PITTSBURGH PIRATES • PNC PARK • 115 FEDERAL STREET • PITTSBURGH, PA 15212 • 412-323-5000 • pirates.com • @pirates
Information provided by the Pittsburgh Pirates Communications Department

THE PIRATES: finished the season with an 82-80 (.506) record, good for third place in the National League Central (it marked their first winning season since going 82-79 in 2018 and their highest finish in the division since finishing in third place in 2016)...Went 19-11 in their final 30 games (since August 24 at San Diego) and 24-16 in their final 40 games (since August 13 at Miami)...Hit a franchise-record 186 home runs (including a franchise-record 99 at home) and struck out a franchise-record 1496 batters.

TEAM LEADERS: Brandon Lowe led the team in home runs (35) and RBI (96), the most by any Pirate since Josh Bell (37 home runs and 116 RBI) in 2019...Nick Gonzales led the team in average (.303) and hits (167), marking the highest average by a qualified Pirate since Bryan Reynolds (.314) and Kevin Newman (.308) in 2019 and the most hits by any Pirates right-handed hitter since Andrew McCutchen (172) in 2014...Reynolds had a Major League-best 40 doubles and also paced the Pirates in both runs (102) and walks (89), giving him the most runs by a Pirate since McCutchen (107) in 2012 and the most walks by a Pirate since McCutchen (98) in 2015...Braxton Ashcraft led the pitching staff in both wins (14) and ERA (3.65), the most wins by any Pirate since Jameson Taillon and Trevor Williams (14 wins each) in 2018...Mason Montgomery led the staff in saves (18) & outings (70).

AWARD WINNERS: The Pittsburgh chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America voted Jake Mangum as the winner of the Chuck Tanner Award (most cooperative with the media)...Braxton Ashcraft won the Steve Blass Award (best pitcher), while Brandon Lowe was the recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award (most valuable player)...Lowe was also nominated as the Pirates' recipient of the Major League Baseball Roberto Clemente Award, his second nomination (also 2022 w/Tampa Bay).

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: Konnor Griffin (April 3 vs. Baltimore), Wilber Dotel (April 19 vs. Tampa Bay), Brandan Bidois (May 13 vs. Colorado), Esmerlyn Valdez (May 22 at Toronto), Antwone Kelly (June 12 vs. Miami), Jack Brannigan (July 7 vs. Atlanta), Khristian Curtis (July 18 [G2] at Cleveland) & Shawn Ross (July 25 vs. Chicago-NL) all made their MLB debuts with Pittsburgh.

WALKOFF WINS: The Pirates had five walkoff wins during the season, coming on April 4 vs. Baltimore (Nick Yorke, double), May 29 vs. Minnesota (Bryan Reynolds, two-run home run), July 27 vs. Arizona (Brandon Lowe, single), August 19 vs. Detroit (Lowe, solo home run) and September 1 vs. San Francisco (Rafael Flores Jr., reached on error)...The last two walkoff wins came in back-to-back home games, giving them walkoff victories in consecutive home games for the first time since April 6-7, 2024.

HIGH FIVE: Pittsburgh won five straight series, coming from August 24-26 at San Diego (it won two of three games), August 28-30 at St. Louis (won two of three games), September 1-3 vs. San Francisco (won two of three games), September 4-6 vs. Los Angeles-AL (won two of three games) and September 8-10 at Chicago-AL (swept a three-game series)...It marked the first time the Pirates won five consecutive series since August 14-30, 2015 and three consecutive road series since April 16-25, 2021.

GOING STREAKING: The Pirates won a season-high-tying five straight games on two occasions, coming from March 31-April 5 (won two games from March 31-April 1 at Cincinnati and three games from April 3-5 vs. Baltimore) and September 17-22 (won one game on September 17 vs. Milwaukee, three games from September 18-20 vs. Kansas City and one game on September 22 vs. St. Louis)...The latter streak marked the team's longest streak in September since a five-game streak from Sept. 15-19, 2018.

AMERICAN SPIRIT: Pittsburgh won 12 of its 16 series against American League opponents, with the only series losses coming from April 21-23 at Texas (lost two of three games), May 22-24 at Toronto (lost two of three games), July 20-22 at New York (lost two of three games) and September 25-27 at Detroit (lost two of three games)...The Pirates' 32 wins during interleague play were tied with Milwaukee for the most by any Major League team since the league expanded its interleague play in 2023.

RIGHT AT HOME: The Pirates, who will open the 2027 campaign from March 25-27 vs. the Athletics (their first time opening a season at home since April 3-6, 2016 vs. St. Louis), went 44-37 at PNC Park in 2026, marking their ninth winning record at the stadium since it opened in 2001, along with 2006 (43-38), 2012 (45-36), 2013 (50-31), 2014 (51-30), 2015 (53-28), 2017 (43-37), 2018 (44-36) and 2025 (44-37)...They are scheduled to have an American League team as their Home Opener opponent for the fifth straight year after hosting Chicago (April 7, 2023), Baltimore (April 5, 2024 & April 3, 2026) and New York (April 4, 2025).

SERIES-LY SPEAKING: Pittsburgh has won 11 straight home interleague series, a stretch that began with a three-game sweep from July 21-23, 2025 vs. Detroit...That is tied with Atlanta (July 31, 2023-April 20, 2025) and Milwaukee (May 19, 2025-August 30, 2026) for the fourth-longest such streak by any Major League team (since interleague play began in 1997)...The only teams with longer such streaks were New York-AL (14, June 12, 2001-June 19, 2005), Oakland (13, June 30, 1998-June 30, 2002) and Boston (12, June 13, 2003-May 20, 2007)...The Pirates will play six of their first nine home games against the American League next season, coming from March 25-27 vs. the A's & April 5-7 vs. New York (the Pirates will also host San Diego from April 2-4).

