CONGRATULATIONS TO CURIS GRANDERSON

FOR BEING NAMED WINNER OF THE 2016 ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Mets outfielder Curtis Granderson was named the winner of the 2016 Roberto Clemente Award, the most prestigious individual player award from Major League Baseball. Commissioner Robert J. Manfred, Jr. presented Granderson with the award during a press conference at the World Series in Chicago.

Throughout his 13-year career, Granderson has been a significant contributor within every community in which he has played and lived. In 2007, he created the Grand Kids Foundation to improve educational experiences for young people nationwide and to establish additional baseball opportunities for inner-city youth in his hometown of Chicago. He personally donated $5 million toward a state-of-the-art indoor/outdoor youth baseball academy at his alma mater, the University of Illinois at Chicago. The complex was renamed “Curtis Granderson Stadium” and opened in 2014. The facility provides nearly 10,000 Chicago youth with the opportunity to play in a safe environment year-round. Additionally, Granderson holds multiple baseball clinics throughout the year in Chicago, his baseball home in New York and his Spring Training home in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

At Citi Field in New York, Curtis hosts the Grand Kids Summer Series and brings groups of children out to the ballpark to enjoy Mets games throughout the season. Granderson served as the ambassador for the “Citi Home Runs for Communities” program, which raised more than $328,000 over two seasons for City Harvest, United Neighborhood Houses, the USO of Metropolitan New York and the YMCA.

METS IN THE COMMUNITY

KIDS

SPRING CLINIC FOR CHAMPIONS

Mets Captain David Wright, Hall-of-Famer Mike Piazza and over 20 other players and coaches participated in the Spring Clinic for Champions with Special Olympics in Port St. Lucie, FL. The St. Lucie County Commissioners and Administrators helped organize the event. More than 100 Special Olympic athletes got to hit, field, catch and throw during the clinic and later enjoyed a dinner at the ballpark with their families.

JUNIOR METS CLINICS

Each month during the season, the Mets host hundreds of boys and girls at Junior Mets baseball clinics at Citi Field and nearby Hinton Park. Mets players and coaches run the children through hitting, fielding and pitching drills. The kids received Junior Mets t-shirts as well as tickets to a future game. The Mets work with local youth baseball organizations to select the participants from underserved communities.

LITTLE LEAGUE WORLD SERIES CHAMPS

The Mets hosted the 2016 Little League World Series Champions, the Maine Endwell Spartans, at Citi Field to congratulate them on their monumental victory against South Korea. Maine Endwell was the first team from New York to win the Little League World Series since 1964.

Mets Chairman of the Board Fred Wilpon greeted the team with personalized authentic Mets jerseys for each of the players and coaches. Governor Andrew Cuomo presented the team with an official New York State proclamation congratulating each player on their achievement. The team then went on a VIP tour of the ballpark and clubhouse before going onto the field for batting practice where they got autographs and pictures with Mets players.

HONORING OUR FALLEN HEROES

The Mets continued to honor the fallen and injured heroes of the NYPD and FDNY following tragic events. On Opening Day, members of both departments who were injured in the line of duty participated in the first pitch ceremony.

The Mets honored slain FDNY Deputy Chief Michael Fahy before the Wild Card game at Citi Field with his 11-year-old son Michael Jr. throwing out the first pitch. Michael was accompanied by his sister Anna, brother Cormac, and mother Fiona. The Fahy family got to meet Mets Captain David Wright and infielder Neil Walker before the game and even took some cuts in the batting cage with the third baseman throwing pitches to them.

After the season, Mets Chief Operating Officer Jeff Wilpon, General Manager Sandy Alderson and pitcher Matt Harvey stopped by the 43rd precinct in the Bronx to present a framed jersey of NYPD Sgt. Paul Tuozzolo, who was killed in the line of duty. His wife, Lisa, and sons, Austin and Joseph, were invited to Citi Field for the Kids Holiday Party where they met pitcher Noah Syndergaard, infielder José Reyes and outfielder Brandon Nimmo.

Wilpon and Tim Tebow also visited the 105th precinct in Queens Village to help lift spirits 18 months after the station house lost NYPD Detective Brian Moore.

VETERAN OF THE GAME

At every home game at Citi Field, the Mets salute a "Veteran of the Game" for their service and sacrifice defending our country. A player presents the honoree with an American flag that has flown over Citi Field and a Mets Challenge Coin, as CitiVision plays a segment showcasing the veteran's achievements while serving in the military.

SERVICE

METSGIVING

The Mets expanded their MetsGiving initiative to encompass a series of programs in November and December that focused on helping our community during the holiday season. The events featured players, front-office staff and fans all working together to give back and help those who are underserved in our community.

Food Drive

Mets fans donated more than 6,000 pounds of food at the Mets Food Drive presented by Hain Celestial. The River Fund NY collected the food and distributed it to the more than 800 families they serve weekly at their food pantry. Outfielder Curtis Granderson and Fresh Direct donated food as part of his Grand Giving hunger relief campaign and also thanked fans for their generosity. In exchange for donating 10 or more items, fans received a voucher good for two Mets tickets in 2017.

Turkey Giveaway

With help from Uber and its drivers, the Mets distributed 700 turkeys across the five boroughs over two days to help families in need celebrate Thanksgiving. General Manager Sandy Alderson distributed turkeys to families in Richmond Hill while outfielder Curtis Granderson and infielder José Reyes did the same with students at MS 72 in South Jamaica. Infielder T.J. Rivera and his wife, Ashton, joined Mets employees in delivering complete Thanksgiving meals to families in Corona and Elmhurst.

