles, 21 homers, 55 RBI, .483 SLG and .784 OPS were all career-highs.
- When he went down, Schmitt's 21 homers and 55 RBI were both second-most on the team behind Devers.
- Schmitt homered while playing five different positions this year (DH, 1B, LF, 3B and 2B)...he is the second player in Giants history to homer at five different positions (not counting pinch hitter), joining Alvin Dark, who did so in 1953 (2B, 3B, SS, LF and RF) per Stats, LLC.

ON THE WEBB: RHP Logan Webb was named an All-Star for a third consecutive season and also was named this year's Willie Mac Award winner for the first time in his career as voted on by his teammates, coaches and staff.

- Despite the accolades, it was a tough year for Webb overall as he finished shy of the 200-inning threshold for the first time since 2022 and made only 27 starts (his fewest since 2021's 26) due to a pair of trips to the IL...his 4.31 ERA was also his highest over a full season in his career.
- Still, Webb had a June to remember by going 3-1 with a 0.71 ERA (3er, 38.0ip), 29 strikeouts, just four walks permitted and a 0.61 WHIP...his 0.71 ERA and .370 opponent's OPS in June led the Majors while his 0.61 WHIP was tied for the MLB lead.
- Webb's 0.71 ERA was the lowest in a calendar month (min. five games started and 35.0 innings pitched) by an SF starter since Noah Lowry logged a 0.69 ERA in August of 2005...Webb's 0.71 ERA in June was the sixth-lowest ERA in a single month by a Giants starter since 1912 (min. 5 starts) courtesy of Sarah Langs via Elias.

ADRIAN HOUSER RHP #12

2026 RECORD: 4-7, 4.02 ERA

Height/Weight: 6-4/227 Bats/Throws: R/R
Hometown: Locust Grove, OK
Age: 33 (February 2, 1993) Signed Through: 2027

YO, ADRIAN: Houser, who signed a two-year contract (with a club option for 2028) with the Giants this past offseason, saw his first season with San Francisco cut short after suffering a right forearm strain in his start versus Cincinnati on August 25.

TOUGH START: Houser began the season as a starter, but after going 2-6 with a 5.73 ERA (42er, 66.0ip) over his first 14 starts, he was moved to the bullpen in a bulk-innings role in mid-June...allowed eight earned runs on April 24 vs. Miami, which marked the second time in his career he allowed eight earned runs in a game (also: April 21, 2024 at LAD)...his 11 hits allowed also tied a career-high (last: August 4, 2025 at LAA).

PEN PAL: The transition to the 'pen proved to be successful...he went 2-1 with a 1.75 ERA (7er, 36.0ip), 20 strikeouts, a 0.97 WHIP and a .205 opposing batting average (27x132) in 10 relief outings.

SOLID DAY AT THE YARD: On July 7 vs. TOR, he became the first Giants pitcher to record 5.2-or-more no-hit innings in relief since Jim Barr had 5.2 hitless innings out of the bullpen on September 11, 1971 at Atlanta...he is the fourth Giants pitcher to throw 5.0+ no-hit innings of relief in the SF era (since 1958), joining Barr, Don McMahon (5.0ip, 1969) and Ron Herbel (5.0ip, 1965).

PLAYING HARD BALL: Houser's rebound centered around his four-seam fastball, which he threw 32.0% of the time from June 26-August 25, nearly doubling up the four seamer's 15.9% usage rate over his first 14 starts...in this span, opponents went just 6x43 (.140) off of Houser's four-seamer, increasing its run value to +4 on the season, which was the best amongst Houser's arsenal...he used his fastballs a combined 79.6% of the time over that stretch (47.6% for the sinker, 32.0% for the four-seamer), which was the highest combined fastball/sinker usage rate of any pitcher in the Majors with at least 40.0 IP from June 26-August 25 (Cleveland's Parker Messick was next-closest at 66.5%).

OFF-PUTTING: The high usage rate of his fastballs kept opponents' timing off against his offspeed and breaking pitches in that span, as hitters were just 2x24 (.083) off his changeup and 0x9 off his slider.

HOUSER'S HOUSE: Was much stronger at Oracle Park than on the road...he posted a 3.62 ERA (20er, 49.2ip) at home compared to a 4.35 ERA (29er, 60.0ip) on the road...out of the bullpen at home, he had a 0.53 ERA (1er, 17.0ip) in four games.

