Welcome back to Eldredge Park!

Welcome to the 2026 Cape Cod Baseball League and the Orleans Firebirds in the premier College Summer Baseball League. I have taken on the role of President from Bob O'Donnell. Bob will be staying on as Senior Vice President to make a smooth transition. In my first months, he has been a huge help to me. If you see him at the games, thank him for the great job he has done.

I came to my first Firebirds (Cardinals) game in 1983 and have been coming ever since.

I knew when I retired, I wanted to get involved. I want to thank the Executive Committee for all their hard work all year to make this possible. Thank you to all the host families; without them, this would be impossible. We are grateful to the Town of Orleans and all the help and support they give us, as well as our Fan Club and many advertisers.

Take advantage of all that is offered at the games. Grab a raffle ticket with your children to win an autograph team signed baseball, get your favorite baseball players' autograph right after game, stop by the retail tent for some Firebirds gear, and your children can sing "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" during the seventh inning stretch behind the dugout.

Last year's team won the President's Cup for the best regular season record. Coach Nicholson is looking to do it again. So, let's fill the hill this year. Bring your blankets and beach chairs and have a great evening at Eldredge Park. Don't forget to stop by and take chance with our 50-50 raffle and help support the Firebirds. Ask a Firebird staff member how you can become a volunteer or become a member of our team. GO BIRDS! ○

Dear Firebirds Fans,

As a member of the Orleans Cardinals/Firebirds since 2001, I am absolutely thrilled to return to Eldredge Park and the Cape Cod Baseball League for the 2026 season! Orleans has been my second home for twenty-six summers now. I truly look forward to my daily interactions with our players, coaching staff, the kids in our youth clinics, and, of course, you – the fans.

Coach Kelly Nicholson

Watching “the stars of tomorrow shine tonight” is a true honor, and I am deeply humbled to be part of such an extraordinary organization. Thank you for your continued support, generosity, and enthusiasm for the Firebirds; my sincere appreciation goes out to each and every one of you.

We look forward to sharing a tremendous baseball experience with you this summer. Please come say hello, stick around after the game for autographs and photos with your favorite Birds, and make sure to stop by The Home Plate Shop to pick up some new gear!

I can’t wait to see you “fill the hill” this summer.
Humbly and respectfully yours
in baseball,

REMEMBERING A CLASSIC TEAM AND SEASON

Three who were there look back

Kelly Nicholson

How are you doing, buddy?

Firebirds

I'm good. I'm really good.

Kelly Nicholson

I know you're good! [Laughter]

Firebirds

This is the best part of my day. Well, talking about the 2015 team, your experience of it would interest me. Was it just different from the jump?

Kelly Nicholson

Well, when guys would show up for our first three workouts, it was just like dude, after dude, after dude. It was Bryan Reynolds and Kyle Lewis and Ronnie Dawson and Tres Barrera and Kyle Serrano and Eric Lauer and Corbin Burnes and Mitchell Jordan. Mitchell Jordan from Stetson had a Hall of Fame summer that year. He gave up just one earned run.

Firebirds

He was modern day Mason Miller.

Kelly Nicholson

Yeah. Jeremy Martinez from

USC caught and played first base. And Sean Murphy was our catcher. And Tres Barrera also caught, we had three really great catchers, two of whom wound up in the major leagues. And then it was Bobby Dalbec, who wound up in the big leagues. And then Alex Call and Kyle Lewis and Bryan Reynolds and Ronnie Dawson in the outfield. We just had really, really good players.

Firebirds

Did they play well together?

Kelly Nicholson

Played well together, enjoyed each other, out for early work. Obviously, they were fun to be around because they won a lot of games.

Firebirds

Yeah.

Kelly Nicholson

Right? Their record was 31-12-1, the best in team history. And I think, I don't want to say by far, but 14 major leaguers are the most we've had on one roster. And to do what they did that summer was pretty special. We beat Chatham in the first playoff round, and then we won the first game against Y-D. And then we lost two one-run games. So, it was obviously super disappointing, but hey, Y-D was good. But I thought, over the course of 44 games, we had, I think, the best team on the Cape. Y-D just played a little bit better than we did in those two games. So, it was a special, special group.

Firebirds

How fun is that?

Kelly Nicholson

Yeah, it was fun. Of course it was fun. I remember talking to Eric Lauer in Arizona during spring training, he will come to our reunion dinner on occasion. He's in Toronto now, so he can't be there. But we always talk about that summer, and Eric said, Skip, it seems like we won all the time. So, they had fun, they won three out of every four games they played, which made it fun.

Firebirds

Right.

Kelly Nicholson

And super high character, elite talent, obviously. And Alex Call came on a temp. Mark Hallberg, our assistant coach, knew Alex Call in high school, he came from Ball State and wound up hitting third in our order, and he was a temporary guy, now he's in the major leagues with the Dodgers, so that's the kind of talent that was on that team.

Firebirds

Is it the perfect storm like that? You guys had so much talent. Was it the perfect storm? Was it luck versus the Team USA thing where guys didn't go?

Kelly Nicholson

Yeah, I just think it was a perfect storm. Bryan Reynolds decided not to go to USA. And some of these other guys didn't get invited that I thought were going to get invited because they were on the list. Even Tanner Tully, he's been in the major leagues. Kyle Serrano was really, really good that summer. Just a big arm from Tennessee and now he's our one of our pitching coaches. He had a nice summer. But Eric and Mitchell and Burnes, you know, those were three staples of our rotation that summer. And we thumped, man, there was some real slug on that team with those guys.

Firebirds

When it was that strong of a team and you're winning so often, was there a larger fan base? Was the hill always full of people?

Kelly Nicholson

Well, I think it's always pretty full, you know? But, those playoff games were obviously packed and the quality of baseball against Y-D in the second round was really, really good. We won the first game 4-0. After missing something, it was either a hit and run or a safety squeeze or whatever, Ronnie Dawson hit a three-run homer. So, it was just a perfect storm. It was super, super high talent with super high character and 14 guys wind up in the major leagues.

Firebirds

Do you have a personal favorite win or specific moment from that summer that you look back on?

Kelly Nicholson

Man, I don't know – but it was always good to beat Chatham. We had home field advantage, and then we went to Chatham and beat them pretty handily. Dalbec might've hit a couple homers. Then to beat to beat Y-D in game one, with this group of guys, our chances of getting to the finals are pretty good. And they just beat us in two one-run games. Remember Donnie Walton? I remember Donnie Walton [Y-D shortstop] at our place in game three, made this crazy play up the middle, kind of diving and flipped it over his shoulder to the second baseman for a force play that would have scored a run, I think, and tied the game. So, you always remember the crummy moments, but it was a great play by Y-D and really saved the game for them. So that really stands out. And then the summer Mitchell Jordan had was phenomenal. And to see Corbin Burnes's work ethic, and to see Eric Lauer, just his cool, calm demeanor all summer, I called him Easy E. I remember that vividly. And then, Willie Abreu, just this big physical kid from the University of Miami, hit some monster homers. And to see Sean Murphy throw, and Tres Barrera catch and block and hit. It was really fun to watch those guys play. And then our shortstop Colby Woodmansee, who got hurt, and we also had Daniel Pinero. Those guys were very, very good defensively. And Dalbec, I think, hit a bunch of homers that summer. All great memories. It was just a really good team, man.

Firebirds

What was different for you, when you are coaching a team

Alex Call poses with the 2025 World Series trophy like that? And this might even just be more personal interest, when you're the leader of a team that has so much talent, where you perhaps balance trying not to get in the way and let them play their game, while also trying to be the coach and help them out?

