Welcome back to Eldredge Park!

Welcome as always to another great year of Firebirds baseball at Eldredge Park. What a great summer we all experienced last year. Who could have possibly scripted that season-ending championship series? A forced Game Three by a Firebirds team that wouldn't quit and more than 7,000± fans at Eldredge Park for the winner take all game. Yes, we came up short in that final game in terms of a championship, but in terms of lifetime memories and friendships, we won it all.

Join us again this year at a refreshed Eldredge Park, with over $300,000 in safety improvements for our players and fans. The efforts to always keep Eldredge as the best baseball experience in the Cape Cod Baseball League is a reflection of caring by our community and Fan Club supporters. Most evident this year are the Nauset Middle School Safety Barriers installed at the top of the hill, that also serve as extra seating. A long time in the thinking of many but materialized this year when the Orleans Transportation Committee spearheaded the development of this cooperative effort by students and staff of the Middle School, the Department of Public Works and the Firebirds. We celebrate this Middle School success.

The new and expanded fan safety nets, along with a new state-of-the-art infield are made possible by funds raised by the Firebirds organization. Our Fan Club, celebrating its 13th year, coupled with revenue from our retail tent, youth clinic, advertisers, and donations by fans at our games allow us to continually fund these improvements for all who use Eldredge Park.

So, as I have closed in previous years, as we sit in our beach chairs, on our blankets, or on the bleachers, let's celebrate being together for another great year of baseball. The "hill" is just a great place to experience baseball as it is meant to be played.

Go Birds!

Thirty Years from Orleans to Cooperstown

The Orleans organization was elated to learn of Todd Helton's well-deserved election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame this year. He's the third Orleans alum to be inducted into Cooperstown, along with Carlton Fisk and Frank Thomas.

From the University of Tennessee, where he still holds several records, he was the National Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year in 1995 and was enshrined in the Vols' Hall of Fame in 2017. Todd played for Orleans in 1994; he hit .308 with 22 RBI and was named an All Star. He didn't hit any home runs in a game but won the Home Run Contest at the All-Star Game. He was drafted by Colorado in the 8th round of the 1995 draft, and made his major league debut against the Pirates on August 2, 1997. Over his 17-year career with the Rockies, he had 2,519 hits, 369 home runs, 1,406 RBI, 1,401 runs scored, and a .316 batting average, among other team records. He was a five-time All Star, a three-time Gold Glove Award winner, and a four-time Silver Slugger Award winner. He retired from baseball in 2013, and the Rockies retired his Number 17 the following year.

Adding to the celebration, Todd has also been elected to the Cape Cod Baseball League Hall of Fame Class of 2024, which will be formally announced at the league's First Pitch Brunch on June 9th.He will be presented for induction by his former manager at the Rockies, Clint Hurdle, on November 17,

Certainly! Todd Helton, a former baseball player, had an impressive career with the Colorado Rockies. Here are some of his key stats:

- Batting Average: Helton average of .316.
- Hits: He accumulated 2,519
- Home Runs: Helton hit 369 home runs.
- drove in 1.406 runs.
- 1,401 runs.

- maintained a career batting
- hits over his 17-season career.
- RBIs (Runs Batted In): He
- Runs Scored: Helton scored

Additionally, Todd Helton was a five-time All-Star, a four-time Silver Slugger Award winner, and a three-time Gold Glove Award recipient. His impact on the Rockies franchise is evident through several club records, including hits, home runs, doubles, walks, and total bases.

Firebirds:

Hi, Todd, Thanks for doing this. To begin with, what things do you remember most about your time on the Cape?

Todd Helton:

I remember the baseball well. I didn't hit any home runs in a game, but I think I hit over .300. However, I won the home run contest at the All-Star Game.

Firebirds:

That's right, I read that.

Todd Helton:

Yeah. I remember the weather being just fabulous. I mean, just perfect, with sun going down and everyone's things there on the lawn with their chairs and all. And I thought Orleans obviously was just the best place on the Cape. I really just enjoyed the area, and my host family was great. I remember them. It was the first time that I had spent a summer without a TV.

Firebirds: (laughter)

Todd Helton:

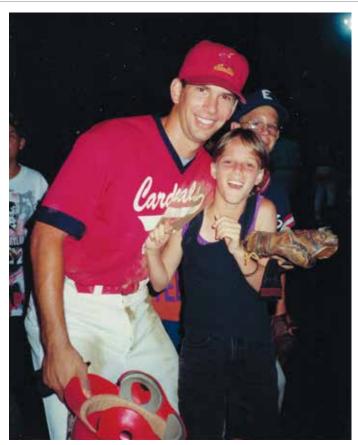

So, I read a lot of books, which was good. The family, when they when they went to the Cape for the summer, they didn't use the TV, and it made for a great summer. I'm not gonna say we worked out too much. We played more cards and read books and went to the beach more than working out. We actually did get a TV out, because that was the year of the OJ Simpson chase, and we watched OJ in the white Ford Bronco on a little black and white TV that they pulled out of a closet.