LIMITING LEFTIES: Another key to Houser's success over this span was his ability to get lefties out, as they slashed .163/.247/.300 (.547 OPS) against him from June 26 through the end of the season...his .163 opponents' batting average against lefties since June 26 ranked ninth-best amongst right-handed pitchers (min. 40.0ip)...from Opening Day-June 25, lefties slashed .339/.423/.629 (1.042 OPS) against him.

RIGHTEOUS: Was tough on righties all season, as they slashed .222/.234/.318 (.552 OPS) against him...his .552 opponent's OPS against righties led all Giants pitchers this season with 60.0+ innings pitched.

STRONG STRETCH: From June 26 - August 12, he posted a 0.39 ERA (1er, 23.0ip), becoming the third SF pitcher since 2000 to have an 0.40-ERA-or-lower in a five-game span at home (min. 20.0 IP), joining Blake Snell (0.29 ERA from July 9 - August 30, 2024) and Jim Brower (0.39 ERA from June 8 - July 23, 2003)...from July 26 - August 19, he went 2-0 with a 0.72 ERA (2er, 25.0ip), 17 strikeouts and a 1.00 WHIP in six games (one start)...the 0.72 ERA was the best by an SF pitcher over a six-game span (min. 25.0ip), since Kevin Gausman had a 0.47 ERA (2er, 38.0ip) May 8 - June 5, 2021.

CUT SHORT: Houser was diagnosed with a right forearm strain via an MRI following his start against the Reds on August 25...he was subsequently placed on the 15-day Injured List the next day before being transferred to the 60-day IL on September 1.

YUNIOR MARTE RHP #87

2026 RECORD: 0-2, 4.44 ERA (MLB)

Height/Weight: 6-6/236 Bats/Throws: R/R
Born: Azua, DR
Age: 23 (August 9, 2003) Signed Through: 2026

YUNIOR: The 23-year-old from Azua, DR made his MLB debut on August 29 in Game 2 of a doubleheader versus Arizona, and appeared in five games (three starts) with the Giants overall in 2026.

RANKING THE ROOK: Finished the season ranked as SF's #24 prospect per MLB.com and the No. 27 prospect per Baseball America...he was one of two Giants players this season to be called up straight from Double-A and for an MLB debut (also OF Jonah Cox).

TOUGH FINISH: Finished the season with back-to-back losses against the Dodgers...touched up at Chávez Ravine for six runs on eight hits, three walks, and two strikeouts over 4.2 innings pitched in his penultimate start of the season...took a tough-luck loss in his final start, allowing two earned runs (both on solo homers) on six hits, a walk, and four strikeouts over 5.0 innings to finish his rookie season at home against Los Angeles on September 25 .

JUST A BLIP?: In this three MLB outings not against the Dodgers, he logged a 2.45 ERA (4er, 14.2ip), walked six, struck out nine and limited opposing hitters to a .189 average with a .649 OPS and a 1.091 WIHP...one of those three non-Dodgers outings featured 5.0 shutout innings of relief against the Padres on September 11.

EXTENDO: The 6'6" righty got elite extension to the plate when he delivered a pitch, as at 6.9 feet he ranked in the top 11% in MLB... while his fastball carries an average velocity of 93.0 mph, which was below the league average of 94.7 mph, his top tier extension makes his four-seamer appear to move faster than it does in reality.

PUT IT IN REVERSE: Had reverse splits to begin his MLB career, as lefties slashed .143/.280/.262 (.542 OPS) with two doubles and a homer while righties carried a slashline of .353/.377/.686 (1.064 OPS) with three doubles, a triple,and four homers.

TREVOR McDONALD RHP #72

2026 RECORD: 3-7, 5.12 ERA

Hometown: Lucedale, MS
Age: 25 (February 26, 2001) Signed Through: 2026

T-MAC: Had his first nearly full season in the Majors cut short in mid-July after leaving his start on July 20 at Kansas City with a right elbow strain...the 25-year-old made a career-high 14 starts at the MLB level and went 3-7 with a 5.12 ERA (40er, 70.1ip).