Kelly Nicholson

That's a really good question. I would say I try to just manage those guys or coach them the same way that I would coach any team, right? Just do things with the way that we always do things in Orleans, with discipline and structure, and play the game with respect. Not treat them any differently than we would any other team. I remember that we lost our next-to-last game of the season. We lost on the road and we had a little powwow at Eldredge when we got back. We had wrapped up the division, but we still had a chance to win 31 games, which is a record in Orleans, and I remember we had a pretty firm, brief, bold meeting. Like, hey, we've had a good summer. You guys have had a good summer, but there's still a lot to play for. And it would mean a lot to the organization if we can win this last game. And they went out and won their 31st game and, we won our first three playoff games. And then, like I said, it was super, super disappointing to get beat, because I thought we had the best team on the Cape and we had a real shot to win the Cape League title that year, but it just wasn't meant to be.

Firebirds

But you know what, you won 31 games and we're talking about it 11 years later, right?

Kelly Nicholson

Yeah, exactly.

Firebirds

Pretty neat. I'm all good, Kelly. I don't want to take any more of your time.

Kelly Nicholson

Well, hey, man, I thank you. Take care, buddy.

Firebirds

Yeah, you too.

Mitchell Jordan

Firebirds

Why was the 2015 Firebird team great, and what memories do you have?

Mitchell Jordan

The scouts were telling people this is the best team we've seen on the Cape in 20 years. Yeah, we had a good team, and now, 11 years later, you look at all the guys that made the big leagues and won awards. There was just an incredible amount of talent on that team and now what those guys have done in the big leagues. We came up a little bit short, but yeah, it was a great group of guys, a great summer, and it is fun to watch all these guys still play.

Firebirds

How about you, Cape League Hall of Famer, pitcher of the year – was that just the perfect storm for you where everything was working, was it Kelly – what was it that went so well for you?

Mitchell Jordan

Yeah, it's a good question. I think in the moment, you string together a couple outings, and then next thing you know it's like 15 innings or 20 innings, and I'm like, whoa, here we go – we're on a little bit of a run here, and in the back of my head I'm thinking, eventually something's going to happen and I'll give up a couple runs. But I think it's just confidence. Kelly and Bill [Bray] just stuck with me and kept helping me stay grounded. But yeah, I mean that was difficult – the best I've ever pitched my life. Happened at the right time, that's for sure. But it was an incredible summer, and sometimes I look back at the numbers, I just think, how did I do that? It was almost an out of body experience at times. It was a great learning experience. I'm grateful for the opportunity that I had.

Firebirds

What did you learn?

Mitchell Jordan

Alex Call (Dodgers) faces Eric Lauer (Blue Jays) in the 2015 World Series

I think one of the main things I learned was when you're having success like that to try and keep it on an even keel. Baseball is a game of failure, so I've been through the hard times, and you gotta stay level and then, when you're having a huge success like that, it's the same thing, you can't get too high, so they really helped me with that. I think just learning to stay in a moment and not think about the big picture too much, and all these little things are going to add up to something that could be great.

Firebirds

Would you ever catch yourself, or maybe the guys on the team, going into a game just with a level of supreme confidence?

Mitchell Jordan

Oh yeah, all the time. Even the guys from the smaller schools. I just pulled up the roster, I love looking at this thing – and you had Kyle Lewis from Mercer, he's the real deal, Sean Murphy from Wright State, he's the real deal. I think after a couple games, a couple of weeks, we were like, we're pretty good, so that was fun to experience that with everybody. And then I think the buzz started to grow around our team that summer – all these guys are the real deal. That was something that we didn't speak about it a lot, but I think we all just realized, we're pretty nasty here, we're going to have a great year. Our rotation had a good year, and we had Joe Ryan there for a little bit. Eric Lauer, Corbin Burnes - the team was loaded. Yeah, and the guy that I always bring up, one of the best guys I've ever played with, hardest working guy, Alex Call. On that team, he had to scrap at the beginning to get playing time just because of how loaded our team was, now he's starting games in the World Series.

Firebirds

Alex Call, he scored the game winning run last night for the

2015 East All Stars: L-R – Mitchell Jordan, Eric Lauer, Kyle Lewis, Willie Abreu, Sean Murphy, Ronnie Dawson, Nick Zammarelli

Dodgers.

Mitchell Jordan

Yeah, exactly, and he's a fantastic player he's one of the best guys I ever played with, and he finally got some playing time, all right.

Firebirds

It must be pretty cool that you were at Stetson, and there's Mercer and Ball State, I'm wondering if you guys took a lot of pride that there were a number of small school guys on the team – it's not like we've got the three hitter from LSU on this team, but we're winning.

Mitchell Jordan

Right, so Corbin Burnes was my roommate, and we were in very similar situations ... small school guys and late adds to the roster. He went to Saint Mary's, and we got very close and we talked about it all the time. We're like, yeah, we're the small school guys, got the late invite to the team, so let's just make the most of it. Obviously, he did as well. Nick Zammarelli, from Elon, he played every day for us too. It was a fantastic crew, and then we all got super close when we were playing in the minor leagues. When we would play against or with each other, we'd always get together and go to breakfast or something, so that was always fun.

Firebirds

That's cool. You still keep in touch with any guys more than others?

Mitchell Jordan

I keep in touch with a few. I talk to Corbin every now and then send a few texts back-and-forth. Parker Bean, I speak to him every now and then. I played with Sean Murphy for a little bit in the Oakland system, never played on the same team, just in the same area. Time goes on, but I definitely kept in touch with a lot of these guys, especially when we played against each other in minor leagues.

Firebirds

What was Eldredge Park like when you guys were just on an absolute heater like you were, did it did it feel electric there?

Mitchell Jordan

Oh yeah, it was. A couple of the guys I played with at Stetson had played on the Cape before, and they're like, oh, that's one of the best fields. At the beginning of summer, it's a little slow. Toward the end of the summer, you show up at 10 AM and the whole hill is already filled with chairs and blankets. It's just a really cool vibe, just such a cool summer baseball thing, kind of old school. This is just the whole vibe with the Cape, it's just unbelievable. You have the best players in the country there. I just think it's a really unique experience.

Firebirds

In the few days where there wasn't baseball, what would you guys do for fun?

Mitchell Jordan

[Laughs] I think the few days we did have, we went to a Red Sox game, we couldn't get away from baseball.

Firebirds

Oh, really? [Laughter]

Mitchell Jordan

I did go to the beach a few times, maybe just explored the town. I think we mostly just rested. I would say now, as I'm later in life, I probably should've taken advantage more of exploring the Cape in the summer, but I was in college so I probably just rested, or went to another baseball game.

Firebirds

Who did you live with?

Mitchell Jordan

Lisa and Eric Radke. There were six of us at one point. It was me, Corbin, Daniel Pinero, Jason Harper, Bryson Brigman and Justin Jones. We had a great time.

Firebirds

Was there a specific game or win or outing moment for you that you remember more than others?

Mitchell Jordan

The All-Star game was pretty cool. I would say, by my third or fourth start, I hadn't given up a run yet, and I knew in the back of my head, I still haven't given up a run. I think we were in Wareham, and our radio announcers were right on top of the dugout, and I was sitting next to Corbin, and obviously it's one of those things you don't do, we're not gonna say that I haven't given up a run yet, and then we just hear the radio announcer, as it's dead quiet, say, he still hasn't given up a run, and we both look at each other like, that's not good. But I think it was at that moment where I was able to take the pressure off and be OK, we can joke about this for a little bit. And I still think about that one game that I did give up a run, I'm pretty sure it was my last inning, I got two quick outs, and then just super quick, a double, drop in single, and there goes the run, it was just that easy.