PACKED PNC: The Pirates sold out five games at PNC Park, coming on April 3 (Home Opener) vs. Baltimore (38,986), April 18 vs. Tampa Bay (37,773), May 17 vs. Philadelphia (37,820), July 25 vs. Chicago-NL (39,105) and August 15 vs. Boston (38,408)...The July 25 crowd was the Pirates' largest for any regular-season game (excluding Home Openers and games vs. Philadelphia) since August 7, 2015 vs. Los Angeles-NL (39,404)...Pittsburgh drew at least 30,000 fans for each game from June 9-11 vs. Los Angeles (NL), marking its first time doing it in a three-game weekday series (Mon-Thu) since September 16-18, 2014 vs. Boston.

DAZZLING DEBUT: Konnor Griffin was 1-for-3 with a double, an RBI, a walk and a run scored in his Major League debut during the 5-4 win on April 3 (Home Opener) vs. Baltimore...Griffin, who was signed to a nine-year contract through the 2034 season on April 8, was only the ninth Pirates player in the Expansion Era (since 1961) to make his Major League debut in the team's Home Opener and the first since Scott Sauerbeck, Jason Phillips and Warren Morris did it on April 5, 1999 vs. Montréal.

ONE-RUN FUN: Pittsburgh and Baltimore played seven straight one-run games from April 6, 2024-April 4, 2026 (that streak snapped when Pittsburgh secured an 8-2 win on April 5)...That marked the longest such streak between any two Major League opponents during interleague play (since interleague play began in 1997).

HOMER HIATUS: The Pirates' starting rotation did not allow a home run in the first 10 games of the season, a streak that was snapped when Paul Skenes allowed a solo home run to Xander Bogaerts on April 7 vs. San Diego...That was tied with Washington (1955), Chicago-AL (1965), Toronto (1989) and San Francisco (2018) for the fifth-longest streak of games without a starting pitcher allowing a home run to begin a season since 1950, trailing only Kansas City in 1987 (15 games), Cincinnati in 1981 (14 games), Boston in 1992 (13 games) and Oakland in 1980 (11 games)...Pittsburgh's 90 homers allowed by starters were the fewest in Major League Baseball.

FRIENDLY AND CLOSE: Pittsburgh and Chicago (NL) played 10 straight games decided by two or fewer runs at Wrigley Field from June 12, 2025-April 12, 2026 (the streak ended with the Cubs' 12-2 win on Sept. 11)...That was tied with Boston's Braves Field (May 11-August 23, 1921) and New York's Shea Stadium (August 8, 1991-August 12, 1992) for the sixth-longest such streak at any venue in team history (since 1887), trailing a 22-game streak at Boston's Braves Field (August 23, 1917-June 10, 1920), a 13-game streak vs. Montréal at Three Rivers Stadium (June 5, 1988-August 3, 1989), an 11-game streak vs. New York at Forbes Field (July 19, 1912-June 14, 1913), an 11-game streak vs. Boston at Exposition Park (July 15, 1896-June 28, 1898) and an 11-game streak vs. Chicago (NL) at PNC Park (April 4, 2013-April 3, 2014).

A PERFECT 10: The Pirates scored 10 runs in two separate innings, coming on April 13 vs. Washington (sixth inning) and July 12 vs. Milwaukee (fourth inning)...It was their first season with multiple 10-run innings in franchise history (since 1887)...The 10-run inning on April 13 marked their first since July 9, 2017 at Chicago-NL (first inning) and their second in PNC Park history (since 2001), along with May 17, 2009 vs. Colorado (seventh inning)...The team's nine-hit inning on April 13 marked their second such inning in stadium history, along with the seventh inning on May 17, 2009 (they would also go on to collect nine hits during the third inning on September 1 vs. San Francisco)...Pittsburgh's first nine batters during the fourth inning on July 12 reached base safely, marking the first time it had nine consecutive batters reach base safely in an inning since June 12, 2001 at Detroit (fourth inning) and the first time having that to begin any inning since June 27, 1986 vs. Montréal (sixth inning).

NOTHING BUNT HITS: Jake Mangum, Billy Cook and Konnor Griffin each had a bunt single in the 6-3 win on April 19 vs. Tampa Bay...It was the Pirates' first game with three bunt hits since September 20, 1998 vs. Houston at Three Rivers Stadium, when Jason Schmidt, Tony Womack and Abraham Nunez each collected a bunt hit... Pittsburgh became the first Major League team to do that since Tampa Bay on May 2, 2018 at Detroit, when Carlos Gómez, Brad Miller and Mallex Smith each had a bunt hit (that was later accomplished by Tampa Bay on June 27 vs. Arizona and Milwaukee on August 28 vs. Texas)...The Pirates' 19 bunt hits were tied with 2006 for their most in a season in the 21st century...Mangum's seven bunt hits were tied for sixth in MLB and were the most by any Pirate since Starling Marte in 2013 (seven).

SMALL BALL: Pittsburgh did not record an extra-base hit in its 6-3, 10-inning victory on April 25 at Milwaukee...It marked its 14th extra-inning win away from home without an extra-base hit (minimum 10 innings) in the Modern Era (since 1901) and its first since Sept. 23, 1974 at St. Louis (1-0, 10 innings)...Pittsburgh also scored seven runs without an extra-base hit in a 7-1 win on July 4 at Washington (that game, which started at 11:05 AM EDT, was its earliest local scheduled start time since an 11:05 AM PDT start on September 15 [G1], 1996 at San Francisco's 3Com Park at Candlestick Point), marking its fifth time doing that in the 21st century, along with April 20, 2003 vs. Chicago-NL (8-2 win), May 26, 2003 at Chicago-NL (10-0 win), April 16, 2004 at New York-NL (7-6 win) and May 31, 2019 vs. Milwaukee (9-4 win).