Firebirds:

Wow, that's that is crazy. Who is the host family? Do you remember their name?

Todd Helton:

The Burns family, Cheryl and John, and their daughters Heather and Ashley. I actually haven't talked to them recently, but you know they used to come to my games when I was playing pro ball

I think the last game they came to a game we were in Montreal, so that's the last time I've seen them.

Firebirds:

So, you obviously haven't made it back out to the Cape too many times then.

Todd Helton:

No.

Firebirds:

And you're going out this summer, you're going to throw the first pitch at a game and all that. You know, I would expect you're pretty excited about that.

Todd Helton:

I am, I am. I'm excited to show my family the Cape. I'm excited to, you know, to eat lobster again.

Firebirds:

(laughter) Do you have a favorite spot?

Todd Helton:

I can't remember, but it was the first time that I've ever eaten a lobster. First of all, I could never afford one.

Firebirds: (laughter)

Todd Helton:

But it's the first time I've eaten a whole lobster like that, and I want to take my girls to do that, I think that'll be fun, And, you know, we went clam digging when we were up there and that was really cool, I think we'll try to get my girls to go out and do some of that.

Firebirds:

Cool. You know, I know your experience on the Cape is a little different. Probably the only person that can relate to it is maybe like Kyler Murray, because you went back to Tennessee to play quarterback after your time on the Cape. Were you practicing football at all when you're out there? Because I know it's just non-stop baseball.

Todd Helton:

No, no, no. I've never liked football.

Firebirds: (laughter)

Todd Helton:

I didn't like it enough. I knew I was going to be a baseball player once I got to college. I'm not going to say I didn't work at it, but my focus was definitely on baseball.

Firebirds:

I've talked with guys like Marcus Stroman and Corbin Burnes over the last few years doing interviews, and they all mentioned some different ways how the Cape helped them. Some of it was maturity. Some of it was getting to play high level opponents every day, you know, for you, how do you think it helped you the most? Todd Helton:

Yeah, I think I got to see a high level of pitching using a wood bat. That's one thing I do remember about the pitching. I saw some of the best sliders that I ever saw, and that was the first time that I saw a slider of that magnitude or with the depth and perception, until I got into to the big leagues.

Firebirds:

Do you remember who was throwing those?

Todd Helton:

No, I have no idea. I'm just saying just overall those few guys that I faced that I was like, wow, yeah, that's a good slider.

Firebirds:

When you were out there, a 20-year-old playing the Cape, was it for you an expectation that you'd go to the big leagues and have such a successful career as you did, or was it more of a hope? Todd Helton:

Ohhh, jeez, a hope. No doubt about it. You know, I didn't think

I never took it for granted. And I, you know, I tried to go out and just have fun while I was playing, and I did. I had a lot of fun, however, I wasn't the type of guy like Ken Griffey, Jr., who could go out and smile. It was hard for me, and I had work very hard at it and concentrate very hard. And some people wanted me to smile, show more emotion, but I wasn't like that. Everybody's different and that's how I was able to get the best out of my ability, was to bear down and concentrate and yeah, and to be hard on myself. I was very hard of myself, but I like to I like to call it grinding. I want to be remembered as a grinder.

Just grinding that out at best and showing up every day and playing

I was gonna make it to the big leagues until I walked into the clubhouse in Pittsburgh when I got called up. You know, I'm a realist bordering on pessimist, so that always kept me grounded. I never took anything for granted.

I always knew what a big honor it was to play in the big leagues and

Firebirds:

hard.

What do you think was the biggest difference between the version of you as a college player and an Orleans Cardinal compared to the Colorado Rockies version of Todd Helton?

Todd Helton:

Oh, well. In college, playing two sports, I did not get in the weight room at all. So, by the time my junior year rolled around and I got back to school, I was 190 pounds soaking wet.

Firebirds: (laughter)

Todd Helton:

I didn't have a job up in the Cape, and I was supposed to work out a bunch. I was roommates with Mike Martin, who ended up being the head coach at Florida State. He didn't have a job either, and we were supposed to work out. I'm not gonna say we worked out too much. We played more cards and read books and went to the beach more than working out.

Firebirds:

(laughter) I think that's just fine. So, you're close with Mike still?

Todd Helton:

No. I mean, I talked him the other day, but I we didn't talk for many years.

Firebirds:

Yeah. Is there anybody that you met on the Cape that you were, you know, close with for several years following?

