Yankees 2015 Regular Season Schedule 200

In addition to Derek Jeter's traditional player bio, which can be found on p. 94-100, this book also contains a timeline of events and photos from "Derek Jeter Day" on Sept. 7 at Yankee Stadium (p. 46-47) and descriptions and photos of the gifts he received from opposing teams throughout the season (p. 48-49).

2014 Season Summary

THE END OF AN ERA: After a franchise-record 20 seasons with the club, SS Derek Jeter played his final Major League game on 9/28 at Boston, going 1-for-2 with a third-inning, RBI-infield single off Clay Buchholz in his final at-bat before being removed for pinch-runner Brian McCann…the five-time World Series champion and 14-time AL All-Star finished his career ranked sixth on Baseball's all-time list with 3,465 hits.

- The 20 seasons in pinstripes (1995-2014) for Jeter is the longest career for any MLBer who played exclusively for winning teams, surpassing the mark set last season by Mariano Rivera, whose Yankees teams finished with a winning record in all 19 (1995-2013) of his MLB seasons.
- According to Elias, Jeter went 1,628-1,117-2 (.593) in regular season games in which he appeared, marking the highest personal winning percentage among all active players (min. 1,000G) at the time of his retirement.
- Of the 2,747 career regular season games Jeter played in, there were just four in which the Yankees had already been mathematically eliminated from postseason contention (three in 2014: 9/27-28 at Boston, 9/25 vs. Baltimore and 9/26/08 at Boston).
- On 9/7, the Yankees held Derek Jeter Day, which included a pregame ceremony with Hall of Famers Cal Ripken Jr., Joe Torre and Dave Winfield, numerous former teammates, NBA great Michael Jordan and other special guests.
- On 9/23, MLB Commissioner Bud Selig visited Yankee Stadium and presented Jeter with the Commissioner's Historic Achievement Award…became the award's 15th recipient, which was created in 1998 to recognize accomplishments and contributions of historical significance…former Yankee Mariano Rivera received the honor during the 2013 World Series.
- Jeter announced he would retire following the 2014 season in a press conference on 2/12/14 in Tampa.

HOLLYWOOD ENDING: On 9/25 at Yankee Stadium, the Yankees won the final career home game of SS Derek Jeter (2-for-5, 2R, 3RBI), defeating the Orioles, 6-5, on his one-out, ninth-inning, "walk-off" single in front of a season-high, sellout crowd of 48,613…Jeter also had an RBI-double in the first and an RBI-groundout in the seventh…marked the seventh and final regular season "walk-off" hit of his career (first since 6/8/07 vs. Pittsburgh)…according to Elias, it was his first "walk-off" RBI since a ninth-inning fielder's choice on 8/13/07 vs. Baltimore.

- Over his final Yankee Stadium homestand from 9/18-25, Jeter batted .353 (12-for-34) with 5R, 4 doubles, 1HR and 9RBI in eight games.

AFTERTHOUGHTS: The Yankees failed to make the postseason for just the third time in the last 20 seasons (also 2013 and 2008)….it also marked the first time that they did not qualify in back-to-back years that postseasons were played since 1992-93 (the 1994 postseason was canceled).

MORE THAN HALF-FULL: With 84 wins in 2014, the Yankees clinched a winning record for the 22nd consecutive year (1993-2014)…marks the second-longest such stretch in MLB history, trailing only the Yankees' streak of 39 consecutive winning records from 1926-64.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Yankees have had 23 consecutive winning seasons at home from 1992-2014 (went 43-38 at home in 2014)…according to Elias, it is the third-longest such streak in Major League history, trailing only the Yankees' 47-year home winning streak from 1918-64 and the Pirates' 24-year streak from 1892-1915.

- Went 25-15 at home after the All-Star break.

THE BRONX BOMBERS: According to research from the Elias Sports Bureau, the Yankees have hit 15,006 home runs in franchise history since their inception in 1903…on 9/21 vs. Toronto, CF Brett Gardner hit milestone HR 15,000 with a solo-HR in the fifth…the Yankees are the only team in MLB history with more than 14,000 HRs (the Giants are second).

TEN O'CLOCK LIGHTNING: The Yankees totaled nine "walk-off" wins in 2014, surpassing their 2013 total (seven) and marking their most since 2009 (15)…all occurred in the club's final 49 home games (since 6/20) and eight took place after the All-Star break…Elias notes it's the most post-All-Star "walk-offs" by the Yankees since 1988 (8)…Elias also notes that only Jeter's "walk-off" single on 9/25 vs. Baltimore was from a Yankee not in his first year with team (Headley-3, McCann-2, Beltran-1, Prado-1, Young-1).

HEAVY METAL: In 2014, the Yankees dedicated Monument Park plaques to Nelson Mandela (4/16–rescheduled from a 4/15 rainout), Tino Martinez (6/21), Rich "Goose" Gossage (6/22–Old-Timers' Day), Paul O'Neill (8/9) and Joe Torre (8/23)…additionally, Torre had his No. 6 uniform retired.