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE: The Pirates won each of their first three series against the National League Central, coming from March 30-April 1 at Cincinnati (won two of three games), April 10-12 at Chicago (won two of three games) and April 24-26 at Milwaukee (won two of three games)...It was the third time that they won at least their first three series vs. the division in a season (since the division formed in 1994), along with 2014 (first three series) and 2018 (first four series)...Pittsburgh won each of its first four road series against the division after also winning two of three games from May 19-21 at St. Louis...It marked the first time the Pirates ever won each of their first four road series vs. the division in a season...They finished 26-26 vs. the National League Central (7-6 vs. Cincinnati, 7-6 vs. Milwaukee, 6-7 vs. Chicago and 6-7 vs. St. Louis), marking their fourth .500 or better record against the division, along with 2013 (45-31, .592), 2018 (43-33, .566) & 1997 (24-24, .500).

PITCH (NEAR) PERFECT: Mason Montgomery (1.0ip), Justin Lawrence (1.0ip), Wilber Dotel (4.0ip) and Evan Sisk (0.2ip) combined to pitch 6.2 perfect innings on April 27 vs. St. Louis, marking Pittsburgh's second perfect-game bid of 6.2 innings in a four-game span (also Paul Skenes, April 24 at Milwaukee)...The Pirates became the second Major League team in the Expansion Era (since 1961) with multiple perfect-game bids of at least 6.2 innings over any four-game span, joining New York (AL), which did that on June 2, 2022 vs. Los Angeles-AL (7.0 innings) and June 3, 2022 vs. Los Angeles-AL (6.2 innings)...Pittsburgh would go on to have two more perfect-game bids of at least 5.0 innings (the four such bids were the most in MLB), coming on July 8 vs. Atlanta (6.1 innings) and September 22 vs. St. Louis (5.1 innings)...The team had an MLB-best eight no-hit bids of at least 5.0 innings, coming on March 31 at Cincinnati (6.1 innings), April 7 vs. San Diego (5.1 innings), April 24 (6.2 innings), April 27 (6.2 innings), May 12 vs. Colorado (6.1 innings), July 8 (6.1 innings), September 10 at Chicago-AL (6.2 innings) and September 22 (5.1 innings).

THREE'S COMPANY: Oneil Cruz (26 RBI), Brandon Lowe (20 RBI) and Ryan O'Hearn (20 RBI) became the first trio of Pirates to each have at least 20 RBI in March/April of a single season (since RBI became an official statistic in 1920)...Cruz' 26 RBI were the second-most by any Pirate in March/April, behind Willie Stargell in 1971 (27)...The only prior Pittsburgh duo to each have at least 20 RBI in March/April of a year were Xavier Nady (26 RBI) and Nate McLouth (25 RBI) in the 2008 season.

SEEING RED: Pittsburgh earned a 17-7 victory on May 2 vs. Cincinnati...The 17 runs marked its third-most in a game in PNC Park history (since 2001), trailing only June 11, 2005 vs. Tampa Bay (18 runs) and July 1, 2019 vs. Chicago-NL (18 runs)...It also marked the Pirates' fourth-most runs in any game against the Reds during the Modern Era (since 1901), trailing only April 27, 1912 at Forbes Field (23 runs), August 21, 1968 at Crosley Field (19 runs) and May 2, 1925 at Forbes Field (18 runs)... The Pirates also earned a 9-1 victory on May 1 vs. Cincinnati, marking the first time they won consecutive contests by at least eight runs since May 17, 2023 at Detroit (8-0) and May 19, 2023 vs. Arizona (13-3)...They had not done that in consecutive games against the same team since June 26, 2019 (14-2) and June 27, 2019 (10-0) at Houston...Pittsburgh had not done that in back-to-back home games (prior to May 1 and May 2) since May 29, 2006 (14-3) and May 30, 2006 (12-1) vs. Milwaukee.

WALK THIS WAY: The Pirates tied a Major League record by walking in seven straight plate appearances in the second inning on May 2 vs. Cincinnati...The only other teams to ever do that within an inning were Chicago (AL) on August 28 (G1), 1909 vs. Washington (second inning) and Atlanta on May 25, 1983 vs. Pittsburgh (third inning)...Pittsburgh also became the first team with at least seven walks in an inning since Minnesota (eight walks) on April 17 (G2), 2014 vs. Toronto (eighth inning).

FIVE ALIVE: Pittsburgh scored five runs in three different innings (first, second and fourth) on May 2 vs. Cincinnati...The five-run first and second innings marked its first time scoring at least five runs in consecutive innings of a game since May 8, 2005 at Arizona (eighth/ninth) and its fourth game in team history (since 1887) scoring at least five runs in consecutive innings to begin a game, along with Sept. 24, 1901 vs. New York, May 26, 1964 vs. Philadelphia and Sept. 26, 1992 vs. New York...It was its fourth time in team history scoring at least five runs in three different innings of a game, along with August 9, 1887 vs. Boston, August 1 (G1), 1893 at St. Louis and April 27, 1912 vs. Cincinnati...The Bucs were the first team with five runs/zero hits in an inning (second) since New York (AL) on April 27, 1994 at Seattle.

TOTAL TEAM EFFORT: Each of the Pirates' nine starting position players had at least one RBI on May 2 vs. Cincinnati, marking only the fifth time that happened for the Pirates (since RBI became an official statistic in 1920), along with April 19, 1921 at Chicago, September 3, 1924 vs. St. Louis, August 6, 1941 at Chicago and September 16, 1975 at Chicago...It was their eighth game in the Modern Era (since 1901) with at least 17 runs scored and zero home runs, along with May 1, 1902 vs. St. Louis (18 runs), June 11, 1904 at Boston (19 runs), August 22, 1907 at New York (20 runs), April 27, 1912 vs. Cincinnati (23 runs), July 6 (G1), 1918 vs. Boston (17 runs), September 25, 1923 vs. Philadelphia (18 runs) and June 14 (G1), 1930 at Philadelphia (19 runs)...Seven of Pittsburgh's nine starters also posted multiple hits in the win.

