ABOUT TEAM ISRAEL

Team Israel returns to the national stage for the 2026 World Baseball Classic, marking the country's third ever, and third straight appearance in the tournament. Israel is one of the five teams in Pool D at loanDepot park in Miami, Fla., joining Team Dominican Republic, Team Netherlands, Team Nicaragua, and Team Venezuela. After first qualifying for the 2017 WBC with a 3-0 record in the 2016 qualifiers, Israel finished atop Pool A with a 3-0 record, defeating Chinese Taipei, South Korea, and the Netherlands before ultimately falling in the second round and finishing sixth in the tournament. Althought a rule change secured spots in the 2021 World Baseball Classic for all 2017 participants, the tournament was postponed due to the pandemic and eventually held in 2023. Israel was placed in Pool D and finished with a 1-3 record, defeating Nicaragua to clinch qualifiaction for the 2026 tournament.

GAME THREE RECAP

Team Israel dropped game three against Team Dominican Republic, 10-1, on Monday afternoon at loanDepot park. DH Spencer Horwitz (1x4, 1 R, 1 HR, 1 RBI, 3 K) hit his first WBC home run in the 4th inning for the team's lone run of the game. Accounting for one of Israel's other two hits was 2B Noah Mendlinger (1x3, 1 2B, 1 K), who doubled in the 7th inning. Mendlinger leads the team through three games with four hits, batting .444 (4x9) with a .500 OBP and 1.056 OPS. Through seven career WBC games, Mendlinger owns a .368 AVG (7x19), .455 OBP, and .876 OPS. His seven hits rank third in Israel WBC history, trailing only C Ryan Lavarnway (nine) and INF Ike Davis (eight).

THE FUTURE

With Sunday night's win vs. Nicaragua, Israel improved to 2-0 in all-time WBC play against Nicaragua while also securing the country's spot in the next World Baseball Classic and avoiding the next qualifiers. It will represent the fourth time in the last four WBCs that Israel secured a spot in the Classic.

ABOUT SUNDAY NIGHT...

Israel secured the first-ever shutout victory in the team's WBC history on Sunday night powered by 4.1 scoreless innings from starting RHP Dean Kremer and a combined 4.2 scoreless relief innings from RHP Josh Mallitz, RHP Matt Bowman, RHP Max Lazar, and RHP Tommy Kahnle. On the other side of the ball, Israel put together a four-run, 5th inning, tying the second-most runs and marking the second-most hits for the team in a single inning in a WBC game, and the most since the 2017 run.

GONE YARD

OF RJ Schreck (6th inning) and OF Harrison Bader (9th inning) both homered in their WBC debuts vs. Venezuela on Saturday night. Schreck (Toronto's No. 9 prospect per MLB Pipeline) became the first Israel player to homer in the WBC since INF Nate Frieman on March 13, 2017 vs. Netherlands (no Team Israel player hit a home run in the 2023 WBC). With both Bader and Schreck homering in Saturday's game, it marked only the second time in Israel's WBC history that two players have hit a home run in a game (also, INF Nate Frieman and C Ryan Lavarnway on March 7, 2017 vs. Chinese Taipei).

AT THE HELM

Team Israel will be led by Manager Brad Ausmus, who was appointed the role in November 2025, returning to the helm for Israel for the first time since he managed the 2012 team during the World Baseball Classic qualifying tournament. The New Haven, Conn., native and 18-year Major League veteran previously managed the Detroit Tigers from 2014-17 and the Los Angeles Angels in 2019. Ausmus also served as Team Israel's Bench Coach for the 2023 WBC, the role he also currently holds with the New York Yankees (2024-present). His Major League career included stops with the San Diego Padres, Detroit Tigers, Houston Astros, and Los Angeles Dodgers, where he was a one-time All-Star (1999) and three-time Gold Glove winner at catcher (2001-02, '06).

MEET THE STAFF

Joining Manager Brad Ausmus on the Team Israel coaching staff are former Major Leaguers, former Team Israel players, and returning coaches, including: First Base Coach Jason Bell, Hitting Coach Blake Gailen, Pitching Coach Brad Goldberg, Third Base Coach Mark Loretta, Bullpen Coach Jason Marquis, Outfield Coach Jerry Narron, Hitting Coach Tyger Pederson, and Bench Coach Kevin Youkilis. The staff also features Bullpen Catchers Justin Kovalsky and Jason Agresti, as well as Batting Practice Pitcher Nate Fish.

HOW THE TEAM WAS BUILT

Team Israel's 2026 World Baseball Classic roster is made up of 30 total players, including 17 pitchers (14 RHP/3 LHP), two catchers, six infielders, and five outfielders. Of these 30 players, 24 of them are represented within 17 MLB organizations, including two players apiece from the New York Mets (RHP Jordan Geber and RHP Ben Simon), Philadelphia Phillies (RHP Max Lazar and C Garrett Stubbs), St. Louis Cardinals (INF Noah Mendlinger and OF Zach Levenson), and Toronto Blue Jays (C CJ Stubbs and OF RJ Schreck).

- Additionally, 12 of Israel's 30 players have garnered Major League service time: OF Harrison Bader, RHP Matt Bowman, LHP Jake Fishman, INF Spencer Horwitz, RHP Tommy Kahnle, LHP Rob Kaminsky, RHP Max Lazar, INF Matt Mervis, C CJ Stubbs, C Garrett Stubbs, and RHP Zack Weiss.

THIS IS BROTHERHOOD

Team Israel's catching contigent is made up of brothers Garrett Stubbs (32) and CJ Stubbs (29). Both Garrett and CJ participated in the 2023 WBC, however CJ was only added to the roster after Garrett was placed on the Injured List with a mild knee sprain he suffered during the game vs. Nicaragua on March 12. Three and a half years apart, the Stubbs brothers missed out on playing together at their high school (Torrey Pines HS) in their hometown of San Diego, Calif., and again at the University of Southern California, where they both played collegiately. The 2026 WBC represents the first time the brothers will play on the same team in over 20 years, as they also join these other sets of brothers to both have made their MLB debuts in this year's Classic (h/t @EliasSports and @SlangsOnSports): Bo and Josh Naylor for Canada, and William and Willson Contreras for Venezuela). The Stubbs' brothers become the first set of siblings to ever play together for Team Israel in the WBC.