Coat Drive

Pitcher Zack Wheeler donated more than 60 jackets worn by Mets players during the season to the Mets Coat Drive presented by UnitedHealthcare, benefitting New Yorkers in need through New York Cares. Fans donated more than 1,300 coats during the drive and received a voucher for a pair of Mets tickets.

Kids Holiday Party

Pitcher Noah Syndergaard played the role of Santa, while teammates José Reyes and Brandon Nimmo dressed up as elves during the annual Mets Holiday Party at Citi Field's Foxwoods Club. The players handed out presents to more than 125 elementary school children who also enjoyed lunch, played games and performed holiday songs during the event. The Mets worked with Queens Borough President Melinda Katz and New York City Council Member Julissa Ferreras-Copeland to select students from local schools.

Holiday Shopping Spree

The Mets partnered with the River Fund NY to take 14 families on a holiday shopping spree at a big-box retailer. Pitchers Noah Syndergaard and Matt Harvey, and outfielder Brandon Nimmo along with front-office employees helped the children select presents for their family and themselves.

EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM

The Mets launched an Employee Engagement Program in 2016, providing Mets employees with two volunteer opportunities a month at local community organizations. Employees helped care for dogs and cats at the North Shore Animal League in Port Washington, read books to children in need at the Pajama Program in Manhattan, and served meals at the New York Common Pantry in East Harlem.

SERVICE

FUNDRAISING

WELCOME HOME DINNER

The annual Mets Welcome Home Dinner presented by Alliance Building Services raised more than $700,000 for the Katz Institute for Women's Health, a member of Northwell Health, and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. The entire Mets roster attended the event that featured a game show testing the players' trivia knowledge and an Amazin' Auction with once-in-a-lifetime experiences.

PROJECT ALS

The Mets hosted the annual "Night to Believe" fundraiser at Citi Field benefiting Project ALS, a non-profit organization renowned for their outstanding leadership in finding and funding treatments and a cure for Lou Gehrig's disease. The event has raised over $2 million for crucial ALS research over 14 years.

MYSTERY BASEBALLS

The Mets Wives hosted a Mystery Baseballs fundraiser to sell baseballs to raise money for the Mets Foundation. Fans selected a paper bag which contained a baseball signed by one of many Mets players including Captain David Wright and pitchers Jacob deGrom and Matt Harvey and many more. The fundraiser raised over $15,000 to help the foundation fund and promote a variety of educational, social and athletic programs and other charitable causes.

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo was unveiled on November 16, 1961 and has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back National League baseball to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, it has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

MEET THE METS

BY RUTH ROBERTS & BILL KATZ

The unofficial theme song of the Mets, this tune was created in 1962.

Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets, of New York town.

Oh, the butcher and the baker and the people on the streets,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!

Oh, they're hollerin' and cheerin' and they're jumpin' in their seats,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!

All the fans are true to the orange and blue,
So hurry up and come on down -
'cause we've got ourselves a ball club,
The Mets of New York town!

Give 'em a yell! Give 'em a hand!
And let 'em know you're rootin' in the stands!
Come on and Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets,
Of New York town,
Of New York town!!!!!

Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of hitless relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago-NL. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins, 7-6 and 1-0. John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea.

PITCHER GRAND SLAMS

In the entire history of the club, only two Mets pitchers have hit a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded home run at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

NINE FOR NINE

The Mets' club record for the most hits in consecutive official at-bats is nine, first set by Jose Vizcaino in 1996 and then tied by John Olerud in 1999. Vizcaino's streak began on April 23 with a double against the Reds at Shea. In Jose's next plate appearance, he sacrificed. After that, he hit two singles, a double, two more singles, another double, a single, a triple and then struck out in the ninth inning against Jeff Parrett to end the streak on April 25 at St. Louis.

In 1999, Olerud tied the club record with nine consecutive hits, from his final at-bat on September 16 at Houston to September 20 vs. Florida. The streak came to an end when he grounded to second in the third inning of the Mets' September 22 contest vs. Montreal.

Olerud tied a National League record with his first-inning walk on September 22 vs. Montreal, reaching base 15 straight times dating back to a single in his final at-bat on September 16th at Houston. Barry Bonds reached base 15 straight times from August 31-September 4, 2004 (9-9 with six walks).

METS RETIRED NUMBERS

Casey Stengel's #37 was officially retired on September 2, 1965 in a small, private ceremony at Shea Stadium. Stengel was named the Mets first manager on September 29, 1961 and despite the team's early on-field struggles, the city proudly embraced their "lovable losers" due to Stengel's witty charm and dynamic personality. Stengel led the Mets to a 40-120 record in 1962 and then had an 11-game improvement, going 51-111 the following year. The Mets were 31-65 when Stengel fractured his hip on July 24, 1965 ending his managerial career. Stengel continued to serve in the Mets front office as a scout, public speaker and Vice President. He was still a member of the Mets front office when he passed away due to cancer on September 29, 1975 at age 85. Stengel was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