NO ORDINARY JOE: Former Yankees manager Joe Torre was inducted to the Baseball Hall of Fame on 7/27 after being unanimously elected on 12/9/13…Torre piloted the Yankees to six World Series appearances (1996, 1998-2001, '03), winning titles in his first four Fall Classics…in 12 seasons with the club (1996-2007), he compiled a 1,173-767-2 (.605) regular season record and a 76-47 (.618) postseason mark, leading the club to the postseason every year…he became the seventh former Yankees manager inducted into the HOF, joining Miller Huggins (1918-29), Joe McCarthy (1931-46), Bucky Harris (1947-48), Casey Stengel (1949-60), Yogi Berra (1964, '84-85), and Bob Lemon (1978-79, '81-82)…additionally, former Yankees player and coach Bobby Cox was inducted to the HOF…he spent his only two MLB playing seasons with the Yankees (1968-69, 220G, .225BA, 141-for-628, 9HR, 58RBI) and was the first base coach during the club's 1977 World Series championship season.

PitCChing IN: LHP CC Sabathia was named the New York Yankees' 2014 nominee for MLB's prestigious Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes the player who best represents the game of baseball through positive contributions on and off the field, including sportsmanship and community involvement…in 2009, Sabathia—along with his wife, Amber—officially established the "PitCCh In" Foundation, which is committed to the care and needs of inner-city children, while helping to raise self-esteem through sports activities and education.

WALK-OFF MAGIC: DH Carlos Beltran hit a two-out, three-run, ninth-inning, "walk-off" home run in the Yankees' 5-3 victory on 6/20 vs. Baltimore…the Elias Sports Bureau notes that it was the first Yankees "walk-off" HR with the team trailing and down to its final out since Jason Giambi hit a two-run, pinch-hit HR with two outs in the ninth off B.J. Ryan on 6/5/08 vs. Toronto to give the Yankees a 9-8 win.

- On 7/6 at Minnesota, Jeter and Suzuki became the third pair of teammates each in their 40s in Baseball history to record at least 3H apiece in the same game, joining the 1928 Philadelphia A's' Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker and the 2006 S.F. Giants' Barry Bonds and Moises Alou (credit: Elias)…Elias also notes that on 7/5 at Minnesota, Jeter and Suzuki became the first pair of 40-year-old teammates with SBs in the same game since Bonds and Omar Vizquel for the 2007 Giants (6/24/07 vs. NYY).

TIME STAMP: On 6/27 and 6/28 at Yankee Stadium, the Yankees and Red Sox played nine-inning games lasting 2:42 and 2:47, respectively…marked the first time the two clubs played consecutive games against each other in 2:47-or-less since 4/16/01 at Fenway Park (2:38) and 4/20/01 at the original Yankee Stadium (2:39)…last played two such consecutive games within the same series on 9/16/97 in a doubleheader at the original Yankee Stadium (G1-2:47, G2-2:33).

CLOSE CALLS: The Yankees had a streak of 16 consecutive games decided by two-or-fewer runs from 7/20-8/5, going 9-7 over the stretch…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was tied for the third-longest streak of its kind in Major League history behind an 18-game stretch by the 1968 Twins and a 17-game span by the 1960 Phillies (the 1975 Orioles and 1916 Braves also had 16G streaks).

BEST FOR A STRETCH: LF Brett Gardner was named the AL "Player of the Week" for 7/28-8/3…batted .478 (11-for-23) with 8R, 3 doubles, 5HR, 7RBI and 5BB in 6G to capture his second career weekly honor (also 6/3-9/13).

BEAN COUNTING: On 7/31, the Yankees acquired INF Stephen Drew and cash considerations from Boston for INF Kelly Johnson…was the first trade between the clubs since 8/13/97, when the Yankees acquired 1B/DH Mike Stanley and minor league INF Randy Brown in exchange for RHP Tony Armas and a player to be named later (RHP Jim Mecir).

- On the same day, acquired INF/OF Martin Prado from Arizona for minor leaguer Pete O'Brien and either cash considerations or a player to be named later…Prado batted .389 (35-for-90) with 16R, 6HR and 14RBI in his final 24G of 2014 (8/16-9/15) before undergoing an appendectomy on 9/16 and being placed on the 60-day D.L.

TIGER BEAT: The Yankees went 3-1 vs. Detroit from 8/4-7, allowing just 24H and posting a 0.92 ERA over the four-game stretch (39.0IP, 6R, 4ER, 8BB, 35K, 2HR).

- Faced three former Cy Young Award winners in the first three games of the series (Max Scherzer-8/4, David Price-8/5, and Justin Verlander-8/6, with the Yankees winning the first and third games)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the third time in franchise history the Yankees have faced former Cy Young-winning starting pitchers in three straight games…went 1-2 from 6/8-10/01 vs. Atlanta (Tom Glavine, John Smoltz and Greg Maddux)…also went 1-2 spanning the All-Star break in 1999, losing on 7/11/99 at Shea Stadium to the Mets' Orel Hershiser, then going 1-1 from 7/15-16/99 vs. Atlanta at Yankee Stadium (Glavine & Maddux).

