IN MEMORIAM

JEFF TRUNDY

MAY 6, 1950 – DECEMBER 20, 2024

A true baseball lifer, Jeff Trundy had baseball running through his veins. Originally from Maine, Jeff played baseball at the University of New Hampshire, and his coaching in the Cape Cod Baseball League (CCBL) is legendary. In 2013, he was inducted into the Maine Baseball Hall of Fame. Following a brief period of college coaching and MLB scouting, he started his CCBL career in 1997 as an assistant coach for the Cotuit Kettleers. Two years later, in 1999, he was named head coach of the Falmouth Commodores. Jeff was one of the most respected coaches in CCBL history according to former players and fans. His "real" job was teaching science at the prestigious Frederick Gunn School in Connecticut, where he was the head baseball coach. Amidst all the success and respect that Jeff earned, he remained extremely humble. In his words, "it's all about the kids". His efforts as a coach were to let these young players develop and mature at their own pace. He felt that all players recruited to play in the CCBL have talent, and it was not his role to change the manner in which they had been able to achieve their success. He was frequently quoted as saying how "blessed" he was by all the friendships he had made and his involvement in such a great organization as the Commodores. Jeff achieved his 500th CCBL win in 2022. In 2024, he was voted the Coach of the Year and was inducted into the CCBL Hall of Fame. Following a long illness, sadly Jeff succumbed in December 2024. His uniform number, 19, will be retired along with that of only one other Commodore, Arnie Allen.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 2025 Falmouth Commodores season. This year marks several significant changes for this 102-year-old franchise of the Cape Cod Baseball League (CCBL). While change generally is good, one unfortunate change includes the passing of beloved, long-time Falmouth Field Manager and CCBL Hall of Famer, Jeff Trundy.

The rising sun on the cover symbolizes the ushering in of a new era for Falmouth Commodores baseball.

I am delighted to announce that Jarrod (Salty) Saltalamacchia, former Major League Baseball player and 2013 Red Sox World Series champion, is our new Field Manager. Salty brings excitement and expertise, having coached the Bourne Braves of the CCBL and currently coaches high school teams in Florida. He has assembled a staff of coaches who collectively have decades of experience at the college and high school levels. Additionally, we welcome Paul Aries as General Manager and Stephen Irish as Vice President to the Executive Committee. Both bring extensive management experience as well as a love of baseball.

Our new, integrated youth clinic program will offer top-notch instruction from our coaches and college players. We are expanding the age groups to include a varsity level for high school players aiming to play at the college level. The Commodores have acquired the Rapsodo technology for analytical video and statistics to aid in college recruitment and creating a baseball resume. Traditional age groups will continue, with more enhanced training and individualized formats.

We are improving game day operations, which includes assuming direct responsibility for concession stands. Improvements in food service will involve hiring of a professional caterer along with support from volunteers and interns.

Finally, I want to thank all our volunteers and host families for their invaluable generosity and contributions. We could not field a team without them.

I look forward to an exciting season of CCBL baseball and hope to see you at Guv Fuller Field.

Sincerely,

Bob Curtis
President, Falmouth Commodores

FROM THE CCBL PRESIDENT

Welcome to all Falmouth Commodores fans to the 2025 Cape Cod Baseball League season!

It has been a somber offseason with the passing of Coach Trundy, who meant so much to the organization, but we know the team is in good hands with new Manager Jarrod Saltalamacchia. I am excited for the start of a new chapter of Falmouth Commodores baseball.

The Commodores' executive board and volunteers have worked tirelessly, year-round, to bring you the best summer baseball in the country. During the off season they are setting up housing, working on schedules and events, ordering merchandise to name only a few of the year-round tasks.

The team has become a proving ground for not only the players and coaches but the internet broadcasters, writers, the production people who provide the streaming of all games for not only the parents of players who cannot attend the games but the fans, as well.

Your General Manager and coaching staff have worked hard during the off season to select the top College Baseball Players in the country. This provides, you the fans, with the best baseball in the summer. Many of these players will be drafted and some will become the next generation of MLB stars!

Host Families become family to your players who have come from all over the country to play on the Cape. Not only do they open their homes, they also open their hearts to these ball players. Without the Host Families the league could not exist. I also want to take the time to acknowledge the Corporate Sponsors and donors of the Falmouth Commodores. They provide the organization with the funding necessary to run a class organization.