Gil Hodges' #14 was retired on June 9, 1973 during the Old Timers Day ceremony at Shea. Hodges played for the Mets from 1962-1963 and hit the club's very first home run on April 11, 1962 in the team's first game at St. Louis. He was named the club's third manager on October 11, 1967. Just two years later, after never posting a winning season, Hodges guided the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Championship after beating the Atlanta Braves in the National League Championship Series and then topping the heavily favored Baltimore Orioles in five games in the World Series. Hodges was named the Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press following the season. Hodges guided the Mets from 1968-1971, compiling 339 victories. He died from a heart attack on April 2, 1972 shocking and saddening the organization and baseball community. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

Tom Seaver's #41 was retired in a ceremony that took place in a special tribute at Shea Stadium on June 24, 1988. Seaver won three Cy Young Awards and was a nine-time All-Star with the Mets. The Franchise won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. He earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967. Seaver was 25-7 in 1969 to help the Mets capture the World Series. He ranks first in team history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), strikeouts (2,541), and shutouts (44) after pitching with New York from 1967-1977 and returning for one final year in 1983. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992 with the highest percentage (98.84) in Hall of Fame history at the time. Seaver was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

The Mets retired Mike Piazza's #31 on July 30, 2016. Piazza became the second player to have his number retired joining Tom Seaver. Piazza was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2016. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 2013. Piazza hit 220 home runs and had 655 RBI during his Mets career (1998-2005). He was a seven-time All-Star with the Mets and helped guide the club to back-to-back playoff appearances in 1999-2000. Piazza has the highest slugging percentage (.542) in team history and is third in home runs and RBI. His 396 home runs are the most by a catcher in the history of the game. Piazza hit a game-winning home run vs. Atlanta on September 21, 2001 in the first game in NYC after the 9/11 attacks helping to lift the spirits of the city.

On April 8, 2008, in the final home opener in Shea Stadium's history, the Mets honored William A. Shea, the man for whom their previous ballpark was named after, by placing the name "Shea" alongside the retired numbers. Thirty members of the Shea family spanning three generations took part in the celebration. Shea was an attorney and the driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York City after the departure of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957. He spearheaded New York City Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League Baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. Shea was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983. He died at age 84 on October 2, 1991.

Ralph Kiner, one of the most beloved figures in franchise history, passed away on February 6, 2014 at age 91. An original Met, Kiner announced games on television and radio for 52 years. On Opening Day, 2014, the Mets unveiled a commemorative logo on the leftfield wall and wore a patch on their uniforms during the season. He educated and entertained generations of Mets fans, and his post-game show "Kiner's Korner" was an integral part of Mets lore. He joined the Mets broadcast booth after a 10-year Hall-of-Fame career with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984. The television booth at Shea Stadium was dedicated in his honor on August 16, 2002 and SNY's booth at Citi Field bears Kiner's name.

On April 15, 1997 in a historic ceremony at Shea Stadium, acting commissioner Bud Selig announced the retirement of Jackie Robinson's #42 throughout Major League Baseball. "The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig during the ceremony as he stood side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and President Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring #42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

1964 ALL-STAR GAME

The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. The Mets lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL. San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error by Yankees first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy. Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single. The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale. The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead. The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat. The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch. The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard. Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.

METS UNIFORMS

Home Uniform (1962-1973)

Road Uniform (1962-1973)

Home Uniform (1974-1977)

Road Uniform (1974-1977)

1962

Home Uniform: The colors chosen were "Dodgers Blue" and "Giants Orange," and the NY monogram on the cap was a resurrection of the Giants' logo. The jersey was white with blue pinstripes and "Mets" in script across the chest on an upward slant, which was based on the Brooklyn Dodgers uniform. Road Uniform: The words "New York" in all capital letters with orange piping were used. The home pinstripe base was replaced by a solid gray color. The same royal blue cap was used for both home and road uniforms.

1964-1965

During the team's first two seasons at Shea Stadium, a patch commemorating the city's hosting of the World's Fair replaced the Mets skyline logo on the sleeve of the home and road jersey. This was a relatively new innovation in baseball uniforms across the country and in New York. In 1938, the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants had used a patch unrelated to the team's history, also to promote the upcoming World's Fair in 1939. The patch featured the Unisphere, which is still synonymous with Queens to this day.

1965

Numbers are added to the front of both the home and away uniform shirts.

1966

The Mets skyline logo appeared on the left sleeve for the first time in 1966.

1969

A patch commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys, again replacing the skyline logo. The patch features the Major League Baseball logo and the wording 100th Anniversary.

1972

The Mets wear a black armband on the left sleeve of both the home and road uniforms in memory of Mets manager Gil Hodges, who passed away prior to the start of the 1972 campaign. Both the home and road uniforms are changed from flannel uniforms with double-knit lettering to tackle twill.

1973

During the second half of their NL Championship season (and through the NLCS and World Series) the Mets wore a vertical patch on the right sleeve of their warmup jackets commemorating the 75th Anniversary of the incorporation of New York City into five boroughs in 1898 (prior to 1898, Brooklyn had been a separate city). The patch featured a stylized "75" logo with a map of the five boroughs place in the loop of the "5."

1974

The "zig-zag" pinstripes are featured on the home uniform. "New York" on the front of the road jersey is replaced by "Mets."

1976

The Mets once again wear black armbands commemorating the passing of two of the primary figures at the time of the club's inception – owner/president Joan Payson and manager Casey Stengel-both of whom passed away following the 1975 season. In addition, a patch commemorating the National League Centennial is on the right sleeve. For selected games during the season the team also wore a special striped hat as part of the celebration surrounding the NL Centennial.