Todd Helton:

No, not really. I can't really say that, there's nobody that I'm really tight with from then. I've talked with Matt Hyde, who was the bullpen catcher back then. He's now a scout with the Yankees.

Firebirds:

I met him. Yes. Good guy.

Firebirds:

You know, Sue is a wonderful woman, and Bob O'Donnell, who's running the team, are great. And talking with them, they're so fired up about this. It must for you, I mean in so many different pockets, with Colorado, with Tennessee and now with the Firebirds/ Cardinals too, it must be a pretty awesome experience that you're bringing so much pride to this little town in Massachusetts? How's it feel that so many people in that little town in Massachusetts that you spent two months in are so proud and happy because of your great accomplishment?

Todd Helton:

I had no idea they were. It's very humbling. Obviously, it's an honor to be able to come back after having a successful career, More than anything, I'm proud to bring my family back there and show them the place that that I played when I was in college.

Firebirds:

Absolutely. It's a cool place. I don't want to take up too much of your day. Good luck. Have fun the rest of the day, enjoy some golf. And Todd, I really do appreciate the

Todd Helton: OK, thanks. O

ORLEANS REACHES THE CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND

The Birds took their faithful fans on a wild and thrilling ride in 2023, before losing the third and final game of the championship series to Bourne in front of a record-setting crowd at Eldredge Park who exchanged standing ovations with their beloved and remarkable team. Over the course of the season, 54 players came and went on the roster; each transition was made seamlessly as every new arrival was welcomed and immediately became fully invested in the team's mission. Led by our MVP Jo Oyama from Okinawa, Japan, one of the most exciting players to ever appear in the CCBL, their character, grit and determination earned respect, admiration and affection that grew with every game.

Orleans was represented on the East All Stars by LHP Derek Clark (Northwood), LHP Jonathan Gonzalez (Stetson), RHP Sean Matson (Harvard), OF Matt Halbach (UC San Diego), 2B Jo Oyama (UC Irvine), and 3B Jack Penney (Notre Dame). Clark, Matson, Halbach, Oyama and RHP Greysen Carter (Vanderbilt) were named to the Final All-League team. Matson easily won the league's Russ Ford Relief Pitcher Award, while Clark earned the Manny Robello 10th Man Award. The 2023 MLB First Year Player Draft in July saw 22 Firebirds selected, and five more signed as free agents. Of the 22, 13 went in the first 10 rounds, including Jacob Wilson (2022, Grand Canyon) who was 6th overall, and Luke Keaschall (2021-22, Arizona State) 49th overall.

Voices from THE HILL

I'm a football fan through and through. I'm 77 and have been a crazy football fan for my entire life! I'm not a baseball fan, and I never have been... well... until last summer!

Truthfully, I'm not sure I'm a fully-fledged baseball fan yet, but I am for sure a Firebirds Baseball fan! I wear my swag, I cheer like a crazy lady, and I've learned that baseball has umpires not refs, that they score runs not points, that the catcher plays a role similar to a quarterback, and more.

I went to the University of Wisconsin and attended the Badger Football games for decades; I was even married at a Badger game. Then I moved to the Cape, I never thought I'd be emotional about a team again like I am for my Badgers... but now I also have "my" Firebirds!

I fly my Badger flag in the fall, but now I also fly my Firebirds one all summer! I have swag for both teams and wear it happily and proudly!

How did this happen?

My friend Martha invited me to join her at a game. At that time, I was not a baseball fan, but I'm a Martha fan. She is wonderful. So, I went to a game to hang out with her. I sat on the grassy hillside overlooking the field and relaxed. Families with frolicking kids were everywhere, tossing baseballs, laughing, hanging out together. Dogs of every shape and size played along with them or lay by their owners' chairs. People greeted each other the way they used to on streets with front porches. Players from colleges across the United States brought their new teams alive with amazing skills and an immense love of the game. A family of ospreys flew over the field back and forth bringing fish to their young in their nest in the lights. As the evening went on, the sun set in glorious pinks and oranges over the field and the bright lights came on. A huge group of kids, the Firebird Chorus, sang "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" during the 7th inning stretch. When the game ended, the kids flooded the field to get autographs from their favorite players. I made new friends and happily hung out with old ones that I ran into there!

I was transported to a simpler time, dropped into a Norman Rockwell painting. It was magical.

Last summer we went to nearly every home game and a few away games. They are free and thus available to all. I already have all the games down in my calendar for this summer and I'm anxiously awaiting the start of this Firebird season!

