Thank you to the many volunteers who contribute to make the operation work.

Dear Firebirds Fans,

As a member of the Orleans Firebirds/ Cardinals since 2001, I'm extremely gratified that baseball is back at Eldredge Park for 2021! Until last summer, Orleans had been my "second home" for nineteen consecutive summers, and I truly missed the daily interaction with our players, our coaching staff, our youngsters in Firebird Clinic, and of course you, our fans.

Coach Kelly Nicholson

With that being said, I think we are all looking forward to the summer of 2021! Watching "the stars of tomorrow shine tonight" is truly an honor, and I am humbled to be part of an extraordinary organization. A tremendous amount of preparation has gone into planning for a safe season, and anticipation is at an all-time high.

Thank you for your continued support, generosity, and enthusiasm for the Firebirds in these unprecedented times. My sincere appreciation goes out to each and every one of you. We pride ourselves in bringing professionalism to the Cape Cod Baseball League, doing things "the right way," and playing the game with the utmost respect for America's favorite pastime. We, the players and coaches, promise to represent the great town of Orleans with pride, poise, class, and hustle at all times.

We look forward to sharing a tremendous baseball experience with you this summer. When we do reunite at Eldredge Park, please say "hello," even if it's from a distance. I can't wait to see you "Fill The Hill" again in 2021!

Humbly and respectfully yours in baseball,

Kelly Nicholson
Manager, Orleans Firebirds
Cape Cod Baseball League

Kyle Lewis – Firebirds 2015... AL Rookie

Orleans Firebirds fans were ecstatic when Kyle Lewis of the Seattle Mariners was unanimously selected as American League Rookie of the Year for 2020. He attended Shiloh High in Snellville, GA before attending Mercer University. After his freshman year, Kyle played for the Cotuit Kettleers at the end of the 2014 CCBL season, but was not invited to return the following year. Firebirds Coach Kelly brought him on to the 2015 Firebirds where he had an outstanding year hitting .291 with 8 homers, and 26 RBIs and he was selected to the CCBL All Star team. Kyle continued with an outstanding 2016 season for the Mercer Bears and was named an All-American by Baseball America, received the Golden Spikes Award as the best US amateur baseball player, and was named for a second time as the Southern Conference Baseball Player of the Year. In 2016 he was selected as the eleventh overall pick of the Major League Baseball draft by the Seattle Mariners.

Kyle's first assignment was the Mariner's Short-A Everett Aqua-Sox where he put up good numbers until July 19 when he suffered a serious knee injury including a torn anterior cruciate ligament, as well as a torn medial and lateral meniscus after a home plate collision. The injury required surgery on August 11, 2016 and extensive rehab to restore his range of motion. Luckily his career was able to continue, and he continued his rise through the minors.

On September 10 2019 Kyle made his Major League debut which included a home run off Trevor Bauer of the Cincinnati Reds at his first at bat. He certainly made the most of that first game. He came up with the club in the COVID shortened 2020 season hitting .262 with 11 home runs and 28 RBIs in 206 at bats and making some incredible catches including one to rob Oakland's Ramón Laureano of a grand slam in the first inning of the second game of a doubleheader on September 14.

The Firebirds were lucky enough to get an interview with their successful alum.

Orleans Firebirds: Congratulations on Rookie of the Year, that must have been so much fun for you and your family?

Kyle: Yeah, that was a good time, we're still having a good time with it.

Firebirds: The classic question, that I'm guessing all the Orleans faithful fans will be wondering is how playing with the Firebirds influenced your baseball career?

Kyle: It influenced me a lot because of the environment. They made it a real professional environment and there was a good level of accountability. Kelly wasn't overbearing as a coach, and so, we were able to have enough freedom to act like grown men at a young age, and still be required to hold our obligation to the team and the rules. So that definitely helped me to Mercer, what did you mean by that?

Kyle: Being able to see the scope of the whole country. I was from a small school so I wasn't able to play against a lot of the better players. And so being able to see the scope of the country and a lot of the better players going back for my junior season, I felt I was able to compete on that level, and so it was a lot easier to play, knowing and believing I was one of the best players in the country.

Firebirds: I know you're a lot about being working hard and I know what that means where it took a couple of years in between playing for the Cape and your official MLB debut. So, though all of that and everything, what would you say is different about you as a player from 2015 in the summer to this past season and right now?

Kyle: Definitely more knowledge about the strike zone, as well as being able to understand what pitch I want to attack, to mentally stay under control more, and knowing what it is I want to accomplish to help me. I also simplified my swing a little bit more as well so I was able to get a more

I've developed in that way a lot. I also make the necessary sacrifices to take care of my body and what-not. Those are the kinda main enjoyed away from playing baseball that summer?

Kyle: We used to go to Nauset Grill, I just remember it being one

“I think Orleans provided K-Lew the opportunity to show scouts that he was, indeed, one of the elite players in college baseball. He definitely took advantage of his summer opportunity, proved that he was one of the ‘best of the best.’”

a lot and I definitely was able to take that back to my next college season, as well.

Firebirds: In “Writing My Own Story – Kyle Lewis,” by the Mariners, you mentioned your season in Orleans gave you a ton of confidence when going back consistent launch position.

Firebirds: What about you as a person?

Kyle: I think just being more responsible on and off the field, being able to stick to my routine pre-game, and the ability to stick to my mind set day in and day out.

things I have learned.

Firebirds: In Orleans I know it's a whole lot of baseball, but I know you also get some time off the field to enjoy the wonderful different town it is in Orleans. Is there anything you particular that you remember that you totally of my favorite places.

Firebirds: I liked Nauset Grill, why did you like it?