Home Uniform
(1978-1982)

1978

The white jersey changes to a pullover with a two-button, crew-neck style collar. Two blue stripes and one orange stripe, equal in width, are added to the cuff of both the left and right sleeve, as well as around the collar. In addition, orange and blue striping is added down the leg of the road pants.

1979

Prior to the start of the season, the National League passed a rule requiring all teams to wear names on the backs of their road uniforms. Although not required by the League offices, the Mets also add names to the back of their home uniforms.

1979-1980

The years of the mismatched uniforms, with some of the old 1979 uniforms still being worn in 1980, when the design changed slightly. Some had logo patches on the sleeve and some didn't. Some had the uniform numbers high up on the players' backs, some had the numbers way down low. Most had player names on the back, but some didn't (Claudell Washington was with the Mets for a month until they could find a plaque big enough to fit his name).

Home Uniform
(1983-1990)

1982

The Mets add an alternate blue road jersey for the '82 campaign. The royal blue pullover jersey features thick orange and blue racing stripes with "Mets" across the chest.

1983

The pullover white pinstriped jersey with thick striping from the neck all the way down to the socks is unveiled. In addition, the skyline logo is removed from the jersey. The Mets road jersey also changed to the pullover variety with "Mets" in script across the chest of the gray jersey with the thick stripes down the side.

Road Uniform
(1987)

1986

The team wears a special 25th Anniversary patch commemorating the franchise's founding year of 1962.

1987

The only Mets uniform to last but a single year. The 1987 road uniform marked the first appearance of the words "New York" written in script across the chest.

1988

"New York" on the front of the road jersey is changed to block lettering in an arch across the chest. A white outline is added to the outline of all letters and numbers as well as to the racing stripe down the side of the uniform.

Road Uniform
(1988-1990)

1991

Buttons return to the uniform. The home jersey still features the script "Mets" and the road jersey keeps the block-lettered "New York".

1992

A special "S" patch is added to the sleeve of both the home and road jerseys in tribute to the late William A. Shea, who was instrumental in the birth of the franchise.

Home Uniform
(1993-1997)

1993

The skyline logo returns to the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys while the thick racing stripes are removed from both uniforms. A new script is used for the "Mets" lettering across the chest of the home uniform. The lettering is similar to the script "Mets" used from the team's inception, with an added tail that underlines the entire word. In addition, the "zig-zag" pinstripes that had been featured on the home uniform since 1972, is changed to a straight pinstripe. The road jersey features a script lettering "New York" that also is underlined. Finally all hats worn by teams across Major League Baseball feature the MLB logo, centered on the back of the cap.

1994

A patch commemorating the 125th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the right sleeve of both the home and road uniforms. The skyline logo on the left sleeve is also replaced for this season with a special patch commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the Miracle Mets.

Road Uniform
(1993-1997)

1995

The skyline logo returns to the sleeve of both the home and road uniforms, while the underlining of the "Mets" and "New York" on both versions of the jerseys is removed in favor of the more classic lettering. The button atop the blue Mets cap is changed from royal blue to orange.

1996

All jerseys are embroidered with a special logo which features a home plate design and inscription "J.M., N.L. Umpire, 10" in memory of John McSherry, an umpire who died during a game on Opening Day of the 1996 season.

1997

An alternate home "snow white" uniform is added. The jersey is very similar to the traditional home uniform, without the pinstripes. The team also adds an alternate white cap with a blue brim and an interlocking orange NY. Finally, all teams across Major League Baseball feature a special 50th Anniversary patch commemorating Jackie Robinson breaking baseball's color barrier.

Alternate Uniform
(1998-2014)

Alternate Cap
(1999-2014)

1998

The alternate white cap is scrapped in favor of a new black cap with royal blue trim and an interlocking NY in royal blue. The team also adds a second alternate jersey, which is worn both at home as well as on the road. The black uniform, with "Mets" across the chest on an upward slant, features blue letters and numbers with a white and orange drop shadow.

1999

A second alternate cap is added. The all-black cap features an interlocking NY in royal blue with white and orange drop shadow. In addition, player names are removed from all three jerseys worn at home – white pinstripes, "snow white," and black alternate. An alternate black road jersey is added as well, similar to the alternate black home jersey, but featuring "New York" across the chest. Additionally, a slight change is made in the Mets skyline logo, as the small interlocking NY is removed. This is the first change to the skyline logo since the team's inception in 1962.

2000

All teams add the Major League Baseball logo to the back of the home, road and alternate jerseys. The team also opens the season in Tokyo, Japan and feature a special patch commemorating the first games played outside North America. Player names return to the back of all versions of the home jersey after a one-year hiatus. Finally, the Mets wear a patch with the official logo of the 2000 World Series during that year's Fall Classic.

2001

The team wears a special patch in memory of the passing of Mets legend Tommie Agee, who died of a heart attack prior to the season and prospect Brian Cole, who was killed in an automobile accident. The patch featured 20 and 60, the numbers worn by Agee and Cole, and was worn for the Mets home opener on April 10, 2001. Later in the season, in response to the attacks on September 11th, the Mets wear caps honoring the NYPD, FDNY, Port Authority, Emergency Medical Services, and numerous other city services that were affected by the terrorist attacks. An American flag is also added to the back of all jerseys league wide, and American flags are also added to the side of all caps.