Come join us. Ellen Burleigh

John CASTLEBERRY and Ted LEKAS

John Castleberry

Chosen to be the new CCBL Commissioner last Ianuary. Iohn Castleberry began his Cape League career in 1983 as an Orleans Cardinals assistant coach. He took the reins the following year and remained until 1991, when he moved into scouting. A native of Tacoma, WA, John earned his bachelor's degree at the United States International University in San Diego and was an assistant coach at Washington before becoming the first fulltime head coach at George Washington in 1985. After seven seasons and an A-10 title and Coach of the Year award 1989, John became a scout for the Marlins, and has since been affiliated with the Reds, the Rangers, the Phillies, and now the Giants where he serves as National Crosschecker. John also headed up the East Coast Pro Showcase (ECPS) for more than two decades. He's been inducted into the Halls of Fame at GWU, the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Association (MASA), and the ECPS, and his uniform number 1 was retired by the Cardinals. He also has five World Series rings. As his retirement from scouting approaches, the CCBL will be the beneficiary of his lifetime in baseball.

Welcome Back, Kotter

This seems to be the theme song I think of coming back to the Orleans and the Cape. Though I've always been here since leaving the coaching profession in 1991, it was always from the other side of the fence doing my scouting job, but now, I'm back fully involved in the CCBL as their new League Commissioner. Life has come full circle.

My memories of Orleans have always been with me, and I knew once I was ready, I wanted to be part of the league. I owe so much to the guys in the 80s that gave a young 24-year-old coach his first opportunity with the Orleans Cardinals, which has kept me in the game of baseball at all levels for more than 40 years! How time flies. Guvs like Russ Ford. Ed Mooney, Dave Mitchell and Dave Mulholland took a chance on a young coach, and now it's my turn to give back.

I am proud to walk in the footsteps of some the great commissioners in CCBL history - Fred Ebbett, Bob Stead, Paul Galop, and many more. I hope I do them all justice in my leadership. I'm lucky to be working with a good young league president in Andrew Lang, who has a bright vision for the future of the CCBL. What's even more exciting is I have added my old friend, Ted Lekas, to my staff. Ted was a former assistant of mine in the 80s here in Orleans and has been in baseball for over 40 years. I'm looking forward to his assistance and his knowledge in taking the CCBL into the future.

It all started in 1982 as an assistant for the Orleans Cardinals. I am so happy to be back home and my wife, Kate (whom I met here when I was coaching), and I are so excited to be here for a complete summer. Orleans will always be in my heart, my home and a big part of Good luck to the Firebirds in the quest for a CCBL Championship. I am truly happy to be back!

Ted Lekas

Ted Lekas earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Springfield College, and was the head baseball coach of Quinsigamond CC in Worcester, MA, from 1981-1987. His teams won four New England regional championships, three Northeast District championships, and went to the NICAA World Series from 1983-1985. Ted earned numerous Coach of the Year awards and was inducted into the NJCAA Coaches Hall of Fame in 2005. In 1987, he served as Castleberry's assistant coach in Orleans; the following year he began his scouting career with the Blue Jays. He's also scouted for the Orioles, the Braves and 2080 Baseball. After retiring from scouting, he spent a summer with the Harwich Mariners as an assistant coach, and is now the Senior Deputy Commissioner for the CCBL.

I am excited and feel fortunate to join John Castleberry and the CCBL as it embarks on a new era under new leadership.

Back in 1987, I joined the Orleans (Cardinals) as an Assistant Coach to John, and it was one of the best and most enjoyable experiences of my life. As a member of Orleans coaching staff, it gave a young junior college head coach the ambition to pursue bigger and better things in baseball. This resulted in a position with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1988, and I embarked on a 35+ year scouting career in professional baseball. My CCBL experience contributed immensely to my career.

With one of the best summers of my life with Orleans in the 80s, it was apparent that my wife Joanne and I loved the Cape. This resulted in the purchase of a home in Brewster in 1992 and becoming fulltime washashores in 2006. This was all due to my affiliation with Orleans and the CCBL.

I am excited and look forward to giving back to the CCBL all that it has afforded me as the Senior Deputy Commissioner.

Orleans is indeed fortunate to welcome back Coach Nicholson for his 23rd summer and 19th as manager, the longest tenured Orleans skipper in the "modern era" (1963-present). Kelly (or "Coach K" as he's known in the pitching fraternity) is a native of Corona, California where he won numerous scholar-athlete awards in both baseball and basketball while in high school. He was a four-year letter winner and two-time all-conference pick during his pitching career at Loyola Marymount University.