TOMMY JOHN SURGERY: Underwent an MRI following his July 20 start vs. KC that confirmed a moderate UCL sprain...had UCL reconstruction surgery with Dr. Keith Meister in Dallas on August 5.

THE PEAK: Flourished in his spot-start call-up from Triple-A on May 4 when he limited the Padres to a run on two hits over 7.0 innings with eight strikeouts and no walks...eventually jumped into the rotation when RHP Logan Webb went on the IL from May 9-29... McDonald went 2-0 over his first two turns in Webb's spot with a 2.37 ERA and 17 strikeouts in 19.0 innings.

THE VALLEY: Went 1-7 with a 6.14 ERA (35er, 51.1ip), 40 strikeouts and a 1.42 WHIP over his final 11 starts with SF from May 22 through his outing on June 20 at KC...he did turn in three quality starts in that time, but struggled with command, as he walked 20 batters and hit 10 more in that span...SF as a team went 3-8 over his final 11 starts.

EXTREME SPLITS: In his 14 starts with SF, McDonald limited right-handed hitters to a .212 average with a .558 OPS and just four extra-base hits allowed...lefties, however, had a .288 average with an .846 OPS off McDonald...lefties tallied nine doubles, a triple and six homers against him.

ANTHONY MOLINA RHP #45

2026 RECORD: 3-2, 3.97 ERA

Height/Weight: 6-1/170 Bats/Throws: R/R
Born: San Joaquin, VZ
Age: 24 (January 12, 2002) Signed Through: 2026

MO MONEY: The 24-year-old from San Joaquin, VZ, was acquired the night before the trade deadline from the Atlanta Braves in exchange for RHP Tyler Mahle...first reported to Triple-A Sacramento before being recalled on August 24...spent the remainder of the season on SF's active roster.

A STRONG DEBUT: Made his Giants debut on August 25 vs. Cincinnati...recorded the longest relief outing of his MLB career...joined RHP Adrian Houser (5.2 innings in relief with no hits or runs on July 7 vs. TOR) as the two SF pitchers to have relief outings of 4.0+ scoreless innings with one-or-fewer hits allowed this season...The last time SF had two pitchers record such an outing in the same season was 1987, when Jeff Robinson (2x), Keith Comstock, and Joe Price each achieved the feat.

WITH THE GIANTS: Went 3-2 in six games (five starts) with SF, with the first three producing winning decisions...he was the first Giants pitcher to earn the win in each of his first three appearances with the team since Alex Wood in 2021...overall, he pitched at least 5.0 innings in four of the six outings with SF, and 4.0 in five of the six.

WITH THE BRAVES: Began the season with the Braves...pitched in three MLB games for Atlanta prior to being traded (May 1, June 14 and June 16), posting a 5.40 ERA (3er, 5.0ip) and a 1.40 WHIP...he was originally claimed off waivers by Atlanta from Colorado on December 5, 2025 and was outrighted on December 19...was optioned between Atlanta and Triple-A Gwinnett four times prior to his trade.

THIS SEASON IN TRIPLE-A: Spent the majority of this season in Triple-A for Gwinnett (ATL) and Sacramento (SF)...in total, he was 3-2 with a 3.55 ERA (25er, 63.1ip), 65 strikeouts and a 1.22 WHIP in 21 games (12 starts) at the Triple-A level.

4S UP: One start spoiled an otherwise strong season for his four-seamer (the Padres went 5-for-9 with four extra base hits vs. Molina's four-seamer on September 11)...in his other five games for the Giants, opponents hit .156 (7x45) with just one extra-base hit compared to 16 strikeouts in at-bats ending in his four-seamer.

BREAK IT DOWN: Over his last four outings, opponents were a combined 2-for-20 (.100) with a double and six strikeouts vs. his three breaking pitches.

Giants LHPs to throw at least 4.0 innings of relief in MLB debut, since 1899

WITH THE RIVER CATS: Was 7-2 with a 5.10 ERA (27er, 47.2ip) in nine games for Triple-A Sacramento...after starting 1-2 in his first three Triple-A starts, Perdomo was 6-0 with a 3.89 ERA (16er, 37.0ip), 24 strikeouts and a 1.38 WHIP over his final six AAA starts.

