Welcome back to Eldredge Park!

Dear Fans,

I hope 2022 finds everyone well and, and ready for an exciting Orleans Firebirds Season

As we start the season, let's take a minute to pause and reflect on the absence of our biggest fan and supporter of the Firebirds, Dave Mitchell.

Often at games I glanced out at the bandshell to see 3 long time familiar faces. Dave was always there to share a kind word and a very warm smile. Now, as I look at the bandshell, I'll tip my hat and say silently Thanks Dave for showing us what it means to love this game. You taught us well.

So, as we return to Eldredge Park, throw down your blankets, set up the beach chairs, and take in the beautiful sunsets. The Great American Pastime never disappoints. I look forward to seeing every one of you and if you see me tip my cap you'll know why.

Fondly,

Bob O'Donnell

Thank you to the many volunteers who contribute to make the operation work.

Dear Firebirds Fans,

As a member of the Orleans Cardinals/Firebirds since 2001, I'm extremely happy to be returning to Eldredge Park and the Cape Cod Baseball League for 2022! Orleans has been my second home for twenty-one summers now, and I truly look forward to the daily interaction with our players, coaching staff, youngsters in Firebird Clinic, and of course, you fans.

Coach Kelly Nicholson

Watching "the stars of tomorrow shine tonight" is indeed an honor and a privilege, and I am deeply humbled to be part of an extraordinary organization.

Thank you for your continued support, generosity, and enthusiasm for the Firebirds. My sincere appreciation goes out to each and every one of you. We pride ourselves in bringing professionalism to the league, doing things "the right way," and playing the game with the utmost respect for America's favorite pastime. We, the players and coaches, promise to represent the great town of Orleans with pride, poise, and class at all times.

We look forward to sharing a tremendous baseball experience with you this summer. Please say "hello," come down after the game and get an autograph and/or photo with your favorite Birds, and make sure to stop by The Home Plate Shop and purchase some "Bird Gear."

I can't wait to see you "fill the hill" this summer!
Humbly and respectfully yours in baseball,

Kelly Nicholson
Manager, Orleans Firebirds
Cape Cod Baseball League

The primary mission of the organization is supervising the business and team operations of the Orleans Firebirds Baseball Club of the Cape Cod Baseball League. A Board of Directors and an Executive Committee are elected annually. A formal business plan and a budget are approved every year. Firebirds Fan Club membership qualifies the donor as an OAA voting member. The full board meets quarterly and the Executive Committee convenes monthly.

FIREBIRD Pitcher in 2015 to NL CY YOUNG in 2021

Another Firebird Alum received a major MLB award in 2021, following Kyle Lewis' AL Rookie of the Year in 2020.

Corbin Burnes came to the Birds from St. Mary's College of the West Coast Conference. He was 5-3 for the Firebirds in 2015, appearing in nine games with a 3.79 ERA and 28 strikeouts over 38 innings. The 2015 team had a record of 31-12-2 and produced MLB players Eric Lauer (teammate of Corbin on the Brewers), Kyle Lewis, Bobby Dalbec, Joe Ryan, Sean Murphy, Bryan Reynolds, Ronnie Dawson, Tommy Doyle, Steve Nogueck, Bennett Sousa, Tanner Tully, and Tres Barrera.

Corbin rapidly advanced through Brewers farm teams (Wisconsin Timber Rattlers (A), Carolina Mudcats (A+), Biloxi Shuckers (AA) and Colorado Sky Sox (AAA) and made his MLB debut on July 8, 2018. He was 23-11 in his first four MLB seasons and is off to a great start in 2022 (2-2 as of going to press).

He was interviewed by the Firebirds in February 2022.

Firebirds: Hi Corbin.

CB: Hello. How ya doing?

Firebirds: Great. Thanks for taking some time today.

CB: yeah, of course.

Firebirds: Where are you hanging out right now?

CB: Arizona.

Firebirds: You doing a lot of off-season work there, or just kinda chillin' right now?

CB: We have started working out and training again. Trying to get back in it.

Firebirds: Awesome. Congratulations to you on the Cy Young and everything. That must have been a fun day.

CB: Thank you.

Firebirds: We wanted to talk to you since you are such a big deal and everything.

CB: Laughter

Firebirds: Pretty much how you enjoyed the experience and all that. Did you live with a host family out there?

CB: I did, yes, I lived with the Radke family. It was a good group of guys who lived there as well, made it a fun summer.

Firebirds: How many guys were there?

CB: In total I think we ended up having five at a time.

Firebirds: That's so fun. What year were you there?

CB: Gosh, let's see, that was drafted in '16. It had to be the summer of 2015.

Firebirds: We're wondering, I know everyone else will too, this season was so successful for you and fun and everything. Do you think there was a tie to your time in the Cape that maybe helped you, either this season, or just in general in playing in the majors?

CB: Yeah, I think so. At the time when you are playing in college, it's really a huge deal because you're playing in one of the best small ball leagues in America, plus you're wanting to play pro ball. You get the guys across the country from every big-name school playing there, you just get that initial exposure and experience.

You get the most time playing in front of scouts and that kind of stuff so, that's when you realize you can play at the pro level. And then the way the league is run with games basically five days a week it is a little bit more rigorous schedule than what you're getting in college, you're basically playing weekends and one mid-week game, so, that was kind of the first exposure to playing baseball pretty much every day. Having afternoon and night games, and really just really just trying to learn a schedule of what your supposed to do in the field on your own until the game starts. That's definitely what I took from it, trying to get that top competition, playing baseball every day, versus playing three or four days a week like college, and then you are trying to find that schedule and routine that works for you.

Firebirds: Did your confidence grow in playing in the Cape League and doing all that?

CB: Yes, yes, of course. You get to play against the best. Having success there obviously helped, and carried into my college season the next year. Then you play against the best players in the country and can hopefully do it at the next level – at the pro level.

Firebirds: Is there anybody on your team now that was on the Firebirds with you?

CB: Yes, I still play with Eric Lauer [who played for the Padres in 2018 and 2019. Eric then joined the Brewers in 2020]. I played with him in Orleans. Then I played against other guys as well that are in the big leagues, I just played with [Sean] Murphy catcher for the A's. Dalbec was there when I was there. Kyle Lewis was also on the Birds. Gosh. We had all kinds of guys from that team that are now in the big leagues and played against guys on other teams that are in the big leagues. So, there is still a bunch of guys

I came across that spent time on the Cape, and then guys from years prior, Kolten Wong played for Orleans. There's a handful of guys that every day you see that initially came across in the Cape Cod League.

Firebirds: What a great Firebirds team in 2015. Working with Kelly, what do you think was the biggest thing you learned from having him as your coach for the summer?

CB: Kelly's a good, I guess, transition from the typical college coach where everything is structured and hands on, to being there with, giving guidance, but he's not going to baby sit you throughout the day, and he knows a lot of these guys are going to play pro ball, so you have to treat them as if they are pros and let them figure it out on their own. Kelly was really good about that, guys that need the structure and needed help, he could step in and help, but other than that you're going to have to learn a lot of things on your own once you're in pro ball. He was pretty good of being that kind of in-between coach of the college and pro ball transition.

