WELCOME TO THE NATIONALS, PAUL TOBONI

The Washington Nationals reached an agreement with Paul Toboni to join the Club as its President of Baseball Operations on Oct. 1...Widely regarded as one of the best young executives in baseball, Toboni will bring a fresh voice to the organization, providing valuable experience in scouting and player development to build around the Nationals talented core of young star players.

- Toboni comes to the Nationals from the Boston Red Sox, where he most recently held the title of Senior Vice President, Assistant General Manager...In his time with Boston, Toboni oversaw player development at the Major and Minor League levels as well as the MLB First-Year Player Draft and was one of the key voices in the organization's larger baseball operations strategy.

2025 PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARDS

The Washington Nationals announced the winners of the tenth-annual end-of-season awards, as voted on by members of the local media...Outfielder James Wood was voted the 2025 Nationals Player of the Year, while left-handed pitcher MacKenzie Gore was named Pitcher of the Year...First baseman/designated hitter Josh Bell was given the Good Guy Award, presented to a player for his always-professional dealings with members of the media, his work in the community and for representing the Nationals organization with class both on and off the field. All three players were named award winners for the first time.

- James Wood - Player of the Year
  - Wood led the Nationals and ranked among National League hitters in doubles (T4th, 38), extra-base hits (7th, 69) and walks (10th, 85)...He also led the club in home runs (31), RBI (94) and hits (153) and led qualified Nationals in on-base percentage (.350), slugging percentage (.475) and OPS (.825)...Wood is the only player in Major League Baseball with at least 30 homers, 38 doubles and 15 stolen bases this season and the second player in Nationals history (2005-pres.) to do so (Alfonso Soriano, 2006).

OUR DIAMOND, OUR DISTRICT

The new Washington Nationals City Connect uniforms are an homage to the quadrants, grand avenues and even the traffic circles that connect us...More than just pathways through our nation's capital, these are the streets that bring us home, and we are proud to wear those streets on our hearts...This is the District Blueprint.

- The District Blueprint cap and jersey patch both feature a new stylized block W, which surrounds the outline of the Capitol Dome...The W is flanked on either side by the District's iconic cherry blossoms.
- On the patch, the W sits on a tile background, reminiscent of some of the city's most recognizable architectural features like the Capitol rotunda, Library of Congress and brutalist Metro stations.
- The interlocking DC on the chest, which was worn by the Nationals from 2006-10, receives a 3D treatment in a nod to the 1956 Washington Senators logo.
- A mosaic detail trims the white pants, representing the diverse makeup of Washington, D.C., and how its residents come together to form a work of art.