K COLLECTORS: Pittsburgh's pitching staff struck out at least six batters in 72 straight games from August 18, 2025 vs. Toronto-May 3, 2026 vs. Cincinnati (the streak was snapped when it only had four strikeouts on May 5 at Arizona)...It was the third-longest such streak by a Major League team during the Modern Era (since 1901), trailing only New York-AL (77 games, August 4, 2018-April 23, 2019) and Miami (76 games, April 5-June 29, 2023)...The Pirates' staff also struck out at least seven batters in 23 straight games from May 24 at Toronto-June 17 at the Athletics (that streak was snapped when they only posted two strikeouts on June 19 at Colorado), their longest such streak during the Modern Era, surpassing the previous record of 21 straight games from September 19, 2025 vs. the A's-April 8, 2026 vs. San Diego.

A BIT OF BOTH: Bryan Reynolds (walkoff, May 29 vs. Minnesota) and Spencer Horwitz (leadoff, May 30 vs. Minnesota) became the third pair of Pirates in the Modern Era (since 1901) to have a walkoff home run, followed by a leadoff home run, in sequential team games...That also happened on September 12, 1993 vs. Colorado (Al Martin, walkoff) and Sept. 14, 1993 at Florida (Carlos Garcia, leadoff), as well as on Sept. 22, 2020 vs. Chicago-NL (Jacob Stallings, walkoff) and Sept. 23, 2020 vs. Chicago-NL (Adam Frazier, leadoff)...It was the second of four leadoff home runs for Horwitz (also May 24 at Toronto, June 7 at Atlanta and June 20 at Colorado), making him the third Pirates first baseman in the Modern Era with multiple leadoff homers in a year, along with Gary Redus in 1990 (two) & John Jaso in 2016 (three).

PRIME NINE: The Pirates scored at least nine runs in four straight games from May 30 vs. Minnesota-June 3 at Houston...That was tied with July 20-25, 1901, September 5 (G1)-7 (G2), 1910, August 2-4 (G2), 1928 and August 16-18 (G1), 1928 for their third-longest such streak in the Modern Era (since 1901), trailing a six-game streak from September 4 (G1)-6 (G2), 1901 and a five-game streak from August 28-September 1, 1925...Pittsburgh had three innings with at least nine runs, coming on April 13 vs. Washington (10, sixth inning), July 12 vs. Milwaukee (10, fourth inning) and Sept. 1 vs. San Francisco (nine, third inning), marking its fourth season in team history (since 1887) with three innings of at least nine runs, along with 1893, 1894 and 1944...The Pirates did not have an extra-base hit in the third inning on Sept. 1, marking their second inning with nine runs and zero extra-base hits in the Expansion Era (since 1961), along with the eighth inning on May 26, 2003 at Chicago (NL).

HOMER HAPPY: Pittsburgh hit at least one home run in 11 consecutive contests from May 24 at Toronto-June 4 at Houston, tied with June 23-July 3, 2012 for its fourth-longest such streak in the Modern Era (since 1901), trailing only June 19-July 3, 1994 (13 games), August 5-18, 2015 (12 games) and July 1-9, 1966 (12 games)... The Pirates hit multiple home runs in five straight games twice (May 29-June 3 and June 25-29), tied for their third-longest such streak (within a single season) in the Modern Era, behind May 23-31, 2006 (eight games) and July 1-4 (G2), 1966 (six games)...Pittsburgh homered in 11 straight home games from May 25 vs. Chicago (NL)-June 12 vs. Miami, its third-longest such streak in the Modern Era, behind only July 2-26, 1996 (14 games) and August 4-23, 2017 (12 games)...The Pirates hit multiple home runs in seven straight home games from May 29 vs. Minnesota-June 12 vs. Miami, tied with May 18-31, 2006 for their longest such streak in the Modern Era.

CARDIAC KIDS: The Pirates erased multiple five-run deficits, coming on June 10 vs. Los Angeles-NL (they erased a 6-1 deficit en route to a 9-8 win) and June 29 at Philadelphia (they erased a 5-0 deficit en route to an 11-7 win)...The June 29 deficit marked Pittsburgh's largest deficit overcome in a win vs. the Phillies since erasing a 5-0 deficit in an 11-7 win on September 4, 1990 at Three Rivers Stadium and the largest deficit overcome in a win in the city of Philadelphia since erasing a 5-0 deficit in a 9-6 win on August 9 (G2), 1982 at Veterans Stadium...It also marked the first time the Pirates won a game by at least four runs after trailing by at least five runs since erasing multiple such deficits (5-0 and 7-1) in an 11-7 win on August 26, 2021 vs. St. Louis...It marked the first time they did that in a road game since erasing a 5-0 deficit en route to a 10-6 win on July 30, 1977 at Atlanta...It was the fourth time since 2021 they overcame multiple five-run deficits for wins in a season.

MAKE IT A DOUBLE: The Pirates collected five doubles (from Jared Triolo, Brandon Lowe, Bryan Reynolds, Esmerlyn Valdez and Nick Gonzales) in the ninth inning on July 3 at Washington...It was their second five-double inning in the Expansion Era (since 1961), along with the eighth inning of a 13-5 win on April 27, 1986 vs. Philadelphia at Three Rivers Stadium (from Mike Brown, Tony Pena, Bob Walk, R.J. Reynolds and Bill Almon)...It also marked Pittsburgh's first inning with at least five extra-base hits since the fifth inning on May 15, 2011 at Milwaukee, when Neil Walker (home run), Chris Snyder (double), Ronny Cedeno (double), Steve Pearce (double) and Andrew McCutchen (triple) all had one...The Pirates also had four first-inning doubles (from Konnor Griffin, Reynolds, Oneil Cruz and Valdez) in a 9-3 win on September 8 at Chicago (AL)...That marked their most doubles in an opening inning in the Expansion Era...Pittsburgh's five doubles through the first two innings (also Reynolds in the second inning) were its most through two innings of any game since having five doubles in the first two innings on July 10, 1993 vs. Cincinnati.