Firebirds: Did you have a pre-game restaurant or anything in Orleans that would kinda become your place to go to?

CB: Not really. We had some meals at the field, otherwise you'd go away and grab a sandwich or something and eat at the field. We had post game meals at the field, so it kinda really felt like pro ball. That's where you wake up and get breakfast in the morning and other than that you get lunch and dinner at the field, that just kinda how we went about it. We had some spots we ate at but nothing that we had to or was a go to, just it was pick something up, let's go to the field and get our work done.

Firebirds: Was there a specific game or even moment in that season that you remember maybe more than others?

CB: Nothing really stuck out. I always enjoyed going to play at all the different fields on the Cape. I remember Chatham a lot, just because that was one of the nicer fields that drew a big crowd.

Orleans was always filling up the hill. But when I agreed to come, I just I expected we were going to play at really nice stadiums, and when you get there, you realize you're playing at public parks, and people can go right into the dugout. So, it was not what you usually expected when you hear the Cape Cod League. I played at St. Mary's, so we didn't have that kind of atmosphere, but some of these guys did, like those who came from Vanderbilt that plays in front of nine or ten thousand people at a college big stadium. So, it's kinda cool to bring people from across the country to these little ball parks and community parks and stuff.

Firebirds: I guess you were playing a lot of travel ball growing up, what was that like, playing with guys from across the country with different backgrounds and everything, spending a summer with them on the Cape?

CB: Yeah, I mean the first couple of days is getting to know everyone, but everyone is there for the same reason – to play baseball. Everyone just wanting to compete against the best, and so it become easy to mesh with those guys knowing that everyone is there for the same reason to compete at a high level, and try to go out and win. So, that's something you learn along the way through pro ball too, you meet new guys every step of the way, but everyone is there for one reason, it's to get better and compete and try to win. It was cool coming from college where you got to know a guy for two or three years, the same guys you were playing with, to jumping into summer ball each year. Hey, it's different guys, but were all here for the same reason and at Cape Cod we're trying to compete against the best.

Firebirds: For some of the fans that you know go to every single game, every year, what is different about you now than the Corbin that was playing on the Cape a couple of years ago?

CB: Not much has changed, I'm still going out there and trying to compete every day that I'm on the mound. That's something

The following is an article "The Transformation of Corbin Burnes" by Joe Koettler from the Cape Cod Baseball League Website on February 4, 2022.

Corbin Burnes has taken baseball by storm the past two years and to the casual baseball fan, no one had really heard of Corbin Burnes before 2021. The former Orleans Firebird made major strides that led him to a 2021 Cy Young Award. While in the Cape, Burnes started seven games, appearing in nine and ended the regular season with a 3.78 ERA and 28 Ks over 38 innings.

Burnes was always a top prospect for the Brewers after being drafted in the 4th round of the 2016 MLB Draft, out of St. Mary's College. Burnes flew through the minors before making his debut only two years later. Burnes had a very solid 2018, appearing in 30 games and finishing with an ERA of 2.61 in his first year in the big leagues. However, things drastically changed in 2019.

Burnes had been a two-pitch pitcher throwing a four-seam fastball as well as a slider. 84% of his pitches were one of those two, with the occasional curveball or change up mixed in not nearly enough. The league started to figure out Burnes and his mix was nothing special. Burnes had a career worst 8.82 ERA across 32 games and was one of the league's worst pitchers. After 2019, Burnes made three key changes that turned him into the Cy Young pitcher we know today.

The first change was that Burnes was transitioned from the bullpen to the starting rotation. For the most part, starters who struggle are usually sent to the bullpen to figure out their woes. Burnes was the opposite and the result worked perfectly according to the stats. The second adjustment that was made on the way to Burnes' revival was strictly pitching out of the stretch. Burnes stated that the windup was just too many moving parts and he wanted to be able to repeat his mechanics as much as possible.

Burnes stated "It was just more about trying to get my mechanics as repeatable as possible. For me, the windup had lots of moving parts and a lot of things that made it tougher to kind of sync everything up".

He also stated that the biggest moments in the game usually happen when runners are on base, so why pitch from the windup all game until the biggest moments.

The final adjustment, and the biggest one, was a complete revamp of his arsenal. Burnes added a cutter to his pitch mix that he threw 52% of the time in 2021. The other 48% was a pretty even mix of curveball, slider, sinker and changeup. In 2021, Burnes' cutter had the 5th best run value in the league at -.22. For comparison, in 2019, Burnes' fastball had the worst run value in all of baseball at +.24. Overall, Burnes has made tremendous adjustments that seem to have cemented Burnes as one of the elite pitchers in baseball. ○

I learned from a young age and playing high school and the first couple of years at college is that I wanted to be the best, and compete against the best, so I was fortunate enough to be able to play at the Cape in front of all the fans that came to every single game of the Cape season and play against the best guys in the country. For me it was going out and showing what I could do and trying to compete at the highest level, so not much has changed in that aspect. The only thing that has really changed is the look on the field, maybe the product on the field is a little different, different pitching styles, different pitches, that kinda thing. But not much has really changed.

Firebirds: Did you have the long hair back then?

CB: No, I didn't.

Firebirds: We'll that's a big change.

CB: I had short hair and I still wore the glasses too. So that's about the only change.

Firebirds: Can you remember maybe your favorite off-day on the Cape?

CB: Favorite off day ... most off days we ended up going down to the beach and hanging out. Yeah, nothing that really sticks out. We went to a Red Sox game I think one off day, going and you get five-dollar standing tickets and then find seats to sit in. Classic college kids. But nothing crazy.

Firebirds: I mean it sounds like a good time though. Living with five guys at your host family's home, what was that like, being there for the summer?

CB: It was awesome. The way they had it set up for all of us staying there, we were all based on one level of the house, and we all got to hang out and do whatever. We had a couple of guys who would wake up and go fishing some mornings, some guys slept 'til noon. It was a different style of person for everyone who lived in there. The Radkes were awesome. Whatever we needed they had or would go get. They were at every game. They were a great host family for the five of us. Some things you remember most is just sitting up there and talking to those guys, or talking to the Radkes, just about different parts of the country we had lived in or come from, you know, getting to pick those guys' brains about the colleges they were from. The little pleasant things you remember most is when you actually got to know some of the guys you got to live with.

Firebirds: Like a mini melting baseball pot kinda thing.

CB: Yeah, a little bit.

Firebirds: Thanks for taking time. Best of luck this season. ○

2021 CCBL SEASON REVIEW

CAPE LEAGUE BASEBALL RETURNS AFTER A COVID YEAR OFF

After suffering through the summer of 2020 without any Cape League baseball due to the pandemic, fans rejoiced at its return in 2021, turned out in droves and set attendance records. The league operated under strict protocols developed by its medical staff, ensuring a safe summer. The start of the season was delayed and only 40 games were scheduled, with 9-inning curfews, no make-up games allowed and mandatory days off each week. As a result, not all teams played 40 games and standings were determined by winning percentage. The Fenway Workout was cancelled, as was the All Star Game, although all stars were chosen to honor individual achievements. In the shortened playoffs, Brewster swept both of their series, besting Harwich for the divisional championship and then Bourne for the Arnold Mycock Trophy; it was Brewster's third CCBL title.