Firebirds

Just happened.

Mitchell Jordan

Yeah, just baseball happening.

Firebirds

It's cool that you say it. It shows how easy it is to give up a run, and it took so long for that to happen.

Mitchell Jordan

Yeah, it's crazy to think about too, because baseball is baseball. You could go execute every single pitch you wanna execute and give up five runs, or you could miss all your spots and throw a shutout. So, the stars all aligned that summer. Pretty incredible, and you know a lot of luck in there. And I don't think that for granted.

Firebirds

When people ask you about it, whether it be a best friend of yours, or somebody you just met that heard all you pitched on the Cape, what's something you always enjoy sharing with them about it about the experience?

Mitchell Jordan

Definitely the team – all the guys on the team. It's crazy, because I had the season I had, and then I start rattling off all the guys that were on that team. They say, wait a minute, you were in a team with all those guys, and you did what you did, and I can't really believe it myself sometimes too, but yeah, it happened. But definitely the group of guys that we had, and obviously I'm still able to turn on the game and say, I played that guy. Every now and then it comes back to me and I'm like, dang, it was pretty crazy summer, and I'm super grateful for the opportunity and what Kelly helped me with.

Firebirds

That rocks. What are you doing now?

Mitchell Jordan

I work for Raytheon, so, defense manufacturing. I'm in finance.

Firebirds

Cool.

Mitchell Jordan

But it's funny, my first team I worked for with Raytheon is up in Boston, so on my resumé I have playing in the Cape League, so all them up in Boston that I work with would say, we used to go to those games all the time, we were probably there when you were there. So that was a fun connection.

Firebirds

Yeah, and the last one for you I'm wondering if there's a lesson you learned from Kelly that perhaps stands out, that you still think of, or that was just the most valuable to you at that time in your life?

Mitchell Jordan

One of my favorite days during spring training was our reunion dinner with Kelly. He'd get all the guys together that were his former players and we all go to a big dinner in Arizona, and just his positive attitude, it's just contagious. When you're in spring training, all nervous about where you're going to be, and then going back to the days on the Cape and just hearing him tell stories, remembering his positive attitude, was very refreshing. Every time I talk to him, he's just a ball of energy. I always enjoy it. He's such a positive guy. Kelly is a great person, so you like to look back to that summer. That's always fantastic.

Firebirds

Awesome. I appreciate the time. Thanks for doing this. I know the Firebirds fans will be fired up to see your interview.

Mitchell Jordan

Yeah, no problem. Thanks.

Kyle Lewis

Firebirds

When you think back on that 2015 team, what comes to mind first?

Kyle Lewis

The team athleticism – we had a lot of athleticism on that team. I've never been in locker room and been as shocked at how talented everybody was, and how Kelly found all these players and got them to come. It was cool. It was amazing.

Firebirds

You were a Mercer guy, Mitch was a Stetson guy. It was a lot of smaller school guys like you. It brought the team a level of pride when you were winning and running the league.

Kyle Lewis

Oh yeah, for sure. When we got there, we all sized each other up just to see who had it in them, and then everybody was just making plays and making stuff happen. It was cool to see people from all over the country. It actually made me feel more comfortable, not feeling like I was the only one that maybe wasn't at a Power Five at that time, so it was cool 'cause we all built on each other.

Firebirds

Yeah, that is cool. Was it more of a "we're in this together", or was there a bit of, we want to prove to everybody else that the non-Power Five guys on this team can win.

Kyle Lewis

No, it wasn't that at all. I mean, everybody was together. Everybody was cool and real down to earth, so that we all jelled and everybody worked outside of practice and showed up with an attitude to dominate, so it was cool. Everybody kind of built on each other and chemistry was there too.

Firebirds

When y'all are winning, how much fun was that for you?

Kyle Lewis

It was amazing. It was little bit of shock to me. I've never been on team that was that dominant. My college teams were good, but just the physicality of it. We had so many players that ended up being big leaguers. We had every position with somebody at a very high level, so it was it was amazing.

Firebirds

It's cool to think what you had - Corbin Burnes could start on a Wednesday night and then Eric Lauer start on a Thursday night, and Alex Call was fighting hard just make the team. It's great. It's an embarrassment of riches that you guys had. I wonder now if when you look back on it, you can literally giggle like you just did, that was such a squad that somehow was put together for a summer.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, you know it's funny because Mitch was our ace, and then we had Lauer and then Burnes and Serrano, so all the pitchers were lights out. We knew Burnes was amazing and he was from Saint Mary's. So, wherever you needed it. Sean Murphy behind the plate was the best catcher I've ever seen in my life.

Firebirds

Why is that?

Kyle Lewis

Just an accurate arm, with leadership qualities. He was mature and had a cannon arm. It was just amazing. I knew he'd be winning a gold glove in the MLB. We had Bryan Reynolds. We had Ronnie Dawson. The whole team, everyone, played hard. We had Bobby Dalbec and Willie Abreu. We had Alex Call, and he was a grinder at that time. He worked and earned everything he got, he earned more playing time, and so it's cool to see him still up in the Bigs now 'cause his attitude and approach to the game hasn't changed at all. The list is long, but everybody worked hard, that was the biggest thing I remember.

Firebirds

It's funny you said that Alex was a grinder because Mitch literally used the same word describing Alex.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, 'cause he wasn't coming in as a starter, and he was making the most of every opportunity. I just remember I always respected him. I always respected him because he never let anything go unturned.

Firebirds

How cool to say that 11 years later. Is there a specific game that means a little more to you or that you enjoyed the most?

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, we had a lot of intense games. I can't remember who the game was against, however, Bobby Dalbec hit the ball farther than anybody I ever saw in my life. We still talk about it every time we get on a call with somebody from the team.

Firebirds

Was it at Eldredge Park?

Kyle Lewis

Eldredge Park, yup. I think it landed way back on the deck next to the locker room. We had some good battles with Y-D during the playoff series. We lost the final playoff game by one run. It was pretty cool going back to college, my confidence was through the roof because we played at such a high level for so long. I went back to college just with a new mindset.

Firebirds

How cool, and to know you played with so many guys that were doing so well. I'm guessing it must've been so much fun even checking in with those guys later to see how this summer was so great for their development as well.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah. I saw Murphy in the fall league. Me and Bobby, Ronnie, in Arizona hanging out, and I mean everybody. Ronnie is still one of my good friends to this day, I was at his wedding. Reggie Southall is one of my best friends still to this day. We just went to Lisbon, Portugal together.

Firebirds

That's so fun.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, Bryson Brigman's my dog. I saw Reynolds in Pittsburgh. This is a once in a lifetime thing, you want to follow all that up. Nick Zammarelli, we played together with the Mariners for a long time.

Firebirds

You say that summer was a once in a lifetime summer for you.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, it was just capturing lightning in a bottle. Coach Nicholson was so cool as he spoke to your spirit in a way that was different from most coaches. He wasn't beating the door down, trying to get something out of you. He just makes sure you feel good and gives you a little tip here and there that you might need, so you go out and play confidently. It was a cool experience to be around him, because he really had a good feel for young people to help them go in the right direction.

Firebirds

And it sounds like he really knew how to, like what you said, capture lightning in a bottle. He must've known that there's a lot of talent on this team and I'm gonna let them play their game.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, I think maybe it was only a couple times that he had to really be a disciplinarian. For the most part, he was trying to make sure the confidence was high. Make sure the guys felt free and confident, make sure bodies were healthy and in the right frame of mind to go out and perform. He did a great job with that group.

