Welcome to Eldredge Park!

Thanks for joining us for another exciting Cape Cod Baseball League season. Now in its 133rd season, the Cape Cod Baseball League made the transition from "town team" to collegiate competition in the mid-60's, and is now comprised of ten franchises whose players are selected from the finest college baseball programs in the nation.

We have several exciting special events planned for the 2017 season. At the July 4 game against Chatham Anglers we will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the "New" Eldredge Park baseball field. In 1967 extensive renovations and improvements were made resulting in the iconic baseball venue that exists today. Our "Playing Above the Influence" event returns this year on July 15 in conjunction with Gosnold and the Brewster Whitecaps. Last, but not least, the Cape League All-Star game is in Wareham on July 22. Be sure to check our website, www.orleansfirebirds.com, for other special events and rainout rescheduling.

Thanks to all members of the Firebirds organization: our players, coaches, bat kids, interns, volunteers, host families, and others, many of whom work year round to make the Firebirds season possible. Equally important, thanks to our fans, for your extraordinary support over the years. There is no admission or parking fees to our games, and we are dependent on your generosity via donations at the games, souvenir purchases and Firebird Fan Club memberships. Special thanks to the members of our Firebirds Fan Club whose contributions really make a huge difference to the team. To join see page 67 for more info.

We hope to see you often at picturesque Eldredge Park!

Gene Hornsby,
 President, Orleans Athletic Association

WHO'S NUMBER 1?

Among our sponsors' banners on the outfield fences, there's another sign that may need some explanation. It's the representation of the retired jersey #1, which was worn by John Castleberry, who first arrived in Orleans in 1983 as an assistant coach and then became the CCBL's youngest field manager the following year. During John's tenure as skipper of the Cardinals, fans came to expect that the team would make the playoffs; his 1986 squad won the CCBL championship and he was named Manager of the Year. John took a squad of Cape Leaguers to the 1988 Boardwalk and Baseball Tournament in Florida, where they won the title and brought nationwide recognition to the CCBL by using wood bats, while the other collegiate summer teams competed with aluminum. Many of John's former players have enjoyed a career in pro baseball, continuing to this day in coaching, scouting, administrative and broadcasting roles.

John's college coaching career included Portland State College (OR), the University of Washington, and George Washington University; he was inducted into the GW Hall of Fame in 2001. Since 1992, John has been a professional scout, beginning with the Florida Marlins (one World Series ring), followed by the Cincinnati Reds, Texas Rangers, Philadelphia Phillies (one World Series ring), and San Francisco Giants (three World Series rings) where he is now the East Coast Supervisor. We are fortunate that John's scouting itinerary includes an annual trip to scout the CCBL. He and his wife Kate now own a home here, and John serves as an honorary director for the Firebirds. ○

Dear Firebirds Fans,

As a member of the Orleans Firebirds/Cardinals for the past sixteen years, I can't imagine a better way to spend the summer! Watching the "stars of tomorrow shine tonight" is truly an honor, and I am extremely humbled to be part of an extraordinary organization. Your unbelievable support, generosity and enthusiasm for the Firebirds are the best on the Cape, and my sincere appreciation goes out to each and every one of you.

Coach Kelly Nicholson

The Firebirds pride ourselves in bringing a professional environment to the Cape Cod Baseball League, doing things "the right way" and playing the game with the utmost respect for America's favorite pastime. We, the players and coaches, promise to represent the great town of Orleans with pride, poise, class and hustle at all times.

We look forward to sharing a tremendous baseball experience with you this summer. When you visit Eldredge Park, please come by and say "hello," get autographs from the players, visit the Home Plate Shop, take home a souvenir and be prepared to watch some future major leaguers display their talents!

Thank you again for your continued support.

Humbly and respectfully yours in baseball,

Kelly Nicholson
Manager - Orleans Firebirds

The primary mission of the organization is supervising the business and team operations of the Orleans Firebirds Baseball Club of the Cape Cod Baseball League. A 20 member Board of Directors and a seven member Executive Committee are elected annually. A formal business plan and a budget are approved every year. Any financial donation qualifies the donor as an OAA voting member. The full board meets quarterly and the Executive Committee convenes monthly.

2016 CCBL SEASON REVIEW

YD RED SOX DEFEAT FALMOUTH TO RECORD THEIR THIRD CONSECUTIVE CAPE TITLE

The Firebirds congratulate the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox for winning their third consecutive Cape League title, beating the Falmouth Commodores in a three game Championship series. Last years title was the sixth for Y-D in the last 13 years, all behind veteran manager Scott Pickler. Despite losing their first five games, the Red Sox rallied to finish the regular season as the #2 seed in the Eastern Division playoffs. In round one they swept the Orleans Firebirds, pitting Y-D against #4 seed Chatham, who upset heavily favored Harwich to advance. The Red Sox promptly swept the Anglers. In the Championship series the Red Sox met President's Trophy winning Falmouth. The Commodores won game one but again the Red Sox rallied to win the final two games, including game three 3-0 behind a standout performance by pitcher Bryan Sammons (Western Carolina). They were led by playoff MVP shortstop Kevin Smith (Maryland). ○

▲ The Hill at Eldredge Park

Welcome to historic Eldredge Park. Named "the best summer collegiate park in the nation," in 2004 by Baseball America, this picturesque park has served the town of Orleans now for 104 years. Over this time, substantial work has been completed to maintain, improve and modernize the park, most recently through private donations and without a single penny of local taxpayer support. Today, Eldredge Park provides the town with a beautiful facility and ambiance once described by Philadelphia Reporter Joe Parillo as "a Norman Rockwell painting come to life."