Orleans was represented on the East All Stars by OF Chase DeLauter (James Madison), UTIL Peyton Chatagnier (Mississippi), P Hayden Thomas (Texas A&M-Corpus Christi), and P Nick Wallerstedt (Arizona State). DeLauter and P Zack Morris (Arkansas) were named to the final All League team. DeLauter also won the league's top pro prospect award, and 3B Tyler Locklear (Virginia Commonwealth) earned 10th Man honors. ○

30,000 meals.

In the last four years, our Home Runs Against Hunger program has partnered with the Family Pantry of Cape Cod and several Cape Cod Baseball League teams to provide more than 30,000 meals for hungry local families.

We're working to knock hunger out of the park!

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE PEOPLE

John Castleberry, a Tacoma, Washington native, is currently the Northeast Region Scouting Supervisor at the San Francisco Giants. Following one year as a volunteer assistant coach, he was the head coach of the Orleans CCBL franchise for eight years (1984-1991) with a record of 170-164-6 including the 1986 CCBL Championship. His uniform number "1" was retired by the team in 1993. John has the distinction of being the only member of the team to ever have his number retired. He will always be a beloved member of the Firebirds family.

Before coming to Orleans, he was the Assistant Coach for the University of Washington in 1983-84. The following year, he became the first full-time baseball coach at George Washington University. At GW he compiled a 185-158-3 record in seven seasons as well as winning the 1989 Atlantic 10 Conference Championship and advancing to the NCAA Northeast Regional tournament which earned him Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors. In 2001, John was inducted into the GW Athletic Hall of Fame.

He became a regional scout for the Florida Marlins (1991-2000) and later scouted for the Cincinnati Reds (2000-02) and Texas Rangers (2002-04). John served as the East Coast Supervisor for the Philadelphia Phillies from 2004-08 before joining the Giants as the Northeast Supervisor. His honors include being named Cross Checker of the Year in 2008 by the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Association (MASA) and he was inducted into the MASA Hall of Fame in 2021. He also has five World Series Rings: one from the Marlins (1997), one from the Phillies (2008), and three from the Giants (2010, 2012, 2014).

For more than two decades, John has organized the annual East Coast Pro Showcase, a non-profit event run by MLB scouts, proceeds from which benefit scouts in need of financial help as well as scouting associations. The ECPS features top high school underclassmen in a setting where they are exposed to a professional environment and can be evaluated by scouts from all MLB teams.

John met his wife, the former Kate Horan, during his first summer in Orleans, and they celebrated their wedding here. In what was the forerunner of today's Home Plate Shop, Kate designed and sold the first team merchandise when John was the head coach here. She recently retired from a teaching career and is now able to spend more time at their Orleans summer home.

Firebirds: Give me a glimpse of the path to the Firebirds. Fun to ask things you remember and lessons you've taken with you, and stuff like that. It was the late eighties, early nineties, you were the manager there, what was that like for you?

John Castleberry: I was the manager from 1983-1991, so I was there for practically the entire eighties. It was great. There was a group of four - Dave Mitchell, Russ Ford, Dave Mulholland, who was the GM there, and Ed Mooney. I first came out when I was an assistant at the University of Washington in '82, and the next year they had a job opening. Jack Donahue, the local high school coach, great guy, who just passed away, he was the coach of the team at that time and decided to leave. They looked at it and said, this is a college league, we want to get some college guys involved.

Believe it or not, I was twenty-five, they took a chance on me, because I must have impressed them when I was an assistant there the one year, it was really unexpected. It changed my whole life, it basically got my career on track to where it is now, and I went on to become the head coach of George Washington, but it all started in Orleans. I met my wife there, got married there, have a house there now. So, yeah, it's pretty wild.

Firebirds: Wow, twenty-five years old and running a team full of college guys, how was that?

JC: Well, it was good because I could relate to a lot of them, and I wasn't afraid to challenge them. I've always been brought up to believe that you are who you are, and do the best you can. That's the way I coach. I was a better coach than I was a player.

Firebirds: Laughter

JC: I listened well, and picked up bits and pieces that would work for me. Really no problems. I would try to get the kids involved and we would talk. I would also pick their brains about ideas. So, for me, it was huge, I ended up being a college Division One Baseball head coach at twenty-six, because I had decided to leave Washington, and I wasn't going back. I had a couple of offers that first year. It just happened that the GW job opened up late, and I had to get that job, I didn't know if it would be a blessing or a curse. But it turned out great, we went to the regionals for five years. I graduated almost everybody, 98 percent. John Flaherty played for me there, we're still really close friends. He played thirteen years in the major leagues. He's on the YES Network now, so he's done really well.

I look back on it and if I didn't have the opportunity to be in Orleans, I don't know, you never know what direction you would have gone. And we won, Orleans made the playoffs that first year. We made the playoffs every year except for two when I was there, and one of them was decided on the last game of the year, I can't remember which year. But one of them was in '89 and we had a horrible record. I was so upset I wrote on the chalkboard at the clubhouse, "this will never happen again." Wrote it and underlined it hard. It was still up there next year when we made the playoffs. The reason we missed out in '89 was because the team at GW got in the regionals, and the hardest part, as we all know, is the recruiting part. If you're a college coach and also a Cape League coach, you have to recruit two teams, or be prepared to. I was so busy with my team at GW where I was getting paid full time, going to the regionals, that I just didn't have enough time. We just kinda bare-boned it, didn't get through it, it didn't work, but that's all right. It was a good experience both ways. It was a great run, great players. One year, Frank

Thomas and JT Snow were both my first basemen.

Firebirds: The 1988 team.

JC: Yeah, the '88 team. In my opinion, there have been some really good years here in the league, but that might have been the greatest overall collection of talented players I've ever seen. Everybody had somebody, I mean everybody. Every team had somebody - Mo Vaughn, Jeff Kent, Chuck Knoblauch, Tim Salmon, Jeff Bagwell, John Valentin, you could go on and on, everybody had somebody. It was amazing, it really was.

Firebirds: Congratulations, you're in the GW Hall of Fame.

JC: Yeah, that's pretty good. Like I said, it's been a pretty good run, it's more that I've been doing this a long time, and I've been able to acquire a couple of awards.

Firebirds: That's a classic Kelly Nicholson answer, he won his 300th game and I asked what does this mean, he said, "I think it means I'm old."

JC: Yeah, you're right. I just got an award this past year for scouting for a region. I didn't get it when I was thirty-seven, it took me 'til I was sixty-three to get it. But that's all right, that's what it's supposed to be, it's pretty cool. My number being retired in Orleans has been special to me. It's meant more than anything in the world to me. I find it just really cool.

Julie Oxborough-Yankus and Tom Yankus, Dave Mitchell, John Castleberry, Sue Horton, and Kate Castleberry celebrate friendships and a new year.

park. [College] coaches back then didn't make a lot of money. [Cape coaches still don't!] So, she was really creative. She made Orleans Cardinals tee shirts, screen printed them, and she sold them on a table behind the dugout. Nobody else in the League was doing that, nobody. And I look at the league now - everybody wants something from the Cape.