PITTSBURGH STEALERS: Pittsburgh stole four bases in back-to-back games from July 3-4 at Washington, one of two Major League teams to do that during the season (also Cleveland from July 11-12 at Miami)...It marked its first time doing that in back-to-back contests since May 17, 1987 vs. Atlanta (five) and May 18, 1987 vs. Houston (four)...Oneil Cruz (30 stolen bases), Konnor Griffin (23 stolen bases) and Jake Mangum (23 stolen bases) became the 16th trio of Pirates to steal at least 23 bases in a season in the Modern Era (since 1901) and the first since 1978, when Omar Moreno (71 stolen bases), Frank Taveras (46 stolen bases) and Phil Garner (27 stolen bases) accomplished that...They were one of only two Major League teams to do that in 2026, along with Miami (Otto Lopez, Jakob Marsee and Esteury Ruiz).

HAGUE'S HIT COLLECTORS: The Pirates posted at least 11 hits in six consecutive games from July 1 at Philadelphia-July 7 vs. Atlanta, tied with June 23-28, 1971 and July 6-11, 1977 for their fourth-longest such streak following World War II (since 1946), trailing only September 9-15 (G2), 1996 (eight games), September 12-19, 1967 (seven games) and June 28-July 4, 2006 (seven games)...Pittsburgh posted the third-most hits in MLB (1404), trailing only Milwaukee (1422) and Tampa Bay (1405).

BREAK OUT THE BREWMS: Pittsburgh completed its 17th all-time series sweep vs. Milwaukee (since 1997) and its first since August 2-4, 2022 at PNC Park with a three-game sweep from July 11-12 at PNC Park, including a doubleheader sweep on July 11 (7-6 in Game One and 3-2 in Game Two)...It marked the third time in nine tries that the Pirates swept the Brewers in a doubleheader, along with July 2, 2004 and July 14, 2018...It also marked Pittsburgh's first time winning each game of a doubleheader by one run since picking up walkoff wins in both games on June 20, 1983 vs. Chicago at Three Rivers Stadium...It was one of six series sweeps for the Pirates, along with April 3-5 vs. Baltimore, May 1-3 vs. Cincinnati, May 29-31 vs. Minnesota, Sept. 8-10 at Chicago (AL) and Sept. 18-20 vs. Kansas City...Pittsburgh was swept four times (April 27-30 vs. St. Louis, May 15-17 vs. Philadelphia, June 5-7 at Atlanta and August 21-23 at Los Angeles-NL), its fewest in a year since 2013 (four).

HEY NOW!: Paul Skenes (third selection) and Braxton Ashcraft (first selection) represented the Pirates at the Major League Baseball All-Star Game on July 14 at Philadelphia's Citizens Bank Park...Skenes became one of eight Major League players/pitchers to make the All-Star Game in at least each of his first three career seasons, joining Rod Carew (18 seasons, 1967-84), Ichiro Suzuki (10 seasons, 2001-10), Joe DiMaggio (seven seasons, 1936-42), Tom Seaver (seven seasons, 1967-73), Dwight Gooden (three seasons, 1984-86), Evan Longoria (three seasons, 2008-10) and Yu Darvish (three seasons, 2012-14)...He also became the first Pirate to make three straight All-Star teams since Andrew McCutchen from 2011-15 (five straight)...Skenes (130) and Ashcraft (128) became the first pair of Pittsburgh pitchers to each have at least 125 strikeouts prior to the All-Star break (the first All-Star Game was held in 1933)...They also became the third pair of Pirates starting pitchers to be named to the National League All-Star team in the same season...They joined Bob Friend and Vernon Law in 1960 and A.J. Burnett and Gerrit Cole in 2015 on the list.

DYNAMIC DUO: Brandon Lowe (21 home runs/64 RBI) and Ryan O'Hearn (16 home runs/63 RBI) became the third pair of Pirates teammates to each have at least 15 home runs and 60 RBI prior to the All-Star break in a season (the first All-Star Game was held in 1933), along with Willie Stargell (30 home runs/75 RBI) and Al Oliver (15 home runs/61 RBI) in 1973, as well as Bobby Bonilla (19 home runs/61 RBI) and Barry Bonds (15 home runs/62 RBI) in 1990...O'Hearn reached the 75-RBI mark on September 25 at Detroit (he finished with 76 RBI), making him and Lowe (96 RBI) the first pair of Pittsburgh lefthanders to each have at least 75 RBI in a season since Garrett Jones (86) and Pedro Álvarez (85) in 2012...They also became only the second pair of Pirates teammates to each record at least 75 RBI during their first year with the Pirates (since RBI became an official statistic in 1920)...They joined Brian Giles (115) and Ed Sprague Jr. (81), who achieved that during the 1999 season.

YOUNG BUCS: Bubba Chandler (6.1 innings, two hits, zero runs, one walk) and Jared Jones (6.0 innings, two hits, one run, one walk) became the first pair of Pirates starting pitchers (since the mound moved to its current distance in 1893) to pitch at least 6.0 innings while allowing two or fewer hits, one/zero runs and one/zero walks in back-to-back team games when they did that on July 22 (G2) at New York (AL) and July 24 vs. Chicago (NL), respectively...Chandler's 140 strikeouts ranked sixth among all Major League rookies, behind New York (NL)'s Nolan McLean (194), Cleveland's Parker Messick (193), Boston's Payton Tolle (171), Cleveland's Foster Griffin (158) and Los Angeles (AL)' Walbert Ureña (142)...Jones' 123 strikeouts from May 29 (season debut) onward ranked tied for seventh in the National League.