2002

The Mets honor the franchise's 40th Anniversary with a commemorative patch on the right sleeve of the home jerseys, below which is stitched "9-11-01" in remembrance of the September 11th attacks.

2004

The team celebrates Shea Stadium's 40th birthday with a patch on the right sleeve of the home jersey. The logo is split between blue and orange and features the iconic pitcher and batter neons which adorned Shea Stadium's exterior. All jerseys also feature an embroidered "Ya Gotta Believe-Tug" patch, in memory of former Mets reliever Tug McGraw. The team also honors the passing of the voice of the Mets, as "Bob Murphy" is embroidered above the Mets logo on the left sleeve in memory of the Hall of Fame broadcaster.

2008

In recognition of the team's final season at Shea Stadium, the Mets wear a patch commemorating their time in the ballpark which opened in 1964. The logo is adorned to the right sleeve and features a split image of the stadium's original facade from 1964 coupled with a more modern version. The imagery is then surrounded by the wording "Shea Stadium 1964-2008."

2009

The Mets open Citi Field with a patch commemorating their first year in their new world-class home. The logo is placed on the right sleeve of the Mets home jersey and resembles the Citi Field logo, but features the wording "Inaugural Season 2009."

2010

The Mets introduce a new pinstripe jersey that combines elements of both new and old Mets uniforms. The natural color and pinstripes were staples of the Mets uniform when the team debuted in 1962, and were complemented by a more modern day script "Mets" across the chest.

2012

To celebrate the club's 50th Anniversary, the team wore white and road grey uniforms reflecting the look of the original uniform from their inaugural season. The black dropshadow was removed from the Mets script logo, letters and numbers. The pinstripe jersey was the primary home uniform. The Mets also introduced a 50th Anniversary logo that incorporates the basic elements of the original blue and orange skyline logo, with gold accents in celebration of the franchise's golden anniversary. The Mets wore a new blue and orange batting practice jersey.

Alternate Home & Away Uniforms (2013-present)

The Mets introduced a blue alternate home and road jersey for the 2013 season. Both versions feature Mets blue with orange piping with the orange lettering on the home jersey and gray lettering on the road one. The 2013 All-Star logo patch was featured on the left sleeve. The club also introduced two new caps for the season. The first is a training cap that is crafted from high-performance materials. The cap features a royal blue crown, and an orange button and visor. The logo is a running Mr. Met. The other cap new for the 2013 season has a royal blue crown with an orange button and visor. The logo is an orange "NY" with a bold white outline.

Camouflage Jerseys (2014-2015)

2014

The Mets wore camouflage jerseys and hats during Monday night home games in 2014-2015 to salute U.S. servicemen and women. The club also wore a patch reading "Ralph Kiner 1922-2014" with a microphone on all jerseys after the legendary broadcaster passed away during the winter. The Mets added a "FC" patch to the uniform on July 4 after former GM Frank Cashen passed away. Also, in 2014, a Mr. Met patch was added to the Mets alternate home and road jerseys.

2015

The Mets featured an all-white pinstripe uniform. The road alternate cap was royal blue with a gray NY logo outlined in orange.

2016

All uniforms were upgraded to the new Majestic "Flex Base" pattern, however they looked exactly the same. The Mets wore a throwback 1986 uniform at home on Sundays to honor the 30th Anniversary of the Mets' 1986 World Championship.

Home Alternate Cap (2017)

2017

All on-field jerseys will now feature the iconic Mets skyline patch on the left sleeve. Two new caps are introduced, a home alternate Mets blue cap with a two color orange/white NY and orange button and a new batting practice cap with an orange visor. Mr. Met has been removed from all uniform elements.

POLO GROUNDS

For the first two years of their existence, the Mets played their home games at the historic Polo Grounds while waiting for the finish of the construction of Shea Stadium.

The stadium where the Mets won 56 games during the 1962 and 1963 seasons actually was the fourth venue to carry the name the "Polo Grounds." The first structure, located between 110th and 112th Streets and Fifth and Sixth Avenues in upper Manhattan, opened its doors in 1876 as a home to polo matches. In 1880, the New York Metropolitans leased the grounds for baseball with the New York Giants following suit three years later.

The second Polo Grounds, sporting a 15,000-seat wooden grandstand, was located on 155th Street and Eighth Avenue with the Giants as the main tenants. Although polo was not played there, the team brought the name of its former home. It was here that the famous quirky dimensions—475 feet to centerfield and only 258 feet out to right—were first unveiled. After a fire destroyed the stadium in 1911, it was rebuilt later that year with a capacity of 34,000.

In 1913, the Yankees joined the Giants as tenants, but left after an attendance dispute in 1922. Finally, in 1924, the fourth remodeling of the Polo Grounds was finished, complete with seating for 55,987. It was this incarnation that the Mets began calling home in 1962.

The Giants left New York and the Polo Grounds in 1957, leaving the stadium with only the memories of some of the most famous moments in baseball history, such as Bobby Thomson's game-winning "Shot Heard 'Round the World" to clinch the 1951 pennant, and Willie Mays' over-the-shoulder catch in the 1954 World Series. Without a Major League Baseball team as a regular tenant, the stadium deteriorated to the point where the Mets needed to spend $300,000 to refurbish the ballpark before moving in to start the 1962 season.

The Mets' first game at the Polo Grounds, April 13, 1962.