Just being around the players, and seeing how good they are - sometimes you don't realize when you're coaching how good look at it as, I'm coaching a summer league team, I'm coaching in this nice summer league, it's all good. But years later you look back on it, gosh, there were a lot of guys I coached and I'm still good friends today with a lot of them. Chip Hale, head coach at the University of Arizona, played with me for two summers. [Chip was an MLB infielder playing primarily for the Twins and has both coached and managed in the MLB.] Guys like that just become friends as you grow older. When said, wow, that was really cool.

CB: You've been there - the guys you've seen progress - there's going to be that group of guys in the league and on the team, that just in the next even two or three more years, they're going to reach their peak, and you're going to go, "I remember that guy, he was in Hyannis, or yeah, we had him in Orleans, what a great guy." You're going to be at the park and you're going to see him and talk with him. Hopefully they're going to buy you dinner because they have more money, given the new CBA deal. So, it's the relationships, it was a great, great experience.

Firebirds: Watching the MLB drafts, you know the guys. It's really a fun day.

CB: Oh yeah, it is. For me, my guys, the ones I coached, many are out now, they've been out, but some of them have continued, like I mentioned Chip Hale. It's neat to see him when we get together. We laugh about stuff. And just have a good time telling stories, so I think that's a big deal - it's kinda fun. The worst thing for me, and now in scouting, and I do the whole country, is watching either player's kids or sometimes even their grandkids, it's like Holy Smokes, I'm getting really old

“ I was twenty-five, they took a chance on me, because I must have impressed them when I was an assistant there the one year, it really unexpected. It changed my whole life... so, yeah, it's pretty wild. ”

Firebirds: When you think back on your time in Orleans, what comes to mind first?

JC: I met my wife there, so that's number one, that's the first thing. I always tell people my wife was the first one to sell any type of paraphernalia at the players are until they go on, it's almost the big leagues where the speed of the game is so good, but you're involved with it, and it kinda slows down for you. And I think as a manager at that level, when you're doing that type of thing, it's the same process. You you look back on it, when I really look back on it, I coached a lot of guys that were impressive ball-players and impressive people, and we always tried to get good people in there.

Firebirds: Just being able to see - years and years later, like you now, I'm really getting up there. At the same time, it's the relationships, they're the most important thing.

Firebirds: Having been a scout for more than a quarter century now, how did it help being the young coach of really good players later in your career in scouting?

JC: It is why I am what I am today, there's no question in my mind. Watching those players, because part of scouting is comparisons, and so in that respect, evaluating players today, I'll go "that guy reminds me of this guy, that guy reminds me of that guy." And you start rattling off all these names from the past. The other scouts make fun of me, because I'll be rattling off, most of them will go, "Oh, you're Mr. Cape Cod," because I am always using Cape guys as comparisons. I'll look at a guy – he looks like so-and-so, and he looks like so-and-so – it's the swing, the way they pitch, or the way they throw, just the whole thing. Yeah, it's really, how would I put it, it's the bedrock of what I do, it really is, it's the bedrock of what I do.

Firebirds: Having been in the Cape the eighties and nineties, you've got a home in Orleans now, what do you think your favorite part of Orleans is?

JC: The Land Ho!

Firebirds: Laughter

JC: Well, I'm not a beach goer, so I never went down to Nauset really that much, I never went to Nauset at all to be honest with you, at that time my wife's family had a house in Pochet, kinda parallel with Nauset, so if I went to the beach, it was down in that area. But I think it's the people. Again, it just gets back to the people. Back in that day, I'm not saying it's worse or better or whatever now – but the average age in that town is about sixty-two and a half, and so, you'd have a lot of World War II veterans, and CEOs that were veterans, who lived in the town and were retired. They were such great people, that you really were excited to meet a lot of them and be around them, and listen to their stories. I mean Russ Ford, we forget, especially the younger generation – Russ Ford, the league's pitching award is named for him, Russ Ford played at Yale with George [H. R.] Bush. He won the Distinguished Flying Cross, he literally saved a plane that got shot down in France behind enemy lines. And to hear that story, really inspiring. The guy who was our General Manager at that time, Harry Hossfeld, he was the GM after Dave Mulholland had left. Here's a man who played football at Gettysburg College, became a salesman, retired to the Cape, got involved, and was a great GM. He told a story about knocking Vince Lombardi down. Literally knocking him down. Lombardi was refereeing his high school game in New York, and a fight broke out, and Harry was on the bench when somebody grabbed him, so he took a fist to the guy, but it was the referee who was Vince Lombardi. You hear these stories and your eyes just get big because you can't believe, come on, this can't be true, and then you talk to him. And it's true, that's the way they are. So again, it's the people, and the atmosphere, the crowds, were great.

We got the kids' clinics started back then, really got them rolling. When we were doing them, we were averaging, by the time we left, a hundred and something kids a day, and those kids came back. One mother came back one time and thanked me for everything at the clinic. I'm looking at her, you know what I mean, it was just a clinic, and she says "oh no, my son was just valedictorian at Yale, and he remembers every bit of those clinics." Wow, it's the people. It's probably the same for you. The experiences and the people we meet. Sometimes, even in our business, we want to overthink a lot of things. But sometimes the simplest things are the truest. That's always the fact in Orleans. ○

2019 Broadcaster SCOTTY GANGE Wins Another Prestigious Award

The Firebirds were extremely fortunate to have Scotty Gange as our On-Field Reporter during the 2019 season. Scotty's easy-going and positive style combined with a ready smile made him a huge favorite among fans and volunteers with his entertaining player and coach interviews. The Firebirds are pleased to report that this past April, at age 22, Scotty was named Colorado Sports Broadcaster of the Year by the by Colorado Broadcaster's Association, adding to a long list of accomplishments and awards.

Scotty is a native of San Diego and attended Torrey Pines High School where he was a varsity football, baseball, and track star including captain of the football team. He then attended Arizona State University's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication where he received a Bachelor's degree in May 2020 (graduating in three years).

He was hired at Denver's NBC affiliate KUSA-TV 9NEWS as a Sports Reporter/Anchor focusing on high school sports.

Scotty first award was for "Best Smile" in his elementary school during the sixth grade. The accolades have just kept coming since, including:

April 2018

"Rookie of the Year" honors at the end of his freshman year for hosting a show and broadcasting games at ASU's student run radio station.

May 2018

Scotty received an honorable mention for the Jim Nantz award. As a result, he was one of only two college freshmen included in the top 30 collegiate sport broadcasters in the US.

September 2019

He was awarded a Rocky Mountain Emmy Award for "Best Magazine Sports Show" and for the "Best Talent Reel" by The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

May 2020

He was a National Finalist for an award for Storytelling from the Society for Professional Journalists. The story was about a para-Olympic Athlete who had turned his life around after losing an arm in a motorcycle accident.

May 2020

His crowning achievement as a student was receiving the prestigious Jim Nantz award as the nation's top collegiate sportscaster. The award is given by the Sports Talent Agency of America.