Firebirds

When the group wasn't playing baseball, on one of your few days off, what would you guys do?

Kyle Lewis

We did a bunch of everything. Nauset Grill, hanging out, having a get-together at someone's house. Midway through the season, on off days we'd go to the field and have home run derbies with each other.

Firebirds

[Laughter] Really? It's so much fun doing it in games, it's contagious, let's do it on the off days.

Kyle Lewis

Yeah, we did that a few times.

Firebirds

That's the best. We really appreciate you taking time out of your schedule to do this. I know that the Firebird fans will be super thankful and appreciative when they read your interview about the 2015 season.

Kyle Lewis

I hope they're still packing the hill there. I remember running up in the right field stands, catching a foul ball one time, and the fans are yelling and screaming, I'm thinking, this is amazing. I think it was a playoff game.

Firebirds

I bet the fans went crazy. I love that we used to call that fill the hill. Kyle, good to chat with you again. It's great to hear about this team. It'll be on the cover of the yearbook, so you guys will get a lot of a lot of nice love again. The hill will be fired up for the 2015 team.

Kyle Lewis

That's cool man, that makes me feel good. Thank you.

Firebirds

Best of luck to you and appreciate the time. Have a great day. ○

2025 SEASON IN REVIEW

Resilience, persistence, tenacity and determination were hallmarks of the 2025 Firebirds season. Over the course of the season, 53 players passed through the roster, and each one contributed to the relentless climb to the best record in the league, the East championship and President's Trophy, but Y-D won the first playoff round to end the inspiring season. The contest for playoff spots in the West also went to the final week, with Bourne battling back from fourth place to the top seed and finally sweeping Y-D to win the CCBL championship.

Orleans was represented on the East All Stars by C Cashel Dugger (UCLA), SS Elijah

Ickes (Hawai'i), OF Robbie Lavey (George Washington), OF Anthony Potestio (UC San Diego), RHP Ethan Foley (UC Berkeley), LHP Cole Tryba (UC Santa Barbara), and RHP Steele Murdock (UC San Diego). Ickes, Tryba, Murdock, Potestio, and Foley were named to the Final All-League team, along with RHP Ryan Oshinski (Brown) and 3B Alejandro Garza (Cal Poly SLO). The Russ Ford Outstanding Relief Pitcher Award went to Murdock, who recorded 8 saves, a 2.16 ERA, and 24 K over 16.2 IP, while Field Manager Kelly Nicholson won an unprecedented fifth Mike Curran Manager of the Year Award (2005, 2008, 2015, 2017, and 2025).

The 2025 MLB First Year Player Draft in July saw 17 Firebirds selected. Seven went in the first 10 rounds, including second round pick RHP Cam Leiter (2023, Florida State, LA Dodgers, 65th overall), and third rounders 1B Jack Gurevitch (2024, San Diego, St. Louis Cardinals, 89th overall) and RHP Cody Bowker (2024, Vanderbilt, Philadelphia Phillies, 100th overall). Seven alumni made their MLB debuts, including 2022 first rounder OF Chase DeLauter (James Madison/Cleveland) and 2023 second rounder 2B Luke Keaschall (San Francisco/ASU/Minnesota). Finally, a new tradition was begun as the Birds hosted the first annual Alumni Week in July. ○

A conversation with two international players, post Firebirds

Interview with Itsuki Takemoto

Winner of the league's BFC Whitehouse Pitching Award in 2024, Itsuki Takemoto's baseball journey began when he was a young boy under his father's tutelage. The rigorous training he underwent in high school in Japan gave him the discipline and maturity to maintain his equilibrium while learning English and performing academically and athletically at the University of Hawaii. Draft eligible in 2025, the Athletics picked him in the 19th round, and he's now in his first full year of professional baseball.

Firebirds

Itsuki, I appreciate you taking time out of your day. So, what was your favorite part about being with the Firebirds on the Cape during the summer?

Itsuki Takemoto

I think good coaches and good players. I had a great experience with the team. That's the best part of summer.

Firebirds

You were the Cape League pitcher of the year in 2024. What worked for you?

Itsuki Takemoto

Just attack the zone. That's what the coaches told me. I think pretty much that's it. Just attack the zone.

Firebirds

Kelly said that every single time you took the ball, he would just say to himself, well, we're going to win tonight. Suk's got the ball. Like it must have been fun to be playing for a guy like that, right?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah. Kelly told me that a lot.

Firebirds

Did he give you a lot of confidence?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah. I mean, he trusts me, so I trust him too.

Firebirds

It means something, as a Japanese-born player, what was it like going to the Cape? What a unique experience was that like for you?

Itsuki Takemoto

I didn't know the Cape Cod League was a summer ball league. Jo Oyama told me Cape Cod is the best summer league baseball.

Firebirds

When did he tell you that?

Itsuki Takemoto

I think he got the MVP.

Firebirds

He was second place for the MVP.

Itsuki Takemoto

Second place for the MVP, yeah.

Firebirds

Cool. What was it like living with the host family? Was that something you had ever done before?

Itsuki Takemoto

No, that's my first time.

Firebirds

What was that experience like?

Itsuki Takemoto

Oh, great. Just fantastic. Yeah.

Firebirds

Did you get to share any of your culture with the host family? Did they share theirs with you? What was that experience like?

Itsuki Takemoto

Everybody seemed so happy. And then, yeah, I was happy too.

Firebirds

Who'd you live with?

Itsuki Takemoto

Robin and Rob Rowe. [Mike Zawadzkas in 2025]

Firebirds

It must have been fun to be in a small town where it seemed like everybody knew each other and loved the baseball team. Did you enjoy just enjoy going around town and seeing the community and what was really a special place?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah, definitely. Everybody was so nice to me. And my English is not perfect. So, everybody helped me a lot. I appreciated that.

Firebirds

It sounds pretty good to me. When Jo told you that it was the best summer league, did you agree with him after playing a summer in Orleans and think the same idea?

Itsuki Takemoto

Hundred percent, yeah.

Firebirds

What was the team like? Did you guys all get along.

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah. Everybody hit like 500 feet in BP. I was like, damn, this thing's crazy. And everybody pitches like over 95. So I was like, wow.

Firebirds

All that stuff was new to you. Did you think it made you a better player?

Itsuki Takemoto

I think so, definitely. I asked so many teammates, like, what's your softball grip, cutter grip, and split grip. So, definitely, they're helping me a lot.

Firebirds

Did you say you're still kind of taking some of that with you now? Where are you playing right now, by the way?

Itsuki Takemoto

Stockton, Stockton Ports. [Single-A affiliate of the Athletics]

Firebirds

How fun is that in California?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah. It's so fun right now.

Firebirds

You probably spent a lot of time in the bullpen being a pitcher. You mentioned your English is not perfect. Did you feel like you got to improve your English, got to really learn how to live and play American ball a little more, just spending a lot of time with guys from all over the country?

Itsuki Takemoto

Okay. Honestly, I don't think so. Here, there's so many Spanish guys, like the Puerto Rican and Venezuelan guys. Everybody speaks Spanish around the ballpark.

Firebirds

Has your Spanish improved then, perhaps?

Itsuki Takemoto

Like un poquito, yeah.

Firebirds

When you were in Orleans for the summer, did you have a favorite restaurant?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yes. Which one is it? They have fish and chips and fish burger too.

Firebirds

They do.

Itsuki Takemoto

And banana shakes too.

Firebirds

The Knack.

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah. That's good. That's my favorite.

Firebirds

What else did you like? What would you guys do for fun around town when you didn't have baseball?