2026 RECORD: 9-14, 4.01 ERA

Height/Weight: 6-2/205 Bats/Throws: R/R
Born: Rocky Mount, NC
Age: 28 (September 10, 1998) Signed Through: 2026

ROUPPER: Roupp finished his third season with the Giants...the 28-year-old set career-bests in innings pitched (155.0), strikeouts (143), games/starts (29), wins (nine) and WHIP (1.30).

HIT-OR-MISS: The Giants went 10-19 in games started by Roupp, with the righty taking a decision in 23 of his 29 starts (9-14)...when looking at team results, Roupp had a 5.88 ERA (61er, 93.1ip) in his 19 starts when the Giants lost compared to a 1.17 ERA (8er, 61.2ip) in all 10 Giants wins.

TOUGH LUCK: Roupp's 14 losses were the most by a Giants pitcher since both Matt Moore and Jeff Samardzija had 15 losses in 2017... his 20 starts in which his team totaled three or fewer runs scored were tied for sixth-most by a Giants pitcher since 2000.

CALLING CARD: Since entering the Majors in 2024, Roupp's go-to out pitch has been his curveball...in 2026, his curve has a whiff rate of 33.9%, a putaway rate of 23.6% and a run value of +6...his 57 strikeouts with a curveball in 2026 were 11th most in MLB.

CHANGE IT UP: His changeup (+6 run value) was up there with his curveball for his best pitch this season...opponents hit .141 (9x64) with 12 strikeouts and two XBH off his changeup since July 6.

SUNK COST: His sinker did not generate much swing and miss...it had a whiff rate of 7.8%, which was the second-lowest in MLB (min. 300 total swings)...he had just three strikeouts with his sinker over his last 13 games (two in his last start), and 23 total on the season...with his sinker troubles, Roupp's cutter gained importance... since July 22, opponents hit .056 (1-for-18) vs. his cutter with four strikeouts and zero extra-base hits.

WHAT'S THE COUNT?: His 180 three-ball plate appearances were third-most in MLB behind Robbie Ray (188) and Dylan Cease (186)...Roupp's 4.13 pitches per batter faced was the second-highest in MLB (min. 150.0ip) behind only Cease (4.23) while his 17.5 pitches per inning pitched were tied for third-most in MLB behind CIN's Brady Singer (17.8) and CWS' Anthony Kay (17.6).

NO EAR PLUGS NEEDED: The righty's 30.0% hard hit rate was the lowest in MLB by (min. 350 batted ball events), while his 3.3% barrels per plate appearance was third-lowest...his 50.7% ground ball rate was sixth-highest in MLB (min. 150.0ip).

AFRAID OF THE DARK: The majority of Roupp's struggles came in night games...he was 7-10 with a 4.35 ERA (50er, 103.1ip) in 20 night games...comparatively, he was 2-4 with a 3.31 ERA (19er, 51.2ip) in nine day game starts.

HOMESICK: He was 5-7 with a 3.69 ERA (29er, 70.2ip) in 13 home games...in 16 road starts, he was 4-7 with a 4.27 ERA (40er, 84.1ip).

COUNTRY STRONG: With his starts on April 16 at Cincinnati on April 21 vs. LAD, he became the fourth Giants pitcher since 1901 to have two straight games of at least 5.0 innings with no more than one hit allowed (also: Kyle Harrison in 2024, Blake Snell in 2024 and Rube Marquard in 1911).

ROUGH STRETCH: The Giants lost 10 straight starts made by Roupp from May 2-June 25, which was the longest streak of Giants losses in games started by a single SF pitcher since an 11-game losing streak in games started by Pat Misch from 2007-2008...he snapped the streak with a career-best 8.0 innings vs. TOR on July 6.

FINISHED STRONG: He went 1-1 with a 1.76 ERA (3er, 15.1ip), 10 strikeouts and a 1.17 WHIP over his final three starts...having already set a career-high in innings and starts, the Giants shut him down after his start on September 14.

WEBBMASTER: Wrapped up his eighth season in a Giants uniform and the third year of his five-year contract extension he signed in 2023...Webb finished the season as the longest-tenured Giant on the roster after making his MLB debut on August 17, 2019 at AZ.