In 1913 a local gentleman named Lewis Winslow "Win" Eldredge (1861-1944) acquired about 250 acres of land in central Orleans in "consideration of my affection for and interest in the young people of Orleans and my desires to provide a playground for them."

In 1966, major steps were taken to modernize the park. The facility expanded to include a music band shell, tennis courts, picnic areas and other recreational facilities provided for in the master plan. Significantly, the field configuration was changed, moving home plate from near the existing left-field foul pole to its current location. Coinciding with this reconfiguration, a new irrigation system was added, along with new soil. The "new" Eldredge Park was "an incredible diamond of velvet turf infield on a beautiful site." The new park debuted on July 23, 1967 when it hosted the Cape Cod League Baseball All-Star game. (See story on page 13)

One of the most distinctive elements of Eldredge Park is the steep hill that runs all the way down the right side of the field, which for years was almost impossible to sit on comfortably. That problem was solved in 1985 when Fred Perreault suggested terracing the entire hill, creating relatively level tiers on which fans could place chair and blankets. Now known as simply The Hill at Eldredge Park, this iconic feature expanded capacity to around 6000 and created a unique setting that is the envy of community ball parks throughout the country.

In 2004, the Yawkey Foundation began making a series of $150,000 grants to each of the 10 CCBL teams. In 2009, Orleans and Yarmouth-Dennis became the last teams to receive grants.

Staged in phases, and with the addition of community donations, Eldredge Park underwent $322,000 worth of improvements.

Phase 1 was completed in 2010 and involved construction of state-of-the-art 46' long dugouts, complete with New England styled bead boarding. A knee high padded brick backstop was built, new safety netting that extended 180' down each foul line was added and new foul poles and a flagpole in centerfield were erected.

Phase 2 was completed in 2011, focused on improving the playing surface. The entire infield was excavated to a level 5 feet underground, and then layered with new clay and sod. Sophisticated laser-guided instruments were used to level the field. Warning tracks were widened to 15' to conform to NCAA guidelines. Finally, both bullpens were fully restored to their original condition and the safety netting was raised another 20'.

Phase 3 was completed prior to the 2013 season and included a new sprinkler system. Fred Perreault and John Martin also cleared out two overgrown and unsightly groves, above the home plate area and adjacent to the left field foul pole, greatly enhancing the expansive, open feel of the park. Finally, bleachers were converted from wood to aluminum and new sets were added beyond the outfield fence.

Before the 2017 season the visitors bullpen was expanded to accommodate two throwing lanes, a 214-foot long, 8-foot high "batter's eye" screened fence was erected beyond centerfield and additional safety netting was added for the home bullpen.

Over the last 100 years, Eldredge Park has served the town of Orleans in many ways. The town has coupled a vision with an unparalleled commitment from residents, local business owners and countless volunteers to build, maintain and constantly improve the ballpark. George Mitrovich, a San Diego Civic Leader, summed up Eldredge Park in a 1998 Letter to the Boston Globe, "some teams play in ballparks with lights, some without. Some play in forgettable surroundings and some, like the Cardinals in Orleans, play in a sylvan setting so transcendently beautiful one's breath is swept away." ○

50 <sup>1967-2017</sup> YEARS at the "New" Eldredge Park

By Ron Petersen

The 2017 season is a significant milestone in the history of the Orleans Firebirds and our beloved home field – Eldredge Park. This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the dedication of the “new” Eldredge Park in 1967. Actually, the history of the Park goes back a lot further than that, and is only one year younger than another baseball shrine- Fenway Park.

In 1913, Lewis Winslow “Win” Eldredge had acquired 250 acres of land in central Orleans, and donated 10 acres “in consideration of my affection for and interest in the young people of Orleans and my desire to provide a playground for them”. Thus began the saga of Eldredge Park. While the land continues to fulfill Win’s vision of a playground, it has also become the playing field of some of the nation’s most famous baseball players.

In 1966, major renovations were instituted to modernize the park and the baseball field. The configuration of the field was rotated 90 degrees, with home plate being moved from what is now left field near the foul pole to where you see it today. New soil was brought in and the outfield was reseeded. Sod was laid in the infield, and the base paths were dug out and packed with six inches of clay. The pitcher’s mound was re-done entirely in red clay, and the mound and home plate were stabilized with wood blocks and plywood. Scores of recessed sprinklers were installed all over the field.

A Philadelphia sportswriter described the result as “A Norman Rockwell painting come to life”. Len Merullo of the Chicago Cubs, one of ten major league scouts in attendance at the game, said “This is as good a ball field as you’ll find anywhere, majors or minors.” According to Orleans Selectman Charles F. Moore, the improvements were made at a cost of $30,000 "plus at least that amount in donated labor and material."