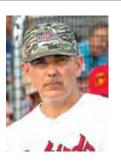

After earning his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from LMU, he began his career teaching mathematics at Loyola High School of Los Angeles, while completing his master's degree in Education from LMU. He was the head coach of the Loyola HS Cubs for 11 seasons, leading the team to seven playoff appearances and a league title. Kelly then spent three seasons as Loyola Marymount's pitching coach; each year the Lions won the West Coast Conference title and went to the NCAA regionals. In the summer of 2000, Kelly worked with the Team USA pitching staff in its early preparation for international play. Kelly joined Orleans as the pitching coach in 2001. In 2002, Coach K's staff had a 2.11 ERA (the best ever by Cardinals pitchers) and in 2010 it led the CCBL with a 2.21 ERA. His 2003 championship pitching staff was lights out, with a 2.36 ERA and a league-leading 397 strikeouts in 401 innings pitched. All told, Kelly's pitching staffs have led the CCBL in ERA an astounding nine times.

Co-winner of the Hossfeld Spirit Award with Coach Steve DeBlasi in 2004, Kelly became the field manager in 2005. In his first season, Nicholson was the unanimous choice of his fellow managers for the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year Award after leading the Cardinals to a recordsetting 30-win season and the championship. Coach K was again named Manager of the Year in 2008 as his squad finished the regular season in first place overall (25-17-2). In 2015, Kelly led the Firebirds to a franchise record of 31-12-1 (.716) and again was named the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year. In 2017, his Birds captured the President's Trophy once more (29-15), and he received his fourth Mike Curran Award. In 2019, the Birds shared the regular season East title with Chatham. Under his leadership, Orleans has captured five Eastern Division titles and is a perennial playoff contender. In 2021, the team commemorated his 20th anniversary with a surprise on-field celebration. In 2023, Kelly attained his 400th win in the CCBL, and led the Birds on a thrilling run to the championship series. Since his arrival in 2001, 31 former players have been selected in the first-round of the MLB draft and 122 former Orleans Cardinals/Firebirds have reached MLB..

It's no surprise to anyone who knows him that Kelly enjoys the respect, affection and admiration of his players, fellow coaches and colleagues here and around the league, and in the wider baseball community. He's a favorite around town, having made countless friends over the years. Orleans fans know they'll see a first-class team on the field every summer with Kelly at the helm. Orleans welcomes a true gentleman and a terrific leader back for his 23rd summer.

Kelly lives with his wife Donna in Playa del Rey, CA. He can be found on X (formerly Twitter) @CoachK21 and at knicholson@loyolahs.edu. \bigcirc Anyone attending a Firebirds game on a summer evening under the lights realizes what a special place our ballpark is. The partnership between the Firebirds organization, the Cape Cod Baseball League, and the great community of the Outer Cape has resulted in one of the finest places in the nation to watch a ball game. Each year, improvements are made as a result of the hard work of volunteers, contributions from businesses and individuals, and the support of town government. A major league baseball scout once said "this is as good a ball field as you'll find anywhere, majors or minors". A Philadelphia sportswriter called our field "A Norman Rockwell painting come to life."

What might be less obvious to the casual fan is that Eldredge Park is also a historic icon, representing 108 years in the history of a historic town. It is recognized as historically significant by both the Orleans and Massachusetts Historical Commissions, In 1913. Lewis Winslow "Win" Eldredge donated ten acres to the town "in consideration of my affection for and interest in the young people of Orleans and my desire to provide a playground for them." Thus, the legacy began. Today, the land Win donated continues as a playground as well as the playing field for the top collegiate baseball players in the nation.

Work on the first baseball field at Eldredge Park began in 1915. The diamond was south of where it sits today, and faced to the northwest. The area was heavily wooded, and Eldredge Parkway did not yet exist. In 1927, the town initiated a project to improve the baseball field, and the Cape Cod Baseball League began playing here in 1928. Previously, the Orleans team played on a field near the intersection of Rt. 28 and 6A in the northern section of town. In 1929, the town began referring to the field as Eldredge Park in its Annual Reports, and the name has persisted ever since.

In the latter half of the twentieth century, a number of improvements were made to the park. In 1966, with a $10,000 town appropriation and $20,000 in donations, a bandstand and tennis courts were constructed and the picnic area was established. In 1967, the configuration of the baseball field was rotated 90 degrees, with home plate being moved from left field to where you see it today. New soil was brought in, the outfield was re-seeded, and scores of recessed sprinklers were installed all over the field. Sod was laid in the infield, and the base paths were dug out and packed with six inches of clay. The pitcher's mound was re-done entirely with red clay, and home plate was stabilized. Eldredge Park was now of Major League quality.

The "New Eldredge Park" was dedicated at the CCBL All Star Game, played at the field on Sunday, July 23, 1967, when the Firebirds were known as the Cardinals. Participating in the dedication were Massachusetts Governor John Volpe, Lt. Governor Francis Sargent, and Attorney General Elliot Richardson. In his remarks, Governor Volpe paid tribute to the community partnership and hard work that brought the remarkable new field about.

