

Child Abuse Prevention

The Whitecaps are committed to 'two-deep' contact with all children under the age of sixteen in formal club activities (for example, clinic, batkids). That is, all contact with children shall be in the company of two club adult representatives (players, coaches, or volunteers). The General Manager will review plans with other appropriate club officials annually to ensure this policy is applied to all activities.