The "New" Eldredge Park was dedicated at the Cape Cod League All-Star Game played at the field on Sunday, July 23, 1967 when our Firebirds were known as the Cardinals. Prior to the ceremony, the nearly 2000 spectators were treated to a concert by the Orleans Band and an "old timers" batting exhibition. Massachusetts Governor John A. Volpe threw out the first honorary pitch, and was accompanied by Lt. Governor Francis Sargent and Attorney General Elliot Richardson. Governor Volpe arrived at the game by helicopter, landing at the nearby Nauset school field.

◀ Massachusetts Governor John Volpe loosens his arm before throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. Mrs. Elliot Richardson and Mrs. Charles Moore are sitting to his right

The significance of the day was best summed up by Governor Volpe in his remarks at the pre-game ceremony:

"As Governor, I've had the pleasure many times of throwing out the first ball for the Red Sox, but I can say in all honesty that it gives me more satisfaction to do it today because you people were so willing to work for what you got. There's a lot of personal satisfaction in doing a job well. My congratulations to Charlie Moore, Art Finlay, Laurin Peterson, and everyone else who worked so hard for this."

The All-Star Game that followed was played under bright sunny skies after twenty successive days of fog and rain. Ed Baird of Chatham was the starter for the Lower Cape All Stars, and threw the first pitch of the game. He threw two scoreless innings on the way to a 9-1 victory for the Lower Cape team, which included Orleans players Terry DeWald, Steve Cashore, Chuck Seelback, and Jim Conlon.

Fifty years later, Ed Baird is still with the Chatham Anglers as their Treasurer and member of the Board of Directors. While with the arch rival Chatham team, Big Ed (as he was known in his playing days) is a true baseball fan and friend of the Firebirds, always willing to collaborate with us and provide assistance in the true spirit of community that the CCBL represents. Ed still has a great arm and will be throwing out the first pitch at our 50th year celebration of the "New" Eldredge Park. Ed's favorite venue away from Chatham, to this day, "is hands down Eldredge Park in Orleans."

The present day Firebirds organization is proud of our team, our coaches, our many dedicated volunteers, and our incredible heritage. We look forward to the next fifty years with enthusiasm, optimism, and confidence in this great community effort. ○

Orleans is indeed fortunate to welcome Coach Nicholson back for his 17th summer here – his 13th as Field Manager, the longest tenure for an Orleans skipper in the “modern era” (1963-present).

Kelly (or Coach K as he’s known in the pitching fraternity) is a native of Corona, California where he won numerous scholar-athlete awards in both baseball and basketball while in high school. He was a four-year letterwinner and two-time all-conference pick during his pitching career at Loyola Marymount University.

After earning his bachelor’s degree in business administration from LMU, he began his career teaching mathematics at Loyola High School of Los Angeles, while completing his master’s degree in education from LMU. He was the head coach of the Loyola HS Cubs for eleven seasons, where he led the team to seven playoff appearances and a league title. Kelly then spent three seasons as Loyola Marymount’s pitching coach, and each year the Lions won the WCC title and went to the NCAA regionals. In the summer of 2000, Kelly worked with the Team USA pitching staff in its early preparation for international play. Kelly joined Orleans as the pitching coach in 2001. In 2002, Coach K’s staff had a 2.11 ERA (the best ever by Cardinals pitchers) and in 2004 it led the CCBL with a 2.37. His 2003 championship pitching staff was lights out, with a 2.36 ERA and a league-leading 397 Ks in 401 IP. All told, Kelly’s pitching staffs have led the CCBL in ERA an astounding 7 times.

Co-winner of the Hossfeld Spirit Award with Coach Steve DeBlasi in 2004, Kelly became the field manager in 2005, and was the unanimous choice of his fellow managers for the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year Award after leading the Cardinals to a record-setting 30-win season and the championship. Coach K was again named Manager of the Year in 2008 as his squad finished the regular season in first place overall (25-17-2), but a heartbreaking 1-0, 18-inning loss to the eventual CCBL Champion Harwich Mariners ended the team’s playoff run. Under his leadership, Orleans is a perennial playoff contender. In 2015, Kelly led the Firebirds to a franchise record of 31-12-1 (.716) and again was named the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year. Coach K’s overall regular season winning percentage of .570 leads all active CCBL Managers.

It’s no surprise to anyone who knows him that Kelly enjoys the respect, affection and admiration of his players, fellow coaches and colleagues here and around the league and in the wider baseball community; he’s a favorite around town, having made countless friends over the years. Orleans fans know they’ll see a first class team on the field every summer with Kelly at the helm.

Kelly established his “ABC” or Academy of Baseball and Character, where young players “learn to play the game the right way.” We can attest to that. Orleans welcomes a true gentleman and a terrific leader back for his seventeenth summer. Kelly is engaged to Donna Barney and resides in Playa del Rey, CA. ○

Benny Craig

Feel Good Hitting, Carmel, IN
Hometown: San Diego, California
Twitter: @feelgoodhitting

Coach Craig returns for his 9th season as the team's primary hitting coach and he'll also run the offense.

A native of San Diego, Craig spent the first three years of his collegiate career as a switch-hitting outfielder for the UCLA Bruins before transferring to Loyola Marymount for his senior season. Selected in the 19th round of the 1997 Major League draft by the Cincinnati Reds, he played for its Burlington Bees affiliate and later the Houston Astros' Kissimmee Cobras.