NO FREE PASSES: The Yankees' 4-3, 12-inning loss on 8/5 vs. Detroit featured no walks and 22 strikeouts (10K by Yankees pitchers and 12K by Tigers pitchers)…the Elias Sports Bureau notes that over the last 100 years, only four other Major League games went at least 12 inn. with neither team drawing a walk: Milwaukee at California on 7/5/87 (12 inn.); Chicago-NL at L.A.-NL on 7/27/80 (12 inn.); Cincinnati at Pittsburgh on 9/19/59 (12 inn.); and Brooklyn at Pittsburgh on 7/25/17 (13 inn.).

ONCE BITTEN, TWICE SHY: On 8/10 vs. Cleveland, the Yankees avoided being shut out for the second consecutive game with a two-out, ninth-inning solo-HR by CF Jacoby Ellsbury…were last shut out in consecutive games on 5/12-13/99 vs. Anaheim (1-0 and 2-0, respectively)…have played 2,557 games since then, marking the longest streak of not being shut out in consecutive games in MLB history according to the Elias Sports Bureau…Elias also notes that the second-longest such streak in MLB history belongs to the Cardinals, who played 2,367G between being shut out in back-to-back games on 9/24-25/95 and 7/22-23/10.

IN A PINCH: PH Brian McCann entered the Yankees' 8/24 win as a 10th-inning pinch-hitter and hit a three-run, "walk-off" HR…was his sixth career "walk-off" hit, second of the season (also a single on 7/20 vs. Cincinnati) and third career "walk-off" HR (also 8/29/10 vs. Florida and 5/17/11 vs. Houston, both with Atlanta as a catcher)…was the first pinch-hit, "walk-off" HR by a Yankee since Jason Giambi accomplished the feat vs. Toronto on 6/5/08 (ninth inning off B.J. Ryan).

HIT PARADE: In the Yankees' 8-4 win on 8/27 at Detroit, Yankees batters recorded nine consecutive hits to begin the third inning (all off David Price)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time an MLB team began an inning with nine straight hits since St. Louis on 9/6/13 vs. Pittsburgh (also 9H) and the first time by an AL team since Detroit on 4/16/96 at Toronto (also 9H)…ESPN research notes that it was 1H shy of tying the AL record and 3H shy of tying the MLB record…the nine total hits in the inning marked the most by the Yankees since 7/30/11 vs. Baltimore (10H in first inn.)…the hits were single, double, single, double followed by five more singles and two sac flies…the 8R scored in the frame marked a Yankees single-inning season high.

WHAT A RELIEF: Over 8G from 9/3-11, Yankees relievers allowed just 1ER in 31.0IP (14H, 6BB, 31K, .139 opp BA)…had a 28.1-inning scoreless streak snapped in their 9/10 win vs. Tampa Bay, which marked the longest scoreless stretch by Yankees relievers since July-August 1998 (37.1IP) according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

JUST PERFECT: In the Yankees' 9/17 win at Tampa Bay, RHP Brandon McCarthy struck out the side on nine pitches in the seventh inning…was the first such inning by a Yankee since Ivan Nova on 5/29/13 vs. the Mets (8th inn.).

On August 24 vs. the White Sox, Brian McCann hit a pinch-hit, three-run, "walk-off" homer in the 10th inning to give the Yankees a 7-4 victory. It marked McCann's third career "walk-off" homer (also 5/17/11 vs. Houston and 8/29/10 vs. Florida, both with Atlanta) and third career pinch-hit homer (also 5/17/11 vs. Houston and 8/11/10 at Houston, both with Atlanta). The occasion marked the first pinch-hit, "walk-off" home run by a Yankee since Jason Giambi hit a two-run homer in the ninth on 6/5/08 off Toronto's B.J. Ryan to give the Yankees a 9-8 win.

2014 Opening Day Lineup and Notes

Aside from Opening Day 2014 starting pitcher CC Sabathia, the Yankees had a completely different defensive alignment compared to Opening Day 2013. Among non-pitchers, only LF Brett Gardner started 2013 Opening Day vs. Boston — and he started in a different position (CF in 2013). It was the first time the Yankees have had completely different non-pitching starters at each defensive position from one Opening Day to the next since 1946 and '47.

Derek Jeter addresses crowd

"It's kind of hard to believe that 20 seasons have gone by so quickly. There are so many people I want to thank, and I'll get the opportunity to do that over the next few weeks both publicly and privately.

I want to take a brief moment to thank the Steinbrenner family and Mr. George Steinbrenner for giving me the opportunity to play my entire career for the only organization I ever wanted to play for. I want to thank my family and friends, who are all over. Thanks for all the love and support throughout the years, through the good times, and more importantly, through the tough times. Thank you very much.