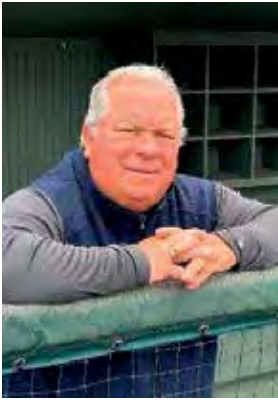

To all of the fans that come from both near and far, I want to thank you for all your support! Attending games, both home and away, supporting players and sponsors allow the Cape Cod Baseball League to remain the best Summer Collegiate Baseball League in the United States and there is not a close second.

I hope to see you all at Arnie Allen Diamond at Guv Fuller Field this summer. Enjoy the beautiful facility, buy a hat, grab a hot dog and soda, root for your Commodores, and enjoy the great game of baseball!

Andrew Lang
President
Cape Cod Baseball League

FROM THE CCBL COMMISSIONER

Welcome one and all to the 2025 CCBL Season. We know it's been a long blustery winter and it's always a good sign that summer is officially here when you are at the beach, having a BBQ and attending a Cape Cod Baseball League game with family and friends to end the evening, and we thank you for your attendance. If you're a first-time visitor to a CCBL game, we know it won't be your last. The nostalgia of old-time baseball will reach out to you and your family. So, throw down a blanket or sit in the stands and enjoy the game – then get an autograph or two afterwards and purchase a shirt or hat or sweatshirt for the memories.

Now in my second year as the Commissioner of the CCBL, what a better time to do a quick review, especially with the Falmouth Commodore organization.

2024 was a great year for the league and Falmouth was a big part of it. The 2024 CCBL All-Star Game was held at Guv Fuller Field in late July, and what a wonderful event it was. The Commodores' president, Bob Curtis, and GM Chuck Sturtevant and their staff of volunteers helped to make the 2024 ASG memorable and one of the best in the history of the CCBL. What an accomplishment!

But it was a tough year for Falmouth as well. The retirement of 2017 CCBL Hall of Famer, former CCBL president, Commodores GM and former team president Chuck Sturtevant left big shoes to fill, but the worst blow was the passing this past winter of 2024 CCBL Hall of Famer and longtime Field Manager Jeff Trundy. What a loss, not only for the Falmouth Commodores family and the community, but for the entire CCBL. He was a pillar for Falmouth and the league for decades. He was not only a great coach but an outstanding human being who was respected and loved by his players, coaches, the Falmouth Commodore organization and the entire CCBL. He was a friend to me, and his smile and positive attitude will be missed by everyone. Our thoughts go out to his family.

The passing of Jeff and the retirement of Chuck meant new hires for the Commodores. The organization reached out to a former assistant coach of the Bourne Braves and former Red Sox catcher who played in the Major Leagues for 13 years, Jarrod Saltalamacchia, to be the 'Dores new skipper. We wish him the best of luck in the 2025 season.

Chuck Sturtevant enjoyed a tremendous career with the Commodores and the CCBL and was not easy to replace, but the addition of new GM Paul Aries brings added energy and continued success for the Falmouth organization. We wish both Jarrod and Paul the best at their new positions. The Falmouth Commodores are in good hands.

As always, I wish the new players who wear the Falmouth Commodore uniforms the best of success for the 2025 season. Realize that you are taking the same path and playing on the same field as Jacob Ellsbury, Mike Flanagan, AJ Pollock, Adley Rutschman and Darin Erstad and even a member of the first class of the MLB Hall of Fame, Pie Traynor, and so many more! Quite a group with whom to be a part of history. Also, knowing that the first pick of the 2024 MLB draft, Travis Bazzana, played here in 2023 tells you how rich the tradition is for the 'Dores. So, remember to play hard, hustle and represent the Falmouth Commodores with class and dignity on and off the field and have fun. Enjoy your experience here on the Cape.

A special thanks goes out to all the team's volunteers. From the housing parents and coordinators to the game day operations and the merchandise people, know that your passion for the 'Dores is appreciated and welcome. Your hard work and love for the game is what makes the Falmouth Commodores an experience and memory that these players, families and fans will cherish for their entire lives. It makes the 'Dores a first-class operation.