LET'S PLAY TWO (TIMES THREE): Pittsburgh played three doubleheaders in an eight-day span (excluding the All-Star break) when it did that on July 11 vs. Milwaukee (swept the doubleheader), July 18 at Cleveland (split the doubleheader) and July 22 at New York-AL (split the doubleheader)...It marked the first time it played three doubleheaders in an eight-day span (excluding ASB) since 1989, when it did that on July 21 vs. Los Angeles, July 23 vs. Los Angeles and July 28 at Philadelphia.

BEAT 'EM BUC(K)S: The Pirates struck out a season-high-tying 16 batters on July 25 vs. Chicago-NL (they also had 16 strikeouts in an 11-inning game on March 29 at New York-NL)...That marked their most in a home game since May 23, 2025 vs. Milwaukee (also 16 strikeouts), their most in any nine-inning contest since August 20, 2023 at Minnesota (also 16 strikeouts) and their most in a nine-inning home game since September 27, 2019 vs. Cincinnati (also 16 strikeouts)...Pittsburgh also had five games with zero walks and at least 13 strikeouts, coming on April 5 vs. Baltimore (14 strikeouts), May 31 vs. Minnesota (14 strikeouts), June 24 vs. Seattle (13 strikeouts), July 8 vs. Atlanta (13 strikeouts) and September 5 vs. Los Angeles-AL (13 strikeouts)...The team only had seven such games in the Modern Era (since 1901) entering the season...The Pirates' five such games were the most in Major League Baseball and the most by a National League team since New York in 2022 (seven).

BACK-TO-BACK BUCS: Pittsburgh hit back-to-back home runs five times, coming from Ryan O'Hearn (two-run) and Bryan Reynolds (solo) in the second inning on March 31 at Cincinnati (off Brandon Williamson), Reynolds (solo) and O'Hearn (solo) in the first inning on June 9 vs. Los Angeles-NL (off Eric Lauer), O'Hearn (three-run) and Esmerlyn Valdez (solo) in the eighth inning on June 28 vs. Cincinnati (off Pierce Johnson), Reynolds (solo) and Valdez (solo) in the third inning on July 9 vs. Atlanta (off Bryce Elder) and Brandon Lowe (two-run) and Reynolds (solo) in the ninth inning on July 28 vs. Arizona (off Paul Sewald)...The home runs from Lowe/Reynolds on July 28 turned a 6-3 deficit into a 6-6 tie...It was the first time the Pirates tied a game or took/extended the lead with back-to-back home runs in the ninth inning or later since Reynolds (two-run) and Ke'Bryan Hayes (solo) hit back-to-back homers in the 10th inning of a 4-3 win on April 27, 2024 at San Francisco... It was their first time doing that at home since Josh Bell (three-run)/Jung Ho Kang (solo) turned a 6-2 deficit into a 6-6 tie in the ninth on July 5, 2019 vs. Milwaukee.

THE MAGICIAN: Esmerlyn Valdez was named the National League's July Rookie of the Month after batting .250 (23-for-92) with five doubles, one triple, eight home runs, 25 RBI, 15 walks, a .355 on-base percentage, a .587 slugging percentage, a .942 OPS and 17 runs scored in 25 games...He led Major League rookies in home runs, slugging percentage, extra-base hits (14) and total bases (54), while also ranking tied for first in RBI and walks, third in OPS and runs scored, tied for fifth in doubles and tied for eighth in hits...Valdez became the 10th different Pirates player (13th time) to be named National League Rookie of the Month (the award started in 2001), along with Jason Bay (June 2004, July 2004 and September 2004), Zach Duke (July 2005 and August 2005), Garrett Jones (July 2009), Pedro Álvarez (September 2010), Gerrit Cole (September 2013), Jung Ho Kang (July 2015), Austin Meadows (May 2018), Ke'Bryan Hayes (September 2020) and Paul Skenes (September 2024).

BOTTOMS UP: Pittsburgh's No. 7-9 hitters (Jake Mangum, Jared Triolo and Rafael Flores Jr.) combined for eight hits (including one double, one triple and three home runs), 10 RBI and eight runs scored in the 13-1 win on August 13 at Miami...It marked the first time the Pirates got at least eight hits and 10 RBI from their bottom three hitters in the batting order since Brant Brown, Jose Guillen and Mike Benjamin combined for eight hits and 10 RBI in Pittsburgh's 15-3 win on June 9, 1999 at Detroit.

ONE AND DONE: The Pirates picked up 1-0 wins on both September 4 and September 6 vs. Los Angeles (AL)...It was the seventh time in team history (since 1887) where they earned two 1-0 wins in a single series, along with May 17/18, 1907 at Brooklyn, August 28/29, 1908 vs. Philadelphia, May 31, 1915 vs. Chicago (both games of a doubleheader), May 9/11, 1958 vs. Philadelphia, October 3, 1976 vs. St. Louis (both games of a doubleheader) and June 12/14, 2015 vs. Philadelphia...Pittsburgh's Major League-best five 1-0 wins (also May 3 vs. Cincinnati, May 6 at Arizona and August 25 at San Diego) were tied with 1915, 1918, 1919, 1958 and 2013 for its fourth-most 1-0 wins in any single season during the Modern Era (since 1901), trailing only the 1908 (10 such wins), 1907 (six such wins) and 1917 (six such wins) campaigns.

A WINDY WEEK: Pittsburgh played six straight games in Chicago when it swept a three-game series from September 8-10 at Rate Field and won one of three games from September 11-13 at Wrigley Field...It marked the seventh time in the Expansion Era (since 1961) where the Pirates played six consecutive road contests in the same metropolitan area, along with August 14-17, 1986 (six games at Philadelphia), May 22-27, 2009 (three games at Chicago-AL/three games at Chicago-NL), August 31-September 5, 2021 (two games at Chicago-AL/four games at Chicago-NL), September 15-21, 2022 (four games at New York-NL/two games at New York-AL), April 26-May 1, 2024 (three games at San Francisco/three games at Oakland) & April 22-27, 2025 (three games at Los Angeles-AL/three games at Los Angeles-NL).