Kyle: They had a sandwich there I just loved, so I would go there all the time, and I think that is something I will always remember and if I get a chance to go back to Cape Cod, I'm going to go back up there for sure – I'm going there as soon as I touch down.

Editor's Note: Sadly, the Nauset Grill, a wonderful supporter of the Firebirds, closed down as a result of the COVID pandemic. We will miss Matt, Rebecca and the crew as things open up again.

Firebirds: So, going from Shiloh High to Mercer to several years in the minors and now in the majors, how rewarding is all that for you? Coming back from injury and being overlooked at a small school. Just how rewarding was this last season and getting the

have a good flow as far as my body team, but I've definitely added a new aspect every year to continue to try to put myself in the best position possible.

Firebirds: Putting it in your own hands.

Kyle: As much as I can. There's always some fate, some destiny, that's involved in that as well, but as much as I can.

Firebirds: People always like to ask teachers and people like that, but I always think it's a good one, if you were to give Kyle Lewis of 2015 on the Cape any advice, ing his knee while playing hard in the minor leagues. Kyle dealt with the injury head-on and said it was going to launch him further into his career and not hold him back.

Firebirds: Tell me about Coach Kelly.

Kyle: I think we're always going to have a great relationship. He always tells me about my college days and reminiscing about them. It's kinda cool. He's kinda nostalgic for me. So, it's cool.

Firebirds: It's great to have people like that, huh? He remembers when you were back at Mer-out, so, I was able to learn a lot of patience, and learn a lot of understanding that God is going to have his hand in everything as well. So, everything is not just under your control to be trying to worry about it, pick at it, and try to make it perfect. You just kinda live your life and let it be what it's going to be. So, I just definitely learned that from them. When she said that when I got hurt, it just kinda reenforced that and kicked me right back into gear.

Firebirds: Did they ever make it out to the Cape to visit you?

I'm extremely grateful to them for that. I always want to go where I am wanted, and where I have an opportunity to play. Kelly put me in the lineup from day one when I got there, and I'm extremely grateful to Orleans for that.

Firebirds: I know you went and played in the playoffs the year before for Cotuit and they didn't bring you back. Then you came back with Orleans and began as a temp player?

Kyle: I was going to be a temp player, I was going to be a DH, first base, rotation guy, but Kelly put me in right field the first game because we didn't have all our players there, and I just played right field every day.

Firebirds: That's awesome, that's so, so awesome. It must have been just so great for you to be playing at that high level.

Kyle: Yes, it boosted my confidence.

Firebirds: That's fantastic, dude, fantastic. Well, I'm so happy for you, thanks for the time, I appreciate it. I know you're busy and appreciate your spending some time with me.

Kelly Nicholson: Kyle had played in the CCBL with Cotuit the previous summer, so we knew he was a very good player. We assumed he would go back to Cotuit, but that did not happen. Our roster was full when we offered a temporary contract, with the understanding that as soon as a full contract became available, it was his! Fortunately for the 'Birds, things worked out. He started Game 1, and never came out of the lineup. Carmen Carcone, former skipper for Orleans and now a Miami scout, also provided great information on K-Lew. He told me we needed to get him in Orleans...that he was one of the best players in the country. Carmen was right!

Benny Craig: Kyle Lewis was very impressive from the very beginning that summer. Initially he was quiet and that can be expected from the student athletes when they show up to a new town and get around new coaches. His talent and work ethic opened my eyes right away. I could tell he was hungry because he was a regular at "early work" batting practice. Kyle asked really mature questions about hitting theory, studying pitchers, timing and how to make adjustments. Kyle helped us win a lot that summer by striving to be consistent every day. Consistent with his breathing patterns and consistent with his preparation.

One day Kyle asked me if he should pull the ball more and I told Kyle "every time you drive the ball to right center with authority... you are making yourself more valuable in next year's draft so keep it up. Keep doing what you are doing." I'll never forget the day we were playing at Falmouth and they had a tall right hander on the mound throwing 97 or 98 miles an hour with the wind blowing in. Kyle hit a line drive through the wind out of the park to right field and as he circled the bases, I remember thinking on that swing alone he may have moved up a couple of spots in the draft. There were tons of scouts and Kyle was just being Kyle!

Editor: On March 17 the MLB Network in their series "30 Clubs in 30 Days, Presented by Camping World" interviewed Kyle.

MLB Network: A year ago, trying to win that job, right, and you won the job, what is your incentive this spring and how different is it given you are a solidified starting center fielder?

Kyle: I think the incentive stays the same for me. I definitely think coming off of last year there were a lot of improvements that can be made, and these are things I'm still trying to make improvements in, so when I go out there every day, I try to grade myself on that. Now, it's definitely a better position to be in this year, than last year, where every day was unknown, so coming in this year I feel like I have a little bit of leash, a little bit of room to work on what I want to work on for getting ready for the season. I think that definitely changes the focus a little bit. For me the sense of urgency is still there. I'm still young in the game and still trying to make my mark.

MLB Network: Robbing a home run or hitting a game winning homer, what would be the most impressive thing for you?

Kyle: Probably robbing a home run, you don't get as many opportunities, you don't get that many chances to rob one. So, when you see it go up and it's right at the wall, your heart starts racing, you get that little beat in your chest, this might be the one, so you don't get many chances to do that, so any time I've been able to do that it is something special.

MLB Network: Who was your favorite to watch rob a home run?

Kyle: Some of the classics... Torii Hunter, Andruw Jones, Griffey, Adam Jones went over the wall and threw out someone at second, that was one of the ones I remember a lot. Those are some of the top ones for me.

