CCBL Commissioner
Eric Zmuda

Welcome to the 2023 Cape Cod League All-Star Game at Whitehouse Field in Harwich!

We want to thank the Harwich Mariners – we know they'll be fantastic hosts for what is sure to be an excellent game. We also want to give a big thank you to our returning title sponsor, Milton CAT, for their continued support of this game and the Cape League. As well, thanks to the presenting sponsor of our Home Run Hitting Contest, Delmar Vacation Rentals. And, for the first time in the CCBL, you'll be able to not only watch the home run contest play out on the field, but also view live metrics online provided by league sponsor Baseball Cloud. The how-to info is on page 3 for you to log in and follow along as the data populates during the event!

We'll open up the day with batting practice, at which time you'll also be able to get in line for autographs from our All-Stars (check the schedule inside to make sure you know which team will be signing and which will be taking BP!). The timing will be down to the minute, so make sure you plan ahead! The home run hitting contest follows and it's sure to be an exciting watch for all of our fans. After a couple of special pre-game ceremonies, the day will culminate with the best players the Cape League has to offer showcasing their talents for you, and the multitude of MLB scouts looking for the next player they'll select in an upcoming draft!

Our annual 'thank you' to the All-Star Committee that worked endlessly to prepare this day with the planning, meetings, discussions, and all the work put in to make it a great success. And, a special thanks for all of our Cape League volunteers, from all 10 franchises, that were tasked with responsibilities throughout the day setting up, working the parking lot and the gates, and all the other jobs given to them to ensure we all enjoy this day to the fullest. We're very happy that you are spending the day with us for these special festivities, and appreciate all of our fans' devotion to the Cape League during the entire season. Without your support, we would not be able to put on this great game. The biggest 'thanks' goes to you. Here's to another fantastic All-Star day!

All the best, Andrew and Eric

35 YEARS LATER – 1988 CAPE COD BASEBALL CARD SET

By MIKE RICHARD
CCBL Historian

It was a simple $5 purchase for my baseball obsessed five-year old son, a collection of virtual no-names adorning a set of some 36 cards. Thirty-five years ago, we were spending a week vacationing at the Cape in the summer of 1988. While attending a Cape League baseball game, my son spotted the card set being sold at an Orleans Cardinals game.

“C’mon Dad, they’re only five-bucks,” my son Casey begged, “can I get ‘em?”

I dutifully handed over a five-dollar bill and he walked away happily, holding a handful of cards picturing ballplayers who meant nothing to either one of us.

The card set went into a drawer with the rest of his baseball cards and remained there for about five or six years before he came across them one day.

“Hey Dad, look...” he smiled excitedly, rattling off the names of those players pictured on that 1988 Cape League set put out by Ballpark Cards.

By the mid-1990s these no-names

soon became household names, budding baseball superstars and Casey owned their true “Rookie” cards. How can you put a price tag on your childhood and the collectibles that go along with it?

The $5 investment has proven to make huge dividends, although I know he will likely never part with those cards.

According to a recent scan through eBay, the 1988 Jeff Bagwell card was being advertised for $1,999.00 while the asking price for the Frank Thomas card was $1,249.95 – or best offer!

Why anyone would even consider spending the exorbitant price for either of those cards at those prices is beyond me.

Of the players in the Cape League set, there are two Baseball Hall of Famers – Thomas and Bagwell; four Cape Cod League Hall of Famers – Thomas, Vaughn, Knoblauch and Bagwell; and two Red Sox Hall of Famers – Valentin and Vaughn. Ironically, Valentin never played a single game in the Cape League. He posed for the card and then was drafted by the Red Sox and never appeared in a game for the Hyannis team.

A total of 19 individual players were listed on their own card, while many other future major leaguers were pictured on the team cards issued. Here is a look at each player in that 1988 card set, their Cape League team, followed by their Major League baseball team and career years they played in the pros:

- Jeff Bagwell (Chatham), Houston 1991-2005
- Brian Bark (Orleans team photo), Boston Red Sox 1995
- Erik Bennett (Brewster team photo), California 1995, Minnesota 1996

Comprising the other cards from the set of players who never made it to the major leagues were Harry Ball (Harwich), Dennis Burbank (Brewster), Tom Drell (Bourne), Robert Galewski (Brewster), Jimmie Jones (Chatham), Bob Kiser (Falmouth), Jeff Litzinger (Cotuit), Stephen O'Donnell (Yarmouth-Dennis), Thomas Raffo (Falmouth) and Brian Shaabosky (Cotuit).

