Welcome Back Under the Lights at Scarafile Field

Hawks Nation, welcome back to the Judy Walden Scarafile field at McKeon Park for another exciting season of Cape Cod Baseball League action!

We begin this season with a new field manager, Mitch Karraker. We are excited about his youth, exuberance and baseball acumen. We are so happy to have Mitch and his family become part of our organization for many years to come.

As I begin my third year as president of the Hyannis Athletic Association, I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge the tremendous contributions of our board of directors. They selflessly volunteer hundreds of hours during the course of the off-season so that we can bring you the best amateur baseball in the country. There is nothing more satisfying than walking around our park on a warm summer evening looking at hundreds of baseball fans who are there – free of charge – and are given a fun filled family atmosphere to watch the “Stars of Tomorrow Shining Brightly Tonight.”

Whether you are here for a single game or every game, we are so happy to have you cheer on our Harbor Hawks and enjoy this national treasure called the Cape Cod Baseball League.

See you at the park!!

Dan Johnson

President, Hyannis Harbor Hawks

53,200
Meals.

We're working to knock hunger out of the park!

Every time a participating home team hits a home run in a Cape Cod Baseball League game, we donate $50 to the Family Pantry of Cape Cod, which in turn, provides meals to our neighbors in need. Over the last six years, we are pleased to say our Home Runs Against Hunger program has served up more than 53,000 meals.

Hyannis Harbor Hawks Internship Program

The Hyannis Athletic Association relies on the hard work and talent of high school college interns to help make the season a smooth running and memorable one. These dedicated interns cover everything from game day operations to social media and photography, broadcasting, and baseball operations. Dozens of our interns have gone on to secure jobs with MLB and MLB organizations.

If you are a student interested in an internship with the Hyannis Harbor Hawks, please contact Leah Rogers at interns@harborhawks.org.

MEET THE COACHES

Sean Riley – Hitting Coach

Coach Sean Riley is a Massachusetts native where he graduated from Lowell High School. He captained the baseball and basketball teams and then went on to play at Chipola Jr. College (Marianna, FL). He has coached for over 25 years on the east and west coast and many of his former players have gone on to play at the college and pro level.

Coach Riley's coaching experience ranges from time with the Lowell American Legion Baseball Team to most recently working at San Joaquin Delta College (Stockton, CA).

Tanner Cunha – Assistant Hitting Coach

Currently an Assistant Coach at Sacramento City College, and a native of Sacramento California. He has helped with pitching the past two seasons at SCC as the bullpen coach. In each season the pitching staff's ERA has improved from year to year. Cunha worked the last two summers in the Northwoods League as a Pitching Coach with the Mankato MoonDogs. This past season, he helped the pitching staff to top-10 finishes in the league in ERA, hits allowed, walks allowed, and strikeouts. He worked with several NWL All-Stars, including five pitchers who made the Great Plains All-Star Game, which was a high mark across the entire league. In 2022, he helped the team's pitching staff to top-10 finishes in the NWL in ERA, walks allowed, doubles allowed, home runs allowed, and batting average against.

Cunha pitched collegiately at Sacramento City College, and then at the University of Nevada-Reno. He compiled an 8-4 record in 103.1 innings across two years and 32 games at SCC from 2018-19, before moving on to UNR for his final two collegiate seasons, making 17 total appearances for the Wolfpack.

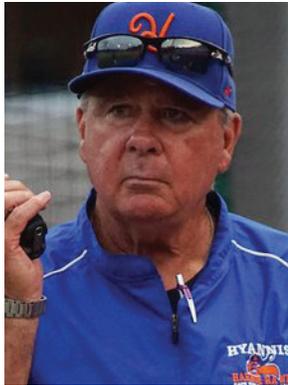

Jen Hollis – Trainer

Jen Hollis was born and raised on Cape Cod and attended Cape Cod Tech for high school where she found her love for Sports Medicine. Upon graduating high school, Jen attended Colby-Sawyer College and graduated Cum Laude with her B.S. in Athletic Training in May of 2023.

Ray Korn – Pitching Coach

Ray Korn will be returning to the Harbor Hawks for the 2023 season. He has great experience coaching teams like the 1990 USA Junior National World Championships and coaching for minor league affiliate teams for the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 2015. Coach Korn has great experience in developing young athletes, and will look to continue to do that this season with the Harbor Hawks.

Mitch Karraker – Field Manager

The Hyannis Harbor Hawks are ecstatic to announce the hiring of their new field manager: Mitch Karraker. Karraker is a native of Clovis, California, and currently serves as the Head Coach at Fresno City College. Karraker replaced former Head Coach Ron Scott, who is the winningest Junior College baseball coach in California history, and led his team to an impressive 34-12 record in his inaugural season.

Karraker began his personal collegiate playing career at Fresno City College before transferring to the University of Oregon, where he spent 3 seasons as a catcher for the Ducks from 2009-2011. After graduating, Karraker transitioned into a coaching role at Oregon, where he coached in numerous roles from 2011-2019 under the legendary George Horton, a National Championship winning coach at California State Fullerton who revitalized Oregon's previously dormant baseball program during his tenure.

In 2012 and 2016, Karraker had two stints coaching for Team USA Collegiate National Team on a staff that included George Horton (Former Head Coach, Oregon and Cal State Fullerton), Andy Stankiewicz (current Head Coach at the University of Southern California), Jason Gill (Assistant Coach, Cal Poly), Ted Silva (Former Assistant Coach, University of Nebraska, USC, Cal State Fullerton), and John Altobelli (Former Head Coach, Orange Coast College and Brewster Whitecaps Head Coach).

In 2019, he became an assistant coach at Baylor University, under Head Coach Steve Rodriguez, who now serves as the hitting coach at the University of Texas. In 2021, he took the assistant coaching job at Loyola Marymount University, where he served as the hitting and outfielder's coach. He also served as the Head Coach of the Klamath Falls Gems, a summer league team in the West Coast League.

Off the field, Karraker has been married to his wife Kelly for eight years, and they are blessed with three wonderful daughters, Ella, Nora, and Sophie. His hobbies include golfing, cooking, fitness, and being with family.

It became quickly apparent that Mitch's baseball philosophy and commitment to staying at the forefront of baseball technology aligned with the Harbor Hawk's dedication to innovation. His impressive baseball resume, acumen, and reputation made this decision a no-brainer. We are lucky and excited to have Mitch join our family.

Host Families

The Heart of the Hawks

One of the most important contributions the Hyannis Harbor Hawks receive each summer comes from our host families. Without the generosity of these families, who open their spare bedrooms for our team members and coaches we would not be able to compete in the Cape Cod Baseball League.

It is more than just a spare bedroom. It is an experience. Families connect and bond with the players and their families-very often form lifelong relationships. Players arrive in mid-June and stay through early August, but the memories stay with the family forever!

All you need to provide while these players chase their dreams is a private bedroom, a hot meal each day and access to laundry facilities. Our players will work together to make sure they have transportation to and from the field for practices and games. The Hyannis Harbor Hawks will also give your family a small stipend to help offset the cost of food for your athlete.