Editor: The Seattle Mariners did a segment entitled "Kyle Lewis: Writing My Own Story" which was referred to in the interview above. It can be accessed at: <https://www.facebook.com/watch/?v=671004053595785>

"He said "Skip, you've been here a long time. What did those major leaguers look like when they played in Orleans?" I simply said, "K-Lew...they looked just like you."
-Kelly Nicholson

Rookie of the Year award for you?

Kyle: It was cool. It was like me just trying to continually have stepping stones, so it was definitely rewarding to be able to receive an award, but I think it was more of a reward to be able to continue to play healthy the last two years. I always just want to finish the season healthy and be able to be available to play every day. What I always think has been most rewarding and that what I continue to harp on personally is to just be able to be healthy. So, if I can put together good years health wise, I know I've got some talent to be an impact player in whatever capacity that I may be in. So, I was able to end up in a reward, but I'm just grateful to be able to be healthy.

Firebirds: Is that something you just attribute to being grateful and happy it worked out you were healthy, or was it something that you're working on. Are you spending extra time in the training room to have a little more control over that?

Kyle: Yes, I work out five or six times a week and I do body work, chiropractor, massage therapist, stretch therapist, and I definitely add something every year. It's been going up every year to where now I am at a point now where I what do you think it would be?

Kyle: I think it would be just to control your emotions, and understand that life is going to happen the way it's going to happen. Things are going to be up; things are going to be down and every day doesn't define you. That is kinda what I have been learning – every day doesn't define you. I think sometimes back then I would get caught up in how many scouts are at the game, if they saw I had a bad game are they going to stop wanting me, things like that. So, I would give that advice to myself.

Firebirds: Where do you think you learned that?

Kyle: Life experience and... being down a lot, so you kinda have to look at it from a different lens, and then being able to come though, make it to the major leagues, and then have a pretty good year, it kinda it puts it in more perspective on what is going to happen or how it's going to turn out. So, you just kinda have to take it.

Benny Craig, Former Batting Coach of the Firebirds: Kyle and I still stay in touch to this day and the thing I'm most proud of is how he dealt with some serious adversity. He had a tough injury involvcer when you were trying to prove yourself on a big stage then in the Cape Cod League, and it's probably still the same relationship you two have.

Kyle: Yes, definitely the same, it hasn't changed at all. That's why I always love him, because he is genuine.

Firebirds: He really is, that's pretty special.

Firebirds: I really do think it was one of the coolest things I've heard in a while... it was what your mom said in "Kyle Lewis: Writing My Own Story," about when you hurt your knee in Everett. You said, "I don't know what to do, I was really struggling with it, I broke down in tears and then my mom called and said hey, there is some reason this is happening, whether it's for you to grow as a person, or whether it is for somebody else to watch you do it, so they can." How important are your parents to you in just encouraging you through all the ups and downs of baseball, basketball and all the other sports you've played throughout your entire life?

Kyle: They are super important, they have a whole lot of perspective, and two different perspectives, so my mom, my dad, they kinda balance each other

Yes. My parents always make it out to show support and show love whenever they can. I never take them for granted. They come all over the country trying to see me as much as they can. So, it definitely going to be always honest.

Firebirds: That's so special.

Kelly Nicholson: His parents, Ruth and Chuck, and brother Kenny, are wonderful people. I remember meeting the family at YD. They could not have been any nicer or more gracious. K-Lew represents the Lewis family as well as a young man possibly can, and I know they are extremely proud of him. We, in Orleans, are extremely proud to call him a "summer son" as well. He is one of the very best players/people we have ever had!

Firebirds: You said, "I want to play for a team that wants me, that wants me to play for them, the Mariners are that team." The Firebirds were that team a couple of years ago. Now it is on a much bigger scale, you must be enjoying how things are going so much, huh?

Kyle: Yes, I had a similar experience with Orleans. I was playing with Cotuit and they released me, and didn't want to bring me back, then Orleans ultimately pulled the trigger on me joining them, so

THE FIREBIRDS GAINED A PLAYER AND GOT A FAMILY

The Firebirds recruited Bobby Dalbec, now of the Boston Red Sox, and got his family as well

One of the great things about the Cape League is not only seeing players and getting to know them, but for volunteers and fans to interact with players and their families. Many parents have followed their children through high school and some even college sports, but the Dalbec family has supported their son, who demonstrated baseball talent at an early age, through Little League, High School, College, the Cape League and then on to a professional career in sports on a national stage.

Bobby Dalbec was a star of the Firebirds 2014 and 2015 teams and played for the Wildcats of the University of Arizona. The Firebirds volunteers and fans enjoy meeting the parents of players when they visit Orleans. The Dalbec family is unique among parents in the help they provided the team, and the fact that even Bobby's grandparents are "in" the Firebirds family. His parents, Tim and Liz Dalbec, despite living in Denver, managed to come to Cape Cod to see Bobby play for the Firebirds with Tim providing critical technical help to set up our internet broadcast system; and Bobby's grandparents, Jeri and Joe Dalbec, have been loyal and generous supporters of the Firebirds Fan Club to the present. The 2015 team which also featured Kyle Lewis (see separate article) and set the team record for wins in a season with 31 wins. Bobby led the league in home runs (12) in 2015 despite missing 17 games due to the honor of playing on Team USA! After graduating from U of A he was drafted in the fourth round by the Boston Red Sox in June 2016 and rose rapidly through the minors. On August 30, 2020 he played his first MLB game for the Sox against the Washington Nationals. His first MLB hit in the third inning of the game was a home run, and he had a second hit later that day. In his first ten games with the Sox Bobby had six home runs including a streak of five straight games with a home run in each! The following article is about the Dalbec family and their journey from the Firebirds to the MLB.