THAT'S A WRAP: Finished 2026 with an 8-9 record and a 4.31 ERA (77er, 160.2ip) in 27 starts...despite earning a third straight All-Star nod, Webb's 4.31 ERA in 2026 was his highest in a full season...Webb's two separate trips to the IL also caused him to snap a streak of three straight seasons with 200+ innings pitched and four straight years with 32+ starts.

WILLIE MAC WINNER: Webb was named the winner of the Giants' 2026 Willie Mac Award, which is awarded annually to the most inspirational player on the Giants, as voted upon by Giants players, coaches, training staff, clubhouse staff, and the fans.

OPENING DAY: Made his fifth consecutive Opening Day start on March 25 vs. the Yankees...Webb became just the fifth Giants pitcher to make at least five Opening Day starts in team history, joining Hall of Famers Juan Marichal (10) and Carl Hubbell (six), Larry Jansen (five) and Madison Bumgarner (five).

SEASON '26, PART ONE: Had a rough start to the 2026 season, going 2-4 with a 5.06 ERA (27er, 48.0ip) with a 1.40 WHIP and .751 opposing OPS in his first eight starts before landing in the 15-day IL on May 9 with right knee bursitis...Webb's injury marked his first trip to the IL since October 2022 (low back strain).

BABY I'M BACK: Made one rehab appearance with Triple-A Sacramento on May 22 (3.1ip, 2h, r, 0er, 3bb, 2k) and was reinstated from the IL on May 29, missing a total of 20 games...in the six games that followed his IL stint, Webb went 3-1 with a 0.85 ERA (4er, 42.1ip), 34 strikeouts, a .153 BAA, 0.69 WHIP and .392 opposing OPS.

JUNE BLOOM: Was named NL Pitcher of the Month in June after leading all MLB pitchers with a 0.71 ERA (3er, 38.0ip) in five starts...Webb went 3-1 in June with a .148 opposing average, .370 OPS, 0.61 WHIP and a complete game on his way to earn his first career monthly honors...his ERA was the lowest of any Giants pitcher in a month (min. 20ip) since Noah Lowry had a 0.69 ERA in August of 2005.

THE EIGHT BALL: Tossed 8.0 innings in three straight starts from June 8-21...Webb became the first Giants pitcher to throw 8.0+ innings in three consecutive starts since Madison Bumgarner on June 6-17, 2015...he was also the first pitcher overall to accomplish the feat since Nathan Eovaldi on April 29-May 11, 2023.

MISSION COMPLETE: Threw his fourth career complete game on June 21 at Miami, his first since July 31, 2024 vs. the A's...suffered the loss despite tossing 8.0 innings with two runs on five hits as the offense was unable to pick him up in a 2-1 loss to the Marlins.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Was named an All-Star for a third consecutive season...became the first Giants pitcher with three straight All-Star nominations since Madison Bumgarner, who made four straight All-Stars appearances from 2013-2016.

HOME, SWEET HOME: Finished the season going 4-5 with a 3.66 ERA (39er, 96.0ip), a 1.03 WHIP and .602 opponents OPS in 15 starts at Oracle Park, compared to a 5.29 ERA (38er, 64.2ip) and .730 OPS in 12 starts on the road...Webb is 43-30 with a 2.97 ERA in 105 career games (102 starts) at Oracle Park compared to a 4.10 ERA in 102 starts on the road...since 2021, Webb's 2.82 ERA at home is fifth-best in the Majors (min. 60 GS).

MR. 200: Made his 200th career start on August 21 at Boston, becoming just the 11th pitcher in SF era (since 1958) to make 200 starts in a Giants uniform and the fifth one to do so in since 2000, joining Madison Bumgarner (286), Matt Cain (331), Tim Lincecum (261) and Kirk Rueter (277).

21: Was named the Giants' 2026 Roberto Clemente Award nominee in September.

WORKHORSE: Since 2022, no pitcher in the Majors has thrown more innings than Webb's 980.2 innings...the next closest pitcher is Framber Valdez, who has logged 941.2 innings in that stretch...Webb's 102 quality starts are most in MLB over that span, while his 159 total games started are tied with Dylan Cease for most in the Majors.

IN PLAY...: Struck out 134 batters in 160.2 innings...Webb's 20.1% strikeout rate was down from 26.2% in 2025, and his lowest in any full season (excluding 2020).