I want to thank President Bob Curtis and GM Paul Aries and the entire organization, and wish them the very best for a successful 2025 season. We'll see you in the playoffs!

John J. Castleberry
CCBL Commissioner

FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

Hello baseball fans and welcome to another exciting season of Falmouth Commodores baseball! I know I speak for our new manager Jarrod Saltalamacchia, our coaches, players, interns and volunteers, as I welcome you to Guv Fuller Field. Thank you for spending an evening with us to watch the best collegiate players in the country continue their journey to make their dream of playing in Major League Baseball come true.

My journey with the Commodores and the CCBL began as a host family in 2024. This was one of the most rewarding experiences that my wife Jennifer and I have ever had. We not only got to know the players and consider them our "summer kids" but we also got to know their families and form relationships with them as well. If you are able and have some extra room I highly encourage you to consider being a host family. You will form a bond with your player(s) that will last a lifetime.

The thing that got me into being the GM of the Commodores is the mission of our organization, which is to help our players, coaches and interns realize their dream of working in and around baseball or major sports in general. Their energy and commitment is fantastic and it is so rewarding to see them grow and thrive and know that you play a small role in that success.

I would like to take a moment to thank all of our volunteers, sponsors, donors and fans for the tremendous support that you provide the Commodores. I would like to thank the Town of Falmouth for the great working relationship that we have. We are proud to represent this community.

As we continue into the summer and beyond, we hope you enjoy this new era of Commodores baseball. We will play hard, play fair, do the right things and create new traditions while honoring the 100-year history of our league. But in the end, we will always stay true to our mission of helping to make dreams come true for these young men and women!

Go 'Dores!

Enthusiastically,
Paul Aries
General Manager

FROM THE HEAD COACH

Welcome, 'Dores fans, to the 2025 season and another incredible summer of Cape Cod League Baseball!

I'm honored and excited to join the Falmouth Commodores as the new manager for the 2025 season.

There's nothing quite like baseball on the Cape, and we've been working tirelessly to ensure this season is one to remember. From our President and board members to our GMs, housing committee, game day staff, interns, and bat kids – every member of the organization has left no stone unturned in finding new and innovative ways to make the fan experience the best in all of college summer baseball.

The Cape Cod Baseball League stands as one of the most prestigious amateur leagues in the country, bringing together the very best collegiate talent from across the nation to compete for the Arnold Mycock Trophy – awarded to the last team standing. With over 140 years of tradition, more than 300 players come through the Cape each summer, and over 1,600 Cape League alumni have gone on to make their MLB debut.

This offseason, my coaching staff and I have been hard at work identifying elite-level players who we believe can lead the 'Dores to a championship. I'm thrilled to introduce our dedicated staff: Bench Coach Beau McMillan (1st year), Pitching Coach Casey Scott (1st year), First Base Coach Quinn Stromberg (2nd year), Hitting and Position Coach Jack O'Reilly (1st year), and Bullpen Coach Anthony Defabbia (1st year). Together, we're ready to hit the ground running.

Our goal is to create an environment that's unmatched – one where players can thrive, fans feel at home, and everyone involved shares in something special. These players won't just be showcasing their skills for the fans, but also for the hundreds of professional scouts in attendance each night – scouts looking for the next Harold "Pie" Traynor (Falmouth, 1919), Tino Martinez (Falmouth, 1986), Jacoby Ellsbury (Falmouth, 2004), or the No. 1 overall pick in the 2023 MLB Draft, Travis Bazzana (Falmouth, 2023).

It's an honor to lead this team alongside such a passionate coaching staff, and a privilege to help our players chase every little boy's dream: to hear their name called in the MLB Draft and take the field in the big leagues.

Let's make this summer one to remember – Go 'Dores!

Jarrod Saltalamacchia

JARROD (SALTY) SALTALAMACCHIA

LEADING THE COMMODORES INTO A NEW ERA

The Falmouth Commodores welcome new head coach, Jarrod (Salty) Saltalamacchia. Salty is well known to Boston area baseball fans, as he played for the Red Sox for 4 years, including the 2013 World Series champion team.