The Firebirds had a challenge at the start of the 2015, the old broadcast system wasn't going to be able to make it another year, and the Firebird volunteers were wondering how to proceed. Luckily Tim Dalbec who works as Vice-President of Promotions at Atlantic Records and is knowledgeable on audio gear advised the team what service and equipment to purchase. He later advised the broadcast interns via phone on how to set up the system for the first game of the season. That was just one time Tim helped the Firebirds during Bobby's two seasons with advice on broadcasting and other projects the team was planning. In fact, even after Bobby was drafted and playing in the minor leagues, Tim continued to provide technical advice to the Firebirds broadcast team. It was natural for Tim to pitch in. Over the years he had helped Bobby's teams with "their mounds, bullpens and drainage, hauled a portable hitting device to high school games and set it up for them, and did the PA and music for the home games as well. It was nice during ice cold spring baseball as the press booth was out of the weather and had a heater! I loved helping with the camera situation for the Firebirds, we know how it helps families stay connected to these kids when they are on the Cape."

The journey to the MLB has been a family effort – Bobby's aunts, uncles, grandparents and his sister Julia! Were all supportive and his parents said, "we have had a blast doing it!"

Baseball is in the Dalbec family... Bobby's mom, Liz, played both basketball and slow pitch softball while in high school. She played first base on the 1985 Washington State Softball Champs! "Playing in the state championship was memorable, the team was a group of girls that had been playing off and on together through elementary school and travel ball." Tim played Little League as a youngster and then focused on music (playing drums and being a DJ) and broadcasting which led to his career in the recording industry. Bobby accompanied his dad to gigs as a boy and that's how he got his love of music.

Tim has worked with many great artists over the years but he said a highlight "was working with Phil Collins and driving him around Los Angeles to visit radio for interviews. Bobby picked up on my love of music with a wide range of artists from Metallica to Freddie Mercury to Billy Joel. Bobby really appreciates great guitar players; we agree on those for sure." [Editor Note: Bobby's walk-up song at Fenway is "Soul Kitchen" by the Doors, distinctly different than most of the other players.]

Bobby showed a natural talent for baseball at an early age. He started in baseball at age five in the Seattle area. His favorite Player was Ken Griffey. Liz told the Firebirds, "He was always ready to practice and play baseball, he has been passionate about it since he was a little kid. We had a large hedge in our backyard in Bellevue, Washington, we called it the Green Monster. Bobby would go out and hit balls over the Green Monster. When he was older, he loved all of the extra work, hitting lessons, etc. We were fortunate to when Bobby was 11 or 12 playing in a pony baseball regional for the Agoura All Stars. The team beat “a rival from Arizona with a Bobby walk-off homerun, his second homerun of the game. The teams following game was against a team from Washington state coached by non-other than former Mariner, Jay Buhner. He walked Bobby every at bat and the Agoura All Stars won another round.”

Tim added, “Bobby loves the game. He always wanted to go to practice, he always wanted to get better. He always worked hard at it even when he was little.” He went on to say that Bobby’s best trait is “to always stay calm whether his team was winning or losing, and if he wasn’t calm on the inside, you wouldn’t know it by looking at him.”

We asked the Tim and Liz why Bobby chose the University of Arizona for college? “He wanted to play in the Pac 12 conference (the most successful Division in terms of NCAA baseball world series) in a warm weather state. The Wildcats had just won the CWS in 2012, we went on a visit, and he committed on the spot!” Liz went on to say, “All weekends at U of A’s Hi Corbett field were memorable. There is a great group of boosters called ‘the unofficial Wildcat baseball tailgaters’ that embrace player families every home weekend. They treat you like family!”

They had a similar experience on the Cape, “Let us just say, WE LOVE THE CAPE! What an experience! Rodie and Page Thompson were the best host family! Bobby stayed with them for two summers and Rodie makes the best Lobster rolls we have ever had! Our whole experience on the Cape is cherished.” Rodie was the person who came up with “Bobby D” as he is now called by Firebirds fans.

“When on the Cape we tried to hit as many of Guy Fieri’s Diners Drive ins and Dive spots as we could! Nauset Grill shrimp Po boys are Bobby’s favorite!” [Editor Note: We all mourn the loss of the Nauset Grill in 2020.] The Dalbec family loves the “chowdah at the HO!” Liz and Tim had a great day in P-Town and enjoyed a lovely afternoon at Truro Vineyard.

We also asked Bobby’s parents which of his home runs was most exciting. “The one in game two of U of A’s super regional victory against Mississippi State. It was a bomb.” It was a mighty blast as the video of his homer shows it totally going out of the park!

Bobby’s not only a great hitter, he pitched eight and two-thirds lights out innings in a 1-0 victory to get the win in game one of the super regionals the day before the home run. Bobby then went on to pitch two games in the College World Series. (Firebirds fans remember Bobby as a third baseman during his time in Orleans. However, he was an incredibly talented pitcher as well at U of A.)

A close second was the 373-foot dinger Bobby hit in his first MLB game with the Red Sox. “His

2019 ALL-STAR GAME

The East and West divisions faced off in the All Star Game on July 21 at Eldredge Park. Despite the scorching heat, fans enjoyed a spirited contest with great defense and exciting offense, with the East winning, 6-5, in a walk-off single by Brewster's Brett Auerbach (Alabama), who was the East Co-MVP with Brewster teammate Gage Workman (Arizona State). Wareham's Matt McLain (UCLA) was the West MVP, and Brewster's Tyler Hardman (Oklahoma) won the Home Run contest.

Max Troiani (Bentley), Shay Whitcomb (San Diego) and Jared Shuster (Wake Forest) represented Orleans on the final 2019 All-League team.

