JACKIE ROBINSON DAY—Major League Baseball has celebrated Jackie Robinson's legacy in an extensive and unified league-wide show of support over the years, including retiring his number throughout the majors in 1997, dedicating April 15 as Jackie Robinson Day since 2004, and requesting that every player and all on-field personnel wear his No. 42 during games scheduled on Jackie Robinson Day since 2009…the Rays will honor the 75th anniversary of Jackie breaking baseball's color barrier in 1947 with community events and their annual investment of $100,000 to support organizations committed to ending systematic racism.

RAY MATTER—Today the Rays continue a stretch of 13 games in 13 days, the longest scheduled stretch without an off day to start a season in club history…the Rays are coming off a season-opening 7-game homestand in which they swept the Orioles in a 3-game series before going 1-3 against the Athletics, and losing the last 2 games…the Rays lost a 4-game series at home for the third time since the start of the 2019 season, following April 12-15, 2021 vs. TEX (1-3) and May 30–June 2, 2019 vs. MIN (1-3)…at 4-3, the Rays are tied with the Blue Jays and Yankees for the AL East lead and are a ½-game back of the Astros, Guardians and the White Sox in the AL.
