

DASHED HOPES: After a strong start to the season, the Giants did not end the year with a winning record, finishing at .500 (81-81) for the second time in franchise history (and second time in the last three seasons, also 2022)...when it was all said and done, SF finished in third place in the National League West, 12.0 games behind the division champion Dodgers...in terms of the NL Wild Card, the Giants finished just 2.0 games back of the final WC spot that was claimed by Cincinnati.

JUST A BIT OUTSIDE....: 2025 marks the eighth time in the last nine years (since 2017) in which the Giants have missed the Postseason with the 107-win 2021 season being the outlier.

MANAGERIAL CHANGE: The day after the conclusion of the 2025 season, the Giants dismissed MGR Bob Melvin with one year remaining on his contract...he finished his two-year tenure as Giants manager with a record of 161-163.

THE FANS SHOWED OUT: The Giants welcomed 2,925,823 fans through the turnstiles at Oracle Park for an average of 36,121 fans per game...that number represented a 3,024 fans/per game increase over last season.

- ▶ The 36,121 average home attendance was seventh-best in the Majors and sixth-best in the National League.
- ▶ The last time the Giants drew more than 2,925,823 fans in a season was 2018 when SF drew 3,156,185 fans.
- ▶ SF finished the season with 28 sellouts at Oracle Park, its highest total in a season since selling out 50 games in 2017...the 28 sellouts were three more than the Dodgers (who led MLB in attendance at 4,012,470 fans) announced in 2025.

SHORT PEAKS, DEEP VALLEYS: The Giants’ season was defined by a streakiness that lasted the entire season.

- ▶ SF shot out of the gate to an 8-1 record (their best start since 2003) and were 19-12 at the conclusion of April but would not record another winning month until September when they went 13-12 to finish the season.
- ▶ At the 70-game mark, the Giants were 41-29 following a 6-2 win at the Dodgers in LA on June 13 and were in a first-place tie with LA in the NL West...it was, unfortunately the second and final time that the Giants would be a season-best 12 games over .500.
- ▶ Over the club’s next 59 games from June 14-August 22, the Giants were 20-39 (.339) and owned the worst record in the Majors in that span (the next closest were the White Sox at 22-36)...the .339 winning percentage was the worst 59-game stretch by an SF team since 2017 when it happened four different times.
- ▶ A frenetic surge over the season’s final 33 games saw SF go 20-13 to get back to .500 but their playoff chances evaporated when they went 5-12 in the midst of that stretch from September 6-23.

ATWO-HEADED MONSTER: The Giants went a combined 7-19 against the Dodgers and Padres in 2025 and were 74-62 against everyone else they played.

- ▶ Overall the Giants were 40-45 (.471) against teams that were .500 or better in 2025 and 41-36 (.532) against teams there were under .500.

ON THE SHORES....: SF finished the year 42-39 at home thanks to a three-game sweep of the Rockies at the end of the season that capped off a 13-6 mark over the team’s final 19 home games dating to mid-August.

- ▶ The Giants’ needed the 13-6 stretch because they went 1-15 over a 16-game home stretch from July 12-August 16...that stretch was the worst 16-game stretch at home in Giants history since 1901.
- ▶ Furthermore, SF was 7-22 over a two-month span at home from June 17-August 16...as a team they slashed .215/.289.328 for a .617 OPS in that time while averaging 2.83 runs per game.

ROSTER CONTINUITY: The Giants used a total of 53 players, a few under the league average mark of 56.4...the 53 players used were tied for the ninth-fewest of any club and five fewer than last year’s club used (58).

- ▶ The average age of SF’s batters was 28.1 years, just slightly over league average of 27.9 year...as for the pitchers, SF’s average age of 29.8 years was tied for ninth-oldest in the Majors (league average was 29.2 years).

SHOWTIME: Six different players made their Major League debut for the Giants, a drastic decrease from a season ago (13).

- ▶ The six MLB debuts were tied for seventh-fewest in the Majors...Miami and the Athletics led the Majors with 15 players apiece who made their MLB debuts.
- ▶ The six players who debuted were: IF Christian Koss (April 1), RHP Carson Seymour (June 29), LHP Carson Whisenhunt (July 28), OF Drew Gilbert (August 8), RHP Joel Peguero (August 21) and IF Bryce Eldridge (September 15).

