A record number eight Commodores players selected for the 2025 Cape Cod Baseball League All-Star Game

July 22, 2025, Falmouth, MA – The Cape Cod Baseball League All-Star Game was held on Saturday, July 19, hosted by the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox at Red Wilson Field.

The best of the East Division completed against the best of the West Division in a game dominated by offense, where the East Division took down the West Division by a score of 13-8.

The Falmouth Commodores had a record number eight All-Star selections on the team, the most of any team in the League. The Commodores Outfielder Antonio Morales was awarded the MVP of the West Division title for the 2025 All-Star Game.

Listed below are the 2025 Falmouth Commodores All-Stars:
- Infielder Kent Schmidt, 1B, Georgia Tech
- Outfielder Maika Niu, CF, University of Arkansas
- Outfielder Antonio Morales, RF, University of Maryland
- RHP Trevor Baumler, Texas Christian University
- RHP Joe Sabbath, University of Rhode Island
- LHP Jakob Schulz, Vanderbilt University
- Utility Adrian Lopez, University of Southern California
- Utility Carl Schmidt, University of California

Niu and Morales earned starts in center and left field, respectively. Kent Schmidt started at first base, and Baumler was given the ball to start the game on the mound for the West Division. The West's field manager for the game was Mitch Karraker of Hyannis. In addition to the game itself, Niu has also earned a spot in the 2025 CCBL Home Run Contest.

About the Falmouth Commodores - The Falmouth Commodores are a collegiate summer baseball team based in Falmouth, MA. They are one of 10 teams comprising the Cape Cod Baseball League, the premier collegiate summer baseball league in the nation. The Commodores play their home games at Arnie Allen Diamond at the Guv Fuller Field in Falmouth (located at 790 Main Street, behind the Falmouth Senior Center). Visit falmouthcommodores.com for additional information.

Contact: Cathleen Ingersoll, Communications@falmouthcommodores.com or (781) 662-5967