Salty is a lifelong baseball guy. He grew up in Florida where he was drafted by the Atlanta Braves out of high school in 2003. He spent 3 years in the minor leagues before breaking into the major leagues in 2007. After a brief stint with the Texas Rangers during their 2010 World Series win, he was traded to the Red Sox. As a catcher, Salty was initially mentored by Jason Varitek where he learned "The Art of The Game". Following the Red Sox World Series win in 2013, Salty played for a few Major League Baseball (MLB) teams before retiring in 2018. His MLB career average was 232, with 110 home runs and 381 RBIs. Salty's next career move took him to The Kings Academy in West Palm Beach, FL, where he is currently coaching. He also served as Head Coach of the MLB Draft Combine in 2021 and 2022. From 2022 through 2024, he was an assistant coach with the Bourne Braves of the Cape Cod Baseball League, during which the team won two League championships, in 2022 and 2023. Salty, who earned a BS degree in Business and Leadership from Northeastern University, has a long-term goal of becoming a fulltime college baseball coach. Salty has a passion for the game and inspires his players to play at a higher level, and manifest success. Earning players trust by creating an "in the moment" culture and allowing their abilities to take shape throughout the summer. His hands on approach and delegation of his great coaching staff gives players a greater appreciation for the game and a different voice to help them (players) understand and develop their skills further. Salty and his wife, Ashley, have four daughters, and two (girl) dogs.

FALMOUTH COMMODORES' 2024 SEASON IN REVIEW

By Faith Flickinger

Mountains and valleys painted the landscape of the 2024 season for the Falmouth Commodores.

Win drought troubles plagued the Commodores for much of the season. The season opened at McKeon Park on June 15 unfavorably. The Hyannis Harbor Hawks mercied the Commodores 10-0 per the new Cape League 10-runs after seven innings mercy rule that was added this summer.

"Games like that happen, we just got to flush it out early," Christian Martin (Virginia Tech) said on June 15.

Three days later Falmouth clenched its first win at Guv Fuller Filed over the Brewster Whitecaps to sit at 1-3. They didn't see another win for another eight days over the Orleans Firebirds, again at home to be 2-8.

"It was sticking to our game plan," Luke Gaffney (Purdue) said on June 18. "We've been in those close situations, we just needed to execute the past few days and today we hit some balls."

The Commodores didn't see an away win for 27 days until a rain-makeup game at Spillane Field against the Wareham Gateman to become 8-14. 24 days later the season closed in Wareham for the 40th game with the Gateman taking it 9-5 on August 4 to give Falmouth a 16-23-1 finish.

The Commodores defended their home diamond through and through. They went 12-8 when at the Guv and home win streaks went as long as four games. Wins always felt sweeter for this team after all the struggling and clawing at proving themselves.

Falmouth pulled a handful of upsets. Two extra sweet ones were versus the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox at the Guv and versus the Chatham Anglers at Veterans Field.

Riley Stanford (Georgia Tech) pulled the save for Falmouth when Y-D was in town on July 29. The Commodores pulled to a 4-2 lead with an RBI single from Gavin Turley (Oregon State) and a balk from Dylan Delvecchio (St. Mary's) to hand the reigns off to Stanford to close it out with a 1-2-3 inning.

Veterans Field wasn't forgiving to Falmouth the first time it visited, but the second time was a more favorable story. The Commodores won 9-2 on July 23 after accumulating nine hits, two home runs and nine runs.

"Not trying to put too much pressure on each other is the biggest thing for us," Dylan Carey (Nebraska) said on July 23. "Having that trust in each other and the will to win is what has helped us hop on this little bit of a winning streak."

Regardless of the outcomes, this Falmouth team had each other's backs and never had a dull moment. Comradery and charisma were a big part of the 2024 Commodores.

"We battle, we love each other, that's for sure," Isaiah Barkett (Stetson) said on July 19. "That's what's the most fun about this group is how tight we are."

FROM FALMOUTH WITH LOVE

We're proud to support the Falmouth community! Like the Commodores, we believe in teamwork, commitment, and community. Whether you're planning your next big move or need smart business advice, we're here to help you make it happen.

