Saturday, April 25, 2026 | 4:15 P.M. PT | UNIQLO Field at Dodger Stadium
Los Angeles, CA | Regular Season | Game 27
TV: FOX | Radio: AM 570, KTNQ 1020 AM

PATRIOTS DAY: The Dodgers dropped the first contest of their six-game homestand last night, falling to the Chicago Cubs, who have won 10 consecutive games. Los Angeles has now lost five of its last seven games while falling out of first place in the NL West for the first time all year. Today marks the 50th anniversary of Rick Monday's famous "flag save," and the Dodgers will commemorate it by playing Monday's former team as they look to avoid losing their second straight series and third of the campaign (5-2-1). Following the series finale with the Cubs tomorrow afternoon, the Dodgers will round out the homestand with three games vs. the Miami Marlins next week (April 27-29), before traveling to St. Lous (May 1-3) and Houston (May 4-6).

THAT HAPPENED FAST: The Dodgers were seemingly cruising to a win with a 4-0 lead after 6.0 innings and an electric Emmet Sheehan on the mound (6.1 IP, 4 H, R, 10 K), but the bullpen imploded when the big right-hander left the game and the Cubs won their 10th straight, by a score of 6-4. Alex Vesia (2 R), Blake Treinen (1 R) and Tanner Scott (2 R, L) were touched for five runs in 2.1 frames over the final three innings and the offense did not score again after the fourth inning. The loss was the first by the Dodgers this season when leading after the seventh inning (13-1) and the runs were the first given up by Vesia all season (2 ER/9.1 IP). At the plate, Will Smith put the Dodgers on the board first with a three-run homer in the third frame, his third of the season. Hyeseong Kim went 2-for-3 with a run scored and an RBI, collecting the Dodgers' only multi-hit game.

- Shohei Ohtani went 0-for-3 with a walk last night, giving him three consecutive hitless games. Ohtani has not gone four games in a row without getting a hit since joining the Dodgers.

- Kim is now hitting .467 (7-for-15) with two stolen bases in his last six games.

IT'S TIME FOR NO. 2: Dodger right-hander Roki Sasaki will take the mound for his fifth start of the season today, still searching for his second career win. In his last outing at Coors Field on Sunday, he went 4.2 innings and gave up three runs on seven hits in the no-decision. In his rookie season last year, he went 1-1 with a 4.46 ERA (18 ER/36.1 IP) while striking out 28 and walking 22. After spending nearly five months on the IL, he emerged as the Dodger closer in the Postseason, posting a 0.84 ERA and six strikeouts in 10.2 playoff innings.

- The first 40,000 fans in attendance today will receive a Roki Sasaki bobblehead, presented by Tokyo Electron.

WHEN IT'S RIGHT, IT'S RIGHT: Several Dodgers in the lineup today have experienced plenty of success against right-handers this season, including Andy Pages, whose .338 mark (25-for-74) ranks eighth in the Major Leagues among qualified players. Elsewhere, Dalton Rushing (.450, 6 HR), Hyeseong Kim (.364) and Freddie Freeman (.292, 10 XBH) have terrorized right-handers.

GETTING OFFENSIVE: The Dodgers lead the Major Leagues in batting average (.276), homers (43), slugging percentage (.469) and OPS (.821) while ranking second in total bases (413), hits (243) and on-base percentage (.352).

START ME UP: The Dodger starting pitching staff has been on a tear recently and nothing changed with Emmet Sheehan's dominant outing last night. The club's 2.75 ERA (47 ER/153.2 IP) leads the National League and since April 6, their 2.04 ERA (24 ER/105.2 IP) is first in the Majors. The rotation has allowed one run or fewer in 11 of their last 17 starts.

"RICK MONDAY, YOU MADE A GREAT PLAY": On this date 50 years ago at Dodger Stadium, Dodger broadcaster and then Cubs' outfielder Rick Monday demonstrated his love for his country by sprinting and snatching the American flag from two protestors, before they could light it on fire in the outfield. The next season, 1977, Monday began an eight-year playing career with the Dodgers, which included his dramatic go-ahead homer in Game 5 of the 1981 NLCS that sent the eventual World Champions to the Fall Classic. In 1993, the Santa Monica native joined the Dodger broadcast team. Monday currently works as an analyst for every game on the Dodger flagship radio station, AM 570 LA Sports.

- Prior to the game today, Monday, a Marine Corps veteran, and his wife, Barbaralee, will be honored on the field and the actual flag will be alongside him. Following tonight's festivities, the flag will make its way to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, for an exhibit this summer. The flag, which Monday has preserved since saving it and is loaning to the Museum, has never previously been exhibited in one public location.