My managers, coaches, trainers, teammates, both current and former. I've been blessed to play with the best. I wouldn't want to compete without any of you guys, so thank you very much.

Lastly, most importantly, I want to thank you, the fans. Everyone that's here today, anyone that's at home watching, anyone that's ever been here over the course or watched during the last 20 seasons, thank you very much. You guys have all watched me grow up over the last 20 years. I've watched you, too. Some of you guys are getting old, too. But I want to thank you for helping my feel like a kid for the last 20 years.

In my opinion, I've had the greatest job in the world. I've had the chance to be the shortstop for the New York Yankees—and there's only one of those. I always felt as though my job was to try to provide joy and entertainment for you guys, but it can't compare to what you've brought me, so for that, thank you very much.

I've loved what I've done, I love what I do, and more importantly, I've loved doing it for you. So from the bottom of my heart, thank you very much.

We've got a game to play."

Bean boots, Dustin Pedroia gave him a pinstriped second base with a No. 2 on it, and David Ortiz handed Jeter a check to the Turn 2 Foundation for $22,222.22. Michelle Brooks Thompson then sang the Aretha Franklin classic "Respect."

Yankees HOPE Week 2014

During the 2014 season, the Yankees held their sixth annual HOPE Week (Helping Others Persevere & Excel) – an initiative rooted in the belief that acts of goodwill provide hope and encouragement to more than just the recipient of the gesture.

Each day during HOPE Week, the Yankees reached out to an individual, family or organization worthy of recognition and support. Whenever possible, the Yankees attempted to personally connect with individuals in the settings of their greatest successes or at locations that honor the spirit of their noble endeavors. All outreach in the community ultimately culminated with recognition at Yankee Stadium during a Yankees game.

HOPE Week is about people helping people. By involving every one of our players and coaches, along with Manager Joe Girardi, General Manager Brian Cashman, our minor league affiliates and front office staff, the Yankees are sending the message that everyone can give of themselves to make their community a better place. Equally significant during HOPE Week is garnering publicity for highlighted causes and organizations. The greatest challenge facing many not-for-profits is generating interest, awareness and funding for their missions.

Additionally, nonprofit 501(c)3 organizations related to the 2014 honorees each received a $10,000 gift from the Yankees Foundation to assist and encourage them to continue their good works.

The Yankees encourage all their fans to get involved…Give HOPE!

MONDAY, JUNE 16

The New York Yankees kicked off HOPE Week 2014 by bringing together representatives from all 25 prior HOPE Week days for a reunion at the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum. The gathering celebrated the five-year anniversary of the initiative. Yankees General Partner / Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal, Yankees General Manager Brian Cashman, former Yankees Mariano RIvera and David Cone, and current Yankees pitcher Ivan Nova were on hand to support the former HOPE Week honorees. The Yankees were proud to host this event at the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum, which serves as an enduring tribute to this country's heroes. It was important to the Yankees that the site of the reunion be as grand and meaningful as the dreams, actions and aspirations of our honorees.

Yankees General Partner/Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal (wearing HOPE Week pin) and former Yankees pitcher David Cone (wearing HOPE Week shirt) helped HOPE Week honorees cut a specially made cake from TV's Cake Boss. HOPE Week honorees from L to R are: Melvin Williams (blue cap), Autumn Blinn (pink T-shirt), Jane Lang (with cap), and Andy Fass (foreground wearing Yankees T-shirt).

TUESDAY, JUNE 17

The New York Yankees held the second day of HOPE Week 2014 by celebrating Career Gear (www.careergear.org), which is an organization that helps promote the economic independence of low-income men by providing financial literacy training, professional attire and career development tools. Derek Jeter, Jacoby Ellsbury, Hiroki Kuroda, Brian Roberts and Alfonso Soriano visited Career Gear's office in lower Manhattan, where they helped measure and outfit men with suits provided by DKNY. Career Gear participants then shared their respective success stories. These men and their families, along with administrators from Career Gear, were then guests of the Yankees for the team's game vs. Toronto at Yankee Stadium.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18

The Yankees celebrated the non-profit group Friends of Jaclyn (www.friendsofjaclyn.org). In March 2004, 9-year-old Jaclyn Murphy was diagnosed with a malignant brain tumor. When the Northwestern University women's lacrosse team learned about what Jaclyn was going through, they "adopted" her as an honorary member of the team. Later that spring, Northwestern won its first-ever national championship. Seeing how much it meant to his daughter's recovery, Jaclyn's father, Denis, started the Friends of Jaclyn organization to improve the quality of life of pediatric brain tumor patients by pairing them with collegiate and high school sports teams. Joe Girardi, David Robertson, Ichiro Suzuki, Shawn Kelley, Francisco Cervelli, David Phelps and Matt Thornton surprised Jaclyn (who is now a student at Marist College) and three young children who are participants in the Friends of Jaclyn program: Ryan Tucker (12) and Quinn Ostergren (4), who are cousins, along with 11-year-old Sean Callahan. The children began their day by having lunch with the players and coaches at the Hard Rock Cafe in Manhattan. As honorary team members in the afternoon, the Yankees held a press conference to welcome them to the team in the Yankee Stadium press conference room. The children were given their own lockers in the clubhouse and suited up in Yankees uniforms before joining their new teammates for a variety of batting practice activities. After being on the field for pregame ceremonies, the Murphy, Tucker, Ostergren and Callahan families and Friends of Jaclyn representatives were guests of the Yankees for the team's game vs. Toronto.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19