2024 CCBL HALL OF FAME

2025 Communications Intern, Whitman J. Clark

To become a hall of famer, regardless of profession or occupation, is something special. If you took every player who wore an MLB jersey during its 150-year lifetime, the group still wouldn't fill the league's smallest stadium to capacity. Now head over to Cooperstown, and you will find out that less than two percent of those players ever make it to the hall of fame.

The Cape Cod Hall is not Cooperstown, but there isn't a soul on earth that underestimates the talent that finds itself scattered among America's premiere collegiate summer league haven every season. Since its inception, the CCBL has produced more than 1,600 major leaguers, multiple MLB award winners, and 6 of the 351 players with a plaque in Cooperstown. However, what gives the Cape's Hall of Fame its charm is the inductees that never threw a pitch, swung a bat, or came sliding headfirst into home plate, it's the inductees that have made Cape Cod as much a destination for players as it is summer tourists. But, if you're a Commodore, last year you got the best of both worlds, as we saw one of the greatest hitters in CCBL history inducted alongside his manager, who in his own right is on the Mt. Rushmore of Cape Cod baseball coaching.

Todd Cunningham was inducted as a part of the 2024 class, and looking back on his career in Falmouth, it's clear only one question has gone unanswered: what took so long? In 2009, the Jacksonville State alumni was an everyday hit machine, taking home the Thurman Munson batting title (.392 batting average) while also leading the league in hits and on-base percentage.

These numbers achieved him a first team All-league selection and the Pro prospect of the year award. Stats like these are what led to him becoming a second-round choice of the Atlanta Braves where he enjoyed Major League action in three different seasons.

What made this such a special ceremony for Commodore fans everywhere, was not that a former player was inducted, not even that a player and a manager were getting in, but that they donned the burgundy and black at the same time. Cunningham was joined by not only his manager, but a man who many would consider a cornerstone of the league for nearly a quarter century. Coach Trundy needs no introduction. You can count on one hand the number of Cape Cod coaches to amass 500 wins, and to nobody's surprise, Trundy is one of them. "Gentleman Jeff" was known throughout the league as a pioneer for amateur baseball, as his output extends far beyond the Cape. In 2013, he was inducted into the Maine Baseball Hall of Fame after a 20-year coaching career at Cony High School. Although Coach Trundy is no longer with us, his thumbprint on Cape Cod baseball will never be forgotten.

In 2024, these two joined 24 other distinguished Commodore individuals, all of whom have left lasting impressions on our league as players, coaches, or league officers.

FALMOUTH COMMODORES 2024 MLB DRAFTEES

by Noah Nussbaum, 2025 Beat Reporter Intern

Falmouth's 2024 draft class was headlined by two of the best players on the board – Travis Bazzana and Charlie Condon.

Bazzana was drafted No. 1 overall by the Cleveland Guardians. In three years at Oregon State, his numbers jumped off the charts. Starting over 60 games each season, the Australian native finished with a .360 average, 45 home runs and 165 RBIs. He also posted a whopping .660 slugging and .497 on base percentage. The second baseman heightened his skills with the Commodores in 2023, hitting .371 and finishing with the same amount of strikeouts as walks (18).

Condon was just as impressive with Georgia, leading to his selection at No. 3 overall to the Colorado Rockies. With the Bulldogs, Condon developed into one of the best power hitters in the country. In his redshirt sophomore season last year, he hit .433 while blasting 37 home runs, finishing with a 1.009 slugging percentage. The Marietta, Georgia, native played just 11 games with Falmouth in 2023, but still drove in 10 runs and produced 12 hits.

At the 2024 MLB Draft, Falmouth was well represented. Of the 615 players drafted, 24 were Falmouth Commodores, with 5 in the first round. 197, or 32%, of all the draftees were from the CCBL.

2025 OPERATIONS, COACHING AND TRAINING STAFF

JARROD SALTALAMACCHIA FIELD MANAGER

Coach Saltalamacchia, also known as "Salty," spent more than 12 seasons in Major League Baseball and has extensive coaching experience as well as Cape Cod Baseball League experience.

Saltalamacchia was drafted straight out of high school in the first round of the 2003 MLB Draft by the Atlanta Braves. While with the Braves, he won the 2005 Minor League Player of the Year and was a Minor League All-Star. During those years, he also competed and won three gold medals with Team USA in 2001, 2002 and 2005.