Coach Craig played for several independent teams, and he homered from both sides of the plate in the same game three times. During his 10-year professional career, he accumulated 108 home runs. He started his coaching career at Cal State Los Angeles, and was the hitting coach at Grossmont High School (CA) for two seasons, reaching the CIF finals in both years and winning the title in 2010.

Craig holds a bachelor's degree in history from UCLA. Currently, he runs a private batting facility in northern Indianapolis called Feel Good Hitting, where he instructs players of all ages, with a strong focus on high school, college, and professional athletes. Coach Craig names Ted Williams, Pete Rose, Sadaharu Oh, Harvey Dorfman, and Ben Hogan as his strongest hitting influences. ○

Mark Hallberg

Assistant Coach
American School of Dubai
Hometown: Balsam Lake, Wisconsin
Twitter: @mhallberg4

Mark Hallberg returns for his 4th year on the Firebirds coaching staff, working primarily with the defense and coaching third base.

Coach Hallberg was a three-sport star at Barron High (WI) in baseball, soccer and basketball. On the diamond, he was a 3-time All-State performer and in 2004 was recognized as the Northwest Wisconsin player of the year. Amazingly, he didn't strike out once during his junior and senior seasons.

Coach Hallberg started his college baseball career at the University of Illinois at Chicago, where he was named Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American, and was the most difficult hitter in the nation to strike out. He played for Orleans in 2006, and transferred to Florida State for his junior season where he garnered first team All-ACC honors in 2007, hit .360 and recorded the highest fielding percentage in school history for a shortstop. In the three years of college, Coach Hallberg was 1st team All-Conference three times, and 2-time All-American, with a career .362 BA.

A 9th round draft selection (234 overall) in the 2007 MLB draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks, he played five seasons in the minor leagues, the last two with the Triple-A Reno Aces, finishing with a career .277 BA and .977 FPCT.

Coach Hallberg holds a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) degree and BS in Health and Human Performance. He currently works overseas teaching at the American School of Dubai. ○

Jamie Quinn

Recruiting Coordinator
Zoned Baseball Academy, Bridgewater, NJ
Hometown: Plainedge, NJ
Twitter: @JQuinn14

Jamie Quinn returns for his second year as the Firebirds Pitching Coach.

Quinn brings several years of coaching experience and a successful track record with him to Orleans. Most recently, Quinn was Head Coach of the Shelter Island Bucks of the Hamptons Collegiate Baseball League. In his only season Quinn's team posted a 31-15-1 overall record, won the HCBL Championship and set the league record for most wins.

Quinn has served on college coaching staffs at the United States Merchant Marine Academy (Top Assistant-Pitching Coach, 2013-2015), Hofstra University (2nd Assistant Coach, 2012), Long Island University (Volunteer Assistant Coach, 2011), and Queens College (2nd Assistant Coach, 2009-2010).

At the professional level, Jamie served as Bullpen Coach for the Long Island Ducks (2011-2012) of the Atlantic League, where his bullpen led the league in saves in 2011 and won the ATL Championship in 2012. Quinn worked under the late Hall-of-Famer catcher Gary Carter for the Ducks in 2009. From 2013-2014 Quinn served as a Video Coordinator and Catching Instructor for the Arizona Diamondbacks Single-A club in the Northwest League where they won the NWL Championship in 2014.

Quinn, who holds a degree in Physical Education from Queens, and is pursuing his Master's in Coaching Education & Athlete Development through Xavier University. ○

Chris Constantine

Assistant Coach
United States Naval Academy
Hometown: Franklin, MA
Twitter: @ChrisConst22

Chris Constantine returns for his third year on the Firebirds coaching staff. As a player, Chris played outfield for Winston-Salem State University and was named a 2012 USCAA Academic All-American. Following his senior year, he went on to have a two-year professional career, concluding in 2014 with the independent minor league Douglas Diablos out of Douglas, Arizona.

Chris just concluded his second year as an assistant coach with Navy. In 2016, the Midshipman enjoyed the best season in school history, winning 43 games and a Patriot League Championship.

A Massachusetts native, he holds a Master's degree in business administration from East Carolina University.

Chris will serve as first base coach and work with the Firebirds outfielders. ○

2017 ORLEANS FIREBIRDS OBITUARIES

The Orleans Firebirds marked the passing of several good friends over the past year.

Robert Bremner

NOVEMBER 19, 1926 - FEBRUARY 22, 2017

Born in Oyster-ville, Bob moved to Orleans with his family when he was three years old and graduated from Orleans High School in 1944. After serving in the US Air Force for three years, he entered Kansas State, where he played baseball. After graduating in 1951, he taught school and coached in Kansas and Delaware for many years, and spent summers playing baseball for Orleans back in the town team years; he and his older brother Dave were members of the renowned 1954 team which competed in the National Baseball Congress Tournament in Wichita, Kansas. When Bob and his wife Dottie returned to Orleans full time, he worked at Goose Hummock and then Ocean Edge until his retirement. Along with other town team alum, he was a regular on the bench outside the post office, greeting his many friends and talking baseball.