- ▶ In terms of taking the extra base, the Giants were successful 42% of the time, right about league average.

TEAM PITCHING NOTES

- SALES PITCH: The Giants pitching staff finished the season with the 10th-best ERA in the Majors at 3.82 (sixth-best in the NL)...four of the five teams in the NL with a lower team ERA than the Giants made the playoffs (all except Pittsburgh).

- ▶ SF's .984 fielding percentage was 24th of 30 MLB clubs and third-lowest in the National League ahead of only Washington (.984) and Colorado (.981).

- ▶ SF had nine passed balls, tied for ninth-most in the Majors but down from 15 passed balls in 2024.

2025 REGULAR SEASON NOTES

INDIVIDUAL HITTER NOTES

WILLY THE KID: IF Willy Adames shook off a tough first two months and surged to become the first Giant to hit 30 homers in a season since Barry Bonds slugged 45 homers all the way back in 2004.

- ▶ The 2025 Willie Mac Award winner led the team in home runs (30), RBI (87), extra-base hits (54), walks (80), runs scored (94) and games played (160)
- ▶ By leading the team in homers, Adames became the first Giants shortstop to lead the team in homers since Brandon Crawford led the 2015 Giants with 21 homers.
- ▶ This was the third straight season he led his team in homers (he led Milwaukee in 2023 and 2024) ...he's just the third shortstop since the end of World War II to lead his team in homers in three consecutive seasons...the other two are Ernie Banks (seven straight from 1955-61) and Alex Rodríguez (four straight from 2000-03; counts only his seasons primarily paying SS).
- ▶ Adames' 30 homers were tied for most among Major League shortstops with NYM's Francisco Lindor while his 87 RBI were third-most among MLB shortstops...since 2021, Adames' 142 homers and 447 RBI are most among Major League shortstops.

CALL RAFI!: IF/DH Rafael Devers settled into the orange and black nicely following the June 15 trade that brought him to the Bay Area from Boston.

- ▶ He slashed .236/.347/.460 with 15 doubles, 20 homers and 51 RBI in 90 games for SF...his 20 homers and 51 RBI were second-most on the team after June 17 (his first game with the club) behind Willy Adames' 22 homers and 55 RBI in that time...Devers' .807 OPS was also-second-best on the team from June 17 onward behind Adames' .835 OPS.
- ▶ The 28-year-old slugger picked up his fourth career Player of the Week award when he was named co-NL Player of the Week for the period from August 25-31...he slashed .478/.556/.957 (1.512 OPS) with nine runs, two doubles, three homers and 10 RBI in the six-game span.
- ▶ The 28-year-old was one of five players in the Majors with 100+ RBI and 100+ walks...the other four were NYY's Aaron Judge, LAD's Shohei Ohtani, PHI's Kyle Schwarber and NYM's Juan Soto...Devers was the first of the five to eclipse both marks.
- ▶ Because of the mid-season trade, Devers was also able to play in 163 games between Boston and SF, the first MLB player to do so since Justin Morneau in 2008 with the Twins.

OL' CHAP: IF Matt Chapman finished his second season in the orange and black with a .770 OPS, 21 homers and 61 RBI in 128 games...his 3.7 fWAR was second-best on the team behind Willy Adames (4.0 fWAR).

- ▶ He reached the 20-homer mark for the sixth time in his career with his 21-homer season...Chapman's 48 homers in his first two years as a Giant are tied with Johnny Mize for fourth-most by a player in his first two seasons with the club (Stats, LLC).
- ▶ Defensively he was worth +5 Defensive Runs Saved and +4 Outs Above Average at third base.

MORE HARDWARE COMING?: C Patrick Bailey followed up last year's Gold Glove season with another year that should put him in consideration for another come awards season.

- ▶ The 26-year-old remained the most elite pitch framer in the Majors, being worth +25 framing runs, nine more than the TOR's Alejandro Kirk who finished the year at +16...14 of those 25 framing runs came on balls outside of the zone, five more than the next closest catcher...Bailey's 47.7 shadow strike % was also best in the Majors among full time catchers.
- ▶ Bailey's pop-time to second base remained quick at 1.86s, tied for quickest among ML catchers...his +8 catchers caught stealing above average mark was third-best in MLB behind NYM's Luis Torrens (+12) and BOS' Carlos Narváez (+9).
- ▶ His 30.7 caught stealing percentage was third-best in the NL for any catcher who appeared in at least 85 games.
- ▶ He improved on his blocking, netting the year at +5 blocks above average after finishing last year at -1.