OPPOSITES ATTRACT: The Pirates had five opposite-field doubles (coming from Bryan Reynolds-twice, Ronny Simon, Henry Davis and Oneil Cruz) on September 18 vs. Kansas City, its most in a game since August 24, 2002 at Milwaukee (also five opposite-field doubles)...Their nine opposite-field hits during that game were their second-most in any game during the season, trailing only April 7 vs. San Diego (10 opposite-field hits)...Pittsburgh's seven games with at least five doubles (also May 2 vs. Cincinnati, June 17 at the A's, June 24 vs. Seattle, July 3 at Washington, July 28 vs. Arizona and September 8 at Chicago-AL) were its most in a single year since 2023 (eight games)...The Pirates also had seven games with seven extra-base hits, coming on June 17, June 24, June 29 at Philadelphia, July 3, July 12 vs. Milwaukee, July 28 and September 8...The seven games were tied with 2014 for their fifth-most in a year since 2004, behind 2023 (10), 2018 (nine), 2019 (nine) and 2009 (eight).

TWICE AS NICE: Pittsburgh hit three two-run home runs (Ronny Simon, Jake Mangum, Brandon Lowe) on September 19 vs. Kansas City, its first time doing it since Sept. 28, 2024 at New York-AL (Billy Cook, Jared Triolo, Nick Yorke) and its seventh time in any game in PNC Park history (since 2001), along with April 12, 2006 vs. Los Angeles (NL), June 21, 2008 vs. Toronto, July 12, 2008 vs. St. Louis, May 11, 2018 vs. San Francisco, July 1, 2019 vs. Chicago (NL) and June 30, 2022 vs. Milwaukee.

NEVER SAY DIE: Brandon Lowe (September 19 vs. Kansas City) and Rafael Flores Jr. (September 20 vs. Kansas City) blasted game-winning home runs in the eighth inning of back-to-back team games...It marked the first time Pittsburgh belted game-winning home runs in the eighth inning or later of consecutive contests since Rob Mackowiak (Game One, grand slam, ninth inning) and Craig Wilson (Game Two, solo, 10th inning) did that during a doubleheader on May 28, 2004 vs. Chicago (NL)...It was the first time that the Pirates hit a homer that turned a deficit into a lead in the eighth/later of B2B games (since RBI became an official statistic in 1920).

ODDS AND ENDS: The Pirates used 53 different players (24 position players and 29 pitchers), their fewest in a full season since only using 48 players during the 2018 season...Pittsburgh turned four double plays on August 24 at San Diego, its most in a game since also turning four double plays in a win on March 29, 2024 at Miami.

LEAN ON THE LEFTIES: Mason Montgomery (18 saves) and Gregory Soto (16 saves) became the first pair of Major League left-handed teammates to each secure at least 16 saves in a season (since saves became an official statistic in 1969)...They became the fourth pair of Pirates relievers since 1969 to earn at least 16 saves in any season, joining Bill Landrum (17) and Stan Belinda (16) in 1991, Jason Grilli (33) and Mark Melancon (16) in 2013 and David Bednar (17) & Dennis Santana (16) in 2025.

COUNT ON CATCHERS: Henry Davis (10 home runs), Rafael Flores Jr. (nine home runs), Endy Rodríguez (seven home runs), Joey Bart (two home runs) and Shawn Ross (one home run) combined to hit 29 home runs from the catching position for Pittsburgh...That marked its most home runs from the catching position (since positional data first began being tracked in 1974), surpassing the previous record of 23, set by Michael McKenry (12 home runs) and Rod Barajas (11 home runs) in 2012.

PITTSBURGH POWER: Brandon Lowe (35 home runs), Oneil Cruz (20 home runs), Ryan O'Hearn (18 home runs), Bryan Reynolds (17 home runs) & Esmerlyn Valdez (17 home runs) gave the Pirates five different players with at least 17 home runs...That marked their most such players in any season in the Modern Era (since 1901).

DO YOU REMEMBER?: Jared Jones was named the NL's September Pitcher of the Month (began in 1975), while Mason Montgomery was named the NL's September Reliever of the Month (began in 2005)...It marked the first time Pittsburgh pitchers won both the Pitcher of the Month & the Reliever of the Month in a single month.

RELIABLE RELIEF: Mason Montgomery (70 games/105 strikeouts) and Yohan Ramírez (66 games/102 strikeouts) were the sixth pair of MLB teammates in the Modern Era (since 1901) to each have at least 65 games/100 strikeouts in a year, joining San Francisco's Mark Davis/Scott Garrelts (1985), Cincinnati's Stan Belinda/Mike Remlinger (1997), Boston's Matt Barnes/Brandon Workman (2019), Houston's Bryan Abreu/Josh Hader (2024) and San Diego's Mason Miller/Adrian Morejon (2026).

-Struck out two batters in a perfect seventh inning during his team debut on 3/26 (Opening Day) at New York (NL) and had three strikeouts over 1.1 scoreless innings on 3/28 at New York (NL)...Became one of four Pirates pitchers since at least 1893 to record at least five strikeouts without allowing a hit during their first two relief appearances with the team, along with Homer Hillebrand (4/24-7/10, 1905), John Holdzkom (9/2-5, 2014) and Andre Jackson (8/5-8, 2023).

-His 1.91 ERA (28.1ip/6er) in his first 28 appearances (through 6/2 at Houston) ranked seventh among Major League relievers in that time (minimum 28.1 innings).

-Posted a 1.37 ERA (26.1ip/4er) and a .188 batting average against (18-for-96) over his 26 appearances from 7/2 at Philadelphia to 9/9 at Chicago (AL)...Was the sixth-lowest ERA among all Major League relievers in that time (minimum 26.1 innings pitched), with teammate Mason Montgomery (0.67, 27.0ip/2er) ranking first.