Dick Marr

MARCH 11, 1936 - NOVEMBER 11, 2016

The Firebirds join the Cape League in marking the passing of former Commissioner Dick Marr, who devoted his life to learning, teaching, coaching, mentoring, and creating opportunities for his students. Dick was a graduate of The Governor's Academy, Williams College, and Middlebury College's Bread Loaf School of English. While at Williams, he was an All-East hockey goaltender and varsity baseball player. At Milton Academy, Dick taught English and served as hockey and baseball coach, dorm master and director of admissions and financial aid. At Tabor Academy, he was dean of students and the first girls' hockey and softball coach, and he also headed Tabor's speech and debate programs. In 1995, he was inducted into the Massachusetts High School Hockey Coaches Hall of Fame; he also served as supervisor of ice hockey officials for the ECAC and Hockey East. After retiring from Tabor, Dick returned to baseball, working with the Cape League as its commissioner. He then earned a JD degree from Roger Williams School of Law, and served as an investigator and mediator for local courts. Dick and his wife Ginny spent winters in North Carolina, and he assisted with the men's hockey teams at both Duke and UNC until his death.

Jeremy Spencer Linn Walters

JANUARY 26, 2000 - OCTOBER 6, 2016

Although Jeremy's life was tragically short, it was filled to the brim with love, countless friendships, enthusiastic learning, and seeking out new experiences. A junior at Nauset High School, Jeremy possessed a keen and curious intellect, and while he particularly favored history and American Sign Language, he researched new topics constantly. He enjoyed many outdoor activities, and had added wilderness adventures to his skill set. He had begun voice lessons and willingly shared his talent, to the delight of his family.

Jeremy faced many challenges in his life, beginning with his premature birth, and he worked ceaselessly to overcome the impact of Aspergers on his life. Though he was always surrounded by boundless love and support, severe depression was a relentless foe. Because of his kind and generous nature, Jeremy's spirit lives on, not just in those who loved him, but in the lives he saved through organ donation.

Jeremy leaves his mom and dad, Kimberly Mead-Walters and Davis Walters, his brothers Kyle and Sam, his sister Maddie, and his German Shepherd, Mike Wazowski. Along with other family members, he also leaves the many summer brothers that the family hosted for the Firebirds over the years, including a very special one, Jason Wheeler, who became his brother-in-law.

A scholarship fund has been established in Jeremy's name. Kindly submit donations to the Jeremy Walters Memorial Scholarship Fund, care of: The Cape Cod Five Cents Savings Bank, PO Box 86, Orleans, MA, 02653. And, please join with the Firebirds in supporting the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (www.afsp.org).

CATCHING UP WITH TOM YANKUS

▲ Tom in his Choate Rosemary Hall English Department Office

TOM YANKUS HAS BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH ORLEANS FOR MORE THAN 50 YEARS, AS A PLAYER, MANAGER AND ASSISTANT COACH. WE RECENTLY SPOKE WITH HIM AFTER HE RETURNED FROM CALIFORNIA WHERE HE WAS WITH THE WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY BASEBALL TEAM FOR SPRING TRAINING .

What is your current role with the Wesleyan team?

I spend my time in the bullpen. I don't do much, but I talk to the pitchers, try to get them ready to go in, act as a calming influence. Wide-eyed kids are out there going, "oh boy" before heading into a tight game. I try to keep them focused and relaxed. That mound is a lonely place.

Dresser Diamond at Andrus Field, home to Wesleyan baseball, has a terraced Hill similar to Eldredge Park. Can you describe that setting?

The field sits in the middle of campus and is rimmed by all these beautiful buildings from the 1800's, plus the new dining hall. It's a wonderful little pocket. Wesleyan is a superb place to play baseball.

In addition to serving as head baseball coach at Choate Rosemary Hall in Wallingford, CT, you also taught English there, for 57 years. Can you talk about the importance and value of good writing today, especially in this age of social media?

There is just the same concentration on writing as always. The Elements of Style, called "The Little Book," contained all of these memorable bits of advice that E.B. White hammered into us: "omit needless words," "clarity, clarity, clarity." Certainly, social media helps to keep sentences terse and concise.

I worked so hard telling the kids to use good verbs and to be economical in their writing. At the end of the year they'd groan that they were tired of hearing me talk about good verbs. I'd say fine, I'm glad you're tired of it because that means I drew enough attention to it.

After a distinguished career at Williams College, you signed with the New York Yankees in 1956. Word is you crossed paths with Mickey Mantle. Is that true?

I did, yes. The day I signed at Yankee Stadium, they told me to bring my spikes and a glove, and they'll give me the rest for the tryout. So I got to the Yankee locker room, and I didn't have a long-sleeve, blue undershirt. And Mickey was getting dressed and saw I didn't have a shirt, and he said "Here, kid" and threw his over to me, with his "Mickey Mantle #7" embroidered on the back. I said to myself, should I touch it? That was the year he won the Triple Crown (.353 batting average with 52 home runs and 130 RBI). He was a big-time player and called me "kid," even though we were the same age. I was just out of college, and he was Mr. Established Yankee. I was

"Kid," and he was "The Mick."

You were assigned to play that summer for the Missoula Timberjacks of the Pioneer League, where you served as the pitcher/bus driver for that club. How did that happen?

One afternoon during our stay in Billings, Joe Abernathy, our third baseman and bus driver, asked if I wanted to learn how to drive the bus up around the airport. I said sure. The next day he left for home in North Carolina, letting the GM know that I could drive the bus. I was behind the wheel of the ancient bus for the rest of the season, creeping up one side of the Rockies and then barreling down the other at perilous speeds. It didn't bother me then. Twenty-two years old and hugging immortality.