Breaking News: Scotty just received the 2022 "Outstanding Media Person for Interscholastic

Sports Coverage" in Colorado given by The Colorado Athletic Directors Association (comprised by Colorado high school AD's)

Scotty will always be one of the 'Birds. The team will continue to follow Scotty's career as it progresses, and hope he will be reporting with either a local Boston station or in a national role in the near future. ○

Orleans is indeed fortunate to welcome back Coach Nicholson for his 21st summer and 17th as manager, the longest tenured Orleans skipper in the “modern era” (1963-present). Kelly (or “Coach K” as he’s known in the pitching fraternity) is a native of Corona, California where he won numerous scholar-athlete awards in both baseball and basketball while in high school. He was a four-year letter winner and two-time all-conference pick during his pitching career at Loyola Marymount University.

After earning his Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from LMU, he began his career teaching mathematics at Loyola High School of Los Angeles, while completing his master’s degree in Education from LMU. He was the head coach of the Loyola HS Cubs for 11 seasons, leading the team to seven playoff appearances and a league title. Kelly then spent three seasons as Loyola Marymount’s pitching coach; each year the Lions won the West Coast Conference title and went to the NCAA regionals. In the summer of 2000, Kelly worked with the Team USA pitching staff in its early preparation for international play. Kelly joined Orleans as the pitching coach in 2001. In 2002, Coach K’s staff had a 2.11 ERA (the best ever by Cardinals pitchers) and in 2004 it led the CCBL with a 2.37 ERA. His 2003 championship pitching staff was lights out, with a 2.36 ERA and a league-leading 397 strikeouts in 401 innings pitched. All told, Kelly’s pitching staffs have led the CCBL in ERA an astounding eight times.

Co-winner of the Hossfeld Spirit Award with Coach Steve DeBlasi in 2004, Kelly became the field manager in 2005. In his first season, Nicholson was the unanimous choice of his fellow managers for the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year Award after leading the Cardinals to a record-setting 30-win season and the championship. Coach K was again named Manager of the Year in 2008 as his squad finished the regular season in first place overall (25-17-2). In 2015, Kelly led the Firebirds to a franchise record of 31-12-1 (.716) and again was named the CCBL Mike Curran Manager of the Year. In 2017, his Birds captured the President’s Trophy once more (29-15), and he received his fourth Mike Curran Award. In 2019, the Birds shared the regular season East title with Chatham. Under his leadership, Orleans has captured five Eastern Division titles and is a perennial playoff contender. In 2019, Kelly attained his 350th win in the CCBL. In 2021, the team commemorated his 20th anniversary with a surprise on-field celebration. Since his arrival in 2001, 28 former players have been selected in the first-round of the MLB draft and 112 former Orleans Cardinals/Firebirds have reached MLB.

It’s no surprise to anyone who knows him that Kelly enjoys the respect, affection and admiration of his players, fellow coaches and colleagues here and around the league, and in the wider baseball community. He’s a favorite around town, having made countless friends over the years. Orleans fans know they’ll see a first-class team on the field every summer with Kelly at the helm. Orleans welcomes a true gentleman and a terrific leader back for his 21st summer.

Kelly lives with his wife Donna in Playa del Rey, CA. He can be found on Twitter @CoachK21 and at knicholson@loyolahs.edu.

Jay Banfield

Mental Performance Coach
Hometown: San Francisco, CA
Twitter: @JayBanfield

Jay Banfield joins the Firebirds for his third summer on the Cape as the team's Mental Performance Coach.

Jay graduated from Stanford University with a degree in Psychology. His research in self-efficacy, a concept which has led to the growth mindset framework, has appeared in the Journal of Sport & Exercise Psychology.

Jay has had a wide-ranging career in the private, public and non-profit sectors. Prior to joining the Firebirds, he helped lead a national youth and workforce development organization, Year Up, that has trained and placed tens of thousands of low-income young adults, ages 18 to 24, into careers in the nation's leading employers such as Google, JPMorgan Chase, Kaiser Permanente and Facebook. Applying the research-validated principles of Year Up, combined with his playing and coaching experience, Jay created a tailored program for the Firebirds. He has his Mental Performance Mastery Coaching Certification.

In the off-season, Jay works with professional and collegiate baseball players, as well as collegiate baseball programs, on mental performance and team dynamics. He also serves as the Chief Officer of Economic Mobility for All Home, an organization designed to disrupt homelessness and poverty in the San Francisco Bay Area. Jay played baseball at Foothill College (CA) and in Europe semi-professionally, and has coached at various levels since 2007. ○

Jim Lawler

Pitching Coach
Hometown: College Station, TX

With more than three decades of coaching experience, Coach Lawler brings an impeccable baseball pedigree to the Firebirds. His resume includes six years as the pitching coach for the Wareham Gatemen (2014-2019).

Originally from Carroll, Iowa, he graduated from Buena Vista College (IA) where he was a pitcher for the Beavers. Drafted in 1972 by the Yankees, he played one season for the Johnson City Yankees.

His coaching career has taken him from Gonzaga, where he was the head coach (1979-80), to Texas El Paso for four years (1981-84) as their head coach. He became an assistant coach at Texas A&M in 1985, and was the assistant head coach from 1989 through 2005. The Aggies boasted a record of 876-433-3 during his tenure, appeared in the NCAA Tournament 13 times and made it to the College World Series twice (1993, 1999). In 2003, Lawler was named the National Assistant Coach of the Year by the ABCA and Baseball America.

Lawler was the head coach at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock from 2005 to 2008, and an assistant with Team USA's 18U team in 2011 and 2012. After his years at Wareham, he was an assistant at Pepperdine (2020-2021).

Coach Lawler will be joined on the Cape this summer by his wife Trish. ○

Phillip Cebuhar

Assistant Coach and Hitting Coordinator, UNC Charlotte
Hometown: Fayetteville, AR
Twitter: @PhillipCebuhar

A native of Springdale, Arkansas, Cebuhar played his college ball for Bossier Parish Community College and the University of Arkansas-Fort Smith (UAFS). In 2018, he became a Graduate Assistant Coach at the University of Arkansas (Fayetteville), where he worked on offensive and hitting operations as well as advanced scouting and analytics. In 2019, he served as a coach for the Cleveland Indians' Dominican Summer League team. Cebuhar became an assistant coach and hitting coordinator for UNC Charlotte in 2021, bringing excellent skill sets and positive energy to that program led by head coach Rob Woodard, a former Cape League player and Orleans coach himself. ○

Kyle Hunt

Assistant Coach and Hitting Coordinator, UNC Charlotte
Hometown: Mission Viejo, CA
Twitter: @k_hunt11

Originally from Mission Viejo, California, Kyle Hunt played his collegiate ball for Nevada Reno. He was the starting shortstop, earning letters from 2012-2015 with 210 career games to his credit, a career batting average of .244 with 203 starts, 37 doubles, eight homers and 86 RBI. In 2015, his senior season, he started in 52 games; the Wolf Pack went 41-15 and won its first Mountain West championship in program history. The next year, he became an undergraduate assistant coach for the team, and was promoted to be the Director of Player Development and On-Campus Recruiting in 2017. Following that, he served as an assistant coach working with the infielders for two years at Irvine Valley Community College. He's been back with Nevada Reno as a volunteer assistant coach since 2019, coaching third base. In 2021, the team won its third Mountain West regular season championship and went to the NCAA Regionals, qualifying for the fifth time in the program's history. ○

