HURRICANE PRISCILLA STORMS CANCEL AFL TUCSON TRIPLEHEADER

PHOENIX – Due to weather concerns related to Hurricane Priscilla, the Arizona Fall League has canceled the AFL Tucson Tripleheader at Kino Veterans Memorial Stadium scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 11, 2025.

“While we are disappointed in the decision to cancel this event, the safety of our players, staff, and fans is our utmost priority at this time,” Chuck Fox, Director of the Arizona Fall League, said. “We hope to continue to foster a positive relationship with those in Tucson and at Kino Sports Complex in the future.”

For fans who purchased tickets to Saturday’s event, the AFL will be providing the option to either exchange for tickets to both the Arizona Fall League Home Run Derby (Nov. 8) and the Fall Stars Game (Nov. 9) or receive a full refund through the original method of purchase. Fans should expect an email within the coming days. For further questions, please email arizonafallleague@mlb.com.

Every attempt will be made for the games to be made up later date at a new site. Additional details will be available later.