With the Timberjacks you played for the legendary Jack McKeon (two-time MLB Manager of the Year; winner of 1051 games as a big league manager, for five different teams). What did he mean to you personally?

He kind of took me on as an adopted son. Even though he had a son, Casey, he and his wife Carol, would have me over for dinner. We were out in the middle of nowhere as far as I was concerned, somewhere in Montana, I didn't know anybody. They both recognized I was a little bit lonely, and they'd have me over for spaghetti on a regular basis.

Jack was a player/manager. You couldn't bunt him to second base. He had these huge calves and couldn't run. I used to give him a dollar before I pitched. I said I'll pay the fine now because I can't bunt you to second base. He laughed about things, one of those guys who didn't take things too seriously and he wasn't on an ego trip. I learned a lesson from him that helped me coaching later: it's not about you, it's all about the players. They're trying to get somewhere, and you're just the funnel.

Fifty years later, our family was in Florida, the Choate baseball team was down there for spring training, and Jack was managing Tampa Bay. We were at Holman Stadium at the Dodgers complex.

Tampa Bay was in for a game, and I said to my wife Julie, "I'm going to say hello to Jack. He won't remember me, but what the heck?" So the team was walking along in front of the right field stands, and I yelled out "Hey, Jack" and he yelled back "Hey, Lefty!"

After 50 years, with all the players he's coached at all levels of professional baseball, it was remarkable. My younger daughter Alex, about six at the time, had asked Julie, "If he doesn't remember, will daddy be sad?" Jack remembered.

In the late 1990's you wrote a book entitled "Montana Summer" (Xlibris Publishing, 2000), chronicling that summer with the Timberjacks. There are so many wonderful and vivid scenes that come to life in that book. Did you go to a special place to best connect with those memories and feelings?

I wrote that book one summer while up on the Cape, and the pictures and stories would just pop up. I followed that lead and tried to make it something other people would enjoy.

Your book recently got in the hands of Ron Shelton (Oscar nominated film director and screenwriter; directed the classic baseball film "Bull Durham"). How did that happen and what's the latest on a possible movie adaptation of Montana Summer?

I taught a young man back in the 60's who is now a director of independent films out in LA. He had read the book and passed it on to his friend Rob Ryder, a scriptwriter, who read the book, thought it had possibilities as a movie and said he was going to show it to Ron Shelton. (He had helped Ron write "White Guys Can't Jump" and served as a technical advisor for that movie). After reading it, Ron said he was interested. I am not holding my breath.

How did you begin playing with the Orleans Cardinals in the Cape League?

It started because of an alumni

reunion at Williams College. I asked John Sargent what he was doing for the summer, and he said he was playing in the Cape League. John put me in touch with Buzzy Wilcox, the player/manager, and I became a Cardinal. It was in 1963. That was before Eldredge Park was renovated, reconfigured. It was basically a hard scrabble diamond back then. Home plate was over by the police station. They had snow fences in the outfield. You know how dangerous those are. You didn't want to catch a ball and fall into those sharp wooden shards. Nobody sat up on the Hill, as Freddy Perreault hadn't terraced it at that time. The crowds were smaller.

What is the first thing you remember about playing at Eldredge Park?

The crowds would support both teams. I'd never seen that before. They'd clap for good plays, they loved the game. They were supporters of the Cardinals, but they wouldn't go crazy. Chatham was the complete opposite. Their fans were really tough on the opposing players.

I played for three seasons before the league became an official NCAA summer league. I then began playing in Quebec, Canada in 1967.

During your playing career in Orleans (1963-5) did you play for manager Dave Gavitt?

I did. Yeah. He was a great guy to play for. After our first loss at Cotuit on opening day in '63, he pulled us together and called us "the raggedy-ass cadets." We knew he meant business. Terrific game manager. (Gavitt went on to help form the Big East Conference and served as the Boston Celtics CEO from 1990-94)

For a time you were a "summer cop" in Orleans. What do you recall about those days?

At one point, Chief Landers was on a big kick about cars without mufflers or those with faulty mufflers. He hated the racket. I had a Porsche with a bad muffler, so I used to hide it in the woods behind the Police Station. When we came into work, we used to put our keys on a board by the front door. At lunch time the Chief would grab a rookie and tell him to grab some keys off the rack, take someone's car and take him home for lunch. One day I'm out on patrol, out on Brick Hill Road, waiting to go out onto Beach Road, and I hear this roaring coming over the hill from town. I thought "OK, that guy is getting as ticket!" Then I see it's my Porsche, with a rookie driving, and the Chief in the passenger seat, hiding under the dashboard. I went to NAPA the next day.

They didn't give me a gun in my first year. I used to keep candy bars in my holster, and I had a whistle, but no gun. So the second year I go to my locker and there's a shiny .38 pistol, with six extra bullets lying on the shelf. For the first three weeks I'd get into the cruiser gingerly, trying to avoid shooting my foot off. And one day I decided to open the bullet chamber and see how many bullets I had in the thing. Well, it was empty. Those six bullets were not extras.

After your playing days conclude, you become head coach of the Orleans Cardinals (1974-80). How did that come to be?