JHL DELIVERED: OF Jung Hoo Lee finished his first full MLB season by appearing in a career-best (KBO or MLB) 150 games.

- ▶ Lee became the fifth Giant in the SF-era with 30+ doubles and 10+ triples in a season.
- ▶ From July 1 through the end of the season, Lee batted .298 with 14 doubles, six triples, two homers, 21 RBI, 27 runs scored and a .773 OPS...Lee's 12 triples were third-most in MLB.

INDIVIDUAL PITCHER NOTES

WEBBMASTER: RHP Logan Webb racked up a second consecutive All-Star nod in 2025 and then became the first Giants' starter with a 200-inning, 200-strikeout season since LHP Madison Bumgarner in 2019...he was the first Giants righty to do it since Jeff Samardzija in 2017.

- ▶ Webb again paced the National League in innings pitched for a third consecutive season while leading the Majors overall in innings for the second time in the last three seasons (also 2023)...he also set a career-best with his 224 strikeouts, reaching the 200-strikeout mark for the first time in his career...see Webb's full NL rankings in various categories below.

Webb's rankings, National League, 2025
Stat	Metric (rank)	Stat	Metric (rank)
ERA	3.22 (8th)	fWAR	5.5 (3rd)
Innings Pitched	207.0 (1st)	Ground Ball Rate	54.2% (5th)
Strikeouts	224 (1st)	FIP	2.63 (3rd)
WHIP	1.24 (12th)	Walk Rate	5.4% (4th)
Wins	15 (T-2nd)	HR/9	0.61 (4th)
Games Started	34 (1st)	Quality Starts	22 (T-1st)

- ▶ Webb became the first Giant since Bill Voiselle for the 1944 New York Giants to lead the National League in both innings pitched and strikeouts.
- ▶ He is also the first pitcher to lead the NL in innings in three consecutive seasons since Liván Hernández did so for three straight years in 2003-2005.
- ▶ The 28-year-old now has three consecutive 200-inning seasons, the first Giant to do so since Bumgarner had six straight seasons from 2011-16.
- ▶ Since the start of the 2022 season, Webb has thrown the most innings in the Majors (820.0)....the next closest player is Houston's Framer Valdez (767.2).

RAYGUN: LHP Robbie Ray had a resurgent return to form in 2025 that garnered him his second career All-Star nod...the 33-year-old made 32 starts, tied for the second-highest total of his career and most since his 2022 season in Seattle.

- ▶ Ray finished among the National League leaders in ERA (3.65, 10th), innings (182.1, 6th), quality starts (16, T-10th), and strikeouts (186, 11th).
- ▶ SF went 22-10 (.688) in Ray's 32 starts in 2025, tied for the third-best winning percentage in a pitcher's starts by any team with NYY's Max Fried...only the Phillies in Cristopher Sánchez's starts (23-9, .719) and the Red Sox in Garrett Crochet's outings (23-9, .719) fared better.

JUST IN TIME: RHP Justin Verlander finished off the season as one of the Giants most reliable starters down the stretch...the 42-year-old logged a 2.60 ERA (21er, 72.2ip) with 70 strikeouts and a .228 opponent's average against over his final 13 starts of the season...SF went 6-7 in those 13 games, however, and Verlander himself was credited with a win only four times.

- ▶ Verlander allowed two earned runs or fewer in 10 of those final 13 starts...his 2.60 ERA from July 23 to the end of the season was fourth-best in the National League (min. 60.0ip) behind only PIT's Paul Skenes (2.08), LAD's Yoshinobu Yamamoto (2.10) and MIL's Freddy Peralta (2.40).
- ▶ The future Hall of Famer ended up with only four total wins in 2025, increasing his career total to 266, which is now tied with Bob Feller and Eppa Rixey for 34th-most all-time.
- ▶ He struck out 137 batters to give him 3,553 strikeouts in his illustrious career...he's now eighth on the all-time strikeout list just behind Don Sutton (3,574).

A STAR IS BORN?: RHP Randy Rodríguez received his first All-Star nod after a stellar first half campaign that saw him go 3-1-1 with a minuscule 0.86 ERA in 41 appearances...he struck out 55 batters in 41.2 innings in the unofficial first half and was one of three Giants to represent the club in Atlanta.

