Regular Season | Game 49 | Home Game 26

TV: SNLA, MLBN | Radio: AM 570, KTNQ 1020 AM

SNAKE BIT: The Dodgers lost their fourth consecutive game on Monday night, falling to Arizona, 9-5. The loss brings about the Dodgers’ first four-game home losing streak since the club lost five straight from May 10-21, 2018. Los Angeles is in the midst of a nine-game homestand (2-5) that is the second longest home stretch this season, just behind a 10-gamer coming up from June 13-22. Tonight is the middle contest of a three-game series with the division-rival Diamondbacks as the Dodgers try to avoid losing their second consecutive series and sixth of the season (10-5-1). Los Angeles has not lost five consecutive games overall since doing so from May 21-26, 2024. Following the series finale tomorrow night, the Dodgers fly to New York and begin a six-game road trip on Friday night vs. the Mets (May 23-25) and Guardians (May 26-28).

- At 29-19 (.604), the Dodgers are tied with the New York Mets for the second best record in the National League, just a half-game behind Philadelphia (29-18). L.A. is still a half-game ahead of the San Diego Padres for first place in the National League West.
- The Dodgers have played just eight games vs. the National League West this season (5-3) and tonight play the sixth contest out of seven vs. Arizona in a 13-day span (May 8-21). Last year, L.A. went 7-6 vs. Arizona, including a 2-4 record at Dodger Stadium. Los Angeles hasn’t lost a season series to the Diamondbacks since going 8-11 in 2018.
- Tonight is Mexican Heritage Night, presented by Hornitos, and those that purchased their tickets via a special ticket pack will receive a tan and green Los Dodgers jersey. In addition, a luchador wrestling match will also be held in centerfield during the pregame festivities.

ALWAYS PLAYING CATCH-UP: The Dodgers fell behind 7-0 and were unable to mount a serious comeback, falling to the Diamondbacks, 9-5, in the first contest of their three-game series. Jack Dreyer (2-2) was the opener and took the loss after giving up three runs in his 2.0 innings of work while Landon Knack picked up the bulk innings in relief, allowing four runs in 5.0 innings. Knack’s 106 pitches were a Dodger season high and the most by a Dodger reliever since knuckleballer Tom Candiotti tossed 127 out of the bullpen on July 18, 1994 at Shea Stadium in New York. After the Diamondbacks plated two runs in the first inning last night, Los Angeles has now given up multiple first-inning runs in four consecutive games and has yielded at least one first-inning score in five straight contests. Overall, the Dodgers have surrendered 38 first-inning runs, most in the National League. Offensively, L.A. mustered just six hits, highlighted by Mookie Betts’ two solo homers. Betts has now gone deep multiple times in a game on 31 different occasions in his career and he’s one of five active players (Manny Machado, Aaron Judge, Giancarlo Stanton, Kyle Schwarber) to have 30 or more multi-homer contests.

- The Dodger offense leads the NL in homers (80), runs scored (277-tied), runs per game (5.77-tied), batting average (.270), hits (442), slugging pct. (.477), OBP (.345) and OPS (.822). Los Angeles has homered in 41 of its 48 games this season, with multi-homer games in 27 of them.
- Freddie Freeman (1.088) ranks first in the NL in OPS and Shohei Ohtani (1.078) ranks second while Ohtani ranks first in slugging percentage (.672) and Freeman ranks second (.662). Will Smith (.450) and Freeman (.426) rank 1-2 in on-base percentage and Ohtani, following last night’s solo homer, leads the Major Leagues with 51 runs scored and 17 home runs. Ohtani’s 29 extra-base hits are tied with Corbin Carroll for first in the NL and trail Aaron Judge by one for the most in the Majors.

FANTASTIC FREDDIE: Dodger first baseman Freddie Freeman went 1-for-4 with a double and a run scored last night and leads the National League with a .368 average, ranking second only to Aaron Judge (.401) for the big league lead. Last Monday, he was named the National League Player of the Week, the 10th time he has been honored and fifth since joining Los Angeles in 2022.

- Freeman is hitting .370 (37-for-100) vs. righties this season, which is the best mark in the National League. He’s also batting .412 (14-for-34) while cracking three homers with runners in scoring position and despite playing in just 37 games, he ranks eighth in the NL with 34 RBI.
- Freeman went 7-for-15 in the recent four-game series in Arizona and has hit a whopping .343 with a 1.037 OPS vs. the Diamondbacks in 109 career games. Among players with a minimum of 250 plate appearances, Freeman is tied with Jose Reyes for the second-best average vs. the Snakes all-time, trailing just Hall of Famer Larry Walker (.357).

YAMAMOTO MOJO: Dodger starter Yoshinobu Yamamoto takes the mound for his 10th start of the 2025 campaign this evening, looking for his second straight win after beating the Athletics last Wednesday (6.0 IP, 4 H, 3 R, 2 BB, 6 K). Yamamoto leads the National League in opponents’ batting average (.187) and ranks among the NL leaders in ERA (2.12, 3rd), WHIP (0.98, 3rd), opponents’ OBP (.256, 3rd), opponents’ slugging (.313, 6th), opponents’ OPS (.569, 2nd), strikeouts (59, T-9th) and wins (5, T-3rd).