I think Russ Ford had a lot to do with it. I was working with the outfielders one day and noticed a man standing on the side, listening to my spiel. I thought he was a tourist with nothing better to do than watch practice. After I was done, he came over and said "I like the way you handle those players, the things you say to them." That was Russ. Having just moved to the Cape, he became fascinated with the brand of ball and was named president of the Cardinals and eventually the entire league. He backed me for the Orleans head job.

Later you served as an assistant coach for Orleans, first for Jack Donahue, then John Castleberry.

Yeah, I threw BP seven days a week for Jack and loved every minute of it. It was also a great workout. It was a great workout. My arm survived, but that was a lot of BP for the summer. I loved it.

For Castleberry, I was up on the "deck" (band shell stage), by the bullpen with a walkie-talkie. It connected me to the dugout, but it also connected me to the fishing boats in the Bay. John would call out to get so-and-so to warm up, and you'd hear this voice - "What's that? We're in the inlet, got a full load of blues comin' in."

Over those years you coached many great players in Orleans, including Frank Thomas. Do you recall anything special about Frank?

Well, Frank was good friends with Bo Jackson, when he was at Auburn, I think they were roommates. Bo signed with Kansas City, Frank, a year younger, came to Orleans. Bo gave him a couple of Louisville bats. Frank kept them in a flower box, with tissue paper and everything, as if they were trophies or something. He wouldn't use them. But then late in August, the last week of the season, he said he's going to use one of those bats tonight. If he broke it, Frank would get another one from Bo the next day when KC came to play the Red Sox. He'd hit only one home run up to that point, this huge guy. With that bat he hit three home runs, at Wareham, a huge field. The first ball sailed far over the left field bleachers into the parking lot, the next over the center field fence into the mist, and the third about fifty feet over the right field fence. Frank ended up hitting only four home runs that summer.

Another superstar was Ben McDonald (selected first overall in the '89 MLB draft), who played a short time for Orleans over the '89 summer while his agent Scott Boras was negotiating with the Orioles. What do you remember about Ben?

He waited quite a while for Boras to do his job. I think his dad said why don't you go up and pitch in the Cape League. So he came up. I remember the first night he showed up, at Yarmouth. He was throwing a bullpen session and would tell me every pitch and throw it exactly where he wanted. I just remember his control was perfect. The next night, he was going to go a couple of innings. The crowd around Eldredge Park must have been in the thousands, including two hundred fans who watched him warm up in the bullpen. He went 4 innings, gave up one hit and of course, looked very impressive. He lasted a week in Orleans before he signed with Baltimore. The day before he accepted a million dollar bonus, he was raking the infield for $3.75 an hour.

That first night in the bullpen in Yarmouth, Ben had asked, "Where can I get squirrel?" I told him they were all over the place, look in your backyard. No, he said, to eat. "Where do I get squirrel to eat?" I said you don't get it around here.

Are there any memorable plays at Eldredge Park that stick with you to this day?

Well, the centerfield fence at Eldredge is 434 feet, a bigger park than even Wareham. There was a pitcher from Chatham, Chuck Rodgers. He's the only guy I ever saw hit one over that part of the fence. It was an amazing shot, a Mickey Mantle shot, had to be over 480 feet, high over the 434 sign and rising.

The other play was in '05, when we won the CCBL championship. It was against Chatham in a playoff game. Emmanuel Burriss, one of our infielders, was on 3rd base, either in extra innings or the bottom of the 9th. It was a tie game. There was a foul pop up, over by first base, near the far end of the dugout. I'll never forget this moment. Burriss tagged up and beat the throw home. On a pop up to the first baseman. Game over.

You've been around Orleans for many years now ("I haven't missed a summer since 1962"). It's been a big part of your life. What does this town mean to you?

It's just small enough or large enough, that I know more people here than I do at home (in Wallingford, CT). I feel more a native of Orleans than I do of Wallingford. It's a small town atmosphere that grows on you.

You've spent over 50 years now at this wonderful jewel known as Eldredge Park. On game nights you're usually sitting in a lawn chair "on the deck" (band shell), with friends Ron (Conte) and Dave (Mitchell), eating popcorn and peanuts. Do you ever reflect on what this setting means to you, what it feels like?

I go back to the first time the

lights went on (1979). It was a special time for me. I remember the game was against Y-D. I just stood there, it was like magic. And I still have that same feeling today. Sitting on the deck, the sun's behind you, and the field is lighted naturally, it's such a beautiful scene. Then slowly the lights blink on, dusk comes, and then nightfall. It's that changeover I remember so vividly, from the first time we had those lights. It's always a wonderful time to be alive on a warm July night with a ballgame to watch. ○ -Stu Murray

Be MORE THAN A FAN, become a benefactor of the Firebirds

More than 30,000 fans attended Firebirds' games last season, one of the largest figures in the league. The Firebirds organization deeply appreciates your continued, enthusiastic support over the years.

This season we will need your support even more.

It costs us $300,000 a year to operate the team and cover expenses such as field maintenance and repairs, housing the coaches, transporting the players, providing uniforms and equipment, buying bats and balls, etc.

Contrary to popular belief, the Firebirds do not receive any direct financial support from either Major League Baseball or the Town of Orleans. Although we have the Cape Cod Baseball League's highest attendance, we do not charge admission, nor do we charge fans for the yearbook, daily stat sheets or listening to and viewing our internet broadcasts. Unlike most other CCBL teams, the Firebirds do not receive any income from food concessions at games.