With a fresh coat of paint, a new scoreboard, better lighting, more dining options for fans and a complete overhaul of the outfield and infield grass, the Mets played their first home game in the Polo Grounds on April 13, 1962 and lost 4-3 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. New York played 160 more games at their temporary home over the next two seasons and left for good following a 5-1 loss to Philadelphia Phillies on September 18, 1963.

The aging stadium was finally demolished over a period of four months in 1964. A housing development now occupies the famous site.

SHEA STADIUM

In 1964, the Mets moved from Manhattan to Queens and their brand-new home, William A. Shea Municipal Stadium. Located on 126th Street and Roosevelt Avenue, Shea would welcome more than 94 million fans and some of the most famous moments in Mets history during its 45 years.

The stadium originally was to be called "Flushing Meadows Stadium." But in 1962, behind a movement led by department store magnate Bernard Gimbel, the Flushing Meadows Stadium label was dropped in favor of a name that honored the man most responsible for returning National League baseball to New York, prominent attorney Bill Shea. Shea Stadium was born.

Architect John Waterbury drew up the plans for the stadium and the ceremonial ground-breaking took place on October 28, 1961. The designs called for the city to contribute $24.5 million to construct the ballpark, with the Mets to chip in another $6.5 million for office space, restaurants and other amenities.

The 55,300-seat stadium was completed and Shea opened to 48,736 fans on April 17, 1964. But in a scene reminiscent of Opening Day at the Polo Grounds two years earlier, the Pirates again beat the Mets, 4-3.

In their first season at Shea, the Mets drew 1,732,597 fans and hosted the All-Star Game before baseball handed off the reigns to football and the New York Jets for the winter. Football would be a permanent winter staple in Queens until 1983, when the Jets left for New Jersey.

Shea was designed to be a multi-purpose complex—it was the first major stadium in the United States to have two movable field box sections—and as such held a variety of events. The Beatles gave the first-ever concert at Shea Stadium on August 15, 1965, in front of more than 55,000 fainting, crying and screaming fans.

It was, and remains to this day, the most historic concert ever, as it was the first time in history that a sports stadium was used for a rock concert.

Pope John Paul II addresses the crowd at Shea in 1979.

The Mets first game at Shea Stadium, April 17, 1964.

The groundbreaking Beatles concert at Shea set new attendance records at the time; it was the first large-scale, outdoor concert that demonstrated such events could be hugely successful and profitable.

Other unforgettable Shea moments include the historic papal Mass celebrated by Pope John Paul II in 1979, plus concerts staged by music legends including Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix and Bruce Springsteen. The stadium also played host to a wide variety of sporting events, such as soccer, boxing and wrestling matches and college football, along with the normal schedule of baseball and NFL football games.

In 1975, Shea was the center of the New York sports world. The Mets, Yankees, Jets and Giants all called the stadium home, marking the first and only time in professional sports history that two baseball teams and two football teams shared the same facility in the same year. Both the Yankees and Giants needed a temporary home while Yankee Stadium underwent renovations.

Throughout the years, Shea was the site for some of the most memorable moments in Mets history: Cleon Jones catching the clinching out of the 1969 World Series, the amazing comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series, and President Bill Clinton joining Jackie Robinson's widow, Rachel, to retire the Hall of Famers' uniform number 42 on April 15, 1997. Shea finally closed its doors on September 28, 2008 following the Mets' 4-2 loss to the Florida Marlins.

The demolition of Shea took several months, with the final piece coming down on February 18, 2009 at 11:22 a.m. Citi Field's Parking Lot D covers the grounds where Shea once stood, with markers commemorating the original locations of the stadium's home plate, bases and pitching mound.

JACKIE ROBINSON ROTUNDA

The iconic main entry to Citi Field honors Jackie Robinson, the great American trailblazer who became the first African-American player to break Major League Baseball's color barrier with the Dodgers in 1947. Evoking the classic design of Ebbets Field, the Rotunda recognizes and perpetuates the humanitarian ideals of one of our country's civil rights pioneers. Engraved into the Rotunda's 160-foot diameter floor and etched into its 70-foot archways are words and larger-than-life images that defined Jackie's "nine values": Courage, Excellence, Persistence, Justice, Teamwork, Commitment, Citizenship, Determination, and Integrity. The Rotunda features an eight-foot sculpture of Jackie's number 42, which was retired in perpetuity throughout Major League Baseball in 1997.

OUTFIELD FENCES

The Mets moved in portions of the outfield wall at Citi Field after the 2014 season. The changes affected were located in center to rightfield ranging from three to 11 feet. Citi Field's dimensions are:

Leftfield Line - 335 feet
Leftfield - 358 feet
Left-center - 370 feet
Center - 408 feet
Right-center - 380 feet
Rightfield - 370 feet
Rightfield Line - 330 feet

DAKTRONICS HIGH-DEFINITION CENTERFIELD VIDEO BOARD

The Mets installed a new Daktronics high definition centerfield video board before the 2015 season that is 62% larger than the original screen prior to 2015. The new board measures 5,670 square feet (Up from 3,500 square feet) and puts the Mets in the top 10 largest displays in professional baseball.