In 1970, the Charles F. Moore Jr. Field House and Bandstand was constructed, and by 1971, Eldredge Park Way was under construction. Enhancements continued with stadium lights in 1979, the press box in 1982, and terraced seating on "the hill" in 1985.

More recent years have brought new lights (2001), a bigger Bird's Nest (2003), the Yawkey Grant reconstruction with dugouts, backstop and sideline netting, the knee wall and a rebuilt infield (2010), a custom-designed scoreboard (2019), an equipment shed (2023), and a new infield, safety netting system and pitch clocks (2024).

When you are enjoying a game at Eldredge Park, remember that the masterpiece in front of you did not just happen. It is the result of a remarkable 111-year journey made possible by an incredible amount of hard work, and the generosity and support of the Outer Cape community. It is a big part of what makes Orleans the special place that it is. •

PHILIP BERGSON, JR.

January 28, 1947-May 9, 2023

Born in Washington D.C., Philip graduated from Williston Academy in 1966 and Harvard University in 1970. He became a noted custom homebuilder in the Orleans area, which brought him into the orbit of the Orleans Cardinals team president Russ Ford, and led to Russ tasking Philip with building the first Bird's Nest press box at Eldredge Park in 1981. While the budget didn't allow for a full expression of Philip's excellent craftsmanship, the little structure served us well for many years, and the local avian population took full advantage of the shelter it provided in the off season. After retirement, Philip was able to devote more time to becoming an accomplished fine art plein air oil painter, and visiting galleries for small art works. Those who were fortunate to know him remember a quiet, witty, gentle man who was "passionate about sunrises, gardening, pets, wildlife, and woodworking" as well as painting. A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.

MICHAEL HILBIG

September 12, 1964-December 2, 2023

The Firebirds family was saddened and shocked by Michael's untimely passing last December. Michael and his wife Jenny had been a wonderful host family for several years, beloved by their players.

From Eastham, Michael was a custom carpenter known for his meticulous craftsmanship. He was also a devoted artist specializing in seashore-themed works. He loved being on the water and sharing those times with his family, and was known to all as a patient, kind, gentle and loving man. Michael and Jenny had adopted a special needs youngster, Xavier, who is now six. Michael's stepdaughter, Madison Marais, organized a GoFundMe Fundraiser to help the family through this challenging time, and donations are still being accepted.

HARRY F. HINKLE, JR.

November 1, 1946-January 31, 2024

Former Firebirds host dad Harry Hinkle served his country with distinction as a 30-year veteran of the United States Marine Corps. His career included combat time with three consecutive tours in Vietnam. He retired from active military duty in 1997, and moved to Eastham with his wife, Kyle. He then worked as a consultant for a defense contractor which supplied satellite imaging equipment, a job that took him all over the world to assist our troops. After retiring again in 2008, Harry became the assistant wrestling coach at Nauset, a position he held until 2015.

Besides wrestling, Harry loved football and baseball, and in 2015 he and Kyle began hosting Firebirds players, which they did for several years. Their first player was Eric Lauer (2015, Kent State), a left-handed pitcher who made his MLB debut with San Diego in 2018. Harry maintained strong relationships with his fellow Marines from his time of active service, and enjoyed frequent reunions with them in San Jose, Costa Rica, and it was there that he passed away in January. He will be buried with honors at the National Cemetery in Arlington, VA. Donations in his memory can be made to Nauset Warriors Booster Club and the Orleans Firebirds.

