MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the USA Baseball national office is to efficiently conduct the business of the United States Baseball Federation as directed by the Board of Directors, which represents the membership. Our purpose is to support and develop the sport of baseball in the United States at the amateur level, and to select and train teams to represent the United States in select international competitions, including the Olympic Games.

USA Baseball Value Statements

Our efforts to fulfill this mission will be guided by these values:

- Service to the Membership

We understand that our role is to support the membership in meeting the purposes of the Federation.

- Quality and Professionalism

We are dedicated to the highest standards of quality, continuous improvement, competence, professional integrity and honesty. We strive to uphold these standards and promote a culture of accountability.

- Respect, Communication and Teamwork

We understand the value of teamwork and acknowledge our respect and commitment to each other and the enterprise at hand. We understand the importance of timely and accurate communication.

- Development and Training

We believe that the ongoing development of our staff through exposure to new ideas and training will keep our internal endeavors fresh and our services to the membership enlightened.

- Creativity and Vision

We will demand the best of our intellectual capacity by fostering and rewarding vision, creativity and innovation.

- Diversity

We understand that we, and the business in which we are engaged, are part of one world of many parts. We will seek out diverse experiences, backgrounds and perspectives so that all voices are heard.