Aidan Wirshing

Director of Player Development/Development Team
Assistant Coach, Gardner-Webb
Hometown: Topanga, CA
Twitter: @AidanWirshing

Hailing from Pacific Palisades, California, Wirshing earned his bachelor's degree in English Literature at UC Santa Barbara in 2020, where he served as student manager of the Gauchos' baseball team. During his time there, he was also a broadcaster with UCSB's KCSB-FM, doing play-by-play and commentary for the school's sporting events; he was named the station's Sports Broadcaster of the Year in 2020. Wirshing then played collegiate ball at Santa Barbara City College, prior to serving as an assistant coach and Director of Analytics for the Vaqueros. In the summer of 2020, he was an assistant coach for the Waterloo Bucks of the summer collegiate Northwoods League. He joined the staff at Gardner-Webb in August 2021 as their Director of Player Development. Rounding out his resume, Wirshing is an editor with Blue Wire Podcasts; he plays the guitar and writes music; and he was once a train engineer and conductor for visitors at the Santa Barbara Zoo. ○

Max Fecske

Volunteer Assistant Coach, Pepperdine
Hometown: North Hollywood, CA
Twitter: @Coach_MF44

Fecske grew up in Studio City, California and first played collegiate baseball with Glendale College (CA). As a freshman, Fecske was part of the Vaqueros' third consecutive Western State Conference Championship, a CCCAA Regional win and a CCCAA Super Regional berth. He transferred to Webster University in St. Louis, where he was an All-St. Louis Intercollegiate Conference selection as a left fielder for the Gorloks. His team won their 10th consecutive SLIAC conference championship, an NCAA Division III Central Regional championship and a berth in the NCAA Division III National Championship.

After graduation, Fecske returned to coach at his high school alma mater, Notre Dame HS in Sherman Oaks. The team won the Mission League championship in 2018 and was nationally ranked #1 by Baseball America from February to April that year. He then became a graduate manager at Cal State Northridge in 2019, handling video coordination for the Matadors. During the summer of 2019, Fecske was an assistant coach with the Duluth Huskies of the summer collegiate Northwoods League. He holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Webster, and master's degree in American Studies from Pepperdine, where he served as their graduate assistant in 2020-21, and as the volunteer assistant in 2022. ○

Cole Cook

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Hometown: Los Angeles, CA/Truro, MA

Born in New York City, Cole Cook grew up in Los Angeles and was drafted after his senior year at Palisades Charter HS by the Seattle Mariners in the 36th round of the 2007 draft; he opted to pitch for Pepperdine instead. Following his redshirt year in 2008, he was named to the WCC

All-Freshman team in 2009.

That summer, he pitched for the Firebirds, and ended the season with a 1-2 record, with 8 appearances and 6 starts, 34.1 IP, a 4.72 ERA, 25K and 9BB. In 2010, he earned first team All-Conference honors with the Waves, and was the 5th round selection of the Cleveland Indians (150th overall). Cook spent four years in the Cleveland system (2010-2013), reaching Triple-A in 2012 and 2013.

Since retiring from professional baseball, Cook has spent several years as a private coach in Los Angeles, working with young pitchers who aspire to collegiate and professional careers. In December of 2021, he moved to Truro full time and is pursuing a new career as a wood sculptor. He'll divide his time this summer between the Firebirds and the Outermost Gallery in Provincetown. ○

ELDREDGE PARK

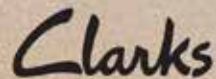

A Classic Ball Field and a Historic Treasure

Ron Petersen

▲ The Hill at Eldredge Park

CANTERBURY LEATHER

Orleans 508-255-4542 • Chatham 508-945-3806

Anyone attending a Firebirds game on a summer evening under the lights realizes what a special place our ballpark is. The partnership between the Firebirds organization, the Cape Cod Baseball League, and the great community of the Outer Cape has resulted in one of the finest places in the nation to watch a ball game. Each year, improvements are made as a result of the hard work of volunteers, contributions from businesses and individuals, and the support of town government. A major league baseball scout once said “this is as good a ball field as you’ll find anywhere, majors or minors”. A Philadelphia sportswriter called our field “A Norman Rockwell painting come to life.”

What might be less obvious to the casual fan is that Eldredge Park is also a historic icon, representing 108 years in the history of a historic town. It is recognized as historically significant by both the Orleans and Massachusetts Historical Commissions. In 1913, Lewis Winslow “Win” Eldredge donated ten acres to the town “in consideration of my affection for and interest in the young people of Orleans and my desire to provide a playground for them.” Thus, the legacy began. Today, the land Win donated continues as a playground as well as the playing field for the top collegiate baseball players in the nation.

Work on the first baseball field at Eldredge Park began in 1915. The diamond was south of where it sits today, and faced to the northwest. The area was heavily wooded, and Eldredge Parkway did not yet exist. In 1927, the town initiated a project to improve the baseball field, and the Cape Cod Baseball League began playing here in 1928. Previously, the Orleans team played on a field near the intersection of Rt. 28 and 6A in the northern section of town. In 1929, the town began referring to the field as Eldredge Park in its Annual Reports, and the name has persisted ever since.

In the latter half of the twentieth century, a number of improvements were made to the park. In 1966, with a $10,000 town appropriation and $20,000 in donations, a bandstand and tennis courts were constructed and the picnic area was established. In 1967, the configuration of the baseball field was rotated 90 degrees, with home plate being moved from left field to where you see it today. New soil was brought in, the outfield was re-seeded, and scores of recessed sprinklers were installed all over the field. Sod was laid in the infield, and the base paths were dug out and packed with six inches of clay. The pitcher’s mound was re-done entirely with red clay, and home plate was stabilized. Eldredge Park was now of Major League quality.

The “New Eldredge Park” was dedicated at the CCBL All Star Game, played at the field on Sunday, July 23, 1967, when the Firebirds were known as the Cardinals. Participating in the dedication were Massachusetts Governor John Volpe, Lt. Governor Francis Sargent, and Attorney General Elliot Richardson. In his remarks, Governor Volpe paid tribute to the community partnership and hard work that brought the remarkable new field about.

In 1970, the Charles F. Moore Jr. Field House and Bandstand was constructed, and by 1971, Eldredge Parkway was under construction. Enhancements continued with stadium lights in 1979, the press box in 1982, and terraced seating on “the hill” in 1985. Annual improvements continue to this day, with the recent installment of new lights, a batter’s eye, and many other enhancements.

When you are enjoying a game at Eldredge Park, remember that the masterpiece in front of you did not just happen. It is the result of a remarkable 108-year journey made possible by an incredible amount of hard work, and the generosity and support of the Outer Cape community. It is a big part of what makes Orleans the special place that it is. ○

REMEMBERING Dave MITCHELL

children and great-grandchildren grow up with his spirit for life, there is no doubt he will always be with them. One thing for sure, they will have many stories to tell and fond memories of their father and grandfather that will be with them forever.