The Yankees celebrated the non-profit group Musicians on Call (www.musiciansoncall.org), which provides volunteer musicians for hospital visits. Since its inception 15 years ago, the organization has had hundreds of volunteer musicians perform for over 300,000 individuals, with a focus on reaching patients who are confined to their rooms and afforded very little interaction with others due to their illnesses. Based in New York City, the organization has grown greatly, expanding to include locations in Philadelphia, Nashville, Miami, Los Angeles, Baltimore and Washington, D.C. Carlos Beltran, Brett Gardner, Vidal Nuno, Adam Warren and Chase Whitley, as well as former Yankee Bernie Williams went to the Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital at NewYork-Presbyterian, where they performed in a concert with Musicians on Call in the hospital's "Winter Garden." They then visited patients who were confined to their rooms and were unable to attend the concert. In the evening, volunteer musicians, guides and Musicians on Call representatives were guests of the Yankees for their game vs. Toronto.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

The Yankees recognized N.J. native and University of Delaware freshman Quai Jefferson. When his mother, Vaida Jefferson, was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis 11 years ago, her son was just 6 years old. By the time he was 10, he was running the household, cooking and doing laundry. Now 18 years old, Quai (pronounced Kway) graduated from St. Joseph Regional High School in Montvale, N.J. in June. He was on the honor roll and a two-sport varsity athlete in football and basketball. Over the summer, Quai began college, where he will play football and major in business administration with an emphasis in accounting or marketing. Yankees players CC Sabathia, Mark Teixeira, Masahiro Tanaka, Brian McCann, Dellin Betances, Kelly Johnson, Brendan Ryan, Yangervis Solarte and Jose Ramirez, along with YES Network broadcaster Jack Curry, were accompanied by three notable St. Joseph alumni – former Yankee and YES broadcaster John Flaherty and NFL cornerbacks Devin and Jason McCourty – in surprising Quai and his mother for a lunchtime party at Quai's high school. The group was joined by faculty members who have had a profound influence on Quai's life. All were guests of the Yankees for the team's game vs. Baltimore at Yankee Stadium.

President's Volunteer Service Award

At the conclusion of each of the last five HOPE Weeks (2010-14), the Yankees were honored with the President's Volunteer Service Award, given "in recognition and appreciation of commitment to strengthening the Nation and for making a difference through volunteer service." The award was bestowed by the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation in conjunction with the Corporation for National and Community Service. Each of this year's HOPE Week honorees also received the award.

Monument Park Plaque Ceremonies

During the 2014 season, the Yankees added five plaques to Monument Park. The first, dedicated on April 16, celebrates the life of the late South African leader Nelson Mandela and commemorates his June 21, 1990, visit and address at the original Yankee Stadium. The remaining four plaques honor former Yankees who made unique contributions to the franchise — Tino Martinez (on June 21), "Goose" Gossage (on Old-Timers' Day June 22), Paul O'Neill (on Aug. 9) and Joe Torre (on Aug. 23). Additionally, Torre's No. 6 was retired by the club, giving the Yankees 17 retired uniform numbers for 18 players and managers.

In Monument Park, there are now seven monuments (honoring four Yankees players, one manager, one owner and the tragedy and heroes of 9/11) and 30 plaques (honoring 17 Yankees players, three managers, one owner, one executive, one PA announcer, one broadcaster, three Papal visits, Jackie Robinson, Nelson Mandela and the history of the Yankees' interlocking NY logo).

Nelson Mandela - April 16

Rescheduled due to a rainout on April 15, the Yankees honored Nelson Mandela with a plaque in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park on April 16 between games of a doubleheader vs. the Cubs. The ceremony coincided with the Yankees' celebration of Jackie Robinson Day. A press conference included singer/activist Harry Belafonte, former NYC Mayor David Dinkins, Rev. Jesse Jackson, Rev. Al Sharpton, Mr. Zondwa Mandela (grandson of Nelson Mandela), South Africa Consul General George Monyemangene, Nelson Mandela Foundation CEO Sello Hatang, Rachel and Sharon Robinson (wife/daughter of Jackie Robinson), MLB COO Rob Manfred, Hall of Famer and Executive VP of MLB Baseball Development Frank Robinson, Hector Figueroa (President, 32BJ Service Employees International Union), Yankees Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner, Yankees President Randy Levine and Yankees Sr. VP Corporate/Community Relations Brian Smith.

