CAPPY'S "NO CAP" STAT OF THE DAY:

Jacob Lee is set to represent the 'Caps in the CCBL's home run derby tomorrow. It is the fourth straight year with a Brewster player in the derby. The Whitecaps lead all teams with six total competitors over the past four seasons.

Starting Pitcher

| #14 | SCHUYLER SANDFORD
| RHP | FLORIDA | DOB: 05-05-05 (21y, 67d)

Schuyler Sandford is making his first start of the season for the 'Caps. In seven appearances out of the bullpen the Florida Gator has a 2.13 ERA with nine strikeouts and 14 walks.

Recap of last game:

The Whitecaps just keep on rolling with another victory, this time a 10-6 win over the Harbor Hawks. With Gaines Estridge on the hill for his first start of the season the Air Force product looked solid. Estridge went five innings, allowing two runs on three hits while striking out two. The Harbor Hawks struck first in the bottom of the second with a two run shot off the bat of Andrew Lamb. In the third the Whitecaps responded with three runs. In Terrence Kiel II's last game with the 'Caps the Texas A & M product singled to score a run and later came around to score. In the fifth and the sixth the Whitecaps scored a pair of runs each frame and took a 7-2 lead entering the seventh. In the 8th the 'Caps and Hawks traded a run and in the 9th despite a Harbor Hawks rally the game ended 10-6 for the Whitecaps' 12th win in the past 15 days.

DON'T LET THE WHITECAPS GET HOT:

The Whitecaps are 12-2-1 over their past fifteen games. The best record in the CCBL over that stretch. The last time the 'Caps lost at home was back on the third of July in a 2-1 loss to the Mariners. During this hot stretch the 'Caps are holding teams to under four runs a game and are scoring on average more than seven a contest.

2025 SUMMARY: The Whitecaps wrapped up the 2025 regular season with their most wins since 2021 (22) and just their third 20-win season in the Jamie Shevchik era (others: 2015 & 2017). 61 players appeared in at least one game this past summer for the 'Caps - 27 position players, 34 pitchers - nearly 20% more players than the 2024 summer. Brewster's season began with a franchise-best 6-0 start, and the Whitecaps had the most wins in the league at the All-Star Break (15). The Whitecaps earned the three-seed in the East and a first-round matchup with the two-seeded Harwich Mariners. Brewster's season came to a close in a two games to one series loss.

ENDING A COLD STRETCH WITH A BANG:

The Anglers and the Whitecaps were moving in opposite directions prior to last night. The A's lost five straight while the 'Caps have not lost in six games. But last night the Anglers got out of a slump in a big way on a 4-3 walk-off home-run victory over the Bourne Braves. Naulivou Lauaki Jr. got it done for Chatham to get the A's back on track with one game to go before the All Star break.