While this has been one of the hardest times, I know that his spirit will live on. I will miss him at our yearly get togethers, like New Year's Eve in Chatham and seeing him when I came up to the Cape to scout for the season! I will always look up on the band shell and relive all the conversations I had with him and ex-Orleans Manager Tom Yankus, on who is the next player to look out for to how the team is doing overall. I will miss his corny jokes and his wry smile. His integrity and honesty can never be denied and his love for life was always there. He had the ability to always put other people first and I personally owe him a lot for where I am today, and words cannot describe my feelings for the loss of my friend.

Dave, you will be missed. We owe you a lot for what you have done for the Cardinals/Firebirds Organization. I know you are up there playing ball, critiquing the game and still being the biggest fan of the Cardinals/Firebirds, baseball and your family.

God Bless the Mitchell family, Sue Horton, all of Dave's friends, the Orleans Firebirds, and the entire Orleans community.

RIP my friend, John Castleberry, Orleans Field Manager and Coach 1982-1991. ○

DAVE MITCHELL

August 8, 1936 – March 9, 2022

The Orleans organization lost a giant with the passing of Dave Mitchell. He had been involved with the team since the 70s and served as its treasurer for over 30 years.

Born in New York City, David W. Mitchell, Sr. spent his early years there before the family relocated to Leesburg, Virginia during World War II while his dad served in the OSS. After the war, Chappaqua,

New York was home, with summers spent at the family homestead in Dorset, Vermont. A standout athlete in high school, Dave continued playing baseball at Union College (where he was once scouted by the Dodgers), and also with the Fort Knox post team when he served in the US Army. Following graduation, he became a CPA and worked for Arthur Andersen & Co. in Hartford, Connecticut before relocating to Cape Cod in the mid-70s and starting his own firm in Orleans with his two partners. He soon found fellow baseball enthusiasts and became involved with the Orleans franchise, a commitment that lasted until his passing. Besides handling the finances, he and Sue hosted players for many years, and he enjoyed following the careers of his summer sons. In his younger years he'd throw BP on occasion, and he loved to take players on golf outings. His was one of the loudest voices in the yard, and he was never shy about helping umpires make the right calls. Dubbed "The Best Man on the Cape" by head coach Kelly Nicholson, he was a role model and mentor, a gentleman and a gentleman, with a generous spirit, irrepressible wit and sense of humor, positive outlook, and an ability to make everyone around him feel special. ○

Over the past many years, if you were a fan of the Orleans Cardinals (Orleans Firebirds) and the Cape Cod Baseball League, you would have run into Dave Mitchell. He had a passion for helping his life partner Sue Horton build the Cardinals/Firebirds Organization. His enjoyment of baseball started with the NY Giants. He loved talking about the old Polo Grounds and of course his favorite player Willie Mays. He often would tell stories about his youth and going to watch his favorite players at the ballpark. He had one of those auras that would brighten your day and would immediately turn your mind from any troubles! Joining the Orleans organization just heightened his love for the game. Over the winter, Dave threw his final pitch and unfortunately passed away.

To me, it is not goodbye, it is reliving all the good times we had together and the huge impact he had on the Cardinals/Firebirds organization. He was one of the Big Four with Russ Ford, Ed Mooney and Dave Mulholland, who really instilled the great mantra and structure that we still see in the team today. They put a big emphasis on the fact that this just isn't a game, that this is family. Coming to Orleans, MA and Cape Cod is a special opportunity to play for one of the top summer leagues in the country, live in a host family's home and meet some of your best friends! It is no small feat to plan a season with all the hard work that goes in from fans, volunteers, coaches, president and GM. Dave spent his summers right by his life partner and Orleans GM Sue Horton, she always had someone to turn to and to bounce ideas off to ensure that the best interest was always with the players, personnel, community, and team!

While watching games with him or just in overall conversation, you could always see his passion for his family. Watching his three daughters, son, grandis a new book by Kristen Waring. It is "set amongst the beauty of Cape Cod. The daughter of a New York baseball tycoon makes her way one night to witness a 19-year-old pitching phenomenon in hopes of telling his story to the world. The young man's career will end that night because of his protective father, who takes hold of her heart in an instant. Working hard to gain the trust and confidence from the family, one mistake nearly costs her everything." Kristen has great memories of watching Cardinals/Firebirds games from early childhood on to adulthood. Her mother grew up in Orleans and she feels fortunate to spend some or all of every summer in Orleans and being on the hill at Eldredge Park. Copies of the book can be purchased at Oceana in Orleans.

JACK DONAHUE
April 13, 1929 - October 16, 2021
A coaching legend at Nauset High School and a revered figure in our community, John "Jack" Donahue (also known as "Mr. D." or "Coach D") was the field manager for the Orleans Cardinals from 1981-1983, adding collegiate baseball to his lengthy resume.

Coach D was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He graduated from Dartmouth College and served in the US Army as a Second Lieutenant. His first coaching position was back at Dartmouth with the freshman hockey team. He then started teaching at Barnstable HS and came to Nauset in 1959, serving there for more than four decades as a teacher, coach and administrator.

Coach D had over 1,000 wins to his credit, coaching soccer, hockey, baseball and, eventually, football as an assistant. He was inducted into the Massachusetts Soccer Coaches Hall of Fame in 2002. Even after he "retired," he could still be found coaching kids. If it involved a ball (or puck) and youngsters, he was there. Well into his 80s, he'd come to the Firebirds' early season workouts, learning new drills he could use with his middle schoolers. The impact he had on countless student athletes cannot be overstated, and he loved watching his players grow and mature into successful adults; he stayed in touch with them long after their playing days. He said that he never really thought about his legacy – he just thought he was lucky to have a great job in a nice place. Turns out, we were the lucky ones. ○

JOSEPH H. BEAUDRY
June 27, 1943 - September 18, 2021
Born in Yakima, Washington, Joe's life journey eventually brought him to Truro, where he ran the Lobster House Restaurant and met his wife,

Margo. After selling the business, they moved to Eastham where he started another career as a house painter and Margo continued nursing. For many years, they were a host family for the Birds, and their home soon became known as the destination for players who were looking for a delicious meal and a fun place to hang out. It was so popular, guys from other teams often showed up. Joe was always good-natured about all the various shenanigans that went on in those days. His generosity was well known and his sense of humor was infectious; he was a wonderful friend to many and a popular figure around town. His obituary noted that he loved fishing, the beach, Elvis, New Orleans and a good margarita, but he also enjoyed being at Firebirds games with friends and family up until his passing, and we'll greatly miss his presence on the hill. ○

LINDA MARY VAN NEST
April 26, 1941 - September 9, 2021
Longtime Orleans volunteer Linda Van Nest passed away last September after a brief illness. Born in Rockville, Connecticut, Linda graduated from Fisher College in Boston, married her high school sweetheart, Jac Van Nest, and became an Army spouse. Jac's career took them all over the world during both wartime and peace, including Japan, Germany, Korea, and many stateside postings. Throughout all the moves, Linda raised their two boys, found things to enjoy wherever she was, and also worked on some of the bases where they were stationed. When Jac finally retired as a colonel, they settled in Eastham, and Linda began working for the Orleans Chamber of Commerce, helping visitors to our community. She and Jac were members of the Home Plate Shop crew for the Birds for ten years, always being available to pitch in whenever the need arose and bringing their endless energy and good humor to whatever task had to be done. We'll miss her warmth, humor, cheerful presence and can-do spirit. ○