At the time of his June 21, 1990, appearance at the original Yankee Stadium, Nelson Mandela was only four months removed from his release after 27 years in prison. For his historic visit, Yankee Stadium was opened to fans, who enjoyed musical performances from Richie Havens, Tracy Chapman, Mighty Sparrow and Judy Collins. Mandela arrived at Yankee Stadium at the end of the concert, following a day of meeting and addressing New Yorkers in various locations around the city. He spoke to the assembled crowd, then donned a Yankees cap and Yankees jacket and declared — "You know who I am. I am a Yankee."

Tino Martinez - June 21

Acquired by the Yankees from Seattle prior to the 1996 season, Martinez went on to play seven seasons with New York (1996-2001, '05), helping to lead the team to four World Series victories during that time (1996, '98-2000). He combined to hit .276 with 192 home runs and 739 RBI in his pinstriped career. He is arguably best known for his grand slam off San Diego's Mark Langston in Game 1 of the 1998 World Series at Yankee Stadium that gave the Yankees the lead and helped propel them to the 24th World Championship in franchise history.

Rich "Goose" Gossage - June 22 (Old-Timers' Day)

Gossage, who was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008, played in parts of seven seasons with the Yankees (1978-83, '89), winning a World Series with the team in 1978. The nine-time All-Star compiled a 42-28 record with a 2.14 ERA with the Yankees, including 151 saves and 512 strikeouts in 319 games. He allowed just 390 hits in 533.0 innings pitched during his time in pinstripes. Gossage trails only Mariano Rivera (652) and Dave Righetti (224) on the all-time Yankees saves list.

Paul O'Neill - August 9

O'Neill [pictured at right with wife, Nevalee] spent the final nine seasons of his 17-year Major League career in the Bronx (1993-2001), winning four world titles with New York (1996, '98-2000). He concluded his Yankees career with a .303 batting average, 304 doubles, 185 home runs and 858 RBI, claiming the American League batting title in 1994 with a .359 average. Affectionately nicknamed "warrior" by fans, he played in 236 consecutive games in right field without making an error from July 24, 1995 to May 6, 1997. In 2001, at the age of 38, O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season.

Joe Torre - August 23 (His No. 6 also retired)

Currently serving as MLB's Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations, Torre spent 12 seasons as Yankees manager (1996-2007). He piloted the team to six World Series appearances (1996, '98-2001, '03) and four World Championships (1996, '98-2000). He compiled a 1,173-767 (.605) regular season record and a 76-47 (.618) postseason mark during his Yankees tenure, leading the club to the playoffs in each year that he managed the team. While with the organization, he went 21-11 in the World Series, 27-14 in the ALCS and 28-22 in the ALDS. His regular season wins total is second in club history to only Joe McCarthy, who went 1,460-867 (.627) over 16 seasons.

2014 Hall of Fame Inductees

On December 9, 2013, the National Baseball Hall of Fame announced that former New York Yankees manager Joe Torre had been elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame based on voting results of the Expansion Era ballot. Torre piloted the Yankees to six World Series appearances (1996, '98-2001, '03), winning World Championships in his first four Fall Classics with the team.

Additionally, Bobby Cox, who spent his only two Major League playing seasons with the Yankees (1968-69) and was the club's first base coach in their 1977 World Championship season under manager Billy Martin, was also elected to the Hall of Fame via the same balloting process. Cox played in 220 career games with the club, batting .225 (141-for-628) with 50 runs, 22 doubles, two triples, nine home runs and 58 runs batted in.

Torre and Cox were unanimously elected by the 16 members of the Expansion Era Committee, which considered individuals whose most significant impact on Baseball occurred since 1973. Election required at least 75 percent of the vote. The induction ceremony took place on July 27, 2014, in Cooperstown, N.Y.

Manager Joe Torre is carried off the field following the Yankees' series-clinching Game 5 win in the 2000 World Series. The victory marked the Yankees' fourth World Series championship in five years.

"On behalf of the Steinbrenner family and our entire organization, I'd like to congratulate Joe Torre on his induction today into the Hall of Fame," Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner said. "Joe led our team during one of the most successful runs in our storied history, and he did it with a quiet dignity that was true to the Yankee way. Joe's place in Yankees history has been secure for quite some time and it is appropriate that he now gets to take his place among the greats in Cooperstown."

There are now 50 Yankees enshrined in the Hall of Fame, including former players, managers, coaches, owners and general managers of the club. It marks the second consecutive year that at least one Yankee has been elected. On July 28, 2013, former Yankees owner Jacob Ruppert was inducted to the Hall after a vote of the Pre-Integration Committee last December.