Although my son Casey still has the card set, it's doubtful that he'll be able to sell it one-day to cover my nine-year old grandson Theo's college education.

However, it's a lot of fun to look back on those college kids who were on the Cape that summer, and on the verge of future greatness.

They were the true epitome of the Cape Cod Baseball League adage, "Where the stars of tomorrow shine tonight."

15 FORMER CAPE LEAGUERS NAMED TO MLB ALL-STAR GAME

By MIKE RICHARD
CCBL Historian

At this year's Major League Baseball All-Star Game held at T-Mobile Park in Seattle, a total of 15 former Cape Cod Baseball League players were selected to the squad, Ironically, many of them were making their All-Star debuts. Only Chicago Cubs hurler Marcus

Zac
GALLEN

Brent
ROOKER

Stroman, starting National League catcher Sean Murphy of Atlanta and Oakland outfielder Brent Rooker were all-stars during their playing days in the Cape Cod League. Stroman (Orleans 2010-11) pitched one inning for the East All-Stars in the 2010 game, allowing one hit and striking out one for the losing team in its 5-0 loss to the West.

In the 2015 game, Murphy (Orleans 2015) came up in a reserve role for the East and popped out in his lone at bat in his squad's 1-0 win over the West.

Rooker (Brewster 2015-16) was the starting left fielder where he walked and grounded out in his East squad's 8-0 loss to the West in 2016.

There are 12 other former Cape Leaguers who were either voted to or selected to this season's Major League All-Star game who never played in the Cape Cod classic during their time here.

Those former Cape League pitchers selected to the National League squad include Arizona's Zac Gallen (Chatham 2014-15), from Atlanta Spencer Strider (Falmouth 2018) and Bryce Elder (Wareham 2019), and Washington's Josiah Gray (Chatham 2017). Pitchers selected for the American League include

Sean
MURPHY

Pete
ALONSO

Marcus
STROMAN

Toronto's Kevin Gausman (Harwich 2011) and Angels' hurler Michael Lorenzen (Brewster 2012).

New York Mets first baseman Pete Alonso (Bourne 15) was selected to the National League All-Star team for the third time, while Dodgers' catcher Will Smith (Brewster 15) is making his first appearance.

The American League has the most former Cape League position players with Baltimore catcher Adley Rutschman (Falmouth 17) and Orioles' outfielder Austin Hays (Hyannis 15) making their first-ever appearance along with Rooker, while Toronto second baseman Whit Merrifield (Yarmouth-Dennis 2008, Chatham 2009) made his third all-star team.

Reigning American League MVP Aaron Judge (Brewster 2012) of the New York Yankees was voted to the team by the fans, but unable to play due to an injury.

In this season's 3-2 win by the National League, Gallen was the starting pitcher for the Nats pitching one shutout inning, as did Gray. Lorenzen was the lone former Cape Leaguer who pitched for the American League, allowing one earned run in 2/3 of an inning.

American Leaguers Merrifield, Rooker and Hays each had a hit for their squad.

Former champion Alonso and first-timer Rutschman each took part in the All-Star Home Run Derby, but neither advanced past the first round.

Caring. Commitment. Community.

Cape Cod isn't just any community. It's our community. At Cape Cod Healthcare, our mission to provide exceptional, high-quality care for our neighbors and visitors is at the core of everything we do. Our dedicated team answers this call to serve our patients, 24/7/365, with compassion, safety and respect.

We are committed to delivering access to care that enhances the wellbeing of all in our region, from wellness initiatives and preventive screenings to leading-edge technology and specialized, clinical expertise. It is our honor and purpose to put the health of our patients and community above all else, and we proudly embrace our responsibility.

YAWKEY FOUNDATION

The Yawkeys with Ted Williams at Fenway Park (1953)

Tom and Jean Yawkey's love for the game of baseball was pure, passionate and grew stronger over the couple's seven decades as owners of the Boston Red Sox.

Yawkey Foundation is proud to support the Cape Cod Baseball League's 2023 season marking over 25 years of support and partnership.

Thank you for perpetuating all the good that baseball brings to players, fans and host communities across Cape Cod!