Itsuki Takemoto

Honestly, just nothing. Just focus on baseball and maybe like, I went to the beach a couple of times with my friend, but Hawaii beaches are way better.

Firebirds

What do you think was the biggest difference of the Cape compared to where you grew up?

Itsuki Takemoto

I think everything is different. I grew up in Japan and everything is so strict and Cape Cod has so much nature, but I'm from Osaka and Osaka is a city. It's just buildings. So, I think Orleans is almost the opposite.

Firebirds

It's also a really relaxed place. Was it interesting to be in a laid-back summer chill area?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah.

Firebirds

The Fourth of July parade is a big deal in Orleans. How was that for you? Have you ever seen anything like that before?

Itsuki Takemoto

No, that's crazy. Like crazy fireworks. Yeah. I just like it. Yeah.

Firebirds

It's a fun day. Kelly spoke a lot about how much respect you have for the game. Everything you did showed your respect for baseball and everybody there. Where did that come from for you?

Itsuki Takemoto

That's Japanese baseball culture. So, I just keep doing it. Yeah.

Firebirds

Do you have a favorite memory from your time on the Cape?

Itsuki Takemoto

I think every game was a favorite. I still remember everybody supporting me. So, I think every game was a favorite.

Firebirds

That's cool. Was it fun to see fans go up on that hill at Eldredge Park?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah, definitely. Yeah, cool.

Firebirds

When you look back on it, do you still have friends on the team that you keep in touch with or that you think fondly of or anything like that?

Itsuki Takemoto

Yes, everybody.

Firebirds

Did you have a did you have a best friend?

Itsuki Takemoto

I think so, yeah.

Firebirds

Who was that?

Itsuki Takemoto

Ben Ziegler-Namoa.

Firebirds

Was he a pitcher too.

Itsuki Takemoto

No, he's outfielder from Hawaii. I went to University of Hawaii and we played together, so he was my best friend.

Firebirds

The Cape and Hawaii are a little different.

Itsuki Takemoto

They're way different.

Firebirds

I do have one more question. What is the biggest lesson you learned in your time on the Cape? Can you think of one?

Itsuki Takemoto

Just be confident and attack, that's what they told me, and also be respectful, that's what Kelly told me.

Firebirds

I love it.

Itsuki Takemoto

I think that's, yeah, biggest part.

Firebirds

Absolutely. Well, Suki, I really appreciate you taking the time. It was so great to chat with you. Thank you. I know you're so busy and you've got a million things to do.

Itsuki Takemoto

Yeah, thank you so much.

Firebirds

Yes, sir. You rock. ○

Interview with Jo Oyama

One of the most exciting players to ever appear on the Eldredge Park diamond, Joichiro Oyama brought a unique style and quickly became a crowd favorite. Born and raised in Naha, Japan, Jo first played in the USA at Merced College before transferring to UC Irvine. Despite an MVP-caliber season in Orleans, including winning the East All-Star Game MVP award and leading the team in nearly every offensive category, he wasn't drafted by MLB the following spring. He played in the Japan Western League in 2024 and then signed a minor league contract as a free agent with Seattle in 2025.

Firebirds

Where are you right now, by the way?

Jo Oyama

I'm with Seattle. [The Inland Empire 66ers.] We're playing in San Bernardino, California.

Firebirds

I'd like to know what the experience was like for you, being a Japanese-born player and coming to the Cape? How was the summer for you?

Jo Oyama

Yeah, it was crazy. I knew that Cape Cod was the best, or one of the best, college summer league.

Firebirds

Yeah.

Jo Oyama

But coming from Japan, I went to a JUCO for three years. I never thought about myself playing on the Cape. Of course, I wanted to play there, but I've never thought about it. When I got call from Kelly and when I found out I'm going to go to play there. I was super excited. I was hyped. And then, just playing there, it was awesome. It was so much fun playing with all the guys, those guys who eventually got drafted and playing against great players. So just playing against those guys just made me better every day and pushed me. Just watching them playing, so grateful just to be able to compete there, compete against those guys. It was so much fun for sure.

Firebirds

Kelly said you played with so much joy every single day on the Cape. I'm guessing that's just a mark of who you are as a person, but the way he described it, really sounded like you just loved the experience.

Jo Oyama

Yeah. I came from Japan, didn't even speak English at the time. I finally got the chance playing there, so much fun every day. And it was my first time going to East Coast. Cape Cod is like an island, and it was a cool place. It was such a nice place, and the food was really good and the people were super nice. I was blessed to have great host family and every day I enjoyed it. I enjoyed the moment every single day.

Firebirds

How fun is that? How was your English when you went to the Cape?

Jo Oyama

It was better than my first couple of years, but still, I was not really comfortable. Well, it was fine. But yeah, it was not perfect. My English is not still perfect. I'm still learning.

Firebirds

Kelly was a little frustrated because he still thinks, believes that you should have won the MVP that year.

Jo Oyama

Travis Bazzana, now he's in the big leagues. So, no complaint about it.

Firebirds

You were just crushing it that season. It must have been fun to have such a unique experience, but also just be playing so well. Was it the coaching? Was it just the fact that you hit a hot streak? Why do you think you were playing so well with the Birds?

Jo Oyama

It was crazy to be honest. But

I think one thing that I can say is I was very comfortable with the team, with Kelly, and the teammates. They kind of made it feel like home and just feel comfortable. Play with some fun or play with joy. I remember I was really comfortable, with people around me and being able to feel that way definitely helped me to perform well. Jay Money [Banfield], our mental coach, was there and he helped us with the mental side of the game. And yeah, like it was a great environment. Just made me feel comfortable and it was great.

Firebirds

There's such a close-knit group of people there. And such a unique experience for a fast three months. When it is the last game of the season, everyone's going home the next day, it is so sad. All these people turn into your family so fast. I was so bummed out that it was over just like that.

Jo Oyama

I was sad. I think I cried like last game. It was emotional because I love the team and I love my teammates, coaches, Kelly and my host family. Nancy was really nice. She was my host mom and she was very sweet. I still talk to her and we still, keep in touch. I really loved, the experience in Orleans.

Firebirds

Did you get to bring any special Japanese food or culture to the Nickerson household while you were staying with them?

Jo Oyama

We talked about it, but we never did anything.

Firebirds

Yeah, you're kind of busy, right? Did you have a favorite restaurant or place to go eat around town in Orleans?

Jo Oyama

Oh, man. I know there is a restaurant near the field where Nancy always took us. I don't remember the name.

Firebirds

Is it the Corner Store?

Jo Oyama

We had clam chowder, and burgers. It was like American food. It was a sit-down restaurant. And then I think there was a bar inside, too.

Firebirds

Were there signs all over like the ceiling and walls? I'd probably guess it was Land Ho.

Jo Oyama

Yeah, it was the Land Ho. I went there several times while I was in Orleans. I always had a clam chowder and it was so good.

Firebirds

Did you have much clam chowder before the Cape?

Jo Oyama

I did, but people say clam chowder is like, the best thing there. And yeah, I loved it.

Firebirds

Did you have any like best friends or best buddies that were on the team that you're still in contact and touch with now?

Jo Oyama

Matt Halbach, he's one of my closest friends because I played with him the year before we played on the Cape in the West Coast League and then we played with the same team, Apple Sox, in West Coast League. And yeah, after we got to both play for Orleans together. And yeah,

Firebirds

I'm wondering what's the biggest lesson that you were able to take out of playing with the Firebirds, living in Orleans, and having that unique experience.