During congestion, customers on this plan may notice speeds lower than other customers and further reduction if using 5G/6G/7G, due to data prioritization. Video typically streams at DVD quality (480p). Streaming at over 5G speeds. Unlimited use on US network, not available for streaming & entertainment usage. Unlimited data & text feature for direct communications between 2 personal devices may cost extra. Limited-time offers; subject to change. Postpaid only. Credit approval, deposit, support charges may be required. Monthly Regulatory Programs (SRP) & Telco Recovery Fee (TRF) totaling $3.49 per month (SRP: $0.50 for SRP & $2.99 for TRF) applies. Taxes apply. 10-23% of all. Without AutoPay, $5 in overcharges. May not be combined with other offers. Free Smartphones: For well-qualified customers; plus tax. Contact us before canceling service to continue remaining bill credits, or credits stop & balance on required finance agreements are due (e.g. $299.99 - OnePlus Nord N10 5G). Tax on pre-credit price due at sale. Qualifying credit & new line for each phone required. If you have cancelled lines in past 90 days, you may need to reactivate them first. Up to $100 in bill credits must be active and in good standing to receive credits; allow 2 bill cycles. Max. $10/credit. May not be combined with some offers or discounts. Coverage not available in some areas. Network Management: Service may be slowed, suspended, terminated, or restricted for misuse, abnormal use, interference with our network or ability to provide quality service to other users, or significant roaming. Our device usage is prioritized over other devices, which may result in higher speeds for data used on device. See T-Mobile.com/55 for more details. YAWKEY FOUNDATION

The Yawkeys with Ted Williams at Fenway Park (1953)

Tom and Jean Yawkey's love for the game of baseball was pure, passionate and grew stronger over the couple's seven decades as owners of the Boston Red Sox.

Yawkey Foundation is proud to support the Cape Cod Baseball League's 2022 season marking over 25 years of support and partnership.

Thank you perpetuating all the good that baseball brings to players, fans and host communities across Cape Cod!

2021 Bird Feeders

After every home game, the team is treated to a meal that has been prepared by various host families, committee members, local businesses and organizations, plus other friends. The program begun by Kathy Udall as "sandwich suppers" has expanded its gastronomical boundaries to include everything from pasta dinners to barbecues to sushi, and it really helps the players – whose appetites may exceed their food budgets. It's a big undertaking to feed a group of hungry ballplayers, coaches and bat kids. We thank those volunteers for their generous efforts.

Be MORE THAN A FAN, become a 'Birds benefactor

The Firebirds represent a win-win investment for everyone!

FLOCK TO ICONIC ELDREDGE PARK AND WATCH THE 'BIRDS PLAY BASEBALL

More than 37,000 fans attended Firebirds games in 2021. The Firebirds organization always appreciates your continued, enthusiastic support.

It costs us more than $300,000 a year to operate our team and to enhance historic Eldredge Park (established 1913) as one of the top collegiate summer baseball venues in America. The Firebirds receive 96% of the needed $300,000 from Annual Fan Club Memberships, our Homeplate Retail Shop, our Youth Baseball Clinics, our game advertisers and generous contributions by our fans at games. All funds are raised through the Orleans Athletic Association, a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, by a year-round volunteer staff. The generous outpouring of fan and community support has enabled the team to be financially stable.

The Firebirds receive indirect funding of about $11,000 from MLB thru the CCBL. Unlike most CCBL teams the Firebirds receive no revenue from concessions opting to have this operated by Nauset Schools.

As with all organizations, The Firebirds every year are faced with increased operating costs in almost every aspect of operations as well as always having the responsibility to maintain, replace, and improve every aspect of our operations. Our Fan Club, started in 2011 has become our major fund-raising vehicle and continues to grow in membership. We have reached out beyond Orleans to Eastham, Wellfleet, Truro and Provincetown residents, as well as to our many summer visitors to join our donor team and assist us so we can continue to provide this wholesome, family orientated activity. Attendance at a Firebirds game is the best Cape Cod summer entertainment bargain available and the team continues to be the highlight of many vacations as well as a major source of local pride. Thank you for your annual support of the Fan Club and don't forget to display your Fan Club sticker.

The Firebirds have had many benefactors throughout the years who become engaged as needs have arisen, like our lights, dugouts, and field improvements. We have several special projects that are in planning stages so if you would like to help us or find out more about these special projects, please reach out to members of our executive committee who are listed on page 4 of this yearbook to discuss our upcoming projects. We depend on your generous support for our survival. Please consider a financial donation to the team so this community treasure can continue to provide pleasure and entertainment for years to come.

We also deeply appreciate the many businesses that advertise in this yearbook and take out various sponsorships that support the team and its players. Those businesses understand how the Firebirds contribute vitally to our local economy and we encourage you to visit their establishments and utilize their services. ○

Join the Firebirds Fan Club

Display your support by putting the 2022 Fan Club Sticker on Your Vehicle. Thank you to our generous 2021 donors!

The Orleans Firebirds Youth Baseball Clinic

SUMMER MEMORIES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AGE 5 TO 13 YEARS OLD

OUR CLINIC PHILOSOPHY

The co-ed clinic is dedicated to teaching the fundamentals of baseball. Skills and technical instruction will cover throwing, catching, fielding, hitting and base running. All level of abilities are identified, and all instruction is based on the age, ability and playing experience of each boy and girl. A high instructor-to-child ratio ensures that each boy and girl receives personal attention and direction.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All participants receive instruction from the manager, coaches and Firebirds, as well as a T-shirt, and an opportunity to "run with the 'Birds.'" "Campers of the Week" will be awarded at the end of each week. Clinics are held weekdays from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. beginning June 20 and continuing through July 29 at Nauset Middle School (adjacent to Eldredge Park). Water breaks and a nutrition break will take place daily, so attendees should bring snacks and water, in addition to their baseball gear. Semi-soft baseballs are used for beginners. Required batting helmets will be supplied. Cost is $120/week or $30/day. Sign-up is at 8:30 a.m. at Eldredge Park. You can download the registration form at orleansfirebirds.com.

Beginning June 21 through July 27, there are also specialty clinics in Hitting (Tuesdays 12p.m.), and Pitching (Wednesdays 12p.m., except July 7 which will be on July 8); cost is $40. ○

THANK YOU TO OUR CLINIC SPONSORS

2022 ORLEANS FIREBIRDS BAT KIDS

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS OF THE FIREBIRDS

Steve and Nathan Garran team up to provide the sights and sounds of the Firebirds. Nate first got involved with the then Orleans Cardinals in 2005 as a bat boy. He has continuously volunteered for the team in several ways since then. Nate provides the music at games as well as running the scoreboard. Steve started to volunteer in 2005 as well and has served as a board member of both Orleans and the CCBL, hosted players for several years, served as the President of the team for two years and has been the Treasurer since 2009. Steve became a PA announcer in 2014 and has been the primary voice of the Birds since then. This father son duo doesn't just work in the booth together, they also work together at Steve's CPA firm in Eastham along with Steve's two daughters Allison and Meghan. ○