From 2007-2010, Saltalamacchia played for the Texas Rangers before being traded to the Boston Red Sox. He helped the Red Sox win the 2013 World Series. That same year, he was named the Palm Beach County Professional Player of the Year. Saltalamacchia also had stints with the Miami Marlins, Arizona Diamondbacks, Detroit Tigers and Toronto Blue Jays before retiring in 2019.

For the past three years, coach Saltalamacchia had served as an assistant coach with the Bourne Braves. He has also served as the head varsity coach for The King's Academy over the past five years after joining them as the varsity baseball assistant coach in the 2018-19 season.

Saltalamacchia was just recently named an inductee in the 2020 Palm Beach County Sports Hall of Fame.

BEAU MCMILLAN ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

Beau McMillan is in his fourth season as associate head coach at Palm Beach Atlantic University and his sixth year as head coach for the Delray Beach Lightning.

McMillan spent a total of six seasons on the coaching staff at his alma mater, Lynn University, in Boca Raton, Fla., which included being a part of the staff for the Fighting Knights' NCAA Division II National Championship team in 2009.

In his first year coaching LU, he oversaw eight team offensive records shattered as LU won its first national title. The Knights broke marks for at-bats, hits, runs batted in, total bases, runs, walks, on-base percentage and sacrifice flies while also finishing in the top three for doubles, slugging percentage, sacrifice hits, batting average and home runs.

The only player in program history to garner First Team All-Sunshine State Conference accolades twice, McMillan left LU with program records for doubles (49), total bases (394), runs scored (200) and stolen bases (77). He also finished in the top five for games played (196) and started (194), hits (251), at-bats (758), triples (8), home runs (26) and runs batted in (119).

McMillan began his professional career with the Gulf Coast League Marlins before being twice promoted to the Jamestown Jammers of the New York Penn League and the Greensboro Grasshoppers of the South Atlantic League. He later advanced to the Marlins' Triple-A affiliate, the Albuquerque Isotopes.

Following his playing career, he worked with Perfect Competition, a company that promotes performance enhancement, skill and professional development, and sports nutrition.

A 2004 graduate with a degree in business administration, McMillan resides in Delray Beach.

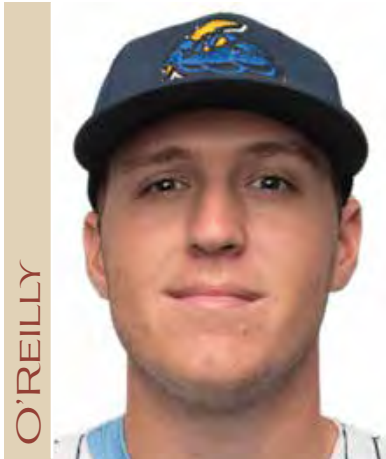

QUINN STROMBERG INFIELD COACH

A former four-year bullpen catcher at Auburn University, Quinn has a strong foundation in pitching and catching dynamics, along with a deep understanding of game strategy. Stromberg's coaching resume includes roles as the bullpen coach for the Charlottesville Tom Sox (Summer 2023) and the first base coach for the Bourne Braves (Summer 2024). He was part of Auburn's 2022 College World Series run, along with taking the Bourne Braves to the 2023 championship in the Cape Cod Baseball League.

JACK O'REILLY OUTFIELD AND HITTING COACH

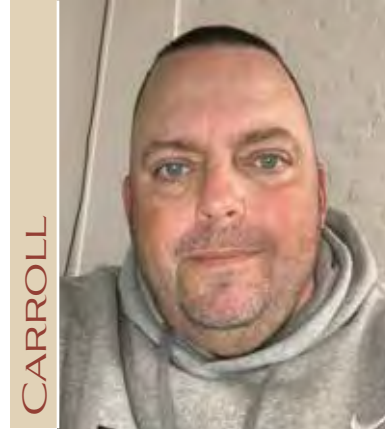

A four-year starter at Villanova, O'Reilly had 746 career at-bats while playing in every game during his tenure as a Wildcat. Showing his versatility playing both infield and outfield, O'Reilly's leadership as a two-time captain puts him in a strong position to mentor the 2024-25 players.