Jo Oyama

Hitting Coach Max [Fecske], he was so cool. He was one of the funniest hitting coaches I've ever had, but when it comes to hitting, he knows a lot. He knows what we're doing, and then he gives the right advice – he keeps everything simple, it was very accurate to me. So I think that's why I was able to hit well. Like every time I didn't feel good, we just talked and he helped me, for sure.

Firebirds

Playing with the wood bats worked out for you, obviously.

mental skill training with us and meditation. It was interesting. I knew about meditation, but I never dove into it. It was cool that we experienced mental training and it helps even now when I struggle with the mental aspects. I talked to Jay and we kind of had a conversation the other day about mental side of the game and it was cool.

Firebirds

That's so awesome. I'm big on that stuff too. It's great you're still in contact with him. Was there a favorite like individual moment, maybe a favorite game during that summer?

Jo Oyama

The final game of the year served as the third and decisive match of the championship

I still talk to him. And Chase Lummus, my roommate, I got to know him and he was really nice. He was cool guy. Yeah, I loved everyone, but I think those two, stick out.

Jo Oyama

It wasn't difficult because in Japan we use wood bats in college and high school. It was not a huge difference for me. Jay, the mental coach helped us with the mental side of the game. He did a lot of series against the Bourne Braves. There were almost 8,000 people at Eldredge Park. It was packed. There were so many people. And I hit two homers, like lead-off homer and next time up. I was like, my gosh.

Firebirds

I think I remember that. I was following on social media. Did the place just go crazy when that happened?

Jo Oyama

Yeah, I was like, my gosh. Like I couldn't even believe what I did. And yeah, it was crazy. Even though we lost. So, yeah, I think I remember that game the most.

Firebirds

Rounding the bases must have been a pretty surreal feeling.

Jo Oyama

Yeah.

Firebirds

Is there any lesson that you learned from Kelly that stands out to you the most?

Jo Oyama

He's the guy who does everything right. He wants us to do things right. So be on time. Do what you're supposed to do, just be a professional. I think that was great that he taught us to be on time. It's normal thing, but sometimes we forget about it. He taught us small things. Just be a professional, just be where you're supposed to be, and do what you're supposed to do. I think that was really cool that he was strict about it. That was really cool.

Firebirds

It's be a super pro, right? He used to always say that.

Jo Oyama

Yeah.

Firebirds

He's super pro, super pro. Well Jo, I appreciate you taking some time out of your day to chat with me. Orleans is such a special place and the people there are so awesome. And get to feature you and Itsuki in a yearbook article is wonderful.

Jo Oyama

Yeah, I'm excited about that.

Firebirds

Absolutely. So again, thank you so much for the time and best of luck to you moving forward.

Jo Oyama

Of course. Thank you so much. ○

Orleans is indeed fortunate to welcome back Coach Nicholson for his 26th summer and 22nd as manager, the longest tenured Orleans skipper in the “modern era” (1963-present). Kelly (Coach K, or Coach Nick) is a native of Corona, California where he won numerous scholar-athlete awards in both baseball and basketball while in high school. He was a four-year letter winner and two-time all-conference pick during his pitching career at Loyola Marymount University. After earning his Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from LMU, he began his career teaching mathematics at Loyola High School of Los Angeles, while completing his master’s degree in Education from LMU. He was the head coach of the Loyola HS Cubs for 11 seasons, leading the team to seven playoff appearances and a league title. Kelly then spent three seasons as Loyola Marymount’s pitching coach; each year the Lions won the West Coast Conference title and went to the NCAA regionals. In the summer of 2000, Kelly worked with the Team USA pitching staff in its early preparation for international play. Kelly joined Orleans as the pitching coach in 2001. In 2002, Coach K’s staff had a 2.11 ERA (the best ever by Cardinals pitchers) and in 2004 it led the CCBL with a 2.37 ERA. His 2003 championship pitching staff was lights out, with a 2.36 ERA and a league-leading 397 strikeouts in 401 innings pitched. Co-winner of the Hossfeld Spirit Award with Coach Steve DeBlasi in 2004, Kelly became the field manager in 2005. In his first season, Nicholson was the unanimous choice of his fellow managers for the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year Award after leading the Cardinals to a record-setting 30-win season and the championship. Coach Nick was again named Manager of the Year in 2008 as his squad finished the regular season in first place overall (25-17-2). In 2015, Kelly led the Firebirds to a franchise record of 31-12-1 (.716) and was again named the Manager of the Year. In 2017, his Birds captured the President’s Trophy once more (29-15), and he received his fourth Mike Curran Award. In 2019, the Birds shared the regular season East title with Chatham and Kelly attained his 350th win. In 2021, the team commemorated his 20th anniversary with a surprise on-field celebration. In 2023, Coach Nick notched his 400th win, and the Birds made a thrilling run at the CCBL championship before losing in the third and final game. In 2025, he led the team to another East Championship and President’s Trophy, and his fifth Mike Curran Award.

Under his leadership, Orleans has captured seven Eastern Division titles and is a perennial playoff contender. Since his arrival in 2001, 32 former players have been selected in the first-round of the MLB draft and 138 former Orleans Cardinals/Firebirds have reached MLB. It’s no surprise to anyone who knows him that Kelly enjoys the respect, affection and admiration of his players, fellow coaches and colleagues here and around the league, and in the wider baseball community. His annual reunion dinners for players and coaches in Scottsdale during MLB Spring Training are legendary. He’s a favorite around town, having made countless friends over the years. Orleans fans know they’ll see a first-class team on the field every summer with Kelly at the helm. Orleans welcomes a true gentleman and a terrific leader back for his 26th summer. Kelly lives with his wife Donna in Playa del Rey, CA. He can be found on X (formerly Twitter) @CoachK21 and at knicholson@loyolahs.edu. ◯

LEASE TO LOCALS

powered by  placemate

CONVERT YOUR PROPERTY INTO A NEW YEAR-ROUND RENTAL FOR LOCAL WORKERS THROUGH THE LEASE TO LOCALS PROGRAM

Eastham and Orleans homeowners could earn up to $15,000 on top of rent

“The Lease To Locals program was instrumental in helping us justify the lower rental income common with year-round leases, versus short-term Airbnb-style rentals... The program helped bridge that gap and made it possible for us to do what we already felt was the right thing for the community. This is about keeping the people who live and work here on Cape Cod - so our businesses and our towns can continue to thrive.”

Jay Banfield

Bench Coach and Mental Performance Coordinator
Hometown: San Francisco, CA
X: @JayBanfield

Jay Banfield joins the Firebirds for his eighth summer on the Cape as the team's Bench Coach and Mental Performance Coordinator. During his tenure with the Firebirds, he has also been responsible for field operations, bullpen management, bunting coordination and the first base position group.

Jay graduated from Stanford University with a degree in Psychology. His research in self-efficacy, a concept which has led to the growth mindset framework, has appeared in the Journal of Sport & Exercise Psychology and served as the foundation for his optimal performance program, The Sixth Tool.

Jay has had a wide-ranging career in the private, public and non-profit sectors. Prior to joining the Firebirds, he helped lead a national youth and workforce development organization, Year Up, that has trained and placed tens of thousands of low-income young adults, ages 18 to 24, into careers in the nation's leading employers such as LinkedIn, JPMorgan Chase, Kaiser Permanente and Bank of America. Applying the research-validated principles of Year Up, combined with his playing and coaching experience, Jay created a tailored program for the Firebirds. He has his Mental Performance Mastery Coaching Certification.