Firebird Award Histories

Charles F. Moore, Sr. Award – Most Valuable Player

Born in Eastham in 1874, Charles Frederick Moore, Sr. was an eleventh-generation Cape Coder. He graduated from the Orleans Grammar School, began apprentice training at the General Electric Works in Lynn, and had a career, primarily in sales, which took him to Boston, Providence, Brooklyn, Albany, Bennington, and finally back to Massachusetts. During the last years of his life he was the official sealer of weights and measures for the Town of Orleans, a position he held with great pride. According to his granddaughter, Lydia Moore DuPertuis, “Bampa” was a profoundly devoted and tireless fan of the Orleans team back in the town team days when the rosters were comprised of mostly local players, and he would drive his old DeSoto to the games all over the Cape. He used to leave coins in the knotholes of the weathered wooden benches in the park, little treasures for anyone to find. He was the Moore family’s original connection to the Orleans team, and his son, Charles F. Moore, Jr., honored him by establishing the team’s MVP award in his name in 1968.

Charles F. Moore, Jr. Award – for Outstanding Performance On and Off the Field

Although Charles F. Moore, Jr. wasn’t born in Orleans, it was one of his boyhood homes, the place he always returned to, and his choice for retirement after an illustrious and distinguished career. He graduated from Dartmouth in 1925 and began a life in public relations that took him from newspapers like the old Boston Herald, the Washington Post and the Boston Globe, to a prominent PR firm in New York, which in turn led to the Ford Motor Co. where he became a vice president. He was also involved in politics, once serving as a special consultant to President Eisenhower, and advising many others. After he had settled in Orleans, he became active in local affairs, becoming an Orleans Selectman. Sharing his father’s devotion to baseball, he was the president of the Orleans Cardinals, initiating many of the field improvements; he also headed the Cape Cod Baseball League. His philanthropy is legendary: he forged a major development campaign for Cape Cod Hospital, and his name is on the town’s skating rink and our field house that overlooks the baseball diamond. He wasn’t at all shy about raising funds, and there were many card games at his house where no one left until the financial goal had been reached. The list of donors to the original field lights on the monument near the left field foul pole includes many of his friends in high places, and they all gave willingly. Established in 1981, a year after his passing, this award honors his enduring legacy.

Thomas Yankus Pitching Award – Best Pitcher

The bumper sticker on Tom Yankus’ car reads, “A mi me gusta beisbol; es un parte de mi vida” (I like baseball; it is a part of my life). A gem of an understatement, but typical of Tom to be modest and humble. Born in Connecticut, Tom attended Choate Rosemary Hall, playing baseball and serving as class president. He earned his BA at Williams College, where he played baseball and was president of his class all four years; he was named to the Williams College All Time Baseball Team. He also learned to play the bass, and became a member of a popular Dixieland band, the Spring Street Stompers. Despite the success of the band, Tom decided to pursue a professional career in baseball, and he attended a tryout at Yankee Stadium. He signed with the team and played minor league ball in Montana, Washington and North Carolina. He also drove the team bus, and he later wrote about his experiences in a memoir titled Montana Summer. He then enlisted in the US Navy and went to flight school, but after a year he decided to return to baseball. Injuries delayed that plan, and Tom began what would be a 56-year career at Choate, teaching English and coaching, primary baseball. He continued to play baseball during the summers, and his Orleans connection began, first as a player in the 60s (he once threw a no-hitter), and then as a field manager and later as John Castleberry’s pitching coach; he also worked as a summer policeman. Through the overall arc of his career, he’s touched countless lives, and the impact has been profound. In recognition of Tom’s commitment to the organization, which endures to this day, the team’s pitching award in his name was established in 1985.

Harry Hossfeld Spirit Award – for Hard Work, Sportsmanship, Leadership and Courage

Harry Hossfeld served as the president of the Orleans Athletic Association for many years in the 80s. Originally from New Jersey, Harry was a multi-sport athlete and a tough, gritty competitor who was highly recruited for football and played at Gettysburg College, where he majored in business management. His career in sales and management brought him to Massachusetts. While still a young man, Harry began to experience ill health, and underwent a kidney transplant that was rejected. Unable to work, Harry and his wife Nancy moved their family to Eastham, where they had celebrated their honeymoon and built a summer home. He spent the rest of his life on dialysis, enduring illness, constant pain, disability and seven major surgeries, but he never quit or lost his fighting, indomitable spirit. He became involved with the Cardinals, whose games he had brought his family to when vacationing here; it gave him renewed purpose and focus. Until he passed away in 1988 at age 58, the loudest voice on the hill cheering on the team was always Harry’s. Not limited to players, the award was established in 1989 by his son, Mark Hossfeld, also a past president of the OAA. It honors the organization member who perseveres, overcomes difficulties, learns from loss, and leads by example.

Castleberry Coaches’ Award

John Castleberry arrived in Orleans in 1983 from the University of Washington as a volunteer assistant coach and took over as head coach in 1984. He assumed leadership of the baseball program at George Washington the next year, and his seven seasons with the Colonials earned him a place in the school’s Hall of Fame.

During John’s tenure as skipper of the Cardinals, fans came to expect that the team would make the playoffs; his 1986 squad won the CCBL championship and he was named Manager of the Year. John took Cape League team to the 1988 Boardwalk and Baseball Tournament in Florida, where they won the title and brought nationwide recognition to the CCBL as the only team using wood bats. Many of John’s former players have enjoyed a career in pro baseball: as players, coaches, scouts, administrators and broadcasters.