O'Reilly most recently played for the MLB Draft League, where he led the Trenton Thunder in multiple categories, including a .332 average with an .833 OPS.

His career highlights include Big East Honor Roll, Big East Player of the Week, four-time Big East All Academic Team and eight-time Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

Jack received a B.S. in finance from the Villanova School of Business and is currently completing his Master of Education.

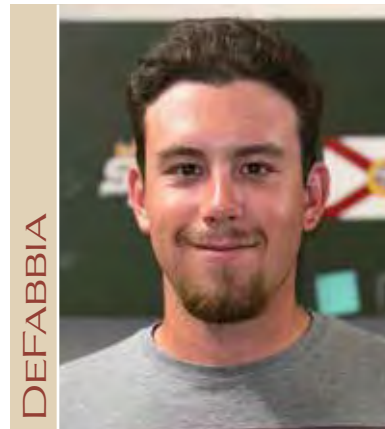

TODD CARROLL PITCHING COACH

Todd Carroll enters his 13th season as pitching coach at MIT. He has been an assistant coach at UMass-Boston, Salem Community College, and Harvard University. At UMass-Boston, Carroll helped the Beacons to their first winning record in school history. At Salem, both of Carroll's pitching staffs finished the year with earned run averages under four and in 2007, Harvard's pitching staff led the Ivy League by nearly a full run. At MIT his pitching staffs have consistently ranked among the best in Division III. From 2002-2005, Carroll was the pitching coach of the Mill City All-Americans of the New England Collegiate Baseball League. In 2007, he served as an assistant coach with the Wareham Gatemen, and in 2008, as the Head Coach of the Bennington Bombers of the New York Collegiate League. Carroll has worked clinics at Boston College, Harvard and the University of Arizona. 65 of his former players have signed professional contracts.

ANTHONY DEFABBIA PITCHING COACH

Anthony played at Stetson University from 2021-2024 serving as a LHP and an OF. He spent the 2024-25 season as a Student Assistant Coach at Stetson University working primarily with the pitchers and assisting with hitters as well. As a player Anthony played in Falmouth during the 2021 and 2022 seasons. He was tied for the most wins in the 2021 Cape season. In the summer of 2023 Anthony played for Bourne, where he threw 4.1 perfect innings to complete Game 3 of the Championship Series giving Bourne the championship win over Orleans. Following his collegiate career, Anthony went on to play Professionally in the Atlantic League with the Staten Island Ferryhawks. Anthony will work mainly in assisting the Commodores pitching staff and is looking forward to learning from players and staff as he transitions into being a full-time coach.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2024 ALL STAR GAME

2025 Communications Intern, Whitman J. Clark

On July 27th, 2024, the epicenter of collegiate baseball wasn't in Omaha, Nebraska. It wasn't an SEC conference championship game featuring two top-three teams. It was our own Falmouth, Massachusetts. I'm talking of course about the 2024 Cape Cod league all-star game, a day on which 28 of the best college baseball players on the planet all found themselves in a town of just over 30 thousand people. The Cape's version of the 'summer classic' is a true example of what this sport and this league mean to those familiar with them. It was a time for fans from all over Cape Cod and beyond (over 6,000 in total) to come and watch the best from all over the country. Sure, everyone at Guv Fuller Field, both inside and outside of the fence, had different names, different backgrounds, and different ways of getting there, but two things tied them all together: community and baseball.

For six Commodores, last year's game was extra special, as they got to play host to the best competition, as well as for his teammates, pitchers Edward Hart of Duke and Parker Coil of Arkansas. Both pitchers, much like Bowen and Jones, did nothing more than exactly what was asked of any ball player: do your job. They were both given an inning, and they were both shutdown, allowing zero runs between the two.

You thought we were done? This is the Commodores we're talking about, there's always more where that came from. Perhaps the most important Commodore contributions came from the team's two reserve nods, Trent Caraway of Oregon State and Jaxon Willits of Oklahoma. Both men entered the game in the field in the top of the fifth, with Caraway taking over the hot corner while Willits clocked in at shortstop. However, it wasn't until later in the game that the two made their presence known. Caraway recorded two singles and an RBI, while Willits was able to draw a ninth-inning walk, which proved to be crucial after a stolen base that turned into the game-winning run in a 9-8 victory for the West.

