RAY REPORT—The American League champion Tampa Bay Rays continue the third World Series in franchise history with tonight's Game 3 at Tropicana Field...are seeking their first Commissioner's Trophy after falling short against the Dodgers in 2020 (at TEX Globe Life Field, 4-2) and Phillies in 2008 (4-1)...joined the Dodgers (5), Astros (4), Giants (3), Phillies (3), and Rangers (3) as the only franchises to appear in three World Series since 2008 and the Dodgers (3) and Astros (2) as the only teams to appear in two since 2020... defeated the Guardians in the ALCS (4-2) and swept the Yankees in the ALDS (3-0)...earned the No. 1 seed in the AL for the fourth time in franchise history (2020-21, 2010) and captured their fifth AL East title (also: 2008) after leading the Junior Circuit for 93 straight days to end the season from June 27 on, the longest streak since the 2005 White Sox (171)...including the regular season, they are 7-1-1 in their last nine series (Sept. 3–pres.) and 15-6-1 in their last 22 (July 20–pres.)...since becoming the Rays in 2008, their .545 (1,621-1,356) winning pct. ranks third in MLB to the Dodgers (.588) and Yankees (.571).

- The Rays plated four 1st-inning runs, but were outscored, 5-0, the rest of the way in Saturday's 5-4, Game 2 loss...it was the 59th time this season they have held a lead of four runs or more and just their fifth loss in such contests, three of which have come in their last 31 games since Sept. 6 compared to two in their first 142 games (also: Sept. 6 at TEX - led 4-0, lost 8-6; Sept. 24 at NYY - led 4-0, lost 6-4).
- The four-run lead was their second largest in a postseason loss behind Game 5 of the 2008 ALCS at BOS (led 7-0, lost 8-7)...it was the largest by any team in the World Series since the Yankees during a series-deciding Game 5 in 2024 vs. LAD (led 5-0, lost 7-6).
- According to MLB Network, the Rays became the first team to strand the tying run on third base to conclude back-to-back World Series losses...they went 3-for-14 with RISP and failed to bring a runner home from third in the 5th, 7th, and 9th innings.
- The Brewers bullpen tossed 6.0 scoreless frames...the Rays are batting an MLB-best .270 (44-for-163) with a .727 OPS vs. opposing starters compared to .196 (37-for-189) with a .566 OPS against relievers.
- The Rays have dropped four straight games in the Fall Classic since Brett Phillips' walk-off single in Game 4 of the 2020 World Series vs. LAD...all four losses have come by two runs or fewer, the third-longest longest such losing streak in World Series games behind the Phillies (7) from 1915-1950 and Astros (5) from 2005-17.

CEREMONIAL FIRST PITCH—Tonight's ceremonial first pitch will be thrown by Joe Maddon, who served as Rays manager for nine seasons from 2006-14 and guided the club to four postseason appearances, two AL East titles, and the first World Series appearance in 2008...Maddon was the Rays all-time winningest manager (754 wins) before Kevin Cash (994 wins) surpassed him in 2024.

FIRST INNING FRENZY—The Rays four runs in the opening frame on Saturday in Milwaukee marked their most in a World Series inning in franchise history and most in the 1st inning of any postseason contest since Game 2 of the 2021 ALDS vs. BOS (5)...they became the 10th visiting team to score four runs or more in the opening frame of a World Series game, including the second in the divisional era (since 1969) along with the 1986 Mets in Game 3 at BOS (4), and the second to do so in a loss, joining the Washington Senators in Game 7 of the 1925 Fall Classic at PIT...the Rays and Brewers six combined runs in the frame were the most in the 1st inning of a World Series game since the Blue Jays and Phillies combined for seven during Game 4 in 1993, and their seven combined hits matched the most in the opening frame of a Fall Classic contest (10x, last: 1984 DET at SD).

DOWN, NOT OUT—The Rays are the 59th team in World Series history to fall behind 2-0 through two games in a best-of-seven set, with 10 of those clubs rallying to win the series, most recently the 1996 Yankees over the Braves (see table on the right)...this is the first time the Rays have lost the first two games of a best-of-seven series...recent clubs to recover from 2-0 deficits in any best-of-seven include the Blue Jays in the 2025 ALCS vs. SEA, the Diamondbacks in the 2023 NLCS vs. PHI (4-2), and the Dodgers in the 2020 NLCS vs. ATL—all three teams rallied to win the series in a decisive Game 7.

- The Rays are the seventh team to lose the first two games of a World Series by one run each...none of the previous six came back to win the series: the 2000 Mets (4-1), 1995 Indians (4-2), 1972 Reds (4-3), 1970 Reds (4-1), 1950 Phillies (4-0), and 1916 Dodgers (4-1)...only the 1950 Phillies have opened a Fall Classic with three straight one-run defeats.

O, CANADA—Liam Hicks is the first player in franchise history with back-to-back multi-RBI efforts in the World Series and the third (4x) to do so in any postseason games, joining Carlos Peña (2008 ALCS G4-5) and B.J. Upton (2008 ALDS G3-4 & 2008 ALCS G2-3)...he is the sixth major league player to turn the trick in the World Series as a catcher alongside STL Yadier Molina (2011), TEX Mike Napoli (2011), CLE Sandy Alomar (1997), NYM Gary Carter (1986), and NYM Bill Dickey (1932)...the only players with multiple RBI in each of the first three games of a Fall Classic since RBI became an official statistic in 1920, regardless of position, are NYG Dusty Rhodes in 1954 vs. CLE and NYY Lou Gehrig in 1928 vs. STL...with his two-run blast in the 1st inning on Saturday, the Toronto native became the fourth Canadian-born player to homer in the World Series, joining TOR Vladimir Guerrero Jr. (2025, 2x), STL Larry Walker (2004, 2x), and NYY George Selkirk (1936, 2x).