- ▶ The 26-year-old was the first Giants reliever that was a non-closer to make an All-Star team.
- ▶ Unfortunately for Rodríguez after being moved into the closer's role with the trading of Camilo Doval it was revealed in late August that he'd need Tommy John surgery to reconstruct the UCL in his right elbow.
- ▶ He underwent successful UCL reconstructive surgery on September 24 in Dallas, TX...Dr. Keith Meister performed the surgery...Rodríguez is expected to miss all of next season with his recovery time being listed as 12-14 months.

2025 REGULAR SEASON INJURED, BEREAVEMENT & PATERNITY LISTS

LHP

#38

2025 RECORD: 11-8, 3.65 ERA

Height/Weight: 6-2/218

Bats/Throws: L/L

Born: Brentwood, TN

Signed Through: 2026

Age: 34 (October 1, 1991)

RAY GUN: The 2021 Cy Young Award winner wrapped up his 12th season in the Majors and second with San Francisco...the 2025 season marked the fourth year of a five-year, $115 million contract he signed with Seattle in late 2021...he opted into the final two years of the contract prior to the season's start.

IT'S A WRAP: After making a combined eight starts in his previous two seasons (2023-24) while recovering from Tommy John, Ray started 32 games for SF in 2025, finishing the year with a 11-8 record and 3.65 ERA...the 3.65 ERA was his lowest since his Cy Young season in 2021 (2.84) and fourth-lowest in his 12-year career.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS: Made his first start on March 30 at Cincinnati and was perfect through 5.0 innings before allowing a single to Gavin Lux to start the 6th...took the win and worked 5.1 innings with three runs on three hits, one walk and four strikeouts.

LUCKY CHARM: The Giants won all of Ray's first nine starts in 2025, making him the first Giants starter to have the team win each of his first nine starts of a season since Bill Swift in 1992 (11 wins to start the season).

SEVEN UP: Carried a perfect 7-0 record into his final start of May before taking a loss in his 12th start of the year on May 31st at Miami...became the first Giants starter since Hall of Famer Juan Marichal (1966) to tally at least seven wins and remain undefeated through his first 11 starts of a season...he also joined Kevin Gausman (2021) as the only Giants starters in the Wild Card Era to start a season 7-0.

ROBBIE RAY MAY: Was named the National League Pitcher of the Month after going 4-1 with a 1.38 ERA (6er, 39.0ip), 45 strikeouts, a 0.87 WHIP and a .169 opposing batting average in six May starts...the southpaw became the first Giant with an ERA of 1.38 or lower in a month and at least 39.0 innings pitched since Madison Bumgarner in May 2016 (1.05 ERA, 42.2ip)...he also became the seventh Giants southpaw (17th occurrence) with at least 45 strikeouts in a single month, joining Madison Bumgarner (6x); Rube Marquard (4x); Carlos Rodón (2x); Ray Sadecki...the honor was the second Pitcher of the Month award of Ray's career (also: AL Pitcher of the Month in August 2021 with Toronto).

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Was selected to the NL All-Star team for the second time in his career...the lefty, who was also an All-Star in 2017 with the Diamondbacks, enjoyed the best first half of his 12-year MLB career, posting his lowest career ERA (2.65) before the break (min. nine starts).

MISSION COMPLETE: Tossed his second career complete game on July 3 at Arizona and retired the first 12 batters he faced to start the night...Ray entered the 9th inning at just 78 pitches with just one run (solo HR) on two hits and no walks before working a 24-pitch 9th to close out the evening...overall, he finished the outing giving up two runs (both homers) on three hits with a walk and seven strikeouts in the 9.0 innings thrown...he became the first Giants pitcher to throw a 9.0 inning complete game with 102 pitches or fewer since RHP Anthony DeSclafani did so on April 26, 2021 vs. Colorado (100 pitches)...he was the first Giants lefty to do so since LHP Madison Bumgarner on August 3, 2014 (94 pitches).

CHANGING THINGS UP: Told reporters in the spring that he added a changeup to his pitch mix after connecting with 2024 AL Cy Young Tarik Skubal in the offseason to learn about his grip....Skubal sent Ray pictures, video and was available to chat with him about the pitch...after incorporating the pitch during Spring Training, Ray threw it 399 times (13.0% of the time) through 32 starts (all to righties), with batters going 17-for-73 (.233) with 16 strikeouts off the pitch.