When John left coaching in 1991 to become a scout, the Cardinals retired his jersey #1 in recognition of the excellence he brought to the program, including establishing the popular youth baseball clinic. Since then, he’s spent time scouting with several major league teams, collecting five World Series rings. Currently, he’s the National Crosschecker for the San Francisco Giants. He also directs the East Coast Showcase, an annual premier scouting event. John is an honorary member of the Orleans Athletic Association Board of Directors. His award, first given in 2000, is presented to the player who exemplifies John’s devotion to the game and the way it should be played. That player is probably the first guy to arrive at the field and one of the last to leave, working tirelessly to improve, absorbing all the knowledge and guidance he can from the coaches, supporting his teammates and setting a standard for others to follow. ○

Orleans is indeed fortunate to welcome back Coach Nicholson for his 20th summer and 16th as manager, the longest tenured Orleans skipper in the “modern era” (1963-present). Kelly (or “Coach K” as he’s known in the pitching fraternity) is a native of Corona, California where he won numerous scholar-athlete awards in both baseball and basketball while in high school. He was a four-year letter winner and two-time all-conference pick during his pitching career at Loyola Marymount University.

After earning his Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from LMU, he began his career teaching mathematics at Loyola High School of Los Angeles, while completing his master’s degree in Education from LMU. He was the head coach of the Loyola HS Cubs for 11 seasons, leading the team to seven playoff appearances and a league title. Kelly then spent three seasons as Loyola Marymount’s pitching coach; each year the Lions won the West Coast Conference title and went to the NCAA regionals. In the summer of 2000, Kelly worked with the Team USA pitching staff in its early preparation for international play. Kelly joined Orleans as the pitching coach in 2001. In 2002, Coach K’s staff had a 2.11 ERA (the best ever by Cardinals pitchers) and in 2004 it led the CCBL with a 2.37 ERA. His 2003 championship pitching staff was lights out, with a 2.36 ERA and a league-leading 397 strikeouts in 401 innings pitched. All told, Kelly’s pitching staffs have led the CCBL in ERA an astounding eight times.

Co-winner of the Hossfeld Spirit Award with Coach Steve DeBlasi in 2004, Kelly became the field manager in 2005. In his first season, Nicholson was the unanimous choice of his fellow managers for the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year Award after leading the Cardinals to a record-setting 30-win season and the championship. Coach K was again named Manager of the Year in 2008 as his squad finished the regular season in first place overall (25-17-2). In 2015, Kelly led the Firebirds to a franchise record of 31-12-1 (.716) and again was named the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year. In 2017, his Birds captured the President’s Trophy once more (29-15), and he received his fourth Mike Curran Award. In 2019, the Birds shared the regular season East title with Chatham. Under his leadership, Orleans has captured five Eastern Division titles and is a perennial playoff contender. In 2019, Kelly attained his 350th win in the CCBL. In addition, 28 former players have been selected in the first-round of the MLB draft and 98 former Orleans Cardinals/Firebirds have reached MLB since his arrival in 2001.

It’s no surprise to anyone who knows him that Kelly enjoys the respect, affection and admiration of his players, fellow coaches and colleagues here and around the league, and in the wider baseball community. He’s a favorite around town, having made countless friends over the years. Orleans fans know they’ll see a first-class team on the field every summer with Kelly at the helm. Orleans welcomes a true gentleman and a terrific leader back for his 20th summer.

Kelly lives with his wife Donna in Playa del Rey, CA. He can be found on Twitter @CoachK21 and at knicholson@loyolahs.edu. ○

major league debut HR was nuts!" his mother said. "Unfortunately, we were unable to be there due to COVID, but I'm sure they could have heard us screaming from Colorado. The whole family was so proud. It's all very exciting." As there were no fans in the park, the baseball he smashed into the stands was retrieved for Bobby, and he gave it to his mom and dad, "the two people who have had the biggest impact on my life."

As Bobby progressed through the minor leagues there were a number of trips for the family to the East coast. "We loved Portland Maine! The Seadogs experience is awesome! Great food and great people ....we made it out there several times." Liz continued, "We were in Baltimore in 2019 when Bobby got called up to AAA. We had a whirlwind day... Julia and I bought flights to Boston followed by bus and train rides to get to McCoy stadium while Tim got on a bus to Portland to get Bobby's truck and drive back to Pawtucket in time for the game."

COVID in 2020 caused the family to miss Bobby's debut at Fenway. "It was a real crusher for sure, but we watched on TV, not the same, but still fun."

They were able to make Opening Day 2021 at Fenway and were grateful that they had a group of Bobby fans in Boston rooting for him "which was surreal to say the least."

Firebirds fans and volunteers have met many players families over the years, and appreciate the support they have provided the players. We are fortunate to have gotten to know the Dalbec family and appreciate their involvement with the team. We look forward to visiting the family at Fenway as COVID allows them to travel to Boston to see Bobby play. We thank them for all they have done to help the Firebirds. ○

ELDREDGE PARK

A Classic Ball Field and a Historic Treasure

▲ The Hill at Eldredge Park

Anyone attending a Firebirds game on a summer evening under the lights realizes what a special place our ballpark is. The partnership between the Firebirds organization, the Cape Cod Baseball League, and the great community of the Outer Cape has resulted in one of the finest places in the nation to watch a ball game. Each year, improvements are made as a result of the hard work of volunteers, contributions from businesses and individuals, and the support of town government. A major league baseball scout once said “this is as good a ball field as you’ll find anywhere, majors or minors”. A Philadelphia sportswriter called our field “A Norman Rockwell painting come to life.”