DONALD LESIEUR

November 6, 1935-April 11, 2024

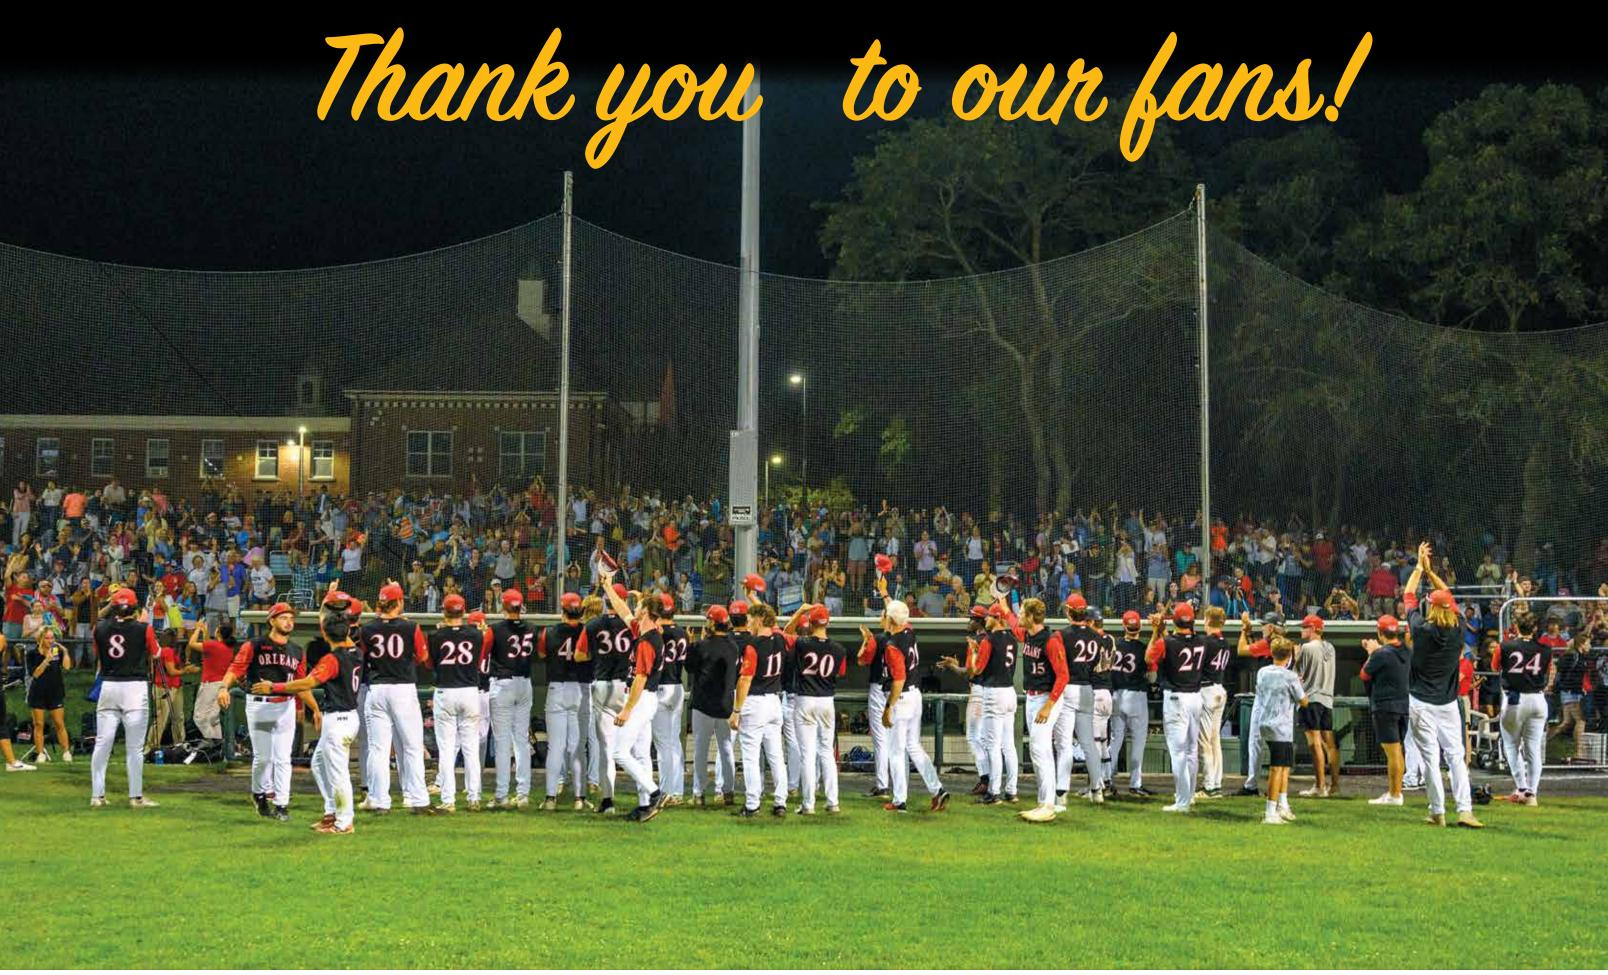

Don LeSieur, former president and an honorary director of the Orleans Athletic Association, former host dad, and prolific fundraiser for our organization, passed away this spring after a period of failing health. Don was born in New York City and graduated from Williams College. After serving as a lieutenant in the US Navy, he and Gini married and raised their family in Westchester County, NY and New Canaan, CT. Don enjoyed a long and distinguished career in marketing with several major corporations, retiring in 1999 to South Orleans, where he enjoyed sailing, gardening, and New England sports teams, including the Cape League. Don and Gini were active and avid supporters of many non-profit organizations on the Cape, such as the Cape Cod Symphony Orchestra and the Lower Cape Outreach Council, and for several years they hosted many Orleans players at their home on Pleasant Bay. In addition to serving as the team's president, Don founded the Firebirds Fan Club, a major source of funding for the operations of the team. After relocating to Mashpee in 2015, Don became the head of the Cotuit Kettleers' intern program, but maintained his connection to Orleans as an honorary director.