LEFT ON READ: Left-handers slashed .188/.282/.318 off him on the season...the .188 average was third-best in the National League, trailing LAD's Yoshinobu Yamamoto (.174) and SD's Nick Pivetta (.185).

THE LONG BALL: Went a career-best 51.0 innings (seven starts) without giving up a home run between April 21-June 5...his 1.09 HR/9.0ip (22HR/182.1ip) rate was his lowest since posting a career-best 0.63 HR/9ip (9HR, 127.2ip) in 2015.

2025 SEASON: The Giants’ fourth starter for most of the season, Roupp had his year cut short after suffering a left knee bone bruise in his start on August 20 at San Diego...the injury shut his season down and he went 7-7 with a 3.80 ERA (45er, 106.2ip), 102 strikeouts and 45 walks allowed in 22 starts (eight quality outings)...the Giants went 12-10 in his outings.

OFF THE INJURED LIST: Missed a total of 54 games (approximately nine starts) with right elbow inflammation (missed 19 games) and a left knee inflammation/bone bruise (35 games missed).

HOME VS. ROAD: Had a 2.63 ERA (14er, 48.0ip) in nine starts at Oracle Park compared to a 4.76 ERA (31er, 58.2ip) in 13 starts on the road...his 2.63 home ERA ranked as the 14th-lowest among NL pitchers with at least 40.0 innings pitched.

THROWING A CURVE: Roupp’s curveball was very effective as opponents were just 29x147 (.197) with 49 strikeouts and a 35.8% whiff rate...he relied on his curveball 35.7% of the time in 2025...opponents hit .305 (84x275) vs. everything else he throws.

AIN’T NOBODY GOT TIME FOR THAT: With the bases empty, Roupp averaged 11.9 seconds between pitches, which was tied for the second-quickest in the Majors...Cincinnati’s Brent Suter was quickest with only 11.5 seconds between pitches with the bases empty...league average in 2025 was 15.8 seconds...when Roupp had runners on, he averaged 16.0 seconds between pitches, still below the league average of 18.7 seconds.

FOR THE FIRST TIME: Roupp made the Giants’ Opening Day roster for the first time in his career.

CAREER-HIGH IN K’S: Registered a career-best nine strikeouts in his fourth start of the season on April 19 at Los-Angeles-AL...had seven-or-more punchouts in six of his 22 starts overall.

NOT THE BEST: Had his shortest start of his career as a starting pitcher on June 14 at Los Angeles-NL, recording just five outs (1.2ip) while allowing six runs on four hits and five walks in the Giants’ 11-5 defeat to the Dodgers.

FIRST IL STINT: Placed on the 15-day Injured List on July 25 (retroactive to July 23) with right elbow inflammation...Roupp told Giants reporters that he initially felt some discomfort after his start against the Dodgers on July 12...an MRI showed no structural damage...pitched in one rehab game with Triple-A Sacramento before being reinstated from the IL on August 15.

SECOND IL STINT: After coming off the IL on August 15, he made just one more start the rest of the season...had to be carted off the field in the 3rd inning of his start on August 20 at San Diego...he twisted his left knee on the mound while trying to avoid a line drive off the bat of Ramon Laureano...was diagnosed with a left knee sprain and flew back to San Francisco the next day to receive an MRI...placed on the 15-day Injured List on August 22 with left knee inflammation...had a second opinion on his left knee with Dr. Timothy McAdams at Stanford Medicine and Dr. McAdams confirmed the diagnosis of a bone bruise and no structural damage to the rest of his left knee...his recovery time was approximately four weeks.

WEBBY: Webb finished his seventh season with San Francisco, leading the team in wins (15), starts (34), innings (207.0), strikeouts (224) and ERA (3.22)...finished the season as the longest tenured Giant (after the trade of Mike Yastrzemski)...among the rest of the National League, Webb ranked inside the top-10 in a majority of key pitching categories, including leading the league in innings pitched, strikeouts and starts...he also ended the year tied for the NL lead in quality starts.

HEY NOW...: Elected an All-Star for a second straight season and the second overall time in his career...worked 1.0 scoreless inning in the game on July 15 at Truist Park in Atlanta, GA.