Through his optimal performance practice in the off-seasons, Jay has worked with professional and collegiate baseball players, collegiate baseball programs, and athletes and teams in various sports, including hockey, rowing and wrestling. He also serves as the Chief Officer of Economic Mobility for All Home, an organization designed to disrupt homelessness and poverty in the San Francisco Bay Area. Jay played baseball at Foothill College (CA) and in Europe semi-professionally, and has coached at various levels since 2007. ○

Ryan Hanigan

Assistant Coach
Hometown: Hollis, NH

The first time Ryan Hanigan appeared at Eldredge Park, it was as a catcher picked up from the CCBL preseason tryout in 2002 to fill a temporary player roster spot. He finished that season as the league's Manny Robello 10th Player, the John Claffey Top New England Prospect, an East All Star, and catcher on the Final All-League team. He also won the Cardinals' Charles F. Moore, Sr. Award as the MVP for the East Division Champions, and then he signed as a free agent with the Cincinnati Reds. Despite a stellar high school career, the Andover, Mass. native was overlooked in the MLB draft, and had trouble finding a college that would let him play baseball. He settled at Rollins College and continued his dogged and relentless pursuit of a professional career. After three seasons, his .359 career batting average was seventh best in school history.

After a steady climb through the minors, Hanigan made his MLB debut with the Reds in 2007, leading to an 11-year career in the majors where he played for the Reds (2007-2013), the Tampa Bay Rays (2014), the Boston Red Sox (2015-2016), and the Colorado Rockies (2017). While with the Reds, Hanigan caught both of Homer Bailey's no-hitters, against the Pittsburgh Pirates on September 28, 2012, and against the San Francisco Giants on July 2, 2013.

In his post-playing career, Hanigan has had a second career breeding prize-winning Australian Shepherds. He returned to baseball in 2024 as the manager of the Williamsport Crosscutters in the MLB Draft League, and now brings his matchless work ethic and hard-nosed competitive spirit back to Orleans as an assistant coach. ○

Jim Lawler

Pitching Coach
Hometown: College Station, TX

With more than three decades of coaching experience, Coach Lawler brings an impeccable baseball pedigree to the Firebirds. His resume includes six years as the pitching coach for the Wareham Gatemen (2014-2019).

Originally from Carroll, Iowa, he graduated from Buena

Vista College (IA) where he was a pitcher for the Beavers. Drafted in 1972 by the Yankees, he played one season for the Johnson City Yankees. His coaching career has taken him from Gonzaga, where he was the head coach (1979-80), to Texas El Paso for four years (1981-84) as their head coach. He became an assistant coach at Texas A&M in 1985, and was the assistant head coach from 1989 through 2005. The Aggies boasted a record of 876-433-3 during his tenure, appeared in the NCAA Tournament 13 times and made it to the College World Series twice (1993, 1999). In 2003, Lawler was named the National Assistant Coach of the Year by the ABCA and Baseball America.

Lawler was the head coach at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock from 2005 to 2008, and an assistant with Team USA's 18U team in 2011 and 2012. After his years at Wareham, he was an assistant at Pepperdine (2020-2021).

Coach Lawler will be joined on the Cape for his fifth Firebirds summer by his wife, Trish. ○

Chris Constantine

Assistant Coach
Hometown: Franklin, MA
The Firebirds welcome Chris Constantine back to the coaching staff for his third season in this stint and seventh overall, following a five-year hiatus. During that time, he served as the Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for both the Los Angeles Angels and Tampa Bay Rays, being named the 2019 Coach of the Year within the Los Angeles Angels organization.

Prior to his time in professional baseball, Chris spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Firebirds. A native of Franklin, Massachusetts, he has also coached collegiately at Winston-Salem State University, the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, and the United States Naval Academy. While at Navy, the Midshipmen captured back-to-back regular season conference titles and recorded the highest two-year win total in program history, highlighted by a 43-win season in 2016 and the program's first NCAA Tournament victory in over a decade. ○

Will MacLean

Assistant Coach
Southern Maine
Hometown: Exeter, NH
Orleans welcomes new assistant coach Will MacLean, who joins the staff after completing his first year of coaching at Southern Maine. From Exeter, New Hampshire, MacLean played for St. Thomas Aquinas HS, where he was All-State in his junior year and team captain in baseball, football, and hockey. He first played collegiate baseball at UMass Amherst for his freshman and sophomore years (2022-2023), playing both first base and in the outfield. As a freshman, he led the team in RBI (39) and batted .321 with six home runs and three triples, and was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team. He started all 48 games as a sophomore, batting .300 and leading the team in multi-hit games (18). Transferring to Creighton for his junior and senior seasons (2024-2025), he was a reliable offensive performer and defensive mainstay. MacLean also played summer ball, first with the Nashua Silver Knights in the Futures League (2021-2022), then the Clinton LumberKings of the Prospect League (2023), and finally the Kenosha Kingfish of the Northwoods League (2023), and he brings that additional experience to Orleans as he transitions to a coaching career. ○

ELDREDGE PARK

A Classic Ball Field and a Historic Treasure

▲ The Hill at Eldredge Park

Anyone attending a Firebirds game on a summer evening under the lights realizes what a special place our ballpark is. The partnership between the Firebirds organization, the Cape Cod Baseball League, and the great community of the Outer Cape has resulted in one of the finest places in the nation to watch a ball game. Each year, improvements are made as a result of the hard work of volunteers, contributions from businesses and individuals, and the support of town government. A major league baseball scout once said "this is as good a ball field as you'll find anywhere, majors or minors". A Philadelphia sportswriter called our field "A Norman Rockwell painting come to life."

What might be less obvious to the casual fan is that Eldredge Park is also a historic icon, representing over a century in the annals of a historic town. It is recognized as historically significant by both the Orleans and Massachusetts Historical Commissions. In 1913, Lewis Winslow "Win" Eldredge donated ten acres to the town "in consideration of my affection for and interest in the young people of Orleans and my desire to provide a playground for them." Thus, the legacy began. Today, the land Win donated continues as a playground as well as the playing field for the top collegiate baseball players in the nation.

Work on the first baseball field at Eldredge Park began in 1915. The diamond was south of where it sits today, and faced to the northwest. The area was heavily wooded, and Eldredge Park Way did not yet exist. In 1927, the town initiated a project to improve the baseball field, and the Cape Cod Baseball League began playing here in 1928. Previously, the Orleans team played on a field near the intersection of Rt. 28 and 6A in the northern section of town. In 1929, the town began referring to the field as Eldredge Park in its Annual Reports, and the name has persisted ever since.

In the latter half of the twentieth century, a number of improvements were made to the park. In 1966, with a $10,000 town appropriation and $20,000 in donations, a bandstand and tennis courts were constructed and the picnic area was established. In 1967, the configuration of the baseball field was rotated 90 degrees, with home plate being moved from left field to where you see it today. New soil was brought in, the outfield was re-seeded, and scores of recessed sprinklers were installed all over the field. Sod was laid in the infield, and the base paths were dug out and packed with six inches of clay. The pitcher's mound was re-done entirely with red clay, and home plate was stabilized. Eldredge Park was now of Major League quality.

The "New Eldredge Park" was dedicated at the CCBL All Star Game, played at the field on Sunday, July 23, 1967, when the Firebirds were known as the Cardinals. Participating in the dedication were Massachusetts Governor John Volpe, Lt. Governor Francis Sargent, and Attorney General Elliot Richardson. In his remarks, Governor Volpe paid tribute to the community partnership and hard work that brought the remarkable new field about.

In 1970, the Charles F. Moore Jr. Field House and Bandstand was constructed, and by 1971, Eldredge

Park Way was under construction. Enhancements continued with stadium lights in 1979, the press box in 1982, and terraced seating on "the hill" in 1985.