Instead, all funds are raised through the Orleans Athletic Association, which is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization. Every member of the OAA is a non-paid volunteer. Many work hundreds of hours a year tirelessly contributing to the team. The primary sources of operating income are sales from the Home Plate Shop, the 50-50 raffle, fan donations at the game, corporate sponsorships, and fees to participate in the baseball clinics.

That's why we are so grateful for all your individual and business donations. To help us remain financially strong, the OAA launched the Firebirds Fan Club in 2011. The generous outpouring of support over the past two years has enabled the team to avoid a potential financial crisis and significantly reduce our debt.

The Firebirds are counting on our great fans once again. We are reaching out beyond Orleans to Eastham, Provincetown, Truro and Wellfleet residents, as well as to our many summer visitors to join our donor team and assist us so we can continue to provide this wholesome, family oriented activity. Attendance at a Firebirds game is the best Cape Cod summer entertainment bargain available, and the team continues to be the highlight of many vacations as well as a major source of local pride.

We depend on your generous support for our survival. Please consider a financial donation to the team so this community treasure can continue to provide pleasure and entertainment for years to come.

We also deeply appreciate the many businesses that advertise in this yearbook, and take out various sponsorships that support the team and its players. Those businesses understand how the Firebirds contribute vitally to our local economy, and we encourage you to visit their establishments and utilize their services. ○

How You Can Donate to the Firebirds

ONLINE

Visit orleansfirebirds.com and donate securely via PayPal using your credit card or PayPal account.

CHECK

Payable to: Orleans Firebirds

2016 BIRDS NESTERS

The Firebirds thank all the host families, aka Bird Nesters, for opening their homes to our ballplayers, for their generosity and support. In providing warm and caring homes, you greatly contribute to the wonderful experience players will remember for the rest of their lives.

2016 Bird Feeders

After every home game, the team is treated to a meal that has been prepared by various host families, committee members, local businesses and organizations, plus other friends. The program begun by Kathy Udall as "sandwich suppers" has expanded its gastronomical boundaries to include everything from pasta dinners to barbecues to sushi, and it really helps the players – whose appetites may exceed their food budgets. It's a big undertaking to feed a group of hungry ballplayers, coaches and bat kids. We thank those volunteers for their generous efforts.

The Orleans Firebirds Youth Baseball Clinic

SUMMER MEMORIES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AGE 5 TO 15 YEARS OLD

OUR CLINIC PHILOSOPHY

The co-ed clinic is dedicated to teaching the fundamentals of baseball. Skills and technical instruction will cover throwing, catching, fielding, hitting and base running. All level of abilities are identified, and all instruction is based on the age, ability and playing experience of each boy and girl. A high instructor-to-child ratio ensures that each boy and girl receives personal attention and direction.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All participants receive instruction from the manager, coaches and Firebirds, as well as a t-shirt, and an opportunity to "run with the 'Birds.'" 'Campers of the Week' also will be awarded at the conclusion of each clinic.

Clinics are held weekly beginning June 19 and continuing through July 24 at Nauset Middle School (adjacent to Eldredge Park). They run from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Water breaks and a nutrition break will take place daily, so attendees should bring snacks and water, in addition to their baseball gear.

Cost is $120/week or $30/day. There are also specialty clinics in Fielding (Tues 1-2p.m.), Pitching (Wed 1-2 p.m.), and Hitting (Thurs 1-2 p.m.). You can sign up at orleansfirebirds.com or register at the beginning of each clinic week beginning at 8:30 a.m. at Eldredge Park. Semi-soft baseballs are used for beginners. Required batting helmets will be supplied. ○

www.capecodhardware.com
Jim Morton, Manager

Baskin's True Value is the same Cape Cod family owned and operated business that has been serving Orleans residents and visitors since 1977. It's time for a change, and we created a new logo that reflects the pride we have in our business and in this special place we call home, Cape Cod. The store features quality products such as Husqvarna outdoor power equipment, Weber gas and charcoal grills, and California Paints. You'll find most anything you'll need around the house, from hand and power tools to electrical and plumbing, house wares and small appliances, cleaning supplies, and much more. Our store is most renowned for its exceptional customer service. Our friendly and knowledgeable staff can help the “do-it-yourselfer” tackle that home repair by recommending the right product and explaining the best way to accomplish the project.

Quality workmanship is our best recommendation. Since 1979, we have been reliably installing water well systems, and monitoring drilling. At Desmond Well Drilling, Inc, we are sensitive that you have many factors to consider when purchasing a new water well system. We are ready to guide you through this process.

- Complete water systems
- Environmental wells
- Wells pumps and tanks
- Split-spoon soil sampling
- Irrigation well systems
- Dewatering wells
- Open-loop geothermal wells
- Sales & service
- Test Borings
- Trenching

ASE Master Mechanics
Specializing in Toyotas, Repair & Sales

Russ Cabral and Mike Clifford have been working on cars – mostly Toyotas – since 1976, after attending Barnstable High School. Working first for Toyota, and then for themselves, they've built a reputation for excellent work, for standing behind their products, and for being honest. It's a reputation few businesses can match.

We are open Monday through Friday, 8:00 to 5:00, and by appointment on weekends. Nauset Auto Service and Sales is in Orleans, MA, on the eastern side of Cape Cod.