-Became the fourth Pittsburgh left-handed pitcher (sixth instance) to earn least 16 saves in a single season (since saves became an official statistic in Major League Baseball in 1969), joining Felipe Vázquez in 2018 (37), Vázquez in 2019 (28), Mike Gonzalez in 2006 (24), Felipe Rivero in 2017 (21) and Montgomery in 2026 (18).

-His .199 batting average against (49-for-246) ranked fourth among Major League lefthanders (minimum 245 at-bats), behind only Texas' Jacob Latz (.143), New York (AL)'s Carlos Rodón (.173) and Montgomery (.180)...Was also the fifth-lowest mark by any Pittsburgh lefthander in the 21st century (minimum 245 at-bats).

#61 HUNTER STRATTON (RHP)	SERVICE: 1 YEAR, 79 DAYS	STATS: 0-0, 7.71 ERA (2.1 IP/2 ER), 2 K

-Was acquired from Atlanta, in exchange for catcher Joey Bart, on 6/18 (was optioned to Triple-A Indianapolis).

-Was recalled from Indianapolis on 7/4 (Evan Sisk was placed on the 15-day injured list)...Pitched the ninth inning of the team's 12-4 win on 7/7 vs. Atlanta (his second MLB game of 2026, along with pitching 1.0 inning on 5/2 with Atlanta at Colorado)...Was his first game with Pittsburgh since 6/23/2025 at Milwaukee (1.0ip).

-Struck out two batters (Austin Riley/Mike Yastrzemski) while pitching 1.1 scoreless innings on 7/9 vs. Atlanta (was optioned back to Indianapolis after the game).

-Was designated for assignment on 8/1 (Camilo Doval was acquired from New York-AL).

-Was traded to San Diego, in exchange for right-handed pitcher Andrew Moore, on 8/3.

#65 JOSÉ URQUIDY (RHP)	SERVICE: 6 YEARS, 117 DAYS	STATS: 0-1, 8.53 ERA (6.1 IP/6 ER), 6 K

-Made his fourth career Opening Day roster (also 2021-23 with Houston).

-Earned the save after allowing an unearned run during his Pirates debut in the 4-3, 10-inning win on 3/29 at New York (NL)...Became only the sixth Pirates reliever to earn a save in their Pirates debut (since saves became an official statistic in 1969), along with Chuck Hartenstein (4/8/1969 vs. St. Louis), Jim Gott (8/3/1987 vs. Chicago), Danny Cox (8/19/1992 vs. San Diego), Jose Mesa (4/5/2004 vs. Philadelphia) & Bubba Chandler (8/22/2025 vs. Colorado, MLB debut).

-Was optioned to Triple-A Indianapolis after the 4/16 defeat vs. Washington...Was designated for assignment on 7/24 (Shawn Ross was selected from Triple-A).

-Was traded to Chicago (AL), in exchange for right-handed pitcher Felix Doroteo, on 7/26.

#18 LUKE WEAVER (RHP)	SERVICE: 9 YEARS, 112 DAYS	STATS: 2-0, 4.96 ERA (16.1 IP/9 ER), 20 K

-Was acquired from New York (NL), along with cash considerations, in exchange for infielder Sammy Stafura, on 8/3...Was activated to the Major League roster on 8/4 and did not surrender a run during each of his first two appearances with the team, which came on 8/7 vs. New York-NL (1.0ip) and 8/14 vs. Boston (1.0ip/1k).

-Recorded Major League strikeout No. 800 (José Fermín) during Pittsburgh's 6-2 win on 8/29 at St. Louis' Busch Stadium.

-His 0.89 road ERA (30.1ip/3er) split between the Mets and the Pirates ranked second in Major League Baseball (minimum 30.1 innings pitched), behind Tampa Bay's Tyler Wells (0.74)...His .129 batting average against (13-for-101) versus righties split between the two teams ranked third in MLB (minimum 100 at-bats).

#54 KIRBY YATES (RHP)	SERVICE: 12 YEARS, 21 DAYS	STATS: 2-0, 1.80 ERA (15.0 IP/3 ER), 13 K

-Was acquired from Los Angeles (AL), in exchange for right-handed pitcher Kyle Robinson, on 8/3...Was activated to the Major League roster on 8/4 and did not allow a run in any of his first three appearances with Pittsburgh, coming on 8/4 at Milwaukee (1.0ip), 8/6 at Milwaukee (1.0ip/2k) and 8/8 vs. New York-NL (1.0ip).

-Tossed 35 pitches over 0.2 inning on 8/26 at San Diego, his most in any Major League appearance since 6/6/2018 with San Diego vs. Atlanta (37 pitches, 2.0ip).

-Was placed on the 15-day IL w/right shoulder impingement on 9/3 (retroactive to 8/31)...Was reinstated on 9/22 & tossed a scoreless inning on 9/23 vs. St. Louis.

-Pitched 1.2 scoreless innings while making his first Major League start in his final career game on 9/26 at Detroit (he struck out Dillon Dingler during his final batter faced)...Announced he would retire after the game...Was his 21st professional start and his first since pitching 1.0 scoreless inning during a rehab start with Mississippi (Braves' Double-A) on 7/22/2022 at Montgomery...Marked the most career relief appearances before making their first Major League start (517) by any pitcher in Pirates history (since 1887) and the 13th-most by any pitcher in Major League history, behind Bryan Shaw (732 appearances), David Robertson (670 appearances), Joakim Soria (666 appearances), Troy Percival (638 appearances), Todd Jones (632 appearances), Chuck McElroy (603 appearances), Sergio Romo (588 appearances), Braden Looper (572 appearances), Mike Stanton (552 appearances), John Axford (537 appearances), Jerry Blevins (532 appearances) and Craig Breslow (522 appearances)...Started opposite Justin Verlander, who pitched 5.1 innings in his final Major League start.