- His team-leading 8 RBI are tied for second most in MLB this postseason to NYY Ben Rice (9) and are fourth most by a Canadian-born player in a single postseason, trailing Guerrero Jr. (15) in 2025, Walker (11) in 2004, and BOS Jason Bay (9) in 2008...it ties Mike Zunino (8, all in 2020) for the most RBI by a Rays catcher in his postseason career.

DOME SWEET DOME—This marks the third World Series game hosted at Tropicana Field, joining Games 1-2 of the 2008 Fall Classic vs. the Phillies...the Rays lost Game 1, 3-2, despite a three-hit effort from Aki Iwamura and a quality start by Scott Kazmir, before tying the series with a 4-2 win in Game 2 after plating three runs in the first two frames.

- The Rays 55-26 home record during the regular season tied the Brewers for the best in the majors and was their second best in a non-shortened season behind 2008 (57-24).
- There have been 216 fair balls that struck one of the four catwalks at Tropicana Field, a ballpark-record 16 of which came in 2026, surpassing 2016 (15)...there have been six balls hit off catwalks in the postseason, incluidng NYY Spencer Jones earlier this October in ALDS Game 2 (fly out off B-ring)...for more information on the catwalks, see page 486 of the 2026 Rays Media Guide.

THE RAY WAY—The Rays staff has yielded three runs or fewer in 11 of 13 postseason games, pitching to a 2.91 ERA (96.0IP, 31ER)...opponents are batting .172 (38-for-221) with a .217 BABIP in the Rays seven postseason victories compared to .291 (39-for-134) with a .347 BABIP in their four losses...the staff has yielded 7 HR in 11 postseason games, good for 0.66 HR per 9.0 IP, down from 1.25 in the regular season (23rd in MLB)...the starting rotation has produced the majors' second-best postseason ERA (2.45/58.2IP, 16ER) to the Braves (2.14) and yielded three runs or fewer in all 11 outings, including nine with two runs or fewer...the Rays are 5-2 when their starter goes 5.0 IP or more this postseason (2-2 with 4.2 IP or fewer).

- The Rays have won each of Freddy Peralta's last nine starts (Aug. 26–pres.), the fifth-longest streak in a pitcher's starts in club history, trailing streaks by Drew Rasmussen (13, 2026), Tyler Glasnow (11, 2020), Matt Moore (11, 2012), and Blake Snell (10, 2018)...Peralta is 7-0 with a 0.90 ERA (50.0IP, 5ER) and 0.90 WHIP in those outings, tallying four quality starts.
- Between the regular season and postseason, the Rays have converted 72.5 pct. of opponent balls in play into outs, the highest rate in MLB and best in franchise history...in the Wild Card era (since 1995), only the 2022 Dodgers (73.0%), 2016 Cubs (72.8%), 2024 Mariners (72.7%), and 2022 Astros (72.5%, by pct. points) have had recorded higher rates in non-shortened seasons...the Rays have committed two errors in 11 postseason games.

ABOUT THE OFFENSE—After tallying three 1st-inning hits in Game 2 on Saturday, the Rays went 4-for-25 (.160) over the final eight frames...they are batting .226 (21-for-93) with a 5-for-29 (.172) RISP average in their last three games since ALCS Game 6 vs. CLE compared to .324 (23-for-71) with a .381 (8-for-21) RISP average in ALCS Games 4-5 at CLE...they have won four of the five postseason games in which they scored four runs or more and gone 3-4 when plating three runs or fewer...Rays hitters lead the postseason with 16 doubles and have doubled in eight straight games, a franchise record for a single postseason...the last AL club with a longer streak was the 2010 Rangers (14G).

- The Rays "Big Three" of Jonathan Aranda, Junior Caminero, and Yandy Díaz are slashing a combined .277/.338/.438 (36-for-130) this postseason, recording 13 of the Rays 25 XBH...Díaz leads MLB in postseason extra-base hits (6) and is tied with Caminero for the most doubles (4)...both players are one two-bagger shy of matching Kevin Kiermaier's club record of five doubles (2020).
- Aranda is 9-for-20 (.450) with 3 RBI and a 1.022 OPS over his last five games...Chandler Simpson is 6-for-15 (.400) with 1 2B, 1 RBI, and 4 SB across his last his four...his four straight games with a stolen base marks the longest postseason streak since BOS Jacoby Ellsbury (4G) in 2013, with CLE Kenny Lofton (MLB-record 7G, 1995) owning the last longer streak.
- Junior Caminero has hit safely in five straight postseason games (6-for-19/.316), tied for the third-longest hitting streak within a single postseason in Rays history (see table on the right).
- Six different Rays have tallied 4 RBI or more since the postseason began, most in the majors.
- The Rays have recorded multiple stolen bases in a franchise-record five straight postseason games, the third-longest streak in postseason history behind the 1992 Braves and 1906 Cubs (both 6G).
- The Rays are 5-2 when equaling or surpassing their opponent's home run total during the postseason after going an MLB-best 75-16 during the regular season...they are a combined 51-2 when out-homering their opponent, the best such record by any club in the modern era (since 1900; min. 20 games out-homering opp.), ahead of the 2020 Yankees (24-1/.960).