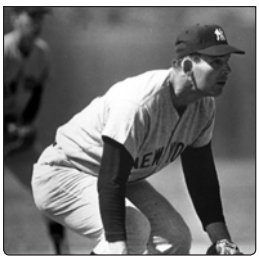
Torre joins Miller Huggins (1918-29), Joe McCarthy (1931-46), Bucky Harris (1947-48), Casey Stengel (1949-60), Yogi Berra (1964, 1984-85) and Bob Lemon (1978-79, 81-82) as the seventh former Yankees Manager in the Hall of Fame.

Among all Cooperstown inductees, Torre and Cox are members of a group of 21 Hall of Famers whose "greatest contributions" have come as a manager. They are the first managers to be inducted since Whitey Herzog was enshrined in 2010.

Torre was named the 31st manager in club history on Nov. 2, 1995. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees from 1996-2007, he compiled a 1,173-767 (.605) regular season record and 76-47 (.618) postseason mark, leading the club to the playoffs every year. With the Yankees he went 21-11 in the World Series, 27-14 in the ALCS and 28-22 in the ALDS. His regular season wins total is second in club history to Joe McCarthy, who went 1,460-867 (.627) over 16 seasons.

The 1996 club snapped a 14-year stretch without appearing in a World Series (1982-95) and a 17-year stretch without winning one (1979-95). Torre became the fourth Yankees skipper to win the Fall Classic in his first year managing the club, joining Bucky Harris (1947), Casey Stengel (1949) and Ralph Houk (1961). Beginning with Game 3 of the 1996 World Series through Game 2 of the 2000 World Series, the Torre-led Yankees won an all-time record 14 consecutive games in the Fall Classic.

The 1998 club was one of the most dominant teams of all time, finishing the regular season 114-48 (.704) and winning the AL East by 22.0 games, marking the third-largest margin of any league or division winner in MLB history, behind only Cleveland in 1995 (+30.0) and Pittsburgh in 1902 (+27.5). Their regular season winning percentage trailed only the 1927 Murderers' Row team (.714) for the best in franchise history, and their 125-50 overall record including the postseason, marks the most single-season wins by any team all time.



Bobby Cox saw his only Major League action as a third baseman with the Yankees, playing in 220 games from 1968-69.

In 29 seasons as a Major League manager, Torre went 2,326-1,997 (.538). He also managed the New York Mets (1977-81; 286-420; .405), Atlanta Braves (1982-84; 257-229; .529), St. Louis Cardinals (1990-95; 351-354; .498) and Los Angeles Dodgers (2008-10; 259-227; .533). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he ranks fifth all time in wins, trailing only Connie Mack (3,776-4,025), John McGraw (2,841-1,984), Tony La Russa (2,728-2,365) and Cox (2,504-2,001).

Torre also played 2,209 games over 18 Major League seasons as a catcher, first baseman and third baseman with the Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1960-68), St. Louis Cardinals (1969-74) and New York Mets (1975-77), batting .297 (2,342-for-7,874) with 996 runs, 344 doubles, 252 home runs and 1,185 runs batted in. He was a nine-time All-Star (1963-67, '70-73), one-time Gold Glove Award winner at catcher (1965) and captured the 1971 NL Most Valuable Player Award, leading the Majors with a .363 (230-for-634) batting average, 137 runs batted in and 352 total bases, while hitting 24 home runs.

- Of his 270 outs, 135 came via the strikeout (50.0%).
- His 135K were most in a season for any Major League reliever since the Cubs' Carlos Marmol in 2010 (138K in 77.2IP)…according to Elias, the only rookie relievers in Major League history with at many strikeouts in one season are Toronto's Mark Eichhorn in 1986 (166K in 157.0IP) and Boston's Dick Radatz in 1962 (144K in 124.2IP).
- His 13.50K/9.0IP (90.0IP, 135K) and 4.60H/9.0IP (46H) were the best such marks in the Majors in 2014 for any pitcher with at least 75.0IP…his 4.60H/9.0IP ratio was the best such ratio in the history of the AL and the third-best such single-season ratio in Major League history (Eric Gagne, 4.04 ratio, 37H, 82.1IP in 2003 with Los Angeles-NL; and Carlos Marmol, 4.12 ratio, 40H, 87.1IP in 2008 with Chicago-NL)—min. 75.0IP.
- Led all AL relievers in innings pitched…marked the highest IP total by a Yankee in relief since Scott Proctor in 2006 (102.1IP).
- Had 51K through the Yankees' first 50 games (4/1-5/26), becoming the first rookie relief pitcher in Baseball history to strike out at least 50 batters through his team's first 50 games of a season…joined Ron Davis as the only Yankees relievers to reach at least 50K in the team's first 50 games of a season (57 in 1981).
- Reached the 50K mark in 28.2IP, the fewest innings needed to tally 50K in a season by a Yankees pitcher in franchise history, surpassing Ron Davis (31.1IP in 1981) and David Robertson (31.1IP in 2011)—credit: Elias.
- Struck out at least two batters in each of nine straight appearances from 4/17-5/10, striking out 24 batters in 13.2IP over the stretch…matched the longest streak of Mariano Rivera's career (two separate streaks of nine straight games with at least 2K in each)—credit: Baseball Reference.
- Earned his first Major League win on 4/26 vs. Los Angeles-AL, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 1BB, 3K, 1BK).
- Did not allow a walk over a 10-game stretch from 5/10-6/1, during which he struck out 26 batters in 15.1IP.