EVEN STEVENS: Webb split all five of his pitches somewhat evenly in 2026, the first time in his career doing so...the split was the result of a large increase in his four-seamer and cutter usage from 7.9% & 7.8% marks last year to 13.6% and 13.0% figures in 2026, respectively.

SINK OR SWIM: His go-to pitch was his sinker, which he used 29.4% of the time...the pitch had a +12 run value, tied for sixth-highest in the Majors and his highest value of any pitch since 2024, when he finished the year with a +17 run value on his sinker...batters hit .231 with a .352 SLG off his sinker.

LATE BLOOMER: Had a 5.42 ERA (66er, 103.2ip) with a 1.41 WHIP, .755 OPS and 11 home runs from innings 1-4...after the 4th inning, the righty's ERA lowered to 1.74 ERA (11er, 57.0ip), with opponents slashing .172/.218/.227 (.445 OPS) with two homers and a 0.74 WHIP.

CARSON WHISENHUNT LHP #88

2026 RECORD: 3-4, 6.49 ERA

Height/Weight: 6-3/225 Bats/Throws: L/L
Born: Mocksville, NC
Age: 25 (October 20, 2000) Signed Through: 2026

WIZ KID: Entered the season ranking as the Giants' No. 12 prospect per MLB.com and the No. 10 prospect per Baseball America...he made a total of eight starts for SF in 2026 and went 3-4 with a 6.49 ERA (25er, 34.2ip), 26 strikeouts and a 1.79 WHIP.

CAMEOS: His first two starts of the season for SF were cameo call ups...first was added as the 27th man for the Giants' doubleheader at Atlanta on June 17...he earned the win, allowing two runs on six hits and two walks while striking out two over 5.0 innings...he returned to the Giants again on July 9 to help a tired pitching staff get to the All-Star Break, striking out four while allowing two runs on three hits and four walks vs. Colorado.

RUNWAY: Got his first consistent run of starts in his MLB career beginning on July 26 after he took the rotation spot of the injured RHP Trevor McDonald (Tommy John surgery)...went 1-4 with an 8.86 ERA (21er, 21.1ip) over his next five starts, allowing 4+ runs in four of the five outings...his best start in this stretch came on August 11 vs. Houston, when he allowed one run on four hits and three walks while striking out two over 5.2 innings to earn the win.

HANG WITH 'EM: After being recalled on July 26, Whisenhunt allowed 26 runs (25 earned) on 39 hits (six doubles, a triple and four homers) in five starts...he's walked 14 and struck out 17 in the five outings...opposing hitters have a .333 average and .976 OPS off him in this stretch...Whisenhunt's 8.86 ERA in the five starts is the second-highest in the Majors since July 26 (min 5gs) behind COL's Gabriel Hughes' 9.64 ERA.

HARD WORK: Was approaching his career-high in innings (131.0ip in 2025 between Triple-A and MLB...finished the season with 117.0 innings...exited his start on August 24 vs. Cincinnati after 2.2 shutout innings (47 pitches) with left elbow pain...his MRI the next day revealed a UCL tear, and he underwent Tommy John surgery in Los Angeles with Dr. Neal ElAttrache on September 16 .

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS: Was much better at home than on the road with the Giants...went 2-1 with a 3.32 ERA (7er, 19.0ip) in four home starts (including his 2.2 inning, injury-shortened outing)...on the road, he went 1-3 with a 10.34 ERA (18er, 15.2ip).

THE CHANGEUP: Whisenhunt's changeup, which has long been rated as one of the better pitches in the minor leagues, became his go-to weapon in the Majors this season...after opponents had a .286 batting average and .543 slugging percentage on his changeup in 2025, Whisenhunt limited opponents to a .213 batting average and .393 slugging percentage vs. his changeup in 2026...he almost exclusively threw his changeup vs. right-handers (202) compared to left-handed hitters (14).

MATT WILKINSON LHP #71

2026 RECORD: 1-3, 3.58 ERA

Height/Weight: 6-1/250 Bats/Throws: R/L
Born: Vancouver, BC, Canada
Age: 23 (December 10, 2002) Signed Through: 2026

YOUNGIN': The 23-year-old wrapped his first year in the Giants organization in 2026...a 10th round pick by Cleveland in 2023 out of Central Arizona JC, Wilkinson was acquired by the Giants in early May alongside the 29th overall pick in the 2026 draft (which turned into LHP Carson Bolemon) in exchange for C Patrick Bailey.