The board makes Citi Field one of the few baseball venues to feature more than one video capable LED display in the seating bowl. The installation brings the total square footage of all displays in the Mets' super-system to more than 17,000 square feet. The centerfield scoreboard measures 54 feet high by 105 feet wide and features a 13HD pixel layout resulting in more than 1.5 million pixels. The two ribbon displays along the leftfield fascia of the seating areas measure approximately five feet high by 234 feet wide and five feet high by 49 feet wide respectively. The larger display will feature sponsor messaging and the other display will track strikeouts of opposing batters by Mets pitchers via a "K-Board."

METS HISTORY

The Mets Hall of Fame and Museum at Citi Field is the home for six decades of Mets history. Located adjacent to the Jackie Robinson Rotunda, the museum is a virtual walk down memory lane, featuring a treasure trove of artifacts and images. Its interactive touch-screen exhibits showcase video and audio highlights of the franchise's signature moments.

Citi Field's VIP entrances are named after individuals who made an indelible mark on the club and whose numbers have been retired. First Base VIP honors Gil Hodges, the manager who led the Mets to their first World Championship in 1969. Third Base VIP recognizes Tom Seaver, the Hall of Fame pitcher and Mets leader in wins, earned run average and strikeouts. Left Field VIP is named after Casey Stengel, the first manager in Mets history.

Photographic imagery of famous Mets and historic moments are displayed inside Citi Field along the concourses and outside the ballpark with banners on Mets plaza, in the parking lots and encasing the ramp in leftfield. More than 27,000 bricks outside the Rotunda on the Citi Field Fanwalk pay tribute to the Mets, their fans and the Amazin' Moments in team history.

Mets Hall of Fame & Museum

The original Home Run Apple from 1981 is one of the most popular attractions at Citi Field and its position on Mets Plaza serves as a meeting spot for many fans.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Inspired by Mets' National League Heritage. The brick, limestone, granite and cast stone throughout the ballpark closely resembles the masonry used at Ebbets Field, the legendary home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The dark green seats and soot-colored exposed steel recall the Mets' first home, the historic Polo Grounds and former home of the New York Giants. Shea Bridge in right-center is named after William A. Shea, extending the legacy of the man who was the driving force behind bringing National League baseball back to New York and for whom Shea Stadium was named.

CITI FIELD & THE ENVIRONMENT

The Mets have implemented a wide range of sustainable environmental initiatives in the design, construction and operation of Citi Field. The ballpark was built with recycled concrete and construction vehicles were fueled with ultra-low sulfur diesel. Citi Field's building management system monitors and automatically controls all aspects of energy operation from temperatures to lights to minimize energy consumption. Grease and cooking oil are recycled along with cardboard, glass, metal, bottles, cans, light bulbs and batteries. The Mets save more than four million gallons of water per year by using 414 hands-free faucets, 635 automated toilet flush-valves and 270 waterless urinals. A 11,000 square foot green roof atop the administration building in rightfield, white PVC roofs throughout the ballpark, high mast parking lot light fixtures, permeable pavers, and an underground well used to irrigate the playing field are other ways the Mets are working to protect the environment.

METS VS. YANKEES

In 2000, the Mets and Yankees faced off in the first Subway World Series since the Yankees defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1956. The Yankees went on to win the series in five games. The two teams also met in a historic doubleheader on July 8, 2000, marking the first time that the same two teams played two games in one day at different ballparks in 97 years...In 2016, the Mets were 2-2 vs. the Yankees during the regular season and 0-1-1 vs. the Bronx Bombers in Spring Training...Here's a look at the Mets record in the series:

Overall	94-128-2
World Series	1-4
Regular Season	46-62
Spring Training	36-48-1
Mayor's Trophy	8-10-1
Mayor's Challenge	2-2
Big Apple Series	1-2

TWO-STADIUM DOUBLEHEADERS

The Mets and Yankees have previously met in a day-night, home-road doubleheader three times. The first historic doubleheader took place on July 8, 2000. Both New York teams played a regularly scheduled day game at Shea Stadium and then a played a night game at Yankee Stadium which was a rescheduled contest from a rainout on June 11. The Yankees won both games by the same 4-2 score. According to Elias, it was the first day-night doubleheader taking place in different venues since September 7, 1903. On that day, the New York Giants played two games against the Brooklyn Superbas (later known as the Dodgers). The first game was played in the morning at Brooklyn's Washington Park with John McGraw's Giants winning, 6-4. Brooklyn won the second game at the Polo Grounds, 3-0. The other day-night, Shea-Yankee Stadium doubleheaders were on June 28, 2003 and June 27, 2008. In 2003, the day game took place at Yankee Stadium with the Yankees winning, 7-1. The night cap was at Shea and the Yankees prevailed, 9-8. In 2008, the final year of both Shea Stadium and Yankee Stadium, the Mets and Yankees played a day-night, cross-borough doubleheader. The Mets won the day game at Yankee Stadium, 15-6, and the Yankees took the night cap, 9-0, at Shea.

1969 WORLD SERIES

BALTIMORE ORIOLES vs. NEW YORK METS
METS WON SERIES, 4-1

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game 1, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game 1, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph.

In Game 2, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game.

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335 watched the Mets shut out Baltimore, 5-0 in Game 3. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, when Agee made a running, backhanded catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs and Blair laced a high drive to right-center. Agee, running full tilt, caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Agee had made two of the greatest World Series catches ever, just three innings apart.

In Game 4, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed into rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the basepath.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea. Behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with an RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVPs.