- Earned his first Major League save in 7/7 win at Cleveland, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings.
- Was named to his first career All-Star Game as voted on by his peers, but did not pitch in the 5-3 AL win at Target Field.

AL record

- Allowed a solo HR to Frazier in the eighth inning of 7/20 win vs. Cincinnati, suffering his third blown save (1.1IP, 3H, 1ER, 1K, 1HR)…the homer snapped a personal 0-for-24 stretch against right-handed batters (credit: Elias).
- Entered 7/29 win at Texas with the bases loaded and allowed a grand slam to Arencibia (0.2IP, 2H, 1ER, 1BB, 2K).
- Struck out his 100th batter on 8/5 vs. Detroit in his 50th game of the season…according to Elias, the only other Yankees pitchers to reach the 100K plateau through their first 50 relief appearances of a season are Mariano Rivera in 1996 and Joe Page in 1947.
- In 9/5 loss vs. Kansas City, tossed a perfect eighth inning (1.0IP, 2K)…recorded his 123rd strikeout of the season, surpassing Goose Gossage (122K in 1978) for the second-highest single-season strikeout total in franchise history by a reliever.
- Struck out his 131st batter of the season (Kiermaier) in 9/17 win at Tampa Bay, surpassing Mariano Rivera (130K in 107.2IP in 1996) for the highest single-season strikeout total by a reliever in Yankees history.
- Following the season, was the runner-up for the inaugural "Mariano Rivera American League Reliever of the Year Award," which was presented to Kansas City's Greg Holland…award voting is conducted by a panel of nine former relief pitchers, including Mariano Rivera.
- Made 10 spring training relief appearances with the Yankees, allowing just 1ER in 12.1IP (0.73 ERA), while striking out 11 batters.

PERSONAL

- As a senior at Grand Street Campus High School in Brooklyn, set a school record with 20K in a single game…became the first player from New York City to be honored as an Aflac All-American in 2005…during the 2005 regular season, posted a 6-0 record with a 0.22 ERA, allowing just 1ER while recording 100K in 41.2IP.

CAREER NOTES

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Phelps is the first Yankees pitcher to record nine-or-more starts and nine-or-more relief appearances in three consecutive seasons (2012-14) since Mike Kekich did so from 1969-71.
- Did not allow a home run in nine consecutive home starts from 9/19/12 - 6/2/14, the longest such streak in the six-year history of the current Yankee Stadium…according to Elias, Phelps' 50.1IP homerless streak as a starter in home games is the third-longest such streak all time at the Stadium…only CC Sabathia (56.1IP, 5/24-8/12/11) and Ivan Nova (54.2IP, 7/5-9/5/13) have produced longer such streaks at the venue.

1923 World Series Champion Yankees

The first World Series-winning team in franchise history

Led by Manager Miller Huggins, the 1923 Yankees went 98-54 during the regular season before winning the first World Series in franchise history, 4-games-to-2 over the New York Giants. The season was a turning point for the Yankees in many ways, most notably because it marked the inaugural season of the original Yankee Stadium. The victory also established the Yankees as New York City's dominant team after losses to John McGraw's Giants in the prior two Fall Classics, 5-games-to-3 in 1921 and 4-games-to-0 (with one tie) in 1922.

1962 World Series MVP Ralph Terry is carried off the field following his complete-game, 1-0 win in Game 7 at Candlestick Park over the San Francisco Giants. During the Series he went 2-1 in three starts, allowing just 5ER in 25.0IP with two walks and 16 strikeouts. The title was the Yankees' second in a row and their 10th in a 16-year span dating to 1947. For Terry, his clutch Game 7 performance was a measure of redemption. Two years earlier he allowed Bill Mazeroski's Game 7, World Series-winning, "walk-off" home run, which gave Pittsburgh the 1960 championship even though they had been outscored by the Yankees 55-27 over the course of the seven-game Series.

Yankees Postseason Series Recaps

1921 WORLD SERIES

Marked the Yankees' first ever World Series appearance in Baseball's last nine-game Fall Classic…Waite Hoyt went 2-1 despite not allowing an earned run in 27.0IP (18H, 11BB) over three starts…is tied with Christy Mathewson (1905) for the most IP without allowing an ER in a single World Series…lost, 1-0, in the Game 8 clincher, tossing a complete game and allowing an unearned run in the first inning…Carl Mays went 1-2 with a 1.73 ERA (26.0IP, 5ER) in his three starts, setting a still-standing record for most innings pitched in a single postseason without allowing a walk…Babe Ruth hit the first of his 15 career World Series home runs in a losing effort in Game 4.