2023 Bird Feeders

After every home game, the team is treated to a meal that has been prepared by various host families, committee members, local businesses and organizations, plus other friends. The program begun by Kathy Udall as "sandwich suppers" has expanded its gastronomical boundaries to include everything from pasta dinners to barbeques to sushi, and it really helps the players – whose appetites may exceed their food budgets. It's a big undertaking to feed a group of hungry ballplayers, coaches and bat kids. We thank those volunteers for their generous efforts.

Host Family NOTES: Andy O'Neill & Mary Griffin: Hosting Henry Hunter, Catcher, Grayson GA

Kate Morrison

Mary Mullany

Like many Cape Codders, our kids are launched and living in various parts of the country. We knew how important the Firebirds were to the summer experience in Orleans, and so with an ideal space to host a player -we signed up, and so glad we did!

Our player - Henry Hunter, from Grayson Georgia, and now playing for the U of Georgia Bulldogs was a delight. He had southern manners and was very polite and responsible. It added a positive dimension to our days to have a young person around with all their enthusiasm and energy.

The players are extraordinarily busy, and occupied much of the day. Morning workouts or baseball clinics, afternoon practices and evening games mean they are home mostly for a quick eat and sleep, and doing their occasional load of laundry. The team manages uniforms and equipment, so that is not something the host family deals with. Over the summer we met Henry's parents, friends and he participated with us in a beach barbeque, summer yard party and cook outs with our summer

I joke that our player Henry was 220 pounds of pure appetite. Any 20-year-old doing all that exercise and being in constant motion can really eat - leftovers were never a problem! Henry seasoned his food - with more food. Smitty's Ice Cream shop on Main Street had a great summer as we often resupplied.

Attending home and occasional away games was a much-expanded experience. Surrounded by a friendly group of fellow spectators, we could cheer for our player and his team mates, with a new appreciation for the complexities of the game. Being at Eldredge Park field on a warm summer evening as the beautiful sunsets fade and the families enjoy their picnic dinners is an experience Norman Rockwell would have

As a host family our payback was gratitude and making a lifelong contact with a new friend, and his family. Also wonderful was being welcomed in to the Firebirds family - other host families, team volunteers, coaches and fans made for a great experience and enriched our lives as residents of Orleans. O ore than 43,940 fans attended Firebirds games in 2023 regular season, the highest attendance in the league. Just under 20,000 attended the 2023 home playoff games. The Firebirds organization always appreciates your continued, enthusiastic

It costs us more than $300,000 a year to operate our team and to enhance historic Eldredge Park (established 1913) as one of the top collegiate summer baseball venues in America. The Firebirds receive 96% of the needed $300,000 from Annual Fan Club Memberships, our Homeplate Retail Shop, our Youth Baseball Clinics, our game advertisers and generous contributions by our fans at games. All funds are raised through the Orleans Athletic Association, a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization, by a year-round volunteer staff. The generous outpouring of fan and community support has enabled the team to be financially stable.

The Firebirds receive indirect funding of about $11,000 from MLB thru the CCBL. Unlike most CCBL teams the Firebirds receive no revenue from concessions opting to have this operated by Nauset Schools.

As with all organizations, The Firebirds every year are faced with increased operating costs in almost every aspect of operations as well as always having the responsibility to maintain, replace, and improve every aspect of our operations. Our Fan Club, started in 2011 has become our major fundraising vehicle and continues to grow in membership. We have reached out beyond Orleans to Eastham, Wellfleet, Truro and Provincetown residents, as well as to our many summer visitors to join our donor team and assist us so we can continue to provide this wholesome, family orientated activity. Attendance at a Firebirds game is the best Cape Cod summer entertainment bargain available and the team continues to be the highlight of many vacation as well as a major source of local pride. Thank you for your annual support of the Fan Club and don't forget to display your Fan Club sticker.

The Firebirds have had many benefactors throughout the years who become engaged as needs have arisen, like our lights, dugouts, and field improvements. We have several special projects that are in planning stages so if you would like to help us or find out more about these special projects, please reach out to members of our executive committee who are listed on page 4 of this yearbook to discuss our upcoming projects. We depend on your generous support for our survival. Please consider a financial donation to the team so this community treasure can continue to provide pleasure and entertainment for years to come.

We also deeply appreciate the many businesses that advertise in this yearbook and take out various sponsorships that support the team and its players. Those businesses understand how the Firebirds contribute vitally to our local economy and we encourage vou to visit their establishments and utilize their services.