IN DOUBLE-EH: Started the season with Double-A Akron (Cleveland) and went 1-2 with a 1.59 ERA (5er, 28.1ip), 0.92 WHIP, a .175 BAA and 36 strikeouts in six starts before being acquired by SF... assigned to Double-A Richmond upon joining the Giants and went 2-0 with a 2.40 ERA (4er, 15.0ip), 0.67 WHIP and .115 BAA in three starts with the Squirrels...overall, was 3-2 with a 1.87 ERA (9er, 43.1ip), 49 strikeouts and a 0.83 WHIP in nine total Double-A starts.

SACTOWN: Promoted to Triple-A Sacramento on June 2 and made 10 starts with the River Cats...went 3-4 with a 5.15 ERA (25er, 43.2ip) and 43 strikeouts in those starts.

O CANADA: Had his contract selected on August 19 and made his MLB debut that day as an opener in Cleveland, the team that drafted him...tossed 2.0 scoreless frames and allowed one hit with no walks or strikeouts against his former organization...became the fifth Canadian-born Giants pitcher to start a game all-time, joining Tip O'Neill (1883), Bill Magee (1901-1902), Bob Steele (1918-19), Georges Maranda (1960) and Ken MacKenzie (1964)...Wilkinson joined O'Neill as the only Canadian-born Giants pitcher to make their MLB debut as a starting pitcher.

THE FIRST ONE IS ALWAYS SPECIAL: Earned his first Major League win on September 9 vs. St. Louis after tossing 2.0 scoreless innings of relief with a hit and two strikeouts.

LIGHTS OUT: Had a 13.0-inning scoreless streak from September 4 until his final start of the year on Sept. 26...the streak was the longest by a Giants rookie since RHP Joel Peguero tossed 13.1 innings without giving up a run from August 21-September 12, 2025.

FANTASTIC FOUR: In his final four outings to end the season, Wilkinson went 1-0 with a 0.69 ERA (1er, 13.0ip), a 0.54 WHIP, 12 strikeouts and a .397 opponents OPS.

CHANGING THINGS UP: Batters were 0-for-9 with three strikeouts off his changeup in September and were 3-for-19 (.158) vs. the pitch overall in 2026.

YOU SHALL NOT PASS: Wilkinson walked five batters in 27.2 innings over his eight Major League appearances...his 4.5% walk rate was 10th-best in the NL among pitchers with at least 25.0 innings from August 19 (his debut date) through the end of the season.

ESCAPE ARTIST: Opponents were just 5-for-36 (.139) with men on base against him at the MLB level.

PUNCH OUT: Had 390 strikeouts in 313.2 MiLB innings (70 games, 69 starts)...upon his promotion, his 11.14 K/9 since 2024 was fifth-best in the minor leagues over that span (min. 300 innings).

EXTENDO: Wilkinson throws a low-90s fastball, which he used 57.0% of the time with SF...it is often called the "invisiball" for the perceived speed with which it gets to the plate despite being well below average in terms of average velocity (90.4 mph)...this could be due to Wilkinson's elite extension to home plate, which at 6.7 feet ranked in the top 30% of Major League pitchers and can make pitches appear to move at a higher velocity than in they are in reality.

FULL CIRCLE: Pitched for Team Canada in the World Baseball Classic before the start of the season and was also part of the Canadian crew in the 2015 Little League World Series, with Giants broadcaster Dave Flemming serving as the play-by-play announcer for the tournament...you can click here to watch the video highlights with Flemming's commentary.

- Clubbed his first homer on July 29 as part of his first career multi-homer game…became the first Giant to have his first career home run be part of a multi-homer game since pitcher Jim Gott hit his first two career homers on May 12, 1985 vs. STL.
- On July 30 at San Diego, he also homered to become the first player in Giants history to homer in his next game after hitting his first two career homers in the prior game.
- Exited the game on August 9 with a knee injury after fouling the ball off his knee in the 5th inning…caught two more innings before exiting…had an MRI the next day that showed a fracture…missed the remainder of the season with a left knee patella fracture…he is continuing his physical therapy and will check in with team doctors in mid-October.