What might be less obvious to the casual fan is that Eldredge Park is also a historic icon, representing 108 years in the history of a historic town. It is recognized as historically significant by both the Orleans and Massachusetts Historical Commissions. In 1913, Lewis Winslow “Win” Eldredge donated ten acres to the town “in consideration of my affection for and interest in the young people of Orleans and my desire to provide a playground for them.” Thus, the legacy began. Today, the land Win donated continues as a playground as well as the playing field for the top collegiate baseball players in the nation.

Work on the first baseball field at Eldredge Park began in 1915. The diamond was south of where it sits today, and faced to the northwest. The area was heavily wooded, and Eldredge Parkway did not yet exist. In 1927, the town initiated a project to improve the baseball field, and the Cape Cod Baseball League began playing here in 1928. Previously, the Orleans team played on a field near the intersection of Rt. 28 and 6A in the northern section of town. In 1929, the town began referring to the field as Eldredge Park in its Annual Reports, and the name has persisted ever since.

In the latter half of the twentieth century, a number of improvements were made to the park. In 1966, with a $10,000 town appropriation and $20,000 in donations, a bandstand and tennis courts were constructed and the picnic area was established. In 1967, the configuration of the baseball field was rotated 90 degrees, with home plate being moved from left field to where you see it today. New soil was brought in, the outfield was re-seeded, and scores of recessed sprinklers were installed all over the field. Sod was laid in the infield, and the base paths were dug out and packed with six inches of clay. The pitcher’s mound was re-done entirely with red clay, and home plate was stabilized. Eldredge Park was now of Major League quality.

The “New Eldredge Park” was dedicated at the CCBL All Star Game, played at the field on Sunday, July 23, 1967, when the Firebirds were known as the Cardinals. Participating in the dedication were Massachusetts Governor John Volpe, Lt. Governor Francis Sargent, and Attorney General Elliot Richardson. In his remarks, Governor Volpe paid tribute to the community partnership and hard work that brought the remarkable new field about.

In 1970, the Charles F. Moore Jr. Field House and Bandstand was constructed, and by 1971, Eldredge Parkway was under construction. Enhancements continued with stadium lights in 1979, the press box in 1982, and terraced seating on “the hill” in 1985. Annual improvements continue to this day, with the recent installment of new lights, a batter’s eye, and many other enhancements.

When you are enjoying a game at Eldredge Park, remember that the masterpiece in front of you did not just happen. It is the result of a remarkable 108-year journey made possible by an incredible amount of hard work, and the generosity and support of the Outer Cape community. It is a big part of what makes Orleans the special place that it is. ○

Photos Selected for Boston Children's Hospital

"MAMA DUCK" TAKEN BY SAM AS A BOY

"ROCK HARBOR PIER SUNSET," ONE OF SAM'S FIVE CAPE PHOTOS CHOSEN FOR DISPLAY

The Firebirds own Sam Montanez has been honored by having five of his Cape Cod photos selected to be displayed in Boston Children's Hospital's New Outpatient Building, Brookline Place, Boston MA. Sam's photos were chosen from hundreds of entries by artists and photographers.

In the Fall of 2019, Sam found out from colleagues that Boston Children's Hospital was looking for art to be considered for the interior design of their new wing. The request was for artwork that "created inspiration, beauty, spirit and a soothing quality" for the viewer. The artwork was first reviewed by the L'Attitude Art Gallery of Boston and was then forwarded to a committee of the hospital Board of Directors for the final decision.

Sam made the first cut and then sent additional photos as well as the stories behind the pictures. One photo submitted was of a mother duck that Sam took on a family camping trip. The shot entailed Sam carefully crawling on his hands and knees to get as close as he could in order to get the duck's eyes. The committee also wanted to hear about his experiences as a patient during a long stay at Children's when he was a boy.

Sam was overjoyed when after a year L'Attitude Gallery called and said that the committee had chosen him to be the artist exhibiting in the new wing. It was a long process, but Sam said it was well worth the effort.

Children's usually has a small ceremony acknowledging the installation of artwork, but it will not happen because of COVID. There is hope that in the near future Sam will have a photo opportunity with his photos at the hospital.

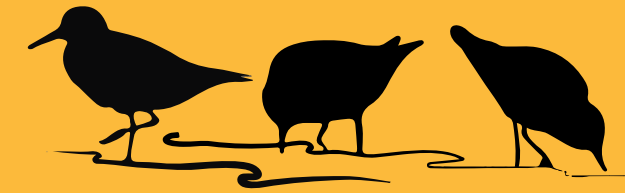

Sam has served as a Firebirds' Intern Photographer since 2016, and will be back again in 2021. He graduated in 2018 with High Honors from Cape Cod Community College in Photography and Graphic Design, and was elected a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

Sam was first introduced to photography by a counselor at Camp Starfish when he was ten. He has been fascinated with photography ever since and it has become his passion. He is most inspired by landscape, wildlife, floral, and black and white photography. He enjoys finding new angles, capturing different light exposures, and experimenting with new photographic formats.

Sam loves being regarded as an artist living with autism. Through photography he has learned perseverance, determination, how failures can lead to success, and most importantly, how community and public support has nurtured his photographic endeavors.

He is the promotional photographer for several Cape Cod MA businesses including the Fletcher Tilton Resource Guide for Individuals with Disabilities. His photos are on calendars, note cards and commissioned work printed by Cape Cod Photo Art and Framing. His website is www.sockmanphotography.com. Why 'Sock Man'? Because Sam is known for wearing unique socks.