MR. 200: Webb became the first Giants pitcher to record 200.0 innings and 200 strikeouts in the same season since Madison Bumgarner (207.2ip, 203 strikeouts) did so in 2019...he is the first Giants right-hander to accomplish the feat since Jeff Samardzija (207.2ip, 205 strikeouts) in 2017...he is also the first Giants pitcher to reach 200.0 innings in three straight seasons since Bumgarner did so in six straight seasons from 2011-2016.

FIRST TIME SINCE WHEN?! With Webb leading the NL in both innings (207.0) and strikeouts (224) in 2025, he became the first Giant since Bill Voiselle in 1944 to lead the NL in both of those categories in a single season.

GOOD COMPANY: Webb has now led the National League in innings pitched in each of the last three seasons...a single Giant has never done that...the last time any Giant led the NL in innings pitched in three straight seasons was Juan Marichal in 1968 (325.2ip) and Gaylord Perry in 1969 (325.1ip) and 1970 (328.2ip)...Webb is also the first player to lead the NL in innings in three straight seasons since Liván Hernández did so from 2003-2005 with Montréal and Washington.

WHEN YOU'RE 15: On the last day of the season Webb tied his career-high for wins (15) set in 2022...the only other Giants since 2000 with multiple 15-win seasons are Madison Bumgarner (four), Tim Lincecum (three) and Jason Schmidt (two).

HOME/ROAD SPLITS: The righty went 8-4 with a 3.10 ERA (40er, 116.0ip) and 126 strikeouts at Oracle Park (19 starts)...his 126 strikeouts at Oracle Park are the fifth most in a season since the ballpark opened in 2000, and the most since Madison Bumgarner had 141 in 2015...in 15 road starts, Webb was 7-7 with a 3.36 ERA (34er, 91.0ip) and 98 strikeouts.

HELPING THE CATCHER: Webb drastically improved his ability to keep runners in check in 2025 and limit stolen bases...he had +5 Net Bases Prevented (a sum of advances prevented and outs added assigned to the pitcher), which was tied for 13th-best in the Majors on Baseball Savant...he had scores of -5 in 2024, -9 in 2023 and -4 in 2022, -1 in 2021 and -3 in 2020...from 2020-2024, Webb allowed an average of 14 stolen bases off him per season (72 in five seasons)...in 2025, Webb allowed a total of nine stolen bases.

STARTING OFF: Made his fourth career Opening Day start on March 27 at Cincinnati...became the first Giants starter to start four-consecutive Opening Days since Madison Bumgarner also started four-straight from 2014-17...Webb became the seventh Giants pitcher to make at least four straight Opening Day starts, per Elias...he joins Juan Marichal (six straight from 1964-69), Bumgarner (2014-17), Tim Lincecum (2009- 12), Larry Jansen (1948-51), Bill Voiselle (1944-47) and Mickey Welch (1883-86).

1,000 MILES: Passed 1,000 career innings during his start on August 5 at Pittsburgh, becoming one of 18 different Giants pitchers to reach the 1,000-inning milestone in the SF-era (1958-present).

GOING THROUGH CHANGES: After his sinker was his most valuable pitch in 2024 (+17 run value) and the majority of 2025 (+8) per Baseball Savant, Webb's changeup ultimately led the way in 2025, finishing with a +10 run value...in his last start of 2025, opponents were 0-for-7 with three strikeouts vs. the changeup...overall, they hit .207 (47x227) with 81 strikeouts, which is his third-most strikeouts with one pitch in a single season, behind only his 92 strikeouts with his changeup in 2023 and his 88 strikeouts with his sweeper in 2021.

SINK OR SWIM: His sinker had a +8 run value on Baseball Savant, making it his most valuable of the three types of fastballs he threw...over his last eight starts, batters were 25-for-59 (.424) with eight extra-base hits (two homers) vs. his sinker.

NO WALK ZONE: His four games with 10+ strikeouts and no walks were the most by a Giant in a single season in the last 125 seasons, surpassing the three game mark set by Carlos Rodón (2022), Kevin Gausman (2021) and Madison Bumgarner (2012, 2016) (Sarah Langs)...overall, Webb has six career games of 10+ strikeouts and no walks...the only other Giants with five or more such games in the last 125 seasons are Bumgarner (12) and Tim Lincecum (five).