1973 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

CINCINNATI REDS vs. NEW YORK METS
METS WON SERIES, 3-2

Bud Harrelson and Pete Rose start a bench-clearing brawl in Game 3 of the 1973 NLCS.

New York captured its second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game 1, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant in Game 2, tossing a two-hitter to win, 5-0. Rusty Staub's home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four in the ninth, two scoring on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game 3. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. The game featured an infamous fight between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. After the bench-clearing brawl, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game 4 to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game 5 in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the game 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected an RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

OAKLAND A's vs. NEW YORK METS
METS LOST SERIES, 4-3

New York lost its first ever postseason series, falling in a seven-game set to the Oakland Athletics.

In Game 1, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning.

New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory in Game 2. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, which would prove to be Mays' last hit in the majors.

The World Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top, 2-0 in the first inning of Game 3. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game 4. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

Tug McGraw reacts after saving the Mets 2-0 Game 5 win.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game 6, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game 6, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver.

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game 7 broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

HOUSTON ASTROS vs. NEW YORK METS
METS WON SERIES, 4-2

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six-game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the postseason after a 13-year absence and lost Game 1, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game 2, with a complete-game, 5-1 victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had an RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

In Game 3, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game 4, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game 5. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10.0 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Lenny Dykstra rounds the bases after hitting the game-winning home run in Game 3 of the NLCS to give the Mets a 6-5 victory.

Game 6 at the Astrodome was simply a classic, the longest postseason game in time (4:42) and innings (16) at that point. Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, as Strawberry's double and Knight's single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

BOSTON RED SOX vs. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES, 4-3

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the World Champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game 1, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shut out the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored the lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game 2.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game 3 with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through 7.0 innings as New York won, 7-1.

In Game 4, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's 7.0 shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph.

In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete game for the Red Sox as Boston won, 4-2.

The Mets returned to Shea for Game 6 in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2 entering the bottom of the eighth and 5-3 going to the bottom of the 10th. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4.

Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs, enabling Knight to score the winning run.

After a day of rain, the Mets won their second World Championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

1988 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

LOS ANGELES DODGERS vs. NEW YORK METS

METS LOST SERIES, 4-3

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game 1, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had an RBI double in the inning and a two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game 2 and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game 3, 8-4. Down 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave New York the lead for good.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game 4 when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game 5. Orel Hershiser entered with two outs in the bottom of the 12th and got Kevin McReynolds to pop out with the bases loaded to end the game.

On the brink of elimination, McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete game in a 5-1 Game 6 win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game 7. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

Darryl Strawberry led the National League with 39 home runs and drove in 101 runs in 1988.

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS vs. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES, 3-1

The Mets returned to the postseason for the first time since 1988 and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game 1. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game 2, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game 3 with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first postseason victory.

Al Leiter spun a two-hit shutout in the Wild Card tie-breaker game at Cincinnati that sent the Mets to the NLDS

Todd Pratt hit a 10th inning, walk-off, series-ending home run in Game 4 vs. Arizona in the 1999 National League Division Series in a 4-3 win.

ATLANTA BRAVES vs. NEW YORK METS
METS LOST SERIES, 4-2

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series.

Gerald Williams had an RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game 1.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game 2. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In Game 3, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss.

Trailing 2-1 in the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game 4. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Game 5 was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing 5-0 after the first inning, the Mets battled back in Game 6. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS vs. NEW YORK METS
METS WON SERIES, 4-1

New York defeated its longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986.

In Game 1, Mike Piazza had an RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game 2, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3 vanish before Payton's ninth-inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game 3.

New York set a postseason record with five doubles in one inning (first) and scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game 5. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career postseason RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless innings, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

TRADITION FIELD

(772) 871-2100 • Tickets (772) 871-2115

EST. 1988 • CAPACITY 7,000

Constructed in 1988, Tradition Field is the spring training home of the New York Mets, as well as the home to the St. Lucie Mets (A) of the Florida State League and the Gulf Coast Mets rookie league team. Originally named Thomas J. White Stadium in honor of the man whose development company built and secured financing for the stadium project, which was the anchor of White's 4,614-acre master-planned St. Lucie West community. Thomas J. White Stadium opened on March 5, 1988.

The Mets moved their spring training home from St. Petersburg, FL in 1988 after being located in St. Petersburg from 1962-1987.

The ballpark underwent its biggest "improvement program" following spring training in 2003. The $10 million that was spent modified, enhanced and expanded the stadium, which was renamed Tradition Field upon the completion of the renovations.

Tradition Field received several new features in 2012. The rightfield bleacher was replaced with 500 field-level seats, highlighted by an outdoor bar and grill similar to the third-base side Tiki Bar.

The rightfield section was also connected to the outfield grass berm area for easy access throughout the facility. The scoreboard was upgraded to include a larger screen and now replays highlights in HD.

Beyond the stadium gates stands an eight-foot tall sculpture that features a piece of steel that was originally part of the World Trade Center. The sculpture also displays the date 9-11-01 on the piece of steel which rests between two twin towers.

The stadium's newest addition is the Barwis Methods gym, added in 2014 underneath the rightfield stands. The world-class facility features Barwis Methods trainers, programs, equipment and more and is quickly becoming recognized as the most desired training facility in the south for professional and elite athletes of all sports. It is open to the public. For more information please call 772-871-2123.

The stadium has a seating capacity of 7,000 and is available for baseball tournaments, concerts, festivals and much more.