Congratulations to Sam for this honor. ○

FIREBIRD OBITUARIES

JIM GUNSALUS

July 16, 1935 – January 20, 2021

Born in Albany, New York, James Russell Gunsalus grew up in Delmar, New York and the Cyrus Gates Farmstead in Maine, New York, which was a family home that had served as a station on the Underground Railroad. When he was ten years old, he contracted polio, and missed a year of school. Amazingly, he still grew to be 6'5" tall. Jim graduated from Mamaroneck High School where he played basketball. He attended Lafayette College and later received his BA in History and Government from Boston University. He served two years in the US Army at the Nike Missile Base in the Baltimore-Washington Defense Area. Jim's professional life was spent with NY Telephone Co. and NYNEX, finishing as their Director of Labor Relations. Jim and his wife Ann were active in their community, serving on many committees, and they continued that commitment when they retired to Orleans from Larchmont. A Giants fan, Jim was a valued volunteer with our team for many years, lending a capable hand wherever he was needed.

AL NAPLES

August 29, 1926 - February 26, 2021

Aloysius Francis Naples, Jr. was born on Staten Island, New York and attended an all-boys Catholic high school where he excelled in baseball and basketball. Following graduation in 1944, he enlisted in the US Navy, serving on a destroyer and an aircraft carrier until the end of the Second World War. When he got back home, he joined a semipro baseball team, which played against Negro League teams and the House of David. He then received a basketball scholarship to Georgetown, where he also played baseball and majored in mathematics. In June 1949, he signed a contract with the St. Louis Browns to play shortstop. He soon made his debut against the Boston Red Sox, hitting a double in his first at bat. He was 1-for-7 in the two games he played. He injured a finger and was sent to the Class-B team, appearing in 56 games there. When he wasn't called back up to St. Louis, he decided to return to Georgetown and finish his education, including advanced degrees. He then became a high school teacher and a coach until he and his wife Rose retired to Orleans. He lived practically next door to baseball heaven, Eldredge Park, and was a devoted fan for the rest of his life.

2019 Bird Feeders

After every home game, the team is treated to a meal that has been prepared by various host families, committee members, local businesses and organizations, plus other friends. The program begun by Kathy Udall as “sandwich suppers” has expanded its gastronomical boundaries to include everything from pasta dinners to barbeques to sushi, and it really helps the players – whose appetites may exceed their food budgets. It’s a big undertaking to feed a group of hungry ballplayers, coaches and bat kids. We thank those volunteers for their generous efforts.

Be MORE THAN A FAN, become a 'Birds benefactor

The Firebirds represent a win-win investment for everyone!

FLOCK TO ICONIC ELDREDGE PARK AND WATCH THE 'BIRDS PLAY BASEBALL

More than 40,000 fans attended Firebirds games in 2019. The Firebirds organization always appreciates your continued, enthusiastic support.

It costs us more than $300,000 a year to operate our team and to enhance historic Eldredge Park (established 1913) as one of the top collegiate summer baseball venues in America. The Firebirds receive 96% of the needed $300,000 from Annual Fan Club Memberships, our Homeplate Retail Shop, our Youth Baseball Clinics, our game advertisers and generous contributions by our fans at games. All funds are raised through the Orleans Athletic Association, a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, by a year-round volunteer staff. The generous outpouring of fan and community support has enabled the team to be financially stable.

The Firebirds receive indirect funding of about $11,000 from MLB thru the CCBL. Unlike most CCBL teams the Firebirds receive no revenue from concessions opting to have this operated by Nauset Schools.

As with all organizations, The Firebirds every year are faced with increased operating costs in almost every aspect of operations as well as always having the responsibility to maintain, replace, and improve every aspect of our operations. Our Fan Club, started in 2011 has become our major fund-raising vehicle and continues to grow in membership. We have reached out beyond Orleans to Eastham, Wellfleet, Truro and Provincetown residents, as well as to our many summer visitors to join our donor team and assist us so we can continue to provide this wholesome, family orientated activity. Attendance at a Firebirds game is the best Cape Cod summer entertainment bargain available and the team continues to be the highlight of many vacation as well as a major source of local pride. Thank you for your annual support of the Fan Club and don't forget to display your Fan Club sticker.

The Firebirds have had many benefactors throughout the years who become engaged as needs have arisen, like our lights, dugouts, and field improvements. We have several special projects that are in planning stages so if you would like to help us or find out more about these special projects, please reach out to members of our executive committee who are listed on page 4 of this yearbook to discuss our upcoming projects. We depend on your generous support for our survival. Please consider a financial donation to the team so this community treasure can continue to provide pleasure and entertainment for years to come.

We also deeply appreciate the many businesses that advertise in this yearbook and take out various sponsorships that support the team and its players. Those businesses understand how the Firebirds contribute vitally to our local economy and we encourage you to visit their establishments and utilize their services. ○

OUR CLINIC PHILOSOPHY

The co-ed clinic is dedicated to teaching the fundamentals of baseball. Skills and technical instruction will cover throwing, catching, fielding, hitting and base running. All level of abilities are identified, and all instruction is based on the age, ability and playing experience of each boy and girl. A high instructor-to-child ratio ensures that each boy and girl receives personal attention and direction.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All participants receive instruction from the manager, coaches and Firebirds, as well as a T-shirt, and an opportunity to "run with the 'Birds." "Campers of the Week" will be awarded at the end of each week. Clinics are held weekdays from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. beginning June 21 and continuing through July 30 at Nauset Middle School (adjacent to Eldredge Park). Water breaks and a nutrition break will take place daily, so attendees should bring snacks and water, in addition to their baseball gear. Semi-soft baseballs are used for beginners. Required batting helmets will be supplied. Cost is $120/week or $30/day. Sign-up is at 8:30 a.m. at Eldredge Park. You can download the registration form at orleansfirebirds.com.

Beginning June 29 through August 4, there are also specialty clinics in Hitting (Tuesdays 12p.m.), and Pitching (Wednesdays 12p.m., except July 7 which will be on July 8); cost is $40. ○