But even after all that, or should I say before all that, Guv Fuller was the place to be. Fans received autographs and were treated to an action-packed home run derby, yet again featuring the Oregon State Beaver Trent Caraway. Cape Cod baseball icon and Falmouth's own Jeff Trundy was also honored with a gift from the league, as well as the league's nine other managers. The three-time manager of the year award coached 30 seasons of Cape League baseball, all but four of them as the Commodores' head man.

This year's all-star game has some big shoes to fill, as last seasons was nothing short of a weekend to remember. The honors of hosting now fall to Yarmouth-Dennis at Merrill Wilson Field.

teammates they had ever experienced. Karson Bowen of TCU and Jayson Jones of Oklahoma State earned starting nods both behind the plate and in right field. Both players were able to leave their mark as they each provided runs for the West. As for Bowen, the day was likely extra special, as he also got to catch

At a recent meeting, a town official asked what makes Falmouth run. His answer was volunteers. It is also volunteers who make the Falmouth Commodores run. Year-round, our volunteers are busy planning for the next season, and during the season they are greeting fans at the gates, ensuring the players are set up for success, supervising the interns, selling food and merchandise, and more. The Falmouth Commodores appreciate all of our volunteers, interns, and players who help make the baseball season occur each year.

The Falmouth Commodores give back to our generous community of businesses, non-profits, and volunteers by supporting the organizations and people who also help Falmouth run. At each game, the Commodores welcome a sponsor or community group to help bring visibility to and show appreciation for their organization. These organizations have included Falmouth Youth Baseball, Scouts, Falmouth Newcomers Club, Barnstable Sheriff's Youth Group, Falmouth Service Center, and more. We also appreciate the talented musicians who kick-off each game by performing the US National Anthem or God Bless America in the seventh inning.

One of the bigger Commodores events is Military Night, where veterans and military personnel, as well as organizations that support them, are recognized for their service. This year, Military Night will be held on Friday, June 27 (rain date on July 25). Each Friday home game is Red Shirt Friday, where we wear red to honor our troops and veterans. And, throughout the season, we recognize three outstanding individuals as Heroes of the Game.

During the season, the Commodores participate in community events such as the St. Barnabas Strawberry Festival and Touch A Truck for Tommy's Place. The players and interns enjoy participating in the senior men's club meetings in Falmouth and Mashpee, field days at the Falmouth elementary schools, and reading to children at the Falmouth Public Library. Always a favorite is Baseball Sunday at Waquoit Congregational Church, where Reverend Nell Fields incorporates a baseball theme into her sermon. Last year, Homer, our mascot, had the honor to run alongside Pat the New England Patriot, Lucky the "Celtics" Leprechaun, and Wally the Green Monster in the Family Fun Mascot Run that kicks off the Falmouth Road Race weekend.

So, while the Falmouth Commodores are primarily about helping the young men and women who come to Falmouth realize their lifelong dreams of a baseball career, we are about so much more. Our volunteers work to make each game a magical night for fans to enjoy competitive baseball and recognize the organizations that help Falmouth run!

FALMOUTH COMMODORES BASEBALL CLINICS

The Falmouth Commodores can't wait to welcome kids to our Youth Development Clinics, running June 24-August 1!

Our new Assistant Head Coach, Beau McMillian, and Assistant General Manager, Nick Carlson, have developed an exciting new curriculum that focuses on baseball fundamentals, including the importance of 'Baseball IQ', while growing the players' love for the game.

The Rookie, Advanced, and Elite clinics (for kids ages 5-13), taught by some of America's top college players, will offer hands-on instruction covering hitting, base running, infield/outfield play, pitching, and catching. The intensity of drills will gradually increase with each age group. A small player-to-coach ratio will ensure high-quality instruction.

New this summer! The Commodores will offer a Varsity clinic for high school baseball players, aged 14-18, who hope to continue playing in college. Players will go through a college-level practice, live at-bats and bullpens for pitchers. Using state-of-the-art Rapsodo PRO 2.0, players will receive individualized video analysis of their hitting and positional mechanics with recommended adjustments. Additionally, participants will learn how to create a player resume with key metrics and will receive a custom video reel to promote themselves to college coaches.

Spots are limited – register today!