More recent years have brought new lights (2001), a bigger Bird's Nest (2003), the Yawkey Grant reconstruction with dugouts, backstop and sideline netting, the knee wall and a rebuilt infield (2010), a custom-designed scoreboard (2019), an equipment shed (2023), and a new infield, safety netting system and pitch clocks (2024). Also in 2024, a group of Nauset Middle School students, supervised by facilities director Bob Capurso, installed safety barriers at the top of the hill.

When you are enjoying a game at Eldredge Park, remember that the masterpiece in front of you did not just happen. It is the result of a remarkable 113-year journey made possible by an incredible amount of hard work, and the generosity and support of the Outer Cape community. It is a big part of what makes Orleans the special place that it is. ○

FIREBIRDS OBITUARY

MINOT S. REYNOLDS, JR.
June 19, 1942–September 16, 2025

The Orleans community lost one of their most steadfast and dedicated citizens with the passing of native son Minot Shaw “Little Joe” Reynolds, Jr. last September. Longtime Bird fans will remember the many years that Joe, his wife Ardath and their family served refreshments at the top of the hill during games. Joe was always ready to lend a helping hand whenever the team needed his contracting expertise, especially when constructing new dugouts and a press box. Joe was an avid participant in the nightly 50-50 raffle, and won a number of pots.

After graduating from Orleans High School, Joe began a long career in the excavation and heavy equipment trade by first working for the town’s highway department and later forming his own company. He joined the Orleans Fire Department as a volunteer while still in high school, and remained an integral, well-respected and valuable member until he retired at age 65 with the rank of captain. Besides operating the food truck at Eldredge Park and other community events, he and Ardath ran a restaurant on West Road for many years, as well as the snack shack at Skaket Beach. Joe never hesitated to get involved when his community needed him, whether it was building a school playground or other projects, responding to an emergency, or simply helping someone who was in distress or needed assistance. Besides his family, he leaves behind countless friends who benefitted from his kindness, generosity and devotion to his community. ○

Oldest Buildings In Orleans

How many structures from 1776 and earlier are still standing in Orleans? That was the question asked of the Orleans Historical Society/CHO and the town’s Historical Commission recently. As the 250th birthday of our nation approaches, it is a wonder that any tangible ties to that seminal year exist. Yet the rich history of our community does not disappoint.

Amazingly, there are 25 structures today in Orleans that date back to when the Declaration of Independence was adopted on July 4, 1776. The Lt. Prentice Snow House, built in 1723 on Canal Road, is considered the oldest in town. A historic marker viewable from the road stands in front of the privately-owned home. It was constructed by Jonathan Snow for his son using timber from the first meetinghouse erected in 1644 just north of today’s Town Cove in Eastham. Orleans was originally part of Eastham until 1797.

Modern addresses of these early homes plotted on a map show a concentration of historic structures along or near Tonset, Brick Hill, Barley Neck and Monument Roads, and in the Rock Harbor area. Portions of others scattered around town, like the Old Higgins Tavern where Henry David Thoreau once stayed, have been relocated and incorporated into newer buildings. Another marker stands at the original site of Higgins Tavern on today’s Route 6A across from the Olde Tavern Motel and Inn. ○

The Firebirds thank all the host families, aka Bird Nesters, for opening their homes to our ballplayers, for their generosity and support. In providing warm and caring homes, you greatly contribute to the wonderful experience players will remember for the rest of their lives.

2025 Bird Feeders

After every home game, the team is treated to a meal that has been prepared by various host families, committee members, local businesses and organizations, plus other friends. The program begun by Kathy Udall as "sandwich suppers" has expanded its gastronomical boundaries to include everything from pasta dinners to barbecues to sushi, and it really helps the players – whose appetites may exceed their food budgets. It's a big undertaking to feed a group of hungry ballplayers, coaches and bat kids. We thank those volunteers for their generous efforts.

FLOCK TO ICONIC ELDREDGE PARK AND WATCH THE 'BIRDS PLAY BASEBALL

More than 46,580 fans attended Firebirds games in 2025 regular season, consistently one of the top two drawing teams in the league. The Firebirds organization always appreciates your continued, enthusiastic support.

It costs us more than $300,000 a year to operate our team and to enhance historic Eldredge Park (established 1913) as one of the top collegiate summer baseball venues in America. The Firebirds receive 96% of the needed $300,000 from Annual Fan Club Memberships, our Homeplate Retail Shop, our Youth Baseball Clinics, our game advertisers and generous contributions by our fans at games. All funds are raised through the Orleans Athletic Association, a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, by a year-round volunteer staff. The generous outpouring of fan and community support has enabled the team to be financially stable.

The Firebirds receive indirect funding of about $11,000 from MLB thru the CCBL. Unlike most CCBL teams the Firebirds receive no revenue from concessions opting to have this operated by Nauset Schools.

As with all organizations, The Firebirds every year are faced with increased operating costs in almost every aspect of operations as well as always having the responsibility to maintain, replace, and improve every aspect of our operations. Our Fan Club, started in 2011 has become our major fund-raising vehicle and continues to grow in membership. We have reached out beyond Orleans to Eastham, Wellfleet, Truro and Provincetown residents, as well as to our many summer visitors to join our donor team and assist us so we can continue to provide this wholesome, family orientated activity. Attendance at a Firebirds game is the best Cape Cod summer entertainment bargain available and the team continues to be the highlight of many vacation as well as a major source of local pride. Thank you for your annual support of the Fan Club and don't forget to display your Fan Club sticker.

The Firebirds have had many benefactors throughout the years who become engaged as needs have arisen, like our lights, dugouts, and field improvements. We have several special projects that are in planning stages so if you would like to help us or find out more about these special projects, please reach out to members of our executive committee who are listed on page 4 of this yearbook to discuss our upcoming projects. We depend on your generous support for our survival. Please consider a financial donation to the team so this community treasure can continue to provide pleasure and entertainment for years to come.

We also deeply appreciate the many businesses that advertise in this yearbook and take out various sponsorships that support the team and its players. Those businesses understand how the Firebirds contribute vitally to our local economy and we encourage you to visit their establishments and utilize their services. ○

The Orleans Firebirds Youth Baseball Clinic

SUMMER MEMORIES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AGE 5 TO 13 YEARS OLD

OUR CLINIC PHILOSOPHY

The co-ed clinic is dedicated to teaching the fundamentals of baseball. Skills and technical instruction will cover throwing, catching, fielding, hitting and base running. All levels of abilities are identified, and all instruction is based on the age, ability and playing experience of each boy and girl. A high instructor-to-child ratio ensures that each boy and girl receive personal attention and direction.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Our Youth Summer Baseball Clinic offers kids a summer experience they will never forget. All participants receive instruction from the Firebird coaches and players to learn basic baseball skills and how to play the game, while having lots of fun along the way. Each participant receives a free T-shirt and an opportunity to "Run with the Birds" during a home game. Thursdays are slip-and-slide days and every Friday a Kids vs Parents game is played. Clinics are held weekdays from 9-11am beginning June 22 and continuing through July 31 at Nauset Middle School (adjacent to Eldredge Park). Water and nutrition breaks will take place daily, so attendees should bring snacks and water, as well as their glove. Cost is $120/week or $30/day. Sign up is from 8:30am-9am at Eldredge Park. You can download the registration form at orleansfirebirds.com.

Beginning June 22 through July 31, we will also hold specialty clinics in Hitting and Pitching, with our coaches as instructors. These clinics are held at Eldredge Park from noon to 1pm; cost is $40. For specific dates see our clinic page at orleansfirebirds.com.
